(The following proceedings were held in open court.)

3 THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. Please be seated.
4 Okay. Before we begin this morning, I did receive the SEC's
10:13 5 list of areas that they are going to navigate around in terms
6 of questioning. So I do have a copy of that here. As we
7 discussed yesterday, our plan this morning is to call
8 Mr. Furman. He is one of the remaining witnesses in the SEC's
9 case in chief. All the jurors are present and accounted for,
10:13 10 and I believe we're going to get access. We're going to try to 11 figure that out. I don't think I have you in.

12 IT TECHNICIAN: I don't think I need it this time, do
13 I?

14 THE COURT: I don't know. You may not. I don't know
10:13 15 if you need it for the next witness. If you don't, then don't 16 worry, but I just wanted to let you know that I'm getting that 17 set up.

18 IT TECHNICIAN: Okay.

19 THE COURT: So let's just do a little housekeeping if 10:14 20 we could before we bring our jury out. Anything new that the 21 Court needs to be aware of with Mr. Furman or anything
22 regarding the Fifth Amendment issues that we have been 23 discussing? What's the latest?

24 MS. BERLIN: Here is the latest: We conferred with 10:14 25 defense counsel, and on our list we agree with them that

1 number 48 and number 72 should come out of our list.

2 THE COURT: Okay. 48 and 72. I'll strike those now.

3 MS. BERLIN: And then our plan, we have the request
4 for admissions as one of our exhibits.

10:14 5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MS. BERLIN: We redacted everything that's not on the 7 same chart that the judge has.

8 THE COURT: Got it.

9 MS. BERLIN: And then we will go through those as an
10:14 10 exhibit with Mr. Furman. What we would like to do, but it
11 could be problematic because we -- you'll understand when I saw
12 it. We -- the SEC sent our deposition designations to defense
13 counsel and -- twice, October and November, by the deadline in 14 the scheduling order. We never got back counter-designations,
10:15 15 so we didn't file them because we never heard back.

16 But because -- it was just an idea that I had.
17 Because we know those deposition excerpts don't cross the line
18 with the Fifth Amendment portion and we sent it to them, it
19 would be helpful if we could show those excerpts. Now, we did
10:15 20 not file -- the scheduling order requires us to exchange them,
21 get their counter-designations and file it.

22 We did step one. We did it twice. We sent it to them
23 two times, but we -- but because we never got counters, we 24 never filed it, Your Honor. So if we can't use it, we 10:16 25 understand because we didn't file it. But as far as them

1 having notice and knowing what we would use, they've had it.
2 So I just wanted to put that out there and also let the Court
3 the shortcoming of us using it and for disgorgement.

4 THE COURT: Was the plan -- so I understand, you were 10:16 5 seeking to hopefully file the deposition transcript or you were 6 just seeking to -- what did you intend on doing had there been
7 counter-designations that had been filed? You wanted to admit
8 it as an exhibit for the jury?

9 MS. BERLIN: Yes. Well, we wanted to present -- we 10:16 10 could use his deposition testimony for any purpose. It was 11 videotaped --

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MS. BERLIN: -- and so we would show that video. And 14 the way we planned on presenting it -- and I didn't realize
10:16 15 that we never -- I guess it just didn't get filed because we 16 didn't get the counters back, but our plan was to introduce the 17 request for admission but redacted so they don't see this 18 e-mail. He's not prejudiced.

19 THE COURT: Right.

10:17 20 MS. BERLIN: Go through those with him, not have him
21 assert the Fifth, like, but to say, you took the Fifth to this,
22 you took the Fifth to this and walked through with the 23 exhibits.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

10:17 25 MS. BERLIN: And then to show the deposition excerpts

1 on video, which is a video, which would be his testimony. And
2 then we had a few other areas of inquiry that weren't covered
3 in either. But they're not, like, so extensive. So it was
4 sort of a three-part plan. The RFA, the depositions, so I
10:17 5 could make sure I wasn't overlapping, and then the additional 6 questions we would have at the end that would be sort of live
7 and in the courtroom with Mr. Furman.

8 But again, I didn't realize when we filed our pretrial
9 materials that they weren't filed, and Vicki correctly pointed 10:17 10 out -- she was like, Well, you only file them once we get the 11 counter-designations. So they never got -- we didn't file
12 them.

13 THE COURT: If you don't use -- I mean, obviously I
14 think the redacted RFAs is not a problem. Right? That first 10:18 15 phase is fine. If you don't have the deposition excerpts on 16 video, I would presume you're comfortable going forward through 17 regular questioning knowing that we have the kind of 18 guardrails, right?

19 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely. And what I would do just to 10:18 20 make sure I stay within the guardrails, Your Honor, is I
21 would -- I have the excerpts highlighted so that if we need
22 to -- like, my plan is to make sure that I'm staying within 23 this range, and if we need to impeach, we would turn to the 24 video --

10:18 25 THE COURT: Right.

1 MS. BERLIN: -- which we already have synched, and
2 then my additional questions, which there aren't that many, you
3 know, those weren't too hard to make sure they don't go into 4 the Fifth.

10:18 5 THE COURT: And that may work the best. I mean, we
6 have the excerpts for impeachment purposes. We already have 7 the RFA. We have the areas of inquiry with the highlights. I
8 have a copy of the transcript. I think if we do it that way,
9 that's probably the safest way.

10:18 10 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Yeah.

11 THE COURT: Is there any concern -- so that we're 12 clear on the defense side, court is not going to have the depo
13 excerpts played in the direct examination. I just think, quite 14 honestly, taking aside for a minute just the issue of 10:19 15 non-filing and some of the problems there, I think it's 16 probably easier that those be reserved for impeachment purposes
17 only, and if we have an RFA that's been redacted and we have 18 all the areas of inquiry, you guys have had a chance now to 19 review it, and we've made necessary edits to it. On the 10:19 20 defense side, do we feel comfortable with going forward this 21 way for Mr. Furman's questioning?

22 MR. HYMAN: The only side issue, obviously, is that I
23 think the SEC's obviously more than welcome to ask whatever
24 types of questions they want within the context of the RFAs. I
10:19 25 think we'll probably before -- when we present our case in

1 chief, we'll have to have a more fulsome discussion about what
2 was or wasn't covered in the deposition, because obviously the
3 SEC can ask whatever they want to, opening or waiving whatever
4 objections they have by asking those questions. So
10:20 5 obviously -- and they can use excerpts of his deposition for 6 cross-examination without the purpose, but beyond that, we
7 don't have any real issues with the process.

8 MS. BERLIN: I just heard a possible issue,
9 Your Honor. What I'm hearing is let the SEC go ahead and 10:20 10 proceed as if these RFAs on our double-sided chart are the 11 Fifth Amendment and those ideas are off the table, and then
12 after we present, Mr. Furman -- I'm sorry -- Mr. Hyman wants
13 the Court to then decide -- we would have then lost an 14 opportunity. Let's say the Court decides, you know what, I
10:20 15 think this one is fair game. Then I would have asked about it.
16 I mean, you know, I would have asked.

17 So I think it's important and that's what we were 18 trying to do by sending the highlighted list last week and 19 bringing it up over and over was so we didn't have this happen
10:21 20 in the way it was just proposed.

21 THE COURT: And just so I'm clear, also, I want to 22 make sure, so we're all operating under the same assumption,
23 the idea, at least the Court had yesterday, was that this list
24 would be kind of a guideline for everybody, right? I mean, the 10:21 25 exhibit list was a guideline for everybody, meaning that all of

1 these are topics that were in the RFA when the Fifth Amendment
2 was invoked so you can't essentially change the position on
3 everything that's here. That's always been the idea.

4 So to the earlier point, if the SEC is going to be
10:21 5 guided by this, it applies equally to the defense. The defense
6 cannot get up now and somehow deviate and start answering all
7 the RFAs in live testimony. That's the whole reason why we've 8 ruled this way, is because then that would be extreme prejudice
9 in that the SEC has not been able to get direct answers to 10:21 10 these topics and the amendment that was proposed was done on 11 the eve of trial.

12 So if for some reason questioning Mr. Furman in the 13 defendant's case turned into a free-for-all on all areas, what 14 that would do is that would be essentially the same thing as 10:22 15 circumventing the Court's prior ruling. It would just allow 16 the RFA to be amended on the fly, if you will, because he could 17 start changing his answers.

18 So everyone needs to understand that everything that's 19 here he invoked the Fifth on. So if it's not on here, then
10:22 20 there's not problem. But if it is on here, he is stuck with 21 his invocation, the Fifth. That's how I explained it for the 22 last few days. So I just wanted to make sure we all are guided
23 by the same understanding, and that is, again, the SEC's
24 understanding as well, right?

10:22 25 MS. BERLIN: That's our understanding and that's how

1 we prepared. We did confer with them. We did hear back from
2 them this morning right before the judge came out, and they had
3 an issue with three on our double-sided list. We reviewed
4 two -- we reviewed all three and on two of them, you know, I
10:23 5 think it's questionable. But look, fine, you know, we're 6 trying to be helpful.

7 THE COURT: One at a time. Hold on a minute. That
8 was 48.

9 MS. BERLIN: 48 and 72.

10:23 10 THE COURT: Hold on a second. So what's the response
11 I guess to the parameters?

12 MR. HYMAN: We had responded substantive to almost 13 every single one of the 48 or so or 70 different areas of 14 inquiry to explain with deposition cites as to where and how 10:23 15 there was testimony or topic area or inquiry as to particular
16 subject matter. We're in the process of pulling this morning.
17 Obviously the SEC didn't provide us this abridged list until 18 about 8:30 this morning.

19 We had the full length request for admissions which we 10:23 20 copied and pasted and responded to with specific cites. They 21 clearly did not go through that when they sent this because a
22 lot of them were pretty obvious. For example, one of them said
23 at no point did you tell or disclose Mr. LaForte's financial 24 records or criminal background.

10:24 25 I showed them the page and line where they said: Who

1 did you tell Mr. LaForte about this? Similarly, they go
2 through: Did you tell potential investors about New Jersey and
3 Pennsylvania? We have the page and lines for those that they
4 asked those questions. We're going through this morning kind
10:24 5 of pulling those up with the understanding that the SEC could 6 read whatever request for admission into the record and that
7 where his deposition was -- or addressed a issue on point, then
8 we could obviously raise that and explain and have the Court
9 decide on a question-by-question basis where the deposition
10:24 10 testimony actually did cover one of these areas of inquiry that 11 was otherwise covered in the request for admission.

12 This morning, when we got the list, we thought the SEC
13 would have narrowed it down or at least acknowledged for some 14 of the obvious ones, you know, what -- this one doesn't work.
10:24 15 And Ms. Johnson came in about 9:50, 9:55. So I started trying 16 to go through them one at a time with her.

17 Unfortunately, we didn't have enough time to 18 completely go through and say, look, here is the page and line,
19 here's where we are, this is what was said. And they didn't
10:25 20 otherwise respond to the substantive request we sent them last 21 Sunday.

22 We followed up again I think before this issue came up
23 on either Tuesday or Wednesday and said, Hey, I want to discuss 24 some of these issues. And from there now, they're saying that 10:25 25 we conferred and said there's three of them we agreed to, when,

1 in fact, the majority of these were covered or are issues that
2 we don't otherwise dispute.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So I -- so nothing has been done?

4 Essentially let me summarize. Since yesterday, you've done
10:25 5 nothing, meaning, you have come into court today and both sides
6 have not narrowed the issues. You don't have any of these
7 issues now. He's just told me essentially that you guys are 8 handcuffing yourselves; that he didn't agree with anything of 9 you what you have done here.

10:26 10 He just told me right now that he believes he pointed 11 line and page numbers for each of these items that will show
12 that these issues were covered in the deposition. The only
13 thing that I can think of at this point -- because again, this 14 was an exercise to have been done before court today, and quite 10:26 15 honestly, it could have even been done back when I ruled on 16 this last week, because I tried to take this issue off the 17 table right up front so that we would all understand even 18 though it's been re-litigated, the ruling of the Court hasn't 19 change.

10:26 20 I guess my question to the SEC is at this point is -- 21 and this is the only one that I can think of, Ms. Berlin, that 22 would allow us to move forward -- is if you go forward guided 23 by what we have here in your direct and anything is opened in 24 cross, right, if I get a cross-examination follow-up from 10:26 25 defense counsel that goes outside the scope of these things,

1 then, I mean, it's going to be cumbersome. That's my fear.

2 But I think we're going to have to then have you
3 object, and then I'm going to have to figure out what line and 4 page would support this. So defense is going to have to at the 10:27 5 ready a line and page number every time that there's an 6 objection to show me why, for example -- I'm just going to give
7 you a random example. Point 34: You have known since no later
8 than February 2017 that Joseph LaForte is a convicted felon?
9 That's just a perfect example, right?

10:27 10 Let's say that he asks in cross-examination, isn't it
11 true that you knew this and you disclosed it? You're going to 12 object because you didn't touch on that at the deposition and 13 he invoked the Fifth as to that. And then they're going to 14 then say to me, but, Your Honor, he waived the Fifth and it was 10:27 15 touched on in the depo. And this is how, I think it's going
16 to -- that's what I think is going to happen.

17 MS. BERLIN: Going to happen.

18 THE COURT: Right. That's going to happen.

19 MS. BERLIN: And if I could just respond to some of 10:27 20 the things that were stated. And if I could just, please, have 21 it uninterrupted.

22 THE COURT: Yeah, go ahead.

23 MS. BERLIN: We sent -- when we had a hearing,
24 Your Honor, last week and this issue was raised, we told the 10:27 25 Court we would send them the list. We sent it on December 4th

1 at 10:22 a.m. We sent the list. The same exact thing that the
2 Court is holding, we sent that to defense counsel on -- I'm
3 sorry?

4 What you're holding now -- we gave them the RFA, the 10:28 5 actual RFA, highlighted, the same thing we handed up to the 6 Court yesterday. What you're holding in front of you, I just
7 took out the sentences and put them all on one document front
8 and back. We gave them the highlighted RFA six days ago. Not 9 this morning. Six days ago, highlighted, 10:22 a.m. by e-mail.
10:28 10 Tried to resolve this.

11 I explained to the Court yesterday when we finished
12 that I had a concern because we'd gotten from defense counsel a 13 response -- we got it yesterday. I'm not sure when exactly we 14 got it. It doesn't matter. We got a list from them where they
10:28 15 thought certain things had been waived in the deposition. I
16 provided an example, and I explained to the Court --

17 THE COURT: Listen, hold on. Let me just do this. I
18 get it.

19 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talking) -- six days.

10:29 20 THE COURT: Listen, I can sit here and we can argue
21 over all of the exchanges and the timeline for hours. We don't 22 have that kind of time. We have a jury waiting. We have to 23 move. And I've already discussed this issue a lot. So this is 24 very inefficient. I'm proactive, I want to figure out how I'm 10:29 25 going to fix this and I've got to work it's not wishing what

1 had been done, but it's the best we got. And so the only thing
2 I can think of now, as I stated, is why don't we go ahead and
3 see how this plays out, if it becomes unmanageable, right? If 4 it becomes unmanageable at cross-examination then I will have 10:29 5 to take a recess and figure this out. But for now, I think the 6 best thing to do is go ahead and allow you to ask your direct
7 with these guidelines in place.

8 And then when you object, Ms. Berlin, as I know you
9 will, if they go outside the scope, I'm going to ask that --
10:29 10 and I think we have a team here ready to go, I'm going to ask
11 that the defense point me to the deposition where they believe
12 that there's an answer. I'm a quick study and a quick read.
13 So if you go on asking questions about certain of these topics
14 and you believe they were covered in the depo, you just have to 10:30 15 be immediately ready to tell me, Judge, line and page, and I
16 can do that with the jury present, and I can quickly check, and 17 if indeed it was covered and it's open season on that question,
18 you can ask it on cross-examination. That's the only way I can 19 think about it. And my hope is that I'll have at least 10:30 20 familiarized myself with enough of the depo and all the 21 objections that when you call Mr. Furman in your case in chief,
22 I'm going to be able to do the same thing when the SEC goes up
23 and does their cross-examination or when they object to 24 questions in direct.

10:30 25 I mean, I just don't know any other way to do this. I

1 mean, and this is the only way we can do this at this point.
2 We can't sit here and try to figure out any other way. It's
3 the only way I can figure it out.

4 MS. BERLIN: I agree. It's just -- I just want the 10:30 5 Court to know, we tried. We provided it six days ago. We 6 tried to do this.

7 THE COURT: Listen, the whole point was to avoid this,
8 but I guess we couldn't get it done. And so we'll do our best
9 to navigate this on what we've got. This is our primary
10:31 10 objective today, to get this testimony in the morning from 11 Mr. Furman. I think I can do enough with what I have to try to 12 make the contemporaneous rulings. My hope is that it doesn't 13 get too chopped up. You know, we'll go from there.

14 MS. BERLIN: I think what we'll do then is, we're
10:31 15 going to do a slight deviation. We're going to put in the RFA
16 unredacted because he still took the Fifth then --

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MS. BERLIN: -- and then we'll only present
19 substantive testimony about the things that he -- that we asked
10:31 20 about in our deposition. So yeah, that's --

21 THE COURT: (Cross-talk) -- that's the same thing.
22 That's fine. Okay.

23 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. Okay. I just wanted to let them
24 know what the plan was, so they're aware as a courtesy. Thank 10:31 25 you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: That's fine. That's fine.

2 Does defense have any other issues? I think we have
3 the game plan. I just need you guys to be ready that if there
4 is an objection from Ms. Berlin that he is now changing his 10:31 5 Fifth Amendment indication on the fly, in violation of my prior 6 ruling, that you guys point to where it is in the depo that I
7 have in front of me that he actually talked about that, and
8 that way I can make a quick ruling. That's the best way to do
9 it.

10:31 10 MR. HYMAN: That's fine, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: That's the only way I can't think of it.
12 I mean, I can't think of any other way to do it in an effective
13 way. And so if you guys can't point me to a depo area that 14 would touch on it, then I'm going to be stuck, and I'm going to 10:32 15 have to go ahead and sustain objections. So you have to show
16 me where you covered it, so I know that you have an ability to 17 ask the question.

18 MR. HYMAN: Very well, Your Honor. The only thing I
19 can say, just because Your Honor has expressed frustration with 10:32 20 my team in general throughout the course of trial, that we did
21 respond to the SEC the following day, on December 6th, after 22 they sent us the (inaud.).

23 THE COURT: All right. So let's go ahead and get our 24 jury.

10:32 25 If you could, Rita, let's go ahead and bring them in,

1 please.

2 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, as we go through the request
3 for admission -- we have an extra hard copy.

4 THE COURT: You know what, I have it. I have a copy,
10:33 5 I have it here that you gave me yesterday. It should be P 553,
6 right?

7 MS. BERLIN: Is it okay if I just put it on the 8 witness stand now, so he has it handy?

9 THE COURT: Yes, that's fine. I do have it in front
10:33 10 of me.

11 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

12 THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. Please be seated.
13 Good to see you all. Happy Friday. Thank you, guys, for being 14 here on time, and as always, for being so diligent and giving
10:34 15 us your undivided attention as you've done this week.

16 So today is our last day of the week, obviously, with 17 testimony. We are going to go ahead and allow the SEC to 18 finish presenting their case, and then we're going to go from 19 there and take some next steps later today and we'll walk you
10:34 20 guys through where we're going to go next.

21 But I want to go ahead, so we don't waste any more
22 time, and allow the SEC to call their next witness. You-all
23 have your notepads, I can tell, and we're ready to go. Okay.

24 So with that being said, the SEC, you will please call
10:34 25 your next witness.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor. We call
2 Michael Furman.

3 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Furman, we will swear you
4 in.

10:35 5 Thereupon,

6 MICHAEL FURMAN,
7 having been duly sworn by the court reporter, testified as
8 follows:

9

10 DIRECT EXAMINATION

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Good morning, Mr. Furman.

13 A. Good morning.

14 Q. Do you hold any professional licenses?

10:35 15 A. I still hold my -- it's a 215, my insurance license.

16 Q. Have you ever heard any other licenses?

17 A. I've previously held Series 7 and 66 securities licenses,
18 many years ago.

19 Q. And what is a Series 7 license?

10:35 20 A. I believe it's just a general securities broker.

21 Q. You have to take an exam to get your Series 7 license;
22 isn't that correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And that exam tests your general knowledge with the 10:36 25 securities laws; would you agree with me?

1 A. At that time.

2 Q. And what year was that?

3 A. I think 2004.

4 Q. And so that exam covered the Securities Act of 1933?

10:36 5 A. I'm going to presume so. It was very broad.

6 Q. And it also covered the Securities and Exchanges Act of 7 1934?

8 A. I couldn't say specifically. It was about over a 9 thousand-page book, but...

10:36 10 Q. But you studied for those exams -- for that Series 7 exam?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And you passed the exam?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And so you had knowledge of those -- the Securities Acts,
15 correct?

16 A. At that time.

17 Q. Yes?

18 A. At that time. Every year the test changed.

19 Q. Right. But the Securities Act of 1933, you would agree
10:37 20 with me, was entered, would that be more than 80 years ago?

21 A. All I can speak to is when I studied in 2004. And if it
22 changed since then, I wouldn't know actually. That's what I 23 mean.

24 Q. It's been the same for 80 years.

10:37 25 And the Series 66 test, what is that?

1 A. I know it was a combined, I think 63 and 65, I think they
2 called it the "blue sky," which I believe it was a different
3 state, and invest -- IAR investment advisor, I think it was.

4 Q. And that's another license that requires you to take an 10:37 5 exam?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And you're taking a test about the securities laws?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And you passed it?

10:38 10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. And why do you no longer hold those licenses, your Series 7
12 and your Series 66 license?

13 A. That was back -- right out of college I got hired by 14 Prudential Financial, and one, it was required at that time to 10:38 15 be a financial advisory with them, as the insurance license
16 was. And my practice -- I left them fairly quickly, and my 17 practice evolved. I was not using securities. I was 18 concentrating on insurance.

19 Q. Okay. And so when did it -- when did your licenses expire?

10:38 20 A. I don't know the exact date. I want to say it was 2007 or 21 '8, something like that.

22 Q. And so you haven't been registered as a broker or 23 investment advisory --

24 A. Since then.

10:38 25 Q. -- since then, correct?

1 A. Whenever that lapsed or -- yes. Correct.

2 Q. More than ten years ago?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And you have a bachelor's degree in banking and financing?

10:39 5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And from what school?

7 A. Northridge University.

8 Q. And you're currently a resident of West Palm Beach,

9 Florida?

10:39 10 A. Correct.

11 Q. I'd like to show you what we have marked as P 553. It's in 12 front of you at the witness table already in hard copy form.

13 Do you see it?

14 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

10:39 15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Are these your answers to the SEC's request for admissions?

17 A. Honestly, at that point I was following the attorney that 18 the receiver referred me to --

19 Q. I'm not asking that. I'm just asking, is this a copy of 10:39 20 your answer to the SEC's request for admissions?

21 A. It's what my attorney at that time submitted.

22 Q. Would you turn to page 16. It says page 16 of 16.

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Is that your signature?

10:40 25 A. Looks like a digital version of it, yes.

1 Q. Do you see above it, it says: Sworn under penalty of
2 perjury this 9th day of August 2020 by Michael Furman?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And then we see a signature line for Michael Furman with 10:40 5 your signature, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So is P 553 your response to the SEC's request for
8 admissions?

9 A. That's what my attorney -- yes, that's -- I followed his 10:40 10 advice.

11 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to introduce this.

12 THE COURT: Yes, that will be admitted at this time.

13 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

14 MS. BERLIN: Can we publish 553, please.

10:41 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. We're going to start on Pdf page 3.

17 THE COURT: Can you all see that, folks?

18 THE JURY: (Nodding).

19 THE COURT: Okay.

10:41 20 MS. BERLIN: Thank, you Kevin.

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. We're going to start with number 3.

23 Do you see the SEC asked you here in item number 3:

24 Admit that you formed Fidelis in about April of 2018.

10:41 25 Do you see that?

1 A. Yes. On the screen.

2 Q. And do you see that your response says: See response to
3 request 1 supra, Fifth Amendment?

4 Do you see that?

10:42 5 A. That's what it states it there.

6 Q. And if we can just scroll up to the response to the Request
7 For Production -- I'm sorry -- the response to the request for 8 admissions, response number 1. It's on Pdf page 2 at the very 9 top. So we're just going to turn to what you cited as your 10:42 10 answer.

11 And do you see here -- we won't read all of this into 12 the record, but do you see where you're asserting on the advice
13 of counsel: I exercise my rights against self-incrimination
14 granted by the Fifth Amendment to the United States

10:42 15 Constitution and under Article 1, Section 9 of the Florida
16 Constitution, collectively Fifth Amendment rights?

17 Do you see that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And so you asserted your Fifth Amendment rights to request
10:43 20 for admission number 3 about whether you formed Fidelis in 21 April of 2018 and did not give a substantive response to that
22 question.

23 Do you agree?

24 A. No, I don't agree. But under the advice of counsel, that's 10:43 25 what he did at that time.

1 Q. Mr. Furman, we'll go back to what you signed.

2 MS. BERLIN: Can we please pull up the response to
3 request for admission number 3.

4 THE WITNESS: That was a two-part question.

10:43 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. Do you see here the SEC send the request to you: Admit
7 that you formed Fidelis in about April 2018.

8 And the response says: Response: See response to 9 request 1, supra, Fifth Amendment.

10:44 10 Do you see that?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And we already established that you signed this document
13 under penalty of perjury.

14 Do you recall that?

10:44 15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And so this was your answer to this request for admission.
17 You asserted the Fifth Amendment and did not respond; is that
18 correct?

19 A. At that time under counsel, yes. You said "since then,"
10:44 20 and I don't agree with that part.

21 Q. Mr. Furman, if you could just answer the questions that I'm 22 asking, please. I'm just asking if this was your answer in the 23 request for admission. Do you agree with me? We're looking at 24 it together.

10:44 25 A. Exactly. Correct.

1 Q. Let's turn now to request number 4. Do you see that the
2 SEC asked you to admit that Fidelis operated from an office in 3 West Palm Beach Florida and you asserted the Fifth Amendment in 4 response to that and did not give a substantive answer in your 10:45 5 sworn response to the request for admissions?

6 A. I see that.

7 Q. If we could please turn to request for admission number 5.

8 And so on August 9th, 2020, which you remember we 9 looked at your signature block for this document?

10:45 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And the date was August 9th, 2020?

12 A. I believe so, yeah. Yes.

13 Q. Yes. Okay. So on August 9th, 2020, you responded to the 14 question: Admit that you were the president of Fidelis from at 10:46 15 least April 2018 until at least July 24th, 2020.

16 Do you see that?

17 A. Correct. Correct.

18 Q. And your sworn response on August 9th, 2020 was that you
19 were asserting the Fifth Amendment and not providing a
10:46 20 substantive answer, correct?

21 A. By advice of counsel, yes.

22 Q. So we read in what you were restating in your 23 Fifth Amendment in response to number 1. Let's move on to 24 number 6. The SEC asked you to admit that you were a signatory
10:46 25 on the Fidelis bank account at all times prior to July 27th,

1 2020.

2 Do you see that?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And do you see that your sworn response on August 9th, 2020
10:47 5 was that you asserted the Fifth Amendment and did not provide a 6 substantive response?

7 A. On that date by counsel, yes.

8 Q. If we could please turn to number 7. You see the SEC asked
9 you to admit that from about April 2018 until no later than 10:47 10 July 24th, 2020, you operated Fidelis, and you asserted your 11 Fifth Amendment rights and refused to provide a substantive
12 response, correct?

13 A. By advice of my counsel at that time, yes.

14 Q. The SEC asked you to admit that Fidelis is a pooled
10:47 15 investment fund in request number 8. And you asserted the 16 Fifth Amendment and refused to respond to that question as 17 well, correct?

18 A. By advice of counsel on that date, yes.

19 Q. The SEC asked you to admit in request number 9 at the top 10:48 20 of Pdf page 4 that Fidelis was created for the purpose of 21 raising money through the offer and sale of promissory notes.

22 Do you see that?

23 A. I see that.

24 Q. And in August of 2020, you responded by asserting your 10:48 25 Fifth Amendment rights and refusing to answer, correct?

1 A. Under advice of counsel on that date, yes.

2 Q. In request number 10, the SEC asked you to admit that from
3 April 24th, 2018 until July 24th, 2020, defendant ABFP
4 Management provided management services to Fidelis, correct?

10:49 5 A. That's what it states.

6 Q. And you responded by asserting your Fifth Amendment rights
7 against self-incrimination and refused to answer substantively,
8 correct?

9 A. At that time under advice of counsel.

10:49 10 Q. Next, in request number 11, the SEC asked you to admit that 11 a document attached to these requests as Exhibit A was a true
12 and correct copy of a management services agreement between 13 Fidelis and ABFP, correct?

14 A. That's what it states.

10:50 15 Q. And if we could please turn to Exhibit A. Why don't we 16 come back to Exhibit A and we'll move forward -- or just one
17 moment, Mr. Furman. I apologize. We're going to come back to 18 this so we don't waste anybody's time. I'm sorry about that.

19 MS. BERLIN: Actually, Your Honor, can I just use the 10:52 20 ELMO?

21 THE COURT: Sure.

22 (Thereupon, there was a brief discussion off the record.)

23 MS. BERLIN: Is it possible to see on this screen
24 what's on the ELMO?

10:53 25 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: You moved that. So we were

1 having problems with it.

2 (Thereupon, there was a brief discussion off the record.)

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. And do you see that here we have Exhibit A showing -- it's 10:54 5 the management services agreement, and it this should be 6 attached to the hard copy that I gave you. If you just want to 7 confirm what Exhibit A is?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Do you see that?

10:54 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And Exhibit A states it's a management services agreement
12 between ABFP Management Company and Fidelis Financial Planning.

13 Do you see that?

14 A. Correct.

10:55 15 Q. Do you see it?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And do you see the signature block for Michael Furman on 18 your screen?

19 A. Yes.

10:55 20 Q. And in response to the request about whether or not that 21 was a true and correct copy of a management agreement that you
22 had with ABFP Management, you asserted your Fifth Amendment
23 rights against self-incrimination and refused to answer,
24 correct?

10:56 25 A. By advice of counsel on that date.

1 Q. And next, the SEC asked you to admit that since no later
2 than August 9th, 2018, Fidelis had raised more than 5.8 million
3 dollars from investors through the offer and sale of promissory
4 notes, correct?

10:56 5 A. I see it written.

6 Q. And you responded by asserting your Fifth Amendment right
7 against self-incrimination and refusing to testify through this
8 request for admissions, correct?

9 A. That's what my attorney did on that date.

10:56 10 Q. Sorry. We have established that you signed this under 11 penalty of perjury, Mr. Furman.

12 Do you remember that?

13 A. Yes, under advice of counsel on that date.

14 Q. Yes, but you do agree with us that you signed this under 10:57 15 penalty of perjury on page 16 of Exhibit 553?

16 Do you recall that?

17 A. On that date, yes.

18 Q. I wonder if we could look at number 13. The SEC asked you
19 to admit that Exhibit B was a true and correct copy of the 10:57 20 Fidelis Form D filing that you signed and filed with the 21 Securities and Exchange Commission in May of 2018.

22 Do you see that?

23 A. I do.

24 Q. And if it's easier, this is attached to your hard copy. It
10:57 25 might be easier to flip to -- if you want to see it in full.

1 But do you see that Exhibit B to your request for admission is
2 a filing with the United States Securities and Exchange
3 Commission?

4 Do you see that?

10:58 5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And do you see where it states it's for Fidelis Financial
7 Planning?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And that it's in West Palm Beach, Florida?

10:58 10 A. That is correct.

11 Q. And that you are listed as the related person for Fidelis?
12 Do you see that?

13 A. I do.

14 Q. And that you're listed as the executive officer?

10:58 15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. And do you see that this form asks for what type of 17 industry group Fidelis is and the box is checked for a pooled
18 investment fund? Do you see that?

19 A. I see it.

10:59 20 Q. And do you see where this form asks whether the issuer,
21 meaning Fidelis, intends the offering to last for more than one
22 year and the box is checked "no"? Do you see that?

23 A. I see that.

24 Q. And do you see where this same form with the SEC asks
10:59 25 whether the offering is made in connection with a business

1 combination transaction such as a merger or acquisition or
2 exchange offer, and the box is checked "no"?

3 A. I see that.

4 Q. Do you see where in this form filed with the Securities and 11:00 5 Exchange Commission, the box is checked, indicating that the 6 sales commissions for the offering will be zero?

7 A. Where it says "estimate"? Yes, I see that.

8 Q. We'll read it exactly.

9 It says: Provide separately the amount of sales
11:00 10 commissions and finders' fees expenses, if any. If the amount
11 of an expenditure is not known, provide an estimate and check
12 the box next to the amount.

13 Do you see that?

14 A. I see that.

11:00 15 Q. And do you see that on this form filed with the Securities
16 and Exchange Commission, it was represented that the sales
17 commissions were estimated to be zero?

18 A. I see that.

19 Q. Do you see an item number 16 on request for admission
11:01 20 Exhibit B that this form requires -- it states: Provide the 21 amount of gross proceeds of the offering that has been or is 22 proposed to be used for payments to any of the persons required
23 to be named as executive officers, directors or promoters in 24 response to item 3 above.

11:01 25 Do you see that?

1 A. I do.

2 Q. And do you see item 3 above, the related person listed on
3 this form is Michael Furman?

4 A. I do.

11:02 5 Q. And do you see -- if I flip it over, there's no one else
6 listed. Do you see that?

7 A. Yeah. I don't see anybody else listed. Yes.

8 Q. It's only Michael Furman, correct?

9 A. Yes.

11:02 10 Q. And so in this form -- this filing with the SEC, the SEC is 11 told that no proceeds, an estimated amount of zero will go to 12 the person named as an executive officer in item 3, in other
13 words, you.

14 Do you see that on Exhibit B to your request for 11:02 15 admissions?

16 A. I see number 16. Yes.

17 Q. I'm sorry, I couldn't hear you.

18 A. Yes. I see number 16.

19 Q. And we also see that the Exhibit B to your request for 11:03 20 admissions states that it is -- the issuer is Fidelis Financial 21 Planning, LLC. It includes a typed signature for Michael C.
22 Furman. The name of the signer is Michael C. Furman. It
23 states that Michael Furman's title is president. And it states
24 that the date of filing is May 3rd, 2018.

11:04 25 Do you see that?

1 A. I see it.

2 Q. And in response to the question of whether or not Exhibit B
3 was a true and correct copy of the Form D filing, you signed
4 and filed with the SEC, you asserted your Fifth Amendment right
11:04 5 against self-incrimination and refused to provide any further
6 answer, correct?

7 A. Up and to that date under advice of counsel, yes.

8 Q. Do you see that next the SEC asked you to provide a sworn 9 admission that Exhibit C to your request for admission was a
11:04 10 true and correct copy of the Fidelis amended form filing that 11 you signed and filed with the SEC in May 2019?

12 Do you see that?

13 A. I see it. There is no C in the packet.

14 Q. Thank you.

11:05 15 I've got three pages of it, if it's missing one.

16 Do you see that it states in the number 15: Admit
17 that Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of the Fidelis
18 amended form filing, you signed and filed with the SEC in May 19 of 2019?

11:05 20 A. I see that.

21 Q. And so that's the same as the one we just looked at but 22 reference C.

23 Do you agree?

24 A. Other than the letter changing, yes.

11:06 25 Q. Yes. And then in the packet in front of you you'll see --

1 you see Exhibit D, which is a filing with the United States
2 Securities and Exchange Commission where the issuer is Fidelis
3 Financial Planning.

4 The issuer is Fidelis Financial Planning in West Palm
11:06 5 Beach. And once again, the related person is Michael Furman.

6 Do you see that on Exhibit B?

7 A. I do.

8 Q. In this amended Form D filing with the Securities and 9 Exchange Commission, do you see that Fidelis is still 11:06 10 identified as a pooled investment fund?

11 A. I do.

12 Q. And this is an amendment. Do you see that on the page,
13 amendment with an X?

14 A. I see it says amendment, yes.

11:07 15 Q. And do you see that it also says that the date of first
16 sale is August 9th, 2018?

17 A. That's what it states.

18 Q. Here it states that in Exhibit B -- or I'm sorry --
19 Exhibit D in the amended version, do you see that it states
11:07 20 that the issuer in Fidelis intends this offering to last more
21 than one year?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And still it asks in item 10 whether the offering is being
24 made in connection with the business combination transaction
11:08 25 like a merger, acquisition or exchange offer. And the box is

1 checked no.

2 Do you see that?

3 A. I see that.

4 Q. And do you see where in this amended Form D filing with the 11:09 5 SEC it states that the securities have been sold by Fidelis to 6 two people as of the date of filing?

7 A. That's what it says.

8 Q. And that the sales commission is estimated to be zero?

9 A. That's what it states.

11:09 10 Q. And we see the same thing we did before, item 16, that the 11 executive officer, we looked at in item 3, which was you, would 12 receive an estimated zero dollars.

13 Do you see that?

14 A. I see it.

11:09 15 Q. And this form filed with the Securities and Exchange
16 Commission as Exhibit D lists Fidelis Financial Planning as the 17 issuer with a signature by you, Michael Furman, on the page in 18 front of you. And it also, this document states that Michael 19 Furman's title is president and that the date of filing is 11:10 20 May 10th, 2019.

21 Do you see that?

22 A. Yes. That's when my attorney filed it.

23 Q. And do you see that going back to the request for 24 admissions, which is P 553, the SEC asked you to admit that in 11:11 25 May of 2019, Fidelis had sold its promissory notes to more than

1 two individuals. And in response to that you asserted the
2 Fifth Amendment and your privileges against self-incrimination
3 and refused to answer substantively.

4 Do you see that in item 16?

11:11 5 A. Under advice of counsel up until that date, yes.

6 Q. What is the Bernardo Revokable Trust?

7 A. I believe it's a longer name than that, but I believe
8 you're referring to Steven and Leslie Bernardo's -- probably 9 their living trust.

11:12 10 Q. And how do you know them?

11 A. They are clients of mine.

12 Q. Did they invest in -- or did Fidelis issue promissory notes
13 to them?

14 A. Correct.

11:12 15 Q. What about the Tax Group, Inc. of Palm Beach?

16 A. That's not a -- Tax Group, Inc.?

17 Q. The Tax Group of Palm Beach. I believe it's Roland Manuel.

18 A. It's Palm Beach Tax Group. But, yes.

19 Q. Oh, thank you so much. Palm Beach Tax Group.

11:12 20 Roland Manuel, is he another person who was issued a
21 Fidelis promissory note?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. What about Nicholas Sandoval?

24 A. At some point, correct.

11:13 25 Q. Excuse me?

1 A. From my recollection, at some point, yes.

2 Q. Did Nicholas Sandoval, was he issued a Fidelis promissory
3 note?

4 A. I believe it was in his name. Like I said, I don't have 11:13 5 anything in front of me. But yes.

6 Q. What about Celeste Zehren?

7 A. At some point in her name or IRA, correct.

8 Q. She invested -- she received a Fidelis promissory note by 9 using her IRA money; am I understanding?

11:13 10 A. I don't have anything in front of me to refresh my memory.

11 Q. Do you know if she -- if Fidelis issued her a promissory
12 note?

13 A. Correct. At some point. I don't know if it's IRA or not 14 qualified, off the top of my head.

11:13 15 Q. Understood. What about the Maloney revocable trust, Dale
16 and Sandra Maloney?

17 A. I'm not sure of the exact name of the trust, but yes.

18 Q. They were also issued Fidelis promissory note?

19 A. In some name, yes, trust or individual.

11:13 20 Q. What about Ronald Clayden?

21 A. I believe so.

22 Q. Okay. What about Betty Brabban?

23 A. Brabban, correct.

24 Q. Also someone you issued a promissory note?

11:14 25 A. Correct.

1 Q. What about Frank Nash?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. He was issued a promissory note?

4 A. Yes.

11:14 5 Q. Steven Gibson, was he issued a Fidelis promissory note?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Fred Smith, was he issued a promissory note?

8 A. I believe so.

9 Q. Eugene Sheldon, was he issued a promissory note?

11:14 10 A. At some point, yes.

11 Q. Gary DeLucco, was he issued a promissory note?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Wadie or Wadie Khoury?

14 A. Wadie, yes.

11:14 15 Q. Thank you. Wadi.

16 He was issued a promissory note?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Nicholas Pancoast, also issued a Fidelis promissory note?

19 A. At some point, yes.

11:14 20 Q. William Altier Trust?

21 A. Don't remember the exact name, but yes.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. Am I supposed to be looking at a list here or no?

24 Q. What about Anthony Marano?

11:15 25 A. I know he's a client of mine. I can't remember everybody's

1 investments off the top of my head, but yes.

2 Q. Mark Freedman?

3 A. Another client of mine at some point.

4 Q. Millen Livis Trust?

11:15 5 A. Millen, yes.

6 Q. Steven and Leslie Bernardo Revokable Trust?

7 A. We covered that, yes.

8 Q. Thank you.

9 Leslie Goldberg?

11:15 10 A. She's a client. I don't remember exact investments, but
11 yes.

12 Q. Pamela Summers?

13 A. Yes. Well, in some form.

14 Q. William Altier Trust?

11:15 15 A. We covered that. Yes.

16 Q. Donna Chlapperini?

17 A. Chlapperini. I believe -- again, I know she's a client.

18 Q. Okay. Steven Decker?

19 A. He's a client.

11:16 20 Q. Someone who was issued a promissory note?

21 A. Off the top of my head, I believe so. I know he's a
22 client. I don't remember every investment of every investor.

23 Q. Russell Meyer?

24 A. Yes.

11:16 25 Q. Mark Reikes?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Roland Manuel?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Rickey and Elizabeth McIntyre?

11:16 5 A. They are clients.

6 Q. Were they issued a promissory note?

7 A. I believe so. But again, without a list I can't a hundred
8 percent. But yes. I believe so.

9 Q. Fred Smith?

11:16 10 A. I think we covered him. But yes.

11 Q. Henry Barth?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Russell Meyer?

14 A. Again, yes.

11:16 15 Q. Jay Palazola?

16 A. Yes. I believe so.

17 Q. I'm sorry, that was a long list. Sorry about that. It was 18 a lot to go through.

19 Let's look back, again, at request for admission that 11:17 20 asked you whether Exhibit B was a true and correct copy of your 21 Form D filing. And you recall you asserted your Fifth
22 Amendment rights when asked about this document, correct?

23 A. Under advice of counsel up until that date.

24 Q. And that was filed with the commission in May 2018.

11:18 25 Do you remember me showing you your signature block?

1 A. One of the documents, yes. I did not file it, so I can't
2 recall.

3 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, objection. The request for 4 admissions was asserted the Fifth Amendment on whether he filed
11:18 5 it.

6 THE COURT: Yes. That's going to be sustained. We'll 7 disregard that last response.

8 Go ahead.

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

11:19 10 Q. Just one moment.

11 And there it is. You can see it's May 10th, 2018, was 12 the date of that Form D filing that stated that no sale had 13 occurred.

14 Do you see that date there?

11:19 15 A. That's what it says.

16 Q. Right. And then we just looked at your amended version
17 stating that as of May 2019, one year later, there had only 18 been two investors in the offering.

19 Do you recall just seeing that?

11:20 20 MR. HYMAN: Objection, mischaracterized the document.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. Do you recall seeing that?

24 A. I recall seeing one of the documents saying that.

11:20 25 THE COURT: Speak into the microphone, please.

1 A. I recall seeing that.

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. Let's just go back so we can take a close look at it. Do
4 you see that in this form filed with the SEC in May of 2019, 11:20 5 the form states: Regardless of whether securities in the 6 offering have been or may be sold to persons who do not qualify
7 as accredited investors, enter the total number of investors
8 who already have invested in the offering. And the number is 9 2.

11:21 10 Do you see that?

11 A. That's what the form states.

12 Q. And as a reminder, this is from May 3rd, 2019. Do you see 13 that filing date?

14 A. I see it on the screen.

11:21 15 Q. I'm showing you what was already introduced as P 205, which 16 is the chart of the promissory notes, the Fidelis -- the dates
17 of the notes that Fidelis issued and received from Par Funding.
18 We just went through all the names on here.

19 Mr. Furman, do you see that -- this is P 205 which was 11:22 20 introduced through Mr. Sharp on the first day of trial. Do you
21 see here, Mr. Furman?

22 A. I see.

23 Q. That Fidelis was -- had started, according to this
24 document, issuing notes to the Bernardo Revokable Trust, Steven 11:22 25 Leslie, as you corrected me, May 25th, 2018?

1 Do you see that?

2 A. I see it on the document.

3 Q. And do you see that the Palm Beach Tax Group, it was issued
4 a note by Fidelis in June 10th, 2018?

11:22 5 A. That's what it states.

6 Q. We'll count them. We're going to count them. So that's
7 number 2.

8 And then we see Nicholas Sandoval. Fidelis issued a
9 note to him on June 10th, to 2018 do you see that?

11:23 10 A. That's what it shows.

11 Q. And then Celeste Zehren, Fidelis issued a note to Celeste
12 Zehren on June 10th, 2018.

13 Do you see that?

14 A. I do.

11:23 15 Q. My bad handwriting is on full display. It's bad.

16 The Dale and Sandra Maloney Revokable Trust, a note
17 was issued to them on June 25th, 2018.

18 Do you see that?

19 A. That's what it states.

11:23 20 Q. That's number 5.

21 Then we have Ronald Clayden, July 25th, 2018 was 22 issued a Fidelis note.

23 Do you see that?

24 A. I see it on the screen.

11:23 25 Q. That's number 6.

1 Number 7, Betty Brabban, August 10th, 2018, and Frank
2 Nash, who we met yesterday, was August 10th, 2018.

3 Do you see them on the Plaintiff's Exhibit 205?

4 A. I see it on the screen.

11:24 5 Q. So we're up to 8.

6 We have Steven Gibson and Fred Smith, August 25th,
7 2018.

8 Do you see that?

9 A. I see it.

11:24 10 Q. Eugene Sheldon on August 10th, 2018.

11 Do you see that?

12 A. I see it on the screen.

13 Q. We have Gary DeLucco, Wadie Khoury, and Nicholas Pancoast,
14 October 25th, 2018.

11:24 15 Do you see that?

16 A. I do.

17 Q. So I think we're up to 14.

18 William Altier Trust is the next investor, November
19 10th, 2018.

11:25 20 Do you see that?

21 A. I see it on the screen.

22 Q. That's number 15.

23 Anthony Nicholas Marano, is that how you pronounce it?

24 A. I believe so.

11:25 25 Q. These are your clients, correct?

1 A. That's how I've always pronounced it, yes.

2 Q. 11-10-2018. Do you see that?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. I think we're up to 16.

11:25 5 Mark Freedman, that's number 17 on November 10th,
6 2018.

7 Do you see that?

8 A. I do.

9 Q. Millen Livis Trust, November 25th, 2018.

11:25 10 Do you see that?

11 A. I do.

12 Q. The Steven and Leslie Bernardo Revokable Trust, that's 13 February 25th, 2019.

14 Do you see that?

11:26 15 A. I do.

16 Q. Then we have Leslie Goldberg, Wadie Khoury again, and Frank
17 Nash also, oh and Pamela Summers all on the 25th.

18 Do you see that?

19 A. I do.

11:26 20 Q. We've already counted Khoury and Nash. We'll keep it
21 simple. So -- and the Bernardo Trust. So I think we're up to 22 19 -- up to 20.

23 And then we have the Willaim Altier Trust. Donna --
24 how do you pronounce that name?

11:26 25 A. Chlapperini.

1 Q. Chlapperini, Stephen Decker, Russell Meyer, and Marc
2 Reikes, who we met during trial. They're all on March 10,
3 2019.

4 Do you see that?

11:27 5 A. I do.

6 Q. So we already counted the Altier Trust. So I'm not going
7 to count that. So I think we're up to 24. We have Roland
8 Manuel in his individual capacity. You see that? That's 9 April 10th, 2019?

11:27 10 A. I do.

11 Q. And then we have Elizabeth and Rickey McIntyre.

12 Do you see them?

13 A. I do.

14 Q. Fred Smith, Henry Barth, we met hine during trial, and then 11:28 15 Russell Meyer again.

16 Do you see all those investors?

17 A. I do.

18 Q. They're all listed here as having received Fidelis
19 promissory notes April 10th, 2019.

11:28 20 Do you see that?

21 A. I do.

22 Q. And I don't think I had double counted anyone. I think
23 we're up to 28.

24 A. I'll take your word for it, but I think you're right.

11:28 25 Q. And then we have Jay Palazola on April 10th.

1 Do you see that?

2 A. I do.

3 Q. So that Form D filing you asserted the Fifth Amendment to 4 was dated May 3rd, 2019, stating there were only -- had ever
11:29 5 been two investors ever in Fidelis as of that date.

6 And you would agree with me that P 205, which
7 Mr. Sharp testified was the business record of the company's
8 Fidelis and ABFP that he's taken over, shows that we have 29
9 unique different investors by April 10th, 2019 who had been 11:29 10 issued a Fidelis note, correct?

11 A. That's what this states.

12 Q. Yeah. So the filing with the U.S. Security and Exchange
13 Commission of May 5th -- or May 3rd, 2019, that there were only 14 two investors wasn't true, right?

11:30 15 A. That's what my attorney filed.

16 Q. I'm just asking you, do you agree with me the form says two 17 investors and we just established that there were 29?

18 A. I agree that's what the form says.

19 Q. Now, we were also looking at that form. Do you remember
11:30 20 what it listed as your compensation in connection with the 21 Fidelis offering? Do you remember it said zero? You corrected
22 me. Because it did say if you don't know, give an estimate.

23 And do you remember that it said zero in both May 24 2018's filing and then again when it was updated in May 2019 in 11:31 25 Exhibits B and D to your request for admissions? Do you

1 remember it said estimated compensation --

2 A. From earlier, yes.

3 Q. -- from Michael Furman was zero?

4 A. I remember seeing the form, yes.

11:31 5 Q. I don't know if it's just me. I cannot hear you.

6 A. I remember seeing the form, yes.

7 Q. What we see here is according to P 205, the Fidelis
8 records, we see that the amount that was being paid when an 9 investor note was sent up to Par Funding and Par Funding would 11:32 10 issue its note in exchange -- so Fidelis investor note is here,
11 then Par Funding issues its note to Fidelis here, and over here
12 we see the amount that CBSG is paying.

13 Do you see that?

14 A. I do.

11:32 15 Q. And do you see that it shows the revenue to Fidelis after 16 the investor payment, after the investors have all been paid
17 out each month? Do you see that?

18 A. I see it.

19 Q. And that this chart shows the monthly amount. So in other 11:32 20 words, on Mr. Bernardo -- on the Bernardo Revocable Trust, the 21 amount retained as compensation for Fidelis is $1,386.67 each
22 month on that note.

23 Do you see that?

24 A. Incorrectly calculated, but yes.

11:33 25 Q. And so you agree with me that's not zero, right?

1 A. Those are not zeros.

2 Q. And so the forms that we looked at that were filed with the 3 SEC as Exhibits B and D about the amount of money going as 4 being zero, that wasn't true either, right?

11:33 5 A. You would have to ask my attorney.

6 THE COURT: Lean in. I can't hear you.

7 A. You would have to ask my attorney.

8 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, may we have two seconds?

9 THE COURT: No. We can continue.

11:33 10 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. I'm going to put the request for admissions back up. Let's
13 go on to the next one.

14 Do you see in item 17, you were asked to admit under 11:34 15 oath that Exhibit E was a true and correct copy of the Fidelis
16 private placement memorandum you distributed to potential
17 investors in connection with the offer and sale of Fidelis
18 notes?

19 Do you see that?

11:34 20 A. I see it.

21 Q. And then we have Exhibit E to the request for admissions.
22 And we gave you a courtesy copy of the hard copy with 23 everything attached in front of you, if you want to turn to it.
24 It's also on the screen.

11:35 25 A. I see.

1 Q. So Exhibit E states that it is the Fidelis Financial
2 Planning promissory notes.

3 Do you see that?

4 A. Yes.

11:35 5 Q. And in the -- this promissory note that's attached as 6 Exhibit E, it states that this offering is 100 percent -- the 7 interests in it had 100 percent held by United Fidelis Group.
8 Do you see that?

9 A. I see it.

11:36 10 Q. And United Fidelis was your company?

11 A. Yes. That was my main company.

12 Q. And in Exhibit E, do you also see that this -- it states at 13 the top it's an offering memorandum? It states that on each
14 page?

11:37 15 A. At the top, yes.

16 Q. And that's on every page of the document, correct?

17 A. I believe so.

18 Q. And do you see in the Exhibit E that there is also in this
19 offering memorandum a section that discusses the risks
11:37 20 associated with the investment?

21 A. It's in there.

22 Q. Why don't we talk about this first.

23 Do you see where in this offering memorandum it states
24 that Fidelis will act as a lender to merchant cash advance
11:38 25 businesses?

1 A. I see that.

2 Q. And did Fidelis loan money to any merchant cash advance
3 business other than Par Funding?

4 A. Never executed, just looked at.

11:38 5 Q. So only Par Funding, correct?

6 A. That was issued, yes.

7 Q. And in the offering memorandum, there are sections about
8 the duty of disclosure and the duty of loyalty.

9 Do you see that?

11:38 10 A. I see it on the screen.

11 Q. Do you see he it states the manager -- I think we just 12 looked back and saw was listed as you -- has an affirmative
13 duty to disclose material facts to the members?

14 Do you see that?

11:39 15 A. I see it on the screen, yes.

16 Q. And do you see that it then goes onto explain: Information
17 is considered material if there is a substantial likelihood 18 that a reasonable investor would consider it important in 19 making investment decisions. The manager must not make any 11:39 20 untrue statements to the members and must not omit disclosing
21 any material facts to the members.

22 Do you see that?

23 A. I see that.

24 Q. And that appears in this same offering memorandum,
11:39 25 Exhibit E to your request for admissions?

1 A. I see it.

2 Q. And do you also see that Exhibit E, the offering memorandum
3 states that the manager -- which we just established a moment
4 ago, the document states was you -- has a duty to avoid
11:40 5 undisclosed conflicts of interest?

6 A. I see that.

7 Q. Okay. And this document -- Exhibit E also is an operating
8 agreement that states that Fidelis is managed by the manager,
9 which we just identified was you.

11:40 10 Do you see that as well?

11 A. I see that.

12 Q. Okay. And do you see in this same document there's a
13 section called Use of Proceeds?

14 A. I see that.

11:41 15 Q. Okay. And you see in this section that the estimated fees
16 and offering expenses are expected not to exceed 15 thousand
17 for -- if the estimated amount raised is 19 million 985
18 thousand?

19 Do you see that in Exhibit E?

11:41 20 A. I see that's what it states.

21 Q. Okay. And I think we established you're not a broker and 22 you weren't a broker between 2018 and 2020. You were not 23 registered at all, correct?

24 A. I agree.

11:42 25 Q. Just one moment.

1 THE COURT: Anybody need a bathroom break, by any
2 chance? Everybody doing okay? It's okay if you do. Why don't
3 we do this: Let me take a five-minute break so I can get a
4 sense of how much more we got before we take a lunch break. Go
11:42 5 ahead and take a break. Leave your notepads on your chairs.
6 You're excused if you want to use the restroom. Yeah, go
7 ahead.

8 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

9 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. I just want
11:43 10 to use this opportunity -- I'm going to also let everyone have 11 a chance to use the restroom.

12 Since the parties weren't able to do their job and 13 I've been doing it for most of you, I've been reading the 14 deposition transcript. Okay. I'm not really sure, knowing
11:43 15 that the case law is pretty strict about not allowing the Fifth 16 Amendment to jeopardize an individual's indication of it,
17 especially when we look at this as a sword and shield, I have 18 all of these very specific RFAs that you've done here, and very 19 delineated, but I did just a review of the transcript. I have 11:44 20 from page 30, line 10 to page 43, line 10, all sorts of 21 questions about the knowledge of the Court's criminal record.
22 I mean, all over the place. As far as I'm concerned that area
23 of inquiry is open season.

24 MS. BERLIN: That's why we withdrew it.

11:44 25 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to go through everything

1 I've seen so far and I'm not done.

2 MS. BERLIN: Oh, I'm sorry, we withdraw that one.

3 THE COURT: Okay. The next one is: All regulatory
4 actions in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Texas were absolutely
11:44 5 explored. I'm looking at line 90, 15, through 108. Then
6 Pennsylvania starts at 100, line 9, through 101, line 19.
7 Texas comes up at 101, 20. But at least for 40 pages from 90,
8 line 15, to 134, line 6, it's open season on what he did or did
9 not know about New Jersey, Texas, Pennsylvania.

11:44 10 MS. BERLIN: We agree. Let me just be clear.

11 THE COURT: No, no, no, don't interrupt. I'm going to 12 tell you the areas of inquiry that are open season. This what 13 you've done here, what you've tried to delineate these things
14 is, first of all, impossible to manage. You had an opportunity
11:45 15 here to go all sorts of areas and get pretty deep into it. The 16 reason why I'm bringing this up is, I want to be clear, as 17 you're attempting to get through this direct, that you don't 18 sit and waste time because we're here to ask questions of 19 Mr. Furman about what he did or did not know as to the material
20 omissions.

21 I spot categories such as underwriting, regulatory
22 actions, default rate. There is from 186, line 6, to 192, line
23 2, and then it picks up again at 196, line 2, to 200, line 1,
24 then 188 has portions of the default rate. That was fair game
11:45 25 all over the place. He talked all about what he did or did not

1 know.

2 Underwriting is also found in here. So what I'm 3 trying to say is, pretty much every area that is relevant for
4 what you're trying to prove, you touched on in his depo. So
11:45 5 what am I restricting here? Because I'm very troubled, when 6 I've got in his depo, there's no way we can coffin this to one
7 or two questions. These are swaths of areas that you explored.
8 I don't see any holding back on anything regarding at least 9 default rate, criminal record, regulations, underwriting, the 11:46 10 relationship between Fidelis, their rate of return, when they
11 worked with Par Funding, communications with Abbonizio,
12 communications with Vagnozzi.

13 I guess to state it another way, I'm looking in the 14 reverse now. What area did you not ask about at all that would 11:46 15 actually allow me to keep the Fifth Amendment muzzle on Furman?
16 Because right now it looked like you got into almost every area
17 and you know where he's going, so there's no shortage of a
18 problem. You should be able to ask him, and he should be able 19 to answer. Can you just -- I don't need you to give me a
11:46 20 technical response.

21 What arena -- let's talk about arenas, because we 22 can't, under the Fifth Amendment case law, sit here and try to 23 delineate question by question, line by line in such a specific 24 fashion. If you waded into the pool of criminal record, 11:47 25 default rate, regulatory knowledge, underwriting, percentage of

1 return, you waded in. Once you waded in, it's open. He
2 answers, he's waived the Fifth, and it's fair game as far as
3 I'm concerned, because if not, you would unfairly prejudice him
4 for his invocation of the Fifth Amendment.

11:47 5 I'm just worried because I'm looking at these notes
6 about how representations were made on behalf of Fidelis.
7 Sure, you may not have asked that specific question, but it
8 would be really hard for me -- for example, you have 1.80, for 9 example. When you told potential investors in the Fidelis
11:47 10 promissory notes that New Jersey securities' regulators
11 retracted their funds, that Par Funding had violated the state
12 security's laws, you knew that statement was false.

13 As far as I can tell, from about page 90, line 15, to 14 100, line 8, you had all sorts of questions regarding his 11:48 15 knowledge of New Jersey securities regulators and what they 16 told them. You may not have asked that question, that 17 structured, but it would be, in my view, totally inappropriate
18 to take that off the table because you waded in to all the 19 regulations. So let me give that example. Why don't we just 11:48 20 take one.

21 How do you propose that an area like question RFA 80
22 is not fair game based upon what you talked about in the depo?

23 MS. BERLIN: Yes. So RFA 80, that when he told them
24 that, so on that date, when he had the conversation that he
11:48 25 didn't know that he knew it had been retracted, I didn't ask

1 him that. I asked him about other matters in there. I didn't
2 ask him that question. I didn't go to -- I didn't even show
3 him the recording that we knew was at issue when he made the 4 representation.

11:48 5 THE COURT: Well, I take it you didn't show him the 6 recording. But you understand my concern, Ms. Berlin, based 7 upon the Fifth Amendment and the way in which all circuits have 8 interpreted it, it's essentially a sliding scale based on 9 prejudice. So if I saw that you never asked him about the New 11:49 10 Jersey regulations, let's say you were worried, you don't want
11 to go there because you know that it could be problematic
12 reasons with the Fifth Amendment. But that's not what
13 happened. There is extensive discussion about his knowledge
14 and timing of New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Texas regulations.
11:49 15 So for me to sit here and say with a straight face that you're 16 prejudiced because you don't know what's coming, he was an open
17 book about those arenas for pages of this transport. I can't 18 sit here and say, well, because that particular question was 19 not asked, it rises to the level of prejudice to make him
11:49 20 unable to essentially expand beyond what his initial Fifth
21 Amendment privilege was. That would be improper.

22 I mean, it would be such a technical reading of his
23 Fifth Amendment privilege, and it's all about prejudice. You
24 know what he's going to say. I know what he's going to say.
11:49 25 You might impeach him if he deviates from his own depo, but I'm

1 looking at his explanation.

2 Whether or not the jurors believe his knowledge and
3 his scienter and mindset on some of these things that when he
4 claims said known or not known, I get it.

5 But, for example, if you're withdrawing your concerns
6 from the criminal record of LaForte, I would venture that it's 7 the same standard that should be applied to the regulatory 8 knowledge because it goes on for pages.

9 MS. BERLIN: So we gave you our double-sided list. We 10 have -- I don't know if we've given this yet. But we have --
11 so 34 -- on the list that the Court has. 34, 37, 41, 43, 48,
12 50, 54, 62, 72 -- yeah. These we're all taken out. So what 13 I'm doing with Mr. Furman is, the ones I know, like, we're not
14 going to assert, I'm asking follow-up questions -- you know,
15 I'm asking questions about them as I go along.

16 The ones that we think might still be in dispute that 17 I think the Court will need to address that we're not
18 withdrawing, I'm not going to ask him things that are exactly
19 like what he said in his RFA. So all of those are coming out.
20 So we have -- I wanted to do this before we started
21 questioning.

22 THE COURT: My concern is this, for your benefit, the 23 reason why I'm bringing this up now during your direct is to 24 assist clarity. Because you're going to walk away from areas
25 of inquiry that I'm going to tell you, you can ask. That's why

1 I'm doing it. And by the same token, I'm letting the defense
2 know, so we don't belabor it, that I think there are certain
3 areas are being covered.

4 But, for example, just looking at one of these.
5 Number 30 talks about when he distributed marketing materials.
6 I just saw -- and I wasn't searching because I'm having to go
7 by the index, but I just saw an entire section where you are 8 confronting him or showing him, or at least discussing 9 Par Funding marketing materials. I guess my point is that it's 10 all about prejudice.

11 If there's an area that you never waded into and you
12 didn't because you were worried about the Fifth Amendment, now
13 that would be sandbagging against your case in chief. But if 14 you touched on an area, yet did not go as far as to ask
15 specific questions that you thought arguably you couldn't ask,
16 but a lot of case views on those areas have been expanded on in 17 the depo, then to me, the prejudice is minimized because it's 18 not like we're getting a true surprise. And I would argue that 19 it's a lot easier, quite honestly, than trying to go through 20 RFAs so specifically to simply talk about it in terms of swaths
21 or areas of testimony. Right.

22 It just makes a lot more sense. Default rate, fair
23 game. Criminal record on LaForte, fair game. Underwriting,
24 fair game. Regulations that were taken, fair game. Percentage
25 of return, interactions with Par Funding and some of the

1 co-defendants, fair game.

2 I mean, all of these arenas were touched on in his
3 deposition, so I can't sit here in good conscience and start to 4 delineate these things based upon the way in which questions
5 were specifically worded. There is enough covered in his depo
6 that, at least as far as I can tell, pretty much all of the 7 seven counts which you're pursuing, you covered something
8 close, if not on point, for what you have to prove in the depo
9 on each count.

10 And so I guess what I'm saying is, we spent all this
11 time and I've looked at the depo and read about, you know, 60
12 percent of it here while this gentleman is testifying, and I'm 13 also ruling on current objections, and I see enough here that 14 I'm at a bit of a loss why this couldn't be agreed to before
15 today.

16 It seems fairly straightforward that we could have
17 said, Furman pretty much was asked 90 percent of these issues
18 that the Fifth was invoked on, and therefore, these are fair
19 game and we're not going to be prejudiced.

20 Now remember, am I saying that you were going to be 21 ambushed by an RFA amendment? No, I didn't allow that. That 22 would be improper. That was the right ruling.

23 Now we're beyond that. We're not arguing that 24 anymore. Now we're arguing whether or not Furman, in his 25 direct, in his cross, called in your case or in the defense

1 case, is going to be able to essentially contradict areas that
2 he withheld testimony on in the request for admissions by
3 invoking his Fifth Amendment right.

4 What's happening now is, there's a lot of testimony
5 here that touches so closely to these areas that he invoked the 6 Fifth on that he has essentially waived his Fifth Amendment
7 right on entire chunks of what the RFA is talking about.

8 So I'm fine with no RFA admissions. I think that's 9 fine. But at the same time, he can say, as he said repeatedly,
10 at one point I invoked the Fifth, now I've decided to answer,
11 and you can go after him with anything that's inconsistent in 12 the depo. But I guess I'm wondering what arena -- if you talk
13 about in terms of a broader picture. What arena of questioning
14 is really off limits? Not specifically, but just is there one 15 section that you didn't even touch on that is part of the 16 admissions? Is there something that's broader?

17 MS. BERLIN: Yes. So a few things. Remember, so
18 before 2018 Mr. Furman is soliciting investors in Par Funding.
19 So when we're -- if you look in the deposition, and perhaps 20 this just -- I was trying to --

21 THE COURT: Listen, I don't need this. Guys, listen.
22 Neither of you.

23 MS. BERLIN: Let me answer --

24 THE COURT: I just answered the Court's questions.
25 You guys make a habit of giving me your view of the evidence.

1 I don't care. What I want to do is, I have looked at the
2 evidence because the parties did not bring it to my attention
3 properly.

4 So now that I've gotten through it for everyone, tell
5 me an area of inquiry that you would say, Judge, I never
6 touched it, and therefore, the Fifth Amendment blankets it. Is 7 there any area -- not a specific question about who said what
8 when, because if you talked about general areas, it's fair
9 game. There's no more Fifth Amendment issue on that.

10 What area did you steer clear from generally that I
11 should say, you know what, we're not going to let Furman spot
12 off on something that you don't even talk about in any of the 13 depositions. There a specific area.

14 MS. BERLIN: Yes. May I ask one clarifying question
15 so I may answer correctly?

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MS. BERLIN: So assuming that the time periods don't 18 make a difference, if he testifies about the one time period or 19 one phase of the offering, it would be viewed as possibly 20 waived with respect to the other phases or notes that he was 21 offering. With that understanding -- which I didn't apply
22 before. I was applying it by offering, you know, because 23 remember, we had three. So if they're blended together, then
24 there are some sections that still would apply.

25 THE COURT: Like what? Give me one example.

1 MS. BERLIN: Sure. So -- let's see. That he was a
2 signatory on the Fidelis bank accounts, that Fidelis is a
3 pooled investment fund, that the Form D -- the Fidelis Form D
4 filings, the -- I didn't show him or even talk about the 5 promissory note, PPM.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MS. BERLIN: We didn't talk at all about -- I'm now
8 looking at these as if it's not just like training on the 9 Par Funding promissory notes, but it could be viewed as if I
10 ask him about training for the Fidelis notes, if that would 11 then waive it for the other offerings, Your Honor. Just to be 12 clear, I'm trying to give it the broadest view.

13 So I agree what the Court just said, like 31, where we 14 ask about the marketing materials used for the Par Funding
15 offering in 2017. I asked him about that for other -- for 16 different offerings. So if testifying about it for that other
17 offering waives it for this one, then a lot of these would come
18 off.

19 THE COURT: Let me ask you -- tell me if I'm missing
20 areas of inquiry regarding the specific -- the key of the case,
21 not background, not timing, specific allegations of what's 22 relevant in this case for purposes of you carrying your burden
23 of proof.

24 The misstatements and omissions section for six of the 25 seven counts, am I correct that really knowledge of the

1 regulatory actions and other states and failure to disclose
2 them as one, misstatement about the default rates, another one,
3 LaForte's criminal record, the lack of underwriting. What am I
4 missing or is that all the key areas?

5 MS. BERLIN: Lack of underwriting, regulatory actions,
6 criminal record, the 1.2 percent default rate, the onsite
7 inspections. There's the omission of the regulatory actions
8 and then also the misrepresentation about the New Jersey
9 action.

10 THE COURT: Got it. Okay.

11 MS. BERLIN: There's the misrepresentation about
12 Dean Vagnozzi's -- the regulatory actions against Dean Vagnozzi
13 is the person managing his fund.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MS. BERLIN: And the misrepresentations in connection
16 with the 2020 exchange note, that he invested himself, that the 17 2020 note, you know, had the lien, the Par Funding -- all of 18 those. I'm lumping them together for the 2020 note.

19 THE COURT: All right. Because --

20 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor --

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

22 MS. BERLIN: -- the insurance.

23 THE COURT: Right, insurance. That's right. I
24 dropped that one. That's a big category.

25 MS. BERLIN: And I know we asked about the insurance.

1 THE COURT: That's one area that I will say -- I will
2 tell you, page 179, line 20, like 19:

3 Did you make any representations to any investors or
4 potential investor of Fidelis about insurance in connection
5 with the Fidelis offering?

6 ANSWER: At some point they changed their brochure and 7 added an insurance program (inaud.).

8 QUESTION: So did you tell investors or potential
9 investors about the insurance? I'm asking, did you ever
10 communicate anything about insurance to the investors or 11 potential investors?

12 ANSWER: We communicated about insurance, that 13 Par Funding held insurance on their advances to companies, not 14 insurance on the investment.

15 QUESTION: So on the loans that they were making that 16 they have insurance; is that correct?

17 ANSWER: Correct. And that was at some point in the 18 middle, they changed it. It was an added value.

19 QUESTION: What did you tell investors of potential
20 investors about that?

21 ANSWER: We were told that they were starting to 22 insure advances over --

23 Over what?

24 I believe it was $50,000.

25 It goes on.

1 So would you tell me today that you did not believe
2 you were able to address insurance?

3 MS. BERLIN: No. I thought you were asking for a list
4 of all the misreps and omissions at issue, not the ones --

5 THE COURT: You inferred to me just by way of that
6 example that insurance was explored in the depo, right?

7 MS. BERLIN: Yes. And we're not asking for -- we 8 weren't saying that there should be an adverse inference. When 9 you the judge just asked me -- I thought you wanted the overall
10 list of all the difference areas. It's not an our list.

11 THE COURT: You would agree with me that probably all
12 the material areas -- and you have to understand that this is a
13 balancing act under case law for the Fifth Amendment
14 invocation. You would agree with me that all of the critical
15 areas that form misstatements or omissions that you've alleged 16 in your six of seven counts were at some point -- at one point
17 or another addressed in this deposition?

18 MS. BERLIN: Yes, maybe not in connections with --
19 because there are three offerings.

20 THE COURT: I get that they're offerings. I
21 absolutely get what you're saying, and you can make the 22 argument to slice them and dice them by offering. But let's
23 take away the years.

24 You would agree with me that when it comes to all of 25 these areas, criminal record, default rate, regulations,

1 underwriting, onsite insurance, that you were able to ask about
2 these things in his deposition?

3 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

4 THE COURT: So if that was the case, then you would
5 agree with me that it would be improper, I would say, for the 6 Court to make any ruling that would prevent these areas of 7 inquiry from being asked either by you on direct, by Mr. Hyman
8 in direct, by anyone on cross-examination, because these areas,
9 although they were certainly areas where he invoked the Fifth
10 Amendment back then, and we know because I'm looking at some of 11 the questions clearly, there was issues with the -- just by way
12 of example with the regulatory actions, it was all sorts of 13 things were being invoked the Fifth. Since then, in his depo
14 he went ahead and answered a lot of those questions.

15 So the argument that there is truly prejudice to the 16 SEC because these areas were essentially hidden or protected by 17 the Fifth is, in my view, not the case when you look at the 18 deposition where he essentially opened up and started talking
19 about a lot of these areas.

20 And so what I'm trying to get down to at a very basic 21 level is that I see very, very, very limited or few areas where 22 we're going to get into a true -- not only a true adverse
23 inference, which we can talk about later, but that are off
24 limits. The whole purposes of this exercise is to avoid there
25 being an objection either -- and it wouldn't be coming from the

1 defense because they want all of this to come in -- but an
2 objection really by you if Mr. Hyman decides to talk about
3 these arenas because he's invoked the Fifth and has relied on 4 Fifth up until the day, to the detriment or causing prejudice
5 to the SEC.

6 And my view is that's not the case. You went into
7 these areas enough that you know what's coming, and even if you
8 suffered a little bit of prejudice, it weighs way more in favor
9 of Mr. Furman who would stand to lose a lot by invoking his 10 Fifth early in the case than sitting down for a depo later. So
11 that's why that analysis changes a little bit based on what I'm 12 looking at.

13 MS. BERLIN: I understand. The one issue is if you
14 look at a request for admissions -- because for these causes of 15 action what he knew and should have known and when is the 16 issue. So the ones we have presented are the ones that have to 17 do with -- and if you look at the RFA, it's in 2017 and then
18 there might be the same question in 2018.

19 I guess I parsed it too finely in his deposition
20 because I avoided -- like I would ask him in an RFA about 2017,
21 which is -- we all know is the Par Funding notes. Okay, that's 22 what's happening. That's the only thing happening in 2017.
23 And a different time period is different things.

24 So I understand that if he waives it now as to a
25 different offering, in a different year, that -- or he

1 testifies about it in a different year for a different
2 offering, it would waive it for the other offerings in the 3 other years. I did not understand that.

4 THE COURT: And I think the reason why is because the 5 argument that we have tried to draw this distinction in his
6 depo to not wade into certain areas, I think once we're talking
7 about insurance generally, once we're talking about default
8 rates generally, or representations about, you know,
9 underwriting or things of that nature, it becomes less
10 prejudicial for the SEC, meaning that it's a sliding scale.

11 We know that it's a case-specific issue and you can 12 withdraw your invocation of the Fifth in a civil case, and the 13 whole point of it is that withdraw requires us to carefully
14 look at what has been presented and what has been shielded by 15 the Fifth so as to prevent the SEC from being prejudiced in 16 their preparation of their case.

17 So that's what the analysis holds. I think my 18 colleague, Judge Bloom -- I would put it on the record -- in 19 AIM Recycling of Florida versus Metals, 2020 Westlaw 209860 is 20 probably the best summary of the analysis that has to go into a
21 court's decision that I've seen at the district level about 22 when we go ahead and allow the withdrawal of an invocation of 23 the Fifth at the late stage of the process.

24 Again, the analysis is are you gaining unfair
25 advantage and is there unnecessary prejudice. I would argue

1 that anyone that is going to walk in unrepresented into a
2 deposition against the SEC is probably not doing something from
3 their advantage. They just are up against the wall, and I
4 think that's what happened here.

5 And when you look at unnecessary prejudice, I can't
6 find that this is the sword that I would expect from someone
7 that's really game playing, meaning if you are able to ask
8 these questions and you're able to hover around general areas,
9 for me to now say that you're prejudiced because you held back
10 asking about this particular misrepresentation as to this
11 particular offering, that you were able to ask about it
12 generally, the analysis changes, I think, for the Court.

13 Because again, we're not allowing an RFA to be
14 amended. We can talk about adverse inferences later, but I
15 don't want to have a situation where we say entire swaths of 16 his depo are not fair game because of the RFA invocation of the 17 Fifth. I think you get what I'm saying, but I'm doing it now
18 because you are going to go through your direct and you're 19 going to leave issues on the table thinking that you can't ask
20 them.

21 MS. BERLIN: Yes. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: And I'm telling you can. And I'm telling
23 the defense, more importantly, that they can. They can ask
24 about it on cross, they can ask about it on direct.

25 So do I have any issue from the defense? You guys

1 understand where I'm coming from?

2 MR. HYMAN: We do. There's two quick things very
3 briefly to add, Your Honor. When we were first dealing with 4 this issue, counsel for the SEC had represented to you that 5 they were tiptoeing around the subject areas of inquiry because
6 they didn't believe that he had invoked the Fifth, but clearly,
7 as Your Honor aptly noted, the same criminal charges are all
8 about the investors, the fraud, and the omission. They went 9 through all of those issues in a deposition.

10 We sent them these lists and, Your Honor, it goes
11 beyond that. Because at a certain point Ms. Berlin
12 specifically said: I'm going to go get a list of all the 13 investors, I'm going to sit down and ask you what you said to 14 each and every one of them. Instead she chose not to because 15 she said it would take too much time. And that's at page 130,
16 10 through 18.

17 At the end of the deposition, Ms. Berlin and the 18 receiver and other defendants reserved the right to keep it
19 open with Ms. Berlin saying: I will issue you interrogatories
20 with any additional issues or questions we have.

21 There's no question that Mr. Furman had an absolute
22 intent to waive the Fifth there's no prejudice to the SEC could 23 have requested, sought, and obtained any additional information
24 as evidenced by the fact that after this deposition, the SEC
25 did issue interrogatories that Mr. Furman responded to in its

1 entirety.

2 At this point in time, we're concerned about the
3 prejudice because Mr. Furman just went through two hours of 4 questioning under the instruction and understanding that he
5 couldn't provide any explanation on these leading cross --
6 examination questions based on Your Honor's ruling.

7 THE COURT: Hold on a minute. First of all, you have
8 to understand a couple of things here. One, you know, I'm 9 giving you guys the ability to get into these areas that in my 10 view were sufficiently explored by the deposition so as not to 11 prejudice the SEC, and therefore, the Fifth Amendment analysis
12 withdrawal is slightly different now that I have had an 13 opportunity to carefully review the deposition transcript.

14 It's no harm, no foul to anyone because we just called 15 Mr. Furman as a witness for the first time. So we're getting 16 ahead of this in the middle of the direction examination. I
17 listened carefully. There's not a single point in the SEC's
18 questioning.

19 Number one, I don't believe any of them were leading 20 or problematic.

21 Number two, they were mostly background, most of the 22 stuff is getting a baseline of knowledge. We haven't moved 23 into misrepresentations and omissions at all yet, and that's 24 why I thought it wise that since I expected that you would feel
25 limited in that regard, you are no longer so limited.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: And that's why I'm doing it now. But none
3 of the questions that were asked -- let's be very clear. None
4 of the questions that were asked, okay, earlier today suffer
5 from this Fifth Amendment problem. What this is about is --
6 and again, there's no objections to that in that regard. There
7 haven't been about the areas that were asked about the SEC
8 because they're mostly background and none of them were really
9 a problem in the deposition.

10 What I want to be very clear on, though, is, the RFAs
11 and the invocation of the Fifth, you're stuck with that.
12 You're stuck with that. I want everyone to understand. You're 13 stuck with that. That's not amended. So it doesn't matter,
14 you're absolutely right to point out that at one point you
15 withheld that and then you decided not to.

16 In fact, Mr. Furman has all but said that and set it
17 up by saying at the time I invoked my Fifth upon the 18 instruction of counsel. So nothing has really been changed in 19 the way the case is being managed, except that for this 20 witness, if we're going to prevent unnecessary prejudice to 21 Furman, the Court is opening up areas of inquiry because I find 22 that the deposition gave the SEC enough knowledge to minimize 23 the prejudice by him changing or later on withdrawing -- even 24 though I would agree, he didn't do so unequivocally, unless he
25 was concerned about it. But I think they have enough

1 information from his depo that it would be really hard to say
2 that certain areas are off limits because he invoked the Fifth.
3 But it doesn't mean the RFA changes, it doesn't mean the RFA is
4 amended. The Fifth Amendment is still in play. He absolutely
5 invoked it, that would be game playing, that would be not
6 permitted. Problematic would be if I said that Furman couldn't
7 talk about all these areas simply because the SEC feels that
8 they didn't ask about a certain year because they were worried
9 about certain RFAs, I think that's cutting it and slicing too
10 thin and that is not, to me, the level of prejudice you need to 11 keep that Fifth Amendment block in place.

12 So now we're going to have the ability to let 13 Mr. Furman answer more freely. But to be fair, not a single 14 question that has been asked of Mr. Furman invokes any of these 15 arenas that I've just talked about. We haven't even gotten 16 there. In fact, what we're going to do now is because we have 17 a court ruling in place and we have a little more latitude,
18 we'll break for lunch now and we'll allow everyone to make some 19 adjustment to the rest of the direct and cross so that 20 everybody can be prepared. And then once we've done that, I
21 think it will be make things a lot easier when we resume this
22 afternoon, because we're going to know what you can ask about 23 without having a bunch of objections. And so I think this is 24 what had to be done, but the problem we're having is, one side
25 decided to do it in an RFA angle, the other side tried to do it

1 in a page and line angle. I couldn't get either side to give
2 me a composite so the Court could be guided. So the easiest
3 thing to do is the Court's has essentially read most, if not
4 all of the depo, I'll probably finish it here in a little bit,
5 and I can now tell you if I think someone is close enough that
6 it's fair game and he can answer it. But it doesn't mean,
7 again, that the RFA isn't a blanket Fifth Amendment. I mean,
8 that's still going to be an issue. I mean, that's the bottom
9 line.

10 MS. BERLIN: So I just want to make sure I understand.

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 MS. BERLIN: As I go through, because the RFA has 13 always been an exhibit, of course.

14 THE COURT: It still is, yeah, of course.

15 MS. BERLIN: But now I can actually ask him --

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MS. BERLIN: -- questions about -- about it that I
18 have, and I can cross him on those things instead of only
19 putting in the Fifth -- (cross-talk).

20 THE COURT: A hundred percent.

21 MS. BERLIN: -- that we're stuck with.

22 THE COURT: And that's what defense is stuck with.
23 They couldn't do it either and then you were going to object
24 and now they have the bandwidth. So it is, in my view, because 25 the case law actually speaks -- it's a very equitable analysis

1 by courts. You have to find a hybrid solution that can make
2 everybody comfortable so that we don't necessarily penalize
3 someone invoking the Fifth in a civil context nor do we allow
4 one side to be unduly prejudiced. This is right in the middle
5 and enough is in his depo that I'm comfortable that it's fair.
6 So we're going to do that and that's what we'll pick up with 7 after lunch. Let me bring the jurors back in, let me know to 8 come back. I'll probably tell them 1:30, just so that we have 9 some time, and then we'll pick up where we left off. I think
10 that's the easiest thing to do.

11 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: What do he have do we have?

13 Terry, can you grab my jurors for me, please.

14 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Folks, I
16 don't want to belabor it too much because it's only the lunch
17 hour, I'm going go ahead and just take our lunch break at this 18 time because this is a natural break. Do not be concerned. We 19 were just taking care of some evidentiary issues so that the 20 remainder of the testimony for Mr. Furman doesn't have as many 21 interruptions. We're trying to streamline it a bit. Okay? So
22 we're still going to keep with our original plan and we're 23 still on pace. I just want to let everybody know what we're up
24 to. We're going to just have him retake the stand at 1:30, and 25 I'm going to let you guys take a break now. So take your lunch

1 now. Have everybody in the jury room, ready to go at 1:30, and
2 leave your notepads, and we'll pick up with Mr. Furman back on
3 the stand at that time. All right. You are all free to go.
4 Have a great lunch break.

5 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

6 THE COURT: Okay. Everyone, please be seated. I want
7 to give everybody an opportunity to maximize their time, so
8 that you can make adjustments, if you need to make adjustments.
9 And similarly for cross-examination as well.

10 Anything else pressing? I think we all know what's 11 being permitted now. This should -- this really should 12 minimize any sort of interruption from Mr. Furman. He should 13 make his testimony cleaner, we don't have to now be navigating
14 these potholes of the Fifth Amendment. We can pretty much move
15 forward, use the RFAs as admitted, but explain what his change
16 in answer was and get into the heart of the testimony from the 17 depo, which, of course, has been fair game in terms of 18 impeachment, and we can go from there and that works.

19 I mean, to me, the depo is probably the most -- the 20 best way to summarize really what the case is about because 21 it's all going to come on credibility issues and certain things
22 regarding what Mr. Furman knew or did not know, for some of the 23 counts. Some of them are, as we said yesterday, like running a
24 traffic light. There's not going to be as much in terms of 25 scienter. But I think this will let us streamline everything.

1 Anything else pressing before I take this out to our
2 lunch break here and we take a break? Anything else from the 3 SEC side?

4 MS. BERLIN: No, thank you. I think this also 5 accomplishes what we wanted, which is we were going to play the 6 deposition and then do it. Because -- and thank you, because I
7 was trying to navigate three things --

8 THE COURT: We could still do that, but I mean, I'm 9 thinking now -- listen, take the lunch break and let you guys
10 decide. If you really wanted to do that, I can -- we can do
11 that because now this is less of an issue. So if you guys
12 think it's a streamlined way, I'm absolutely fine with that,
13 too. But now that the Court has made clear what the parameters
14 are instead of waiting till Mr. Hyman started his cross and 15 then we're going to have a million -- as Mr. Hyman was 16 suggesting, rule contemporaneously while objections are coming.
17 It's not fair for anybody, it's going to make a horrible
18 record, and it's going to be really hard for Mr. Furman to 19 answer chopped up questions.

20 So now everyone should know what the Court's latitude
21 is for the Fifth Amendment, we should be able to get this done
22 faster and cleaner. So just take the lunch break and maybe you
23 guys can come to an agreement even more so on the video, but I
24 think we know what we're doing for the rest of his testimony
25 today.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. No rules barred.

2 THE COURT: Pretty much.

3 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much.

4 THE COURT: But it all balances it out.

5 MS. BERLIN: It does. I was looking at the 6 deposition, looking at this, I don't want to infringe on his 7 Fifth Amendment.

8 THE COURT: It wasn't by accident. I can tell and I
9 said, I better just start reading because this is going to be 10 very tricky for anybody to try to navigate this and deal with 11 jumping up and down objections. This is way better.

12 MS. BERLIN: And years and offerings and I was trying 13 to do it on the fly. So thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: This is way easier.

15 Does the defense team understand what your parameters
16 are, guys, for cross? Do you guys all understand that you're 17 now able to work with the depo? You guys all understand,
18 right?

19 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Good. So this should make it easier for 21 you too.

22 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Recess until 1:30, everyone. Okay? You
24 can leave everything here. There are no proceedings taking 25 place here. Everything will be on Zoom today. My hearings are

1 at 1:00 and then a change of plea at 4:00. Those are the only
2 two breaks. Okay.

3 (Thereupon, a luncheon recess was taken.)

A F T E R N O O N S E S S I O N

8 THE COURT: Ms. Berlin, I think you wanted to touch
9 base with the Court before I brought the jurors back in. Did
10 you have something you needed to address or no?

11 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. I just wanted to make sure that 12 the way I was planning to go about something now that the gates
13 are opened --

14 THE COURT: Sure.

15 MS. BERLIN: -- is permissible, especially since we're
16 being broadcast by Zoom and it may be sensitive. I didn't know
17 if perhaps this was an area where the Court -- until you hear
18 what I'm about to say, you might want to turn off the 19 microphone.

20 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: It's off.

21 THE COURT: We have the broadcast off.

22 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much. I just wanted to --
23 before I go, some of our testimony, now that the gates are 24 opened, will involve asking Mr. Furman about certain admissions
25 that he made to the FBI.

1 THE COURT: Admissions, okay.

2 MS. BERLIN: Yes. And so because that will involve
3 asking him about the FBI's investigation, and the agents, I
4 wasn't sure -- I didn't want to just do that while we're being
5 broadcast. I thought I should raise it first.

6 THE COURT: Yes, when you're doing your exam and 7 you're going there, if you just let me know, Your Honor, at 8 this point we're going to move into a couple of sensitive
9 areas. And I will have my courtroom deputy turn off the audio
10 so we didn't have the same thing happen like yesterday, where 11 we had undercovers disclosed and all of that.

12 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much. And I won't be using 13 any, like, 302 or any document as an exhibit obviously or to 14 impeach, but I will be asking based on -- you know, based on my 15 confidential information of his interviews with them, and once
16 I start talking about the FBI agent and investigation and what
17 he admitted, I didn't want that to be out in the public arena.

18 I just felt like -- and again, I think what we're
19 learning is a little too cautious, but I don't want to infringe
20 on his rights, even personally, not a right, just his 21 reputation. I wouldn't want anyone to know that even if I
22 didn't do anything wrong.

23 THE COURT: Look, I think there's some sensitive
24 information there, and I think we can take that part off the 25 public broadcast so that we don't run afoul of anything there

1 on what was happening in that investigation, and to the extent
2 it'll not only protect him, but protect any ongoing
3 investigation.

4 MS. BERLIN: That was the other thing I was going to 5 mention.

6 THE COURT: Just let me know and I'll go ahead and 7 turn it off.

8 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. That's all I wanted to ask.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 Yes, guys, do you have an issue on that?

11 MR. JOHN: Yes, Your Honor. I would just point out,
12 Your Honor, that the SEC during its 30(b)(6) -- I know we 13 talked about this before. I'm not rehashing this issue, but I
14 would just point out that during the 30(b)(6) deposition, they 15 asserted the investigative privilege, and now they want to 16 bring in evidence regarding an investigation into this matter.
17 I think that's an issue. I think there's also, on some level,
18 some 403 issues. This is not a criminal case and bring --

19 MS. BERLIN: We weren't asking --

20 MR. JOHN: -- (cross-talk) disclosed, this 21 information.

22 THE COURT: Well, a couple of things. Investigative 23 privilege has been asserted because at some point, as we 24 discussed, it would be FBI in the beginning of the case. We 25 have held that going too far into what's still going on. So

1 some of this is, for example -- just by way of an example, it's
2 similar to what happened when a New Jersey regulatory
3 testified, right, and his counsel came on board and said, Look,
4 some of this is still ongoing.

5 So I think the privilege, up to a certain point, some 6 of this stuff has been brought up in the public domain, and 7 we're having an open hearing on it and what we are dealing with 8 here. Remember of course that there are concerns about 9 broadcasting individuals that -- I'm not saying they could be
10 the target of an investigation, but there could be individuals
11 watching on Zoom because it is so openly disseminated, the 12 link, that it can cause a problem as opposed to if I have 13 people in my courtroom that I could lay my eyes on and know who 14 they are, if they're investors or defendants or whoever they 15 may be. So I don't have as much control, although I'm still 16 doing it for the investors' benefit. That's one.

17 Number two, I don't really think that what they've 18 invoked into the 30(b)(6) is really going to impact the concern
19 you raise here, which is let's just not have it be publically
20 broadcast in the sense that matters. That's all we're talking
21 about here.

22 MR. HYMAN: Our concern is a little beyond this. This 23 is a document that wasn't on their exhibit list, wasn't
24 produced in discovery, that has never been provided. The first 25 time we're hearing about its existence is right after

1 Your Honor ruled on the Fifth Amendment issue.

2 THE COURT: Am I missing something? I thought that
3 what you just said, Ms. Berlin, is you are going to be asking
4 questions generally about what he said to the FBI.

5 MS. BERLIN: Right.

6 THE COURT: I didn't hear anything about new
7 documents.

8 MS. BERLIN: I am not introducing any document about 9 this. I will ask him about what he admitted to the FBI. He 10 will answer. And then if we need to impeach him, we'll call an 11 agent who will testify. There will not be a document.

12 THE COURT: What document are you talking about?

13 MR. HYMAN: I thought she was saying that she was 14 going to be asking specific questions based on whatever the 15 investigation was.

16 THE COURT: Is that the same thing as pulling out a
17 new exhibit? That's not what she said. You need to listen.
18 You've got to listen. That's not what she said. You guys 19 waste my time making objections on things that aren't even 20 there.

21 MS. BERLIN: I'll be cautious in raising it.

22 THE COURT: All we're doing is we're just being
23 cautious about it, and we're allowing them to ask him questions
24 about it. Listen, you guys have advocated for this, you've 25 gotten the relief you're seeking. Everything is coming in. So

1 rain or shine, it's going to come in.

2 It's a matter of trying to figure out what you want to
3 do with the public broadcast, and I agree that it's problematic
4 to be unfettered. So just exactly as we discussed, we're going
5 to give you a heads-up and I'll mute it, and that will be it.

6 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: And if you want, maybe you can let me know
8 when you're done, like if you moved on in the arena. And then
9 you can say, Judge, I think for the remainder of my 10 examination, it's not a problem, and then I can unmute it so
11 that people understand.

12 MR. JOHN: I think we did misunderstand, Judge. So
13 our apologies.

14 THE COURT: No worries. I thought I hadn't heard
15 that. No worries.

16 Rita, let's go ahead and grab our jurors.

17 You can retake the stand, if you don't mind. Go
18 ahead, Mr. Furman. I'll let them know you're still under oath
19 and all that. But just make sure when you get up here, I know
20 it's weird because you can't move the chair. So it's awkward.
21 You almost have to sit on the edge of your chair because it's 22 so natural to lean, and then we can't get the mic. And so we 23 know. It's not so much Gigi. She has people on the line that 24 are helping us with the realtime stuff. So they can't hear.
25 Just try to lean in. That's all.

1 THE WITNESS: My apologies. It sounds echoey though
2 is the only reason. Too close.

3 THE COURT: I hear it well, but for some reason you
4 have to be right on top of it.

5 THE WITNESS: Yeah, okay.

6 THE COURT: Go ahead and unmute for me, please.

7 For those that are watching on our live stream at this
8 point, I just want to be clear because I see people were 9 wondering. We were on mute during the testimony of Mr. Furman.
10 If there are sensitive matters that are going to be addressed,
11 the Court may mute portions of it. Please be advised. It is 12 not a technical difficulty. It is simply because the Court may 13 have to omit certain portions for security purposes, but just 14 be aware of that. Everything should be heard from here on out.
15 You'll know when the Court pauses the audio. Thank you.

16 Come on in.

17 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

18 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. All right.

19 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, thank you for your 20 patience. We're going to pick up where we left off with 21 Mr. Furman. Of course he's still under oath, and we're in the 22 middle of the SEC's direct examination of Mr. Furman.

23 So with that being said, we'll turn it back over to
24 Ms. Berlin.

25 Go ahead. You may proceed when you're ready.

1 Do we need to give access to any other technical
2 devices, the ELMO, whatever you're using?

3 MS. BERLIN: I'm going to use the ELMO because it's 4 faster for this, but we are going to be playing some audio
5 recordings. So at that time, Mr. Robinson will need access.

6 THE COURT: Go ahead. We're ready to go. Go ahead.

7

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

10 Q. So I'm showing you what we have marked as P 56. Is this 11 your Form D filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission?

12 A. Where?

13 Q. I believe -- and hold on for Mr. Robinson to give me the 14 signal -- that it should be on your screen.

15 MS. BERLIN: Only the witness's screen.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. Not yet?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Just one moment. It will show up on your screen,
20 Mr. Furman. Go ahead. Let us know when you see it.

21 A. Something just came up.

22 THE COURT: You guys don't see it, right? Okay.

23 MS. BERLIN: Yes, I see it.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

25 Q. So do you see on the screen it says P 56?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And can we turn to the first page. You see that's just an
3 SEC attestation. And turn -- let's just scroll through it.

4 Is this your Form D filing with the Securities and 5 Exchange Commission?

6 A. It looks to be a document of that type, yeah.

7 Q. It says that it's for Fidelis.

8 MS. BERLIN: And can we just scroll down to the end to 9 see the signature block all the way at the bottom. There you
10 go.

11 You see it says -- just scroll up -- back one more
12 page. Just a little bit further. There we go. Stop right
13 there. Thank you.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

15 Q. Do you see where it says: Issuer, Fidelis, Furman. And 16 it's a picture of Michael Furman.

17 Remember we looked at this earlier today?

18 A. Fidelis Financial Planning, not Fidelis Furman.

19 Q. I'm sorry. I was talking about the signature and the 20 signer. It says Michael C. Furman.

21 Do you see that?

22 A. I do.

23 Q. So is P 56 the Form D filing that you had filed with the 24 Securities and Exchange Commission for Fidelis?

25 A. My attorney filed this. I did not.

1 Q. At your request?

2 A. That's what I paid him to do, yes.

3 MS. BERLIN: So, Your Honor, I'd like to introduce
4 P 56.

5 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

6 THE COURT: All right. Any objection?

7 MR. HYMAN: Nope.

8 THE COURT: That will be admitted.

9 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

10 THE WITNESS: Are we done this or keep this?

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. You can set it aside. Thanks. We're going to turn back to 13 it.

14 So this is the document we looked at earlier today and 15 now you're admitting this is, in fact -- whereas, before you
16 asserted the Fifth, you're now going to admit this is your 17 filing with the SEC, correct? Is that yes?

18 A. My attorney asserted the Fifth for me then, and since then,
19 I have not. Yes. This is a document my other attorney filed
20 for me.

21 Q. Mr. Furman, we looked at it. We showed you your signature
22 underneath the statement that said you were making the 23 representations under penalty of perjury --

24 A. Under advice of counsel. Under advice of counsel, yes,
25 which is on the document.

1 Q. But you did, that's all I was establishing. Okay.

2 MS. BERLIN: Can we just scroll back just one more
3 page, Mr. Robinson? Thank you.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

5 Q. So do you see this goes up through item 16?

6 A. I see number 16.

7 Q. Okay. And do you remember that before the break, we went
8 through this document and I showed you two things, two item
9 numbers that you agreed with me based on what was shown on the 10 document, they were not correct? Do you recall that, two of 11 the 16 items?

12 A. I remember seeing the numbers, yes.

13 Q. Okay. Let's go ahead and move on. We're just going to 14 show you another one of the -- another exhibit that we 15 identified as an exhibit number for a -- the same type of 16 thing. Just a moment.

17 All right. So we're going to show you the other two 18 Form Ds and ask you if these are true and correct copies. So
19 one was P 56 and the other ones -- let's see if Kevin finds it
20 faster than me.

21 MS. BERLIN: You did?

22 IT TECHNICIAN: No.

23 MS. BERLIN: Let's go back to 56, Kevin. Thank you.
24 We'll scroll through here. There we go. There's another one.

25 BY MS. BERLIN:

1 Q. So do you see in P 56 --

2 MS. BERLIN: Can we keep scrolling? Yes.

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. And this -- is this a true and correct copy of the Form D
5 filing for your company Fidelis Financial Planning?

6 MS. BERLIN: And can we scroll down to the signature
7 page? It will show the date. Right there. Thank you.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. Do you see here it says: Fidelis Financial Planning,
10 Michael Furman, president, May 10th, 2019? Do you see that?

11 A. I see it.

12 Q. Okay. So this is -- this is already in evidence,
13 Mr. Furman. But this is another Form D that you had -- either
14 you directly or you directed your lawyer to file it with the 15 Securities and Exchange Commission, correct?

16 A. Yes. My attorney filled it out and filed it.

17 Q. Okay. At your request? You paid him to do it for you?

18 A. I paid him to do what was needed to be done, yes.

19 Q. Did you review it?

20 A. He asked me a series of questions. I don't know if I
21 actually saw the actual document beforehand. Saw it
22 afterwards.

23 Q. And after you reviewed it, did you tell him? This is the 24 same document that we looked at right before the break where we 25 identified together two falsehoods.

1 Did you tell your lawyer, at any time, the information
2 in these Form D filings that he filed with your signature were 3 false?

4 A. I can't speak to what was supposed to be on the document or 5 what he did, no.

6 Q. I'm asking you whether you told him it was false.

7 Mr. Furman, let's backup.

8 The two inconsistencies, the two lies to the 9 government in this document, one, the number of investors in 10 Fidelis. We walked through it. In your form you stated there
11 were two. And in reality you had at least 29.

12 Did you ever make any effort to correct this filing
13 with the SEC to reflect the truth about your offering?

14 A. I was unaware there are any errors. I was asked a series
15 of questions from my attorney, which I answered truthfully and 16 honestly, and he filed whatever necessary documents, which is 17 what I hired him to do so. If it was 29 or 27 it could have 18 been a typo and that's why there's two there. I can't speak to 19 that. You would have to ask him.

20 Q. Well, I'm asking you. Is this Erik Weingold?

21 A. Erik Weingold was my securities attorney, yes.

22 Q. So my question is very simple. Did you review these Form D
23 filings bearing your signature, your written signature that
24 were made with the U.S. government on your behalf? Did you
25 review them before they were filed?

1 A. I don't believe beforehand, no.

2 Q. Did you review them afterwards?

3 A. At some point I asked for copies. I don't know when they
4 sent them, if he ever sent them, to be honest with you.

5 MS. BERLIN: Can we show P 52 only to the witness.

6 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

7 BY MS. BERLIN:

8 Q. I have hard copies here, Mr. Furman, if at any time you'd
9 rather hold the hard copy. I know that's always my preference
10 let me know. And I'll ask the Court if I can approach to give 11 it to you.

12 So we're looking at -- on your screen P 52. Do you
13 recognize this document?

14 A. Yes. Looks familiar.

15 Q. And if you turn to -- if we can scroll to Pdf page 3. Is 16 that your signature?

17 A. Yes. Looks like a certificate that I would sign, or my 18 assistant would have me sign.

19 Q. And this a Fidelis document?

20 A. Yes.

21 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to introduce P 52.

22 MR. HYMAN: Best evidence, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: That will be overruled. It may be
24 admitted.

25 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

1 MS. BERLIN: Is it available to everyone? Thank you.

2 All right. Can we scroll back to page 1.

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. Now, Mr. Furman, while we're doing that, Par Funding paid

5 you 20 percent interest on the money that you sent up to

6 Par Funding, correct?

7 A. Paid the fund.

8 Q. 20 percent, correct?

9 A. Total, correct.

10 Q. To Fidelis, which was your company?

11 A. The fund, yes.

12 Q. And again, "the fund" is called Fidelis?

13 A. United Fidelis Group, which is my company, and then Fidelis
14 Financial Planning, which I called it the fund, yes.

15 Q. So when you refer to the fund, you're talking about --

16 A. Fidelis Financial Planning, not United Fidelis Group.

17 Q. And Fidelis Financial Planning, I might call it Fidelis
18 today just because it's a little shorter. If I do that, will 19 you understand that Fidelis means Fidelis Financial Planning?

20 A. I will try.

21 Q. Okay. And if you reference "the fund," should we 22 understand that you're referring to Fidelis?

23 A. I will state Fidelis Financial Planning. I don't want to 24 confuse the two. They both have the word Fidelis in them.

25 Q. Understood. Understood. So Par Funding would pay you 20

1 percent on the amount of money, the investor money that you
2 sent to Par Funding for the purchase of a promissory note; is 3 that right?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And then we're looking at P 52. This is a promissory note
6 from Fidelis to one of those investors whose money you sent to 7 Par Funding for the 20 percent note; is that right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And it's -- this one went out to Gary DeLucco?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And you paid him 9 percent?

12 A. That was the rate for that amount, correct.

13 Q. So Par Funding would pay you 20 percent, and 9 percent of 14 that amount, once you got it, 9 percent would go to 15 Mr. DeLucco; is that right?

16 A. Correct. In that instance.

17 Q. So on Mr. DeLucco's investment, you would get 11 percent
18 and he would get 9?

19 A. Incorrect.

20 Q. Tell us.

21 A. 25 percent of that went into ABFP. They were the 22 management.

23 Q. We're going to get there.

24 So 11 percent -- correct me if I'm wrong -- 20 percent
25 comes in. 11 percent goes to -- goes towards Fidelis, 9

1 percent goes to Mr. DeLucco, and out of your 11 percent you
2 send 25 percent of that figure to Dean Vagnozzi's company ABFP
3 Management for the work that they're doing; is that correct?

4 A. Whether they took it out beforehand or not, I can't -- they
5 did all the management and accounting. I believe it was 6 actually in the fund, but I can't attest to that, whether they
7 took their fee out. I don't believe so.

8 Q. We can do it again.

9 MS. BERLIN: Pull up P 205.

10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. I was just trying to establish, Mr. Furman, that -- my 12 question is Par Funding sends 20 percent to you, and that was 13 Fidelis, and 9 percent -- you then send 9 percent off to the 14 investor, correct?

15 A. ABFP Management handled that for a majority of the time.
16 But yes.

17 Q. So the investor gets 9 percent and the balance, the 11
18 percent that's there is, you give a cut to ABFP Management and 19 you get yours; is that right?

20 A. Not every time. There's a class there, as you can see on 21 the document. But for this specific document, yes, he got 9
22 percent. Not everybody.

23 MS. BERLIN: So we do not need to show him the chart
24 again. We can take that down. Let's go back to P 52.

25 BY MS. BERLIN:

1 Q. Now, Mr. DeLucco -- one of your -- the people who gave
2 money to you in connection with the Par Funding investment,
3 correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And did you have any investors who contributed towards the 6 Par Funding investment who were not senior citizens?

7 A. Can you define senior citizen? Yes, I did. I know that.

8 Q. You had one, your business partner, Roland Manuel, he's not 9 a senior citizen, correct?

10 A. He is not a senior citizen.

11 Q. And can you name any other? Let's say below the age of 60.

12 A. Nicholas Pancoast.

13 Q. And?

14 A. Off the top of my head, I know that -- I don't know the 15 Meyer's age off the top -- I don't know my clients' ages --

16 Q. They're more than 60, I'll proffer that.

17 A. Close to 60, but they wouldn't qualify for Medicare. I'm 18 not sure how many clients qualify for Medicare at 65, what's a 19 senior citizen.

20 Q. Okay. So you can identify your business partner and then
21 Nicholas Pancoast sitting here today?

22 A. Pancoast.

23 Q. Pancoast, sitting here today, correct?

24 A. That's two of them.

25 Q. And can you name any others?

1 A. Off the top of my head, no, I cannot.

2 Q. And you --

3 A. (Cross-talk) -- retirees.

4 Q. -- you solicited -- you advertised this investment as a way
5 to invest retirement money, correct?

6 A. As an investment.

7 Q. Did your advertisements discuss investing retirement money,
8 Mr. Furman?

9 A. Some did, I'm sure. Yes.

10 Q. Now, when you -- when the SEC sent you the request for 11 admissions that we looked at earlier today, you asserted the 12 Fifth Amendment at that time as to whether or not you were 13 distributing Par Funding marketing materials.

14 Do you recall that?

15 A. That's what my attorney told me to do at that time.

16 Q. I'm not asking about that. I'm just asking if you recall
17 that or if you want me to show you the document. We're trying 18 to move forward.

19 A. I don't need to see it.

20 Q. Well, if you can't answer, we'll have to go to the 21 document.

22 MS. BERLIN: So let's pull up P 553.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. And in P 553 -- and I'll find it for you. The only 25 question is whether or not you remember, you agree with me that

1 you asserted the Fifth Amendment concerning whether or not you
2 distributed Par Funding marketing materials. And that will be 3 at --

4 MS. BERLIN: Let's go to 31. It's on page 7.

5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. So looking at your request for admissions in evidence as P
7 553, Mr. Furman, you've been -- the SEC initially asked you
8 about the marketing materials.

9 Do you agree with me that you answered under penalty
10 of personal asserting your Fifth Amendment rights when asked to 11 admit that Exhibit F, which we'll show you in a moment, is a
12 true and correct copy of a Par Funding marketing material you
13 distributed to potential investors in at least 2017 when 14 soliciting them to invest in Par Funding promissory notes? Do
15 you see that?

16 A. I see it on the screen.

17 MS. BERLIN: And so now can you show Exhibit F,
18 please.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

20 Q. And is -- Exhibit F is the Par Funding marketing material
21 being referred to.

22 Do you see that in the bottom right-hand corner?

23 A. I see Exhibit F.

24 Q. So I was just trying to establish, initially you asserted
25 your Fifth Amendment right in refusing to provide an answer as

1 to whether or not you distributed this marketing brochure to
2 investors when soliciting them to invest in Par Funding.

3 Correct?

4 A. Back on August 2020, under advice of counsel, that's what I
5 answered, yes.

6 Q. And so you did, in fact, distribute this Par Funding
7 brochure to people that you were soliciting for the Par Funding
8 investment; would you agree with me?

9 A. This looks familiar, but it was a very old brochure. I
10 know that they sent a much newer brochure the majority of the 11 time. I think I saw that when I very first met them.

12 Q. So was this a brochure that you distributed early on?

13 A. I can't say if I distributed this one. I know I
14 distributed Par Funding brochures to some investors, but this 15 was a very old brochure. This looks like a pdf that they sent.

16 Q. We have the original. But I'm just trying to establish 17 whether you distributed the Par Funding brochures.

18 A. I'm sure in the beginning. If somebody asked, but that 19 wasn't the majority of the brochures that we used, no.

20 Q. But you distributed maybe to Renee Meyer?

21 A. I can't recall what I sent her, whatever information that I
22 could to help them understand.

23 Q. Okay. We'll get to Renee Meyer's marketing materials, 24 Mr. Furman. So your assertion is you don't know -- your 25 testimony, now that you're testifying, is that you don't

1 remember -- I just want to make sure I understand.

2 A. People and dates? No. It looks familiar, this document,
3 yes.

4 Q. And you don't remember if you ever distributed it?

5 A. I tried to provide as much information. So if I had that
6 in my possession, I wouldn't not show it to somebody, but I
7 can't tell you a date of when.

8 Q. I'm not asking for a date, Mr. Furman. I was just asking
9 you a very general question.

10 A. Lacks like something that I would have given out if I was 11 able to.

12 Q. Okay. Thank you.

13 And in addition to --

14 MS. BERLIN: We can take this off the screen.

15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. In addition to what we're looking at now, you also 17 distributed -- did you also distribute this brochure, this 18 Par Funding brochure? And I'll hand it to you.

19 A. No.

20 Q. It has your business card inside?

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. Some brochures inside?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And do you see it has the Par Funding corporate? This is 25 already in evidence.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And behind it, it has this document that we were just
3 looking at on the screen?

4 A. Okay. Yeah.

5 There you go.

6 MS. BERLIN: May I approach the witness?

7 THE COURT: You may.

8 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

10 Q. And so this folder, if we can just open it to page 2. This 11 folder -- and we're looking on the screen -- it has your 12 business card in it, and then on the other side, it has the two 13 marketing brochures for Par Funding? This is yours?

14 A. At some point, yeah.

15 Q. And would you -- when would you give this type of folder or 16 this Par Funding folder to potential investors? Did it happen
17 at events that you would hold?

18 A. Most likely, yes. This is, again, very early on. It
19 changed since then, but yeah.

20 Q. Well, let's look at the chart that you're holding.

21 MS. BERLIN: May I approach the witness, Your Honor?

22 Can I have it back? I'll give it right back. There
23 you go.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

25 Q. Do you see that in the left-hand pocket, that chart which

1 is a little blurry on our screens, but it actually says that
2 chart alone shows financial information through December 31st,
3 2018.

4 Do you see that?

5 A. It's not what's on the screen, but yes.

6 Q. I just -- yeah. So we're not being confusing, we'll turn
7 off your screen.

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So in the folder that you distributed, that you said was 10 used early on, I'm asking you to agree -- whether you agree
11 with me that, in fact, that folder has marketing material in 12 the left-hand pocket that is -- it states at the top it's a
13 chart showing financial information through December 31st,
14 2018.

15 Do you see that in the upper left-hand corner?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. So you would agree with me that this folder was -- and this 18 information is from at least after December 31st, 2018?

19 A. At some point, yes.

20 Q. And when you talk about early on, you're actually talking
21 about -- you first learned about Par Funding in 2017?

22 A. Very late 2017, yes.

23 Q. Through Dean Vagnozzi?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And you saw an advertisement in a magazine that led you to

1 an event in Philadelphia?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And while you were there in Philadelphia, you meet with 4 Dean Vagnozzi from A Better Financial Plan?

5 A. Among many others, yes. He was the host.

6 Q. And during that trip, did you also meet Perry Abbonizio?

7 A. Later, yeah. Later in the -- part of that trip, yes.

8 Q. And part of the trip, you all got together and you went
9 over to Par Funding's offices; is that correct?

10 A. Yeah. We did a walkthrough.

11 Q. And later you met Perry Abbonizio and Joseph LaForte and 12 other people; is that right?

13 A. Briefly, yeah.

14 Q. And then you came back. It was a two-day seminar?

15 A. Off the top of my head, sounds about right. It wasn't very 16 long, yeah, a couple of days.

17 Q. Yeah, in early November?

18 A. November sometime, yeah. I don't remember the dates, but 19 yes, sounds about right.

20 Q. And then when you came back from Philadelphia, did you --
21 were you living in West Palm Beach at the time? You came back
22 to the West Palm?

23 A. Always, yes.

24 Q. And when you got back from Philadelphia at some point in 25 November, would you agree with me that you almost immediately

1 started pitching the Par Funding investment to people?

2 A. No. I would not agree with that statement.

3 MS. BERLIN: Okay. I wonder if we could show the 4 witness P 18. It's not in evidence yet.

5 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

6 MR. HYMAN: No objection to its introduction.

7 THE COURT: We'll admit that, P 18.

8 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

10 Q. So we can show this now, P 18. Thank you.

11 So P 18, do you see that this is an e-mail? It's from 12 you to Russ Meyer and Renee Meyer?

13 A. I see that.

14 Q. And they eventually made an investment -- initially they 15 made an investment in an ABFP promissory note and then in 16 Fidelis notes.

17 Would you agree with me?

18 MR. HYMAN: Compound.

19 THE COURT: Overruled.

20 A. I know they invested with me eventually, yes.

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. But they also invested with ABFP. Would you agree with me?

23 A. I cannot speak to that. I wasn't a part of that at that 24 time.

25 Q. Oh, you weren't?

1 A. I helped out, but this was not my fund.

2 Q. You didn't, like, provide any documents to -- you didn't
3 make that deal happen?

4 A. I provided them with information. They knew it very well.
5 I was going to Philadelphia to learn about a new investment
6 that I was excited about, they were excited about. I learned
7 about multiple investments. They wanted more information on 8 specifically merchant cash advance, and as a client of mine
9 with annuities, yes, I provided more information to help them
10 out while I was getting my fund together.

11 Q. And because your fund wasn't created yet, meaning Fidelis,
12 they initially -- after you told them about it, they invested
13 in Dean Vagnozzi's company, ABFP?

14 A. I wanted them to invest in my fund, and they were very 15 impatient, did not want to invest or did not want to wait the 16 couple of months I needed.

17 Q. So if I understand you correctly, you testified you were 18 not involved in their investment in ABFP?

19 A. Well, they learned about ABFP, about Par Funding and 20 merchant cash advance in general from me. I provided
21 information about my trip that I got from Dean.

22 Q. I'm not talking about that. A few minutes ago, when I
23 asked you about their investment in an ABFP promissory note,
24 remember, I said first they invested in the ABFP note, and then 25 they invested in a Fidelis note? And I understood your

1 testimony to be that you weren't involved in their investment
2 in the ABFP promissory note.

3 A. I didn't fill it out for them, no. I was trying to get
4 them to invest in my fund. They did not want to wait.

5 Q. So what was your involvement in their investment in the 6 ABFP fund, if anything?

7 A. I provided Dean Vagnozzi's phone number to them.

8 Q. Well, let's look at this e-mail. So this is your e-mail to 9 the Meyers.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And initially -- today you're acknowledging this is your 12 e-mail?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And initially, in your request for admissions, which we
15 looked at before, you asserted the Fifth Amendment when asked
16 about this specific document.

17 Do you recall that?

18 A. Can you repeat that question? Sorry.

19 Q. When the SEC asked you about this e-mail that we're seeing 20 on the screen, P 18, initially you swore under oath asserting
21 the Fifth Amendment to this document. And specifically, you
22 were asked: Admit that Exhibit G -- which is what we're
23 looking at now -- is a true and correct copy of your e-mail
24 message to a potential investor in November of 2017. And you
25 asserted the Fifth.

1 Do you remember that?

2 A. Way back on August 2020, under advice of counsel, I believe
3 that was like the first week this happened, yes.

4 Q. And now you're going to testify about it, correct?

5 A. Truthfully answer, yes.

6 Q. So in P 18, you would agree with me that you're telling the 7 Meyers -- if you look at the fourth line down, where it says --
8 you're telling them that you've spoken directly with your 9 partner. And at the top, you see it says: MCA investment
10 information, video and summary.

11 Do you see that?

12 A. Yes, I see that.

13 Q. And you referenced that you've spoken directly with your 14 partner. Who is your partner? What partner are you referring 15 to here?

16 A. I was considering the future working relationship with 17 Dean Vagnozzi.

18 Q. So the partner here is a reference to Dean Vagnozzi?

19 A. My company was partnering with ABFP Management, yes.

20 Q. And then if you look down further, you let them know that 21 Perry, who is a part owner and does over 50 million dollars of 22 his own money invested, who is someone I will make sure you
23 meet some day as he will be in town with me soon.

24 Do you see that?

25 A. Yes. Those are the few days in Philadelphia.

1 Q. So you told the Meyers that Perry Abbonizio -- and I'm
2 assuming that Perry means Perry Abbonizio who we heard testify?

3 A. That's who I meant, yes. That was who I was referencing,
4 correct.

5 Q. And that's the same person who was here testifying a couple
6 of days ago in court?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you told the Meyers that he's a part owner of 9 Par Funding and that he invested 50 million dollars of his own
10 money?

11 A. That's what he represented and said, so yes.

12 Q. And you heard Mr. Abbonizio, who is not a party to this 13 case, testify that he didn't invest 50 million and he never 14 told you that, correct?

15 A. He represented he did as retained earnings, yes.

16 Q. My question is different. I'm just asking, did you hear
17 him testify to that in court?

18 A. I heard him, yes.

19 Q. And you sent -- and we're looking at P 18. You sent the 20 Meyers in November -- this is November 18th, 2017 -- videos and 21 information about the Par Funding investment, correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. So this is shortly after you get back from your trip to 24 Philadelphia where you first learned about it. You said that 25 was in November. You couldn't remember exactly when. And here

1 we are, this is November 18th. So at the most, it's been 17
2 days.

3 Would you agree with me?

4 A. If it was the 1st, correct.

5 Q. Can we turn to page 2 of P 18.

6 MS. BERLIN: If we could blow up that paragraph, the 7 bottom.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. You told the Meyers that the bad debt for the company was 10 under 1 percent.

11 Do you see that?

12 A. I see that.

13 Q. And then you went on to tell them that touting the due
14 diligence that was done at Par Funding.

15 Do you see he that?

16 A. I see that.

17 Q. And you also referenced that there are background checks
18 done, criminal and background checks.

19 Do you see that?

20 A. That's what I was told.

21 Q. Did you ever tell the Meyers that the person who was 22 running Par Funding and taking investor money was himself a
23 criminal?

24 A. I cannot say that he ever was, but I did not remember
25 having that exact discussion.

1 Q. So you didn't tell the Meyers that?

2 A. Not in that manner, no.

3 Q. Well, in any manner did you tell the Meyers that Joseph
4 LaForte worked at -- in any manner at Par Funding and was a
5 convict?

6 A. At some point.

7 Q. When?

8 A. I can't speak to exactly. I didn't know in the beginning,
9 no.

10 Q. When did you tell Renee Meyer?

11 A. I didn't speak to Renee as much or else I would have 12 discussed it with her.

13 Q. When did you tell Russ?

14 A. It would have been in my office.

15 Q. When?

16 A. Sometime in 2019 most likely, 2020. I can't remember the 17 date. I saw them many times. They have many investments with 18 myself.

19 Q. Right. And they live near this courthouse, don't they?

20 A. Russ Meyer?

21 Q. Yes.

22 A. I wouldn't say they live close by. They live the opposite
23 way of where I live. North of me.

24 Q. And you're familiar, Mr. Furman, with a declaration from 25 Renee Meyer in this case that -- swearing under oath that you

1 never told them about Mr. Furman (sic) being a convict?

2 A. I can't speak to what Renee speaks to.

3 MR. HYMAN: Objection, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Overruled.

5 You may answer. Go ahead.

6 A. Can you repeat the question? Sorry.

7 BY MS. BERLIN:

8 Q. You aware of a sworn declaration from Renee Meyer in this
9 case that you never told them about Joseph LaForte being a
10 convict? You're aware of that declaration?

11 MR. HYMAN: Improper impeachment.

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 A. I'm aware of it.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

15 Q. And, in fact, after you got that declaration, you sent an 16 e-mail to Russ Meyer taking issue with it because you were very 17 angry; is that right?

18 A. I didn't take issue with anything other than they wanted my 19 help, and I said, as they made a material misrepresentation to 20 the Court, I would suggest they go somewhere else for help.

21 Q. And so while the Meyers say that you never told them about
22 this, it's your testimony that you did and that you told them
23 in 2019. Am I understanding you correctly?

24 A. I did not say a date. I said probably sometime in 2019,
25 that was early on. I did not learn of it early on. And I

1 never would say he was the owner.

2 Q. Let's backup for a second. During your deposition you
3 testified that you told Frank Nash that Joseph LaForte was a
4 convict.

5 Do you recall that?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. And that's the same Frank Nash who testified here
8 yesterday, the pilot who testified that you never told him
9 that, correct? There's only one Frank Nash?

10 A. Frank Nash had said that three Par Funding owners were in 11 my event.

12 Q. Mr. Furman --

13 A. (Cross-talk) -- being part of the Gambino crime family.

14 Q. Mr. Furman, if you could just listen to me.

15 A. Sure.

16 Q. And answer the question.

17 Are we talking about the same Frank Nash? The 18 person -- the man who was here yesterday --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- who testified that you never told him that?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you're claiming he, too, is a liar?

23 A. A hundred percent.

24 Q. And you're also claiming that you did not know that Joseph
25 LaForte -- when -- did you ever find out that Joseph LaForte

1 was a convicted felon?

2 A. At some point I did, yes.

3 Q. When?

4 A. I do not remember the date. Mark Nardelli told me, another
5 fund manager, and it was probably 2018 I think it was. But not 6 as the owner.

7 Q. I'm sorry. In what year do you think it was?

8 A. I believe 2018. Again, I can't remember exactly.

9 Q. In 2018?

10 A. I'm thinking. Yeah.

11 Q. So shortly after --

12 A. It was not -- it definitely was not 2017. 2019 or late 13 2018.

14 Q. But what we understand is, in 2017 -- in 2017 you only 15 learned about this in the last month of 2017, correct?

16 A. (Head nodding.)

17 Q. And the Meyers, they invested with you several times over
18 the course of years, correct?

19 A. Several investments, yes.

20 Q. But in Par Funding?

21 A. Well, they have two and it rolled over, yes.

22 Q. Well, we can look at the chart if you can't remember. But
23 would you agree with me --

24 A. A couple of times.

25 Q. -- that they continued investing --

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. -- with you in 2019?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And you learned about the Joseph LaForte criminal record in 5 2019? 2018? What did you say?

6 A. Probably late '18 or '19. Again, I don't remember exactly
7 when. I testified to that before or deposed about that. I'm 8 not sure what the answer to that is.

9 Q. And you were aware within your first year of doing business
10 with Par Funding and Dean Vagnozzi that Mr. LaForte's family
11 had been previously wrapped up in a real estate fraud, correct?

12 A. Is that a question? Sorry.

13 Q. Yes.

14 A. Can you repeat the question?

15 Q. Sure. You're aware of -- I'm sorry.

16 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we should probably --
17 sensitive subject.

18 THE COURT: Sure. Let's go ahead and mute that. If 19 we can go ahead and take off the audio, please.

20 All right. Go ahead.

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. You first became aware of Joseph LaForte's criminal history
23 within the first year of doing business with Par and Vagnozzi.
24 And you learned that he and his family had been wrapped up in a
25 real estate fraud; is that correct?

1 A. Can't say it was in the first year, but yes. When I
2 learned about it, that's what I was told.

3 Q. Well, Mr. Furman, do you recall being interviewed by the 4 FBI on July 28th, 2020?

5 A. I barely remember any of that. But yes, I remember that
6 day. I will never forget that day.

7 Q. And you spoke with two FBI agents?

8 A. Forcibly, yes.

9 Q. Forcibly? It was in your office --

10 A. (Cross-talk) -- it was not in my office. It was...

11 Q. Mr. LaForte -- I'm sorry, Mr. Furman --

12 A. -- (cross-talk)

13 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, can you (cross-talk) the
14 question?

15 THE COURT: He said voluntarily. He withdrew that.

16 A. It's voluntarily.

17 THE COURT: Oh, it's not voluntarily? Okay. You can 18 deal with the repercussions of that in a separate lawsuit.

19 Let's go ahead and continue, please.

20 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. And during that interview, you told the agents, didn't you,
23 that you became aware of LaForte's criminal history within the 24 first year of doing business with Par Funding and Dean
25 Vagnozzi?

1 A. I can't remember anything I said that day. I remember what
2 I would have said, and I don't know the dates. I don't know
3 the date today.

4 Q. Were you aware of Joseph LaForte's use of aliases to 5 conceal his involvement at Par Funding?

6 A. I know he went by Joe Mack. And I wouldn't use the word
7 "alias" but besides...

8 Q. His real name was Joe LaForte and you -- but you would 9 agree with me that he would use other names, including
10 Joe Mack?

11 A. (Cross-talk) -- probably five minutes in my entire life,
12 but yes, I probably heard Joe Mack and I know Joseph LaForte
13 eventually, I heard, or I know of.

14 Q. So you met Joe LaForte for five minutes in your whole life?

15 A. Probably that first event, and I passed through that office
16 one other time, yes. I didn't stay for dinner at that event.

17 MS. BERLIN: Let's look at P 192. Only show the 18 witness, please.

19 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. Is this your handwriting?

22 A. Looks to be, yes.

23 Q. These are your notes?

24 A. At some point, it looks like, yes.

25 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to introduce this as

1 an exhibit.

2 THE COURT: That will be admitted.

3 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

5 Q. And if you look at P 192 --

6 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if we can please turn to Pdf
7 page 2.

8 We can publish. Thank you.

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

10 Q. Do you see on page 2, Pdf page 2 --

11 MS. BERLIN: May I go speak with -- it looks like our 12 exhibits are different.

13 THE COURT: Yeah.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

15 Q. I'm sorry, looking at page 3, do you see in your notes
16 where it says: All goes to Joe LaForte?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And you understood that these notes are about 19 Par Funding; would you agree with me or do you want to go
20 through them?

21 A. No. I remember when this -- or what this was.

22 Q. And then if we turn to the second to last page. And -- I'm 23 sorry, let's go -- we can go ahead and just go to the last
24 page.

25 This is a list of investors that you had for

1 Par Funding?

2 A. That's a list of -- yeah.

3 Q. This is your handwriting, correct?

4 A. Now it is, yeah. It wasn't on that page.

5 Q. You remember we went through this chart earlier today and I
6 read you some of the names, for like the first six months of 7 your investment offering.

8 Do you remember that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you agree with me that this is a list of the people who
11 invested in Fidelis for Par Funding?

12 A. Looks to be, yes.

13 Q. This isn't all of them, but this is a partial list,
14 correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And then did you also, Mr. Furman, Mr. LaForte had a home
17 in Jupiter, right?

18 A. I was told that, yes.

19 Q. Did you help him get that house?

20 A. Not at all.

21 Q. You didn't help him with it?

22 A. Not even -- no. Not in the least bit.

23 Q. Okay. And, in fact, you were concerned about the issue
24 with Joseph LaForte and you went and you spoke with Perry
25 Abbonizio about it, correct?

1 A. At some point, yeah.

2 Q. And you also went and talked to Dean Vagnozzi about it,
3 right?

4 A. Tried to, yes.

5 Q. And -- but you never -- like, you didn't -- you went and
6 spoke with him about your concerns but you did not disclose
7 this to the investors who were giving money to Par Funding,
8 correct?

9 A. After I knew about it, and spoke to -- and tried to get the 10 correct story, I could only relay what I was told.

11 Q. My question is: Did you tell the investors -- did you tell
12 all of these investors, all of the investors who gave money to 13 Par Funding -- you didn't -- you didn't tell them all about Joe 14 LaForte's criminal conviction, correct?

15 A. I can't tell you I told every single one of them. I can't 16 say that some of them invested before I even knew about Joseph
17 LaForte's criminal history.

18 Q. Well, when I asked for your deposition, you'll agree with 19 me that you testified that you told Frank Nash --

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. -- that Joseph LaForte was a convict?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And do you recall that --

24 MS. BERLIN: This is another sensitive moment.

25 THE COURT: It's still muted.

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. That when you were interviewed by the FBI, that you
3 acknowledged it to them, that you did not mention Par Funding's
4 past regulatory history and LaForte's past criminal history.

5 Do you recall that?

6 A. Not offhand. I remember what I -- that day was, like I
7 said, not something that I can remember word for word.

8 Q. Okay. So are you saying that all of the investors who have 9 sworn under oath and stated that you never told them about this 10 conviction, that they're all lying?

11 A. I can only tell you the ones that I've read and 12 specifically remember those situations. I know Frank Nash lied
13 yesterday, yes.

14 Q. Mr. Furman, you sent a lot of e-mails to your clients and 15 to potential investors, correct?

16 A. Generally.

17 Q. And we just looked at one with Renee Meyer, right?

18 A. Russ and Renee, yes.

19 Q. And you -- so you have a lot of e-mails through Fidelis and 20 text messages, correct?

21 A. I wouldn't say a lot of text messages, no.

22 Q. Well, we'll look at those later. But can you point to a
23 single e-mail or text message to any client -- because they're 24 all in this case -- any one ever written representation to any 25 client that Mr. LaForte is a convict?

1 A. I handled most of my conversations in person. Most of my
2 business was in person.

3 Q. But that's not my question. And your attorney will get to 4 ask you cross-examination. I'm just trying to get through
5 direct, and this is --

6 A. -- (cross-talk) I don't remember.

7 Q. These are clear direct questions. My question is: Can you
8 point me to -- out of thousands of e-mails and text messages --
9 a single -- with clients -- a single e-mail to anyone, to any 10 client or potential investor telling them and disclosing that 11 Joseph LaForte of Par Funding is a convict, yes or no?

12 A. There very well may be e-mails, but I can't point you to 13 one.

14 Q. Because you would be presenting it as an exhibit? I'm 15 sure, right?

16 A. I turned over my e-mails to you voluntarily. I'm not sure
17 why you're bringing it up.

18 Q. Mr. Furman, I don't want to argue. I'm just trying to ask
19 you direct questions.

20 A. I'm answering truthfully, answering your questions.

21 THE COURT: Move along. Let's go.

22 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. Mr. Furman --

25 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, would you mind turning

1 the Zoom back on?

2 MS. BERLIN: I think we're going to be hitting it a
3 lot.

4 THE COURT: We'll leave it off for now.

5 MS. BERLIN: I think we're going to be going quite a
6 bit.

7 THE COURT: We'll leave it off. Let's go.

8 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if we could go to P 218, and 9 this is not yet in evidence. So just show it to the witness,
10 please.

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

12 BY MS. BERLIN:

13 Q. And, Mr. Furman, while that's coming up, you testified a
14 few moments ago that you only met Mr. LaForte for five minutes?

15 A. I can't speak to the exact time period, but it was 16 extremely brief.

17 MR. HYMAN: No objection to 218 being shown to the 18 jury.

19 THE COURT: 218 will be admitted at this time.

20 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. And is this a -- this is one of your sales events.

23 MS. BERLIN: Can we publish it?

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

25 Q. This is one of your sales events?

1 MS. BERLIN: Maybe we can rotate it a bit.

2 A. Looks like it.

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. And you would get -- so that's the group of potential
5 investors who heard about your investment --

6 MS. BERLIN: Can we rotate it?

7 BY MS. BERLIN:

8 Q. -- who heard about your investment on the radio or in a
9 newspaper advertisement? Those are the means that you used to 10 advertise?

11 A. They got there one of many ways.

12 Q. So we can talk about this briefly. Did you ever advertise
13 by radio?

14 A. Briefly.

15 Q. Did you advertise on television?

16 A. I think I did one or two times, yeah.

17 Q. Did you advertise in the Palm Beach Post?

18 A. That was predominantly, yes.

19 Q. And on the internet, there were websites, correct?

20 A. I had a website, yes.

21 Q. And so here, this is a picture of you speaking to a group
22 of potential investors in West Palm?

23 A. Looks to be, yes.

24 Q. And these people would have come to this event through one
25 of those means, right?

1 A. Most likely.

2 MS. BERLIN: Can we take that down and show P 215.
3 Only to the witness. It's not in evidence yet.

4 MR. HYMAN: No objection, Your Honor.

5 MS. BERLIN: Can we introduce --

6 THE COURT: That will be admitted. You can publish.

7 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

8 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

9 MS. BERLIN: 215, Your Honor, can I just hand the hard
10 copy to the witness?

11 THE COURT: You may.

12 MS. BERLIN: We can pass it around maybe.

13 THE COURT: Sure.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

15 Q. So looking at 215, can you turn the page in this document
16 to the section -- you might see I gave you my handwritten
17 one right out of the bracket around it. It references --

18 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, can I just approach the 19 witness? It will be easier.

20 THE COURT: Sure.

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. Could you just read in that portion starting with "We will 23 show you"? This is from your website, right?

24 A. Yes. An old one, yes.

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. "We will show you how to not rely on the stock market."

2 Keep going?

3 Q. Yes.

4 A. "Due diligence up close allows our investors to sleep.

5 Over 100 million without any late payments. Market

6 alternatives do work. How many of your advisors go and meet

7 the owners of your stocks, mutual funds or insurance companies,

8 and how many investments have you made and can say that you

9 fully understand how they work inside and out. Then we will

10 earn your trust." I believe that's the end of your bracket.

11 Q. So you told these potential investors that one of the 12 things you touted was that you did due diligence yourself,

13 correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And that involved going and meeting the people who were 16 running these companies that you were investing in?

17 A. Yes, visited them in person, and we offered to do the same

18 for them.

19 Q. And you told them you would earn their trust, right? So

20 they could trust you to do this due diligence for them?

21 A. Earn their trust in a variety of ways, yes.

22 Q. I'm talking about the paragraph we just looked at, that you

23 read is about due diligence and the fact that you were going to 24 go and personally check out the people who are running the

25 companies that you're investing in so investors can sleep

1 better at night.

2 Is that about right?

3 A. That's up close, yes. I visited Par Funding in person,
4 correct.

5 Q. And -- but you did not disclose to the investors that 6 Joseph LaForte at Par Funding, who is -- according to you is 7 getting all the money, was a convicted felon even though you
8 knew, correct?

9 A. Incorrect. They never represented to me that Joseph 10 LaForte was an owner. I did not know any criminal history when 11 I first got involved, which is when this was published, and 12 those notes that you're talking about was during the pandemic,
13 after the exchange. That was my notes on Dean Vagnozzi's
14 attorneys' Zoom meeting. So we're talking a three-year
15 difference there.

16 Q. And again, I just want to make sure I understand you
17 correctly.

18 Is it your testimony that you did not tell -- admit to 19 the FBI, to two FBI agents on July 28th, 2020, that you became 20 aware of LaForte's criminal history within the first year of 21 doing business with Par Funding and Vagnozzi?

22 A. Well, there's a few incorrect statements there. Can I
23 address each of them fully without being interrupted?

24 Q. So did you tell them that or not? I'm not asking if that 25 statement --

1 A. It was not on July 28th, first of all. It was July 27th.
2 Also, I do know that I don't remember everywhere that I said
3 that. And I can't say the first year. I don't believe it was 4 in the first year.

5 Q. And do you recall that on July 28th, 2020, you admitted to 6 the FBI that you knew of the previous criminal history held by 7 Par Funding owner and operator?

8 MR. HYMAN: Objection, asked and answered.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

10 You may answer.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Owner/operator, Joseph LaForte?

13 A. I believe it was the 27th again. And I can't recall
14 exactly what I said that day.

15 Q. I'm not asking verbatim. I'm asking if you admitted to the 16 FBI agents that you knew that Joseph LaForte was an owner or 17 operator of Par Funding?

18 A. At that point in July -- was it July 2020? I found out
19 about his criminal history.

20 Q. So I'm not asking about the criminal history. My question
21 is -- I'll ask it again. Sorry.

22 A. Sure.

23 Q. My question was whether or not you told two FBI agents in 24 July 28th or July 27th, 2020, that you knew of the previous
25 criminal history that was held by Par Funding owner/operator,

1 Joseph LaForte. In other words, did you tell the agents that
2 you knew LaForte was an owner and operator of Par Funding? Did
3 you admit that?

4 A. I don't believe verbatim. Again, I remember that at that
5 point, I was starting to put puzzle pieces together after the 6 pandemic.

7 Q. So again, I'm not asking verbatim. I'm just asking
8 generally, did you acknowledge, did you admit to them that
9 yeah, you knew Joseph LaForte was an owner --

10 A. We talked about Joseph LaForte.

11 Q. Did you admit to them that you knew that Joseph LaForte was 12 an owner and operator of Par Funding?

13 A. If they implied that he was an owner at that point, maybe I
14 agreed. Again, I don't remember that conversation verbatim.

15 Q. Okay. And you -- just a bit ago, you remember you
16 mentioned something about Frank Nash referencing Joseph LaForte
17 and the Gambino crime family?

18 A. I think he referenced myself.

19 Q. I thought you testified to him about Gambino?

20 A. I believe Frank Nash did, yes.

21 Q. Okay. But you testified earlier today sort of indicating 22 to all of us that you thought that was sort of a wild concept?

23 A. That I'm part of the Gambino crime family, yes, I think
24 that that's one of the wildest statements I've heard.

25 Q. Not that you are. Mr. Furman, do you remember that in July

1 27th or 28th, 2020, when you were interviewed by two FBI
2 agents, that you actually discussed with them things that you
3 had read about LaForte's family ties to the Gambino crime
4 family? Do you remember you yourself discussing that with the 5 FBI?

6 A. I remember them bringing up the mob indication, yes. Or
7 implication or insinuation as well as to myself, which is why I
8 remember it. I am 25 percent Italian, if that goes against me.

9 Q. But you would agree with me that you did not bring up
10 Joseph LaForte or his criminal record every time to potential
11 investors who were considering investing in Par Funding?

12 A. Not every meeting, no.

13 Q. And so you did not bring it up to every person who invested
14 in the Par Funding through Fidelis.

15 Would you agree with me?

16 A. I did not have a checklist, no.

17 Q. And it's -- no where is that disclosed in any of the -- 18 like, the Par Funding brochure that we looked at or in any 19 other marketing materials; is that correct?

20 A. Not that I've seen.

21 Q. And you hosted several seminars for Par Funding in the 22 past, correct?

23 A. No.

24 Q. You might call them sales events or --

25 A. No. Events that were not Par Funding events by any means,

1 no.

2 Q. So the photo that we looked just a few minutes ago with the 3 audience in the restaurant, would you ever have events like
4 that where you would speak to an audience about investing in 5 Fidelis and investing in Par Funding?

6 A. Not just Par Funding, yes.

7 Q. Okay. But Par Funding was one of the investments that you
8 would discuss during the events?

9 A. At some of the events, yes.

10 Q. And so when you had these seminars and these events, and 11 you discussed Par Funding with the audience, like in the 12 picture that we saw, would you disclose to the audience
13 Mr. LaForte's criminal record, or involvement in the company?

14 A. I did not disclose, no. I was never told that was an owner
15 at that point, no.

16 Q. Right. But you understood that he was in charge of the 17 sales and underwriting at a minimum, correct?

18 A. He worked in sales or underwriting. I didn't know his 19 title.

20 Q. Let's talk about it a little bit more. After you first met
21 Joseph LaForte in early November 2017, you went and tried to 22 get more information about him, correct?

23 A. More information?

24 Q. You tried to have a discussion with him and find out what 25 you could. You performed some sort of online search about him.

1 Is that true?

2 A. In November 2017, no.

3 Q. Are you saying that at some point you did or --

4 A. Once I found out, yes. It was not in November 2017. It
5 was not in 2017 at all.

6 Q. And what did your search results show?

7 A. Once Mark Nardelli told me about the family history, we
8 found a -- well, what we could read of a Bloomberg article.

9 Q. You read a Bloomberg article.

10 My question is: What did you learn about Mr. LaForte
11 when you went online and you searched his name?

12 A. Again, it's all I saw, was a part of a Bloomberg article.
13 We could not read all of it. And so that he's why I called 14 Perry and I tried to call Dean. I only talked to Mike Tierney.
15 I spoke to Mark Nardelli. But that's who I bounced most of 16 this off of.

17 Q. You learned that he served prison time, correct?

18 A. Yeah. I don't remember how much.

19 Q. And you learned that there were two different crimes,
20 correct?

21 A. Yeah. I'm not going to say I understood both of them, but
22 yes.

23 Q. But you generally understood there were two criminal
24 charges, two incidents and that he went to jail, correct?

25 A. At the time, honestly, I believed it was one with multiple

1 counts or something. I'm not sure how you would term that
2 honestly, though. But yes. And then we thought he went to
3 jail for two years, I believe it was, or a year or something
4 like that, and served his time.

5 I had learned about the real estate or was told about
6 the real estate and his family.

7 Q. Are you concerned that he's watching?

8 A. Not in the least bit.

9 Q. By Zoom? No?

10 A. Should I be?

11 Q. I just asked if you were concerned.

12 A. Are you insinuating I should be?

13 THE COURT: We don't ask questions back.

14 A. Okay. My apologies.

15 THE COURT: Let's move on.

16 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. And with respect to the events you held for -- about 19 Fidelis, you held about five of them?

20 A. United Fidelis or --

21 Q. You had about five events for potential investors in your 22 Fidelis offering, correct?

23 A. Estimated, yeah. Sounds about right.

24 Q. And you were told you actually knew that Mr. LaForte was 25 one of the founders of the company, correct?

1 A. We were told that a family -- I believe it was his family
2 money or something started it. $500,000 is what we were told.
3 I believe Dean told that story.

4 Q. I'm not talking about his family or anyone other than him.
5 You were told, you knew, that Mr. LaForte was one of the 6 founders of the company? That he had helped start the company?

7 A. I was told part of his family money, yes.

8 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if we can just -- can we go to 9 his deposition by video to show him, at page 147, lines 21
10 through 25?

11 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, it's improper impeachment.
12 She's got to first lay the predicate.

13 THE COURT: Let's go ahead and do that, please. It's 14 a little tough today.

15 MS. BERLIN: I just -- that's the exact same question
16 I'm about to show. I will in a moment.

17 THE COURT: Cue up -- for proximity, just cue up the 18 video and then let's ask him again.

19 MS. BERLIN: I will, yes. I'm always going to ask
20 Kevin to do it first because it takes a few minutes, and then
21 I'll turn back to the witness.

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. So, Mr. Furman, do you recall having your deposition taken?

24 A. I do recall.

25 Q. And it was May 26th, 2021?

1 A. I'm going to take your word for it, yeah.

2 Q. Okay. So you don't remember the interview with the agents,
3 but you do -- that's what I'm asking. Do you remember you
4 being deposed by the SEC?

5 A. I remember it happened. I just don't remember what was 6 said then. Generally, I do.

7 MS. BERLIN: Oh, it's page 147, lines 21 through 25.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. And when you testified that day, did you testify
10 truthfully?

11 A. To the best of my knowledge. Tried to.

12 Q. And it's your testimony today that -- I'll just ask again,
13 while we're waiting. Didn't you understand that Mr. LaForte
14 was one of the founders of Par Funding?

15 A. I understood he and his family put up the money, yes.

16 Q. Were you told that Mr. LaForte -- I'm not asking about 17 anyone else -- were you told that Mr. LaForte helped start the 18 company?

19 A. In some capacity, yes.

20 Q. That's fine.

21 MS. BERLIN: We don't need to go there, Kevin. We can
22 move on. Thank you.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. And at a certain point -- sorry, one moment.

25 Eventually you learned that Joe LaForte was an owner,

1 correct?

2 A. I do today.

3 Q. But I mean we've already established, you went in and you
4 spoke with Perry Abbonizio and Dean Vagnozzi about your
5 concerns regarding Mr. LaForte.

6 And do you remember approximately when that was?

7 MR. HYMAN: Asked and answered.

8 THE COURT: Overruled. If he can remember.

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

10 Q. Do you remember when?

11 A. I don't remember when.

12 Q. And so for about late 2017 until July 2020, you coordinated
13 with Dean Vagnozzi to place investors and their investment
14 principal into Par Funding; would you agree with me?

15 A. ABFP. It wasn't really personally Dean Vagnozzi.

16 Q. I'm sorry. So are you saying -- can you explain -- are you
17 saying yes, but not Dean Vagnozzi, his company ABFP?

18 A. Well, the recruiting event I went to, we were -- when we
19 started our funds, we worked -- Dean hired or somebody there,
20 it was Michael Tierney who was in charge of managing us. So I
21 spoke really -- we were to speak with Mr. Tierney.

22 Q. So it would be more accurate to say that late 2017 until 23 about July 2020 you coordinated with Vagnozzi's company ABFP to 24 place investors and their investment principal into
25 Par Funding?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And you believed at that time that Dean Vagnozzi, who
3 you've identified earlier today as your partner, that he seemed 4 to raise funds for investments that, to you, Mr. Furman, seemed 5 like they were fraudulent?

6 A. Can you repeat that question?

7 Q. Sure. You believed that Mr. Vagnozzi seemed to raise funds
8 for investments that, to you, seemed like they were fraudulent.

9 Do you agree with me?

10 A. Not entirely.

11 Q. Mr. Furman, did you believe that Mr. Vagnozzi would lie to 12 investors?

13 A. I have no idea what Dean Vagnozzi would tell his investors.

14 Q. So that's not my question.

15 Mr. Furman, do you remember being interviewed by FBI
16 agents in July 27th or 28th, 2020, and telling them that for 17 the last three years you had coordinated with Dean Vagnozzi to 18 place investors and their investment principal into Par Funding
19 and that Mr. Vagnozzi seemed to raise funds for investments
20 that, to you, seemed like they were fraudulent.

21 Do you remember that?

22 A. Not particularly. I had stopped working with Dean Vagnozzi
23 and A Better Financial Plan very early on in 2020. I started
24 in late 2019, over numerous agreements, and I felt he was 25 lackadaisical. So yes, I severed ties with his business.

1 Q. My question was just whether you remember telling FBI
2 agents. Like, did you tell FBI agents that?

3 A. I can't recall exactly. I'm sure we went over Dean. I
4 know we did.

5 Q. But I'm not asking verbatim. I think you understand that.
6 Did you tell the FBI that?

7 A. Again, word for word, I can't remember what I told the FBI
8 that day. Did we discuss Dean? Yes.

9 Q. Mr. Furman, I'm going to say it one more time so that the 10 record is very clear.

11 A. Sure.

12 Q. And it's very clear that you understand what I'm asking.

13 I'm not asking -- when I ask you if you said something
14 to the FBI, or to FBI agents, I am not asking if it is 15 verbatim. And by that I mean, word for word. I am asking you
16 if you conveyed certain information to them. The wording might 17 be different, the message and facts and details, the same.

18 Do you understand?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Would you like to change your answer?

21 A. I know that we went over, and I probably conveyed that he
22 did a fraudulent offering or fraudulent investment that I found
23 out about at some point. Or was part of one.

24 Q. And you were paying from 2017 -- or late 2017 until 2020,
25 you were paying Mr. Vagnozzi and his company, ABFP, to do the

1 accounting for your business operations; is that correct?

2 A. They earned part of the interest, yes.

3 Q. And that's why they get their 25 percent cut?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. On the investments you put into Par Funding, right?

6 A. Strictly that.

7 Q. And -- one moment. Let's go back to Renee Meyer and Russ
8 Meyer. And you had testified that you didn't have any 9 involvement, other than giving them Dean Vagnozzi's phone
10 number. I'd like to discuss that in more detail.

11 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if we could please show the 12 witness 104.

13 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

14 MS. BERLIN: It hasn't been admitted.

15 MR. HYMAN: No objection.

16 THE COURT: You can admit that.

17 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

18 MS. BERLIN: 104, please.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

20 Q. So do you see that P 104 is your e-mail to 21 Perry@ParFunding. Is that Perry Abbonizio?

22 A. Yeah.

23 Q. Excuse me?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And to Dean Vagnozzi, correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And you're e-mailing them -- so initially we looked at 3 them. I could put that up. We looked at your e-mail to the 4 Meyers in November 2017, where you sent them the videos and all
5 the information about Par Funding offering.

6 Do you remember that?

7 A. I do.

8 Q. Now we're looking -- this is January 30th, 2018. And do
9 you see your e-mail to Perry Abbonizio and Dean Vagnozzi
10 stating that you: Want to check in and see if you know exactly
11 when we will be able to get Russell Meyer's MCA note started as 12 I know it was about 14 days out a couple of weeks ago. His 13 funds have been sitting there for over 30 days and really need
14 to get these invested and start his income.

15 Do you see that?

16 A. I see that.

17 Q. You go on to ask if there's anything that you can do to 18 help. Do you see that? It says: Can someone please let me
19 know when Dean's fund will be set up and if I can do anything
20 to help.

21 Do you see that?

22 A. I do.

23 Q. Let's turn to 103.

24 MS. BERLIN: Is there an objection to this?

25 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

1 MR. HYMAN: It's the already in.

2 THE COURT: No objection. It will be admitted P 103
3 at this time.

4 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. So do you see here in the middle of the page your e-mail to 7 Alexis Abbonizio? And we heard her testimony yesterday. Do
8 you remember?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And here you're writing to Alexis at Par Funding, asking
11 for an update on Russ Meyer's final MCA paperwork.

12 Do you see that?

13 A. I do.

14 Q. And they're asking for details about it.

15 Do you see that?

16 A. I do.

17 Q. And if we look down, we see correspondence between you,
18 Alexis Abbonizio and Russ Meyer. Russ Meyer would be the 19 investor, correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And you're writing back and forth through early January
22 about the Par Funding, the note agreements.

23 Do you see that?

24 A. Yes. I'm cc'd.

25 Q. And if you look at the next page, do you see that

1 Alexis Abbonizio is sending Russ Meyer the Par Funding
2 promissory note, security agreement, and other information for 3 the investment?

4 A. I see that written, yes.

5 MS. BERLIN: Let's turn now to 424.

6 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

7 MR. HYMAN: No objection.

8 MS. BERLIN: Can we introduce it?

9 THE COURT: You may.

10 MS. BERLIN: 424.

11 THE COURT: Admitted.

12 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

15 Q. Do you see this is your e-mail to Perry Abbonizio at 16 Par Funding from January 24th, 2018, and the subject says:
17 Urgent help for client for new note coming.

18 Do you see that?

19 A. I see that.

20 Q. And this is an e-mail about Russ Meyer and his investment,
21 correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And you write to Perry that your client wants to know
24 exactly when his money is going to be invested.

25 Do you see that?

1 A. I see that.

2 Q. And you're talking about the rate of interest on the note.
3 Do you see that as well?

4 A. I do.

5 Q. And you provide Mr. Meyers' contact information to Perry
6 Abbonizio.

7 Do you see that?

8 A. I did earlier, yes. There it is.

9 Q. And you're asking Mr. Abbonizio if he can e-mail and call
10 him to assure him this is being invested ASAP.

11 Do you see?

12 A. Yeah. He called me upset, and I forwarded the information.

13 Q. You can set P 424 aside.

14 Can we turn to 549. Do you recognize what we're
15 showing you on the screen premarked as P 549 as your e-mail
16 exchange with Dean Vagnozzi?

17 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

18 MR. HYMAN: (Inaud.)

19 MS. BERLIN: It's P 549.

20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. P 549 is correct on the screen.

22 Do you see your e-mail exchange with Dean Vagnozzi?

23 A. This is Dean's e-mail to me, yes.

24 Q. And if we scroll down, it goes for several pages. Do you
25 see that it's your exchange there from you to him?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And if we scroll down, you see continuation of the string?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And this is -- these are your e-mails with Dean Vagnozzi?

5 A. Looks to be, yes.

6 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to introduce this
7 exhibit.

8 THE COURT: Any objection?

9 MR. HYMAN: Last one, Dean Vagnozzi, is hearsay but...

10 THE COURT: That will be moved in.

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

12 MS. BERLIN: So let's publish it P 549.

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. Now, Mr. Furman, here you write to Dean Vagnozzi. This is 15 still about the same note from the Meyers. Do you see that?

16 The subject line: Need update on new note for Meyer.

17 Do you see it?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And that's -- here you're writing to him in the middle of 20 the page -- maybe if we scroll down a little bit more. And do

21 you see where you write to Dean Vagnozzi about the Meyers'

22 note? "Thanks, Dean. I know I already did the EIN with the

23 IRA holding company for you, and please let me know if you need

24 any help with setting up his monthly bank account. I'll let

25 him know to expect it to be done any day now. Thanks let me

1 know." And it goes on to thank him.

2 Do you see that?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. So did you do the EIN with the IRA holding company for the 5 Meyers?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And for this investment?

8 A. I assisted them, yes.

9 Q. And that was CAMA, the CAMA Plan?

10 A. I believe so, yes.

11 Q. That we heard Alexis Abbonizio to testify about yesterday?

12 A. Should be one in the same.

13 Q. So it's a way for people to invest their retirement money?

14 A. In varies places, yes.

15 Q. Well, in this instance, in Mr. Vagnozzi's, company ABFP,
16 and to Par Funding. That's what we've been looking at. You
17 understand that, correct?

18 A. Mr. Meyer invested in multiple places from that. So yes.

19 We utilized that account for multiple.

20 Q. These e-mails we have all been looking at, they've all been 21 with Par Funding and Dean Vagnozzi about his investment in 22 ABFP --

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. -- that you e-mailed him about for the merchant cash
25 advance Par Funding investment, correct?

1 A. These e-mails, yes.

2 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if we can please turn to the 3 next one, which will be 550. It's only for the witness.

4 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

5 MR. HYMAN: No objection.

6 MS. BERLIN: I'm sorry. This is included. We can set
7 this aside. Sorry. Thanks.

8 MR. HYMAN: No objection to this.

9 MS. BERLIN: Okay.

10 THE COURT: That will be admitted at this time.

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

12 MS. BERLIN: And then we have P 551.

13 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

14 MS. BERLIN: It's not admitted yet. We're just 15 showing it to the witness.

16 MR. HYMAN: No objection.

17 MS. BERLIN: P 551.

18 THE COURT: That will be admitted.

19 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. This is your e-mail exchange also concerning the Meyer
22 notes. Do you see that? At the top it's from you to Renee
23 Meyer and Russ Meyer, the investors. Forward MCA paperwork.

24 Do you see it?

25 A. From Russ.

1 Q. From them to you. Do you see it?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And they're asking you -- they're saying they haven't
4 received anything by e-mail, that the MCA agreement has been
5 executed and asking if it's coming through the mail.

6 Do you see it?

7 A. I do.

8 Q. And you're on this e-mail string which continues to be 9 about getting the paperwork executed, right?

10 A. Generally, yeah.

11 Q. Yes, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And we don't even see Dean Vagnozzi on these e-mails about 14 sending the Par Funding promissory notes. It's you, Alexis
15 Abbonizio, and your clients, the Meyers, correct?

16 A. Yes. I'm the cc to Alexis from Russ.

17 MS. BERLIN: Let's turn to 556, please. It's only for 18 the witness.

19 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. Mr. Furman --

22 MR. HYMAN: No objection.

23 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. Can we introduce it?

24 THE COURT: You may. 556 is admitted.

25 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. Exhibit 556, here's another e-mail about the same note
3 purchase that the Meyers made in ABFP to put their money into 4 Par Funding. This one is from February 2018.

5 Do you see he it?

6 A. I do.

7 Q. And we start, it's a message from you, right? Do you see
8 it?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you're reaching out to Mr. Vagnozzi about the Meyers'
11 MCA paperwork and that the wire's getting done that day.

12 Do you see that?

13 A. I do.

14 Q. And you're also advising him that you're going to get the 15 paperwork today as well.

16 Do you see that?

17 A. I see that.

18 Q. And if you could turn to the next page, please. Do you see
19 a writing to Dean Vagnozzi about the Meyers' note letting him
20 know -- why don't you read that, please. It starts with "I'm 21 waiting on Ryan."

22 A. I see that.

23 Q. Can you read it?

24 A. "I'm waiting on Ryan at CAMA. He had to move the extra
25 funds in his Roth. So with the wire together, it will be about

1 405k to get him the 14 percent. Is there any way to check from
2 your view if it's all there? I know they don't want to wait
3 and we did it right away Tuesday once they were there. So it's
4 all in CAMA's hands as we're just waiting on the wire. So you
5 can do it all at once like you said."

6 Q. Then it goes on to talk about something else. So you're 7 writing to them about the wiring of the money and what's going 8 on with CAMA Plan getting the investment money over so that the 9 investment can happen. Right?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Yes?

12 A. Correct.

13 MS. BERLIN: Next, let's look at 559. It hasn't been
14 admitted.

15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

16 MR. HYMAN: No objection.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

19 THE COURT: That will be admitted, 559.

20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. Mr. Furman, here we have your e-mail to Mr. Vagnozzi
22 continuing another e-mail about this investment with the 23 Meyers, talking about funding their CAMA Plan account with 201
24 thousand so you can make -- "So we can get the direct note for 25 the merchant set up and want to make sure you knew and could

1 help with the next steps."

2 Do you see that?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. You referenced that you're going to call CAMA Plan, make
5 sure the money is there for the investment.

6 Do you see that?

7 A. I do.

8 Q. And that you wanted this investment done right away. Do
9 you see that? You and your client want this done right away,
10 asking what the next steps should be.

11 A. He's eager to set it up, yes.

12 Q. So, Mr. Furman, you testified earlier -- I've just shown
13 you like seven or eight messages that -- showing your 14 involvement. You testified that you only gave the Meyers
15 Mr. Vagnozzi's phone number and that that was your involvement,
16 but in reality, you were actually quite involved in the process
17 for not only getting their funding set up, putting the money
18 into their retirement account, and orchestrating the funds
19 being sent to Vagnozzi so that they could invest in Par Funding
20 through ABFP; isn't that right?

21 A. Not completely correct, no. I helped my client, as I told
22 you. I was -- they were very aware -- fully aware of me going
23 to this event and were looking toward to what I could 24 potentially help them with their retirement accounts.

25 We moved over their -- some of their money to CAMA

1 Plan, which invested into multiple investments, not just
2 Par Funding over the time. And they would not wait for my fund
3 to be finished. And so at that point, the only thing that they
4 did was wanted to go around to talk to Dean and figure a way
5 out to invest.

6 And they -- as you can see, it started in December,
7 took a couple of month, they were frustrated and still called
8 me. I tried to assist my client in any way I could. I was 9 never maliciously trying to get involved in any way.

10 Q. Mr. Furman, my question is: Earlier today -- the reason I
11 just showed you all those e-mails is because you testified -- I
12 asked about your involvement in the Meyers investing in ABFP.
13 You testified that your involvement was: I gave them Dean's 14 phone number.

15 That you had limited involvement to that. And I've 16 now shown you a group of e-mails. And I'm asking you, isn't it
17 true, based on the e-mails I've shown you, that you were 18 involved in the process of getting them invested in this ABFP
19 note?

20 A. I assisted in certain ways that I could help out in their 21 retirement, yes.

22 Q. In fact -- so your testimony earlier that all you did was 23 give a phone number was false, right?

24 A. I never said that was all I did. That was what I initially
25 did. I sent them information after I got back for them to make

1 their evaluation and discuss further.

2 Q. Mr. Furman, in reality, you actually sent the Meyers -- you
3 were the one who delivered to the Meyers their ABFP promissory
4 note; isn't that true?

5 A. Actually I can't remember how they got their executed note.

6 Q. You sent it to them through interstate commerce, through
7 e-mails. Don't you recall that?

8 A. Not off the top of my head, no.

9 Q. Let's look at 563.

10 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

11 MS. BERLIN: It has not been admitted yet. Is there
12 any objection to it, Mr. Hyman?

13 MR. HYMAN: No.

14 THE COURT: That will be admitted, 563.

15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. 563 -- do you see -- this is an e-mail from you --

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. -- to KahunaFL. And that's Russ Meyer, correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. In February 2018. Subject: MCA paperwork, exclamation
22 point.

23 Do you see it?

24 A. I'm forwarding it, yes.

25 Q. It's an e-mail from you to Mr. Meyer; isn't that right?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And attached to your e-mail is the ABFP income fund note as
3 well as the subscription agreement.

4 Do you see that?

5 A. I do.

6 Q. And you sent to him -- it says: Good evening.

7 And you write to him and you tell him, you're sending
8 him the private placement documents to look over. That you
9 need him to finish the paperwork for CAMA, which is the vehicle
10 for getting these investors' retirement money, and that you
11 already sent the full package of videos, the company
12 information, but you will send it again as well, but the due
13 diligence I have done, as well as this company does on every 14 piece of business, is the highest I've seen.

15 Do you see that?

16 A. I do.

17 Q. So you told them that you had done -- not only did you not 18 just give -- give them Dean Vagnozzi's phone number, you sent 19 them the promissory note, the subscription agreement, all the 20 marketing materials, the videos, the brochures, which you admit
21 here in your e-mail, and on top of that, you told them again
22 here that you did -- I have done the highest level of due
23 diligence that you've ever seen.

24 And, Mr. Furman, that's not true, is it?

25 A. At that point, yes.

1 Q. Did you tell -- you did not tell Renee Meyer and Russ Meyer
2 about Joseph LaForte, correct?

3 A. Not in February of 2018. I did not know. No, we did not
4 at that point.

5 Q. And so you're going to deny that last year you told two FBI
6 agents on July 28th, where you say it was July 27th, that you
7 knew about this in the first year; is that true?

8 A. I don't remember when I -- it was 2018 or '19, yes.

9 Q. And Mr. Furman, we've established --

10 A. (Cross-talk) -- my involvement.

11 Q. Mr. Furman --

12 A. I'm trying to answer my full question. You're cutting me
13 off.

14 Q. Please do.

15 THE COURT: One at a time. One at a time.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. Please continue.

18 A. You keep up bringing one year in some way. Again, I don't 19 remember verbatim, and that is a verbatim statement. I did not 20 know in the beginning, whether it was 2018, 2019, whether 21 you're talking from the day I learned about Par Funding, the 22 day I visited there, the day my fund opens. There's a lot of 23 dates that you're talking about that are spread out over time.

24 Q. Mr. Furman, you met Joseph LaForte the first week in 25 November in Philadelphia at Par Funding.

1 You agree with me on that, correct?

2 A. Briefly, yes.

3 Q. And you did online research, you testified in your
4 deposition, to see who these people were; isn't that true?

5 A. Not in 2017, no. Not on Joseph LaForte in 2017.

6 Q. And so you told the Meyers that you had done the utmost
7 level of due diligence, you've advertised on your website,
8 which we all saw, touting to investors that you had done the 9 due diligence on the people running this company so they could 10 sleep best at night. And that was false?

11 A. It actually says: Due diligence I've done as well as this
12 company. Dean, Dean's attorney. I did as much due diligence
13 of it as I can on myself, on what I was given, what information
14 was given to me.

15 Q. Mr. Furman, you were soliciting people, you've established
16 this, to invest in Par Funding. So when you post on your 17 website advertising Par Funding and saying you did all of the 18 research, either you lied on your website, and in this e-mail
19 to the Meyers, that you did the highest level of due diligence
20 and you actually did not and didn't even look up all the people
21 that you met with in Philadelphia for two days, or you did.
22 You did do the due diligence you promised them you were going
23 to do and then you lied and kept it a secret.

24 Would you agree with me that either way you lied?

25 A. No, I would not agree.

1 MR. HYMAN: Was that a question, Your Honor?

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 You may answer.

4 A. No, I do not agree. I did not lie.

5 THE COURT: We need to take a break at it this time.

6 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, if you would indulge
7 me, I'm going to take a brief break. If you will leave your 8 notepads on your chairs, use the restroom if you need it.
9 We're going to try to make some coffee for those who could use
10 some and bring it into you all in just a moment. All right?
11 Thank you, guys.

12 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

13 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. I have a
14 brief change of plea that I need to take on Zoom. So I'm going
15 to take a brief recess to do that. And also to give the jurors
16 a chance to use the restroom and get a little coffee.

17 For the investors who are following along, this will
18 be a brief recess, but the video should not shut down. It
19 should stay on so people can continue to watch.

20 Again, for those that were participating and had no
21 audio, there was a need to keep the audio off due to sensitive
22 testimony during the direct examination.

23 Go ahead, Gracie, if you want to start logging off.
24 I'll leave mine on. I need to briefly just address scheduling
25 and timing.

1 How much more of this direct examination on the SEC am
2 I expecting to have? How much more? Can we get a sense of 3 where we're in the direct?

4 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, if it goes at this rate, and I -- I
5 mean, I just had to impeach him with eight exhibits. I wasn't
6 even planning on it. I didn't think it was -- this could go on 7 a while. I didn't -- some of these things I -- like I said, we 8 didn't ask. It could be longer. I mean, I have an outline and 9 we'll go through it, Your Honor. I'll move it faster.

10 THE COURT: You need to move. I understand, but I
11 know it takes you time, but the pace is not working for me, nor 12 are my jurors. So if you can try to streamline some of this, I
13 understand you were not getting direct answers to many of your 14 questions, but at the same time we've got to get exhibits on 15 faster.

16 As far as I can tell, I don't know how many more hours
17 of inquiry you have, but, for example, I think we just used two 18 hours for you to cover simply his knowledge of the criminal
19 record of LaForte. We haven't even talked about regulatory 20 issues, we haven't talked at all about the default rate, we 21 haven't talked to about underwriting. Am I to assume that 22 these are issues that on your outline? I bet they are. I
23 mean, I need to plan ahead.

24 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

25 THE COURT: So this is not for the convenience of the

1 parties. This is for my jurors.

2 MS. BERLIN: I understand.

3 THE COURT: I need to know what I'm dealing with here
4 and how much longer this is. Because if it's going to be
5 another hour or two hours, I need to prepare my jurors
6 accordingly. So I'm going to go ahead and do my change of 7 plea, and I would ask that when I return you advise the Court
8 as to where you are in your outline and how much you have left
9 to go. At the end of the day, I would urge the SEC to realize
10 that Mr. Furman, as a witness, is not going to give you the 11 answers that you may expect.

12 And a jury is going to have to make the determination
13 whether they believe a single bit of what he is saying. There
14 is plenty of exhibits that they will have to look at to 15 determine whether or not his state of mind was what it was.
16 There's FBI audio. There's a lot. So there's no Perry Mason
17 moment happening here with Mr. Furman.

18 MS. BERLIN: We're not trying to.

19 THE COURT: So don't waste your time or mine time
20 looking for one. You saw what you got. It's not getting any 21 better. So do your best of what you have, let these jurors
22 decide whether they believe him to be a credible witness
23 through the factors that we instruct them on when they are 24 deliberating. I don't want us to belabor the same questions
25 when we get back on track.

1 So let's take a brief recess, give everybody a chance
2 to take a break. I will be doing my change of plea, and I when
3 I come back I will ask the SEC to give me a ballpark of where 4 they're at. I cannot really in good faith keep this jury in
5 here on a Friday after all they've done past 5:30, let's say
6 worse case, 6 o'clock.

7 But if you think you're not going to finish his direct
8 examination by 5:30, we will do as much as we can by 5:30, and 9 you will finish on Monday.

10 Do I have a sense of whether or not the older investor
11 that was on standby from the hospital is going to be called?
12 Has the SEC made that decision yet?

13 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, I don't think we're going to call
14 him, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MS. BERLIN: And that we will have -- either there are 17 other investors for rebuttal, you know, like Renee Meyer, other
18 people, that they're on our list -- they're on our list
19 already, Your Honor, but we're going to call them later, if at 20 all.

21 THE COURT: If at all. If we need it.

22 MS. BERLIN: If at all. And we will pick up the pace,
23 Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So let me take my change of plea,
25 and then the only thing I will add is, obviously I understand

1 that we were planning on having Mr. Furman called in the 2 defense's case in chief. He's essentially a bit of an adverse
3 witness here, which is why we're giving some latitude. I don't
4 know if after the length of direct there will be a need, once I
5 give defense a chance to rehabilitation, to call him again in 6 your case in chief. I don't know if there's going to be a need
7 for that.

8 In fact, it probably wouldn't happen now until Monday
9 at best if you go ahead and do your cross/rehabilitation. So
10 I'd like to know also down the line if the defense team still 11 feels they have to recall Mr. Furman because the scope of what
12 we're covering here is so expansive that I can't see a reason
13 why we would allow everyone to sit through another round of 14 testimony from Mr. Furman once they get up and do their 15 rehabilitation questions. Do you guys have a sense?

16 MR. HYMAN: We don't anticipate there being very much.
17 I mean, if we have to recall him, it would be on a very limited
18 set of issues, maybe an hour or two tops. But right now we'll 19 have to see how their examination goes and --

20 THE COURT: Do your best on your cross to cover
21 whatever it is you want to cover in his direct, because I'm 22 going to give you latitude to do it. So do your best. I will 23 allow latitude for judicial economy. I don't think we need to 24 sit through another round with him.

25 So why don't we try, and I'll give you some room to

1 breathe, that if you want to get to some questions that may be
2 outside the scope of direct, I will give flexibility. If it
3 goes too far afield, I can't, but the judicial economy
4 indicates we allow it, especially since I've opened the door to 5 most of the stuff in the deposition. So plan ahead if you
6 could. It might make things a little easier.

7 All right. Let's take a recess so I can go ahead and 8 do my change of plea. We'll be back in about 20 minutes.

9 MR. HYMAN: Do we have to get our stuff out of here,
10 Your Honor?

11 THE COURT: No. It's on Zoom.

12 (Thereupon, a brief recess was taken.)

13 THE COURT: Okay. Let's call -- let's call the case
14 back to order. All right. So just about --

04:45 15 Yeah, go ahead and grab the stand. Thank you,
16 Mr. Furman.

17 It's just about 4:45. I think that the most I want to 18 take in terms of my jury's time is until 5:30, about 45 more
19 minutes. I plan on bringing them back in and letting them know
04:45 20 that that's the max, that's where we're going to break. I do
21 not expect the direct will be finished by 5:30, but hopefully 22 we can plan to find a natural breaking point right around that 23 time, in the next 45 minutes.

24 Does that make sense for the SEC?

04:45 25 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor. We have tried to cut --

1 you know, we made our modifications during lunch. I think when
2 we have more time, we'll be able to cut even more. But we have
3 cut some. We won't finish today.

4 THE COURT: Correct.

04:45 5 MS. BERLIN: But we can use the remaining time wisely.

6 THE COURT: All right. How much more do you think
7 just so I can plan ahead for Monday? We expect -- I can't
8 imagine that you won't be done with his direct at some point
9 Monday morning. Is that a safe assumption?

04:46 10 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

11 THE COURT: I think that's probably --

12 MS. BERLIN: Yes, for sure. And I think when we have 13 time to narrow it further, because obviously, you know, a lot
14 of it we had to add during lunch --

04:46 15 THE COURT: Sure.

16 MS. BERLIN: -- but yes, we'll be able to do it in a
17 more streamlined fashion. We think like an hour-and-a-half
18 Monday morning.

19 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and we could go
04:46 20 ahead and grab our jurors, please.

21 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

22 THE COURT: Please be seated.

23 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, I know it was a
24 little later than we normally give you the coffee, but we got 04:47 25 it to you. We got a little delayed earlier. So thank you,

1 guys, for your patience. Did those who needed coffee, get some
2 coffee? All right.

3 Let me first begin by letting you all know that we
4 will be done at 5:30 today, no matter what. So I don't want
5 anyone to think we're going until this witness is done because 6 he won't be done.

7 So we're going to go ahead and get to about 5:30, and 8 then I'll give you guys some instruction about what it's going
9 to look like on Monday. So let's just make the most of the 04:47 10 next 45 minutes so we can keep advancing the ball. So with 11 that being said, I'll turn it back over to the SEC to continue
12 the direct examination of Mr. Furman.

13 Go ahead please.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:48 15 Q. Hi, Mr. Furman. You testified that one of the ways you
16 advertised was by radio, correct?

17 A. Briefly, yes.

18 Q. I would like to play for you a radio ad.

19 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

04:48 20 MR. HYMAN: No objection.

21 THE COURT: All right. We're not admitting it. I
22 think it's just a demonstrative or...

23 MS. BERLIN: We're going to ask for it to be -- if 24 they have no objection, we can go ahead and admit it, yeah.

04:48 25 THE COURT: Sure. What's the number on this so we can

1 go ahead and admit it now?

2 MS. BERLIN: 326.

3 THE COURT: That's admitted without defense objection.

4 Go ahead.

04:48 5 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

6 MR. HYMAN: And we have no objection to the transcript
7 being played to the jury. Whatever the subsequent related
8 exhibit is, no objection to it either, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: If there is one, we'll admit that as well.

04:49 10 MR. HYMAN: Are we still going through sensitive
11 materials, Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: No. The audio has been on for quite some 13 time. I turned it back on a while ago. If there's sensitive
14 stuff again -- I waited until after most of that was done. But 04:49 15 I went ahead and my CR and I turned it back on. If something
16 else happens, let me know.

17 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: It's been on for a little while now.

19 Go ahead.

04:49 20 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. And so we'll play Exhibit 326
21 as soon as we can.

22 (AUDIO PLAYING)

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. And that was one of the radio advertisements that you
04:50 25 played in South Florida?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And it's advertising one of your events for the public to
3 come and attend?

4 A. One of our dinner or lunch. I forget. Yes.

04:50 5 Q. And at these events, one of the investment offerings you
6 would discuss was Par Funding, correct?

7 A. One of, yes.

8 Q. And I wonder if we can play the next one. I think it's 9 327.

04:51 10 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

12 (AUDIO PLAYING)

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. And is that another advertisement that you would play in 04:52 15 South Florida to circulate interest or to gather interest from 16 potential investors?

17 A. Very briefly, yes.

18 Q. Now, turning back in time, and when you first -- after you
19 first met with Par Funding in November 2017, between that time
04:52 20 and March of 2018, was there a change in how investors could 21 invest in Par Funding, meaning directly versus through an 22 investment firm or investment fund?

23 A. When I flew there was -- the recruiting event was to start
24 agent funds.

04:52 25 Q. Oh, okay. So when you went there in November, it was for

1 an agent fund?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And just again, that was organized by Dean Vagnozzi,
4 correct?

04:53 5 A. A Better Financial Plan, yes, correct. One in the same,
6 but just distinguishing a little bit.

7 Q. Thank you. Thank you. I appreciate that.

8 And Mr. Vagnozzi, his company, their 25 percent cut
9 was -- he would do the -- he had someone from his staff on your 04:53 10 bank accounts to help move the money from your account to 11 Par Funding; is that correct?

12 A. Their CPA. And it wasn't to help. They did it. I didn't 13 do it at all.

14 Q. You added them as a signatory on your bank account?

04:53 15 A. They created it. It was done simultaneously. Yes. The 16 shell price.

17 Q. Thank you. So someone from his staff is on the bank
18 account for your fund, and they move the money to Par Funding;
19 is that correct?

04:53 20 A. The CPI, yes. Correct.

21 Q. And the other thing they would do is basically keep track
22 of the accounting and paperwork, like that colorful chart that 23 I've seen a few times today that shows all of the amounts and 24 notes and how much money everybody gave and received. There's 04:54 25 another document that they would keep track for their

1 25 percent cut?

2 A. They created that, yes. Every month.

3 Q. And they would send that to you every month?

4 A. Yes.

04:54 5 Q. And, Mr. Furman, Dean Vagnozzi also sort of -- did he 6 provide to you any guidance in how to solicit people for
7 Par Funding?

8 A. He originally shared a lot of what he was doing, yes.

9 Q. And he told you how you could go about creating your own
04:54 10 agent fund?

11 A. That was the event I was at, yes. His attorney was one of 12 the main speakers.

13 Q. And during these -- he also gave you marketing materials
14 that he had helped to create for Par Funding?

04:54 15 A. Various forms, yeah.

16 Q. So you would distribute Mr. Furman -- Mr. Vagnozzi's
17 videos, for example, of him talking about Par Funding or the 18 merchant cash advance investment?

19 A. In the beginning, I didn't have anything to do with his 04:55 20 business mostly. So -- but in the beginning, to share more
21 about the merchant cash advance, as I said, I've worked with 22 these -- with many of these clients -- I don't want to give a
23 percentage, but over 90 percent invested in multiple
24 investments. So they knew what I was doing, both personally
04:55 25 and professionally at all times. And so they knew I was flying

1 up there to learn about other investments that might help them
2 out. I shared what I had at the time on many different things,
3 to be honest.

04:55 4 Q. Would it be helpful if I show you an e-mail where you're 5 forwarding the videos or do you remember, sitting here today,
6 whether or not you sent investors videos of Mr. Vagnozzi
7 helping to pitch Par Funding?

8 A. He went over the merchant cash. You showed it earlier.

04:56 9 Q. Did Mr. Vagnozzi or ABFP, his company, provide to you
10 marketing videos -- marketing videos that you would then 11 distribute to potential investors as one of your marketing
12 materials?

13 A. Correct. ABFP, yes.

14 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

04:56 15 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if we can please go ahead and 16 show P 144. Now, Your Honor, this has not been admitted. It
17 is a video of six minutes in length. I don't know if there's 18 an objection to its admission.

19 THE COURT: Any objection to P 144?

04:56 20 MR. HYMAN: No. I don't even know what it is. But,
21 no, at this point.

22 MS. BERLIN: It's -- 143 is the video, Your Honor, and 23 144 is the transcript.

04:56 24 THE COURT: Okay. We'll admit both of those without 25 objection.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

2 Can we play 143, please.

3 Yes, we can publish it.

4 THE COURT: Yeah, if you can publish it, they're

04:56 5 admitted.

6 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

7 (AUDIO PLAYING)

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. Mr. Furman, is that one of the videos that you would 05:02 10 distribute to potential investors?

11 A. Only for brief information in the beginnings with a lot of 12 extra context.

13 Q. Why don't we look at it. Let me show you what we have 14 already marked -- let's look at one of those. Let go back to 05:03 15 P 18. This is November 18th, 2017.

16 And do you see in this -- this is an e-mail that you
17 sent to potential investors. You've referenced for them right
18 above this OnDeck Capital point where we say this is a -- you
19 write to them: This is a six-minute video we created on the 05:03 20 MCA industry, merchant cash advance.

21 And then it shows it's a link to Vimeo, Dean Vagnozzi
22 review. And this is the -- we just watched a six-minute video
23 of Dean Vagnozzi. I'll -- do you agree with me that's what 24 this link is to or would you like us to show you?

05:04 25 A. It was in the very beginning, yes.

1 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, this is getting overly
2 cumulative. Can we move on? It's Friday.

3 MS. BERLIN: It's not cumulative.

4 THE COURT: Let move it along. Let's go.

05:04 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. So you sent it here. You said it was a lot of information.
7 I'd just like to look at what you sent with it. You sent that
8 video. You also -- if you look below, you let these potential
9 investors know: OnDeck Capital is the largest player in the

05:04 10 MCA space.

11 Do you see that?

12 A. I see that.

13 Q. And you identified that people from Shark Tank had invested
14 in this merchant cash advance business known as OnDeck Capital.

05:04 15 Did you see that?

16 A. I do.

17 Q. And you also mentioned another person from Shark Tank and 18 other people who were investing in MCAs, right?

19 A. Yes.

05:04 20 Q. And we heard some of that also in the six-minute video that 21 you were circulating.

22 Do you remember that?

23 A. Like I said, one of many things that we discussed, yes.

24 Q. Did you ever, like, take any time at all to look up OnDeck

05:05 25 Capital and to see if that was a merchant cash advance

1 business?

2 A. It's one of the things they do.

3 Q. Have you ever -- I'm asking you, have you ever gone to the 4 OnDeck Capital website, for example?

05:05 5 A. Correct.

6 Q. You have?

7 A. At some point in my life, yes, not lately.

8 Q. Is it still your representation today that -- is OnDeck
9 Capital a merchant cash advance?

05:05 10 A. One of many things I'm sure they do.

11 MR. HYMAN: Relevancy, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. We're going to move right on. We'll come back to that.

15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

16 MS. BERLIN: Let's look at P 389, please. It's not in 17 there. Any objection to it being introduced?

18 MR. HYMAN: I've got to see what it is.

19 No, no objection.

05:06 20 THE COURT: That will be admitted without objection.

21 P 389?

22 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

23 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

05:06 25 Q. This is one of your -- P 398, it's another one of your

1 websites, correct?

2 A. It was -- it turned in -- it was the same one and then they
3 changed it yes.

4 Q. And it shows at the top, this United Fidelis Group?

05:06 5 A. Correct.

6 Q. One of your companies, correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And United Fidelis Group was also involved with the 9 Par Funding, raising money from investors for Par Funding?

05:06 10 A. United Fidelis Group did not.

11 Q. United Fidelis Group isn't mentioned in your PPM anywhere
12 as having a management role?

13 A. Management role. It's not where the funds flow.

14 Q. So United Fidelis, you would agree with me, they served in 05:07 15 a management role in connection with the offering to raise
16 money from investors for Par Funding?

17 A. I believe the attorneys member managed or manager managed,
18 something along those lines.

19 Q. Okay. So a manager member or a member manager is how you'd 05:07 20 prefer? Yes?

21 A. One of those two, yes.

22 MS. BERLIN: Let's turn to page 4 of 7, please.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. So on this website at that time do you see where it says:
05:07 25 Looking for short-term double digit returns?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And on your website we see language here about wanting to
3 introduce the viewer to what many of our clients call their 4 favorite investment, merchant cash advance or MCA.

05:07 5 Do you see that?

6 A. I do.

7 Q. And that's referring to Par Funding, correct?

8 A. It's referring to my merchant cash advance fund, Fidelis
9 Financial Planning.

05:08 10 Q. Which only ever invested in Par Funding, correct?

11 A. I've looked at many different other merchant cash advance
12 companies.

13 Q. We went through this earlier. It only ever invested in 14 Par Funding. Do you agree with me or not?

05:08 15 A. I agree that's the only place I executed notes. But that 16 is not the only merchant cash advance company that we excused 17 and looked at.

18 Q. I understand you looked at many. I'm not asking about
19 that.

05:08 20 A. We did due diligence on many others and decided that 21 Par Funding was the best place at that time.

22 Q. So you only invested in Par Funding; agreed?

23 A. Through that fund, yes. Correct.

24 Q. Okay. So here on your website you're talking -- your 05:08 25 introducing the MCA investment. And do you see where it says:

1 Let us show you how we selected the company with the strongest
2 financials and the most conservative underwriting team in the 3 industry to keep our funds secure?

4 Do you see that?

05:08 5 A. I do.

6 Q. And so you're talking about the Par Funding underwriting
7 team; is that right?

8 A. That would be how: Let me show you how I selected
9 Par Funding versus the other merchant cash advance companies
05:09 10 that I did evaluations on and Par Funding had the strongest
11 financials, that was told to me, and the strongest most 12 conservative underwriting team, from what they told me in the 13 industry. Correct.

14 Q. And you never called the head of underwriting or anyone in 05:09 15 the underwriting office at Par Funding, correct?

16 A. We were only to talk to Perry Abbonizio.

17 Q. So you never -- I'm asking something different.

18 Did you ever call anyone at Par Funding who was in the 19 underwriting department? The answer --

05:09 20 A. I signed an NDA. I was not allowed to. I was only to 21 speak with Perry Abbonizio.

22 Q. And when you went to Par Funding and you walked through the 23 underwriting office there, did you ever speak with any of them
24 about the underwriting work that was occurring?

05:09 25 A. Varies individuals, like I said, as I did a walk through,

1 yes.

2 Q. Did you ever inquire if the underwriting department --
3 anyone in underwriting at Par Funding during your trips there
4 or your phone calls, did you ever ask any of them about the 05:10 5 underwriting that they were actually doing?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Whether they were actually doing onsite inspections?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And who in underwriting did you speak to at Par Funding?

05:10 10 A. Whoever was sitting there as we walked through. They 11 showed me the various areas, internet search teams basically,
12 social media deep dives that they were doing. Physical copies
13 of their own site inspections, which I handed out to client.
14 Yes, I've seen those.

05:10 15 Q. Okay. So you spoke with -- a moment ago you said you
16 couldn't talk to anyone because you could only talk to Perry.
17 And now you spoke with someone in the underwriting
18 department --

19 A. I said while I was walking through. That was your 05:10 20 question. So if you want to delineate the two. I'm not
21 allowed to call Par Funding. I'm not going to avoid and go
22 around the business partners that they introduced me to on 23 their business contract.

24 Q. Sure.

05:10 25 A. I was supposed to speak with the head of the actual

1 investments, which is Perry Abbonizio, and that's who I spoke
2 with and worked through from day one. Before I signed any
3 contract and the first day I was introduced to the company,
4 before knowing whether I was going to work with them or not, we 05:11 5 did a tour, and during that tour is when I spoke to --
6 everybody in the tour spoke to them. So yes, if you want to be
7 truthful, that's what I'm saying.

8 Q. And you don't recall that person's name?

9 A. It wasn't one person. It was a group of us walking
05:11 10 through.

11 Q. And what year?

12 A. That would be -- you would know the date. 2017, I believe
13 it was. At the event.

14 Q. Okay. About how long did you talk to the person that you
05:11 15 walked past and the underwriting group at Par Funding?

16 A. Us as a group, we probably spoke for a couple of minutes.
17 Like I said, it wasn't to sit down and go through documents.
18 It was to say, this is the underwriting floor and this is --
19 these people do -- I distinctly remember social media team, and 05:11 20 I'm talking about online, and yes, the onsite inspection was 21 not that date, because I don't believe they did onsite
22 inspections the day I met them. I distinctly remember that 23 started after. The brochure actually changed for that.

24 Q. Okay. And so I just want to make sure I understand you
05:12 25 correctly. Sometime in late 2017 when you went up there as --

1 while you were passing through Par Funding, you and a group of
2 people talked to the underwriting group for about five minutes;
3 accurate?

05:12 4 A. I'm stating during the recruiting event, the actual one
5 that you've talked about this entire time, in November of 2017
6 is when they took all of us advisors. There was probably 50 of 7 us and we walked through. Yes. That was one of the 8 discussions. Whether it's five minutes, it was a couple of 9 minutes, as they passed they were showing us the 05:12 10 underwriting -- the floor, which they said was mostly
11 underwriting.

12 Q. I understand, Mr. Furman.

13 So in addition to that walk through, with the group of 14 the other agents, Par Funding agents, and speaking with them
05:12 15 briefly in passing, did you ever have any other discussion with 16 them? Did you have any meetings?

17 A. Other with Perry with, no.

18 Q. Okay. I was asking about the underwriting group. Sorry.

19 A. I don't know anybody in the underwriting group's name. Now
05:13 20 I do, but that's because of this case most likely.

21 Q. Now, we'd like to show you -- in this document we're 22 showing you, you're also making representations about their 23 financial status.

24 Do you see that?

05:13 25 A. I see that.

1 Q. Okay.

2 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if we can please pull up the
3 Par Funding 2017 audited financial statement.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

05:13 5 Q. And as my team pulls that up on to the screen to show to 6 you -- and it's been admitted as an exhibit with Brad Sharp on 7 Tuesday.

8 As they're looking for that, Mr. Furman, did you see
9 the -- did you receive the Par Funding audited financials?

05:13 10 A. I know they exist. And Perry brought them down, but I was 11 not able to keep a copy. No.

12 Q. Okay. Were you able to look at them?

13 A. He brought them to my dinner event. So for lack of --
14 seeing the front cover.

05:14 15 Q. So you only looked at the front cover?

16 A. Flipping through them, yes. I did not have time to analyze
17 them.

18 Q. I'm just asking if you ever saw them?

19 A. Yes. I saw that it existed. A copy of it, yes.

05:14 20 Q. You made a copy?

21 A. No. A copy exists, yes.

22 Q. Oh, a copy exists. Okay.

23 So the audited financials, did you look at them? Did
24 you go and look at what their finances were? What their -- how 05:14 25 much they had in revenue or debt? Did you look at the bottom

1 line?

2 A. Maybe briefly, but I can't recall what I looked at that
3 day.

4 MS. BERLIN: And for this -- this has been -- I
05:14 5 believe it's been introduced into evidence, but let me confer
6 with my team. It has, Your Honor. So we can publish this,
7 correct?

8 THE COURT: If it's in.

9 MR. HYMAN: We renew our former objection to it, but 05:14 10 otherwise they can ask them about it.

11 MS. BERLIN: It's already in evidence.

12 THE COURT: It's already been admitted.

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. I'm showing you Exhibit 270. So Par Funding -- they had --
05:15 15 we heard on Monday, or Tuesday, there was one year -- they had 16 their financial records only audited in one year. It was 2017.

17 So it is Exhibit P 270. Which is that financial 18 statement, audited financial statement for 2017. Is this what 19 you saw?

05:15 20 A. Most likely. Because of this case, I know that you -- the 21 SEC alleges there's two copies. I couldn't tell you which one
22 that they brought and Perry brought with them. But it looks
23 very similar to one of the two, yeah. If there is two, yeah.

24 Q. No. I'm not asking about what you've read in a complaint
05:15 25 or what you know outside. I'm asking, back when Perry

1 Abbonizio brought you the financial statement, I was asking if
2 perhaps this was it. And I think it might be easiest if I hand
3 you a hard copy. Is that okay?

4 A. Sure. It looks so --

05:16 5 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, may I approach?

6 THE COURT: You may approach.

7 A. Thank you.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. And if you want to take just a couple of minutes, maybe
05:16 10 look at it and see if this is what you saw.

11 A. Looks to be.

12 Q. Okay. Great. And so is this -- is P 270, are the audited
13 financials, is that what served as the basis for you to tell
14 potential investors it was the company with the strongest
05:16 15 financials?

16 A. Not this document, no. But --

17 Q. What document?

18 A. It was the continued financial support of various documents
19 that they sent. The representations they made on from -- I
05:16 20 believe you guys call it KPI or summaries most likely. And the 21 fact that they had audited financials versus a lot of companies
22 did not have audited financials.

23 2018 was coming, that was on one of your other
24 documents that was on the screen. It was one of my notes. But 05:17 25 yes, the fact that they had various documents and were audited.

1 Q. Okay. So they had one year of audited financial
2 statements. We heard that from Mr. Sharp on Tuesday.

3 So based on -- I'm asking -- you made a
4 representation. We're looking at it in P 389. And I'm simply 05:17 5 asking you to tell me, so we can understand, what documents did
6 you rely on for your representation that Par Funding was the 7 company with the strongest financials? Was it --

8 A. Many of their financial documents that they sent to me.
9 This was 2000 -- ending year 2017. It wasn't available January
05:17 10 of 2018. I believe it actually took almost a year to get that,
11 but the fact that they sent out and showed us various documents
12 that Dean's attorney, who was at the event and helped host the 13 event, went over financials and said that he did his due
14 diligence into the company. And they sent this out every 05:18 15 month. They're averages. They're financial data to me and the 16 other investors.

17 Q. They sent you the data about loans that they had written --
18 what they were writing off and what they were not, correct?

19 A. They sent me their -- they called them advances and --

05:18 20 Q. Now, when we turn to -- I've shown you P 270. That's the 21 audited financial statement that you testified you saw. If you
22 could look at page 4, please.

23 A. Sure. Where in the document?

24 Q. And that's going to be -- I think it's Pdf 6, but it's the 05:18 25 number 4 in the document.

1 Do you see at the top it says: Consolidated statement
2 of operations?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And the year-ended December 31st, 2017.

05:19 5 Do you see that?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And do you see that the audited financials for Par Funding
8 in the one year that they were audited, it shows that they were 9 operating at a net loss of millions of dollars.

05:19 10 Do you see that?

11 A. I see that.

12 Q. Okay. You can set that aside, please.

13 A. Sure.

14 Q. And approximately when was it that Perry Abbonizio showed 05:19 15 this to you, roughly?

16 A. Again, I don't remember specifically. He brought it to an 17 event, and the first I -- from my recollection, it took 18 probably a year to get that. So probably late 2018. I mean, I
19 don't remember the exact dates, but something along that, maybe
05:20 20 early '19. And he brought that down. He said that any 21 investor that wanted it would have to sign an NDA. And I
22 believe he gave one to Roland.

23 Again, regardless of your accusations in this case and 24 looking up at a federal license, that's Michael Christopher
05:20 25 Furman. I'm not a certified public accountant. So I do not

1 know how to read this. But I was told by Perry that the
2 difference between an audited and their summaries were
3 between -- they used cash over cash. Again, I don't understand
4 that a hundred percent.

05:20 5 Q. The only question I asked was: Approximately when did he
6 give it to you? Do you remember the year? And if not --

7 THE COURT: Just answer the question.

8 A. 2018 or '19.

9 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. I wonder if we can show P 96,
05:20 10 and only show it to the witness. It has not been admitted.

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

12 MS. BERLIN: May I approach the witness with a hard
13 copy?

14 THE COURT: You may.

05:21 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. Have you seen P 96 before?

17 A. A long time ago, yeah.

18 Q. And this is something that you would have received from 19 Dean Vagnozzi?

05:21 20 A. I think it was from Dean, yeah. Somebody there.

21 MS. BERLIN: Do you have any objection?

22 MR. HYMAN: Hearsay.

23 MS. BERLIN: I'm not presenting it for the truth of 24 the matter asserted, Your Honor.

05:21 25 THE COURT: Overruled.

1 That's admitted. P 96 is admitted.

2 MS. BERLIN: Can we publish it, please?

3 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

4 MR. HYMAN: Would you mind giving a quick instruction,
05:21 5 Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, when something is 8 admitted for state of mind or to develop a chain of events or 9 reasons other than what is contained in the actual item, then
05:21 10 you can consider it only for those limited purposes. So again, 11 this is not being admitted for you to take the contents of the 12 agent guide as true, but simply to establish things such as 13 state of mind, motive, et cetera.

14 Go ahead.

05:22 15 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. P 96 is entitled Agent Guide. This is a document you
18 received from Dean Vagnozzi?

19 A. Yes, or ABFP. Somebody sent it to me.

05:22 20 Q. Or from someone at his company, ABFP. Is that what you
21 said?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And basically, would you agree with me that P 96, it's 24 basically like a handbook for creating an agent firm? It tells
05:22 25 you how to get a PPM started, it gives you the name of a lawyer

1 you can call, it gives you -- it's like step by step, like,
2 kind of turnkey.

3 Do you agree?

4 A. It was his outline for his ABFP Management company, yeah.

05:22 5 Q. And he's speaking to you as a potential agent or as an
6 agent, correct?

7 A. Yeah. I think all of us -- 50 of us or so got this.

8 Q. So let's walk through it. Number one, he's telling you
9 contact this lawyer, here's his e-mail address. Then he goes
05:23 10 on to tell you sign an engagement letter, pay this lawyer
11 $5,000?

12 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, she's trying to bring this in 13 for the truth of the matter asserted.

14 MS. BERLIN: No, I'm not.

05:23 15 THE COURT: No. She's actually explaining it so we 16 can -- he can give us exactly what this means in the grand
17 scheme of everything that's going on with Fidelis versus 18 Par Funding versus ABFP. That's overruled.

19 Go ahead.

05:23 20 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. So you see at the top -- I'm not reading it verbatim. I'm 23 simply trying to summarize to move through it quickly.

24 A. Yes, that was the attorney --

05:23 25 Q. -- Mr. Vagnozzi tells you: Contact John (inaud.), here is

1 a lawyer to get your fund, your agent fund started, sign a
2 letter, pay $5,000, sign a noncompete. The whole process will
3 take about three weeks. We'll get you a PPM. He goes on to 4 tell you you just need to get a name for your fund, get a bank
05:23 5 account, here is where to get it, and this goes on for a while.

6 It's giving you the steps on what exactly what to do,
7 who to call, what to do to get your agent fund created. Do you
8 agree with me? Do you see that?

9 A. Information, yeah, it wasn't required, but yes.

05:24 10 Q. I'm just asking about what's on the page so we don't have 11 to read the whole thing, yes?

12 A. As I said, yes.

13 Q. Okay. Great. Now, if we turn to page 2, you see it goes
14 through the whole process. And we see number -- do you see
05:24 15 number 9?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And above on -- let's go to paragraph 8. We don't have to 18 Zoom in.

19 Paragraph 8, do you see it says: Once you have
05:24 20 collected $200,000 total of the available fund from investors
21 in your fund's account, you will sign a note and security
22 agreements. You send the money up to Par Funding to invest.
23 Do you see that? And again, I'm paraphrasing to move it along.

24 A. I do.

05:25 25 Q. And then we see paragraph 9 shows that once you do that,

1 the MCA investment company, which we agree the only one you
2 invested in is Par Funding, will pay your fund. Here, that
3 would be -- your fund would be Fidelis.

4 Do you agree with me that was your fund?

05:25 5 A. Fidelis Financial Planning.

6 Q. Fidelis Financial Planning.

7 20 percent on the amount that you send to them. Do
8 you see that in paragraph 9?

9 A. I do.

05:25 10 Q. And then ABFP is going to get their 25 percent cut is at 11 the end of the paragraph.

12 Do you see that?

13 A. I do.

14 Q. And then the remaining 75 percent will remain with you,
05:25 15 Mr. Furman.

16 Do you see that?

17 A. I do.

18 Q. Okay. And is this generally the way things operated
19 according to the agent guide?

05:26 20 A. To this guide, yes.

21 Q. And then we see too at the end that this little packet is 22 sort of created and also details, what to do with the 23 retirement accounts. That goes onto page 3.

24 Do you see that?

05:26 25 A. I see it.

1 Q. And so he explains to you how to get your investors'
2 retirement money into this CAMA Plan account so it can be sent
3 up to Par Funding.

4 Do you agree with me?

05:26 5 A. I see it.

6 Q. And it walks through and gives you instructions, right?

7 A. That it does.

8 Q. And so these agreements -- or I'm sorry. This agent guide
9 that's sent to you, one of the purposes that they write to you
05:26 10 in here in giving you these instructions and how to do it is if 11 you look at the bottom on page 1, the last sentence is sort of 12 adding ABFP to your bank account and following this method, it
13 will allow you to just focus on the selling. And those are 14 just the last words on page 1?

05:27 15 A. That's what it states.

16 Q. Right. So the agents and these agent funds, like your job
17 is to go out there and a sell it to people like Mr. Nash, to 18 people like Mr. Renner and other investors and to do it
19 according to this sort of agent manual.

05:27 20 Would you agree?

21 A. No. These were recommendations. I didn't follow most of 22 it. So yes. Not everybody -- I can't speak to any other agent
23 funds.

24 Q. All right. Now, let's go ahead and let's turn to --

05:28 25 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, should we stop or you want us

1 to go a little further?

2 THE COURT: If this is a breaking point for you
3 naturally, let's stop.

4 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, I was just going to go to a website
05:28 5 externally. So this is good. Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. All right.

7 Okay. Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, you're 8 excused.

9 Mr. Furman, you can rejoin counsel's table.

05:28 10 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, that's going to 11 conclude our testimony for this week. Just so that we can get 12 a little bit ahead of what we're going to be looking at over 13 the next couple of days here in trial, the plan right now is of 14 course to have you guys return on Monday.

05:28 15 At this point, we'll go ahead and once again start at 16 10:00. So you guys will give you a little extra time, and I
17 need everyone in by 10 o'clock so we can pick up where we left
18 off with Mr. Furman at that time.

19 I have spoken to the government. I believe that the 05:28 20 SEC will be able to conclude their direct examination in the 21 morning, and my hope is that we will finish with Mr. Furman
22 certainly by the end of Monday. If for whatever reason we are 23 somehow able to finish before the end of the day, then we hope
24 that the defense will be -- have enough time to present a
05:29 25 witness. What I do expect, though, that one way or another is

1 for the SEC's case in chief to conclude on Monday.

2 I have spoken to the attorneys in terms of scheduling.
3 This should not derail us just because we plan on finishing the
4 case today as opposed to Monday. I will still do everything I
05:29 5 can to keep us on a schedule that has us ending the trial
6 midweek and not taking the full week. So I will keep trying to 7 do my best to streamline things for you all so we can get all
8 of that done.

9 Now, obviously the SEC's case is almost over. There's 05:29 10 still a chunk to go in their direct examination of Mr. Furman
11 and of course their redirect that they're going to get a chance
12 to do on Monday. So it's important that you keep an open mind.
13 And of course you haven't even heard any defense witnesses yet.
14 So you must, again, reach no conclusions because they haven't
05:30 15 had an opportunity yet to put on any witnesses, and you will 16 hear instructions on the law which will help you guys
17 understand a lot of the legal concepts underlying some of these 18 allegations, and so until you get that and the attorneys'
19 summaries by way of their closing arguments, I want you guys,
05:30 20 again, to not reach any conclusions in this case.

21 We have presented a lot of information over the last
22 five days to all of you. I want to remind you that to the 23 extent evidence has come in and it's come in quickly and you
24 want to scrutinize it, all of it, including audio recordings,
05:30 25 video, all of it goes back to the jury room.

1 So if in your notes you've marked something that you
2 really want to take a look at it, don't worry. You're going to
3 get a chance to take that look. I don't want you guys to think
4 it's only going to be presented here and we won't be seeing 05:30 5 again.

6 When you go home this weekend, of course you may share
7 scheduling details with family and friends, but you have to 8 continue to tell them that you cannot talk about this case with 9 anyone. You also need to make sure that over the weekend, you
05:30 10 do not engage in any independent research regarding anything
11 you may have heard in this case. You have heard a lot about 12 events, people, places, financial instruments. Please remember
13 that you should only be guided by what is admitted in evidence
14 during this trial.

05:31 15 Similarly, of course stay off social media. Any 16 discussion of this case on social media is strictly forbidden,
17 and when you come in on Monday, should you bump into any 18 lawyers, remember that they must steer clear. Take no offence
19 from that.

05:31 20 So when you go to leave, leave all of your notepads in 21 the jury room. We're going to seal it up over the weekend. No
22 one is going to go in there. When you guys get back, we'll get
23 you your pass, get you back into your seats, and we'll pick up
24 where we left off. Again, we're still going to be on schedule
05:31 25 despite a little bit of a delay today. So I don't want anybody

1 to worry. Your service is still on pace. Okay? I just want
2 to make sure everyone understands that. Okay?

3 So thank you all so much for your attention. I know
4 it's been a long five days and you guys have been fantastic.
05:31 5 You've been diligent, you're locked in. I can't thank you
6 enough. I know the lawyers really appreciate it, especially 7 with the volume of evidence you've had to digest and are still
8 digesting. So thank you very much for that.

9 So with that being said, have a wonderful weekend.
05:32 10 We'll see you all at 10:00 a.m. on Monday. You are excused.

11 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

12 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. We'll just do
13 a how little housekeeping before we conclude. So as discussed,
14 we expect to conclude with Mr. Furman's testimony at some point
05:32 15 on Monday morning beginning at 10:00. And after that, we'll 16 see how close we are to the lunch hour before we break and 17 allow there to be a cross-examination, before our redirect.

18 I, of course, would urge the SEC over the weekend as 19 we go back and take a look at what is remaining, that we do our 05:33 20 very best to streamline what we can in terms of presentation of 21 exhibits, perhaps have all the exhibits that we think we're 22 going to be using for the remainder of Mr. Furman's direct
23 testimony queued up and ready to go so that we can streamline
24 that as much as possible, we cut down on any delays.

05:33 25 Similarly, let's try to see if we can make sure that

1 we don't retread any ground and cover any areas of inquiry that
2 have not been covered yet. I know there's a little bit left to
3 go, but I believe that we can probably finish this in the 4 morning. And so that would be the plan for Monday.

05:33 5 I expect, again, that the SEC will be resting in the 6 presence of the jury at that time. Unless there's some major
7 change with the one remaining investor that you believe you
8 need him. I urge the SEC to seriously consider not calling him
9 if only because he presents physical limitations that I think
05:34 10 will be difficult to take his testimony, and it's somewhat
11 cumulative as we've already discussed.

12 I do believe, my hope is that we can still have 13 Mr. Furman testify and have enough latitude given in the 14 cross-examination, which is essentially a rehabilitation and an 05:34 15 effort for the defense to put on some testimony through 16 Mr. Furman of the issues in the case and get some clarity that 17 we may not have to recall Mr. Furman. I understand that if he 18 needs to be recalled, it may be brief, but my sincere hope is 19 that we can make it without having to put him back on the stand
05:34 20 again after the SEC finishes.

21 Let me get a sense -- the defense has now had a little
22 more time after hearing from Mr. Furman to process their plan.
23 I was told somewhere between four to seven, that's obviously
24 almost double. That's a big range.

05:34 25 Does the defense have any sense right now that even if

1 I only get the names of a few witnesses, that you plan on
2 calling right out of the gate, so I can try to plan ahead,
3 what --

4 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor. We anticipate,
5 obviously, finishing Mr. Furman. I think his cross is going to 6 take maybe two hours tops. Three. After that, we anticipate
7 calling Joe Cole, who's flying in. So depending on how long
8 the SEC takes, we may have to pause Furman's cross redirect,
9 let me Mr. Cole go, then Mr. Furman. After Mr. Furman, then I
05:35 10 believe it's going to be likely -- well, either his mother,
11 Joel Glick is going to be a half hour total, probably, of 12 direct time, if that. And we'll try to fit in Joe Cole and 13 Joel Glick on Monday just to get them out of the way.

14 After that, probably Tuesday, we'd anticipate his --
05:35 15 yeah, Christine Furman, Mr. Furman's mother. Likely after 16 that, either Mr. Nardelli or Mr. Roland -- I forget his last
17 name right now. It's been -- Manual. And then from there a
18 few investors, Mr. Nardelli, maybe Mr. Berman if necessary.

19 THE COURT: So hold on. Let me make sure I have a 20 good sense of scheduling.

21 MR. HYMAN: We'd anticipate being able to rest by 22 close of business Wednesday at the latest, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: You have a lot more faith in yourselves
24 than I do. All right.

05:36 25 So let's take a look here again what I'm looking at.

1 So Mr. Cole is flying in on Monday; is that right?

2 MR. HYMAN: Yep.

3 THE COURT: And when is he going to be here in court?

4 MR. HYMAN: His flight is out, I think early Tuesday
05:36 5 morning, so, so long as we can squeeze him in at sometime on 6 Monday, we can work with the schedule.

7 THE COURT: Right. But what I'm saying is, is he
8 available all day Monday or only part of Monday?

9 MR. HYMAN: He should be able all day Monday.

05:36 10 THE COURT: All right. So we have Joe Cole. And did
11 you say Joel Glick was also part of the lineup you had on 12 Monday, meaning that he's also -- I don't know if he's flying
13 in or what his schedule is. Is he also available all day
14 Monday?

05:37 15 MR. HYMAN: He should be available all day Monday. I
16 mean, depending on the timing, we may have him by Zoom if 17 that's acceptable to the SEC, and we can figure out the 18 technical issues.

19 THE COURT: All right. So that would be Mr. Glick.

05:37 20 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, we might be able get rid 21 of -- I mean, if Glick -- Glick wasn't their expert. If he's 22 giving the same as what was in his expert report for the other
23 defendant, I don't think there's anything relevant to this
24 case. We would stipulate probably to whatever he wants to say
05:37 25 because -- I'll talk to defense counsel.

1 THE COURT: Meet and confer.

2 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

3 THE COURT: I think that's your job to figure out with 4 him what it is that -- the scope of what his testimony. But 05:37 5 I'm looking here at what looks to be at least a break in the 6 testimony of Mr. Furman. So there could be a scenario where we 7 finish Mr. Furman's direct in the morning and then actually put
8 a pause on that to allow the defense to call Mr. Cole in the 9 afternoon. And that's what we're going to have to do so that
05:38 10 we can get Cole in a little bit of out of sequence. If Cole
11 goes and maybe Glick goes, if there's no agreement, that would 12 be fine by me. That means then that you're probably going to 13 be hearing from Mr. Furman again through the cross. Again,
14 that would be still be part of the SEC's case. They have a
05:38 15 redirect on Tuesday morning because of the scheduling issue.
16 And then after that, once he's done, I mean, two to three 17 hours, if that's accurate, we're looking at losing at least 18 another half day, if not more, on just Mr. Furman. Because 19 then there's redirect. So that could be a chunk of Tuesday.

05:38 20 And then after that, if I can get Mr. Furman's
21 testimony in on Tuesday, and I will be very blunt, if it's 22 going to be two to three hours, I don't expect to have 23 Mr. Furman recalled. I mean, that's enough time to do
24 everything we need with Mr. Furman and each side has one crack
05:39 25 at Mr. Furman, period. I'm not going to sit here and have

1 Mr. Furman coming up again to retread it. There just can't
2 even be a universe of testimony left to touch, if he has sat on
3 for what I think has already been three to four hours on 4 direct, possibly another two, that's a five-hour direct in 05:39 5 addition to approximately a three-hour cross and then maybe
6 another hour of redirect, that's almost ten hours of Furman's
7 testimony. There's no way Furman is going to get recalled.

8 So I want everyone to understand, especially on the 9 defense side, you guys want to go ahead and ask him what you
05:39 10 want to ask him, do it all when you guys have him on the stand.
11 I will give you latitude to do so. So if we can get him done
12 then that's putting possibly one more witness on Tuesday, maybe
13 Christine Furman, and then you still have Nardelli and 14 Mr. Manuel, I believe, left, and that's not including
05:39 15 investors.

16 How many investors did you think you were going to 17 call?

18 MR. HYMAN: Maybe one or two, tops. It's just, you
19 know, the same basic thing, they put up the people saying what 05:40 20 he didn't disclose. We'll put up the ones that say that he 21 did.

22 MS. BERLIN: We can discuss relevance. It's not --
23 you can lie one time out of a million and it's still a
24 violation.

05:40 25 Your Honor, my issue is -- I wonder if we could just

1 get a completed witness list just so we know -- Joe Cole, for
2 example, was added the day before trial, and Brett Berman.
3 We're just kind of having a hard time understanding the 4 relevance to this case. And it doesn't have a description.

05:40 5 THE COURT: I definitely need more information.
6 That's why I'm asking. Because again, I'm going to point out
7 we're on the eve of the defense case, so -- for scheduling
8 purposes and to manage not only the Court's schedule, because I
9 have other matters that are set by the end of the week, in the
05:41 10 hopes that I can get to them, including a suppression hearing
11 in a criminal matter, I need to plan ahead.

12 So I want to make sure -- and this is not including
13 the fact that we still have to do a charge conference. So I
14 need to get a better sense of exactly what the lineup is. And 05:41 15 it will be good to get kind of a set lineup today so that we 16 know what next week is going to be all about because it's 17 really going to be driven by the defense case.

18 So I guess if I could proffer perhaps starting off
19 with Mr. Joe Cole, what's Joe Cole's purpose or what are we 05:41 20 going to talk about with Mr. Cole? Can you maybe proffer that 21 for me?

22 MR. HYMAN: He's going to testify as to -- first he's 23 going to authenticate the Fidelis notes that were issued
24 between Fidelis and Par Funding. He's also -- I mean, we can 05:41 25 obviously deal with stipulations of those. If they'll

1 stipulate to the admissibility of the Fidelis notes, then we
2 can deal with that separately. He'll also stipulate -- or we 3 also anticipate he'll testify as to issues concerning the 4 default rate, the preparation of the KPI reports and the 05:42 5 general operations of Par Funding to refute their assertions
6 concerning kind of the underwriting, and essentially the 7 allegations that the company has been mismanaged, all that 8 stuff.

9 After that, we anticipate, you know, Mr. Furman -- I
05:42 10 don't know what really limited stuff there is to cover that's 11 on redirect or cross. I don't think there's a whole lot more
12 after that.

13 We have both Christine Furman and Kristen, who are the 14 former office managers of Fidelis. They will testify about 05:42 15 Furman's interactions with investors, what happened at these 16 seminars and other similar issues. Obviously they were both 17 involved at different kind of times. Kristen came in after 18 Christine was working with Mr. Furman kind of a first and then 19 near the end. And then Kristen was working after.

05:42 20 Mr. Roland was involved in a lot of the conversations
21 and was also Mr. Nash's tack advisor and will testify as to 22 interactions with Mr. Nash, whose credibility is front and 23 center in this case.

24 Similarly, we anticipate also calling Mr. Weingold,
05:43 25 who would testify about the advice of counsel, advice he gave

1 in helping Mr. Furman preparing the PPMs and other similarly
2 related documents.

3 Mr. Nardelli would also talk about the discovery and 4 disclosure of the regulatory actions, Reliance and kind of 05:43 5 Par Funding and when Mr. Furman learned about it. And then
6 we'd have the two investors come in real quick if, you know,
7 say, look, this is what was or wasn't disclosed. I'd have to 8 the check their names on the list, whichever ones are disclosed
9 there.

05:43 10 THE COURT: Let me recap, because now I didn't have a
11 Weingold in the first lineup. So right now I have Joe Cole, I
12 have -- do I still have Joel Glick or no?

13 MR. HYMAN: We'll see if we can stipulate to him.
14 He's going to be nothing more than a half hour. It's going to 05:43 15 be I reviewed the KPI reports, they're accurate. Basically 16 consistent with what he already testified to, and that he also
17 conducted a review of the Par Funding books and records.

18 THE COURT: So Joe Cole, Joel Glick -- yeah, I don't 19 know. Is Joel Glick -- will he be coming in an as expert on 05:44 20 that? That might be --

21 MS. BERLIN: We have to.

22 THE COURT: I don't know how we would let him in.

23 MS. BERLIN: He can't.

24 THE COURT: The problem is I need to know this 25 because --

1 MR. HYMAN: He's an expert. He's been disclosed on
2 our witness list as such. He also --

3 THE COURT: That's filed, expert witness disclosures?

4 MS. BERLIN: No.

05:44 5 MR. HYMAN: I believe the other defendants did.

6 THE COURT: That doesn't cover you. That doesn't
7 cover you. This is why I needed to do this. Because I knew
8 this was going to happen. So we have to get your lineup clear.
9 You may not be calling some of these guys because you may have
05:44 10 run afoul of court orders, or I'm going to have a relevance
11 argument, which is different. You've got to make sure. Look,
12 if they're stipulating to it, this may not be an issue. But if 13 he's coming in as an expert to essentially testify to the 14 validity of the underlying financials, that's an expert. I
05:44 15 mean, that would have been the battle the experts in this case
16 would have had, had all the other defendants stayed in this 17 case. We're going to have a battle of the experts between 18 different accountants and different methods. We're going to 19 have, I believe it was Michelle -- and now I'm -- her name
05:44 20 blanking. Right?

21 MS. BERLIN: Michelle Davis.

22 THE COURT: Michelle Davis versus Glick. I don't know
23 that Glick is still in place. You're going to need to look 24 into that.

05:45 25 So let's, for a second, assume that whatever you need

1 through Glick you get in through stipulation, you don't need
2 it. That means you got Joe Cole, you got Weingold, the
3 attorney, for the advice of counsel issue. Did you say there
4 was a Christine Furman and another Kristin?

05:45 5 MR. HYMAN: Yes. They were just working internally.

6 THE COURT: But what's the other Kristin's last name?

7 THE WITNESS: Kristin Groleau.

8 THE COURT: So there's a Christine Groleau?

9 THE WITNESS: No, no. Christine is my mother,
05:45 10 Christine Furman, and then it's Kristin with a K, Groleau.

11 Another -- they were both my office managers.

12 THE COURT: So two office managers. Okay. And then
13 you have mentioned is Roland Manuel.

14 MR. HYMAN: We may be able to work with the SEC and 05:45 15 eliminate him. We'll see.

16 THE COURT: How about this Nardelli individual? Is 17 Nardelli definitely coming in?

18 MR. HYMAN: He would be via Zoom.

19 MS. BERLIN: He hasn't been subpoenaed.

05:46 20 MR. HYMAN: We'll coordinate with him.

21 THE COURT: And you say you have possibly two
22 investors?

23 MR. HYMAN: Yep.

24 THE COURT: All right. Just so that we're clear, you
05:46 25 have nine witnesses. So this is not like four to seven.

1 You're at nine right now. That's significant.

2 MS. BERLIN: I have 12.

3 THE COURT: There's not a universe where nine
4 witnesses, what we have left with Mr. Furman, are going to be 05:46 5 called by Wednesday. I mean, even if you were to streamline.
6 I can imagine that Mr. Weingold -- I mean, I don't think he's 7 going to be lengthy, but I can't imagine he's going to be that
8 quick as to the advice of counsel issue. Perhaps the office
9 managers are fairly brief.

05:46 10 And again, I don't know if this Nardelli individual is 11 going to be part and parcel of the testimony. If I take out
12 Joel Glick or stipulated to, I'm look at eight. But I think
13 the important thing is we really, really need to make a point
14 over the weekend to have a meet and confer on all of these 05:46 15 witnesses. We have to.

16 Because again, I can start off with one witness,
17 Mr. Furman's remainder of his direct on Monday, but I need to 18 know and make rulings just to save people costs, money, time to 19 see if people here are actually going to be called or not
05:47 20 called, or if you guys are not a hundred percent sure if you
21 need all of these people, that we can make a firm decision on
22 that.

23 We're no longer in a position -- we have to wait and 24 see. We need to know for the Court's scheduling and for the 05:47 25 jurors so I can manage things. So with this lineup, I think I

1 would ask the SEC and obviously Mr. Hyman to confer over this
2 lineup and maybe get a little more information.

3 I think that we still right now do not have a final
4 witness list, correct? The SEC was mentioning that we don't 05:47 5 have final witnesses with the expectation of what he's going to 6 testify to?

7 MS. BERLIN: For some witnesses we do, for their first
8 five. But we just counted 12 including Mr. Furman that they 9 named.

05:47 10 THE COURT: Let me go through. I got Joe Cole, Joel
11 Glick, Weingold, Christine -- the two office managers, Roland
12 Manuel, Nardelli, investor one and investor two. And that's 13 not including whatever Furman's got left in his redirect. I
14 think I got everybody.

05:48 15 MS. BERLIN: Oh, we had Furman on our list.

16 THE COURT: If you have Furman, I have him at 10. So
17 I'm just trying to make sure that I don't have anybody else.

18 MS. BERLIN: We must have double counted, Your Honor.
19 And Brett Berman is on their list.

05:48 20 THE COURT: Sorry. I don't have Berman on my list.
21 Is Berman being called?

22 MR. HYMAN: Probably not. We're going to reassess
23 over the weekend depending on how things go. I mean,
24 obviously, Your Honor, we are going to try to streamline it to 05:48 25 get things done by Wednesday.

1 THE COURT: Here's what we'll do: By 9:00 a.m. on
2 Monday -- we'll put this in the docket so that we can make it
3 very clear. It's by court order. By 9:00 a.m. on Monday, I
4 would ask that the defendant -- defense team provide me a
05:48 5 revised witness list listing the witnesses that he intends on 6 calling next week. And with a very brief summary of their 7 proposed testimony.

8 Get it in by 9:00 a.m. so we can make decisions, see
9 if you can connect with the SEC as to certain individuals and
05:49 10 whether we can stipulate to some of their testimony or bring it
11 in other ways that might be faster, and I would also ask that 12 when you put together that witness list, that you go ahead and 13 please make it -- indicate to me whether that's going to be 14 live or in Zoom so we know.

05:49 15 So it's either live or in Zoom, then the list of the 16 witnesses, the order in which you intend on calling them, and a
17 proposed very brief synopsis of their testimony. That way I
18 can try to plan ahead and see where I can slot them.

19 Then you guys, in putting that together, make an 05:49 20 educated decision of who you really need. And then we'll pick 21 up again with Furman on Monday at 10:00. The goal here is --
22 so the SEC understands, is Furman -- we need Furman's direct by 23 lunch.

24 MS. BERLIN: Hour and a half. It should be fast,
05:50 25 Your Honor. Yeah, yeah.

1 THE COURT: You've got to be done by lunch. I
2 understand that you guys did not prepare to have the scope
3 opened before his testimony and it showed, but now that we have
4 his testimony pretty ironed out in the beginning and you know
05:50 5 what you have left to cover, I think we can probably wrap them
6 up.

7 MS. BERLIN: We will.

8 THE COURT: That means after right after lunch, I will
9 probably have Joe Cole called and let -- because he's flying
05:50 10 out Tuesday, let him be called. And maybe he's fairly quick
11 and I can get Furman back on the stand in the afternoon for the 12 defense to put on their redirect -- excuse me -- their cross.

13 I will explain to the jurors that Furman is being 14 called essentially by both sides, and that I'm allowing, to 05:50 15 save judicial economy and their time -- I'm allowing both sides 16 additional latitude so they can ask him questions without 17 repeating some of the same issues. So I expect that we can do
18 that, and that's part and parcel all of the defense witness
19 list. So they're going to be able to go through that with 05:50 20 Furman. All right. So that will be the plan.

21 I'll enter a paperless order in this regard when we
22 get off the bench here so that everybody knows that's expected
23 by 9:00 a.m. so I can look over it in the morning. And that
24 should take care of a lineup. And again, let see what happens.
05:51 25 If we have got to go to Thursday, so be it. We should be, I

1 think, on the outskirts of our time if we do that. But I'm
2 optimistic that we streamline some of this, perhaps we can get
3 it done indeed by Wednesday, with some closings, maybe
4 Wednesday afternoon, if possible.

05:51 5 All right. So is there anything else, scheduling
6 issues, any other housekeeping things before we break before
7 the weekend on behalf of the SEC?

8 MS. BERLIN: I wonder, Your Honor, if it would be
9 helpful for us to get -- when you get the list Monday morning,
05:51 10 if we just want to talk -- before we commence with the jury,
11 maybe get together a little bit early because I think some of 12 these witnesses -- like three of them, according to the 13 descriptions on their current list, are coming in to testify
14 about whether certain investors are accredited.

05:52 15 I feel like we have been through that, and if 16 that's -- you know, maybe we can get rulings on what is 17 actually at issue in the case because there are three witnesses
18 that are -- about that. There are two witnesses who appear
19 to -- according to the descriptions are come in to testify
05:52 20 about hearsay, what they heard Mr. Furman say. So --

21 THE COURT: I was just going to say -- I was going to 22 say it's probably the office managers. Is that what the office
23 managers are going to --

24 MS. BERLIN: His mother and the office manager are 05:52 25 going to come in and talk about what they heard Mr. Furman say

1 according to this, and as well as three people on whether a few
2 investors are accredited, which we have said it is not
3 relevant. So I think that maybe it would be helpful to 4 streamline and also avoid a lot of objections because I don't 05:52 5 like interrupting testimony, Your Honor, is perhaps -- I'm just 6 suggesting if we want to start a little before the jury or not
7 to address these issues.

8 THE COURT: Well, let me ask as to the accreditation,
9 who are the witness that are coming in just to talk about
05:53 10 accredited investors?

11 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, we're not planning on calling
12 any to talk about accreditation. Obviously when we first 13 started dealing with these issues, we described them as 14 discussing accreditation with Furman's dealings with investors.
05:53 15 To the extent that they're testifying about what Furman said,
16 it's not to prove the truth of the matter asserted. It's to 17 prove state of mind and the statements were said. So that's 18 why they would be coming in in terms of the disclosure issue.

19 THE COURT: Proffer to me, for example, what the 05:53 20 office manager is going to say that -- that's just so I can get 21 a sense, what would an office manager say that would go to 22 state of mind so I can understand?

23 MR. HYMAN: Well, for example, Ms. Furman had, as 24 Mr. Nash testified, numerous interactions with her countless 05:53 25 dealings with her, and also, as I understand, it was -- at

1 least had discussions with, I believe, Mr. Nash or otherwise
2 about some of the disclosures, we'd have to kind of run it down
3 a little bit more over the weekend as we start prepping our
4 witnesses.

05:54 5 THE COURT: So you're saying his mother went through
6 some of the disclosures regarding the investments?

7 MR. HYMAN: His mother was working in the office with 8 him and lived with Mr. Furman at the time. So she would have 9 overheard him or heard him or others discussing some of these 05:54 10 issues with investors. Also, similarly, what happened at these 11 events is at issue because, you know, as you can imagine --

12 THE COURT: Let me ask you this, though- let me try to 13 figure this out. So we're going to have his mom, who is the 14 office manager, say: My son did make all these disclosures.

05:54 15 MR. HYMAN: That would be part of it.

16 THE COURT: How is that because the absence or 17 omission of disclosure would be for the truth of that statement
18 asserted. How is that not going to be hearsay?

19 MR. HYMAN: Well, the fact that the disclosure was a
05:54 20 or was not made is not being asserted for the truth of the 21 matter asserted.

22 THE COURT: Isn't that exactly the defense? The whole
23 point is you're going to say that this guy's relying that
24 Mr. Furman informed his mother and she's savvy enough to know
05:55 25 about these investments along with him as his office manager

1 and therefore, he did say these things. And how are you going
2 to get that in? Because his mom said -- I guess the mom would
3 say she said to the investors the things that her son did not
4 disclose. So that would be her out-of-court statement to show
05:55 5 that he made a necessary disclosure. So it would be for the 6 truth of that actual disclosure, right?

7 MR. HYMAN: She was actually there for some of these 8 disclosures at the time --

9 THE COURT: So she's going to say that she overheard
05:55 10 her son in a meeting with someone make the disclosure. That 11 would mean that -- that, I think, is textbook hearsay. Right?
12 How is that -- if it's all about whether the disclosure was 13 actually made and you're saying I heard him make it, that's not 14 for the state of mind of Nash in his investment. That's to 05:55 15 prove what was actually said. That would be the content of the 16 statement, wouldn't it?

17 MR. HYMAN: Not necessarily, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: How not? Maybe I don't understand. How 19 is it not?

05:56 20 MR. HYMAN: Because it's just whether or not the --
21 it's what was said. It's not the contents of it or the fact
22 that it's true or not. The key to hearsay -- and this is what
23 was going on with all of our hearsay objections --

24 THE COURT: I'm not done with this point. It's what 05:56 25 was said. There's a big difference between having

1 communications made between Fidelis, Par Funding and other
2 entities, most of which quite honestly, even if it was hearsay,
3 it'd be party admissions against his interests. So that would
4 be one thing.

05:56 5 But the majority of the e-mail traffic, let's take
6 Abbonizio, the daughter, which was again full of party
7 admissions yesterday, but most of that was to show the 8 relationship, not the e-mails, because no one is checking the 9 EIN number or the funding number, but to show that there was a
05:56 10 very strong relationship in existence between Fidelis and 11 Par Funding, which is relevant under 401 because we know that 12 one of the defenses has been that there's an arm's length
13 between Fidelis and Par Funding. There's not really a
14 relationship there. This money didn't get funneled.

05:57 15 And all of that was shown to at least advance the 16 SEC's theory that this is how the relationship worked. The 17 e-mails and the substance of those e-mails, I directed the 18 jurors to ignore that. It's to show that there is indeed a
19 relationship between all of these players. This is not like
05:57 20 Mr. Furman is so attenuate from the principals like Abbonizio
21 and Vagnozzi and others that he had no idea or would have no
22 communication with them to understand the nature of the 23 investment. That I understand. And that's why that's been let 24 in.

05:57 25 What I can't understand is you're actually trying to

1 get in the fact that something was said. So the content of the 2 communication which is I did -- my son did disclose these
3 things to investors is to me, I think, exactly what hearsay
4 would be. It would be an out-of-court statement, which is my 05:58 5 son disclosed it. It doesn't matter that it's the contents.
6 The contents are the very nature of the statement which is 7 there's disclosures being made. These disclosures were made to 8 Mr. Nash. That's out of court self-serving hearsay that would 9 be advanced through his mother to show that he did not leave
05:58 10 these issues off the table and there's no omissions.

11 So again, I don't think that that would be admissible
12 as non-hearsay. It really wouldn't be admissible, I think,
13 under hearsay exception that I can think of, and so I'm worried
14 because I don't want to have a situation where you guys go
05:58 15 through the trouble of getting her here and she's only going to 16 be able to talk about things she heard her son say that 17 wouldn't be able to come in.

18 MR. HYMAN: For example, his mother would also talk
19 about her interactions with Mr. Nash, what happened at these 05:58 20 events, who was there. A lot of different issues that go to 21 these investors' credibility because she was interacting with a
22 lot of the investors.

23 THE COURT: Proffer me something like that. So what 24 about what she's going to say that Mr. Nash was not at one of 05:58 25 the dinners or something like that?

1 MR. HYMAN: They say that he was at three of the
2 dinners actually. That kind of was out of it, confused easily,
3 different similar types of things like that, that would go to 4 his credibility.

05:59 5 And the other question I would have is, when there's
6 an omission case and somebody is contending, I made this
7 statement, how else can you defend it if you're saying hearsay
8 prevents them from otherwise saying, or people testifying that 9 they heard about these disclosures.

05:59 10 The key is not that he said truthfully there is a New 11 Jersey regulatory action. If the statement was being brought 12 in to prove there is a New Jersey regulatory action, that would 13 be a hearsay statement. But if you're saying to somebody, I
14 said there was a New Jersey regulatory action, that's no being
05:59 15 brought in to prove there was a New Jersey regulatory action.
16 It was being brought in to show just the statement was made at 17 a particular time with obviously the jury being one to 18 determine the credibility as to the witness's -- what the 19 witness heard in that circumstance.

06:00 20 THE COURT: Can the SEC -- I don't know if I can
21 explain it more. But maybe I'm not understanding. Can the SEC
22 maybe explain why there's not a way that we would be able to 23 parse out testimony from his mother saying my son gave all
24 necessary disclosures because I heard it? I mean, I don't --

06:00 25 MS. BERLIN: Hearsay.

1 THE COURT: I don't understand how that would be
2 anything other than hearsay.

3 MS. BERLIN: That is absolutely the definition of 4 hearsay. And also I think there's a fundamental just 06:00 5 disconnect. So this not a private -- if it was a private
6 lawsuit or a class action we would have to show that every one
7 of these people had a misrep.

8 For a securities case we need one misrep to one person
9 and that's it.

06:00 10 THE COURT: Right.

11 MS. BERLIN: So his mother would have to say -- even 12 if the hearsay didn't exist, which it does, he cannot -- he's 13 not a party opponent. He can't call his own mom to say --

14 THE COURT: Bolster credibility.

06:00 15 MS. BERLIN: Hearsay is bolstering credibility. It is 16 improper and it can't be done. And also as far as her 17 observations of a man at an event and what her perception of 18 him was, I guess that's more a relevance objection that we 19 would make at the time, right?

06:01 20 THE COURT: I can understand that. If his credibility
21 is at issue --

22 MS. BERLIN: They get to see him.

23 THE COURT: Right. That part at least I understand.
24 If she's going to get up and say that, you know, I don't know
06:01 25 what my son said, but I know that my son spent a lot of time

1 with Mr. Nash and I saw them have a lot of conversations and,
2 you know, I noticed that Mr. Nash often didn't seem to 3 understand or was disoriented, you know, to try to show that
4 maybe he was receiving necessary disclosures, I guess I could
06:01 5 allow something to that effect that would go to it. I mean,
6 it's strains a little bit of relevancy, but I could see that.
7 But I certainly can't have a situation where mom comes in and
8 says, you know, my son did all of these disclosures and I heard
9 him say it. I mean, because that does go to the truth of the 06:01 10 disclosure. The fact the disclosure was made cannot be 11 divorced from the content of the disclosure, I mean, if they're 12 one and the same. In fact, the statement has no relevance
13 unless it is directly related to a disclosure that has 14 allegedly been admitted here. So that's why -- I don't think
06:02 15 that works.

16 Now, you may call her again to talk generally about 17 the investors. I think it would be probably pretty brief, but 18 I can see given some latitude on that. But I want to be clear
19 that her and the other officer manager, if they're going to 06:02 20 come in and try to say that he's made these statements outside
21 of court and it's for the truth of those statements actually
22 being made, then that's going to be sustained. So I don't want
23 you guys to think that that's going to be admissible. And then
24 you might bring in for something else. But that -- at least
06:02 25 the value of the witness for that is not going to work.

1 MR. HYMAN: I understand, Your Honor. The other only
2 thing we'd ask is well before you kind of make the final
3 decision one way or another in terms of that is to give us an
4 opportunity to conduct some more legal research on this 06:02 5 ourselves.

6 MS. BERLIN: There's no research. We do this with 7 every issue. It's hearsay, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: I don't -- I mean, he can -- if he wants
9 to bring me a case that says that's not hearsay, he's free to 06:03 10 do so.

11 MS. BERLIN: It should be interesting. I would be 12 interested if such a case exists. Actually I would be 13 intellectually interested in that.

14 THE COURT: I don't see how any of the non hearsay
06:03 15 definition was work there and so I -- but, you know, you're 16 more than welcome to attempt to show me that. And if there's 17 something there I missed, I'm happy to revisit the ruling. But 18 I just want us to know going in what we're talking about.

19 The SEC mentioned that there was -- they've said now
06:03 20 they're not going to worry a lot about accreditation, so that's 21 not really a big issue.

22 MS. BERLIN: Three of their witnesses are only 23 identified. I mean, that's what they're on their list for is 24 accreditation.

06:03 25 THE COURT: No, no, no. I know. So that's probably

1 why we need a revised witness list.

2 MS. BERLIN: Oh, I see.

3 THE COURT: Is there anything there -- because now
4 they're saying they're not for accreditation. So I've got to 5 know what they're for.

6 Is there anything else there, though, that perhaps I
7 can give a preview of how that's going to play before I go into
8 the weekend? Because, I will be honest, I'm not interested in 9 litigating a whole bunch of admissibility issues before we get 06:04 10 Furman on the stand and losing more time. So I don't know if 11 there's anybody else there. Sounds like if you can sit down
12 and talk about whatever Glick wants to get in, maybe that's 13 just admitted somehow.

14 MS. BERLIN: How are they calling Glick? He's not 06:04 15 their expert witness.

16 THE COURT: Yeah.

17 MS. BERLIN: And Glick's -- if you are limited to 18 Glick's expert report, assuming you can, like, adopt someone
19 else's expert, make them their your own --

06:04 20 THE COURT: No, I don't think that's going to work.

21 MS. BERLIN: -- I don't think it's possible.

22 THE COURT: No, it's not.

23 MS. BERLIN: It can't happen.

24 THE COURT: So why don't we try to take care of Glick.
06:04 25 Because right now -- what -- on Glick's front how do you expect

1 to get Glick in if he's not an expert? You guys haven't
2 produced an expert report. He's advanced by another defendant.
3 Or other defendants. And, you know, I guess I'm trying to 4 think really the value of Glick is to try to say that the 06:04 5 underlying financials were somehow valid or, you know, that
6 they were -- it was reasonable for him to rely on it. Again, I
7 don't know how I would divorce Glick's testimony from his
8 expertise, is my point. Because he's going to have to say, you
9 know, you heard Mr. Furman say today, cash over cash, that's 06:05 10 why I thought they were good. I talked to people about it. So
11 you already got him explaining why he hung his hat on that.
12 Why would I be able to get Glick in without it being an expert?
13 I mean, you have to come in and say, here's why that is a good
14 financial statement. Right? That's going to require 06:05 15 expertise, I think.

16 MR. HYMAN: I mean, at this point, Your Honor, our 17 view was we're going to piggyback on some of the other 18 defendants' expert disclosures, there wasn't prejudiced in 19 light of your kind of view of it all.

06:05 20 THE COURT: Listen, I want you to understand. It's 21 not in the light of my views. It's in the light of the views 22 of Civil Procedure and the rules that govern disclosures and 23 scheduling orders. We don't litigate by ambush. We cannot 24 piggyback off of a co-defendant's expert. Either you have 06:05 25 filed proper documentation and filings to adopt it as your own

1 and delineate it how it applies to your case or you can't use
2 it. I mean, this isn't like I'm -- I'm not making these things
3 up. This isn't Judge Ruiz' Rules of Civil Procedure. These 4 are the Southern District of Florida local rules and civil
06:06 5 rules of procedure. These are well established. There's no
6 surprise here by me that I wouldn't let you in or let you bring
7 in Glick, adopting someone else's expert report. I mean,
8 that's not going to fly and it was an ambush because no one
9 would ever assume that Furman was going to utilize Glick's
06:06 10 report. So I can't allow that to happen.

11 So can I then, just so we can streamline it, given
12 that the Court's not going to allow you to do that and bring
13 him now as now a late filed expert, is there anything Glick
14 would even offer outside of his expert testimony? Probably 06:06 15 not, right?

16 MR. HYMAN: No, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: So Glick won't be called. So we took care
18 of Glick. We don't have any accreditation. We now know that 19 the office manager's testimony is maybe 15 minutes, 20, because 06:06 20 you're not going to talk about what he said outside of court
21 because it's hearsay.

22 We'll deal with Mr. Cole. I think Joe Cole has got 23 stuff that we can probably talk about. And I don't know about 24 Nardelli and Roland Manuel, what you're going to get from them.
06:07 25 I don't know -- can you tell me -- what does their disclosure

1 say? I don't know. Do we know what's Mark Nardelli going to 2 offer?

3 MS. BERLIN: Sure. Well, if they -- I mean, if I --
4 spoke to Cliff Haine's (ph.) lawyer, like, yesterday, and they 06:07 5 didn't know -- they hadn't talked to you guys, so they didn't
6 know about the list. They claim that Nardelli is going to be
7 testifying about accreditation. Nardelli is an agent fund
8 manager. He's just another -- he's the Michael Furman of his 9 region.

06:07 10 THE COURT: Got it. Okay.

11 MS. BERLIN: So, yeah. So --

12 THE COURT: I can see that.

13 MS. BERLIN: Mr. Nardelli --

14 THE COURT: I can see some relevance to that. I mean,
06:07 15 I don't know how it's going to play out. But I guess maybe he 16 can explain how these things work. I mean, that he's also --
17 had similar roles as Furman. Okay.

18 And what about -- his partner is Roland Manuel, right?
19 That's what I've been hearing; is that right?

06:07 20 MR. HYMAN: Yeah.

21 THE COURT: So is he just going to talk a little bit
22 about how Fidelis worked? Is that the idea?

23 MR. HYMAN: A little bit about how Fidelis worked and 24 his interaction with some of the investors, but the SEC brought 06:08 25 in to testify.

1 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So I can see some
2 limited testimony from Nardelli and Manuel that would be
3 relevant, and potentially admissible. So that's fine.

4 MS. BERLIN: And Roland Manuel is an investor, too.

06:08 5 THE COURT: Oh, that's right. He's a big investor,
6 too.

7 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talking) -- relevant to us on a
8 cross-examination. Like he's going to go a while, I think,
9 because he's an investor, he's a partner in Fidelis, he had a
06:08 10 lot of interaction with investors. You know, just to give the 11 judge a sense of time. Like, that's one of our crosses.

12 THE COURT: Well, it looks to me, then, that the 13 biggest witnesses that are coming up will be Cole and 14 Roland Manuel. Glick is out now. The two office managers are 06:08 15 very brief. And Nardelli, I could see that being, you know --
16 that's not going to be too lengthy, but there's going to be 17 something there.

18 MS. BERLIN: He hasn't been subpoenaed. I don't if 19 he's showing voluntarily.

06:08 20 THE COURT: Yeah. I mean, that I don't know. I mean,
21 obviously they mentioned him coming in on Zoom. I don't know
22 if I've dealt with that yet as a motion or request for him to 23 come on Zoom, but I can deal with that.

24 Look, I mean, I think we all expected Weingold to come
06:09 25 in and I don't know -- I mean, he's definitely coming, right?

1 MR. JOHN: He's granted Zoom permission.

2 THE COURT: Yeah, yeah. So I expect him to come in,
3 so that's fine.

4 MS. BERLIN: Oh, yeah.

06:09 5 THE COURT: That's an issue in the case what Weingold
6 did or did not. I think that's really relevant.

7 MS. BERLIN: That's his affirmative defenses.

8 THE COURT: One of his affirmative defenses, advice of 9 counsel.

06:09 10 MS. BERLIN: It's only affirmative defense that he 11 said -- now, we are curious, if we are permitted to know, just 12 because there's no description for Joe Mack Cole, it was just 13 added, and we were kind of straining to understand -- like, if 14 we can get a sense of his relevance to Mr. Furman so we kind of 06:09 15 have a sense of how -- they don't know each other. Maybe they 16 met once.

17 THE COURT: The only thing I can think of is I assume 18 he's going to explain some of the underlying issues with 19 Par Funding, but I think the important thing is he's got to 06:09 20 connect his testimony what Furman knew or didn't know. So I
21 guess --

22 MS. BERLIN: It can't just be an effort to come in 23 here and try defend himself and his co-defendants in 24 Par Funding in light of other people watching this and other
06:10 25 people (cross-talk) it has to be related to --

1 MR. HYMAN: (Cross-talk) -- 10 witnesses.

2 THE COURT: One at a time. One at a time.

3 MS. BERLIN: We would just ask because I really do not
4 like to object when another attorneys are asking questions
06:10 5 unless it's an issue, is that it just needs to be connected to 6 this case and there's no description of what he's going to come
7 in and testify about. And so -- and it's a new -- he was just 8 recently added.

9 THE COURT: Well, look, I'll say this: I think
06:10 10 Joe Cole -- you know, I'm going to ask again, when I put out a
11 quick paperless order, that we get an update, but I expect 12 right now -- I mean, if you guys are writing it down, I should
13 not be getting -- I'm not going to get Joel Glick on that list
14 now, and we know the testimony of office managers are limited.
06:10 15 So right now I need to get an explanation of what Joel Cole is 16 going to say.

17 I have Weingold, I have the office managers, Roland
18 Manuel, Nardelli and possibly two investors, and obviously you
19 can list Mr. Furman. But we know already that's part and 06:11 20 parcel of the ongoing examination of him. But one of the 21 things I will note is when you put in there Joe Cole's -- what
22 he's going to talk about, it will be, I'm sure, too generalized
23 for the Court to be able to make any determination on what he's 24 going to say until he comes in. He's flying in.

06:11 25 But I want to be abundantly clear. Everybody else has

1 resolved the liability phase without admitting or denying
2 anything with the SEC and is preparing for disgorgement now.
3 What I don't want --

4 MS. BERLIN: He actually has a consent agreement.

06:11 5 THE COURT: He does. Cole has a separate -- he's a
6 little more detailed or a little different, right?

7 MS. BERLIN: There are provisions in there about, you
8 know, addressing, like, the allegations against him and other
9 things. So I mean --

06:11 10 THE COURT: Well, no. Let me take a moment. I'm sure
11 he's probably watching, but I know Mr. Ferguson has been his 12 lawyer. I think that everyone should use the time we have 13 between now and Mr. Cole's showing up on Monday to just double 14 check with his counsel so that we know. Because I doubt
06:12 15 Mr. Ferguson is going to allow Mr. Cole to get in here and 16 begin run afoul of his consent judgment. So we have to be 17 careful with that.

18 And I just think that the important thing is that we
19 don't have Joe Cole coming in and essentially doing a whole
06:12 20 explanation that has nothing to do with Furman on the defense
21 arguably of Par Funding's model factoring all of that. That's 22 my only concern. It's just going to get to the point where I
23 can see some relevance, but I can see sections of Joe Cole's
24 testimony that start to get too far afield.

06:12 25 MS. BERLIN: We can probably stipulate. Those things

1 were never issued in our case, we didn't charge, they're not a
2 feature of any charge.

3 THE COURT: My point is I want to let them put on
4 their case, but I just want them to know, bringing in Joe Cole,
06:12 5 that we have to give some parameters because we can't let him
6 just basically come in as if he's decided to go to trial on his 7 issues and talk about things that are too far apart from 8 Furman.

9 MR. HYMAN: We're not trying to do that, Your Honor,
06:13 10 and just for purposes very quickly of preserving records and 11 everything else, the SEC wasn't kept to this limitation when it
12 came to their witnesses. They managed to go five days.

13 THE COURT: Well, first of all, they had limitations
14 that are being placed on witnesses are only when the witnesses
06:13 15 have an issue as to relevancy or an issue as to the scope or 16 their testimony. I didn't have an issue with these witnesses
17 coming in and finding that they perhaps were outside the scope
18 of the case. That's the difference.

19 MR. HYMAN: Half the witnesses they presented didn't
06:13 20 even know who Mr. Furman was. But, Your Honor, at this point, 21 as we said we'll do, we can streamline things. And we'll let 22 everybody know our position as to the witnesses and their 23 testimony Monday.

24 THE COURT: I think the important thing is that you
06:13 25 need to be prepared for the Court to make rulings on Monday

1 regarding certain witnesses unless I can get a sense of their
2 scope, and I just don't want you to bring in Cole thinking that
3 Cole is going to be unfettered in his testimony.

4 MR. HYMAN: No. The only issues about Mr. Cole are 06:14 5 they sat her bringing, Mr. Sharp, Villarose, and all those 6 other people to try and show that Par Funding didn't do due
7 diligence, wasn't profitable. All those different things about
8 the issues within Par Funding and its financials.

9 THE COURT: Let me ask you something. You understand
06:14 10 that the issue here -- and this is partly why we have admitted
11 some of this stuff -- is it's more about the disclosure issues.
12 It's not about the truth of Par Funding's underlying
13 financials.

14 That was a case that you're not trying. That was a
06:14 15 case that your co-defendants are trying. So he's not -- don't 16 interrupt. He's not on the stand explaining Par Funding
17 financials. He's being asked about what did he know or not
18 know and did he disclose it. He's living off representations
19 from other individuals. That's been his testimony.

06:15 20 He only knew what he knew because he was told by 21 Abbonizio about this default rate or that these financials were 22 good. And so the jury is going to have to determine whether or 23 not they believe Mr. Furman in that regard, and whether or not
24 they believe Mr. Furman did or did not do any of his diligence
06:15 25 when he was transmitting or omitting some of this information

1 to investors. But what we can't allow is essentially having a
2 trial on Par Funding as an enterprise. Part of the motions in
3 limine have never focused on that. They focused on what did
4 Mr. Furman know or not know.

06:15 5 So, for example, if Joe Cole talked about how he
6 presented to his fund managers certain information or explained
7 to everybody like Mr. Furman at a dinner that these were the 8 numbers and that these numbers were X, Y and Z, I mean, some of 9 that I can understand. But what we can't do is get into a
06:15 10 situation where the whole trial is about the veracity of
11 Par Funding.

12 Let me give you by way of an example. Par Funding's
13 financials and all of the issues regarding merchant cash
14 advance had nothing to do with one of the individuals being a
06:16 15 convicted felon. At the end of the day, that had to be a
16 disclosure. That doesn't matter. So I'm just giving an 17 example of something that really is not tied to Par Funding,
18 and that's the kind of thing that I need to be clear on.

19 So you can bring in Cole, but where I'm going to 06:16 20 sustain the objections is if Cole is beginning to defend the 21 Par Funding business model because it's really not relevant
22 because it's all about what Mr. Furman said or didn't say,
23 right? So that's all I'm trying to tell you so that you
24 understand when you put on these witnesses that we don't want
06:16 25 to have a referendum on Par Funding because that part of the

1 case has been pretty much taken off the table with the consents
2 of the defendants who were at the forefront of Par Funding,
3 like LaForte, like McElhone. That's the concern there.

4 I mean, most of what we talked about throughout these
06:16 5 witnesses has not been so much about the underlying mechanics
6 but what kind of offerings to tie Mr. Furman to Par Funding
7 were being made and what kind of representations were or were 8 not made by Mr. Furman regarding things he knew or allegedly 9 knew from principals that shared it with him in Par Funding.

06:17 10 MR. HYMAN: (Cross-talk) (inaud.)

11 THE COURT: Hold on a second. Mr. Hyman, I just want
12 to make sure. So you understand where I'm coming from, I think 13 that it's a misstatement to say that the SEC's case has 14 essentially been an indictment of the Par Funding business
06:17 15 model which I sustained requests in limine from both sides not 16 to allow that to become the case. It is focused only on 17 primarily what Mr. Furman knew or what he says he did not know
18 and what he did or did not tell the FBI. So I just want to be 19 clear. In Cole's case, there may be some limits. That's what 06:17 20 I'm trying to say. I don't think it could be too much about 21 just Par Funding.

22 MR. HYMAN: Of course not, Your Honor. The biggest 23 issues are the default rate.

24 THE COURT: One of them.

06:17 25 MR. HYMAN: And that's one of the ones that they have

1 put at issue, unless Your Honor wants to just say, look,
2 there's no way Mr. Furman knew or should have known what the
3 default rate was based on their assertion that he should go
4 look up lawsuits or otherwise. Obviously we need him for that 06:18 5 no matter what.

6 THE COURT: Well, the default rate could be something
7 that could be at issue. You know, I don't know how much Cole
8 can shine on the regulatory concerns.

9 MR. HYMAN: The regulatory concerns wouldn't 06:18 10 necessarily be part and parcel of what we'd be trying to do.
11 It would be those kinds of issues, some of the relations with 12 him. And, Your Honor, we can deal with this as we go. I
13 just -- again, we're doing what we can to put on our case.
14 It's Friday. We're --

06:18 15 THE COURT: Listen, this is a problem. It doesn't
16 work like that in federal court. You don't just figure it out
17 as we go. You don't. This is a problem. This is why we have 18 witnesses and predictability. I have these jurors. They have 19 one more week with us, and we're entering the holidays. I have 06:18 20 to be extremely careful. This trial needs to end by next week
21 no matter what. So I need to be able to schedule things
22 accordingly so I can give these jurors predictability.

23 So I don't think it's a lot to ask that at this stage
24 of the would game you know, after hearing almost the entire 06:19 25 case -- you have heard the SEC's entire case. So at this

1 point, that you're making fine tunes to your game plan is
2 completely, completely understandable. It happens up until the 3 first witness is called.

4 But to have general categories or witnesses just
06:19 5 listed without necessarily having thought through how they fit
6 into the case, I can give you until Monday, but I can't have a
7 situation because that's why we have been delayed, because
8 we're trying to figure it out as we go which I detest. Some 9 things you can't avoid. I get it. But with these remaining
06:19 10 witnesses, I should be able to know at this stage of the game a 11 proffer of what they're going to say and how it fits into the 12 case.

13 So you understand going into the weekend that there
14 will be no one allowed to give hearsay. If it becomes a whole
06:19 15 sideshow about Par Funding, I'm going to limit it. But other 16 than that, I'm giving you the ability to bring in these 17 witnesses. Just be cognizant of what they're going to be 18 called to say and that it fits in with the case against your 19 client and doesn't become something the case is not.

06:20 20 Now, all you'll do is by Monday, you'll file the 21 revised list, but I think that before filing it, you should see
22 how much of this can either be stipulated to, maybe there's 23 things that can be moved in, there might be other exhibits you
24 want to get in under one of these witnesses. They may not even 06:20 25 had an issue with it. You may not need to bring the witness to

1 admit the exhibit. You may be able to bring it in because the
2 SEC has no concern. They stipulate to admissibility and
3 authenticity and it just gets moved in. But again, it's
4 obvious to me that this conversation has not happened. There
06:20 5 have been no conversations or communications between either
6 side of substance --

7 MS. BERLIN: We tried.

8 THE COURT: -- about what is going to be the defense's
9 case. That troubles me because then I can't get ahead of a
06:20 10 potential delay of a day or a half a day like when we lost
11 today about the Fifth Amendment.

12 MS. BERLIN: We have tried, Your Honor. I don't know
13 what else to say. We have tried --

14 THE COURT: It's okay. We have a fresh clean slate.

06:20 15 MS. BERLIN: -- to explain it. I don't think they 16 understand.

17 MR. JOHN: We'll get it by Monday.

18 THE COURT: We got a fresh clean slate.

19 MR. JOHN: We'll make it happen by Monday.

20 THE COURT: Just make it happen. You got to reach out
21 and call them.

22 MS. BERLIN: I know that they understand us. I will 23 say this: This issue with -- the Glick expert and stuff, but 24 the Joe Cole and the default rate and the analysis and all of 06:21 25 that, we'll turn and we will speak with defense counsel.

1 We will then have to put on our rebuttal that we would
2 have done with the witnesses, our expert report and Melissa
3 Davis. If default rate and whether a GAAP analysis versus a
4 cash analysis is the appropriate method, that is appalling.

06:21 5 Mr. Furman never made any -- we're not alleging he made a
6 representation that he used GAAP versus cash over cash. Our 7 point is he said it was 1.2 percent, he didn't do due
8 diligence, he didn't tell anyone about 2 thousand lawsuits, he 9 didn't tell anyone about the financial report that he did see.
06:21 10 And it links together. It's not that -- we're not alleging any 11 sort of accounting fraud with him.

12 THE COURT: Well, it's more than that. It's more than
13 that.

14 MS. BERLIN: It's what he knew.

06:22 15 THE COURT: The key is that it's -- again, it's an 16 omissions or misstatements claim against him. So the only
17 thing that here I think is relevant is, you know, what -- look,
18 for example, his state of mind could come into play if a
19 witness came in and said that this is how - this is what we 06:22 20 told Mr. Furman. That these defaults were nonexistent. Or 21 someone tried to explain to him a way in which he was under the 22 impression of something not being true or not being accurate
23 and so he didn't have an obligation to share to an investor.

24 I mean, there is a fine line where some of that could 06:22 25 be relevant. But the problem is, to get into the underlying

1 calculations of the default rate have no bearing on the issues
2 in the case because, at the end of the day what matter here is
3 what Mr. Furman claims to have known or not known and whether
4 he had to disclose it. I mean, that's really all it was. So
06:23 5 again, I get back to my other point. The veracity of the 6 numbers is not at issue. Right? It's not the number and the 7 calculation.

8 MS. BERLIN: Correct.

9 THE COURT: It's whether or not he shared it or didn't
06:23 10 share it. I mean, that's what I'm saying. So I don't know
11 that all of this would really be relevant to that point.
12 That's kind of the issue.

13 MR. HYMAN: I understand. I mean, we'll deal --

14 THE COURT: You know what I mean?

06:23 15 MR. HYMAN: -- with it, Your Honor, over the weekend,
16 and then address those and try to streamline things further and 17 go from there.

18 MS. BERLIN: And I think the issue, just so the 19 defense counsel can hear it, is the element, right, for the 06:23 20 mindset in our cases is not intent. It is not knowingly or 21 willfully. It is -- just a moment. I want to make sure you
22 understand. Scierter, which is severe recklessness, which is 23 defined in the law as knew or should have known. And so I just 24 want to be clear. These things I'm not debating basic IDEO
06:23 25 law. It's pattern jury instructions. It's a pattern --

1 THE COURT: Stop interrupting.

2 It's pattern -- the point is, these are pattern so you
3 understand when they're talking about should have known, that's 4 half of the theory here, for example, why did they bring on the 06:24 5 New Jersey guys to say, this stuff is plastered all over our
6 website? Because the whole point is, he had the wherewithal,
7 the education and the ability to look into the veracity of 8 these investments and so jury could very well find that this 9 publically available information by securities regulators in 06:24 10 Texas, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, he should have known.

11 MS. BERLIN: Exactly.

12 THE COURT: That's the kind of stuff that we're
13 dealing with here. I always think that to prepare a case
14 effectively, you start with the jury instructions and you work
06:24 15 your way backwards.

16 MS. BERLIN: Me too.

17 THE COURT: I would think that maybe that will help
18 us. And, in fact, maybe what the Court will do is -- and what 19 you guys may want to do is, when you're proffering to me on 06:24 20 Monday why someone is relevant, you may want to show me how 21 that ties into an element of the jury instruction. That may 22 help you understand why I wouldn't let someone in here that 23 wouldn't make it kind of a nonissue or have a relevancy
24 problem. So that's one of the things I want you to guys to 06:25 25 focus on.

1 But again, we've streamlined it a little bit now. You
2 guys can sit down now and work through your notes and meet and
3 confer and perhaps you can take even more stuff of the table so
4 we can truthfully have a shot at middle of the week closings.

06:25 5 But that's where we're at. So just -- I will put a paperless
6 order out now with an updated -- I'm just going to make it
7 simple -- as discussed on the record at the conclusion of 8 trial.

9 The defendants will file an updated witness list by 06:25 10 9:00 a.m. on Monday with descriptions or proffers as to those 11 witnesses' proposed testimony. And that way we know. But I
12 think you guys can talk about them. Maybe you can eliminate
13 some of those folks by meeting and conferring with the SEC
14 beforehand.

06:25 15 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, we got it. We will make it
16 happen.

17 MS. BERLIN: Good.

18 THE COURT: So with that being said, anything else on 19 the defense side before we conclude? I think we've covered 06:25 20 everything on the SEC.

21 MR. JOHN: We have nothing, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. There is no reason why you
23 wouldn't be able to leave, at least if you need to leave, some 24 boxes or anything in the courtroom. The courtroom will be 06:25 25 locked. The Court does not have any other proceedings until

1 the sentencing at 1:00 o'clock on Monday. So if you want to
2 leave things over the weekend, this is going to be closed up.
3 So it will be safe in here. You don't have to take stuff home,
4 if you want to leave boxes. I leave it up to you guys. Just 06:26 5 put in on the side.

6 MR. HYMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: We're in recess.

9

10 (Thereupon, the above portion of the trial was concluded.)

P R O C E E D I N G S

(The following proceedings were held in open court.)

THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone.

MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor.

10:10 THE COURT: Yeah. We're going to address it in one
6 second. Let me get your co-counsel. Is she going to come in?

MS. JOHNSON: She's vomiting in the bedroom.

THE COURT: So we're currently off our audio at this
9 point. So we can go ahead and discuss some case management.
10:11 10 So it's my understanding that Ms. Berlin is not feeling well
11 battling some sort of a bug or something this morning.

MS. JOHNSON: Some type of stomach issue, yeah. She 13 had to pull over and get sick, and as I understand, she's 14 currently getting sick again. Her plan was to ask for an hour
10:11 15 continuance and see if it continued or if she felt better and 16 resume at 11:00.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. JOHNSON: Oh, here she is.

THE COURT: Ms. Berlin, good morning. I understand
10:11 20 you're not feeling so well. I'm sorry to hear that.

MS. BERLIN: Thank you. I feel a little better now,
22 but I don't know how long it will last.

THE COURT: Okay. Are we comfortable -- I mean, I can 24 let -- the jurors won't really notice if you have to step out.
10:11 25 I'm wondering can we continue at all with the direct or can

1 co-counsel take the lead? How are we feeling in that regard?

2 MS. BERLIN: I can do it, you know, mentally and all
3 of that. It's just if I have to take a break, it will be an 4 urgent need.

10:12 5 THE COURT: That's okay. Maybe what I could do is let
6 the jurors know that to the extent that there may need to be a
7 sudden break, that, you know, we'll let them know and that way
8 they don't react in any sort of alarm or anything.

9 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, that was really our only concern is 10:12 10 that it could be a little not good for the SEC if I run out of 11 the courtroom at some point.

12 THE COURT: Sure. That's fine. I will let them know,
13 but I'm not going to obviously make any mention that you're not
14 feeling well. I'll just say there may need to be brief
10:12 15 interruptions by the SEC's counsel during the testimony or 16 remaining testimony of Mr. Furman and so they should take no
17 issue with that and we'll take a break. All right. So keep me
18 posted to the extent you can, and we will work with you on
19 that.

10:12 20 The Court -- while we're just doing a little bit of 21 housekeeping, the Court did receive the filings this morning.
22 Specifically, we had the amended witness list filed by the 23 defense, and so the Court has been reviewing that. And I
24 understand our four witnesses are going to be called and are 10:13 25 the ones we discussed on Friday. So Mr. Cole and a few others

1 are listed. So I'll take a look at that, but nothing there
2 raises any issues for me. It's just good to see what our 3 lineup is.

4 And obviously Mr. Furman is on that list, and we're 10:13 5 going to give the defense an opportunity really to do their 6 examination if and when they take their turn here on a really
7 rehabilitative cross-examination and a little bit of direct at 8 that point which I'll allow them to go through that.

9 The other thing I did receive was a revised joint
10:13 10 pretrial stipulation. I got that. So that kind of goes
11 through, I think, a summary of where we are at and hopefully
12 cleans up or clarifies any concern regarding each side's
13 position and so that's a good filing there as well that I can 14 review.

10:14 15 The last one obviously is a motion for leave to file a
16 memorandum in connection with the purportedly unpled claims of 17 immigration doctrine. Just so I can streamline it, I know it's 18 attached as an exhibit. I know it's objected to, but really to 19 make it easier, I'll grant the motion really paperlessly so
10:14 20 that it can be formally filed as a memorandum in the docket.
21 So Exhibit A will be deemed filed.

22 I'll review it. I haven't had a chance to read the 23 memorandum yet, and really we don't need to get caught up in 24 that right now. That's really more for later. I don't think
10:14 25 it's going to be an issue, but when we get to it, we'll talk a

1 little bit more about it. But I am going to grant the motion
2 so I can formally consider the memorandum.

3 So that's all the stuff we had to deal with this
4 morning. I think that we can put Mr. Furman back on the stand
10:15 5 in just a moment and continue on with Mr. Furman's direct. One
6 thing I needed to raise because it is significant is with 7 regards to our jury. We have another juror that is not going
8 to be with us any longer in the trial.

9 Juror number 1 was the young woman here in the front
10:15 10 where Rita, my courtroom security officer, is sitting. You may 11 recall that she was the one that was unfortunately repeatedly
12 late last week. I think she was running behind several times,
13 and if you recall also, during one of the lunch breaks she went 14 home and we couldn't get ahold of her and she ultimately came
10:15 15 back.

16 For whatever reason, maybe because she didn't want to 17 seem like she was coming up with an excuse, she has a baby,
18 almost a newborn, and never shared it during voir dire. And 19 then on top of that, she has another child that I think is not 10:16 20 in school. She's very young, toddler perhaps. She called us
21 and left us a message. This morning we finally reached out to 22 her before coming to court today to indicate that the 23 babysitter that has been the one relieving her so she could 24 serve has completely gone off the grid.

10:16 25 She's been trying to call her all morning, she can't

1 find her. She obviously cannot leave the children unattended.
2 There's no timeline for that. If this was a situation where
3 she said to me, look, I need an hour and then we'll work out to 4 give Ms. Berlin an hour, then I would do it because it would 10:16 5 make total sense. But she basically said, I don't know where 6 my babysitter is. And so the Court was in a unenviable
7 position of having to call her back and excuse her for the 8 remainder of trial.

9 But again, we have six jurors and the six actually, at 10:16 10 one point when she was running late, indicated they were all 11 ready to go without her. So they are a jury that has been very 12 much locked in, so I'm not too concerned. We still have the 13 requisite number under our rules, but I wanted to let everybody
14 know that she, like our juror on the first day, who had a flat
10:17 15 tire, will be excused or has been excused by the Court.

16 So we proceed with the six we have. They are all
17 here. They're all ready to go.

18 Is there anything else in terms of housekeeping that 19 the Court needs to be aware of before I can go ahead and have 10:17 20 Mr. Furman back on the stand and continue on with the direct?
21 Anything on the SEC's side that I need to cover?

22 MS. BERLIN: No, Your Honor. I wonder if, though,
23 before we call the jury, if I could just have five minutes
24 because I just came in, just to -- there's one exhibit I just 10:17 25 need to grab.

1 THE COURT: Sure. Go ahead, take the five.

2 And anything on the defense side that I need to cover
3 housekeeping-wise?

4 MR. HYMAN: Very briefly, Your Honor.

10:17 5 THE COURT: Yes, speak into the microphone.

6 MR. HYMAN: I apologize. On Friday, Your Honor
7 indicated that unless we found case law dealing with the 8 hearsay issue, you'd strike the investors. We didn't find any 9 case law supporting your position.

10:17 10 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Not to interrupt you. I don't 11 think it was the investors, right? Wasn't it the two office
12 managers?

13 MR. HYMAN: It was more of for the investors to the 14 disclosure issue. We had Mr. Stoller on the list. We kept him
10:18 15 on there just to preserve whatever rights with the knowledge
16 that Your Honor would likely be striking him in today light of 17 the failure to find the appropriate authority. I just wanted
18 to raise that so you could strike him appropriately.

19 THE COURT: So again, the -- I want to make sure that
10:18 20 I'm looking at your witness list Docket Entry 1090 so I know
21 who we're talking about. This is number 7, Kenneth Stoller,
22 right?

23 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: He was going to talk about Furman and 10:18 25 Fidelis's educational seminars and disclosures made by Furman;

1 is that right?

2 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Okay. So yeah, at this
4 point I don't know how his testimony would come in other than 10:18 5 hearsay. The issue is he would be testifying as to the 6 truthfulness of Mr. Furman's statements regarding disclosures.
7 And it would be a little difficult, I think, to do that and I
8 can't even think of an exception that would really apply for
9 that.

10:19 10 One could try to argue some sort of state of mind, but 11 the reality is Mr. Stoller would be materially addressing the 12 statements made by Mr. Furman. One would argue that's probably 13 self-serving hearsay, but I just don't know any way that 14 Mr. Stoller would come in, and I take it that defense has not 10:19 15 found any other way that that testimony would be admissible
16 given that it is, I think, straightforward hearsay. So he's on 17 your main call list. I recognize that. I think to save us the 18 time so he doesn't get brought in to simply have objections,
19 that works for the Court. We will not be calling him.

10:19 20 And I think everyone else, I mean, as far as I can 21 tell, will be fairly straightforward. We'll deal with any 22 issues with Christine Furman when she's called. There was an 23 argument made by the SEC there. But I'll let that play out and 24 see what happens when she testifies. I don't think I need to 10:19 25 make any sort of preliminary ruling in that regard.

1 Similar with Mr. Barletta, as we discussed on Friday,
2 as long as we don't make this a trial about Par Funding that's
3 not related to Mr. Furman, I think Mr. Barletta's testimony
4 will not have any major issues. Do we still think that we're
10:20 5 going to have Mr. Barletta come in this afternoon as you
6 planned?

7 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor. He's currently here
8 sitting outside. There's the one kind of -- we may ask him
9 some limited background questions, but we're not planning on 10:20 10 going into anything substantive. Also on our list we 11 referenced that he might be discussing Mr. LaForte. However,
12 upon reviewing the consent judgment, I think he is estopped
13 from testifying about any of Mr. LaForte's involvement. So we 14 don't plan on asking any questions on that subject.

10:20 15 THE COURT: Very good. And what I was planning on 16 doing is what you had requested on Friday, which was letting 17 the direct with Mr. Furman end and then calling him out of 18 turn. That's the plan still. And I'll let the jurors
19 understand that you guys are going to get to go up and ask
10:20 20 Mr. Furman questions, but we're now going to call your first 21 witness out of turn.

22 MR. HYMAN: Yep. And depending on timing, Ms. Groleau
23 had to take off work. So we may try to call her out of turn,
24 depending on just how much time there is, once the SEC finishes
10:21 25 its direct. If they're short and kind of sweet as we'd hope,

1 we might be able to get all three of them done today, but we'll
2 have to see what happens.

3 THE COURT: Let's hope. That would be ideal. I hope
4 so too. Let's see how it goes when we get Mr. Furman up here
10:21 5 and finish up his direct examination. And I take it, then, are 6 we ready to go exhibit-wise on the SEC's side too? I know that
7 we have been trying to show Mr. Furman a number of documents.
8 So hopefully we kind of have a game plan here of what needs to 9 be shown to him.

10:21 10 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor. In fact, I'm going to 11 use the ELMO so I can show everything quickly. And one other
12 thing, Your Honor, when you mentioned witness out of turn
13 reminded me, we have a witness who is an impeachment witness
14 that we're going to call after Furman.

10:22 15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MS. BERLIN: But we want to ask if we can take him out
17 of turn because he's an agent. He can come tomorrow.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Yeah, that would make sense.

19 MS. BERLIN: If that's okay.

10:22 20 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm going to let the jurors know
21 we're calling some folks out of sequence due to availability,
22 but I think that makes sense since we kind of have a plan with 23 Cole and possibly Groleau today, let's have the defense
24 witnesses called, and then you can deal with your witness on 10:22 25 Tuesday, tomorrow.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, we obviously object to this
3 witness being brought in for impeachment. There isn't any
4 prior inconsistent statement. Mr. Furman testified he doesn't
10:22 5 remember specifically as to what he had said to them and had 6 been questioned ad nauseam about those statements in front of 7 the jury. So we think it's overly cumulative and prejudicial
8 to have an FBI agent talking about what happened during that 9 interaction.

10:23 10 THE COURT: Understood. I mean, the challenge is 11 there's not a universe where you would be able to preclude an 12 entire witness in that fashion on impeachment grounds. I had 13 to let that witness come in, and then if it indeed becomes 14 problematic or I get something that's in appropriate, then
10:23 15 obviously if the proper foundation for impeachment isn't laid
16 or we have some issue as to argument as to being cumulative,
17 we'll deal with it at that time. But at this point, you know, 18 that witness is going to get called and we'll have to deal with 19 the situationally.

10:23 20 MS. BERLIN: If we didn't call him as impeachment, we 21 would be calling him as rebuttal. He probably would have been 22 on our initial list anyway if we didn't make the shift to open
23 the door. But -- so, Your Honor, we're very flexible on the 24 day. The only day he cannot come is Wednesday.

10:23 25 THE COURT: Okay. I think we can get him in tomorrow

1 out of turn. That's not a problem.

2 MR. HYMAN: The only thing we request, Your Honor, is
3 that the documents pertaining to this witness, the FBI report
4 and everything, be provided to us at some point.

10:24 5 THE COURT: I don't know what we're going to be using.
6 I don't think we have 302s or anything coming in with this
7 witness anyway, but if there's anything, we'll deal with it
8 when it comes in. I don't know -- again, I mean, this is all
9 impeachment. So, you know, the production of it as it's coming
10:24 10 in, we'll make sure we get copies from you guys. But I don't 11 even know if we're going to have much in the way of documents.

12 Ms. Berlin, do you know?

13 MS. BERLIN: There won't be any documents. And no 302
14 will be introduced. He won't be testifying from a 302.

10:24 15 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, the only side point is, is 16 Mr. Furman's been questioned from the 302. At this point, I
17 think just fairness dictate that we be allowed at a minimum to 18 see it and ask him questions concerning the substance of it.

19 THE COURT: No. I mean, at this point, I mean, they 10:24 20 haven't questioned from the 302. They've asked questions to 21 the first agent. The agent -- the first agent actually came
22 in, really, as a records custodian almost for the tape. There
23 hasn't really been any questioning that I can recall from an 24 FBI report. It was simply to that witness. So I can't think
10:24 25 of it. It's not like it's been scripted and this would be

1 impeachment anyway, so we're not going to have a production of
2 these exhibits. Well, let's put it this way, there's no
3 exhibits. I mean, I'm being told that it's going to be an FBI
4 witness who has experience in directly rebutting some of what
10:25 5 Mr. Furman has stated. So I mean, it's pretty straightforward
6 impeachment. I'll deal with any objections when that witness
7 comes. But in terms of production up front, I see nothing that 8 the Court would even order or that's even going to be
9 introduced. So I think we're not going to have an issue.

10:25 10 MR. HYMAN: I wasn't talking about the FBI agent.
11 Ms. Berlin was questioning Mr. Furman based on statements that 12 she's reading off of the 302 yesterday.

13 THE COURT: Well, you mean on Friday. I don't recall
14 Ms. Berlin asking anything off the 302, and that would be the 10:25 15 same argument, turn over your notes, if you're using it for an 16 outline. I mean, I don't really -- that's not required and I'm 17 not going to be ordering that. If you wanted the 302, you
18 should have filed a motion to compel three months ago or four 19 months ago, we could have argued that and litigated in front of 10:25 20 my magistrate judge as a discovery issue. It's not going to be 21 turned over now. There's nothing to be dealing with a 302
22 production at this stage of the game. It's not an outline.
23 I've watched, with my own eyes, the testimony. It's the same
24 as anybody else that would have notes, but there was no
10:26 25 reference to any document that would require its production.

1 So that's not going to be permitted or required.

2 So with that being said, anything else? I think we're
3 ready to go. We can probably bring in our jurors and get
4 Mr. Furman back on the stand.

10:26 5 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Go ahead and get it started if you want.
7 If you want to get started.

8 And, Mr. Furman, you might as well make your way up to 9 the stand. Go ahead and grab a seat, make yourself comfortable
10:26 10 here. We'll go ahead and get our jurors.

11 MS. BERLIN: I feel like I should leave it on.

12 THE COURT: Yeah, that's fine. I'm not going to make 13 any mention. I'll let the jurors know, just in case.

14 Are you going to try to testify through the mask?

10:26 15 THE WITNESS: No.

16 THE COURT: I think you're far enough away.

17 THE WITNESS: If she cannot hand me anything --

18 THE COURT: Yeah. Everything should be shown through 19 the ELM0, so we can prevent any sort of issues with any bugs or 10:27 20 anything like that.

21 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor. Let's see if I
22 can move this a little bit and move the microphones closer.

23 THE COURT: We can go ahead and turn on the audio as 24 well.

10:28 25 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

1 THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. Please be seated.
2 Good to see you all. Welcome back, ladies and gentlemen of the 3 jury. I hope you all had a nice and restful weekend. Again,
4 we do appreciate your services and your dedication coming in on 10:28 5 time again today, for what we expect to be the latter half and 6 the homestretch of this trial over the coming days.

7 You may recall from the testimony that we took on 8 Friday that we were in the midst of the SEC's direct
9 examination of Mr. Furman. The goal this morning before lunch
10:29 10 is to finish that direct examination. There may be some issues
11 with witnesses and other things that may necessitate or require 12 that SEC's counsel step out briefly. If at any point any 13 lawyers seem to put a quick pause and have to run out of court,
14 please take no inference from that. We've had some scheduling
10:29 15 issues and we're trying to get everything under way. So just 16 keep that in mind.

17 But again, if you recall, the plan here is to not only
18 have the SEC finish, but then this afternoon we are probably 19 going to call, just for availability sake, a witness out of 10:29 20 turn. What's going to end up happening is, this is expected to 21 be the SEC's last witness. They would rest after this witness.
22 Of course, you have to give defense an opportunity to 23 cross-examine this witness and the SEC a chance to do redirect
24 on the witness.

10:29 25 But since there may an defense witness that's

1 available for a short amount of time, once we're done with the
2 direct examination of Mr. Furman, we may put a pin on his
3 testimony and pause it so that we can call some witnesses out
4 of turn. Do you all understand? We're just doing this for 10:30 5 availability and trying to streamline things. It's just what 6 we're working on this morning.

7 Does everybody have their notepads? You guys all
8 found your stuff? Okay, great.

9 All right. So I don't want to hesitate any longer, so
10:30 10 we can get underway and pick up where we left off. So I'm 11 going to turn it back to the SEC to continue the direct of 12 Mr. Furman.

13 Mr. Furman, obviously you continue to be under oath.
14 We don't have to swear you in again.

10:30 15 He continues to be under oath since we took his oath
16 last Friday, or this past Friday.

17 Okay. With that being said, we'll turn it over to the 18 SEC.

19 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

20

21 Thereupon,

22 MICHAEL FURMAN,

23 having been previously duly sworn:

24

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. Good morning, Mr. Furman.

3 A. Good morning.

4 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, may I approach the witness?

5 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

6 THE WITNESS: No physical, please.

7 THE COURT: Can you just put it up on the overhead?

8 MS. BERLIN: It hasn't been admitted.

9 THE COURT: Okay. If you could -- you've got to show
10:31 10 it. Maybe you could show it to them in your own screens or you
11 don't have any other way of doing it? You have a screen there.
12 Yeah. That way you don't have to approach the witness and make 13 it easier.

14 MS. BERLIN: Okay, super.

15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

16 THE COURT: You should be able to see it.

17 You folks don't see anything, right?

18 THE JURY: (Shaking head).

19 THE COURT: Okay, very good. Let's do it that way.

10:31 20 That way you don't have to be going back and forth.

21 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. Do you recognize this document?

24 A. Yes.

10:31 25 MR. HYMAN: No objection to its introduction,

1 Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Very good. We'll admit that at that time.

3 What's the label on that? P 39. So admit P 39 at 4 this time without objection.

10:31 5 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

6 BY MS. BERLIN:

7 Q. Mr. Furman, can you see it on your screen now?

8 A. Yes, I can.

9 Q. Okay, great. This is your management services agreement
10:32 10 with Par Funding. I mean, I'm sorry, with ABFP, Mr. Dean
11 Vagnozzi's company?

12 A. Correct. This was ABFP Management, not Par Funding.

13 Q. Okay. And that's your signature on the back?

14 A. That it is.

10:32 15 Q. And it's dated April 24th, 2018?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And under this agreement, ABFP and Mr. Vagnozzi had access
18 to your investors' money?

19 A. I know the accountant did, correct. The funds account.

10:32 20 Q. An employee of ABFP was -- had access to the money of the 21 people that you raised money from, right?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Okay. And in addition to having access to your investors'
24 money, did ABFP also prepare the documents for your investors
10:33 25 that they had to file with their taxes?

1 A. That was an add-on at the end of the year. I know that I
2 had some problems with that, so I had to do some of that
3 myself. But yes, I believe it was like a dollars or something
4 more. We had to pay a fee of 10 dollars, a hundred dollars, I
10:33 5 don't remember. But yes.

6 Q. Okay. So ABFP also prepared tax documents for your
7 investors to file with the IRS?

8 A. I believe that's correct. ABFP Management.

9 Q. Okay. Dean Vagnozzi's company, correct?

10:33 10 A. His management company, yes.

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

12 MS. BERLIN: And if we could show this only to the 13 witness, please.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:34 15 Q. Do you recognize this document?

16 A. Looks like the same one.

17 Q. It's slightly different. I can put them next to each
18 other. That might make it easier for you.

19 MR. HYMAN: Ms. Berlin, what was the exhibit number?

10:34 20 A. 554.

21 MR. HYMAN: Thank you.

22 No objection to the introduction of this, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: We'll admit this exhibit at this time.

24 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

10:34 25 THE COURT: What's the number on this one?

1 MS. BERLIN: It's 554.

2 THE COURT: 554, that will be admitted.

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. And again, your signature, correct?

10:35 5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And this is a management agreement with ABFP to perform the 7 same services we just talked about for your investors?

8 A. It looked to be, correct. It's not there now, but yeah.

9 Q. And those are the investors who were contributing to 10:35 10 your -- to Fidelis in order to invest in Par Funding?

11 A. Fidelis Financial Planning, the fund, yes.

12 Q. Okay. Do you see this agreement also included Section 16
13 where you were acknowledging that you'll only raise assets for 14 Par Funding? Do you see that?

10:35 15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. And also your -- this agreement states that both you and 17 Dean Vagnozzi's company agree that Russell Meyer and Renee
18 Meyer are your clients and are owned by your company.

19 Do you see that?

10:36 20 A. Correct. I see that.

21 Q. And you recall Russell Meyer and Renee Meyer are the 22 investors, we looked at their promissory note last week in 23 ABFP? Do you recall that?

24 A. I do.

10:36 25 Q. And did you tell your investors that Dean Vagnozzi and ABFP

1 were going to be handling or having access to their funds or
2 that they were the ones preparing the tax documents for them to
3 file with the IRS?

4 A. Yes. I went over ABFP Management Company to be handling
10:37 5 the accounting and back office.

6 Q. Okay. So you told the investors about ABFP and Dean
7 Vagnozzi's involvement?

8 A. The management. Mostly the CPA handled it, yes. Yeah.

9 Q. Okay.

10:37 10 MR. HYMAN: It's already in evidence.

11 MS. BERLIN: 49.

12 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

13 Your Honor, can we show this only to the witness?

14 THE COURT: Sure.

10:37 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. Mr. Furman, do you recognize what this document is?

17 A. I recognize what it pertains to, yes.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MS. BERLIN: Is there any objection to this admission
10:37 20 to this government document, Mr. Hyman?

21 MR. HYMAN: No, no objection.

22 THE COURT: That will be admitted at this time.

23 That's P 49?

24 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

10:38 25 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. And do you see here, this is a regulatory order, a consent
3 and agreement order that the Pennsylvania state regulators
4 issued against Dean Vagnozzi and doing business as A Better
10:38 5 Financial Plan, which is ABFP? Do you see that?

6 A. I see that.

7 Q. Okay. And you're familiar with this order against
8 Mr. Vagnozzi and his entity, correct?

9 A. I'm a lot more now, correct.

10:38 10 Q. And in this order, you were aware that the state regulators
11 found that Mr. Vagnozzi and his entity had violated the state
12 securities laws in connection with the Par Funding offering,
13 correct? You know about this order, correct?

14 A. Now, correct.

10:39 15 Q. Well, you knew about it before I'm showing it to you today
16 Mr. Furman, right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. In fact, you texted your assistant, Kristin Groleau, about 19 it and you discussed it prior to today, correct?

10:39 20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And do you see that this is executed by Mr. Vagnozzi on 22 April 30th and entered on May 1st, 2019?

23 A. I see that.

24 Q. And this order from the Pennsylvania state regulators
10:39 25 against ABFP and Mr. Vagnozzi imposed a $499,000 sanction.

1 Do you recall that as well?

2 A. I recall, yes.

3 Q. And it was in connection with Mr. Vagnozzi raising money
4 from investors for Par Funding promissory notes, correct?

10:40 5 A. As far as I know, correct.

6 Q. And after learning about this consent agreement and order,
7 you continued to not tell your investors about the regulatory
8 actions against the Par Funding, which we looked at last week,
9 the Par Funding regulatory actions from 2018 or this regulatory 10:40 10 action from April 2019 against ABFP, correct?

11 A. Incorrect. I brought it up once I found out about it, and
12 again, it's not against my company or in the state that I
13 worked in. So I brought it up to clients once I found out
14 about it.

10:41 15 Q. Mr. Furman, you didn't discuss this at your sales events,
16 correct?

17 A. My educational events, no, we did not bring it up.
18 Generally at education events, I was not selling ABFP.

19 Q. And you did not tell every investor or potential investor
10:41 20 who was investing in Par Funding, correct?

21 A. Again, I did not make a list. So I cannot say when I found
22 out. I told everybody once I spoke to them that was pertinent
23 in a way that I thought was best informing them.

24 Q. Mr. Furman, I want to make sure I understand. Is it your 10:41 25 testimony that after you found out about this order -- and

1 let's accept that, you learned about this at the end of 2019,
2 correct?

3 A. I don't remember the date. Dean Vagnozzi and A Better
4 Financial Plan Management Company, which is different than 10:41 5 A Better Financial Plan, as I was one of, I don't know, 40 or 6 50 fund managers around the country, there is no press release,
7 there was no down to all the advisors or fund managers that he
8 managed or his company managed because he had his own company
9 and I dealt with solely the CPA. There was no communication
10:42 10 every week with Mr. Vagnozzi himself.

11 There was no communication, no e-mail letting every 12 fund manager know. I learned about it probably many months
13 after it happened from one of the fellow fund managers that I
14 bounced many of the ideas off of and our own pros and cons
10:42 15 about everything about all of our firms.

16 So once I found out about it and somebody -- like I
17 said, I don't let people know about it much through e-mail. So
18 most of my conversations were conversations in person, in my 19 office. These were -- as you call it, the majority of them
10:42 20 were retirees. And so I was not texting. I didn't think that 21 that is a very professional way to text, especially even 22 somebody regardless of their age. And so in person, I brought 23 up what I thought was pertinent as I learned about it in a way
24 that was constructive to give them as much education and 10:43 25 information as I thought I could.

1 Q. None of that is true, is it?

2 A. No. That's true.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. That's your own opinion.

10:43 5 Q. Well, let's look at the evidence. I'd like to -- do you
6 remember the SEC taking your deposition testimony in May 26,
7 2021?

8 A. I remember being deposed, correct, from my house.

9 Q. And did you -- you took an oath to tell the truth that day,
10 right?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And you testified about this issue. Do you recall?

13 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, may I put the transcript
14 on ELMO as I read it?

10:43 15 May we show everyone?

16 THE COURT: No. Let's go ahead and --

17 MS. BERLIN: Just read it.

18 THE COURT: Just the witness, please.

19 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

10:43 20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. Do you recall being asked:

22 So did you tell any of the potential investors or 23 investors of Fidelis about any Pennsylvania securities
24 regulatory matter relating to Mr. Vagnozzi or his companies?

10:44 25 And you answered: Maybe it's come up over time, but I

1 did not work for Mr. Vagnozzi. So no, I did not discuss
2 Mr. Vagnozzi's companies with my clients typically.

3 And it just continues to go on. Do you see that,
4 Mr. Furman?

10:44 5 A. That I do.

6 Q. And so you testified not quite seven months ago that you
7 didn't tell your investors about Mr. Vagnozzi's involvement in 8 the company or the regulatory action, correct?

9 A. Incorrect. That's not what that states there. In a
10 snippet of two sentences out of eight hours is not going to 11 paint the picture of the truth. As I said, typically I did not
12 lead or talk about Mr. Vagnozzi's companies, especially in a 13 first meeting other than I'm under an umbrella or working with 14 a management company.

10:45 15 Also, Mr. Vagnozzi, as you were bringing up during my 16 deposition, had a much later similar, as far as I know, action
17 from the State of Texas which was, I believe, actually after 18 Corona. So there was no way for me to talk to my clients about 19 that after that time, as well as Pennsylvania, when I brought
10:45 20 it up, I do not work for ABFP or ABFP Management Company. So
21 no, I did not bring up Mr. Vagnozzi to my clients specifically
22 in the beginning.

23 Q. Right. So but we have just looked at the order. It's 24 against Mr. Vagnozzi doing business as his company. And you're 10:45 25 right, you did testify more about it because I wanted to make

1 sure I understood. So I'm going to show you the rest of this 2 portion.

3 A. And it says A Better Financial Plan, not A Better Financial 4 Plan Management Company.

10:46 5 Q. The question was asked -- after you provided that answer,
6 we stopped clarification and said -- after you said: So no, I
7 did not discuss Mr. Vagnozzi's -- I'll start at the beginning.

8 QUESTION: So did you tell any of the potential
9 investors or investors of Fidelis about any Pennsylvania
10 securities regulatory matter relating to Mr. Vagnozzi or his 11 companies?

12 ANSWER: Maybe it's come up over time, but did I not
13 work for Mr. Vagnozzi. So no, I did not discuss Mr. Vagnozzi's
14 companies with my clients typically.

10:46 15 QUESTION: I'm sorry. You did not discuss what? Can 16 you repeat your answer?

17 ANSWER: I did not discuss Mr. Vagnozzi typically with 18 my clients or with every client. He does not work for my 19 company and didn't represent my company ever.

10:46 20 QUESTION: I'm sorry. The question -- so is the 21 answer no, you did not tell investors or potential investors of 22 Fidelis about any Pennsylvania securities regulatory matters
23 concerning Dean Vagnozzi or any of his companies?

24 ANSWER: Again, as I stated a couple of minutes ago, I
10:47 25 know we had discussions and it came up with a few people, but I

1 did not represent Mr. Vagnozzi or his companies and did not
2 discuss, when I learned of it very late on, anything that
3 happened to him with my clients. It did not pertain to them.
4 They did not invest with him or through.

10:47 5 You can see it on your screen. But do you see,
6 Mr. Furman, your testimony seven months ago was that you did
7 not disclose this to your investors. Do you agree with me
8 about what I just read to you? That was your testimony --
9 A. I do not agree one hundred percent. You can read back
10:47 10 exactly what you read. And I did bring it up. I do not
11 discuss Dean Vagnozzi to my clients other than in a four-hour
12 conversation with a client, yes, I would try to bring it up
13 once I knew about this Pennsylvania regulation, as it stated in 14 there, if you'd like to put it back up there.

10:48 15 Q. Mr. Furman, the only question pending was: Was that your 16 testimony on May 26th, 2021?

17 A. What snippet you read was obviously part of my testimony,
18 yes.

19 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to admit this
10:48 20 portion of his testimony from May 26th, 2021.

21 THE COURT: That will be declined. It's in the 22 Court's discretion as to whether we admit deposition
23 transcripts. At this point the jurors will use their best
24 recollection of the evidence. Should they need to see it in 10:48 25 deliberations, I can always produce it to them.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. And, Mr. Furman, in addition to that, at a certain point
4 you sought to break away from Mr. Vagnozzi and his companies,
5 correct?

6 A. Correct. Late 2019 early 2020.

7 Q. And you sent -- you prepared a letter to Mr. Vagnozzi where 8 you were explaining the reasons why you wanted to break away
9 from him. Is that true?

10:49 10 A. I believe my attorney that I hired prepared that letter, 11 but without recalling whether it was an e-mail, I know he 12 prepared a document that I had to send or serve him through the 13 mail where you have to sign for it. I forget the terminology
14 for that.

10:49 15 Q. Well, you -- do recall that you drafted your own personal
16 statement that you sent to your lawyer?

17 A. To my lawyer? I'm sure I had communications with my lawyer
18 about it. That's why I hired him.

19 Q. And do you recall that one of the reasons that you wanted
10:49 20 to break away with Mr. Vagnozzi is that you explained that the 21 start of the breach happened -- that you claim Mr. Vagnozzi
22 breached, that the start of it happened when you learned from a
23 potential client, so an investor, that they had decided not to 24 invest with you because they found out about the regulatory
10:49 25 actions against Dean Vagnozzi and ABFP.

1 Did that happen?

2 A. Very well sounds like it could have.

3 Q. And, in fact, when you were pitching Par Funding, some 4 people who went online and did research and found out who they
10:50 5 were and about Dean Vagnozzi's involvement in ABFP's
6 involvement and the regulatory cases, they told you that they
7 would know they weren't going to invest because of that; isn't
8 that true?

9 A. I can't remember many people stating that, but we covered
10:50 10 and addressed every fact, or what his involvement was or what 11 the investment of the management company, as again, it was not
12 Dean personally. And we addressed that he had a no admit/no
13 deny from the State of Pennsylvania, which I have zero clients
14 in the State of Pennsylvania and do not work there, as well as 10:50 15 that was for him working with Par Funding before I even knew
16 about Par Funding or met him.

17 That was their solicitors when they were going through
18 solicitors, before there were agent funds and fund managers.
19 That's when I went up to event, and that's how it was explained
10:51 20 to us exactly -- (inaud.) attorney, correct.

21 Q. Mr. Furman, do you remember that you personally wrote to 22 your attorney in describing the situation: The prospects were 23 not the only -- I assume you meant the prospects were not the 24 only that decided not to invest in Fidelis Financial Planning
10:51 25 after researching Par Funding and learning that Dean Vagnozzi

1 was forced to pay the Pennsylvania Banking and Securities
2 Commission a state record $498,000 on May 30th, 2019 per his
3 consent and agreement order.

4 Do you remember that?

10:51 5 A. Sounds like something I could have written at some point.

6 Q. Okay. And was that true, that prospects weren't the only
7 ones who decided not to invest because they found out -- they 8 did some research about Par Funding and Dean Vagnozzi and they 9 learned about the regulatory cases?

10:51 10 A. Individuals. I'm not sure what that question means, to be 11 honest with you --

12 MR. JOHN: Objection.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 A. -- whether they're prospects or clients of mine of other
10:52 15 investments. So it could have been a client or a prospect. I
16 don't know what other option there is there.

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. I'm going to show you your draft.

19 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, can we show this only to the 10:52 20 witness?

21 THE COURT: Yeah, sure.

22 A. Correct. Looks like it. From my attorney. Correct. This 23 is what my attorney drew up or at least a copy of it.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:52 25 Q. It's actually from an attachment of your e-mail to him.

1 A. I stand corrected.

2 Q. If you could just read this?

3 MR. JOHN: Can we go sidebar briefly?

4 THE COURT: Come to sidebar.

10:52 5 (Thereupon, there was a side-bar conference outside
6 the presence and hearing of the jury.)

7 THE COURT: So tell me what's going on. What's your
8 objection?

9 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

10:52 10 MR. JOHN: This document is being -- this document
11 that's being put up right now, we don't recognize having 12 received -- they claimed that they didn't receive anything from 13 us. I don't know where this is coming from as far as the SEC
14 is concerned. If they got nothing from it, we don't --

10:53 15 MR. HYMAN: We don't know where this came from or --

16 MS. BERLIN: I have a another version with the Bates
17 stamps. Do you need it?

18 THE COURT: Do you have an original of the Bates
19 stamp?

10:53 20 MS. BERLIN: Sure. Do you want it? Yeah, yeah, no
21 problem. Everything that we got was produced.

22 THE COURT: So this has been produced?

23 MS. BERLIN: Everything has been produced.

24 MR. HYMAN: We'd have to see the Bates stamp to 10:53 25 confirm it. Every document that was produced by the SEC --

1 THE COURT: We're not going to sit here and do it.

2 But go check the Bates stamp.

3 MR. HYMAN: We'll check it.

4 THE COURT: If you've got it, you got it. I mean, if

10:53 5 they turned it over, yeah. Go ahead.

6 (Thereupon, the side-bar conference was concluded.)

7 MS. BERLIN: Oh, Your Honor, it's actually here.

8 Sorry.

9 THE COURT: So if you guys want to take a look --

10:54 10 MS. BERLIN: There you go.

11 THE COURT: -- the number is there.

12 MS. BERLIN: Here, you can have a copy. You can have

13 that one.

14 THE COURT: Is it on your screen? That's why, so you

10:54 15 guys can just look at it off of your screen if you want to 16 check your files.

17 MR. HYMAN: It wasn't produced to Mr. Furman

18 specifically, Your Honor, but it was produced to apparently

19 OFR, whoever that is.

10:54 20 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, that is --

21 THE COURT: The office of financial regulations is

22 probably the code on that.

23 MS. BERLIN: That is the -- SEC-OFR?

24 THE COURT: Right.

10:54 25 MS. BERLIN: Means it was produced to the SEC from

1 OFR. And then our production unit in D.C., this is the stamp
2 they gave it. So this means it came from the SEC, which got it
3 from OFR, and it was produced together with hundreds of 4 thousands of documents.

10:55 5 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, the documents produced by the 6 SEC all have the Bates stamp of SEC/DEF on it.

7 MS. BERLIN: That's not true.

8 THE COURT: I don't think so. I've seen other ones
9 with different labels. So you guys can go through it in your
10:55 10 documents, but we don't have any issue with this Exhibit B
11 shown to the witness. We haven't admitted it yet.

12 Let's go ahead.

13 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Go ahead.

10:55 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. And so, Mr. Furman, after looking at that, do you -- isn't
17 it true that you lost clients, people would do their own
18 research and learn the things that had not been disclosed learn
19 about Par Funding, learn about the regulatory cases and tell
10:55 20 you that based on that, they were not going to invest?

21 A. I can't remember a specific person. But yes, this was me
22 breaking apart from ABFP.

23 Q. Okay. And is what you wrote in your letter here true?

24 A. Yes. Once I learned about it, yes. I would not -- there's 10:56 25 no reason for me to work with ABFP Management Company, and I

1 was planning on doing that management records. I was hiring a
2 CPA or an accounting firm to do that. Why would I subject any
3 of myself or my company? Again, I did is not work with ABFP,
4 other than their management company, for one fund, which was
10:56 5 part of my business. As I started to learn about this record
6 and any other thing that he was doing, I decided to break away
7 from him. This is what my attorney drafted, correct.

8 Q. But, Mr. Furman, you see, this is actually not -- the 9 attorney version is another exhibit.

10:56 10 Are you looking at this, that this is yours? This is 11 from you to your lawyer?

12 A. (Cross-talk) -- drafted it.

13 Q. Mr. Furman, do you see also that you also discussed here --
14 I mean, was it true that clients were already hesitant to 10:57 15 invest because of the long list of fraudulent schemes that have 16 occurred throughout the country and that you were concerned
17 that when they found out about Dean Vagnozzi and this 18 regulatory action that that just kind of made it impossible for 19 you to get their money, right?

10:57 20 A. No, I wouldn't agree it was impossible. And there's always 21 bad investments across the country even to this day. There's 22 no reason to add to that.

23 Q. Mr. Furman --

24 A. I would like to finish my statement.

10:57 25 THE COURT: Go ahead.

1 MS. BERLIN: Please do, yes.

2 A. When I stated that, yes, there's a long list of bad
3 investment, fraudulent investments, investments across the
4 country. There's no reason to add to any investor's worries
10:57 5 when I did not -- they did not need that extra scrutiny. So
6 that is the exact reason that I filed to cut Dean and have a
7 different accounting firm to handle the payment of -- to and 8 from investors. And that was, I believe, in 2020. The very 9 end of this before Corona happened. Unknowing that Corona was 10:58 10 about to happen, obviously.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. And it was such a big deal when people found out through 13 their own research that Dean Vagnozzi and Par Funding and all
14 the regulatory actions -- it was such a big deal they wouldn't
10:58 15 do business and you wanted to break away from Dean Vagnozzi
16 because it was causing investors to not want to invest once
17 they did their own research and found this, correct?

18 A. No. That's incorrect. It was not really for the fact of 19 them not wanting to invest. They were investing with me, my 10:58 20 company. So I always -- everybody explained how I got paid, 21 how they got paid, how the company worked.

22 Everything that I knew at the time, and this was to be 23 better in-house, I was managing it myself, there were 24 accounting mistakes that were very small but cumbersome
10:59 25 accounting mistakes, we had two different leads every month,

1 the tax statements, 1099s being -- missing. And so for me to
2 deal with that on top of it when I was already paying for it, I
3 mine as well do it in-house.

4 So there was a myriad and list of reasons. You're 10:59 5 pointing out one sentence on I don't know how many pages on 6 that document, that my attorney that I paid to simply breakaway
7 from him in 2020, which is what I did.

8 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

9 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I wonder if we can introduce
10:59 10 this exhibit as P 585?

11 THE COURT: Yes. We're about going to go ahead and 12 move that in at this time.

13 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:59 15 Q. I'm going to show you a highlighted version.

16 And give this back to Vicki.

17 Sorry. So this is the letter. And eventually your 18 lawyer sent out a letter on his letterhead that was, I'm sure
19 you'll agree, I think it's an exhibit, it was different from 11:00 20 this, to break off with Mr. Vagnozzi.

21 But do you see at the top where you start writing that
22 you: Hope this information will be used as a tool to improve
23 ABFP so these types of things don't occur in the future.

24 Do you see that?

11:00 25 A. No. What paragraph on there is it?

1 Q. Excuse me?

2 A. I didn't see it.

3 Q. Sorry, I'll try to highlight better.

4 A. Can you go back up, please? Sorry.

11:00 5 Q. Sure.

6 A. Sure.

7 Q. Okay. And then you continue to discuss -- and if you want
8 me to move it up or down, just let me know any time.

9 You discussed that the start of the breach by ABFP
11:00 10 started when you had to find out from a potential client they 11 were not investing due to your involvement with Dean Vagnozzi
12 and ABFP. Prospects were not the only that decided to not 13 invest in -- is FFP Fidelis Financial Planning?

14 A. I believe that's what he used to shorten it, correct.

11:01 15 Q. Okay. After researching Par Funding and learning that Dean
16 Vagnozzi was forced to pay the Pennsylvania Banking and 17 Securities Commissions a state record $490,000 on May 30th, 18 2019.

19 Do you see that?

11:01 20 A. I do.

21 Q. Okay. And you write here that -- you tell your clients
22 that ABFP is the only other firm that has access to investor
23 funds and provides all accounting, book keeping and tax
24 preparation documentation for the investors?

11:01 25 A. Correct.

1 Q. That's what you wrote here.

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Was that true or you testified earlier that you didn't
4 really tell them about Dean Vagnozzi?

11:01 5 A. No, I told them about Dean Vagnozzi. And if you were to --
6 can you flip up -- or, sorry, slide up, I guess it would be.

7 Q. Sure.

8 A. The start -- a little bit more, sorry.

9 Q. Mr. Furman, let me just get through my questions and then 11:02 10 we can go back through this with your attorney.

11 A. I would just like to get one question at a time, so I don't
12 forget your first question.

13 Q. Sure. And you wrote that: Due to the fact that FFP is an 14 alternative investment and the long list of fraudulent
11:02 15 investment schemes that have occurred throughout the country,
16 just about every client is hesitant to invest and does not need
17 any additional reason to question the legitimacy of the 18 investment being offered.

19 Do you see that?

11:02 20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. And you continue down that you used Dean Vagnozzi's name
22 and his marketing materials, et cetera.

23 Do you see all of that here?

24 A. Yes. Right after the fact that ABFP did not disclose or 11:02 25 notify AFFP that there was pending litigation or any legal

1 trouble that showed lack of communication or respect to the 2 relationship. Yes, I wrote that.

3 Q. Well, Mr. Furman, you're the one who has a partnership
4 agreement with them. You're giving them access. You add them
11:03 5 as a signatory to the accounts that hold your investors' money,
6 that holds Frank Nash's money, that holds all of the investors'
7 money who came here last week and testified.

8 These are your partners, correct?

9 MR. JOHN: Objection.

11:03 10 THE COURT: Overruled.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. ABFP is your partner? You testified to that last week.

13 A. Yes. And this is the letter to sever those for these very 14 reasons, correct. Doing the right thing for my clients.

11:03 15 Q. So -- Mr. Furman, then you talk about the next -- you say:
16 The next problem started in November.

17 Do you see that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And so would this have been November 2019?

11:03 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. So the issue with the investors obviously happened
22 before that, because you're talking about the next problem
23 starts in November 2019.

24 Now, after --

11:03 25 A. Can you please leave that up on the screen if we're going

1 to continue on this?

2 Q. Mr. Furman, I'm just going to ask the questions. Okay?

3 And your lawyer will have a chance to go through this with you
4 in detail. And it's in evidence, so the jury will be able to 11:04 5 see all of it. Okay?

6 A. Wonderful.

7 Q. Mr. Furman, after you learned about this case against Dean
8 Vagnozzi, you still didn't disclose it, right?

9 A. This case? I'm sorry.

11:04 10 Q. The case that we've been talking about, the regulatory 11 actions against Dean Vagnozzi.

12 A. Once I learned about it, I would discuss it with clients in 13 conversations.

14 Q. Contrary to your deposition of seven months ago that we 11:04 15 looked at together.

16 A. That's not what I said in the deposition.

17 Q. Mr. Furman, after this, you actually made written
18 disclosures to your investors, correct?

19 A. You'd have to be more specific.

11:04 20 Q. Sure. In the end of 2019, and then again in April of 2020, 21 you sent written disclosures identifying the risks of the 22 investment to all of the investors that were investing in 23 Par Funding through Fidelis; isn't that true?

24 A. Again, you'd have to be a bit more specific what you're 11:05 25 referring to. But I communicated with my investors on a

1 periodic basis, a constant basis. So most was done via phone
2 calls or in-person meetings. I did not record those, as you
3 can.

4 Q. All right. We'll talk about that now then.

11:05 5 So in -- at a certain point in time did Par Funding
6 default -- I'm sorry, before we move on.

7 Did you eventually sever ties with ABFP?

8 A. Yes. I believe from that letter it was a 30-day,
9 according -- I followed what my attorney said, I had to send a
11:06 10 letter and wait 30 days, I believe it is, maybe 60 -- I don't 11 know, 45, it was a certain amount of days, and if they did not
12 reply or -- I believe you said addressed or fixed the different
13 mistakes, there was a numbered, I believe version, then we were 14 considered severed at that time.

11:06 15 Q. Right. The severing didn't occur until about May of 2020,
16 correct?

17 A. I don't know the date. It was once the attorney sent the 18 letter, yes.

19 Q. May of 2020.

11:06 20 A. Correct.

21 Q. So now, before May 2020, though, did Par Funding default on 22 its loans?

23 A. Yes, briefly, from the pandemic. When the pandemic
24 happened, yes, they halted all interest payments on March 25th, 11:06 25 I believe it was. Never forget that day. It was the 25th of 1 every month.

2 Q. They stopped paying?

3 A. They halted payments for those couple of months, yes,
4 before we they restarted in June.

11:06 5 Q. And when that happened, you went to your investors and you
6 told them that -- I'm sorry. When they halted the payments,
7 did you hire a lawyer to look into options for suing them?

8 A. Suing them? I had an attorney that was retained, but I
9 didn't hire him for specifically suing him, no.

11:07 10 Q. Which lawyer was retained by this for you?

11 A. I always had my securities attorney, Mr. Weingold.

12 Q. Mr. Weingold examined this?

13 A. Examined what?

14 Q. When Par Funding defaulted on the notes in the spring of 11:07 15 2020, did you retain a lawyer to assess whether or not you and 16 the investors should sue Par Funding?

17 A. Not specifically for those reasons, no, or solely for those 18 reasons. I was under the umbrella of the other managers. We 19 had some group Zoom calls as we were locked in our homes at 11:08 20 that point, and the attorney that I met on the very day I flew 21 up in June 2017, John Pauciulo, who represented Dean, and if 22 there were 50 fund managers, I was one of two that did not use
23 him. He had sole access to their financials and went over 24 periodically what his thoughts were. So we did not get to that
11:08 25 point.

1 Q. So you didn't hire a lawyer?

2 A. Not solely to sue Par Funding, no.

3 Q. Not to sue them Mr. Furman. I asked to examine whether or 4 not to sue them?

11:08 5 A. Your words were to sue them. So...

6 THE COURT: Why don't you restate the question.

7 MS. BERLIN: Sure.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. Mr. Furman, did you hire a lawyer to examine whether or not
11:08 10 you and the investors or Fidelis and the investors should sue
11 Par Funding?

12 A. No, I did not hire an attorney to sue Par Funding.

13 Q. And when Par Funding -- okay. That wasn't my question. I
14 think you understand me. I'm not asking whether you hired a
11:08 15 lawyer to sue Par Funding. I'm asking you whether or not you
16 hired a lawyer to examine whether or not you and the investors
17 should sue Par Funding? Do you understand the distinction?

18 A. Probably not the way that you would or an attorney would.
19 But at that point, as I said, John Pauciulo, the attorney that 11:09 20 represented ABFP and ABFP Management and 48 of 50, if there are 21 that many, fund managers stated that --

22 MS. BERLIN: I'm sorry. That's hearsay. Your Honor
23 --

24 A. -- he's the sole --

11:09 25 THE COURT: Let's disregard the last statement,

1 members of the jury.

2 And let's go ahead and get a direct answer to the
3 question, please.

4 A. Again, I did not hire an attorney to sue Par Funding.

11:09 5 THE COURT: Let move on. That's been answered. We
6 need to keep it moving.

7 MS. BERLIN: Yes, let's move.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. So at the time of the default by Par Funding in the spring
11:09 10 of 2020, did you have your own personal money invested with
11 Par Funding?

12 A. Not at that point. It was pretty close, but no.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. I severed ties with Dean Vagnozzi. Did not happen until 11:10 15 after then.

16 Q. I'd like to show you --

17 MS. BERLIN: Only to the witness, Your Honor.

18 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

11:10 20 Q. -- what we've marked as P 53. Mr. Furman, do you recognize 21 this e-mail from you?

22 A. To me, I believe.

23 MR. HYMAN: P 53?

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

11:10 25 Q. Does that help? Michael Furman to Kristin Groleau.

1 Do you see that?

2 A. Yes. Looks like I forwarded her the e-mail.

3 MR. HYMAN: My P 53 is not the same one.

4 THE COURT: What number is on the screen?

11:10 5 MS. BERLIN: It is P 53.

6 BY MS. BERLIN:

7 Q. And do you see at the end of this e-mail, it is your 8 signature block?

9 MR. HYMAN: No objection to the introduce of this,
11:10 10 Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: We'll admit P 53 at this time.

12 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

13 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

11:11 15 Q. Do you see this is from March 26th? MCA investment update,
16 do you see that at the top?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. And this is an e-mail that was sent out to your investors?

19 A. It was, as I stated, yes. It was sent to me and I
11:11 20 forwarded it, and I wanted everybody to read as much
21 information as I got as I got it.

22 Q. Well, Mr. Furman, it says it's from you to Kristen Groleau.
23 That's your assistant, correct?

24 A. At that time yes.

11:11 25 Q. And when you sent investor e-mails, typically it would look

1 like from you to her, and would you be bccing the investors or
2 how did that work exactly?

3 A. It depended completely. This was, as you can see -- read
4 below Par Funding's e-mail. I was forwarding that so they knew
11:11 5 it came from Par Funding. I was just adding on the top. Yes,
6 my signature would be on the bottom because that's how 7 computers work.

8 Q. We'll walk through it.

9 And do you see at the top it says Gary DeLuco?

11:12 10 A. Sure.

11 Q. And that's one of your investors?

12 A. It was, yes.

13 Q. And you see he's forwarding this. And I'll proffer that 14 Linda Schmidt is my colleague at the SEC.

11:12 15 A. I remember the name.

16 Q. And would you agree this was an e-mail that went out to
17 investors?

18 A. In some sort, yes.

19 Q. And in this letter, the top is from you and you're
11:12 20 explaining to them that you want them to read Par Funding's
21 e-mail and please read below her message from you?

22 A. Please read below from Par Funding's e-mail, not mine.

23 Mine is that one paragraph. I'm forwarding what they sent me

24 to let them know that I'm getting them as much information as I

11:12 25 get.

1 Q. Let's look at it together.

2 Mr. Furman, do you see that in this e-mail, it says
3 from Par Funding management?

4 A. Yes.

11:12 5 Q. And then this part is from Par Funding management.

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Do you agree?

8 And then they say: We remain grateful for your 9 support and hope you are faring well during these challenging
11:13 10 times.

11 Do you see that?

12 A. Yes. Correct.

13 Q. And then it says: Here are my comments to the letter
14 above.

11:13 15 And this portion of the message is signed by you. Do
16 you see that?

17 A. I see the entire message signed by me, correct.

18 Q. Okay. And so then you write: First and foremost don't 19 panic.

11:13 20 Do you see it?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you continue on to tell the investors that you have 23 your own personal funds. Your own personal funds are involved
24 here.

11:14 25 Do you see that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And that wasn't true because you just testified you did not
3 have any personal funds invested at this time, correct?

4 A. That's where my interest and my income came from. So a lot
11:14 5 of it was involved there, correct. Never said I had a note
6 myself at that point, although I was trying to until I was --
7 had Vagnozzi out. I was not able to.

8 Q. You tell them you believe in Par Funding and the decision
9 that is -- which is the prudent name of preserving all of our 11:14 10 principal.

11 Do you see that?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. And again, you have no -- none of your personal principal 14 invested at that time. Now, you go on to say that you tout the 11:14 15 Par Funding employees down here. You see? You're telling them
16 these are employees are so hard working, and we're going to get 17 through this.

18 Do you see that?

19 A. It was our hope still, yes. It was a difficult time being 11:15 20 locked in our homes.

21 Q. Then you look here, that you have a substantial investment
22 in Par Funding.

23 Do you see that?

24 A. Yes. Time, money, effort, my business, my income, my 11:15 25 livelihood, my reputation.

1 Q. Okay, Mr. Furman. And you continue to tell them that you
2 hired -- it says -- you write that Par Funding has defaulted on
3 a note and they will continue to default in the next few months
4 by not paying interest payments and halting all principal 11:16 5 returns for those that come due to this moratorium. But in 6 short, both mine and other fund manager attorneys have said it
7 will take one to two years to win a judgment against
8 Par Funding. And along the way, they definitely will not be
9 paying us if we are in a legal fight with them. We will incur
11:16 10 legal fees and then collect and enforce any judgment.

11 Do you see that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And after you send this letter to the investors, the 14 following month, in April, you wrote to the investors again
11:16 15 that Par Funding was insolvent and that you were suggesting -- 16 or Par Funding was offering to -- that you would cancel their 17 notes, the investors' notes they had with you at that time.
18 And they would get a replacement note for less interest.
19 Correct?

11:17 20 A. Incorrect.

21 Q. Mr. Furman, how much interest did your investors get 22 initially? Was it between 9 and 15 percent?

23 A. That is a correct statement.

24 Q. Excuse me?

11:17 25 A. That is a correct statement.

1 Q. And then in April 20 -- on April 24th, 2020, you offered
2 them what was called an exchange offering where you would
3 exchanged their initial note for a note that had less interest.
4 Is that true?

11:17 5 A. No. That is untrue. I was not part of the agent funds
6 with -- again, I did not have John Pauciulo, which was if there
7 was 50 agent fund managers, I chose in the very beginning to 8 have a different attorney, so I would not have the same
9 attorney as an opposing business partner in case we had a
11:18 10 dispute, which three years later or two years later, I did not 11 anticipate that. Hopefully it was not coming, but it did and 12 thankfully I did.

13 My securities attorneys, who as you saw -- or I don't
14 know if you guys can see, but as you can read in that letter
11:18 15 and you will be able to see, I did speak with my counsel. But 16 the counsel for Dean and ABFP and all of the other fund
17 managers was the primary counsel at that point.

18 And my securities attorney that I hired explained to 19 me -- and you can read those e-mails; I'm sure she'll show
11:18 20 you -- is not an exchange note. My attorney switched at the 21 end and said it was an amended note was better for us to 22 present to --

23 Q. We'll call it --

24 A. It was changing the current document. It was not replacing
11:18 25 it.

1 Q. We'll call it an amended note for you.

2 Is that acceptable, Mr. Furman?

3 A. By the legal terminology, correct.

4 Q. Okay. So I'd like to show you --

5 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

6 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, this has not yet been
7 admitted.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 What do we mark this one as?

11:19 10 MS. BERLIN: P 55.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Mr. Furman, do you see on the screen, this is another
13 e-mail from you to Kristin Groleau --

14 A. Correct.

11:19 15 Q. -- it's to investors?

16 MR. HYMAN: No objection.

17 THE COURT: All right. We'll admit P 55 at this time.
18 You may proceed.

19 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

11:19 20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. So an April 20th, you wrote to your investors that you're
22 going to reach out. And everyone had to reply within 48 hours
23 on April 22nd. This is an e-mail from April 20th. They all 24 had to reply within 48 hours by April 22nd to what you were

11:19 25 about to offer.

1 Do you see that? It's highlighted in yellow.

2 A. It would be three days later, but yes. So not 48 hours,
3 but correct. Soon.

4 Q. And in connection with this exchange, or this offer that 11:20 5 you were about to make it says you have included a 30 to 6 40-minute video from the largest fund manager in the country
7 with this attorney.

8 Do you see that? I just highlighted it.

9 A. I do.

11:20 10 Q. And that video was of Dean Vagnozzi and his lawyer,
11 correct?

12 A. Mr. Pauciulo and Mr. Vagnozzi, correct.

13 Q. Okay. So when you're referring to the largest fund manager
14 in the country, and you attach a video about this new offering,
11:20 15 it's of Mr. Vagnozzi; agreed?

16 A. Of his attorney, correct.

17 Q. It's -- Mr. Furman, I'd like to avoid having to watch that
18 video.

19 Would you agree with me that your e-mail is accurate
11:20 20 and that it was a video, a 30 to 40-minute video from the 21 largest fund manager in the country with his attorney?

22 A. From Dean with his attorney, correct.

23 Q. The two of them talking?

24 A. It could be more than those two, but, yes, those two are 11:21 25 definitely in the video. I don't know if it was strictly those

1 two, again. I was providing as much information, forwarding it
2 onto my investors, explaining where I got it, as I found out as
3 we were locked in our homes. Correct.

4 Q. And then you go on to tell the investors that you feel that 11:21 5 the over one hundred million dollars that he -- that would be 6 Dean Vagnozzi, right?

7 A. His companies, correct.

8 Q. -- that he has done with Par Funding over the years, as 9 well as having one of the largest most specialized law firms
11:21 10 present in person looking at all of the financials and helping 11 to give us options from the firm that created the very first 12 fund is important to me and should help give you even better
13 insight.

14 Do you see that?

11:22 15 A. I do.

16 Q. Okay. And so you're telling the investors to listen to 17 Dean Vagnozzi and to -- that he will give them insight into 18 what's going on in this offer that you're making, correct?

19 A. I'm giving them as much information as I know. Yes.

11:22 20 Again, we were told the only person who has access to their 21 financials was Mr. Pauciulo, and that is what that video 22 pertains to.

23 Q. With no reference here to Mr. Vagnozzi who -- and the 24 regulatory actions against him.

11:22 25 You would agree with me, correct?

1 A. Not in this e-mail. So far.

2 Q. And here you tell all of your investors that Par Funding
3 is -- appears to be insolvent?

4 A. That's what it states and that's what we were told.

11:22 5 Q. And did you -- what financial records of Par Funding did
6 you look at in order to conclude that Par Funding appears to be
7 insolvent and to make that representation to your investors?

8 A. Again, first I said, "appears to be," and that is, as you
9 can read: The video link covers more about their recent 11:23 10 financials from the attorneys who are the only ones that were 11 allowed to sign a nondisclosure agreement.

12 They would not give us, as fund managers, any access,
13 or attorneys or anybody else, other than John Pauciulo, who 14 then stated on that video that they appear to be insolvent. So
11:23 15 yes, I am following, as I told my investors, their guidance.

16 Q. Okay. So just to be clear. My question was, what 17 documents did you review -- what you're in finance -- you're in 18 finance, you have a degree in banking and finance, you've had 19 your Series 7, your Series 66 you're a master financial 11:23 20 planner, is one of your designation. My question is --

21 MR. JOHN: Objection, asked and answered. Counsel is 22 testifying.

23 THE COURT: Overruled.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

11:23 25 Q. My question is simply, what financial documents of

1 Par Funding did you look at in order to make this
2 representation to the investors?

3 A. As I've stated before, I left that to the attorneys. And 4 I'm not a certified public accountant. So I left that to the 11:24 5 attorneys that had access to that.

6 Q. Okay. So you didn't review anything, correct?

7 A. I was not able to, no. And I let them know that as well.
8 I never once stated that I personally reviewed documents. It
9 would not help anybody to have me look over a document.

11:24 10 Q. Okay. And you write here again, indicating that you're an 11 investor: They owe investors like you and me over 360 million
12 dollars.

13 A. Yes. My fund is the investor into Par Funding.

14 Q. Right. And that your fund has money that you raised from 11:24 15 other investors?

16 A. Correct. I am representing my investors. I am in this 17 with my investors.

18 Q. And then you go on to advise them that Par Funding needs
19 cash.

11:25 20 Do you see that? Do you see those words on the page?

21 A. I do see those words on the page.

22 Q. And you tell them that Par Funding needs to restructure all
23 of their promissory notes.

24 Do you see that?

11:25 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And that they just need time for the small businesses to
2 get back.

3 Do you see that?

4 A. It doesn't say "just," but Par needs time.

11:26 5 Q. I'm sorry, I was not reading verbatim.

6 But do you see in step three: Par needs time. The 7 first thing that needs to happen is for small businesses to get 8 back to work? Do you see that?

9 A. Correct. That is the pandemic for you.

11:26 10 Q. And you, again, encouraged them to watch Dean Vagnozzi
11 telling them about the offering.

12 Do you see that?

13 A. Not about the offering. It's Dean Vagnozzi's attorney.

14 Q. It's Mr. -- are you going to -- is your testimony that it's 11:26 15 Mr. Vagnozzi's attorney and not Mr. Vagnozzi with his lawyer?

16 A. You stated it was an offering. He's not offering an 17 investment. This is to give information about their current 18 investment.

19 Q. Mr. Furman, we'd like to move this along without showing
11:26 20 the video. Do you agree with me -- I think we already covered
21 this -- the video is of Dean Vagnozzi and John Pauciulo
22 explaining a process by which people would no longer have 23 their -- the interest that they were initially offered and 24 would instead take 4 percent interest?

11:27 25 MR. JOHN: Objection, counsel is testifying and

1 argumentative.

2 THE COURT: Overruled. Counsel is attempting to save
3 us additional time that we do not need to waste for either
4 side. Okay. So she's not testifying. Your client wants to do
11:27 5 this and belabor our trial, that's his prerogative. But I need
6 him to see if he wants to streamline this or he's contesting
7 the contents of a video that we could just as easily play for 8 the jury.

9 So I'm going to have that question stated again, and I
11:27 10 would like to get a direct answer.

11 Could you state that again, please?

12 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. Would you agree with me that this video you attached to 11:27 15 your e-mail is of Dean Vagnozzi and his attorney discussing 16 investors getting a note for less interest than the one they 17 currently had?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And, in fact, in the next paragraph it explains that, that 11:28 20 the Par Funding would offer that investors would get 4 percent
21 interest over seven years.

22 Do you see that?

23 A. In addition to the principal. It was an interesting
24 schedule. But yes, start off at interest only and then the 11:28 25 second year starts principal and interest.

1 Q. Initially investors are getting 9 to 15 percent on their
2 investment and their principal, meaning what they initially
3 gave, that amount would come back to them after one year;
4 agreed?

11:28 5 A. Originally, yes.

6 Q. And understand what we're seeing here that is being offered
7 to investors in the spring of 2020 is, instead of 9 to 15
8 percent, you get 4 percent. And instead of getting your money
9 back after a year, you'll have all of it back after seven
10 years.

11 A. Correct. Incrementally.

12 Q. So yes, you agree with the way I just described it?

13 A. Over the period of seven years, yes. Not in a lump sum at 14 the end.

11:29 15 Q. And it goes on -- and I'm not going to go -- we're not 16 going through all the pages. But you agree with me that you
17 tell investors: You need to decide what you're doing. Are you
18 taking this deal where you take half or less of what you were 19 initially offered with your principal coming back later or not?

11:29 20 And you gave them until the 22nd to decide. Do you
21 agree?

22 A. I agree that's when I had to get back to them, yes.

23 Q. We're not going to go through this, but do you agree with 24 me that nowhere in this e-mail -- and I'm happy to hand it to

11:29 25 you -- do you disclose criminal conviction against LaForte, the

1 people -- the people of Par Funding who are offering this deal,
2 the regulatory actions against Par Funding, that is now in
3 default in offering this deal, or anything about Mr. Vagnozzi
4 and his regulatory history?

11:30 5 A. That would not be in this e-mail. No, that would not be in 6 this e-mail.

7 Q. And, in fact, you sent out new disclosures --

8 THE COURT: It's a little crackly. Go ahead.

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

11:30 10 Q. You sent out supplemental disclosures for -- in connection
11 with, I'll call it the amended offering, since you -- amended
12 offering. You sent out supplemental written disclosures with 13 that, correct?

14 A. Yes, the documents my attorney prepared for the amended
11:31 15 amendment.

16 Q. And that was in roughly April 2020?

17 A. Yeah. April or May, I don't remember when it was. It had 18 to be done before June.

19 Q. Laying out the offering and the risks and sort of the 11:31 20 details of the deal; agree?

21 A. What my attorney prepared, yes.

22 Q. Okay. And that document that -- the supplemental 23 disclosures did not disclose the criminal history of Joseph
24 LaForte or any of the regular -- at this point there will four
11:31 25 regulatory cases against Par Funding and -- among Par Funding

1 and Dean Vagnozzi. But none of that is in the disclosures that
2 you make in the spring of 2020, correct?

3 A. That's correct. My attorney had those documents and told
4 me he did not need --

11:31 5 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, hearsay.

6 THE COURT: Yeah. Let's all disregard any statements
7 made by any witnesses about what someone else outside the court
8 may or may not have said. Okay? Disregard that last comment.

9 Go ahead.

11:32 10 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Now, you testified Friday that when you gave presentations
13 to potential investors --

14 MR. HYMAN: Wouldn't it be circumstantial evidence of 11:32 15 state of mind, Your Honor?

16 THE COURT: No, it's not. So disregard that. Okay?

17 Go ahead.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. When you made presentations to investors, you testified on 11:32 20 Friday, I believe, that you also would talk about other
21 investments, too, right?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Okay.

24 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

11:32 25 MS. BERLIN: And I'd like to show the witness only --

1 it's not admitted yet -- P 219. Is it okay to put it on the
2 screen?

3 THE COURT: Yes. It's only on our screens. P 219.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

11:32 5 Q. And, Mr. Furman, this is one of your PowerPoint
6 presentations from one of your events, correct?

7 A. That's what it looks like, yes.

8 MS. BERLIN: I'd like to admit it, Your Honor. P 219.

9 THE COURT: Any objection on P 219?

11:32 10 MR. HYMAN: If we can just confirm that it is what I
11 think it is, no objection, Your Honor. No objection.

12 THE COURT: Okay. That will be moved in at this time.
13 219 is admitted.

14 MS. BERLIN: Okay.

11:33 15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. And so, Mr. Furman, this is a PowerPoint presentation that 18 you would show on a screen to investors?

19 A. Correct.

11:33 20 Q. And it says here that you're master financial planner?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Okay. And you sort of tell all of your accolades to the 23 potential investors, Ethics.net?

24 A. It explains the different associations around the country,
11:33 25 and I use that as a way to honestly say that they don't really

1 need much.

2 Q. Okay. And then right at the beginning you -- this slide,
3 it's about trust and transparency.

4 Do you see that?

11:33 5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. And this is part of your presentation to potential
7 investors?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. These are the dinners and things you would have at 11:34 10 Ruth's Chris or The Regional, those places?

11 A. Lunch or dinner, yes.

12 Q. Can you describe -- what is this circle supposed to show?
13 It says: Advisor going into the investments and the companies
14 involved. How would you describe this page to potential
11:34 15 investors, Mr. Furman?

16 A. I can't remember verbatim, but basically, I would speak
17 about how there's many different moving parts into any 18 investment or insurance when you're buying something. You have 19 to -- I have to develop a trust and transparency yourself, just 11:34 20 like I have to develop that trust and transparency to the 21 company that's involved, and I have to learn about the 22 investments.

23 So there's many different layers to the company that 24 may be the investment or the company that's providing the 11:34 25 investment, because if you do insurance, you have an insurance

1 company providing an investment. I have to believe the
2 insurance company and I have to believe what they're stating
3 about the investment.

4 In this plan, it was more myself. I have to be 11:35 5 disclosed and have trust into ABFP Management or who provides 6 that investment and then the companies involved. It's just 7 different layers of working with individuals and business.

8 Q. And it just shows the relationship about trust and 9 transparency between you -- you're the advisor, right? That 11:35 10 refers to you Michael Furman?

11 A. In a general sense, yes.

12 Q. You, the investments, and the companies involved, meaning
13 companies like Par Funding?

14 A. That would be one of the many things I was looking at 11:35 15 there, yeah.

16 Q. And as part of your PowerPoint, you also promise the 17 potential investors that that'll get piece of mind, complete
18 transparency, that'll be able to sleep at night.

19 Do you see that?

11:35 20 A. I do.

21 Q. And you were telling investors that you were complete
22 transparency, giving them all the facts and doing the due
23 diligence so they could rest assured and put their trust in 24 you. Fair?

11:36 25 A. What I know, yes. What they tell me is what I would be

1 transparent, even just as I'm sending them Dean's attorney's
2 video. Yes. What they send me, I will forward on to them.

3 Q. And these were the alternative investments you were
4 offering? A merchant cash advance, that's Par Funding?

11:36 5 A. That would be merchant cash advance, that would be at that 6 time, yes.

7 Q. And are these all the investments that you would discuss at 8 an event?

9 A. That one. I mean, it varied based on the event.

11:36 10 Q. Senior living, does that have another name?

11 A. It was for the senior living industry.

12 Q. What was the name of the company?

13 A. That one specifically would be my Fidelis Senior Living
14 Fund. I believe it was actually part of the name.

11:36 15 Q. And what about did you have any -- were any of these deals
16 offerings that you were doing, other things you were doing with 17 Perry Abbonizio?

18 A. Well, Perry was involved in real estate company that I
19 worked with.

11:36 20 Q. SFA?

21 A. Correct. He had introduced me to the owner of SFA.

22 Q. And would you talk to investors that you were doing due
23 diligence for them on the investments you were offering?

24 A. As much as I could, yes.

11:37 25 Q. And you had a page about it, telling them that, right?

1 A. We discussed due diligence, correct, the difference between
2 private markets and public markets, public company versus Tesla
3 versus, you know, a small company like my own. It's private or 4 it's public.

11:37 5 Q. And SFA, this is one of the other investments you had 6 offered. This was with Perry Abbonizio also that we heard from 7 last week?

8 A. He introduced me to that company, yes. He was not the 9 owner, no.

11:37 10 Q. He wasn't the owner, but you worked with him on that 11 investment as well as Par Funding, correct?

12 A. Primarily, but yes, he was one of the contacts.

13 Q. And, Mr. Furman, the merchant cash advance offering was the 14 big draw for these events, correct?

11:38 15 A. I can't speak to that. We covered a lot of things. It
16 depends on the person. Some people hated merchant cash
17 advance. They didn't like the idea of it, and they loved real 18 estate.

19 Q. So you see here, this was part of your presentation. What 11:38 20 brought you here, the 9 to 15 percent opportunity, fixed rate
21 for one year, introducing our MCA fund. And that's Fidelis and 22 the investment in Par Funding, correct?

23 A. For that event, correct.

24 Q. And you explained to them how this works. The more they 11:38 25 put in, the more interest they're supposed to make, correct?

1 A. It was a tiered schedule, correct.

2 Q. And attorneys's MCA, John Pauciulo, that's John Pauciulo
3 right there, correct?

4 A. Yes.

11:38 5 Q. He's with a major law firm Eckert Seamans?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. You never hired Mr. Pauciulo, correct?

8 A. I didn't retain him, correct?

9 Q. He wasn't your lawyer, right?

11:39 10 A. Personally, no.

11 Q. At any time?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And yet you advertise him here in your brochure to 14 investors that Mr. Pauciulo is your attorney?

11:39 15 A. No, that is not what that advertises, and that is not what
16 I advocated. I would state that that is one of the largest law
17 firms, as they said, in the country that represented the 18 individual in the management company that put this entire 19 investment together.

11:39 20 Q. It says: Our attorneys MCA --

21 A. Our attorneys is multiple people there. It does not ever
22 say that it is my attorney. So I'm just representing the truth
23 here.

24 Q. You go on to give examples about Par Funding and the sample
11:39 25 advances they make, correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And you explain to them about how the risk is mitigated
3 because the loans are diversified?

4 A. That's what that slide says.

11:39 5 Q. And these slides are specifically about Par Funding, not
6 another company, not another MCA, but about Par Funding,
7 correct?

8 A. That was that current investment at that time, yes. Part
9 of the brochure.

11:40 10 Q. And you also tell investors here that Par Funding has 11 insurance?

12 A. That's part of their brochure as they started that program
13 in midterm, yeah.

14 Q. So at a certain point, you came to learn that they did not
11:40 15 actually have insurance coverage on their loans, correct?

16 A. After the pandemic happened and they -- when they were in 17 default and the attorneys -- they had that video you're 18 speaking about and conversations during that time. They stated
19 that the insurance they had and they paid millions of dollars
11:40 20 for had a clause in it that I guess -- they called it "act of 21 God." I'm not really sure. I'm not a PNC insurance.

22 I am in insurance, but it's something where --
23 whatever you want to call the pandemic, I don't think anybody
24 can foresee that, but there was a clause where that would not 11:40 25 pay out the insurances between Par Funding and some of their

1 advances. It wasn't towards the investment. It wasn't an
2 insured investment by any means.

3 Q. My question was: At a certain point you found out? And it
4 sounds like the answer is yes, right?

11:41 5 A. Post Corona, correct.

6 Q. And another page of your pitch deck was this chart of
7 Par Funding.

8 Do you see he it?

9 A. I see it.

11:41 10 Q. And this is the chart -- am I correct in understanding that 11 you would use this chart to tell investors that the exposure
12 percentage number reflected the loans that were in default?

13 A. They would explain that this is one of the financial --

14 MS. BERLIN: I'm not asking for hearsay, Your Honor.
11:41 15 I'm not asking hearsay.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. I'm asking what you said.

18 THE COURT: Ask the question.

19 A. This is what I stated. I'm not saying what anybody else
11:41 20 stated.

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. My question is, Mr. Furman: Would you point to this
23 Exposure column during your presentations and tell investors
24 that this reflected the default rate on the merchant cash
11:41 25 advance loans?

1 A. Well, again, Perry usually covered this in his --

2 MS. BERLIN: I'm not asking -- Your Honor, hearsay.

3 THE COURT: Let's just -- again, direct answer to what
4 the question is, okay? Just remember the last answer.

11:42 5 Go ahead and restate it.

6 A. I explained what exposure percentage was to the -- at 7 various times. Again, I wasn't the presenter.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. Mr. Furman, did you tell investors that the Exposure
11:42 10 Percentage column reflected the default rate of merchant cash
11 advance loans? Just yes or no.

12 A. I told them that is defaulted on their loans, yes.

13 Q. That it was the merchants who defaulted on their loans,
14 correct?

11:42 15 A. In default.

16 Q. In default, okay.

17 Now, you were advertising that default rate to 18 investors as being about 1 percent?

19 A. It was an average. It changed every month, but an average
11:42 20 of 1 to 2.

21 Q. At a certain point you did your own analysis of the loans,
22 correct? And you determined that it was higher; isn't that
23 right?

24 A. I don't know what you mean by that.

11:42 25 Q. Mr. Furman, did you do your own analysis of the loans using

1 a GAAP, generally accepted accounting policy calculation and
2 determine that the default rate was actually about five times
3 higher than what Par Funding was advertising?

4 A. I did? No. I don't know GAAP accounting. That's why I'm 11:43 5 not an accountant again.

6 Q. Did you tell the FBI that you did and that you knew that
7 the rate was actually 5 percent based on a GAAP analysis?

8 A. I don't remember ever saying it in those words, no.

9 Q. I'm not talking verbatim. And we talked about this last 11:43 10 week.

11 Did you communicate not using the precise words?

12 A. I was told, just as I was today, that GAAP accounting,
13 which I don't understand what GAAP versus whatever the other
14 version is, I know that they present that as cash over cash.
11:43 15 And they explain that there is a difference there. So if you
16 do two different types of calculations, they will have two 17 different outcomes, both of which are correct and they're 18 different presentations. GAAP is what the -- I believe what 19 you have to file your taxes under. But again, I'm not a public
11:44 20 accountant or a CPA in any way.

21 Q. That doesn't answer my question. I only asked you: Did
22 you tell the FBI --

23 A. I don't recall exactly what I said to the FBI. I said
24 there were two different types of accounting that they could
11:44 25 use, cash over cash and GAAP. I don't know what GAAP is. So I

1 can't say. Never represented that I did.

2 THE COURT: All right. That's enough. We don't have
3 a question pending. All right? Let's go.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

11:44 5 Q. Mr. Furman, did you also advertise to investors at your
6 events the due diligence that Par Funding was doing and show
7 them pictures of onsite inspections and onsite inspection
8 reports?

9 A. Yes. That was one of their slides, correct.

11:44 10 Q. And you impressed upon the investors that these inspections
11 were important to keeping the default rate low, correct?

12 A. These are two examples that I used to show what an onsite
13 inspection would provide.

14 Q. And you told investors that onsite inspections occurred,
15 correct?

16 A. Not on every loan, but yes, that was part of their
17 underwriting.

18 Q. And, Mr. Furman, you've also included that in the brochure
19 that we looked at last week, but I could show you again. You
11:45 20 also included that same representation?

21 A. Par Funding's brochure, correct. They put whatever they 22 wanted in Par Funding's brochure. I did not make Par Funding
23 brochures. Perry brought them down, so yes. Whatever is in 24 their brochure was in their brochure.

11:45 25 Q. And you distributed them, correct?

1 A. Me or Perry, correct.

2 Q. Now, in addition to Par Funding, did you also offer
3 something called Harbor City?

4 A. I never had a fund at that point. I was looking into it
11:45 5 and -- during Corona, and it stopped because of this action.

6 Q. You never put any of your investors -- any investor into 7 Harbor City?

8 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, relevance.

9 THE COURT: Overruled. Overruled.

11:45 10 A. I had two investors in the very beginning that were 11 learning about it and went direct around me and did not want to 12 wait. As I had one during this lawsuit that went around me and 13 e-mailed me and said, I apologize, I can't wait for your case
14 to be over.

11:46 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. So you did not put any investors into Harbor City?

17 A. As I just stated, I was looking into them and I had clients
18 that knew exactly that I was looking into them as well, and 19 they wanted to invest right away. I did not have a chance to 11:46 20 really do my own due diligence.

21 Q. Mr. Furman, did you receive commission payments from Harbor
22 City?

23 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor?

24 THE COURT: Yeah, at this point we're moving on from 11:46 25 this. Let's go.

1 A. I apologize, I touched the screen again.

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. Was another one of the investments that you were offering
4 at this term Resolute Capital Partners?

11:46 5 A. It wasn't my offering. It was part of an insurance company
6 that we worked with that had solicitor agreement that you could
7 send a client to. I think I had one or two.

8 Q. Mr. Furman, very simple question.

9 A. No, I do not have a fund with Resolute Capital.

11:46 10 Q. Maybe you didn't have a fund. Was this an investment that 11 you were offering to investors that they could invest in 12 Resolute Capital Partners?

13 A. I could send them to Resolute Capital as a referral,
14 correct. But I did not have a fund.

11:47 15 Q. Okay. And Resolute Capital Partners and Harbor City paid
16 you commissions for the investors that you sent their way,
17 correct?

18 MR. HYMAN: Same objection.

19 THE COURT: Overruled.

11:47 20 Answer the question yes or no. Let's move.

21 A. I got a referral fee if somebody went there.

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. Okay. And it was the same time that you were doing
24 Par Funding, correct?

11:47 25 A. I'm sure it was during my tenure, yeah, as an advisory.

1 Q. Okay. And it stopped because Resolute Capital Partners and
2 Harbor City were shut down by the government as offering for --
3 for other offerings frauds, correct?

4 A. I couldn't speak to that.

11:47 5 MR. HYMAN: Objection.

6 THE COURT: Overruled.

7 Just answer.

8 A. I have not done any business since this started about two 9 years ago, or whatever -- quite a bit.

11:47 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. Mr. Furman, could you just answer the question?

12 A. I can't speak to those offerings.

13 Q. In your radio ads --

14 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, we're almost finished.

11:48 15 Thank you. This is only for the investors' eyes at this point.

16 A. Investors' eyes?

17 MS. BERLIN: I'm sorry. Mr. Furman's eyes. I
18 apologize. P 582.

19 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

11:48 20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. Do you recognize this, your radio script?

22 A. That's not what it is, but...

23 Q. Do you recognize this document, Mr. Furman?

24 A. It's not a radio script, but yes.

11:48 25 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, this was never --

1 A. Incorrect.

2 MR. HYMAN: -- disclosed on their exhibit list.

3 THE COURT: There's a Bates list number here. Don't
4 you want to show it to him so he can take a look at it?

11:48 5 On the bottom, please. Scroll it up.

6 MS. BERLIN: There's no Bates number on this one. But 7 this --

8 THE COURT: P 582?

9 MR. HYMAN: It's not on their exhibit list,
10 Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Has this been disclosed?

12 MR. HYMAN: As far as I know, it hasn't.

13 MS. BERLIN: I'm not sure if it has been. I'm taking 14 it away.

11:48 15 THE COURT: Why don't we move on.

16 MS. BERLIN: Let's move on.

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. During your radio ads, Mr. Furman, did you tout in these 19 radio ads, if you like full transparency and zero sales
11:49 20 pressure, then they should contact you?

21 A. Yes. I never would pressure anybody to do anything.

22 Q. Okay. We were wanting to end things with Mr. Vagnozzi in 23 April, May 2020.

24 Did you go and speak with the owner of Par Funding to 11:49 25 see if he was okay with you cutting Dean out, Dean Vagnozzi out

1 of the deal?

2 A. I reached out to Perry, and I believe I only dealt with,
3 ever -- the only other person that had an e-mail was Joseph
4 Cole, who is someone that signed the notes between my company
11:50 5 and Par Funding. So I e-mailed -- I talked to Perry and I had 6 the e-mail of Joseph Cole Barletta to confirm that I would have
7 to sign those documents and do everything myself, my own
8 accounting firm.

9 Q. At a certain point, you read -- I'm going to --

10 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

11 MS. BERLIN: I believe that this has been -- it's come
12 in with no objection, correct?

13 MR. HYMAN: No. There's a limited objection.

14 Your Honor, may we have a quick side-bar to discuss --

11:50 15 MS. BERLIN: There's no need, Your Honor, I don't
16 think. But this isn't coming in for the truth of the matter.

17 THE COURT: What is the objection?

18 MR. HYMAN: The objection is, it's unduly prejudicial
19 to certain -- it's a Par Funding --

11:50 20 THE COURT: I can look at what it is. You don't need
21 to give me a description. Under 403. That's going to be
22 overruled. The Court finds there's more probative value to it
23 than prejudicial, we can go ahead and admit, over that limited
24 objection, P 579 at this time.

11:51 25 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 Would you like to publish it at this time?

2 THE COURT: You may.

3 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

4 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

11:51 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. Mr. Furman, you've seen this article before?

7 A. Majority of it, yes.

8 Q. And this is an article -- it's hard to read.

9 MS. BERLIN: Can I pass it --

10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. Would you like a hard copy, Mr. Furman?

12 A. No. It's clear.

13 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, would you like one?

14 THE COURT: I can see it.

11:51 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. This is an article that Bloomberg ran in December of 2018.

17 Do you see that?

18 A. It's what it states, yeah.

19 Q. And it's an article about Par Funding; yes?

11:51 20 A. It mentioned them in there, yeah.

21 Q. The entire article is about Par Funding, correct?

22 A. It's about the industry and Par Funding, correct.

23 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, can we just distribute a hard
24 copy of this? Because I would like to move through it quickly.

11:52 25 THE COURT: Come sidebar, please.

1 Take this off the screens.

2 (Thereupon, there was a side-bar conference outside
3 the presence and hearing of the jury.)

4 THE COURT: Proffer to me, Ms. Berlin, exactly what 11:52 5 you're getting out of this article.

6 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor. The article discusses
7 Joseph LaForte is the person running and owning it, and he's a
8 convicted felon who uses an alias to conceal his identity.
9 Mr. Furman testified in his deposition --

10 THE COURT: That he would have no knowledge of this.
11 Is it -- let's proffer it.

12 MS. BERLIN: He said he read it.

13 THE COURT: No, no, no. But the argument or the 14 relevance of this is, he has maintained at numerous times
11:52 15 during his testimony that he could not have known about these 16 things throughout. So it was impossible for him to disclose.
17 They were not publicly available, similar to what he said with 18 the disclosures from New Jersey.

19 Is that the argument here --

20 MS. BERLIN: Yes. Yes.

21 THE COURT: -- that he has made this an issue because 22 he says no one knew about these things, he couldn't have known
23 about them? And you're pointing out that he's been running a
24 Bloomberg piece that he's read?

11:53 25 MS. BERLIN: Correct.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Because I've just got to get a
2 proffer, so I can balance because obviously it's not going --

3 MS. BERLIN: It's that he read it, and he didn't
4 disclose after that. And even worse, he says he only read a 11:53 5 part of it his reason is at his deposition. So he didn't even 6 care about reading --

7 THE COURT: You can get that on redirect. You can get
8 that --

9 MR. JOHN: (Inaud.).

11:53 10 THE COURT: Yeah, but I'm just saying, I have to 11 balance over 403, but if he's put at issue with it -- because I
12 don't like it, I think it's got a prejudicial angle to it. But 13 the problem is, it shows his -- what he knew, what he did not
14 know at the time and he's denying knowing it. So it's a close
11:53 15 call, but I've got to let it in.

16 MR. HYMAN: First, I think she should ask -- first, I
17 think obviously she should go to the initial questions, when he 18 saw it, whether he knew --

19 THE COURT: Yeah, yeah I'm sure she's going to.

11:53 20 MR. HYMAN: And then from there, after he deals with 21 those questions, if she needs to refresh his recollection or go
22 into more detail, I think then it would be appropriate to do
23 so.

24 THE COURT: The problem is, he's unequivocally been 11:53 25 extremely difficult and denied everything that he's been asked.

1 He will not give a straight answer. You know it and I know it.
2 This is already at issue. I'm not going to waste time here
3 with him leading us on a 30-minute goose chase about what he
4 thought he saw. He has made this an issue throughout his 11:54 5 testimony for five hours. We've got to get to it. So that's 6 not going to happen. He can ask it and he can get
7 rehabilitated on it, but it's a close call. But he's put this
8 squarely at issue. I don't like letting it in, but he's put it
9 issue. It's on him. So that's going to come in.

11:54 10 Go ahead.

11 You can put that back up on the screen, Gigi, whenever 12 you're ready.

13 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 Your Honor, can I take a break?

11:54 15 THE COURT: Yes, absolutely, we'll take a break.

16 Ladies and gentlemen, let's go ahead and take a quick
17 restroom break as well. We're almost done with his testimony.
18 So go ahead, everyone. If we could leave your notepads. This 19 is going to be brief. Take a little restroom break. We're 11:55 20 almost at noon, so we're going to be finished, probably, in the 21 next 30 minutes and then we're going to take our lunch break
22 anyway with the direct. All right. Thank you, everyone. Go
23 ahead and use the restroom and get a drink of water.

24 (Thereupon, a brief recess was taken.)

12:05 25 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I have a very brief amount.

1 THE COURT: No issues. I think you've got to about 30
2 minutes left, right?

3 MS. BERLIN: No, I've got like 10 minutes left. I
4 could do it. I think I'm good.

12:05 5 THE COURT: No, we're good. We're good. Let's go
6 ahead and let the jury -- and we're going to break after this
7 anyway.

8 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. That's good.

9 THE COURT: We don't have anything until 2 o'clock.

12:05 10 MS. BERLIN: We think it will be go faster if we move
11 away from this exhibit for a moment, because we have one that 12 is only -- our printer hasn't showed up yet with a hard copy
13 for me to put here. We have one document to show with Kevin.

14 THE COURT: Needs Kevin's access?

12:06 15 MS. BERLIN: He has it on the screen. We're thinking
16 we start with him. As I'm asking him, we take it off and I
17 have ELMO ready to rock.

18 THE COURT: You want to try to connect that now?

19 Let's do it before the jury gets in.

12:06 20 MR. HYMAN: Can we see what the exhibit is?

21 THE COURT: Yeah, we'll put it up now because the jury
22 is out and I want to see what it is too. And we'll do that 23 first.

24 MS. BERLIN: It's the other Bloomberg article about 12:06 25 the New Jersey and Pennsylvania regulatory cases.

1 THE COURT: I'll take a look at what it is on my
2 screen here. I don't have it on my mine yet.

3 Now it's appeared.

4 MS. BERLIN: Can we zoom in a bit so he can see what 12:06 5 it is?

6 THE COURT: Yeah, I need to zoom in.

7 MS. BERLIN: And this is about the New Jersey order,
8 that it's in effect. It's, you know -- it's on Bloomberg and,
9 you know, Mr. Furman has Bloomberg a lot.

10 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So similar to what we 11 discussed.

12 MS. BERLIN: Same thing.

13 THE COURT: Similar to what we discussed at sidebar.

14 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And probably a little less -- in my 16 view a little less prejudicial than the other one which I have 17 other concerns.

18 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

19 MS. BERLIN: So this one is about the New Jersey case.
12:07 20 The other one is about the criminal record. But as soon as we 21 finish this, if we can switch it to ELM0, then I'll do the last
22 two exhibits, which is the other Bloomberg and then one chart
23 and we're done. And it should be, I think, 10 minutes, but...

24 THE COURT: If we can start with this, so if you want
12:07 25 to turn to this exhibit first.

1 MS. BERLIN: It would be faster so we don't have tech
2 issues.

3 THE COURT: That's fine.

4 MS. BERLIN: So it's 586.

12:07 5 MR. HYMAN: I anticipate already having the hearsay
6 objection overruled, but we ask that you give the jury the 7 quick explanation to what it's being introduced for.

8 THE COURT: It's going to be admitted. So we can 9 already have it admitted for the record, what's the number for 12:07 10 this one?

11 MS. BERLIN: 586.

12 THE COURT: 586 will be admitted.

13 Again, at the end of the sidebar, the hearsay
14 objection is overruled. The instruction will be given to the 12:08 15 jurors that this is not for the contents of the article, but 16 again, because we have put the knowledge of Mr. Furman's
17 squarely at issue here as to whether or not these were 18 documents and really that the knowledge about these regulatory 19 concerns was out of the public domain so that his statement
12:08 20 that these were either hard to find or that he didn't know
21 about it or this was something that he wasn't aware of can be
22 rebutted through these exhibits, especially as I understand,
23 Ms. Berlin, the timing of these articles is very relevant as 24 well.

12:08 25 MS. BERLIN: Yes, these are all from December 2018 in

1 the midst of this offering.

2 THE COURT: Right. All right. So with that predicate
3 laid, I will go ahead and admit this one as well over defense
4 objection. I will give an instruction again to the jurors
12:08 5 before we come in before we go right into this document.

6 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Go ahead and grab our jurors, please,
8 Rita.

9 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

12:09 10 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. All right.
11 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, we have about 15 or so
12 minutes, I'd say, before we break, and then the SEC will be 13 done with their direct examination of Mr. Furman, and then I'll 14 give you further instructions, let you guys have your lunch
12:09 15 break.

16 One of the next exhibits that is going to be put on 17 the screen has already been admitted into evidence. It's 18 another article, and if you recall, right when we broke, we 19 were dealing with another articles. These are articles from 12:10 20 Bloomberg. I want to give you all a cautionary instruction.

21 You may recall, and I've done this throughout the 22 trial, that sometimes when evidence is admitted, I will direct
23 you to only consider if for a limited purpose. These two 24 articles are not to be considered for the content of the 12:10 25 articles. They're to be considered because the SEC is, as they

1 must, carrying their burden, show knowledge, show knowledge
2 that these are things in the public domain, that Mr. Furman was
3 aware of certain regulatory actions and concerns. Do you
4 understand? So the articles are being admitted for that 12:10 5 limited purpose and they should only be considered for that 6 purpose. Okay?

7 So with that being said, we can proceed if we want to 8 put that now admitted exhibit on the screen.

9 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

12:10 10 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

11 THE COURT: You may proceed.

12 BY MS. BERLIN:

13 Q. So we're showing you what is Exhibit 586, and do you see
14 this is a Bloomberg article from December 28th, 2018?

12:10 15 A. Yes, I see that.

16 Q. And, Mr. Furman, your e-mails and your text messages
17 reflect that you do read Bloomberg news and the Bloomberg news
18 summaries about finance, correct? Do you agree with me?

19 A. Well, no, I do not subscribe or pay for Bloomberg.

12:11 20 Q. Didn't ask if you subscribed, Mr. Furman. I'm just asking 21 if we go through your text messages, which we're doing, will we
22 see that you forwarded and received Bloomberg.com news
23 articles? Do you access that? Do you go there sometimes --

24 A. Not daily. In my life, yes. Not daily by any means.

12:11 25 Again, I don't pay for them. So I can't read everything.

1 Q. Okay. But Bloomberg is a financial news outlet, correct?

2 A. It's a news media outlet.

3 Q. Would you agree with me it's a financial news outlet,

4 Mr. Furman? You're in the financial industry?

12:11 5 A. Yeah, that's primarily what they cover.

6 Q. Okay. And looking at Exhibit 586, do you see this is an

7 article available on Bloomberg news about Par Funding being

8 sanctioned by the New Jersey state regulators?

9 A. That's what it states, correct.

12:12 10 Q. That a cease and desist order was entered?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Do you see that?

13 And it discusses the cease and desist order and the 14 high interest rates for the businesses. Do you see that as

12:12 15 well?

16 A. I believe that's their description of Par, correct.

17 Q. Can we scroll down?

18 And you see a quote here from Gurbir Grewal who is now

19 with the SEC, that the Bureau -- the New Jersey Bureau's action

12:12 20 today puts cash advance companies on notice, and it goes on to 21 talk about the securities violations of Par Funding. And we

22 can scroll down a bit so you can take a better look. And it

23 discusses how much Par Funding is raising from investors around

24 the country without having proper registration.

12:13 25 Do you see that?

1 A. I see that.

2 Q. Okay. And it goes on. And we won't continue through the 3 rest.

4 But, Mr. Furman, in offering Par Funding and 12:13 5 advertising to investors that you were doing due diligence, did
6 you conduct any Google searches of Par Funding around this time
7 and come upon this article?

8 A. This was much later. No, I did not find this under a
9 Google search. But in the beginning, I did look. But this 12:13 10 would not be there because it did not happen yet.

11 Q. So this was December 2018, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And in December 2018, Mr. Furman, you're sort of in the 14 middle of your offering.

12:13 15 You agree with me?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. You were offering these notes from --

18 A. Beginning. That would be mid/early 2018, but correct.

19 Q. You continued until 2020, correct?

12:14 20 A. Until this action or until my fund closed --

21 Q. So you're offering this investment during this time to 22 investors and telling them about the investment and that you're 23 conducting due diligence.

24 Do you agree?

12:14 25 A. Correct.

1 MS. BERLIN: And now we'd like to show back on ELMO
2 P 579.

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. And P 579 is another Bloomberg article about Par Funding.

12:14 5 Do you see that?

6 A. I see the article.

7 Q. And you saw this article sometime. You think your best
8 guess is 2019?

9 A. It was -- yeah, it was easily mid or late from --

12:14 10 Mark Nardelli brought it up. But again, as I stated before, if 11 you try to read this article, it blocks you until you pay for 12 it.

13 Q. That's not answering my question. My question is: You
14 admit you saw this article, correct?

12:14 15 A. At some point, yes.

16 Q. And your best guess was that it would be 2019.

17 Do you agree?

18 A. At some point, correct.

19 Q. In 2019?

12:15 20 A. At some point, yeah, in 2019.

21 Q. And in this article, if we could just Zoom in a bit, which 22 is now me. I forget that I've taken it from notes over here.

23 So this article is clearly about Par Funding.

24 Do you see that?

12:15 25 A. I see that they're mentioned in it, yes.

1 Q. Well, the whole article -- I don't want to read the whole
2 article, but would you agree with me this whole -- entire
3 article is about nothing but Par Funding?

4 A. Predominantly Par Funding, yes, and merchant cash advance,
12:15 5 I'm sure in general, but yes, Par Funding is probably
6 99 percent.

7 Q. And in this article, which talks about the collections
8 practices, but it also talks about the fact that -- talks about
9 the fact that the company is led by a convicted felon, correct?

12:16 10 A. That's what it states.

11 Q. And you see it says: The boss at Par goes by the name of 12 Joe Mack, though his real name is Joseph LaForte, and he's not
13 Gioe's cousin. That was a bill collector for Par Funding
14 discussed. LaForte founded Par with his wife in 2011, after 12:16 15 serving more than two years in prison for stealing $14,000,000
16 in a real estate scam and running an illegal gambling
17 operation. LaForte says he uses the alias to conceal his 18 criminal record, which he says has dogged him even though the 19 charges are a decade old, and his loan company follows the 12:16 20 rules. And he talks about he uses an alias. If you Google,
21 his name, comes up "mugshots."

22 Do you see that?

23 A. I see that.

24 Q. And so you admitted in your deposition a few months ago you
12:17 25 did see this article in 2019. But you still never -- you were

1 offered Par Funding for another year. You never disclosed this
2 or put it into any of your written disclosures, correct?

3 A. I thought I didn't have to as well because they never
4 represented --

12:17 5 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, hearsay.

6 THE COURT: Again, ladies and gentlemen of the jury,
7 you should disregard any out of court statement that has an
8 made and disregard that last answer from the witness.

9 Let's go ahead and ask that question again.

12:17 10 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. You never disclosed this -- I'm sorry. You saw this 13 article in 2019, according to your testimony, and you continued
14 offering Par Funding for another year and never included this 12:17 15 in any of your disclosures to investors, correct?

16 A. Not written in the document, no.

17 Q. And, Mr. Furman, I think we have already gone over Friday
18 that you claim that you disclosed it to just Frank Nash, and I
19 think we heard from him.

12:18 20 Do you recall his testimony?

21 A. I never said just Frank Nash, but I did discuss this with 22 Frank Nash.

23 Q. And your partner Roland Manuel, correct?

24 A. Among others, correct.

12:18 25 Q. Mr. Furman, you admitted -- and I don't want to go back to

1 Friday, but you admitted that you did not tell all of the
2 investors.

3 Do you recall that?

4 A. I did not make a list and check off that we discussed it,
12:18 5 but --

6 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, you will
7 use your best recollection of this witness's testimony, okay?
8 Let's move on.

9 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if could turn the ELM0 back on 10 briefly. I'm sorry if I turned it off.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Just one last question, Mr. Furman. Looking at -- this is 13 already in evidence. It's P 205.

14 A. 205.

12:18 15 Q. Thank you.

16 And I just wanted to real quickly, all of the notes we 17 see in yellow, these are the notes that you got from 18 Par Funding by giving them the investor money that we see on 19 these lines, right?

12:19 20 A. Yellow.

21 Q. So all the yellow ones are Par Funding notes to you?

22 A. Well, to the fund, yes.

23 Q. To your fund.

24 And we see here that where the money comes from. It
12:19 25 comes from the investors every time, correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And these are all investors that you brought in, correct?

3 A. They're mine, my clients.

4 Q. Your clients.

12:19 5 And so but not for you raising the money from all of 6 these clients, these notes would never -- these notes from 7 Par Funding would never have been purchased, correct?

8 A. Correct. If I'm not alive, this wouldn't have happened.

9 Q. So if you hadn't raised this investor money and sent it to 12:19 10 Par Funding, Par Funding would not have been able to offer and 11 sell those particular promissory notes that we see on P 205.
12 Agreed?

13 A. I'm sure they had a way to get there on their own.

14 Q. I'm talking about the notes issued to Fidelis. If you
12:19 15 didn't raise money from investors, Mr. Furman, and send it to 16 Par Funding, you agree with me that Par Funding would not have
17 been able to offer and sell these notes that we see on 205
18 issued to Fidelis, correct?

19 A. Yeah, if Fidelis didn't exist, they couldn't issue
12:20 20 anything.

21 Q. And if you hadn't raised the investor money, then 22 Par Funding wouldn't have been able to offer and sell any of 23 these notes in yellow because they were purchased with your 24 investor money, correct?

12:20 25 A. Not to Fidelis, no.

1 Q. Mr. Furman, I'm going to ask one more time. You agree with
2 me -- and I think you understand, every one of these notes in
3 yellow is a note from Par Funding to Fidelis, which is your
4 company --

12:20 5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. -- that you purchased using money raised from investors,
7 correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And so if you had not raised the money from those 12:20 10 investors, send it to Par Funding, Par Funding would not have 11 been able to offer and sell these promissory notes to Fidelis
12 that we see on P 205. Fair?

13 A. If Fidelis was not there, then no, they would not have been
14 able to.

12:21 15 Q. Right. And if you haven't raised the investor money, these 16 sales wouldn't have happened, correct?

17 A. Not through Fidelis, no.

18 Q. All right. I think we both know we're talking about the 19 notes that were issued to Fidelis.

12:21 20 MS. BERLIN: I have no further questions, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Thank you. All right. Ladies and 22 gentlemen of the jury, we're going to go ahead and take our
23 break at this time. I'm going to ask that everybody please 24 come back at 2 o'clock. It will give you just a little over an 12:21 25 hour and a half. The Court has a hearing at 1:00, unrelated to

1 this matter, but it should not take me more than 30 minutes to
2 complete. So I don't want you waiting unnecessarily. We'll
3 bring you all some coffee into the jury room around 1:45. So
4 if you guys want to come back maybe by 10 before 2:00, this way
5 we can make sure everybody is ready to go.

6 Let me just refresh everyone's recollection about the 7 plan. I'm going to speak to the lawyers here in just a moment,
8 but I fully anticipate that what we're going to do this 9 afternoon is at 2 o'clock allow the defense to put an 12:22 10 out-of-turn witness, essentially their first witness, without 11 completing Mr. Furman's testimony yet. Once they're done with 12 that, we're going to swap Mr. Furman back in so that the 13 defense can go forward with their cross-examination. Really 14 more of a rehabilitative examination, because Mr. Furman is 12:22 15 also a witness that the defense would intend on calling
16 independently of these Securities and Exchange Commission.

17 So we're going to go ahead and get the exact timing
18 down over the break while you guys have lunch, and we'll let 19 you know what to expect when you come back. But don't be 12:22 20 surprised if we call somebody out of turn.

21 I want to, of course, remind you all, when you go on 22 lunch break, that if you should bump into anyone involved in 23 this case, any of the lawyers, they must steer clear of you,
24 take no offense from that, please.

12:22 25 I also want to make sure you all continue to obey all

1 of the instruction that I've given you since day one, including
2 of course, not to go on social media to discuss this case. Do
3 not discuss it with any family or friends at home or on the 4 message board or chat. Do not do any research in this case.

12:23 5 Obviously you've heard and seen articles and things of that 6 nature. Do not go out and do any independent research. The 7 things that are being admitted are being admitted for the 8 limited purpose that I've instructed you on already, and if you
9 go outside the four corners of this courtroom, we can't assure
12:23 10 ourselves that what you're looking at is proper and that it
11 follows the rules of evidence. So please remember that rule.
12 We don't want any independent research or anybody Googling
13 people, places or things in the case.

14 Make sure you leave the notepads in the jury room when 12:23 15 you go to leave. I hope everyone has a good lunch. We'll see 16 you in there just about 10 until 2 o'clock, please. You're in 17 recess.

18 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

19 THE COURT: All right. You may rejoin counsel's
12:24 20 table, Mr. Furman. Rejoin your counsel.

21 So obviously I want to double check, first, just so I
22 can get a sense of the SEC's case in chief. Does the SEC --
23 understanding you do have really a rebuttal witness, I think is 24 more of what you have than anything else. But we don't plan on 12:24 25 calling anyone else as a witness outside of finishing up with

1 Mr. Furman, or do we?

2 MS. BERLIN: No, just finishing Mr. Furman and then
3 the agent who will -- it be impeachment and party admissions.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And that would be it? For example,
12:24 5 we don't need to worry about that one investor, right?

6 MS. BERLIN: Right. No. We're not going to call him.
7 Thank you.

8 THE COURT: All right. So we have just the remaining
9 part of the SEC's case in chief would include redirect of 12:24 10 Mr. Furman, as well as bringing in an impeachment witness,
11 which is the agent. And that would be the end of their case.

12 All right. So on the defense side, do I then expect 13 to have, I guess it's Mr. Cole that will be testifying first,
14 Joe Cole Barletta?

12:25 15 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor. And then after that I
16 think we had asked to, this morning, to take Ms. Kristin 17 Groleau. I'm not handling her direct, so I can't pronounce the 18 name correctly.

19 THE COURT: And Ms. Groleau is live, right?

12:25 20 MR. HYMAN: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Got it. Okay. Very good. So I
22 think we should, then, target to have Joe Cole and Ms. Groleau
23 go this afternoon. That should be our goal. If we get them
24 both done, we'll see how much time we have left. It does work
12:25 25 out, I think, because then what could happen tomorrow is, we

1 can have Mr. Furman go back on the stand tomorrow, allow the
2 defense to do their examination of Mr. Furman, and then we
3 could go back to the SEC, try to wrap up Furman, wrap up the 4 agent who's available tomorrow, and then pivot back to the 12:25 5 defense to conclude with calling any other witnesses, whether 6 that's Christine Furman or perhaps one of their main calls,
7 maybe Erik Weingold. I just want to be clear so that everyone
8 understands, in preparation for tomorrow, that I really don't
9 see a reason why -- because I'm giving everyone enough
12:26 10 bandwidth to ask questions, why the defense would feel the need
11 to recall Mr. Furman in their case in chief. I don't think 12 there's a need. I would rather give you guys the full 13 bandwidth on your rehabilitation and get in to some of where 14 your redirect would be. Any issue with that?

12:26 15 MR. HYMAN: No, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. So let's go ahead and do that.
17 It just makes sense to get them back on again.

18 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Are you okay with that?

12:26 20 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely.

21 THE COURT: And then again, it doesn't really -- I
22 mean, the Court has discretion to go ahead and structure the 23 testimony that way. It just seems to be unnecessary and 24 duplicative, especially on giving the defense a chance to ask
12:26 25 the questions in whatever way they deem fit so they can cover

1 all their material. Quite honestly, I would imagine that the
2 majority of the defense's cross-examination or rehabilitation
3 will cover all the issues the SEC has handled and then whatever
4 extra they want to cover that they would have been on redirect,
12:27 5 they can do so. So that should make it easier. All right. So
6 that's the plan. And that way Mr. Furman should, tomorrow, be 7 done with his testimony for both sides, and then we'll check in 8 again and see if tomorrow afternoon we have anybody else, maybe
9 Christine Furman. I think maybe we have someone that could 12:27 10 appear, perhaps, even on Zoom or something, maybe we can make 11 it easy. But we'll deal with that tomorrow in the afternoon.
12 Just giving us a -- kind of a game plan for the rest of today
13 and tomorrow morning into tomorrow afternoon. All right.

14 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor.

12:27 15 THE COURT: We've got a good idea.

16 So yes, let's do a little housekeeping. We know
17 Barletta is coming up and then we have Ms. Groleau.

18 MS. BERLIN: It sounds like we could finish tomorrow.
19 And then we would be doing closings on Wednesday?

12:27 20 THE COURT: Let see. I mean, I don't know. I guess
21 it really depends. I mean, my original scheduling idea was to 22 try to do it on Wednesday. Looking ahead, it really just 23 depends on, for example, let's -- I think we're going to have 24 no problem being done with Joe Cole Barletta and being done
12:28 25 with Ms. Groleau today. If we do that and we finish Mr. Furman

1 tomorrow, and we still have to get through Mr. Furman and the
2 impeachment witness, that puts us in a position where the
3 defense is back on, and I don't know, again, how much -- I've 4 looked at the witness list. Based upon the direct length and 12:28 5 everything else, I just don't know how many of these remaining
6 folks the defense plans on calling.

7 Do you guys have a sense, going into end of tomorrow,
8 where you guys would go after you're done with Furman? Is 9 Christine Furman tomorrow someone that you would do?

12:28 10 MR. HYMAN: Likely, yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And then after Christine Furman -- 12 because she's the only will call, do we have a sense of the 13 other witnesses at this point with -- we know that Stoller is 14 pretty much not coming in. So it really is only three other 12:29 15 witnesses that are being mentioned, Weingold, who is the 16 attorney, Roland Manuel and Dean Vagnozzi. Do we have a sense
17 at all as to whether these individuals may be called, just so I
18 can look to see when we'd be closing?

19 MR. HYMAN: I would anticipate we're probably not 12:29 20 going to Mr. Roland Manuel.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. HYMAN: And then we'll see how -- I think Vagnozzi
23 is going to be a little bit more of a judgment call.

24 THE COURT: Judgment call? Okay. I can live with 12:29 25 that because just one witness is no big deal.

1 How about Weingold, do you think we're going to need
2 Weingold?

3 MR. HYMAN: We're going to discuss it internally. I
4 think a big issue, obviously, is the hearsay component that 12:29 5 Your Honor has been sustaining objections on. Obviously it's 6 our position that a lot of what Mr. Weingold said to Mr. Furman
7 and vice versa, should go to circumstantial evidence and state
8 of mind, as well as satisfying the elements of the reliance on 9 counsel. But on his cross he was prohibited from answering 12:29 10 those questions -- or his direct/cross so...

11 THE COURT: Well, look, I mean, again, I don't know
12 the full scope of Mr. Weingold's testimony. Does the SEC want
13 to weigh in on that? One of the proffers here is that he's 14 going to talk about not the hearsay component. There was a 12:30 15 proffer here that he would talk about efforts to comply with 16 SEC regulations. That's not going to be hearsay. He could 17 talk about --

18 MS. BERLIN: He's not going to testify about that.

19 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm talking about what was 12:30 20 proffered.

21 MS. BERLIN: Oh, what was proffered?

22 THE COURT: Yeah, the defense proffered that he would 23 testify about the efforts of Furman and Fidelis to comply with 24 SEC regulations and exemptions. Obviously that would be fair
12:30 25 game. If he decided that he was trying to file disclosure

1 documents or things of that nature, that's not hearsay. Those
2 are actions he took to try to bring Fidelis into regulatory
3 compliance with the SEC.

4 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, I mean, look, the issue --

12:30 5 THE COURT: But that's different from what I'm hearing
6 now, which is more direct advice of counsel issues.

7 Yeah, did you want to -- go ahead, Ms. Berlin.

8 MS. BERLIN: I'm sorry. If he -- I mean, it depends.
9 It's sort of a question-by-question kind of thing. The issue
12:31 10 came up with Mr. Furman on direct. I didn't ask him about his 11 lawyer. He just started talking about what people had said to 12 him, and that's why the issue came up.

13 THE COURT: And I sustained it.

14 MS. BERLIN: But I was explaining it to the defendants
12:31 15 because they seem to maybe need, you know, be curious about it.

16 But I think it would depend on what he's going to say.
17 If he's testifying about what he did --

18 THE COURT: Right, that's fine.

19 MS. BERLIN: -- then that's not hearsay. And in order
12:31 20 for them to -- I can't remember if they asserted -- did they 21 assert reliance on advice of counsel?

22 They did. So they have to prove those four elements.

23 THE COURT: Well, that's why I'm asking, because --
24 because they have asserted advice of counsel a lot, so I
12:31 25 presume that Weingold is going to be called.

1 MS. BERLIN: Exactly.

2 THE COURT: But I mean, really, without him, I don't
3 know how you would establish advice of counsel. The reason why
4 I'm saying that is because this could have an effect,
12:31 5 obviously, when we get to our charge conference. How much of 6 this even gets presented before the jury, we don't have any
7 evidence of it. I'm not going to give an instruction on it,
8 necessarily, if there's nothing to satisfied legally the 9 elements you would need for an advice of counsel defense.

12:32 10 I mean, you guys can obviously talk about it with each
11 other, but there is quite a bit of testimony that Mr. Weingold
12 truly was assisting in getting regulatory compliance
13 accomplished for Mr. Furman, he would be able to talk about 14 that without having to get into what he did or did not tell
12:32 15 Mr. Furman. I mean, there's plenty there.

16 MR. HYMAN: I think the majority of the testimony
17 would be more of the advice counsel not the regulatory 18 compliance, and in our view, the regulatory compliance part is 19 kind of --

12:32 20 THE COURT: Let me ask you this: Why wouldn't there
21 be an issue where you would be able to ask Mr. Weingold
22 something to the effect of why did you not file -- I'm going to 23 give you an example. I'm trying to go through it -- asking
24 Mr. Weingold any questions about what he did or did not do on 12:32 25 behalf of Fidelis, right?

1 And he would obviously say: Well, I didn't do it
2 because I didn't think it was necessary or was they didn't
3 qualify.

4 I mean, that to me -- I don't know why that would be a
12:32 5 problem. I'm just coming up with -- yes, why don't you tell me
6 what is the problem with that line of questioning.

7 MS. BERLIN: Yes, so on that particular issue that is
8 a problem -- and I'm just asking for the 11th pattern.
9 Section 5 is -- we have it right here -- which is the 12:33 10 compliance issue. Reliance on advice of counsel is not a 11 defense. It's in a pattern. It would be prejudicial and 12 confusing for a jury. It's like running a red light,
13 Your Honor. It's strict liability. If you don't register with 14 the SEC, it's like you didn't get a driver's license and you're 12:33 15 driving on the road.

16 THE COURT: So given that that's the pattern on that 17 particular count, what counts then would advice of counsel be a 18 valid defense for? So we all understand what they would be 19 seeking it for, which ones?

12:33 20 MS. BERLIN: So the remaining six, the fraud charges,
21 but it's not an affirmative defense in the traditional sense of 22 one. It's only if they can prove the affirmative defenses,
23 it's one factor that the jury can consider when assessing
24 scienter. So it's --

12:34 25 THE COURT: It's not dispositive.

1 MS. BERLIN: Test not dispositive.

2 THE COURT: It's something that they can go ahead
3 and --

4 MS. BERLIN: On those six issues. So they would have 12:34 5 to have the lawyer -- Mr. Weingold would have to come in and 6 say: Yeah, he told me the guy was a convict, he told me about
7 all the regulatory cases, he told me everything.

8 And I told him: You can -- you don't have to tell the 9 investors that when you solicit them.

10 THE COURT: So let me ask you, why would that line of 11 questioning not go to his state of mind?

12 MS. BERLIN: That part, I was reacting to the 13 compliance.

14 THE COURT: But would you agree with me then.

12:34 15 MS. BERLIN: Yes, of course.

16 THE COURT: The reason why we're having this 17 discussion is Mr. Hyman is concerned about there being an 18 objection to Mr. Weingold from a purely hearsay perspective.
19 And what we need to make clear is, you know, one thing is to 12:34 20 come in and say, well, so and so told me this straight up which 21 was sustained. But one of the things that he would be coming
22 in is it's not for the truth of the those statements. It is 23 simply to establish scienter or lack thereof. Right?

24 So it's state of mind of Mr. Furman as to why he would 12:35 25 not disclose, right, to a perspective investor certain pieces

1 of information, it would be -- his state of mind was it was
2 unnecessary by virtue of counsel's advice. Right?

3 MS. BERLIN: Right. So he would have to present
4 evidence, though, that he disclosed the information. They 12:35 5 can't meet the elements.

6 THE COURT: Look, look. Let's not get ahead of 7 ourselves. I'm not arguing.

8 MS. BERLIN: But no, it's not hearsay. It's not 9 hearsay.

10 THE COURT: Right. No, no. But remember, Mr. Hyman,
11 just a minute ago, he believed that it would be doing no
12 good -- let's remember what when he just said. Mr. Hyman just 13 said to the Court: I don't think I'm going to call him because 14 you sustained an objection giving hearsay.

15 And what I'm educating Mr. Hyman on now is the 16 question that I sustained on has nothing to do with state of 17 mind at that time. It was framed in a very different way. If 18 he brings Weingold in, as he wanted to and he has him as a may 19 call, and Weingold -- look, I don't know what he is going to 12:36 20 say. But if Weingold says, I was informed of all these things,
21 remember, I looked at summary judgment. I know what's out
22 there.

23 The reality is there's a bit of a dispute as to 24 whether Mr. Weingold was told certain things so that he could 12:36 25 develop a legal opinion. My recollection is he did or did not

1 know certain things. So if indeed Mr. Weingold came forward
2 and said, look, I went ahead and told him, because Mr. Furman
3 came to me and said I know this, that, or the other, and I
4 said, you don't have to worry about it, you don't have to 12:36 5 disclose it, that would go right to the heart of scienter for 6 state of mind for Mr. Furman.

7 Now, of course I expect that part of the issue is 8 whether Mr. Weingold was aware of certain things told to him in 9 the first place to render the proper legal opinion. That's my 12:36 10 recollection of the gaps in the record. I'm going off memory,
11 so that may be wrong. But part of it was Mr. Weingold, as I
12 recall, didn't necessarily say that he knew certain things.
13 And so his legal opinion was limited.

14 MS. BERLIN: Or that he gave advice. I'm not even 12:37 15 sure that we have established that he gave the advice.

16 THE COURT: That he actually gave the advice.

17 MS. BERLIN: He has a company called PPM Lawyers where 18 you would submit your info and you would get a PPM. So they 19 would have to show four elements with the reliance of advice on 12:37 20 counsel. I don't think I've ever had a trial without that 21 defense, either the accountant or the lawyer.

22 THE COURT: Of course not.

23 MS. BERLIN: So basically, usually the defendant will 24 testify about like what they told the --

12:37 25 THE COURT: Right. They disclosed to the lawyer,

1 right.

2 MS. BERLIN: Then the lawyer will testify about what
3 advice -- what they knew, you know, usually on cross and what
4 they said, what advice they gave. And then the defendant will 12:37 5 have to present testimony that they complied with the advice
6 and address questions about whether they disclosed everything.
7 But it involves both of them testifying. And that's the only
8 way to do it.

9 THE COURT: But, for example, nothing would stop
12:37 10 Mr. Hyman when Mr. Furman takes the stand tomorrow from asking 11 questions about what he did or did not tell his lawyer to 12 establish the state of mind, and then you would call Weingold,
13 and you would work through Weingold. You would attempt to show
14 that Weingold, based upon what Furman testified he told him, he 12:38 15 gave him advice. And then that's open for the redirect, slash,
16 almost like a secondarily cross.

17 So I guess to your point earlier, and I don't know you
18 guys obviously are the masters of your own defense, but there's 19 nothing stopping you from calling Weingold because of hearsay.
12:38 20 In fact, it's absolutely not a hearsay problem. I don't want
21 the record to reflect that you're not calling him because you
22 believe the Court is limiting you.

23 On the contrary, you could absolutely get Weingold up
24 there to show the state of mind or lack thereof for a scienter
12:38 25 defense for Mr. Furman, and you can ask Mr. Furman also in some

1 of the questioning what it was he shared with his counsel.

2 Remember, what happened when we had these questions,
3 number one, it was non-responsive is the bigger problem. The
4 answers he was giving were not only for hearsay concerns that I
12:38 5 was troubled with, but they were nonresponsive to the SEC's
6 questions.

7 Nothing that has happened from the direct stops the 8 defense from putting on their advice of counsel defense. In 9 fact, it's fair game tomorrow, and it's fair game if you call
12:39 10 him on Wednesday, whenever he would be called. So I guess you
11 guys still want to discuss it, but you do understand that you
12 could absolutely call Mr. Weingold and not run into a hearsay
13 problem.

14 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

12:39 15 THE COURT: All right. Good. So the only thing I
16 would ask then is I'm venturing to guess just knowing the 17 current schedule. I know that some of this may not be really
18 flushed out until tomorrow, but we kind of have through 19 tomorrow planned out. We really know what to expect.

12:39 20 And I think that by tomorrow afternoon, once we 21 conclude with Mr. Furman and perhaps we go ahead and have 22 Christine Furman testify, then at that point we should -- and 23 especially if Roland Manuel is out and Stoller is out and we
24 may not call Mr. Vagnozzi, I think that other than calling
12:39 25 Mr. Weingold, I think we're almost done.

1 So what I surmise is probably the safest bet, looking
2 at schedule right now, is if we plan on finishing with 3 Mr. Weingold -- again, I expect to know this on Tuesday. But 4 by the end of Tuesday, I should know are we calling Weingold or 12:40 5 any other witnesses, right, for the defense.

6 If we're not calling any other witnesses and we're all
7 rested by Tuesday, then what I would almost certainly do is I
8 would have us come in in the morning and do the charge
9 conference and try to do -- get instructions polished, our 12:40 10 verdict form ready, and I would have all the jurors come at 11 1 o'clock. That's what I would do Wednesday, and you would 12 close in the afternoon.

13 The other option is we don't get everybody done, we
14 still have someone to call, then that means that last witness
12:40 15 is coming in Wednesday morning. Then we're charging in the 16 afternoon and we're closing Thursday. Those are the only two
17 scenarios that I think we're doing, either Wednesday afternoon
18 close or Thursday morning close. Does that make sense?

19 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely. And if we have any rebuttal
12:40 20 witnesses, those are typically very brief.

21 THE COURT: You can do that Wednesday too. That could 22 work Wednesday.

23 MS. BERLIN: This is not the client.

24 THE COURT: Look, I want to wait, right? I don't want
12:41 25 to pull the trigger until I see how tomorrow goes, but I really

1 do think that Wednesday could be an open day with a chunk of 2 time as something we need to be done, because we could always
3 use any remaining time for the charge conference. And if we're
4 closing Thursday morning, I think that's absolutely fine.

12:41 5 Looking at the Court's calendar, the only concern I had was a
6 criminal suppression hearing I had set for Friday, and I don't
7 see a universe where I won't be able to get to that as planned.

8 So right now we're looking at Wednesday afternoon or 9 Thursday morning, and by tomorrow I just need to know from the 12:41 10 defense who else we're going to call after Christine Furman,
11 after finishing with Mr. Furman, after calling Joe Cole
12 Barletta and Kristin Groleau. That should be it. So I think
13 we're in good shape.

14 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, that sounds pretty good.

12:41 15 THE COURT: All right. So with that being said,
16 2 o'clock, you've got a little over an hour and 15 minutes. I
17 have a sentencing in about 15 minutes. So if you guys want 18 to --

19 MS. BERLIN: We'll move our things.

12:41 20 THE COURT: Yeah, just give me a little space for the 21 criminal defense lawyer coming in and for my -- our prosecutor.
22 We're in a brief recess. I'll see you guys at 2 o'clock.

23 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: You're welcome.

12:42 25 MR. HYMAN: And, Your Honor, for Mr. Cole, do you mind

1 if I take his questioning from here so I can use my computer
2 and the my exhibits here?

3 THE COURT: That's fine. That's absolutely fine. You
4 don't have to come to the podium. That's fine. Just as long
12:42 5 as you speak into the microphone, we're good.

6 (Thereupon, a luncheon recess was taken.)

9

02:08 10 A F T E R N O O N S E S S I O N

11 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Okay.

12 Mr. Cole, I presume.

13 THE WITNESS: Hi, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Hi.

02:08 15 All right. So we're going to go ahead and get started
16 then. Any issues before I bring in my jury?

17 MS. BERLIN: No, Your Honor. If I step out, is it
18 okay if Ms. Johnson just makes any objections in my stead?

19 THE COURT: Yes, of course.

02:09 20 MS. BERLIN: Which would be unusual, but --

21 THE COURT: Yes, absolutely. Not an issue.

22 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. So we don't have to stop.

23 THE COURT: Yeah. Just to make sure at least,
24 obviously, one of you is here present if we have any
02:09 25 objections, that will be fine.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: You're welcome.

3 Okay. Anything else from the defense side? You guys
4 are ready?

02:09 5 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Make sure you guys draw it
7 close. I know you're working on the examination from there.
8 That's fine.

9 Let's go ahead and bring in the jury.

02:09 10 MR. HYMAN: I'll kind of refer to myself as "new 11 Kevin" when I try to put things on the screen.

12 THE COURT: Yeah, no. Just let me know whenever you
13 need access to the monitors, we'll we figure it out.

14 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

02:10 15 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Ladies and 16 gentlemen of the jury, welcome back. I hope you had a nice
17 lunch break. As we discussed before we went on our break, we 18 are now going to be hearing from the defense. They're going to 19 be putting on their first witness, somewhat out of turn.

02:10 20 So we're going to go ahead, as you know, and go
21 through the same process by which the SEC put on their 22 witnesses, which means defense counsel will have direct
23 examination, the SEC will have cross-examination, and then the 24 defense counsel has redirect.

02:11 25 And, of course, we expect that if not done later

1 today, tomorrow we'll probably conclude with the remaining
2 testimony from Mr. Furman's. But for now we're going to take
3 these next few witnesses out of turn so we can keep things
4 moving.

02:11 5 With that being said, I turn it over to defense
6 counsel. Your next witness.

7 MR. HYMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: What's the next witness?

9 MR. HYMAN: Joseph Cole Barletta.

10 THE COURT: All right. Let's get him to rise, please,
11 so that I can swear him in.

12 Thereupon,

13 JOSEPH COLE BARLETTA,

14 having been duly sworn by the court reporter, testified as
02:11 15 follows:

16 THE COURT: All right. Please proceed.

17 MR. HYMAN: Thank you.

18

19 DIRECT EXAMINATION

02:11 20 BY MR. HYMAN:

21 Q. Please state your name for the record.

22 A. Joseph Louis Cole Barletta.

23 THE COURT: And you're going to need to lean in a bit,
24 Mr. Cole. It's a little annoying, but just lean in.

02:11 25 THE WITNESS: Sure.

1 BY MR. HYMAN:

2 Q. Would you mind telling the jury a little bit about your
3 educational background.

4 A. Sure. I went to UC Irvine in California for computer
02:11 5 engineering. During college I worked for a publically traded
6 construction company in the accounting department for eight
7 years. And after that, I moved to Philadelphia because my wife
8 wanted to go to grad school there. Ended up meeting Lisa and 9 Joe and working in this business.

02:12 10 Q. And at that time -- do you have any other professional
11 licenses?

12 A. No, I do not.

13 Q. And what is your experience in terms of accounting or 14 similar types of financial work?

02:12 15 A. Sure. I cut my teeth, as I mentioned, in the publically
16 traded construction company. We worked primarily in the United 17 States in engineering and boiler manufacturers. I did a lot of 18 cost accounting. Four years into it, I specialized in sales
19 and use tax accounting. And as the company went public, we did
02:12 20 the whole Sarbanes-Oxley process and worked on compliance
21 internally.

22 Q. And where did your wife go to graduate school?

23 A. She went to Penn but she never finished.

24 Q. Okay. And so then you testified you met a Joe and Lisa.
02:13 25 That's Joe LaForte and Lisa McElhone, correct?

1 A. That's correct. Yes. I was looking for work out here
2 after moving.

3 Q. Okay. And did you apply for a job somewhere?

4 A. I had a couple of resumes out. I just wanted to find a
02:13 5 good fit for myself. Yeah.

6 Q. And where did you end up finding employment?

7 A. I ended up working with them.

8 Q. At what company?

9 A. At Complete Business Solutions Group. Although initially 02:13 10 it was working with a couple other entities that they had, but 11 that was the company I was employed under.

12 Q. Okay. And what year did you first obtain employment with 13 Par Funding or CBSG?

14 A. That was in 2012.

02:13 15 Q. 2012?

16 A. That's right.

17 Q. What was the position that you started with when you first
18 started working with CBSG?

19 A. It was director of finance that involved into a CFO
02:13 20 position.

21 Q. And did you go straight from -- what were your 22 responsibilities as director of finance?

23 A. I mean, it's sort of a start-up situation. Right. We're
24 putting together a lot of the models for the business. So I
02:14 25 had to develop really the model for this new factoring

1 business. They were developing sales and -- merely just
2 getting an idea of how the product behaved and really how it
3 could be profitable.

4 Q. And what type of modeling work did you do?

02:14 5 A. I mostly did projections and understanding the way the cash
6 flow of the product would work, getting repaid and being able
7 to leverage retainer and do subsequent fundings.

8 Q. And could you provide a little more explanation as to how 9 all of that would work?

02:14 10 A. The projection or the product?

11 Q. The product.

12 A. So in a nutshell, they would do short-term merchant cash
13 advances to small businesses in the United States. The product
14 works by providing quick turnaround cash within typically a
02:15 15 couple of days and then collecting on payments for those 16 factoring agreements the next business day after funding.

17 Typically these would be collected on a daily basis
18 through an ACH processor. That was one of the processes I
19 helped them building out, just to make sure that that was done
02:15 20 as efficiently and cost effectively as possible. And then that 21 would be then collected and provided to other clients in turn.

22 So it's sort of a compounding model where you're 23 taking daily cash flows and taking out into new deals. The 24 average rates that we were processing at were about 1.33 factor
02:15 25 rate, historically.

1 Q. What does "1.33 factor rate" mean?

2 A. That means when we purchase receivables, let's say for a
3 hundred thousand dollars from one of our merchants, we would
4 then receive $133,000 in total return for the receivables.

02:15 5 We're financing their receivables as part of our agreement with
6 them.

7 Q. And could you explain what your understanding of a
8 receivable is?

9 A. A receivable is a collectible invoice for each of these 02:16 10 merchants that collect from their clients.

11 Q. And how did your role develop from being the financial 12 director to CFO?

13 A. It just happened organically. We grew. A head count was 14 less than ten people the first couple of years. By the end of 02:16 15 2016, we probably had about 40 people, excluding Joe's sales
16 teams.

17 Q. And Joe's sales teams was separate?

18 A. Yes. It's a separate legal entity.

19 Q. So in 2017 there were about 40 employees?

02:16 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And did Par Funding continue to grow after that?

22 A. Well, this is where it gets a little bit more complicated
23 because we had to restructure the structure of the company for 24 a discussion with our tax accountants to see what would optimal
02:16 25 structure. We had other businesses that -- the company Full

1 Spectrum Processing, which was in 2017, was servicing.

2 So, for instance, Lisa also had some real estate, she
3 had a nail salon, she's a partner in a physical therapy center.

4 So in order to manager the books and processes for those

02:17 5 back-end businesses, we had to set up this entity.

6 Q. Okay. And between 2017 and 2020, approximately how many 7 employees did Par Funding have?

8 A. Par Funding never really had any employees, just Lisa was 9 on the payroll. It transitioned to Full Spectrum Processing in

02:17 10 2017. Full Spectrum had approximately 70 employees as of July
11 of 2020.

12 Q. And did Full Spectrum have its own accounting department?

13 A. Yes. That's my bread and butter.

14 Q. How many people were in your accounting department?

02:17 15 A. My office had about 15 people, about 12 accountants,
16 including an HR person, receptionist and some payroll people.

17 Q. And what were the responsibilities of your accounting
18 department at that time?

19 A. So Full Spectrum Processing manages not just Lisa's

02:18 20 businesses but also other companies. They provide services,
21 mostly back-end book keeping, IT work, HR and marketing for 22 those companies. My accountants would handle all of the books.

23 We had a Cloud server that stores all the QuickBooks files so
24 everyone was able to access, including our tax accountants.

02:18 25 And our role was keeping track of the books for all those

1 companies. Effectively providing services, paying payables,
2 collecting unreceivables somewhat, and just making sure that
3 we're able to communicate that financial information to the 4 owners of the businesses.

02:18 5 Q. And with respect to the MCA loans, what was the primary
6 source of funding for those loans?

7 A. The primary source of funding was from retained earnings.

8 Q. Retained earnings.

9 A. Which are the payments collected from our clients on those 02:18 10 factoring deals.

11 Q. And in order to fund the factoring deals, what was the 12 source of the money to fund that -- or were there other sources
13 of funding for those factoring deals?

14 A. Yes, yes. The company also sold promissory notes.

02:19 15 Q. And do you know approximately how much in promissory notes
16 were sold?

17 A. In total, I believe the volume was somewhere in the 18 neighborhood of 740 million dollars.

19 Q. And how much capital was deployed by Par Funding?

02:19 20 A. Deployed, you mean into those deals?

21 Q. Into the MCA deals, yes.

22 A. Approximately 1.25 billion dollars.

23 Q. And how is it able to deploy that much capital?

24 A. As I mentioned, we're collecting these deposits on a daily
02:19 25 basis where -- it's the most optimal scenario. Where you're

1 taking those daily receivables and putting it on to new deals
2 every day. So it's a constant churn of finding new clients
3 that provide this sort of short-term financing and getting them
4 booked.

02:20 5 Q. Are you familiar with the recordkeeping policies of 6 Par Funding and CBSG?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And are you familiar with how the records are maintained in 9 the ordinary course of business?

02:20 10 A. Yes.

11 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, may I please have access to 12 the screen?

13 THE COURT: Sure.

14 MR. HYMAN: We're going to start with PX 56, which I
02:20 15 think has already been admitted into evidence.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. HYMAN: But we'll show it -- oh, wait. Sorry, not
18 56. PX 6.

19 THE COURT: It's not in evidence, PX 6?

02:20 20 I guess not. Let's go ahead and show it to the 21 witness, please.

22 MR. HYMAN: I'm showing you what's been marked as
23 PX 6.

24 THE COURT: I don't see anything.

02:21 25 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

1 BY MR. HYMAN:

2 Q. You'll see the signature here, the issuer.

3 Do you recognize the name of the signature?

4 A. Yes, that's my signature.

02:21 5 Q. So seeing this document here, do you recognize it?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Is it a document that would be maintained by CBSG in the 8 order --

9 MR. HYMAN: You guys don't object?

02:22 10 THE COURT: No objection.

11 Well, let's go ahead and move that. PX 6 is now
12 admitted.

13 You may proceed.

14 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

02:22 15 BY MR. HYMAN:

16 Q. Do you see this document here?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What is this document?

19 A. This is a registration with an OMB approval from the SEC,
02:22 20 Form DE.

21 Q. And we'll scroll down to here, subparagraph 6. You will 22 see federal exceptions.

23 Do you see that, sir?

24 A. Yes.

02:22 25 THE COURT: I don't think the jury is seeing it yet.

1 We can go ahead and let them see.

2 Do you folks see that document?

3 Very good. You may proceed.

4 BY MR. HYMAN:

02:22 5 Q. And you will see down for investors, number 14?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. It says: Regardless of the securities and the offering
8 have or may be sold to persons who do not qualify and to the 9 total number of investors who have already invested in this 02:22 10 offering.

11 Do you see that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And do you see the number there?

14 A. Yes.

02:23 15 Q. What is that?

16 A. 22.

17 Q. And had CBSG been making this offer to accredited
18 investors?

19 A. Yes.

02:23 20 Q. Do you know whether or not it had been making any of these 21 offerings to non-accredited investors?

22 A. No.

23 Q. No, as in it had not made the offerings --

24 A. No, it had not made those offerings to non-accredited
02:23 25 investors.

1 Q. Same thing for DE 1852. Scroll up to the top. Always this
2 is another Form DE.

3 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

4 MR. HYMAN: Give the SEC a minute and then we'll --

02:24 5 MS. BERLIN: We don't have an objection to it.

6 MR. HYMAN: Okay. Great. Would you guys mind
7 publishing it to the jury?

8 THE COURT: That will be admitted.

9 What is the other number?

02:24 10 MR. HYMAN: DE 1852 and P 6, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: That will be admitted at this time. We 12 can publish this to the jury.

13 MR. HYMAN: Okay.

14 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

02:24 15 BY MR. HYMAN:

16 Q. See here what's been marked as DE 1856 (sic). Do you
17 recognize this document?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And what is it?

02:24 20 A. This is another Form DE registration with the SEC.

21 Q. And we'll scroll down here to...

22 Were you involved in the preparation of this document,
23 sir?

24 A. Yes.

02:24 25 Q. Are its contents accurate?

1 A. To the best of my knowledge, they are.

2 Q. And did Par Funding take steps to assure that its investors
3 were accredited?

4 A. Yes.

02:25 5 Q. Do you have a recollection as to what those steps were?

6 A. We worked with our securities counsel to prepare
7 questionnaires and verifications that every noteholder was 8 indeed accredited.

9 Q. And you'll see there in subparagraph 14, it says investors.

02:25 10 Do you see that?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And it lists 488 accredited investors?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. Is that an accurate statement?

02:25 15 A. I believe so.

16 Q. As far as you know, at or around -- let me keep scrolling
17 down to the bottom. This was prepared 2019, 2-12.

18 Do you see that?

19 A. Yes.

02:25 20 Q. Is that accurate as of that date?

21 A. Yes. Cindy signed that for the company.

22 Q. And who is Cindy?

23 A. Cindy is our general counsel for the company at the time.

24 Q. And do you know whether or not CBSG prepared a similar

02:25 25 Form DE for 2018?

1 A. No. This was the first time we had done it.

2 Q. And had there been one prepared in 2019?

3 A. This is in 2019.

4 Q. I'm sorry. I apologize.

02:26 5 With respect to your responsibilities, were you
6 involved in the review of or signing of promissory notes to 7 various investors and entities?

8 A. Yes. It was one of the corporate signatories.

9 MR. HYMAN: And next we're going to put up on the 02:26 10 screen DE 0259.

11 THE COURT: Any objection to the next one, DE 295, was
12 it?

13 MR. HYMAN: 259, it's a defense exhibit. It's a
14 promissory note between CBSG and Fidelis. It was already 02:27 15 admitted? Well, we can publish it to the jury then.

16 BY MR. HYMAN:

17 Q. Do you see this document?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And do you recognize it?

02:27 20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. What is it?

22 A. It is a note purchase agreement.

23 Q. And whose it between?

24 A. It is between CBSG and Fidelis Financial Planning.

02:27 25 Q. Are you familiar with the company Fidelis Financial

1 Planning?

2 A. Yes, I am.

3 Q. What is your familiarity with Fidelis Financial Planning?

4 A. It is a noteholder for one of CBSG's notes.

02:27 5 Q. And are you familiar with who owns Fidelis Financial
6 Planning?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Who is that?

9 A. Mark Furman.

02:27 10 Q. Mark Furman?

11 A. I'm sorry.

12 Q. Why is it that you're confused with his name?

13 A. I don't deal with Mr. Furman on a regular basis. And I
14 only recognize the name from the signatories on his agreements.

02:27 15 Q. Have you ever had any dealings with Mr. Furman?

16 A. Not directly, no, other than signing the same document.

17 Q. Have you ever had any conversations with Mr. Furman?

18 A. Not that I can recall.

19 Q. Does Par Funding have the ability to exercise any control
02:28 20 over Fidelis funding?

21 A. No. We're wholly independent entities.

22 Q. And do you know whether or not -- that makes sense.

23 And are you familiar with the identify of the 24 investors or all the noteholders with respect to Par Funding?

02:28 25 A. In what capacity?

1 Q. So if you saw a list of names, could you tell us whether or
2 not a person held a note with Par Funding or not?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And I'm going show you what's been marked and introduced
02:28 5 into evidence as P 205.

6 Do see this document?

7 A. Yes, I do.

8 Q. Have you ever heard of Steve and Leslie Benardo?

9 A. No.

02:28 10 Q. Have you ever heard of the Palm Beach Tax Group Inc.?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Have you ever heard of Nicholas Sandoval?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Have you ever heard of Celeste Zehren?

02:29 15 A. No.

16 Q. And if you look through the rest of this list, we're not
17 going to belabor the point, do you recognize any of the names
18 of individuals that are listed in this --

19 A. No, not at all.

02:29 20 Q. If any of them were investors in Par Funding or CBSG, would 21 you recognize their names?

22 A. Yes, I would.

23 Q. And so it's safe to say that none of these people actually
24 invested in Par Funding?

02:29 25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And are you familiar with -- did CBSG have audited
2 financial statements?

3 A. Yes, I did.

02:29 4 Q. Were you responsible for overseeing and supervising these 5 audits?

6 A. Yes, along with my comptroller, Jim Klenk.

7 Q. And with respect to the audits and the audited financial 8 statements, how many audited financial statements were prepared
9 for CBSG?

02:29 10 A. We had one finalized in 2018 for 2017. And then we had one 11 in the works for 2018, supposed to be finished in 2020.

12 Q. And were there other financials that -- or financial 13 records that CBSG prepared in the ordinary course?

02:30 14 A. Yes. We also had three not formal financial audits, and 15 those were separate projects. It's in the form of an agreed
16 upon procedures letter, a compilation, and onsite financial by 17 one of our noteholder's accountants.

18 Q. And during the course of those audits, did any of the 19 accountants note anything wrong with CBSG's books and records?

02:30 20 A. No, absolutely not.

21 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked -- so you
22 testified earlier about an audit year-end 2017, 2018?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. I'm going to put up what's been marked as Plaintiff's 270.

02:30 25 Do you see this document?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you recognize it?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. What is it?

02:30 5 A. It is an audited financial statement for 2017.

6 Q. And were you involved in the preparation of this?

7 A. Not the preparation, just the work behind, for them to 8 prepare it.

9 Q. And as we go down, keep scrolling to --

02:31 10 MS. BERLIN: Is this in evidence?

11 MR. HYMAN: Yes, it is.

12 THE COURT: I believe it is. Yeah.

13 MR. HYMAN: It was introduced through both Mr. Klenk
14 and Mr. (Inaud.).

02:31 15 MS. BERLIN: Got it.

16 BY MR. HYMAN:

17 Q. So see here, we have the consolidated balance sheet?

18 A. Yes. Yes. That's the old balance sheet from '17.

19 Q. Could you explain to me how to -- what or how I should be 02:31 20 reading this balance sheet?

21 A. It depends on your objective, but the general idea here is 22 to see the total assets and liabilities of the business.

23 Q. So we'll see here -- what is the number for the total
24 assets?

02:31 25 A. Total assets, approximately $135,000,000.

1 Q. And what were the total liabilities?

2 A. Approximately 132 and a half.

3 Q. And we'll see down, it says: Investor loans payable, net
4 of unamortized debt insurance cost of $1,323,767.

02:32 5 Do you see that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And then next to it, it's got the $94,000,000 number?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Can you explain to me what that represents?

02:32 10 A. That reflects the total note balance of as of December 31,
11 2017 owed to note purchasers at CBSG.

12 Q. And so how were noteholders paid profits from the company?

13 A. Profits from the company?

14 Q. Or how were noteholders paid?

02:32 15 A. They're paid on a monthly basis. Typically on the same day
16 that they put their funds in. And they receive interest for 12
17 months with the principal being returned after 12 months.

18 Q. And what is the source of the interest from CBSG that's 19 used to pay these noteholders?

02:32 20 A. From the regular cash flow of the business.

21 Q. Would that be profits from the business?

22 A. It's -- includes profits, but it's a complicated question
23 you're stating -- or asking.

24 Q. Okay. So we'll go down here. It lists stockholders'
02:33 25 equity and total liabilities and equity.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Down here we'll see there's a consolidated balance sheet,
3 page 4.

4 Could you explain to me how to read this, please.

02:33 5 A. Sure. So the top net revenues, it breaks down the income
6 of the business on a GAAP basis. That includes deferral of 7 revenues for subsequent periods, which means income recognized
8 in future periods that were started in 2017.

9 The next section breaks down general operating
02:33 10 expenses, consulting expenses, provisions for credit losses,
11 which is a combination of both actual losses and provisional
12 losses estimated from the value of the portfolio. And SG&A is 13 your typical day-to-day cost, including employees, rents,
14 things like that.

02:34 15 Q. And as we continue to go down, you'll see it lists interest
16 expenses?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What are those?

19 A. That is the cost of the notes for the business.

02:34 20 Q. And then after that it lists a net loss attributable of 21 6 million dollars.

22 Do you see that?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Could you explain to me why there's a net loss listed
02:34 25 there?

1 A. Primarily it's a function of GAAP. But at the end of the 2 day, that's what the financial record reflects.

3 Q. Can you explain to me -- so you talk about GAAP. What is 4 GAAP?

02:34 5 A. GAAP is generally accepted accounting principles.

6 Q. And are there other ways to conduct an analysis of the 7 company's books and records?

8 A. There are many ways to conduct an analysis of the books and 9 records. But --

02:34 10 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we're just going to object
11 that this is going into expert testimony by Mr. Cole about a 12 financial record that's --

13 THE COURT: I'll allow him just to give an 14 explanation, but let's not go too far afield.

02:35 15 Go ahead, you may finish your answer.

16 A. Yeah, I'll keep it terse. So for this type of business, in 17 order to produce financial reporting that's going to be used
18 for what we intended to use it for, it would need to be 19 prepared under GAAP standards.

02:35 20 BY MR. HYMAN:

21 Q. But with respect to how internally you were calculating
22 your internal processes, what did you use?

23 A. It's GAAP. Yeah. It's always been -- since 2017 we moved
24 to GAAP.

02:35 25 Q. And with respect to documents that were provided to

1 investors, are you familiar with what's been called a CBSG
2 funding analysis?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. What is the CBSG funding analysis?

02:35 5 A. That's a report I created in 2015. And since then, we 6 issued it on a monthly basis to reflect key performing 7 indicators of the business, funding bad debt and also 8 collections.

9 Q. And I'm going to show you on the screen what has been
02:36 10 marked for identification as Defendant's 29.

11 THE COURT REPORTER: Is it in evidence?

12 MR. HYMAN: It is not yet in evidence. I know it's 13 similar to the one that's been used throughout the course of 14 the --

02:36 15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

16 MS. BERLIN: No objection.

17 THE COURT: Okay. We can admit that at that time.
18 This time defense 29 is admitted. We'll publish that to the 19 jury at this time.

02:36 20 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

21 BY MR. HYMAN:

22 Q. You see here, this is a funding analysis?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And were you involved in the preparation of this?

02:36 25 A. Yes. Like I said, I made this.

1 Q. Okay. And so this was what was provided to note-holding
2 investors?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And as we were discussing kind of the GAAP analysis, was 02:36 5 that provided routinely to note-holding investors?

6 A. No.

7 Q. So looking at this, it's called a KPI report; is that
8 correct?

9 A. That's a term you can use for it. It reflects key
02:37 10 performing indicators of the business.

11 Q. So how did you -- walk us through how you put this together
12 and how an ordinary person should read it.

13 A. So the simplest way to look at this is monthly activity in 14 the categories of both funding activity, defaults recognizing 02:37 15 in that month, and payments collected from clients in that 16 month. There's three different categories. So if you take any 17 random month, right, you're going to see how many deals were 18 funded, the total dollars amount, the average size of each
19 deal, the average factor rate for that month, the new
02:37 20 receivables generated for those deals, and the month ending AR
21 total, meaning how much money was owed.

22 Q. Okay. So as you continue through, you'll see there's 23 something that says: AR charge, bad debt.

24 A. Yes.

02:37 25 Q. What is the AR charge?

1 A. It's change. So it's the Delta from current month to prior
2 month. Meaning if we have -- you know, at the very beginning
3 you're going to see 1.7 in 2 million dollars. You're going to 4 see an increase of approximately $280,000 from the prior month.
02:38 5 Right? Because we grew in the total amounts of monies owed to 6 CBSG for those receivables by $300,000.

7 Q. And can you explain to me what the term "bad debt" means?

8 A. Bad debt reflects the number of deals or receivables value
9 written off for that period of time each month.

02:38 10 Q. Okay. And next there's something that says: Bad debt
11 exposure.

12 A. Right. With this industry it's important not just to look
13 at the total amount being written off, but the actual exposure
14 for each of those deals written off.

02:38 15 Q. And what do you mean by the term "exposure"?

16 A. Exposure is the net amount of monies provided versus 17 collected on these transactions.

18 Q. Is there another way to frame that in terms of net cash
19 that's there over cash?

02:39 20 A. Do you want me to give you an example?

21 Q. Well, sure.

22 A. Sure. In simple terms let's use that $100,000 example we 23 were discussing. If we provide a client $100,000 and they have 24 an obligation to repay us a historic factor rate average of 02:39 25 1.33, they would have to repay us $133,000. To fully satisfy

1 that receivable, they would have to pay off that entire balance
2 for the company.

3 Let's say they went bad and said, you know what, we
4 paid off $101,000. Right. That means they paid back all of 02:39 5 the $100,000 and then we had $1,000 more than what was provided
6 in funding. We would have an exposure of negative $1,000. We 7 would have $1,000 more than we collected.

8 But let's say it went the other way. Let's say they 9 only paid $99,000. We would have an exposure of $1,000 because 02:40 10 they have a net total amount of $1,000 less than what was 11 provided as part of our funding agreement. So even if they're 12 not paying the entire $133,000 balance, we have to look at the 13 exposure. Your bad debt, the $99,000 payment example, would 14 reflect $34,000 still owed. Right. Under the contractual 02:40 15 obligations, they need to pay $34,000, but our exposure would 16 just be $1,000 loss, which is why some months, you know, you
17 have negative exposure totals on this chart, because we've 18 actually collected more money than what was provided to those 19 deals, even though they're not paying off the remainder of 02:40 20 those agreements.

21 Q. Okay. Then next we see the column which says: Bad debt
22 ratio?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. What's that?

02:40 25 A. The ratio is a comparable of the total amount of exposure

1 for that given month compared to the amount of funding that we
2 produced.

3 Q. In normal English, what does that mean?

4 A. So if we say we've lost $30,000 in a month in bad debt
02:41 5 exposure for the deals written off that month, but we provided
6 $300,000. Well, $30,000 is 10 percent of $300,000, right, so
7 we would have a $10 percent exposure ratio.

8 Q. And does that reflect the total losses in a particular
9 month that CBSG suffered?

02:41 10 A. I like that number just because it shows you a comparison
11 of funding versus losses. We want to make sure we're outpacing
12 that. If it's -- it's a whole different scenario if we're 13 losing a bunch of money but we're not funding anything. Even 14 if we lost money and we're outpacing with the amount of funding
02:41 15 we're doing, it's not proportionally a bad situation because 16 we're -- even if we're eating a couple of lost deals, I'll take 17 five lost deals but 5,000 good deals in the same month funded,
18 right.

19 Q. Okay. And you'll see here there's a note of a footnote
02:41 20 here. Do you see that?

21 A. Yes. Yeah. We had to prepare footnotes for all of these 22 reports.

23 Q. And what does that footnote represent? Do you have a
24 recollection or should I show you?

02:42 25 A. Well, it basically gives you the context in specific terms

1 of these calculations. A lawyer has reviewed this and they
2 wanted to make sure that we footnoted so people aren't taking
3 it out of context and trying to interpret --

4 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, objection for hearsay.

02:42 5 THE COURT: Sustained. Let's just disregard that last
6 part, ladies and gentlemen of the jury.

7 You may proceed.

8 BY MR. HYMAN:

9 Q. It's just -- without what the lawyer told you, explain to 02:42 10 us kind of what the footnote means.

11 A. Okay. So the footnote then describes the mechanical
12 calculation behind each of those figures. Like what I
13 mentioned with the bad debt exposure, it's cash-over-cash
14 losses on these deals.

02:42 15 Q. And so scrolling down. This would reflect, essentially,
16 the money that Par Funding lost on its deals in a particular
17 month?

18 A. Yes. The exposure column would.

19 Q. Is that another way you could say defaults?

02:42 20 A. It is, but it's not the same thing in the terms of 21 application here -- in how you're applying that term. It
22 depends if you're talking about it from a financial reporting
23 perspective.

24 Q. And do you know whether Par Funding represented that as a
02:43 25 default to its investors and noteholders?

1 A. Yes. I believe they understood the nature of that number,
2 meaning the cash-over-cash losses.

3 Q. And we'll see here at the bottom it says 1.32.

4 A. Yes.

02:43 5 Q. Does that represent the total, quote, loss ratio or back --

6 A. Yeah, yeah. 2017 you're going to compare -- again, that's 7 the total funded amount versus the amount of bad debt exposed
8 for that period of time. So comparing those two columns, the 9 totals there, not accounting for current receivables not yet

02:43 10 collected, that's what it was. It's 4.9 million dollars over 11 374 million in funding. That is precisely a 1.32 percentage.

12 Q. Is there a reason why that is an effective way to assess
13 the financial condition of CBSG?

14 A. It's a metric to keep track of as far as the number of 02:44 15 money being lost. It's a way of keeping track of the 16 performance, yes.

17 MR. HYMAN: No further questions.

18 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

19 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

20

21 CROSS EXAMINATION

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. Hi. Good afternoon, Mr. Cole.

24 A. Hi, Amie.

02:44 25 Q. Have you ever met Mr. Furman before? Did I hear you say

1 no?

2 A. No, I don't think I've met Mr. Furman.

3 Q. But you guys have been co-defendants in a case together for 4 a year and a half?

02:44 5 A. Yes.

6 Q. So you definitely know of each other because your 7 co-defendants together and shared defenses, correct?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Okay. Now, I had just a couple of quick questions for you.
02:44 10 I was looking at -- looks like it's DE 1852.

11 MS. BERLIN: And can I use -- is it easiest if I use
12 the ELM0? Is that okay?

13 MR. HYMAN: I can put it up on the screen for you,
14 Amie. Not a problem. DE 15?

02:45 15 MS. BERLIN: DE 1852.

16 MR. HYMAN: There you go.

17 MS. BERLIN: Okay, thanks.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. So this is a notice that Par Funding filed a couple of 02:45 20 years ago. And first to clarify, you don't work at Par Funding 21 anymore, correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. You were removed from the company about a year and a half
24 ago?

02:45 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. After fraud charges were alleged against you, correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And let's turn to the last page. I just want to make sure

4 I understood -- there was a 488 number.

02:45 5 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, guys. That's very nice.

6 BY MS. BERLIN:

7 Q. 488 investors.

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Did I understand that you testified that you had first-hand
02:46 10 knowledge that all 488 of those people are accredited?

11 A. Yes, to my understanding.

12 Q. Okay. Well, let's hone in on that. So when did you start
13 working at Par Funding?

14 A. I started working in 2012.

02:46 15 Q. You started working in 2012?

16 A. Yes, with them in 2012.

17 Q. And you became CFO in what year?

18 A. The same year. Effectively the title was CFO.

19 Q. And you met every single investor in Par Funding?

02:46 20 A. No, I did not meet every single one.

21 Q. Okay. So did you personally review the financial 22 information for every investor for Par Funding? It looks like
23 this number is from 2012 through today. Have you been, like,
24 meeting with them and reviewing their financial records --

02:47 25 A. No.

1 Q. -- to assess if they're accredited?

2 A. No.

3 Q. So do you have any -- you're not testifying here as an
4 expert, and you're not testifying on behalf of Par Funding.

02:47 5 You're just testifying as Joe Cole?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. Do you have personal first-hand knowledge of these 488
8 people in their financial status?

9 A. No, I do not.

02:47 10 Q. And I just wanted to point out -- if we could turn to 11 page 3 where it says "federal exemptions and exclusions." And 12 there's a box checked for which exemptions Par Funding was 13 seeking which is 506(b). I don't suppose -- it's not a trick
14 question. You probably don't know what that number is, do you,
02:47 15 506(b)? It's a legal statute.

16 A. No. I relied on the advice of counsel for that.

17 Q. Absolutely. So do you see the box for 506(c) that's below
18 the box you checked and there's no X there?

19 A. Right.

02:48 20 Q. And do you know that 506(c) is what you check if you're 21 claiming that all of your investors are accredited?

22 A. I don't know.

23 Q. I'll proffer that it is. 506(c) is the everyone is an 24 accredited investor box. That's what that rule is.

02:48 25 And is that box checked here?

1 A. It's not checked.

2 Q. And just to turn briefly to the chart that you were talking
3 about, I'm not going to pull it up. We don't have to pull it
4 up again. The font is very small. But I think I understood,
02:48 5 when you were talking about the exposure percentage, you
6 started to say something about it might have a different -- the 7 word "default" might have a different meaning and different
8 context?

9 A. Yeah. It has different, applications, depending on what 02:49 10 you're referring to.

11 Q. So, like, if I understood you correctly, when you were 12 talking about the exposure percentage and the default rate,
13 you're talking about default from an accounting perspective
14 and, like, what the company decided to write-off the records;
02:49 15 is that right?

16 A. The basis for the bad debt is from an accounting
17 recognition method, yes.

18 Q. And that's different -- like that usage of the word
19 "default," that is totally different from, let's say,
02:49 20 defaulting on an MCA contract, right?

21 A. If you're asking if the legal definition of "default" of 22 our agreement is different from an accounting, then yes.

23 Q. Yeah.

24 A. Yeah.

02:49 25 Q. It has two different meanings. One is in the accounting

1 world, and one is in, like, the layperson's world or something,
2 that it would have to do with the merchant cash advance?

3 A. Not necessarily even the layperson. This is under a legal
4 context of default. It would be different for taxes.

02:50 5 Q. You're not a lawyer, correct?

6 A. No.

7 Q. And were you ever present when Mr. Furman solicited
8 investors using your chart?

9 A. No. I've never been present.

02:50 10 Q. So you don't know if he explained the footnote to them and 11 that -- the footnote and that the exposure percentage rate is 12 actually what you decided to write off, right?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. Versus this is -- which would be different than if he said
02:50 15 this is the number of MCA loans that merchants just didn't pay?

16 A. I would not know.

17 Q. I'm sorry?

18 A. I would not know.

19 Q. You don't know what he said?

02:50 20 A. Right.

21 Q. But you would agree with me that those two things are 22 different?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Because you can have -- let's say Par Funding has 2,000
02:51 25 lawsuits pending against it for merchants, that -- from what I

1 understand, your definition of default and exposure percentage
2 may not even include all of those merchants that have
3 confessions of judgment because your exposure percentage that
4 you testified about today is actually the number that you chose
02:51 5 to write-off the books?

6 A. It's based on our accounting procedures, yes.

7 Q. And actually what happens is you and Joe Cole -- I mean,
8 you and Joseph LaForte meet and decide what to write-off?

9 A. I don't meet with Joe LaForte to decide what to write-off.

02:51 10 Q. Well, you all meet and have -- or e-mails -- maybe it's not
11 an in-person meeting -- with Aida Lau and Joseph LaForte --

12 MR. HYMAN: Objection.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

02:51 15 Q. -- to assess what is going to be written off?

16 A. No. That's inaccurate.

17 Q. Okay. Just one moment. Hold on, Mr. Cole.

18 A. Sure.

19 Q. We'll come back and we'll show you the e -- mails. Just to 02:52 20 make sure we're talking about the same thing, I'm talking about 21 the end of the month --- or you haven't worked there in a
22 while, but back when you did, Aida Lau and Joseph LaForte and 23 you would exchange e-mails about deciding what -- like which of 24 the merchant cash advances were going to be written off.

02:53 25 Do you remember that?

1 A. Are you talking about, like, earlier in the company, when
2 we had less employees?

3 Q. Well, I'm just -- I'm asking generally. We'll have to look
4 at your e-mail and you can look at the year?

02:53 5 A. Generally, it was staff discussing with staff. It wasn't
6 myself or Joe or anyone directly.

7 Q. Oh, that's right. It was later too because Brett Berman
8 was on some of these e-mails and others. So basically what 9 happens is -- correct me if I'm wrong -- that people at 02:53 10 Par Funding and some people that Par Funding hires will decide 11 what to write-off and, like, which MCA deals to write-off and 12 which ones not to write-off; is that correct?

13 A. Not exactly. We have to follow the accounting procedures
14 as part of our audit.

02:53 15 Q. Right. So you have, like, certain rules and in the 16 discretion of management, back when you were there --

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- you all would make a decision within your management
19 discretion of which deals to write-off and which ones not to;
20 is that fair?

21 A. Sure. Yes.

22 Q. And the ones that you decide to write-off in your 23 discretion -- we're not going into whether the discretion was 24 right or wrong; I'm just trying to get to the point that the 02:54 25 exposure percentage reflects the amount that management in its

1 discretion decides to write off. Agreed?

2 A. It's not -- it's not just decides to write off. There's a
3 real formula and procedure.

4 Q. That management following a procedure and following rules
02:54 5 that it has internally decides to write off.

6 How is that?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. So that's a write-off on your books and records versus 9 merchants who maybe have missed payments and are in default, as 02:54 10 that word is defined in the merchant cash agreement that they 11 signed. You agree with me these are two different things?

12 A. Yes, they are.

13 Q. They're apples and oranges?

14 A. Yes.

02:55 15 Q. So this chart reflects the amount that's written off, and 16 I'm not saying whether it's done incorrectly or correctly.
17 It's just something different. This is what that the company
18 writes off, and then the merchants who were in default under 19 their contracts, that's reflect -- that's something else?

02:55 20 A. Yeah. Our counsel handles that.

21 Q. Okay. Perfect. And then I just had a question. So
22 Michael Furman, you never heard him talk to an investor. You
23 have no idea what he said, I assume?

24 A. No. Absolutely not.

02:55 25 Q. And similarly, is it fair to say that you prepared this

1 chart for a financial professionals like Mr. Furman that you
2 e-mail it to?

3 A. No, I don't really e-mail that to any of these guys.

4 Q. Par Funding e-mails it out, though, Alexis Abbonizio and 02:55 5 others. Is the -- is this chart created for other people like
6 you who are finance people to understand?

7 A. So let's talk about the chart a little bit. It wasn't --

8 Q. No, no. I don't want to. The chart is not --

9 MR. HYMAN: Would you mind letting him answer the 02:56 10 question, please?

11 THE COURT: He's not listening. He has to answer the 12 question. It's not background.

13 (Crosstalk)

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

02:56 15 Q. No. Go ahead, please. Answer.

16 A. I'm trying to answer.

17 THE COURT: Let her restate it.

18 MS. BERLIN: Let me just restate it.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

02:56 20 Q. You sent this to someone like Mr. Furman. You did not 21 e-mail this to all the people on that list that you said you've 22 never heard of that were his clients, correct?

23 A. I never e-mailed.

24 Q. Other people -- okay. You never e-mailed at all?

02:56 25 A. I didn't e-mail to Mr. Furman.

1 Q. Okay. Great.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, Mr. Furman, though, is something called -- is he like
4 a finder or an agent or finders or something that Par Funding
02:56 5 used before 2018, correct?

6 A. Yes. We had finders agreements with him previously.

7 Q. And then Par Funding stopped using finders like at the end
8 of 2017 or early 2018?

9 A. That's right.

02:57 10 Q. And Par Funding stopped using finders because Par Funding
11 got a subpoena from the Pennsylvania regulators, and they were 12 looking into whether Par Funding was paying finders fees to 13 people in violation of the securities laws? Is that why it
14 changed and you stopped using finders?

02:57 15 A. It changed under the advice of our securities counsel.

16 Q. Well, but isn't that the -- let me ask you: The reason
17 that Par Funding stopped using finders is because Par Funding
18 received a subpoena from the Pennsylvania Department of Banking
19 in regards to information about the finders fees that were 02:58 20 being paid; is that correct? And then at the recommendation of 21 counsel, you stopped the practice of paying finders fees; is 22 that correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And then after -- after that regulatory action happened
02:58 25 that was about the finders fees, Par Funding switched gears and

1 started working with or having people that you called agent
2 fund managers or PPM managers instead, correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. BERLIN: That's all I have. No further questions.

02:58 5 I'm sorry about the confusion about the charts.

6 THE WITNESS: No worries.

7 THE COURT: Go ahead, Counsel. Redirect.

8

9

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

02:58 10 BY MR. HYMAN:

11 Q. So looking at the KPI report, does the KPI report include
12 all defaults with respect to Par Funding?

13 A. All defaults under what I just described as the accounting
14 basis for our default methodology.

02:58 15 Q. Are contractual defaults included within the KPI reports?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Is the number of lawsuits an accurate measure of how many 18 defaults Par Funding has?

19 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I object. This goes beyond
02:59 20 the scope of his testimony.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 He can answer. That's fine.

23 THE WITNESS: Can you restate your question?

24 BY MR. HYMAN:

02:59 25 Q. Is the number of lawsuits filed an accurate way to

1 determine the amount of default for Par Funding?

2 A. No. Absolutely not.

3 Q. Why not?

4 A. Because no accountant uses the number of litigations to 02:59 5 determine defaults. There's a financial methodology under
6 GAAP. It's very clearly defined.

7 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we're getting testimony like
8 an expert. That's not what our case is about.

9 THE COURT: First of all, the relevancy is a bit 02:59 10 stretched, but again, we're going to go ahead and move on from 11 this arena. We're going to get an accurate testimony at this 12 point.

13 MR. HYMAN: Okay.

14 BY MR. HYMAN:

02:59 15 Q. You testified a second ago that Mr. Furman was a finder.
16 Are you sure that he was actually involved in finders fees or 17 was a finder for Par Funding prior to 2017?

18 A. I am not sure.

19 Q. Have you seen any documents with Mr. Furman's name on it
03:00 20 showing he was a finder for Par Funding?

21 A. No, not to my recollection. I'm speaking generally the 22 relationships that we had with these fund managers.

23 Q. And when did Par Funding stop using finders?

24 A. At the beginning of 2018, January.

03:00 25 Q. And going back to what was Exhibit 2005, you see this

1 document here?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Does this reflect Fidelis's involvement with Par Funding
4 and the money that went into and out of the company?

03:00 5 A. I'm not sure.

6 MR. HYMAN: Let me confer with co-counsel for one
7 second.

8 BY MR. HYMAN:

9 Q. So to be clear, CBSG stopped paying finders fees in 2018,
10 correct?

11 A. Yes. The last was in January of '18.

12 Q. And it's possible that CBSG got all of its money back with 13 respect to the purchase of the receivable but would still need
14 to file a lawsuit, correct?

03:01 15 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: That's sustained.

17 MR. HYMAN: No further questions.

18 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, any 19 questions for the witness? Okay.

03:01 20 Thank you very much, Mr. Cole. You're excused.

21 THE WITNESS: All right. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: You're welcome.

23 Folks doing all right, right? So we can move on to 24 the next witness.

03:01 25 Defense's next witness, please.

1 Q. Ms. Groleau, I want to start with having you just give the
2 jury a little bit of your educational and work history
3 background, if you would, for us.

4 A. Okay. I was paralegal for 20 years, and my boss
03:04 5 semi-retired and then I started working for Michael Furman with 6 his financial group.

7 Q. You said you started working for Michael Furman and his
8 financial group. Speaking about Michael Furman, the defendant
9 in this case?

03:04 10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And when you say his financial group, what company are you
12 talking about?

13 A. United Fidelis Group.

14 Q. When did you begin working at United Fidelis Group?

03:04 15 A. I started part-time in July of 2019, and then went 16 full-time as of January 1st, 2020. And I worked for him for 17 probably about a year and a half, it was often off and on due
18 to COVID.

19 Q. And what was your position with United Fidelis Group when 03:05 20 you started?

21 A. I was his executive assistant.

22 Q. And what duties came with being executive assistant to --
23 when you say "him," I assume you mean Mr. Furman?

24 A. Correct.

03:05 25 Q. What duties came along with your role?

1 A. I answered phones, I scheduled client appointments. After
2 the clients would leave, then I would meet with Mr. Furman and
3 get my diaries on what I needed to follow up with, scheduling a
4 follow-up appointment.

03:05 5 Q. Let me ask you something. You mentioned clients. Did you
6 have contact with clients of United Fidelis Group?

7 A. Absolutely, yes. I answered the phone and greeted them
8 when they came in.

9 Q. What other contact, if any, with the clients did you have 03:06 10 besides just talking to them on the phone and greeting them
11 when they came in?

12 A. We had a couple of dinner events, and we had a couple of 13 clients attend that. Other than that, I guess that's it.

14 Q. Did you attend any of those dinner events?

03:06 15 A. Yes, I attended three.

16 Q. Can you describe them for me. What happened at those 17 dinner events?

18 A. We -- well, I didn't discuss, but it was just -- it was 19 about financial stuff, investing, there was a couple of 03:06 20 different types of investments that you could do. I mean, I
21 know Michael was a full-service investment firm, so, you know,
22 they just discussed, you know, everything that was available.
23 And, you know, mostly private equity funds, but, you know, a
24 little bit of everything else. It wasn't just geared towards,
03:07 25 like, one thing.

1 Q. Understood. And I forgot to ask you, where was the office
2 for United Fidelis Group located?

3 A. Over off Palm Beach Lakes and -- 1615 Forum Place, Suite
4 500, West Palm Beach.

03:07 5 Q. And with the dinner events that you referenced, would those 6 be held in that general area?

7 A. We had two in West Palm and one in Boca.

8 Q. Did you have any responsibilities at the dinner events?

9 A. I checked people in, and that was pretty much it.

03:07 10 Q. Talk to me about the check-in process at the dinner events.
11 What specifically did you do?

12 A. We'll, they had to RSVP, so we knew how many people. And
13 when they came in I greeted them and gave them a pen, and I
14 think it was a handout sheet that we gave them. I'm not a 03:07 15 hundred percent. It's been a little while.

16 Q. Sure.

17 A. And that's it. I just checked them off, compared to my 18 list for everyone who RSVP'd.

19 Q. So would you maintain a record of who would attend these 03:08 20 events?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And would that be maintained within the company's records
23 itself?

24 A. Correct.

03:08 25 Q. You mentioned that there were a number of products that

1 would be reviewed at these dinner events; is that correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Who would do the speaking at these events?

4 A. We had a couple of different speakers. Michael Furman
03:08 5 would speak. And whatever representative from whatever company
6 would also speak.

7 Q. And what would Mr. Furman cover all of the financial
8 products offered by United Fidelis Group?

9 A. No. I don't think he covered every single thing because 03:08 10 there were so many, and I think we only had the dinner for,
11 like, an hour or maybe two hours, so...

12 Q. At some point did you ever become familiar or aware of a
13 company called Fidelis Financial Planning?

14 A. I don't -- I mean, I think it's another company that 03:09 15 Michael has, but I mean, I really didn't get involved in that.

16 Q. Did you ever become aware of a company called Par Funding?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. How did you become aware of a company called Par Funding?

19 A. That was a private equity company that we had been 03:09 20 investing with.

21 Q. And was -- is it possible that was through Fidelis
22 Financial Planning?

23 A. It's possible.

24 Q. Okay. Did you ever become aware of a company called A
03:09 25 Better Financial Plan management company?

1 A. I've heard the name, but I don't know if it's associated
2 with Mr. Furman.

3 Q. Okay. As far as clients, did you ever meet a client named
4 Marc Reikes?

03:09 5 A. Doesn't ring a bell, no.

6 Q. What about Frank Nash?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Tell me how you first met Mr. Nash?

9 A. Mr. Nash used to come into the office all the time. Very 03:10 10 friendly gentleman, always brought us honey from his farm. And 11 just very nice. Always called, always came in. You know,
12 stopped by sometimes just to say hi.

13 Q. When you say he always called, always came in, would you
14 say he was a regular at the office?

03:10 15 A. Oh, absolutely.

16 Q. What about calling, did he call often?

17 A. Oh, yeah.

18 Q. When Mr. Nash would call in, did you find Mr. Furman to be 19 pretty responsive?

03:10 20 A. Oh, absolutely. He always talked to all of his clients.

21 Q. When a client like Mr. Nash, or any other, would call into 22 the office, did you ever send them off to speak with someone at
23 Par Funding?

24 A. No, never.

03:10 25 Q. Did you ever send them off to speak with someone at A

1 Better Financial Plan management company?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Who would you direct those clients to when they would call?

4 A. Michael Furman. It was just me and Michael. If I couldn't 03:10 5 answer the call, it was Michael.

6 Q. When a client -- when a potential client would make contact
7 with the office, was there any other process to gather
8 information from them in the form of documents?

9 A. We would just -- we would ask them to bring in any 03:11 10 financials that they had. I always let them know that the 11 first visit is just a meet and greet to get to know Mr. Furman
12 and all the different products they had to offer. I know he's 13 a fiduciary, so, you know, the clients come first. And if 14 there's something that they, you know, had that was a good
03:11 15 plan, then Michael would say no, keep it.

16 Q. Do you remember what kind of documentation would be 17 requested from a potential client?

18 A. It depends on what they were interested in. I mean, if 19 they had life insurance policies and they were thinking about 03:11 20 changing, then we'd say, bring in your life insurance policy.

21 You know, any financials that they might have, just so
22 he could better fit them and, you know, whatever they were 23 available to invest in.

24 Q. Okay. And you mentioned the first meeting.

03:11 25 Would Mr. Furman regularly meet with clients and

1 potential clients in the office?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Tell me about that. How -- how long were those meetings
4 generally? Were they short? Were they long?

03:12 5 A. Oh, no. We only saw two to three clients a day. It was
6 two to three, sometimes even four hours for a client. So
7 that's why it's two to three max. He spent a lot of time with
8 them.

9 Q. You're saying the meetings would last about four hours?

03:12 10 A. Correct. The first initial meeting, yes.

11 Q. Okay. And at that time do you know if Mr. Furman would 12 review any paperwork from clients or potential clients?

13 A. I don't know because I wasn't in the office. I -- I would 14 assume so, if they brought them in.

03:12 15 Q. Okay, understood. Were you ever -- did you ever become 16 familiar with a client named Henry Barth?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Tell me about that. When did you first become familiar
19 with Mr. Barth?

03:12 20 A. Mr. Barth used to call in -- not as frequently as Mr. Nash,
21 but I'm trying to remember all the clients' names, and I know
22 he was one that called in a little more than others. I believe
23 Mr. Barth was a little forgetful, so he'd forget things and 24 call us back like a week or two later, and we'd have to explain
03:13 25 it to him again.

1 Q. Can you give me an example of things -- of times when Mr.
2 Barth would be forgetful?

3 A. Like I said, just he would call a lot. Not as much as
4 Mr. Nash, but he call because he was just very forgetful. And 03:13 5 so I'd always transfer him to Michael, and Michael would talk
6 to him about whatever it is that he needed or wanted.

7 Q. And did you find that Furman was pretty responsive when 8 Mr. Barth would call?

9 A. Oh, absolutely.

03:13 10 Q. Just going back to Mr. Nash for a second, would you say
11 he's one of the clients that called the most to your office?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Were you ever familiar with a client named Robert Renner?

14 A. I know the name, but I can't really say I remember anything
03:14 15 about him.

16 Q. Okay. I want to go back to those dinner events for a
17 moment.

18 Do you know whether or not Mr. Nash went to any of the 19 dinner events that was hosted by Fidelis?

03:14 20 A. Oh, yeah. He liked a free meal. So I think he attended
21 all three.

22 Q. How do you know he liked a free meal?

23 A. Because he told us that.

24 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I feel like this was covered
03:14 25 in our motion in limine.

1 THE COURT: Yeah. Let's go ahead and disregard that
2 last comment. Again, there's a relevancy issue here. Let's 3 move on.

4 BY MR. JOHN:

03:14 5 Q. And regarding Mr. Barth, do you know whether or not he went 6 to any of the dinner events?

7 A. I can't say a hundred percent without looking at my sheet.

8 Q. Are you aware of what an accredited investor is?

9 A. Accredited investor, I did. I think you have to have at 03:14 10 least a million dollars in assets in order to -- well, a
11 million dollars in assets to be an accredited investor.

12 Q. When you were working for United Fidelis Group, were you
13 involved in any of the marketing pieces, the newspaper ads or 14 anything that went out?

03:15 15 A. No. I didn't do any of those.

16 Q. Do you know whether or not United Fidelis marketed to
17 accredited investors?

18 A. Yes. It was in the end.

19 Q. So you've seen the ads for those?

03:15 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Do you know why Fidelis marketed to accredited investors?

22 A. No.

23 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, relevance.

24 THE COURT: Overruled. I'll allow her to answer.

03:15 25 BY MR. JOHN:

1 Q. Do you know why Fidelis marketed to accredited investors,
2 if you know?

3 A. No.

4 Q. I want to go back for a moment to Par Funding.

03:15 5 During your time with United Fidelis Group, was there
6 ever a time from anyone from Par Funding took any kind of 7 leadership role at United Fidelis Group?

8 A. I'm sorry. Repeat the question.

9 Q. During your time working for United Fidelis Group -- let me
03:16 10 ask it this way: Was there ever a time while you were working 11 at United Fidelis Group where you were required to be 12 supervised or take instructions from anyone from Par Funding?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Was Michael Furman always the person in charge at 03:16 15 United Fidelis Group while you were there?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. What about from A Better Financial Plan, was there ever a
18 time when you were working at United Fidelis Group where you
19 were required to take instruction or you were supervised from 03:16 20 anyone from A Better Financial Plan Management Company?

21 A. No.

22 MR. JOHN: Moment to confer, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Yep.

24 MR. JOHN: Just briefly.

03:17 25 BY MR. JOHN:

1 Q. Ms. Groleau, did you ever become familiar with someone
2 named Perry Abbonizio?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Tell me about that. How did you become familiar with
03:17 5 Perry Abbonizio?

6 A. Perry Abbonizio, I believe, was with Par Funding, if I'm 7 not correct.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. Or he could have been with one of the real estate
03:17 10 companies. Sorry. I can't one hundred percent say how.

11 Q. That's okay.

12 Do you know whether Mr. Abbonizio attended any of the 13 dinner events hosted by Fidelis?

14 A. I believe he attended one of them.

03:17 15 Q. Were you at that particular dinner event?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Do you know whether Mr. Abbonizio spoke at that event?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You know that he did or he did?

03:17 20 A. Yes. Yes. If he was there, he spoke.

21 Q. Okay.

22 MR. JOHN: Moment to confer, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Sure.

24 BY MR. JOHN:

03:18 25 Q. Ms. Groleau, did you ever receive -- are you familiar with

1 the KPI reports that would come to Fidelis?

2 A. The KPI?

3 Q. Yes.

4 A. What does that stand for?

03:18 5 THE COURT: Obviously she doesn't know.

6 A. I mean, I got reports in, but quarterly and monthly.

7 BY MR. JOHN:

8 Q. Tell me about that. What kind of reports would you get in 9 quarterly and monthly?

03:18 10 A. With the real estate companies, there was investments, how 11 they were doing, how they were, you know, profitable or 12 nonprofitable, the clients. I mean, they came in to Michael,
13 and Michael would have me e-mail to our clients.

14 Q. Did you ever get any reports that may be labeled "funding
03:19 15 analysis" or "analysis"?

16 A. I believe so, yes.

17 Q. Do you recall where those came from?

18 A. I can't remember which company.

19 Q. Okay. When you got those type of reports, what would you
03:19 20 do with them, those analysis reports?

21 A. I would wait for Michael's instructions. Like I said, they 22 would come to him and he would forward them to me and say:
23 Please distribute this to whatever clients are in this fund.

24 Q. So as you recall, whenever you got a funding analysis
03:19 25 report, Mr. Furman would give you directions about who to 1 distribute those to?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And would you do that? Would you distribute those reports
4 as instructed?

03:19 5 A. Yes.

6 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, no further questions for this
7 witness at this time.

8 THE COURT: All right. Cross-examination, please.

9

10 CROSS EXAMINATION

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Hi.

13 A. Hi.

14 Q. You and Mr. Furman, after you started working there, you
03:20 15 guys would text frequently, yes?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And Mr. Furman would text with you about Perry and Dean and 18 ABFP, correct?

19 A. We texted about whatever was going on in the office, and 03:20 20 whatever personal texts, I can't recall exactly.

21 Q. Sure. Yeah. And, but, I mean, you know who Dean -- he 22 would complain to you about Dean and ABFP and the management
23 work that they were doing?

24 A. ADFP? What is that? What are you talking about?

03:21 25 Q. Dean Vagnozzi's company?

1 A. I don't know that's Dean's company, but okay.

2 Q. Oh, okay. You're Kristin Groleau, correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if we can just -- Your Honor,
03:21 5 may I approach the witness -- the text messages are huge -- and 6 just provide it? We're just going to introduce it and --

7 MR. HYMAN: We have never seen them.

8 THE COURT: You want to show counsel?

9 MS. BERLIN: Sure.

03:21 10 MR. HYMAN: There's no Bates stamp on this,
11 Your Honor.

12 MS. BERLIN: The Bates stamp --

13 MR. HYMAN: There is nothing to show that this was 14 ever produced to this, Your Honor.

03:21 15 MS. BERLIN: Oh, Lord.

16 THE COURT: Come to sidebar.

17 (Thereupon, there was a side-bar conference outside
18 the presence and hearing of the jury.)

19 THE COURT: Yes. All right. So go ahead. Maybe give 03:22 20 a little explanation.

21 MS. BERLIN: Sure. We -- as you know, the SEC has 22 Mr. Furman's cell phone and all of his text messages, and we're 23 going to use this from rebuttal.

24 MR. HYMAN: I'm confused.

03:22 25 MS. BERLIN: We took the cell phone from Mr. Furman.

1 Before you came on, we downloaded the image and gave it back to
2 Furman. That is all -- these are all of his messages with
3 Kristin. We're not going to spend the time to go through it.
4 I'm going to argue things that I'm hearing in closing. I just 03:22 5 want to authenticate it or I can have an agent do it, but I
6 thought while she's here, it's easy. There's one message I'm 7 going to ask her about, and that's it. And no, these don't get
8 Bates-stamped. They were produced electronically.

9 THE COURT: Is this impeachment material, what you're 03:22 10 using this for?

11 MS. BERLIN: It's for both. One is impeachment and 12 the rest is because he's, like, messaging with her about the 13 regulatory actions and there's all kinds of stuff in here. So
14 I planned on getting in through her.

03:22 15 THE COURT: But I'm saying is that for -- just so -- I
16 don't know what the messages are. Is it showing that the 17 relationship between the parties, possible bias? What's the 18 issues there?

19 MS. BERLIN: Sure. So she was just saying she doesn't 03:23 20 know much about Dean. These messages are all about Dean and 21 ABFP and Perry and Par Funding, and we'll just use them in 22 evidence to argue later. I don't think we want to make a
23 feature of the case. So that's all I was going to do.

24 THE COURT: But were they ultimately produced too? I
03:23 25 missed the first part.

1 MS. BERLIN: Yes, of course. You came on the case in 2 August.

3 THE COURT: Yeah, listen. You guys don't know what
4 you have is the problem. I understand you guys came on and you
03:23 5 have constrained budgetary-wise and manpower-wise. But all
6 this stuff has been produced, and you guys don't know what you
7 have because you're sitting on a lot of documents.

8 MR. HYMAN: Part of the issue is that we got 9 admonished when we said that they have been given access to 03:23 10 Mr. Furman's cell phone and computer and everything else.

11 We were previously admonished when we said the SEC had 12 all of his text messages, his computer files, and all his 13 documents.

14 THE COURT: Probably because it wasn't relevant at the 03:23 15 time you said it, and you haven't linked it to anything.

16 MR. HYMAN: No. And then Ms. Berlin said we didn't
17 have any documents from Fidelis.

18 THE COURT: What are you talking about? Are you
19 talking about the first time with the laptop, where you
03:24 20 misrepresented to me that you had something you didn't have?
21 Which episode are you talking about?

22 MR. HYMAN: We're talking about --

23 THE COURT: The episode where you misrepresented to 24 the Court that you thought you had a password that you didn't 03:24 25 have, and then you had to have your counsel apologize, that

1 episode?

2 MR. HYMAN: That was not accurate.

3 THE COURT: You want to argue with me about something
4 where we already had the receiver come up and tell me that you
03:24 5 guys did not have the e-mail with the famous password and the 6 access? We already litigated that like a week ago.

7 MR. HYMAN: (Inaud.)

8 THE COURT: I mean, am I missing something you want to 9 talk about? I don't think you do want to go back over that.
03:24 10 Maybe you want to remind your co-counsel because we talked 11 about that. This is symptomatic of the whole issue. Some of 12 this has been turned over and you guys don't know. If this has 13 been turned over, we can use it. She's got to lay a predicate,
14 we got to authenticate it. And I don't think we need to spend
03:24 15 30 minutes with her talking about text messages.

16 MS. BERLIN: I was just going to put it in and be 17 done.

18 THE COURT: Let put it in and be done. It's going to 19 admissible. It's going to be admissible. She's going to be 03:25 20 able to lay a predicate to her messages. So she's going to be 21 able to lay a predicate on that. Just to be clear, are we 22 getting those in for the truth of the matter asserted, meaning
23 the text messages themselves, or are we getting those in --
24 some of those are going to be party admissions by Furman
03:25 25 himself anyway, so it might not matter. But I'm just curious

1 because there's a million pages here. I don't even know.

2 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, I'm not going -- I think
3 I was just going to -- there's a place where she's telling her
4 about Dean and the one million in fines and he knows all about
03:25 5 it.

6 THE COURT: Maybe you show it to her and if she
7 remembers, you can ask her the question again. You don't have
8 to move it. Refresh her recollection.

9 MR. JOHN: They objected that they didn't have text
03:25 10 message related to Mr. Abbonizio. I just wanted to clarify, 11 they're definitely not in that pack, right? Because they came 12 from his phone?

13 THE COURT: I don't think this has anything to do with
14 Abbonizio.

03:25 15 MS. BERLIN: Every single document goes to the SEC
16 forensics lab. I get it the same day defense gets it. We all
17 have a written agreement --

18 MR. JOHN: (Inaud.)

19 MS. BERLIN: I get it when you guys get it.

03:25 20 THE COURT: I don't think anything in here is going to 21 do with Abbonizio. I mean, again, you guys -- it's just 22 between her and him. That's what they're telling me.

23 MS. BERLIN: This is Kristin (cross-talk) been like
24 two months.

03:26 25 THE COURT: Right. But it's not -- it's not from

1 Mr. Abbonizio is what Mr. John is asking. It's only between 2 Furman and her. Okay. Yeah. That's fine.

3 MS. BERLIN: These are messages.

4 THE COURT: That's fine. That's fine. Try to 03:26 5 streamline it, but that's fine.

6 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 (Thereupon, the side-bar conference was concluded.)

8 THE COURT: All right. You may proceed when you're 9 ready.

03:26 10 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, it's hard to show it on a
11 screen. May I approach?

12 THE COURT: Just approach. Just approach, please.
13 Direct the witness to a page or a line number.

14 MS. BERLIN: Here you go.

03:26 15 A. Thanks.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. And do you recognize -- is this your phone number? Do you
18 see where it says Kristin --

19 A. Yes.

03:26 20 Q. -- Groleau? Am I saying it right, Groleau?

21 A. Uh-huh. (Nodding.)

22 Q. And where it says "me," that's Michael Furman's? The 561
23 number?

24 A. Without looking at my phone, I don't know his phone number
03:27 25 by heart.

1 Q. And if you look to -- I'm sorry. It's all staticky. Sorry
2 about that.

3 If you turn to the sort of the green sticker.

4 A. Yes.

03:27 5 Q. If you would turn to that, and it's on the back side of the 6 text.

7 It might be at the top. It might help you remember
8 whose phone number it is that you were texting with.

9 A. Again, I don't memorialize phone numbers, so I'd have to 03:27 10 look at my phone.

11 Q. I am that same way. I get it.

12 So you're not sure if this is your phone number with 13 him? If this is his phone number, your boss?

14 A. No.

03:28 15 Q. Okay. Got it. All right. Go ahead and -- if you don't 16 know his phone number, set it aside.

17 A. Yeah. Not by heart. If you want me to get my cell phone
18 out and check, I can.

19 Q. No, no, no. It's okay. I'm the same way. I understand.

03:28 20 So while you were working with Mr. -- here, I'll take
21 it.

22 While you were working with Mr. Furman, did he ever
23 tell you about any of the fines or, like, regulatory fines
24 against Dean Vagnozzi?

03:28 25 A. He brought up some stuff about Dean, but I mean, I don't

1 recall our exact conversation.

2 Q. Sure.

3 A. He vented a lot. I just listened. I didn't process it,
4 but I just listened.

03:29 5 Q. Okay. Understood. But we have established that this is 6 your phone on the document that I showed you?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And when you were at of these events with Mr. Furman, did
9 you ever hear him tell investors at any of these events any 03:29 10 information about like the owner or any manager or owner at 11 Par Funding being a convicted felon? Like was that part of the 12 pitch?

13 A. No, not that I heard. But again, after I checked people
14 in, I didn't stay and listen to the entire --

03:29 15 Q. Sure, I understand. And did you -- so let me ask you about 16 what you heard. And understanding maybe you didn't hear
17 anything. But did you ever hear him -- well, actually, you
18 know what, I'm going to ask you about one other thing and then
19 we'll wrap it up.

03:30 20 A. Okay.

21 Q. Millen Livis, that's someone that you sent messages to 22 sometimes? She was an investor?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And did you try to explain the investment to her, the 03:30 25 Par Funding investment that she was in?

1 A. I wouldn't explain anything like that to clients. That
2 would be Michael's job. I mean, if she had a specific question
3 about something, you know, I may have answered it, but I mean,
4 unless you give me specifics, I can't tell you.

03:30 5 Q. Sure. Sure.

6 A. It was not my job to tell clients about investments.

7 Q. Well, would Mr. Furman sometimes send you messages to 8 forward onto investors?

9 A. Yes. He would instruct me to do -- you know, send an 03:31 10 e-mail or make a phone call to clients.

11 Q. And by the way, when he was -- when you were asked in 12 direct about that chart and whether you sent it out to people,
13 like a chart that you would forward on to investors; do you
14 remember that?

03:31 15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Were you sending that to people after they had already 17 invested?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay.

03:31 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. After they had already given their money to Mr. Furman?

22 A. Yes.

23 MS. BERLIN: Can I get access to the ELMO to show one
24 document? Thank you.

25 BY MS. BERLIN:

1 Q. All right. I'm going to show you --

2 MS. BERLIN: This is only for the witness. Sorry
3 about that noise.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:32 5 Q. And do you recognize this is a document that you were on 6 with Mr. Furman and Ms. Livis?

7 A. Yes, I was copied on that.

8 Q. And sometimes Ms. Livis would also contact you with 9 questions about her account?

03:32 10 A. No. I didn't talk to any clients about their accounts. As 11 far as, you know, general questions I answer, but anything else
12 goes to Mr. Furman.

13 Q. Oh, okay. So when you were talking about investors earlier 14 and just like your personal impressions of them, were those 03:33 15 impressions gained during meetings that Mr. Furman had with the 16 individuals where he was talking about their investments?

17 A. I'm sorry, repeat -- I don't understand --

18 Q. Did you attend the meetings -- like, if Mr. Furman met with 19 one of his clients, would you sit in on those?

03:33 20 A. I never sat in on meetings.

21 Q. Okay. So you don't when they got information, they were --
22 what their demeanor was like that day?

23 A. I mean, I saw them when they came in and when they came 24 out. Everyone was always happy.

03:33 25 Q. Okay. But you would agree with me -- I mean, would

1 Mr. Furman take money from someone if he thought they had a
2 mental incapacity?

3 MR. JOHN: Objection, speculation.

4 THE COURT: Overruled.

03:33 5 You may answer, if you know.

6 A. Again, without me sitting in, I can't answer that question.

7 BY MS. BERLIN:

8 Q. Well, it's pretty clear. If you had a client who came in 9 and you all thought that the person was confused and didn't 03:34 10 know what was going on, would you and Mr. Furman have still 11 taken that person's money?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Okay. So fair to say if you took their money, you thought
14 they were competent mentally?

03:34 15 A. Yes. I didn't take anyone's money, for the record.

16 Q. Do you also go by the name Kristina?

17 A. That's my legal name, yes.

18 Q. And so you're not a registered securities professional,
19 correct?

03:34 20 A. I have my -- no.

21 Q. No, right?

22 A. No.

23 Q. You're not a registered broker?

24 A. No.

03:34 25 Q. Mr. Furman pays you commissions on the solicitation

1 efforts?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Really?

4 A. Straight hourly salary.

03:34 5 Q. Okay.

6 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, can I show something just to
7 the witness.

8 THE COURT: Sure, you may approach. Show it to the 9 witness.

03:34 10 Make sure no screens are on.

11 MS. BERLIN: It's only for the witness.

12 BY MS. BERLIN:

13 Q. Is that your name?

14 A. That is my name.

03:35 15 Q. And that's Michael Furman at the top?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. And you see the commission column?

18 A. Yes, I do. That is -- that's my personal investment that I
19 invested with Michael Furman. That is not a commission that I

03:35 20 got. That's my personal annuity.

21 Q. And you see the carrier?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And who that person?

24 A. I have no idea who that person is.

03:35 25 Q. And so the document says "commissions," but it's wrong?

1 A. No. It's -- if you look at it, the date was March 20th,
2 2019. It's prior to me working for Mr. Furman. I didn't work
3 with him until July.

4 Q. I know.

03:36 5 A. So that's my personal investment. So I'd appreciate it not 6 being broadcast.

7 Q. No, it wasn't broadcast.

8 THE COURT: Don't worry, it wasn't in front of any 9 jurors.

03:36 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. Only to you. And we won't -- we won't broadcast it to dig
12 into that further where it shows you had a commission.

13 MR. JOHN: Objection, mischaracterization of the 14 evidence.

03:36 15 THE COURT: Let's move on from this.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. Before you worked for Mr. Furman, you were his client?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And --

03:36 20 A. Well, one investment.

21 Q. Okay. Got it.

22 And while you were working for him, did you turn down
23 another job that was going to pay you the highest in the 24 industry plus stock options, because you really loved working
03:36 25 with Mr. Furman?

1 A. No.

2 MS. BERLIN: Can I show the witness a document,
3 please?

4 THE COURT: Show her a document.

03:37 5 A. Oh, okay. That is --

6 BY MS. BERLIN:

7 Q. Wait, wait.

8 A. Go ahead.

9 THE COURT: It's okay. No, no, just to refresh your 03:37 10 recollection.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Do you want to look at it first?

13 MS. BERLIN: We don't have to introduce it.

14 THE COURT: No, we won't introduce it. Just to 03:37 15 refresh her recollection.

16 MS. BERLIN: Can I take it down now?

17 A. That's somebody who works Primerica who has been trying to 18 get me for 15 years. I don't know anything about higher stock
19 options.

03:37 20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. I get it.

22 So someone offered you a job to run and trade other
23 agents and run their offices and pay you the highest in the 24 industry and stock options, and you said, thanks, however, I
03:37 25 really love my boss, and you wanted to stay with Mr. Furman?

1 A. No. I'd like to see that text again, because I don't
2 believe it said all of that.

3 Q. Sure. Yeah, sure.

4 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, should we just introduce it
03:38 5 at this point?

6 THE COURT: I would prefer not to. I don't think we 7 need to have her business out there.

8 MS. BERLIN: I agree.

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:38 10 Q. You can read it. I can bring you a copy, too, if you'd 11 rather.

12 A. Okay. No. You're right. It does say that. But like I
13 said, this guy has been trying to get me to work for him for 15
14 years. I have no interest in working for him. I responded
03:38 15 back, I like my boss.

16 Q. Okay. And you still work with Mr. Furman?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Oh, you don't work. Where do you work now?

19 A. I work for a surveying company. I'm head of HR.

03:38 20 MS. BERLIN: I don't think I have any further
21 questions. No. Thank you so much. And don't worry, the 22 document, only you and I could see it. Yeah, I didn't 23 broadcast it at all.

24 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

03:38 25 MS. BERLIN: Of course.

1 THE COURT: Redirect?

2 MR. JOHN: Yes, Your Honor.

3

4 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

03:38 5 BY MR. JOHN:

6 Q. Ms. Groleau, the government just showed you a document
7 related a personal investment. Do you recall that?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. It was your personal investment, right?

03:39 10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Is it possible that the commission the government was 12 pointing to was the commission paid to Fidelis?

13 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, that document is not in
14 evidence.

03:39 15 THE COURT: It's all right. I'm going to allow him to 16 ask questions. It's overruled.

17 BY MR. JOHN:

18 Q. Let me ask that question again.

19 Is it possible that the commission the government was 03:39 20 talking about was the commission paid to Fidelis based on your 21 personal investment?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. That was not a commission paid to you, correct?

24 A. No.

03:39 25 Q. I want to ask you a question. You were asked about the

1 events -- the dinner events held by Fidelis. Do you recall
2 that during your cross-examination?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. During the portion that you were able to hear, did
03:39 5 Mr. Furman explain multiple products available at Fidelis?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What was your understanding of the primary services
8 provided by United Fidelis Group?

9 A. Well, he was a full service financial firm. So any type of 03:40 10 investment or, you know, like I said, life insurance,
11 annuities, private equity funds, just everything he had to 12 offer depending on how the client and, you know, what they were 13 available to invest in or what they wanted, what they were 14 looking for.

03:40 15 Q. Did you find that Mr. Furman did a lot of business in 16 insurance through Fidelis, United Fidelis Group?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Taking an example of a -- going back to Mr. Nash, do you
19 recall the investor Mr. Nash?

03:40 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Do you know whether or not Mr. Nash had more than one
22 product or investment with United Fidelis Group?

23 MS. BERLIN: This wasn't addressed on cross.

24 THE COURT: I'll allow it. Overruled.

03:40 25 BY MR. JOHN:

1 Q. Let me ask that question again.

2 Do you know whether Mr. Nash had more than one product
3 or investment through United Fidelis Group?

4 A. Yes. He had a few.

03:40 5 Q. What about Mr. Barth, do you recall the investor Mr. Barth
6 that we discussed on direct and cross-examination?

7 A. Yes, I do. Same question?

8 Q. Yeah. Do you know whether Mr. Barth had more than one
9 investment or product through United Fidelis Group?

03:41 10 A. That I -- I'm sorry. I don't remember.

11 Q. You were asked regarding the contact that you had with 12 clients and potential clients on cross-examination.

13 Do you remember that?

14 A. Yes.

03:41 15 Q. You didn't sit in on the meetings that those clients or 16 potential clients may have had with Mr. Furman, correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. But did you still interact with them when they came into 19 the office?

03:41 20 A. Oh, yes.

21 Q. Were there some clients that you knew better than others?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And is it true you would have phone contact repeatedly with 24 certain clients?

03:41 25 A. Yes.

1 MR. JOHN: Brief moment, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 BY MR. JOHN:

4 Q. Ms. Groleau, are you familiar with a company called 03:41 5 JD Mellberg?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. How are you familiar with that company?

8 A. That would be the company that we -- or Michael would go
9 get leads from for insurance purpose stuff, like life
03:42 10 insurance, annuities, stuff like that.

11 Q. When you were there, did JD Mellberg, in your opinion,
12 generate a lot of business for United Fidelis Group?

13 A. Yeah.

14 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor.

03:42 15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 BY MR. JOHN:

17 Q. Let me ask that question one more time.

18 When you were there, in your opinion, did JD Mellberg
19 generate a lot of business for the United Fidelis Group?

03:42 20 A. I would say probably at least half of it.

21 Q. And was most of that business or a great amount of that 22 business insurance?

23 A. Yes.

24 MR. JOHN: Brief moment, Your Honor.

03:42 25 THE COURT: Yep.

1 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, we have no more questions about
2 this witness.

3 THE COURT: Any more questions for the witness before
4 I let her go? No.

03:42 5 Thank you, folks.

6 You are excused, ma'am. Thank you very much.

7 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: As she's exiting, ladies and gentlemen of 9 the jury, let me go ahead and give you guys a brief five-minute
03:43 10 break. If you'll leave your notepads on your chairs so I can 11 talk about scheduling with the lawyers. We will bring you in 12 momentarily. Please go ahead and take this break at this time.
13 We'll see you in a little bit. You're excused.

14 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

03:43 15 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Just so I can 16 take a look here at what we have got to go, we moved for those 17 witnesses fairly quickly. So we have plenty of time left.
18 It's only about 3:45. I don't know if the move now would be to 19 probably recall Mr. Furman and allow the defense to put on 03:43 20 their cross/direct unless the defendant has someone in 21 particular you want to call in your case that's easier or on 22 standby. Where do you guys stand right now on that?

23 MR. HYMAN: We'd just like to take a little bit of a
24 longer break to make sure that we have the cross/direct
03:44 25 documents in order. Instead of it being a five-minute break,

1 extend it to out to maybe 15 to 20 minutes.

2 THE COURT: You got 10 minutes. So in about 10
3 minutes we're going to put him on and you're going to get
4 started. You sat here for five hours. If you don't have the 03:44 5 direct now, five more minutes isn't going to make a difference.

6 All right. So let's go ahead and give everybody a
7 ten-minute break. The plan then really is just try to see if
8 we can finish Furman today. I expect that Furman's examination
9 by his defense team may take the remainder of the day. So I'll 03:44 10 probably bank on this as being a redirect with Mr. Furman in 11 the morning and then Furman is done.

12 That's what I think is going to happen, because I'm 13 going to give them space to move through what you asked and 14 what they want to ask. So if we can finish Furman, we have got 03:44 15 an hour and 45, an hour and a half. Let's see how far we can 16 get in that.

17 Then if we do that, just so we can plan ahead, if 18 tomorrow morning we're finishing with the redirect of 19 Mr. Furman, then tomorrow afternoon or really maybe
03:45 20 mid-morning, but let's say it takes the morning, tomorrow
21 afternoon I want the defense team to be ready because we 22 should, in my view, be able to finish off whoever you have 23 left.

24 If that's Christine Furman and Erik Weingold, which 03:45 25 probably are the only two witnesses you have left, I don't see

1 a situation where we aren't having our charge conference
2 Wednesday morning and the jurors come to close Wednesday
3 afternoon. I think that's probably what it's looking like
4 right now. I'm not going to jam it all in, because I think
03:45 5 quite honestly, unless we have narrowed the issues down a lot
6 and we find ourselves tomorrow finishing early enough to be 7 able to do closings in the morning, then I'd have it in the 8 afternoon, I can't right now tell you how long it's going to go
9 and how long it will take us to debate our charging
03:46 10 instructions.

11 It may not take that much time at all, but it may make 12 the most sense if everybody comes in and does closings on 13 Wednesday afternoon just to space it out a little bit. So
14 that's where I'm at. So this will keep us right on schedule.
03:46 15 All right. So let me go ahead and give everybody a five or ten 16 more minutes here. We'll come back just before 4 o'clock and 17 turn it over to the defense for Mr. Furman. Okay? We're in 18 recess.

19 (Thereupon, a brief recess was taken.)

04:03 20 THE COURT: All our jurors are present and accounted 21 for.

22 If you would, Rita, please. Let's round them up.

23 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

24 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Okay. Ladies
04:04 25 and gentlemen of the jury, here's the plan. Do you remember

1 that we took a little break and took things out of sequence?
2 So what I'm going to do now is, we're going to bring
3 Michael Furman back to the stand so that his counsel can do his
4 cross-examination/really direct examination.

04:04 5 As you guys know, Mr. Furman is a witness for both the 6 SEC and also for the defense. So in order to save time, so
7 that we don't have a situation where we're calling him twice,
8 I've given a lot of latitude to both sides to just be able to 9 question him and what they need to cover when they get their 04:05 10 chance. So you're going to see not only questions related to 11 cross-examination, but I'm going to give Mr. Hyman some 12 bandwidth to go into issues that maybe were not covered in 13 Ms. Berlin's general questioning.

14 Our plan is to try to see if this will be the end of 04:05 15 the day today, meaning let defense counsel finish his 16 examination of Mr. Furman. And then what will happen is,
17 tomorrow morning our plan is to finish with Mr. Furman when the 18 SEC gets up and it's redirect. Okay. That's the way we're 19 going to put together. Okay? Everybody understand?

04:05 20 And what that does also, so everyone knows, it puts us
21 right on pace. I've had to speak with the lawyers a couple of 22 times today. Our expectation, fingers crossed, is we will 23 complete hearing from witnesses tomorrow.

24 That means that once both sides have rested their 04:06 25 cases, that I could get us to closing arguments and

1 instructions on the law by Wednesday. So my hope is that by
2 the end of the day Wednesday you begin deliberating. That's 3 our current timeline. All right? So we'll see if we can get 4 to that.

04:06 5 So with that being said, Mr. Furman, if you want to go
6 ahead and take the stand.

7 And, ladies and gentlemen of the jury, he's still
8 under oath, as he was from last Friday. Okay?

9 And once he's situated, Defense Counsel, you're free
04:06 10 to begin your questioning.

11 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, may I be given a little leeway
12 between the ELMO and the computer?

13 THE COURT: Yeah. You mean -- what do you mean,
14 behind the desk?

04:06 15 MR. HYMAN: Behind the desk and then I'll probably be 16 getting up and moving around.

17 THE COURT: That's fine. Absolutely. Not a problem.
18 Thereupon,

19 MICHAEL FURMAN,
20 having been previously duly sworn, testified as follows:

21

22 CROSS EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. HYMAN:

24 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Furman.

04:06 25 A. Good afternoon.

1 Q. So I guess the first question I've been dying to ask you
2 is, who between Mr. Robinson and I is better dressed?

3 A. I have to give this one to Mr. Robinson, as much as I love
4 your attire.

04:07 5 Q. So you recall earlier, your direct examination started with 6 a series of questions about counsel and your request for
7 admissions.

8 Do you remember that?

9 A. Yes.

04:07 10 Q. How did you meet your attorney?

11 A. My -- in this case?

12 Q. The first attorney you had?

13 A. My original attorney, I was referred to from, what I was 14 told was the SEC, but I believe it was the receiver in my 04:07 15 office the day that this happened.

16 Q. And so speaking of what happened that day, you were asked a
17 lot of questions about what happened with the FBI, weren't you?

18 A. Today? Yes.

19 Q. Isn't it true they didn't read you your Miranda Rights or 04:07 20 anything before questioning you?

21 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, objection.

22 THE COURT: That's sustained. That's sustained.

23 You will disregard any methodology regarding the 24 investigation. This is not a criminal matter, folks, so that's 04:07 25 not going to be an issue here.

1 Go ahead.

2 BY MR. HYMAN:

3 Q. Were they armed at the time?

4 A. Yes.

04:08 5 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, same objection.

6 MR. HYMAN: Well, Your Honor --

7 THE COURT: That's going to be sustained.

8 MR. HYMAN: May we have a brief sidebar?

9 THE COURT: No. I know where you're going and it's 04:08 10 not an appropriate line of questioning. This is not an issue
11 where he's waived his rights involuntarily through the FBI's
12 pressuring. It's not an issue in the case. If you want to get 13 into the fact that he was unaware of exactly what was going on 14 with these submissions and his prior counsel gave him advice,
04:08 15 that's one thing. But allowing the FBI investigation at issue,
16 that has been addressed in motion in limine, we will not 17 discuss it. Move on.

18 MR. HYMAN: Okay.

19 BY MR. HYMAN:

04:08 20 Q. You were asked a lot of questions about statements you made
21 to them, correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And you don't really have a good recollection of what 24 happened, do you?

04:08 25 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, objection, leading.

1 THE COURT: That's overruled. He's going to be given
2 a chance to lead because it's a hybrid examination. That's 3 overruled.

4 Go ahead.

04:08 5 A. The day when this all happened, no. They stormed into my 6 office. Yes, they were FBI. I did not know they were coming.
7 Nothing was happening. I was actually with a client. And as 8 you can assume, you're going to be very extremely nervous.

9 I didn't know what was going on. Never heard anything
04:09 10 remotely possible about this. There was no phone calls or -- 11 scheduled ahead. And yes, they ushered me into what was --
12 again, I was in a shared space I rented from an attorney office
13 in that older building that I was at near the mall, and they 14 proceeded to badger me with questions -- ask me questions for 04:09 15 hours, until I basically -- I have a very bad panic attack 16 syndrome, they got tired of me not really being able to 17 breathe, and said that I had to go speak with the SEC, who was 18 still in my office. And they were -- Kristin was there helping 19 them with the files.

04:09 20 And that's where -- that was basically it. But it was 21 all day. I mean, yeah. I was so nervous I couldn't remember
22 exact verbatim. I remember some of the -- in my opinion,
23 outrageous claims or different questions that they might have 24 brought up that I'll never forget. But other than general
04:09 25 knowledge of what that day was about, which I'll never forget,

1 but no, the specifics, no. I didn't -- don't remember that.

2 BY MR. HYMAN:

3 Q. And you've heard testimony. Did you ever receive a
4 finder's fee with Par Funding?

04:10 5 A. No, I never had a finder's agreement with Par Funding at 6 all.

7 Q. Did you ever execute a finder's agreement with the ABFP
8 fund?

9 A. No.

04:10 10 Q. And with respect to -- did the ABFP fund ever pay you
11 commissions?

12 A. No, I didn't work with ABFP. Like I said, I was setting up
13 my fund.

14 Q. Did Par Funding ever pay you commissions?

04:10 15 A. No.

16 Q. Do you recall in 2017 you -- November 2017, you're invited
17 to an event by Mr. Vagnozzi. Do you recall that testimony?

18 A. Yeah. That was the original recruiting event.

19 Q. And was the event focused predominantly on Par Funding or 04:10 20 was it focused more so on other investments at that time?

21 A. No, it was primarily -- it was through the insurance -- I
22 think it was called Insurance News Net, I believe, Magazine,
23 which is for us insurance advisors and --

24 THE REPORTER: Can you slow down a little, please.

04:10 25 A. It was primarily for insurance, and I believe four other

1 investments. Alternative investments is what it was called.
2 It was to sell his life insurance. He wrote a book. Whether
3 he wrote actually every word, I can't speak. But it was a nice
4 bound book, which I did wind up using in my office because I
04:11 5 thought it explained the value of life insurance very good.
6 And it didn't really sell his company, which is one reason I
7 agreed to use it. And I paid for those books.

8 And a few other -- it was life Settlements, it was 9 Par Funding or merchant cash advance. We learned the name of 04:11 10 the company when we were there. And Litigation Funding, which 11 was, I guess, for attorneys that are car accidents and to get 12 them victims' money right away.

13 And then the Life Settlements, which was, I believe,
14 something he did for a long time, which was buying and selling
04:11 15 life insurance policies. You'll see it on commercials and 16 things, if you're older and don't need your life insurance
17 anymore, you can buy it and I guess invest it (inaud).

18 BY MR. HYMAN:

19 Q. And was there any sort of training with respect to how to 04:11 20 sell anything there?

21 A. I mean, it was an overall -- it was all a bunch of 22 advisors. I think we were in a big hotel auditorium, probably 23 bigger than this. They had different speakers, Mr. Pauciulo,
24 Dean's attorney was there. There was investors there.

04:12 25 I can't honestly remember if Perry was actually there

1 and we did a site visit to Par Funding, because it was in the
2 middle of Philadelphia, Center City Philadelphia, I guess you
3 call it, and somebody from the Litigation Funding, and he had
4 an individual that was a reseller of the Life Settlement funds,
04:12 5 or Life Settlement policies, I guess you could say.

6 So he had a representative from each fund, and he had 7 a Kansas City Life Insurance, I believe was the name of the 8 company and had a broker, an IMO or something from there.

9 Q. And Mr. Pauciulo -- do you recall your state of mind upon 04:12 10 hearing him talk about due diligence conducted?

11 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'm going to object to the
12 question.

13 THE COURT: Yeah, that's going to be sustained.

14 BY MR. HYMAN:

04:13 15 Q. Did Mr. Pauciulo discuss any of the issues with respect to 16 Par Funding there?

17 MS. BERLIN: Objection, hearsay, not his lawyer.

18 THE COURT: Sustained.

19 MR. HYMAN: Well --

04:13 20 THE COURT: Sustained.

21 BY MR. HYMAN:

22 Q. Did you have a belief as to due diligence that had been
23 conducted as to Par Funding?

24 A. Yes. During the presentation, which was put on both with 04:13 25 the -- like a screen, you know, projector with a large TV, and

1 then talking -- they played a video. Mr. Pauciulo spoke for
2 quite a while about the due diligence that was paid for by --

3 MS. BERLIN: Objection, hearsay.

4 THE COURT: Again, we will disregard. That wasn't the 04:13 5 question. The question was generally, did you have an
6 understanding or knowledge? That was fine.

7 You will disregard, ladies and gentlemen of the jury,
8 any statements made outside of court by other individuals.

9 Go ahead.

04:13 10 BY MR. HYMAN:

11 Q. Okay. And so there's representations about due diligence
12 that had been --

13 A. Consistently, yes.

14 Q. And at a certain point, did you do a walk through
04:14 15 Par Funding?

16 A. Yes. We -- I don't believe we -- I don't think we drove.
17 We might have Ubered. However we got there, it wasn't very 18 far. And we walked into, I believe it's -- if you've never 19 been to Philadelphia or city, there were two buildings --
04:14 20 they're right next to each other, but you did have to walk in 21 and out to get to one or the other. It was a three- or 22 four-story building on the left, which was the main -- how we 23 call that the sales building. That was where -- like I said in 24 earlier testimony, they took us through there. Again, this was 04:14 25 a large group of 30 or 40, whatever many of us were there.

1 We were trying to be quiet, but they were trying to
2 show that there was a floor that I was told was underwriting.
3 They were showing the sales. It was a lot of people there
4 working, and -- and I distinctly remember the second building,
04:14 5 which was to the right, we had to enter and exit, that was 6 their executive building. That's where Mr. Cole or any of the 7 CFO, et cetera, attorneys were even in the building.

8 So it was quite distinguished that if you were on that 9 side, you were more executive, and sales and underwriting and 04:15 10 the phones -- I don't want to say it was cold calling or call
11 room, but there was -- you know, everybody was on headsets and 12 working constantly. So they were not dressed in suits and the 13 other side would have been of the suits and you had to be 14 quiet, so -- again, we didn't spend much time there. We walked 04:15 15 through, got to meet a couple of people. They asked if I met
16 certain individuals. Didn't really take names or get cards.

17 Again, we were working through there, other than 18 Perry. We had a dinner that was set up. I believe it was next
19 door to that, right on that street we all walked to. I did not
04:15 20 stay for that dinner. I know that I would have learned
21 probably a little bit more. It was just my flight -- I don't
22 remember whether it was that night or early the next morning,
23 but I did not stay for that dinner, so I didn't hang out with 24 everybody as much as the entire crowd did, to be honest with 04:15 25 you.

1 Q. And how would you describe Par Funding's office? Was it
2 nice or was it under construction?

3 A. It was very nice. I mean, it was a city building, it was 4 packed with people. There was -- and the second time I was 04:15 5 there was another recruiting event, or second one, and it was
6 even busier. There were more people there, but -- it was a
7 very well -- I mean, they were a growing company, so I'm sure
8 they were moving in more people and more desks. But there was 9 a lot of cubicles. A couple of stories, like I said.

04:16 10 Q. Esthetically it wasn't kind of just some run down --

11 A. Oh, no. This is a -- I would be very proud. That's why
12 when they said, if you have any investors that you would like,
13 you know, have come there to meet with Perry or to see it in 14 person, and that's where the transparency really came from. I
04:16 15 can tell you, being in that business for 18 years you're --

16 Their business wasn't selling to investors for me or 17 helping my investors, but you're not going to get an investment
18 into a senior living or any of my other investments where 19 they're going to welcome you over there because one, that's not 04:16 20 their job. They're going to be in the way over there.

21 But you couldn't show up there unannounced. I only 22 had to speak with Perry. That was the only person that I was 23 really dealing with at Par Funding. So no, it was not in my 24 area. I'm in Florida, I'm in West Palm Beach.

04:17 25 I didn't have any clients in Pennsylvania, New Jersey

1 area. So unfortunately, I don't think I had anybody that
2 visited because nor me nor anybody was going to pay for a
3 flight, but I made it available to everybody, yes. I made it
4 well known.

04:17 5 Q. Would you describe it as nicer than your office?

6 A. Yes. My office is old and run down in the sense that it's
7 an older building. And I rented it from an attorney. I
8 thought it was nice, mostly glass windows. But it was a real
9 estate attorney firm, and I had a corner office that they 04:17 10 didn't really use.

11 Because again, they had - it was a five-story building
12 and I had the top floor. They had the top floor. It was a 13 shared assistant when you got off the elevator. We were in the 14 very corner, and it was just one office. And that was my 04:17 15 office. And my assistant had a little cubicle on the outside.
16 That was really it.

17 Q. And did you have any displays stating that you were a CPA
18 there?

19 A. No. There was -- it's definitely not a penthouse office
04:17 20 and definitely no -- again, it's windows for over 50 percent of 21 the office. There are some old insurance policies from 22 Prudential, which is where I started from.

23 And my mother is very much into hereditary or ancestry
24 or home line, and so we have some old family Prudential
25 policies from the 1800s. And yes, we have my business license

1 that I have to by law, I think, for Palm Beach County, and my
2 insurance license and my degrees from university are on the 3 wall. But those would be behind them. But yes. And I had the 4 TV on the wall.

04:18 5 Q. And you went to Northwood University? That's in Palm Beach
6 County too?

7 A. Yes, correct. I went to the Palm Beach campus. There used
8 to be a Palm Beach campus, the Michigan -- the Palm Beach
9 campus is no longer. They sold that campus. So it's just 04:18 10 Michigan now.

11 Q. And do you recall the series of questions concerning the 12 educational seminars that you had?

13 A. Yeah, yeah.

14 Q. During those seminars, did you ever sign up any clients?

04:18 15 A. No. It was in the sales meeting. I didn't have any 16 paperwork when I was there. It was literally me talking from 17 my mic. I had the -- not Excel -- PowerPoint going and it was 18 pretty much I would have -- again, I didn't live and die by 19 those seminars, but it was something that I started, a few of 04:19 20 them lunch and dinner.

21 And they were predominantly to show that yes, I was 22 looking for annuity and insurance. They covered a variety of 23 other alternative investments that I was involved in. And I
24 tried to have one or two speakers, usually two. I think at 04:19 25 minimal it was two.

1 If it was Par Funding, it was Perry. And I usually
2 had my tax group that I referred business to, to go over taxes,
3 and myself. That was the most of anything. If not, I did some 4 events from my other funds where a real estate professional 04:19 5 from the real estate fund or the senior living because they put 6 on their own events, and I was really the advisor that was part
7 of their events as well.

8 Q. And with respect, do you remember the brochure that
9 Ms. Berlin handed you before?

04:19 10 A. Can you be specific which one? She tried to bring up a 11 few.

12 Q. The one that was in the folder with your card in it?

13 A. Yes, yes.

14 Q. Did you prepare that?

04:20 15 A. One of my assistants would have. That would have been very 16 early on because I had very nice brochures -- or folders that 17 were prepared with United Fidelis Group and paid for those.
18 And I'm more proud of that than the one she had, but that would
19 have been the very beginning when I came back from -- the one I
04:20 20 had or one of the very few that I had from them. But yes, they 21 sent a box -- Or Perry brought a box, should I say, for one
22 event.

23 Q. So you did didn't actually prepare those brochures. They 24 were sent to you by Perry Abbonizio?

04:20 25 A. Oh, no. I didn't have any input on your brochures. That's

1 what they provided to us as fund managers. He's going to speak
2 at the event. I'm going to try to give them as much
3 information as I can possibly give them.

04:20 4 Q. Did you have -- how many discussions or how often did you
5 discuss the substance of those brochures with Mr. Abbonizio?

6 A. Well, I mean, in the beginning, specifically we went
7 over -- that was his job, to teach fund managers about
8 Par Funding and to go over specifically the brochures broad. I
9 don't know anybody that takes a brochure and looks at that as a
04:21 10 contract or a contractual obligation, just like they had many 11 versions of that brochure.

12 Specifically the colorful one that was brought up a
13 few times here, I know that my files, even though I don't have 14 them, they are one hundred percent there was a version of it in 04:21 15 the beginning, did not have anything about the -- they didn't 16 have any insurance to their merchants in the beginning. So
17 that page wasn't there.

18 I know they changed how many millions of dollars they 19 did. It was alike 4 hundred million and went to 8 hundred 04:21 20 million or something, just like the examples that were in 21 there. There were -- a couple of the factor rates were changed
22 in there, but again, it wasn't a specific brochure, any 23 numbers. When it said general management, they never had a bio
24 for anybody in there.

04:21 25 But the insurance, when they added that, same with the

1 onsite inspections, that was something that they started to add
2 value to add to their business. They never took that as a --
3 they never said they did it on every single merchant, and even
4 in the brochure --

04:22 5 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, objection, hearsay.

6 THE COURT: That's going to be sustained. Let's --
7 again, statements out of court. Let's get a question pending.
8 This is narrative.

9 BY MR. HYMAN:

04:22 10 Q. Did you discuss the substance of those materials with 11 Mr. Abbonizio without telling us what he said to you?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And did Mr. Abbonizio give you any reason to question the 14 veracity or accuracy of those statements?

04:22 15 A. Absolutely not. I mean, throughout the time that I was 16 involved before this case, although this has been engulfed in 17 my entire life for the last two years let's call it, I had 18 really no reason to doubt anybody at Par Funding in any way.
19 They never represented or misrepresented that I had learned
04:22 20 about and had no reason to.

21 They always held by their investors. My investors
22 made their money, they got paid on time, they showed up for the 23 meetings. Perry showed up for the meetings. He always was 24 there when I needed for the calls, and they did right by a lot
04:22 25 of my clients, specifically by me, my fund. They didn't meet

1 any of my specific clients.

2 Specifically, even Corona, we were locked in our
3 homes. I got a call and a specific call from Perry that he
4 asked about any of my clients, did I have any clients over the 04:23 5 age of 80. And they returned principal, part principal to my 6 clients over age 80. That was started by them.

7 BY MR. HYMAN:

8 Q. We'll keep going. And how often did you speak with 9 Mr. Abbonizio?

04:23 10 A. It varied. Like I said, in the beginning, I didn't know
11 him anymore than he was the head of investor relations. And 12 that was the only person we were allowed to talk to. But when 13 we started with this program, we signed up, I started my fund,
14 I found the attorney and started that process.

04:23 15 You know, when I flew up the recruiting event, it was 16 Dean Vagnozzi in that company, but once you got involved, it
17 was - they had a manager, Mike Tierney. He was in charge of 18 all of us. There was 20 or 30 or 40 -- I don't know how many 19 independent advisors around the country.

04:23 20 I wasn't involved in any of them I talked to Mark
21 Nardelli which was by chance. I wound up sitting next to him
22 at the event in November, and then I think we went back in 23 January or whatever the next event was, or next year.

24 But I had no reason to really doubt them, but it was
04:24 25 something that as we went on, I got to speak and have more

1 questions with Perry. And again, I tried to line up a couple
2 of investors in the beginning that were interested in that fit
3 their financial plan.

04:24 4 Q. Got it. And so let's touch base with a little bit on 5 Mr. Nardelli.

6 Who is Mr. Nardelli?

7 A. Mark Nardelli, he's an insurance agent advisor in North
8 Carolina. Again, I met him at the advisor event up in 9 Philadelphia.

04:24 10 Q. Do you know whether Mr. Nardelli conducted due diligence
11 with respect to Par Funding?

12 A. I know that me and him were the ying and the yang in the 13 sense that we always bounced ideas in as much as we could off
14 of each other. I know that he had retained Mr. Pauciulo as his 04:24 15 attorney.

16 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, relevance.

17 THE COURT: All right. It's overruled.

18 A. We just shared ideas, and I know he tried to research as 19 much as they could.

04:25 20 THE COURT: Let's move on.

21 BY MR. HYMAN:

22 Q. And isn't it true that Mr. Nardelli was given the same set
23 of investor pamphlets or information as you?

24 A. Very similar, yeah. We were at the same event. I know
04:25 25 that he worked closer with him because he used the same

1 attorney. But so he has a little bit different access maybe
2 afterwards than I did, and that's one reason why me and him
3 struck an accord, because I had maybe a little outside than he
4 did. So I utilized that.

04:25 5 Q. Did Mr. Nardelli ever tell you issues with respect to
6 Par Funding?

7 MS. BERLIN: Objection, hearsay.

8 THE COURT: Sustained.

9 BY MR. HYMAN:

04:25 10 Q. Earlier you testified about seeing the Bloomberg article
11 that Ms. Berlin posted or showed you?

12 A. Briefly. Yes, that was again Mark Nardelli middle of -- I
13 don't remember when, I think it was that established in '18 or 14 '19 that he had heard or somebody had told him about that and 15 sent it to me.

16 Again, I did not pay for it. So you can only -- if 17 you ever looked on Instagram -- just like I don't have Wall
18 Street Journal. I don't pay for the actual publication. You
19 can see in the beginning or it asks you for your credit card
04:26 20 information. So we read and just like he did, we both called 21 Dean and Perry and got the explanation behind that.

22 Q. And what was the explanation you were given?

23 A. Well, again, they never represented that a Joseph LaForte
24 or Joe Mack was an owner of Par Funding. So first of all, he 04:26 25 was an employee there and had worked there. He was one of many

1 people we met that day. He was in the sales building or
2 underwriting building. I thought he was more underwriting
3 based on what I heard.

4 I didn't know it was a woman-owned business. They 04:26 5 would not give out, other than I heard a very large family that 6 invested a lot of money and did due diligence, additional due
7 diligence. That was not -- I was not a part of but only told
8 but through Perry, was there, but they said that this gentleman
9 was one of the hardest working individuals there in 04:26 10 underwriting and that he basically was involved in some family 11 real estate fraud year over, a decade ago which -- and they 12 said it did not --

13 MS. BERLIN: Hearsay objection.

14 THE COURT: Overruled.

04:27 15 A. Again, I can only go by what they told me, and if we go to 16 a -- I don't know what the disclosures you need if you're a
17 public company in something 20 years ago.

18 THE COURT: That's it. There's not a question
19 pending. We need to -- if you have an answer, let's go.

04:27 20 BY MR. HYMAN:

21 Q. Do you recall Ms. Berlin showing you audited financials?

22 A. Yeah.

23 Q. Was that the only set of financials or documents that you
24 saw of Par Funding?

04:27 25 A. Well, the monthly spreadsheet was their main -- I mean,

1 after this case, I saw quite a lot, but other than that, which
2 Perry brought and we offered to every investor if they wanted
3 to sign a nondisclosure agreement, which I did offer it to 4 every client that came in and said they have audited
04:27 5 financials, not that I can read them to you.

6 And I didn't have a copy to give them, but if you
7 wanted to, I could put you in touch of their head of investor
8 relations and you'd have to sign an NDA and you can look at 9 them. That was one of many things that we discussed in every 04:28 10 single meeting, yes. The fact that they had audited financials
11 was important to me.

12 Because you have a lot of companies that are private 13 and they don't have any audited financials. You are -- then 14 you are literally going by somebody's Excel spreadsheet on that 15 company.

16 This is a company that did obviously hundred of 17 millions of dollars of business over time. But have a complete
18 audit, and yes, they bragged about the stature of the 19 accounting firm, which again, I think somebody quoted me here
04:28 20 of why they were number 12 in the country, or number 9.

21 I don't know how you quote that. But that is what I
22 was told, it's one of the accounting firms in the country. And 23 they also showed the amount of money that they would spend on 24 something like that, which I've learned in this case, and it's 04:28 25 exorbitant. But the legitimacy was just there.

1 Q. I understand that.

2 Now, we're talking a lot about these investor reports.

3 A. KEPI.

4 Q. Yes, sir.

04:28 5 Do you have an understanding as to how to read those 6 investor reports?

7 A. Based on what Perry told us, yes. As he went over that 8 in -- many times. That was usually what he went over in the 9 presentation.

04:29 10 Q. And what was the -- I believe it was the exposure rate?

11 A. Exposure rate was what they told to us is -- it's basically
12 the amount of their debt that was exposed that was bad. That 13 was going bad, whether it was in collections, whether it was 14 they were working on it, that their potential losses could be.
04:29 15 So if they lend out a hundred thousand dollars and their
16 exposure to that, in a sense of how much could go wrong, was 2
17 percent, then $2,000 might be already lost. They might be in 18 court over it. Again, that's not really for me to know. That 19 is really for them to be working on. And so whether that 04:29 20 was --

21 Q. (Cross-talk.) -- and then as it relates to the exposure
22 rate, did you have an understanding as to whether lawsuits were 23 an accurate determination as to the exposure that the company 24 had?

04:29 25 A. No, absolutely not. One, I would never know that -- I'm

1 involved in this case and I can barely find the paperwork for
2 this every day for the last two years. But I would not know to
3 search district or federal or state and what states, like I
4 said, to Google or to find those documents.

04:30 5 And also just because you lend out a hundred thousand
6 dollars and you were supposed to get $135,000, they could have
7 gotten $120,000 and still sue for the last $15,000. So a
8 lawsuit doesn't necessarily mean that they didn't get paid back
9 everything or -- and again, that's not for me to interpret, but 04:30 10 there's no way for me to know that, no, for any prospective
11 person, to be honest with you.

12 Q. So do you recall being questioned by Ms. Berlin about the 13 ABFP Management agreement?

14 A. Yes.

04:30 15 Q. Let me try to pull this.

16 And do you recall Ms. Berlin asking you about 17 questions on page 16 of the document?

18 A. I do. I can't really remember what 16 was, but yes.

19 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, would mind putting up what's 20 on the screen or giving me access to the screen, please?

21 THE COURT REPORTER: To the jury or just to the 22 witness?

23 THE COURT: Yes, jury or witness?

24 MR. HYMAN: It's already been introduced into 25 evidence.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 BY MR. HYMAN:

3 Q. So I'm showing you what's been marked previously as Exhibit
4 39.

04:31 5 Do you see this document?

6 A. Yes, I do now.

7 Q. And do you recall how Ms. Berlin had you read the first
8 part of subparagraph 2 of paragraph 16?

9 A. Yes.

04:31 10 Q. Could you please tell me what the second line of it right
11 where I'm highlighting also says?

12 A. Says: Company acknowledges that it will only raise assets
13 for Par Funding/CBSG through a management company using this 14 agreement.

04:31 15 Q. So does that mean that you're required to only raise funds
16 for Par Funding?

17 A. No, absolutely not. It actually meant because I had a
18 general merchant cash advance fund that if I were to raise 19 money for another company, that they would not be doing the 04:32 20 accounting for those, since I periodically did look at other
21 companies.

22 Q. And do you have an idea as to what other companies you
23 previously looked at in terms of merchant cash advance?

24 A. I know in preparation for this I looked -- I think I found
04:32 25 like 11 companies I, at one time or another looked at, from

1 (inaud.) Nick Raul (ph.), VeriFast (ph.), I looked at 2 everything from, you know, Kabbage and the larger companies,
3 but you can't really deal with that. But there was an AAI
4 company. There was -- that was one of the larger ones. That
04:32 5 was a national distribution. But it was really the back office
6 support, and the fact that they were audited and, you know, the 7 rates and terms for my clients. It was a one-year investment
8 versus a three-year, paid monthly versus annually or at the 9 back end, so it was really what fit for what I was looking for.

04:32 10 Q. And with respect to the promissory notes that Fidelis
11 executed with Par Funding, did the interest rate ever change?

12 A. In the sense that --

13 Q. If you invested more, Par Funding pay you more?

14 A. No. When you invest -- so if you invested a hundred 04:33 15 thousand dollars or even $50,000, let's say, and you would get 16 9 percent on that. And if you invested six months later and 17 you got $100,000, then you would get 10 percent on that 18 investment. So it didn't change based off of that.

19 Now, if you invested the total, then yes, you could 04:33 20 get into the next tier, but that was all structured ahead of 21 time. That was really not for me to choose, per se.

22 Q. And do you recall -- this is Exhibit 205?

23 A. Yeah, I remember this.

24 Q. You've been asked a lot of questions about this, haven't
04:33 25 you?

1 A. Yeah, there's quite a few of them in my file.

2 Q. Okay. Who prepared this document?

3 A. That would be -- well, it was first Michelle Price. It was 4 the CPAs over at ABFP Management. That's what their job was.

04:34 5 Now, I had a few different individuals. Mostly
6 Michelle, I know was the head of that, but there was another
7 woman that took over for me specifically. I know there was so
8 money fund managers that she couldn't handle all of them
9 herself. So there was different CPAs. But all of the 04:34 10 accountants, every month is who we dealt with for who's fund
11 and what the percentage was. We had to give them and provide 12 all of this information and then I had to go by and check it.
13 Because, honestly, that was one of the main reasons that I was 14 getting very, very frustrated with ABFP Management is because 04:34 15 there was little errors, and I was -- this is what I was paying 16 them for. So that's the reason why I actually -- one of the 17 many reasons that I eventually severed ties with them, to do
18 this myself. I had a different accounting firm do it.

19 Q. And with respect to the documents here, does this reflect
04:34 20 how much the investors were paid?

21 A. That one column, monthly. The investor interest payment
22 was what they got, correct.

23 Q. And does it reflect how much ABFP was paid?

24 A. The management was on the right, correct.

04:35 25 Q. And there is it says: Revenue after investor payment.

1 Do you see that?

2 A. Yes. You would have to actually subtract the ABFP
3 Management from that.

4 Q. Got it. So after you subtract that, would that reflect
04:35 5 much how much money you personally made?

6 A. Not personally, no. It was the gross revenue that was 7 there in the fund afterwards, as earned, again.

8 Q. And after you received the gross revenue, what did you do
9 with the money?

04:35 10 A. Well, most of that was used to pay staff support,
11 advertising, legal fees. Literally every expense that was 12 involved in this manner in helping these clients and to get
13 these clients and continue to keep these clients.

14 Q. Have you ever heard of the phrase "retained earnings"?

04:35 15 A. Yeah. Perry would use that quite often.

16 Q. Do you have an understanding as what that means?

17 A. From what I understood, it was money that they had invested
18 or they had earned through Par -- that they kept at Par. They 19 had the right to take it out at any time. And they said, Hey,
04:36 20 instead of me taking it out and getting paid a million dollars,
21 I'm going to leave the million dollars there and that will be 22 retained as his earnings in the company. And so that was 23 where, as he would explain to -- at our events, when he was 24 there, that he had millions and millions of dollars with other
04:36 25 owners.

1 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'm going to object. It's
2 hearsay. It's not relevant to our claims.

3 THE COURT: It's less about relevance. That's my 4 concern.

04:36 5 Let's move on from that. We already know that he
6 established what he understands it means.

7 A. I understood that to be his money that he invested in the 8 Par.

9 BY MR. HYMAN:

04:36 10 Q. But did you also maintain your own retained earnings in 11 Fidelis?

12 A. I earned interest as earned. Like I said, until I -- every 13 month I got paid with the investor. There was no commission up
14 front, there was no commission at all. It was interest that I
04:36 15 was earning, as with the client. And I explained that to every 16 client. They understood the entire process of how we -- how I
17 made my money, how they made their money and every party
18 involved.

19 Q. And you see here how there's been the list of all these 04:37 20 investors and the note dates on the side for them? Do you see 21 that here?

22 A. Yeah.

23 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, we're going to show him at 24 least 2207. It's an investor note.

04:37 25 A. 10-2207.

1 MR. HYMAN: I guess while we --

2 MS. BERLIN: Put it up.

3 THE COURT: Has this already been admitted?

4 MR. HYMAN: It has not.

04:37 5 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

6 BY MR. HYMAN:

7 Q. So showing you a document.

8 MS. BERLIN: It's hearsay, Your Honor. They should 9 have tried to get this in.

04:37 10 THE COURT: Right now he's not moving to admit it.
11 They just want to refresh their recollection with it. I don't
12 know.

13 BY MR. HYMAN:

14 Q. Well, are you familiar with the business practices of 04:38 15 Fidelis Financial?

16 A. Yes. This is part of the subscription agreement, the PPO.

17 Q. And are you familiar with how Fidelis maintains its 18 records?

19 A. Yes. We used the OneDrive predominantly, or physical, and 04:38 20 we sign documents and kept them in the filing cabinet --

21 Q. With respect to the documents and the promissory notes that 22 are issued to Fidelis, is it your regular policy to maintain
23 them in the books and records of Fidelis at or around the time
24 they're maintained or created?

04:38 25 A. Correct. Yes. We always kept a copy of these. I know

1 this was brought up earlier. It was part of a larger document.

2 So this is just part of it.

3 Q. So I'm showing you right now this document. It's a PPM or 4 Fidelis Financial Planning, LLC document. Do you see this 5 document, sir?

6 A. Yes. Subscription -- again, it's part of the PPM, and I
7 know the PPM was actually admitted earlier. But yes.

8 Q. And as we scroll down here, you'll see that there's --

9 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, this is -- I think we went 10 through this the other day, the laptop documents. I think 11 that's what this is.

12 THE COURT: My recollection is, this is -- part of 13 this was submitted, not --

14 A. Not this exact one, yes.

15 MS. BERLIN: Yes. Just the note on top was admitted.

16 THE COURT: Correct. The note on top was admitted.

17 Go ahead. I'm still listening.

18 BY MR. HYMAN:

19 Q. Let's see here. It's references Mr. Frank Nash?

20 A. Correct. See?

21 Q. And did Mr. Nash execute this document?

22 A. Yeah, looks to be his.

23 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, come on.

24 THE COURT: That's not going to establish him. No,
25 that's not going to happen. We're not going to be able to get

1 it in under any circumstances, that last page. So you've to
2 move on from that.

3 MR. HYMAN: Okay. We'll keep going through it.

4 So, first of all, Your Honor, at this moment I'd like
5 to try to move DE 227 in as a business record. He's laid the 6 predicate of it being a promissory note made at or near the 7 time. It being the ordinary course of Fidelis Financial to 8 keep and retain these documents.

9 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, do you
10 want to give me five minutes, if you would, please. Put your 11 notepads on your chairs. I don't want to get into too much of 12 an evidentiary issues with you presence, so I can try to figure
13 this out for you all. Okay. Just give us one moment.

14 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So let's address this.
16 We talked about this -- everyone can be seated. We talked
17 about this a little bit, maybe three or four days ago. So I --
18 I'm not exactly sure what we didn't make clear back then. I
19 just need to understand it because this is not something we can
20 do fully at sidebar.

21 My recollection was from last week also that this
22 was --

23 Let me the SEC, is this one of the documents -- we 24 talked about accreditation. We talked about whether or not
25 this attachment could even be admitted. First of all, he can't

1 testify, in my view, as to what Frank Nash's signature looks
2 like. That's not going to be a predicate authenticity. It's
3 going to be a problem.

4 But aside from that, didn't we have a discussion that
5 this accreditation form signed by Mr. Nash was a document that 6 has never been produced and that purportedly would have been in 7 the laptop that never got the password on? I'm trying to 8 remember exactly what the discussion was back then. Because 9 there may be multiple grounds for it not being able to come in,
10 but I want to make sure I understand.

11 MS. BERLIN: That was one of them. We asked last week
12 if they could tell us which documents came from the laptop. We 13 never heard back. So I don't -- it's hard for to us search --
14 we haven't seen this. It certainly wasn't produced by Fidelis
15 he's no longer Fidelis. This isn't a corporate record produced
16 by Fidelis. That would be the receiver now.

17 We don't know where it came from. They'll know if 18 it's from the laptop. I don't want to speculate. But it's 19 also -- the hearsay issue. We put in what we had, which was 20 the note, the remainder which is, you know, the application I
21 guess is hearsay. And it's not a corporate record.

22 THE COURT: Well, the bigger problem is he filled out
23 a form. So it wouldn't come in. It's definitely hearsay to 24 show that he is a purported accredited investor, which again,
25 continues to be, I think, part of the defense's theory of

1 obtaining the 506 exception. I think that's what they're still
2 arguing that point for.

3 MS. BERLIN: Okay.

4 THE COURT: I think. Because we know it doesn't go to 5 the other six fraud counts.

6 So the accredited investor issue, we know that it is 7 being introduced for that exact purpose, to show that he's an 8 accredited investor, so for the truth of the matter asserted.
9 But it looks like a form that is filled out. So that's why I'm 10 trying to figure out how would that be a record regularly
11 maintained in the course of Fidelis's business, meaning that 12 it's a filled out form by another individual and then filed or 13 at least it made its way to Fidelis's records.

14 I'm trying to figure out exactly where it came from 15 which is part of the problem. I don't know where the appendix
16 came from. Do we know where it came from? Do we know that it
17 came from his laptop? Where did we get that from?

18 MR. HYMAN: My understanding is it came from his 19 OneDrive which the receiver and the SEC have had access to.

20 THE COURT: Show me how I get it, even if it came from 21 the OneDrive. How is this going to be a business record? How 22 does something that someone else has filled out and provided to 23 him become a business record? And how can he authenticate this 24 signature and get this document in?

25 Because the problem was I couldn't let it come in

1 under Mr. Nash either. He was presented with it. And I
2 believe at that time, I sustained the objection also because it
3 was for the truth of the matter asserted. Mr. Nash can testify
4 about authenticity, but my recollection was Mr. Nash was still 5 not going to be overcome the regularly conducted activity of 6 Fidelis because he wasn't a custodian or had knowledge of that.

7 I believe that's why it didn't come in through 8 Mr. Nash, and I'm trying to figure out why we would be able to 9 have it come in through a business record here. All these 10 appendices are filled out by different investors. So I just 11 want to make sure I understand.

12 MR. HYMAN: To be clear, Your Honor, Fidelis was in 13 the business of offering these promissory notes for sale. The 14 Promissory notes comprised of three appendixes, Appendix A, B,
15 and C. It was ordinary course of business to have investors
16 sign these notes, filled them out and maintained them in the 17 books and records of the company. This is why it is a business
18 record and the exception would apply.

19 In addition, in terms of the overall signature,
20 otherwise it goes to kind of where these investors had invested
21 and that they did not invest actually in Par Funding, as 22 opposed to -- and that they had, in fact, invested in Fidelis.
23 So we're not trying to use this for the truth of the matter
24 asserted in terms of it being him showing that he's an 25 accredited investor. I think we have already shown he's an

1 accredited investor through other testimony.

2 But more, importantly, it goes to several different
3 issues. First, obviously I think it was a business record, and 4 we have laid the proper predicate for that.

5 Second, I think it also goes to the credibility of 6 Mr. Nash as well as the other investors who testified that they
7 weren't sure whether they were investing in Par Funding or 8 Fidelis, which is part of where that would otherwise be
9 relevant.

10 And as it relates to hearsay, it's a business record
11 plain and simple, and I don't know what other way to explain
12 that, Your Honor.

13 MS. BERLIN: There's no indicia of trustworthiness
14 here. We haven't seen this document. The investor that it
15 came up the other day, Your Honor, was Renner, not Nash. It
16 was Renner.

17 THE COURT: Well, this is Nash's form.

18 MS. BERLIN: This is Nash's form, but it was the same
19 thing --

20 THE COURT: I thought Nash was presented with this and 21 an objection was sustained, but I can't recall.

22 MS. BERLIN: And our notes -- and Vicki is really
23 good at keeping notes. She had written that they attempted it
24 with Renner. The same thing. The same exact document but 25 signed by Renner.

1 THE COURT: That was the one where Renner said he
2 didn't recall the document. And if then I think he said, if
3 memory serves me right, Renner said: I guess it looks like my
4 signature, but I don't recall signing it. I think that is what 5 he said.

6 MS. BERLIN: But issue is one --

7 THE COURT: Your bigger concern is going to be one of 8 authenticity. Because you're not going to satisfy. The Court
9 has to be satisfied that the record is sufficiently authentic
10 before it's admitted. And so that's one of the challenges we 11 have in large part because we don't have anybody that can 12 confirm that's his handwriting.

13 Even if it were arguably a business record, it all
14 hinges on indicia of authenticity. In fact, the Court many 15 times can determine we can't get into the business record
16 exception because we can't determine whether or not this
17 purports to be what they say it is, that it's actually a
18 sign-off of Nash as opposed to filled out by somebody else or 19 someone after the fact. I mean, that's the biggest challenge
20 we have.

21 So I think it would be an argument made that 22 truthfully, it probably would satisfy even on the outer bounds
23 if you were to argue this was a business record and it comes 24 through every time this way because they log them all.

25 But the problem is we don't have necessarily have

1 anybody that can confirm this signature or confirm this
2 actually has been done. The investors didn't really recall it.
3 So it's a little difficult for me to find that I can hang my 4 hat on it, that it's authentic. It's going to come in from 5 Mr. Furman, but he can't authorize or confirm that that's his 6 signature on it.

7 MR. HYMAN: I think he was present when it was 8 executed, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Is he going to testify that he was present
10 when it was signed in front of him?

11 THE WITNESS: As well as all ten other applications.

12 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, why is it relevant?

13 THE WITNESS: I don't know if I'm allowed to talk.

14 THE COURT: No. I don't need to hear from you.

15 MR. HYMAN: Also, Your Honor, as you can see here,
16 this is Mr. Furman's signature.

17 MS. BERLIN: I don't know they have looked at the jury
18 instructions for the complaint.

19 THE COURT: Listen, we can argue relevancy.

20 MS. BERLIN: Not relevancy, but maybe we stipulate to 21 whatever they want.

22 THE COURT: It's easier at this point, before the 23 Court gets into a battle, given the relevant -- given the 24 limited relevancy of arguing accreditation of an investor to 25 one of seven counts and the fact that, you know, if I'm going

1 to be looking at it and allowing him to lay his predicate and
2 finding that he is testifying that he keeps them all in this
3 fashion, I think one could argue that it is business record,
4 with enough authenticity based upon his signature and him
5 saying he saw it signed, one could argue whether or not these 6 individuals understood what they were signing or the ability to 7 understand accreditation. We can get into that later.

8 But I don't see a reason right now where I don't have 9 enough here to let it get in. So I'm going to allow it to be 10 admitted as a business record given that the proffer we're 11 going to hear, that he saw, he met with Mr. Nash presumably.
12 Mr. Nash signed off on this. He saw him sign off on it.

13 That, to me, is going to satisfy authenticity business
14 record-wise, because it is for the truth of the matter
15 asserted. I know that's argued; it's not. But I believe 16 that's a big part of it because accreditation is one of the 17 reasons it's being offered, not just to show he invested in 18 Fidelis.

19 Because remember, even though it says Fidelis, we have 20 a ton of testimony that everybody here knows that those are 21 going to Par Funding. So it's not right -- (inaud.) just 22 because a document says Fidelis doesn't necessarily mean that 23 someone here didn't testify and explain that they understood
24 the money was going to go funnel from Fidelis to Par Funding.

25 So that's not as to me relevant in terms of the

1 exhibit's admissibility, as opposed to the idea that its
2 accreditation which is for one issue in the case.

3 MS. BERLIN: And we're not charging -- accreditation
4 is only relevant as an exemption. We have not charged Fidelis
5 with being an unregistered security.

6 THE COURT: But here is the problem: At this point to 7 go through this exercise, it has to have been the fourth time.

8 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

9 THE COURT: I would rather the defense put on whatever
10 they think is going to be relevant for them, and at closing,
11 provided it satisfies the rules of evidence, at closing let him
12 synthesize this for the jury. At this point the Court -- I've 13 spent, what, three hours going through all the counts last
14 week? If they believe in the heart of hearts this is relevant,
15 let them put on their case. I don't have a problem with it.
16 So you are going to get this admitted.

17 I will also say generally, as we continue on with 18 Mr. Furman's testimony, I'm going to be liberal in the idea of 19 state of mind. So as long as we don't get something into 20 something that I think is being offered for the truth of the 21 matter asserted, you know, the contents itself, if it's going
22 to the state of mind because we know scienter is an issue here,
23 we know what he thought was going on as an issue, general
24 statements, without getting into too much nitty-gritty and 25 trying to advance in truth and gospel, I think if they can be

1 connected to what he thought was a situation or what he thought
2 was a default rate or what he thought it was a lack of a
3 criminal record, I'm going to allow there to be some
4 questioning on that, but I want the SEC to know that I'm going
5 to give them a little wiggle room on that if I can see some
6 state of mind. At this point, I think it makes for a cleaner
7 record, and I think that the SEC will be able to explain these 8 issues themselves at closing and whether they're relevant or 9 not. I think it's the easiest way to do it. So go ahead and 10 bring it in, and we'll go from there.

11 Defense understands? You are going to have that 12 bandwidth to do it.

13 MR. HYMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Let go ahead and bring them back in,
15 please. The exhibit number for that is 2207.

16 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

17 THE COURT: Okay. Please be seated, everyone. We're 18 going to pick up where we left off. Can everyone go until 19 maybe 5:30 so I can get ahead of it? Is that all right? Let's
20 go for another 45 minutes or so and regardless where we are,
21 we're going to break by 5:30.

22 Go ahead, Counsel.

23 MR. HYMAN: So we're publishing what's been marked as 24 DE 2207.

25 THE COURT: That has already been admitted

1 understandably over SEC's objection. It will be admitted at 2 this time and that can be published, yes.

3 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

4 BY MR. HYMAN:

5 Q. Do you see this document?

6 A. Yes, I do. Yes.

7 Q. Is it a promissory note that Mr. Nash executed?

8 A. Yes. Correct.

9 Q. And this promissory note was prepared by counsel, correct?

10 A. Yes, the original document, correct.

11 Q. And that counsel was Mr. Weingold?

12 A. Correct. My securities attorney. Yes.

13 Q. Did you ask Mr. Weingold -- or was Mr. Weingold -- or were 14 you under the impression that Mr. Weingold had done independent
15 research into Par Funding or other entities where you would be
16 invested?

17 A. I didn't pay him specifically to do background check or 18 underwriting. But yes, we went over the entire investment, we 19 went over who it was. He worked with other fund managers, from 20 what I was told, and did what -- everything that I paid a
21 securities attorney to do in order to file the documents
22 correctly.

23 Q. And under this document were you required to invest the 24 money with Par Funding?

25 A. Oh, no, absolutely not. That was one of the general --

1 major discussions in the beginning was that if I wanted to
2 invest in other companies or other merchant -- in that
3 industry, that specific guidance of where I could look at. But
4 yes, I did not have to invest in Par Funding specifically, no.

5 Q. And is there the reason why you only invested in
6 Par Funding?

7 A. Well, like I said, I looked at other companies -- again, in 8 the beginning this was something that came across and really
9 fit the -- not only did they have an entire program for not
10 just me, but any other fund managers across the country, so I
11 had back end support. It was a company I was very impressed
12 with. You were -- they gave you the open access to themselves
13 as much as -- more than other companies. But also it was 14 really fitting the timeline for the investment.

15 A lot of the annuities that I did were guaranteeing
16 but they were long term. They were ten years, 12 years, seven
17 years was the shortest. So this being a shorter term, we were 18 looking for income producing, so yes, some of the other
19 companies didn't pay monthly payments, didn't pay quarterly
20 payments. That didn't really fit what I was looking for.

21 So as I -- throughout the time period, I always was 22 pitched many investments and always liked the industry because 23 it was a short-term -- shorter term investment opportunity than 24 most of the companies, predominantly one to three years. And I
25 did -- it was very serious specifically in 2020, I got very

1 close and were in talks -- and again, the pandemic really did
2 do a number on a lot of different companies. And I was looking
3 at one completely, even after the pandemic, if I was able to,
4 which obviously did not come to fruition.

5 Q. So I'm showing you what's on the screen as Exhibit 2213.

6 A. Correct. Yes. Now I see.

7 Q. Do you recognize this document?

8 A. Looks like the same document. Probably somebody else, but 9 yes, it's part of the subscription agreement. This would be --
10 there's, like you said, there's A, B and C, and then DE was 11 really just the certificate that we would give.

12 MR. HYMAN: And then, Your Honor, would you mind
13 taking this out of the jury's view, unless the SEC is willing 14 to -- subject to their prior objections, (inaud.) agree to its 15 admission?

16 THE COURT: Sure. We can take this down for a second.
17 And I assume --

18 MS. BERLIN: The PPM is a business record?

19 THE COURT: It's already admitted, I think. This is 20 the exact same thing with the same appendix; is it not?

21 MS. BERLIN: No objection.

22 MR. HYMAN: Same documents executed by different
23 investors.

24 THE COURT: Correct.

25 MS. BERLIN: No objection, absolutely not.

1 THE COURT: So that will objection -- there is no
2 objection. And let me restate it then, because I think I
3 overruled an SEC objection the last exhibit, but it was the 4 same grounds. So given that there's no objection to the prior
5 exhibit or any of these exhibits, which were all the same, so
6 ladies and gentlemen of the jury, they're all going to be the 7 same, but you're going to have different signatories on the 8 appendices, but those will all be admitted without objection.
9 So we can move those in, and we can show the jury.

10 Just make sure we identified them by exhibit number,
11 please.

12 MR. HYMAN: Correct.

13 And so for purposes of brevity and to speed this 14 along, we're going to be moving 2165, 2166, 2207, 2213, 2214,
15 and 2215 through 2217 into evidence.

16 (Thereupon, the exhibits were introduced into evidence.)

17 THE COURT: Okay. And again, to be clear, those are 18 all the same thing, just different investors and the 19 appendices, right?

20 MR. HYMAN: Correct.

21 THE COURT: Those will be admitted at this time.

22 (Thereupon, the exhibits were admitted into evidence.)

23 BY MR. HYMAN:

24 Q. And isn't it true that the promissory notes I've shown you
25 are for basically Mr. Barth, Mr. Nash, Mr. Renner and

1 Mr. Reikes?

2 A. This is Mr. Reikes? Yes. This was his original -- he only
3 invested for one year and has not been invested since a year
4 from February.

5 Q. And Mr. Reikes, did he ever invest in Par Funding itself?

6 A. No, he invested into my Fidelis Financial Planning fund.

7 Q. And Mr. Nash, did he ever invest in Par Funding directly?

8 A. No, not at all.

9 Q. Did Mr. Barth ever invest in Par Funding directly?

10 A. Absolutely not.

11 Q. And Mr. Renner ever invest in Par Funding or CBSG directly?

12 A. Mr. Renner, no.

13 Q. Okay. So none of them actually, in fact, executed a
14 promissory note with respect to Par Funding?

15 A. Not that I've ever been aware of, no.

16 Q. And did you ever tell them that they would be investing
17 directly in Par Funding?

18 A. Not directly, no. They were invested -- as I said, I've 19 explained it to every single individual the process of why they 20 were investing in my fund. That they would -- there's no
21 access to Par Funding. They would not accept their funds.
22 They wouldn't accept their phone call. It was an opportunity
23 that was available for me, just like many other investments
24 that I offered that -- you could call that company and they
25 would not take your money. You could try to do that, but it

1 was through the relationship that I had, and it had to go
2 through my fund if you wanted to invest. It was through
3 Fidelis Financial Planning. They knew the name. Just like
4 many counsels here have confused Fidelis this, Fidelis that. I
5 had a lot of -- if the fund was called -- I understand Fidelis
6 is not an everyday word, but yes.

7 Q. And with respect to these investors, how often did you
8 speak with Mr. Nash?

9 A. Mr. Nash was a frequent flyer. He probably called, I mean,
10 called once a week. I mean, stopped in every once in a while.
11 Like I said, he was at least a couple of times a month. I've 12 been to his house. We've met for lunch and things like that.
13 Yeah.

14 Q. And how often did you meet with Mr. Reikes?

15 A. Mr. Reikes was not as similar. Like I said, he only
16 invested for a year. His principal was returned. He got all
17 of his interest. I met him at the event. I know he came to --
18 he was a tax client and he came and met for one of the dinner
19 or lunch events. I know he was at an event, him and his wife.
20 And I met him at Christmas parties around town. But that was 21 about it. He was not a frequent flyer.

22 Q. And Mr. Barth?

23 A. Mr. Barth was -- he had a lot of other annuities with me,
24 insurance policies, other investments. You know, like I said,
25 he was probably once a month, if not -- or a couple more. I

1 mean, while we're in the middle of doing insurance and other
2 annuities in his financial plan, there's a lot of work --
3 there's a lot of work to set up your financial plan when you
4 first come in. First of all, we're meeting -- like I said, I
5 do talk a lot, so it's going to be two to four hours for us to 6 generally get to know each other, learn how I work, how -- all
7 of the different relationships I have. Whether he would use
8 one of the attorneys that I could refer him to or accountants
9 that I could refer him to. If he needed any other service,
10 homeowners and automotive.

11 And then once we started doing applications or 12 actually investing his funds, Mr. Barth specifically had a few
13 different annuities with me, those take multiple meetings, a
14 couple of different weeks. There were transfers they involved.
15 So yeah, we had to meet -- he had to stop in. Some were much
16 shorter than others. And we would -- it would be many times
17 per month. We might meet five or ten times in one month if we 18 were getting something done. And then we might go a month or 19 two without seeing each other. But we would not really go more
20 than a month without talking. We would always have reviews for 21 various investments. They were staggered on purpose. We would 22 not put too much money in one spot typically.

23 Q. And with respect to these investors, you previously
24 testified that you disclosed the regulatory action?

25 A. Once I found out. We've had discussions, just like -- you

1 know, once I found out about New Jersey, again I was told by
2 Par that that was resolved and so we went over the fact that
3 also it was a state order. Once we found out about it --
4 again, we didn't -- I don't live in New Jersey, I didn't work
5 in New Jersey, none of my clients did. It was not in the State
6 of Florida. It was not -- they didn't shut them down. And 7 from what we were told, they explained it, it was not a good
8 thing, nobody wants to have a -- even if it's a no admit/no
9 deny, or even if there was or was not a fine, it was still --
10 the regulars were looking at them, and they did not come in and 11 freeze the entire company like they did today. Or when this 12 case started. That would be a completely different faction.

13 But they were -- when New Jersey was resolved, again,
14 that was a -- I was happy to see that. That they spoke to 15 regulators and it was for actions that were taken by Par or 16 actions -- how do I restate this?

17 That fine was for the same action, from what I was 18 told, from using solicitors' agreements before I even met
19 Par Funding. When I went up there, that was the reason that 20 they had the recruiting event was to open funds, private equity
21 funds. And so the fine that they got or did not get from each
22 one of those two states were for those actions before I had met
23 them. And so they were no longer doing that. They had told us
24 that they had spoken with regulators and the proper legal 25 matter was to use a fund. And to be a fund -- have a fund

1 manager.

2 Q. So going back to that, it was your original understanding
3 that New Jersey fined Par Funding, but then retracted the fine?

4 A. Well, I had learned from Nardelli, again, that Pennsylvania
5 had fined them. Or they were doing the no admit/no deny and it
6 was, you know, $499,000, which to me is a large amount, but 7 under a couple billion dollars of money that Par Funding was 8 doing, in a grand scheme, I understand that they were able to 9 absorb that, which nobody wants to. And then I was told that 10 New Jersey was following in that foot steps, in the sense, for 11 the same or similar matter.

12 And as you can read, once I was able to look it up,
13 that they were fined for not having proper registration. From 14 what we were told, they were filing that proper registration.
15 And then whether he used the word "retracted" or "resolved," I
16 know I saw in writing resolved, but I apologize if I used the 17 word retracted instead of resolve, but I do not believe that 18 they actually paid the New Jersey fine. But whether they did
19 or they did not, I was told they didn't.

20 Q. And going back to when you visited the offices or when you
21 went to the first event, was your impression that due diligence
22 had been conducted with respect to Par Funding?

23 A. 100 percent. I mean, they used a dollars figure of how 24 much they paid Pauciulo to do due diligence, specifically on 25 Par Funding to look at financials. There was videos from the

1 attorney that you can watch that was portrayed to us and shown
2 to us. This was not from secondhand. I met with that
3 attorney, I -- the amount of attorney -- 300-plus attorneys in
4 a law firm is a very large law firm. He worked for the SEC
5 for, I believe it was --

6 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, this is not an attorney that 7 he's hired.

8 THE COURT: Understood. Understood.

9 A. Part of the event.

10 THE COURT: Let's move on. Next question.

11 BY MR. HYMAN:

12 Q. And as time went on -- let's see.

13 So with respect to the termination of your
14 relationship with Dean Vagnozzi -- or sorry, ABFP Management,
15 let's take it back to ABFP Management.

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. You didn't deal with Mr. Vagnozzi that much in terms of the 18 flow of funds, did you?

19 A. Probably not ever. I don't think he would have known what 20 I was doing or what my fund was doing. And that was -- again,
21 it was his accountant team that I dealt with. And it was 22 Alexis Abbonizio would send over back and forth the actual 23 executed notes from Par. But I dealt 100 percent with -- they 24 wanted me to deal with Michael Tierney, who was their 25 management -- manager. He was a younger guy. I thought I had

1 a lot more experience than him, but he was in charge of us.
2 But I pretty much dealt with the accountants themselves when I
3 called. Or Anita, which was, I believe ABFP's Management or 4 office manager, who answered the phones really.

5 Q. And did you go back and verify all the numbers and 6 information from ABFP Management as it came in?

7 A. Yeah. Once I found one mistake, that was where I pretty
8 much had to -- they did the actual clicking the button of a 9 wire, but, you know, when they sent these forms, and it would
10 show -- because this was not a one time a month. It was a 10th
11 of the month, and the 25th of every month.

12 So if somebody invested -- and I used that word
13 loosely, invested -- if you came into my office on the 1st of 14 the month, again, it was not a one-meeting type of investment.
15 This was something that I generated over time, so we usually 16 meet a few times.

17 If you had a check in hand or a wire to my fund even,
18 which it really was never wires, or from an IRA, if it was 19 available into my fund on the 10th, it would not be invested
20 until the 25th. And in order to be invested on the 25th, it
21 had to be ready, you had to have notes executed by, I believe
22 it was the 20th. So everything was about timing. And so all
23 of the investors that were ready for the 25th were executed a
24 note on the 22nd. And then that was where I would have to 25 communicate constantly with ABFP Management company, and to try

1 to get individuals because they wanted their funds invested.
2 You didn't want to give me a check for $100,000 and let it sit
3 there for a month without earning any interest. And yes, so
4 they wanted to get in on the next rollover or the next cycle,
5 which was the 10th or 25th. So there was constant every single
6 day regarding each one of them. I had communications with ABFP
7 Management. And that's really where -- the reason why I had to 8 double check the work. Because one, I don't -- I didn't
9 really -- a lot of little things to get those straight there.
10 And I did from time to time.

11 Q. And you also -- speaking of Perry Abbonizio and Mr. Nash,
12 do you know whether or not Mr. Abbonizio and Mr. Nash ever
13 spoke directly?

14 A. Yeah. Like I said, Mr. Nash came to quite a few events.
15 He wanted his -- and he was not lying. He was drenched and he
16 came in soaking wet on that one event, and Perry pointed him
17 out, maybe he was not in the right place. But it was a rainy
18 evening that time.

19 I know they spoke on multiple occasions. Perry was 20 the only representative that ever came down for any of the 21 events, but Mr. Nash came to a couple of dinners and a couple
22 of lunches. I believe it was four off the top of my head.

23 Q. And did you ever participate in any phone calls with 24 Mr. Nash and Mr. Abbonizio?

25 A. Yes. During -- when the pandemic hit or Corona. Again,

1 they halted payments as of -- I think it was March 25th. Then
2 when we were -- I was trying to obviously -- when we were
3 locked in our houses, speaking to each and every investor,
4 trying to assess what was going on and not just the world but
5 with this investment going forward.

6 Perry very graciously would do three-way calls with
7 every single one of my investors, because I wanted somebody
8 firsthand so it wasn't only taking my word for it, because we 9 only had that the phone at my point. And many of my clients
10 did not Zoom or FaceTime.

11 So there was -- computers wasn't a thing to some of 12 those. So phone calls was as much as we could do. So yes, as 13 I've tried to say, I've always given as much access to an
14 investor as I can, even if it was from the other attorney, I
15 would give them their view, whatever I heard from my attorney,
16 whatever I could give them during CORONA, as much information.
17 So Perry did three-way phone calls with every one of my 18 investors during the pandemic, in March/April, before the 19 amended note. He spoke to them as the head of investor
20 relations.

21 Q. Did you rely on Mr. Abbonizio to make the appropriate
22 disclosures?

23 A. One thousand percent. He was one of the heads of 24 Par Funding. Why would I not.

25 Q. And you knew that Mr. Abbonizio was also represented by

1 counsel at the time?

2 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, objection. That's not
3 relevant.

4 THE COURT: That's not relevant. Move on. That's 5 sustained.

6 BY MR. HYMAN:

7 Q. And you don't read Bloomberg much, do you?

8 A. No. If anything, I would use one of the television
9 screens, our television station that has the tickers at the 10 bottom on the background on mute, but I never in my entire life
11 have paid for Bloomberg. If I get mass e-mails of the free
12 dailies, I get them from every single news outlet in the 13 country, and it's probably because you're on an auto e-mail.
14 But I have multiple e-mails.

15 So no, because I'm in insurance, I'm pretty much on 16 those lists regardless. But no, I did not subscribe or utilize
17 -- I don't believe much of what I read in the newspaper because 18 I can show you many examples of where it's completely false.

19 Q. Were you ever given access to Par Funding's insurance
20 policies?

21 A. Absolutely not. Before this suit, other than I knew that 22 they had some type of insurance. Again, not only investment in 23 any way, it was a hundred percent between Par Funding and some 24 of their merchants in some capacity to help their portfolio,
25 but I never was told it was on every single merchant, I never

1 was told how it covered them, other than it was on default.

2 If they defaulted, then it would ensure whether it was
3 100 percent, 20 percent. I was told this is a new part of our 4 product, our lineup we're offering it. It is built into that
5 factor rate. It is not cheap from what I was told.

6 And so -- but it came out of the merchant. It was not
7 an ad -- it was not going to lower the revenue for the company,
8 but they would make it available to those merchants over or 9 under a certain amount. I think it was over -- it said it in 10 the brochure. And that's where I had to do some explanation to 11 that and ask them questions.

12 But no, there was no me being in insurance, and it's a
13 completely different license for homeowners and auto, which is 14 what I called P&C, property and casualty if you ever worked in 15 insurance.

16 Q. Okay. And you were never given access to the bank
17 statements of Par Funding, were you?

18 A. Oh, absolutely not, no. And I did ask to have more
19 financials, whether it was for me or an actual accountant or 20 attorney to look at, but they said the only person that had 21 access to that and signed an NDA would be that John Pauciulo
22 individual, attorney.

23 Q. And you never had access to a report concerning the number
24 of lawsuits that were filed, did you?

25 A. No. And still, I mean, relevancy of that, like I said,

1 they did, I don't know, tens of thousands of advances over
2 time. Whether there was a thousand lawsuits for a penny or one
3 lawsuit for a million dollars, that still can be twisted and
4 portrayed differently. I mean, I can tell you different facts
5 right now.

6 Like I said, it could be just about some profit, it
7 could be about the entire amount. There's no way to know from 8 that, just like for me to have to go online to all 50 states
9 and try and look at up federal and state, I think it is for 10 lawsuits, the difference between the two or how to even search
11 for that. I couldn't tell you.

12 Q. And did you know where the borrowers of Par Funding were 13 located?

14 A. The actual merchants?

15 Q. Yeah.

16 A. I live in the one or two -- I think Ms. Berlin put one on 17 the screen here of the onsite inspections. They provided
18 basically two onsite inspection reports to us. I believe it
19 was in their brochure. One was of a trucking company. I think
20 it was South Carolina. It might not be. It was basically
21 desolate. The whole point of those two onsite inspection
22 reports was there was a pharmacy, Rx pharmacy, and it was to 23 show, hey, they went in, they did a picture of their business
24 licenses.

25 It was a family pharmacy. You could see it was

1 running. Whether it was profitable or not, that's not for me
2 to say. That was a good onsite inspection, that they were
3 there. That was the purpose behind an onsite inspection, which 4 hopefully makes sense.

5 Then there was the trucking company. It was ABC
6 Trucking. I don't know even know what the name of it was. But 7 this is the reason you do it, because they went out there, they 8 applied, they said they had great cash revenue on a note ten
9 thousand dollars a month or a hundred thousand dollars a month.

10 THE COURT: Slow down.

11 A. And there was -- when you went out there, you could see in 12 the photos, it was a parking lot. It was a desolate parking
13 lot. It was a building that was run down, and there was a
14 couple old trucks that probably wouldn't move.

15 So they might have some financial statements or forged
16 it, but when you went out there, that was a company you would 17 not want to lend to. And the other one was a pharmacy. That 18 was a real company and it was actually doing well.

19 So that was really the only onsite inspection access
20 that we had, was those two page printouts, and it was from a
21 third-party company. It was not Par Funding. They never 22 represented they were sending anybody out there, whether they
23 FaceTimed or did it in person, but it was called an in-person
24 onsite inspection.

25 BY MR. HYMAN:

1 Q. And do you have an understanding -- what was your
2 understanding that Par Funding issued loans to businesses
3 throughout the country, right?

4 A. Yeah. I mean, I don't think they were concentrated on any
5 one area. I would figure that the Northeast, since that's
6 where their headquarters was located. I know they had a Miami
7 sales call center but all over the country, yes.

8 Q. So you would have no idea as to where any concentration of 9 lawsuits would be, would you?

10 A. Absolutely not. There was Texas -- not Texas. There was 11 South Carolina and North Carolina, I think were the two onsite
12 inspections. But other than that, no, I would not have access
13 to any names of companies that they had. It was mom and pop
14 shops. It was different industries that they went over, but 15 industries, not locations, no.

16 Q. Earlier during your cross, you were questioned at length
17 about a Mr. Russ and Ms. Renee Meyer.

18 Do you recall that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So going back through it, when did you first meet
21 Mr. Meyer?

22 A. Mr. Meyer, probably 2016 or early 2017. I think it was 23 early 2017. Because of this case, I looked at it. But he came 24 to me through JD Mellberg, which is an annuity wholesaler or 25 IMO.

1 THE COURT: We need to keep the questioning just a
2 little tighter in the narrative. My court reporter cannot. So
3 you need to try to break him up. As his lawyer, break him up
4 and get him to answer these questions. This is -- it's your 5 record. So I'm telling you. She's doing everything she can.

6 BY MR. HYMAN:

7 Q. Gotcha.

8 A. Year? Probably 2017.

9 Q. And he was a client of yours?

10 A. Primarily insurance, yes. Came to me for retirement plan,
11 financial plan.

12 Q. And around that time, how often or how frequently was he in 13 your office?

14 A. Russ would come in. He was still working. He worked at the 15 Florida Power and Light. I'm not sure if that's the name of 16 it, still but our next era energy. He would come in after work
17 a lot. And again, after the first couple of meetings, very 18 general, introduced about annuities, about how I worked. We 19 went over some alternative investments, and as we started to 20 implement the plan, it was applications and follow-ups.
21 Sometimes it was shorter, but as you can see, I talked quite a
22 lot with him. So yeah, he came in multiple times.

23 Q. So prior to see seeing Mr. Vagnozzi's advertisements, did
24 you inform Mr. Meyers about your interest in MCA funds?

25 A. He was interested in many alternative investments because

1 they were a unique -- he was a unique investor. Again, the
2 wife was not Mrs. Meyer -- or Ms. Meyer was not there every
3 time by any means. But it was more - they did not want to a
4 hundred a percent annuities and they were very -- they did not
5 like the stock market.

6 So they did not want to be invested in the stock
7 market for that constant up and down. They believed that the 8 market was very high at that point in 2017, and they were just 9 too scared to have that decline and work their whole life to 10 see that go down and have no income from that.

11 And so we were going to provide that for annuities and 12 alternative investments. They were very interested in that.
13 So I informed them of my trip, looking at many other
14 investments that we were evaluating, alternative investments,
15 and as I do, we talked about premier league soccer, me and 16 Mr. Meyer.

17 Q. So you told Mr. Meyer you're going on the trip, and then
18 after you got back from the trip, you sent him the e-mail that 19 was marked as P 561. After the trip, you sent him the e-mail
20 that's been marked as P 561?

21 A. Yes. I would -- as I told him before I went there, I would 22 provide him with as much information on -- I told him. We went 23 over everything. Again, most of my conversations with any of 24 my clients are going to be conversations.

25 MS. BERLIN: This is not admitted.

1 THE COURT: We're not showing this one.

2 MR. HYMAN: Are you sure about that?

3 THE COURT: Double check for me, please. We 4 haven't --

5 Folks, you don't have it on your screens, right?

6 THE JURY: No.

7 THE COURT: Let's double check.

8 (Thereupon, counsel confer.)

9 BY MR. HYMAN:

10 Q. So when you first started after returning from the seminar
11 with Mr. Vagnozzi, were you trying to start your own fund or 12 did you decide you were going to start your own fund?

13 A. Oh, yes, that was the purpose of going up there. I wanted
14 to definitely start a fund, and I informed them that I -- about 15 all the different investments we spoke about, how it went, what 16 I -- what my thoughts were. Again, most of my -- 99 percent of 17 my business was done in person.

18 Q. And did you invite them to invest in your fund?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And do you recall being asked questions about how they were 21 trying to transfer their money into a CAMA Plan?

22 A. Yes. That would be an independent IRA company. One of, I
23 think three or four --

24 Q. (Cross-talk.) And isn't it true that at that time you were 25 trying to get their money transferred over to the CAMA plans,

1 so that they could be funded with you?

2 A. I was setting up my fund, yes. That was the plan.

3 Q. And so when you were setting up the fund and getting the 4 money in there, you were trying to get them to invest in a fund
5 once you created it, right?

6 A. In future funds as well, yes.

7 Q. Also you were trying to help them get their money into
8 other alternative investments?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. However, wasn't there a delay in getting your fund set up?

11 A. Yeah. It was a lot of delays. There again, it was one of 12 my first funds. I think I only had one other that started in 13 2018. And it was between the attorney, between trying to get 14 it set up properly. Again, I used the wrong name for one fund
15 that I used for my life settlement fund at that same time. My 16 life settlement fund is called MCA Income Management Funds, so
17 that was one discrepancy there. But by the time I had the 18 attorney, by the time we had all of the details set up, it took 19 a couple of months, and I told them that.

20 Q. And did you try to get them to wait for your fund?

21 A. Of course. I wanted them, just like I wanted to a few
22 other people to be, you know, lined up so I could start them
23 off and start off better. But yeah, they were very impatient,
24 didn't want to wait.

25 Q. And you used your best efforts to try to keep them from

1 Leaving your fund, didn't you?

2 A. Well, yes, I didn't want them to go direct or in any way.

3 And actually I wasn't -- like I said, I was not involved for

4 quite a while, but I got some frantic phone calls that they

5 were upset. They were my clients in every other manner, every

6 other investment they had, I'm going to help my clients. And

7 so whether it was before the documents that they already were

8 sent to them and they just couldn't find, or whether it was in

9 their spam, whatever it was, I was going to connect them with

10 Perry to make sure they had some questions answered.

11 Q. And they were trying to get themselves, independent of you,

12 set up with these funds, right?

13 A. That's what I believe so, yes.

14 Q. But they couldn't do it on their own, could they?

15 A. Yeah. They tried, and I guess they had some problems. And

16 again, that's where I interacted --

17 Q. It was just based on technological issues, right?

18 A. Probably terminology, yeah.

19 Q. And so did they -- were you the cause of their decision to 20 invest in ABFP?

21 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'm sorry, calls for 22 speculation.

23 THE COURT: I'm going to allow him to answer. Again,

24 if he knows, I'll allow him to answer.

25 A. I shouldn't -- I don't believe so, no.

1 BY MR. HYMAN:

2 Q. And that's because you were trying to get them to invest in
3 Fidelis?

4 A. I wanted them to. And they eventually did.

5 Q. And when you were advertising Par Funding through Fidelis,
6 isn't it true you were doing so because Fidelis was investing
7 in Par Funding?

8 A. At that time, yeah. I mean, it wasn't a SPAC company or a
9 blank check company, correct.

10 Q. But your intent was to get them to invest in Fidelis, not
11 Par Funding?

12 A. Oh, 100 percent. There was no -- yeah.

13 Q. And you received no financial benefit if people invested in 14 Par Funding directly, did you?

15 A. No, I would not have, and it didn't happen. So no, I would 16 not have either way. I didn't have a solicitor agreement with 17 them. And I don't know how anybody could have, but...

18 Q. You were asked questions about statements you made to an 19 undercover agent. Do you recall that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you were asked questions about two series of recordings
22 with respect to the undercover agent, right?

23 A. What you got -- what they played, yeah. It wasn't all of 24 my conversations, but yes.

25 Q. So the first conversation was approximately when?

1 A. I was driving, as I'm sure you guys heard, across the state
2 to my brother's to meet my niece and nephew. I think it was
3 early '19, I think. I don't remember exactly when that
4 started. It was probably 2019 at some point.

5 Q. And did you hear from the undercover agent for a period of 6 time after that?

7 A. No. That was an introduction. The timeline of that
8 they -- or she represented the family office. I did a general
9 overview --

10 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, if he's going to testify
11 about this, I would ask that we mute the Zoom, because 12 something could come out.

13 THE COURT: Yes. No. Thank you for that.

14 We'll go ahead and do that.

15 You may continue. We'll have my CRD go ahead. Go
16 ahead to keep answering the question.

17 Yeah, I'll instruct her to mute.

18 A. The -- can I just say "the woman"? I don't want to be 19 rude.

20 Q. Yeah, the woman. That's okay.

21 A. The woman that was introduced to me by Associate Scott,
22 that was potentially interested in investing, like I said, I
23 did that phone call when I was driving across the state.

24 And then, I think we had one follow-up quick phone
25 call that she had. Right after that she disappeared off the

1 radar. Was late 2019, I connected her with Perry because she
2 stated that she was from Chicago and Philadelphia -- I think it
3 was Philadelphia, but her office was in Chicago.

4 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, objection, hearsay.

5 THE COURT: It's overruled. Most of this is 6 already -- to the extent some of this has already come into 7 evidence, the jury will use their best recollection of the 8 phone call.

9 But let's focus really on what's relevant in the call.
10 A lot of this is background we don't need.

11 A. She was from Philadelphia. I connected her with Perry
12 because she was going to be in Philadelphia and they visited 13 onsite.

14 BY MR. HYMAN:

15 Q. All right. So the next time you met her, why did she 16 approach you?

17 A. Well, she called back after the pandemic hit to see how I
18 was doing, how Par made out, and how I made out in general from 19 the pandemic. And she stated that as a distressed asset she 20 might be interested in buying Par Funding. And again, she had 21 already visited and met with Perry in person up there. I
22 wasn't involved in any of that, didn't know how it went. And I
23 said, look, you can call Perry again, and I connected them
24 again. That was way above my pay grade. I have no ownership
25 or any way to do that. My fund closed.

1 Q. Got it. So after that, do you recall being questioned
2 about the 2020 e-mails that you sent concerning Par Funding and 3 COVID?

4 A. Yeah, the -- yeah.

5 Q. So when Ms. Berlin asked you kind -- about whether or not 6 you had retained counsel, is that what you wrote in your
7 e-mail?

8 A. No. Not at all. I had spoken to my attorney. I didn't 9 know I had to re-retain my own counsel. And as I stated in 10 there, and I had conversations that relay, again, I don't do
11 business through e-mail. That is certainly a way that I can 12 communicate. But we did three-way phone calls between Perry
13 and myself with every investor. I did speak with my counsel of 14 whether it was smart or not. And he stated what I stated in 15 the e-mail.

16 Q. I understand you're a little nervous, Mr. Furman, but try 17 to just answer the questions as --

18 A. My apologies.

19 Q. And, in fact, it was your belief, based on those 20 discussions, that you had a right to sue Par Funding for 21 default on those notes, rights?

22 A. As I said in the e-mail, correct.

23 MS. BERLIN: I withdraw my objection.

24 A. For one to two years.

25 BY MR. HYMAN:

1 Q. And similarly, Ms. Berlin questioned you about statements
2 concerning the fact that you had invested time and energy into
3 the business.

4 Do you recall that?

5 A. An enormous amount, yes.

6 Q. And, in fact, you invested portions of your profits back in
7 to Fidelis, right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So that statement was, in fact, true, that you had invested
10 a lot into the business, right?

11 A. Correct. I made a major shift in my company as well to not 12 go after other insurance -- I gave up a lot of money in other
13 areas to build that one part of my business. Again, it was 14 one -- it was 20 percent or 30 percent of it.

15 Q. And with respect to -- Ms. Berlin showed you the exchange
16 notes, the exchange documents.

17 A. Yes. Amended.

18 Q. Amended. Sorry. The amended notes.

19 A. Mine was amended. Everybody else's was exchanged.

20 Q. So with respect to the amended documents, she asked you
21 about the disclosures, right?

22 A. It was part of a package that I received. Again, I had
23 severed ties with Dean Vagnozzi and A Better Financial Plan
24 Management, ABFP Management, and upon that e-mail from 25 management at Par Funding --

1 Q. Got it. So you had discussed with your attorney the
2 situation -- or isn't it true you discussed with your attorney
3 the situation involving the regulatory actions?

4 A. Correct. And it was in the package I had e-mailed him
5 where he prepared the amended note, came from the 40 or 50-page
6 document that Par Funding Management sent me. So I sent that
7 to my attorney, which included that as part of our discussions
8 and he created my amended note from that.

9 Q. And did you, after that happened, ask him to provide 10 additional disclosures or information?

11 A. Yes. I was very upset, as I can -- as you can show with 12 the texts and e-mails, my attorney provided, I think it was 13 four pages in return. And as I said, I worked very closely
14 with Mark Nardelli, who had -- still was working under ABFP
15 Management. Because again, I was not at that point. And 16 their -- now, given theirs was an exchange note, but it was 17 probably 25 pages, and talked about Corona and the pandemic and 18 those disclosures, everything. And it was just not in my note.
19 So I not only reached out to Perry, who had another attorney,
20 another document with Mr. Weingold, my securities attorney, and 21 I reached out to Mr. Weingold and I wanted more disclosures 22 than that.

23 Q. Okay. However, you didn't need to make those additional 24 disclosures because you had already told all of your investors
25 but these situation, right?

1 A. Verbally, yeah.

2 MR. HYMAN: No further questions at this time.

3 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen of the 4 jury, that brings us to a perfect point, just at 5:30, so that
5 we can break for the day. So tomorrow, we're going to start a
6 little later. I need everyone to be here by 10:30 instead of 7 10:00. I have a matter in the morning that I have to address.
8 This is not my only case. So sometimes lawyers forget, but 9 it's not my only case. So I've got to take care of a little
10 bit, in fact, the next two days, I believe we'll have to start
11 around 10:30. But it doesn't really change anything. We're 12 still going be right on schedule. My plan tomorrow morning is 13 to allow the testimony of Mr. Furman to completed. And the SEC
14 will get up. And then after that we should, I believe, have 15 maybe one more witness from the SEC. And then after that they 16 will be done with their case, and we'll turn it back to the 17 defense to finish with whatever witnesses they have.

18 I still believe -- it's hard to predict, but I still 19 believe that we may be done with all testimony by tomorrow.
20 Even if we're not, we'll still make it work. We have just the 21 instructions on the law at the end of that, and I am going to 22 meet with the lawyers to kind of work through the packet that 23 we're going to prepare for you guys. So I'm going to figure 24 out when that is. But I can tell you guys right now that my 25 plan is to try to schedule that and not have you guys waiting

1 around for us. So try to put that in the morning slot, maybe
2 even on Wednesday, so that you guys can stay home and won't
3 have to come in until later, so you guys are here when it's 4 ready for you. So we're trying to make all these -- it's like
5 a jigsaw puzzle. Trying to make it all work so that I don't
6 waste any of your time. All right.

7 So obviously we're getting to the end of the case. I
8 mean, we really are. We've probably got another couple of days
9 of testimony tops. I want to remind you guys to please
10 continue to keep yourselves focused on the evidence and keep an 11 open mind /there's still a ways to go. You haven't even heard
12 the law that applies in the case and you haven't heard the 13 closing arguments from the lawyers. All of that stuff is very 14 vital. So continue to keep an open mind until every witness is 15 heard from and we're done with all the arguments and 16 instructions on the law.

17 When you get home, again, I know I sound like a broken
18 record, but it's important I remind you not to do any 19 independent research, not to look up people, places or things
20 online, not to ask family or friends for help, not to tell
21 family or friends about the case. You are, of course, free to 22 let them know that we're on pace to finish Wednesday/Thursday
23 thereabouts. Okay. You can let them know already that's the 24 schedule and that your judge is pushing to see if we can get 25 done a little earlier.

1 But, of course, no postings on social media about your
2 service, no information should be put on the internet, any
3 website, chat room, things of that nature. And, of course, do
4 not discuss this with one another either. I know the 5 temptation is there. You all probably want to sit down and
6 start sorting out what you've heard. You guys will get a
7 chance to do that in a few days. Just hold off on that. Don't 8 start deliberating with each other until the end of the case.

9 And if you see the lawyers when they come in tomorrow,
10 please continue to avoid them as you've done, and they will 11 avoid you. You should take no offense from that.

12 So with that being said, let's make sure to leave our 13 notepads in the room. And we'll see you all promptly. If you
14 could get here by 10:15 so we can get started. You know that I
15 can't start without all of you here. So 10:30 start.

16 Have a great evening. Get home safe. You guys are 17 excused.

18 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

19 THE COURT: So let's do a little bit of housekeeping
20 so that we are all on pace for tomorrow. So the plan, I
21 believe, would be to have the SEC do their -- kind of like a
22 hybrid redirect in the morning of Mr. Furman, and then I think
23 your impeachment witness would will be after that. Is that 24 correct? That's the last witness from the SEC, the agent, if 25 you're going to call him?

1 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

2 THE COURT: And he's available in the morning?

3 MS. BERLIN: I have to check with him, but I think
4 he's available -- I think he's available any time tomorrow.

5 THE COURT: Okay. I think realistically, I mean, I
6 don't know, it depends on how far you go. But assuming that
7 your examination is about an hour, let's say like Mr. Furman, I
8 don't know how long you think it might take, there is a
9 potential to start at 10:30, which is my hope, that we could 10 have Mr. Furman done by, let's say, 11:30. And the only thing
11 I have tomorrow is I believe -- let me double check if I have 12 any sentencings as I did today during the lunch hour. I may 13 not. In case we could try to have your witness come on before
14 the lunch break. Let's see.

15 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, and granted we have to see 16 what the SEC ended up asking, but we would at least for the 17 possibility of some limited re-redirect because this is --

18 THE COURT: Yeah, I hear you. I expected you to ask
19 for it. I'm still keeping that possibility open as well
20 because of the unique situation of the way I combined it. So
21 just let me know. It would be brief anyway. I'm willing to 22 let you do that and let you have the last word on that. If we 23 do that, it wouldn't be a big problem.

24 Even if we do that, I think realistically, we're 25 finishing with Furman tomorrow in the morning by lunch. And

1 then I have one change of plea at 1:30. So assuming we go --
2 let's say we start at 10:30. We finish with his redirect and a
3 possible limited re-redirect. Really almost a recross, I
4 guess, for rehabilitation purposes. Then we will have our 5 lunch break.

6 And then we will come back probably around 2:15 or 7 thereabouts to get our impeachment with this on. So I think
8 you can probably tell your agent realistically, it's probably 9 after lunch. I think I have the agent here by 1:30, 2 o'clock.

10 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Let's just focus on finishing Mr. Furman's
12 testimony in the morning. Now, once the agent is done, we 13 obviously time tomorrow afternoon. So I need to know from the 14 defense the plan for who is going to be called tomorrow
15 afternoon, because we have now covered Joe Cole. We'll have 16 been done with Mr. Furman. We have Kristin Groleau is done.
17 Do we have Christine Furman? Is that the one witness we'll 18 have tomorrow afternoon?

19 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: That works. I can't imagine she will be 21 very long. And then you guys will let me know, I trust, in the 22 morning. If we plan on calling any of the main calls, we know
23 that Manuel and Stoller are not being called, and you're up in 24 the air on Weingold and Vagnozzi.

25 Can you let me know tomorrow morning? Because that

1 way I can see if you're going to call either one, then
2 obviously I think we can squeeze them in. If you are not going
3 to call them, then I think we're going to be in very great
4 shape in terms of timing because that would mean Furman in the 5 morning, last SEC witness agent in the afternoon, Christine
6 Furman, and then everybody is done.

7 So -- and if I need to squeeze one more witness on the 8 defense side, I don't think the witnesses are going to be that
9 long. So I need the defense to let me know if anyone else
10 other than Furman plans on testifying and have that person
11 available mid to late afternoon tomorrow, please, because I
12 think we have a very strong opportunity to have everybody rest
13 in the juror's presence, and then we can get into charging
14 conference on Wednesday morning at 10:30.

15 And I think that's going to be very effective. And 16 Wednesday is bringing them back at 2 o'clock to do closings.
17 So that's the timeline as I see it. And I think we're right on 18 time to put this in the jurors's hands early Wednesday evening,
19 and then that way they can take whatever time they want on 20 Thursday to keep deliberating and if they need it, because 21 we'll have that whole day uninterrupted when they can come
22 back. So even if you put in their hands by 5:00 o'clock or 23 4:45 or something, they can pick a foreperson, get their ideas
24 sorted out, and then we can have ourselves deliberations going
25 into Thursday.

1 MS. BERLIN: That sounds good. And if we have an
2 issue with the agent availability, we won't let it hold it up
3 because we can just call him on rebuttal.

4 THE COURT: Yeah. That's true. We could.

5 MS. BERLIN: He could go either --

6 THE COURT: Yeah, he can go right after. That's fine
7 either way. In fact, to that point, I think we need to make
8 sure -- because I think that no matter which way we dice it,
9 Mr. Furman will be in the morning. So I think what we should 10 do is if you want to let Christine Furman know, she should be
11 able after lunch tomorrow. You have to have her ready, so you
12 have to have here no earlier than 2:00.

13 MR. HYMAN: It's going to be real hard to get
14 Mr. Furman's mom to court tomorrow.

15 THE COURT: So we'll make sure that's available.
16 Yes?

17 MR. JOHN: For closing will you allow the same thing
18 for opening, to walk with the mics.

19 THE COURT: Yes, same thing.

20 We'll talk more about the time, but we're going to let 21 you guys walk around. The one thing we're going to want to 22 make sure you do on closing is exchange demonstratives so that 23 I can make rulings or slide or things like that, so I can
24 handle any objections and we do don't have them breaking up
25 anyone's closings.

1 So any other housekeeping issues? I think that, you
2 know, to the extent that we have given favorable latitude, if
3 you will, I think, to allow the defense to put on their case, I
4 think given that we got these things in, most of the stuff
5 about the state of mind. And you might get a little extra
6 recross tomorrow. I think all the issues you want to get in 7 for his mental state are going to be obtained by the defense,
8 so let you put on a fulsome defense which is the Court's goal.
9 That's going to be fine. And you guys, again, just let me know
10 on the redirect, but I'm comfortable giving you a spot.

11 MR. HYMAN: For the record, you've got to give us
12 credit for moving quickly.

13 THE COURT: Look, part of the benefit, of course, this
14 is going to be Zoom and let you guys move right into stuff
15 without having to belabor it. And I mean, truthfully, we had 16 so much direct material from Mr. Furman that I think you guys
17 were able to narrow down the focus, which is good.

18 So you can leave -- leave all that there. The only 19 thing tomorrow is this 1:30 change of plea, but that's not even 20 going to impact the binders. One person is going to come in.
21 It's not going to mess with you guys. And no one is going to 22 come in until 10:30 anyway. So leave everything in here. You
23 don't have to do anything with it, with your binders.

24 Is there anything else on the SEC's side, like
25 housekeeping stuff that I need to address?

1 MS. BERLIN: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: I granted at the motion already as we're
3 sitting here, so you're up and running.

4 MS. BERLIN: Wait. We have to file a response to a
5 motion midtrial?

6 THE COURT: No, no, no. No, no, no. It was a
7 memoranda he filed regarding the issue of the integration. He 8 filed a memoranda for the Court as an exhibit. I just deemed
9 it filed. He had a motion for leave to file it, and I granted
10 it. We'll discuss that.

11 MS. BERLIN: I thought it was another motion, in trial
12 motion.

13 THE COURT: No, no, no. No, no, no. I just wanted to 14 make sure that that was properly docketed.

15 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. Thank you so much.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Anything on the defense side?
17 Guys, we're good?

18 MR. HYMAN: Yeah. To be clear, we're going to be 19 anticipate doing closings Thursday?

20 THE COURT: I mean, I think Wednesday.

21 MS. BERLIN: I think Wednesday.

22 THE COURT: Almost certainly Wednesday afternoon.
23 Wednesday afternoon is what it looks like.

24 MR. HYMAN: Okay.

25 THE COURT: So I think Wednesday afternoon. Starting

1 Wednesday morning will be charge conference at 10:30. Look, I
2 haven't gone back and looked at the recent iteration of jury
3 instructions. I don't know what kind of shape we're in. We
4 may not need that much time. So if we don't -- one thing is I
5 won't have you guys close until Wednesday afternoon. So if for 6 whatever reason we finish it in an hour, you guys are off. You
7 collect your thoughts, eat, do whatever you need to do before
8 closings. But I think Wednesday at 2 o'clock is our target for 9 closings.

10 MS. BERLIN: That sounds good, Your Honor. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: With that being said, we're in recess
12 until tomorrow at 10:30.

13 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. Good night.

14 MR. HYMAN: For me, it's I've got a specially set kind 15 of trial thing Thursday, and the Court said basically I have to 16 let him know where -- this is Wednesday night.

17 THE COURT: Let them know -- state court?

18 MR. HYMAN: Yeah. County court.

19 THE COURT: I wouldn't worry. Let the county --
20 Broward or Miami-Dade?

21 MR. HYMAN: Palm Beach. Actually, no. Broward, but
22 yeah.

23 THE COURT: Let the judge know that you need to be 24 here. Because look, let's assume for some reason that they're 25 deliberating. There could be juror questions and I want you to

1 be here. So just let him know that we plan on closing. The
2 judge says either Wednesday or Thursday closings, and so the
3 Court has asked that I be present if they can reset.

4 MR. HYMAN: Would you mind -- the judge already agreed
5 to reset. If you wouldn't mind entering a paperless order
6 saying Mr. Hyman shall be at the court Thursday --

7 THE COURT: No. He doesn't need that. If he has a
8 question, he can call my CRD. Do it like that. Just say:
9 Judge Ruiz said if there's any concerns about timing, to please
10 just call my chambers. Give him my phone number and I'll cover
11 for you. You will be fine.

12 MR. HYMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Yeah, that's fine. All right. We're in
14 recess.

15 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor. Have a good
16 night.

3 THE COURT: Okay, so back on the record, SEC versus
4 Mr. Furman. We are ready to go this morning. All our jurors
10:59 5 have now arrived. Our plan, based upon yesterday's discussion,
6 was to have Mr. Furman's examination continue through the SEC.
7 And then we'll see where we're at after that. I expect that
8 the SEC wanted to potentially call their witness, the agent.
9 Their additional witness. And I know that they talked about 10:59 10 maybe doing that as a rebuttal, but we'll see what the 11 witness's availability is in just a moment, and then my 12 understanding is, speaking with my CRD, the defense intends on 13 calling one additional witness in their case and that would be
14 the defendant's mother, Christine Furman, that there's been a
11:00 15 decision not to call Mr. Weingold or any of the other to folks
16 on the "may call list."

17 Is that right, Mr. Hyman?

18 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right, very good. All right. And do
11:00 20 I have a sense of availability for the SEC as to that one
21 additional witness?

22 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor. 1:00 o'clock, and 23 later. So I wasn't sure what time we were taking the break.
24 We'll be less than 10 minutes with Mr. Furman for our 11:00 25 cross/redirect and we have let him know that it's very brief.

1 THE COURT: So if that's going to be brief, do we have
2 Ms. Furman here? Is she around?

3 MR. JOHN: She's in the back.

4 THE COURT: Oh, great. Okay, good. So what we'll do
11:00 5 is we'll have Mr. Furman come on the stand, we'll finish him
6 and as I stated we'll have -- at this point I don't even know
7 if it's recross, but I'll give you some additional, if you need
8 it, just let me know and you'll get it and then we'll call
9 Ms. Furman up and then we will take our break. By that point,
11:01 10 I would imagine that would take us to the lunch hour, and then 11 we'll have the agent come on sometime after 1:00 o'clock, maybe
12 1:30, and I think that's going to be it.

13 So one of the things that we could do is spend
14 whatever remaining time we have today on charging conference.
11:01 15 It looks like we have time. Because I don't think it's going
16 to be very long for us to be get through the remaining
17 witnesses and that could put us in a position to do our closing
18 arguments in the morning tomorrow as opposed to the afternoon.
19 I prefer that. Only because I hate the idea of putting the 11:01 20 verdict form in the juror's hands closer to 5:00 o'clock.
21 That's not good for anybody. I'd like to have a full day and 22 we can even get them lunch tomorrow, they can start
23 deliberating over lunch. I have a sentencing at 1:30, but my 24 courtroom deputy and I are prepared to get that down the line
11:02 25 so we can get this done.

1 So I think we're in great shape in terms of
2 scheduling. All right. So I don't want to waste any time so
3 we can take advantage of wrapping up this morning.

4 Rita, let's bring in our jurors.

11:02 5 THE DEFENDANT: Do you want me to take the stand?

6 THE COURT: Yeah. Go ahead and get yourself
7 comfortable.

8 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

9 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Good morning
11:03 10 ladies and gentlemen of the jury, good to see you all.

11 So just to give you a little preview of what the plan
12 is this morning before, I we end up breaking for lunch, you may 13 recall that we had the defense get through their examination of 14 Mr. Furman yesterday. We're going to complete Mr. Furman's 11:03 15 examination this morning. The SEC's going to get an 16 opportunity to do essentially a bit of redirect and then I will 17 prompt and see if the defense has any final questions they 18 would like to ask.

19 That is done, in large part, so that we streamline
11:04 20 Mr. Furman's testimony and give equal time to both sides. Once 21 we are done with that, we expect to have only a few witnesses
22 remaining between both the defense and the SEC. That means
23 that there's a very strong possibility that all testimony will 24 be done today, which sets us up for tomorrow being instructed
11:04 25 on the law and closing arguments, and that puts us with you

1 guys deliberating by tomorrow afternoon.

2 So that's our goal right now. So we're right on pace.

3 So with that being said, we're going to turn it back
4 over to the SEC to continue their questioning of Mr. Furman.

11:04 5 You guys all have your note pads I see.

6 All right, thank you, folks.

7 Go ahead, Ms. Berlin, the floor is yours.

8 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

9 Thereupon,

10 MICHAEL C. FURMAN

11 having been previously duly sworn, testified as follows:

12

13 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

11:04 15 Q. Did you tell investors that companies like Par Funding do
16 not deal with individual investors, which is the purpose of why
17 they needed your company Fidelis?

18 A. A majority of them, I can't speak for every company in the 19 country or in the industry but, yes, the majority of companies.

11:05 20 Q. Did you tell investors that this investment with 21 Par Funding it worked similar to a pass-through?

22 A. Pass-through?

23 Q. Yes.

24 A. I don't know if I would use those words but I explained
11:05 25 what an LLC, a company would be in the sense that the money

1 goes to my fund and then I would invest that money into
2 Par Funding.

3 I'm not an attorney but those are the words that are 4 similar.

11:05 5 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, can we show a document just 6 to the witness?

7 THE COURT: Sure.

8 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

11:06 10 Q. Are you able to see that document on your screen,
11 Mr. Furman?

12 A. Yes, I am.

13 Q. And it's your e-mail to one of the investors Millin Livis?

14 A. Correct.

11:06 15 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I would like to introduce 16 this document as an exhibit.

17 MR. HYMAN: No objection, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: That will be admitted without objection.

19 What is the number on that, again?

11:06 20 MS. BERLIN: I was just trying to get that.

21 THE COURT: I just want to make sure for the record.

22 MS. BERLIN: 587, Your Honor.

23 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

24 MS. BERLIN: May we publish the exhibit?

11:06 25 THE COURT: You may.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. And so this is your e-mail to Ms. Livis, one of the 4 Par Funding investors, correct?

11:07 5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And the subject matter makes clear that you're talking
7 about this MCA Par Funding related investment.

8 Do you see that?

9 A. I do.

11:07 10 Q. And can you just read the portion that I've highlighted on 11 the screen for you?

12 A. Yes. It says "The, quote, fund, which is Fidelis Financial 13 Planning, LLC fund, has the security agreement and is secured
14 by Par Funding not directly to each investor. No company deals
11:07 15 with the individual investors. This is the purpose for why we 16 need a private placement. Each investor has their own
17 individual unsecured note with the fund and it works similar to 18 a pass-through. There is a security agreement in the secured
19 filing for the fund, it's not for each individual investor."

11:07 20 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor. No further
21 questions.

22 THE COURT: Any questions, Mr. Hyman.

23 MR. HYMAN: Sure. Would you mind putting that back on 24 the ELMO for me, please?

11:07 25 MS. BERLIN: Here you can use mine.

1 MR. HYMAN: Thank you so much.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. HYMAN:

11:08 5 Q. So, see on the ELMO how Ms. Berlin asked you if you stated
6 that the investment works like a pass-through? Do you remember
7 her asking you that question?

8 A. Yes, that's not what that states, but yes.

9 Q. It says it's similar to a pass-through, right?

11:08 10 A. And it's when -- this was after Corona or after the 11 pandemic, during that whole call we were in an unsecured --
12 these are unsecured notes, I'm not sure if they have used that 13 word before but they were unsecured by Par.

14 Q. Just it was similar to a pass-through?

11:08 15 A. The security part of it, the UCC filing.

16 Q. So that was -- and isn't it true that Fidelis had an 17 interest with respect to all of the notes that it issued to
18 Par Funding?

19 A. Yes. That's what --

11:08 20 Q. I'm sorry, issued to investors?

21 A. That's what I was trying to explain was that she had a -- a
22 security between -- for the UCC would be between Par Funding,
23 they're going to file that we were then in a secured lien
24 position after the pandemic when they had to lower the interest
11:08 25 rates, that was one of the part of the deal. But that would

1 pass through to her, that's --

2 Q. And isn't it true that you never sold any notes for CBSG to 3 anybody?

4 A. Never. I had my fund and that was it, period.

11:09 5 Q. Prior to COVID did Par Funding or CBSG ever miss a payment
6 to Fidelis?

7 A. No. Never late, nothing. That was one of the wonderful
8 parts of this.

9 Q. And prior to COVID, did Par Funding make all of its 11:09 10 interest payments to Fidelis?

11 A. Yes, one hundred percent. The only time was during COVID
12 for two months and they restarted and paid on time.

13 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'm going to object. This is 14 the motion in limine.

11:09 15 THE COURT: Understood. Let's finish the answer.
16 Let's move on. Go ahead.

17 BY MR. HYMAN:

18 Q. And you had no reason to suspect that the investment in 19 Par Funding wasn't safe and secure, did you?

11:09 20 A. No, I would never use that it was a safe, secure like an 21 annuity.

22 MR. HYMAN: No further questions.

23 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

24 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, any questions for
11:09 25 Mr. Furman?

1 THE JURY: (Shaking head).

2 THE COURT: Mr. Furman, you're free to rejoin
3 counsel's table.

4 So at this time what we're going to go ahead and do,
11:10 5 folks, I know that we had called a couple of witnesses out of 6 turn. We're going to go ahead and have the defense call their
7 next witness. Okay. So who is defense's next witness?

8 MR. JOHN: Christine Furman, Your Honor. She's 9 outside.

11:10 10 THE COURT: We'll get her in and we'll get her sworn.
11 Thereupon,

12 CHRISTINE FURMAN,
13 having been duly sworn by the court reporter, testified as 14 follows:

11:11 15

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. JOHN:

18 Q. Good morning, Ms. Furman.

19 A. Good morning.

11:11 20 Q. Ms. Furman, would you please introduce yourself to the 21 Court and to the members of the jury and spell your last name
22 for the record?

23 A. Yes, my name is Christine Furman. I am 69 years old. I
24 live in West Palm Beach, Florida.

11:11 25 Q. Ms. Furman, I want you to start by just introducing some of

1 your background, educational and work history for us, if you
2 can.

3 A. Sure. I am a teach -- a special education teacher. I
4 teach mentally handicapped and emotionally handicapped high 11:11 5 school students. I taught for 31 years in Williamstown, New 6 Jersey.

7 Q. Are you from New Jersey originally?

8 A. I'm originally from New York, but I've lived most of my 9 life in New Jersey.

11:12 10 Q. And when did you make your way to Florida?

11 A. In 2014. I have two sons. They both live in Florida. My 12 husband, in 2009 was diagnosed with an inoperable brain tumor
13 and through a lot of help he recovered. Two years later he had 14 cancer. And so we figured that's two strikes, maybe we should 11:12 15 consider not waiting for the third to hit, and we put our house
16 up for sale and we moved to Florida in January of 2015.

17 I'm sorry, go ahead.

18 Q. So when you have two sons here in Florida, are one of those 19 sons the defendant in this case Mr. Michael Furman?

11:13 20 A. Yes, Michael is my youngest son. I have -- he has an older
21 brother by two years. My other son lives in Saint Petersburg
22 on the west coast. My son lives here in West Palm Beach.

23 Q. When you arrived here in 2015, did you pick up work as a
24 teacher again?

11:13 25 A. No, I didn't. When I decided to retire, I was just of the

1 age where I could collect social security. My husband already
2 collected social security. And being a teacher I had a small
3 pension. When we came here, because we had one son on the east
4 coast and one son on the gulf coast, we really weren't sure
11:13 5 where we were going to live, so Michael graciously invited us
6 to move into his house and gave us time to look around. My 7 other son has a very small place and had a child, was expecting
8 a child and is married, so we appreciated Michael's assistance
9 in giving us a place before we actually knew where we were 11:14 10 going to settle.

11 Q. At some point after you arrived and then moved in with 12 Mr. Furman, did you become aware of a company called 13 United Fidelis Group?

14 A. Yes. That was Michael's company. He was located in West
11:14 15 Palm Beach.

16 Q. And beyond just being familiar with United Fidelis Company,
17 did you ever visit Mr. Furman's office in West Palm Beach?

18 A. Yes, I did. When we first got there I met his executive 19 assistant. Very nice young lady. About two months after we 11:14 20 moved in with Michael she informed him that for medical reasons
21 she was going to have to take a leave of absence immediately
22 which left him with no one in the office other than himself. I
23 volunteered -- what can I tell you, I was a teacher. I
24 volunteered and I figured I could answer a phone and I didn't 11:15 25 have to do lesson plans and I was dealing with adults. And

1 about three weeks later when she was expected back, she
2 informed Michael that for health reasons she was not going to
3 be able to come back. So I stayed permanently.

4 Q. When you started with United Fidelis Group, what type of 11:15 5 work did you do for the company? What were your 6 responsibilities?

7 A. I answered the telephone, I scheduled people and
8 rescheduled people. I took care of the office bills, making
9 sure that the rent was paid and the utilities, general filing,
11:15 10 things -- it wasn't much in the beginning because, again, I was 11 a teacher, I wasn't trained as a secretary. Michael was 12 excellent at being able to assist me with how to use the 13 scheduling program.

14 Q. As you continued on with United Fidelis Group, did your 11:15 15 responsibilities change?

16 A. Yes, they increased. I -- he worked with a company from 17 Arizona, JD Mellberg. They provided leads. I would do a lot
18 more calling, a lot more scheduling, met some very nice people.
19 And that was it for a while.

11:16 20 Q. I want to talk to you about the calls you said you made.
21 These are presumably to clients or potential clients, those 22 calls?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did you ever interact personally with any clients or 11:16 25 potential clients at the office?

1 A. Oh, yes. Yes. As I said, I met some very, very nice
2 people. It was always -- everybody always knew that I was
3 Michael's mother. They also knew that I was a teacher. We had
4 people travel from Vero Beach. I remember several of them. I
11:16 5 remember many of them. I wouldn't be able to give you all of 6 their names but, yes, I would greet them when they got off the 7 elevator and escort them back, provide them with coffee, tea,
8 whatever. Some people would bring financial material that they 9 wanted Michael to look at. And I would make copies of that 11:17 10 because either they were going to leave, possibly leave with 11 him the original or a copy. But, yes, I interacted with all of 12 them.

13 Q. When you say some of the folks visiting the office would 14 bring financial material, do you remember what kind of 11:17 15 materials they would bring?

16 A. I usually would ask them to bring -- if there was something
17 they were coming in specifically for, I would ask them to bring 18 whatever their latest statements were that would apply to them.

19 Q. Is it fair to say that United Fidelis Group sold or offered
11:17 20 a number of financial products?

21 A. Yes, Michael believed in diversification. He always told
22 his clients that you should never put all of your money in one
23 place.

24 MS. JOHNSON: I am going to object.

11:18 25 THE COURT: Overruled. I'll allow it. Go ahead.

1 A. You should never put all of your money in one investment.
2 He would -- he wouldn't tell them what to do, he would just
3 offer advice. And never really pushed anybody ever to make a
4 decision first meeting, second meeting, sometimes third. Some 11:18 5 of these people came in very often.

6 BY MR. JOHN:

7 Q. Well, let me talk to you about that. When potential
8 clients would call into the office, would you generally know
9 how they learned of United Fidelis? Was there a marketing
11:18 10 program for United Fidelis?

11 A. In the very beginning, Michael belonged to a BNI, business
12 networking which was for business, independent business owners
13 in Palm Beach, West Palm Beach. They would meet once a month.
14 They would share information about their company with the other
11:19 15 people that were there. So if anybody -- for instance, if one
16 of Michael's clients came in and was interested in real estate,
17 if he believed that he liked the person that was in these 18 monthly meetings as a real estate broker, then he would give 19 them their card with no obligation in any way. He also 11:19 20 advertised in a monthly newspaper the Coastal Star.

21 He is -- he did estate planning so he offered many 22 things. And from there he began to advertise even more.

23 Q. And when clients would call in based on what they were 24 looking for, would you direct them what documents they needed
11:19 25 to bring into the office?

1 A. No, I would -- no, I did not -- I did not. I would either
2 ask Michael or just in general say, "Please bring your latest
3 statement if you have something in mind."

4 Q. So, in some cases, Mr. Furman would advise you what 11:20 5 documents he would need them to bring?

6 A. Yes, sometimes I would just direct the call when they would 7 come in because some people didn't want to just make an 8 appointment, they wanted to speak directly with Michael before
9 they made the trip, because some people traveled a distance.

11:20 10 Q. Did you find that Mr. Furman would make himself available
11 for those type of calls?

12 A. Always, always. There were times where some people, they 13 asked him for -- asked me to have him call them back at a
14 specific time. Sometimes that would be 9:00 o'clock at night
11:20 15 and he would still call.

16 Q. You mentioned that Mr. Furman would meet in person with 17 clients and potential clients. Can you describe for me what 18 you recall about those meetings, length, what materials might 19 be involved in those meetings, if you recall?

11:20 20 A. Certainly. First, there were some people that did not want
21 to come out to the office and so Michael would drive to them.
22 The people who were interested, and I always encouraged people
23 to come into the office because Michael had set up a screen
24 larger than this screen on the left side of his -- left front
11:21 25 of his desk.

1 So anything that he was looking at as far as
2 documentation, they could see also. So as they -- he was
3 explaining to them, I'm just going to use the word an annuity
4 or an insurance policy, he would bring it up on the screen and 11:21 5 not only did they have to listen, then they could see it, too,
6 because some people are not auditory learners, they really need
7 to see what it is that you are talking about.

8 When they would come in, it was actually -- the length
9 of the meetings, I never allowed less than -- or scheduled less
11:21 10 than three hours for a first meeting.

11 Q. Why is that?

12 A. Because Michael took great pains to be very patient with 13 people. Understanding that some people, myself included, are 14 not financially gifted in being able to understand everything
11:22 15 that is explained the first time around. So three hours was 16 the least amount of time. Some of his meetings went on -- we 17 had some meetings that went on for six hours. I walked in and 18 I offered to order dinner or lunch because they had been there
19 so long. I always offered coffee and tea. We had a big basket
11:22 20 of snacks so people could snack while they were there. We had 21 a refrigerator so that they could have something to drink.

22 It was a very relaxed atmosphere so people felt
23 comfortable.

24 Q. At some point, did you become aware of a company called 11:22 25 Fidelis Financial Planning?

1 A. Yes, Fidelis. Uh-huh. (Nodding).

2 Q. How were you aware of that company?

3 A. Actually, I had been there a while. And that's one of 4 Michael's companies.

11:23 5 Q. Mrs. Furman, are you familiar with the term "accredited
6 investor"?

7 A. Yes, I am.

8 Q. Were there some products that Fidelis Financial Planning
9 offered that were specifically for accredited investors?

11:23 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Are you aware of any marketing that Fidelis did that was 12 targeted specifically at accredited investors?

13 A. Yes. Michael held -- after he went through advertising in 14 the newspapers, he started doing seminars, lunch seminars and 11:23 15 dinner seminars. Being a senior citizen in South Florida, I
16 can attest to the fact that you get a ton -- pre-COVID times,
17 you would get a ton of mail inviting you, I probably could have 18 eaten out five days out of seven if I was willing to go to the 19 seminars that were being put on mainly investments, insurances,
11:24 20 things like that.

21 So Michael decided that maybe seminars were the way to 22 go. In order to qualify for the seminar, the specific seminar
23 that included a company called Par Funding, you had to be an 24 accredited investor. So once that advertisement came out when 11:24 25 people called, I would ask whether they were accredited

1 investors. I would go over what an accredited investor was.
2 If they were interested in attending, then I took their names,
3 and then the day before I would always call back to verify that
4 they were still coming. I would go over again that they were 11:24 5 accredited investors. And at the seminars, that would be one
6 of the first things that Michael would say and it was up on the 7 screen.

8 MS. JOHNSON: Objection, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

11:24 10 BY MR. JOHN:

11 Q. May I ask you, sticking with the seminars, did you ever
12 become aware or acquainted with someone named Perry Abbonizio?

13 A. Yes. Yes. I got to know Perry Abbonizio quite well.

14 Perry Abbonizio would fly down for each of the seminars. We 11:25 15 tried to hold two in a row, meaning maybe a Tuesday and a
16 Wednesday. We limited the number of people so that it was a
17 little bit more personal. And Michael would -- would you like
18 me to tell you --

19 Q. Let me ask you this: At the seminars, would Mr. Abbonizio
11:25 20 ever speak?

21 A. Oh, yes. Yes. He would explain the whole merchant cash.
22 He did an excellent job, in my opinion, of explaining the 23 merchant cash program.

24 Q. And besides merchant cash, would Mr. Furman discuss other
11:25 25 products offered by the United Fidelis Group?

1 A. Yes, our seminars began. Michael would introduce himself.
2 He also would introduce Mr. Abbonizio. He also would introduce
3 Mr. Manual who was always there. And Michael would go through 4 the fact that -- and with the presentation on the screen that 11:26 5 he was a financial planner and the different things that he
6 did. And would go into explanations of those, and then he
7 would introduce Perry Abbonizio.

8 Perry Abbonizio then would go through a whole
9 PowerPoint presentation of what the merchant cash advance
11:26 10 program was.

11 Q. You mentioned that before the seminars, you would sign
12 folks up and record their names. Was there any kind of check-
13 in process at the seminar itself?

14 A. That was me. Yes.

11:26 15 Q. Could you describe that for the members of the jury?

16 A. Certainly. I took down -- when I -- when they called in, I
17 would take down their personal information, meaning telephone
18 number, I would remind them that in order to qualify to attend
19 that they had to be an accredited investor and I would explain
11:26 20 what that was. When I called back the day before, I also would 21 reiterate that just to make sure that they were still on board
22 for coming because we did occasionally have a waiting list of 23 people who wanted to attend a certain day but we only had so
24 much seating.

11:27 25 And then when they got there, I sat at the front or,

1 actually, I guess it would be at the back, when they would
2 enter, and I would check them in and by this point, I had
3 already spoken to them twice so they knew my voice, I knew
4 them. And they would show me -- they didn't necessarily have 11:27 5 to show me any identification, but I reiterated that they were,
6 again, accredited investors.

7 Q. I want to go back to something you mentioned. You
8 mentioned a company called Par Funding. How did you become 9 familiar with Par Funding?

11:27 10 A. I became familiar when, again, I lived with Michael. And 11 so he returned from a trip to Center City, Philadelphia, which 12 was only 20 minutes from where I used to live. When he had 13 gone there, he had gone for a program that they were putting on 14 about their different investments. One of them was 11:28 15 Par Funding, so it was mentioned at that time.

16 Q. At any point, was there ever a time when customers would 17 call in and you would send them to Par Funding for information?

18 A. No, I wouldn't even know how to do that, no.

19 Q. Did you ever become familiar with a company called A Better
11:28 20 Financial Plan Management Company?

21 A. A Better Financial Plan? I guess -- I couldn't even answer
22 that. I've heard of it, but I can't tell you how I --

23 Q. Were you ever familiar with someone named Dean Vagnozzi?

24 A. Yes. I've never spoken to him. I believe he is the 11:28 25 gentleman when Michael went up to Philadelphia that put on the

1 program that showed various investment opportunity.

2 Q. Was there ever a time when customers would call in and you
3 would send them to Dean Vagnozzi?

4 A. Never. I wouldn't know how to get ahold of him.

11:29 5 Q. Was there ever a time that you reported to anyone but
6 Mr. Furman at United Fidelis Group?

7 A. No, only him.

8 Q. Was there ever a time that you understood that anyone but 9 Mr. Furman was in charge of Fidelis Financial Planning?

11:29 10 A. No, nobody else was in charge.

11 Q. During your time with Fidelis Financial Group, I want to 12 talk to you about some of the specific investors you may have 13 met. Okay?

14 Are you familiar with someone named Frank Nash?

11:29 15 A. Oh yes. Yes. I've met with Frank Nash many, many times.
16 He has called many times. He is a lovable guy. He would come
17 in. He would bring honey because he knew that I liked honey in 18 my tea and he raised honey, raised honeybees. He would -- he 19 never came in alone. He was kind of mothered by the people,
11:30 20 the women that came in with --

21 Q. Let me stop you there for a second and ask you --

22 MS. JOHNSON: Objection, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Overruled.

24 BY MR. JOHN:

11:30 25 Q. Sticking with Mr. Nash and the dinner events you spoke

1 about earlier, do you know whether Mr. Nash ever attended any
2 of those dinner events?

3 A. Yes, Mr. Nash attended several of them. The first one that
4 he attended was at Chris Ruth's Steakhouse (sic). It was a
11:30 5 horrendous weather day. The poor man walked in soaking wet.
6 From that point on, he always asked to be -- for us to let him
7 know when they were scheduling another event. And so he came 8 for several of them.

9 Q. Okay. What about a Mr. Mark Reikes, are you familiar with 11:30 10 that person?

11 A. The name, but I'm afraid no mental picture comes.

12 Q. Did you ever meet a Mr. Henry Barth?

13 A. Oh, yes, I met Mr. Barth several times. I've spoken to him
14 on the telephone. He came to -- he also came to a seminar
11:31 15 maybe more than one, I'd have to look.

16 Q. And had Mr. Barth ever met with Mr. Furman in person at the 17 office?

18 A. Yes. Yes. Mr. Barth was another three-hour, at least,
19 meeting probably once every couple of months I'd say.

11:31 20 Q. What about Mr. Nash, did he ever meet with Mr. Furman at 21 the office in person?

22 A. Yes, Mr. Nash did. Mr. Nash, his meetings went very long.
23 He was a very talkative man, very talkative man. But yeah, he 24 met with Michael very often. He would call sometimes to ask
11:31 25 additional questions. He always came, he always brought me

1 something to eat, donuts or whatever.

2 Q. What about a Mr. Robert Renner, did you ever meet Mr.
3 Robert Renner?

4 A. The name is familiar but, again, I don't -- I believe he 11:32 5 came to -- I believe I checked him in at a seminar. I'm not 6 sure which seminar it was.

7 Q. Do you ever recall receiving any monthly reports regarding 8 funding analysis related to Fidelis Financial Planning?

9 A. That was not my position at the time. Any mail that came 11:32 10 in that was specifically financial, I would bring to Michael.

11 Q. Okay.

12 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, a moment to confer.

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 BY MR. JOHN:

11:33 15 Q. And just a couple more questions, Ms. Furman.

16 Do you still reside in West Palm Beach?

17 A. I do. I'm still living with Michael. My husband and I had 18 rented a condo in Clearwater on the gulf coast so we could be 19 closer to our two grandchildren. When this all came down,
11:33 20 Michael's assets were frozen and we needed to give up our 21 rental and move back to West Palm so that we could pool our 22 resources so he could live.

23 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, no further questions for this
24 witness at this time.

11:33 25 THE COURT: Thank you. Cross-examination, please.

CROSS EXAMINATION

1

2 BY MS. JOHNSON:

3 Q. Good morning, Mrs. Furman.

4 A. Good morning.

11:33 5 Q. You're here to help your son today, aren't you?

6 A. I'm here to provide information.

7 Q. Did you help him make all the exhibits, make copies of the 8 exhibits for him in this case?

9 A. I did because he was given very little time to be able to 11:34 10 do that.

11 Q. And you made thousands of copies?

12 A. Over 2,000, yes.

13 Q. And when did you begin working with him?

14 A. I began working with him April 2015.

11:34 15 Q. And when did you begin living with him?

16 A. January 29, 2015.

17 Q. Do you cook dinner for him?

18 A. Yes, I do. Unless we order out but we haven't been doing
19 much of that because it's expensive. My husband has to eat,
11:34 20 too.

21 Q. And did a lot of seniors attend these seminars that you
22 spoke about earlier?

23 A. Your definition of senior?

24 Q. Sixty and over.

11:35 25 A. Yeah, there were some people, I believe who were less than

1 60, but, yes, I would say that probably three-quarters of them
2 were people who were either getting ready to retire or had 3 retired.

4 Q. So you will agree with me that they were geared towards 11:35 5 retirees?

6 A. I don't know they were necessarily geared towards retirees.
7 They were geared towards people who wanted to invest money to 8 get a return on an investment.

9 Q. And you talked about Mr. Furman, your son, meeting with 11:35 10 clients at the office. You aren't in the room during those 11 three-hour meetings were you?

12 A. No, I had a cubicle right outside. It -- he was -- he
13 rented one office on a floor that is a law firm and I would go
14 in and out being able to bring something if something was 11:36 15 needed. I do have to say that the office's office walls, all
16 of them were paper thin, so I could hear the bankruptcy lawyer
17 like next door.

18 But, no, to tell you that I could hear what they were 19 doing other than bringing coffee and tea in or making copies of 11:36 20 something, I was not present for their meetings.

21 Q. Let me show you --

22 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

23 MS. JOHNSON: May I approach so I don't have to 24 publish this yet?

11:36 25 MR. HYMAN: There's no objection to its production.

1 THE COURT: Okay, we can move that in if it's not
2 already in. What's the number on that?

3 MS. JOHNSON: 573.

4 MR. HYMAN: No objection.

11:36 5 THE COURT: That will be admitted, and if you need to 6 publish, go ahead.

7 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

8 BY MS. JOHNSON:

9 Q. Were you still working for your son in February 12th of 11:37 10 2020?

11 A. I would work on and off so what happened was when my
12 husband and I rented the condo in Clearwater, we wouldn't stay
13 there continuously. We would stay for a couple of weeks and 14 then we would come back and stay with Michael and I would work
11:37 15 remotely.

16 Q. Well, let me make this a little easier. Do you recognize 17 what you have in front of you Exhibit 573?

18 A. It is a signed -- well, it's the followup sign-in sheet for 19 an alternative investment seminar in Boca. I did attend one
11:38 20 that was in Boca, yes. And Kristin -- it has my name and 21 Kristin's name and we were the sign-in staff.

22 Q. And you'll see where it says, "Alternative investment
23 seminar, Seasons 52"?

24 A. Yes.

11:38 25 Q. You were the sign-in staff?

1 A. Yes. If that's what it says, then we were.

2 Q. And what -- are these the names of investors around the
3 left-hand side?

4 A. These are not necessarily investors.

11:38 5 Q. Attendees?

6 A. No, these are people, people on the left-hand side, I have 7 it here.

8 Yes. These were attendees. People who signed, who 9 requested to attend to get further information.

11:38 10 Q. And you were checking them in as they claim in?

11 A. We would check them in, yes. Sometimes they would sign up
12 for, for instance, the first one, possibly a husband and wife
13 and sometimes the wife wouldn't attend. So we kept track of 14 who attended.

11:39 15 Q. And then the numbers in the first column, does that 16 represent who attended to keep the person --

17 A. The number that attended, yes.

18 Q. So about 25 people?

19 A. I guess. I don't think I prepared this. I think Kristin 11:39 20 prepared this. I think I was just attending to help sign-in.
21 Because sometimes you would get 12, 15 people at one time. And 22 we didn't really want to have a line. So --

23 Q. And this "referred by" column, does that represent how the 24 person heard about the seminar?

11:39 25 A. Yes, through an advertisement in either the Sun Sentinel or

1 the Palm Beach Post.

2 Q. And the last column says, "Accredited, yes or no." That's
3 what you talked about so where it says a yes, those people you
4 confirmed were accredited?

11:39 5 A. Kristin would have confirmed that they were accredited.

6 Q. And where it doesn't have anything?

7 A. Doesn't necessarily mean no, it just means that at that
8 point she didn't record it as yes.

9 Q. Or no?

11:40 10 A. Yes or no.

11 Q. Did your son ever tell that you Joseph LaForte had a
12 criminal conviction?

13 A. No. My son actually didn't mention Joseph LaForte.

14 MS. JOHNSON: There's all, Your Honor. Thank you.

11:40 15 THE COURT: Okay. Any redirect?

16 MR. JOHN: Yes, Your Honor, briefly.

17

18 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. JOHN:

11:40 20 Q. Hello again, Ms. Furman.

21 A. Hi.

22 Q. During your cross-examination you were asked about a sign-
23 in sheet used for United Fidelis Group. Do you recall that?

24 A. Yes.

11:40 25 Q. If you ever found that an unaccredited individual made it

1 to the dinners, what would be the process at that point?

2 A. Well, at that point, remember they would have already been
3 asked twice when they scheduled and when we made the 4 confirmation. And the assumption would be that they would have 11:41 5 said yes twice.

6 When they got there, if they then changed their 7 response to no, we would have had to step out and explain to 8 them that the presentation was only for accredited investors
9 and, unfortunately, they didn't qualify.

11:41 10 Q. Did they still get the free dinner?

11 A. No.

12 Q. If you found after the fact, after the event, that there
13 was an unaccredited investor present, what would be the process
14 at that point?

11:41 15 A. Well, the process after the seminars was that we would call
16 them the following day. And see -- now I would preface that by 17 saying that night after all the presentations were done, many 18 people just stood up. It was a very social time. Michael and 19 Roland and Perry would walk around, introduced themselves
11:42 20 individually to everybody. At that time, some people would ask
21 me to call them immediately. Some people didn't necessarily 22 say that. Not everybody who attended became an investor. Not 23 everybody who attended actually even came in for an 24 appointment. But we would get in touch with them to be able to 11:42 25 schedule whatever was best. At the seminars we handed out a

1 survey and on the survey, one of the questions, first question
2 after their name and address was whether, again, whether or not
3 they were an accredited investor. Down at the bottom it
4 explained what an accredited investor was and one of the 11:43 5 questions that was on there was what did you find most 6 interesting or helpful about the seminar. There also was an 7 area for them to fill in if they would -- what area they would
8 like more information about.

9 So that's where we went from there. I called, whether 11:43 10 they said that they weren't interested, some people were just 11 interested in Roland with his tax business. I called everybody
12 to thank them for attending whether they wanted an appointment
13 after that or not.

14 Q. During your cross-examination you were asked about some of 11:43 15 the type of clients, potential clients that United Fidelis
16 dealt with. Do you recall that?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you know whether or not Mr. Furman or the company
19 itself -- strike that.

11:43 20 Do you know whether or not Mr. Furman considered
21 someone's mental fitness, their competence, when evaluating a
22 customer?

23 A. Yes, always. I mean, that's part of having a person sit 24 with you and talk for you for hours is that you can evaluate 11:44 25 whether or not they're actually understanding what you're

1 saying, whether or not they are confused, whether they're
2 taking what you're saying seriously, not implying that somebody
3 necessarily could remember every single thing, but that's one
4 of the reasons that Michael made sure they went home with 11:44 5 paperwork that explained everything that he had gone over.

6 Q. So simply being elderly, as you understood it, wasn't a bar
7 to investing with United Fidelis Group?

8 A. No. Oh, no. No. In fact, I remember Michael walking out
9 after I had escorted a few people out and he would say, "How 11:44 10 old do you think that person is," and certainly some of those 11 people seemed younger than I am.

12 But no. No. Their age, their age -- mental capacity
13 was something that he always considered. He would never want 14 to take advantage of somebody who didn't know what they might 11:45 15 be doing.

16 Q. Finally, on cross-examination, you were asked about whether 17 or not you cooked dinner for Mr. Furman. Do you remember that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. What's your best dish?

11:45 20 A. Well, Michael has developed a number of allergies, so it
21 used to be a chicken. It used to be Italian food, and I don't 22 really make that anymore.

23 So whatever we can barbecue really. He works -- he 24 used to work long hours and when I worked at his office I was 11:45 25 there for long hours, too. So after all these years, cooking

1 isn't my favorite thing to do.

2 MR. JOHN: A moment to confer, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Sure.

4 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, no further questions for this
11:45 5 witness.

6 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am. Anybody have any 7 questions for Mrs. Furman? No?

8 Thank you, you're excused.

9 A. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: You're welcome.
11:45 10

11 All right. Do we have any additional defense
12 witnesses?

13 MR. HYMAN: No, Your Honor. At this time the defense
14 rests.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Now, I believe that the government
11:46 15
16 has also intended to rest absent a rebuttal witness. Am I
17 correct on that?

18 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. I mean, we're going to call the 19 witness that we advised. I think technically he was in our 11:46 20 direct case but we can call him as rebuttal. We'll do that.
21 We'll call him as rebuttal after lunch.

22 THE COURT: So, ladies and gentlemen of the jury, we 23 only have one remaining witness that we're going to be calling.
24 It's a rebuttal witness from the government. I'm allowing them
11:46 25 to present it in their case in chief. There's also a situation

1 where even after they rest they do could have presented that
2 rebuttal witness, but we're going to go ahead and allow the
3 government witness to present that witness as part of their
4 direct case and then they will also, presumably, rest at that 11:47 5 time. So that's the current plan for today.

6 Now, the one thing I will say is I would ordinarily
7 want to bring you guys back even sooner, but I do have one
8 hearing during the lunch hour so you may get an extended lunch
9 break today. I'm going to have everybody come back at 2:00
11:47 10 o'clock. Okay. So about 1:50 or so you guys can start coming
11 back by that point. Again, my plan is to do the following:
12 The afternoon really only has this one remaining witness.
13 Okay. Once that witness testifies, you guys are done for the 14 day and I'm going to let you guys home. We expect to stay here
11:47 15 and do some work to get the legal part of the case ready for 16 you, the jury instructions, and the idea will be then that you
17 would be returning tomorrow morning and you would find in your 18 chairs a copy of those instructions for each of you. I would 19 review them with you and then we will go straight to closing
11:48 20 arguments.

21 That puts us in a situation where you are going to be 22 heading into the lunch hour. I will probably take care of 23 ordering lunch for you all and you can begin your deliberations
24 around lunch time and then you have the open afternoon to do
11:48 25 that.

1 So that's the schedule that I'm working with right
2 now, absent anything unforeseen, and that's how we're going to
3 wind things up.

4 So, of course, please remember that even though you
11:48 5 know that the end is near in terms of the closing arguments and 6 the law, I want you guys to continue to keep an open mind, we 7 still have one more witness we need to hear from, and once we 8 hear from that witness we will be done for the day, but during 9 the lunch break, of course, do not do any independent research,
11:48 10 do not discuss this case with family or friends or with each
11 other. Do not go on social media to discuss your jury service.
12 Make sure you leave your note pad in the jury room and should
13 you bump into lawyers over the lunch break, please take no
14 offense by their need to avoid you.

11:48 15 So with that being said, have a great lunch hour,
16 we'll see everybody just before 2:00 o'clock, we'll check in 17 around 1:45 to bring you guys coffee.

18 All right. You're all excused.

19 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

11:49 20 THE COURT: Okay. Everyone please be seated. One
21 thing I did want to ask, if it wasn't sent in I think
22 Ms. Johnson you had sent me some -- oh, they did get it here.
23 We do have a Word version of the proposed jury instructions. I
24 was looking for that in my inbox. Okay. Very good.

11:49 25 And this proposed version that was e-mailed to me

1 earlier this morning, is this one that you guys have already
2 discussed or at least done some meet and confer on?

3 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor, there's a few issues
4 provision that we were e-mailing back and forth this morning,
11:49 5 but we have met and conferred.

6 THE COURT: So I can work off of this draft when we
7 have our discussion this afternoon? You can work off of this
8 one?

9 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

11:50 10 THE COURT: Perfect. I'm just going to download it
11 and have it ready to go because I think we're going to have 12 more than enough time to sit down and finish all the jury
13 instructions and verdict this afternoon after we hear from the 14 agent.

11:50 15 So I would ordinarily have had that agent called, if I
16 could have, closer to 1:30. But I have a change of plea at 17 1:30. It is going to be in court. It's not on Zoom. So if 18 you guys would just do me a favor and clear a little bit of 19 space for either side, so I can go ahead and have that done
11:50 20 with my folks here at 1:30 and then, of course, come 2:00
21 o'clock, we'll have our agent come in as our final witness.
22 I'm assuming he's available without an issue at 2:00 o'clock.
23 Right, Ms. Berlin?

24 MS. BERLIN: I assume so. I know he'll be here soon,
11:50 25 and he's going to be here at 1:00. I'm not aware of any issue.

1 THE COURT: Perfect. Okay. Very good. All right.
2 So with that being said, we'll see all of you at 2:00 o'clock
3 for our final witness, and after that I'll let the jury go, and
4 then we will all get into finalizing our jury instructions.
11:51 5 All right. We're in recess until then.

6 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 MR. HYMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Yep.

9 (Thereupon, a luncheon recess was taken.)

10 * * *

11

12

13 A F T E R N O O N S E S S I O N

14 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Okay. We can 02:30 15 go ahead and unmute and all our jurors are present and 16 accounted for. All right. So let's -- any housekeeping before
17 we bring our jurors in? I know that we have one witness
18 remaining. Is that witness standing by?

19 MS. BERLIN: Yes, he's outside of the door ready.

02:30 20 THE COURT: All right. Yes, Mr. Hyman?

21 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, we just wanted to note to the 22 Court that this witness was not disclosed in the SEC's Rule 26
23 disclosures and because the SEC was the party that brought up
24 the statements Mr. Furman made to the FBI agents in their 02:30 25 direct, that his testimony also wouldn't be the proper subject

1 of rebuttal either, and would ask that Your Honor limit the
2 testimony to simply issues of impeachment to the extent there's
3 inconsistent statements given the fact that he wasn't disclosed
4 and they were the ones who brought up the issue and, therefore,
02:30 5 it shouldn't be part of their case in chief nor was it not
6 anticipated.

7 THE COURT: Response from the SEC?

8 MS. BERLIN: Sure, as we explained to defense counsel,
9 rebuttal witnesses, impeachment witnesses do not have --
02:31 10 they're not disclosed, they're not on witness lists.

11 THE COURT: Correct.

12 MS. BERLIN: And so that is not relevant, and if 13 Mr. Furman had -- I mean, Mr. Furman answered the questions but 14 even if he hadn't, we might have called this witness anyway as 02:31 15 a rebuttal witness.

16 So, I mean, this is exactly how things work and it's 17 not a policy decision, it's these are just the rules.

18 THE COURT: Yeah. I mean, I think the important thing
19 is obviously I trust that the SEC will keep it within the range
02:31 20 of --

21 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

22 THE COURT: -- Key issues.

23 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely.

24 THE COURT: As long as I see that and it doesn't end
02:31 25 up being some sort of collateral attack on something and truly

1 focused on rebuttal issues and impeachment, then we won't have
2 any problems.

3 MS. BERLIN: Yes, we're not discussing any
4 investigation. It will only be focused on Mr. Furman and what
02:31 5 he said to the agents. So it's very narrow. And I don't know
6 if the Judge is considering it sensitive and wants to turn off
7 the Zoom or keep it on, but I wanted --

8 THE COURT: That's a good time to ask, because I do
9 have the audio on. Again, do we have any concerns about
02:32 10 ongoing investigations or undercovers through this testimony?

11 MS. BERLIN: It shouldn't come up, but I don't know,
12 you know, what will be asked on cross. I mean, I imagine that 13 we will object to any questions about any investigative work.

14 THE COURT: Yeah, I mean, we talked about that before.
02:32 15 And we have kept that off limits. I'll leave it on but if for 16 some reason it does seem to be heading into troublesome areas,
17 I know you'll let me know or I may feel uncomfortable that 18 we're getting too close and we might mute or at least give a
19 cautionary instruction.

02:32 20 MS. BERLIN: Okay.

21 THE COURT: Okay, let's go ahead and round them up and 22 we'll get started here with our last witness.

23 MS. BERLIN: Can the witness go ahead and come in,
24 Your Honor?

02:33 25 THE COURT: Yes. You can go ahead and take the stand,

1 sir, and if you've been vaccinated, you're free to take off the
2 mask as well.

3 A. Thank you, Your Honor.

4 (Thereupon, jury entered the courtroom.)

02:33 5 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone.

6 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, we have our 7 remaining witness here on the witness stand. We're going to 8 swear him in in just a moment and we'll get started with the 9 SEC's examination.

02:34 10 Gracie, you can go ahead and swear him in.

11 Thereupon,

12 ADAM WEISENSTINE,

13 having been duly sworn by the courtroom deputy, testified as
14 follows:

02:34 15 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. If you'll just have a
16 seat, speak into the microphone and it will require you to lean
17 in a little bit, and state your name for the record.

18 A. Adam Weisenstine.

19 THE COURT: Thank you, and we'll turn it over to the 02:34 20 SEC.

21 You may begin.

22 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

23

24 DIRECT EXAMINATION

02:34 25 BY MS. BERLIN:

1 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Weisenstine.

2 A. Good afternoon.

3 Q. Where do you work?

4 A. I work for the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

02:34 5 Q. And what's your title?

6 A. I'm a special agent.

7 Q. Have you ever met Michael Furman?

8 A. I have.

9 Q. How did that come about?

02:34 10 A. On or about July 28th of 2020, we were executing a federal 11 search warrant at his business office and that's where I met
12 him.

13 Q. And during the visit to Mr. Furman's office, did you have 14 an opportunity to speak with him?

02:35 15 A. I did. We asked if he was willing to speak with myself and 16 another agent, and he agreed to.

17 Q. And where was it that you all spoke?

18 A. We went down the hallway from his office to a conference
19 room and we all sat at the conference room table.

02:35 20 Q. In his office space?

21 A. Yeah, I believe it was on the same floor as his office.

22 Q. During your discussion with Mr. Furman, did he tell you
23 anything about Par Funding?

24 A. Yes. He stated that himself and a Mr. Vagnozzi, through an 02:35 25 arrangement they had, he would put money into Par Funding with

1 investor funds.

2 Q. And during this interview on or about July 28, 2020, did
3 Mr. Furman tell you whether or not he was still soliciting
4 investors for Par Funding?

02:35 5 A. Yes. On the day of the search warrant he was supposed to 6 be meeting a client who was going to bring about 10 million
7 dollars in that would go to Par Funding. I believe that 8 meeting was supposed to take place about 10:30, and he
9 additionally informed us that prior to the day of the search
02:36 10 warrant and us talking with him, that he was trying to contact
11 individuals at Par Funding to let them know about this money
12 that was potentially coming through.

13 However, Mr. Furman was unsuccessful in getting ahold
14 of anyone at Par Funding.

02:36 15 Q. During your meeting with Mr. Furman, did he tell you
16 anything about Par Funding's accounting books and records?

17 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

18 A. Yeah.

19 THE COURT: Overruled. Go ahead.

02:36 20 A. Yes. He stated that there were two sets of accounting
21 books. One was ascribed to the generally accounting
22 principles, or commonly known as GAAP, and there was another
23 set that did not conform or comply with GAAP.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

02:36 25 Q. Did Mr. Furman talk with you at all about the default rate

1 on Par Funding's merchant cash advance deals?

2 A. Yes. They were two different figures for those depending
3 on which accounting books that were utilized for GAAP. That 4 figure was roughly five percent. And then for non-GAAP, it was 02:37 5 one percent, but he did say that could fluctuate.

6 Q. So am I correct in understanding, Mr. Furman told you that
7 he understood if -- that when the default rate was calculated
8 based on the generally accepted accounting principles, it was 9 about five times higher than the one percent figure?

02:37 10 MR. HYMAN: Leading. Compound.

11 THE COURT: Overruled. You may answer.

12 A. Correct.

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. Did Mr. Furman discuss Par Funding's owner/operator with 02:37 15 you?

16 A. Yes, he mentioned a Joseph LaForte, also went by the name
17 Joe Mack.

18 Q. And did Mr. Furman tell you anything about Joseph LaForte's
19 background?

02:37 20 A. He stated within a year of him doing business with 21 Par Funding, he knew about Joseph LaForte's criminal history.
22 He knew him to be one of the leaders of Par Funding.

23 Q. During your discussion with Mr. LaForte, did you all
24 discuss an article in Bloomberg News about Par Funding?

02:38 25 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

1 THE COURT: Overruled.

2 A. Yes. We did discuss the article. Mr. Furman stated he
3 recognized it and knew that the article discussed Mr. LaForte's
4 criminal history as well as family ties to the Gambino crime
02:38 5 family.

6 BY MS. BERLIN:

7 Q. Okay. Did Mr. Furman discuss with you when it was that --
8 oh, just one moment.

9 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, may I have access to ELM0?

02:39 10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Agent Weisenstine, is this the article that you all showed 13 him on the phone, and I'll move it around on the screen so you
14 can see it?

02:39 15 A. Yes, ma'am, that is the article. I recognize the title.

16 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, that was Exhibit 579.
17 It's already in evidence.

18 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

02:39 20 Q. During your meeting with Mr. Furman, did he indicate when 21 it was that he learned about Joseph LaForte's criminal record?

22 A. Within the first year of doing business with Par Funding.

23 Q. And that's what he told you?

24 A. Yes, ma'am.

02:39 25 Q. Did Mr. Furman discuss with you what position he understood

1 Joseph LaForte held at Par Funding?

2 A. He stated that Mr. LaForte was one of the five leaders of
3 Par Funding.

4 Q. During your meeting with Mr. Furman, did he discuss with 02:40 5 you any Par Funding seminars?

6 A. Yes, he stated they would have seminars, the goal was to 7 either attract investors or raise capital, and at those they 8 would not discuss LaForte's criminal history or any regulatory 9 issues that Par Funding had experienced in the past.

02:40 10 Q. And Mr. Furman told you that?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Did Mr. Furman tell you how much he had raised for
13 Par Funding?

14 A. Yeah. There were two figures he collected. Approximately,
02:40 15 8 million he stated for Par Funding, and then he also stated in 16 total he had raised about 25 million.

17 Q. For Par Funding?

18 A. Yes, ma'am.

19 MS. BERLIN: Just one moment, please.

02:41 20 THE COURT: Sure.

21 MS. BERLIN: Agent Weisenstine, I have no further
22 questions. Thank you.

23 A. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Cross?

02:41 25 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, may I proceed?

1 THE COURT: You may cross-examine.

CROSS EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. JOHN:

02:41 5 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

6 A. Good afternoon.

7 Q. Agent, the events you were just testifying to, they 8 occurred almost a year and a half ago, right?

9 A. Yes, sir.

02:41 10 Q. Anyone ever compliment you on your remarkably detailed 11 memory?

12 A. Sometimes.

13 Q. You get that, because you just managed to testify to 14 several issues that the SEC wasn't able to get in any other
02:42 15 way.

16 Were you aware of that?

17 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, objection.

18 THE COURT: Overruled. That's all right. If you
19 know. You wouldn't know, sir, so let's move on. You wouldn't 02:42 20 here for the duration of trial, so let's go ahead.

21 BY MR. JOHN:

22 Q. But you were just sitting outside with the SEC, sir?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Before you got in here?

02:42 25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Did you see me sitting a couple of benches down from you?

2 A. I believe so. I'm not sure.

3 Q. Well, you definitely were talking about your testimony with 4 the SEC, right?

02:42 5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. You told Ms. Berlin what you were going to say today?

7 A. Yes, sir. Reviewed it.

8 Q. She told you what she was going to ask you today, right?

9 A. Yes, sir, there are no surprises.

02:42 10 Q. I'm sorry?

11 A. There are no surprises.

12 Q. I agree. No surprises. You reviewed exactly what you were 13 going to say in court?

14 A. I reviewed a report I had associated with the interview of
02:42 15 Mr. Furman.

16 Q. Right. You went through the entire report with the SEC,
17 right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Right outside?

02:43 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And this isn't the first time you spoke with the SEC about 22 your testimony today, right?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. How many times have you spoken with someone from the SEC
02:43 25 about the testimony you're going to give today?

1 A. Since last Friday, maybe ten times, maybe less.

2 Q. What about before last Friday?

3 A. Never.

02:43 4 Q. In those ten times, did you again review exactly what you
5 were going to say here today?

6 A. Not all ten times. A lot of it was just coordinating 7 possibly testifying in this trial.

8 Q. So maybe half the time?

9 A. That would be fair.

02:43 10 Q. I want to focus on the actual events of last July 2020 when 11 you met with Mr. Furman. Before you showed up to his office,
12 you didn't notify him that you were coming, right?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And you weren't alone?

02:43 15 A. Correct.

16 Q. You had other law enforcement personnel with you?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Were they all FBI?

02:44 19 A. At the time that we did the initial approach for the search 20 warrant, yes.

21 Q. How many other folks were with you?

22 A. Probably at least five.

23 Q. And you say that when you got to his office there was a
24 client there that he was meeting with?

02:44 25 A. I can't recall. Earlier I had told her that he was

1 supposed to meet with someone at 10:30 for the 10 million, but
2 I don't recall someone who had been in his office, but it's 3 possible.

4 Q. Okay. But you did say when you got to his office, you
02:44 5 separated him from everyone else in the office, right?

6 A. Yes. We asked if he was willing to speak with us.

7 Q. You and the other agents?

8 A. One other agent, yes, sir.

9 Q. When you had this -- is it fair to call it an 02:44 10 interrogation?

11 A. No.

12 Q. What would you call it?

13 A. Voluntary interview.

14 Q. When you had this interview with Mr. Furman, you didn't 02:44 15 take any formal written statement from him, right?

16 A. No.

17 Q. He didn't sign off on a statement for you?

18 A. No.

19 Q. You took some notes, I presume?

02:45 20 A. Yes, we did.

21 Q. But it was you, the agent, that did it, there t wasn't some 22 independent party like a court reporter or a stenographer
23 making those, right?

24 A. Correct.

02:45 25 Q. No transcript was produced?

1 A. No.

2 Q. You didn't do an audio or visual recording of the 3 interview?

4 A. No, we don't have to, per policy.

02:45 5 Q. So everything that you testified today is based on your
6 recollection and the conversations with the SEC, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. When you showed up at Mr. Furman's office, you were armed?

9 A. Yes, sir.

02:45 10 Q. What kind of weapon were you carrying?

11 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we object. It's not
12 relevant.

13 THE COURT: Overruled. I mean, obviously, we know
14 that there's an argument being made to the jury that somehow
02:45 15 that this was a coerced or involuntary confession.

16 Go ahead.

17 BY MR. JOHN:

18 Q. What kind of weapon?

19 A. GLOCK 17.

02:45 20 Q. Were other agents around you also armed?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Were they also carrying pistols?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Did Mr. Furman experience any kind of medical issues while 02:45 25 you were with him?

1 A. In the beginning of the interview he stated that he was
2 prone to have panic attacks and that the smart watch that he
3 had on was stating that his heart rate was elevated.

4 Q. Okay. You testified during your direct examination that 02:46 5 Mr. Furman advised you that he learned about Mr. LaForte during 6 the first year of business, right?

7 A. First year of him doing business with Par Funding, yes,
8 sir.

9 Q. What year was that?

02:46 10 A. I'm not sure, sir.

11 Q. But you know it's the first year?

12 A. That's what he told us, right.

13 Q. It could be 2018?

14 A. I'm not sure, sir.

02:46 15 Q. It could be 2019?

16 A. I don't know.

17 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, a moment to confer?

18 THE COURT: Sure.

19 BY MR. JOHN:

02:46 20 Q. When Mr. Furman advised you about the medical condition, 21 did you or anyone else in the office provide any kind of aid to 22 him?

23 A. We asked him, given the nature of what he brought forth, if 24 he wanted to continue. Mr. Furman said he had done nothing
02:47 25 wrong and he wanted to continue because it might help us.

1 Q. And I just want to verify something. You can't remember
2 the year, when you say the first year of business, regarding
3 Mr. LaForte?

4 A. Yeah, I don't recall what year it was, but he said it was 02:47 5 within the first year of doing business with Par Funding.

6 MR. JOHN: No further questions for this witness at 7 this time.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Redirect?
9

10 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Agent Weisenstine, did anyone from the SEC tell you what to 13 say today?

14 A. No.

02:47 15 Q. And, in fact, after you interviewed Mr. Furman, did you
16 make a record of your notes like close to the time of speaking
17 with him?

18 A. Yeah. Whenever we take notes for an interview, we take 19 that into what we call FD-302, an interview report, for lack of 02:47 20 a better term, to kind of memorialize the events that happened
21 and the words that were stated by the interviewee.

22 Q. And did that occur on the date that you interviewed
23 Mr. Furman in July of 2020?

24 A. Yeah. We took those notes from that interview and then
02:48 25 they were later sterilized in our systems.

1 Q. And did they remain in your system untouched until now?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And so was your testimony today consistent with the record
4 that you made at the time of the interview in July 2020?

02:48 5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And you referenced the SEC talking to you starting last
7 Friday?

8 A. Yes, ma'am.

9 Q. And what was in connection with simply asking you to come
02:48 10 and testify about what was in the report that had been 11 sterilized a year ago?

12 A. Correct. It was limited to that.

13 Q. And we had not even spoken before then, correct?

14 A. Correct, Friday, I believe it was actually another
02:48 15 individual and you were cc'd on an e-mail regarding it at 16 first.

17 Q. And simply asking you if you would testify about what had 18 been recorded and sterilized at the time of the interview?

19 A. Correct.

02:49 20 Q. When you interviewed Mr. Furman, was there any indication
21 made to him as to whether or not he could leave the conference
22 room in his building where you were speaking to him?

23 A. He had plenty of opportunity. We told him this is a
24 voluntary interview, which would imply that he would have that 02:49 25 knowledge.

1 And, in fact, during the interview, another agent
2 actually took phone calls and left the room several times and
3 we, in fact, ended the interview at the end when we asked
4 Mr. Furman a question, he stated he was feeling light-headed 02:49 5 and we just decided to cut the interview there just due to the 6 health being so important.

7 Q. Was he handcuffed ever?

8 A. No.

9 Q. So he was free to leave at any time?

02:49 10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Was it like physically, you know, just as far as being 12 physically intimidating, it was July 2020?

13 A. Correct. It was rather still, the pandemic was fresh. So
14 we were in the conference room. He sat at the end of the table
02:50 15 and we sat at least midway down the table, six feet of distance
16 between all of us. So there was rather considerable space in 17 between us.

18 Q. So you were never physically intimidating. Am I correct in 19 understanding it was socially distanced?

02:50 20 MR. JOHN: Objection. Leading.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. It was socially distanced by six feet because of COVID?

24 A. Correct.

02:50 25 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, may we have a very quick

1 sidebar.

2 You check to see if you have any other questions?

3 MS. BERLIN: I don't have anything else. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Sure. Side-bar.

02:50 5 (Thereupon, there was a side-bar conference outside

6 the presence and hearing of the jury.)

7 MR. HYMAN: The testimony about the 302 form, we would 8 ask to look at it and have an opportunity, if possible, to.

9 THE COURT: Any response?

02:51 10 MS. BERLIN: Sure. I think they raised the idea that 11 maybe he had invented his testimony recently. So it was just 12 establishing the same as it's always been in the reports. I
13 don't think that providing that report is necessary for 14 anything that's been raised today.

02:51 15 THE COURT: Yeah, I tend to agree. There's no door
16 been opened there inconsistently. You asked about his 17 preparation and that was clarified in the redirect.

18 That's going to be denied.

19 (Thereupon, the side-bar conference was concluded.)

02:51 20 THE COURT: Any questions? Thank you very much,
21 Agent. You are excused. Have a great day.

22 Any additional witnesses on behalf of the SEC?

23 MS. BERLIN: No, thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: The SEC rests?

02:52 25 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen of the
2 jury, that concludes all the testimony in this case. That
3 means that your service is done for today. We are going to let 4 you guys out of here early.

02:52 5 So here is the plan for tomorrow. What we're going to 6 be doing over the next few hours here is a little bit of 7 homework to get everything in position for you guys tomorrow
8 morning.

9 I would ask that everyone be here tomorrow morning by
02:52 10 9:30. My plan is to have the instructions on the law reviewed
11 with you first. So when you come in I'm going to read through 12 those instructions with you. You're each going to have your 13 own set.

14 After that, I'm going to turn it over to the lawyers
02:52 15 and I'll give you some instruction about their closing
16 arguments tomorrow. They will make their closing arguments to 17 all of you. Once the closing arguments are complete, then
18 there's a few final instructions that I will give you before
19 allowing you to begin deliberating.

02:53 20 I estimate that this will put us in a position where 21 by the lunch hour, you guys will be in the jury room. We'll 22 probably take some orders, bring you guys food, you can start
23 deliberations already while you wait for the food to arrive,
24 and the goal will be to give you until tomorrow afternoon to 02:53 25 continue on with your deliberations. But this will be in your

1 hands by tomorrow afternoon.

2 Now, of course, you have heard all the testimony in
3 the case, but you haven't heard the law that applies to it.
4 And I'm going to venture that it's going to help you a lot
02:53 5 tomorrow to figure out how all this evidence fits with the 6 charges that have been brought against Mr. Furman, and any 7 defenses that Mr. Furman may be trying to establish.

8 It's very hard to understand evidence in a vacuum
9 without understanding how it applies to the law that controls
02:53 10 the case.

11 So tomorrow, it will be very important to carefully go
12 through the instructions with all of you and, of course, the 13 lawyers are going to be summarizing everything you've heard
14 since last Tuesday. So there's been a quite a bit of evidence
02:53 15 that's been put on, and they're going to get an opportunity to 16 break all that down and show you how each side believes that 17 the evidence that they have been put on conforms and 18 establishes the elements of the law that they must each meet to 19 prove their claim or their defenses.

02:54 20 Do you all understand?

21 THE JURY: (Nodding).

22 THE COURT: I want you guys to remember again because
23 you still haven't heard the law in the case and you don't hear
24 or haven't heard anything about the closing arguments quite 02:54 25 yet, that you continue to keep an open mind until the very end

1 of the case tomorrow when you guys begin deliberations.

2 Of course, continue to abide by the law that I put in
3 place since the beginning, which is, don't discuss this case
4 with one another, that time will be coming very soon, it will 02:54 5 be by tomorrow afternoon that you will finally get a chance to 6 talk with your fellow jurors about what you think is going on 7 in this case, what you think has been shown.

8 When you go to leave today, of course, when family
9 asks you what's going on the case, you're free to tell them
02:54 10 we're in the home stretch, the Judge says tomorrow will be 11 closing argument and we should be deliberating and that's 12 absolutely fine.

13 One thing I will tell you in advance, because it might
14 help when you schedule things with your family, is when I go
02:54 15 into deliberations, I do not let jurors take their cell phones
16 back there with them. What we do is we have your cell phone
17 secured in my chambers and if someone were to call or the phone
18 is ringing off the hook, then I'll come get you if it's an 19 emergency, but if you want to tell family and friends already
02:55 20 that right around lunch, and, by the way, I'll let you guys
21 send the a text that we're going in so they don't have to call
22 you, you may do that, but you may want to let family and 23 friends know that you will be out of pocket and should 24 something happen, they can Google my name and in a few minutes
02:55 25 a member of my chambers will call me.

1 But I wanted to preview that so that you guys you're
2 going to a little bit out of pocket. We obviously -- not
3 because we don't believe that you guys would do it, but we
4 obviously want to avoid any possibility of anybody Googling or 02:55 5 looking anything up while they're deliberating.

6 Remember that all the evidence is going to go back
7 with you, all that is admitted, tomorrow. You are going to get 8 a chance to look at all that and review that again.

9 But continue not to engage in any sort of social media
02:55 10 discussion regarding this case.

11 Please, of course, do not conduct your own research.
12 Do not discuss with family and friends or one another until you
13 deliberate tomorrow, and the lawyers will, once again, have to 14 avoid you tomorrow when you come in. Take no offense from
02:56 15 that.

16 So all the same rules apply. You guys have done a
17 fantastic job. We are truly in the home stretch, I want you to 18 get some rest this evening because tomorrow will be our last
19 day.

02:56 20 So with that being said, you're all excused. See you
21 tomorrow at 9:30 a.m.

22 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

23 THE COURT: All right. Everyone please be seated. So
24 if you want to take a brief break, let's go ahead and do that
02:56 25 now and we're going to work through our jury instructions now

1 and our verdict forms in the hopes of getting all of that done
2 and that way, you guys are all set and tomorrow we will have
3 instructions on the law and closings.

4 I'm going to download now, I think I have a Word
02:57 5 format, both documents, so I'm going to go ahead and start
6 getting that ready.

7 Do you guys have laptops ready to go with those and we
8 can discuss them the jury instructions?

9 Yes, Mr. Hyman, do you have something you need to 02:57 10 address?

11 MR. HYMAN: Yes. This time we'd like to move for 12 judgment as a matter of law as it relates to the unregistered
13 securities claim as set forth in our memorandum which --

14 THE COURT: Why don't we do this: As you're arguing
02:57 15 this, this specifically is which count just so we make a very 16 clean record as you make your ore tenus motion. I think I
17 know, I think it's the last count.

18 MR. HYMAN: I believe it's Count 7, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So go ahead. You're seeking entry
02:57 20 of judgment on Count 7. Go ahead.

21 MR. HYMAN: There's been no evidence presented to the 22 jury that as a result of any of Mr. Furman's efforts whatsoever
23 that any promissory note of Par Funding was sold or otherwise
24 transferred, such that the necessary participant or a
02:58 25 substantial factor test would not be satisfied. At best,

1 Mr. Furman was purchasing promissory notes through Par Funding
2 and there's been no case which we have been able to locate
3 outside of the context of an integration count which has not
4 been pled, the SEC has specifically disavowed and is otherwise
02:58 5 not part of the record where a party, such as the SEC, has been 6 able to consolidate a series of transactions as the SEC is 7 trying to do, to determine essentially that Mr. Furman was 8 engaged in the offer or sale of unregistered securities in 9 Par Funding. This is only a limited judgment as a matter of 02:58 10 law.

11 Obviously, there's been testimony with respect to the 12 AFPB fund issue, however, as it relates to Par Funding, the 13 fact that Furman, through Fidelis, was soliciting investors
14 which then Fidelis would purchase notes is insufficient as a
02:58 15 matter of law for Mr. Furman to be liable for the sale of 16 unregistered securities.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Response, please, from the SEC on 18 this issue.

19 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, sure. It's actually a very clear
02:59 20 Section 5 violation. Section 5 is -- it's offer or sale of any 21 security that is not registered. The law provides for broad
22 interpretation to include anyone who is a necessary participant
23 or substantial factor.

24 Here, Mr. -- I mean, there was a lot of evidence but 02:59 25 the most basic was Mr. Furman yesterday at the end of his

1 testimony I showed him the chart of his purchases of
2 unregistered Par Funding note sales, and asked if he agreed
3 with me that but for him raising the investor funds, he would
4 not have been able to participate in this sort of prearranged
02:59 5 note transactions with Par Funding and their unregistered
6 offering, and he agreed.

7 It's really simple. He raised investor money. It was 8 like a pre-orchestrated thing through their agent funds. Two 9 days a month they send money up to buy the unregistered notes.
03:00 10 That's it. He did it. He bought them himself. That's how he 11 participated in it.

12 And so it's -- I'm mystified that it's even an issue.
13 It's a very clear violation and there was certainly sufficient
14 evidence to support this very basic claim.

03:00 15 THE COURT: And what would the SEC say as to the 16 statement made in both the memoranda and the argument here
17 today as to the perception from the defense that there cannot 18 be a Section 5 violation because Furman and Fidelis did not
19 offer or sell -- excuse me, did not sell or offer to sell
03:00 20 Par Funding notes? There seems to be a belief that that makes 21 it impossible to establish Section 5, because even though
22 there's ample testimony that the collection of investor funds
23 by Fidelis so that it could participate in the Par Funding
24 offering, which it had to do, Fidelis, it couldn't be 03:01 25 individuals, it had to be done through Fidelis, there is an

1 argument being made that because there wasn't direct sale,
2 really, I think that's the theory that the defense is
3 approaching, some sort of direct sale that it would be
4 difficult or if not legally impossible for there to be a
03:01 5 Section 5 violation.

6 What would be the SEC's response to that? I think
7 that's really been the -- I don't want to say it may be the 8 belief behind the integration has been I think all along
9 because of that, because there's a belief on the defense camp
03:01 10 that you cannot establish a Section 5 violation unless there is 11 some sort of a sale or offer to sell Par Funding notes directly 12 by Furman and Fidelis. I guess, offer to sell, one could argue
13 that everybody knew that the funds were going to be used for 14 purchase of Par Funding notes anyway, at least the evidence
03:02 15 with the inferences that need to be given at this stage of the 16 case would support that.

17 But maybe you want to just address that for the 18 record. That is one of the arguments that they have attempted
19 to advance for a little while now.

03:02 20 MS. BERLIN: Sure. So Section 5, and it's very clear,
21 even in the jury instructions, you know, the pattern jury
22 instructions, it is directly or indirectly sold or offered to 23 sell. So the participation in the offer or sale can be direct 24 or indirect.

03:02 25 And so under the case law, when you look at indirect

1 participation it's very broad. This is something that -- this
2 statute of the securities law like by its very face, it's
3 written directly or indirectly off -- participate in the offer
4 or sale, and like I was saying a moment ago, when it is 03:02 5 indirect and you are participating indirectly, then the words
6 that are used, like the examination, that's when you get into 7 the necessary and substantial factor tests, like that's where 8 that language comes from, Your Honor, that's not in the 9 statute.

03:03 10 So the statute is what it is and under the case law
11 you can indirectly violate. And when a court examines whether 12 someone indirectly violates, that's when you look at the 13 necessary and substantial language that we have been through 14 before.

03:03 15 So the SEC's case from the beginning and always has 16 been that by Mr. Furman raising money from investors for the 17 ultimate purpose of buying these notes and these sort of 18 pre-structured, orchestrated transactions, where he's an agent
19 of Par Funding and he's raising the investor money that makes 03:03 20 these transactions happen, that that is a violation of 21 Section 5. It's not an aiding and abetting charge. It is a
22 direct violation of Section 5. He is a necessary participant
23 in the offer or sale. But not for him raising investor money
24 and buying these notes, Your Honor, there wouldn't be any 03:04 25 sales. Like, Par Funding is selling to its agents and the

1 agents just raise money from investors to make it happen.

2 That's how the offering works.

3 And so one of the things about the securities laws is 4 every offering is different. You know, people can come up with 03:04 5 a million ways it try to sell a security or some sort of 6 orchestrated scheme to sort of conceal that they're doing an 7 unregistered offering. This is what they did and we have
8 alleged this from day 1 this whole way and the way they devised
9 it using agent funds was all in an attempt to avoid the 03:04 10 registration requirements thinking that if they just used these 11 agent funds to raise the money and buy the notes, that that 12 would somehow keep them below the radar, that we wouldn't find 13 out, all the state regulators wouldn't find out, and we did and 14 that's why we're here. But it's absolutely a violation and,
03:05 15 again, you know, the securities laws are something that are 16 interpreted broadly to include however creative people can be 17 in trying to break the rules by designing an offering, right?

18 But this is basic. But did he participate in an 19 unregistered offer or sale? How can we say he didn't? That's 03:05 20 all Fidelis was. That's all he did was for years raised money
21 from people so he could buy unregistered notes.

22 There is no scienter requirement, but even in his own
23 cross-examination yesterday, he admitted that that's -- he knew
24 about the Pennsylvania order against paying their referral fees
03:05 25 and that's why he created this fund. That's why it existed.

1 We don't need the scienter. You participate in a
2 security, an offer and sale of a security, you don't register
3 it. You ran the red light, you get a speeding ticket. That's 4 the equivalent. That's what this is.

03:06 5 THE COURT: I was going to say if you look at the 6 instruction for Count 7, Section 5, Securities Act, I think the 7 important distinction here is indirectly which begs the 8 argument to me that it was not directly sold, and by that I
9 mean that it wasn't directly done by Fidelis because Fidelis is 03:06 10 pooling with Fidelis notes which then are facilitating the 11 purchase of Par Funding notes, and part of that is, of course,
12 because the way it was structured was through these agent
13 funds. Then at least a culpable argument could be made that it
14 was an indirect sale. I mean, if you want to even make that 03:06 15 argument, there's a distinction. I think, at a minimum, you
16 would find there would be an indirect sale of Par Funding notes
17 of which Mr. Furman then would, at least in the jury's view,
18 have to decide whether he was a necessary a participant or a
19 substantial factor. That really goes to the question asked of 03:07 20 him this morning when we talked about whether this would be 21 facilitated without him, without Fidelis, and the answer to 22 that from a substantial factor or a necessary participant would 23 be no, without the funds drummed up through Fidelis, you could
24 not buy the Par notes.

03:07 25 So that kind of chain is pretty well established and,

1 sure, if the defense feels that that doesn't show a direct
2 relation, that's of no moment because the 5A/5C, is, as the
3 pattern instructions have shown us, allow for indirect
4 liability for that violation of Count 7.

03:07 5 So it's not enough, at least from a matter of law, to 6 be able to obtain a judgment in this regard for failure to 7 present evidence of a Section 5 violation, especially when the 8 inferences that need to be made in the SEC's case.

9 Anything you wanted to add on that because it's 03:07 10 pretty --

11 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor. I think the issue is,
12 and I'd like to start quoting the substantial case law that 13 deals with this very issue. We'll start with Donahue versus 14 Consolidated Operating and Products Corporation, 982 F.2d 1130,
15 Seventh Circuit, 1992.

16 The doctrine of integration prevents issuers of 17 securities from avoiding the requirements of Section 5 by 18 breaking offerings into small pieces. This doctrine was first
19 promulgated and discussed in Bowers versus Columbia Port
03:08 20 General Corp., 336 Fed. Supp 609, 624 through 625 from Delaware
21 1971 where they noted that the SEC has promulgated additional 22 rules to determine whether an offering would be private or 23 public, and in these circumstances there it looks to whether 24 you should consolidate a transaction based on a series of 03:08 25 factors that has been established. And there's a lot of case

1 law, Your Honor, that's been cited to it including APA
2 Excelsior III, LP versus Premiere Technologies, 2004 Westlaw
3 606442; Duran versus Petroleum Management, 545 F.2d 893;
4 Chapelry (ph.) Trust, all of these were cited in our
5 memorandum --

6 THE COURT REPORTER: Just a minute, 545 Petroleum --

7 THE COURT: He's filed it so we will give you that 8 later.

9 MR. HYMAN: Correct, and, most recently, in the SEC's
03:09 10 versus Map, which clearly states that integration theory is 11 what is utilized by the courts to determine whether to treat
12 two separate securities issuances as one. Here, the issue is,
13 and this is part of where kind of at least there was two
14 different concepts that the SEC's conflating. The indirect
03:09 15 sale or the participation and offering is intended for somebody
16 who is acting like a broker, who is not necessarily selling it
17 themselves, but who is facilitating someone to sell or purchase
18 or facilitating the sale of a particular security.

19 That would be kind of the definition of the indirect
03:10 20 participation in an offer. For example, if Mr. Furman was,
21 instead of selling people through Fidelis, if he was trying to 22 kind of sell through Par Funding, then he would be indirectly
23 participating in it, to the extent that he's facilitating the 24 sale to Par Funding. But the issue is in the area where there
03:10 25 is the confusion is that he was not soliciting to Par Funding,

1 he was soliciting for Fidelis. All of the investors invested
2 in Fidelis and not Par Funding. And at best, Mr. Furman
3 purchased the Par Funding shares and there is no Section 5
4 liability for a purchaser of sales.

03:10 5 So for the SEC to have consolidated these, or the only
6 time when sometimes obviously is if you purchase it, hold on 7 and then act as a pass-through to transfer those securities
8 yourself to somebody else. But the reason why the integration
9 doctrine was created, both by the SEC and has been recognized
03:11 10 by courts is for this exact circumstance, to basically prevent 11 a party from trying to circumvent the registration requirements
12 of Section 5 by breaking it up into smaller pieces.

13 And, Your Honor, I've tried to search for -- I have 14 spent an inordinate amount of time searching for case law where 03:11 15 the SEC has been permitted to do what they are trying to do
16 today: Disregard two transactions outside of the context of 17 integration, and I went beyond that. I called every single 18 former defense counsel that's been involved --

19 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor.

03:11 20 THE COURT: Just let him make a record. Go ahead and 21 finish.

22 MR. HYMAN: -- in this case, and there has been 23 absolutely no authority where the Court has been able to 24 essentially disregard the corporate veil, consolidate a series
03:11 25 of transactions into one, and then hold somebody liable for

1 Section 5 liability.

2 And consistent with the Supreme Court precedent that
3 dealt with this issue, because of the strict liability nature,
4 while the statute is remedial, there should be kind of limits
03:11 5 as to the extent or scope of that the liability, such as this,
6 where each offering should be treated distinctly and separately
7 with respect to those issues.

8 Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

03:12 10 Is there anything the SEC wants to add to the issue of 11 integration? I think we have talked about it a number of 12 times. The Court has independently looked at the integration
13 issue. Perhaps there's just a difference of opinion how the 14 law applies with integration. This is not a situation where,
03:12 15 at least in the Court's view and, quite honestly, even if you
16 apply the standard that you have to apply now, that's going to 17 be fatal anyway, because this is not, as a matter of law, in 18 which you possibly make an argument under a Rule 50 at this 19 stage that they, the defense, should be entitled to judgment as 03:12 20 a matter of law under Rule 50 given the facts in this case
21 simply because they believe there's been enough evidence shown
22 to establish some sort of integration. I mean, that would fly
23 in the face of the standard for a judgment as a matter of law
24 anyway.

03:13 25 And so I'm not too keen on even addressing or entering

1 any sort of integration analysis because at the end of the day
2 there's been ample evidence shown to this jury so for them to
3 decide truly one or separate transactions or essentially one
4 entity is funneling money to another with all investors being
03:13 5 well aware that they are going to purchase Par Funding notes
6 that they must do so through an agent fund like Fidelis, it's
7 not a situation where the Court, drawing all reasonable
8 inferences in favor of the nonmoving party, which would be the 9 SEC, unable to make credibility determinations or weigh the 03:13 10 evidence, would be in a position to grant judgment as a matter
11 of law in this case and on the integration issue as to Count 7, 12 most certainly.

13 So I'm going to deny it, it simply doesn't rise to the 14 standard to enter it.

03:13 15 You know, the issue as it pertains to integration
16 though, again, I understand that the defense believes that that 17 this is an integration problem but one thing I wanted to try to 18 review with the SEC briefly on this and, again, I don't know if 19 I'm going to do be able to clarify to the defense's comfort
03:14 20 level but integration usually, I mean, as far as I understand 21 it in the case law, and the factors that you apply for 22 integration really is the idea of integrating two different
23 offerings to avoid registration requirements. I mean, that's 24 really what it's been.

03:14 25 So the argument would be that the SEC would charge or

1 allege someone having consolidated two offerings to avail
2 thefts of a registration exemption that would otherwise be
3 themselves of a registration exemption they wouldn't otherwise
4 be entitled to.

03:14 5 The SEC has not alleged or structured this case in 6 that fashion. They have never raised integration. So in an
7 odd way, you know, if we're arguing it in the reverse, I guess
8 the defense, what they would have the Court do is find enough
9 indicia of integration so that Fidelis could somehow be 03:15 10 absolved of registration requirements. I think that's really 11 part of what the argument would be as a matter of law.

12 Obviously, that's so rife with all the different
13 intricacies of this agent for an offer that it would be 14 something I could never do under a Rule 50 anyway.

03:15 15 But just taking a step back, and I want to talk about 16 the jury instructions, you know, I don't believe that there is 17 -- let's put it this way. I think the defense believes that 18 the SEC is unable to maintain a theory such as this one where 19 an agent fund essentially is a pass-through conduit to buy
03:15 20 other notes without alleging integration. I mean, that is what 21 I believe the defense's theory is. I don't know that that's 22 accurate, but I don't know if the SEC wants to just mention or 23 address that because that seems to be -- you haven't charged it
24 this way, because you're not attempting to, for example,
03:15 25 eliminate the use of an exemption because you're charging them

1 to use integration to avoid registration requirements. That's
2 never been the SEC's theory. The SEC's theory has always been
3 that Fidelis was simply -- I don't know if you want to call it
4 an agent, a pass-through, a conduit, but they bought
03:16 5 Par Funding notes, they indirectly, at a minimum, facilitated
6 their purchase because they could not be bought by the direct
7 investor, they had to be bought by an agent fund.

8 So that, to me, would be the very definition a jury
9 should decide as to whether they indirectly facilitated the 03:16 10 sale of Par Funding notes, an unregistered offering, in 11 violation of Section 5 under Count 7. I mean, that's -- I
12 think I've stated what your case is. They believe that that's 13 not allowed without alleging integration because it's 14 integration by another name or you're avoiding it, but to my 03:16 15 other point you are not cabined, and this is what I researched
16 the other day, there's nothing that says the SEC cannot 17 maintain this theory without alleging integration.

18 MS. BERLIN: I have never seen it.

19 THE COURT: I've never seen it. Especially because 03:16 20 the jury instruction even says "indirectly." So they don't 21 have to go through -- I was preparing for today and talking 22 about all the different integration factors, right? Is the 23 different offerings part of the simple plan of financing? Are 24 the offerings involving issues of the same class of security?

03:17 25 Honestly, there is a reason why you wouldn't charge

1 integration because you probably wouldn't satisfy these
2 elements because it's not an integrated offering, it's a
3 separate note they facilitated indirectly by a separate fund,
4 it would be impossible to lump them together, no one would ever
03:17 5 find this is integration. I mean, legally, I don't know how 6 you would even make the argument. It would be very hard with 7 integrations tests that I've seen.

8 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. So, I mean, yeah. What the Court
9 just said is correct in the sense, you know, what the 03:17 10 commissioners at the SEC decided to charge this as. So I
11 cannot discuss the discussion that was made because, of course,
12 the Court knows it's not made by the litigator at the SEC, it's 13 made by our say divisions and the commissioners who examine 14 these things and then determine, based on the rules, what the 03:18 15 charges should be and how they should be done.

16 And this is, I will say, not only is this the way it
17 was charged but this is the correct way. There's nothing that 18 requires the SEC to assert that something is integrated.
19 Instead, Section 5, is if you were participating in the 03:18 20 unregistered offer or sale of securities, you have to register.
21 Think about it, Your Honor, otherwise we would have people all
22 over the country who would say, hey, you asserted to me like
23 they did hear. You sell it to me twice a month, okay, and I'll 24 go get your investors. Whether there is the Fidelis company
03:18 25 around Mr. Furman or not, that doesn't really make a

1 difference.

2 The point is they are pre-structured, it's like twice
3 a month I'll go get all the investor money through me to give
4 to you for the purchase of the notes. That way, no one is 03:18 5 going to trace it to all of the 50 investors behind me, it will 6 just look like it's only me, and that way, you know, we're
7 doing our own unregistered offering and keeping it secret
8 because we are friends.

9 And if that happened, there would be no enforcement of 03:19 10 the securities laws anywhere in the country. I mean, it simply 11 can't work that way. The rules are really broad. If you're 12 selling a security, you must registered it, period. It's not a
13 big deal. You have to -- you file a paper. You register it.
14 That's all you had to do. And --

03:19 15 THE COURT: I don't want to -- I hate to interrupt, I
16 just wanted to point out just really more for academics --
17 academically. The theory of trying to pursue integration in a 18 case like this would be to extend what the defense believes are 19 exemption protections for, again, I'm going off what I think
03:19 20 the defense's theory is, but I believe that the theory they're 21 trying to advance is that if they can establish this is an
22 integrated offering, then any protections available to Fidelis
23 by way of accredited investors would extend to the Par Funding
24 purchase because they're all one in the same.

03:20 25 I think, I think -- can I just get a yes or no? Isn't

1 that really --

2 MR. HYMAN: It's the converse. It's that Fidelis was
3 never trying to solicit Par Funding investors, they're
4 soliciting Fidelis to invest.

03:20 5 THE COURT: Okay, okay, so I was overcomplicating it,
6 I got it.

7 So based upon that, I mean, I think it's a pretty
8 straightforward issue then. There is testimony in the record
9 from the investors themselves, right, that the investors
03:20 10 themselves are all aware that these purchases or the monies
11 that they were giving to Fidelis were going to Par Funding
12 purchases.

13 So if you're looking at Section 5, then it's pretty 14 straightforward. That would be the definition of issues for 03:20 15 the jury to determine as to whether or not this was an indirect
16 purchase of Par Funding notes because all of the investors, at 17 least there's been enough testimony, I think, to get to the 18 jury that everyone believed that this was just a method by 19 which they could purchase Par Funding notes is through Fidelis.

03:21 20 So even though it's a Fidelis note being issued, the 21 Fidelis note being issued and the monies being given that are 22 being funneled to the Par Funding offering would be an 23 indirect, with all the inferences that need to be given to the 24 SEC at this phase it would be an indirect purchase of an 03:21 25 unregistered security in violation of Section 5. That would be

1 the problem, I think, just by way of Rule 50, that that's
2 evidence in the record and that would, at a minimum, support an
3 indirect offering. I mean, indirect sale, really, or indirect
4 offer, right?

03:21 5 MS. BERLIN: Yes, that's exactly right and, again, you
6 know, when we look at this in looking at this instruction,
7 that's why the pattern instruction has in it already.

8 THE COURT: Direct or indirect.

9 MS. BERLIN: Yes, and when it's indirect, that's when 03:21 10 you have the -- it's the necessary and substantial test.

11 So here our argument is Mr. Furman is, and always has 12 been, a necessary and substantial factor in these Par Funding
13 sales because he is raising money for the sole purpose of 14 putting them into the promissory note, like he's not -- he 03:22 15 doesn't buy a promissory note with anyone's money other than 16 these investors. I mean, that's all he does. He just bundles
17 it. He bundles their money so instead of buying -- let's say
18 he raises money from ten investors -- instead of buying ten
19 different notes from Par Funding issued to ten people, he 03:22 20 bundles their money together and he gets one with just theirs.

21 So it's -- he's indirectly participating in that way
22 and it's not a big complicated thing involving integration. I
23 mean, I haven't looked at the cases that the defendant cited,
24 and I think they filed it last night.

03:22 25 THE COURT: I just don't know that it's applicable to

1 the SEC's theory of the case. And the more important thing is
2 there's been an argument that somehow the SEC cannot allege a
3 Section 5 violation without advancing a theory of integration,
4 and that I don't think is supported by the law. That's been 03:23 5 one of the arguments I just -- I didn't find anything
6 independently, I don't think it's out there. It's not a
7 theory. They believe, and I think the jury instructions, the 8 pattern instructions would support that they've advanced 9 enough, certainly, to get to the jury on the issue of whether 03:23 10 this is an indirect offer and sales of registered securities
11 with Fidelis with Par Funding.

12 So, to me, that's a jury question at this point.

13 All right. Okay. So was there anything else? I'm 14 going to deny the motion.

03:23 15 Anything you wanted to add for the record?

16 MR. HYMAN: Thank you very much for entertaining our 17 argument. We appreciate your patience.

18 THE COURT: All right. So with that being said, I'm 19 going to download now, I think we have -- you guys have done a
03:23 20 very thorough job of advancing where there's differences of 21 opinion, if you guys want to pull up, I'm looking at the jury
22 instructions, we have a lot of general preliminary instructions
23 which, of course, have no issues. I may just do some 24 formatting changes and one thing I will do before we leave
03:24 25 today is print out fresh copies.

1 MR. JOHN: I apologize. Could we take a two-minute
2 break for the bathroom?

3 THE COURT: When you come back, let's talk about your
4 jury instructions. I see proposed language for both sides. So
03:24 5 we're going to want to do that.

6 So let's take a two-minute break and come back and do
7 the charge conference.

8 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 Just because you seem intellectually curious about 03:24 10 that, something to keep in mind if you look at it again in 11 another case, the private cases that I was listening to,
12 there's not a private action under Section 5. So that's when 13 we look at SEC enforcement charge. So in the private, when you
14 have private litigants arguing about registration, it's brought 03:24 15 under a different section. So a section, the Section 5
16 analysis will only be found in the SEC cases. And then if it's 17 private, it's under Section 12 and it has a slightly different
18 test. So it's like Section 12 has a different test and some 19 slightly different elements, so I just wanted to mention that 03:25 20 because you seem to be interested intellectually.

21 THE COURT: So I wanted to make sure I have it.

22 MS. BERLIN: No, I just wanted to mention.

23 (Thereupon, a brief recess was taken.)

24 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone.

03:41 25 All right, just for those that are watching our case,

1 just by way of background, the Court is going to proceed into
2 dealing with jury instructions at this point, so I'm going to
3 be shutting down the feed, there is no need to be having this
4 portion of the trial broadcast. I will be resuming it tomorrow
03:42 5 morning so those individuals that want to watch the closing
6 arguments they will be essentially broadcast starting at 9:30
7 in the morning.

8 We're going to begin with the instructions that we're 9 working on this afternoon so you'll all be privy to the 03:42 10 instructions that apply in this case and after that, there will 11 be closing arguments and then ultimately deliberations. But 12 just letting everybody know that may be following along that 13 the Court is not going to be broadcasting live our charge
14 conference. There's no need for that. So we're going to go
03:42 15 ahead at this point and close the feed down and you are all
16 welcome again to join when we resume tomorrow morning at 9:30.

17 I shut it down on my end.

18 MR. HYMAN: So I think, Your Honor, at least to start
19 off on page 3 where there had been the language that we 03:43 20 objected to while reserving our prior objection as stated in 21 the Rule 51 motion, we're going to obviously understand how 22 Your Honor is going to address that to streamline the process.

23 THE COURT: Okay. So let me make sure I have 24 plaintiff's proposed language in the bottom of 3 and a
03:43 25 defendant objection to that. And let's see here, there's an

1 objection here that plaintiff's proposed language, it would
2 read -- I'm going it read it from the top here.

3 Plaintiff, Securities Exchange Commission, which is 4 also known as the SEC, claims that defendant, Michael Furman,
03:43 5 violated the Federal Securities laws by, one) acting as a
6 necessary participant or substantial factor in the unregistered
7 Par Funding offering of promissory notes in that Mr. Furman
8 drew respective investors to invest in Fidelis Planning for the 9 ultimate purpose of raising money for Par Funding's
03:44 10 unregistered offer and sale of promissory notes," and was the 11 theory of the case. It's just a theory. This is not --

12 MS. BERLIN: It is the description of the case section 13 that we would like to tell the jury what the description of the 14 case is.

03:44 15 THE COURT: This is not an element, this is just a
16 description of the SEC's case so, again, I would allow them to 17 do that. I'm going to overrule any objection it that. To me,
18 that's fairly straight forward. Again, it's not what happened
19 in the case, it's their theory of the case. So I want to give 03:44 20 them a chance to describe it the way they believe they've 21 presented it. So all right.

22 Then continuing on, in the bottom of 4, plaintiff
23 says, "The SEC further alleges that Mr. Furman made material
24 misrepresentations, misleading statements and/or omissions
03:44 25 verbally or through marketing materials or private placement

1 memorandum he distributed to investors about the one percent
2 default rate of Par Funding's merchant cash advance loans and
3 the 2,000 lawsuits Par Funding filed against merchant borrowers
4 in default on the merchant cash advance loans. Par Funding
03:45 5 always conducting onsite inspections," et cetera, et cetera.

6 And I don't see it. He says here, the objection is 7 Furman's knowledge of the number was not part of the SEC's case
8 and there's no allegation that Mr. Furman stated that
9 Par Funding always conducts onsite inspections.

03:45 10 I mean --

11 MS. BERLIN: Mr. Sharp testified -- this is our 12 description of the case. Sharp testified about the number of 13 cases that had been filed and we heard the investors'
14 testimony. This is what we're telling the jurors our case is 03:45 15 about. I didn't know it was up to the defendants to edit.

16 THE COURT: More than that, you guys can point out the 17 fact. The objections which they are making here are the 18 objections you can make when you are in front of the jury. You
19 can argue that he never represented he always, he never talked
03:46 20 about this many lawsuits being an issue. This is what SEC
21 believes their theory of the case is.

22 Putting it in here in the jury instructions is really
23 no prejudice to the defense. They can actually, if anything,
24 if they believe it hasn't been satisfied, they can point out
03:46 25 that this has not been shown to them. That's fine. Again,

1 this is a description of the case.

2 MR. HYMAN: The only issue we have in addition to that
3 is the proposed language concerning regulators had sanctioned
4 ABFP. We suggest or we object to that language because it's 03:46 5 misleading.

6 THE COURT: What page are you on on that?

7 MR. HYMAN: Page 5, the beginning of page 5.

8 MS. BERLIN: It's our description of our case.

9 MR. HYMAN: But, Your Honor, it's misleading to say
03:46 10 that they had sanctioned ABFP which was managing Mr. Furman's
11 investment firm when ABFP managed but was never sanctioned by 12 the Texas Securities Board.

13 THE COURT: Any response to that?

14 MS. BERLIN: I am sorry, this is what we're going to 03:46 15 in our closing and he can argue his side of the case.

16 THE COURT: Correct. Again, if they had misstated
17 something that you believe that the evidence shows otherwise,
18 never said anything, only benefits the defense to point out
19 flaws in the SEC's case. That's overruled and we can proceed.

03:47 20 So I'm going through now and looking for the next
21 issue here. We're onto page 8 here, post-trial introduction.
22 I would assume, I hope, that I have quite a bit to go before I
23 see any edits. This is all pattern.

24 MR. HYMAN: Correct. I think the next issue --

03:47 25 THE COURT: Is that on the stipulations on page 16?

1 Is that the next time I see something?

2 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Plaintiff's proposed --

4 MS. BERLIN: 15.

03:47 5 THE COURT: 15. I guess it might be my 16, to be 6 honest, it might jump over. Plaintiff's proposed language of 7 stipulation number 12, no registration.

8 MR. HYMAN: We withdraw that objection.

9 THE COURT: All right. Let me just --

03:47 10 MS. BERLIN: I just want to make clear. I'm now
11 seeing other edits that were made. We think it's important
12 that these stipulations reflect what the defendants agreed to 13 before they revised these jury instructions this morning. I
14 didn't even see the changes to the stipulations here.

03:48 15 THE COURT: They're not objecting to it now.

16 MS. BERLIN: It's not just that. There were some 17 other -- there's at least one other change I see which is in 18 paragraph 2.

19 THE COURT: Let me look because I didn't see more than 03:48 20 that. But I want to --

21 MS. BERLIN: They didn't underline it or italicize it.
22 I can just tell.

23 THE COURT: Which one is it?

24 MS. BERLIN: Number 2.

03:48 25 THE COURT: Par Funding was started by Lisa McElhone,

1 that one?

2 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Where is the edit?

4 MS. BERLIN: So in our pre-trial stipulation that they
03:48 5 signed and filed with us, that says it was started by Lisa
6 McElhone and Joseph LaForte in about 2011.

7 THE COURT: So Joseph LaForte is missing?

8 MS. BERLIN: Joseph LaForte is missing which is,
9 obviously, important.

03:48 10 MR. HYMAN: There's no -- I'm not sure, at least I
11 think -- well, we'll reincorporate that one.

12 THE COURT: So Par Funding was started by Lisa
13 McElhone and Joseph LaForte.

14 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

03:48 15 THE COURT: I'm putting that back in. And in or 16 about, I think is what you meant to say. In or about, right,
17 2011?

18 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Got it. All right. Moving on. All of 03:49 20 this other stuff looks pretty pattern. Again, I'm going to 21 print it out for you guys so you clean it up.

22 I'm now down to assertion of the Fifth. So let's see 23 here. This is, again, the pagination is probably off because 24 I'm cleaning up formatting as we go.

03:49 25 MR. HYMAN: There is one issue before we get there

1 which Your Honor had included the instruction on use of
2 depositions. I don't really care one way or another. Sorry
3 not, Your Honor, the use of deposition instructions had been 4 included.

03:49 5 THE COURT: Correct.

6 MR. HYMAN: We don't necessarily object. I just
7 question whether it's necessary because deposition --

8 MS. BERLIN: It should come out. There were no
9 depositions used.

03:49 10 THE COURT: No one used -- I was going to say no one
11 used any depos. That's out. I took it out. I took it out.

12 MS. BERLIN: I think the assertion of the Fifth 13 Amendment and the adverse inference should come out because we 14 didn't use it.

03:49 15 THE COURT: We didn't use it.

16 MS. BERLIN: The Judge allowed us to inquire so we're 17 not seeking it.

18 THE COURT: I kind of --

19 MS. BERLIN: So we're not seeking it.

03:50 20 THE COURT: By the way --

21 MR. HYMAN: No objection, Your Honor.

22 MS. BERLIN: That should come out. That was just an 23 oversight.

24 THE COURT: No, no, it worked out, I think, to 03:50 25 everyone's benefit. It's a cleaner case now anyway.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: So I deleted that one.

3 Now I'm on the, let's see, commissions claims looks
4 good. This is all Count 1.

03:50 5 First next thing I have an edit on is Count 1, Section
6 10(b) and Rule 10(b)(5) of the Exchange Act. Plaintiff's
7 proposed language, I don't know if it's objected to, but it
8 says for the first element that an instrumentality of 9 interstate commerce was used in connection with the purchase or 03:50 10 sale of a security. You must use these definitions.

11 It has instrumentality of interstate commerce.

12 Is there an objection to that?

13 MR. HYMAN: No. I think the -- hold on.

14 THE COURT: I think the only thing I see you guys
03:50 15 saying is you have a fraudulent --

16 MR. HYMAN: There's one other issue which is a typo on 17 the bottom on 25, it says, for the second element, Mr. Furman 18 must prove that Mr. Furman used a device. It should say the 19 SEC must prove.

03:51 20 MS. BERLIN: I don't think we're there yet.

21 THE COURT: I don't think we're there. I'm under 22 Count 1. The only thing I see on Count 1 is there is two 23 things. One) there is a definition for the first element, that 24 an instrumentality of interstate commerce, it has a definition.

03:51 25 Are you guys objecting to that definition?

1 MR. HYMAN: We're not objecting to that definition.

2 THE COURT: Okay, so I can leave that in. Then you
3 guys have a proposal that you're talking about where we get
4 into fraudulent device and you guys have a proposal that says,
03:51 5 a fraudulent device or scheme is a knowing or use of a
6 deceitful practice or willful device with the intent to obtain
7 an unjust advantage or cause loss to another. This comes from 8 SEC versus Gobel or Gobel.

9 Do we have a defense objection to that proposal?

03:51 10 MS. BERLIN: It's a defense proposal. You mean --

11 THE COURT: Yeah, it's a SEC objection to the defense
12 proposal. They want to add a little more information where it
13 says an untrue statement of material fact or the omission that 14 looks pretty accurate from the case law. It's fine.

03:52 15 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, it's not from the pattern
16 instruction.

17 THE COURT: No, no, no. It's from the Eleventh
18 Circuit case law SEC versus Gobel.

19 MS. BERLIN: I guess if we believe the cite here.
03:52 20 It's not what it quite says and we're not in a Gobel situation.
21 So --

22 THE COURT: Let me look and I'll pull up the case.

23 MR. HYMAN: I think, Your Honor, before we get there,
24 though, there's one typo at the bottom of page 25 which is for 03:52 25 the second element.

1 MS. BERLIN: We're not there.

2 THE COURT: I'm not on 25, we're not there yet.

3 I'm on Count 1. I am under Count 1, Section 10(b),
4 Rule 10(b)(5), we are on the elements, okay, first, second and 03:52 5 third of 10(b) and 10(b)(5). We already dealt with
6 instrumentality meant of interstate commerce. You guys have a
7 proposal for a fraudulent device or scheme. And that's the one
8 that I'm asking the SEC their position on.

9 MR. HYMAN: Before we get there, there's a typo, I'm 03:53 10 trying to point out, the bottom of 21, right after it says the 11 instrumentality, it says for the second element, Mr. Furman
12 must prove. It should read the SEC must prove.

13 THE COURT: I'm looking for it.

14 MS. BERLIN: That's correct.

03:53 15 THE COURT: I think I found it.

16 So let me ask you why do I need the proposal from the 17 defense if two paragraphs prior I have a scheme defined, a
18 device to find trick or fraud would refer to any improper plan
19 or course of action?

03:53 20 MR. HYMAN: You can --

21 THE COURT: It looks like I have what you want and it
22 even talks about materiality, too. Why is it not duplicative?

23 MR. HYMAN: You can take out our proposed language
24 there.

03:54 25 THE COURT: I don't think it adds anything. I think,

1 in fact, you guys got what you want. It adds, it looks like
2 there is a paragraph duplicative in general.

3 I'm taking out that extra paragraph.

4 MS. BERLIN: And that's the pattern, Your Honor.

03:54 5 MR. HYMAN: There is an issue with the next one in 6 terms of definition of material.

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry, what was the issue of material?

8 MR. HYMAN: I don't think there was one.

9 THE COURT: No. It says if the statement of omission
03:54 10 or fact is material or there is a substantial likelihood that a 11 reasonable investor would attach importance to it, put another
12 way, that the investor would view the misstated or omitted
13 facts of disclosure as significantly altering the mix of 14 available information, and a minor or trivial detail is not a
03:54 15 material fact.

16 That's a pattern, that looks good. You guys want
17 that?

18 MR. HYMAN: Yes, I do.

19 THE COURT: Leave that in there. So then you have 03:54 20 another one, though, at the end of this that says, defendant's
21 proposed all of these elements must be proved by the SEC by a
22 preponderance of the evidence for a finding of liability as to 23 any defendant -- as to the defendant if failure by the SEC to 24 prove any element must result in the finding of no liability.

03:55 25 Okay. How does the SEC feel about that? I mean,

1 again, it's just I don't know that the jury -- it's not
2 misstating anything, they have to find all three.

3 It says you must prove each of the following by a
4 preponderance of the evidence, so it does state it up there.

03:55 5 MS. BERLIN: It's not the pattern.

6 THE COURT: No, it's not the pattern.

7 MS. BERLIN: It's just adding, it's almost like saying
8 not only does the SEC have the burden, but they want to say it
9 like why, it's at the beginning. If the Eleventh Circuit
03:55 10 wanted to be reiterated multiple times in multiple confusing
11 ways, it would have been done in the instruction. But to add
12 this here not only is it duplicative, but I find it confusing.

13 THE COURT: Well, I'll say this, I'm not going to 14 accept it only because I do think that we lead off by clearly
03:56 15 stating that the SEC has to prove each of these facts by a
16 preponderance of the evidence. So we don't even get into the 17 elements without making that qualifier so it's a little
18 repetitive.

19 MR. HYMAN: Similarly, the language, if you find the 03:56 20 SEC has proved one or more of the elements, I, alone, will 21 determine the remedy, that's duplicative. They have the Court
22 determine their own instruction below.

23 MS. BERLIN: It's in the pattern, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: It's in the pattern, Mr. Hyman. Listen,
03:56 25 the key is the following: When you have a pattern, having done

1 this for a little bit of time, you don't mess with the pattern
2 unless it's truly inapplicable, what you want to be careful is
3 adding non-pattern instructions unless they're really, really
4 necessary. I don't want to cut pattern. I'm willing to add to 03:56 5 pattern or eliminate, for example, like we do with a deposition
6 something that is wholly irrelevant, but once you find an
7 instruction that is appropriate, very careful about cutting a
8 piece of pattern that my appellate court has found to be 9 necessary. If anything, you want a line in there, again, that 03:57 10 would indicate that they don't need to worry about what the 11 remedies are whatsoever. That's always a good thing to remind
12 the jury and I think the Eleventh thought as well, so we're 13 going to leave that in.

14 MR. HYMAN: I saw it as a red line, so I didn't 03:57 15 believe it was part of the pattern.

16 THE COURT: No, no, no. I see it in here because I
17 have the pattern open, too. There's another thing here that 18 says defendant is objecting to plaintiff's addition of a
19 sentence.

03:57 20 MR. HYMAN: We don't need that.

21 THE COURT: We don't need that. We can get rid of
22 that.

23 MR. HYMAN: That was something before Your Honor's
24 summary judgment issues.

03:57 25 THE COURT: So let me go to -- I'm on Count 2 now

1 because I know the pagination is off. Right now, unless I'm
2 misreading something, I don't see anything until the very end
3 of Count 2. I'm on my page 24, I'm sure that's not what you
4 guys have but there's an argument here at the end that says,
03:57 5 again, it's the same thing, it's a request by the defendant to 6 once again emphasize that if the SEC doesn't prove all of these
7 things, you can't establish your case.

8 I've already said it's, again, the same thing we say
9 up front very clearly that the SEC has to prove a preponderance
03:58 10 of the evidence in Count 2 as well, so I don't need that.

11 Now, what I don't need to know -- what I need to know
12 is plaintiff is asking for an addition there. Do you still 13 want this addition? There's something here about to find for 14 the SEC on the second element, you need to only find that the 03:58 15 defendant was made or was responsible for one misrepresentation
16 or omission.

17 MS. BERLIN: That's correct. So basically, the SEC
18 alleges the series of misrepresentations and omissions. The 19 jury only needs to find one of them and any one of them.

03:58 20 So, for example, in other jury instructions, you know,
21 City of Miami, as an example, with Judge Altonaga, you know, we 22 include that language where we have multiple misreps and 23 omissions, they only have to find this element as to one of 24 them, they don't have to find the default and the insurance and 03:58 25 the conviction. We give them a menu in closing -- they just

1 need to find one. So that is just something that we have
2 included jury instructions in this district where we have
3 multiple misreps and omissions, otherwise the jury may have to 4 go through the whole list, which they don't.

03:59 5 THE COURT: And any response to that? By the way,
6 where it would go, I think, would be under the part for the 7 second element, and then under there's a line about 8 misrepresentations, not a statement that's not true, an 9 omissions defined and then I would think there you would 03:59 10 probably put it right.

11 MS. BERLIN: That's where we did it.

12 THE COURT: Put the SEC on the second element, you
13 need to only find one, because that's right after definitions
14 of misrepresentations and omissions.

03:59 15 MS. BERLIN: That's where we did it in the past, I'm
16 looking at the City of Miami instructions.

17 THE COURT: At the bottom, but I would move it into 18 that part if you are going to have it because it makes sense
19 there.

03:59 20 MS. BERLIN: Right under definition is where we have 21 used it before, so I think that was just an error, we should 22 move it up like the Court suggested, that's how we have done it
23 before, right after definitions, then to find for the SEC.

24 THE COURT: Defense's response on that line being 04:00 25 added?

1 MR. HYMAN: Obviously, the pattern instructions is
2 going to be our position, however, there is two other issues
3 with respect to these instructions that we want to address with 4 the Court which is misleading, which is the fact that ABFP was 04:00 5 managing Mr. Furman's investment fund. Because ABFP Management
6 is separate from the entity that was sanctioned by the Texas
7 Security Board as is the entity that was sanctioned by the 8 Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities, and those 9 entities were not managing Fidelis.

04:00 10 MS. BERLIN: I don't think we are there yet.

11 THE COURT: I don't know if we're there yet.

12 MR. HYMAN: It was before we got to that part of it.
13 It's subparagraph F and H with respect to the --

14 THE COURT: So it's the part that says, Texas Security
04:00 15 Board had entered an emergency cease and desist order against 16 Par Funding, that paragraph.

17 MR. HYMAN: Yep, Par Funding, executive Perry
18 Abbonizio and ABFP which was managing Mr. Furman's investment
19 fund and that's not accurate, Your Honor.

04:00 20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. HYMAN: ABFP was not the entity -- Management Co.
22 was not the entity that was sanctioned.

23 MS. BERLIN: So, Your Honor, we can just -- why don't
24 we just take out the comma, which was managing Mr. Furman's
04:01 25 investment fund?

1 MR. HYMAN: I think you need to specify the specific
2 fund, Your Honor.

3 MS. BERLIN: I'm sorry, Your Honor, we'll just leave
4 it, and as ABFP.

04:01 5 THE COURT: For violating the securities laws.

6 MS. BERLIN: For violating securities laws, and we
7 will take out the phrase, "Which was managing Mr. Furman's
8 investment fund." I think that should come out.

9 THE COURT: Yeah. It would just read, "The Texas
04:01 10 Securities Board has entered an emergency cease and desist
11 order against Par Funding. Par Funding's executive Perry
12 Abbonizio and ABFP, for violating the securities laws and 13 engaging in fraud in connection with the offer and sale of 14 Par Funding promissory notes."

04:01 15 MR. HYMAN: I think, Your Honor, it still is 16 misleading and could lead to jury confusion in terms of the 17 different entity names and the specific entities that were 18 sanctioned should be listed.

19 THE COURT: I disagree with that. I think it's more
04:01 20 confusing. At the end of the day, this strips that out, it
21 only talks about those entities in big picture that ultimately 22 were a part of the cease and desist orders. I don't think we 23 need to get granular. Our jury is sophisticated enough that 24 they can figure it.

04:02 25 But I will take the one part that was misleading

1 against Mr. Furman because I do agree, as the SEC does as well,
2 that that would be improper. And I'm going to, obviously, I'll
3 be doing a little bit of grammar cleanup here so don't worry
4 about pointing out other things like that.

04:02 5 I'm going to print out one fresh copy for everybody
6 and have you guys all read it together while I'm in chambers to 7 make sure that we catch every typo because we don't want to 8 have anything get through here. So I've taken care of that
9 change.

04:02 10 And now I'm on to Count 3. I feel that we may have 11 the same small edits here to make. Same thing, again, it looks
12 like must -- well, let's see here. This looks new. There's a
13 cite -- oh, no, it's the Gobel cite. The defendant has 14 proposed at the end of Count 3, the SEC must prove that act,
04:02 15 practice or course of deceitful or fraudulent business that the 16 defendant engaged in involved the purchase or sale of 17 securities. Okay.

18 You guys still want that? I'm trying to figure out
19 why we need that. I'm just looking above it.

04:03 20 MR. HYMAN: Yeah, that's fine, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: I think we can take that out, because I
22 think we got it explained.

23 MR. HYMAN: Same thing with the fraudulent device.
24 Your Honor has already addressed that issue.

04:03 25 THE COURT: Yeah. The fraud device part.

1 MS. BERLIN: Why do we have this part here?

2 THE COURT: Does the plaintiff need that? The
3 plaintiff also had a section here about fraud or deceit.

4 MS. JOHNSON: That's part of the pattern, Your Honor.

04:03 5 THE COURT: The part that's underlined.

6 MS. BERLIN: Are you sure for C?

7 MS. JOHNSON: Yes.

8 MR. HYMAN: The thing is that we had incorporated it
9 to show that there was a difference between the two languages.

04:03 10 MS. BERLIN: We want to just go with the pattern,
11 Your Honor, obviously.

12 THE COURT: Let me pull up the pattern here.

13 MS. BERLIN: Let's just check.

14 THE COURT: I just need to check that one because it
04:03 15 looks like it's not supposed to be here.

16 Give me one second, I can look it up.

17 So that's why I made it I thought for a second.

18 MS. JOHNSON: It's underlined because they objected to
19 it.

04:04 20 THE COURT: Oh, I got you but let me just double-check
21 to make sure in an abundance of caution. It's loading, give me
22 one second here.

23 MS. JOHNSON: I'm 99 percent it's from the pattern but 24 at 2:00 in the morning --

04:04 25 THE COURT: I have it here give me a second here. Let

1 me just -- I'm pulling it up.

2 Securities Act instructions, it would be let see.

3 Hold on, I'm looking for the exact pattern, Exchange Act 10(b).

4 Let me do it this way. Fraud or deceit. I'm looking for --

04:05 5 there we go. Here it is. Got it.

6 5.13 looks like the instruction that I'm working with

7 here. And this would -- let me make sure it's the same place.

8 6.4.

9 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

04:05 10 THE COURT: So 6.4 pattern has this section of 5.13

11 and it does have this language in here. Fraud or deceit means

12 a lie or trick. It comes after, I want to see where do they

13 put it in for the second element. So I guess so it is in that

14 spot. Okay.

04:05 15 So that is pattern. So it just describes a fraud or 16 deceit and it's not necessary. Okay. That looks fine.

17 Defendant, some person -- that is pattern so I can

18 take that underline off and that's fine. And then, let's see,

19 this last line that you put this in, the term, yeah, that's in

04:06 20 there.

21 Did you change that? What did you do there? The term

22 would in the phrase would operate for means to act, practice or

23 submit and have the capacity to defraud a purchaser or seller.

24 Looks like you -- oh, that's why. There was another line there

04:06 25 but it just got cut. So that means I need to address one line

1 here.

2 The defendant has proposed some language that says,
3 "This means the allegedly improper practice or course of 4 dealing must have been sufficiently material to have the 04:06 5 capacity to fraud a purchaser or seller. I have defined
6 materiality above." Okay.

7 Does the defense still need that? Again, that's just 8 an addition outside a pattern. You guys want that in the 9 instructions still? Is that still an issue?

04:06 10 MR. HYMAN: We would like it but, obviously, I don't 11 think it's worth belaboring the point or --

12 THE COURT: Yeah, again, if it added something under a
13 case I can understand, but it's an added thing to the pattern
14 so I'm going to take that out. So that's eliminated.

04:07 15 The third element looks like it's still verbatim from 16 the pattern. Knowingly -- let's see. Knowingly means -- okay.
17 You decided to refer back to Count 1 so it wouldn't be
18 repetitive.

19 If you prove more than one of these claims, okay. And
04:07 20 then I would -- obviously, it's the same liability instruction
21 so I can take that out. All right.

22 Count 4, are we eliminating -- I think we withdrew
23 this promissory note issue, right? This is an old one. The 24 defendant had an objection under Count 4, if you find a
04:07 25 promissory note --

1 MR. HYMAN: That's out.

2 THE COURT: That's out. We have already dealt with
3 that. So let me go through this and see. Same thing. We have 4 an objection or a wish to add no finding of liability, failure
04:07 5 to prove, I'm going to delete that, we don't need to go through 6 that, I made that clear, we make it clear in the pattern that
7 if they don't prove it all the elements, that they're out.

8 Okay. So now I'm on Count 5.

9 MS. JOHNSON: We have the same on F to take out --

04:08 10 THE COURT: Which was managing the fund, so it is just 11 going to read ABFP for, right? Okay, I had that change.

12 MR. HYMAN: H as well.

13 THE COURT: Let's see. Ah, is that the first time
14 that we saw see that or was there a prior H? We should get 04:08 15 that out again.

16 MR. HYMAN: It's in both, the prior H --

17 THE COURT: I didn't catch that the first time. We 18 have got to go back which is managing Mr. Furman's investment
19 fund, SEC needs to have H?

04:08 20 MS. BERLIN: We see that. That should come out, which
21 was managing Mr. Furman's investment.

22 THE COURT: I took that out there, but I didn't take
23 it out in the prior H. Let me go back.

24 MS. BERLIN: It should come out.

04:08 25 THE COURT: Which was managing it. I should be able

1 to find it.

2 You know, I control F'd it. It shouldn't be anywhere
3 after this. So there was three more spots. I may be catching
4 it down the line. One more. Okay, I got it. All right.

04:09 5 Okay. All right. So let me scroll back down. That
6 was Count 5. Then we have to take out the same thing again,
7 the elements language from the defense proposed, that's already
8 covered. That's deleted.

9 Count 6 now, we can take out the securities again.
04:09 10 I've already made these rulings, they're just repetitive, and I
11 can take those out.

12 And now, I am on Count 7.

13 MR. HYMAN: Yep.

14 THE COURT: And let's see, what do we have here?

04:09 15 MR. HYMAN: We have already stricken the language
16 about the burden of proof.

17 THE COURT: Right. What's this fourth? There's a
18 fourth prong here right. You guys have entered a fourth prong
19 applicable because that's burden shifting.

04:09 20 I think in my order on summary judgment I made clear 21 that at trial it's got to be the defendant that proves the 22 exception, right?

23 MR. HYMAN: We have stricken that language.

24 THE COURT: Okay, I'll take that out. All right.

04:10 25 MR. HYMAN: And then, similarly, too, we had proposed

1 some additional language at the end of the -- well, hold on.

2 THE COURT: Let's see here. I see I got a couple of
3 additions here. Defendant's proposed language, "The Commission
4 is required to show, however, that the transaction would not
04:10 5 have taken place without the defendant's participation."

6 MS. BERLIN: It's not in the pattern. I am not sure
7 why we would be adding that.

8 THE COURT: Listen, unless we have a case that 9 supports it and adds it, I'm not going to be differing from the 04:10 10 pattern and it's not on a case that is on point. I'm going to 11 delete that.

12 What about the SEC's good faith belief issue under 13 Section 5? Do you need that?

14 MS. BERLIN: That comes from -- I mean, it's something
04:10 15 they've continued to argue, right, throughout the trial so I
16 think it's relevant. It's in the -- if you look at the page of 17 law that comes after this -- wait, wait. This is the pattern,
18 isn't it?

19 THE COURT: It might be.

04:11 20 MS. BERLIN: I think it is.

21 THE COURT: Let me check because, remember some of 22 them are underlined and the actual pattern -- hold on, I can 23 look it up.

24 MS. BERLIN: I know it's in there.

04:11 25 THE COURT: Hold on. It's here. I got it. It's

1 right here. A defendant's good faith -- in the pattern, a
2 person who sells unregistered securities violates Securities
3 Act Section 5 regardless, whether the violation is committed
4 knowingly, intentionally, recklessly or negligently. The 04:11 5 defendant's good faith belief that the sale was legal and his
6 or her reliance on advice of counsel aren't defenses to a
7 violation of Section 5. So that is pattern.

8 MR. HYMAN: And then we can strike the proposed
9 language that we put in at the bottom of that given
04:11 10 Your Honor's ruling on the directed verdict issue.

11 THE COURT: Okay, so we got that done. Now we're on 12 -- I think we're down to --

13 MS. JOHNSON: One more. Do you want to take it out?

14 MS. BERLIN: Oh, yeah. So we think at the top of our 04:11 15 page 39 where it says, "Mr. Furman may be a necessary
16 participant or substantial factor in the sale of securities if,
17 for example," do you see that?

18 THE COURT: Yes, I found it now.

19 MS. BERLIN: So the "for example" isn't an example
04:12 20 that's relevant to this case at all, so we think it's 21 confusing. We think the "for example" part should come out.

22 THE COURT: So it should read, "Mr. Furman may be a
23 necessary participant or a substantial factor in the sale of 24 securities if by" --

04:12 25 MS. BERLIN: We think that sentence should come out

1 because in the sentence before it discusses the necessary
2 participant or substantial factor. It's the sentence before
3 and then there's an example sentence. And so that sentence
4 should come out.

04:12 5 THE COURT: So do you think it has to be -- hold on a
6 minute. So you want to take out that whole section?

7 MS. BERLIN: Just the sentence so that it would
8 read --

9 THE COURT: To satisfy the element?

04:12 10 MS. BERLIN: -- to directly or indirectly sell
11 securities," and then the next sentence would say, "To satisfy
12 this element."

13 THE COURT: Oh, gotcha.

14 MS. BERLIN: So we would just take the out the 04:13 15 sentence that has an example that is not relevant to this case.

16 MR. HYMAN: I think that's part of the pattern --

17 MS. BERLIN: It is.

18 MR. HYMAN: -- and it's necessary to provide the 19 context as to the definition of it.

04:13 20 THE COURT: Well, but remember, let's think about why.
21 Remember, we cut pattern if it's not totally inapplicable, but
22 I don't know that you want that in there for your own sake
23 because what that does is -- I mean look, what it says. They 24 want to cut out something that talks about if you employed or 04:13 25 directed anyone to sell or to offer to sell securities on his

1 behalf, expand the scope of his potential exposure by linking
2 him up to anyone else.

3 I don't remember ever having Mr. Furman say that
4 anybody else did this on his behalf. He was the guy. I mean,
04:13 5 he was the main guy. Doesn't distinguish anything, it points
6 out that it's not an issue in the case.

7 What they want to cut is just one line that says,
8 "Mr. Furman may be necessary if he, for example, employs or 9 directs others to sell or offers to sell securities or plans to 04:13 10 process by which they are offered or sold." They want to cut
11 that.

12 MS. BERLIN: Our concern if that's there, then their 13 defense will point to it and say, here is what that means and 14 he didn't do these two things. I mean, that's just my 04:14 15 experience from --

16 THE COURT: The whole point is it's structured as, for 17 example, so if it's not a possible example of what he did and 18 the evidence supports it, I don't know why we would want to 19 give it.

04:14 20 MS. BERLIN: I think that could be confusing.

21 MR. HYMAN: That was our whole argument, is that that 22 is what is the definition of the necessary factor, that's why
23 we're trying to say that they haven't proven these elements
24 because that's what's required of them to prove. And,
04:14 25 candidly, I think it should be in there because it's part of

1 the pattern jury instructions and it explains the context of 2 what those definitions are.

3 THE COURT: I don't know if you're thinking through
4 these objections, but if you want to keep it in, there you can 04:14 5 keep it in there.

6 MS. BERLIN: I think if you keep it in there we should 7 just say, among other examples, because if we're going to get 8 this argument in closing and I think the jury, what he just
9 said, and then the jurors are going to be confused and then I
04:14 10 start to get confused.

11 It clearly says this is just an example. This isn't
12 the way, the only way. And so if it's in there as an example
13 and they argue what they just argued here to the Court,
14 which --

04:15 15 THE COURT: Meaning that they're trying -- meaning
16 that that is the only way by which you can satisfy indirect,
17 which it's not. Again, look, I think if that happened I would 18 have to jump in and explain that it's not the only way. It
19 says it very clearly. If, for example, it's one of the ways
04:15 20 you can be a necessary participant or a substantial factor.

21 I'll leave it in there. If you want it in there, I'll 22 leave it in there. If the defense wants it in there, I'll do
23 it.

24 I mean, the only thing I would say if -- I'm trying to 04:15 25 think how you would want to word it, and (inaud.).

1 MS. BERLIN: Can we indicate there are other examples
2 because, Your Honor, we know what's going to be argued.

3 THE COURT: If, for example --

4 MS. BERLIN: Or by way of just one example.

04:15 5 THE COURT: Right, let me see here. And it's may be.
6 So it would be, "Mr. Furman may be a necessary participant or 7 substantial factor in the sale of securities if, by way of one
8 example, he employs or directs others to sell or offer to sell
9 securities or plans, the process by which unregistered
04:16 10 securities are offered or sold."

11 MS. BERLIN: Sure.

12 THE COURT: I think that's fine. It gives you guys
13 what you want, it's in there, you guys can honor it, you guys
14 can still make arguments. That's fine.

04:16 15 MS. BERLIN: Would it be permissible if we say to the 16 jury, like, this is one example --

17 THE COURT: So even if the defense comes up and says
18 he didn't do part of that, it's not the exclusive way to prove,
19 I mean, that's what the instructions say.

20 MS. BERLIN: Perfect.

21 THE COURT: It gives the defense a chance to argue
22 that theory and it lets the defense get that language, I'm 23 giving the benefit of the defense, I think we can work with 24 that. I think it's a clear statement of the law.

04:16 25 MR. HYMAN: And for the next one with the proposed

1 language, we can just argue the definition of necessary
2 participant without that going into the jury instructions.

3 THE COURT: Where is this? This is now -- because the 4 next thing I have defense's exemption. Did I miss something?

04:17 5 MR. HYMAN: Defendant's proposed language, the 6 Commission is required to show, however, that the sale
7 transaction would not have taken place without the defendant's
8 participation, that's the but-for cause definition defined in 9 various cases.

04:17 10 MS. BERLIN: We have talked about this.

11 THE COURT: This is the one I just took out.

12 MR. HYMAN: Oh, you took that out already.

13 THE COURT: Yeah, I already ruled. We are not going 14 to have that in there. You can keep the part you want in the 04:17 15 pattern, but I don't think you need that in there. That's 16 surplus.

17 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, we just want to be very 18 clear. I don't want to try this case twice. We want to make 19 sure that the jury is clear and that the defense is not going
04:17 20 to, or if the Court will give some corrective if their closing
21 tomorrow is, here is the example, and if they don't meet this
22 example, then there's no Section 5.

23 MR. HYMAN: That's double hearsay.

24 MS. BERLIN: I'm just making a prediction.

04:17 25 THE COURT: I hear you and I have no problem

1 explaining it. So I can give a curative or I can just answer a
2 jury question. And I can guarantee we are not trying this
3 case. We're not trying this case. That much I can guarantee.
4 One way or the other, this case is over after the jury comes
04:18 5 back.

6 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: And then, let's see. This one next is 8 defense proposed instruction.

9 MR. HYMAN: That can be stricken, Your Honor. That 04:18 10 was based on the issues raised.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Let me, so I don't lose my -- how 12 about the next one, fraud of a good faith defense? Are we 13 still there?

14 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, that's not a pattern, that's 04:18 15 something the defense would like to create and include. We 16 would oppose it.

17 THE COURT: So, you guys, let me just make sure, I
18 know the defense is not asking for the one before, the 19 defensive exemption, that's not being asked for, that's fine,
04:18 20 but -- and I deleted that. Are you guys still arguing the good 21 faith one?

22 MR. HYMAN: Actually, Your Honor, we are arguing
23 exemption as well. There was evidence to show that
24 Par Funding --

04:19 25 THE COURT: You just told me to delete it.

1 MR. HYMAN: No, no, no, I was talking about the
2 language above, I put defendant's proposed, not the defensive
3 exemption.

4 THE COURT: Listen. You have got to follow me here
04:19 5 because I'm moving.

6 MR. HYMAN: The language when we wrote the fact that
7 Mr. Furman was selling promissory notes to Fidelis was not part
8 of the transaction at issue.

9 MS. BERLIN: Where are we? I'm sorry?

04:19 10 THE COURT: I don't know, but I deleted that anyway.
11 Stay with me. You are defensive exemption.

12 MR. HYMAN: Yes, we want that in, sir.

13 THE COURT: Any argument on the defendant's defensive 14 exemption? That's where we are now? Do you know where we are,
04:19 15 SEC?

16 MS. BERLIN: Yes, you would like to hear from us on 17 this?

18 THE COURT: Yes. Let me hear from you guys on that.

19 MS. BERLIN: We oppose this instruction. It's not
04:19 20 from the pattern, it is incorrect law. It is an incorrect
21 recitation of the exemptions. It's -- we're not sure where it
22 came from. It's just completely wrong, and I don't know what 23 more I can say about it. I feel like we have been over this.
24 It talks about things that were never even tried in this case
04:20 25 or even raised as affirmative defenses, 506(b), 508, and the

1 law is wrong.

2 I can't say enough about it, it's just I'm mystified.
3 We don't know what else to say.

4 THE COURT: Let me see. So the objection also written
04:20 5 here is whether the Fidelis notes have an exception under 6 506(c) was only funded by a credit investment is not an issue
7 at the trial. The only issue regarding exemption would be 8 whether Par Funding notes, which has been the argument that we 9 heard last week, and the ABFP notes were subject to the 04:20 10 exemption from registration, which they have not been.

11 So can I hear from the -- I mean, we have kind of 12 argued this issue already. And so my concern here is obviously 13 misleading the jury. It doesn't really, by the way I'm looking 14 at it, it doesn't actually even identify which note, in fact,
04:20 15 interestingly enough, the entire proposed instruction doesn't 16 mention which note we're talking about, it doesn't say it's 17 Fidelis, it doesn't say it's Par, it's doesn't say it's ABFP.
18 It just goes into general 506(c), and then says that there's a
19 good faith issue here.

04:21 20 You guys have cited the Eleventh for this proposition
21 and some CFRs.

22 MS. BERLIN: That's Levin.

23 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Levin -- and I'm just pulling
24 up Levin.

04:21 25 MS. BERLIN: Levin has to do with -- Levin was one of

1 my cases. It was -- that was an issue on summary judgment, the
2 defendants had raised a certain affirmative defense exemption
3 under good faith that wasn't raised in this case. The 4 defendants raised 506(c) in their pleadings. And that's what 04:21 5 we had a trial on. And so now we got these instructions this 6 morning where have added like 508 and 506(b) for other
7 offerings where the issuers never even argued this.

8 If it did come in, we would have to obviously address
9 it, but I think we have an issue like, first and foremost, with 04:22 10 additional affirmative defenses being added at the end of 11 trial. That would be one problem.

12 THE COURT: So can I understand why if this is -- if 13 the SEC is -- and I spent time earlier in the trial trying to 14 address this because I wanted to avoid this today, and that was
04:22 15 why I wanted to discuss that this was not an applicable defense
16 as to the SEC's theory because they were only focusing on notes
17 that were not the Fidelis notes.

18 So can I get an understanding from the defense,
19 unfortunately, I don't know that there's a compromise on this 04:22 20 as a proposed instruction, either it's applicable or it's not 21 legally, and if the SEC is not arguing about the Fidelis notes,
22 and I will note that you would have to, I think, put in this
23 instruction to make it clear that you're talking about 24 applicability as to the Fidelis notes, because that's the 04:23 25 argument, but the problem is you don't mention which note in

1 the proposal, and if you mention Fidelis, that's not what the
2 SEC has been pursuing, and if the Court has rejected the
3 integration theory where you think Fidelis is the same as
4 Par Funding and/or ABFP, then this wouldn't apply.

04:23 5 So can you maybe tell me where --

6 MR. HYMAN: There's two different issues that are kind
7 of within the context of it. First of all, Your Honor,
8 obviously, there's been the defense throughout the course of 9 the case that Fidelis is subject to exemption and to the extent
04:23 10 that Fidelis was not a pass-through or a mere conduit to 11 Par Funding, then that exemption would obviously protect 12 Mr. Furman from liability.

13 Second, Your Honor, is --

14 THE COURT: Hold on let, you know, unfortunately we 04:23 15 have talked about this a lot. We're either just going to have 16 to just go forward with the explanation that I've tried to give 17 and there's not much more I can do.

18 What you just stated there is not what's happening in 19 the case. There is no protection for Fidelis being exempt
04:24 20 under 506(c) because they're not arguing that the Fidelis notes
21 are the unregistered problematic offering, and, again, I don't
22 want to get into it, but am I correct again --

23 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

24 THE COURT: -- that the argument has been Par Funding
04:24 25 and ABFP are unregistered so whether or not you show that

1 Fidelis is protected is of no moment.

2 MS. BERLIN: Correct, the SEC has not -- once again,
3 the SEC has not charged Mr. -- has not charged anything about
4 the Fidelis claim being unregistered, that has not been 04:24 5 charged, therefore, that is not being alleged by the SEC and we 6 will object to the jury deciding something we haven't charged.

7 THE COURT: But, more important than that, one cannot 8 have the jury thinking that because he's established that he --
9 that under the Fidelis notes he is somehow exempt and that this 04:24 10 is a defense to unregistered offerings and other notes. That 11 is problematic. That would really misstate the law and it
12 would confuse the jurors incredibly. They are going to think
13 that because accredited investors bought the Fidelis notes,
14 assuming they believe that that's true, then somehow that means
04:25 15 that the unregistered nature of Par Funding notes and ABFP
16 notes doesn't create liability under Section 5, right?

17 MS. BERLIN: That is correct. We have to talk about 18 the offering.

19 THE COURT: So that's a problem, guys, and I don't --
04:25 20 I mean, look, at this point, you guys believe that there's a
21 theory of the case that would permit that, you have preserved
22 the record and the Eleventh Circuit can be the ultimate arbiter
23 of that. I don't know what else I can do but given that 24 instruction, it's just not a valid defense.

04:25 25 MR. HYMAN: A separate issue as well which is that we

1 also did put sufficient evidence to show that the Par Funding
2 notes and offering would otherwise be exempt from registration.
3 We put into evidence the 506(b) forms, and as a result, the 4 innocent mistake exemption.

04:26 5 THE COURT: Wait a minute. Hold on a minute. Hold on 6 a minute. We discussed this last week and there was a very 7 clear explanation, as I recall, that from no moment has 8 Par Funding or ABFP ever put themselves out in the world of 9 exemptions. Their own filings, I believe, indicated very 04:26 10 clearly that they knew they were unregistered in nature.

11 I don't want to say that's a stipulation, but I don't
12 think any point that's even been an argument advanced by Mr.
13 Furman, meaning Mr. Furman is going to come in now through his 14 case and try to show that those ABFP and Par Funding notes did
04:26 15 not need to be registered?

16 I think that the registration has never been changed
17 as to those notes.

18 MS. BERLIN: We're double-checking it. So we're 19 checking, you remember there was a litigation over, they were
04:26 20 arguing initially it wasn't a security and it was something
21 under Reeves.

22 THE COURT: Right.

23 MS. BERLIN: We're just checking that November
24 pretrial stip to make sure, and on the ones we filed because we 04:26 25 filed with them the other day.

1 THE COURT: Yeah, I saw the revised one.

2 MS. BERLIN: So let me just -- I just want to check to 3 make sure.

4 MR. HYMAN: We didn't take the position that they 04:27 5 hadn't filed a registration, it was that the party is taking
6 the position that they're exempt from registration, which I'm 7 sure the other defendants had not previously stipulated to.

8 We also introduced into evidence the 506(b) forms of 9 Par Funding throughout the course of this case. And also,
04:27 10 information as to the number of accredited investors as well as 11 Par Funding's reasonable efforts to show that these investors
12 were, in fact, accredited through Mr. Cole and, as a result, we 13 had, in fact, put in sufficient evidence for the jury to 14 address the issue of whether the Par Funding notes were also 04:27 15 exempt.

16 THE COURT: Let me know when the SEC has double-
17 checked the issue.

18 MS. BERLIN: We're double-checking. Hold on.

19 THE COURT: I'm just trying to remember if that issue
04:27 20 has ever been stipulated to. I can't remember.

21 MS. BERLIN: We're looking. We just had a glitch with 22 the internet, with the system.

23 THE COURT: If you want to give me the ECF number, I
24 can look it up where you think a stipulation has been reached
04:28 25 or earlier. Might even have been in the preliminary injunction

1 case.

2 MS. BERLIN: No, no, no, we want the one filed with 3 the other defendants when they were in the case, although they
4 don't represent those companies.

04:28 5 THE COURT: But there was already representations on
6 that. I don't remember.

7 MS. BERLIN: I don't remember. We're looking. It was 8 filed November something. I don't remember the exact date.

9 THE COURT: I'll tell you now, hold on.

04:28 10 MS. JOHNSON: November 22nd.

11 MS. BERLIN: Can we pull it up so we can just 12 double-check the -- thanks.

13 THE COURT: I have November 23rd, but I don't know, I
14 don't have November 22nd.

04:29 15 MS. BERLIN: I think that was from her memory.

16 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, at least in the Word version
17 that I'm looking, it states, "The statement of reasonable
18 detailed issues of fact which remain to be detailed at trial,
19 A) whether Par Funding, McElhone, LaForte, Barletta, Vagnozzi, 04:29 20 Abbonizio and Furman, offered to and sold securities in the 21 form of promissory notes and transactions that were not
22 registered and not exempt from registration.

23 That's in the reasonable details facts which remain to 24 be litigated at trial in the Word version that I have.

04:29 25 MS. BERLIN: Let's look at the CM/ECF version and

1 let's look at the stipulations. We're just trying to pull
2 those up on our end.

3 MS. JACQMEIN: I think it was the 23rd.

4 MS. BERLIN: You think it was the 23rd?

04:29 5 MS. JACQMEIN: It was around that time. I know it was
6 before Thanksgiving.

7 MS. BERLIN: Once we pull it up, we'll look.

8 I mean, the -- so, let's assume, let's -- while Alise
9 is looking that up, let's assume, because we can't pull it up,
04:30 10 that there is a legal issue for trial over whether Par Funding
11 was exempt from registration.

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 MS. BERLIN: Which I don't recall, but we're going to 14 look. And it should be on the file. So Par Funding, as part
04:30 15 of this trial, the exemption that they claimed in their filings
16 with the SEC and the defendant put that in themselves into 17 evidence, is 506(b) as in boy. That's those are the boxes that 18 were checked. And B, as in boy, is they would have to prove
19 that Par Funding did not engage in any general solicitation --
04:30 20 I mean, offer it to the public. That's what a 506(b) exemption 21 is.

22 That's the only exemption, and that's the evidence in 23 the case and those were the filings with the SEC the defendants
24 put them into evidence.

04:31 25 So if they wanted to add -- I don't know that I would

1 be opposed, I don't know that it's going to help.

2 THE COURT: I was going to say this --

3 MS. BERLIN: The 506(b) exemption, they would have to 4 prove that nobody was ever solicited in the public domain.

04:31 5 THE COURT: So let's -- so the issue is, it's Docket
6 Entry 966, November 16, 2021 was the last time that the parties
7 stipulated. We have already ruled as a matter of law they are 8 securities.

9 So there is an argument, again, it's not too specific,
04:31 10 but I think we're specifically talking about ABFP and 11 Par Funding notes where they are maintaining that they're 12 exempt from registration pursuant to 506(b) and (c) of the 13 Securities Act.

14 So if we're going to allow there to be this 04:31 15 instruction, it has to be modified. Number 1) the proposal
16 doesn't even specify what note, so it's extremely confusing,
17 but you would have to say something in here.

18 So as I previously explained if you find that the SEC
19 has proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the 04:32 20 defendant sold securities for which no registration was in 21 effect, you must decide whether the defendant has met his or 22 her burden to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the 23 offer to sell the securities was exempt from the Securities Act
24 registration requirements.

04:32 25 I think you would say there specifically the issue is

1 whether the Par Funding or ABFP notes were subject to exemption
2 under 506(b) and (c).

3 MS. BERLIN: No, no, no. Okay. So 506(c) was
4 never -- it's in evidence already in this case. Par Funding
04:32 5 and -- Vicki, can you just pull the Form Ds? I really wish
6 they had sent this before this morning and before we had
7 closed, we would have just called Mr. Sharp.

8 So they did not, Par Funding did not file with the SEC
9 for exemption under 506(c).

04:32 10 THE COURT: So it should be 506(b).

11 MS. BERLIN: (B) as in boy, and I pointed that to out
12 to Mr. (inaud.), and it's a traumatic difference.

13 THE COURT: That's fine.

14 MS. BERLIN: Let us just -- I just want to check that 04:33 15 before, because we did not know this was a feature of the trial
16 until this moment. So I haven't even looked at it.

17 MR. HYMAN: It's been --

18 MS. BERLIN: I'm not even sure that you have the right
19 to claim that another company should have gotten exemption from 04:33 20 the registration laws, quite frankly, but let's assume for a 21 second that you even have -- an individual defendant has the 22 right to prove that Par Funding was exempt in its nationwide
23 offering. Let me just make sure I know that exemptions were
24 filed with the SEC.

04:33 25 THE COURT: Okay, go ahead and take a look while I'm

1 editing this instruction.

2 MS. BERLIN: So P6 is one of them. And that is 506(b)
3 as in boy.

4 THE COURT: So let's --

04:34 5 MS. BERLIN: And Your Honor --

6 THE COURT: Hold on. Listen, I'm not going to --

7 we're trying to streamline this. The first paragraph here
8 doesn't work because the first paragraph is defensive exemption
9 says 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act exempts from the

04:34 10 registration requirements transactions by an issuer not
11 involving any public offering, and then it talks about the safe
12 harbor and mentions (b) and (c).

13 We can all agree there's not a universe where we can

14 maintain a defense of exemption that this was not a public
04:34 15 offering, these things were on the radio waves, they were all
16 over the steakhouses. I mean, the defense, I am assuming, that 17 that's not relevant in this case. There's no way you could 18 even maintain these on public offerings. They're absolutely
19 made to the public. These aren't private placements in that 04:35 20 sense, they're not limited private placements where you get a
21 safe harbor.

22 I mean, at this point everybody has mentioned that 23 these things were wildly offered and once you put something on 24 the radio and on TV, I don't know how could you argue that

04:35 25 Par Funding and ABFP were private.

1 MR. HYMAN: That's part of the difficulty, right, is
2 that he was only advertising for Fidelis, he wasn't advertising
3 for Par Funding. In not a single one of the advertisement is 4 Par Funding specifically mentioned.

04:35 5 MS. BERLIN: Can't.

6 THE COURT: Listen, because I'm not going to be -- I
7 only have so much reservoir with everybody here. I can only do
8 so much. I'm writing this for everybody.

9 You got to -- this isn't just throw the dart and see
04:35 10 what sticks. It's jury instructions and we need to get this 11 right. We have a jury that has a lot of information and you
12 can't play fast and loose with securities regulations, you will 13 make a mistake and it will confuse my jury.

14 So I need to make everyone understand that you're not
04:35 15 going to get a jury instruction that doesn't match attest a 16 theory of the case. We're not going to shift things on the 17 fly.

18 You just understood my earlier statement that Fidelis
19 is not a part of the SEC's case, meaning the Fidelis notes
04:36 20 themselves are not at issue. The Par Funding and ABFP notes
21 are at issue. Then you stated to me, well, we have put enough
22 evidence to show that the Par Funding and ABFP notes are 23 permissible to be unregistered because they fall into 24 exemption, it's going to be exemption 506(b), not 506(c).

04:36 25 But now you're shifting me back to Fidelis. So I need

1 you to stay with one theory of the case. This isn't throw up
2 (b), (c) and three sets of notes and hope that the jury gets
3 confused and finds that the SEC has not proven its burden. We 4 need to make sure that the evidence makes sense.

04:36 5 So my understanding is you are arguing now, and let me
6 be clear so the SEC is following along with what's happening
7 here. I mean, we're looking up stuff, but follow with me.

8 MS. BERLIN: I am, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Here is the issue: You can't make an 04:36 10 argument to this jury that the Fidelis notes are exempt because 11 it's not part of the SEC's case and this is not sandbagging
12 because the Court spent two hours in the middle of trial
13 clearing this you issue up to literally avoid this litigation
14 at charge conference. I already spent the time and energy to 04:37 15 clean up this issue.

16 So now we're down to just Par Funding notes and ABFP
17 notes. I don't have a problem with the theory of the defense
18 that those two notes are exempt from registration requirements
19 and, therefore, under Count 7, we can't find Mr. Furman to have 04:37 20 violated the Securities Act because these notes, as 21 unregistered notes, mean that he's not going to be held
22 liability for that count because he didn't sell unregistered
23 notes, these note were exempted from registration.

24 So we know that the theory is Par Funding and it's 04:37 25 only ABFP, that our instructions should only focus on whether

1 the jurors felt there was enough evidence to find that
2 Par Funding and the ABFP notes were exempt from the Securities
3 Act which, my understanding would be an exemption only under 4 506(b), not (c).

04:38 5 That means issues like public offering concerns under 6 4(a)(2) and the safe harbor for private placements, that's 7 really not the issue. In fact, what I see here is the issue is 8 506(b) requires that A) excluding accredited investors, the 9 issuer reasonably believes there are no more than 35 purchasers
04:38 10 of this security in any 90-day calendar period, and B) each 11 purchaser who is not an accredited investor, either alone with 12 or with his purchaser representative, has such knowledge and 13 experience in financial and business matter and he's capable of 14 evaluating the merits and risks of the prospective investment
04:38 15 or the issuer reasonably believes immediately prior to making
16 any sale, that such purchaser comes within this description.

17 And then it goes on to say, in order to comply with 18 506(b) exemption, an issuer may not solicit security by any 19 form of general solicitation or general advertising.

04:39 20 That's going to be a problem, I think, but we can
21 leave that in there.

22 An offering under 506(c), however, again, is a
23 different section.

24 So I can understand if we leave ourselves to (b), but 04:39 25 I think (c) is a bit of a problem. I'm hearing now that (c) is

1 not what Par Funding has ever sought to get exemption under,
2 right?

3 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor. And I just pulled the 4 exhibits. P19 is the ABFP Form DE filing with the SEC.

04:39 5 THE COURT: Got it.

6 MS. BERLIN: I'm sorry, so P19 is the note showing it
7 was -- because you know how they have many different ABFP
8 funds?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

04:39 10 MS. BERLIN: So it's ABFP Income Fund. ABFP's Form DE
11 is P45, and it's 506(b) as in boy.

12 THE COURT: Got it.

13 MS. BERLIN: Then we have -- I know, but I want to be
14 able to tell the Judge the exhibit numbers. P6 --

04:39 15 THE COURT: Exemption only under B.

16 MS. BERLIN: B as in boy.

17 So then we have P6, which is CVSG, 506(b) and then
18 P64, 506(b) as in boy, that's the other exhibit.

19 So the only evidence in the case, and these are the 04:40 20 exemptions they claimed they were entitled to, which they would 21 then have to prove, it's 506(b).

22 So our concern is, coming in now after trial and 23 saying, well, we want to make it, we want to argue that the 24 issuers got it wrong and that they should have asked for a
04:40 25 506(c) and that every investor in ABFP --

1 THE COURT: No, no, no. Let me save you the time.
2 We're not going to argue 506(c). It's not even in the papers
3 for the registration claim.

4 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. That's all --

04:40 5 THE COURT: We can't change. If you didn't ask for it
6 in the first place, that's not a theory of the case. You only
7 got it by what the exemption is you requested.

8 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

9 THE COURT: How could you go to trial and say, oh, but 04:40 10 I meant to say 506(c), find me cover under that. That doesn't
11 make any sense. That would be completely upsidedown.

12 It has to be only what they asserted, and I agree with 13 the SEC that it's a little novel to have the nonissuer come and 14 defend the exemption from the parties that have all settled.

04:41 15 MS. BERLIN: Sure.

16 THE COURT: That's already a stretch, but let's say,
17 for the sake of argument, that I allow this theory to go
18 forward and I allow it to be only under what has been claimed,
19 506(b), that then this instruction has to be modified to only
04:41 20 talk about 506(b). It's got extra stuff in here about 506(d).

21 So does the defense follow that if you guys are going
22 to rely on an exemption under 506, it can only be (b) because 23 the notes that you are seeking to get cover from only listed
24 that as their exemption in their Form Ds?

04:41 25 Do you guys have to follow me logically on that.

1 MR. HYMAN: We follow your logically, Your Honor. I'm
2 not going to argue any points, I am just going to say for 3 purposes of the record there's the good faith distinction but 4 I'm not going to push anything beyond saying we'll accept the 04:41 5 instructions as they are, and I think that's the simple
6 solution as it relates to this issue.

7 THE COURT: Well, no, you can't accept the 8 instructions as they are because you floated out a custom
9 instruction that's not tethered to case law and it talks about
04:42 10 using 506(b) and (c). So I have to now craft this so that you
11 can avail yourself of this exemption that you're trying to 12 argue for.

13 MR. HYMAN: Yes. And I think, Your Honor, while kind
14 of obviously preserving whatever rights, if we take out from -- 04:42 15 essentially, if you take it where it starts Rule 506(b) goes on 16 to the second, in order to comply with it, and from there,
17 strike the rest of it, I think that pretty much simplifies the 18 issue and takes care of the rest of.

19 MS. BERLIN: It doesn't. This recitation of the law
04:42 20 is incorrect and I don't know where it came from. There's no
21 case cite, it doesn't even cite to the statute. I mean,
22 it's -- I see now --

23 THE COURT: The CFR.

24 MS. BERLIN: -- they cite the Levin case. I'm looking 04:42 25 at the Levin case, so if they want to seek an exemption under

1 506(b), first, I would suggest that they go and search for jury
2 instructions where 506(b) has been tried before, but if they
3 want to come up with one on their own and invent it so to make
4 -- I'm reading to you from the case they cited. It's the Levin
04:43 5 case, which was one of the cases I did.

6 To meet the conditions of Rule 506, an offer or sale
7 must satisfy the terms of Rules 501 and 502. This is way more
8 complicated than what they are writing here.

9 So, and, in addition to meeting the requirements of 04:43 10 501 and 502, the issuer must reasonably believe there were more
11 than 35 purchasers of securities. They have that part. The 12 accredited investors were not counted towards the 35. So there
13 can't be more than 35 people who invested in Par Funding that 14 were not accredited. They would have to prove that. They 04:44 15 would have to show that Par Funding met the requirements of 16 Rules 501 and 502. I put that in our summary judgment motion.
17 It's certainly like disclosure requirements, information that 18 has to be distributed.

19 I suggest, Your Honor, that they draft a 506(b) jury
04:44 20 instruction that tracks the statute and also includes the 21 requirements of 501 and 502, and if they want some guidance
22 they could look at the Levin case which they cited. On page 3
23 there's a discussion.

24 THE COURT: Yeah, I'm looking at the Levin case. I'm 04:44 25 saying I can't even really begin to try to rewrite this for

1 them. This has to be -- this has to be scrapped because it
2 doesn't have -- it's got too much in there about 506(c)
3 embedded for me to be able to strip it out to make it make 4 sense.

04:44 5 So if the defense wants to use this, they need to go
6 back and give me some sort of -- now that I'm telling you it's 7 only going to be under 506(b) and that you have to draft it in 8 a way that makes clear that it is only as applicable to 9 Par Funding and ABFP promissory notes, then at that point we 04:45 10 can take a look at it but, you know, that would be crucial
11 because right now I can't -- I'm looking at this and I can't --
12 I can't edit this to the point where it's applicable.

13 It's just right now there's too many issues with it.
14 So, I haven't looked at this other case that has been cited
04:45 15 here.

16 But can the defense attempt to at least try to come up
17 with an instruction that would match what 506(b) calls for?

18 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Because they told me 506(b).

04:45 20 MR. HYMAN: After we get out of here, we will.

21 THE COURT: Yeah.

22 MR. HYMAN: And have full access to the internet, we 23 will go ahead --

24 THE COURT: Yeah, I need it tonight so I can look at 04:45 25 it so I don't lose time if I have to hear argument.

1 MR. HYMAN: We will plan on something submitted by
2 9:00 o'clock at the latest, Your Honor, 8:00 or 9:00.

3 THE COURT: I'm just looking here. I mean, this is 4 not something I can edit. Okay. Let's move on to the rest
04:46 5 of -- I'm literally at the very end here. I'm only dealing 6 with only the defense's issues on these three customs because 7 everything else is done.

8 The defendant's proposed instruction on fraud, good
9 faith defense.

04:46 10 MS. BERLIN: It looks like it's a criminal 11 instruction, maybe.

12 THE COURT: Yeah, what is this: This is citing to a
13 federal practice and this is not a correct statement of 14 applicable law in a civil matter such as this one.

04:46 15 MS. BERLIN: The cite they have is to criminal.

16 THE COURT: Yeah, it's a federal practice guide that 17 I'm not even sure is civil. Why do I need this if the 18 instructions prior to this talk about the state of mind? I
19 mean, this is -- we talked about earlier what is the standard,
04:47 20 negligence standard. Can you guys tell me where this comes 21 from or why I would be giving this instruction? There's no
22 case law in support of this.

23 MR. HYMAN: My understanding is that the good faith
24 defense is affirmative defenses which goes to issues beyond
04:47 25 just the scienter. However, obviously, I think at this point

1 there's no need to belabor argument on this issue given the
2 fact that the good faith language appears to be above.

3 Let me just double-check the prior jury instructions.

4 THE COURT: I'm going to Control F it, but I just want
04:47 5 to make sure.

6 MS. BERLIN: Is this an affirmative defense they pled?

7 THE COURT: Well, that's an issue.

8 MS. BERLIN: I don't think so. Is it, Mr. Hyman?

9 MR. HYMAN: I believe good faith was pled.

04:47 10 MS. BERLIN: By your client?

11 THE COURT: We may want to double-check. For example,
12 in the statement of claim, they do have Michael Furman denies 13 these claims and claims that he acted in good faith and 14 committed no security laws violations.

04:48 15 MR. HYMAN: I'm don't have the affirmative defense in 16 front of us, but I'm almost positive it was raised in Mr.
17 Furman's affirmative defense as was reliance on advice of 18 counsel. Both of them were, as I understand it, pled
19 specifically.

04:48 20 MS. BERLIN: I really don't recall. Again, like the 21 good faith is really just a defense to, you know, scienter. We 22 didn't act recklessly, I don't know that good faith is an
23 affirmative defense in our case anyway.

24 THE COURT: Right. What I think is -- just to clarify
04:48 25 what the SEC's saying, I think that, and I think that Mr. Hyman

1 understands that it's not so much an affirmative defenses as it
2 is that there has not been sufficient scienter pled by the SEC
3 to begin with. That is not an affirmative defense.

4 They may just point out they don't believe you guys
04:48 5 have shown enough scienter on some of these. Some of them
6 don't have a scienter element.

7 MS. BERLIN: Sure but scienter is just severe
8 recklessness so I am just unfamiliar with saying, well, I acted
9 in good faith, you know, this is -- it's severe recklessness.

04:49 10 Is there something that's going to show us that there
11 can be a jury instruction in an SEC case for scienter mindset
12 that I didn't act recklessly, because I acted in good faith?
13 Oftentimes the two happen hand-in-hand.

14 THE COURT: I don't know.

15 MS. BERLIN: I don't either.

16 THE COURT: I don't know if the defense wants to tell
17 me where they believe that they would be --

18 MR. HYMAN: At this juncture, Your Honor, I think it's 19 covered in the other areas of the jury instructions.

04:49 20 THE COURT: So you're going to withdraw that, right?

21 MR. HYMAN: We'll withdraw that. The only other thing
22 we request with respect to the jury instructions is that there
23 is some statement that's clear that Fidelis's or the sale of 24 Fidelis notes themselves aren't at issue or something along
04:49 25 those lines.

1 MS. BERLIN: No, no, no. So the Fidelis notes are
2 still relevant to the fraud charges. So they engaged in fraud
3 in a -- through a series of transactions. The only one where 4 we can say we're looking at Par Funding maybe is Section 5, and 04:50 5 Section 5 has sort of two roads to success for the SEC. It
6 could be the unregistered Par Funding offering or the 2017
7 unregistered ABFP offering.

8 The fraud charges are very clearly about his
9 involvement in Fidelis. So you can't parse it. Like this is a
04:50 10 scheme. We charged this as a scheme. He tells lies through 11 Fidelis at Fidelis seminars, through his Fidelis brochure that 12 he puts up, through his Fidelis web page about transparency
13 where he doesn't disclose these things. So you can't limit it
14 in the fraud realm and say to the jury that it has nothing to 04:50 15 do with Fidelis because that's not accurate.

16 His violating Section 5 has to do with he's doing that 17 through Par Funding and ABFP. The fraud charges are through 18 the various offerings. And there's not the need to actually 19 say, you know, which one because it doesn't matter if it's an 04:51 20 unregistered offering or not. The only element there is in 21 connection with the offer or sale of any security.

22 And so the jury could find it was in connection with 23 the offer or sale of the Fidelis, the fidelity security. The 24 Court has already found it's a security, or they could find
04:51 25 it's in connection with the offer or sale of the ABFP security

1 when he lied to the Meyers.

2 He could say it's in connection with the promissory
3 note of Par Funding when it's with the undercover. So they're 4 all three at issue in the fraud realm.

04:51 5 THE COURT: And, by the way, going back to the good
6 faith briefly, it's -- I mean, there is some case law on this,
7 but it's a little bit -- most of the good faith defenses come
8 in under the advice of counsel theory.

9 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

04:52 10 THE COURT: They don't come in as an independent good
11 faith theory. You know, stand alone without advice of counsel.
12 There's one case, SEC versus Todd from the Ninth Circuit that 13 I'm looking at, that is, and, again, out of circuit, it's the 14 only thing I can find, but it talks a little bit about trying 04:52 15 to find a good faith defense, but it seems that that was --
16 obviously, there was a summary judgment phase, which is a
17 little bit different, but it talks about that you have to act
18 in good faith based on the absence of scienter, and there it's,
19 again, I'm not exactly clear how you would create a standalone,
04:52 20 it came up in a different context. And it's under 15 USC
21 Section 78(t), so I don't even know if that's really in the 22 same universe as what we're dealing with here, but it's the 23 only one I found right now where it would seem that you could 24 have some sort of a good faith defense.

04:53 25 I'm just bringing it up because there is some case law

1 that the defendant is entitled to a good faith defense if he
2 can show no scienter and effective lack of participation.

3 Again, I'm not very clear how that would play here.
4 So, to me, there's a lot in the other instructions that talks
04:53 5 about what is the mindset, what is the recklessness that is 6 required, and as far as I can tell, the entire defense theory
7 is almost, in my view, on the six counts that deal with 8 securities regulation violations, not the seventh, not the one
9 that we have been arguing all this time about, but they all
04:53 10 seem to deal with one over-arching theme, and that is that 11 Mr. Furman did not know about these issues. He was unaware of 12 the arrests or the Par Funding criminal record of one of the 13 principals of Par Funding. He was unaware of the default rate
14 concerns. He was led to believe there was sufficient
04:54 15 underwriting.

16 I mean, all of these things go to his mind state as to 17 whether or not they believe that there's been certain
18 recklessness and scienter satisfied. So none of that really
19 gets into good faith as a need for an instruction. That's more
04:54 20 about trying to show, from the defense perspective, that by a 21 preponderance of the evidence the SEC has not shown that mental 22 state required for them to establish these violations.

23 That's really what the defense has made most of their 24 case about. I'm just going back on this good faith issue and 04:54 25 it's very difficult to have a good faith defense proposed with

1 no supporting case law.

2 MR. HYMAN: At this point, Your Honor, it's withdrawn
3 anyway.

4 MS. BERLIN: I was going to look --

04:54 5 THE COURT: No, no, it's okay. I just wanted to make
6 a record because I'm trying to my best to even find if there
7 would be a way to do it, but it's being withdrawn so at this
8 point there is no issue to litigate. Defense has been 9 withdrawing their good faith.

04:54 10 Now they have the next one, which is the reliance on 11 attorneys. Now that one is kind of a good faith hybrid.

12 MR. HYMAN: That was one has already been stricken.
13 We, unfortunately, didn't met the elements.

14 THE COURT: We never dealt with calling that. So if 04:55 15 that's out, then what we have here, really, is we're down to 16 only one because the next few instructions are the Court's duty
17 to decide remedies. I don't think anyone objects to that, if 18 you determine that the SEC has proved any defendant liable in 19 any of the counts that I alone will determine the remedy or 04:55 20 remedies to impose at a later date. Duty to deliberate with 21 damages are not at issue. That's a standard.

22 Doesn't look like any issues. And then the foreperson
23 one. All right. So I think that if I'm correct -- and defense
24 can correct me if I'm wrong -- the only issue that we don't 04:55 25 have a ruling on is the defense of exemption. I think that

1 everything else is covered. The defense has withdrawn one
2 defense and has not -- really, withdrawn two, advice of counsel
3 is not an issue, insufficient evidence was not even shown to 4 put that forward, that's gone.

04:56 5 They have withdrawn any sort of abstract good faith
6 defense, so that's not an issue that has been preserved, both
7 of those are withdrawn.

8 So the exemption is the final issue and the Court has 9 noted that the exemption has to be redrafted and tailored to 04:56 10 only the 506(b) and, therefore, 506(b) as it pertains solely to 11 the Par Funding and ABFP notes. So we need some sort of 12 redraft there that would chart or track the language of the 13 statute. I think if we get that redrafted, we should be able 14 to present that as one of the affirmative, or the affirmative
04:56 15 defenses of the defense, and I want to be clear that that 16 affirmative defense really is only as to Count 7. And that's 17 why I draw that after that count.

18 I think that the defense theory beyond that really is 19 focused a hundred percent on the SEC's purported failure to 04:57 20 show the sufficient mental state of Mr. Furman and the 21 knowledge that he had and lack thereof, because he was unaware 22 of the sanctions that took place in other states, that was 23 either done later after the offerings, without his knowledge,
24 same thing with default rate, how the insurance was done, the
04:57 25 underwriting.

1 It's really about him to attempting to establish in
2 the jurors' eyes that the SEC has been unable to satisfy their
3 burden of proof as to his knowledge to establish violations on 4 all of these.

04:57 5 I know not all of them with are contingent on 6 knowledge, but that's one of the main defenses.

7 So the only thing I can think of now is that we have
8 got to give them a chance to try to work on this. But anything
9 else should be good to go.

04:57 10 Does the SEC have anything else that you need -- you
11 want me to address because we're down to only 506(b) defense
12 that they're going to have to redraft. Everything has been 13 withdrawn by the defense. So there should be nothing left.

14 MS. BERLIN: Okay.

04:58 15 THE COURT: Do you guys want to add anything?

16 MS. BERLIN: No, I would just help them as they are 17 researching tonight. If they look at 506(1) and (2) as well.

18 THE COURT: Yeah, you are going to have to -- look,
19 exchange drafts so that tomorrow we don't lose a ton of time so
04:58 20 we can go right into reading these things, because I don't want
21 to have a situation where we lose time, and honestly, it's only
22 5:00 o'clock and I would wish we could do a little bit of this 23 work now, if anybody can get connected to the internet, we
24 could try to draft this, that's what we're supposed to do now
04:58 25 so we don't waste any time.

1 Why don't I do this? I'm going to go into chambers
2 and do a final read through of this and do a little cleanup,
3 and in the interim, I think the parties should attempt to try
4 to start looking into whether or not we can at least get a
04:58 5 draft or something, some language. Maybe I can workshop with 6 everybody right now on the 506(b). I mean, we should at least
7 take a look at it.

8 MS. BERLIN: I mean, we can --

9 THE COURT: Maybe we find out what cases on 04:59 10 (inaud.) --

11 MS. BERLIN: We tried. We already tried that before.
12 I don't think anybody has ever argued this that we have been 13 able to find. It's hard to prove what they're trying to do, so
14 we weren't able to find it. That doesn't mean it doesn't 04:59 15 exist, but it would be in one of our cases.

16 THE COURT: While we're doing that, while we're doing
17 that let's talk about the verdict form and I'm going to print
18 everything out, everyone is going to look at this before we 19 finish today, so we're all going to walk away with, other than 04:59 20 making an edit to this if we can't figure out the 506 issue,
21 we're all going to be done with this exercise. Tomorrow we 22 need to have this printed and read so you guys focus on 23 closings.

24 I don't see any objections right now. I'm looking at 04:59 25 the jury verdict. It looks to me like it's pretty

1 straightforward. Count 1, Count 2, Count 3, Count 4, Count 5,
2 Count 6, yes or no for each one of the counts. 17A1, 17A2,
3 17A3, et cetera.

4 Now there is a proposal here, defendant's proposed
05:00 5 language only if your answer to any of the proceeding questions
6 was yes, did Michael Furman make a material misrepresentation
7 or omission regarding the following subject matter.

8 So essentially what the defense is proposing are 9 special interrogatories wanting to know specifically what the 05:00 10 reason was to find each of the underlying or, excuse me, these 11 are the underlying bases for any one of Counts 1 through 6, I
12 would think, right?

13 So why would we do that? I mean, do we really need
14 that? Any one of these hits he could have misrepresented the 05:00 15 background, right, and --

16 MS. BERLIN: Judge, I'm probably going to take some of 17 the -- I was just looking at the instructions, we might even 18 chop a few out and only do our closing on a few of the misreps
19 and omissions.

05:00 20 One) it would be putting a burden on them to do
21 something they are not required to do.

22 Number two) it could be more than one, but it only has 23 to be one.

24 Number three) four of these six claims, and I feel
05:01 25 like I've said this a few times to the defendants, you don't

1 need a misrep and omission. They are scheme. They are the
2 deceptive course of conduct.

3 So we don't -- if they want to list every conceivable
4 deceptive course of conduct and all that, but just asking for 05:01 5 the misreps and omissions, that would only be relevant to the 6 17A2 and 10B5B charges, those two. And I don't see any reason
7 to do it.

8 THE COURT: Well, the other thing is, I mean, the 9 possibility of an inconsistent verdict is pretty high. They 05:01 10 could do yeses and nos and then find no.

11 MS. BERLIN: That's what they want.

12 THE COURT: Right, that's a problem. I mean, when we
13 do that, then we end up with an inconsistent verdict and then I
14 have to send them back and they have to understand that any one
05:01 15 of these violations forms a basis for finding yes on these 16 counts.

17 So I don't -- again, I don't see any advantage, quite 18 honestly, to that. In fact, I don't know why it needs to be 19 that granular. The jury instructions explain it. Why would we 05:02 20 have to go through each individual one to determine liability
21 when any one of them or a combination of them would be 22 sufficient.

23 Can the defense give me any argument why I would need
24 that?

05:02 25 MR. HYMAN: I think in lieu of belaboring any points

1 with any additional argument, we'll just withdraw it and
2 reserve rights.

3 THE COURT: Okay, I don't really know what that means
4 but if you're withdrawing it that means that the appellate
05:02 5 court is not going to entertain any of these argument, I just 6 want to be clear.

7 MR. HYMAN: Fine.

8 THE COURT: These are just not -- this isn't in the 9 Court's discretion anyway, it begs for inconsistent verdicts
05:02 10 and we don't want that, it doesn't help. Quite honestly,
11 having additional bullets in the holster where the SEC can show
12 that checking any one of these is a violation does not inure to 13 the benefit of your client, so it's much easier. So that's 14 been withdrawn for the record, the Court will not do that.

05:02 15 Now, I've numbered them, so that they correspond, it's 16 Questions 1 through 7, but we need to them put this last issue, 17 only if your answer to question 7, which was this exemption, on 18 question 7 above was yes, if your answer to question 7 above
19 was yes, then the securities qualify to an exemption of 05:03 20 registration and that's what we have been debating up until 21 this point.

22 So we have got to figure that out. That's the last
23 bit but I can leave that in there, that's fine, I'm leaving it
24 in there. The question is, we just need to get the instruction
05:03 25 cleaned up a little bit. But that looks to me like the last

1 one and then we can just sign and date the verdict form.

2 MS. BERLIN: So I think the, "Answer only if your 3 answer to the preceding question was yes," so it's a little --
4 this is confusing because --

05:03 5 THE COURT: I said the if your answer to question 7
6 above, because I've numbered them now.

7 MS. BERLIN: Okay. So the issue that we would have
8 with that is that to have a violation of Section 5A and C that 9 means no exemption is present. It's already been decided.

05:04 10 THE COURT: Okay. So I see what you're saying.
11 You're saying that to get a violation of 5A or 5C, it's an 12 element, is that it's a nonexempt. Is that the issue?

13 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. So let me just -- I'm --

14 THE COURT: I understand what you're saying, you're 05:04 15 thinking it could be inconsistent. The problem is that that's 16 a little tough for the jury to understand exactly how that's 17 going to work because you're saying they have to find that 18 there is no exemption within the count, but I don't know that I
19 can break that up that way.

05:04 20 I know what you're saying. What you're saying is 21 there is no reason for the question. You're going to answer no
22 if you find there could be an exemption, right, instead of 23 answering yes and then saying it's an exemption.

24 That doesn't make sense, that's a problem.

05:04 25 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, and, to me, it's -- it puts the

1 exemption before them. It has them go through it twice.

2 Maybe there's another way.

3 THE COURT: The only thing I can think of, because I
4 tend to explain the verdict form to the jurors, is I could make 05:05 5 an explanation or mention to them that, you know, when you're
6 debating Count 7, you want to look at the affirmative defenses
7 to determine whether or not he violated, because if you find
8 there's to be exemption, then he would not have violated
9 Sections 5A and 5C, you know.

05:05 10 I don't know how else to do it, that would be the only
11 way, if it's truly an element, because even the jury
12 instructions have designed to seem that it could be an 13 exemption even after, right?

14 MS. BERLIN: Mmh.

05:05 15 THE COURT: Let me do this. While you're talking that 16 through, let me just go and do -- finish cleaning up the 17 verdict, excuse me, the jury instructions formatting-wise, so
18 that it can be done, and then I'll pop back out and see if you
19 guys have advanced the ball at all on the 506(c), and if you
05:06 20 have, you can let me know what your proposal is while I edit
21 this and maybe work through it.

22 I think the best thing to do is give the parties an 23 opportunity to at least try to talk through how you would 24 structure this.

05:06 25 MS. BERLIN: I think that makes sense, and I think

1 what the Court just said about the solution for that makes
2 sense. There's not going to be a perfect way to do it, it's 3 not that it's an element, it's just kind of confusing because 4 it would actually kind of go -- one of them it was registered
05:06 5 but that without exemption.

6 I think we should do it exactly as it's written and if
7 there is any confusing the Court, you know, can explain it.

8 THE COURT: Meaning leave the exemption question at 9 the end.

05:06 10 MS. BERLIN: I think so. I don't know another way.

11 THE COURT: I think I can explain it. And just to 12 make sure we don't do something inconsistent where they say,
13 yes, it's a violation of 5A and 5C, and yes, we had an 14 exemption. They're mutually exclusive.

05:06 15 So I think that, you know, arguably I'm trying to 16 think there could be a situation where -- well, it says if you
17 answered yes, so if there are other elements that for some 18 reason they wouldn't answer question 7 anyway, so the key is 19 that they understand that you should not be having a yes/no
05:07 20 conflict on those two questions, you need to make sure that 21 it's one, you find it to be at violation, but you're exempt
22 from it anyway.

23 MS. BERLIN: I have an idea. What if we did it, have 24 the element of this Section 5 claim been met, right, and then
05:07 25 the three elements, because the way it's written for Section 5,

1 it's a little confusing. It's like the SEC proves these three
2 things, that a prima facie case, then the burden shifts.

3 So I always kind of view it as being one, you know, we
4 have to meet our burden and then they can meet theirs or not.

05:07 5 But --

6 THE COURT: The burden shifts to show an exemption.

7 MS. BERLIN: So maybe we keep it. I think you have to 8 keep both questions on the verdict form. And I think it's just 9 inherent, and the record would be clear right now that we all
05:08 10 understand that, you know, when it says, did you find the 11 violation of Section 5, we're saying that to make it simple so
12 the jury understands it, like that's common sense.

13 THE COURT: I think that makes sense. I think if you
14 do it like that, it makes sense and everybody can understand
05:08 15 what we're talking about, that we're saying they carried that 16 burden, the jury instructions track a verdict form that would 17 have to as a secondary question, too, so I think that's 18 probably easiest just to leave it as a question like that.

19 MS. BERLIN: Me, too.

20 THE COURT: And then we're fine. So I think we can do
21 that so that that way the defense understands what they have to 22 do.

23 All right. So then everything should be done. The 24 only thing that we need to do is get you all to start figuring
05:08 25 out what you're going to do for that 508 (sic) instruction. We

1 have got to get that fixed so that I can get something that is
2 in compliance with the law.

3 All right. So let me step out for a minute and can 4 start editing this so that is in a presentable form for the 05:08 5 jurors and then I will return to check in to see if we have any 6 kind of guidance on 506, and we'll go from are there.

7 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, we might have to -- I
8 think that for the 506(b), it probably -- this is one that will 9 we just want to make sure that we check with -- once they give 05:09 10 us something, if they want to seek 506(b), we'll probably just 11 want to run it up through our policy offices at the SEC to 12 double-check that it's an accurate statement.

13 This is going to be tricky, I think, if that's okay.
14 I mean, we're still going to do it today, I was basically
05:09 15 asking if we can make a few phone calls while we sit here.

16 THE COURT: I think you should. It might help us if 17 the SEC is familiar with this being done before and how it
18 works, we would read it because I'm not going to find -- I'm 19 not going to find any a case law on this that's on point
05:09 20 because this theory is not orthodox and it doesn't really 21 necessarily track what happened here a hundred percent. It's a
22 little off.

23 So it's got to be simply 506(b) on Par Funding and 24 ABFP. That's all it is. What would they have to show those 05:10 25 elements about 35, the accreditation. I mean, they're a little

1 dense so we have to find a way to show they can -- something
2 that will guide them so we don't misstate it. That's the most 3 important.

4 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. And the parts of Reg DE a little
05:10 5 confusing because they have, you know, like preliminary things
6 that have to be met, so we're looking.

7 We did search before today because we have like a jury
8 instruction database, frankly, for all of our SEC cases. I
9 couldn't find a 506(b), so, yeah, and Alise is checking some 05:10 10 other cases, so we might be in bit of uncharted territory but 11 we'll figure it out.

12 And also, Your Honor, I think this is the one
13 remaining issue, is it acceptable, I'm just -- is it okay if I
14 leave this in the capable hands of Alise, I am available to her
05:11 15 by phone, because I just have a child care issue.

16 THE COURT: I'm almost done. In fact, it's not going
17 to be a problem because I will -- what I'll do is I'll e-mail a
18 draft to everyone at the last e-mail I had of both revised
19 versions and what I was -- I mean, look, if you guys want to 05:11 20 print it and take a look at it this evening and then let me
21 know, I would prefer that the parties, to streamline it, if 22 they could e-mail the Court back and let me know if there's 23 either a redline or any edits that are caught so that I
24 don't -- my key is here, I want everyone to understand why
05:11 25 we're doing this. I'm not interested in losing another hour

1 tomorrow. I mean, the whole goal is these jurors are coming in
2 at 9:30 and I want to hand them instructions. I don't want to
3 get into more charge conference. We have now spent a couple of 4 hours on this and we shouldn't be writing this from scratch in 05:11 5 the morning.

6 If this is going to be argued, it needs to be 7 streamlined so that tomorrow morning I can deal with just 8 making a ruling and move on and take whatever draft is there.

9 We understand how this draft should look, we know it's 05:12 10 got to be ABFP and it's got to be Par Funding and it's to only 11 be 506(b).

12 So I think if we just focus on that, we should be able 13 to get a draft of that. The jury instructions are all but 14 done. The verdict form is all but done. I will just do this:
05:12 15 Everyone can just plan on getting these drafts to their e-mail
16 in the hour. I'm going to go into chambers just to polish.
17 But everyone is responsible for checking these this evening and 18 e-mailing me back so that I can check what this looks like 19 tonight, 9:00, 10:00 o'clock I want to know so I can see do we 20 have a lot of little nit-picky things that I can just do quick
21 and options, maybe you guys can submit it to me jointly and you
22 can let me know everything here is pretty much typos and then
23 maybe get me a proposed draft of that instruction, or each side
24 proposes something and let me know in Word and I can make a
05:12 25 change. That's fine.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor, we'll do that.

2 Thank you so much. I think that makes sense and hopefully we
3 can reach an agreement on that affirmative defense.

4 THE COURT: I guess we know what we want to say. It's 05:13 5 because no one has ever done it before.

6 MS. BERLIN: We'll figure it out.

7 MR. HYMAN: It may make sense to take what the SEC
8 wrote on its website under the application of 506(b).

9 MS. BERLIN: I've explained that to you. That's for 05:13 10 investors, that's basic common language.

11 You have to look at the statute, Zac, that's what we 12 use like investors to educate them.

13 THE COURT: Anything else before we recess? I think
14 that we are -- oh, just so I can plan ahead.

05:13 15 So tomorrow, it's instructions and go right to 16 closings. I'm afraid to even ask because I'm going to tell you
17 how much time you have, but just for my own entertainment, how 18 long does each side think they need for closings? What does
19 the SEC want?

05:13 20 MS. BERLIN: We were going to ask for 30 to 40
21 minutes.

22 THE COURT: Excellent. I thought you were going to 23 ask for more than that.

24 What about on the defense side.

05:13 25 MR. HYMAN: Same.

1 THE COURT: Okay, I'll give you guys each 45, and
2 that's drop dead, 45 is the outside limit. I think you guys
3 can do it inside less, but I think 45 is more than enough. I
4 won't handicapped you at 30, that's a little tight, but I think
05:14 5 45 is more than enough and you can split the 45 and do you
6 first and second close, so really 30 and 15 is what I expect 7 you guys to do.

8 MS. BERLIN: It sounds like what we would like to do.

9 THE COURT: So the defense is fine with 45, 45 a side
05:14 10 is the plan. I will let you know at five and at two minutes
11 and one and I will let the SEC know when they're done with 12 their first close how much time they have left on the rebuttal.

13 Okay, I'll keep track of time.

14 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

05:14 15 THE COURT: You got it. So I think we can get through
16 these jury instructions, they're long, but I think we can read
17 through them in about 45 minutes. That puts you guys in a
18 position to start closing somewhere around, let's say, 10:15.
19 If we go an hour a side, that's 12:15, works just right. I got 05:14 20 jurors going in the jury room right around 12:30 or so, while 21 I'm figuring out what they want to eat and they can start
22 settling in.

23 That works out 45 minutes a side. Feel free not to 24 use the whole 45, but if you guys need it, that's what it's 05:15 25 there for.

1 Okay. We got a good game plan. Look out for this
2 e-mail, it's going to be coming up in the next hour.

3 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 MR. HYMAN: Thank you.

05:15 5 THE COURT: We're in recess.

6 MR. HYMAN: It's a good thing we get to go back to our 7 offices, otherwise I'd be asking Your Honor to make us your 8 famous cafecitos.

9 THE COURT: I'll make some for you guys tomorrow.

05:15 10 MR. HYMAN: After closings, that way we don't get too
11 hyper.

12 THE COURT: More so for my poor court reporter. Let's
13 not do them until after we're done.

14 Okay.

05:15 15 MR. HYMAN: Thank you so much, Gigi.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. These interrogatories are to be answered separately and fully, in writing, within thirty (30) days of the date of service and in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Southern District of Florida's Local Rules.

2. You are to answer each interrogatory by providing all responsive information. If you object to any interrogatory, specify the part to which you object, state your objections, state all factual and legal justifications that you believe support your objections, and respond to the remainder to which you do not object.

3. If you cannot respond fully and completely to any interrogatory or part thereof, then answer to the fullest extent possible and state the reason for your inability to provide a full and complete answer.

4. You may, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(d) produce business records in lieu of a written response, if the answer to an interrogatory may be determined by examining, auditing, compiling, abstracting, or summarizing a party's business records (including electronically stored information), and if the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer will be substantially the same for either party, the responding party may answer by:

(a) specifying the specific records, by Bates number or other clear identification method, that must be reviewed, in sufficient detail to enable the interrogating party to locate and identify them as readily as the responding party could; and

(b) giving the interrogating party a reasonable opportunity to examine and audit the records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts, or summaries.

If you elect this option to produce business records, you must produce the records and materials for inspection and copying within fourteen (14) days after service of the answers to these interrogatories pursuant to Southern District of Florida Local Rule 26.1(e)(3)(C).

5. To the extent that any information called for by any interrogatory is unknown to you, so state and set forth such information as is known to you. If any estimate can reasonably be made in place of unknown information, set forth your best estimate, clearly designated as such, and describe the basis upon which the estimate is made.

6. Each interrogatory shall be construed to include information and documents within your knowledge, possession or control as of the date you answer to these interrogatories, and any supplemental information, knowledge, data, documents or communications responsive to these interrogatories that is generated, obtained or discovered after the date of your answers.

7. If you contend that any documents required to be identified herein are protected by attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine or any other privilege, provide a list of each document and, as to each, state (a) the type of document (e.g., letter, memo, e-mail), (b) name and title or position of the author(s), (c) name and title or position of the recipient(s), including all cc: and bcc: recipient(s), (d) the date of the document, (e) the title or subject matter, (f) the privilege or privileges claimed, and (g) the interrogatory to which the document relates.

8. You are required to promptly supplement your responses to these interrogatories throughout the duration of this action pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e).

9. All definitions and instruction set forth herein are expressly incorporated by reference into the following interrogatories as if fully set forth therein.

10. Unless otherwise stated in a specific request below, the operative time frame for your responses is from January 1, 2012 to the present.

By making the accompanying responses and objections to the Plaintiff's requests for documents and interrogatory, defendant does not waive, and hereby expressly reserves, its right to assert any and all objections as to the admissibility of such responses into evidence in this action, or in any other proceedings, on any and all grounds including, but not limited to, competency, relevancy, materiality, and privilege. Defendant also objects for additional production of this as this information is in evidence that was seized, not in his possession, and is currently in the possession of the SEC and or the Receiver at this time, and would be overly burdensome to attempt to find these dates and additional information. Defendant objects to each instruction, definition, document request, and interrogatory to the extent that it seeks documents protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, deliberative process privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege. Should any such disclosure by Defendant occur, it is inadvertent and shall not constitute a waiver of any privilege. Defendant objects to request for additional information & production to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff. Defendant also objects to Request for information & production in this statement as unnecessarily duplicative, overly broad, and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents & information that have been seized by and are in the

Defendant is not aware of any information or documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such Document or information, Defendant will produce it to the SEC.

RESPONSE: Defendant makes reiterates his objections as a ProSe Defendant that does not understand the full allowance of what is attorney client privilege or not, and has been pressured into answering this question again without any reliance on counsel or legal aid due to the time constraints and not wanting to bother a judge for such a matter. So in light of that, the following is all of the information that the Defendant is able to recall with full knowledge to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control.

Defendant relied on several attorneys for vital information in regards to this case as the defendant is not an attorney and without any legal experience. Defendant retained Mr Erik Weingold (herein Weingold) after multiple conversations and or meetings with another attorney relied upon, Mr. John Pauciulo (Herein Pauciulo). The Defendant relied upon Pauciulo after his presentation at the advisor conference/seminar that presented not only the investment fund program, but the reliance that he represented himself as a former SEC attorney, over 15 years experience in solely securities work, the head of the securities department at one of the largest law firms in the northeast and country. Pauciulo, whom together with Defendant Vagnozzi, in person and in conversations stated that they did a full due diligence on the company we would be raising funds for and is the main defendant in this case CBSG or Parfunding. Pauciulo represented that he had not only focused his business on how to raise capital in a completely compliant and legal manner, but that this program involving Defendant Vagnozzi and the agent fund program was both legal and in full compliance. Pauciulo further represented that he had been Vagnozzi's counsel for over 10 years and never represented at any time, and in any way, that either were previously involved in any investigations, had been sanctioned, actions of any kinds, and that any additional disclosures were necessary to anyone, that he was not an accounting expert or that his assertions made to us as fund managers would not be able to be relied upon when he determined and provided information about the status of "insolvency" of Parfunding". Defendant relied upon Pauciulo that by relying upon his advice that any fund manager would not have to force legally any additional attorney firm to fight Parfunding after telling us fund managers that Parfunding would only disclose any financial and or accounting information to Pauciulo, and that we would not need to hire an independent CPA to research Parfunding's financial status and not on his legal advice given. Defendant relied upon the statements made by Pauciulo that all general advertising was legal and in compliance, that utilizing a brochure for a company that would be invested in was allowed, legal, and compliant. Defendant relied upon Pauciulo's statements that we should accept the restructuring agreement, that we would be secured by a UCC filing after such agreement, that accepting such agreement was in the best interest for both fund managers and investors, that such agreement was legal, compliant, and did not offer any other option legally that could be avoided. Defendant further relied upon Pauliulo during the pandemic, while locked in his own home, via various calls, that a restructured note agreement for every agent was both in the best interest of us as fund managers, and to our investors. Defendant further relied upon Pauciulo for his advice used in his PPM's and related documents for fund managers, as that information was always shared with my retained counsel Erik Weingold whom represented myself and other fund managers in preparation and use for this Defendants PPM that is in dispute in this case. Defendant relied upon Pauliulo for his legal advice in media representations he made both on video and other media forms, that stated that not only was this "legal", but he had done due diligence on the necessary individuals at CBSG, and that it was in full compliance for the structuring of putting together an agent fund management corporation, system, and agent fund program at which he was the lead speaker at its recruiting event, he filed and started all corporations involved, and advised fund managers on such structures. Further Defendant relied upon Pauliulo on his advice that all fund managers accept and sign the revised restructuring agreement with Parfunding, that the option of holding out and litigation against CBSG/Parfunding was not in the best interest of a fund manager or the investors, that there was no further disclosures needed other than what he provided in his own prepared documents being the sole attorney allowed by Parfunding to access its financials & documents, and by relying on Pauliulo that no additional disclosures were necessary to investors about compensation or in the manner in which a fund manager was compensated as he was vital and instrumental in the development in the agent fund program in which he participated in. Defendant relied upon Pauciulo on his assertions that he had met with personally, visited in person, and communicated directly with CBSG owners and executives to gather all required and necessary information in order to legally provide all opinions and representations that were made at any and all times to both agent fund managers and through his work that includes both legal materials and media documents.

Defendant relied upon the advice of Mr. Erik Weingold, (herein Weingold) who was retained after attending the agent fund conference, and conferring with him that Weingold was a PPM specialist, and that he and his firm focused exclusively on private placements, general solicitation and compliance in regards to this type of business. Defendant relied upon Weingold that his firm could represent the defendant in a full and legal compliant manner with a better independent stance over Pauciulo who was also representing Defendant Vagnozzi who was going to also be in a legal management agreement with the Defendant and its fund, therefore, to prevent an conflicts. Defendant relied upon Weingold for the full compliance of his fund that raised capital for Parfunding. Defendant relied upon Weingold for his interpretation of how to legally advertise and stay compliant under the general solicitation guidelines that were appropriate for the type of fund the Defendant had, and through the examples that were shared with Weingold about compliant general solicitation for which Weingold held out as one of his areas of expertise. Defendant relied upon Weingold during conversations and other media that the structuring and or proper sec filing format for which his funds restructuring was done under was not only best for the fund, but for the investors in the fund compared to the other legal formats and options that Weingold discussed as being two different options he could recommend from. Weingold specifically changed his mind before selecting the final format, which was slightly different from the other option, and different from the restructuring documents that many other agent fund managers were using through Pauciulo as all information was always provided to Weingold in regards to what the other majority agent fund managers were utilizing in an attempt to stay both compliant and universal to the guidelines of Defendant Vagnozzi's Management company. Defendant relied upon Weingold to utilize all information provided to him by defendant and other agent fund managers about Pauciulo and CBSG in his representations and advice given to defendant including any and all potential disclosures needed such as Vagnozzi's regulatory history. Defendant sent the information package and examples to Weingold, as well as other formats that Weingold had brought up to the Defendant who did not know or understand the differences to and solely relied upon Weingold in his decision for all document creation. Through further discussions with Weingold, mostly over the phone, the Defendant relied upon Weingold on what disclosures were needed within both the PPM created by Weingold, but what verbal disclosures had to be made available to the investors as new information was learned by the defendant. Defendant relied upon the discussions with Weingold that he was aware and familiar on a more personal manner with Parfunding as he was not only was representing Defendant Abbonizio, who held himself out to be an "owner" of Parfunding and the head of investor relations for Parfunding, but also for other Fund managers such as another attorney whom had communications with Parfunding and Abbonizio and was fully up to date with knowledge about the background of Parfunding, its business, and completely familiar with the fund system being used and how to stay compliant with the SEC. Defendant relied upon his knowledge of the business, its model, background, compliance checks, disclosures, among others that Weingold would reasonably know through his representations to the Defendant through his other communications with CBSG, whom he held out to have regular communications and knowledge about the company & funds, and that had voluntarily paid a portion of the retainer fee as we were all creating similar documents. Defendant relied upon Weingold that Parfunding did not need to be specifically disclosed within the ppm as the defendant was able to invest in other companies within the selected industry as we had discussed other possibilities. Defendant relied upon Weingold for his knowledge of the business of Parfunding, and for the Defendants ability to use general solicitation for the defendants funds, even providing examples of both print, audio, and other examples of what defendant was going to utilize, as well as discussions about defendant Vagnozzi and his "general" solicitations and the differences as to what he was doing to our knowledge, the differences to how our funds were set up and the variables allowed therein, and his positions on general advertising which included his recommended & trusted lead generation ad consulting company that would introduce possible investors to Defendant for a set fee to advertise the Defendants fund and opportunity to invest with the Defendant through his fund. This was based on Weingold's knowledge of that advertising/consulting company and its positive outcomes with companies within the industry that the Ppm was covering. Defendant relied upon Weingold for his representations of how he would make all necessary filings with any federal and state regulatory agencies such as the SEC, file and complete all on going filings, from which phone calls and various series of questions were asked to the defendant on a regular basis in order to stay compliant with all necessary filings. Defendant relied upon Weingold on his advice on how to "select" exemptions which he advertised and held knowledge of the topic on how to stay compliant on the area in order to specifically prevent any and all sec litigation possibilities, which he also advertises. Defendant relied upon counsel for any and all disclosures that were needed to stay compliant, for any and all filings, documents, and for any and all procedures and or processes that the defendant needed to uphold as a fund manager raising capital. Defendant can not remember any additional relevant topics discussed, the dates, when or what medium was used, or any additional information at this time without speculating, but reserves the right to add to or make changes to this information at a later date.

Defendant relied upon the advice of David Steinfeld, herein known as Steinfeld, whom was retained for information regarding how to properly sever his relationship and eventual separation from Vagnozzi and the management agreement with Vagnozzi and or his companies. Defendant relied upon Steinfeld for all proper legal documents, and processes necessary to properly and legally separate from the management agreement with Defendant Vagnozzi and or his companies.

Defendant relied upon the team of attorneys that CBSG represented as both in house and external counsel that the defendant relied upon being truthful and correct in their legal representations. Defendant was introduced during a site visit to in house counsel who briefly stated they were involved in any of the "bad debt" collections and would be done in a completely proper, legal, and compliant manner. Defendant relied upon the executives and owners at CBSG that the legal counsel, which was named at certain times and understood at other times to be Fox Rothchilds, that they had been in communications on a voluntary basis with regulatory agencies in regards to the agent fund model being a proper legal and compliant model for which agents could and should establish their own ppm in order to stay compliant. Defendant relied upon defendant CBSG's counsel that the marketing materials created were both compliant, legal, and truthful. Defendant later relied upon the CBSG counsel that they provided full, complete, legal, and truthful information at all times to the Defendant, to all fund managers, and to Pauciulo for which he used such information to agree with CBSG and its counsel that the company was insolvent, not making payments to investors, that they would follow through on their threat of filing bankruptcy if agent fund managers did not accept the restructuring deal, and other details expressed to counsel Pauciulo who represented all fund managers during the restructuring time period. Defendant relied upon this counsel that it structured its business in a proper and legal manner, filed all appropriate documents on its behalf, that its multi-million dollar fee history was done in a proper manner, that it did all necessary and warranted background checks, that it represented CBSG in which state it was filed and did business under, to what disclosures to investors and fund managers must be made by its staff, and that any and all exemptions relied upon that were private to CBSG and said discussed by its employees were correct, true, compliant, relative and legal. Defendant relied upon the counsel for CBSG that its accounting procedures that were in place and being advertised and disseminated by CBSG were true, accurate, reliable, and compliant to the representations made by CBSG. Defendant can not remember any other specific topics or statements made to him at this time that are relevant and in his possession, any additional dates, when or what medium was used, or any additional information at this time without speculating, but reserves the right to add to or make changes to this information at a later date as remembered.

Defendant relied upon the advice from attorney Dave Alperstein, herein known as Alperstein, that he was a fellow fund manager that had detailed history and knowledge of properly, compliantly, and legally raising capital as an attorney working with CBSG, in dealing with PPM Lawyers/Erik Weingold, with Perry Abbonizio. and CBSG in a more local area and in a constant communication. Defendant relied upon Alperstein on his advice about the agent restructuring, its structure, the contents provided to agent fund managers, the situation at hand and all information disclosed to agent fund managers and "attorneys" since various information was for "attorneys only", the pros vs cons of accepting or denying and litigating with CBSG, with the best potential outcome for the investors and us as fund manager, in regards to what the legal process was, that he had looked at the deal from the eyes of an attorney, that his dealings with Weingold were in a true, compliant, and legal manner, and that all of his dealings with CBSG and or Defendant Abbonizio were of a true, complete, compliant, and legal manner. Defendant relied upon Alperstein that by signing the restructuring agreement he was also signing a legal document that was compliant and in that attorneys best legal determination vs any other option available to a fund manager. Defendant relied upon the advice of Alperstein that the fund managers compensation was legal in manner that was being paid, that Weingold and the fund managers he represented were making all appropriate and necessary disclosures, and that all statements made were in a truthful, compliant, complete, and legal manner. This is all that the defendant can recall at this time without speculating and that is under his possession, but defendant retains the right to make additional statements and productions as they come to light and are relevant.

Defendant also relied upon the attorneys used by CBSG for their independent auditing that was performed and shared at any point by Defendant CBSG or its affiliates. The Defendant although not involved at all in the process, selection of this firm, access to any financial documents in comparison, that by both performing and finalizing a complete independent audit on CBSG they found it to be a legal company with sound accounting procedures that were being disclosed. Nowhere in the sole version shown to the defendant did the accounting law firm disclose that any investor funds were used to repay investors, or to show that default rates could differ from those portrayed in the shown audit. Defendant relied on these attorneys if CBSG was as vastly unprofitable as the SEC alleges, utilizing investor funds to repay investor funds at the extensive level the SEC alleges, and had the varying level of defaults that the SEC is alleging, that the attorneys involved in the independent audit would have been able to confirm this and should have disclosed such in the audit results.

Defendant also relied upon advice and information gathered from attorney Larry Pino (herein referred as Pino). Defendant relied upon the background described by Pino that he was a business and securities attorney that through the working partnership and relationship between the defendant and Pino, that many similar situations existed similarly to that of the agent fund management used to raise capital with CBSG. Defendant relied upon Pino that the defendant could operate, own, manage, and oversee a ppm with the defendants then current licensure status, or lack thereof in the state of Florida. Defendant relied upon Pino that he could use both general advertisements, and dinner and or lunch seminars which were both shared to, approved by, and paid for in part by Pino and the management company of the Defendants other and completely separate ppm fund named the "Fidelis Senior Living Fund." Defendant had discussions directly and through Pino's representatives about general solicitations and disclosures necessary for ppms. Defendant relied upon the fact that Pino did not require the defendant to obtain any additional licenses at any time that all fund management and capital raising, that the defendant did not need any additional licenses as discussed for the ppm funds being utilized in the manner they were at that time.

Defendant also objects to each instruction, definition, document request, and interrogatory to the extent that it seeks documents protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, deliberative process privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege. Should any such disclosure by Defendant occur, it is inadvertent and shall not constitute a waiver of any privilege. Defendant objects to request for additional information & production to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff. Defendant also objects to Request for information & production in this statement as unnecessarily duplicative, overly broad, and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents & information that have been seized by and are in the possession of either or both the Plaintiff and or the Receiver, or have also been previously provided to the plaintiff and or the receiver, or has been provided during my deposition.

Defendant is not aware of any information or documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such Document or information, Defendant will produce it to the SEC.

3. In connection with Your reliance on professionals and experts Affirmative Defense, state the name and contact information of each professional and expert whose advice You claim You relied upon.

RESPONSE: Defendant objects to request for additional information & production to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff. Defendant objects to the overly general terms "professionals" and "experts" and asks for further clarification of the SEC's definition of these terms and asks to provide examples of "professionals" as every employed individual can ascertain that they are a "professional" in some manner. Defendant also objects to this question as there would be no end to the amount of information that was disseminated during the 2-5 year time period that is in question from an unlimited number of "professionals" and or "experts" that could be relevant. Defendant also objects to Request for information & production in this statement as unnecessarily duplicative, overly broad, and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents & information that have been seized by and are in the possession of either or both the Plaintiff and or the Receiver, or have also been previously provided to the plaintiff and or the receiver, and or has been provided during my deposition and are available in deposition transcripts or previously supplied documents.

Defendant is not aware of any information or documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such Document or information, Defendant will produce it to the SEC.

RESPONSE: Defendant objects to request for additional information & production to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff. Defendant objects to the overly general terms "professionals" and "experts" and asks for further clarification of the SEC's definition of these terms and asks to provide examples of “professionals” as every employed individual can ascertain that they are a “professional” in some manner. Defendant also objects to this question as there would be no end to the amount of information that was disseminated during the 2-5 year time period that is in question from an unlimited number of “professionals” and or “experts”. Defendant also objects to this question as it is a duplication of other interrogatory questions above. Defendant also objects to Request for information & production in this statement as unnecessarily duplicative, overly broad, and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents & information that have been seized by and are in the possession of either or both the Plaintiff and or the Receiver, or have also been previously provided to the plaintiff and or the receiver, and or has been provided during my deposition and are available in deposition transcripts or previously supplied documents. Defendant objects to each instruction, definition, document request, and interrogatory to the extent that it seeks documents protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, deliberative process privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege. Should any such disclosure by Defendant occur, it is inadvertent and shall not constitute a waiver of any privilege.

Defendant also objects to each instruction, definition, document request, and interrogatory to the extent that it seeks documents protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, deliberative process privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege. Should any such disclosure by Defendant occur, it is inadvertent and shall not constitute a waiver of any privilege.

Defendant is unaware or does not have access to any names of anyone at the Sec when he relied upon at any point before July 27, 2020 that by not stopping the business of CBSG prior to this action, by not taking any additional measures to halt the business of or the fundraising efforts of CBSG, by the lack of contact by the SEC and both the defendant and its companies, and the engagements that occurred between the SEC and CBSG that were disclosed to the Defendant at that time were that it of a compliant, legal, and correct manner after entering into any agreements or legal contracts with the Defendant CBSG.

Defendant relied upon the actions, and inaction or silence, by the SEC in regards to the SEC that they had entered into a legal agreement with CSBG which must be a legal and compliant company in order for any agreement to properly be utilized over other potential actions or remedies. Defendant relied in good faith upon the material actions, inaction, and silence by Defendants Vagnozzi, CSBG, Abbonizio, and their counsels for any lack of disclosures needed to investors, for the lack of reporting any and all regulatory events, actions, or investigations, and for the appropriate changes in any material facts about the information that they stated was discussed with the SEC at some point and those material facts that changed during the relevant time period at question.

Defendant is not aware of any information or documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such Document or information, Defendant will produce it to the SEC. Defendant also objects to request for additional information & production to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff.

6. State the facts and evidence supporting Your "Good Faith" Affirmative Defense.

RESPONSE: Defendant relied on all individuals provided in my rule 26 disclosures. Without access to my work laptop computer I must go from memory and I do not want to speculate, but these would include but are not limited to: Erik Weingold, John Pauciulo, David Steinfeld, Perry Abbonizio, Dean Vagnozzi, Michael Tierney, Michelle Price, Roland Manual, Joseph Cole, Mark Nardelli, Anita Badalamenti, Fox Rothchild, Alexis Abbonizio, Fox Rothchild, CSBG's in house counsels, Joseph Laforte, Lisa McElhone, among others. Defendant relied upon all individuals and or corporate representatives that all statements at any time they made were of a complete, truthful, accurate, and legal manner. Defendant objects to Request for information & production in this statement as unnecessarily duplicative, overly broad, and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents & information that have been seized by and are in the possession of either or both the Plaintiff and or the Receiver, or have also been previously provided to the plaintiff and or the receiver, and or has been provided during my deposition and are available in deposition transcripts and or previously supplied documents.

Defendant is not aware of any information or documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such Document or information, Defendant will produce it to the SEC. Defendant also objects to request for additional information & production to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff.

7. State the facts and evidence supporting your “Justifiable Reliance” Affirmative Defense.

RESPONSE: Defendant relied upon the following but not limited to Dean Vagnozzi, John Pauliulo, Perry Abonizio, Joseph Cole, Joseph LaForte, Michelle Price, Anita Badalamenti, Shannon Westhead, and others that organized and or participated in a nationally advertised advisor conference where I was introduced to Complete Business Solutions Group/Par Funding (herein “CBSG”), A Better Financial Plan & A Better Financial Plan’s “Management Company”, and the sales agent fund program described in this suit. Defendant relied upon the vast legal opinions, statements, documents, conversations, videos, and other mediums that were presented to the defendant by the above mentioned individuals and companies, as well as the CBSG in house and external counsels in various manners that represented that not only was CBSG a legitimate, profitable, legal merchant cash advance company, that they had proper counsel representations that had prepared all media given to the defendant that was accurate, complete, and truthful, and had individuals with the appropriate licenses, accreditations, and or experience to prepare such documents and or media given to the Defendant for use that represented true and accurate statements, and that CBSG through its counsels had communicated with the proper regulatory agencies and or departments that their proposed agent fund program was legal, appropriate, and proper under that current environment. Defendant relied upon Perry Abbonizio, Joseph Cole, CBSG, and CBSG’s attorneys representations through their revised brochure and other media, many verbal statements, among other ways that they had at some point began to insure themselves against default on certain merchant cash advances and had properly held that insurance between CBSG and certain merchants after that point. Similarly, Defendant relied upon Perry Abbonizio, Joseph Cole, CBSG, CBSG's attorneys, CBSG's accountants, Michelle Price, Dean Vagnozzi, CBSG's Auditing Firm, John Pauciulo, among others who had provided the defendant with financial and accounting figures and documents that were used in describing the financial status and health of CBSG. Defendant relied upon John Pauciulo, Eckert Seamans, Joseph Cole, Dean Vagnozzi, among others that provided and determined themselves and provided to the Defendant, agent fund managers, and investors that CBSG/Parfunding was "insolvent". Defendant relied upon Erik Weingold and other attorneys and staff at PPM Lawyers that all documents and filings for Defendant and used by the Defendant were correctly drafted, updated, filed with all appropriate regulatory agencies and states, and met all necessary requirements as advertised to assure compliance with the SEC. Defendant relied upon CBSG, CBSG's independent auditing firm and others included in the Defendants rule 26 disclosures that CBSG was a verified legitimate business at that time after performing such extensive accounting audit and was a full, complete, and true statement. Defendant relied upon Dean Vagnozzi, Michael Tierney, Michelle Price, Anita Badalamenti, Perry Abbonizio, Alexis Abbonizio, Joseph Cole, CBSG, Mark Nardelli, John Pauciulo, Eckert Seamans, PPM Lawyers, Erik Weingold, and others to be truthful and correct when asked about regulatory and compliance histories and by admitting and disclosing such if and when they or any entity they were a part of, worked with, worked for, raised money for, invested in, and if there was any investigations and or disciplinary and or compliance matters or actions raised in any manner at any time by any regulatory agency or governing body that had to do with both themselves as individuals, their companies, and or CBSG. Defendant objects to Request for additional information & production in this statement as unnecessarily duplicative, overly broad, and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents & information that have been seized by and are in the possession of either or both the Plaintiff and or the Receiver, or have also been previously provided to the plaintiff and or the receiver, and or has been provided during my deposition and are available in deposition transcripts and or previously supplied documents.

Defendant is not aware of any information or documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such Document or information, Defendant will produce it to the SEC. Defendant also objects to request for additional information & production to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff.

8. State each of Your current source(s) of income.

RESPONSE: Defendant has already answered this question during his deposition and would refer the SEC to those transcripts. Defendant objects to Request for additional information & production in this statement as unnecessarily duplicative, overly broad, and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents & information that have been seized by and are in the possession of either or both the Plaintiff and or the Receiver, or have also been previously provided to the plaintiff and or the receiver, and or has been provided during my deposition and are available in deposition transcripts or previously supplied documents.

Defendant is not aware of any information or documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such Document or information, Defendant will produce it to the SEC. RESPONSE: I do not want to speculate or be general, but I do not have access to this information which has been provided previously. Defendant objects to Request for information & production in this statement as unnecessarily duplicative, overly broad, and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents & information that have been seized by and are in the possession of either or both the Plaintiff and or the Receiver, or have also been previously provided to the plaintiff and or the receiver, and or has been provided during my deposition and are available in deposition transcripts or previously supplied documents.

Defendant is not aware of any information or documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such Document or information, Defendant will produce it to the SEC. Defendant also objects to request for additional information & production to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff.

10. State all facts and identify all evidence supporting Your Affirmative Defense that the promissory notes You offered and sold are exempt as securities and did not need to be registered.

RESPONSE: Defendant objects to Request for additional information & production in this statement as unnecessarily duplicative, overly broad, and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents & information that have been seized by and are in the possession of either or both the Plaintiff and or the Receiver, or have also been previously provided to the plaintiff and or the receiver, and or has been provided during my 7 hour deposition made under oath and are available in deposition transcripts or previously supplied documents. This information was also given at previous times and in other documents or transmissions.

Defendant is not aware of any information or documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such Document or information, Defendant will produce it to the SEC. Defendant also objects to request for additional information & production to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff.

Re: Securities and Exchange Commission v. Michael C. Furman, et al.,
Case No. 20-CIV-81205-RAR (S.D. Fla. July 28, 2020)

Dear Ms. Berlin:

On behalf of our client, Michael C. Furman (“Furman”), this serves to respond to the Section IV (“Sworn Accountings”) of the Court’s Order Granting Emergency Ex Parte Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and Other Relief. [ECF No. 42 at p.17] (the “Order”). In response to the Order and in abundance of caution, please be advised that Furman exercises his right against self-incrimination granted by the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution and under Article 1, Section 9 of the Florida Constitution (collectively, “Fifth Amendment rights”).

Furman submits that no negative inference should be drawn from his exercise of his Fifth Amendment rights. The Fifth Amendment protects a person from being “compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself” and applies in any proceeding to “any disclosures that the witness reasonably believes could be used in a criminal prosecution or could lead to other evidence that might be so used.” In re DG Acquisition Corp., 151 F.3d 75,79 (2d Cir. 1998), quoting Kastigar v. United States, 406 U.S. 441, 444-45, 92 S.Ct. 1653, 32 L.Ed.2d 212 (1972).

The Supreme Court has long condemned “the practice of imputing a sinister meaning to the exercise of a person’s constitutional right under the Fifth Amendment,” finding that “[t]he right of an accused person to refuse to testify, which had been in England merely a rule of evidence, was so important to our forefathers that they raised it to the dignity of a constitutional enactment, and it has been recognized as ‘one of the most valuable prerogatives of the citizen’.” Slochower v. Board of Higher Education, 350 U.S. 551, 557-558, 76 S.Ct. 637, 640-641, 100 L.Ed. 692, 699 (1956) (citations omitted). “The privilege against self-incrimination would be reduced to a hollow mockery if its exercise could be taken as equivalent either to a confession of guilt or a conclusive presumption of perjury. . . . [A] witness may have a reasonable fear of prosecution and yet be innocent of any wrongdoing.” Id. (citations omitted). Indeed, the Supreme Court has repeatedly stated that “we have emphasized that one of the Fifth Amendment’s ‘basic functions ... is to protect innocent men ... who otherwise might be ensnared by ambiguous circumstances.’” Ohio v. Reiner, 532 U.S. 17, 21, 121 S. Ct. 1252, 1254, 149 L. Ed. 2d 158 (2001) (quoting Grunewald v. United States, 353 U.S. 391, 77 S. Ct. 963, 1 L. Ed. 2d 931 (1957) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted) (emphasis in original)).

Furman reserves the right to withdraw his assertion of his Fifth Amendment rights should he believe it appropriate to do so, including in the event that he obtains immunity from the U.S. Department of Justice under 18 U.S.C. §§ 6002 and 6004, or otherwise receives appropriate safeguards to protect him against criminal prosecution. If Mr. Furman withdraws his assertion of his Fifth Amendment rights, he will seek to amend this response. He reserves the right to do at any time.

Please contact me with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

LIMITED OBJECTIONS to each and every Request: The Defendant has not completed his investigation of the facts relating to this case, has not completed discovery, and has not completed his preparation for trial. Therefore, these responses are based only on the information and documents presently available to and specifically known to the Defendant. Further discovery, independent investigation, legal research, and analysis may lead to the discovery of additional non-privileged responsive information which may lead to additions to, changes in, and variations from the information, responses and/or objections set forth below.

These responses are given without prejudice to the Defendant's right to produce evidence of any subsequently discovered facts, including the right to supplement these responses if he obtains further evidence. The Defendant reserves the right to produce at trial and make reference to any evidence, facts, documents or information not discovered at this time, omitted through good faith error, mistake or oversight, or the relevance of which has not presently been identified by the Defendant and to further modify these responses as a result of subsequently discovered information. Notwithstanding the OBJECTIONS or any specific response set forth herein, the Defendant agrees to meet and confer in writing, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37(a)(1).

Defendant further objects that this request calls for the production of materials already provided by the Defense to the SEC.

Defendant further objects because these communications reflect thoughts, mental impressions and analysis, which are protected from discovery under the attorney client and deliberative process privileges and work product doctrine. It is unduly burdensome and expensive for the defense to assemble, process, and then individually log each document, note and/or communication. If needed, Defendant reserves the right to supplement, revise, or amend this log as appropriate.

20. Copies of all documents and other materials You and/or Your attorney have received in connection with this case, (a) in response to any subpoena, (b) in response to any informal request, or (c) produced or provided on a voluntary basis by any individual or entity. This Request does not include documents produced by the Securities and Exchange Commission in this case.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 20 as unnecessarily duplicative and unduly burdensome because it calls for the production of materials already provided by the Defense to the SEC.

21. Copies of all documents and other materials You and/or Your attorney have received from or through ConvergeHub, whether received from ConvergeHub, the Receiver, or anyone else, including but not limited to documents and materials You obtained because they were downloaded from ConvergeHub.

DEFENDANT LISA MCELHONE'S OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION'S THIRD REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION TO DEFENDANT LISA MCELHONE

Defendant Lisa McElhone pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34, submits the following objections and responses to the Securities and Exchange Commission's ("SEC") Third Request for Production to Defendant Lisa McElhone.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

LIMITED OBJECTIONS to each and every Request: The Defendant has not completed her investigation of the facts relating to this case, has not completed discovery, and has not completed her preparation for trial. Therefore, these responses are based only on the information and documents presently available to and specifically known to the Defendant. Further discovery, independent investigation, legal research, and analysis may lead to the discovery of additional non-privileged responsive information which may lead to additions to, changes in, and variations from the information, responses and/or objections set forth below.

16

These responses are given without prejudice to the Defendant's right to produce evidence of any subsequently discovered facts, including the right to supplement these responses if she obtains further evidence. The Defendant reserves the right to produce at trial and make reference to any evidence, facts, documents or information not discovered at this time, omitted through good faith error, mistake or oversight, or the relevance of which has not presently been identified by the Defendant and to further modify these responses as a result of subsequently discovered information. The Defendant further reserves the right to withhold any information protected by the attorney-client and work product privileges.

GENERAL OBJECTION to each and every Request: Defendant objects to the Requests as they are unduly burdensome, call for the production of materials seized by and in the possession of the Court Appointed Receiver, call for the production of materials otherwise obtained by and in the possession of the Court Appointed Receiver, call for the production of materials that are not in the possession, custody or control of Defendant, call for the production of materials not remotely relevant to any issue in the case, call for the production of materials seized by the SEC, call for the production of materials in the possession of the SEC, and call for the production of materials already provided by the Defense to the SEC.

In an abundance of caution and so as not to waive her rights, and in addition to the LIMITED OBJECTIONS and GENERAL OBJECTION above (together "the OBJECTIONS"), Ms. McElhone provides notice of her intention to invoke her Fifth Amendment Privilege Against Self-Incrimination.

Notwithstanding the OBJECTIONS or any specific response set forth herein, the Defendant agrees to meet and confer in writing, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37(a)(1).

RESPONSES TO REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION¹

- 1. Produce all bank records, including but not limited to statements, for all bank and other financial accounts on which You were a signatory, for the period July 27, 2015 through present. This Request seeks all records for all bank accounts identified in the Request, regardless of whether the account was your personal account, was held with another individual, or was a business or corporate account.

The request would require the Defendant to provide information which may incriminate her, and the Defendant has a right not to produce such information under the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

- 2. Produce all bank records, including but not limited to statements, for all bank and other financial accounts that You controlled, directly or indirectly, for the period July 27, 2015 through present. This Request seeks all records for all bank accounts identified in the Request, regardless of whether the account was your personal account, was held with another individual, or was a business or corporate account.

The request would require the Defendant to provide information which may incriminate him, and Defendant has a right not to produce such information under the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

- 3. Copies of all subpoenas You and/or Your attorney have issued in connection with this case.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 3 as unnecessarily duplicative and unduly burdensome because it calls for the production of materials already provided by the Defense to the SEC.

- 4. Copies of all documents and other materials You and/or Your attorney have received in connection with this case, (a) in response to any subpoena, (b) in response to any informal request, or (c) produced or provided on a voluntary basis by any individual or entity. This Request does not include documents produced by the Securities and Exchange Commission in this case.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 4 as unnecessarily duplicative and unduly burdensome because it calls for the production of materials already provided by the Defense to the SEC.

5. Copies of all documents and other materials You and/or Your attorney have received from or through ConvergeHub, whether received from ConvergeHub, the Receiver, or anyone else, including but not limited to documents and materials You obtained because they were downloaded from ConvergeHub.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 5 because these documents and materials reflect thoughts, mental impressions and analysis, which are protected from discovery under the attorney client and deliberative process privileges and work product doctrine. It is unduly burdensome and expensive for the defense to assemble, process, and then individually log each document, note and/or communication. If needed, Defendant reserves the right to supplement, revise, or amend this log as appropriate.

RESPONSES TO REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

1. Produce all documents, whether electronic or otherwise, supporting Your First Affirmative Defense (“Advice of Counsel”) [D.E. 608] including any and all documents indicating or demonstrating: (1) that You asked for legal advice; (2) the legal advice, if any, You sought and from whom; (3) the facts and evidence You disclosed to Your attorney(s) in connection with seeking or obtaining the legal advice; (4) the legal advice Your attorney(s) gave You; (5) the identity of the lawyer(s) You relied on; and (6) that You relied on Your attorney’s legal advice in good faith.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 1 to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff. Defendant objects to Request for Production 3 to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff. Defendant also objects to Request for Production 3 as unnecessarily duplicative and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents that have been seized either by the SEC or by the Receiver.

Defendant is not aware of any documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such document, Defendant will produce it to the SEC.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 4 to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Receiver. Defendant also objects to Request for Production 4 as unnecessarily duplicative and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents that have been seized either by the Plaintiff or by the Receiver.

Defendant is not aware of any documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such document, Defendant will produce it to the SEC.

5. Produce all documents supporting Your Fourth Affirmative Defense (“Laches”) [DE 608], including any and all documents indicating or demonstrating that “Plaintiff’s claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches.”

Defendant objects to Request for Production 5 to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Receiver. Defendant also objects to Request for Production 5 as unnecessarily duplicative and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents that have been seized either by the Plaintiff or by the Receiver.

Defendant is not aware of any documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such document, Defendant will produce it to the SEC.

6. Produce all documents supporting Your Fifth Affirmative Defense (“Estoppel”) [DE 608], including any and all documents indicating or demonstrating that “Plaintiff’s claims are barred by the doctrine of estoppel.”

Defendant objects to Request for Production 6 to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff. Defendant also objects to Request for Production 6 as unnecessarily duplicative and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents that have been seized either by the government or by the Receiver.

Defendant is not aware of any documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such document, Defendant will produce it to the SEC.

7. Produce all documents supporting Your Sixth Affirmative Defense (“Waiver”) [DE 608], including any and all documents indicating or demonstrating that “Plaintiff’s claims are barred by the doctrine of waiver.”

Defendant also objects to Request for Production 7 as unnecessarily duplicative and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents that have been seized either by the Plaintiff or by the Receiver.

Defendant is not aware of any documents responsive to this request that are not already in the possession of the SEC or the Receiver. However, should Defendant become aware of any such document, Defendant will produce it to the SEC.

8. Produce all documents supporting the first portion of Your Seventh Affirmative Defense – namely, that “the notes at issue... fall squarely within the list of non-securities enumerated in Reves v. Ernst & Young, 494 U.S. 56, 63 (1990)” – including any and all documents indicating or demonstrating that “the notes at issue... fall squarely within the list of non-securities enumerated in Reves v. Ernst & Young, 494 U.S. 56, 63 (1990).”

Defendant objects to Request for Production 8 to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff. Defendant also objects to Request for

Production 8 as unnecessarily duplicative and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents that have been seized either by the Plaintiff or by the Receiver.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 9 to the extent it calls for materials not within his possession, custody or control, including materials within the control of other parties or third parties and therefore equally accessible to the Plaintiff. Defendant also objects to Request for Production 9 as unnecessarily duplicative and unduly burdensome because it improperly seeks documents that have been seized either by the government or by the Receiver.

10. Produce any and all notes of witness interviews that were conducted in connection with this case.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 10 because these communications reflect thoughts, mental impressions and analysis, which are protected from discovery under the attorney client and deliberative process privileges and work product doctrine. It is unduly burdensome and expensive for the defense to assemble, process, and then individually log each document, note and/or communication. If needed, Defendant reserves the right to supplement, revise, or amend this log as appropriate.

Defendant further objects to Request for Production 10 as unduly burdensome, overbroad, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks “any and all” notes from witness interviews regardless of whether relevant to any claim or defense, and because it seeks identification of “all” witnesses interviewed.

11. Produce Your personal telephone and cellphone records for the period of July 27, 2015 through July 27, 2020.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 11 as unduly burdensome, overbroad, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks the defendant’s “personal telephone and cellphone records from July 27, 2015 through July 27, 2020”, regardless of whether relevant to any claim or defense.

12. Produce all bank records, including but not limited to statements, for all bank and other financial accounts on which You were a signatory, for the period July 27, 2015 through present.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 12 as premature because it seeks information regarding Defendant’s assets which could only be relevant, if at all, to judgment enforcement efforts; however, no judgment has been obtained against Defendant and, therefore, Request for Production 12 is objectionable as premature.

Defendant further objects to Request for Production 12 as unduly burdensome, overbroad, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information that is not relevant to any claim or defense, and because it seeks identification of “all” bank and other financial accounts.

15. Produce all correspondence between Your attorney(s) and Aida Lau from July 23, 2020 through present.

Defendant objects to Request for Production 15 because these communications reflect thoughts, mental impressions and analysis, which are protected from discovery under the attorney client and deliberative process privileges and work product doctrine. It is unduly burdensome and expensive for the defense to assemble, process, and then individually log each document, note and/or communication. If needed, Defendant reserves the right to supplement, revise, or amend this response as appropriate.

16. 25 provide some basis to explain why you're asserting

 23 1:52 p.m. Going off the record.
 24 (Counsel and witness conferred 1:52 p.m. to 1:56 p.m.)
 25 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're on the record.

47

1 The time is now 1:56 p.m.
 2 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. We have an
 3 objection to form. And the witness will answer.
 4 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
 5 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
 6 privilege.
 7 BY MS. BERLIN:
 8 Q. During the time period 2015 through
 9 June 2020, did you approve on behalf of Complete
 10 Business Solutions Group its funding of merchant
 11 cash advances without an on-site inspection?
 12 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. Give us a second.
 13 Thank you.
 14 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 1:57 p.m.
 15 Off the record.
 16 (Counsel and witness conferred 1:57 p.m. to 1:59 p.m.)
 17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the record
 18 1:59 p.m.
 19 MR. FUTERFAS: We object to the form of
 20 the question. And then the witness will answer.
 21 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
 22 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
 23 privilege.
 24 BY MS. BERLIN:
 25 Q. During the period 2015 through June 2020,

48

1 did you tell any investor or potential investor in
 2 Complete Business Solutions Group that Complete
 3 Business Solutions Group had a 1 percent default
 4 rate on its merchant cash advances?
 5 MR. FUTERFAS: Give us one second. Thank
 6 you.
 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now
 8 2:00 p.m. Off the record.
 9 (Counsel and witness conferred 2:00 p.m. to 2:01 p.m.)
 10 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're on the record.
 11 2:01 p.m.
 12 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. We have an
 13 objection to form. In addition to that, the witness
 14 will answer.
 15 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 16 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
 17 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
 18 Constitution.
 19 BY MS. BERLIN:
 20 Q. During the time period 2015 through
 21 June 2020, were you aware of the fact that Complete
 22 Business Solutions Group had a default rate on its 23 merchant cash advances that far exceeded 1 percent?
 24 MR. FUTERFAS: We object to the form of 25 the question because it assumes a fact, obviously it

49

1 assumes a fact that certainly we dispute. But I
 2 will get back to you in one second on that. Thank
 3 you.
 4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now
 5 2:02 p.m. Going off the record.
 6 (Counsel and witness conferred 2:02 p.m. to 2:08 p.m.)
 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the
 8 record. The time is now 2:08 p.m.
 9 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you very much. We
 10 object to the form of the question. And the witness
 11 will answer.
 12 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
 13 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
 14 privilege.
 15 BY MS. BERLIN:
 16 Q. Do you have any understanding between 2015
 17 and June 2020, other than through learned from your
 18 spouse, that the default rate on Complete Business
 19 Solutions Group's merchant cash advances exceeded
 20 10 percent?
 21 MR. FUTERFAS: Can you restate -- just say
 22 it again so we understand exactly what default rate
 23 you're referring to, Amie? Thank you.
 24 MS. BERLIN: Sure.
 25

50

1 BY MS. BERLIN:
 2 Q. Did you have the understanding between
 3 2015 and June 2020, other than as or through learned
 4 from your spouse default rate on Complete Business
 5 Solutions Group's merchant cash advances exceeded
 6 10 percent?
 7 MR. FUTERFAS: And what default rate are 8 you referring to?
 9 MS. BERLIN: Well, I think the -- I mean,
 10 I'm asking the question about the default rate, and 11 the witness can explain that in her answer.
 12 MR. SOTO: Amie, this is Mr. Soto. I
 13 think we're asking for, if you can provide one, a
 14 definition of default rate so that we can make a
 15 decision whether a particular privilege is 16 applicable or whether she should answer.
 17 MS. BERLIN: Well, I think the issue is if 18 the witness is confused and requires me to provide 19 more detail.
 20 MR. FUTERFAS: The witness is confused.
 21 MS. BERLIN: How do you know?
 22 THE WITNESS: Amie, do you mind repeating
 23 the question just so I can understand better.
 24 BY MS. BERLIN:
 25 Q. Sure.

51

1 A. Thank you.
 2 Q. Of course. Did you have the understanding
 3 between 2015 and June 2020, other than as learned
 4 from your spouse, that the default rate on Complete
 5 Business Solutions Group's merchant cash advances
 6 exceeded 10 percent?
 7 MR. FUTERFAS: Amie, we have an objection
 8 because of the definition of default rate. We don't 9 know what default rate you're referring to, what 10 mathematics you're actually referring to.
 11 MS. BERLIN: Well, the witness can answer
 12 and explain that in her answer, but I don't think 13 I'm required to provide a definition. If we have 14 to, we can have the court review the question. But 15 I'm going to ask for an answer on the question as 16 posed.
 17 MR. FUTERFAS: We object to the form of
 18 the question because the definition of default rate
 19 is clearly not -- is certainly not clear. And we 20 will confer quickly. Thank you. Thank you.
 21 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now
 22 2:12 p.m. Off the record.
 23 (Counsel and witness conferred 2:12 p.m. to 2:13 p.m.)
 24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record 2:13 p.m.
 25 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. With those 52

1 objections repeated, the witness will answer the
 2 question.
 3 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
 4 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
 5 privilege.
 6 BY MS. BERLIN:
 7 Q. By 2019 were you aware of the fact that
 8 Complete Business Solutions Group was in collections
 9 litigation with about 1,000 merchant cash advance
 10 borrowers for failure to pay on the merchant cash
 11 advances?
 12 MR. FUTERFAS: Object. We object to the 13 form of the question. We're not really sure what 14 you mean by failure to pay merchant cash borrowers.
 15 But we preserve that objection.
 16 MS. BERLIN: I can re-ask it then.
 17 BY MS. BERLIN:
 18 Q. By 2019 were you aware of the fact that
 19 Complete Business Solutions Group had about a
 20 thousand lawsuits pending against merchant cash
 21 advance borrowers who had not made their payments to 22 Complete Business Solutions Group?
 23 MR. FUTERFAS: I still -- it's better,
 24 Amie. We still have an objection to the form
 25 because the question of not made payments, I'm not

53

1 really sure which payments we're talking about
 2 because it's payments -- it's total RTR. Are we
 3 talking about total RTR, right to return under the 4 contract? It could be any. So there's ambiguity
 5 there. So we object to the form. But let me
 6 quickly confer.
 7 MS. BERLIN: Payments isn't specified. It
 8 can be anything. The question is whether she knew
 9 about these lawsuits or not.
 10 MR. FUTERFAS: Got it. Okay. We'll 11 confer.
 12 MS. BERLIN: I didn't specify what kind of 13 payment hadn't been made in the question.
 14 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. Fair enough. We'll 15 confer quickly and get back to you. Hold on one
 16 second.
 17 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Thanks.
 18 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now
 19 2:16 p.m. Going off the record.
 20 (Counsel and witness conferred 2:16 p.m. to 2:18 p.m.)
 21 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record 2:18 p.m.
 22 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. Obviously, we 23 have an objection to form. And the witness will 24 answer the question.
 25 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the

54

1 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
 2 privilege.
 3 BY MS. BERLIN:
 4 Q. During the time period 2015 through
 5 June 2020, were you aware of Complete Business
 6 Solutions Group understating the default rate on its 7 merchant cash advances when it was trying to solicit
 8 investors to invest in Complete Business Solutions
 9 Group's promissory notes?
 10 MR. FUTERFAS: I'm going to object to the 11 form. And I believe it's been asked and answered.
 12 Didn't you just ask this question a few minutes ago?
 13 MS. BERLIN: No.
 14 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. Then do you mind
 15 repeating it? I'm sorry.
 16 BY MS. BERLIN:
 17 Q. Did you have an understanding during the 18 time period of 2015 through June 2020 that Complete
 19 Business Solutions Group was understating the 20 default rate on its merchant cash advances when it
 21 was soliciting investors.
 22 MR. FUTERFAS: All right. Thank you. We
 23 got to confer. Thank you.
 24 MS. BERLIN: Go off.
 25 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: 2:20 off the record.

55

1 (Counsel and witness conferred 2:20 p.m. to 2:21 p.m.)
 2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the record
 3 2:21.
 4 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. We have an
 5 objection to the form and renew the objections on 6 the indefiniteness and the vagueness of the words
 7 default rate.
 8 But with those objections, the witness
 9 will answer.
 10 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
 11 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
 12 privilege.
 13 BY MS. BERLIN:
 14 Q. During the time period of 2016 through
 15 June 2020, did Complete Business Solutions Group
 16 have insurance coverage that provided coverage for 17 the merchant cash advance loans that Complete
 18 Business Solutions Group was offering?
 19 MR. FUTERFAS: I'll object to the form of 20 the question. Can you clarify, if you wish or can 21 or choose to, what the nature of that coverage that 22 you're referring to, the insurance coverage?
 23 MS. BERLIN: Well, I'm asking the question
 24 about whether there is insurance coverage. Then if 25 she answers, I would ask her. If she says yes, I'll

56

1 ask her what kind of coverage was there.
 2 So right now it's just the general
 3 question of coverage.
 4 MR. FUTERFAS: What kind of coverage?
 5 MS. BERLIN: Any kind of coverage
 6 whatsoever. This is very general. Depending on her
 7 answer, I would get narrower.
 8 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. All right. No
 9 problem. Thank you. We'll confer. Thank you.
 10 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.
 11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now
 12 2:23 p.m. Off the record.
 13 (Counsel and witness conferred 2:23 p.m. to 2:27 p.m.)
 14 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record. The 15 time is 2:27.
 16 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. We object to 17 the form. And with that objection, the witness will
 18 answer.
 19 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 20 I am asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
 21 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
 22 Constitution.
 23 BY MS. BERLIN:
 24 Q. During the time period of 2015 through
 25 2020, were you present Joseph LaForte made

57

1 representations to potential investors of Complete
 2 Business Solutions Group about his business acumen?
 3 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. We'll confer.
 4 Thank you.
 5 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: It's 2:28. Off the
 6 record.
 7 (Counsel and witness conferred 2:28 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.)
 8 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the record
 9 2:30 p.m.
 10 MR. FUTERFAS: The witness will answer.
 11 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
 12 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
 13 privilege.
 14 BY MS. BERLIN:
 15 Q. Were you present at any time between 2015
 16 and June 2020 when Joseph Cole Barleta was telling
 17 any potential investor of Complete Business
 18 Solutions Group that Complete Business Solutions
 19 Group's management team was highly successful?
 20 MR. FUTERFAS: We'll confer. Thank you.
 21 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: It's 2:31 p.m. Off the
 22 record.
 23 (Counsel and witness conferred 2:31 p.m. to 2:33 p.m.)
 24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the record
 25 2:33.

58

1 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. The witness
 2 will answer the question.
 3 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
 4 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
 5 privilege.
 6 BY MS. BERLIN:
 7 Q. During the time period 2015 through
 8 June 2020, did you ever witness a single occasion
 9 where anyone disclosed to a potential Complete
 10 Business Solutions Group investor that Joseph
 11 LaForte had a criminal record?
 12 MR. FUTERFAS: We will confer. Thank you.
 13 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 2:34 p.m.
 14 Off the record.
 15 (Counsel and witness conferred 2:34 p.m. to 2:41 p.m.)
 16 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the record.
 17 The time is now 2:41.
 18 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. Thank you. We
 19 have an objection to form. And with that objection,
 20 the witness will answer the question.
 21 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 22 I am asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
 23 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
 24 Constitution.
 25

59

1 MS. BERLIN: Before we came back on the
 2 record, did I hear you all say something about
 3 wanting to take a personal break?
 4 MR. FUTERFAS: Yes. Love to.
 5 MS. BERLIN: That's all we heard. It was
 6 like right as you came on. We didn't hear anything
 7 other than that.
 8 MR. FUTERFAS: You didn't hear this
 9 unbelievable telemuted discussion of the evolution
 10 of the law of privileges?
 11 MS. BERLIN: No.
 12 MR. FUTERFAS: Then I'm sorry you missed
 13 that.
 14 MR. SOTO: The knock-knock jokes.
 15 MR. FUTERFAS: I would love to take a
 16 two-minute break or a three-minute break if we can.
 17 MS. BERLIN: Sure. Why don't we make it
 18 five minutes. And I'll see you guys back at 2:48.
 19 MR. SOTO: Amie, I know we're going a
 20 little slower than you probably anticipated. What's 21 your target time now?
 22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Would you like to have 23 this on the record or would you like to go off the 24 record?
 25 MR. FUTERFAS: We can go off the record.

60

1 MR. SOTO: Off.
 2 MS. BERLIN: We can go off the record.
 3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 2:42 p.m.
 4 We're going off the record.
 5 (Recess from 2:42 p.m. to 3:07 p.m.)
 6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the
 7 record. The time is now 3:07 p.m.
 8 BY MS. BERLIN:
 9 Q. Have you ever disclosed to any investor in 10 Complete Business Solutions Group excluding your 11 spouse that Complete Business Solutions Group was 12 sanctioned by state securities regulators?
 13 MR. FUTERFAS: We got to confer. Thank
 14 you. Thank you, everyone. Hold on one second.
 15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 3:08. Off
 16 the record.
 17 (Counsel and witness conferred 3:08 p.m. to 3:13 p.m.)
 18 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 3:13 p.m.
 19 On the record.
 20 MR. FUTERFAS: Amie, we object to form.
 21 But beyond that objection, the witness will answer.
 22 Thank you.
 23 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
 24 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
 25 privilege.

61

1 BY MS. BERLIN:
 2 Q. When I refer to investors in Complete
 3 Business Solutions Group or Complete Business
 4 Solutions Group investors in the questions that
 5 follow today, I am excluding Joseph LaForte. Do you
 6 understand that? Do you understand, Ms. McElhone?
 7 MR. FUTERFAS: We do understand that, and 8 that's why the privilege being asserted is the 9 spousal testimonial privilege as opposed to the 10 marital communications privilege.
 11 MS. BERLIN: I understand. I was just
 12 going to make that statement now so that when I ask
 13 the next group of questions, I don't have to just 14 keep saying "excluding Joseph LaForte."
 15 MR. FUTERFAS: Understood. Understood.
 16 Sorry. I misunderstood you. Got it. Got it. Got
 17 it.
 18 MS. BERLIN: Just so my questions can be 19 shorter.
 20 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay.
 21 BY MS. BERLIN:
 22 Q. Do you understand, Ms. McElhone, that I'm
 23 excluding Joseph LaForte?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. Okay. Great. Prior to the SEC filing its 62

1 case against you, did you ever hear anyone disclose
 2 to a Complete Business Solutions Group investor that
 3 Complete Business Solutions Group had been
 4 sanctioned for violating state securities laws?
 5 MR. FUTERFAS: One second. I'm pausing
 6 for a minute because it sounds like the question you
 7 just asked.
 8 MS. BERLIN: No. The question prior was
 9 whether Ms. McElhone had ever disclosed to any CBSG
 10 investor. And the question I just asked is whether 11 she ever witnessed anyone telling a CBSG investor.
 12 So they're two separate questions.
 13 MR. FUTERFAS: Just a question of 14 clarification of form. Does "anyone" include
 15 lawyer's letters or forms filed or schedules
 16 submitted to investors in documents prepared by 17 lawyers?
 18 MS. BERLIN: It could be anyone.
 19 MR. FUTERFAS: I'm sorry?
 20 MS. BERLIN: It could be anyone. So I'm
 21 asking about whether Ms. McElhone ever witnessed
 22 anyone making that disclosure to a CBSG investor.
 23 So it could include attorneys because those would be 24 third parties, right.
 25 MR. FUTERFAS: We've seen disclosures in

63

1 some of the documents. So I just want to make sure
 2 that the question -- would the question include
 3 disclosures made by lawyers in documents submitted
 4 and sent to various investors?
 5 MS. BERLIN: It could include anyone. It
 6 could include anyone. Then if she answers, then I
 7 would ask her specifically who, when and where and 8 what was said.
 9 Now the question pending is whether prior
 10 to the SEC filing its case Ms. McElhone ever
 11 witnessed anyone disclose to a Complete Business
 12 Solutions Group investor that Complete Business
 13 Solutions Group had been fined or sanctioned for 14 violating the state securities laws.
 15 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. I understand your
 16 question. Give us a second to confer. Thank you so
 17 much.
 18 MS. BERLIN: We'll go off the record.
 19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 3:17 p.m.
 20 Off the record.
 21 (Counsel and witness conferred 3:17 p.m. to 3:20 p.m.)
 22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the record
 23 3:20.
 24 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. The witness
 25 will answer is as follows.

64

1 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 2 I am asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
 3 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
 4 Constitution.
 5 BY MS. BERLIN:
 6 Q. Have you ever disclosed to any investor in
 7 Complete Business Solutions Group that Pennsylvania
 8 securities regulators filed a consent agreement and 9 order against Complete Business Solutions Group?
 10 MR. FUTERFAS: Amie, can I ask, does the 11 word "you" in that sentence, "have you," does that 12 include attorney's filings?
 13 MS. BERLIN: "You" is Ms. McElhone.
 14 MR. FUTERFAS: Individually?
 15 MS. BERLIN: Yes. This is not a 30(b)(6)
 16 deposition of the company. It's a deposition of 17 Ms. McElhone in her personal capacity.
 18 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. Thank you for that 19 clarification.
 20 MS. BERLIN: If her answer is that she has 21 made those disclosures through an attorney, then
 22 obviously would be responsive and included, that 23 would have to be included in her answer, that she 24 has. Then I would ask who, when, where, how, why
 25 and she would then be testifying that it was done

65

1 through an attorney.
 2 But, yes, it could be her directly or if
 3 she had her attorney do it on her behalf, that would
 4 also -- I think it could be included. It just 5 depends on the circumstances which only she knows.
 6 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. With that
 7 clarification, we will confer. Thank you.
 8 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Great.
 9 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 3:21. Off
 10 the record.
 11 (Counsel and witness conferred 3:21 p.m. to 3:27 p.m.)
 12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the
 13 record. The time is now 3:27.
 14 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. We have an
 15 objection to form. But beyond that, the witness
 16 will answer as follows. Thank you.
 17 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
 18 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
 19 privilege.
 20 BY MS. BERLIN:
 21 Q. Have you ever disclosed to any investor of 22 Complete Business Solutions Group that Complete

 24 me start again.
 25 Have you ever disclosed to any investor of 66

1 Complete Business Solutions Group that the New
 2 Jersey Bureau of Securities issued a
 3 Cease-and-Desist Order against Complete Business
 4 Solutions Group concerning securities law
 5 violations?
 6 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
 7 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial

 9 BY MS. BERLIN:
 10 Q. Prior to February 2020, did you ever

 12 Solutions Group investor that the New Jersey Bureau
 13 of Securities issued a Cease-and-Desist Order
 14 against Complete Business Solutions Group for 15 securities law violations?
 16 MR. FUTERFAS: Amie, I'm going to object
 17 to the form. I think that's what you just asked.
 18 MS. BERLIN: No. I asked Ms. McElhone if 19 she had ever disclosed it. Then I asked her whether 20 she ever witnessed anyone else disclose it prior to 21 February 2020.
 22 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the

 16 Q. Just one moment.
 17 MR. FUTERFAS: Take your time, Amie.
 18 Sorry. I thought maybe you are muted or something.
 19 MS. BERLIN: No, no. I have to share the 20 exhibits myself. I'm going to share the screen now,
 21 show you what we've marked as Exhibit 45.
 22 BY MS. BERLIN:
 23 Q. Ms. McElhone, I'm showing you what I have 24 marked as Exhibit 45 for this deposition and it is a

 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. Did you review Exhibit 45, the document

 5 agreements with individuals for compensation in 6 connection with the sale of promissory notes were
 7 misleading.
 8 Let me ask that question again. I'm
 9 sorry.
 10 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay.
 11 BY MS. BERLIN:
 12 Q. At the time Exhibit 45 was sent to the 13 Pennsylvania securities regulators in
 14 September 2018, were you aware that Exhibit 45
 15 contained misleading representations to the 16 Pennsylvania securities regulators with respect to 17 whether or not Complete Business Solutions Group

 20 MR. FUTERFAS: Hold on a second. We have 21 to confer for a minute. Thank you.
 22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: 3:41 off the record.
 23 (Counsel and witness conferred 3:41 p.m. to 3:44 p.m.)
 24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the record
 25 3:44.

71

1 Compliance and Examinations that appear in
 2 Exhibit 45?
 3 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. We'll confer very
 4 briefly. Hold on, please. Thank you.
 5 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: 3:35 off the record.
 6 (Counsel and witness conferred 3:35 p.m. to 3:38 p.m.)
 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 3:38. On
 8 the record.
 9 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. The witness
 10 will answer. Thank you.
 11 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 12 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
 13 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
 14 Constitution.
 15 BY MS. BERLIN:
 16 Q. At the time Exhibit 45 was sent -- just 17 one moment. Let me share it again. I just realized
 18 it's not sharing any longer.
 19 Can you all see it on your screen?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 MR. FUTERFAS: It's pretty tiny. That's
 22 better. That's better. Okay. I'm sorry. Go ahead
 23 with your questioning. Sorry.
 24 BY MS. BERLIN:
 25 Q. At the time that CBSG or Complete Business

70

1 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. We have a form
 2 objection. The objection assumes certain facts. So
 3 any answer -- our objection is any answer would not
 4 adopt any facts alleged in the question. And with 5 that form objection, the witness' answer is as
 6 follows.
 7 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 8 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
 9 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
 10 Constitution.
 11 BY MS. BERLIN:
 12 Q. In September 2018, was it your
 13 understanding Complete Business Solutions Group was 14 compensating individuals for the offer and sale of 15 promissory notes relating to Complete Business
 16 Solutions Group?
 17 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. Please stand by.
 18 Thank you.
 19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 3:45. Off
 20 the record.
 21 (Counsel and witness conferred 3:45 p.m. to 3:47 p.m.)
 22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: 3:47 on the record.
 23 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. We have the 24 same objection as to the previous question. The 25 question alleges facts in the body of the question

72

1 which aren't in evidence. So the witness' answer in
 2 no adopts the allegation that was made in the 3 question. And with that the witness' answer is as
 4 follows.
 5 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 6 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
 7 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
 8 Constitution.
 9 BY MS. BERLIN:
 10 Q. Let me show you what we've marked as 11 Exhibit 46. I'll share my screen. Ms. McElhone,
 12 can you see on your screen something that says
 13 Declaration of Lisa McElhone and it as a yellow
 14 sticker that says Deposition Exhibit 46?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. Okay. Is Exhibit 46 a declaration --
 17 first of all, do you recognize Exhibit 46?
 18 A. I can't recall.
 19 MR. FUTERFAS: Can you make it a little 20 bit larger?
 21 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. Do you want me to
 22 scroll back to the top and then scroll down? Let me
 23 know if I scroll too fast.
 24 MR. FUTERFAS: We're not in a position to 25 review the document. Let's say for purposes of the

73

1 record so we can move on that I do not object to the
 2 document representing what it appears to be.
 3 MS. BERLIN: Okay. What I'll also do, I
 4 can email it to you. Would that be easier?
 5 MR. SOTO: Probably.
 6 MR. FUTERFAS: I could probably print it
 7 out.
 8 MS. BERLIN: Just so you have it there,
 9 too. Let's go off the record for a moment.
 10 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now
 11 3:50 p.m. Going off the record.
 12 (Recess from 3:50 p.m. to 4:03 p.m.)
 13 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record. Time is 14 4:02.
 15 BY MS. BERLIN:
 16 Q. Ms. McElhone, do you recognize Exhibit 46.
 17 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 18 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 19 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 20 Q. Turning to page 3 of Exhibit 46, is this a 21 true and correct copy of your signature on the 22 signature line here?
 23 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 24 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 25 Amendment to the United States Constitution.

74

 6 Q. Do you see right above the signature line
 7 where it states, "I declare under penalty of perjury
 8 that the foregoing is true and correct, executed on

 10 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 11 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 12 Amendment to the United States Constitution.

 19 Q. Do you see on page 1 paragraph 5, where it

 23 and I handled the accounting for less than a year."
 24 Do you see that paragraph?
 25 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting

75

1 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 2 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 3 Q. I just want to be. Do you understand what
 4 I'm just asking, if you see the paragraph in a
 5 document that's on your screen?
 6 MR. FUTERFAS: We will all stipulate that
 7 we see a document that's on your screen.
 8 MS. BERLIN: And that it's Exhibit 46?
 9 MR. FUTERFAS: Yes. We can see that it's
 10 Exhibit 46.
 11 BY MS. BERLIN:
 12 Q. So is the representation in paragraph 5 of 13 Exhibit 46, which I just read into the record -- are 14 the representations in paragraph 5 true?
 15 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 16 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 17 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 18 Q. I would like to turn your attention to 19 paragraph 6 of Exhibit 46 where it states, "I hired
 20 Joe Cole, the current CFO of CBSG, to replace me in 21 2012. At that time I started a nail salon called
 22 The Lacquer Lounge, see www.lacquerlounge.com."
 23 Do you see paragraph 6 in Exhibit 46 which
 24 I just read into the record?
 25 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting

 4 paragraph 6 of Exhibit 46 true and correct?
 5 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting

 8 Q. Turning to paragraph 7 of Exhibit 46,
 9 which states "I have worked full time at the Lacquer
 10 Lounge since its inception and have had no
 11 subsequent involvement in CBSG despite the fact that 12 I was never formally removed as its president."
 13 Did I read that correctly?
 14 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 15 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 16 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 17 Q. At the time that you executed Exhibit 46,
 18 were the representations in paragraph 7 true?
 19 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 20 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 21 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 22 Q. Turning to paragraph 9 of Exhibit 46,
 23 which states, "It is my understanding that 24 Mr. LaForte is responsible for evaluating and 25 closing merchant cash advance actions at CBSG, and I

77

1 believe he closes approximately 20 to 25
 2 transactions per day."
 3 Did I read that correctly?
 4 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 5 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 6 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 7 Q. Was paragraph 9, which I just read into 8 the record, were the representations made in
 9 paragraph 9 true as of August 12, 2019?
 10 MR. FUTERFAS: We just need to confer for 11 a moment, if you don't mind. Hold on one minute.
 12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 4:08. Off
 13 the record.
 14 (Counsel and witness conferred 4:08 p.m. to 4:10 p.m.)
 15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record 4:10.
 16 MR. FUTERFAS: Amie, you completed your
 17 question?
 18 MS. BERLIN: Yes, I did.
 19 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. Fair enough.
 20 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 21 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
 22 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
 23 Constitution.
 24 BY MS. BERLIN:
 25 Q. Was your representations in Exhibit 46

78

1 that you had no involvement in CBSG from 2012 until 2 August 12, 2019, was that representation true at the
 3 time that you signed Exhibit 46?
 4 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 5 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 6 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 7 MS. BERLIN: Just to confirm, is my screen
 8 still sharing or no?
 9 MR. FUTERFAS: It's not.
 10 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Good. Thank you.
 11 BY MS. BERLIN:
 12 Q. I'm going to turn now to show you
 13 Exhibit 47.
 14 MS. BERLIN: Let's go off the record for a
 15 moment.
 16 MR. FUTERFAS: No problem.
 17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 4:12 p.m.
 18 Going off the record.
 19 (Recess from 4:12 p.m. to 4:13 p.m.)
 20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the record.
 21 The time is now 4:13.
 22 BY MS. BERLIN:
 23 Q. Ms. McElhone, I am showing you what we 24 have marked as Exhibit 47. Do you see a document on 25 your screen that has the yellow sticker that says

79

1 Deposition Exhibit 47?
 2 MR. FUTERFAS: We'll acknowledge we can
 3 see that on the screen. And I'll also put on the 4 record that I received the same document via email,
 5 and we have printed it out so we have a hard copy
 6 here.
 7 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Great.
 8 BY MS. BERLIN:
 9 Q. So I'm showing you Exhibit 47, which has
 10 also been filed in this case as document entry 41-3.
 11 Ms. McElhone, do you recognize the 12 document that appears as Exhibit 47?
 13 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 14 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 15 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 16 Q. Prior to Complete Business Solutions Group
 17 filing Exhibit 47 with the SEC, did you review it?
 18 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 19 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 20 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 21 Q. Prior to Complete Business Solutions Group
 22 filing the Form D that appears as Exhibit 47, did
 23 you approve the filing?
 24 MR. FUTERFAS: We got to take a minute to 25 consult. Thank you. Thank you.

1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 4:15. Off
 2 the record.
 3 (Counsel and witness conferred 4:15 p.m. to 4:19 p.m.)
 4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 4:19. On
 5 the record.
 6 MR. FUTERFAS: Ms. Berlin, can you
 7 rephrase or just repeat the question if you don't 8 mind?
 9 MS. BERLIN: Sure.
 10 BY MS. BERLIN:
 11 Q. Ms. McElhone, did you approve the Form D
 12 filing that appears as Exhibit 47 before it was
 13 filed with the SEC?
 14 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 15 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 16 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 17 Q. I'm going to share my screen again. I'm
 18 showing Exhibit 47 on the screen. Turning to PDF
 19 page 2 of Exhibit 47, which is the Form D filing for 20 Complete Business Solutions Group, I'd like to turn
 21 your attention to Section No. 4, Related Person on 22 page 205. Do you see where Section 3 of Exhibit 47
 23 discloses to the SEC that you are an executive
 24 officer of Complete Business Solutions Group?
 25 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting

81

1 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 2 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 3 Q. Was the representation made to the SEC in
 4 Section 3 of Exhibit 47 true as of April 2019?
 5 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 6 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 7 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 8 Q. Was the representation to the SEC that was 9 made in Exhibit 47 true with respect you to being an
 10 executive officer of CBSG as of April 2020?
 11 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 12 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 13 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 14 Q. Turn your attention now to Section 16 of 15 Exhibit 47, which is on PDF page 4 of 5. It's 16 entitled Use of Proceeds, and it states -- it asks
 17 that CBSG provide the amount of the gross proceeds
 18 of the offering that has been or is proposed to be 19 used for payments to any person required to be named 20 as executive officers, directors or promoters in
 21 response to item 3 above.
 22 Do you see that on Exhibit 47? I'm
 23 highlighting it on the screen.
 24 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 25 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth

82

1 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 2 Q. Was the representation CBSG made to the
 3 SEC in Exhibit 47, item No. 16, that zero was paid
 4 to you from the securities proceeds, was that
 5 representation true as of April 2020?
 6 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 7 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 8 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 9 Q. Turning back to item No. 3, on page 2 of 10 Exhibit 47, it also identifies Joseph Cole Barleta
 11 as an executive officer and Jamie McElhone as an 12 executive officer. I'm just going to highlight that 13 section so that it's there on the screen what I'm 14 referring to.
 15 Do you see that on your screen?
 16 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 17 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 18 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 19 Q. Was Jamie McElhone an executive officer of 20 Complete Business Solutions Group as of April 2020?
 21 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 22 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 23 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 24 Q. Had Jamie McElhone received any of the 25 proceeds from the Complete Business Solutions Group

83

1 securities offering as of April 2020?
 2 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I am asserting
 3 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 4 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 5 Q. As of April 2020, had Joseph Cole Barleta
 6 received any of the securities offering proceeds
 7 from Complete Business Solutions Group?
 8 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 9 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 10 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 11 Q. Is the representation made to the SEC on 12 page 4, item No. 16 regarding use of proceeds, is 13 the representation made there that zero dollars had 14 been received by Jamie McElhone as of April 2020,
 15 was that representation to the SEC true at the time
 16 it was made?
 17 MR. FUTERFAS: Hold on. Let me just find
 18 this, please. What page are you on, Amie?
 19 MS. BERLIN: It's page 4 of 5, item
 20 No. 16, Use of Proceeds.
 21 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. It's a single
 22 paragraph. Okay. I understand your question. Okay.
 23 Thank you.
 24 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 25 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed

84

1 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
2 Constitution.
3 BY MS. BERLIN:
4 Q. Were the representations made in
5 Section 16 of Exhibit 47 true at the time they were
6 made with respect to Joseph Cole Barleta?
7 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
8 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
9 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
10 Q. In addition to you, Joseph Cole Barleta
11 and Jamie McElhone being executive officers of
12 Complete Business Solutions Group as of April 2020,
13 was Joseph LaForte also an executive officer of
14 Complete Business Solutions Group as of April 2020?
15 MR. FUTERFAS: We have to confer. Give us
16 a moment. Thank you.
17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 4:26. Off
18 the record.
19 (Counsel and witness conferred 4:26 p.m. to 4:28 p.m.)
20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the record
21 4:28.
22 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. Amie, have you
23 completed your question?
24 MS. BERLIN: Yes.
25 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. Good. Thank you.

85

1 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
2 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
3 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
4 Constitution.
5 BY MS. BERLIN:
6 Q. Did you omit disclosure of Joseph LaForte
7 as an executive officer or director of Complete
8 Business Solutions Group from the Form D filing that 9 appears as Exhibit 47 in order to conceal the fact
10 that a convicted felon was managing Complete
11 Business Solutions Group?
12 MR. FUTERFAS: We object to the form. I
13 think it's a compound question and assumes facts not 14 in evidence. And so presuming that objection, the 15 witness' answer is as follows.
16 MS. BERLIN: I'll break it down.
17 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay.
18 BY MS. BERLIN:
19 Q. Ms. McElhone, did you make the decision to 20 omit Joseph LaForte from the Form D filing with the 21 SEC that appears as Exhibit 47?
22 MR. FUTERFAS: We have to confer for just 23 a second. Hold on.
24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 4:30 p.m.
25 Going off the record.

86

1 (Counsel and witness conferred 4:30 p.m. to 4:33 p.m.)
2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the record
3 4:33.
4 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you. Amie, did you
5 finish your question?
6 MS. BERLIN: Yes.
7 MR. FUTERFAS: We object to the form of
8 the question to the word "omit." The word omit --
9 our objection is the word omit presumes that there
10 was an understanding or a belief or something that 11 something should have happened. And so omit
12 suggests purposefulness. So we're objecting to the 13 form on that basis.
14 With that objection, the witness will
15 answer.
16 MS. BERLIN: I'll just change the
17 question.
18 MR. FUTERFAS: I'm sorry?
19 MS. BERLIN: We'll just change it.
20 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. Okay. Okay.
21 MS. BERLIN: No problem.
22 BY MS. BERLIN:
23 Q. Ms. McElhone, did you make the decision
24 not to list Joseph LaForte on the Form D filing with 25 the SEC that appears as Exhibit 47?

87

1 MR. FUTERFAS: Hold on one second. Sorry.
2 I appreciate you changed the question. Hold on one
3 second.
4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: 4:34 off the record.
5 (Counsel and witness conferred 4:34 p.m. to 4:35 p.m.)
6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record 4:35.
7 MR. BACHNER: Hi, Amie. It's Michael
8 Bachner. Alan's voice is tired from talking. So
9 I'm going to chime in here. The question -- we 10 object to the form. The question assumes facts not 11 in evidence and that is that Joe should have, in 12 fact, been listed on the Form D. So we object as to 13 form. And otherwise, the question -- the response
14 as follows.
15 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
16 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
17 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
18 Constitution.
19 MS. BERLIN: And just for the record, I
20 don't have any objection to you switching lawyers
21 like from Alan Futerfas to Michael Bachner at this 22 point. Just so the record is clear, usually the 23 rule is that one lawyer has to do the representation
24 through the whole deposition. I'm not going to 25 raise any issue with that.

88

1 MR. BACHNER: Thank you.
 2 MR. FUTERFAS: He's been here the whole
 3 time telling me what to do.
 4 MR. BACHNER: I wish that was true, but 5 it's not.
 6 We're assuming your dog is not giving you
 7 any advice either here.
 8 MS. BERLIN: Oh, yeah. He's my secret.
 9 I'm kidding.
 10 BY MS. BERLIN:
 11 Q. Ms. McElhone, did you make the decision
 12 not to list Mr. LaForte in the Form D filing that 13 appears as Exhibit 47 because you did not want to 14 disclose to the SEC that Complete Business Solutions
 15 Group was being operated by a convicted felon?
 16 MR. FUTERFAS: Amie, I object. This was 17 the same question you asked, and you said you were 18 going to bifurcate. So it's a compound question,
 19 and it also assumes -- the word "decision" assumes
 20 purposefulness. Like A decision assumes that
 21 there's some evidence or requirement that a person
 22 should have been on the form in the first place. So
 23 it's almost like me saying did you make a decision,
 24 you know, not to speak to -- I don't have to go into 25 detail. I object to the form of the question. If

89

1 you want to try it again.
 2 MS. BERLIN: No. I already broke down the
 3 part. So I think it's okay. I think if it's no, I
 4 didn't it for that reason, I did it because he 5 wasn't an executive officer, that would be the 6 answer. I'll ask the question. Let me see if I can 7 fine tune it a little bit more.
 8 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay.
 9 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.
 10 BY MS. BERLIN:
 11 Q. Did you determine that Joseph LaForte
 12 should not be identified in Section 3 of the Form D
 13 filing that appears as Exhibit 47 because you wanted
 14 to conceal from the SEC that a convicted felon was 15 involved in the securities offering of CBSG?
 16 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. We're objecting on 17 the grounds --
 18 MS. BERLIN: It's more complex. All
 19 right.
 20 BY MS. BERLIN:
 21 Q. Let me try it one more time, Ms. McElhone.
 22 I'm trying to make it simpler, but I think I'm
 23 making it worse. So let me try again.
 24 Is the reason that you did not list
 25 Mr. LaForte in Exhibit 47 that you wanted to conceal

90

1 the involvement of a convicted felon with Complete
 2 Business Solutions Group?
 3 MR. BACHNER: Amie, it's Michael. We
 4 object to the form assuming Lisa had the 5 decision-making authority over that.
 6 MS. BERLIN: She can answer that in her
 7 answer. I'm just asking the question. I get it.
 8 You can make your objection, and the judge can
 9 review it, I guess.
 10 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 11 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
 12 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
 13 Constitution.
 14 BY MS. BERLIN:
 15 Q. Did you decide to file Exhibit 47 with the 16 SEC for purposes of obstructing the SEC's
 17 enforcement obligations?
 18 MR. FUTERFAS: We object to the form of
 19 the question. Object to the form of the question.
 20 Anyway, with that objection, the witness will
 21 answer.
 22 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
 23 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
 24 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
 25 Constitution.

91

1 BY MS. BERLIN:
 2 Q. I'm going to -- give me a moment. We're
 3 going to switch to Exhibit 48 on the screen. I just
 4 want to make sure it's fine if counsel advises me
 5 whether or not on your screens you all are seeing
 6 what I'm going to mark as Exhibit 48, which has a --
 7 it was filed this document as document entry 28 in 8 this case. Do you see that on your screen?
 9 MR. FUTERFAS: Yes. This one does not --
 10 this one does not have the yellow deposition
 11 sticker; right? We agree on that?
 12 MS. BERLIN: No, it does not. We'll mark
 13 that so that we have it for future.
 14 MR. FUTERFAS: I'm just going to mark it
 15 on the hard copy. Yes. For the record, we have 16 printed out a hard copy of Deposition Exhibit 48
 17 which we see on the screen.
 18 MS. BERLIN: Okay.
 19 BY MS. BERLIN:
 20 Q. Ms. McElhone, do you recognize Exhibit 48?
 21 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
 22 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
 23 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
 24 Q. Did you review the document appears as 25 Exhibit 48 before Complete Business Solutions Group

92

1 filed it with the SEC?
2 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
3 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
4 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
5 Q. Did you approve the document appearing as
6 Exhibit 48 before Complete Business Solutions Group
7 filed it with the SEC?
8 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
9 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
10 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
11 Q. And do you see under the section that 12 states Related Persons on PDF page 2 of Exhibit 48,
13 which lists you, Joseph Cole Barleta and Jamie
14 McElhone as executive officers of CBSG?
15 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
16 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
17 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
18 Q. Was the representation to the SEC in item
19 No. 3 of Exhibit 48 that you were an executive
20 officer as of the date of the filing, February 2019?
21 Let me start again. I'm sorry, Ms. McElhone.
22 In February of 2019, it was the 23 representation in Exhibit 48 true with respect to 24 the statement that you were an executive officer of 25 Complete Business Solutions Group at that time?

93

1 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
2 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
3 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
4 Q. Was the representation in the filing with 5 the SEC that appears in Exhibit 48, item 3, stating 6 that Jamie McElhone was an executive officer of 7 Complete Business Solutions Group as of 8 February 2019, was that representation true when 9 made?
10 MR. FUTERFAS: I'm just going to take a
11 second and consult, please. Thank you.
12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 4:45. Off
13 the record.
14 (Counsel and witness conferred 4:45 p.m. to 4:47 p.m.)
15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now 4:54.
16 On the record.
17 MR. FUTERFAS: Thank you for the 18 conferral. Amie, do you want to ask the question
19 again or -- we recall it.
20 MS. BERLIN: I think it's okay.
21 BY MS. BERLIN:
22 Q. Go ahead.
23 A. I decline to answer the question on the 24 basis of the spousal testimonial privilege.
25

1 Q. Did you ever -- prior to February 2019,
2 did you discuss with Jamie McElhone what her role
3 was at Complete Business Solutions Group?
4 MR. BACHNER: Hold on. Sorry. Can we
5 just get that question repeated?
6 BY MR. BACHNER:
7 Q. As of February of 2019, did you ever
8 discuss with your sister, Jamie McElhone, what her
9 role at Complete Business Solutions Group was?
10 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
11 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
12 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
13 Q. Did you make a decision not to identify 14 Joseph LaForte in item number 3 of Exhibit 48?
15 A. I decline to answer the question on the
16 basis of the spousal testimonial privilege.
17 Q. And did you decide not to include Joseph
18 LaForte in the CBSG disclosure to the SEC,
19 Exhibit 48, because you were trying to conceal the 20 involvement of a convicted felon?
21 MR. FUTERFAS: Objection to the form. But 22 with that objection, the witness will answer.
23 THE WITNESS: I decline to answer the
24 question on the basis of the spousal testimonial
25 privilege.

95

1 BY MS. BERLIN:
2 Q. Turning to PDF page 405, item 16,
3 Proceeds?
4 MR. FUTERFAS: Hold on. Let's get there.
5 We're not there yet. Okay. I'm there. Thank you.
6 BY MS. BERLIN:
7 Q. And we're looking at item 16, Proceeds,
8 which states, "Provide the amount of the gross
9 proceeds at the offering that has been or is 10 proposed to be used for payments to any of the 11 persons required to be named as executive officers,
12 directors or promoters in response to item 3 above."
13 Do you see that provision of Exhibit 48?
14 MR. FUTERFAS: We recognize that that is 15 on the page.
16 MS. BERLIN: On the page. Do you all
17 recognize or, AI, do just you want to stipulate
18 there's no number other than zero which I'll 19 highlight here?
20 MR. FUTERFAS: We'll stipulate to that,
21 yes.
22 BY MS. BERLIN:
23 Q. Was the representation made to the SEC in 24 paragraph 16 true as of February 2019 with respect
25 to your receipt of funds?

96

1 A. I decline to answer the question on the
2 basis of the spousal testimonial privilege.
3 Q. By February 12, 2019, had you received any
4 of the gross proceeds from the promissory note
5 offering conducted by Complete Business Solutions
6 Group?
7 MR. FUTERFAS: Hold on. Let's just confer
8 one second on that. Thank you.
9 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 4:58. Off
10 the record.
11 (Counsel and witness conferred 4:59 p.m. to 4:59 p.m.)
12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 4:59 p.m.
13 on the record.
14 THE WITNESS: You completed your question,
15 right, Amie?
16 MS. BERLIN: Yes, I did.
17 MR. FUTERFAS: The witness will answer.
18 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
19 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
20 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
21 Constitution.
22 BY MS. BERLIN:
23 Q. Did you direct Complete Business Solutions
24 Group to transfer investor funds to other entities
25 that you owned or controlled?

97

1 MR. FUTERFAS: We have to confer on that.
2 Sorry. Hold on.
3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: 4:59 p.m. off the
4 record.
5 (Counsel and witness conferred 4:59 p.m. to 5:01 p.m.)
6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record 5:01.
7 MR. FUTERFAS: Amie, have you completed
8 your question. We're back on the record.
9 MS. BERLIN: Yes, I did.
10 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay. Good. The witness
11 will answer.
12 THE WITNESS: Upon the advice of counsel,
13 I'm asserting the rights and privileges guaranteed
14 under the Fifth Amendment to the United States
15 Constitution.
16 MR. BACHNER: I understood in your
17 conversations with Alan that you were going to be 18 breaking at 5:00. I kind of planned to have another
19 phone call at a few minutes after 5:00. Are we okay
20 breaking now?
21 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, with the final clock
22 cutoff, actually we're going to get super close
23 because I just have two more questions.
24 MR. FUTERFAS: Okay.
25 MS. BERLIN: That could take one minute.

98

1 BY MS. BERLIN:
2 Q. Ms. McElhone, did you direct Complete
3 Business Solutions Group to transfer investor funds
4 for your personal benefit?
5 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
6 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
7 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
8 Q. Did you direct Complete Business Solutions
9 Group to transfer investor funds to acquire real
10 estate for your benefit?
11 A. Upon the advice of counsel, I'm asserting
12 the rights and privileges guaranteed under the Fifth
13 Amendment to the United States Constitution.
14 MS. BERLIN: So as we discussed earlier,
15 as Alan and I discussed, we're going to stop at 16 5:00, and we will resume. While get in touch with 17 Alan, Mr. Futerfas if we need to resume after we 18 address some of the privilege issues. We're ready
19 to break for the day. Unless anyone else has 20 anything they wanted to add on the record, thank you
21 so much, Ms. McElhone, for your time today. And as 22 always, Alan it's a pleasure to see you.
23 MR. FUTERFAS: Same here, Amie. Thank
24 you, although I'm not seeing you right now. You
25 went off screen.

99

1 MR. KOLAYA: I'm sorry. If we could make
2 one statement on the record before we go.
3 MS. BERLIN: Sure.
4 MR. KOLAYA: I think we went off the
5 record. If we could go back on, please.
6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're not off the
7 record. We're still on the record.
8 MR. KOLAYA: Oh, perfect. This is Tim
9 Kolaya on behalf of the receiver. I know that this 10 deposition may or may not continue. I know Amie and 11 Alan need to discuss that.
12 I just want to make clear on the record
13 that the receiver does have the right to conduct his 14 own independent discovery and investigation. And we 15 reserve the right to schedule a separate deposition
16 of Ms. McElhone potentially in the future.
17 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Does anyone else want
18 to say anything on the record today?
19 MR. FUTERFAS: No.
20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: It is May 27, 2021.
21 The time is 5:04 p.m. completing today's deposition.
22 (Whereupon, at 5:04 p.m., the taking of 23 the instant deposition ceased.)
