Good afternoon,

A month has gone by since you attended our Merchant Cash Advance (MCA) seminar at the Radisson.
That evening, I mentioned that ABFP was not quite finished our business agreement. The terms and conditions of the business relationship have been finalized. The legal process is moving but at the speed of a glacier. The attorneys are making positive progress while diligently protecting all parties' interests. The final agreement is expected to be executed this week!
Hopefully you have not lost interest in this exciting and financially rewarding investment!!
I will be back in communications as soon as everything is buttoned down.

Thank you for your interest and patience,
Dean
