Timothy Kolaya 6	1 A. No, I am not. 2 Q. Were you employed by a company called 3 Complete Business Solutions Group previously? 4 A. Yes, I was. 5 Q. During what time period were you employed 6 by Complete Business Solutions Group? 7 A. I was employed from October of 2012 until 8 December 31st of 2016. 9 Q. Okay. And then in December of 2016, why 10 did you stop working for Complete Business Solutions 11 Group? 12 A. I started working the following day or 13 month in Full Spectrum Processing in Philadelphia. 14 Q. And why was your employment changed from 15 Complete Business Solutions Group to Full Spectrum 16 Processing? 17 A. There was a restructure in the company per 18 guidance of our tax accountants and starting in 19 2017, Philadelphia operations would operate out of 20 an entity Full Spectrum Processing. So I was then 21 employed into that entity. 22 Q. And beginning in 2017, Full Spectrum was 23 operating Complete Business Solutions Group; is that 24 right? 25 A. That's right. They were providing 8

1 services and processing for Complete Business
 2 Solutions Group.
 3 Q. Okay. What was your title when you worked
 4 at Complete Business Solutions Group during 2016?
 5 A. My title was chief financial officer.
 6 Q. And what was your title at Complete -- I'm
 7 sorry -- at Full Spectrum?
 8 A. It was also chief financial officer.
 9 Q. What were your duties as the chief
 10 financial officer with respect to Complete Business
 11 Solutions Group?
 12 A. My duties for Complete Business Solutions
 13 Group included management of their accounting
 14 departments, payroll, human resources for the 15 service staff providing services to Complete
 16 Business Solutions Group, and also discussions of 17 company financials and taxation information with 18 third parties.
 19 Q. Who did you report to when you were an 20 employee of Complete Business Solutions Group?
 21 A. I reported to Lisa McElhone.
 22 Q. Did you report to anyone other than 23 Ms. McElhone?
 24 A. No.
 25 Q. And what about when you were at Full

9

1 Spectrum, who did you report to when you were at
 2 Full Spectrum?
 3 A. I only reported to Lisa.
 4 Q. Did you ever report to Joseph LaForte?
 5 A. No.
 6 Q. Between 2012 and 2016, how often were you
 7 communicating with Lisa McElhone?
 8 A. I would communicate with Lisa every
 9 business day.
 10 Q. And through what means?
 11 A. I would send her regular financial
 12 reporting and also phone calls on occasion.
 13 Q. So were you emailing Lisa McElhone?
 14 A. Yes, mostly emails.
 15 Q. What was your email address between 2012
 16 and 2016?
 17 A. It was JoeCole@parfunding.com.
 18 Q. Is that the email address that you used to 19 you communicate with Lisa McElhone from 2012 through 20 2016?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. Did you use any other email address to 23 communicate with her?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. And what was that?

10

1 A. I also had a JoeCole@fastavancefunding.com
 2 email address.
 3 Q. So from 2012 through 2016, which those two
 4 email addresses would you typically be emailing
 5 Ms. McElhone with?
 6 A. Most of my emails went through the Par
 7 Funding email.
 8 Q. During this time period, 2012 through
 9 2016, did you also meet with Ms. McElhone in person
 10 concerning Complete Business Solutions Group?
 11 A. Yes, I did.
 12 Q. How often approximately?
 13 A. It was more often towards the start of my 14 employment and less frequent as time went on.
 15 Q. So at the beginning of your employment
 16 approximately -- like approximately how often?
 17 A. A few times a week at least.
 18 Q. Okay. And when did it change?
 19 A. As the company grew bigger, we had more
 20 employees and fewer communications between myself
 21 and Lisa.
 22 Q. So approximately what year would it have 23 been that you stopped meeting with her about three 24 times a week in person?
 25 A. I'd say around 2017.

1 Q. While you were at Full Spectrum, how often
 2 or would you -- I'm sorry. When you were at Full
 3 Spectrum, would you meet with Ms. McElhone in 4 person?
 5 A. At that time when I started working at 6 Full Spectrum, it was reduced to a few times a
 7 month.
 8 Q. And what was the reason for that change?
 9 A. We had more people and handling a lot of 10 the day-to-day functionalities. So it's fewer 11 people and fewer hats being worn by the same people.
 12 And that also includes myself and Lisa. So it's 13 less hands-on working in the business and more
 14 managing the business and managers that we hired to 15 run the business.
 16 MR. SOTO: This is Mr. Soto. I'm going to 17 object to the form of the last question and just ask
 18 Ms. Berlin if she can specify the reason for the 19 meetings. In other words, when you're asking how 20 often they met, are you referring to meetings with 21 respect to a particular entity or at all?
 22 BY MS. BERLIN:
 23 Q. The meetings that you just described
 24 having with Ms. McElhone, were those with respect to 25 Complete Business Solutions Group or with respect to 12

1 other entities?
2 A. Both. It was Complete Business Solutions
3 Group as well as other entities that Full Spectrum
4 Processing provided services to.
5 Q. Okay. It is my understanding you would
6 meet about once a month with her during the time
7 that you were at Full Spectrum to discuss Complete
8 Business Solutions Group and other entities. Is 9 that what accurate?
10 A. Some times of the year we're meeting more.
11 Sometimes we're meeting less. It depends if there's 12 issues. You need to clarify what you mean by once a 13 month. It's probably more frequent than that 14 depending on what's going on.
15 Q. Okay. Well, on average during your time
16 when you were working at Full Spectrum -- so that 17 would be 2017, '18, '19, '20 -- on average how often
18 would you meet with Ms. McElhone?
19 A. Couple times, few times a month. Maybe
20 two or four times, something like that. Again, it's 21 less frequent as time went on. So it was more so
22 towards 2017 and less frequently in '19 and '20.
23 Q. Where did Ms. McElhone have an office?
24 A. Ms. McElhone had an office in Florida at 25 the CBSG offices.

13

1 Q. So was she working out of the Florida
2 office on a daily basis?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Where was she working --
5 MS. SCHEIN: Amie, objection. Could you
6 set forth a timeframe?
7 MS. BERLIN: Sure.
8 BY MS. BERLIN:
9 Q. Mr. Cole, you can just explain. If I ask
10 you a question and in order to make it true, you
11 need to like add some detail, you can do that.
12 So during the time period that you worked
13 at Complete Business Solutions Group, where did
14 Ms. McElhone do her work for Complete Business
15 Solutions Group? Was she in the same office as you,
16 or was she working from elsewhere?
17 A. I'm sorry. You're saying from what time
18 period?
19 Q. Sure. And you can break it down. So
20 let's say 2012, where was she working?
21 A. 2012 she was working at the same office as 22 I was on Cherry Street.
23 Q. Was she working in the Complete Business
24 Solutions Group office?
25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And was Joseph LaForte -- did he
2 also have an office in the Complete Business
3 Solutions Group space?
4 A. Yes.
5 MR. SOTO: Objection. Form.
6 BY MS. BERLIN:
7 Q. What about 2013, was Ms. McElhone working
8 out of the Complete Business Solutions Group office?
9 A. I don't recall when we moved offices. We 10 had a place from Cherry Street to Liberty One on 11 Market Street in Philadelphia.
12 But to answer your question, she wasn't
13 always working in the office. She would often work
14 either from home or on the road depending on what 15 she was doing.
16 Q. Okay. And what about Joseph LaForte, was 17 he working out of the Complete Business Solutions
18 Group office in 2013?
19 A. Yes.
20 MR. SOTO: Objection. Form.
21 THE WITNESS: Yes, he was.
22 BY MS. BERLIN:
23 Q. Okay. So am I understanding correctly, in 24 2013 Ms. McElhone had -- did she have an office at 25 Complete Business Solutions Group, but she sometimes

1 worked outside of the office?
2 A. She had a space. It wasn't just her own
3 office. There's a lot of shared space in our floor
4 plan.
5 Q. What about 2014, did Ms. McElhone work out
6 of the Complete Business Solutions Group office?
7 A. I'm sorry?
8 MR. SOTO: This is Alex Soto. I'm sorry.
9 The sound is muffled. We couldn't quite hear you,
10 that last question.
11 MS. BERLIN: Thanks.
12 BY MS. BERLIN:
13 Q. What about the following year? We'll just 14 go year by year. In 2014 did Ms. McElhone have an 15 office in the Complete Business Solutions Group
16 office space?
17 A. She didn't have her own office though she
18 did have a desk available in the office.
19 Q. Okay. And did she sometimes work from 20 that desk?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Okay. And sometimes would she work for 23 Complete Business Solutions Group but outside of the 24 office?
25 A. Yes.

16

1 Q. Okay. And what about Joseph LaForte, did
 2 he have an office? Did he work in the Complete
 3 Business Solutions Group office?
 4 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 5 THE WITNESS: He never had his own office.
 6 I'm trying to illustrate that this was a lot of 7 shared desk space with other employees. So by
 8 office, I'm saying that he didn't have his own
 9 specific room. We're saying that there's a desk
 10 available for them to work.
 11 BY MS. BERLIN:
 12 Q. Okay. In 2014, was Mr. LaForte working in 13 that office space for Complete Business Solutions
 14 Group?
 15 A. He didn't work for Complete Business
 16 Solutions Group. He worked for Recruiting and 17 Marketing Resources, which was using the same office
 18 space.
 19 Q. Okay. And did the situation where 20 Ms. McElhone has a desk and work space at the 21 office, but she is sometimes working for Complete
 22 Business Solutions Group remotely, did that continue
 23 through 2016?
 24 A. Yes, it did.
 25 Q. Okay. And did Mr. LaForte's situation as 17

1 you've described it for 2012 through 2014, did that
 2 continue on through 2016?
 3 A. Yes, it did.
 4 Q. Okay. And for Ms. McElhone, did she
 5 continue having a place to work and working for 6 Complete Business Solutions Group sometimes in the 7 office and sometimes remotely through June 2020?
 8 A. Through June 2020? In 2020 she already 9 had the office in Florida. But she would work on 10 occasion in the offices in Philadelphia, Full
 11 Spectrum offices.
 12 Q. Okay. And was Mr. LaForte, still through 13 June 2020, was his office or his workspace still in 14 the Complete Business Solutions Group -- I'm 15 sorry -- in Full Spectrum workspace where you
 16 worked?
 17 A. In the Full Spectrum workspace he had a
 18 desk along with the Recruiting and Marketing
 19 Resources deskspace in the same building.
 20 Q. What was Ms. McElhone's title when you
 21 first began working at Complete Business Solutions
 22 Group in 2012?
 23 A. Ms. McElhone's title was president.
 24 Q. Did her title ever change?
 25 A. No, not to my understanding.

18

1 Q. Okay. So from 2012 through 2020, her
 2 title was president?
 3 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 4 THE WITNESS: Yes, I believe so.
 5 BY MS. BERLIN:
 6 Q. Okay. And of what company?
 7 A. You're referring to Complete Business
 8 Solutions Group; right?
 9 Q. I'm just asking. You said her title was 10 president. So I'm asking of what company?
 11 A. It's Complete Business Solutions Group.
 12 Q. Okay. And was she running the day-to-day
 13 operations of Complete Business Solutions Group
 14 during the entirety of your work, so from 2012
 15 through 2020?
 16 A. No. In 2012 to 2016 operations were ran
 17 by Lisa and other employees and myself in the 18 company. From 2017 onward, we had Full Spectrum
 19 Processing running the day-to-day operations in 20 conjunction with sales entities that we worked with.
 21 If you're referring to corporate affairs,
 22 Lisa has always handled that, which means executive
 23 management of the business.
 24 Q. So from 2012 through 2016, who in addition
 25 to Lisa McElhone was managing Complete Business

19

1 Solutions Group?
 2 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 3 THE WITNESS: It depends on the year and
 4 what you mean by "managing." Are you talking about
 5 the departments?
 6 BY MS. BERLIN:
 7 Q. Yeah. We can break it down by year.
 8 Actually, let's back up for a moment.
 9 How did it come about that you began
 10 working at Complete Business Solutions Group?
 11 A. I was looking for work in Philadelphia,
 12 and I found this opportunity through an
 13 advertisement online. Lisa was hiring an accountant
 14 or a director of finance to run the accounting for 15 her businesses.
 16 Q. Did you interview before getting the job?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. Who did you interview with?
 19 A. I interviewed with Joe LaForte.
 20 Q. Did you interview with Lisa McElhone?
 21 A. No, I did not.
 22 Q. Did you meet Lisa McElhone before you were 23 hired?
 24 A. Yes, I did.
 25 Q. And so in addition to Joseph LaForte, did

20

1 anyone else interview you?
2 A. Not that I can recall.
3 Q. Who made you the offer of employment?
4 A. I believe the offer was discussed during
5 the interview with Joe LaForte.
6 Q. What was your salary when you first began
7 working at Complete Business Solutions Group?
8 A. I believe then it was $46,000 per annum.
9 Q. Was there any other compensation other
10 than the $46,000 salary when you were hired in 2012?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Did your salary amount change during the 13 time you were employed by Complete Business
14 Solutions Group from 2012 through 2016?
15 A. Yes, it did.
16 Q. And how so?
17 A. It increased over time.
18 Q. Can you tell me the amount of salary that 19 you made each year that you were employed by
20 Complete Business Solutions Group?
21 A. I believe I made the starting salary I had
22 until approximately 2015. It went up to 60 -- I
23 forget the specific number -- 60-some-odd thousand.
24 And then into '17 I was making 94,000 per year.
25 Q. And why was there an increase?

1 A. I'd like to think I was doing a good job
2 and the company was doing well in the capacities I
3 was responsible for.
4 Q. Did your salary remain the same during the
5 entire time you were employed by Full Spectrum?
6 A. Yes. My salary since 2017 has been
7 $94,000 per year.
8 Q. Did you receive any other -- during the 9 time that you worked at Complete Business Solutions
10 Group from 2012 through 2016, did you receive any 11 compensation other than your salary?
12 A. Yes. I was also paid a Christmas bonus at 13 the end of the year.
14 Q. Okay. And approximately how much was that 15 each year?
16 A. I don't recall the precise amount. It was 17 something around 5 to 10 percent of my salary.
18 Q. Okay. From 2012 through 2016, did you
19 receive any other compensation in connection with
20 Complete Business Solutions Group?
21 A. Yes, I did.
22 Q. Okay. And what was?
23 A. I had an apartment that the company paid
24 for for I believe it was two years.
25 Q. Okay. Anything else?

22

1 A. That's it. They brought pizza in on
2 Fridays. I don't think that counts as compensation
3 though.
4 Q. Okay. Did you receive compensation in
5 connection with Complete Business Solutions Group
6 from 2012 through 2016 in any manner other than that 7 which you've already testified to?
8 A. 2016, no, I don't believe so.
9 Q. Okay. Now, when your employment switched
10 to Full Spectrum, did you receive any compensation
11 other than your salary with respect to work done for
12 Complete Business Solutions Group?
13 MS. SCHEIN: Objection, Amie. Could you
14 set forth the timeframe?
15 MS. BERLIN: Sure.
16 BY MS. BERLIN:
17 Q. So from 2017 through 2020, during your 18 employment with Full Spectrum, did you receive any 19 compensation other than your salary for work that 20 you did in connection with Complete Business
21 Solutions Group?
22 A. I'm sorry. You're saying through the end
23 of '17?
24 Q. From 2017 through 2020, you were employed
25 by Full Spectrum; right?

1 A. That's right.
2 Q. And while you were employed at Full
3 Spectrum, you were doing work in connection with
4 Complete Business Solutions Group; is that accurate?
5 A. Yes.
6 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
7 BY MS. BERLIN:
8 Q. I'm sorry. I didn't catch your answer.
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Okay. So during that period, from 2017
11 through 2020, did you receive any compensation other
12 than your Full Spectrum salary for the work that you
13 did in connection with Complete Business Solutions
14 Group?
15 A. Yes, I did.
16 Q. Okay. So can you tell me what additional 17 compensation you received for each of the years? We 18 can start with 2017.
19 A. You're asking for the amount paid each
20 year?
21 Q. Well, you can tell me like the source, I
22 received a bonus and it was approximately X amount,
23 or if you want to take it piece by piece, I can ask
24 the questions. It's entirely up to you.
25 So in 2017, what additional compensation

24

1 did you receive in connection with the work you did
 2 for Complete Business Solutions Group?
 3 A. If you can take it year by year, I think
 4 that would be easier. So in 2017, I had a
 5 consulting agreement with my consulting entity Beta
 6 Abigail, which was receiving quarterly payments from 7 profit of Complete Business Solutions. And this 8 came in usually in the first week after the end of 9 the quarter.
 10 Q. When did you begin the Beta Abigail
 11 company?
 12 A. I believe this was in 2017.
 13 Q. Okay. And why did you form it?
 14 A. I agreed to a consulting agreement with 15 Lisa and for tax reasons would take it through an 16 entity, per advice of our tax accountants. And I
 17 would receive the compensation there.
 18 Q. Who did you negotiate the consulting 19 agreement with?
 20 A. I don't recall.
 21 Q. Did you conduct any negotiations with 22 Joseph LaForte for that consulting agreement?
 23 A. Not that I can recall.
 24 Q. Okay. And what about Lisa McElhone, did
 25 you negotiate with her in connection with the

1 consulting agreement?
 2 A. I don't recall negotiating.
 3 Q. Okay. But am I understanding correctly
 4 Lisa McElhone was the person who asked you to enter
 5 into the consulting agreement?
 6 A. Yeah. She signed the consulting agreement
 7 I have with her.
 8 Q. Okay. And who asked you to enter into 9 this sort of consulting agreement structure where 10 you would get paid through Beta Abigail?
 11 A. I don't recall.
 12 Q. So how much did you receive approximately 13 through Beta Abigail for your work in connection
 14 with Complete Business Solutions Group in 2017?
 15 A. In 2017, I believe I received
 16 approximately $1-1/2 million.
 17 Q. Did you receive any other compensation in 18 2017 in connection with Complete Business Solutions
 19 Group?
 20 A. Well, I still had that 94,000 a year
 21 salary from Full Spectrum which provided services to 22 CBSG.
 23 Q. Okay. Other than your salary and the 24 consulting fee that you testified about, did you
 25 receive any other compensation in connection with

26

1 Complete Business Solutions Group in 2017?
 2 A. I still had that apartment.
 3 Q. Where was the apartment located?
 4 A. The apartment was located in Philadelphia.
 5 Q. Do you remember the address?
 6 A. I don't remember the address, but it was
 7 on Chestnut and Ninth.
 8 Q. During what years did you have this 9 apartment that Complete Business Solutions Group was 10 paying for?
 11 A. I believe that was from '14 through '17,
 12 for three years.
 13 Q. Okay. So in 2017, did you receive any 14 compensation in connection with Complete Business
 15 Solutions Group other than the apartment, the 16 consulting through Beta Abigail, and the salary?
 17 A. Not that I can recall.
 18 Q. Did your duties change in 2017 with 19 respect Complete Business Solutions Group?
 20 A. I'm not sure what you mean by duties. Can 21 you elaborate on that?
 22 Q. Sure. So did your job duties change in 23 2017?
 24 A. I still don't know what you mean by 25 duties. Are you talking about on a day-to-day basis

27

1 or the departments?
 2 Q. Did what you did as your job, did your
 3 work change in any way in 2017?
 4 A. Yes. It changed.
 5 Q. Okay. And how so?
 6 A. It became more focused on managing the 7 managers and supervisors of the business and doing
 8 less of the work hands-on myself.
 9 Q. Okay. So you took a greater management
 10 role in 2017; is that accurate?
 11 A. That's right.
 12 Q. Okay. And did your job change in any 13 other way in 2017 other than, of course, now your 14 employer was Full Spectrum?
 15 A. Are you talking about in respect to 16 duties?
 17 Q. Well, I think you testified you were 18 confused by what duties meant. So in 2017, other
 19 than your employer officially changing from Complete
 20 Business Solutions Group to Full Spectrum and you
 21 taking on more of a management role than a hands-on 22 direct role with respect to Complete Business
 23 Solutions Group, was there any other change in what
 24 you did for work in connection with Complete
 25 Business Solutions Group in 2017?

28

1 A. I managed the same departments. I'm
2 really still struggling with trying to understand if
3 you're talking about granular day-to-day processes
4 or the scope of the companies that Full Spectrum was 5 providing services to. I can say that that changed
6 as far as the number of work -- or how much work we 7 were doing, yes.

8 Q. Okay. So how did your work change in 9 2017?

10 A. To put it succinctly, there was a lot more
11 of it. We were managing more of Lisa's entities and 12 a lot of -- the procedures, again, we had managers
13 handling. So it was more meetings and interactions
14 with our tax accountants and less about handling the 15 day-to-day, you know, operations like printing out
16 vendor checks, for example.

17 Q. You would agree with me that your income
18 in connection with the work you did for Complete
19 Business Solutions Group changed significantly
20 between 2016 and 2017?

21 A. Yes. My income, yes, it changed
22 substantially from that time period onward.

23 Q. Okay. And why did your income change from 24 2016 where you were making a salary with a small
25 bonus and making less than a hundred thousand

29

1 dollars to making -- or making around a hundred
2 thousand dollars to making more than a million
3 dollars in 2017?

4 A. During that time period, CBSG along with
5 other companies that Full Spectrum provided services
6 to had a large amount of growth, and it
7 commensurated with the new growth the business had 8 and obviously the management of more employees and 9 more clients, the merchants that CBSG would be 10 funding.

11 Q. From 2012 to 2016, were you doing any work
12 for any company other than Complete Business
13 Solutions Group?

14 A. Do you mean under the capacity of Full
15 Spectrum Processing or myself personally?

16 Q. In any way. Like regardless of who your 17 employer was, in 2012 through 2016, were you doing
18 work for any company other than Complete Business
19 Solutions Group?

20 A. Yes, I was.

21 Q. Okay. And what companies were you doing
22 work for during that time period from 2012 through 23 2016?

24 A. I was doing work for Fast Advance Funding,
25 Capital Source 2000, Lacquer Lounge, Metro Physical

30

1 Therapy Group, Recruiting and Marketing Resources,
2 Dog Prep Solutions, and there may have been other
3 entities that Lisa had me do some work for, but I
4 don't recall. Those are the major ones.

5 Q. Okay. From the period 2017 through 2020,
6 when you moved over to Full Spectrum, did you
7 continue doing work for all of the entities you just 8 listed?

9 A. Yes. Under the advice of our tax
10 accountants, Full Spectrum Processing would have 11 operating agreements for those entities. So it was 12 much of a better structure to handle the work and 13 the day-to-day operations for these companies and 14 allowed us to handle things more efficiently.

15 Q. Okay. And so between 2016 and 2017, I
16 guess I'm just trying to understand and maybe you
17 can -- I'm going to ask that you elaborate more on 18 specifically how your work changed.

19 For example, were you doing work for a lot
20 of other companies in addition to the ones you
21 already testified to?

22 A. That's right. It expanded. Full Spectrum
23 Processing had additional clients that it was 24 providing services to, and we had to give obviously 25 consideration in the management and operations of 31

1 those businesses.

2 Q. During the time period that you worked at
3 Complete Business Solutions Group, so up through
4 2016, did Perry Abbonizio work at Complete Business
5 Solutions Group?

6 A. I'm sorry. Which time period?

7 Q. During the time period that you were 8 working for Complete Business Solutions Group, which 9 would be the time period up until you switched to 10 Full Spectrum. So until 2016, did Perry Abbonizio
11 work for Complete Business Solutions Group?

12 A. Yes, but he did so through his company.

13 Q. And what company was that?

14 A. I believe the name of the company was ES
15 Equity.

16 Q. And when did Mr. Abbonizio begin doing
17 work for Complete Business Solutions Group?

18 A. I don't remember the specific date, but I
19 believe it was in 2016.

20 Q. And what was his role with respect to
21 Complete Business Solutions Group?

22 A. His role was to discuss the sale of 23 promissory notes and have third parties lend money
24 to the business.

25 Q. Did you participate in the hiring process

32

1 of Mr. Abbonizio?
 2 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 3 THE WITNESS: Perry was never hired. We
 4 had a consulting agreement with his company.
 5 BY MS. BERLIN:
 6 Q. Did you participate at all in any
 7 discussions about the decision to enter into a
 8 consulting agreement with Mr. Abbonizio's company?
 9 A. Yes, I did.
 10 Q. And who did you participate in those 11 discussions with?
 12 A. I spoke with counsel and Lisa.
 13 Q. What counsel was that?
 14 A. The firm that was preparing the consulting
 15 agreement for Perry was DLA Piper in Philadelphia.
 16 The lawyer I worked with at the firm was Lisa
 17 Jacobs.
 18 Q. Was DLA Piper the attorney for Complete
 19 Business Solutions Group?
 20 A. Yes. She was representing Complete
 21 Business Solutions Group.
 22 Q. Did Joseph LaForte participate in the 23 discussions concerning the consulting agreement with 24 Mr. Abbonizio's firm?
 25 A. Not that I can recall.

33

1 Q. So it was just you, Lisa McElhone and the
 2 attorneys from DLA Piper; is that true?
 3 A. It was just myself, Lisa McElhone and Lisa
 4 Jacobs from DLA Piper. And I believe she also had 5 another lawyer helping out with the contract that
 6 worked on those documents, yes.
 7 Q. Why was Mr. Abbonizio's consulting firm --
 8 I'll just ask why was Mr. Abbonizio -- and when I'm 9 referring to him, I'm referring to him and like his 10 consulting firm. Do you understand?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Mr. Cole?
 13 A. I said "Yes."
 14 Q. Sorry. I couldn't hear. I'm sorry. I
 15 didn't hear.
 16 Why did Complete Business Solutions Group
 17 decide to retain the services of Mr. Abbonizio?
 18 A. We decided to retain Perry and his
 19 services because of connections and prior experience
 20 that he had with parties to potentially lend money
 21 to Complete Business Solutions Group.
 22 Q. Was Mr. Abbonizio -- were his services
 23 retained by Complete Business Solutions Group in 24 order to help Complete Business Solutions Group
 25 offer and sell the promissory notes that Complete

1 Business Solutions Group was issuing?
 2 A. I don't know what you mean by sell. The 3 promissory note reflects a loan agreement between
 4 CBSG and its creditors.
 5 Q. Okay. So Mr. Abbonizio, were his services
 6 retained by Complete Business Solutions Group in
 7 order to help offer those promissory notes to
 8 potential investors?
 9 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 10 THE WITNESS: It was to discuss the
 11 promissory notes.
 12 BY MS. BERLIN:
 13 Q. I'm sorry. I didn't hear.
 14 A. It was to discuss the promissory notes.
 15 And you used the word investors. They're
 16 noteholders and lenders to the business. There's no
 17 interest or equity being purchased with any of these
 18 promissory notes.
 19 Q. Okay. When I refer to investors today,
 20 I'm referring to people who entered into promissory
 21 notes with Complete Business Solutions Group. Do
 22 you understand?
 23 A. I do.
 24 Q. Okay. So were the services of 25 Mr. Abbonizio retained by Complete Business

35

1 Solutions Group in order to help them offer the
 2 promissory notes Complete Business Solutions Group
 3 was issuing?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions
 6 Group -- I'm sorry. During what specific timeframe
 7 again was Mr. Abbonizio retained to do that work by
 8 Complete Business Solutions Group?
 9 A. I don't recall the specific time period,
 10 but he started working in 2016.
 11 Q. When did Complete Business Solutions Group
 12 begin issuing promissory notes?
 13 A. I believe the promissory notes were in 14 place even before when I started with the company.
 15 Q. So why in 2016 did Complete Business
 16 Solutions Group retain someone to help with the 17 offer of the promissory notes?
 18 A. It was to explore the opportunity with 19 additional lenders for the business.
 20 Q. During the time period that you worked at
 21 Complete Business Solutions Group, so from 2012
 22 through 2016, did you participate or did you do any
 23 work at all in connection with the Complete Business
 24 Solutions Group promissory notes?
 25 A. I'm not sure what you mean by that.

36

1 Q. During the time that you worked at
 2 Complete Business Solutions Group, so 2012 to 2016,
 3 did you ever do any work at all concerning the
 4 promissory notes that Complete Business Solutions
 5 Group issued?
 6 A. Yes.
 7 Q. And what did you do?
 8 A. I would email the notes and scan them in 9 and keep track of them. I would also discuss it
 10 with lawyers. And later on, I was ending up being 11 the counter-signer for CBSG as a corporate 12 representative.
 13 Q. When did you start signing the notes?
 14 A. I don't recall. Lisa signed them. I
 15 signed them. I signed -- I think around 2016
 16 onward, it was a mix between myself and Lisa, and I
 17 ended up being the predominant signatory for the 18 company going forward. Maybe '17. I don't recall
 19 specifically.
 20 Q. Okay. And did that continue once your 21 employer changed to Full Spectrum in 2017?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. When you said you would email the notes,
 24 who would you email them to?
 25 A. I would email them to the related parties

37

1 meaning the noteholders. I would also email it to
 2 our office workers to file and print.
 3 Q. During the time period of 2012 through
 4 2016 when you worked at Complete Business Solutions
 5 Group, did you ever participate at all in meetings
 6 or discussions with potential investors of the
 7 promissory notes?
 8 A. I'm not sure what you mean by 9 participated. Do you mean if I was there with them
 10 to discuss the company?
 11 Q. Well, I mean "participate" is pretty
 12 broad. Do you want me to look up the definition of 13 that word for you? It's just a general question.
 14 And then, if you would like -- then I'm going to ask
 15 you specifically -- if you answer yes, you
 16 participated, I'll ask you exactly what you did.
 17 But the question pending is whether you
 18 participated in any meetings or discussions with
 19 potential investors of the Complete Business
 20 Solutions Group promissory notes from 2012 through 21 2016.
 22 A. Sure. Under the broad definition of 23 participated, I participated with the parties
 24 lending money and discussion of these promissory
 25 notes to CBSG.

1 Q. Okay. And can you tell me specifically
 2 what you did?
 3 A. I would typically present company
 4 financial information including key performing
 5 indicator reports, the number of deals, payment
 6 schedules, things like that, related to accounting.
 7 Q. And so you would present that information
 8 to potential investors?
 9 A. Yes. We would share the information and 10 discuss it and talk about it with them.
 11 Q. Okay. And did Lisa McElhone ever
 12 participate in any of those discussions with you and 13 the potential investors of the Complete Business
 14 Solutions Group's promissory notes?
 15 A. Yes, she did.
 16 Q. Who else would attend those -- I don't 17 want to say meetings because I'm not sure. Are 18 these in-person meetings? What type of 19 communication was this typically? In person or 20 electronic?
 21 A. For meetings, it was always in person.
 22 Q. Was that at Complete Business Solutions
 23 Group's office?
 24 A. It depends on the time you're speaking
 25 about.

39

1 Q. Okay. Well, we're talking about the time
 2 period of 2012 through 2016. So did the meetings
 3 that occurred with potential investors, did those
 4 meetings occur at Complete Business Solutions
 5 Group's offices?
 6 A. Yes.
 7 Q. Did they occur anywhere else?
 8 A. Not that I can recall.
 9 Q. Would they also occur by telephone?
 10 A. Not that I can recall.
 11 Q. Okay. Other than you and Ms. McElhone,
 12 did anyone else ever attend these meetings with
 13 potential investors of the Complete Business
 14 Solutions Group's promissory notes during the time
 15 period of 2012 through 2016?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. Who would attend those?
 18 A. Perry Abbonizio and other employees of --
 19 Q. Anyone else?
 20 A. Sorry. And also other employees of CBSG.
 21 Q. Okay. And can you identify who would 22 attend?
 23 A. I don't remember every employee, but there
 24 were generally the managers and personnel
 25 responsible for certain functions of CBSG and the 40

1 sales entity Armar.
 2 Q. Would Joseph LaForte attend those
 3 meetings?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. So you, Lisa McElhone, Perry Abbonizio and
 6 Joseph LaForte would meet with potential investors
 7 at Complete Business Solutions Group's offices
 8 during the time period of 2012 through 2016; is that
 9 accurate?
 10 A. Not for every meeting, but it was a mix of 11 different employees. And it's not just limited to 12 that, but we had other managers of the business.
 13 Q. Okay. I understand. But during the time
 14 period of 2012 to 2016, is it accurate to say there
 15 were occasions where you, Perry Abbonizio, Joseph 16 LaForte, Lisa McElhone would meet together with
 17 potential investors of Complete Business Solutions
 18 Group's promissory notes?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 21 BY MS. BERLIN:
 22 Q. Approximately how many of those meetings
 23 did you attend between 2012 and 2016?
 24 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 25 THE WITNESS: I don't recall how many

41

1 meetings. They were very infrequent though.
 2 BY MS. BERLIN:
 3 Q. During the meetings that Lisa McElhone
 4 attended with the potential investors during the 5 time period of 2012 through 2016, generally, what
 6 would she discuss with the potential investors?
 7 A. She would discuss the background of the 8 business, how she got started, the current 9 operations, the people that would be working in the 10 business and her projected course for the business,
 11 where we're going, the kind of business we're in,
 12 and obviously the aspirations of the business to 13 grow and to prosper.
 14 Q. Would Ms. McElhone convey to the potential
 15 investors that the company was going to be 16 successful and that she would be able to make 17 payments on the promissory notes?
 18 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 19 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Are you asking
 20 if she's saying that the company can afford to pay
 21 the payments on the promissory notes?
 22 BY MS. BERLIN:
 23 Q. Yeah. During these meetings, I'm not 24 asking if she used these verbatim words, but did she 25 convey to potential investors that the company would

42

1 be able to make the payments under the promissory
 2 notes?
 3 A. Yes. The understanding is that the 4 company would be paying the promissory notes per the 5 terms as described on them.
 6 Q. Did Ms. McElhone -- did she tell potential
 7 investors that the company was anticipated to be 8 successful or profitable so that she could make the 9 payments?
 10 A. We had an optimistic outlook of the 11 business, yes. I believe that was what was 12 conveyed.
 13 Q. Okay. And so during these meetings,
 14 generally what was Mr. Abbonizio's role? And this 15 is during the time period 2012 through 2016.
 16 A. Mr. Abbonizio --
 17 Q. I apologize. Hold on just a moment.
 18 Mr. Abbonizio began with the company in 2016. So I
 19 guess during the period in 2016, what was 20 Mr. Abbonizio's role in these meetings with 21 potential investors?
 22 A. He would introduce the company to -- and 23 you'll call them investors. I'll call them
 24 noteholders. But he would introduce the company to 25 these noteholders to look at the business and the

1 people running it.
 2 Q. And what do you mean the people running
 3 it? What information would he provide about that to 4 the potential investors in 2016?
 5 A. He would introduce them, I mean physically
 6 go into the office, meet with certain -- you know,
 7 like what we were just describing, sitting down with 8 certain folks that were running the business, have
 9 them answer questions about how the business
 10 operated, getting a really comfortable understanding 11 of what it was doing and how it was making its 12 money.
 13 Q. So who was running the company in 2016?
 14 A. In 2016 the company was run by numerous
 15 managers including myself.
 16 Q. And who else?
 17 A. Are you talking about the specific
 18 managers for each department?
 19 Q. I'm asking who was running CBSG in 2016.
 20 A. I was asking if you wanted me to get
 21 granular and talk about specific managers, or do you
 22 mean from an executive level? I'm not sure.
 23 Q. It's up to you in how to answer it. Only
 24 you know the answer. You testified that 25 Mr. Abbonizio would introduce the potential

44

1 noteholders to the people running Complete Business
 2 Solutions Group.
 3 And so I'm asking: In 2016, who were the
 4 individuals who were running Complete Business
 5 Solutions Group?
 6 A. So that I'm answering your question as
 7 accurately as possible, you're saying by running,
 8 these are the guys basically doing the daily pass in 9 the operations of the business, right? And I would
 10 assume you mean managers of the business.
 11 Q. I don't necessarily mean managers of the 12 business or that they have a specific title or 13 anything else.
 14 I'm asking as a practical matter in 2016,
 15 please identify the names of the individuals who 16 were running Complete Business Solutions Group.
 17 A. Sure. Myself, Lisa McElhone, Jamie
 18 McElhone, Susan Grazer, Kenneth Calcagnini. I'm
 19 struggling to remember some of the other managers'
 20 names. But those are some of the major players.
 21 Q. Anyone else?
 22 A. No, not that I can remember.
 23 Q. At any time between 2012 and 2020 that you
 24 were doing work in connection with Complete Business
 25 Solutions Group, did Joseph LaForte run -- was he

45

1 one of the people who was making decisions for
 2 Complete Business Solutions Group?
 3 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 4 THE WITNESS: In 2017 Full Spectrum
 5 Processing would do the operational duties for CBSG.
 6 So the personnel of that company would be the ones
 7 effectively running the business.
 8 Are you saying the people that were
 9 running the business from a day to day, or are you
 10 referring to executive management and directors of 11 the business?
 12 BY MS. BERLIN:
 13 Q. In any way. It would be up to you to 14 decide how to answer the question. Only you know
 15 how to answer these questions honestly and know the 16 facts that I'm asking about.
 17 My question is: At any time from 2012
 18 through 2020, did Joseph LaForte have any role in 19 running any operations in connection with Complete
 20 Business Solutions Group?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 23 THE WITNESS: Did you hear what I said?
 24 BY MS. BERLIN:
 25 Q. No, I didn't.

46

1 A. I said, "Yes."
 2 Q. Okay. And can you tell me about that?
 3 Can you elaborate please?
 4 A. Sure. As I mentioned, near the beginning
 5 of the business we had fewer employees wearing a lot
 6 of hats. So myself, Lisa, Jamie, her sister, we'd 7 be handling a lot more than we did later down the
 8 road with Full Spectrum and especially towards 2020
 9 when we had a lot more employees at Full Spectrum
 10 running several different departments.
 11 So Joe had some managerial
 12 responsibilities towards the beginning. This 13 included interviewing me and hiring me and other 14 staff. I believe Lisa put a lot of trust in his 15 ability to be a good judge of character. But this 16 wasn't his primary responsibility. This is 17 something that he helped out with.
 18 He primarily worked out of Recruiting and 19 Marketing Resources to generate deals for CBSG to 20 fund. And as time went on, you know, those roles
 21 became more diminished. His responsibility
 22 specifically really focused on the sales and 23 communication with the underwriting departments and 24 credit committee to help determine the worthiness of 25 these MCA deals that CBSG would end up funding

47

1 through the efforts of the folks at Full Spectrum
 2 Processing.
 3 Q. Did you ever report to Joseph LaForte?
 4 A. What do you mean by report?
 5 Q. In connection with any work you did with
 6 Complete Business Solutions Group or in connection
 7 with Complete Business Solutions Group between 2012
 8 and 2020, did you ever report to Joseph LaForte?
 9 A. Did I ever --
 10 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 11 THE WITNESS: -- send information or 12 reports or did you mean did I answer to him for any 13 sort of authority? I'm not sure what you mean by 14 the word "report."
 15 BY MS. BERLIN:
 16 Q. Sure. So did you ever check with Joseph
 17 LaForte before engaging in any work?
 18 MS. SCHEIN: Objection. It's a vague
 19 question.
 20 BY MS. BERLIN:
 21 Q. I'm going to stick with my original
 22 question, Mr. Cole. I think you know what the word
 23 "report" means.
 24 Did you ever report to Joseph LaForte?
 25 And if you need me to, I can look up the definition

48

1 of that word for you and explain to you what report
2 means on the record. But I think that you know or 3 you should know what the word "report" means. But 4 if you don't, let me know, and I will pull up the 5 definition of the word for you.

6 MR. SOTO: This is Mr. Soto. Standing
7 objection on this question.

8 THE WITNESS: Oh, certainly I know what
9 the word report means. I just want to answer this 10 as truthfully and as accurately in the manner that 11 you're describing it. I don't want it to get 12 misconstrued.

13 By report if you mean did I have to get 14 his approval on anything or make decisions based on 15 approvals, absolutely not. I would report some of 16 the numbers and issues going on with the business.

17 I would copy Lisa on daily cash reports, for 18 example, and copy Joe so the sales group and 19 underwriting team knew what sort of dollars we were 20 working with in the bank, for example.

21 So if you're speaking about report in 22 terms of authority, he had no legal authority or 23 functional authority over my departments or my 24 person. That was only Lisa.

25 But if you mean report in the sense that I

1 Q. Did Lisa McElhone use an email in her
2 correspondence with you that included the name of
3 Joseph LaForte or Joe or Joe LaForte as the email
4 address?

5 A. Not that I can remember.

6 Q. Did Joseph LaForte oversee the 7 underwriting group that did work in connection with
8 Complete Business Solutions Group at any time?

9 A. What do you mean by oversee?

10 Q. Well, why don't I do this. Why don't you
11 tell me what work did Mr. -- what was Mr. LaForte's
12 role -- you testified earlier that he did work in 13 connection with the underwriting group and other
14 groups at Complete Business Solutions Group.

15 Please elaborate and tell me what
16 Mr. LaForte's role was with respect to the 17 underwriting group.

18 MS. SCHEIN: Could we have a timeframe?
19 BY MS. BERLIN:

20 Q. I'm asking generally. And then you can
21 either provide the timeline if it changed over time,
22 or I can ask you in a follow-up. I'm asking what
23 his role was period during the entire time period.
24 We're not going to go month by month.

25 Mr. Barleta, you can provide the time

1 copied him on discussions in the business or
2 information regarding the financials, I certainly 3 sent him information, yes.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

5 Q. Did you ever take direction from Joseph
6 LaForte in connection with the work you did for
7 Complete Business Solutions Group?

8 A. Not that I can remember.

9 Q. When you would email Lisa McElhone, what
10 email address did you use for her?

11 A. Lisa had a few email addresses. I don't
12 recall which ones I emailed all the time, but there
13 was as Par one and a Gmail one as well.

14 Q. Did her email addresses include her name,
15 or were they email addresses that looked like they 16 were Joseph LaForte's, meaning it would be like 17 JosephLaForte@CompleteBusinessSolutionsGroup, or was 18 it clear that you were emailing Lisa McElhone from 19 the email address?

20 A. Are you saying if I had any ambiguity to 21 whom I was sending emails to?

22 Q. Yes.

23 A. No. I believe I knew who I was emailing
24 whenever I sent those emails in regards to Lisa or 25 anyone else.

1 periods if they changed. But the question pending
2 is: Please explain to me what Mr. LaForte's role
3 was in connection with the underwriting that was
4 done with respect to Complete Business Solutions
5 Group.

6 A. Sure. Starting from the beginning, as I
7 mentioned, we had fewer employees wearing many hats.
8 Joe worked in the sales capacity with his company
9 Recruiting and Marketing Resources to provide leads
10 and deals that CBSG would fund as part of its MCA
11 factoring agreement.

12 In connection with providing those deals,
13 he would also communicate with underwriting and, as 14 a part of the credit committee, review the 15 worthiness of those files and determine whether or 16 not CBSG should fund those merchants. He had some 17 limited -- I'm sorry?

18 Q. I apologize. I didn't mean to interrupt
19 you.

20 A. Okay. I'll keep going. He had some 21 limited managerial capabilities including the 22 interviews and some of the communications in the 23 office. This diminished over time.

24 And going into Full Spectrum in 2017, he
25 spent the majority of his time working in the sales

1 department with Recruiting and Marketing Resources
 2 forwarding over deals, spending time talking to
 3 merchants, conveying terms of these factoring
 4 agreements, and negotiating on behalf of CBSG
 5 through his function as an ISO, which is an
 6 independent sales organization.
 7 And he would still continue to communicate
 8 with the credit committee to determine the 9 worthiness of these fundings and communicate that to 10 personnel related to that function. And this became 11 heavily concentrated in terms of his work
 12 responsibilities at the end of 2019 and into 2020.
 13 I would assume he's using most of his day doing
 14 this.
 15 MS. SCHEIN: Amie?
 16 MS. BERLIN: Yes.
 17 MS. SCHEIN: Can we take a break, say five
 18 minutes or less?
 19 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, of course.
 20 MS. SCHEIN: Okay.
 21 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, of course. Any time
 22 anyone needs a break, just let me know. Why don't 23 we come back on in about five minutes.
 24 MS. SCHEIN: Thanks.
 25 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Let's go off the 53

1 or not a factoring agreement should be funded for
 2 any of these merchants.
 3 Q. When did the use of credit committees
 4 commence in connection with Complete Business
 5 Solutions Group?
 6 A. The credit committee was there before I
 7 started employment. Lisa was already looking and 8 obviously making decisions to whether or not fund
 9 these factoring agreements.
 10 Q. Was Lisa McElhone ever on the credit
 11 committee?
 12 A. She started it. It's her committee.
 13 Q. So she was on the credit committee?
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. Okay. And during what years was Lisa
 16 McElhone on the credit committee?
 17 A. To my understanding, she was on the credit
 18 committee for the first few years, maybe until 2015
 19 or '16. We had additional underwriters that were 20 promoted and managers that would assist with that 21 decision-making process.
 22 Q. Who was on the credit committee between
 23 2015 and 2020?
 24 A. There was a lot of people on the credit
 25 committee. Members included Susan Grazer, Victoria

1 record.
 2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're going off the
 3 record at 11:42 a.m.
 4 (Recess from 11:42 a.m. to 11:52 a.m.)
 5 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: And we're back on the
 6 record at 11:52 a.m.
 7 BY MS. BERLIN:
 8 Q. Mr. Cole, when you testified about
 9 Mr. LaForte and you mentioned sales, were those 10 sales of merchant cash advance loans?
 11 A. The merchant cash advance -- the merchant
 12 cash advance that CBSG provides are not loans. They 13 are factoring agreements. And, yes, I'm talking
 14 about as an ISO, an independent sales organization.
 15 ISOs that CBSG works with all have the 16 task of providing merchants interested in working
 17 with the company to do these merchant cash advance
 18 factoring agreements for receiving operating capital
 19 to the respective businesses.
 20 Q. You testified about the credit committee.
 21 What was the credit committee in connection with
 22 Complete Business Solutions Group?
 23 A. So the credit committee that Lisa started
 24 consists of senior underwriters and people taking a
 25 look at the deal one last time to determine whether

54

1 Villarose, Alek Shlepin, Frank Scarpati. I believe
 2 Wendy Furman was also part of it or she participated
 3 in some of these discussions along with Joe LaForte.
 4 Q. Were you ever on the credit committee?
 5 A. I was never on the credit committee, no.
 6 Q. During what years was Mr. LaForte on the 7 credit committee?
 8 A. Joe was more active in the credit
 9 committee towards the beginning. There has always
 10 been some sort of communication with the sales arm
 11 through Armar regarding the deals, especially the 12 ones that they would provide to CBSG. So he's 13 always had input with the credit committee and,
 14 again, more so in the beginning and less so towards 15 2020.
 16 Q. Was he on the credit committee in 2015?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. In 2016?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. In 2017?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. In 2018?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. In 2019?
 25 A. Yes.

56

1 Q. In 2020?
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. When was the last year that Lisa McElhone
 4 was on the credit committee?
 5 A. I don't know if there was ever a last
 6 year. Lisa always has corporate oversight and can 7 participate if she wanted to, especially with 8 discussions with her sister Jamie, who is right by 9 the credit committee. So I think she always had a
 10 level of input with regards to the deals funded.
 11 Q. Did Lisa McElhone have decision-making
 12 authority on behalf of Complete Business Solutions
 13 Group during the entirety of your work in connection
 14 with CBSG, so, in other words, from 2012 through 15 2020?
 16 A. Yes, she did.
 17 Q. Did she share that decision-making
 18 authority with anyone else at any time?
 19 A. Not that I know of.
 20 Q. We talked earlier about the meetings with 21 potential investors or noteholders through 2016.
 22 Did you also participate in meetings with potential
 23 investors/potential noteholders between the time
 24 period 2017 through 2020?
 25 A. Yes.

57

1 Q. During that time period of 2017 through
 2 2020, did the meetings occur the same way you
 3 testified about them for the period 2012 through 4 2016?
 5 A. You mean how I was involved with these
 6 meetings?
 7 Q. Yeah, that you were involved in and what
 8 your role was in those meetings and what Lisa
 9 McElhone would do in those meetings.
 10 A. Yes. My involvement was the same. I
 11 would provide information, typically the financial 12 information and some of the operations of the 13 business, especially with regards to the change in 14 2017 when Full Spectrum Processing took over
 15 handling the day-to-day operations of CBSG.
 16 Q. Did Lisa McElhone continue to attend some 17 of the meetings with potential investors during the 18 2017 to 2020 time period?
 19 A. I believe she did.
 20 Q. And when she attended those meetings
 21 during the 2017 through 2020 timeframe, would she 22 discuss the same things you testified she would
 23 discuss during the earlier time period?
 24 A. That's right, the same things.
 25 Q. With respect to Full Spectrum during the 58

1 time period 2017 through 2020, who ran the
 2 day-to-day operations?
 3 A. Who ran the day-to-day operations of CBSG?
 4 Q. Who ran the day-to-day operations of Full
 5 Spectrum during the time period of 2017 through 6 2020?
 7 A. We had several managers of the business.
 8 Lisa and I have always been the sort of figureheads
 9 of the business, but we had several departments run
 10 by numerous managers. For example, I mentioned
 11 before Tori was in charge of the underwriting. I
 12 believe I discussed that.
 13 We also had Jim Klenk and Aida Lau who
 14 worked as supervisors and managers of the accounting
 15 department. We had Kevin Young who was in charge of 16 IT. Anthony Fazio was in charge of collections.
 17 Wendy Furman was in charge of processing. There
 18 were a couple of different lawyers in the business
 19 acting as general counsel in charge of the legal
 20 department.
 21 We also had personnel that worked in the 22 HR department. I had a couple of different HR
 23 managers handling that. So those were the folks
 24 that were in charge of the day-to-day operations
 25 (indecipherable).

59

1 COURT REPORTER: It's really garbled.
 2 MR. SOTO: Just a suggestion. I think
 3 Alan Futerfas' microphone is on. I'm assuming you
 4 guys are in the same room. If Alan could mute, that 5 might help.
 6 THE WITNESS: Okay. Did you guys want me
 7 to talk about that again?
 8 BY MS. BERLIN:
 9 Q. Yes. We couldn't make out what you were
 10 saying.
 11 A. Sorry. Let me get into that. So just 12 walking through the departments that were being run
 13 at Full Spectrum Processing for the benefit of CBSG,
 14 individuals included Jim Klenk and Aida Lau who 15 handled supervision for the accounting and payroll
 16 departments. Kevin Young handled IT. We had 17 various lawyers working in the legal department
 18 acting as general counsel.
 19 We had Anthony Fazio in charge of 20 collections, Wendy Furman in charge of the 21 processing department. We also had Davin Kane who 22 was in charge of the HR department at the end of --
 23 in 2020. There were other HR guys in there before.
 24 And obviously we have Perry Abbonizio who's in 25 charge of talking to these noteholders and third

60

1 parties lending money to CBSG.
 2 Q. Who had ultimate decision-making authority
 3 for Full Spectrum during the period 2017 through 4 2020?
 5 A. Lisa. Lisa is the owner of the business.
 6 Q. During the time period of 2017 through
 7 2020, did Joseph LaForte attend any of the meetings
 8 with potential investors in the Complete Business
 9 Solutions Group notes?
 10 A. Did he attend the meetings that we had 11 with the noteholders? Yes, on occasion he did.
 12 Q. Okay. What was his role during those 13 meetings?
 14 A. It was the same as the prior period that 15 you were describing. It was to provide information
 16 about the business typically from his end, which is,
 17 again, with the sales end that he manages and the 18 origination of deals. He may get into some of the 19 aspects of the underwriting process as far as what 20 the underwriters were looking for from the deals
 21 that he would forward over.
 22 Q. During meetings with potential investors
 23 of the Complete Business Solutions Group promissory
 24 notes, what names did Joseph LaForte use?
 25 A. The meetings with the noteholders? I

61

1 believe he used his proper name, Joseph LaForte.
 2 Q. Did he ever use the name Joe Mack or
 3 Joseph Mack in the meetings with potential
 4 noteholders?
 5 A. Not that I can recall.
 6 Q. Did you know Joseph LaForte to use names
 7 other than Joseph LaForte?
 8 A. Yes, I did.
 9 Q. What names did you know him to use?
 10 A. I believe he used the name Joe Mack.
 11 Q. Any other names?
 12 A. Not that I can remember.
 13 Q. Are you aware of him using the name Joe 14 Macki?
 15 A. I think that was -- I'm remembering it was 16 like the same name. But, yeah, I think that's a
 17 variation of Joe Mack, yes.
 18 Q. Okay. So Joe Mack and Joe Macki?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. And what about Joe McElhone?
 21 A. No. I don't recall him using that name.
 22 Q. When did you first become aware that
 23 Joseph LaForte used the name Joe Mack or Joe Macki?
 24 A. It was near the start of my employment
 25 with CBSG in 2012.

62

1 Q. Did you have any understanding of why
 2 Mr. LaForte sometimes used a different name?
 3 A. Yes, I do.
 4 Q. And what was your understanding?
 5 A. From the capacity of sales and sometimes
 6 collections from deals that were forwarded over from 7 his sales entity to CBSG, I believe that the use of 8 an alias or an incomplete name was due to the 9 anonymity and safety of employees working in those 10 capacities.
 11 Q. Just one moment, please.
 12 A. Sure.
 13 Q. Can you elaborate on what you mean by --
 14 can you elaborate on your answer a bit and explain
 15 what you mean by you thought he was using the alias.
 16 A. What I'm talking about with the anonymity
 17 and safety of our employees?
 18 Q. Yeah.
 19 A. Sure. In various sales capacities and 20 collections, you know, for example, we worry about 21 any sort of retaliation. Let's say a deal didn't
 22 get funded or potentially if we're collecting on a
 23 merchant who is behind and they may express some 24 hostility toward the collectors, an employee may use
 25 an alternate name to protect their actual identity

63

1 so they're not going to get harassed maybe on social
 2 media. They might get some angry emails or, God
 3 forbid, in person.
 4 So, for example, we had Ken Calcagnini who
 5 I told you was the collections manager, he'd go by 6 the alias Ken Jenkins. Emily Gray may just
 7 abbreviate her own name to Emily and just the last
 8 initial of her name. So you're not finding out who 9 these people actually are and potentially holding
 10 them personally accountable for collections issues
 11 or perhaps a denial of funding.
 12 It's important that that's respected for 13 our employees due to the safety guidelines and 14 compliance.
 15 Q. Was Mr. LaForte involved in collection
 16 efforts on behalf of Complete Business Solutions
 17 Group?
 18 A. It wasn't his primary function, but he 19 would help collect on deals that were forwarded over
 20 from his sales entity.
 21 Q. So was there any other reason that
 22 Mr. LaForte used an alias other than in connection
 23 with the anonymity and safety based on the fact that
 24 he was engaged in collections work?
 25 A. Not that I know of.

64

1 Q. Did there come a time when you learned
 2 that Joseph LaForte had a criminal record?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. When did you learn that?
 5 A. I don't remember the specific time, but
 6 this was near the start of my employment with CBSG
 7 in 2012.
 8 Q. And how did you come to learn about it?
 9 A. I believe he discussed it with me just for 10 the sake of gaining comfort in working with the 11 business.
 12 Q. What did he tell you?
 13 A. I didn't go into specifics and ask a lot
 14 of questions, but it was a criminal conviction
 15 related to some sort of mortgage company that he
 16 worked in in Florida like 15 years ago or something 17 like that.
 18 Q. Did you come to understand at any time
 19 that Mr. LaForte had been incarcerated for engaging 20 in criminal activity?
 21 A. Yes. That was my understanding from his
 22 explanation to me, yes.
 23 Q. Did you ever have an understanding that 24 Mr. LaForte used an alias because if people knew his 25 real name, they might find out about his criminal

1 record?
 2 A. No, not to my understanding.
 3 Q. During the meetings you attended with
 4 potential investors of Complete Business Solutions
 5 Group's promissory notes, did you ever hear Joseph
 6 LaForte tell a potential investor about his criminal
 7 record?
 8 A. I'm sorry. That broke up. Can you repeat
 9 that, please?
 10 Q. Sure. Have you ever heard Mr. LaForte
 11 tell a potential investor in Complete Business
 12 Solutions Group's promissory notes that he had a
 13 criminal record?
 14 A. I don't remember a specific time that he 15 discussed that, though I would say that most of 16 these noteholders generally knew about it. He was 17 generally very transparent about that matter.
 18 Q. So why do you believe that the noteholders
 19 knew about Mr. LaForte's criminal record?
 20 A. It was pretty common knowledge in the 21 company. It's not some sort of secret. And it was 22 discussed openly on occasion, although obviously
 23 isn't a primary focus when talking to third parties
 24 lending money to the company.
 25 Q. So my question is: Did you ever hear

66

1 Mr. LaForte tell a potential investor that he had a
 2 criminal record?
 3 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 4 THE WITNESS: I can't recall.
 5 BY MS. BERLIN:
 6 Q. Did you ever hear anyone associated with
 7 Complete Business Solutions Group tell a potential
 8 investor that Joseph LaForte had a criminal record?
 9 A. Did I hear anyone talk about his criminal
 10 record?
 11 Q. Did you ever hear anyone associated with
 12 Complete Business Solutions Group or Full Spectrum
 13 tell a potential investor of Complete Business
 14 Solutions Group that Joseph LaForte had a criminal
 15 record?
 16 A. Not specifically, but I believe it was 17 discussed during some of these meetings.
 18 Q. Do you recall it being discussed at the 19 meetings with potential investors?
 20 A. Yes. I recall the topic being discussed,
 21 but I don't recall a specific instance of when.
 22 Q. Who discussed it at these meetings with
 23 potential investors?
 24 A. I don't remember. You're talking about a
 25 wide period of time and a lot of meetings. It's 67

1 just generally understood that it was brought up. I
 2 remember that it was a point of discussion on 3 occasion.
 4 Q. Can you recall a specific single incident
 5 where someone told a potential investor that Joseph
 6 LaForte had a criminal record?
 7 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 8 THE WITNESS: Can I recall a specific
 9 incident?
 10 BY MS. BERLIN:
 11 Q. Do you recall a single specific instance
 12 where someone told a potential investor of Complete
 13 Business Solutions Group that Joseph LaForte had a
 14 criminal record?
 15 A. No. I can't remember a specific instance.
 16 It's all blurring together. I'd be guessing if I
 17 tried.
 18 Q. Did you ever tell a potential investor
 19 that Joseph LaForte had a criminal record?
 20 A. I have discussed with these noteholder
 21 purchasers, but I don't recall it being initiated by 22 me or being brought up. Certainly we're very open
 23 about discussing the matter. It's a sensitive issue
 24 obviously. But I don't recall a specific instance
 25 where I told someone, no.

68

1 Q. Do you recall any specific potential
2 investor or investor whom you told about Joseph
3 LaForte's criminal record?

4 A. That I told I don't know. But I remember
5 discussing it with other noteholders for sure.

6 Q. Can you recall the name of any noteholder
7 that you told?

8 A. If you're saying if I was the person to 9 introduce that fact, I don't recall. But I do
10 recall discussing the topic. I don't recall if I
11 was the person to tell them initially about the 12 matter.

13 Q. Okay. Who do you recall discussing it
14 with? And we're talking about potential
15 noteholders.

16 A. That means they have not purchased any 17 promissory notes from CBSG yet; right?

18 Q. Correct.

19 A. I don't recall talking to anyone before
20 the purchase of the notes. It wasn't really my 21 capacity before purchasing. I typically talked 22 about accounting and finance, not people's 23 background. So that's not the focus of my 24 discussion with any potential purchasers of these 25 promissory notes from CBSG.

1 Joseph, Ezra, Isaac, Albert. Also their CFO who was
2 also a noteholder, that was Chuck Frey. Also the
3 CPA they had do the audit of our company in 2016,
4 his name was Jeffrey Kaufman. He subsequently
5 became a noteholder after the audit.

6 I remember discussing this with Alan
7 Kandall and Patrick Gibbons. I can't recall every 8 single person.

9 Q. Can you spell that name?

10 A. I'm sorry?

11 Q. Could you spell Patrick's last name?

12 A. Yes, Gibbons, G-I-B-B-O-N-S.

13 Q. Okay. Who else?

14 A. I mean, these are a few. I'm trying to 15 remember specific guys. There's a lot of different
16 parties. Matthew Szkotak was one of them.

17 Q. Can you spell his last name for the court
18 reporter?

19 A. Yeah. I believe it's spelled
20 S-Z-K-O-T-A-K.

21 Q. Okay. Who else?

22 A. I'm really struggling to remember a lot of 23 these discussions. It's so many different, you
24 know, people and times. Did I mention Scott
25 Pollack?

1 Q. Okay. So you didn't tell any of the
2 potential noteholders about Joseph LaForte's
3 criminal record; correct?

4 A. Not that I can recall.

5 Q. And what about after the investment was
6 made, did you discuss Joseph LaForte's criminal
7 record with any noteholder?

8 A. I don't remember it being a topic of 9 discussion. Obviously, it's not the focus of the 10 discussions. We're usually talking about the 11 performance of the business and my capacity in 12 reporting numbers and financials.

13 So I can't remember that it was broached
14 by me. I certainly remember that it was discussed
15 on occasion with these parties.

16 Q. Who did you discuss it with? Which
17 noteholders specifically did you discuss Joseph 18 LaForte's criminal record with?

19 A. You want me just to start naming people
20 that I believe I discussed it with?

21 Q. I'm asking for the name of noteholders
22 that you discussed Joseph LaForte's criminal record
23 with.

24 A. Off the top of my head, I would say
25 members from the Chehebar family. That includes

1 Q. How do you spell his last name?

2 A. Pollack is spelled P-O-L-L-A-C-K.

3 Q. Do you recall discussing it with any other
4 noteholders?

5 A. No. Again, it was a really wide frame of 6 time, and it's a lot of different meetings. It's 7 really kind of a blur at this point. So I'm trying
8 to name ones that I had a lot of discussions with 9 and that were parties that I spoke with more
10 frequently than others. But I would be struggling
11 or guessing to remember if I had it with additional 12 noteholders.

13 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions Group or 14 Full Spectrum have any marketing material in 15 connection with the promissory notes that Complete
16 Business Solutions Group was offering?

17 A. I'm sorry. I didn't understand that.

18 Q. Sure. Were there any marketing materials
19 that were utilized in connection with the Complete
20 Business Solutions Group promissory notes?

21 A. Not that I know of.

22 Q. Were there any brochures, for example,
23 that were utilized in connection with the offer of 24 Complete Business Solutions Group's promissory
25 notes?

1 A. Not that I know of.
 2 MR. SOTO: Objection to form. Can you
 3 give us a time period?
 4 BY MS. BERLIN:
 5 Q. Just one moment, please.
 6 I'm sorry. Can you repeat what you just
 7 said? I didn't hear it.
 8 A. I'm sorry. The last thing I said was "not 9 that I know of."
 10 Q. Okay. What about PowerPoint
 11 presentations, were there any PowerPoint
 12 presentations in connection with the offer of the 13 Complete Business Solutions Group promissory notes?
 14 A. I believe there were some PowerPoints
 15 discussing some of the notes and backgrounds of the 16 company. I don't recall the use of those
 17 PowerPoints. It was more of like a general
 18 operational PowerPoint.
 19 Q. Did you have any involvement in the 20 creation of those PowerPoints?
 21 A. Not that I recall.
 22 Q. Was there a brochure for Complete Business
 23 Solutions Group?
 24 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 25 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure what brochure

73

1 A. I don't recall. I believe Lisa hired a
 2 couple -- I'm sorry. I'll just add on. I believe
 3 Lisa hired a couple different marketing people, too.
 4 So there are some instances of the website, and it's 5 changed over time. The version I'm referring to is 6 probably the most recent version. And I don't 7 recall who generated the copy for that.
 8 Q. What merchant was that?
 9 A. I don't remember the merchant. There's 10 other parties that provided web content and copy for 11 the website. Lisa retained a few different vendors
 12 for this purpose.
 13 Q. Do you remember the name of any entity
 14 that provided website services in connection with
 15 Complete Business Solutions Group?
 16 A. Let me think. I believe one of these 17 companies was called Octo Design Group. So they're 18 like a CSS developer. They didn't provide the 19 hosting. That was done on our domain with our IT
 20 department. But I believe they did some of the 21 graphics design and copy as part of the content for 22 the website.
 23 Q. And who had final decision or approval
 24 over the website and its content?
 25 A. As I mentioned, they usually run this

75

1 you're referring to. Do you mean just a general --
 2 BY MS. BERLIN:
 3 Q. Any brochures, yes.
 4 A. I believe there was a brochure explaining 5 it to our merchants, just a general overview of the 6 company and the product.
 7 Q. Did you ever attend any events where
 8 brochures were distributed that discussed Complete
 9 Business Solutions Group?
 10 A. Not that I know of.
 11 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions Group
 12 maintain a website?
 13 A. It was ParFunding.com. That's the d/b/a
 14 for CBSG.
 15 Q. Okay. Did you have any involvement in the 16 content of the website?
 17 A. I worked with IT closely in setting it up
 18 and mostly the back end, troubleshooting the 19 logistics with the server.
 20 As far as content, I believe that was more
 21 on legal's end. We had our in-house counsel review
 22 content to be produced on there. That really wasn't
 23 my bailiwick.
 24 Q. Well, who provided the information about
 25 the content of the company for the website?

74

1 stuff through the legal department and verifying
 2 that what was being posted on there, it made sense
 3 and is legally accurate.
 4 So to my understanding, general counsel
 5 would be the final authority on giving a green light
 6 to posting or updating the content on
 7 ParFunding.com.
 8 Q. What counsel?
 9 A. It varies. Lawyers served as general
 10 counsel throughout the years. So it depends on what 11 time period you're referring to.
 12 Q. Okay. But it would have been the in-house
 13 general counsel who would have made the final
 14 decision on the website content; is that accurate?
 15 A. Yeah, that provided the approval, more or 16 less, of the content and whatever copy specifically.
 17 If we're talking about language, that the copy was 18 acceptable.
 19 Q. Did you review the contents of the website
 20 before it was published?
 21 A. I looked at it, but, again, my standpoint
 22 is more from the technical aspect. I wanted to make 23 sure that the client portal worked when people were 24 logging in, that the web pages were displaying 25 properly on different platforms, like mobile or web,

76

1 you know, different devices would be able to display
2 it in a coherent manner.

3 We also had some pop-up features that were
4 somewhat complicated and forms used by the website.
5 So I wanted to make sure that it was running
6 smoothly for our merchants, especially with the 7 amount of web volumes that we had from people
8 logging into their payment histories and online
9 client portals for them every day.

10 Q. Did Lisa McElhone have the ultimate 11 decision making with respect to the website and its 12 contents?

13 A. I mean, to some extent, Lisa has the 14 authority for any final decision. She's still the 15 president of CBSG. The authority granted by CBSG to 16 Full Spectrum Processing as part of its operating 17 agreement certainly granted some of those powers to 18 the folks working on the website.

19 Later on, and you're somewhat jogging my
20 memory, we actually had a couple web developers
21 employed in the IT department of Full Spectrum
22 Processing, and they had some of the input. So it's 23 going to be a combination of those folks developing 24 the copy and updating the website, running it by 25 in-house counsel and Lisa's authority to ultimately

1 Business Solutions Group could decide whatever
2 content they wanted to put on the website without
3 Lisa's knowledge and approval; is that accurate?

4 A. No, it's not.

5 Q. Okay. So did she have approval over
6 ultimate content on the website?

7 A. (Indecipherable).

8 Q. Mr. Cole, we can't understand what you're 9 saying. I don't know if someone else has their 10 speaker on. But if everyone else could be muted.

11 Can you answer again. We couldn't make
12 out what you were saying.

13 A. Sure. You said CBSG. There's no one else
14 at CBSG because Full Spectrum Processing is 15 providing the operational services for CBSG.

16 At Full Spectrum Processing, the authority
17 and review of the content posted on the websites
18 went through legal, and started off with the IT
19 development team, the folks that are working in that 20 department, right, so that ultimately the authority
21 to post something on the website would fall in the 22 lap of general counsel and the other members of the 23 legal team. We had a few different lawyers there.

24 Q. I understand that. My question is: Did
25 Lisa McElhone have any involvement in the process of

1 have -- you know, if she wanted to take the website
2 down, she could take it down if she didn't like the
3 layout or something.

4 She's not quite that tyrannical about
5 content, but at the end of the day, she could,
6 right.

7 Q. With respect to Full Spectrum, did Lisa
8 McElhone have ultimate authority over Full Spectrum
9 between 2017 and 2020?

10 A. She did.

11 Q. So I understand that different people
12 worked on the website, provided content for the 13 website. But would the ultimate approval for the 14 website come from Lisa McElhone?

15 MR. FUTERFAS: It's Peter Futerfas. I'm
16 going to lodge an objection. Asked and answered
17 about three times. Thank you.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. Go ahead, Mr. Cole.

20 A. At the end of the day, she would not make
21 the decision about posting content on the website.

22 Q. Did you just say she would not make the 23 decision?

24 A. She would not make the decision; correct.

25 Q. Okay. So other people at Complete

1 reviewing or approving what went on the Par Funding
2 website?

3 A. No.

4 Q. What about Joseph LaForte?

5 A. No, not to my knowledge.

6 Q. Perry Abbonizio?

7 A. No, not to my knowledge.

8 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Let's take a break for 9 lunch. We'll go off the record. And we can come
10 back on at 1:00. Does that give everyone enough
11 time to grab something to eat?

12 MR. LEVINE: Can we do 1:15?

13 MS. BERLIN: Sure. 1:15. We'll go off
14 the record and resume at 1:15.

15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're going off the
16 record at 12:34 p.m.

17 (Recess from 12:34 p.m. to 1:22 p.m.)

18 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: And we're back on the 19 record 1:22 p.m.

20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. In connection with ALB Management, did you
22 do any work that was different for CBSG than that 23 which you were doing prior to 2017?

24 A. ALB, which is the entity subsequent to 25 Beta Abigail, was the same work.

1 Q. And so for ALB Management and Beta
 2 Abigail, were you doing the same work in connection
 3 with Complete Business Solutions Group that you were 4 doing prior to 2017?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. I'm sorry. If you answered, I didn't hear
 7 it.
 8 A. I said, "Yes."
 9 Q. What was ABL Management, Inc. exactly?
 10 A. It's the same consulting entity and 11 function as Beta Abigail.
 12 Q. So why did you create ABL Management?
 13 A. I was given advice from tax accountants to 14 restructure it. So I stopped using Beta Abigail and 15 started using that company instead. It was for tax
 16 purposes.
 17 Q. What was New Field Ventures, LLC?
 18 A. I believe New Field Ventures is Perry
 19 Abbonizio's consulting entity.
 20 Q. And did you have any ownership interest in 21 New Field Ventures?
 22 A. None whatsoever.
 23 Q. Did you have any interest of any kind in 24 New Field Ventures?
 25 A. No.

81

1 Q. Did you receive money either directly or
 2 through one of your consulting companies from New
 3 Field Ventures?
 4 A. No, I did not.
 5 Q. Did you have any ownership interest in the 6 Complete Business Solutions Group at any time?
 7 A. No, I did not.
 8 Q. Did you have any profit-sharing agreement
 9 in connection with Complete Business Solutions
 10 Group?
 11 A. Only the consulting agreement that I had 12 through my entities.
 13 Q. And what did that provide for?
 14 A. I'm sorry. What does that mean?
 15 Q. What did those agreements provide for?
 16 What did you receive?
 17 A. I received consulting fee payments through 18 that agreement to my entities.
 19 Q. Right. But the consulting fee agreements
 20 you received were based on a certain percentage; is 21 that correct?
 22 A. That's right. We had a basis determining 23 the consulting fee amounts from the prior quarter's
 24 MCA funding volume. So, for example, if we funded
 25 $90 million in MCA deals, we would take a percentage

82

1 of that to determine how much would be paid as
 2 consulting fees to the parties with these agreements
 3 in place.
 4 Q. So what percentage of the funding amount
 5 did you receive?
 6 A. It depends on the quarter. So sometimes
 7 we would take nothing. For example, in Q1 2020 with 8 the onset of COVID, we said it wouldn't be prudent
 9 for us to take any sort of consulting fees. So
 10 while we typically use a basis of 10 percent of the 11 funding, we decided not to pay ourselves anything
 12 then.
 13 Sometimes we'll reduce it. I believe in 14 2018 there was a quarter where we decided that we 15 should only do 2-1/2 percent in the discussion with 16 the other consultants and Lisa. We have an ability
 17 per that consulting agreement to adjust it. But it
 18 never went over 10 percent of the funding amount for 19 all the consultants in the quarter, meaning that if 20 we use that $90 million example, we would not pay
 21 more than $9 million in the subsequent quarter for 22 the funding that we did in that prior quarter.
 23 Q. I understand. But I was asking about you
 24 and your companies. What percentage did you receive 25 of the 10 percent of funding amount?

83

1 A. So from that 10 percent, my specific
 2 agreement had a 10 percent agreement with CBSG. So
 3 the consulting entities I had for the respective 4 time periods would receive 10 percent of that.
 5 So in the example I provided, if we had
 6 $90 million funded in the prior quarter and we used
 7 10 percent as the basis, I would receive 10 percent
 8 of that, which would be $900,000.
 9 Q. And the 10 percent that was paid out to 10 you and other consultants was based on the amount
 11 funded and not the amount that Complete Business
 12 Solutions Group collected; is that correct?
 13 A. That's precisely correct. That's entirely
 14 based on the amount of MCA deals the company would 15 be funding. It wouldn't make any sense to take it
 16 from, you know, the amount lent to the company or 17 something like that.
 18 Q. Okay. So it's based on -- the amount that 19 the consultants including yourself received was 20 based on the amount of money that Complete Business
 21 Solutions Group gave to merchants under the MCA
 22 agreement; is that correct?
 23 A. Specifically the cash out, not any sort of 24 reloaded volume or anything like that, just the 25 amount wired out that I would calculate for a

84

1 quarter to be paid in a subsequent period.
2 Q. So the consultants including yourself
3 would get a percentage of the amount of money that 4 Complete Business Solutions Group wired out to 5 merchants; is that accurate?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And you testified that the percentage the 8 consultants would split would vary from time to 9 time; correct?

10 A. Correct. So the default basis is 11 10 percent. But as I mentioned, you know, we've 12 taken this down to zero or 2-1/2 percent for a
13 quarter depending on what's occurring that quarter.
14 There could be extraneous factors, like the COVID
15 pandemic, that says you know what, we got to be 16 prudent. We can't pay ourselves. We have the 17 ability to make that nothing if we so see fit. We 18 don't have to take it.

19 It is not an operational income of the 20 business. It's not necessary to keep the business
21 funding. It's purely a mechanism that we are 22 allowed to take profits out of the business.

23 Q. Right. But you're taking a percentage of 24 the money that's going out the door from Par Funding
25 or CBSG to the merchants; correct?

1 Q. Now, as far as the cash flow, the money
2 that came in from the noteholders or investors in 3 CBSG's notes was put into the same bank account as 4 money coming back in from the merchants; is that
5 correct?

6 A. Not always. It depends on the time
7 period, and it depends what banks. Typically 8 deposits from merchants would come into the 9 operating account from our ACH processors. And 10 excess funds that the company didn't need to cover
11 liabilities would be transferred into capital
12 accounts, which may be the same accounts that we 13 receive noteholder loans into.

14 But it really depends on the period of 15 time and, you know, what bank accounts you're 16 talking about.

17 Q. Oh, yeah. Let's talk about it. How about 18 let's start with 2015. Which account did the 19 merchant payments on the MCAs go into?

20 A. I'm sorry. For which year?

21 Q. 2015.

22 A. 2015, the merchant payments were 23 predominantly processed with a processor called of 24 Codapay, and these came into at the time either
25 Beneficial Bank, Republic Bank or TD Bank. I

1 A. No, that's incorrect. It's not a
2 percentage of the funds going out the door.
3 Remember, this happens in the subsequent period from 4 when the dollars went out.

5 The basis for it is tied to the amount
6 funded in the prior quarter, but the actual cash
7 flows come in from the merchant deposits, the 8 funding revenue of the business coming back in.

9 So if I draw the line on December 31 and 10 call it the last three months, the funding made from 11 October 1 to December 31 would be calculated as the 12 basis. And in January of the following year, from 13 the deposits we receive back from our merchants from 14 the repayment of these factoring agreements, those 15 are the monies used to pay the consulting fees based 16 on the determination as a mechanism of the 17 consulting agreement.

18 Q. But my question was a little different. I
19 was just confirming that the amount that is 20 calculated, the calculation of the amount that the 21 consultants receive is based on the amount of money
22 that Par Funding or CBSG sends out the door to the 23 merchants; right?

24 A. Yes. The calculation, not the cash flow
25 for it, correct.

1 believe it was moved around on a couple of occasions
2 as far as the deposit information on what account,
3 but it would have been one of those banks, to the 4 best of my recollection.

5 Q. Okay. And so in 2015, did CBSG maintain
6 separate bank accounts for the purposes of receiving
7 noteholder funds?

8 A. It maintained different bank accounts,
9 yes. Well, are you saying were there accounts
10 specifically used for noteholder funds?

11 Q. I'm asking you if there were separate bank
12 accounts, if you kept the investor money completely
13 separate from the merchant money in 2015.

14 A. So let me describe to you how the cash
15 flow works.

16 Q. I understand how the cash flow works. I'm 17 just trying to make sure we know of all the bank
18 accounts.

19 A. I'm trying to answer the question
20 accurately. I want you to have an understanding of 21 how the deposits came in.

22 Q. I'm not asking that question. In 2015,
23 did CBSG maintain a separate bank account for 24 purposes of collecting money from people who were 25 purchasing promissory notes?

1 A. There were bank accounts used for the 2 collection of these loan proceeds from the
3 noteholders.
4 Q. Okay. And those were separate bank
5 accounts from the accounts that CBSG used to receive
6 the money from the MCAs payments?
7 A. Correct. That's a different bank account
8 than where the MCA payments came in.
9 Q. What bank account was that?
10 A. It depends on the period of time. I
11 mentioned a few of the banks from 2015.
12 Q. Yes, for 2015.
13 A. I mentioned TD Bank, Republic Bank and 14 also Beneficial Bank.
15 Q. So is it your testimony that they were the 16 same banks, but they were in completely separate
17 bank accounts?
18 A. I'm trying to describe the cash flow to 19 better answer your question. The banks would 20 typically have an operating account that these
21 deposits would go in through from the ACH processor
22 and also a capital account which the noteholder
23 funds would be deposited into and used for the 24 merchant cash advance funding.
25 Q. Okay. And was that the same for all

89

1 years, 2015 through 2020?
2 A. The general structure that there's an
3 operating account and a capital account has always
4 persisted. This was with different banks that CBSG
5 worked with. And when Lisa set up these accounts,
6 she would have them have the multiple accounts so
7 we're able to allocate our deposits separate from 8 merchants.
9 We had a very meticulously managed ledger
10 to keep track of the noteholder funds and to make
11 sure that we're able to identify on a daily basis
12 what deposits were made from merchants and to 13 reconcile their balances with the company records,
14 right.
15 Q. Who maintains this meticulously maintained
16 ledger?
17 A. It would be the accounting department.
18 Q. Anyone in particular in the accounting
19 department?
20 A. Several personnel from the accounting
21 department had their hands in this.
22 Q. Okay. Did Aida Lau?
23 A. No, not to my recollection.
24 Q. What about Wendy Furman?
25 A. Wendy Furman is not in the accounting

90

1 department.
2 Q. Okay. So who were the people in the 3 accounting department that maintained the 4 meticulously managed ledger?
5 A. It depends on the period of time.
6 Q. Okay. So tell me the different people by 7 year. You can start with 2015 and go through 2020.
8 A. So in 2015 -- and you're only referring to 9 the noteholder deposits, you're not referring to the 10 MCA deposits?
11 Q. You testified about a meticulously managed
12 ledger that was maintained --
13 A. Sorry. I can't understand what you're 14 saying.
15 Q. -- actively maintained that meticulously
16 managed ledger that you testified about.
17 A. Sorry. That was incoherent. I couldn't
18 understand what you said.
19 Q. You testified about a meticulously managed
20 ledger. And I'm asking you who maintained that 21 meticulously managed ledger that you testified about
22 in 2015, 2016, '17, '18, '19 and '20.
23 A. This was managed by the accountants in the 24 department. We had lots of different accountants
25 come in and go. Some of them stuck around longer

91

1 than others. In 2015 -- I mean, do you just want me
2 to just name accountants that were in the
3 department?
4 Q. You testified about a meticulously managed
5 ledger. So I'm asking you to identify who
6 maintained that ledger. And if you can't identify
7 anyone, that could be your answer. But I'm just 8 asking you to identify who maintained this ledger
9 you testified about.
10 A. Well, the ultimate responsibility of the 11 ledger falls on me. I'm in charge of the 12 department. The final review, scrutiny and how 13 these ledgers were booked in QuickBooks falls on me.
14 Now, as far as the folks entering the data
15 and updating the accounting system to keep track of 16 the ledger, it varied. It depended on who was 17 bookkeeping in that time period. If someone was on 18 a vacation day, they're not going to be the one to 19 update it. So it's a department effort.
20 And that's why I'm asking you if you want
21 me to start naming folks in the department. There's 22 a lot of different employees. We had over a dozen
23 accountants by the time this thing was shut down.
24 So it's hard for me to identify specific accountants
25 when there's a group effort here.

92

1 Q. I understand. Going back briefly to the
 2 percentage that would fluctuate that was taken in
 3 from the company to pay the consultants, who would
 4 make the decision on when those fluctuations
 5 occurred and the percentage? Who would make that 6 decision? Was that Lisa McElhone, or was that
 7 someone else?
 8 A. It would be the managers of the business,
 9 myself included, Lisa and other consultants. We 10 would have a discussion about that.
 11 Q. Who else? Can you name the people who 12 would make the decision?
 13 A. The other consultants who would assist in 14 making decisions would be Perry Abbonizio, Lisa
 15 McElhone, Isaac Chehebar, Joseph Chehebar, and we 16 provided -- we got some feedback from their CFO,
 17 Chuck Frey, too. He certainly had input.
 18 Q. Just one moment, please. I apologize. I
 19 had someone ringing my door bell. I'm so sorry for 20 that.
 21 A. No problem.
 22 Q. Did Joseph LaForte participate in those 23 discussions about the percentage that would be paid
 24 to the consultants?
 25 A. Sometimes we ran it by him, yes.

93

1 Q. Why would you run it by him?
 2 A. Because he's married to Lisa, and it's a
 3 major piece for their family I would imagine.
 4 Q. So did you run it by like Perry
 5 Abbonizio's wife as well?
 6 A. No. We didn't run it by his wife,
 7 although I don't know what they discussed regarding 8 those fees.
 9 Q. Was Joseph LaForte the only spouse of 10 someone -- you mentioned the people who would make
 11 the decision. Was Joseph LaForte the only person
 12 that -- the only spouse that you consulted with when 13 deciding the percentages?
 14 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 15 THE WITNESS: The spouse of a person that 16 has a consulting agreement with the company?
 17 BY MS. BERLIN:
 18 Q. Well, you testified you consulted Joseph
 19 LaForte because he was the spouse of Lisa McElhone
 20 and the percentage that was taken affected their 21 family.
 22 So my question is: Did you consult anyone
 23 else's spouse who was one of these decision makers,
 24 or was Joseph LaForte the only person you consulted
 25 based on the fact that he was married to one of the

94

1 decision makers?
 2 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 3 THE WITNESS: No.
 4 BY MS. BERLIN:
 5 Q. I'm sorry. No, you didn't consult any
 6 other spouses?
 7 A. We did not consult any other spouses.
 8 Q. So approximately during the lifetime of 9 Par Funding -- I'm sorry -- Complete Business
 10 Solutions Group, approximately how much money did it
 11 fund in the merchant cash advance agreements?
 12 A. You're talking about gross cash provided
 13 to third-party merchants as part of these MCA deals?
 14 Q. Yes.
 15 A. The approximate amount is $1.3 billion
 16 from the beginning of 2013 through July of 2020.
 17 Q. And how much like on average was the 18 interest rate on the MCA agreements?
 19 A. There was no interest rate on MCAs. It's 20 based on a factor fee.
 21 Q. Right. Did you compute the factor fee and 22 calculate sort of a percentage of how much interest
 23 ultimately Complete Business Solutions Group would 24 be getting on its money?
 25 A. No. It's not calculated as interest.

95

1 There's no amortized time value to the factor fee.
 2 Q. Did you ever calculate what percentage you
 3 expected as a profit on the amount of money that 4 Complete Business Solutions Group funded to the
 5 merchants?
 6 A. Yes. If you mean as a profit, something
 7 like an internal rate of return or either a
 8 percentage of gross revenues in proportion to the 9 amount funded, yes, I've calculated that before.
 10 Q. Okay. And what did you determine in your
 11 calculation? Like what was the expectation?
 12 MS. SCHEIN: Could you give a timeframe?
 13 BY MS. BERLIN:
 14 Q. In your answer, Mr. Cole, when you talked
 15 about the calculations you did, please explain what 16 timeframe your calculations were done for.
 17 A. I meant this in general. Yeah, this was 18 calculated. I mean, I looked at the revenues from 19 the business for each year. I don't think there's a
 20 single year where I didn't calculate how much
 21 revenue we would make.
 22 Q. So you funded about 1.3 billion. And was 23 all of that 1.3 billion in principal paid back by 24 the merchant to Complete Business Solutions Group?
 25 A. You broke up during that one.

96

1 Q. Sorry. Of the $1.3 billion funded to
 2 merchants, how much did merchants pay back to
 3 Complete Business Solutions Group?
 4 A. For the same time period, merchants paid
 5 back approximately close to $1.3 billion, not 6 including the funds still outstanding from the
 7 receivables.
 8 Q. I'm not talking about the money
 9 outstanding that hasn't been paid back. I'm just 10 asking about --
 11 A. You mean for the end of the period the 12 amount of cash flow from the MCA deposits?
 13 Q. Correct. The 1.3 billion goes from
 14 Complete Business Solutions Group to the merchant
 15 borrowers or merchants. We'll call them merchants.
 16 Right?
 17 A. Um-hum.
 18 Q. So I'm asking about how much in actual 19 cash, not receivables or anticipated money that 20 might come in, but how much did the merchants
 21 actually pay back to Complete Business Solutions
 22 Group during that same timeframe of 2013 through 23 July 2020?
 24 A. It was close to the amount funded out. It
 25 was approximately also 1.3 billion.

97

1 reduction in deposits. So I'm asking: What do you
 2 mean by deposits?
 3 A. The reduction in merchant payments during
 4 COVID at the start of it, which was mid 2020,
 5 merchant deposits -- as you can imagine, everyone
 6 gave the excuse that they were concerned about their 7 businesses and there would be a slowdown in the 8 economy.
 9 So we experienced a slowdown with
 10 merchants and had to discuss either reduced payment
 11 schedules with some of them or plans in the future
 12 to increase the payments back to their normal levels
 13 as things stabilized from the onset of the COVID
 14 crisis.
 15 Q. When did the reduction in merchant
 16 deposits begin?
 17 A. It was toward the tail end of March. I
 18 would say everything up until the middle of the 19 month was pretty normal. In response to the news
 20 and this thing becoming a big deal in the 21 mainstream, we had some merchants causing concern.
 22 Now, there were a lot of guys without
 23 reductions. A lot of guys were fine and not asking
 24 for any reduced payments. So it's a subset of 25 merchants. But we started receiving some reduced

99

1 Q. Did there ever come a time when Complete
 2 Business Solutions Group was insolvent?
 3 A. No, never a time.
 4 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions Group tell
 5 Dean Vagnozzi that Complete Business Solutions Group
 6 was insolvent?
 7 A. Not to my understanding.
 8 Q. Prior to the Securities and Exchange
 9 Commission filing this case against you, were you
 10 aware of the fact that noteholders were told that 11 Complete Business Solutions Group was insolvent?
 12 A. I was not aware of that.
 13 Q. Did COVID-19 impact the amount of money
 14 that Complete Business Solutions Group was receiving
 15 from borrowers?
 16 A. Yes. At the initial onset, there was a
 17 reduction of deposits which caused concern, and we 18 also reduced funding at the time just to see how it
 19 would shake out.
 20 Q. How much were the deposits -- when you say
 21 deposits, I assume you're talking about the money
 22 coming from merchants to Complete Business Solutions
 23 Group?
 24 A. Merchant deposits.
 25 Q. You just testified that there was a

98

1 payments towards the end of March.
 2 Q. So at the end of March 2020, how much did
 3 the merchant deposits decrease by, like what 4 percentage?
 5 A. Based on the contractually obligated
 6 amounts on the portfolio from the factoring
 7 agreement, I believe it was approximately 20 to 8 25 percent at the time.
 9 Q. And did that continue into April 2020?
 10 A. Yes. That continued into April. We had 11 the highest cause for concern towards the middle of 12 April. Merchant deposits declined a little bit
 13 further, and we were shoring up cash basically to 14 weather the storm to see what was going on with the 15 business and obviously the greater pandemic at hand.
 16 Q. And did the merchant deposits continue to 17 be about 25 percent less than usual from like the 18 end of March 2020 until July 2020 when the SEC filed
 19 its case?
 20 A. It started coming back up the next month,
 21 at the end of April. It was a very fortunate
 22 turnaround. A lot of these guys were able to 23 respond. You would be surprised at the ingenuity of 24 the American small business owner. They figured how 25 to do the socially distance normal. They started

100

1 repaying their deals. We also started funding guys
 2 more regularly again, obviously to the best of our
 3 ability depending on the different regions.
 4 And things started going back to normal
 5 for the funding pipeline towards the start of May 6 and into June. We felt very confident at the end of 7 May into June that we'd be okay and we wouldn't have
 8 to be as careful as we were reacting to the COVID 9 pandemic.
 10 Q. In about April of 2020, Complete Business
 11 Solutions Group modified its promissory notes to 12 offer less interest and for the return of principal
 13 at a later period of time; is that correct?
 14 A. That's right.
 15 Q. And who made the decision at Complete
 16 Business Solutions Group to modify the promissory
 17 notes?
 18 A. We discussed that with counsel and 19 understood it as a viable strategy to ensure that we 20 wouldn't be overextending the interest payments in 21 proportion to the amount of cash that we were 22 funding our merchants.
 23 Q. Okay. So what counsel was it discussed
 24 with?
 25 A. Fox Rothschild took over as general

101

1 Q. I'm asking you to identify the names of
 2 the people at Complete Business Solutions Group who
 3 made the decision.
 4 A. That's myself, Lisa. We had some input
 5 from Perry as well in this.
 6 Q. Anyone else?
 7 A. No.
 8 Q. So once the merchant deposits went back up
 9 at the end of April 2020, after that time, did
 10 Complete Business Solutions Group decide to go back
 11 to the original promissory notes that had been 12 offered?
 13 A. No. We did not revert the notes back.
 14 Q. And why is that?
 15 A. Because it was still the prudent decision
 16 to make at the time based on our discussions with 17 counsel and the accountants. Just because we had a
 18 month where the merchants were coming back, we had 19 concerns about a potential second wave.
 20 If you remember, during the time, no one
 21 knew what was going to happen long term with this
 22 COVID. So we were really kind of playing in the fog
 23 of the future as far as what would happen with the 24 business and cash flows. We could only forecast to 25 what we could ascertain in the next couple months

103

1 counsel for the company in February of that year.
 2 And it was members of their team, particularly
 3 through Brett Berman that we had discussed this and
 4 prepared those documents accordingly.
 5 We also had advice of our securities
 6 counsel, who is Phil Rutledge with Bybel Rutledge
 7 out of Harrisburg, who acted as special counsel to 8 help with updating those offers and those agreements
 9 to our merchants or to the noteholders.
 10 Q. Who participated in those discussions from 11 CBSG other than you?
 12 A. I spoke with Brett, Phil, Lisa, couple of 13 the fund managers. I discussed this with Perry, Joe 14 LaForte. I discussed this with a couple of the 15 noteholders directly and also our in-house financial 16 controller and tax accountants.
 17 Q. Just one moment.
 18 A. Sure.
 19 Q. I apologize for that delay.
 20 A. No problem.
 21 Q. Who at Complete Business Solutions Group
 22 made the decision to modify the promissory notes?
 23 A. This was a joint conclusion made by 24 management in discussion with counsel and the tax
 25 accountants.

102

1 and make sure that we have sufficient cash on
 2 reserve to handle cash flow requirements for the
 3 foreseeable future.
 4 Q. Which fund managers -- you testified that
 5 you discussed the modified promissory notes in 2020
 6 with fund managers. Which fund managers did you
 7 discuss it with?
 8 A. I recall discussing this with Dean
 9 Vagnozzi. I'm trying to remember the other guys,
 10 but it really was kind of a blur. I can't recall
 11 anyone else that I had discussions with, but there
 12 were certainly other parties it was discussed with.
 13 And also, they were not fund managers but 14 direct noteholders of the business using their own
 15 capital. And that was members of the Chehebar
 16 family as well.
 17 Q. Okay. With respect to Dean Vagnozzi, what 18 did you tell him with respect to these modified
 19 notes?
 20 A. So in discussion with counsel, they 21 advised that we let them know very transparently the 22 concerns that we had as part of the business, which 23 were added on as concerns with the modified notes.
 24 So we put together company management
 25 emails letting the noteholders know of these

104

1 concerns and our expected outcome that we could
 2 anticipate based on the way that the pandemic was
 3 happening at the time. This is in March 2020. And
 4 communications with Dean Vagnozzi surrounded those 5 concerns.
 6 Q. Who put together -- you said we put
 7 together an email. Who did that at Complete
 8 Business Solutions Group or Full Spectrum? Who 9 prepared those emails messages?
 10 A. I worked with counsel to draft the email.
 11 I put together the physical email itself and the 12 management account to send it from. But that was 13 providing input with our third-party counsel at Fox
 14 Rothschild. And they made sure that it was 15 sufficient to convey our concerns at the time that 16 we sent the email out.
 17 Q. Okay. Was that Brett Berman?
 18 A. Yes. Brett Berman serves as our general
 19 counsel. He took over the position from the 20 in-house guys that Full Spectrum employed.
 21 Q. My question was -- you testified that you
 22 spoke with attorneys at Fox Rothschild about the 23 email that you sent out concerning -- that was for 24 the noteholders about the status of Complete
 25 Business Solutions Group.

105

1 deposits went, you know, there was concerns that the
 2 slowdown can affect these payments. So we wanted to
 3 make sure that that wasn't a concern.
 4 So the result was that renegotiation of 5 the rate still providing 5 percent annual rate of 6 return to the noteholders was the best plan of 7 attack to prudently protect their capital.
 8 We absolutely can take a haircut on
 9 income, but absolutely don't want to touch a penny
 10 with any of the principal from these loans that 11 these folks lent us. And the objective there was to 12 really protect that capital.
 13 We don't want to, per the advice of 14 counsel, put anyone at risk by aggressively repaying
 15 those notes. People were losing their shirt on Wall
 16 Street, all sorts of other deals. We wanted to make 17 the best, most prudent strategy that we could use
 18 from the lawyers that we had on hand.
 19 Q. Okay. My question was a little different.
 20 It was: Who come up with the idea for this?
 21 Could you list the names of the people at 22 Complete Business Solutions Group or elsewhere who 23 came up with the idea to modify the note?
 24 A. I have nothing to add. It's the same
 25 people I just mentioned.

107

1 And my question is: Was it Brett Berman
 2 at Fox Rothschild that you spoke with?
 3 A. Berman, amongst other lawyers.
 4 Q. Who were the other lawyers?
 5 A. Off the top of my head, we spoke with 6 their securities specialist, Lauren Taylor. We also 7 spoke with a corporate M&A guy named Steven Cohen.
 8 We also spoke with third-party counsel, our 9 securities guy, Phil Rutledge. And there's probably 10 maybe two or three others that I can't remember the 11 names of copied on these communications, that we 12 spoke about the situation and the creation of the 13 new modified note agreements.
 14 Q. Whose idea -- at Complete Business
 15 Solutions Group, whose idea was it to modify the
 16 promissory notes?
 17 A. The modification came out of a discussion
 18 that the managers of the business had, so, again,
 19 the same people I just talked about. The proposal
 20 came as sort of an organic consideration of what 21 could we do.
 22 On one hand, you could continue with the 23 notes as they were and potentially face running out
 24 of cash, although we had cash enough for at least
 25 three to four months. But depending on how merchant

106

1 Q. Okay. Can you please mention them again?
 2 So I guess, was it you, Lisa McElhone and Perry
 3 Abbonizio who came up this idea?
 4 A. In discussion with counsel at Fox
 5 Rothschild and also securities counsel at Bybel
 6 Rutledge.
 7 Q. Okay.
 8 A. The idea formed from our discussions with 9 third-party counsel and our internal discussions.
 10 Q. So I'm just asking for the names of the 11 people at Complete Business Solutions Group who came
 12 up with the idea.
 13 So is it correct that the people at
 14 Complete Business Solutions Group, not anywhere
 15 else, the people at Complete Business Solutions
 16 Group who came up with this idea were you, Lisa
 17 McElhone and Perry Abbonizio?
 18 MS. SCHEIN: I'm going to object to the 19 question, Ms. Berlin, because he's already answered
 20 it three times, and you have the answer. And 21 perhaps the reporter can read back his answer. He's 22 answered it three times already.
 23 BY MS. BERLIN:
 24 Q. Mr. Cole, can you answer the question,
 25 please.

108

1 A. Yes. It's the same people that I just
2 mentioned, Lisa, myself and Perry from Complete
3 Business Solutions Group.
4 Q. And the ultimate decision to reissue
5 the -- to issue modified notes in 2020, was that
6 decision ultimately made by Lisa McElhone?
7 A. She's the president of the business and 8 has ultimate authority to move forward with any
9 decisions.
10 Q. I understand. But I'm asking whether or 11 not she was the person who actually in the end made 12 the ultimate decision on this particular issue of 13 issuing modified notes.
14 A. We came to a consensus as a group with our 15 lawyers. So I don't think any one person was 16 responsible for determining the implementation of 17 those modified notes.
18 Q. Okay. And the consensus was reached as 19 far as CBSG employees -- and when I say CBSG, I'm 20 referring to Complete Business Solutions Group. Do
21 you understand that?
22 A. Yes, I do.
23 Q. Okay. So just to confirm, the consensus
24 and the decision to issue modified notes was made by 25 you, Lisa McElhone and Perry Abbonizio at CBSG; is 109

1 that correct?
2 MS. SCHEIN: I'm going to object. That's
3 misstating the witness' answer.
4 BY MS. BERLIN:
5 Q. Mr. Cole?
6 A. Yes. Again, I'm just reiterating what
7 I've already just said. This is a consensus
8 decision that's not just one person making the final
9 call. The lawyers and the accountants and everyone
10 described what was going on, and this was a
11 consensus decision from the group.
12 Q. Understood. So my question is, and I'm 13 not talking about anyone external to CBSG. I'm 14 talking about at CBSG or Full Spectrum.
15 Am I correct in understanding that the 16 ultimate decision to reissue the promissory notes in 17 2020 was made by a consensus decision by you, Lisa
18 McElhone and Perry Abbonizio?
19 MS. SCHEIN: Objection. Asked and 20 answered four times now.
21 THE WITNESS: Yes.
22 BY MS. BERLIN:
23 Q. Okay. In connection with the modified
24 promissory note offering in 2020, did Complete
25 Business Solutions Group provide any financial

110

1 information to Dean Vagnozzi either directly or
2 through his counsel?
3 A. No, we did not. The only thing we 4 provided to noteholders on a regular basis is our
5 monthly KPI report. It's titled The Funding
6 Analysis. But this does not include company
7 financials.
8 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions Group
9 provide any sort of financial statement to Dean
10 Vagnozzi or his counsel in connection with the 11 exchange offering in 2020?
12 A. Not that I know of.
13 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions Group
14 prepare any sort of financial spreadsheet or 15 financial statement or financial report of any kind
16 to provide to Dean Vagnozzi or his counsel in 17 connection with the exchange offering?
18 A. No, it did not.
19 Q. So if Mr. Vagnozzi told investors that 20 Complete Business Solutions Group was insolvent, do
21 you know where he would have obtained that 22 understanding?
23 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
24 MR. MILLER: Mr. Miller. I join.
25 THE WITNESS: No, I do not.

111

1 BY MS. BERLIN:
2 Q. In your conversations with Mr. Vagnozzi,
3 did he ever ask you whether or not Complete Business
4 Solutions Group was insolvent?
5 MS. SCHEIN: Object to form.
6 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.
7 BY MS. BERLIN:
8 Q. Did Mr. Vagnozzi's counsel, John Pauciolo,
9 ever ask you whether or not Complete Business
10 Solutions Group was insolvent?
11 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
12 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.
13 BY MS. BERLIN:
14 Q. Did you ever attend any events that were 15 organized for purposes of soliciting people to 16 invest money in connection with an investment
17 related to Complete Business Solutions Group?
18 A. No, I have not.
19 Q. Did you ever attend any events organized
20 by Dean Vagnozzi or his company relating to Complete
21 Business Solutions Group?
22 A. Yes, I have.
23 Q. What events did you attend?
24 A. The one that comes to mind is an event
25 November of 2019.

112

1 Q. And are you referring to the event that
 2 the SEC filed the transcript and the recording for
 3 that event?
 4 A. I'm not aware of any transcript or
 5 recording, but I believe you're probably referring 6 to the same event.
 7 Q. Was this an event that you attended in
 8 2019 in Pennsylvania?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. And what was the purpose of that event?
 11 A. Dean was having a function to describe
 12 products for his funds. I listened in. We were 13 providing some updated numbers to creditors that 14 were present of Dean's fund. And we also were there
 15 to discuss the prospect that myself and my business
 16 partner, Bill Bromley, were looking into going in in 17 Texas for the purchase of a bank.
 18 Q. And during the November 2019 event, you
 19 spoke to the audience about Complete Business
 20 Solutions Group; correct?
 21 A. Were provided a brief slide show letting 22 parties know, to my understanding, who were already 23 creditors or participants in Dean's fund, know about 24 how (indecipherable).
 25 Q. I'm sorry. You broke up.

113

1 A. -- towards the end of the year.
 2 Q. I'm not sure if you broke up for the court
 3 reporter as well.
 4 COURT REPORTER: I didn't get it either.
 5 THE WITNESS: Oh, really? Sorry. Can you
 6 ask the question. I have to reframe my mind.
 7 BY MS. BERLIN:
 8 Q. Sure. The question was whether or not you
 9 discussed Complete Business Solutions Group at this
 10 November 2019 event in Pennsylvania.
 11 A. Yes, we did. We had a brief slide show
 12 provided to update parties in the audience who we 13 understood were already participants in Dean's fund,
 14 to provide updated numbers about the company towards
 15 the end of the year.
 16 Q. Who prepared the slide show?
 17 A. The slide show was prepared by my team in 18 the accounting department, and I reviewed it prior 19 to it being sent over.
 20 Q. And during this November 2019 event, were 21 members of the audience encouraged to participate in 22 an offering with Mr. Vagnozzi's company that was
 23 related to Complete Business Solutions Group?
 24 A. Not that I remember.
 25 Q. So why did you think you were at this

114

1 November 2019 event in Pennsylvania that
 2 Mr. Vagnozzi hosted?
 3 A. As I just mentioned, it was for two
 4 purposes, to provide updates to anyone that was 5 already a part of Dean's fund. It's my
 6 understanding they wanted to hear about the company.
 7 And I provided Dean with a slide show and a brief
 8 description of the figures on the slide show to 9 those members.
 10 And the other function was to have myself
 11 and my business partner, Bill Bromley, discuss the 12 acquisition of a bank that we were working on in 13 Texas.
 14 Q. Did you see any of the materials that were 15 being distributed to the audience members during the 16 November 2019 event?
 17 A. No, I did not.
 18 Q. Did you attend any other events that Dean
 19 Vagnozzi hosted?
 20 A. No. That was the one event.
 21 Q. You mentioned earlier -- you used the word
 22 creditors. When you use the word creditors, are you
 23 referring to individuals who have purchased a
 24 promissory note?
 25 A. Yes, only individuals that purchased a

115

1 promissory note with CBSG.
 2 Q. Okay. So is it your testimony that the
 3 November 2019 event was the only event you ever
 4 attended with respect to where the audience was an
 5 investor or a potential investor of a promissory
 6 note related to Complete Business Solutions Group?
 7 A. My understanding, they were already
 8 creditors to Dean's fund. This was not to talk to 9 anyone that wasn't already in the fund.
 10 Q. My question is, and I'll repeat it, is the 11 November 2019 event that you've testified about 12 today the only time you ever spoke at any event to
 13 people who were either investors or potential
 14 investors in a promissory note related to Complete
 15 Business Solutions Group?
 16 A. No. It's not the only time.
 17 Q. Please tell me about the other times.
 18 A. Your question said specifically an event
 19 hosted by Dean Vagnozzi. This was the only time
 20 with regards to an event hosted by Dean Vagnozzi.
 21 But we have also discussed the company to folks who 22 were already either purchasers of Dean's PPM fund or 23 direct noteholders of the company on other
 24 occasions.
 25 I don't know specifically what you mean as 116

1 far as event. If you count having meetings in our
 2 office in Philadelphia or other locations as events,
 3 I can't count how many events that I've been
 4 participating in. But if you mean events hosted by
 5 Dean Vagnozzi specifically, that was the only event
 6 that I had participated in, in November 2019.
 7 Q. Okay. So the question that I just asked
 8 though was about events. It didn't have any 9 restriction on who organized it. And it sounds from 10 your testimony that you did attend other events.
 11 And just so you understand, event could be -- I'll 12 just ask.
 13 Did you ever attend any dinners where you
 14 discussed Complete Business Solutions Group with
 15 people who were either investors or potential
 16 investors of promissory notes issued in connection
 17 with Complete Business Solutions Group?
 18 A. I'm still not sure about your definition
 19 of event and now the word dinners. Are you
 20 indicating where folks would be eating dinners or 21 would I have to be eating dinner with someone that 22 would be a potential note purchaser?
 23 Q. Well, you just testified that you were 24 confused about what I meant by the word event. So I
 25 was trying to add more info.

117

1 I'm just going to make it a very general
 2 question you to, and I'm going to ask you to provide
 3 all the details. Please tell me about all the 4 different times that you met, whether it was an
 5 event, a dinner, a one on one, a meeting or any 6 other communication that was face to face, with an
 7 investor or potential investor of an investment that
 8 was related to Complete Business Solutions Group.
 9 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 10 THE WITNESS: That's really general. And 11 over the course of eight years, there have been 12 discussions with several individuals who were
 13 already and not yet creditors of CBSG. So I
 14 wouldn't be able to specify given the very general
 15 description of event or dinner or participation in 16 the group.
 17 BY MS. BERLIN:
 18 Q. Okay. Let me try to help you then. So
 19 what types of -- you said you had over the course of 20 eight years many discussions. So was one of them
 21 meetings in the office?
 22 A. We've had meetings in the office, yes.
 23 Q. Okay. Was another type having a dinner
 24 with an investor or potential investor?
 25 A. Yes. I've had dinner with someone that's 118

1 lent money to the business or could potentially.
 2 Q. Okay. So other than meetings in the 3 office at Complete Business Solutions Group and 4 having a meal or dinner with an investor or 5 potential investor, was there any other type of 6 occurrence where you spoke with an investor or 7 potential investor?
 8 A. The one you're describing about Dean with 9 the event in November of 2019, I would say that's 10 the third type. The type of event you were 11 describing in November of 2019, I would say that's 12 the third type.
 13 Q. What about golf, did you ever meet people
 14 for golf to discuss your investors or potential
 15 investors?
 16 A. Not that I can remember.
 17 Q. Did you ever go to anyone's home?
 18 A. Not that I can remember.
 19 Q. Did you ever go to meetings to speak with 20 potential investors or investors at Dean Vagnozzi's
 21 office?
 22 A. No. I've never been to Dean Vagnozzi's
 23 office.
 24 Q. Okay. What about at a hotel?
 25 A. The event in King of Prussia was at a

119

1 hotel in November of 2019.
 2 Q. Okay. What about at a convention?
 3 A. Not at a convention, no.
 4 Q. What about at a conference?
 5 A. No.
 6 Q. What about Zoom?
 7 A. Zoom, no, not that I can remember.
 8 Q. What about any other sort of online video
 9 platform?
 10 A. Not that I can remember.
 11 Q. What about the radio?
 12 A. No.
 13 Q. What about email?
 14 A. Not that I can remember.
 15 Q. Okay. So it sounds like the interaction
 16 you had with investors or potential investors was 17 exclusively through three things, meetings at 18 Complete Business Solutions Group's office, over a 19 meal, or at the one November 2019 event hosted by 20 Dean Vagnozzi; is that accurate?
 21 A. Yes, I believe so.
 22 Q. Okay. So let's talk about the meetings in 23 the office. Approximately how many times did you
 24 meet with an investor or potential investor of any 25 investment related to Complete Business Solutions

120

1 Group?
2 A. It depends on the period of time.
3 Q. Between 2015 and 2020 when the SEC brought
4 its case.
5 A. You're asking the frequency or how many in 6 total?
7 Q. My question was how many times.
8 Obviously, I'm asking for an estimate of 9 approximately how many times did those meetings
10 occur.
11 A. So from the period of 2015 to the end of 12 20 -- when we were running the business in July of 13 2020, if I have to give you an approximate amount,
14 it would be three or four dozen times.
15 Q. Would anyone in particular ask you to 16 attend those meetings?
17 A. Sometimes Perry would ask me to discuss
18 with a potential purchaser of the note.
19 Q. Okay. Anyone else other than Perry ask
20 you to meet with them?
21 A. The CFO of the Chehebars was really big on 22 that. He wanted to go over the numbers of the 23 business.
24 Q. The CFO of the Chehebars would ask you to 25 meet with him, the CFO?

121

1 A. Yes. And in my experience, they were the
2 most involved. Probably a quarter of all those
3 meetings were with regards to their group, including
4 an audit that their CPA performed for their
5 business.
6 Q. And what was the name of the CFO who had
7 all of these meetings with you?
8 A. Robert Frey.
9 Q. Did Robert Frey have any relationship with 10 Complete Business Solutions Group other than being
11 the CFO of the Chehebars?
12 A. Yes. He had two other relationships.
13 Q. What were those?
14 A. He was also a noteholder providing capital
15 to the company, and he also held a consulting
16 agreement.
17 Q. And what did he do under the consulting
18 agreement?
19 A. He would review the accounting information
20 and basically look out for the wellbeing of the 21 business for his employers, which was the Chehebar
22 family.
23 Q. And Complete Business Solutions Group paid
24 Robert Frey to do that?
25 A. Yes.

122

1 Q. Did CBSG pay Mr. Frey directly or through
2 one of his companies?
3 A. I believe it was paid through one of his
4 companies.
5 Q. Now, at a certain point, did CBSG cancel
6 the consulting agreement with Robert Frey?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Why was that?
9 A. There was a legal issue he had that was in
10 breach of the consulting agreement provisions.
11 Q. Was it because Mr. Frey had a criminal
12 record?
13 A. I believe it was something related to 14 that, yes, and that he did not disclose to the 15 company or our lawyers.
16 Q. So when did you find out or did there come
17 a time when you found out that Mr. Frey had a
18 criminal record?
19 A. I don't recall the specific time, but this
20 was sometime in 2019.
21 Q. Did you know about Mr. Frey's criminal
22 record prior to the time?
23 A. No, I did not.
24 Q. Who at Complete Business Solutions
25 Group -- so I'm not talking about third parties or

123

1 lawyers. I'm asking at Complete Business Solutions
2 Group who made the decision to cancel the consulting
3 agreement with Mr. Frey?
4 A. I don't recall.
5 Q. At a certain time period, did Complete
6 Business Solutions Group utilize people to find
7 individuals who would invest funds in the promissory
8 notes that Complete Business Solutions Group was 9 offering?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. During what time period was that?
12 A. I believe this was around 2016 and '17.
13 Q. Who at Complete Business Solutions Group
14 made the decision to utilize these finders?
15 A. I don't recall.
16 Q. Did Joseph LaForte have any involvement in 17 deciding to use finders?
18 A. I don't recall.
19 Q. Did you participate in the decision to 20 utilize finders?
21 A. Yes, I did.
22 Q. Did you discuss that with Lisa McElhone?
23 A. I don't recall.
24 Q. Did you discuss it with Joseph LaForte?
25 A. I don't recall.

124

1 Q. So what was your involvement?
 2 A. I would sign the finders agreements the
 3 lawyers put together as a counter-signatory for the 4 company.
 5 Q. How did Complete Business Solutions Group
 6 go about identifying people who would be finders?
 7 A. These were from relationships of existing 8 parties that we had.
 9 Q. So how did it come about these people were 10 finders? For example, did Complete Business
 11 Solutions Group ask them to be finders? How did it
 12 come about?
 13 A. Part of it was discussing the idea. So,
 14 for example, Chuck Frey who we met through Perry
 15 Abbonizio, we already knew him. We discussed the 16 idea and we formed the agreements from discussion of 17 the idea with those individuals. We told him that 18 the company is doing well. We could use more
 19 capital to expand the pipeline of funding that we 20 had and that would only contribute to the greater
 21 bottom line of the business.
 22 So we came up with the proposal that we 23 should pay points, a percentage of the amount of 24 capital brought in from any parties who purchased
 25 these notes and lent the company money.

125

1 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions Group
 2 reach out -- I imagine that people didn't just
 3 intuit that Complete Business Solutions Group might
 4 want you to use finders.
 5 Did Complete Business Solutions Group
 6 reach out to individuals it had a relationship with 7 and ask them if they wanted to be finders? Is that 8 how it came about?
 9 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 10 THE WITNESS: We had normal discussions
 11 with third parties, and obviously at this point in 12 2016, we've been paying consistent interest payments
 13 to other noteholders. So folks that we repaid or 14 guys that still had notes with us, we discussed this 15 as a system to bring in other potential folks who 16 would want to lend money to CBSG for a rate of 17 return.
 18 BY MS. BERLIN:
 19 Q. You just testified we discussed this. Who 20 are you referring to when you say "we"?
 21 A. I meant the management of the business,
 22 myself, Lisa, Perry.
 23 Q. Did anyone in particular at Complete
 24 Business Solutions Group have responsibility for 25 sort of overseeing the finders that were working in

126

1 connection with Complete Business Solutions Group in
 2 2016 and 2017?
 3 A. I kept track of all the fees. So I would
 4 do the calculations and follow up with these
 5 individuals, also for remittance information, you
 6 know, wire address, the 1099s we had to have them
 7 fill out. So in regards to that, I was in charge of
 8 it.
 9 Perry also spoke with these guys being
 10 that a lot of these were from his connections in his 11 network. So there was a couple of different people
 12 discussing the finder's fees and keeping track of 13 all of them. It was group effort.
 14 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions Group
 15 provide any information about Complete Business
 16 Solutions Group to the finders to assist them in 17 locating investors or potential investors?
 18 A. Yes. The big piece that we used
 19 consistently to keep everyone abreast on how the 20 company is performing is that KPI report I would 21 issue every month. I would prepare this typically 22 in the first two weeks of the month for the prior 23 month's period and then subsequently email it to 24 some of these noteholders, including Perry, who, to 25 my understanding, would further distribute that

127

1 report.
 2 Q. And what about any sort of written
 3 materials about Complete Business Solutions Group or 4 its business operations?
 5 A. Not that I can recall.
 6 Q. So at a certain point, Complete Business
 7 Solutions Group stopped using finders and started
 8 issuing its notes directly to what I'm going to 9 refer to as agent fund managers. Would you agree
 10 with me?
 11 A. Not necessarily. We would also have 12 individual noteholders, not just agent fund
 13 managers, that were still in existence both before
 14 and after we stopped paying finder's fees.
 15 Q. Okay. For how long did Complete Business
 16 Solutions Group continue to have individual
 17 noteholders and agent fund managers?
 18 A. There were individual noteholders all
 19 through the end of July 2020.
 20 Q. And when was the last time an individual
 21 who was not an agent fund manager acquired a
 22 promissory note in Complete Business Solutions
 23 Group?
 24 A. The last promissory note the company did
 25 was in March of 2020. I don't recall if that was to 128

1 fund managers or individuals or maybe both.
 2 Q. In 2020, was Complete Business Solutions
 3 Group continuing to issue promissory notes to 4 individuals who weren't agent fund managers?
 5 A. Yes. We still had relationships with
 6 individuals. Not everyone was an agent fund
 7 manager. And keep in mind these notes are only 12
 8 months. So they had the option of taking the money
 9 out and getting the loan repaid or providing the 10 capital to the company for another year to have an 11 additional year's worth of interest paid for that 12 capital.
 13 Q. Was there someone at Complete Business
 14 Solutions Group who would reach out to those 15 individual noteholders when the maturity date was 16 coming up to see if they wanted to receive their 17 principal back or roll it over into another note?
 18 A. We typically would still repay the 19 principal just as a habit of form, not just rolling
 20 it over as you're describing.
 21 So let's say a noteholder had half a
 22 million dollars come due. We would typically wire
 23 that back. And then they would subsequently wire
 24 the note per the terms of the new note issued for 25 the subsequent period. And I would communicate some

129

1 of this with some of the noteholders, especially the
 2 direct noteholders, with the Chehebar family and a
 3 couple other guys that have been around since
 4 earlier in the company's life, from 2014, '15
 5 onward.
 6 Q. Okay. Other than the Chehebars, who else
 7 did you have those discussions with?
 8 A. I would have discussions with, and this is
 9 a couple guys I mentioned earlier, Patrick Gibbons,
 10 Alan Kandall, Matt Szkotak, Scott Pollack. David
 11 Wiggins was another guy. There's a few different
 12 individuals. And I can't remember every single one,
 13 off the top of my head, but those are a couple of 14 the regular guys that I would communicate with.
 15 Q. So would you agree with me that at some 16 point, Complete Business Solutions Group stopped
 17 using finders?
 18 A. Yes, absolutely.
 19 Q. Okay. And that was at some point in 2017?
 20 A. The last finder's fee I believe was paid
 21 out either at the end of '17 or the first month of 22 '18, right at the end of the year. So, yeah, right
 23 around there.
 24 Q. Why did Complete Business Solutions Group
 25 stop using finders?

130

1 A. We received a subpoena from the PA DOB in
 2 regards to information about these finder's fees
 3 paid. And at the recommendation of Bybel Rutledge,
 4 Phil Rutledge is the lawyer that we had handle this
 5 for us, he said you should immediately cease payment
 6 of any finder's fees in his communication with the 7 state, and he would come back and determine guidance
 8 for us to follow going forward to make sure that we 9 were in compliance with any sort of federal or state
 10 regulations.
 11 Q. Who at Complete Business Solutions Group
 12 decided to -- made the ultimate decision to stop
 13 using finders?
 14 A. I don't recall if there was any one
 15 individual. Again, we listened to our lawyers. So
 16 it would have been a consensus thing. I don't think
 17 anyone was in disagreement with Phil Rutledge's
 18 decision.
 19 Q. Okay. So the consensus agreement at 20 Complete Business Solutions Group, who was part of 21 that consensus agreement at Complete Business
 22 Solutions Group?
 23 A. I was part of it and Lisa McElhone.
 24 Q. Anyone else?
 25 A. Not that I can remember.

131

1 Q. Did you have an understanding in 2017 when
 2 you received the subpoena from the Pennsylvania
 3 securities regulators as to what had prompted their 4 investigation?
 5 A. No, I did not.
 6 MR. MILLER: It's Mr. Miller. Object to 7 the form.
 8 BY MS. BERLIN:
 9 Q. In 2017 or 2018, did you ever review the 10 subpoena and the materials that were sent by the 11 Pennsylvania regulators to Complete Business
 12 Solutions Group?
 13 A. Are you asking if I reviewed the subpoena
 14 that was sent?
 15 Q. I'm asking if you received -- it was a
 16 subpoena, but it's sort of like a packet that 17 includes the subpoena. Did you review that or 18 receive it in 2017 or '18?
 19 A. Yes. It was forwarded over to me by our 20 general counsel.
 21 Q. Did you receive then the explanation, the 22 written explanation from the Pennsylvania securities
 23 regulators stating that they had received a
 24 complaint about Dean Vagnozzi?
 25 A. I don't recall that.

132

1 Q. So at a certain point, Complete Business
 2 Solutions Group started utilizing -- I'm going to
 3 refer to it as agent fund managers. Do you agree
 4 with me and understand?
 5 A. Yes. At some point we started working
 6 with agent fund managers.
 7 Q. Okay. And whose idea was it to use agent
 8 fund managers?
 9 A. I don't remember who brought the idea up
 10 originally. This was something we had discussed
 11 with Dean Vagnozzi before, but I don't know who came
 12 up with the idea.
 13 But in the discussion of how the company
 14 would operate going forward with respect to these 15 noteholders or anyone else interested in receiving a
 16 return on any loans made to the company, we 17 discussed with Phil Rutledge that it would be 18 appropriate to do so.
 19 Q. So when did Complete Business Solutions
 20 Group begin using agent fund managers?
 21 A. I don't remember the specific date, but I
 22 believe it was towards the end of 2018.
 23 Q. I'm sorry. So am I understanding
 24 correctly that your testimony is that Complete
 25 Business Solutions Group stopped using finders at 133

1 the end of 2017 or early 2018 and then began using
 2 agent fund managers at the end of 2018?
 3 A. Yes. To the best of my recollection, I
 4 think it was around then that the agent fund
 5 managers were starting and we were working with 6 them.
 7 Q. So from early 2018 until late 2018, is it
 8 accurate that there were no finders and there were 9 no agent fund managers for that time period?
 10 A. It might have been earlier in the year. I
 11 honestly don't recall the specific date.
 12 Q. Who was the primary contact at CBSG with 13 Phil Rutledge?
 14 A. I believe it was Norman Valz, our general
 15 counsel. And subsequently it was Cynthia Clark who 16 replaced Norman Valz in late 2018.
 17 Q. Who else was the primary contact? Like
 18 where did Norman Valz and the other in-house or the 19 other general counsel of the company get their 20 information? Was it from you or Lisa McElhone or 21 others?
 22 A. It depends on what information.
 23 Q. Well, with respect to the use of agent
 24 funds, did Phil Rutledge know you were going to be 25 using agent funds?

134

1 A. We keep Phil Rutledge apprised of the
 2 system going forward, and he would introduce
 3 additional documentation for us to use with the 4 company in relation to the purchasers.
 5 Q. Did you tell Phil Rutledge that you were 6 going to use agent fund managers before the 7 Pennsylvania securities regulator's investigation
 8 had concluded?
 9 A. No. We discussed the strategy after the 10 response to the subpoena was filed. We filed that 11 in, I believe, February of 2018, and we discussed
 12 our procedures going forward both with respect to 13 existing noteholders and new noteholders down the 14 road. So that onset of funds managers along with 15 the existing noteholders that we had were discussed
 16 with him very candidly. And he gave us counsel on 17 how to proceed with that.
 18 Q. Okay. I understand. But my question is a
 19 little different. So during the time that the 20 securities regulator's investigation was opened, so
 21 before there was an agreed order entered against 22 Complete Business Solutions Group at the end of 23 2018, did you tell Phil Rutledge that CBSG was 24 paying any agent fund manager?
 25 MR. FUTERFAS: It's Alan Futerfas. I

135

1 object to the form of the question.
 2 THE WITNESS: Just to repeat your question
 3 back to you and make sure I'm understanding this
 4 correctly --
 5 BY MS. BERLIN:
 6 Q. I can just ask you again. Prior to the --
 7 first of all, are you aware of the fact that there
 8 was an order, an agreed order entered with respect
 9 to Complete Business Solutions Group by the 10 Pennsylvania securities regulators in late 2018?
 11 A. In late 2018, yeah, we had agreed to -- 12 basically as a result of the subpoena, we agreed to 13 a fee in that entire order, yes.
 14 Q. So prior to the time that that order was 15 entered where CBSG would pay the fee, did you tell
 16 Phil Rutledge that you CBSG was paying agent fund
 17 managers?
 18 A. We told Phil Rutledge that prior to the 19 order, that we paid finder's fees through 2017 and 20 possibly the first month of '18 and we were no
 21 longer paying any finder's fees for any fund
 22 managers or noteholders or finders.
 23 Q. And how do you know that that's what was 24 represented to Phil Rutledge? Did you participate
 25 in those communications?

136

1 A. Yes, I did. I spoke and emailed regularly
2 including Norm Valz and Lisa regarding this matter.
3 Q. So approximately from -- like throughout
4 the time period from the beginning of the time that
5 Complete Business Solutions Group was offering
6 promissory notes until the SEC brought its case,
7 approximately how much money did Complete Business
8 Solutions Group receive from investors in promissory
9 notes related to Complete Business Solutions Group?
10 A. Are you asking for the total volume or 11 just the total amount that we would have reflected 12 on our balance sheet at any one point in time?
13 MS. SCHEIN: Amie, could you state the 14 timeframe?
15 BY MS. BERLIN:
16 Q. I asked for the entire time period that 17 Complete Business Solutions Group was receiving 18 investor funds. So from the very beginning all the 19 way until the SEC filed its case, approximately how
20 much money came in to Complete Business Solutions
21 Group from the offer or entry of a promissory note
22 in connection with Complete Business Solutions
23 Group?
24 A. I'm trying to understand your question.
25 Do you mean the total volume of cash in and out? So

137

1 if someone provided a million dollars and then they
2 renewed it again for another million dollars for the
3 subsequent year, would you count that as 2 million,
4 or would you count the amount of volume at any one
5 point in time that the company had in debt, meaning
6 what someone's debt it carried at a single point in
7 time?
8 Q. I'm asking about how much cash came in.
9 MR. FUTERFAS: Alan Futerfas. I object to 10 the form of the question, particularly unless you
11 have documents to show the witness.
12 THE WITNESS: I'm having a hard time
13 answering your question.
14 BY MS. BERLIN:
15 Q. I'm asking for an approximate figure. One
16 of your jobs was -- I mean, you were the CFO of the 17 company; correct?
18 A. That's right.
19 Q. Okay. So I'm just asking for an
20 approximate figure of how much was -- how much money
21 came in from investors. I'm not talking about like
22 an accounting basis where you might be counting
23 money twice because it's rolled over. I'm actually 24 talking about like cash in.
25 MR. FUTERFAS: Again, I'm going to renew

138

1 my objection. I'm sorry.
2 THE WITNESS: Sorry, Amie. I'm really
3 trying to help you here, but the way you're phrasing
4 the question makes it impossible to ask -- or to
5 answer because I don't know if you're counting
6 monies that were provided and then renewed or if 7 you're talking about the volume total of cash at any
8 one point in time that the company carried in debt.
9 I really want to answer this for you and as 10 accurately as possible.
11 BY MS. BERLIN:
12 Q. I'm not talking about the amount carried
13 as debt which would include the interest rate. I'm 14 actually talking about how much money flowed into 15 the Complete Business Solutions Group bank account
16 that was from these promissory notes.
17 MR. FUTERFAS: Object to the form.
18 BY MS. BERLIN:
19 Q. I'm not asking about the interest rate.
20 I'm asking like how much money approximately flowed
21 into the CBSG account that was derived from the
22 promissory notes.
23 MR. FUTERFAS: I object to the form.
24 THE WITNESS: So hear me out for a second.
25 I'm not including interest when I'm describing the 139

1 total volume of debt. And to help answer the
2 question, when I'm describing the total volume of
3 debt, obviously cash flows come in from note
4 purchasers. We have a balance of debt. We receive
5 $10 million. We owe $10 million. We receive
6 another $20 million from someone else. Now we owe
7 30.
8 But when you're asking the total volume of 9 cash flow or how much monies came in -- let's say
10 the first $10 million came back in the subsequent 11 period. Am I counting that as two separate deposits
12 of cash into the business even though those funds
13 were repaid back to the noteholder and then
14 subsequently put back in?
15 In that case, my answer would be
16 $40 million because 10 million came from the same
17 party twice despite the fact it's going back. Or 18 are you asking the total amount of cash, meaning any 19 monies from these different parties that were kept
20 in the company at any given point in time?
21 Because as you can understand, it's a
22 dynamic balance sheet. There's a lot of monies
23 coming and going and being repaid throughout the 24 history. And in that example, I would say the 25 company would have $30 million in debt. Does that

140

1 make sense?
 2 Q. Yes. So I'm asking you -- yes. I
 3 understand the confusion. My second question is 4 going to be how much went back to investors.
 5 So my question is: How much money came in
 6 to Complete Business Solutions Group in connection
 7 with the promissory notes, whether or not it was 8 from an investor who reinvested money that had been 9 returned? So how many dollars actually came in?
 10 And then I'm going to ask you
 11 approximately how much went back out.
 12 A. I think we're getting to the bottom of it.
 13 Let me try to answer both questions in one
 14 explanation because it's related.
 15 Q. Okay. Great.
 16 A. The amount of capital that has come in 17 from individual parties through the history of CBSG
 18 from 2012 to 2020 has been approximately $460
 19 million not counting the same capital being 20 reloaded. The amount that has been repaid from that 21 amount has been approximately $180 million.
 22 The most debt the company ever had at any
 23 given point in time was approximately $384 million,
 24 and this was in March of 2020. And during that 25 time, we repaid another $15 to $20 million back to

141

1 noteholders. And that was approximately leaving the
 2 company with a total liability position of $365
 3 million in debt at the time.
 4 Q. And that's $365 million in debt to the 5 noteholders; correct?
 6 A. That is correct.
 7 Q. The consulting fees that you received from
 8 Complete Business Solutions Group, was that money
 9 that was money from the merchants repaying the MCA,
 10 or was it money that was from noteholders?
 11 A. The monies that would be paid for 12 consulting fees came exclusively from merchant
 13 deposits coming into the business.
 14 Q. And how do you know that?
 15 A. So operationally we have our noteholder
 16 deposits come in twice a month. And in 2019, '18
 17 and onward, we would have this done on the 10th and 18 23rd. So if you take into consideration -- and I'm 19 being general here just to paint the picture -- that 20 the company received a billion three in cash flows
 21 from merchant deposits and approximately let's call
 22 it $460 million in investor note deposits, you have 23 about a little bit more than two-thirds, maybe
 24 towards three-fourths of capital coming in from 25 merchants deposits.

142

1 So in at any given month, if we fund $30
 2 million or if we receive $30 million in deposits, we
 3 would have less than $15 million coming in from 4 noteholders. And if you split that up into the two
 5 days, that's about $7-1/2 million per month. And 6 remember when I said that the consulting fees were 7 paid the week after the end of the quarter when we
 8 calculate how much funding the company provided.
 9 By the time we would send that wire out
 10 for the consulting payments, and let's say that's 11 the 5th or 6th, whatever the business day is 12 available for us to make that wire, we would have
 13 had approximately seven days since that last deposit
 14 of investor or noteholder funds into the business,
 15 which would have been on the 23rd.
 16 And being that the company in that point
 17 in time would be funding about $2, $3 million per 18 day, all the deposits from the noteholders would 19 have already gone out to merchant funding. And all
 20 subsequent cash flow to be received by the company,
 21 which was about $2, $2-1/2 million per day at the 22 time, would have been used in the cash flow balances
 23 that the company had to pay the consulting fees in 24 the two weeks later after the last investor or 25 noteholder deposits were received into our accounts.

143

1 Q. Okay. So in addition to the consulting
 2 fees, what about all of the other like operating
 3 expenses of Complete Business Solutions Group, what 4 was the source of money used to pay all of the 5 operating expenses?
 6 A. It also came from merchant MCA deposits.
 7 Q. So is it your testimony that investor
 8 money was used solely for funding MCA agreements?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. Excuse me?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Who prepared the Complete Business
 13 Solutions Group tax returns?
 14 A. It depends on the period of time, but from 15 2014 onward, the firm we worked with was Rod Ermel
 16 Associates out of Colorado Springs.
 17 Q. And who was the main contact at CBSG for 18 Rod Ermel?
 19 A. I was the main point of contact along with 20 Lisa.
 21 Q. Were the tax returns that CBSG had filed
 22 with the IRS like ultimately approved by anyone at 23 CBSG before filing?
 24 A. I believe Lisa discussed this with the 25 accountants before the final decision was made to

144

1 file. I would sign off and say that I agreed from
 2 the accounting side, that they made sense. But Lisa
 3 was the main person on the account that would
 4 ultimately approve these.
 5 Q. Did you review and sign off on the tax
 6 returns for every year that you were with Complete
 7 Business Solutions Group?
 8 A. If you're asking if I saw the tax returns
 9 as far as review, I'm not a CPA. I'm not a tax
 10 expert. So I'm not saying I'm making any decisions
 11 on the calculations. But I certainly looked at them
 12 before they were filed by our CPAs at Rod Ermel
 13 Associates.
 14 Q. Did you sign off on them as the CFO?
 15 A. I confirmed that they looked good based on 16 our accounting, yes. But I did not sign off in 17 regards to any sort of calculations or methodologies
 18 being used. We relied on them to make sure that 19 that was done in the best possible manner.
 20 Q. Did you believe that every one of those 21 Complete Business Solutions Group tax returns during
 22 your period of work with Complete Business Solutions
 23 Group and Full Spectrum, so from 2012 through 2020,
 24 did you believe that each of the CBSG tax returns
 25 was true?

145

1 A. I didn't review tax returns prior to Rod
 2 Ermel's involvement. From 2012 to 2014 I had very
 3 limited review or analysis of those tax returns.
 4 For the ones I did review prepared by Rod Ermel
 5 Associates subsequent 2014, I believe that they were
 6 done correctly and accurately per the discussions I
 7 had with our tax accountants and my own knowledge of 8 tying out the information provided from our
 9 accounting system.
 10 Q. As part of the materials that CBSG
 11 provided to noteholders or potential noteholders,
 12 there was financial information that was provided
 13 about the merchant cash advance returns. Is that 14 true?
 15 A. I don't know what you mean by merchant
 16 cash advance return.
 17 Q. So as part of the information that was 18 provided to investors and potential investors of 19 Complete Business Solutions Group, there was a chart
 20 that was specifically called CBSG Funding Analysis.
 21 Would you agree with me?
 22 A. Yes. You're referring to the monthly KPI
 23 report that we would send out.
 24 Q. And what did KPI stand for?
 25 A. That's key performing indicators.

146

1 Q. Who would prepare the CBSG funding
 2 analysis?
 3 A. That would be prepared by members of my
 4 accounting staff and reviewed by me before being
 5 sent out.
 6 Q. Okay. Did you have the final say on the 7 CBSG funding analysis document before it was 8 finalized?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. Mr. Cole, if you answered, I didn't hear
 11 you.
 12 A. Yes. I said, "Yes."
 13 Q. Okay. Thank you. I didn't hear it.
 14 So what was the purpose of the CBSG
 15 funding analysis? Like why was that prepared each
 16 month?
 17 A. The funding analysis, as you would 18 anticipate from key performing indicators, would 19 select the metrics that we felt most pertinent in 20 keeping track of the performance of the company's
 21 portfolio.
 22 So the Full Spectrum accountants would put 23 together the numbers for the amount wired, the 24 number of deals for every month or year, the total
 25 amount of receivables that we had at the end of the

147

1 period, the exposure from the defaults written off
 2 for a period of time, the total amount of payments
 3 collected from merchants and the amount of return
 4 payments as a percentage and a number from the 5 payments we processed that came back.
 6 There's a lot of useful information that
 7 you can derive from this, such as are we getting 8 consistent payments from our merchants, are our 9 funding amounts reasonable in proportion to the 10 deals, the terms of the factoring agreement that 11 we're negotiating with these MCA merchants, are they 12 in line. And you can also analyze trends. This is 13 like the back of the baseball card stats for the 14 player. You really want to know how valuable these 15 performing indicators are, right.
 16 Q. Was the information in the funding
 17 analysis, this payment information, that was 18 utilized to prepare CBSG's financial statements?
 19 A. Yes. It was the exact same information.
 20 Q. And was the same information utilized in 21 the preparation of the CBSG tax returns?
 22 A. Yes, it was, although not everything on 23 there would be reflected on the tax return. I don't 24 think the IRS cares how many deals we funded in the 25 last month.

148

1 Q. Is that the only thing that wasn't
 2 reflected in the tax returns that was on the funding
 3 analysis?
 4 MR. FUTERFAS: Object to the form.
 5 THE WITNESS: Well, if you think about it,
 6 very minimal would be reflected on the tax returns
 7 from the funding analysis. The IRS doesn't care how 8 many deposits we had or the return payments from our
 9 ACH processors. They will care about the defaults
 10 and the recognition of bad debts under GAAP. But 11 they won't care about the exposure, for example, and 12 the amount of cash loss from those deals.
 13 I think they're going to be a lot more
 14 concerned on the revenue side. And as part of your 15 schedule A or M-3 schedule on the 1120 tax return,
 16 you may have a consideration for the amount on the 17 balance sheet. And as a part of the balance sheet,
 18 you have the AR total from the respective period
 19 you're reporting for.
 20 So when you're doing the final tax returns
 21 or having your CPA prepare the tax returns, you'll 22 want to sign off on that being an accurate total as 23 reported for the 1120s.
 24 Q. Did you provide the funding analysis, the 25 monthly funding analysis documents to Rod Ermel for

149

1 preparation of the tax returns?
 2 A. Yes. I regularly provided this every
 3 month to Rod Ermel Associates for review.
 4 Q. Did you ask them to -- did you ask Rod
 5 Ermel to review the CBSG funding analysis each
 6 month?
 7 A. That's right. In addition, Lisa hired
 8 them in 2016 to perform an audit on that specific
 9 report. They issued an agreed upon letter procedure
 10 where they verified for a week. Two of their CPAs
 11 flew out to the office. They verified the deals we 12 had reported on the report were accurate and that 13 they were indeed funded per the terms of the 14 agreement.
 15 And they would also contact our merchants
 16 to verify the terms to issue that letter verifying
 17 that the information provided on the KPI report was 18 indeed factual as stated.
 19 Q. So my question was a little different.
 20 Did you ask like -- you said you sent or you
 21 testified that you sent the CBSG funding analysis to 22 Rod Ermel each month; correct?
 23 A. That's right.
 24 Q. Okay. When you sent Rod Ermel the funding
 25 analysis, were you asking Rod Ermel each month to 150

1 verify whether or not the information in the funding
 2 analysis was accurate?
 3 A. Are you asking if I asked them to verify
 4 it each month?
 5 Q. Yes.
 6 A. No. I did not ask them to verify it each
 7 month.
 8 Q. Okay. So did you tell Rod Ermel that CBSG
 9 was distributing the funding analysis document to 10 potential investors of promissory notes in
 11 connection with Complete Business Solutions Group?
 12 A. No. I didn't tell them that.
 13 Q. Did there come a time when you learned
 14 that Complete Business Solutions Group provided the 15 CBSG funding analysis document to potential
 16 investors in connection with the CBSG-related
 17 promissory notes?
 18 A. Yes. I believe this was reviewed by 19 potential noteholders. And I remember on occasions
 20 speaking about this report with anyone that would 21 ask about it.
 22 Q. Did you sometimes have phone calls with 23 potential investors about the funding analysis?
 24 A. Yes. I would occasionally have phone
 25 calls about that report.

151

1 Q. Okay. And what types of questions were
 2 they asking about it?
 3 A. Can you explain the metrics on the report?
 4 Can you explain your historic trends and projected
 5 trends going forward? What are the methodologies
 6 used to determine the various columns, the 7 calculations, and explaining the footnotes on how
 8 these numbers were derived.
 9 There's a lot of information on there, and
 10 there were a lot of different questions.
 11 Q. Okay. Would you sometimes explain to the 12 potential investors what the exposure percentage
 13 meant?
 14 A. Yes, absolutely.
 15 Q. Okay. And how would you explain that?
 16 A. The exposure percentage is a dynamic
 17 number that's calculated each month. It reflects
 18 the cash-over-cash exposure for deals that were 19 written off for that respective period of time in 20 proportion to the amount of funding for that 21 respective period of time.
 22 Q. So was it sort of like the amount that 23 Complete Business Solutions Group had funded? Like
 24 was it based on the amount that Complete Business
 25 Solutions Group had funded minus the amount that it

152

1 had collected on those merchant cash advances?
 2 A. No.
 3 Q. How was it calculated? Can you explain it
 4 to me?
 5 A. Sure. So let's say, for example, in a
 6 given month you have a blend of merchants that you
 7 are writing off in default. There's a blend of a
 8 receivables total and then there's the exposure on 9 those receivables. Your receivables is going to be 10 the amount that was provided to the merchant plus
 11 revenue minus repayments.
 12 So let's say we wired out half a million
 13 dollars and we had a 130 factor rate attached to 14 that. Well, we would have $650,000 repayable from 15 that $500,000 in total RTR. And let's say that 16 blend of merchants repays back $250,000.
 17 Well, from that example, I would have a
 18 total of $400,000 in receivable left to collect just 19 for that group of deals, but I would have an
 20 exposure of $250,000 because I would receive 250,000
 21 against the 500,000 originally provided for the 22 transaction.
 23 So your two columns, your AR that's 24 totally being written off for that month would be 25 400,000. But your exposure for those deals would

153

1 only be a quarter million dollars. And then in
 2 proportion to that amount, that quarter million
 3 dollars, that would be the numerator over the 4 funding total for the month. That would be your 5 denominator.
 6 So that let's say you only funded
 7 $25 million for that month. $250,000 over $25
 8 million would reflect a 1 percent ratio for your 9 exposure in proportion to your funding. I would
 10 explain this to anyone that asked me a question
 11 regarding the calculation.
 12 Q. Okay. And is that how you would explain
 13 it to the potential investors, the way you just 14 explained it to me in your testimony?
 15 A. The operative word there is always
 16 cash-over-cash losses.
 17 Q. And did the rate take into consideration
 18 like -- let me back up for a second. In your 19 testimony you mentioned defaults.
 20 How did Complete Business Solutions Group
 21 identify or define a merchant cash advance that was
 22 in default?
 23 A. It depends on the period of time.
 24 Q. Okay. So when you first started at the 25 company in 2012, how did it determine default?

154

1 A. Our tax accountants would prepare a loss
 2 provision based on the amount of outstanding
 3 receivables and anticipated losses from that. So it
 4 would factor in the total amount of deals written
 5 off. And I'm assuming this is for tax purposes, not
 6 for accounting purposes.
 7 The amount that would be requested as a
 8 writeoff on the tax return would be the amount of 9 the expected losses not just from the actual losses,
 10 but also from the projected losses on the 11 consistent -- on the ongoing portfolio.
 12 Q. So am I understanding correctly then in 13 2012, the accountants would determine which merchant
 14 cash advance agreements were in default?
 15 A. They would not determine which merchant
 16 cash advance agreements were in default. That is a
 17 function of collections and legal.
 18 They would determine the revenue
 19 recognition loss methodology as used for tax
 20 returns, which is a very different thing.
 21 Q. Yeah. I was going to say I'm asking
 22 something a little different.
 23 So in your testimony, you mentioned
 24 merchant cash advances in default. So I'm asking:
 25 How did CBSSG determine which merchant cash advances

155

1 were in default?
 2 A. Well, the employees at Full Spectrum
 3 providing services for these default merchants, they 4 would determine which deals were written off based
 5 on the frequency of payment and if there were 6 existing agreements in place with the merchants in 7 arrears, meaning that our provision -- and this is 8 getting into the future, so if you don't want to 9 talk about taxes -- taxes is part of the 10 conversation when it comes to GAAP losses. But I'm 11 trying to be general.
 12 But in general, you would have to consider
 13 the last payment from the merchant and whether or 14 not you had an agreement or negotiations in place
 15 for the repayment or some sort of modification to 16 the existing factoring agreement.
 17 And the length of time the company would
 18 use is about six weeks. So if someone didn't pay us
 19 a dollar on the thousand dollar payment, after six
 20 weeks, the company would recognize that as a default
 21 unless there were some sort of negotiation or legal 22 agreement pending to the resolution of that balance
 23 in arrears.
 24 Q. Okay. So what if during those six weeks
 25 on the thousand dollar merchant cash advance the 156

1 merchant did pay a dollar? Then what would happen?
 2 Would the merchant cash advance not be deemed in
 3 default?
 4 A. It wouldn't be a dollar.
 5 MR. FUTERFAS: Objection to form.
 6 THE WITNESS: It would have to be
 7 proportionate to the amount. Obviously, the company
 8 isn't going to come to an agreement of only taking a
 9 dollar for someone that has a thousand dollar
 10 obligation to repay. It would have to be a
 11 reasonable repayment obligation.
 12 Otherwise, the legal team would exercise
 13 all rights and remedies to rectify the factoring
 14 agreement that they were in breach of.
 15 Q. Okay. So was there a set percentage or 16 set amount that a merchant would have to pay in 17 order to not be deemed in default?
 18 A. No. There's no set percentage. I'll get 19 into this a little bit because your question is 20 getting into it, but under GAAP allowances that we 21 had from our audit in 2017 onward, we were under 22 FASB 356 guidance from the accounting standards
 23 court that we would determine the methodologies for 24 writeoffs are contingent upon management's decision
 25 to determine those writeoffs and that the writeoffs

157

1 used then were using that methodology as its
 2 consistent methodology for writing off per our
 3 actual accounting function, so a period of six weeks
 4 with no negotiation or any sort of agreement with 5 these merchants.
 6 Q. But I'm trying to understand like how much
 7 negotiation or how much payment would have to be 8 made in order for the merchant not to be deemed in 9 default. You said if they paid zero, if they didn't
 10 pay a dollar on a thousand dollar merchant cash 11 advance, after six weeks, they'd be deemed in 12 default.
 13 How much would a merchant have to pay on 14 that $1,000 merchant cash advance to not be in 15 default at the end of the six weeks?
 16 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 17 THE WITNESS: There's no set percentage if
 18 that's what you're asking.
 19 BY MS. BERLIN:
 20 Q. Who ultimately makes the decision as to 21 whether or not a merchant cash advance is in 22 default; right?
 23 A. This would be under the collections and 24 legal department.
 25 Q. But my question is who.

158

1 A. It would be the managers of the collection
 2 and legal department. It depends on the point in
 3 time you're referring to.
 4 Q. Okay. So go back to 2012. Who were the 5 people making those decisions in 2012?
 6 A. Lisa was making the decisions back in 7 2012.
 8 Q. Okay. And so when did Lisa stop making
 9 the decisions?
 10 A. Let me think. The collections department
 11 and counsel, from '14 onwards, Norm Valz was a big 12 component in the determination of those defaults.
 13 That was our general counsel. He started off as 14 third party and would assist in seeing the viability
 15 of negotiations with these merchants.
 16 It's extremely nuanced, so a lot of the 17 times, the collections personnel would be the ones
 18 engaged with discussing these with the merchants.
 19 In 2014 and '15, we had our collections
 20 manager, whose name was Kenneth Calcagnini, in 21 charge of that. Subsequent to him, we had 22 additional collections staff that would work with 23 negotiations with those merchants. So ultimately if 24 they were able to come to a deal, they would not be 25 put into default.

159

1 But at the end of the month, a review
 2 would be performed by the department as a whole, and 3 the collections with participation from the legal
 4 team would determine what deals would be written
 5 off. And they would confirm this with my department
 6 in accounting to book the official change in 7 receivables from the deals being written off for 8 that period of time, which is the data I'm using for 9 the KPI report with that exposure that we just spoke 10 of.
 11 Q. So default meant that a loan had been
 12 written off?
 13 A. Other factoring agreements, not loans,
 14 yeah.
 15 Q. I'm sorry. A default meant that a
 16 merchant cash advance had been written off; is that 17 accurate?
 18 A. Yes. It would be recognized as a loss for 19 that period of time that they were being written 20 off.
 21 Q. Okay. And during the time period when
 22 Norm Valz was the person who decided which loans
 23 were in default, how did he communicate which ones
 24 were in default? How did he tell CBSG that?
 25 A. This is an ongoing communication between 160

1 the collections and legal team. So they would have
2 phone calls and emails and even in-person meetings
3 to discuss the deals.

4 Q. Did you or Lisa McElhone, like, have
5 ultimate decision making as to which loans were
6 considered in default -- I'm sorry -- which merchant
7 cash advances were deemed in default or written off?

8 MS. SCHEIN: Object to the form.

9 THE WITNESS: No. I think at the 10 beginning, Lisa made some of these decisions, but 11 later on we weren't the ones making a decision on 12 whether or not the deals would be written off. We 13 mainly relied on counsel and the collections team
14 staff including the collections manager.

15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. Okay. So in 2020, who were the
17 decision-makers for deciding whether or not an MCA
18 was written off or was in default?

19 A. This would be with Brett Berman. We had a
20 few different employees in collections. Anthony
21 Fazio was one of the managers there along with Tim
22 Meyers. And they would come to a decision on what
23 deals were to be written off based on the feedback
24 received from their collections teams.

25 Q. And would those decisions about which 161

1 everyone's name. This is like over a year ago.

2 Q. Did you receive the list?

3 A. Yeah. I received the list. I'm always
4 copied on the list. I have the final review before
5 it's booked. There's a lot of moving parts, a lot
6 of entries to be made in QuickBooks and our related
7 spreadsheets. Jim Klenk was also copied on that
8 report.

9 Q. Who else would send the list to you?

10 A. I don't recall who sent the list. I
11 believe it was someone from the collections team.

12 Q. And you would receive it by email?

13 A. Yes. This would usually come in by email.

14 Q. Okay. So if the merchant cash advance
15 borrower had been sued by Complete Business
16 Solutions Group for failure to pay a merchant cash
17 advance, were they included on the list of defaulted
18 merchant cash advances?

19 A. Not necessarily. Typically the ones in 20 litigation were, but like I just said, if you had a
21 negotiation or some kind of modification you were 22 working on, it wasn't necessarily already going to 23 be written off for that period of time.

24 It's when it's deemed it's uncollectible,
25 that there's no hope, that we're getting, you know,

163

1 merchant cash advances were in default, would that
2 be communicated to you in 2020?

3 A. Yes. I just get the final list. So I'd
4 get that sent over. And by me, I mean my department
5 would receive the final list. And the folks who
6 prepared that list would come to that decision
7 before providing that list for my team to go and 8 book the changes in the receivables to reflect the 9 defaults.

10 Q. So who on your team would receive that 11 list of merchant cash advances that were deemed in 12 default?

13 A. This would be my accounting team. It
14 depends on the period of time, but there's a few
15 different people copied on that email. It's a large
16 process.

17 Q. 2020.

18 A. There's a lot of different deals.
19 Obviously, there's lots of work to do in order to 20 book those deals.

21 Q. In 2020 who would get the list?

22 A. In 2020 the deposit log team was Zoe Lou,
23 Milad -- I forget how to say his last name. Just 24 call him Milad F. There's Megan. I'm trying to 25 really remember. I'm sorry. I can't remember

162

1 no phone calls or any communication even with
2 counsel on the other end that we have to really move
3 forward with it.

4 Q. So it's really only deemed in default once
5 it's ultimately deemed uncollectible, and that
6 decision would be made by Brett Berman and the
7 collections group; is that accurate?

8 A. They're the ones in charge of negotiation
9 with these merchants and talking to counsel on the 10 other side. So they have to keep in mind, okay,
11 when is the last time they paid? When is the last 12 time you guys came to a consensus that you would 13 make some kind of payment or agreement? Or was this 14 contingent upon, you know, some kind of sale of 15 assets, whatever the issue was.

16 They would handle the very diverse nuances
17 of negotiating with these merchants. And even 18 though it's only a small part of the portfolio, a
19 lot of these merchants had complex issues that can't 20 be easily resolved. Even if they were in 21 bankruptcy, for example, they might still be making
22 payments. But we'd still have worry and may file
23 preemptive legal action in consideration for 24 something like that.

25 So I want to say it's very nuanced and

164

1 complex, and that's why there were so many people
 2 involved with having to deal with these and see
 3 merchants potentially going into default.
 4 Q. My question was just who made the ultimate
 5 decision that there was no chance of collection and,
 6 therefore, it should be written off? I was just
 7 trying to confirm it was Brett Berman and the
 8 collections group. Is that accurate?
 9 A. Yeah. It's consistent with what I just 10 said about who handles these and works these. It's 11 the same folks.
 12 Q. Okay. And before Brett Berman -- Brett
 13 Berman came in in what year?
 14 A. Brett Berman did work for the company
 15 prior to taking over as general counsel in February
 16 of 2020. I forget the period of time --
 17 Q. What time --
 18 A. I'm sorry?
 19 Q. During what time period did Brett Berman
 20 determine which of the merchant cash advances were
 21 in default?
 22 A. This would have to be after he assumed
 23 being general counsel for the company. That would 24 be after early 2020.
 25 Q. Okay. And so before early 2020 when Brett

165

1 collections group?
 2 A. Right. I can't stress enough that the
 3 collections team had a lot of input in this because 4 they were more hands-on. You're not going to have 5 your expensive lawyer talk to every one of the 6 merchants. A lot of the heavy lifting will be done
 7 by the collection staff.
 8 Q. Okay. So what about before Ms. Clark was 9 doing it?
 10 A. Her predecessor was Norman Valz.
 11 Q. Okay. During what time period was he 12 deciding which merchant cash advances were in 13 default?
 14 A. Norman worked, I believe, from '14 to '17.
 15 Q. So who on the collections team was making
 16 these decisions?
 17 A. The same people. There were the managers.
 18 Q. The collections managers were making the
 19 decisions?
 20 A. Yes. They would talk to their team and 21 they would come to a consensus.
 22 Q. And who were the collections managers
 23 between 2014 and 2020?
 24 A. Just those couple guys I threw out, Tim
 25 Meyers, Anthony Fazio, Ken Calcagnini. They had 167

1 Berman was doing it with the collections unit, who
 2 was making the decisions as to which merchant cash
 3 advances were in default?
 4 A. It was still the collections team and
 5 whoever was general counsel at the time. His 6 predecessor was Peter Mulcahy, although Peter had
 7 two other lawyers working underneath him in Full
 8 Spectrum Processing.
 9 Q. And what years was Peter Mulcahy part of 10 the decision-making team about the merchant cash
 11 advances in default?
 12 A. Peter was there in 2019 and a part of 13 2020.
 14 Q. Okay. So what about before Mr. Mulcahy,
 15 who was making the decisions with the collections
 16 team about which merchant cash advances were in
 17 default?
 18 A. His predecessor was Cindy Clark.
 19 Q. And during what years was Cindy Clark
 20 making the decision on which merchant cash advances
 21 were in default?
 22 A. I believe she was there in '18 and '19.
 23 Q. Okay. And during that time, she was 24 making the decisions about which merchant cash
 25 advances were in default working together with the 166

1 some other senior collectors on their team, too,
 2 that were certainly influential, although probably
 3 didn't make the final call about it.
 4 Q. Okay. Who were the senior members of the 5 team who were influential?
 6 A. I don't recall their names. I'm sorry. I
 7 didn't work in collections.
 8 Q. And it sounds like -- am I correct in 9 saying the decision about which merchant cash
 10 advances would be deemed in default was largely a 11 subjective decision and there was no like specific 12 criteria in place?
 13 A. No. I wouldn't classify it as subjective.
 14 Six weeks is a very finite amount of time. And 15 whether or not a merchant is in negotiations to come
 16 to an agreement is also an objective thing to 17 determine.
 18 If a collector told me, yeah, we're going
 19 to get into negotiations with this merchant, there's 20 no way that that would comply with the fault loss
 21 methodology determined by our financial auditing
 22 firm. So that would have to be included.
 23 Q. So what were the -- was there some sort of 24 policy in place for determining when a merchant cash
 25 advance is going to be deemed in default?

168

1 A. Yes. There's a policy in place --
 2 Q. Go ahead.
 3 A. Are you done?
 4 Q. Yes.
 5 A. The policies were put into place after our 6 2017 audit under GAAP and further refined to reflect
 7 the actual flow of the defaults going into
 8 receivables.
 9 Q. And who put the policy into place?
 10 A. The policy was put into place with
 11 cooperation from the auditing firm, Friedman, LLP,
 12 rod Ermel Associates who would take that information
 13 to use for the tax returns, and legal, in-house
 14 legal which drafted some of the language as part of 15 that policy.
 16 Q. Who specifically drafted the language that 17 was part of the policy?
 18 A. I don't remember whom. We had Cynthia
 19 working there before and Norm. It was likely one of 20 them, but I'm not going to make assumptions or 21 guesses.
 22 Q. Okay. And so the policy on when to deem a
 23 merchant cash advance in default, that was actually
 24 written into a policy somewhere?
 25 A. It was described as part of the piece that 169

1 someone would pay.
 2 And so they would convene and discuss it.
 3 And if they didn't think someone was going to pay
 4 and they hadn't made a sufficient payment by the end
 5 of six weeks, then it was seemed in default.
 6 MR. SOTO: Object to form.
 7 MS. SCHEIN: Object to form.
 8 BY MS. BERLIN:
 9 Q. Did I understand you correctly, Mr. Cole?
 10 A. That's a lot of different things you're
 11 explaining. At the end of day --
 12 Q. You said there was no -- that it wasn't
 13 subjective and that there was a set policy, but you
 14 also -- can you explain how that gels with the idea
 15 that -- you also testified that a merchant wouldn't 16 have to pay a specific amount or even a specific 17 percentage in determining whether or not they were
 18 in default.
 19 So I guess I'm just trying to understand
 20 like what specifically was the objective policy that 21 was followed for identifying merchant cash advances
 22 in default.
 23 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 24 MS. SCHEIN: It's been asked and answered.
 25

171

1 Jim Klenk ended up finalizing and working with our
 2 accountants. That's the official policy that Full
 3 Spectrum followed for the determinations of CBSG's
 4 losses.
 5 Q. What's the name of the policy?
 6 A. I don't know if it has a proper name. I
 7 would describe it as the audit work papers or just
 8 the methodologies or policies from the audit. I'm 9 sure it has a proper file name and they refer it. I
 10 just don't recall what they called it. It might be 11 accounting policies and procedures or something to 12 that effect.
 13 Q. What exactly were the guidelines like for 14 determining whether or not a merchant cash advance
 15 was in default?
 16 A. That's the thing that I was describing,
 17 yeah.
 18 Q. Well, what I understood you to say is that 19 if someone didn't pay a dollar on a $1,000 loan,
 20 after six weeks, it would be deemed in default and 21 that there was no set percentage of how much someone 22 would have to pay on a merchant cash advance to 23 determine whether or not they were in default and 24 that the lawyers together with collections had a
 25 sense from their interactions as to whether or not

170

1 BY MS. BERLIN:
 2 Q. Go ahead, Mr. Cole.
 3 A. I'm sorry, Amie. I have nothing to add.
 4 I've already explained this.
 5 Q. Mr. Cole, did you hear my question? I'm 6 having like a technical issue. Did you hear the 7 question?
 8 A. I did. I responded.
 9 Q. I didn't hear your response. Can you
 10 answer it?
 11 A. Sorry. I said I already explained it and 12 I don't have anything else to add to that.
 13 Q. So let me ask you some hypotheticals. So
 14 if a merchant cash advance -- if a merchant received
 15 100,000 from Complete Business Solutions Group and 16 then had not made payments for six weeks, but agreed
 17 to pay $1,000, would that merchant cash advance be 18 deemed in default by Complete Business Solutions
 19 Group?
 20 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 21 THE WITNESS: I wouldn't be able to make
 22 the determination. That would have to be determined
 23 by the managers of collections and legal.
 24 BY MS. BERLIN:
 25 Q. You testified that there was objective

172

1 criteria that they followed. Can you tell me what
 2 that specific criteria was that was followed by
 3 them?
 4 A. That's what I'm referring to.
 5 Q. So what was the objective criteria that 6 the collections group and the counsel utilized to 7 determine whether or not a merchant cash advance was
 8 in default?
 9 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 10 THE WITNESS: I described the policies and 11 procedures. The determination is that six weeks of 12 nonpayment, unless a negotiated amount or 13 modification to the factoring agreement was in 14 process. The objective is within six weeks and 15 whether or not it's being negotiated or worked on by 16 the collection department.
 17 You're asking me in the example would that 18 be accepted? I can't make an opinion to that
 19 because I'm not the one negotiating those accepted
 20 terms. I'm not Brett Berman, and I'm not going to 21 say, hey, Brett, does this deal sound good. That's 22 not my job.
 23 My job is to record what the collections
 24 and the legal department determine.
 25

173

1 BY MS. BERLIN:
 2 Q. So was it determined by the legal and
 3 collections department based on their personal
 4 judgment from your interactions with the merchants
 5 or the merchant's counsel? Is that fair to say?
 6 MS. SCHEIN: Object to form.
 7 THE WITNESS: Yes. That's fair to say.
 8 BY MS. BERLIN:
 9 Q. Okay. So you testified that just because 10 a merchant cash advance was in a lawsuit and was 11 being sued by Complete Business Solutions Group for 12 payment, that that didn't necessarily mean that the 13 merchant cash advance was in default.
 14 I wonder if you can explain that. Under 15 what circumstances would it be deemed in default and 16 under what circumstances would that merchant cash
 17 advance in litigation not be deemed in default?
 18 MR. SOTO: Objection to form. Are you
 19 asking him to answer a question about a deal that 20 might be in default without explaining the terms of 21 the deal? You're just asking him to guess, Amie.
 22 BY MS. BERLIN:
 23 Q. Mr. Cole, you can answer. I'm asking you
 24 to just explain. And maybe I wasn't clear. You
 25 testified earlier that just because a merchant cash

174

1 advance is the subject of litigation and that CBSG
 2 has sued the merchant to recover for the merchant
 3 cash advance, that that doesn't necessarily mean
 4 that the merchant cash advance is in default.
 5 Do you recall testifying to that, or did I
 6 understand you correctly?
 7 MS. SCHEIN: Object to form. This has 8 been gone over for quite some time. Asked and 9 answered.
 10 MS. BERLIN: Okay.
 11 BY MS. BERLIN:
 12 Q. Mr. Cole, go ahead.
 13 MS. SCHEIN: The record will reflect he 14 already answered a number of times.
 15 BY MS. BERLIN:
 16 Q. Mr. Cole, if you answered, I didn't hear
 17 you.
 18 A. I didn't answer. I think we're going
 19 around in circles asking the same thing over and 20 over. I'm not in collections. I have no way of 21 determining the hypothetical deal that you propose
 22 if it's in collections or not.
 23 If you're asking me for interpretation of 24 default, the IRS wouldn't take this definition.
 25 That would be completely different, because they're

175

1 a lot more stringent. They won't let us write off
 2 something over a six-week period.
 3 A lot of people feel that that's very
 4 aggressive. Most companies would probably write it
 5 off over a year. But we take an aggressive approach
 6 to our loss methodologies.
 7 But I can't make an opinion in regards to
 8 what methodology a lawyer or a seasoned collector
 9 would determine in conjunction with negotiations
 10 with a merchant and whether or not a deal is viable.
 11 I'm not a collector.
 12 Q. Let me ask you a different way. I'll ask
 13 you a different way. Earlier today you testified
 14 that just because a merchant cash advance is in 15 litigation doesn't necessarily mean that it's in 16 default. I wonder if you can explain why you
 17 believe that just because it's in litigation doesn't
 18 mean that it's in default.
 19 MS. SCHEIN: Object to form.
 20 THE WITNESS: Just because a deal is in 21 litigation and counsel is exercising their relief or 22 whatever legal ability they have to recover those
 23 funds for our portfolio doesn't mean that the client
 24 isn't making payments. Think about the objective
 25 definition I provided you. Have they made a

176

1 payment.
2 If a lawyer wants to use litigation as a
3 negotiation tactic to collect a payment, that sounds
4 like a good strategy to me if it gets them to get
5 the payment back. Remember, we have a lot of money
6 out there and a lot of good folks who lent money to 7 this company.

8 So by using litigation as a tool to 9 recover any kind of receivables and if it's within 10 that six-week period that they made the collection
11 or if they have a negotiated agreement in hand or 12 are working on it, then it doesn't objectively
13 fulfill the definition of default under the policies
14 and procedures that we had per our financial audit.

15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. So if I understand you correctly, whether 17 or not something is in litigation doesn't matter.
18 Ultimately, it's the same process that's used where 19 the lawyer, whether it be Brett Berman or one of his 20 predecessors, together with the collections staff
21 make a decision about whether a merchant cash
22 advance is in default based on their interactions
23 with the merchant and merchant's attorney. Is that 24 fair to say?

25 MR. SOTO: Objection to form, Amie. This

1 Business Solutions Group, that doesn't mean it's in 2 the default because ultimately the same process is
3 utilized for making that decision, namely, Brett
4 Berman or one of his predecessors together with the 5 collections unit makes a decision about which 6 merchant cash advances are in default based on,
7 among other things, their interactions with the 8 merchant and the merchant's attorney; is that
9 correct?

10 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.

11 MS. SCHEIN: Object to form.

12 THE WITNESS: I think I understand where 13 our disconnect is, Amie. As a lawyer, you're 14 looking at this as a breach of the factoring
15 agreement as far as what qualifies as a default,
16 meaning if a merchant hasn't made payments per the 17 provisions in their factoring agreement, they would 18 be in default.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

20 Q. Mr. Cole --

21 MR. SOTO: Amie, he should be allowed to 22 finish his answer.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. That's fine. You can also say anything
25 you'd like at the end, and you can talk and I'm not

1 has been asked so many times and now you're
2 mischaracterizing what he said. He didn't say
3 litigation doesn't matter. At some point, it's 4 improper, Amie.

5 MS. BERLIN: Please don't testify. Please
6 don't testify. I asked him if I understood --

7 MR. SOTO: Amie, at some point it is
8 improper to keep asking him -- I'm sorry to speak
9 over you. But at some point it's just improper to 10 ask him the same question 800 times just because you
11 don't like the answer.

12 MS. BERLIN: Mr. Soto, I'll ask you not to 13 make speaking objections and to let me move on with 14 the deposition.

15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. Mr. Cole, can you answer the question,
17 please?

18 A. Can you restate it?

19 Q. Sure. I was just trying to make sure I
20 understood you correctly, that your testimony is 21 that regardless of whether or not a merchant cash
22 advance is in collections -- I'm sorry -- not in 23 collections. Let me start again.

24 Regardless of whether a merchant cash
25 advance is the subject of litigation by Complete

1 going to stop you. But I just want to let you know
2 that that's not the question I posed.

3 MR. SOTO: That's fine, Amie, but he
4 should be allowed to finish his answer.

5 MS. BERLIN: Mr. Soto, I just told the 6 witness that he can finish his answer, and he also
7 will have time at the end to say anything he'd like
8 on the record. I'm sure Your Honor is reviewing 9 this, and that the transcript will reflect that he's 10 not answering the question that I posed. Because it
11 is almost 4:00, I'm just trying to identify that for 12 the witness.

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. But, Mr. Cole, you can talk about anything
15 you want, but I'm just going to ask you the same
16 question because you're not answering.

17 MS. SCHEIN: I'm going to object to your 18 characterization of what my client said on the 19 record. The record will reflect what he said.
20 You're mischaracterizing it. And you've asked --
21 this question has been asked and answered numerous 22 times already.

23 MR. SOTO: Yes. And I just want to state
24 also that he doesn't have to wait until the end of 25 this deposition to answer your questions. He can

1 answer you question and he needs to answer your
 2 question when the question is asked and it's your
 3 determination that he's answering something
 4 different, that doesn't make it so.
 5 You've interrupted him. He needs to be
 6 given an opportunity to finish his answer. And
 7 that's it. You've asked him the same question 15
 8 times. That's why it's 4:00.
 9 MS. BERLIN: We're going to continue and 10 I'm going to continue to ask, and I'll ask that 11 counsel not make speaking objections.
 12 I'm going to ask Mr. Cole to please answer
 13 the question that I asked.
 14 THE WITNESS: Sorry. I forgot where we 15 left off. Can you repeat the question?
 16 BY MS. BERLIN:
 17 Q. Yeah, absolutely. My question was just 18 this: Am I correct in understanding that regardless
 19 of whether or not a merchant cash advance is in 20 litigation and has been sued by Complete Business
 21 Solutions Group to collect funds, that the same
 22 process is utilized where Brett Berman and the 23 collections group or Mr. Berman's predecessor and 24 the collections group ultimately make the decision
 25 about whether that merchant cash advance is in

181

1 a manner that answers your question.
 2 The default legally, and they're allowed
 3 to litigate and pursue the merchant for whatever
 4 breach of the factoring agreement that they're
 5 entitled to, doesn't constitute that as being a
 6 default merchant if that merchant has not qualified
 7 under the accounting definition of the default per 8 the financial audit done by Friedman and the 9 procedures that were created from that audit.
 10 The six-week time period and the 11 negotiations in place that are described with 12 collections managers and legal are a separate
 13 mechanism from that legal definition of default that 14 they're able to litigate and seek remedies.
 15 That's independent of the definition of 16 default. So when you ask if litigation
 17 automatically assumes that a merchant is in default,
 18 from an accounting perspective, my answer would be 19 no. From a legal perspective, they're definitely in 20 breach of their factoring agreement and would,
 21 therefore, be in default. Does that answer the 22 question?
 23 BY MS. BERLIN:
 24 Q. No. I didn't ask you whether litigation
 25 means someone is automatically in default. Let me

183

1 default based in part on their interactions with the
 2 merchant and that merchant's attorney.
 3 MR. FUTERFAS: Alan Futerfas. I object to
 4 the form of the question because the word "default"
 5 is vague. Are you using default in a litigation
 6 context or an accounting context? And I think that
 7 is confusing, and I think you should clarify that
 8 for the witness.
 9 BY MS. BERLIN:
 10 Q. Mr. Cole, you've been testifying. You
 11 mentioned default, and I've been asking about your 12 reference to default in your answer for a very long
 13 time now. But I think it's clear what you say you
 14 understand since you were the one who raised default
 15 yourself.
 16 So if you could just answer the question.
 17 If you don't understand the question, just let me
 18 know, and I can restate it for you.
 19 MS. SCHEIN: Object to form.
 20 THE WITNESS: This is what I was trying to 21 answer earlier before everyone got all riled up
 22 about this. The definition of default in terms of 23 the contract are different than the accounting
 24 definition of default. And I think that's our 25 disconnect. I'm sincerely trying to explain this in

182

1 try it a different way.
 2 You've been testifying for a long time
 3 about the fact Mr. Berman and your collections unit
 4 and before that Mr. Berman's predecessors and the 5 collections unit decide which merchant cash advances
 6 are in default and send you a list of those.
 7 Do you remember that?
 8 A. Yes, I do.
 9 Q. Do you remember that testimony? Okay.
 10 Great. So you then testified about how Mr. Berman
 11 and that collections group decide whether the 12 merchant cash advance is in default.
 13 Do you remember your testimony on that?
 14 A. Yes, I do.
 15 Q. Great. So is it the same process that 16 occurs for the merchant cash advance whether or not 17 that merchant cash advance is the subject of 18 litigation?
 19 MR. FUTERFAS: I object to form. I don't
 20 know what the word "process" means. I'm sorry.
 21 BY MS. BERLIN:
 22 Q. Mr. Cole, you remember. You've testified
 23 for a long time about the process that was used and 24 how they would speak. Do you understand what I'm 25 asking, Mr. Cole, or do you need me to explain or

184

1 have your testimony read back?
 2 A. No. I understand what you're saying.
 3 Q. Okay. So can you answer the question?
 4 A. Yeah. I just did. And my answer was no.
 5 Q. Okay. So how is it different?
 6 A. It would have been my answer explaining 7 the difference between a contract default and an 8 accounting recognition of default.
 9 Q. So the decision on whether to put a
 10 merchant cash advance onto that list that's sent to 11 you by the collections group, am I understanding
 12 correctly that the decision of whether or not to 13 include a merchant cash advance on that list is 14 affected by whether or not the merchant cash advance
 15 is in litigation?
 16 MR. SOTO: Object to the form.
 17 THE WITNESS: No.
 18 BY MS. BERLIN:
 19 Q. Okay. So then is it the case that the 20 decision on whether to include a merchant cash
 21 advance on that list of defaulted loans that you've 22 testified about at length today, that the process is 23 unaffected by the fact that the merchant cash
 24 advance is the subject of litigation; is that
 25 correct?

185

1 MS. SCHEIN: Object. Can you define
 2 "default rate"?
 3 MS. BERLIN: Well, I'm asking -- I think
 4 the question is clear. Mr. Cole has testified he 5 had discussions with potential investors where they
 6 discussed the default rate. And so I'm asking
 7 Mr. Cole to testify as to how he explained the 8 default rate to potential investors.
 9 THE WITNESS: If I can clarify your
 10 question, Amie, can you tell me if you're referring 11 to the exposure from the KPI report as being 12 characterized as a default rate, or are you talking
 13 about default rate under GAAP or taxes? Because my 14 response, it depends on whom I'm speaking with.
 15 BY MS. BERLIN:
 16 Q. We're talking about potential investors.
 17 Did you ever discuss -- did you ever have a 18 conversation with a potential investor where the 19 phrase "default" was used?
 20 A. My answer is yes, but it really depends on 21 the investor and what are we talking about. It
 22 really depends on the context of what default means.
 23 And with respect specifically for accounting and 24 GAAP, that's a whole different conversation than 25 talking about another definition of default.

187

1 A. That is correct.
 2 Q. Okay. Great.
 3 MS. BERLIN: Let's take a ten-minute
 4 break. We'll go off the record.
 5 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: And we're going off the
 6 record at 4:00 p.m.
 7 (Recess from 4:00 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.)
 8 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: And we're back on the
 9 record at 4:15 p.m.
 10 BY MS. BERLIN:
 11 Q. Mr. Cole, when you spoke with potential
 12 investors on the promissory notes related to 13 Complete Business Solutions Group, did you describe
 14 the default rate to them?
 15 A. Rates of default? Are you referring to an 16 actual default rate or the KPI cash exposure?
 17 Q. Well, did you ever discuss the default
 18 rate with any potential investor?
 19 MS. SCHEIN: Object to form.
 20 THE WITNESS: Yes. I occasionally talked
 21 about the default rate.
 22 BY MS. BERLIN:
 23 Q. Okay. And so can you tell us what would 24 you tell or what did you tell investors about the 25 default rate? How did you explain it to them?

186

1 Q. Well, absolutely. And so my question is:
 2 What definition would you provide to potential
 3 investors in connection with the Par Funding-related
 4 promissory notes?
 5 A. For the most part, I'm not providing
 6 financials or default information under GAAP or 7 accountancy for the taxes that were prepared with 8 our CPAs. So I don't typically provide default
 9 under GAAP.
 10 I will discuss defaults if -- for example,
 11 like the Chehebars sending the CPA into the office
 12 and we start getting into the nuances of GAAP and 13 deferred revenue and all the mechanisms as part of 14 that default. But it's not a regular thing that we 15 would discuss. That's above and beyond most 16 people's understanding of how defaults are 17 calculated.
 18 Q. So how many different definitions of 19 default were there in existence? You were asking me
 20 which definition of default am I talking about. How 21 many different ones are there? Can you identify 22 them that you would have discussed with a potential
 23 investor?
 24 A. Well, we were talking about GAAP, which is 25 going to be the default under your accounting

188

1 provisions including a loss provision. We were
2 describing GAAP or defaults for taxation purposes as
3 what would be reported on the 1120. We were talking
4 about default in legal, such as when these merchants
5 are breaching a factoring agreement, but not
6 necessarily written off just like we went over
7 before the break.

8 And then we would occasionally discuss the 9 cash or cash losses from exposure on deals that were 10 written off, which to us was probably the most 11 useful metric because it shows you actual cash
12 losses.

13 But those would be some, and I mean this
14 very seriously, this is only some of the definitions
15 of default, because it really has to factor in the 16 context that you're trying to determine it, if it's 17 from an IRS perspective, from a GAAP perspective,
18 from a non-GAAP adjusted financial perspective, from 19 a cash exposure perspective, or the investor's
20 definition of what default could be.

21 There has to be a lot of context
22 explained, and we have to clarify that before I can 23 give you a really black and white answer on what's 24 conveyed with these potential note purchases with 25 CBSG.

1 application of the term default you're using.

2 Q. Okay. But you were present when, for
3 example, Perry Abbonizio told investors and
4 potential investors that there was a roughly
5 1 percent default rate; correct?

6 A. I don't recall.

7 Q. Do you recall being present when anyone
8 connected to Complete Business Solutions Group told
9 an investor or potential investor that there was a
10 1 percent default rate?

11 A. No. I don't recall.

12 Q. Did any investor or potential investor
13 contact you after speaking with an agent fund
14 manager or Mr. Abbonizio to ask you for more detail
15 about the 1 percent default rate?

16 A. I don't recall.

17 Q. Did you ever tell any investor or 18 potential investor about the regulatory actions
19 against Complete Business Solutions Group?

20 A. You're talking about the PA DOB regulatory 21 action from the subpoena in 2018?

22 Q. Yeah. We can take them one by one. Did
23 you ever tell any investor or potential investor
24 about the Pennsylvania securities regulatory action
25 concerning Complete Business Solutions Group?

1 Q. So I'm asking about your conversations
2 with the potential investors excluding the
3 Chehebars -- you testified about them already -- but
4 others.

5 Did you discuss any of the default rates
6 you've just identified with any potential investor?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. So which investors did you discuss it
9 with?

10 A. I don't recall specific individual
11 parties. It's kind of a blur at this point.

12 Q. Okay. And which definition of default
13 would you explain to them?

14 A. So typically we'd go over the
15 cash-over-cash analysis on the exposure on their KPI
16 report. I would say that's the most common analysis
17 we're discussing. But we're also very careful to 18 provide the context of what that number represents
19 and not to characterize it as a default rate.

20 In any explanation I provided, the term
21 cash over cash is really driven home because we
22 don't want that to be misconstrued as potentially a
23 rate of default, which for what I just explained can 24 come in many different interpretations and 25 calculations depending on what jurisdiction or

1 A. Yes. I've discussed that before.

2 Q. Okay. Which investors or potential
3 investors did you tell?

4 A. There's a few different investors I've 5 discussed that with.

6 Q. And please identify them by name.

7 A. I've discussed this with the Chehebar
8 group. I've discussed this with Scott Pollack. I
9 don't really remember the specific individual
10 discussions. It's similar to what I described 11 earlier as contact with investors I talk to 12 regularly. So it would be the same people.

13 Q. Same group of people that you testified to 14 earlier?

15 A. Yes, yes.

16 Q. Can you go ahead and just identify them
17 again for the record. You have the Chehebar group,
18 Scott Pollack. Alan Kandall?

19 A. I believe I said Alan Kandall, Patrick
20 Gibbons, Matt Szkotak, Dave Wiggins, some of the PPM
21 managers like Dean Vagnozzi. I can't really
22 remember all the different guys I spoke with about
23 this, but that's amongst the group of people that I
24 spoke to regularly and would have discussed this 25 matter with.

1 Q. Okay. And approximately when did you tell
 2 Dean Vagnozzi about the Pennsylvania regulatory
 3 matter?
 4 A. Well, Dean was -- Dean we told about this
 5 pretty early on because he was one of the parties
 6 they requested the subpoena on. So we spoke about 7 the fees that were paid to him. But this wasn't in 8 the capacity as a fund manager because he wasn't a
 9 fund manager at the time. He was solely a finder.
 10 Q. So did you tell Mr. Vagnozzi about it
 11 shortly after receiving the subpoena from the 12 Pennsylvania regulators?
 13 MR. MILLER: Object to the form.
 14 THE WITNESS: Yes. I don't think too much
 15 time passed before we talked to Dean about that.
 16 BY MS. BERLIN:
 17 Q. Okay. And what did you tell him?
 18 A. I don't remember the specifics of what was 19 conveyed, but just the issue at hand with the state
 20 in regards to the finder's fees that were paid to 21 him.
 22 Q. Did you tell him that documents had been
 23 subpoenaed that related to him?
 24 A. No. I don't recall specifically what we 25 told him, the subpoena included documents or him.

193

1 Q. Did you just tell him there was an
 2 investigation by the Pennsylvania regulators, or
 3 what did you tell him?
 4 A. We told him at least that, that there was 5 an investigation, but I don't recall any specific,
 6 you know, items conveyed or discussed as part of the 7 communication.
 8 Q. Did you ever tell Mr. Vagnozzi that
 9 Mr. LaForte had a criminal record?
 10 A. I don't recall discussing that with him.
 11 Q. What about the New Jersey regulatory
 12 action against Complete Business Solutions Group,
 13 did you tell Mr. Vagnozzi about that?
 14 A. I don't recall.
 15 Q. Did you tell any investor or potential
 16 investor about the New Jersey regulatory action?
 17 A. Don't recall.
 18 Q. What about the Texas regulatory action
 19 filed in February 2020, did you tell any investors
 20 or potential investors about that?
 21 A. We were discussing that with the Chehebar
 22 group, but I don't recall discussing it with any 23 other parties.
 24 Q. How much did the Chehebar group have 25 invested in Complete Business Solutions Group?

194

1 MS. SCHEIN: Ms. Berlin, we're just having
 2 an electronic issue here. If you'll give my client
 3 a moment, he has to start charging his computer.
 4 MS. BERLIN: Sure. No problem. Just let
 5 me know when he's ready to proceed.
 6 MS. SCHEIN: All right. Give us a minute.
 7 Thanks.
 8 MS. BERLIN: We'll go off the record and
 9 just let us know when you're ready.
 10 MS. SCHEIN: We're working on it. Thanks.
 11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: And we're going off the
 12 record at 4:29 p.m.
 13 (Recess from 4:29 p.m. to 4:36 p.m.)
 14 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: And we're back on the
 15 record at 4:36 p.m.
 16 BY MS. BERLIN:
 17 Q. After the Securities and Exchange
 18 Commission filed its action against you, did you
 19 take possession of any documents, whether electronic 20 or in hard copy, from Complete Business Solutions
 21 Group or Full Spectrum?
 22 A. I was advised by our lawyers to preserve a
 23 copy of company documents and made a backup to my 24 local laptop.
 25 Q. Okay. And what were you asked to make a

195

1 backup of?
 2 A. Any company documents for CBSG and Full
 3 Spectrum Processing that I had available.
 4 Q. Who asked you to do that?
 5 A. This was asked by Brett Berman.
 6 Q. And was that after you all became aware of 7 the SEC's case?
 8 A. Yes, that's right.
 9 Q. Did Mr. Berman ask you to do anything else
 10 with respect to Complete Business Solutions Group or 11 Full Spectrum materials?
 12 A. No. He said keep a copy for use so that
 13 they could have it just in case. He didn't ask me
 14 to do anything with those documents.
 15 Q. Did you access the electronic system or 16 any database of Complete Business Solutions Group
 17 other than downloading those documents after the SEC
 18 filed its case?
 19 A. Sorry. To clarify, we learned about the 20 case before it was filed. We learned about it the 21 Friday before the case -- the Complaint was filed.
 22 So I downloaded files over the weekend.
 23 And the Tuesday that the offices were 24 taken over, I had no longer made any attempts or 25 tried to download anything else from my files.

196

1 Q. Okay. At a certain point, the receiver
 2 asked you for the return of materials; correct?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. And did you give them back right away?
 5 A. I listened to counsel to cooperate with 6 the receiver, and I met with them providing the 7 laptop that I had the copies of documents on. This
 8 was done a couple of weeks after they had taken over
 9 the offices.
 10 Q. So why didn't you return the materials
 11 when the receiver -- like immediately after the 12 receiver requested them?
 13 A. I returned the materials as soon as 14 counsel advised me that I should.
 15 MS. SCHEIN: I would object.
 16 Attorney/client privileged conversation.
 17 BY MS. BERLIN:
 18 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions Group
 19 transfer funds for the purposes of acquiring real
 20 property?
 21 A. Is that your question?
 22 Q. Yes. And by real property, I mean real
 23 estate or land.
 24 A. I'm sorry. I understand it. I'm just 25 considering the question. No, it did not.

197

1 Q. Were any funds transferred from Complete
 2 Business Solutions Group's bank account either
 3 directly or indirectly through another entity for 4 purposes of acquiring property?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 MS. SCHEIN: Could we have a timeframe,
 7 please?
 8 BY MS. BERLIN:
 9 Q. When did that occur?
 10 A. I don't recall.
 11 Q. Okay. Can you please tell me about those 12 transfers?
 13 A. There were payments as part of the 14 consulting agreement made for the benefit of 15 Heritage Business Consulting and Eagle Six that were 16 used to purchase properties as part of that 17 consulting agreement that it had with CBSG.
 18 Q. Okay. And when paying Heritage and Eagle
 19 Six, who was the individual behind those two 20 entities? Was that Lisa McElhone?
 21 A. Heritage originally was Lisa McElhone. I
 22 believe it was under her trust per advice of 23 counsel. And Eagle Six was under the trust as well
 24 to my understanding.
 25 Q. So why were the funds -- the consulting

198

1 agreements do not discuss the transfer of funds for
 2 purposes of buying real estate. Would you agree
 3 with me?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. Okay. So how did these transfers come
 6 about?
 7 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 8 THE WITNESS: The transfers were typically
 9 done through wires. We kept track of the transfers
 10 and booked it as consulting fees in our accounting
 11 system to apply it towards the consulting agreement
 12 as (indecipherable).
 13 BY MS. BERLIN:
 14 Q. Did the transfers come about because Lisa
 15 McElhone requested that the transfers be made?
 16 MR. SOTO: If I could just interrupt for a
 17 second, I'm having a very hard time hearing
 18 Mr. Cole. I think whatever connection you're on now
 19 is breaking up quite a bit. I'm not sure if anybody
 20 else is having the issue.
 21 MS. SCHEIN: Yes. I am as well.
 22 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I'm going to
 23 move over to counsel's computer if that will help.
 24 MR. SOTO: Perfect. Thank you.
 25 THE WITNESS: You got it.

199

1 BY MS. BERLIN:
 2 Q. Who directed that these transfers be made?
 3 A. Hold on. I'm moving over. Just give me a
 4 second, Amie.
 5 Q. Oh, sure. Sorry.
 6 A. I'm on Bettina's machine.
 7 Q. The question I asked was: Who directed
 8 the transfers?
 9 A. The transfers were directed by Lisa
 10 McElhone.
 11 Q. Did anyone else direct the transfers, or 12 was it exclusively Lisa McElhone?
 13 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 14 THE WITNESS: Not to my understanding.
 15 BY MS. BERLIN:
 16 Q. So to be clear, only Lisa McElhone
 17 directed the transfers?
 18 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 19 THE WITNESS: To my understanding, yes.
 20 BY MS. BERLIN:
 21 Q. What was the source of money that was 22 utilized for those transfers that ultimately
 23 acquired property?
 24 MR. SOTO: Objection to form.
 25 THE WITNESS: Like the other consulting

200

1 agreements, the source of the capital is the
 2 merchant cash advance deposits we received from
 3 clients at CBSG.
 4 BY MS. BERLIN:
 5 Q. Other than merchant cash advance deposits
 6 and investors funds from the promissory notes, did
 7 CBSG have any other source of funds at any time?
 8 A. Yes, it did.
 9 Q. What were those and when?
 10 A. The when is over a long period of time,
 11 but these were related to syndication agreements
 12 that CBSG had with other MCA companies where they
 13 would charge fees for syndicating on CBSG's
 14 portfolio. And this was from -- the course of time
 15 had to have been from 2015 to 2020.
 16 Q. Did CBSG also pay these syndicates, or did
 17 they pay these same entities money?
 18 A. I'm sorry. Who do you mean by "they"?
 19 Q. Why don't you go ahead and identify the 20 names of the companies you're talking about that
 21 paid CBSG fees.
 22 A. One of this was Capital Source 2000.
 23 Another one was Eagle Funding. There were a couple
 24 others, but I don't recall the names.
 25 Q. Okay. And so those entities, Capital

201

1 Source 2000, Eagle Funding and the others you can't
 2 remember the names for but that paid CBSG syndicate
 3 fees, did CBSG also pay those same entities money?
 4 A. Yes. They were paid -- I'm sorry. Can
 5 you clarify what you mean by "pay"? Do you mean the 6 conveyance of cash, or do you mean payments pursuant
 7 to the agreement we had with them?
 8 Q. I mean transferring funds.
 9 A. Yes. There were fund transferred to those 10 entities as well.
 11 Q. Okay. So what name would you give these 12 entities that were paying the syndicate fees just so
 13 we can talk about them and make sure we're both
 14 referring to the same? Like what would you call
 15 them?
 16 A. We can use the term joint funding partners
 17 or syndication partners.
 18 Q. Okay. So the joint funding partners,
 19 between 2015 and 2020, approximately how much did
 20 they contribute to Complete Business Solutions
 21 Group?
 22 A. Are you referring to income received from 23 those partners or solely the cash flow received from 24 those partners?
 25 Q. Well, your testimony was that in addition

202

1 to MCA deposits and investor funds, there was
 2 another source of revenue for CBSG, and it was from
 3 joint funding partners.
 4 So how much was that revenue into CBSG
 5 that you were testifying about earlier?
 6 A. I don't know the precise amount. It would
 7 be around $5 million of revenue with about maybe $40
 8 to $50 million of cash flow.
 9 Q. And what do you mean by -- what was the
 10 $40 to $50 million of cash flow versus the $5
 11 million in revenue? Can you explain that?
 12 A. So revenue is the function of income for 13 the cash flow provided, similar to like a factoring
 14 fee we would charge our merchants at CBSG. So CBSG
 15 would charge a fee to syndication partners as a fee
 16 to provide a syndication participation on MCA deals
 17 that CBSG had in its portfolio.
 18 So, for example, Capital Source 2000 would
 19 be charged 15 percent of every deal that they wanted
 20 to syndicate on. They would receive a $15,000
 21 payment of revenue for a hundred thousand dollar
 22 syndication participation. And then Capital Source
 23 2000 would receive the remainder of the capital plus
 24 any factoring revenues received for their portion of 25 that transaction.

203

1 Q. So how much money was ultimately
 2 transferred from the joint funding partners to CBSG?
 3 A. I would estimate around the $40 to $50
 4 million figure I provided.
 5 Q. During that same time period, which I
 6 think is 2015 to 2020, how much did CBSG transfer to 7 the joint funding partners?
 8 A. I believe it transferred approximately 9 maybe $15 to $20 million, but I'm kind of guessing
 10 here. That's a very approximate estimate I'm 11 providing to you.
 12 Q. And what was the source of funds used to 13 pay or to transfer money from CBSG to the joint 14 funding partners?
 15 A. This is from the MCA deposits as part of 16 their agreement on the syndication with CBSG.
 17 Q. So other than the joint funding partners,
 18 the investor funds and the merchant cash advance
 19 deposits, were there any other sources of funds
 20 received by Complete Business Solutions Group during 21 the time that you were affiliated with the entity
 22 from 2012 through 2020?
 23 A. Not that I can remember.
 24 Q. Did you understand Joseph LaForte to be a
 25 founder of Complete Business Solutions Group?

204

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. And when did you have that understanding?
3 A. My understanding was during my interview
4 and initial on boarding with the company.
5 Q. Is it something you learned when
6 Mr. LaForte interviewed you back in 2012?
7 A. I don't recall specifically when I learned
8 about that, but it was near the start.
9 Q. And did you ever understand Joseph LaForte
10 to be the president of Complete Business Solutions
11 Group?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Did you ever hear Mr. LaForte identify 14 himself as the president of Complete Business
15 Solutions Group or Par Funding?
16 A. I don't recall.
17 Q. Did you ever meet with any potential
18 investor together with Joseph LaForte?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Approximately how many times?
21 A. I don't recall.
22 Q. Was it more than a dozen times?
23 A. I'm not sure.
24 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions Group
25 provide any compensation to the agent fund managers?

205

1 A. Are you considering interest payments
2 compensation?
3 Q. I mean, potentially. But did Complete
4 Business Solutions Group understand that the
5 interest payments it paid to the agent fund managers
6 was a form of compensation?
7 A. I'm not sure what you mean by that.
8 Q. I'll go back to my original question. Did
9 Complete Business Solutions Group compensate any of 10 the agent fund managers?
11 MR. MILLER: Mr. Miller. Object to the 12 form.
13 THE WITNESS: No, it did not.
14 BY MS. BERLIN:
15 Q. Did you understand the -- let me back up
16 for a moment. The complete Business Solutions Group
17 promissory notes issued to agent funds were 18 typically providing about 20 percent interest; is
19 that correct?
20 A. That's an approximate amount of interest
21 under the notes, yes.
22 Q. And approximately how much were the agent
23 fund managers offering to investors under the notes
24 that they were issuing?
25 A. I do not know what they offered members of 206

1 their funds.
2 Q. Just one moment, please.
3 Did CBSG receive copies of the promissory
4 notes that the agent funds were issuing to
5 investors?
6 A. Not to my knowledge.
7 Q. Did Complete Business Solutions Group
8 receive information from the agent funds or from,
9 either directly or through, Perry Abbonizio about 10 how much the agent funds were raising from
11 investors?
12 A. Not to my knowledge.
13 Q. Do you know who Eric Husebo is?
14 A. The name doesn't ring a bell to me.
15 Q. Do you recall ever speaking with an
16 individual named Eric Husebo?
17 MS. BERLIN: And that's spelled for the 18 court reporter H-U-S-E-B-O.
19 THE WITNESS: No. I do not recall
20 speaking to that person.
21 BY MS. BERLIN:
22 Q. Did you review the filings that Complete
23 Business Solutions Group made with the Securities
24 and Exchange Commission prior to their filing?
25 A. Yes, I did.

207

1 Q. Did you approve those filings before they
2 were made?
3 A. Yes, I did.
4 Q. Did you make a decision not to include
5 Perry Abbonizio on the Complete Business Solutions
6 Group Form D filing?
7 A. No, I did not.
8 Q. Why wasn't he included?
9 A. Filings were prepared and filed per advice
10 of counsel. This was through Phil Rutledge at Bybel
11 Rutledge and our in-house counsel, Cynthia Clark.
12 Q. Who provided the information to counsel
13 that they utilized to prepare the Form D filings?
14 A. Information was provided by the legal 15 department at Full Spectrum Processing, and I
16 provided some of the information pertinent to the 17 amounts as requested as part of the form.
18 Q. Did you tell the legal department or
19 anyone who prepared those Form D filings that you
20 had received funds from Complete Business Solutions
21 Group prior to the filing?
22 A. Yes. In-house counsel and our third-party
23 counsel at Bybel Rutledge were cognizant of the 24 facts that consulting payments were being paid and 25 all the relevant materials as part of that form in 208

1 the filing.
 2 Q. Did you ask them for any advice as to
 3 whether or not you needed to indicate the monies
 4 that you had received on the Form D filing?
 5 A. I don't recall if I asked them that.
 6 Q. Did anyone provide you any legal advice
 7 about that?
 8 A. Yes. The bulk of the work done to prepare
 9 those filings was done by Phil Rutledge and Cynthia
 10 Clark. They provided copious advice in discussions
 11 regarding that filing and carefully considered all
 12 the facts being provided before making the filing.
 13 Q. But my question was whether or not they 14 actually provided you with legal advice about the 15 specific issue as to whether or not you needed to 16 disclose the amounts you had received from Complete
 17 Business Solutions Group, which is a little bit 18 different from whether they prepared the filings and 19 had the information.
 20 I'm asking about legal advice. So who
 21 gave you the legal advice exactly?
 22 A. The bulk of the legal guidance provided as
 23 part of filing was from Phil Rutledge.
 24 Q. And what advice did he give specifically
 25 in connection with the disclosure of the amounts

209

1 that you had received?
 2 A. I don't recall specifically with regards
 3 to that disclosure the amounts we received.
 4 Q. But you testified that he gave -- did he 5 give you legal advice specifically about the 6 disclosure of the amount you received on that Form D
 7 filing?
 8 A. Yes. We discussed it. I just don't
 9 remember the specifics.
 10 Q. Well, generally what advice did he give
 11 you?
 12 A. Generally I don't remember the specifics.
 13 Q. I'm not asking for specifics, but you
 14 testified that he gave you legal advice. So what is 15 it that you're remembering that makes you testify
 16 under oath that you know for a fact that he gave you
 17 legal advice about this very issue? Like what do
 18 you recall?
 19 A. I provided the information to Phil
 20 Rutledge regarding compensation for executives,
 21 parties with consulting agreements and the nature of 22 the notes. We reviewed this. We discussed the 23 filing of this form and that specific language, and 24 he deemed it compliant and necessary to file it as 25 he did.

210

1 Q. Did you explain to Mr. Rutledge that the
 2 merchant cash advance deposits and the investor
 3 funds were in the same bank account?
 4 A. I don't recall.
 5 Q. I don't have any further questions for 6 you, Mr. Cole.
 7 A. Okay.
 8 MS. SCHEIN: Amie, we're going to take a
 9 moment and see if we have any questions.
 10 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Sounds good. I'll go
 11 on mute and we'll go off the record. Just let us
 12 know when you're ready to go back on the record.
 13 MS. SCHEIN: All right. Give us five
 14 minutes. Thanks.
 15 MS. BERLIN: Sure.
 16 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Going off the record
 17 5:04 p.m.
 18 (Recess from 5:04 p.m. to 5:07 p.m.)
 19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the
 20 record at 5:07 p.m.
 21 MS. SCHEIN: Thank you. Amie, I don't
 22 have anything to add at this moment.
 23 MS. BERLIN: Does anyone else have any
 24 cross-examination?
 25 Okay. I'm not hearing anyone. So I guess

211

1 we are ready to conclude.
 2 MS. SCHEIN: Thank you.
 3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: And this concludes
 4 today's videotape deposition of Joseph Cole. Going
 5 off the record at 5:08 p.m.
 6 (Whereupon, at 5:08 p.m., the taking of 7 the instant deposition ceased.)

(The following proceedings were held in open court.)

1
2
3 THE COURT: This is only going to take a moment. I
4 call everyone's attention to what we're doing right now. The 09:57 5 reason why we're not starting yet is because we're waiting for 6 one of our jurors. We have seven of the eight. The juror that 7 just called us, I believe it is -- let me make sure I got the 8 name right. I believe it would be Sean Shaddick who was seated
9 in seat 6, right? Mr. Shaddick.

09:57 10 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Yes.

11 THE COURT: So Mr. Shaddick got a flat tire this
12 morning and somewhere on Copans Road and has called for a tow
13 truck. He just called the chambers. So I'm, quite frankly,
14 not interested in waiting for what I expect to be hours. I
09:58 15 don't know how long that's going to take for him to go ahead
16 and get here.

17 So I just want to let everyone know that my intention
18 is to call him and get started with the seven I have, unless I
19 have both sides extremely concerned about proceeding with 09:58 20 seven. He was the younger man in the middle row. So he's not 21 technically an alternate, but that's why we have two.

22 So let me hear from the SEC if there's any concern or 23 objection. Obviously we could wait, but he thinks he's going
24 to be a little bit of time. Obviously we don't want to lose a
09:58 25 half a day waiting for him.

1 MS. BERLIN: We agree, Your Honor. And it's a short
2 trial, so I don't think we should --

3 THE COURT: Yeah, it's not like he originally was --
4 if I was dealing with something in January, I would be more
09:58 5 worried about losing alternates on day 1, but we need to keep 6 it going.

7 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Yes.

8 THE COURT: So we still have another alternate. So
9 I'm not stressed out about it. Any major objections?

09:58 10 MR. HYMAN: No objection, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Let me go ahead and call him back so that 12 I can go ahead and let him know he can get on the tow truck and 13 go home. He will be excused. And then let me now pivot over 14 to any technical issues.

09:59 15 I hear, Andre, a little bit of feedback for myself.
16 Anybody else hear that?

17 MS. BERLIN: Yes. It's reverberating.

18 THE COURT: It's reverberating. So I don't know, is 19 theres any way to mute whatever speakers are producing that?
09:59 20 It could be my own. I don't know. Let me see. Maybe it is.
21 All right.

22 All right. No, it's not coming from this. So it's 23 coming from somewhere else over here. I still hear it myself.
24 Is the same feedback coming out of the lawyer areas'
09:59 25 microphone?

1 MS. BERLIN: So it sounds a little echoey for me.

2 IT TECHNICIAN: All the mics except two or three.

3 MR. HYMAN: I'm hearing a slight reverberation but not
4 one from the Zoom at last, Your Honor.

10:00 5 THE COURT: We want to make sure -- we got to get this
6 fixed now because once it gets ready to go, it will be going
7 through the whole trial.

8 Do you have a sense of what it is?

9 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, while we deal with the 10:00 10 technical issue, I'd like to just make a substantive -- or just 11 a position for purposes of preserving the record.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. HYMAN: I'd like to start before I make this
14 position by stating that I'm not asking the Court to reconsider
10:00 15 any prior rulings or otherwise reconsider any positions that 16 have previously been taken. However, during the course of 17 yesterday's hearing, Your Honor said basically as a bright-line
18 rule, any failure to abide by a particular deadline would not
19 be excused under any circumstances.

10:00 20 THE COURT: Did I say that?

21 MR. HYMAN: You said that a few times.

22 MS. BERLIN: No, you did not, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Don't put words in the Court's mouth. I
24 would never make a bright-line rule under any circumstances
10:01 25 whether it's civil, criminal or otherwise. Everything is

1 case-specific. I would never make such a pronouncement.

2 What I think we said yesterday is there was no good
3 cause shown for me to depart under existing case law from the 4 depo designation deadline. I did not say there's a bright-line
10:01 5 rule. You have to be very careful because that would be an
6 abuse of discretion. So understanding because no good cause
7 was shown in the deposition designation, go ahead and continue
8 to make your point. Go ahead.

9 MR. HYMAN: Thank you very much, Your Honor. And it
10:01 10 wasn't, by any means, to kind of imply that. It was my 11 understanding, at least in this case, that was in general, but 12 we can always deal with it on an issue-by-issue basis.

13 Part of the reason why at least I think it's important
14 from both the policy and a substantive due process perspective
10:01 15 to raise the following kind of issue in circumstances with 16 respect to this case as well as our sub-involvement in it in a
17 low bono capacity.

18 Obviously when this case was commenced, and
19 Your Honor's well aware of the arguments that were previously
10:02 20 raised under the Rule 41 motion, all of Mr. Furman's
21 substantive assets were seized. He was allowed to release some 22 money for counsel which in my view didn't really do him much
23 justice, but that's neither here nor there.

24 And substantively, when we came into this case, I came
10:02 25 on in an extremely low retainer with the explicit understanding

1 that other the defense counsel would end up taking the lion's
2 share of the work with us joining in some limited motion
3 practice and co-defense counsel also carrying the majority of 4 the burden with respect for -- of costs and other issues.

10:02 5 As Your Honor may recall, and to also add to this
6 fact, in June of 2021, Mr. Furman was first referred to the 7 volunteer lawyer's program. From there through August 31st of 8 2021, no lawyer actually answered the call for a period of over
9 three months and Mr. Furman represented himself on a pro se
10:03 10 basis.

11 At that time I came in on the limited capacity, as 12 previously stated, while having another jury trial with a very,
13 very significant client of mine. After Your Honor stated on 14 the record basically that I had a right to withdraw without
10:03 15 entering per the Court order, I put in a lot of thought and I
16 worked very diligently to try to help Mr. Furman secure
17 alternative counsel and at that time we had -- this was in 18 about the first week of November, with one month of -- until 19 trial left, and at that time I reached out to about 30
10:03 20 different attorneys.

21 The only attorney that was willing to actually
22 consider taking on the case with Mr. John, who's a personal
23 injury attorney with a visual disability which prohibits him
24 from being able to review documents and prepare them as quickly
10:03 25 as most other lawyers.

1 Given that circumstance, we also reached out to the
2 Court to ask if there's any lawyers that we could get the names
3 of to try to bring them in so we can bring them up to speed
4 before trial. However, we were simply told that the only
10:04 5 option we had was to withdraw and throw Mr. Furman essentially
6 to the deep end of the pool and hope to God that somebody would
7 come in to allow him to otherwise have adequate defense.

8 In light of those circumstances and otherwise, I made
9 the decision -- not based on finance, but based on the fact
10:04 10 that it was the right thing to do -- to obviously walk away
11 from the hundreds of thousands of dollars that I would have 12 made in trying the other case because my other client had 13 competent co-counsel that was doing a, in my view, excellent
14 job of representing him, to represent Mr. Furman because 10:04 15 sometimes doing the right thing is what is appropriate.

16 As time went on, obviously, we were placed in a
17 position where at the last minute, all of the other defendants
18 were essentially out of the case. And as a result of that, we 19 went from being in a position where there would be a minimal
10:05 20 financial burden to ourselves as counsel to one where we've had 21 to put all of our clients -- or at least I've had to put all of 22 my clients to the side, have been unable to otherwise kind of 23 make money. And also more importantly, we don't even have the 24 ability to -- otherwise, we would have been advancing costs for 10:05 25 Mr. Furman on our own.

1 We're in the process of trying to, obviously, work
2 with the receiver, who he and his counsel are here, even though
3 we don't understand why since the receivership entities have 4 consented to judgment, and it doesn't otherwise (inaud.) -- so
10:05 5 we have to give value to the state, but we're still going to 6 try to meet and confer with them to get to a point where we can
7 try to release some funds.

8 However, when it comes to considering at least the 9 issues, the deadlines and the discretion the report has, we 10:05 10 think from the substantive purpose that that should be
11 considered. And more importantly, Your Honor, from a public
12 policy perspective, it's something that should be considered or 13 given a little bit of extra weight, not to say that we're
14 trying to ask you to rule in our favor or otherwise reconsider
10:06 15 things, but if you think about it, where you're kind of just a 16 young lawyer, you're faced with an opportunity to come in and 17 help the low guy in the totem pole, the understanding that 18 everybody else is going to be doing most of the work and he 19 still needs represent him and create a distinction to then kind
10:06 20 of hold us strictly or to the extent possible to all the other 21 deadlines, and in those circumstances could result in some 22 degree of prejudice to our client. And we just wanted to at 23 least state that for the record just to preserve the public
24 policy argument as well as the due process position as well.

10:06 25 THE COURT: Let me just -- thank you. Just to be

1 clear, I think we have allowed -- you asked for the record, the
2 Eleventh Circuit has repeatedly emphasized that even those who
3 represent themselves on a pro se basis are required to hear the 4 Court deadlines. And so there is no such thing as relaxing the 10:07 5 Florida Rules of Civil Procedure or work deadlines simply
6 because we have an individual who is being represented as a low
7 bono or an a volunteer basis.

8 At this point we treat the pro se litigant the same
9 way we treat any other individual that's coming into court to 10:07 10 argue. We ask simply that everyone adhere by the deadlines and 11 the Court's scheduling order. We cannot create a situation
12 whereby an individual who may have less financial resources is 13 somehow held to a lesser burden when it comes to procedural 14 requirements, even if he were representing himself, especially 10:07 15 when the relaxing of standards would generate substantial
16 prejudice on the eve of trial against the plaintiff.

17 And so I'm not exactly sure what is being argued
18 anymore in this case. We have discussed this, I think, a
19 couple of times. To the extent you simply wanted to make a
10:08 20 record as to the difficulties of getting this case ready for 21 trial due to the late resolution of matters by codefendants and 22 the fact that the budget here has not been extensive, I
23 understand that. I know that that has been an issue in the 24 case. But it has been an issue known to the parties at least
10:08 25 for 60 days, if not longer, since it was raised before me at a

1 status conference well in advance of everybody settling out
2 except for Mr. Furman.

3 So at this point he will get all of the courtesy that
4 is required of any litigant, but I cannot sit here and say that
10:08 5 because of these unique economic circumstances, that somehow
6 we're going to change the calculus on the hearings of 7 deadlines. So that's not something that the case law supports,
8 nor is it something we do. I think he's represented by counsel
9 which is far and above -- you know, better than going at it
10:08 10 alone and he has competent counsel assisting him that knows the 11 issues engaged on motion practice on his behalf.

12 So I think he's been thoroughly represented given his 13 financial condition. So we're going to continue on as we were 14 with any other trial. The Court's not going to be able to make 10:09 15 any sort of exceptions for him because there's been a little 16 bit of a rapid preparation or ramp up for trial. So, I mean,
17 that's just the reality of things.

18 It's not a great position to be in. I understand he 19 wishes he perhaps had more resources. I see my public
10:09 20 defenders do it every day with little or no resources against a 21 very powerful adversary, the United States government, and 22 sometimes with less prep time in this case and that's in a
23 criminal matter no less, not a civil enforcement action.

24 So we have to understand that these deadlines are not
10:09 25 aspirational. There's a reason for them, and we're not talking

1 about a prejudice analysis or something that was filed on
2 November 23rd and was due November 22nd. Depo designations
3 were filed well outside the Court's deadline of November 22nd
4 on the eve of trial, essentially December 6th.

10:10 5 So it just gets to the point where cannot make 6 accommodations that would create such prejudice. So I want to 7 be very clear that any insinuation in a civil matter where
8 someone is being represented that he's somehow facing a due
9 process conundrum or problem, I think it's vastly overstated
10:10 10 given the preparation that he's had in this case.

11 MR. HYMAN: I understand, Your Honor, and to be clear,
12 we were not asking you to reconsider any orders or any issues.
13 We're obviously simply preserving our record, and obviously we 14 incorporate to a certain degree the issues that were previously
10:10 15 raised in the Rule 41 motion which resulted in the freezing and 16 seizure of Mr. Furman's assets, but from there, beyond that,
17 it's simply to preserve the record and not to otherwise
18 question or insinuate --

19 THE COURT: Sure. And I think you've done that, and 10:10 20 if the Eleventh Circuit feels that there's a concern here from 21 a due process consideration under the Rule 41, I think we have 22 got enough of a record to support that. Okay?

23 All right. So with that being said, I think we should 24 be ready to go. We're going to go ahead and if we haven't done
10:11 25 so, I excuse Mr. Shaddick who is Juror Number 3 in the revised

1 list, and we're going to proceed with the seven individuals we 2 have.

3 The one thing I will just ask: How long does each
4 side expect to take for opening statements?

10:11 5 MS. BERLIN: I think mine is between 30 and 40
6 minutes.

7 THE COURT: All right. If we can stay closer to 30,
8 that would be great. Is that okay on the defense side?

9 MR. JOHN: Probably less than 30 minutes, Your Honor.

10:11 10 THE COURT: Okay, perfect. Thank you, guys. We can 11 get that done.

12 Everybody within an hour, I think, that's a fair
13 estimate. Okay. All right.

14 Yes, anything else housekeeping wise?

10:11 15 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor. We wonder -- we wanted
16 to invoke the rule and wonder -- you know, because we have some 17 witnesses watching by Zoom and we've told the witnesses that 18 perhaps it would be helpful if the Court could maybe say
19 something when we all go on, that if anyone is a witness and 10:12 20 hasn't testified, they shouldn't be.

21 THE COURT: Yeah. That's a good point. And so I
22 will -- to the extent I have everybody here watching today and
23 I want to be clear that we have a live stream for the benefit
24 of the investors and the investors shared those, log on, be 10:12 25 able to see counsels' tables, they will be able to see the

1 witness and they'll be able to see me. Obviously the jury will
2 not be broadcast on the stream -- the live stream.

3 But I just want the understanding that anyone is 4 watching that may be called as a witness in this case that the 10:12 5 rule of sequestration has been invoked. And so for those 6 listening, I want to direct anyone that may be a witness in 7 this case, that they are not to be essentially present in the 8 courtroom by way of virtually watching the proceedings. And 9 should the Court become aware of a violation of that court
10:12 10 order, which I'm imposing at this time, it may lead to 11 sanctions and/or the striking of witnesses. So I want to make
12 sure that we're abundantly clear on that. That, of course,
13 includes any of the parties that may be called.

14 Off the top of my head, I know that that would include
10:13 15 Vagnozzi, Abbonizio, and other individuals, and it implies with 16 equal force for plaintiff and defense. So if I have any 17 witnesses that plaintiff intends on calling, they also are 18 similarly prohibited from being on the Zoom feed so that they 19 can somehow be given access to ongoing testimony. So let's
10:13 20 make sure -- and if either side becomes aware of that, please
21 let me know. Okay.

22 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Yes, absolutely.

24 MS. BERLIN: And I wonder, is the Court going to 10:13 25 remind -- I'm not sure if the Court is already going to do

1 this, reminding the jurors that we can't speak with them
2 because we've obviously run into them in the restroom.

3 THE COURT: I told them yesterday before we broke, but
4 I'm going to let them know again just to remind them, because 10:13 5 I'm going to do my preliminary instructions, so I'll remind
6 them too.

7 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much. I know it was done
8 yesterday, I just didn't know --

9 THE COURT: Yes, it's good to remind them every day.
10:14 10 And I'm going to let them know, so everyone knows, just because 11 I think in the abundance of caution they should be aware that 12 there is a Zoom component to the trial, but I need to let them
13 know that they're never going to appear on it. They don't need
14 to worry about. I just want them to be comfortable. So you're 10:14 15 going to hear me say something about that too, just so that 16 they're all aware. Okay?

17 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor. And one little 18 thing. Right before the judge came out, we -- we had shown our 19 opening PowerPoint, so we don't have any objections, there was
10:14 20 one slide we were just making a minor replacement on and I
21 wonder if I can just check that it's been done before we start?

22 THE COURT: Yes, go ahead and check. We've got time.
23 It's going to take me 20 minutes anyway to get through my 24 opening stuff.

10:14 25 Did you guys get a chance to review it then, Mr. Hyman

1 whatever their issues were?

2 MR. HYMAN: We did. There was one minor issue, which
3 I think has been resolved voluntarily by the parties.

4 MS. BERLIN: I was going to show him, if that's okay.

10:14 5 THE COURT: Yes, yes. I'm going to get my jurors now
6 anyway, so you've got a few minutes.

7 MS. BERLIN: Great.

8 THE COURT: Did you guys have anything you needed to 9 show?

10:14 10 MR. JOHN: I have a question, Your Honor. As far as 11 the Court's restriction on moving, are we latched in the --

12 THE COURT: No. As long as you guys don't cross, if 13 you wanted to pretend there's an imaginary line where that 14 table is, where the plaintiff's table is, I just don't need
15 you -- yeah, pretty much almost where counsel is. Just you
16 could go beyond the podium. Just don't go any more closer than 17 that. It's more for social distancing. I just don't want
18 anybody to be, you know, too close to the jurors in the 19 abundance of caution, that's all, even though I know everyone
10:15 20 is vaccinated. But you guys can move around. You don't have 21 to be tethered to that. Okay?

22 MR. JOHN: One other thing. I did tell Ms. Johnson I
23 did have some -- I didn't realize who it was. It was a
24 substantive contact, but a juror was sitting next to me, not in 10:15 25 this area but in the area just over there.

1 THE COURT: Sure.

2 MR. JOHN: She asked me to watch her purse while she
3 was in the bedroom.

4 THE COURT: Oh, watch her purse? I think we'll be
10:15 5 okay.

6 MR. JOHN: I don't think she knew.

7 THE COURT: She probably didn't know. I'm going to 8 remind them again. They do it innocently. And I appreciate
9 you letting me know. I'll start off by reminding them again
10:15 10 because they're going to be bumping -- you know, it's a narrow 11 passageway here, I don't want anybody to be bumping into 12 anybody, but thank you. All right.

13 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Gracie, are we ready to go?

10:16 15 For the record, we're going to formally excuse, and by 16 agreement of all parties, Mr. Shaddick. Okay. So Mr. Shaddick
17 will no longer be with us for this trial. Please let him know
18 and we'll reach out to him and tell him what the next steps
19 are. And if you have the other seven, let's go ahead and get 10:16 20 them ready. Yeah.

21 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

22 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Good morning.
23 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen of the jury. How are you
24 all doing? Everyone doing okay, I hope.

10:18 25 All right. You can reposition yourself a little bit

1 because you're not in the corner anymore. Thank you. And you
2 guys are free to keep these seats or change it up at any point
3 you want. So again, thank you, you all, for joining us this
4 morning. You'll note that we are one individual shy. We're 10:18 5 going to be proceeding without him. So I don't want anyone to 6 be concerned about that. You continue to be my core group here
7 going forward. And please, everyone, can be seated.

8 So what I want to do this morning is begin by giving
9 you all some preliminary instructions on what to expect as the 10:18 10 trial begins today. First and foremost, I want to remind 11 everybody that we are all sharing space out here in front of 12 the courtroom. And the lawyers have to avoid you guys. So
13 please take no offense by that. I know sometimes we forget and 14 we may be sitting next to one of the attorneys and they may
10:19 15 forget and then they're going to see them realize you're a
16 juror and go running in the other direction. I don't want
17 anyone to take offense by that, please. Just keep in mind that 18 you cannot make any contact with any attorneys at any point,
19 nor will that may contact with you. All right. Take no
10:19 20 offense if they steer clear of you as they are supposed to do
21 under the ethics rules that govern their behavior during the 22 trial.

23 Now, another thing I wanted to share with you all, and 24 I don't want anyone to be uncomfortable with us, you're going
10:19 25 to see a lot of tech, a lot of screens here that are going on.

1 You guys obviously have screens in front of you and that's how
2 you're going to see exhibits that are put up and blown up.
3 You're also going to be able to see witnesses testify through
4 those screens.

10:19 5 Now, today we won't have anyone testifying remote.
6 There's no Zoom witnesses today. It's all live. You're going
7 to see them on the witness stand.

8 But one thing we are doing, which is a little unusual
9 in today's day and age is, we are actually streaming this trial
10:20 10 right now. I want you all to know that at no point during this
11 trial will a camera ever go anywhere near you guys. Right now
12 the only camera feeds that are being operated are one on me,
13 one on the lawyers and one on whoever testifies. That's it. I
14 just want you guys to feel comfortable that no one is going to 10:20 15 see your faces or be looking at you. The reason we're doing
16 that is, if you remember the statement of the claim yesterday,
17 remember that we talked about all the investors that were part
18 and parcel of everything that happened with Par Funding? Well, 19 a lot of them wanted to come to court, and I can't have all of 10:20 20 those people come in just because of COVID, it's just not safe.

21 So what I did was, since it's a public proceeding and 22 I have to give them a chance to watch, I designed this so that 23 everybody could watch live. So I just wanted to let you guys
24 know what's going on. It shouldn't interrupt anything you're 10:20 25 doing, but so you're all aware of it. Okay?

1 Now, let's talk a little bit about what to expect.

2

4

10:20

5 THE COURT: Now that you've been sworn, I need to
6 explain some basic principles about a civil trial and your duty
7 as jurors. And these are preliminary instructions. I'm going 8 to give you guys more detailed instructions at the end of the 9 trial.

9

10:21

10 Now what is your job? What is your duty? Well, it's 11 your duty to listen to the evidence, decide what happened, and 12 apply the law to the facts.

12

13 It's my job to provide you with the law you must 14 apply. And you must follow the law even if you disagree with 15 it. Now, what is the evidence and what is evidence? You must 16 decide the case only on the evidence presented in the 17 courtroom. Now, evidence can come in many forms, as we 18 discussed yesterday. It could be testimony about what someone
19 saw, heard or smelled. It could be an exhibit or a photograph.
20 It can be someone's opinion.

10:21

21 Now, some evidence may prove a fact indirectly. Let's
22 say a witness saw wet grass outside. Okay. And people walking
23 into the courthouse seeing wet umbrellas. All right. This may 24 be indirect evidence that it rained. Even though the witness
25 didn't personally see it rain.

10:21

25 Now, indirect evidence is also called circumstantial

1 evidence, and that simply means a chain of circumstances that
2 is likely to prove a fact. All right.

3 Now, as far as the law is concerned, it makes no
4 difference whether the evidence is direct or indirect. You may 10:22 5 choose to believe or disbelieve either kind. Your job is to 6 give each piece of evidence whatever weight you guys think it
7 deserves.

8 Now, during the trial you're going to hear certain 9 things that are not evidence and you should not consider it as 10:22 10 such. First, the lawyers' statements and arguments are not 11 evidence. In their opening statements, which will happen in 12 just a moment, and the closing arguments at the end of the 13 case, the lawyers are going to discuss the case. Their remarks
14 may help you follow each side's arguments and presentation of 10:22 15 evidence. But the remarks from the lawyers themselves are not 16 evidence. And they should not play a role in your
17 deliberations.

18 Now, second, the lawyers' questions and objections
19 aren't evidence. Only the witnesses' answers are evidence.
10:22 20 Don't decide that something is true just because a lawyer's
21 questions suggests that it's true. For example, a lawyer may 22 ask a witness: You saw Mr. Jones hit his sister, didn't you?

23 That question is not evidence of what the witness saw 24 or what Mr. Jones did. Unless, of course, the witness were to 10:23 25 agree with that question.

1 Now, there are rules of evidence that control what the
2 Court can receive into evidence. When a lawyer asks a witness
3 a question or presents an exhibit, the opposing lawyer may 4 object if he or she thinks the rules of evidence don't permit
10:23 5 it.

6 So you guys have probably seen this on TV, right?
7 You're going to have a witness here. Someone is going to ask a
8 question and one of the lawyers is going to jump up and go:
9 Objection, Your Honor. They're going to state an evidentiary
10:23 10 basis, right? I'm going to have to say one of two things;
11 "overruled," which means, witness, answer the question, or 12 "sustained," which means, witness, don't answer the question.
13 If I overrule the objection, then, of course, the witness can
14 answer, and I may be available to receive the exhibit.

10:23 15 Now, if I sustain the objection, which means the 16 witness can't answer and I don't receive the exhibit, I need
17 you guys to ignore the question. And not guess what the answer
18 might have been. Basically it's a nonissue. If I sustain it, 19 we don't think about it, we move on.

10:24 20 Sometimes I may disallow evidence. That's also called
21 the striking of evidence. I may ask you guys to disregard it
22 or ignore it. That means please do not consider the evidence
23 when you're deciding the case.

24 I may also allow evidence to come in for a limited
10:24 25 purpose only. When I instruct you that I've admitted a piece

1 of evidence for a limited purpose, you should only consider it
2 for that purpose and no other reason.

3 Now, when you guys are debating and trying to reach a
4 verdict, you're going to have to decide which testimony to 10:24 5 believe and which testimony not to believe. You may believe
6 everything a witness says, part of it or none of it. When
7 considering a witness's testimony, you may take into account
8 certain things. We review this at the end of the case, but I
9 want you guys to think about this because we're going to be 10:24 10 listening to a lot of people testifying in this case. Okay?
11 You should think about the witness's opportunity, and the 12 ability to see, hear or know the things that the witness is 13 testifying about, the witness's memory, the witness's manner
14 when testifying, any interest the witness has in the outcome of 10:25 15 the case, any bias or prejudice the witness may have, any other 16 evidence that contradicts the witness's testimony, the 17 reasonableness of the witness's testimony in light of all the 18 evidence, and any other factors affecting believability. At 19 the end of the trial I'll give you guys additional guidelines
10:25 20 for determining a witness's credibility.

21 Now, we all have reviewed what this case is about, and 22 in just a moment the opening statements will, once again,
23 explain it you to.

24 We'll talk a little bit about what the SEC's case is,
10:25 25 and Mr. Furman will also get an opportunity to remind you again

1 of his defense. The important thing I want to make sure you
2 guys remember is to decide whether any fact has been proven,
3 you're going to apply that preponderance of the evidence
4 standard. Remember, that is the idea of balancing scales. One
10:25 5 side carries the burden must tip that in their favor.

6 I want you guys to remember that unless I instruct you
7 otherwise, consider the testimony of all witnesses regardless
8 of who called them and all the exhibits that I allow into 9 evidence regardless of who produced them. After considering
10:26 10 all the evidence, if you decide a claim or fact is more likely 11 true than not, then that claim or fact has been proven by a
12 preponderance of the evidence.

13 And remember, of course, that to the extent Mr. Furman
14 has an affirmative defense such as an exception or an exemption
10:26 15 to the securities laws, he will carry the burden of proof on 16 that defense.

17 Now, remember that while serving on the jury, you may 18 not talk with anyone about anything related to the case. You
19 may tell people you're a juror, you can give them information
10:26 20 about when you've got to be in court, but you must not discuss 21 anything about the case with anyone. You shouldn't even talk
22 about the case with each other until you begin your
23 deliberations.

24 You want to make sure you've heard everything, all the 10:27 25 evidence, the lawyers's closing arguments, and my instructions

1 on the law to all of you before you guys begin deliberations.
2 You should keep an open mind until the end of the trial.
3 Premature discussions will lead to premature decisions.

4 In this age of technology, I want to emphasize again
10:27 5 that in addition to not talking face to face with anyone about
6 the case, you must not communicate with anyone about the case
7 by any other means. This include e-mails, text messages, phone
8 calls and the internet, including social networking websites
9 and apps such as Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, YouTube and 10 Twitter.

11 You may not use any similar technology on social
12 media, even if I have not specifically mentioned it here. You
13 must not provide the information about the case by any means
14 whatsoever, and that includes posting information about the 10:27 15 case or what you're doing on the case on any device or internet
16 site, including blogs, chat rooms or social websites.

17 You shouldn't Google or search online or off ine for 18 any information about the case, the parties, or the law. Don't 19 read or listen to any news accounts about this case, visit any 10:28 20 places related to this case, or research any fact, law or issue
21 related to the case.

22 The law forbids you all as jurors to talk with anyone
23 else about the case and forbids anyone else to talk to you guys
24 as jurors about the case. It's very important that you guys
10:28 25 understand why these rules exist and why I repeat them, and I

1 will keep repeating them every day. It's because they're very
2 important.

3 You have to base your decision only on the testimony
4 and evidence presented here in the courtroom. It's not fair to 10:28 5 the parties if you base your decision on any way -- in any way
6 on information you acquire outside of the courtroom. For 7 example, the law on uses words and phrases in special ways. So
8 it's important that any definitions you hear come only from me
9 and not from any other source.

10:28 10 Only you as jurors can decide the verdict in this 11 case. The law sees only you seven as fair and only you have 12 promised to be fair. No one else is so qualified.

13 Now, did you all get notepads? Yes. Let me -- brief
14 word about taking notes. If you guys wish, you may take notes
10:29 15 to help you remember what the witnesses said. If you do take 16 notes, please don't share them with anyone until you go to the 17 jury room at the end to decide the case.

18 And don't let note-taking distract you all from 19 carefully listening to and observing the witnesses. If you get 10:29 20 too caught up taking notes on everything, you might miss some 21 of the things I told you you may consider in determining 22 credibility.

23 Now, when you leave the courtroom, if you are on a
24 short break, I'll have you leave them on your chair. If you're
10:29 25 on a long break, I'll have you leave it inside the secure jury

1 room. Never take them from the courtroom. Okay?

2 And whether or not you guys decide to take notes, you
3 should rely on your own memory of the testimony. The notes are 4 only designed to help your memory. They are not entitled to 10:29 5 greater weight than your memory or impression of the testimony.
6 It's very important that you keep that in mind.

7 One of the things I recommend is that on the first
8 page, you want to write your name, your juror number. And then
9 start notes on the second page. Then at the end of the case, I
10:30 10 want you to all know that we shred and destroy all the notes.
11 So you can write whatever you want on there without fear of 12 anybody else taking a look at it.

13 Now what's going to happen? Let's walk through the 14 trial. In just a moment each side is going to make an opening
10:30 15 statement. They don't have to, but each side has elected to do
16 so here. Remember, the opening statement is not evidence.
17 It's not supposed to be argumentative. It's an outline of what 18 each side believes the evidence is going to show you guys over
19 the coming days. So keep that mind open as you listen to this 10:30 20 blueprint each side is going to put forth before you.

21 After that the SEC will begin presenting their case in 22 chief. They're going to call witnesses to testify, either live
23 or on Zoom. After the SEC's lawyers ask the questions of those 24 witnesses, then Mr. Furman's lawyers will get to ask questions.
10:30 25 That is known as cross-examination. Right? Then after that,

1 the government gets to do a redirect examination.

2 Once we get through all of the SEC's witnesses, then
3 Mr. Furman is able to put on any witnesses he wants to put on 4 and the same thing applies. He asks the questions, first the 10:31 5 direct examination. Then the SEC will proceed with their 6 cross-examination. And then Mr. Furman's lawyers will get
7 their redirect examination.

8 You, again, should base your decision on all the 9 evidence regardless of who is calling these witnesses and what 10:31 10 party presents it. After all the evidence is in, then I will 11 give you instructions on the law. I want to go over what the 12 law is together in packets. I'll make copies for all of you.

13 Then after that, what I'll go ahead and do is turn it
14 over to the lawyers who will make closing arguments. And then 10:31 15 after that, you guys get to go in the jury room with the 16 instructions on the law, closing arguments done, all the 17 evidence in front of you to begin your deliberations. Okay?
18 That's the way the whole trial is going to work from a thousand
19 foot view. Okay?

10:31 20 So the important thing, folks, again, is we will try,
21 whenever possible, to take breaks for your comfort. If at any 22 point you guys need a break or anything, you can flag down
23 Ralph or myself. I'll try to keep an eye out for restroom
24 breaks, et cetera.

10:32 25 And one thing I want to mention is -- and it's an

1 interesting thing, people are not aware of this -- but when we
2 start calling witnesses, you're permitted to ask questions in a
3 civil proceeding of witnesses. A brief word about jury
4 questions. Once the examination is complete as to each
10:32 5 witness, I'm going ask you: Anybody have any questions from 6 the witness?

7 You can write the question on a page from your 8 notepads. Okay? And then you're going to hand it to my 9 courtroom security officer, and he's going to bring it to me.

10:32 10 A word about this: 99.9 percent of the time the lawyers will 11 ask every possible question you're going to need. So I expect
12 to have very few questions, if anything. But, sometimes jurors
13 are unclear about something or they want to ask some follow-up.

14 So the way it works is I will prompt you to see if 10:32 15 there's a jury question. You will write it down on a piece of 16 paper. Don't say it out loud. Fold it and it's brought to --
17 I will review it at sidebar outside of your presence here with 18 the lawyers to make sure that we can ask the question.

19 There are evidentiary rulings that you guys are not
10:33 20 aware of and rules of evidence that prevent me from asking
21 certain things. I don't want anybody to get offended. You may 22 ask a great question, but the rules of evidence may not let me
23 ask it. And if I can ask it, I will be the one to ask the 24 witness the question that you have posed. And then I may let 10:33 25 the lawyers do a little bit of follow up. Okay?

1 But again, if I don't ask your question, okay, I don't
2 want you guys to draw any conclusions from that fact or
3 speculate what the answer would have been, and I may even 4 modify some of your questions so that I can ask them under the 10:33 5 rules of evidence. But again, no pressure for any of you.
6 It's just an option, okay, if you guys want.

7 And I will just remind you again. Remember to send me
8 your questions in writing. Don't ask them out loud. You're 9 not going to be able to recall a witness, meaning, once a 10:34 10 witness is done and they're excused, that's it. So if you have 11 a question, that's the time to ask, when I prompt you.

12 And because you should remain neutral and open-minded,
13 if you're going to ask a question, try to phrase it in a way
14 that doesn't express your opinion about the case or the 10:34 15 witness, please. We need you to keep an open mind until you
16 hear all the evidence, the closing arguments, and the final
17 instructions on the law.

18 With that being said, there may be other standard
19 instructions I read you throughout the case, especially if we
10:34 20 use any recorded conversations, any depositions or testimony
21 outside the Court that has been designated, or, for example, if 22 we had anybody that needs a translation. If those issues come
23 up, I will give you guidance.

24 But you now have the toolkit you need to have an open
10:34 25 mind and know what to expect from the lawyers and how the trial

1 secure. He told investors that government regulators had
2 praised the investment and, quote/unquote, loved it. He told
3 investors that this investment was so good, he and the owner of 4 the company had invested 50 million dollars in Par Funding.

10:38 5 The evidence will show that these were lies that the 6 defendant told as part of his scheme to conceal the truth from 7 investors and to raise money for Par Funding so that he could
8 make money himself. We will learn that in truth, the defendant
9 was working with Par Funding from the very beginning. In 10:39 10 truth, a twice convicted felon was operating Par Funding, and 11 in truth, government regulators in three states didn't say they 12 loved it. They issued orders against Par Funding to sanction
13 them and to stop them from offering this investment in a way
14 that was violating the securities laws. In truth, the owner of 10:39 15 Par Funding will tell you that he did not invest 50 million
16 dollars of his own money. And in truth, the defendant did not 17 invest a dime.

18 Par Funding was barely breaking even. And the 19 evidence will show that the defendant kept these facts a secret
10:39 20 from investors, or at best, didn't even care enough to confirm 21 or examine whether these representations were true or false.
22 He just recklessly said whatever he needed to say to get people
23 to part with their retirement money. And that is just the tip
24 of the iceberg.

10:40 25 The defendants and lies, his scheme to raise money for

1 Par Funding is the reason we're here today. The federal
2 securities laws require those who offer investments to operate
3 in the light of day to protect investors to keep things fair
4 and to make sure that investors know the truth when investing
10:40 5 their money so that investors can make educated decisions about 6 whether or not to spend their money on an investment. But the 7 evidence will show that Mr. Furman operated in the shadows and 8 did not disclose important information to investors.

9 The evidence will show that Mr. Furman, the defendant,
10:41 10 raised millions of dollars from investors here in South Florida
11 through his scheme and that he himself profited as well to the 12 tune of hundreds of thousands of dollars in just a short period
13 of time.

14 My name is Amie Riggle-Berlin. I'm senior trial
10:41 15 counsel with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, which 16 is also known as the SEC. The SEC is a civil federal 17 government agency, and so, as the judge has explained, this is 18 not a criminal case. It is a civil case. And so we will not
19 be speaking to you during this trial about finding anyone
10:41 20 guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

21 Instead, during this trial, we will open a vault of 22 evidence that holds the secrets that Michael Furman kept from 23 investors. A vault of evidence that holds the defendant's
24 lies. The evidence will show how the defendant and Par Funding
10:42 25 began working together and how the defendants lured investors

1 to South Florida to invest in Par Funding, to trust their
2 retirement money with Michael Furman until the SEC brought it
3 to a halt last year.

4 So when and how does it begin? It begins in 2017, in 10:42 5 the fall of 2017. And you will hear evidence in this case that 6 during the first week of November 2017, Michael Furman flew to 7 Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He had seen an advertisement about 8 a way to make money from selling something called an
9 alternative investment. And once he got to Philadelphia,
10:43 10 you'll hear that he met at Par Funding's office and he met with 11 Joseph LaForte, the owner of Par Funding, Perry Abbonizio, the 12 principle, and Dean Vagnozzi, the investor sales agent. And 13 Perry Abbonizio will testify you to and tell you about that 14 meeting, as well Mr. Furman.

10:43 15 Joseph LaForte, the owner of Par Funding, was a twice
16 convicted felon. He was the founder of Par Funding, the owner.
17 He ran the day-to-day operations. He ran the business. And 18 his convictions for money laundering, grand larceny and illegal
19 gambling schemes were never disclosed by Mr. Furman to any of 10:43 20 the investors, even though he knew this information when he was 21 soliciting.

22 So what is Par Funding? Well, you'll hear evidence
23 from Perry Abbonizio, a former executive there, as well as Brad
24 Sharp, a consultant who is currently running Par Funding, and 10:44 25 they'll describe it to you generally. Par Funding would loan

1 money out to small businesses. It's called a merchant cash
2 advance, and in exchange they would receive the money back from
3 the merchants with interest. So that's where the profit would 4 come from.

10:44 5 And Par Funding would get this money that it loaned
6 out by raising it from investors, including the investors that 7 Mr. Furman found for them. So they would, in exchange for 8 investor money, offer something called a promissory note. And 9 you will hear in this case that a promissory note is a security
10:44 10 and it's like an IOU. It's a promise to pay an investor back
11 their money with interest. And so in exchange for their money,
12 Par Funding and Mr. Furman would offer promissory notes to 13 investors, investor money would go from the investor to 14 Mr. Furman to Par Funding, and then on to the merchant
10:45 15 borrowers who would send it back with more money and some of 16 that would be passed along to the investors as their profits.

17 So Par Funding used a series of sales agents located
18 coast to coast to raise the money that they needed to run their 19 business. And you will hear from Perry Abbonizio, the former
10:45 20 investor relations director at Par Funding, that Michael Furman
21 was one of these people. He was the person in South Florida
22 raising money for Par Funding. And Mr. Furman sent more than 23 10 million dollars to Par Funding of investor money. He would 24 seek it, collect it, bundle it, and forward it onto Par Funding
10:45 25 in exchange for Par Funding promissory notes.

1 About ten days after this meeting in Philadelphia
2 where he met Joseph LaForte and Perry Abbonizio and the other
3 executives, you'll hear that Mr. Furman hit the ground running.
4 He immediately started searching for investors and soliciting
10:46 5 them. And you'll see e-mails like this one from just ten days
6 after he returned showing him reaching out to investors and 7 trying to sell them these Par Funding or MCA promissory notes.
8 And you'll also see attached with Mr. Furman's own e-mails that 9 he was successful and he started selling these promissory notes
10:46 10 to people in about March of 2018.

11 First, he was using a company called ABFP and getting
12 promissory notes from them. And later on he created his own
13 company, because Par Funding wanted there to be a pass through.
14 Mr. Furman had to have his own company to just pass the money
10:46 15 through on up to Par Funding. And so we'll see that he did
16 that with two different named companies, ABFP and Fidelis, and 17 you'll see the e-mails and promissory notes showing you that.

18 So in January 2018, when Mr. Furman learned that he 19 needed a company to raise money for Par Funding, he started
10:47 20 one, and Par Funding helped him do it. So Perry Abbonizio, the 21 former Par Funding executive, will testify to you that he 22 helped Mr. Furman, Par Funding helped him create the company so
23 he could raise money by selling these securities. They paid
24 his attorney to create a PPM, which is an offering document
10:47 25 that tells investors information about the investment, and

1 Par Funding was with him every step of the way, beginning from
2 the very beginning when he created his own company.

3 So how did Mr. Furman find these investors in South
4 Florida? The evidence is going to show he did it five ways,
10:47 5 and we're going to examine all five types of evidence during 6 this trial. So to briefly give you a sense of what to 7 experience, you're going to see internet brochures, radio ads,
8 one-on-one meetings and sales events.

9 So for the internet where Mr. Furman would advertise,
10:48 10 you're going to see his own websites where he's advertising
11 this MCA investment. He's encouraging people to call his 12 company, he has videos online describing the investment, and 13 he's encouraging people to contact him for more information.

14 He also reached out to the public through brochures.
10:48 15 So he would hand out brochures, like this one. This is one of 16 the exhibits you'll see with Mr. Furman's business card inside
17 and he would hand this out. It's a Par Funding brochure.

18 He would also have sales events where he would invite 19 people to restaurants for free dinners and other events where 10:48 20 he could tell them all about the Par Funding investment and 21 solicit them. And you will hear from investors who attended
22 those events who are going to tell you what Mr. Furman said
23 during those sales presentations and how he described the 24 investment.

10:49 25 And most importantly, what he did not tell them when

1 he was soliciting them while he was touting the management, he
2 was not disclosing that the owner was a convicted felon, for
3 example, and other failures to disclose.

4 The other kind of evidence we're going to hear in this
10:49 5 trial is radio ads. So Mr. Furman plays radio ads in South
6 Florida and we'll hear some of those.

7 We should be hearing one of those.

8 (AUDIO PLAYING)

9 MS. BERLIN: And you'll hear from investors who heard
10:50 10 these radio ads, called Par Funding, went to these events where 11 they were solicited to invest in Par Funding. So the radio is 12 just another way that he reached out to the public.

13 Also there are these one-on-one meetings, and you'll 14 hear from investors, they're going to testify and tell you what
10:50 15 was said during those one-on-one meetings, what Mr. Furman said
16 about the investment and how he pitched it. And finally you'll 17 hear about sales events, and investors will describe them to 18 you. We're going to look together at the PowerPoint brochure
19 that he would show during those sales events, and you'll see
10:50 20 his advertisements in the newspaper.

21 So through these advertising measures that's how he
22 went out and found people. And then you're going to hear
23 evidence about what he communicated to investors about this
24 investment. So overall, the defendant would assure investors
10:51 25 that they were getting the full story, that there was

1 transparency, that he had done a lot of due diligence. He
2 would highlight this as an investment where he had gone to meet
3 the owners and what a unique thing that is, and that investors
4 would have all the information that they would need to invest,
10:51 5 it would be fully transparent.

6 But we're going to see that the evidence shows that
7 that was not true. For example, as I stated before, you're 8 going to hear evidence, and that's not disputed, meaning the 9 defendant and the SEC agree, that Mr. LaForte was a
10:51 10 twice-convicted felon, and investors are going to testify that 11 they were never -- this information was never disclosed, you
12 won't see it in any marketing brochure. It was kept a secret
13 throughout the offering.

14 We're also going to see Mr. Furman's website where 10:52 15 he's telling investors that the Par Funding merchant cash
16 advance loans have a 1.2 percent default rate, and we're going
17 to hear and see evidence that that was not true at all. That 18 in reality, Par Funding had more than 2,000 lawsuits against 19 merchants that had borrowed money and were in default, were not 10:52 20 paying back. And none of this was disclosed to investors
21 either, which was important because investors are supposed to 22 get paid on their promissory notes based on the success of 23 these loans. So if a lot of them are in default or they're not 24 making money then that obviously affects the amount that 10:52 25 investors can make.

1 In addition to that, there were secrets that were
2 maintained about the government actions against Par Funding,
3 and we're going to see evidence and we're going to hear from 4 state regulators. We will have agents coming and testifying to 10:53 5 you from Zoom from Pennsylvania government agencies, New Jersey
6 government agencies and Texas government agencies. They're
7 going to testify that each of their agencies filed cases
8 against Par Funding, or ABFP, the company that was helping 9 manage Mr. Furman's entity, or Par Funding's executives for 10:53 10 violating the securities laws over and over again. There are 11 three of them. And all of this was known to Mr. Furman. It
12 would have been a red flag for any investor, information that 13 was completely concealed, and they were kept in the dark about 14 it. And you will hear that not only was this information not 10:53 15 disclosed but Mr. Furman went a step further.

16 (AUDIO PLAYING)

17 MS. BERLIN: That's an audio recording from an FBI
18 recording with an undercover posing as a potential investor.
19 And you are going to hear these audio recordings, the FBI will 10:54 20 testify and authenticate them, and this is an excerpt from 21 Mr. Furman's representations to a woman he thought was a
22 potential investor, telling her that the State of New Jersey
23 had looked at Par Funding, loved it, retracted their order,
24 thought everything looked good. And we are going to hear from 10:54 25 the New Jersey regularity testifying to you that that never

1 happened and this is just simply false.

2 And there were more lies. In addition to telling
3 investors that the investment was blessed by New Jersey
4 regulators, we'll hear that Mr. Furman also failed to disclose
10:55 5 other facts and lied about their being insurance, which was in 6 his brochure, on all of these merchant cash advances, and also
7 in his brochure would tell the potential investors that there
8 was always an onsite inspection, that before they loaned money
9 they would go out to the merchant and check out the business
10:55 10 and make sure it was legitimate and they knew who they were 11 loaning money to, and you're going to hear from two of the 12 Par Funding employees in charge of underwriting there who are 13 going to tell you that that was not the case. Sometimes they 14 would do an onsite inspection, but oftentimes they absolutely
10:55 15 did not. Instead they'll testify that they would loan money
16 based on a Google search of the name of a borrower. Completely
17 contrary to what was represented.

18 In addition to these lies, we're also going to see
19 that Mr. Furman filed statements with the Securities and 10:56 20 Exchange Commission, and in those statements, we'll look
21 through those together, and the evidence is going to show that 22 he also lied to the SEC in his filings with the SEC about the 23 investments he was offering, when it began and how much he 24 personally was taking. And that while he told the SEC he was 10:56 25 taking zero, he had, in fact, taken hundreds of thousands of 1 dollars.

2 In addition to that, we're going to hear, as I told
3 you at the beginning, that Mr. Furman told investors in black
4 and white in his own e-mails, you will see, him representing to 10:56 5 investors that an owner of the company, Perry Abbonizio,
6 invested 50 million dollars in Par Funding, because he really
7 believed in it. And Perry Abbonizio is going to testify and 8 tell you that that is patently false and he never told
9 Mr. Furman that either.

10:57 10 The evidence will show that through these lies and 11 secrets and by telling investors this was a great investment
12 that was safe and not discussing these risks or issues, the 13 defendant raised millions of dollars from people in South
14 Florida. Working out of West Palm Beach, he primarily touted
10:57 15 this and solicited people for investing their retirement funds 16 and so you will hear from investors about the fact that they
17 invested their retirement money in Par Funding.

18 Lying to investors, concealing the truth, and scheming
19 to defraud, these are called -- this is called securities fraud
10:57 20 under the civil federal securities laws. And also 21 participating in these offerings of Par Funding's promissory
22 notes and the ABFP promissory notes that we showed you, that's 23 also a violation of another federal securities law that
24 requires companies to file and register with the SEC before
10:58 25 they start soliciting investors so that it's registered and

1 it's in the light of day. And instead, Mr. Furman completely
2 operated in the shadows with these investments.

3 So what will Mr. Furman tell you? Well, we anticipate
4 that Mr. Furman will mention that he had a lot of lawyers and 10:58 5 he had a couple of lawyers. And those lawyers are going to 6 tell you that they did not give him the advice he's going to 7 claim they did. And instead, the evidence is going to show
8 that he lied to his own lawyers too.

9 In addition, Mr. Furman is going to tell you that his 10:58 10 investors were accredited, meaning that he solicited people
11 with a lot of money. But there's -- you're not going to hear
12 about any exception under the law that makes it okay to lie to 13 people just because they have more money in their retirement
14 account or less.

10:59 15 He's also going to tell you, we anticipate, that 16 everyone else is to blame, that it's not him. He might point
17 the finger. He might point the finger at the SEC, that it's 18 somehow our fault for what he said or other people at 19 Par Funding, but the evidence is going to show and what we're 10:59 20 going to show you are his own e-mails, investors who met with 21 him directly based on what Mr. Furman told them, the marketing
22 brochures that he handed out, his radio advertisements and the 23 FBI undercover recordings of him speaking.

24 So the evidence will show that's just another way to 10:59 25 avoid take any blame. And you'll also, we anticipate, tell you

1 that he only lies sometimes. Sometimes he tells the truth, but
2 a lie is a lie. And finally, that -- we believe he'll tell you
3 that he's not Par Funding. He's just someone who is not
4 affiliated with them at all. But you're going to see through 11:00 5 all the evidence that Mr. Furman is helping to bundle investor
6 money in South Florida and then sending it to Par Funding in 7 exchange for promissory notes and a preconceived and 8 preengineered process.

9 And you're going to hear about that from 11:00 10 Perry Abbonizio, the former executive. You're going to hear
11 about that from the investors as well, and you're going to see
12 it. He's handing out Par Funding brochures with his business
13 card, and he's holding seminars and raising money for 14 Par Funding. And you'll also hear Mr. Furman testify about 11:00 15 that himself as well.

16 So he'll try to distance himself from Par Funding, but 17 this case isn't about what Par Funding did. This case is about 18 Mr. Furman's interactions and solicitations of investors. As 19 the judge explained yesterday, it's not a criminal case. We 11:01 20 won't be asking you anything or mentioning beyond a reasonable 21 doubt. Instead, we'll only be talking about a preponderance of 22 the evidence and whether it reflects this.

23 So at the end of the case, after we show you the 24 evidence and we listen to the audio, show you a lot of emails,
11:01 25 and you'll hear from at least four investors witnesses as well

1 and at least three former Par Funding employees, three state
2 government regulators who entered these orders, and an FBI
3 agent, as well as the consultant who took over Par Funding and
4 Mr. Furman's company, when the SEC stepped in last year.

11:01 5 We'll speak again at the end of the case, and I'll 6 explain to you why we believe, the SEC believes that the 7 evidence that we have presented shows that Mr. Furman was 8 reckless in failing to disclose the full truth to investors.
9 Thank you.

11:02 10 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Berlin.

11 Mr. Hyman on behalf plaintiff Mr. Furman.

12 MR. HYMAN: Actually, Mr. John is going to do that.
13 However, Your Honor, I'd like to a quick sidebar to address
14 very brief issues.

11:02 15 (Thereupon, there was a side-bar conference outside
16 the presence and hearing of the jury.)

17 MR. HYMAN: First, Your Honor, we're going to object
18 to any newly raised fraud claims based on the alleged 19 misstatements and the Reg D filings. That was not in the 11:02 20 complaint. It wasn't anywhere. The first time we're hearing
21 of any of this was in the opening statement. So we'd ask that.

22 And second, Your Honor, you previously ruled in limine
23 that the jury wasn't going to hear about how people were 24 investing from their retirement funds. That was mentioned
11:02 25 three times during Ms. Berlin's opening. It doesn't give rise

1 to the level of prejudice. However, we'd ask that you caution
2 her to cease that and also prohibit her from mentioning any of
3 the alleged misstatements in the Reg D filings.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So let's take it in turn. I don't 11:03 5 recall anything that played upon the sympathies of the jury as 6 to the investing public. So there was nothing there that would 7 have raised at least a red flag for me.

8 But in the abundance of caution, Ms. Berlin, obviously 9 we won't necessarily emphasize the elderly or anybody losing
11:03 10 their money, just so that we know.

11 MS. BERLIN: I'm not going to mention anyone losing a
12 dime during this trial, but they all invested retirement money
13 and that's how it was advertised. So --

14 THE COURT: That's why I'm fine with that. I think --
11:03 15 I don't think counsel understands that wasn't even close to the 16 level of running afoul of the motion in limine or any rulings.
17 I just want to be in an abundance of caution. The other thing
18 is this regular issue, you want to respond to that?

19 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, absolutely. So they're raising
11:03 20 their Form D for -- if I had a list, which that's not really
21 what we have charged, but if they want to and their arguing (d)
22 lying in your registration with the SEC where you're saying
23 we're exempt from (d), if that document you file with is a lie,
24 then you're not entitled to any exemption. We're arguing
11:04 25 obviously and saying that they participated in the Par Funding

1 offering. But they want to argue 506(c), but Fidelis
2 offering --

3 THE COURT: Correct.

4 MS. BERLIN: So they have made it fair game in they 11:04 5 want to argue that and one of the exhibits is the 506(c), then
6 I'm putting to the jury that that document has three lies in
7 it.

8 THE COURT: The important thing is not so much as 9 independent but rebuttal of the raising of the exemption of
11:04 10 506, correct.

11 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor. That's true.

12 THE COURT: That's what it's raised for. It's not 13 that they're bringing it.

14 MR. HYMAN: Fair enough. It's --

11:04 15 THE COURT: It's only fair game. We have talked about 16 it as a feature in the case.

17 MR. HYMAN: Understood. I can only understand the 18 concern when you hear he lied on this and lied on that.

19 THE COURT: But that's it's something that's been in 11:05 20 put in blame. Thank you.

21 (Thereupon, the side-bar conference was concluded.)

22 THE COURT: All right, folks. We're going to turn it
23 over now to the defense team to make their argument. Give them
24 one second while they get their computer set up and we're going
11:05 25 to start in just a moment.

MR. JOHN: Members of the jury, the government is right, we're going to tell you that Mr. Furman is not Par Funding because he's not.

THE COURT: Let me get you a microphone, Mr. John. I want to get you a microphone. I just want to make sure that my court reporter makes a clean record. Let me get that to you. Please feel free to remain where you are. I just want to get you a handheld.

All right. You may proceed.

MR. JOHN: What the evidence is going to show by the end of this trial is that Mr. Furman was never part of any scheme, but he is now being a scapegoat. You just got a preview of the government's case. They're going to talk to you about Par Funding, and they're going to tell you it's not about Par Funding, it's about Mr. Furman. The government is going to try to convince you through their evidence that Mr. Furman really isn't Mr. Furman, that his company, Fidelis, isn't really a company, that it, just like Mr. Furman, are just extensions of Par Funding.

But what you're going to discover through the evidence is that Mr. Furman was never even an employee of Par Funding, much less in any position to have insider knowledge, to exercise any authority or management over Par Funding. He never had access, most importantly, to the full scope of 1 Par Funding's internal financials.

2 The evidence is going to demonstrate that

3 Michael Furman and his company, Fidelis, were separate and

4 distinct entities from Par Funding. It will show that

11:09 5 Mr. Furman made diligent efforts to obtain as much information
6 as he could about Par Funding's internal financials and that
7 while his company Fidelis did issue promissory notes, it did so
8 only to accredited investors.

9 What you're going to learn is that when it comes to 11:09 10 those accredited investors and what Mr. Furman may or may not 11 have said to them is that he provided the information that was 12 given to him from Par Funding. He relied on Par Funding to 13 provide that information so that he could pass it onto his

14 investors.

11:09 15 You're going to learn that Mr. Furman relied on advice
16 of his attorneys, the people he hired to help make sure that he 17 was operating properly. Of course he followed their advice.
18 That's why he hired them.

19 Members of the jury, what you're going to learn

11:10 20 through the evidence is that Mr. Furman acted reasonably under 21 the circumstances. Michael Furman played by the rules, but now
22 the government is changing the game.

23 You're going to hear from Mr. Furman during the course

24 of this trial. He's going to talk to you about how he started
11:10 25 up. Shortly after college, he worked briefly for Prudential

1 and then set out on his own. He always wanted to build
2 something that helped people. That's what he'll tell you.

3 So he started his business, and he'll tell you how
4 hard he worked to build up a stellar reputation in West Palm
11:10 5 Beach, where his office is located, and to build that business
6 up. And he will explain to you that his company offered more
7 than just promissory notes. They offered a range of financial 8 services and products for the people that relied on him.

9 You're going to hear from Mr. Furman's mother, who has 11:11 10 managed his office ever since he started his business. She's 11 going to talk to you about the protocols and the processes that 12 Fidelis, Mr. Furman's company, had in place to ensure that they 13 were only marketing to accredited investors. She's going to 14 talk to you about those investment seminars you heard a little
11:11 15 bit about and how they instituted sign-in sheets and other
16 verifications to ensure that no nonaccredited investors were 17 slipping through.

18 You'll hear from Mr. Furman's administrative assistant
19 in his office who works closely with him. She's going to talk
11:11 20 to you about how they developed the advertising materials and 21 the marketing pieces to make sure that they were obviously 22 directed only to accredited investors. And through the 23 evidence, you're going to understand why that's important.

24 Now, you've heard the government already describe
11:12 25 Mr. Furman's company's, Fidelis, promissory notes as

1 unregistered securities. What you'll learn under the law is
2 that because Mr. Furman through Fidelis was playing by the
3 rules and only issuing notes to accredited investors, he was 4 entitled to an exemption under the rule that governs trade in 11:12 5 unregistered securities.

6 You are going to learn that through his attorneys, he
7 submitted the necessary paperwork to claim that exemption. And 8 just like they did during their opening, the government is 9 going to tell you that doesn't matter, ignore that, that's 11:13 10 wrong, literally moving those loopholes right in front of you,
11 changing the game.

12 You're also going to hear from Joseph Cole Barletta.
13 Mr. Cole is the former CFO, chief financial officer, of 14 Par Funding. And Mr. Cole, as he is known, is going to talk to 11:13 15 you a little bit about that merchant cash advance industry you
16 heard about. He's going to explain to you that the industry is 17 innovative and it's different, allowing businesses that 18 otherwise would not be able to access traditional loans to get 19 the cash that they need to continue operating.

11:13 20 More importantly, he's going to talk to you about
21 those default rates that you heard about from the government.
22 They have suggested to you that Mr. Furman should have known --
23 knew or should have known about this two thousand or some odd
24 lawsuits that Par Funding had filed against defaulted
11:14 25 customers, customers who had defaulted on their cash advance

1 contractors.

2 But what you're going to learn through the evidence
3 and through Mr. Cole's testimony is that that is not the 4 customary way to calculate default rates in the merchant cash
11:14 5 advance industry. And even if it was, he will advise you that 6 that information was never provided by Par to Mr. Furman about
7 the litigation against the customers or even how many customers
8 they had. He did not have that information.

9 And yet, the government is going to ask you to impose
11:14 10 an unreasonable standard on Mr. Furman, that somehow, some way,
11 he should have been crawling all over the court dockets
12 throughout the country, presumably, daily, to keep up with what
13 lawsuits Par Funding may have been filing.

14 He played by the rules. And now they are changing the 11:15 15 game. And you saw a preview of some of the evidence that the 16 government is going to suggest to you represents misstatements
17 or omissions by Mr. Furman made. You heard about .5 seconds of 18 a tape recording of that undercover FBI agent they talked 19 about.

11:15 20 Now, this person was sent out to contact Mr. Furman
21 and to inquire about investments. That's what they did. You
22 are never going to actually see that person come in here and 23 testify before you. The government is not going to submit that 24 false investor to cross-examination for context of those calls.
11:16 25 And context matters.

1 There's a reason you only heard a brief snippet of
2 that call and the rest of it was told to you by the government.
3 That's going to be how that goes with that type of evidence.
4 You're going to be presented with what Mr. Furman actually says
11:16 5 and then how the government tells you to interpret it.

6 For instance, you heard about how certain regulatory 7 actions that were recorded on the FBI calls in New Jersey and 8 Pennsylvania. Just taking the New Jersey action as an example,
9 it's true. On that call he did say things like the regulators
11:16 10 think it's good and they're backing off. But what you weren't
11 told by the government is that he also informed that false
12 investor that New Jersey had fined Par Funding, issued a fine
13 against them. He disclosed that.

14 Why wouldn't they tell you that? That's how that 11:17 15 evidence is going to be presented. And you're going to be left 16 to decide one thing, what should we know, what you hear or what 17 the government tells you to hear?

18 Mr. Furman, through Fidelis invested. Fidelis was an 19 investment company. Mr. Furman served the investors. Those 11:17 20 investors relied on him to provide them with information, and 21 he relied on Par Funding to provide him with information that 22 he could give to them.

23 What the evidence is going to lead you to conclude is 24 that everyone was relying on Par Funding to get it right. And 11:18 25 they didn't. That's not in dispute. But now the government is

1 asking you to hold Mr. Furman accountable for that failure. He
2 played by the rules and now they are changing the game. They
3 tell you this is not about Par Funding, but what the evidence
4 will show is that they are trying to make Mr. Furman
11:18 5 indistinguishable from that entity. They will ask you to hold
6 him accountable for Par Funding's actions. And we are asking
7 you to reject that unreasonable request and instead find
8 Mr. Furman not liable on all counts. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

11:19 10 SEC's first witness.

11 MS. BERLIN: The SEC will call Mr. Bradley Sharp.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 Thereupon,

14 BRADLEY SHARP,

15 having been duly sworn by the court reporter, testified as
16 follows:

17 MR. HYMAN: We'd just like to renew our prior 18 objection that -- on the motion in limine for purposes of 19 preserving the record, Your Honor.

11:19 20 THE COURT: Okay. Understood.

21 You may proceed.

22

23 DIRECT EXAMINATION

24 BY MS. JOHNSON:

11:19 25 Q. Good morning, Mr. Sharp.

8 THE COURT: I know it's tough. Get a little closer to 9 the microphone. There you go. I just want to make sure our 11:20 10 court reporter can hear you and we have some audio issues.

11 Thank you so much.

12 Go ahead.

13 BY MS. JOHNSON:

14 Q. Okay. And anything after? Any post graduate degrees?

11:20 15 A. No. Just my bachelor's degree.

16 Q. Do you have any licenses or -- any licenses?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And where are you currently employed?

19 A. I work for Development Specialists, Inc., also known as 11:20 20 DSI.

21 Q. And what do you do at DSI?

22 A. I'm the president and chief executive officer.

23 Q. And what is DSI's relationship, if anything, to the 24 Par Funding company?

11:20 25 A. DSI was engaged as the financial advisor and operating

1 consultant by the receiver, Ryan Stumphauzer.

2 Q. And what did you do in that role as consultant and advisor?

3 A. Really, two things. First, from an operational standpoint
4 we actually managed the day-to-day operations of Par Funding
11:21 5 and have custody of the books and records and things of that 6 nature.

7 Second, as a financial advisory, we provide the 8 receiver with any financial analysis, or forensic accounting
9 that he would request.

11:21 10 Q. And do you have any operational role with Par Funding?

11 A. Yes, we manage the business.

12 Q. As part of your duties as a consultant, have you had access
13 to Par Funding's books and records?

14 A. Yes.

11:21 15 Q. Have you reviewed those books and records?

16 A. Yes, we have.

17 Q. Have you interviewed any Par Funding employees?

18 A. Yes, we have.

19 Q. Do you -- have you retained any of those Par Funding
11:22 20 employees or has the receiver that you oversee any of the 21 former employees?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. I'm sorry, when did you start your role as -- with
24 Par Funding?

11:22 25 A. End of July 2020, beginning of August.

1 Q. And what kind of company is Par Funding?

2 A. Par Funding is a finance company, they make merchant cash
3 advances to businesses.

4 Q. If we call those merchant cash advances MCA, will you be 11:22 5 familiar with what I'm talking about?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And how does Par Funding make money?

8 A. The goal is for Par Funding to purchase receivables or cash
9 flow from a business at a discount and then get paid back a
11:23 10 higher percentage, and that is supposed to yield profit.

11 Q. Okay. And where did Par Funding get the money to advance
12 to these companies?

13 A. From investors.

14 Q. In what format would they get that money? Did they sell
11:23 15 stock? Can you explain briefly how that worked?

16 A. They essentially issued notes to investors, promissory
17 notes.

18 Q. What did those notes state? What was the basis of those
19 notes?

11:23 20 A. You know, they were usually a 12-month promissory note with 21 interest paid monthly.

22 Q. To the investors?

23 A. To the investors.

24 Q. And how did Par Funding find individuals -- individual
11:24 25 investors?

1 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor -- foundation, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 You may answer.

4 A. There were various, I guess, agents that would find
11:24 5 investors for them, financial planners, things of that nature.

6 BY MS. JOHNSON:

7 Q. And where were these agents located?

8 A. Across the country.

9 Q. And based on your review of Par Funding's records prior to 11:24 10 your involvement with them, who were the people that controlled
11 Par Funding?

12 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, objection, hearsay.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 You may answer.

11:24 15 A. The primary person was Joe LaForte, also known as Joe Mack,
16 Joe Cole, who was the CFO, and Lisa McElhone.

17 BY MS. JOHNSON:

18 Q. Okay, thank you. Now, were they sales agents or -- were 19 they sales agents? I'll keep it at that.

11:25 20 A. I don't believe so.

21 Q. Okay. And how did the sales agents work in relation to 22 raising money for Par Funding?

23 MR. HYMAN: Foundation, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Overruled.

11:25 25 You may answer.

1 A. A couple of ways. One is finding individual investors.
2 And then two, they were -- they created agent funds where a
3 fund was created, raised money from individual investors, then
4 that fund would make a loan to Par Funding. So there was kind
11:25 5 of a fund in between Par Funding and the individual investors.
6 We called those agent funds.

7 BY MS. JOHNSON:

8 Q. Okay. So if I refer to those as "agent funds," you'll know
9 what I'm talking about?

11:26 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Are you familiar with a company called A Better Financial 12 Plan or ABFP?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And how are you familiar with that company?

11:26 15 A. It is one of the entities that is in the receivership. It
16 is an agent fund.

17 MR. HYMAN: Foundation and hearsay, again, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Overruled.

19 MR. HYMAN: And lack of -- well, foundation and

11:26 20 hearsay.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 BY MS. JOHNSON:

23 Q. Have you reviewed the records of A Better Financial Plan?

24 A. Yes.

11:26 25 Q. Do you have any responsibilities in relation to A Better

1 Financial Plan as part of your role as consultant?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And what are those?

4 A. As another entity that is in the receivership, we are 11:26 5 tasked by the receiver with any management of any operations,
6 custody of the books and records and any accounting or forensic
7 accounting that is needed to be done.

8 Q. And what was A Better Financial Plan's relationship to
9 Par Funding?

11:26 10 A. They were an agent fund. They raised money --

11 MR. HYMAN: Objection, hearsay, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 BY MS. JOHNSON:

14 Q. Can you repeat that? I didn't hear it. I'm sorry.

11:27 15 A. They were an agent fund. They raised money from investors
16 and then made loans to Par Funding.

17 Q. I'm sorry if I've asked this, do you have records -- A
18 Better Financial Plan's records?

19 A. Yes.

11:27 20 Q. And have you reviewed those records?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And based on your review, who controlled A Better financial 23 Plan before the receiver's involvement?

24 A. Dean Vagnozzi.

11:27 25 Q. Are you familiar with a company called United Fidelis

1 Group?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. How are you familiar with that company?

4 A. It was a financial planner that was involved in setting up
11:27 5 an agent fund.

6 Q. Do you have any duties in relation to United Financial
7 Group?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And what are those?

10 A. United Fidelis is also an entity that is in receivership,
11 so our duties are the same with that entity.

12 Q. And the same as you've previously discussed?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. Have you had access to United Fidelis's books and 11:28 15 records?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And have you had a chance to review those?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. What records of United Fidelis have you reviewed?

11:28 20 A. Well, United Fidelis -- not a lot -- there's not a lot of 21 records there, primarily tax records.

22 Q. Okay. What about a company called Fidelis Financial 23 Planning, are you familiar with them?

24 A. Yes.

11:28 25 Q. How are you familiar with them?

1 A. They are another entity in the receivership. They are an
2 agent fund. They've raised money from investors.

3 Q. And do you have access to their records?

4 A. Yes.

11:28 5 Q. What records have you reviewed of theirs, if any?

6 A. Again, not a lot, mostly tax records and records of
7 investors.

8 Q. And who controlled United Fidelis and Fidelis Financial 9 Planning before you were involved?

11:29 10 A. Michael Furman.

11 Q. Where were those two companies located?

12 A. West Palm, in South Florida.

13 Q. What services did Fidelis provide to Par Funding?

14 A. As I said, they were an agent fund. They raised money from 11:29 15 investors and then loaned that money to Par Funding.

16 MR. HYMAN: Objection, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Overruled.

18 BY MS. JOHNSON:

19 Q. Based on your review of Par Funding's records, can you tell
11:29 20 us how much money was -- Fidelis raised for Par Funding?

21 A. Yes, about 12.1 million dollars.

22 Q. And what was the purpose of the money that was sent from 23 Fidelis to Par Funding?

24 A. To be used in Par Funding's business to make MCAs.

11:30 25 Q. MCAs being the cash advances to other businesses?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Based on your review of Par Funding records, do you know
3 how much money Par Funding sent back to the Fidelis companies?

4 A. About 6.4 million dollars.

11:30 5 Q. Does Par Funding still owe the Fidelis companies any 6 outstanding monies?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What were those for?

9 A. That's the remaining that has not been paid, depending upon
11:30 10 how the 6.4 million is characterized as principal or interest,
11 there's remaining cash due of 5.6 million dollars.

12 Q. That's what's owed back to the Fidelis companies or their 13 investors? What is that number?

14 A. That's the 5.6 million that Par Funding owes to Fidelis.

11:31 15 Q. I want to show you what's been previously marked as 16 Plaintiff's Exhibit 205. Let me know if you want a paper
17 version.

18 May I approach?

19 THE COURT: You may.

11:31 20 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

21 BY MS. JOHNSON:

22 Q. Do you recognize this exhibit?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And what, is it?

11:31 25 A. This is a schedule of the individual investors into the

1 Fidelis fund.

2 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, we're going to object. We'll
3 give it a minute, but we're going to object to this hearsay.
4 It's not Bates-stamped. Lack of authentication and this is 11:32 5 going into the role of expert testimony, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Overruled as to all of those objections.
7 If you want to lay the proper predicate, please go ahead.

8 BY MS. JOHNSON:

9 Q. Do you know who prepared this chart?

11:32 10 A. I don't know who prepared it. It was in the ABFP records.

11 Q. So this is one of the records that you have access to in 12 your role as the consultant for Par Funding?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And what does this chart reflect?

11:32 15 A. This reflects the individual investors into Fidelis. It
16 shows what their amount, the source of the cash, the rate on 17 the note, the amount of money per month that CBSG was paying to 18 the Fidelis fund, how much of that payment went to the 19 investor, how much of that was revenue left over after the 11:33 20 investor payment, so basically the CBSG payment less the 21 investor payment.

22 And then there was another column that listed the ABFP
23 Management fee. The fee was due to ABFP for processing.

24 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, is it okay if I publish this
11:33 25 for the jury?

1 THE COURT: I think we need a little more of a
2 business record exception for this. I'm not certain he has no
3 underlying knowledge. He found it in ABFP records. I have 4 heard nothing else, other than what is regularly kept in the 11:33 5 course of those records. Anything other than that? That's 6 insufficient.

7 MS. JOHNSON: Okay. I'll keep laying the predicate
8 then.

9 THE COURT: Yeah.

11:33 10 BY MS. JOHNSON:

11 Q. Was this kept as a part of ABFP's records?

12 MR. HYMAN: Foundation, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Overruled. He has a foundation. We have 14 already heard he's working inside the company, but I need to 11:34 15 understand how he came into contact with these documents and 16 how he knows that they're a part of the regularly kept business
17 records of ABFP or any other entity that he was put in charge
18 of.

19 Go ahead.

11:34 20 A. Yes.

21 BY MS. JOHNSON:

22 Q. Have you had a chance to review this record prior to your 23 testimony today or being asked to come in to testify today?

24 A. Yes.

11:34 25 Q. And was that part of your running the operations of ABFP, A

1 Better Financial Plan company?

2 A. It's part of our task as an operations and our financial
3 advisory task to the receiver.

4 Q. And what did you use this record for?

11:34 5 A. This record is utilized to get an understanding of what
6 investors are due from Fidelis. So we understand what was due
7 from Par to Fidelis. Now we need to understand what is due
8 from Fidelis down to the individual investor.

9 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I would move to publish this 11:35 10 to the jury.

11 THE COURT: Sir, have you done any diligence on checks
12 these records and these am in the spreadsheet.

13 THE WITNESS: Not as of yet, Your Honor. We're just 14 now starting the claims process.

11:35 15 THE COURT: All right. What was the objection?

16 MR. HYMAN: Same lack of foundation. He's not --
17 they've not established the predicate, they've not established
18 that it was made at or around the time of the event, who made
19 it, how it's been made or anything else beyond the fact that 11:35 20 that it's a document he happened to find.

21 THE COURT: That's going to be overruled. The Court's 22 going to find that there's enough trustworthiness given the 23 work that he's done with the company to allow that document to 24 be admitted at this time as a business record of ABFP. You
11:35 25 play publish it to the jury.

1 MS. BERLIN: I'll move it into the record.

2 THE COURT: That will be admitted. Let me get a
3 number specifically as to what that is. I know it's been
4 Bates-labeled --

11:35 5 MS. BERLIN: P 205.

6 THE COURT: 205.

7 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, it has not been Bates-labeled.

8 THE COURT: At this point, Bates-labeled or not 9 Bates-labeled, if it's going to be identified, so that we have
10 a clean record, it will be 205; is that correct? Plaintiff's
11 205?

12 MS. JOHNSON: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: That will be admitted at this time over
14 defense objection. You may publish that to the jury.

11:36 15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

16 THE COURT: And as that's getting published, does this 17 document have any familiarity with other documents that have 18 been found as to your diligence, meaning is this a common or 19 typical document regarding some of the loans being made?

11:36 20 THE WITNESS: This is the best answer to that is this 21 is a document in ABFP and also in the files of Fidelis.

22 THE COURT: Okay so.

23 THE WITNESS: So it was a shared document.

24 MR. HYMAN: Then, Your Honor, given the lack of 11:37 25 verification --

1 THE COURT: We have already heard your objection.
2 It's been preserved for the record. It's been preserved for
3 the record. It's been overruled.

4 MR. HYMAN: I just want to add unduly prejudicial.

11:37 5 THE COURT: Understood. All right. Let's move on,
6 please. You can publish it whenever you're ready. Go ahead.

7 MS. JOHNSON: Okay. Great.

8 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, can you
9 see that? All right. Go ahead.

11:37 10 BY MS. JOHNSON:

11 Q. Can you walk us through the top, what each of the column
12 shows starting with the left-hand column with note date?

13 A. Certainly. So this is a schedule of each individual
14 investor note. You'll see the first column is the date of the 11:37 15 note. The next column is the last name of the investor. Then 16 the first name, then the amount of the investor. The next is 17 accredited or not accredited, are they an accredited investor.
18 The CAMA account, it is a shared account. So that handles
19 transactions for an IRA. And you'll see the next is cash --

11:38 20 Q. I was going to ask you about that. I'll take it one by 21 one.

22 When you said CAMA and related to an IRA, can you
23 explain that?

24 A. My understanding is it's a clearing account to manage
11:38 25 investments from an IRA because they can't be given to the

1 individual. They have to be in third-party custody to maintain
2 the tax shelter.

3 Q. And then the next column, CBSG rate, what is that?

4 A. That is the rate of the note paid by CBSG to Fidelis.

11:38 5 Q. And then CBSG payment?

6 A. That's the monthly interest on that amount of note at that
7 rate, and that's the monthly interest. So that would be what
8 CBSG would pay Fidelis.

9 Q. And CBSG, when we refer to that, I call it Par Funding,
11:39 10 just because it's less of a mouthful. Can we have that 11 understanding that we'll call CBSG Par Funding?

12 A. Correct. Par Funding is a DBA of CBSG.

13 Q. And investor interest payments, what is that?

14 A. That's the amount of interest per month that gets paid to 11:39 15 that investor from the Fidelis fund.

16 Q. And then revenue after investor payment, what is that?

17 A. So that's the interest paid by Par Funding less the amount
18 that has to go to the investor. So that is the profit to 19 Fidelis, the excess interest.

11:39 20 Q. Okay. And then the ABFP Management fee, what is that?

21 A. That's the fee that ABFP received in order to administer
22 this process.

23 Q. And if we just walk through one of these, we'll start with 24 the first one, how much was Par Funding getting out of this?

11:40 25 It says CBSG payment. How much was that represented in that

1 column for the 5-25-2018 date?

2 MR. HYMAN: We're going to object to this. This is
3 going into expert witness testimony. He's testifying as to the 4 substance and what the document means when he's done no
11:40 5 verification to understand the business records and trying to 6 seek its admission, but the document speaks for itself.

7 THE COURT: Overruled.

8 Go ahead.

9 A. So I'm sorry, are we talking about the column that says
11:40 10 CBSG payment?

11 BY MS. JOHNSON:

12 Q. Yes, there's an amount represented there, $3,466?

13 A. Sorry. That's different than the first page on this
14 screen.

11:40 15 Q. The very top column, 5-25-2018?

16 A. That's not -- I'm on a different page.

17 Q. So let's start with the first one under CBSG payment.
18 There's a number for $3,466.

19 What does that number represent?

11:41 20 A. Payment from Par Funding to the Fidelis fund.

21 Q. And who was in charge of the Fidelis fund?

22 A. Michael Furman.

23 Q. And then the next column, where it says $2,080, what does
24 that number represent?

11:41 25 A. That represents the -- that month's -- a month's interest

1 payment from the Fidelis fund to that particular investor, the
2 Bernardo revocable trust.

3 Q. And was that to come out of the $3,466?

4 A. Correct.

11:42 5 Q. And then the next column, where it says $1,386, what does
6 that represent?

7 A. That's the net that's left over. If you receive 3,466, you
8 pay out 2,080, you would have left $1,386.67.

9 Q. And where did that -- who got that money?

11:42 10 A. That would stay in the Fidelis fund.

11 Q. The next one has $346. What does that represent?

12 A. That represents a management fee due to ABFP for managing 13 the investor process and payments to investors.

14 Q. So these three columns that we just went over are the split
11:42 15 of the $3,466?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. It's how it got divvied up.

18 If you look at the next three entries for 6-10-2018,
19 there's three entries there: Palm Beach, Sandoval, and Zehren.

11:43 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. But it's a one note date. Why is that? Do you know?

22 A. The -- and I have not verified. That would equate to a
23 note from Fidelis to Par Funding.

24 Q. So one note with three?

11:43 25 A. With three investors.

1 Q. Okay. And if we look at that one, if we look at the
2 investor interest payment, there's an amount of $2,250?

3 A. Correct. That's the total.

4 Q. And that's what the investors were being paid at these 11:44 5 three notes?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And that was on a monthly basis?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And then how much was the revenue after that? How much was 11:44 10 Fidelis retaining?

11 A. $2,333.33.

12 MS. JOHNSON: I'm going to show you what's been 13 previously marked -- you can take that down -- as Exhibit 19,
14 P 19.

11:45 15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

16 BY MS. JOHNSON:

17 Q. I'm showing you what's been marked as Plaintiff's
18 Exhibit -- premarked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 19.

19 Do you recognize that document?

11:45 20 A. I do.

21 Q. What is it?

22 A. It is a promissory note from ABFP Income Fund to Russell
23 Meyer, his IRA.

24 Q. And have you -- in your role as consultant to ABFP, have 11:45 25 you seen this record or similar records before?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And in what capacity? What did you do?

3 A. This is a --

4 MR. HYMAN: We'll let her go through the predicate,
11:46 5 but we already know where we're going, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Please have a seat.

7 Go ahead.

8 A. This is one of the promissory notes that we are reviewing 9 as a part of the claims process to understand what investors
11:46 10 are owed.

11 BY MS. JOHNSON:

12 Q. And was this note or similar notes kept as business records
13 by ABFP?

14 A. Yes.

11:46 15 Q. Where would you -- where were they kept?

16 A. I don't recall exactly where they were kept. A lot of 17 these were electronic.

18 Q. So they're part of ABFP's electronic records?

19 A. Correct.

11:46 20 Q. And how do you use these notes? You said you've been 21 reviewing them as part of your claims process.

22 Can you explain a little bit about that?

23 A. Sure. One of the things we're going to be tasked with is 24 understanding what was owed to each individual investor. You
11:47 25 know, there -- was there truly a promissory note? Are they --

1 is ABFP obligated to repay that particular investor?

2 So we want to match up the notes to the electronic
3 books and records.

4 Q. Are there other records that also reflect what the 11:47 5 promissory notes -- the information in the promissory notes
6 that you've reviewed?

7 A. Correct, there's schedules of investors.

8 Q. But this would be the primary source that you would refer
9 to, or would it be?

11:47 10 A. It is a verification process to ensure that each -- there's 11 an a note due to each investor.

12 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I'd ask that Exhibit 19 be 13 allowed into evidence.

14 THE COURT: Objection for the record?

11:47 15 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor for purposes of going
16 forward, just to speed things up, can we --

17 THE COURT: You have a standing objection to what? Go
18 ahead.

19 MR. HYMAN: Obviously lack of foundation, personal
11:48 20 knowledge, improper expert testimony, as well as hearsay, not 21 business records.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. That's overruled. That
23 will be admitted as P 19 at this time.

24 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

11:48 25 BY MS. JOHNSON:

1 Q. This note -- what is the date of the -- that the note was 2 dated?

3 A. March 10th, 2018.

4 Q. And I think you've already testified to this, this is a --
11:48 5 who was the issuer of the note?

6 A. The -- it's due from ABFP Income Fund to Russell Meyer's
7 IRA.

8 Q. And if you turn -- who signed it on behalf of ABFP?

9 You have to turn to the very -- second to last page.

11:49 10 A. Dean Vagnozzi.

11 Q. Thank you.

12 I'm going to ask you to look at P -- what's been 13 previously identified as P 20.

14 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

11:49 15 BY MS. JOHNSON:

16 Q. Do you recognize what this is?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What is it?

19 A. This is an additional note from ABFP to the Russell Jamison
11:49 20 Meyer IRA, same date, different amount.

21 Q. And how do you recognize this? Is this the same --

22 A. I've reviewed it previously, yes.

23 Q. Under what circumstances did you review it previously?

24 A. As part of my review of the records of ABFP.

11:49 25 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, we'll move to publish this

1 one for the same background as P 19, it's almost identical.

2 THE COURT: Same objection?

3 MR. HYMAN: Same objection, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Objection overruled.

11:50 5 That will be published. P 20 will be admitted at this
6 time.

7 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

8 BY MS. JOHNSON:

9 Q. And what was the note of this -- what was the date of this
11:50 10 note when it was issued?

11 A. Also March 10th of 2018.

12 Q. And who was the borrower of the note, borrower/issuer?

13 A. ABFP Income Fund, LLC.

14 Q. And this was to -- who was the lender?

11:50 15 A. Russell Jamison Meyer IRA.

16 Q. When they say "lenders," is that the investor's name?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And similarly, who signed this document on behalf of ABFP
19 Management?

11:50 20 A. Dean Vagnozzi.

21 MS. JOHNSON: I'll move that P 20 into evidence.

22 BY MS. JOHNSON:

23 Q. Based on your review of Par Funding records, can you tell
24 the jury how much money Par Funding advanced or loaned to 11:51 25 merchants prior to your coming on board?

1 MR. HYMAN: Objection, relevance, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 A. About a billion one hundred million dollars.

4 BY MS. JOHNSON:

11:51 5 Q. And based on your review of Par Funding records, can you
6 tell the jury how much money Par Funding was repaid by those 7 merchants that it advanced the money to when you came on board?

8 A. About 39 million more than that, so about a billion 139.

9 Q. So the difference was 39 million?

11:52 10 A. 39 million. That's through the receivership date of 2020.

11 Q. And the source of all that money that it lent out, what was 12 Par Funding's source of cash to make those -- I'm going to call
13 them loans instead of advances because I don't think anybody in 14 the regular world calls them advances, but can we have the 11:52 15 understanding that loans means advances?

16 MR. HYMAN: Objection, Your Honor, calls for a legal 17 conclusion, improper expert testimony. Also we're going to 18 object to the foregoing questions, lack of foundation and 19 hearsay.

11:52 20 THE COURT: Overruled.

21 You may answer.

22 A. I'd prefer to use the word "advance."

23 BY MS. JOHNSON:

24 Q. Okay. I will use the word advance.

11:52 25 So what was the primary's source of money for

1 Par Funding to make the advances to the companies?

2 A. Funding was from investors, either directly from individual
3 investors or through the agent funds.

4 Q. I'm going to show you what's been previously marked as 11:53 5 exhibit -- Plaintiff's Exhibit 270, and ask you to take a look 6 at it.

7 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

8 BY MS. JOHNSON:

9 Q. Do you recognize this document?

11:53 10 A. I do.

11 Q. How do you recognize it?

12 A. This is an audit performed by Freedman LLP on CBSG and its 13 affiliates, dated December of 2017.

14 Q. Okay. Is this a record that you reviewed as part of your 11:53 15 duties in relation to CBSG, doing business as Par Funding?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And did you review this as part of your duties in 18 relationship to Par Funding?

19 A. Yes.

11:54 20 Q. And who was Freedman LLP?

21 A. Freedman LLP were the former auditors of Par Funding.

22 Q. And what year was this? Was this related to a particular
23 year or overall?

24 A. Yes, it's for the year ended December of 2017.

11:54 25 Q. Were there any other audited financials in any other years

1 for Par Funding that you found in your records?

2 A. Not that I have located.

3 Q. Do you know of any others that were done for any other
4 years?

11:54 5 A. No.

6 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I would move P 270, I'd ask
7 to publish it to the jury.

8 THE COURT: Same objection?

9 MR. HYMAN: Also it's not a business record of 11:54 10 Par Funding, it's a business record of the auditor and is 11 otherwise an expert report from them, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Okay. That will be admitted, P 270 over
13 defense objection.

14 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

11:55 15 MR. HYMAN: And also relevancy. Mr. Furman has not 16 alleged he would be involved in this at that time.

17 THE COURT: Overruled.

18 BY MS. JOHNSON:

19 Q. Without going through this long document line through line,
11:55 20 what is this report?

21 A. This is a standard audit of Par Funding. It's got an 22 audited balance sheet, income statement and cash flow with 23 notes from the auditor.

24 Q. If we could go to page 3. If I could direct you to look at 11:55 25 page 3. I think you said this reflects the assets. Just tell

1 us generally what this page reflects.

2 A. This is the balance sheet, so it reflects the assets,
3 liabilities and the stockholders' equity as of that particular
4 date.

11:56 5 Q. And it's dated December 31st, 2017?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And if we turn to page 4, can you walk us through the --
8 what that reflects and the numbers there, starting with net
9 revenues.

11:56 10 A. Yeah, this is the income statement. So it starts with the 11 revenue that Par Funding earned, which is basically factoring
12 fees of 63 million, operating expenses of about 57.7 million.
13 So they had a positive income from operations of about 5.5
14 million. Then they had interest expense, which were basically 11:57 15 the interest paid to investors, of about 13.7 million. So they 16 had a net loss before taxes of 8.2 million. The tax benefit is 17 because you have a loss you can apply for refund or use that 18 loss, so there's a benefit of 1.5 million. That serves to 19 reduce the loss to be 6.7 million. And then there's a loss
11:57 20 that's attributed to a subsidiary of 24 thousand. So the net
21 loss attributable to Par Funding is 6.7 million dollars for the 22 year-ended December 31, 2017.

23 Q. So they had an operating net loss of 27 -- as of 24 December 31st, 2017 of how much?

11:58 25 A. Their net loss was 6.7 million.

1 MR. HYMAN: Again, same objections, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor. If I haven't
4 moved, I would move to admit this into evidence.

11:58 5 THE COURT: 270 has been admitted already, over
6 defense objection.

7 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you. All right.

8 BY MS. JOHNSON:

9 Q. I'm going to direct you to what's been previously marked as
11:58 10 Plaintiff's Exhibit 574.

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

12 BY MS. JOHNSON:

13 Q. Do you recognize what's been previously marked as 14 Plaintiff's 574?

11:59 15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And what is it and how do you recognize it? I'll first
17 start with, how do you recognize it?

18 A. This is a listing that we have used -- we received from the 19 courts in Philadelphia to provide a listing of the judgments
11:59 20 that Par Funding was pursuing against individual merchants.

21 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, may I approach on this one?

22 THE COURT: No. We can move on.

23 MR. HYMAN: Okay. However, we would -- well, we'll 24 get there in a second, but --

11:59 25 THE COURT: All right. Then when we get there, please

1 rise. Let's have a seat.

2 Please, go ahead.

3 BY MS. JOHNSON:

4 Q. I'm sorry, you said this was something -- a court record
12:00 5 that you requested. Can you tell me about that?

6 A. The -- I have to give a little background. For Par Funding
7 to collect from merchants it pursued judgments against its --
8 the individual merchants through the Philadelphia court of 9 common pleas. We needed to keep track of everything that was 12:00 10 out there, so we asked the Court for a listing of everything
11 that they had.

12 Q. So these are -- you said you moved court findings against 13 merchants. These are merchants who have not paid all or part
14 of their advance back to Par Funding?

12:00 15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And so what would be the result of that? You said for them
17 to get to collect, what would they do?

18 A. So in the case where the advance needed to be collected, we 19 would pursue a judgment. It's a called a confession of 12:00 20 judgment. So essentially the merchant agrees at the time they 21 get the advance to a judgment against them, should they default
22 under the agreement. This is a listing of all of the merchants
23 where Par Funding is seeking to enforce that judgment against 24 them through the Philadelphia court system.

12:01 25 Q. Are there other confessions of judgments and other -- did

1 they always bring them in Philadelphia or are there other
2 states that you would pursue or that the company would pursue?
3 Par Funding would pursue?

4 A. Par Funding also pursued some in New York and New Jersey.

12:01 5 Q. How many confessions of judgments?

6 MR. HYMAN: Objection, Your Honor, hearsay. And also 7 they're trying to back door an inadmissible document that's not
8 a business record.

9 THE COURT: Is this a public record that has been 12:01 10 procured from the court system in Union County in Philadelphia?

11 MS. JOHNSON: Yes.

12 MR. HYMAN: It does not appear to be a public record.

13 THE COURT: I'm not asking you for your input right
14 now. I'm asking the SEC. And I would ask can we get an 12:02 15 explanation from the witness as to how he procured this 16 document. He said it was provided by the Court system. Can 17 you maybe ask some questions to see if under 803 sub 8, who 18 qualify as public records so I don't have to deal with 19 unnecessary objections, please?

12:02 20 MS. JOHNSON: Yes.

21 BY MS. JOHNSON:

22 Q. Yes. Is this a publically available court record --

23 THE COURT: I'm asking you, Mr. Sharp. Maybe I'll 24 streamline this. Can you please let the Court know, for 12:02 25 purposes of admissibility, how you came into contact with this

1 record? Did you guys request this from the Clerk of Court from 2 the Philadelphia County? I need to get some information on
3 that.

4 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor, that's exactly what we 12:02 5 did. In order to deal with the litigations stay that was in 6 place, we needed to find out what cases had been opened through 7 counsel in Philadelphia. We reached out to the clerk who was 8 kind enough to provide us a listing of the open cases so that
9 we could apply the blanket stay to those and as necessary, lift
12:03 10 the stay on an individual basis. So this was received from the 11 clerk's office in the court in Philadelphia.

12 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, under 988 F.2d 573, Johnson v.
13 Ford Motor Company, the Fifth Circuit --

14 THE COURT: I don't need -- first of all, you've got 12:03 15 to rise. Number 2, I don't need standing objections.
16 Overruled. You can make a record. The Court finds there's 17 been sufficient predicate laid and finds this is a public
18 record and if we can proceed with these questions. I'd also 19 like to get to the relevancy of why I'm spending so much on 12:03 20 defaulted issues being chased in Philadelphia, please.

21 MS. JOHNSON: I'd like to move it into evidence and 22 publish it.

23 THE COURT: That will be admitted at this time and 24 published.

12:03 25 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

1 BY MS. JOHNSON:

2 Q. How many confessions of judgment when you came on were
3 outstanding in the court of Philadelphia?

4 A. 1,715.

12:04 5 Q. And you said that they had also filed similar actions in 6 New York.

7 How many were pending in New York when you came on?

8 A. From memory, about another 350.

9 Q. On the Pennsylvania, on document 270, do you have a dollar
12:04 10 amount? Do you know how much money was outstanding and owed to
11 Par Funding?

12 A. Off the top of my head, it was north of 60 million dollars.

13 Q. And I'm going to show you what's been previously marked as
14 Exhibit 64.

12:05 15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

16 BY MS. JOHNSON:

17 Q. And ask you if you recognize it and if so, how do you
18 recognize it?

19 A. This is a Form D filed by CBSG with the SEC.

12:05 20 Q. And have you -- as part of your duties as consultant for 21 Par Funding, have you had a chance to review these records --
22 this record filed by Par Funding?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And what was the circumstance where you reviewed this
12:05 25 record?

1 A. Trying to understand what documents had been filed by
2 Par Funding.

3 Q. And what is the record? What does it reflect?

4 A. It's a notice of exempt offering of securities.

12:06 5 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I'd like to publish P 64 for 6 the jury.

7 THE COURT: Any objection?

8 MR. HYMAN: Relevance, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. That's overruled.

12:06 10 We'll admit P 64.

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

12 BY MS. JOHNSON:

13 Q. And if we look at the top -- if we go to the second page,
14 we're at the top. It says: Form D notice of exempt offering
12:07 15 of securities?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Now, you said you were reviewing this. Why did you review
18 the Form Ds?

19 A. To understand what has been filed by CBSG with the SEC.

12:07 20 Q. And what is your understanding of why this was filed?

21 A. Based on the form they were seeking to sell securities that 22 were exempt based on Rule 506(b).

23 Q. And if we go to the last page, it says: Please verify the 24 information. Starting with that paragraph, it says: In 12:08 25 submitting this notice, each issuer named above is notifying

1 the SEC and each state in which this notice is filed of the 2 offering of securities described and undertaking to furnish
3 them upon written request in accordance with applicable the 4 information furnished to offerees.

12:08 5 Right? That's what they're telling the SEC?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And who was the entity? Who was the issuer that this was 8 filed on behalf of?

9 A. Complete Business Solutions Group Inc.

12:08 10 Q. Thank you. Now, by filing for the Form D, does that mean 11 that they were exempt? You're not opining that they were 12 exempt from the securities registration, are you?

13 MR. HYMAN: Objection, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Overruled.

12:09 15 A. I'm not expressing an opinion.

16 BY MS. JOHNSON:

17 Q. I'll show you what's been previously marked as
18 Plaintiff's Exhibit 43.

19 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

12:09 20 BY MS. JOHNSON:

21 Q. And do you recognize this document?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And what is it?

24 A. It's also a notice of exempt offering of securities, but 12:10 25 the issuer is ABFP Income Fund 2, L.P.

1 Q. And similar to the other one, did you have occasion as part
2 of your duties as to the consultant to review this Form D
3 record?

4 A. Yes.

12:10 5 Q. And why did you review it?

6 A. To determine what has been filed by ABFP with the SEC.

7 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I'd like to admit
8 Plaintiff's Exhibit 43 into evidence.

9 THE COURT: Any objection?

12:10 10 MR. HYMAN: The relevancy as well as hearsay.

11 THE COURT: Overruled.

12 MR. HYMAN: The same objections we have been raising
13 all afternoon, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Overruled.

12:11 15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

16 BY MS. JOHNSON:

17 Q. We're in the home stretch. Five more minutes.

18 I'd like to show you what's been previously marked as 19 Plaintiff's 45. Can you look at it?

12:11 20 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

21 BY MS. JOHNSON:

22 Q. And do you recognize this exhibit?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And what is it?

12:11 25 A. It is also a notice of exempt offering of securities, but

1 the issuer is ABFP Income Fund LLC.

2 Q. And similar to my two prior questions, the other Form Ds is
3 how you recognize it and how you reviewed it, would your answer
4 be similar?

12:11 5 A. Yes.

6 MS. JOHNSON: We'd like to publish this to the jury
7 and make it part of the -- enter it into the record.

8 THE COURT: That will be admitted at this time. And I
9 want to make sure you get the number right again. Was it P 45?

12:12 10 MS. JOHNSON: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: That will be admitted.

12 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

13 BY MS. JOHNSON:

14 Q. I'm going to show you what's been previously marked as
12:12 15 Plaintiff's Exhibit 86.

16 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

17 BY MS. JOHNSON:

18 Q. And ask you to look through it. And do you recognize what 19 this is?

12:12 20 A. Yes. This is a note from CBSG.

21 Q. And is this one of the records you would have reviewed as 22 part of your duties as a consultant to Par Funding?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And have you reviewed this and/or similar records, similar 12:13 25 notes as part of your duties as Par Funding?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And who is the maker of the note?

3 A. The maker is Complete Business Solutions Group Inc.

4 Q. Doing business as Par Funding?

12:13 5 A. It just has the name.

6 Q. And what was the date that this note was issued according
7 to the date on the document?

8 A. The note is dated October 28th, 2016.

9 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, we would move document 86
12:13 10 into evidence.

11 THE COURT: That will be admitted at this time over
12 defense objection.

13 MR. HYMAN: There's also no tie to Mr. Furman there,
14 Your Honor.

12:13 15 THE COURT: That is overruled.

16 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

17 BY MS. JOHNSON:

18 Q. I'll turn now to Exhibit 43. I already did this one.

19 I'll now show you what's been previously marked as
12:14 20 Exhibit 176.

21 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

22 BY MS. JOHNSON:

23 Q. First, I'll ask you if you recognize it, and then I'll ask
24 you how you recognize it.

12:15 25 A. Yes, I do recognize it.

1 Q. And how do you recognize it?

2 A. I have reviewed this previously.

3 Q. And what was the circumstances of your previous review?

4 A. To understand liens filed against Par Funding.

12:15 5 Q. Was this a record of Par Funding when you came in or was 6 this something you requested? How did you come to review it?

7 A. Yeah, this is a UCC search. So this is a public records
8 search to show what liens have been filed.

9 Q. As of what -- does this have a date? I'm sorry. I can't 12:15 10 see.

11 A. This is a date of July of 2020.

12 Q. So is this something that you had requested or is this 13 something that you found when you came into Par Funding?

14 A. This is something I have reviewed. I did not request it.

12:15 15 Q. But it was something you reviewed -- was a Par Funding
16 business record?

17 A. No, I don't believe so.

18 Q. Is it something you requested? You said you came to review
19 it because you wanted to know the liens, right?

12:16 20 A. Correct. But this was dated before my employment with the 21 receivership.

22 Q. Okay. Do you recall how you came to review it, how it came 23 across your desk?

24 A. In discussions with counsel.

12:16 25 Q. And what does this reflect?

1 A. So this is a listing of UCC filings against CBSG.

2 Q. And can you explain what a UCC filing is for those of us
3 not in the legal UCC world?

4 A. The -- a UCC filing is if you're making a loan to somebody,
12:16 5 somebody owes you money, you have to put a public notice in 6 order to perfect your interest in any collateral you have,
7 again, depending upon the type of collateral. So if somebody
8 had a lien against CBSG they would have to file a UCC filing to 9 put everybody on notice that they claim a lien in whatever
12:17 10 collateral they then describe in the filing. So anybody who 11 wants to understand the lien against an entity can do a UCC
12 search, access the public records, and it shows a list of who 13 claims what collateral.

14 Q. And as of this date, 7-8-2020, if my eyes are correct, did
12:17 15 Par Funding have liens --

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. -- against them?

18 A. Yes.

19 MS. JOHNSON: I'd like to move Plaintiff's Exhibit 176
12:17 20 into evidence.

21 MR. HYMAN: Hearsay, foundation, improper expert
22 testimony.

23 THE COURT: Overruled. That will be admitted.

24 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

12:18 25 MR. HYMAN: And also best evidence rule.

1 THE COURT: That will be admitted.

2 BY MS. JOHNSON:

3 Q. Did Fidelis file any liens against Par Funding?

4 A. No.

12:18 5 Q. What about Mr. Furman, Michael Furman, did he file any 6 liens against Par Funding?

7 A. No.

8 MS. JOHNSON: I think that might be it. Let me just 9 have a moment with counsel.

12:18 10 THE COURT: Sure.

11 BY MS. JOHNSON:

12 Q. Mr. Sharp, how many merchants did Par Funding -- how 13 many -- number of merchants, how many did they loan to?

14 A. They advanced to about 75 hundred merchants from the 12:19 15 beginning.

16 Q. And we saw earlier the Pennsylvania, I think, confessions
17 of judgment. I'll just call them the Pennsylvania cases
18 seeking money. Do you know how many of that? I think you said
19 there was --

12:20 20 A. 17 hundred.

21 Q. And that's different merchants?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. When you came in, how many loans were more than 30 days --
24 sorry, advances were more than 30 days past due? A dollar
12:20 25 amount, I'm sorry.

1 MR. HYMAN: Objection. This is going to into
2 foundation, lack of predicate.

3 THE COURT: Overruled.

4 A. About 68 million dollars. They were over 35. That's --

12:20 5 Q. Over 35 days, is that the cutoff?

6 A. That was the cutoff.

7 Q. And what was the date that you took over operations?

8 A. That was as of July 28th, 2020.

9 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor. I have nothing
12:21 10 further -- oh, one moment. I spoke too soon.

11 BY MS. JOHNSON:

12 Q. This is a clarification question. You said 68 million
13 dollars loaned was past due more than 35 days. Out of how much
14 loans? I guess I'll ask this way. I'll break it down.

12:21 15 How much was outstanding in loans in July of 2020 to 16 how many advances -- how much was outstanding as the advanced
17 loans to different merchants?

18 A. As of that same date there was -- the books and records
19 reflected about 416 million outstanding. So the over 35 was 12:21 20 about close to 17 percent of the portfolio.

21 Q. So the over 35 days was 68 million. So how much of the 22 portfolio?

23 A. A little over -- close to 17 percent.

24 Q. Okay.

12:22 25 MS. JOHNSON: I think with that clarification, we'll

1 let Mr. Hyman --

2 THE COURT: Let's do this, we're going to take a
3 recess now since it is 12:30, and we'll pick up -- we're at a
4 natural breaking point now -- with the cross-examination of 12:22 5 Mr. Sharp after lunch.

6 I would ask that everybody please be available just a
7 little bit over an hour, if I can have everyone back in the 8 jury room by 1:45, it's about an hour and 15, we'll have 9 Mr. Sharp retake the stand and we'll begin the
12:22 10 cross-examination.

11 Please, while you're in the jury room, do not discuss
12 the case with one another. Make sure you leave your notepads
13 in the jury room if you go out to lunch. Remember that you're 14 going to avoid the lawyers and they must avoid you. Take no
12:22 15 offense from that. Okay. And do not go on social media or do 16 any independent research, especially based upon some of the 17 testimony you have now heard.

18 With that being said, have a good lunch, everybody.
19 We'll see you in the jury room by 1:45. You are excused.

12:23 20 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

21 THE COURT: You may be excused, Mr. Sharp. We'll get 22 you back on the stand in a little over an hour. We're in 23 recess.

24 MS. BERLIN: What time should we return?

12:23 25 THE COURT: By 1:45. 1:40, something like that.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you very much.

2 Oh, Your Honor, one more question, can I bring a cup
3 of coffee or a Diet Coke in or is it water only?

4 THE COURT: No, you may bring a cup of coffee or 12:23 5 something.

6 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Sure.

8

9 (Thereupon, a luncheon recess was taken.)

A F T E R N O O N S E S S I O N

02:03 15 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. All right.

16 You can all be seated. So we have all our jurors present and 17 accounted for and we're going to pick up where we left off with 18 Mr. Sharp. The Court felt compelled, because we seem to be 19 getting repeated objections to Mr. Sharp's testimony, to put

02:04 20 some more specific findings on the record, before I get my 21 jurors back in here. I think that the majority of the exhibits
22 that were admitted through Mr. Sharp, specifically I think it
23 would be P 205, P 19, P 20, I want to say also I think, if my 24 memory serves me right, maybe 76, I think was a number that I
02:04 25 had in there. Did I get that right? Was 76 a number that you

1 had.

2 MS. JACQMEIN: 176.

3 THE COURT: That's right. 176. There was repeated
4 objections as to Mr. Sharp's ability to lay a predicate. And 02:04 5 this is record exceptions. I would just read a passage from a
6 case in re: Intern Management Associates, LLC, that's 781 F.3d
7 1262, 2015 case from the Eleventh Circuit. It comes out of the 8 bankruptcy context, but the reason why I read it is because the 9 case talks about trustee testimony and the trustee, very 02:05 10 similar to what we're dealing with here, essentially acting as 11 the custodian and the receiver type scenario, so very similar 12 to what Mr. Sharp's role has been in this case.

13 Can you have a seat, please.

14 Very similar to what Mr. Sharp has been doing in this 02:05 15 case, given that he's an arm of the receiver, hired by the 16 receiver with an entity that is in receivership, the trustee
17 and the Intern Management Associates case had a similar role.
18 And I would just read a passage from the case so that we can 19 put, I think, some of the hearsay arguments to bed as to, at 02:05 20 least the first litany of exhibits. And I'm going to read
21 specifically from the opinion. I'm at 12 -- pin cite 1266 or 22 so.

23 The trustee's testimony needed to show two things to 24 establish that the business records exception applied. First,
02:06 25 we needed to show that the underlying documents are authentic,

1 and that's on 901 and 902, the Rules of Evidence.

2 Second, it needed to show that they met the
3 requirements at 803, subsection 6, and both of those prongs
4 need to be satisfied in order for the underlying documents to 02:06 5 be admitted into evidence.

6 The first burden, which hasn't really been contested
7 here, but so we're clear on the record with the exhibits that
8 have been moved, is an authentication burden. And at this
9 point I think there is ample evidence to establish a prima
02:06 10 facie case that the spreadsheets and documents regarding what 11 was going on with ABFP and the loans, et cetera, were what 12 Mr. Sharp claims they were under 901(A). And really all you
13 need under 901 is enough evidence for the jury to conclude that 14 the document is authentic.

02:07 15 And my recollection from Mr. Sharp's testimony earlier
16 today is that most of these underlying documents were found at 17 the offices of CBSG or Par Funding. And that the information
18 that was sent in those documents substantially matched the 19 records kept by the financial institutions and clients with 02:07 20 which ABFP and/or CBSG had transacted.

21 So that is identical to what happened in the Intern
22 Management case. The trustee came forward and essentially is 23 being put in charge of doing an investigation of the entity in 24 receivership, came forward with documents that they had 02:07 25 procured within the company and had essentially cross-checked

1 them or tried to ascertain whether they accurately represented
2 what was going on in the company. And therefore, in this case,
3 as in the Management Associates case, it was reasonable for the 4 Court, and here it will be for the jury to conclude from an 02:08 5 admissibility standpoint that the 901 part of the analysis, the 6 fact that it needs to be true and authentic records of the 7 underlying business, in this case Par Funding or A Better
8 Financial Plans business, has been satisfied.

9 But if we move on to the business record exception, we 02:08 10 know that, as we always know under 803(6)(A) through (C), has 11 to be made at or near the time by or from information
12 transmitted by someone with knowledge, if it was kept in the 13 course of regularly kept activity, and if making the record was 14 a regular practice of that activity.

02:08 15 And we know, as they point out in the management case,
16 that the trustee, or in this case, Mr. Sharp, as an arm of the 17 receiver, can establish those requirements. And the key here
18 is whether or not the methods or circumstances of preparation
19 of the spreadsheet in 205 and the documents in P 19 and P 20
02:08 20 indicate a lack of trustworthiness, which the Court has found 21 that they do not under 803(6)(E), thereby permitting their
22 admissibility.

23 What happens in this management case is exactly what's 24 happening here, and I'm reading from the case: As the 02:09 25 underlying businesses' court appointed receiver, the trustee

1 was the custodian of the underlying documents.

2 He testified about his investigation into the
3 providence and reliability of the documents he seized at IMA's
4 office. He testified about his interview with one of the 02:09 5 principals during which he learned that the officer team who 6 created those documents based on its interactions with 7 financial institutions and clients. He testified about the 8 reconciliation of those documents with corresponding files held
9 by financial institutions. His testimony evidences that 02:09 10 someone with personal knowledge created the documents. And 11 therefore, the Eleventh Circuit had no problem concluding that 12 the underlying documents were routinely made as part of 13 regularly conducted activity near the time of the activity by 14 someone with personal knowledge of their contents and were 02:10 15 admissible under the business records exception.

16 The Court goes on to point out the fact that simply 17 because he gleaned information from his diligence in the 18 company and spoke to others, which in this appeal was argued to 19 be a foundational problem, and hearsay was rejected by the 02:10 20 Eleventh Circuit, because from a -- from the very beginning the 21 fact that Mr. Sharp has spoken or been dealing with the due
22 diligence in the company to glean the information that forms
23 the basis of his testimony really on these business records is 24 absolutely permitted even though that is in and of itself
02:10 25 hearsay. The Courts are able to consider hearsay when

1 determining whether underlying documents are admissible under
2 the business records exception. And so we know here that
3 someone was knowledgeable about the procedures used to create
4 the alleged business records must testify and that knowledge,
02:10 5 okay, does not have to be firsthand. Mr. Sharp does not have 6 to know the exact contents of the record firsthand, their 7 authors or even their preparation, and there's a litany of 8 cases from the Eleventh Circuit that support that. Doesn't 9 mean he's not qualified. A qualified one, under 803(6) is one
02:11 10 who can explain the system of record keeping and vouch that the 11 requirements of 803(6) are met. As long as Mr. Sharp is able 12 to present enough circumstantial evidence to establish the 13 trustworthiness of the underlying documents, he doesn't need to 14 present any testimony from the person who actually prepared
02:11 15 them, his own testimony suffices.

16 This is pretty much exactly what is happening here. I
17 would have liked the predicate to have been done better by the 18 SEC, and I would urge the SEC going forward that we need to do
19 a better and cleaner job of laying an appropriate predicate,
02:11 20 but it's clear to the Court, in large part because of my work
21 with this case for over the last two years, I know what 22 Mr. Sharp is doing, I understand what's going on because I've 23 been in charge of putting the receiver in place, and he has
24 been preparing reports for the Court.

02:11 25 I think that the predicate needed to be a little

1 cleaner, but after I asked followup, it was clear how he's
2 figured out these documents fit into the bigger picture. And
3 because of that, I think they satisfy the trustworthiness.

4 So I just want the record to reflect that even though
02:12 5 it's been a repeated objection, the Eleventh Circuit, I think,
6 would back my determination thus far of the admissibility of 7 those records.

8 Now, the last thing I will say is, the second set of 9 records, which really are the list of defaults that were 02:12 10 obtained from Philadelphia, I think that's P 270, and then the 11 UCC documents and the exemption documents filed with the SEC, I
12 think that was P 64 and perhaps also 86.

13 One thing I failed to mentioned is -- and I would ask
14 the SEC to confirm this, so my memory is not off. But those 02:12 15 forms regarding exemptions were filed by Mr. Furman, were they 16 not?

17 MR. HYMAN: They did not introduce the ones filed by
18 Mr. Furman.

19 THE COURT: The one that was the exemption that was
02:12 20 filed, which one was that filed on behalf of? I can't remember 21 off the top of my head.

22 MS. JOHNSON: There was two -- actually three, but one
23 was Par Funding, and the other two were A Better Financial Plan
24 1 and 2.

02:13 25 THE COURT: Okay. So a Better Financial Plan 1 and 2,

1 and Par Funding were the ones that signed off on the forms that
2 went in for the exemption?

3 MS. JOHNSON: Exactly.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Got it. So my issue on that is,
02:13 5 it's probably a little bit less than an 803(6) issue because 6 public record exemptions can be a little bit problematic, but 7 there's an alternative basis for it, which was my initial 8 reaction, at the very least when it comes to 270, which was the 9 list of defaults. And that is that these are court records
02:13 10 under 201 that really you can ascertain their veracity just by 11 reviewing them. It's a list. It's a list of records.

12 Testimony of Mr. Sharp is that they were procured by contacting
13 the clerk's office and that there was a list of them produced
14 reflecting what is on the state court records in Philadelphia.

02:13 15 And so to me, there is not really a problem that we 16 need to worry about 803(6) in so much as I think we can 17 certainly rely on Rule 201 that these court records, which by 18 the way, court records in particular are almost uniformly
19 recognized as a document that a court can take judicial notice 02:14 20 of. In fact, they're often attached to other pleadings and 21 courts in many contexts can look at them and essentially
22 ascertain what they are from the very beginning. And rely on 23 them.

24 And so I'm speaking specifically about the taking
02:14 25 judicial notice of documents under 201(b) of the Federal Rules

1 of Evidence which allow a court to take judicial notice of the
2 a fact that it's not subject to reasonable dispute because it
3 is generally known in the trial Court's territorial
4 jurisdiction or can accurately and readily be determined from 02:14 5 sources which accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

6 Court documents from a prior proceeding are matters of 7 public record and are capable of accurate and ready
8 determination by resort to sources whose accuracy could not 9 reasonably be questioned, and therefore, judicial notice of 02:15 10 them is appropriate. There's the case that stands for that.
11 Horne v. Potter, 392 Fed.Appx. 800, 802, the Eleventh Circuit
12 in 2010. And so to me, the minute I saw anything that would 13 indicate a litany of default proceedings in the Court of Common
14 Pleas in Philadelphia procured from the Clerk of Court, the 02:15 15 Court obviously is not concerned that there's an evidentiary
16 problem to that.

17 Can I hear perhaps from the SEC what, if anything,
18 would be a concern that you should address as to the remaining
19 UCC statements or really the UCC probably a little less, but 02:15 20 SEC records. I don't have it off the top of my head any case
21 law that would allow me to hang my hat on a public record kind
22 of analysis for the SEC filings. There may -- I didn't get a
23 chance to search it, there may very well be a case law on that
24 point, but I did want to get the SEC's view on why I shouldn't 02:16 25 be worried about any sort of hearsay concerns with those last

1 few exhibits. Can you advance any argument? Because I don't
2 think that necessarily -- I guess one could argue that they
3 could fall under business records as well if they are found in 4 the records of Par Funding.

02:16 5 It's different, right, because the list of defaults
6 Mr. Sharp went out and got that to figure out what he was going
7 to do with the litigation injunction.

8 Were all the other documents documents found in the 9 records of ABFP and Par Funding so that the same business
02:16 10 records analysis that I did earlier would apply to those 11 documents?

12 MS. JOHNSON: I believe that was Mr. Sharp's
13 testimony, and I believe he also testified that he reviewed
14 those as part of his review -- overall review --

02:16 15 THE COURT: As a custodian or an extension of the 16 reefer, correct?

17 MS. JOHNSON: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So it's important then that I want
19 to make sure we're very clear because the Court understood for 02:16 20 a minute that it would be coming under public records under 21 803, I believe 803 sub 8.

22 MS. JOHNSON: Well, it's that one too, they're 23 available online.

24 THE COURT: I agree. There are some wrinkles under
02:17 25 803 that I'd rather not have to deal with, and that's why I

1 bring this up. And just so that we have clear record, because
2 it's been objected to consistently. I think the way to frame
3 this is, the analysis the Court has put on the record, the 4 803(6), given his role as an arm of the receiver and 02:17 5 essentially a consultant of the receiver coming in and
6 ascertaining all the documents in the records of the company
7 he's now really doing due diligence on would fall under 803(6).

8 I think the right way to say it is that every
9 document -- correct me if I'm wrong -- that has been admitted
02:17 10 into evidence has been a document in existence in the records
11 of the entities where he is acting at the behest of the 12 receiver except for the list of defaults that he got from 13 Philadelphia; is that right?

14 MS. JOHNSON: Yes.

02:17 15 THE COURT: Okay. So that means -- so that we don't
16 have any issue on the record -- that the Court is satisfied
17 that 803(6) would apply to all of those records given -- and I
18 want to ask Mr. Sharp just under oath. I think I had gotten 19 it, but I didn't get a chance to ask you this. I know this 02:18 20 from my background in the case, but it's not on the record in 21 this trial yet.

22 Am I to understand that when you went in as part of 23 DSI's work with the receiver, that you have -- is my 24 recollection -- is interviewed individuals within the companies
02:18 25 so that you have a better sense of not only the business model

1 but the records thrown throughout the company?

2 THE WITNESS: Yes, that's correct, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: That was my understanding. So it's 4 exactly the same thing. He's done the due diligence on the 02:18 5 ground. So he has enough knowledge for trustworthiness, these 6 records are prepared in the ordinary course because these are 7 individuals working in these entities that have been preparing 8 these documents, filing away the UCC statements, filing the 9 exemptions. So all of these things are records kept in the 02:18 10 ordinary course of underlying entities that he's working with 11 right now. Right?

12 MS. BERLIN: Judge, that's correct. And, in fact,
13 prior to today, we sent, just because I anticipated this issue,
14 to defense counsel a case SEC versus Nutmeg.

02:19 15 THE COURT: Put that one on the record too. That's 16 another one I can rely on.

17 MS. BERLIN: Yes. It's helpful for a few different
18 things that might come up during the trial too.

19 THE COURT: Sure.

02:19 20 MS. BERLIN: It's 09-cv-1775. It is 2017 Westlaw
21 154721, SEC versus Nutmeg. And it's a case that involves a
22 receiver being permitted to testify about facts. It discusses 23 the distinction between fact and opinion expert testimony,
24 involving exactly what Mr. Sharp was testifying about. And, in 02:19 25 fact, we made sure to tailor based on this order.

1 THE COURT: And that would, I think, Ms. Berlin,
2 address the issue that there's been an objection as to him
3 crossing from fact to opinions as well which I overruled,
4 right?

02:19 5 MS. BERLIN: Yes. And this case is clear that -- I
6 mean, and here there was an accountant can testify about 7 numbers and an investigation in things they learned without 8 crossing over into giving an expert opinion that requires that 9 additional level of expertise, but we have an extra copy if 02:20 10 you'd like me to pass it up.

11 THE COURT: Sure, if you want to approach, I'll take 12 it, and if you have an extra copy for counsel, that would be 13 great. I would also ask, not knowing the case off the top of 14 my head, does it include any of the analysis of 803(6) in terms
02:20 15 of business records or is it more about fact versus opinion
16 testimony?

17 MS. JOHNSON: The latter.

18 THE COURT: More about fact versus opinion, okay.
19 So I think that -- would you add that to my analysis
02:20 20 prior, covers pretty much all the key objections. Thanks, 21 Ralph.

22 And the only thing I can think of that isn't covered 23 is the judicial records issue that I mentioned under 201 when 24 it comes to his documents that he's procured from the Clerk of 02:20 25 Court in Philadelphia.

1 But I wanted to mention all that for the record
2 because I think we have a bit of a misunderstanding about why
3 he's qualified, and it's not proper to do that in the presence
4 of the jury. So I want my ruling to be very clear why all of 02:21 5 his testimony earlier today made these documents admissible,
6 and I don't want to misstate reliance on 803(8) for public
7 records which truthfully has other glitches in its 8 applicability that we don't need to worry about because all of 9 this stuff is found in the records of the company where he's 02:21 10 acting on the receiver.

11 So it would all fall under 803(6) in my view, and then
12 as pointed out, this Nutmeg case, excuse me, would address some 13 of the other issues regarding fact versus opinion testimony.
14 All right. So that's what I needed to put on the record.

02:21 15 Anything else you wanted to put on the record,
16 Counsel?

17 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor. We'll try to be quick.
18 First of all, it's our view that Mr. Sharp, there's no
19 testimony concerning the fact that the records at issue were 02:21 20 made at or near the time they were created or either at least 21 during his before Your Honor questioned him, that he had 22 interviewed specific people.

23 His testimony was I talked to some people generally,
24 and therefore, it's our position that he did not meet the 02:21 25 proper predicate as it relates to the SEC Form Ds. We objected

1 to those more on relevancy ground because they don't relate to
2 Fidelis, and the SEC's position is that they're not seeking an
3 integration-based claim or they're not otherwise going to try
4 to claim this is an integrated offering, and as a result, it's 02:22 5 our position that the registration of these entities is not 6 currently relevant.

7 Similarly, Your Honor, as it relates to the public
8 records, first of all, the documents at issue were not part of 9 something that you can just pull up from anywhere. Mr. Sharp
02:22 10 testified that he had to contact the Clerk of Court himself to 11 get ahold of those records, which means that there was a
12 special chart created for purposes of this litigation as 13 opposed to kind of simply a list or other documents with 14 reliability.

02:22 15 And in Johnson versus Ford, 988 F.2d 573, the Eleventh
16 Circuit held that similar charts of pending litigation
17 constitutes inadmissible hearsay. As a result, that is the 18 primary base of our objection as it relates to that lawsuit
19 issue, and also that's relevancy too.

02:23 20 THE COURT: Okay. I think relevancy is an easier --
21 and the amount of discretion given to the trial court is vast 22 in both business record analysis and in issues of relevancy,
23 (inaud.) some are intensive to prove or disprove a material
24 fact is sufficient. I'm not really worried about relevancy
02:23 25 here, and you have more than enough opportunity down the road

1 in your case to point out why that's inapplicable to
2 Mr. Furman.

3 As to this being something that is amalgamation of 4 multiple cases, I don't see any difference between this and 02:23 5 running a search in a docket entry online and getting any
6 actions that are related to Par Funding or CBSG. That, to me,
7 is more akin to what we saw here.

8 And I will just point out that my understanding is 9 that he has done diligence within the company to ascertain the 02:23 10 nature of these records, and the case law I read pretty much
11 makes it clear that that's going to be sufficient for business
12 record exemption purposes.

13 So all the objections are overruled, but they're duly 14 noted for the record. The Court has laid a little bit more in 02:24 15 the way of findings analysis so that we understand exactly why 16 all of these things are well supported by case law as to their
17 admissibility.

18 Okay. So with that being done, let's go ahead and --

19 MS. JOHNSON: Wait, Judge. One more.

02:24 20 THE COURT: Yes. You have something else?

21 MS. JOHNSON: Before we bring the jury in, I just have 22 one more document and maybe three more questions for Mr. Sharp
23 that I should have asked him before I tendered him over.

24 THE COURT: I'll go ahead and allow that, and we'll go
02:24 25 straight to cross.

1 MR. JOHN: I just wanted to bring to the Court's
2 attention, the co-counsel, Jeremy Knight is here.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Welcome, sir. Good to have you
4 here.

02:24 5 MR. HYMAN: While we're waiting for the jury, bringing 6 them back in, we'll just renew our objection based on the 7 discovery issues referenced in the motions in limine.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go, Ralph.
9 Thank you so much. We'll get them back in here.

02:25 10 MS. JOHNSON: I'll try to not to get into the 11 investigation, our expert. I'm walking a fine line here.

12 THE COURT: Just a little cleaner so that we go
13 through our nuts and bolts on a business records level. Are we 14 moving in a couple of other exhibits now?

02:25 15 MS. JOHNSON: Just one more exhibit. It's going to be 16 572.

17 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, if you'd like, we can just go
18 basically through the same objections real quick. I don't 19 think at this point we can dispute it. We'll preserve the 02:26 20 objection. Beyond that, as long as our rights are reserved, we 21 don't object to them just introducing it into evidence without
22 anything else.

23 THE COURT: So we have done it outside of the record,
24 with that objection being preserved for the record and being
02:26 25 the same ground, and I'm assuming it would also be business

1 record-based. Is that right?

2 MS. JOHNSON: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: So obviously go through the requisite
4 predicate for the record, but the objection is noted. The 02:26 5 Court will overrule it provided you lay the predicate as we
6 have discussed, and then we can move it straight in. And it
7 was 572, you said?

8 MS. JOHNSON: Yes, Your Honor, Plaintiff's 572.

9 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

02:27 10 THE COURT: Can you proffer to me, Counsel. I have 11 your zip drive. That's how I am going through the exhibits
12 faster. Not your zip drive. Your flash drive. I don't see 13 572, P 572, but maybe I'm not finding it. What is it?

14 MS. JOHNSON: It's a merchant cash advance, their 02:27 15 contract with the people they advanced money to, with the 16 merchants.

17 MR. HYMAN: We object based on relevancy, but --

18 THE COURT: Okay. I'll overrule the relevancy
19 objection.

20 MS. JACQMEIN: I think what happened is he got the 21 flash drive before some of those exhibits, the last group, were 22 added. So he does not have them electronically.

23 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we had a longer exhibit list,
24 and then when it became Mr. Furman, I went through and tried to 02:27 25 very quickly cut our list. And afterwards, I think it was

1 after we gave you the flash drive, I realized that I was over
2 eager in my cutting, and we added a few back, which we put into
3 your binders, but they might not be on that flash drive. So I
4 wonder if it will be helpful for us to bring in a new flash
02:28 5 drive tomorrow.

6 MS. JACQMEIN: Or do you want a copy?

7 THE COURT: Can just give it back to you? Let's just 8 add whatever else you need. Let's just do that.

9 MS. BERLIN: That's a good idea.

02:28 10 THE COURT: Because I have the other ones. It's just 11 that one for some reason is missing.

12 MS. JACQMEIN: Which one does it stop at?

13 THE COURT: That's a good question. It stops at 571,
14 just short.

02:28 15 MS. JACQMEIN: And we have about six more. If you
16 give it to me --

17 THE COURT: Perfect. I'll do that. That's fine. Not 18 a problem. Everything else is on there.

19 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

02:28 20 THE COURT: Thank you for your patience. We just 21 needed to clear up a couple of evidentiary issues to streamline
22 things as we continue on with Mr. Sharp. So we're going to 23 pick up where we left off. I hope that those of you who wanted
24 a copy got a copy, and then we sent some back there, and it
02:29 25 should give you enough caffeine here for the afternoon. So if

1 you need anything else, let me know.

2 So we're going to go ahead actually and let the SEC
3 ask a couple of follow-up questions that they meant to ask
4 before we broke, and just a few after that, we'll turn it back
02:29 5 over to the defense. Okay? Go ahead, Counsel.

6 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 BY MS. JOHNSON:

8 Q. Mr. Sharp, I'm showing you what's been previously marked as
9 Exhibit 572.

02:29 10 Do you recognize that document?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. And how do you recognize it?

13 A. This is the agreement with merchants to document the 14 approval and then the terms of funding a merchant cash advance
02:29 15 with a particular merchant.

16 Q. And whose agreement? Who uses this agreement?

17 A. This is a Par Funding agreement.

18 Q. And were these agreements kept at Par Funding?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Where?

21 A. These were all in the Converge Hub, which is our contact
22 management system. So the documents are scanned in online.

23 Q. So they were kept as part of Par Funding's books and 24 records?

02:30 25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. Did you get a chance to review the merchant advance
2 contracts prior to coming here tray?

3 A. I reviewed many of them. I don't know if I've reviewed
4 this particular one.

02:30 5 Q. And under what circumstances did you review those 6 contracts?

7 A. As we're understanding the documents where the merchant
8 actually agreed to repay the advance and as a part of the 9 collection process, as we're trying to go out and collect these 02:30 10 advances, I reviewed many of these.

11 Q. And what do they reflect that you're looking for?

12 A. This reflects the understanding between Par Funding and the 13 merchant on the amount that was advanced and the repayment
14 terms.

02:30 15 Q. And did you speak with any Par Funding employees about the 16 merchant cash advance contracts and how they operated?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And who did you speak with about that?

19 A. I spent quite a bit of time talking to the collections
02:31 20 department and the head of compliance.

21 Q. And who was that?

22 A. Ben Mannes.

23 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I would offer P 572 in 24 evidence and ask that it be published to the jury.

02:31 25 THE COURT: Subject to objections that are being

1 overruled, yes, that will go ahead and be published. 572 is in
2 evidence.

3 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

4 BY MS. JOHNSON:

02:31 5 Q. Mr. Sharp, if could you just turn to page 8 of this
6 agreement, and read number 10. Under number 10 it says:
7 Events of default, any of the following shall constitute an 8 event of default under this purchase agreement.

9 What does that mean?

02:31 10 A. It means the list of items on the following page, which is 11 A through P, each of those items represents a default. So if 12 the merchant does any of the things that are listed there, then
13 this is a default under the agreement.

14 Q. And what is letter H say?

02:32 15 A. Merchant seller's failure to make any payment required
16 under this purchase agreement.

17 Q. What does that mean to you?

18 A. It means if the merchant did not make any of the payments
19 that are required and specified on page 3.

02:32 20 Q. And what are those payments?

21 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, this is crossing the territory
22 of expert testimony, calls for a legal conclusion.

23 THE COURT: Overruled.

24 Continue.

02:32 25 A. In this particular one, the daily specified amount, which

1 is the amount that is to be pulled from the merchant's bank
2 account, is $442.86.

3 BY MS. JOHNSON:

02:32 4 Q. I was asking more of a broader question. When it says if 5 you don't make a payment, what are they talking about? Who's 6 not making the payment?

7 A. If the merchant doesn't make the payments required under 8 the agreement, that's a default.

9 Q. And who would they be making the payments to?

02:33 10 A. Par Funding.

11 Q. One last question. Were the merchant cash advances covered 12 by insurance?

13 A. No.

14 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you.

02:33 15 MR. HYMAN: And, Your Honor, for that last one, move
16 to strike, lack of foundation, no predicate.

17 THE COURT: Overruled. Again, the record has shown
18 that Mr. Sharp is working on behalf of the receiver and 19 management company. Sufficient evidence exists given his 02:33 20 review of the records and documents for him to indicate what is 21 going on with these instruments, so that will be overruled.
22 Okay?

23 All right. With that being said, we'll turn it over
24 for cross-examination. Go ahead.

02:33 25

1

2 BY MR. JOHN:

3 Q. Good afternoon.

4 A. Good afternoon.

02:33 5 Q. Sir, you work for DSI, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. DSI is being paid by the receiver in this case?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. You yourself charge about $750 an hour on behalf of DSI,
02:34 10 correct?

11 A. That is my normal hourly rate. In this case we've agreed
12 to a blended cap.

13 Q. Okay. You're charging that amount right now to be here,
14 right?

02:34 15 A. Subject to the agreement where we have a blended cap.

16 Q. Okay. Within the past year, year-and-a-half, DSI has 17 billed more than 6 million dollars to the receiver; isn't that
18 correct?

19 A. I believe that's correct.

02:34 20 Q. And no matter what happens today, you expect to continue
21 working for DSI and billing the receiver, right?

22 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I just want to object,
23 relevance to these questions.

24 THE COURT: Overruled.

02:34 25 BY MR. JOHN:

1 Q. Let me repeat the question. No matter what happens today,
2 sir, you expect to continue for DSI and billing the receiver in
3 this case, right?

4 A. Yes.

02:34 5 Q. Okay. I want to turn to something you said on your direct
6 examination. You told the judge in reference to a document
7 that you hadn't had a chance to do due diligence yet for that
8 document.

9 Am I correct in understanding that means you may not 02:35 10 be able to speak to the accuracy of all the data in that 11 document?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. Is that true for all of the documents that were entered 14 during your direct examination?

02:35 15 A. No.

16 Q. Some of them you were able to do due diligence on?

17 A. Yes, some of them were earlier in the process on --

18 Q. Okay. But at least some of the documents that were entered 19 during your direct examination, as you sit here today, you're 02:35 20 not certain as to the accuracy of the data in those documents,
21 right?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Okay. During your direct examination you spoke about some 24 default records that you were able to identify. Do you
02:35 25 remember that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. You have access, in your role at DSI, to Par Funding's
3 internal records, right?

4 A. Yes.

02:35 5 Q. And am I correct that it was through an inspection of those 6 internal records that you were able to identify the Clerk of 7 Court to contact to obtain that list of default records?

8 A. That through counsel who's assisting.

9 Q. Who are you referring to when you say "counsel who's 10 assisting"?

11 A. Gaetan Alfano, who is counsel in Philadelphia who is 12 assisting. They have a contact at the clerk's office.

13 Q. Well, let me ask you this. Before you inspected the 14 internal records of Par Funding, did you have any idea what 02:36 15 Clerk of Court to contact in regards to defaults for
16 Par Funding?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And when you inspected the internal records of Par Funding
19 you didn't actually find any listing of actual defaults, right?

02:36 20 A. That's not correct.

21 Q. How is it not correct?

22 A. We -- there is a listing of defaults, a listing in the 23 Par Funding books and records that show confessions of judgment
24 they are seeking to obtain or have obtained. There are several 02:37 25 schedules of those.

1 Q. Okay. But I guess to clarify my question, you didn't know
2 what county or what jurisdiction before you inspected those
3 records that litigation related to those defaults may be taking
4 place, right?

02:37 5 A. I'm not sure I understand your question.

6 Q. Before you inspected Par Funding's internal records, you
7 didn't know where Par Funding litigation might be taking place
8 as far as to defaulted merchant cash advance contracts, right?

9 A. I don't -- I don't recall. You know, this was through the 02:37 10 Philadelphia court of common pleas and that's where they all
11 would be. So, you know, unless there was some specifics that 12 they were pursuing in New York, which were few, the vast
13 majority of them were in the Philadelphia Court of Common
14 Pleas. So I don't think the Par Funding books and records gave 02:37 15 me any more information on that.

16 Q. Well, you just told me that you didn't know what Clerk of 17 Court to contact until you looked into the records, right?
18 That's what I heard you say, right?

19 A. I'm sorry, I didn't know the name of the person.

02:38 20 Q. So you knew where all of Par Funding's litigation was 21 happening before you inspected Par Funding's records?

22 A. No, I knew where to start.

23 Q. Okay. Let me ask you a question. Regarding the litigation
24 list that you received, the data that you received on that list
02:38 25 was not reflected inside of Par Funding's records, correct?

1 A. No, that's not correct.

2 Q. How is it not correct?

3 A. Par Funding has records that indicate where they are

4 pursuing or have pursued a confession of judgment. The

02:38 5 information we got from the clerk is obviously much easier to

6 use than some of the internal information and is a good process

7 check to make sure that the Court records were clear with what

8 the Court has on their records.

9 Q. Did you find litigation for any other areas inside the 02:38 10 Par Funding records, besides Pennsylvania?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Where else did you find?

13 A. New York and New Jersey.

14 Q. Did you know about litigation in the New York and New

02:39 15 Jersey for Par Funding, the specific records, before you

16 searched the internal Par Funding records?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Had you made a request to any clerk of court in New York or

19 New Jersey before you entered into Par Funding's internal

02:39 20 records?

21 A. No.

22 Q. As far as Pennsylvania is concerned, before you entered

23 Par Funding records, had you made a request to any clerk of 24 court for records on Par Funding defaults?

02:39 25 A. No, I wasn't involved at that time.

1 Q. Do you know whether or not DSI had made any request to the
2 State of Pennsylvania for default records for Par Funding
3 before you searched the internal records?

02:39 4 A. And I'm sorry. I need to clarify. What you do mean by 5 "default records"?

6 Q. The litigation records that you obtained from the State of 7 Pennsylvania had to do with cash advance default litigation,
8 right?

02:39 9 A. It had to do with Par Funding pursuing judgments upon a
10 default. That's it.

11 Q. Okay. All right. The records that you pursued regarding 12 judgments on defaults, do you know whether DSI had pursued any
13 of those through Clerk of Court in the state of Pennsylvania
14 prior to you searching internal records?

02:40 15 A. No.

16 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, can I get access to the 17 screen, please?

18 THE COURT REPORTER: (Complies.)

19 BY MR. JOHN:

02:40 20 Q. Mr. Sharp, there should be an image on your screen at this
21 point. Do you see it?

22 A. I see the desk top.

23 MR. JOHN: One moment, Your Honor. Technical 24 difficulties.

25 BY MR. JOHN:

1 Q. Mr. Sharp, there should be an image on your screen now of a
2 document, hopefully. Do you see it?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. That is Plaintiff's 56. Do you recognize that document?

02:41 5 A. Yes.

6 Q. What is it?

7 A. If we could look at the next page.

8 Q. Okay. (Complies.)

9 A. That's a notice of exempt offering of securities. The 02:41 10 issuer is Fidelis Financial Planning.

11 Q. Okay. How do you recognize that as the notice of exemption
12 for Fidelis?

13 A. Because it says on the document.

14 Q. Have you seen this document before?

02:42 15 A. I believe so.

16 Q. You're not sure?

17 A. Not as I sit here.

18 Q. Okay. Would you have reviewed any exemption forms for 19 Fidelis in your role for DSI?

02:42 20 A. I would like to, yes.

21 Q. Have you already?

22 A. I don't recall.

23 Q. So earlier in your direct examination, however, you were 24 able to identify three other exemption forms; is that correct?

02:42 25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Two of them were for A Better Financial Plan?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And one was for Par Funding?

4 A. Correct.

02:42 5 Q. And you agree with me that none of those have anything to 6 do with that exemption form, right?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Okay. Mr. Sharp, another document should have populated on 9 your screen. Do you see it?

02:43 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Do you recognize that document?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What is it?

14 A. That is the document we discussed earlier today, which is a
02:43 15 listing of investors and notes and the payments.

16 Q. How do you recognize the document on your screen as a
17 listing of investors?

18 A. Because I recognize the investors.

19 Q. Did you review that particular document during your review
02:43 20 of your role as -- for DSI?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And those are investors for Fidelis?

23 A. I believe so.

24 Q. Let me ask you something. Any of those -- to your 02:43 25 knowledge, none of the investors listed on that document

1 invested in Par Funding, correct?

2 A. They invested in Fidelis.

3 Q. Right. Let me repeat my question. The document in front
4 of you, none of the investors listed on that document invested
02:44 5 in Par Funding, correct?

6 A. I'm not sure I agree with you.

7 Q. Okay. Explain to me why you don't agree with me.

8 A. Because the payment to the investors was dependant on 9 payments from Par Funding.

02:44 10 Q. How were you aware of that? Where do you draw that 11 information from, sir?

12 A. I'm aware of how Par Funding managed its business and dealt 13 with the agent funds and dealt with its investors.

14 Q. To your knowledge, did any of the investors on that list
02:44 15 execute any notes for Par Funding?

16 A. I do not know.

17 Q. The document on your screen, is it a fair and accurate
18 representation of the document you previously reviewed?

19 A. I don't know. I'd have to compare it.

02:45 20 Q. Would you agree that the document in front of you shows
21 that no one investor lost any money?

22 MS. JOHNSON: Objection, outside the scope and motion
23 in limine.

24 THE COURT: I know. But it's overruled.

02:45 25 If you can answer.

1 A. There's no -- there's not sufficient information on this to
2 be able to judge.

3 MR. JOHN: One moment to confer, Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Yep.

02:45 5 MR. JOHN: No further questions from this witness,
6 Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Any redirect?

8 MS. JOHNSON: Just a little.

9

10 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

11 BY MS. JOHNSON:

12 Q. Mr. Sharp, has the SEC paid you any money for your services
13 for Par Funding?

14 A. No.

02:46 15 Q. Is the SEC paying you to be here today?

16 A. No.

17 Q. And where is Par Funding located, what state?

18 A. Pennsylvania.

19 Q. So is that one of the reasons why you went to Pennsylvania
02:46 20 to look for court records?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. If somebody was going to execute -- that was part of your
23 reasonable due diligence, correct, to look up what lawsuits
24 were pending in Pennsylvania about Par Funding?

02:46 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And those are available publically to anybody that wanted
2 to look up the public records?

3 A. Yes.

02:46 4 Q. And earlier today, just before -- after the lunch break, I
5 asked you about document 572, the merchant cash advance
6 contract. Do you recall that? We went over what ws a default
7 according to the contract. And do you recall that in your 8 testimony?

9 A. I do.

02:47 10 MR. HYMAN: Asked and answered, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Overruled.

12 BY MS. JOHNSON:

13 Q. If you go to page 17 of that document, do you recognize 14 what that is?

02:47 15 A. Yes, I do. It's a confession of judgment.

16 Q. And what is that? Explain again what the confession of 17 judgment is.

18 MR. HYMAN: This is going beyond the scope of cross.

19 THE COURT: Overruled.

02:47 20 A. So as I mentioned previously, when Par Funding would do a 21 merchant cash advance, they would ask the merchant to agree to 22 a confession of judgment. So basically, the merchant would 23 agree that if there was a default, Par Funding had the right to 24 file a judgment without having to go through filing a lawsuit.

02:48 25 BY MS. JOHNSON:

1 Q. And in this contract, where was the confession of judgment
2 to be filed? Does it have a court or a state where it would be
3 filed?

4 A. Yeah. It's the Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia County.

02:48 5 Q. So if you had a copy of this contract, you would know where 6 to look if there was a confession of judgment?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Have you ever raised money from investors for Par in your 9 role?

02:48 10 A. No.

11 Q. Did you ever make any pitch to investors in your role now
12 at Par Funding?

13 A. No.

14 MR. HYMAN: Relevance, Your Honor.

02:48 15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 BY MS. JOHNSON:

17 Q. If you had pitched this to an investor, would you have gone
18 to any court records to look to see if there were any suits
19 against Par Funding?

02:49 20 MR. HYMAN: Objection. Your Honor, calls for 21 speculation.

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 You may answer if you know.

24 MS. JOHNSON: I'll make simple.

02:49 25 BY MS. JOHNSON:

1 Q. Would you have done due diligence on the company?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And what would that consist of?

4 A. You would want to verify any of the representations that 02:49 5 were made to see if the portfolio was actually performing.

6 MR. HYMAN: Move to strike expert testimony.

7 THE COURT: Overruled.

8 Anything else?

9 MS. JOHNSON: Nothing.

02:50 10 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, any of 11 you have any questions for Mr. Sharp before I excuse him?

12 Okay. Thank you very much.

13 Mr. Sharp, you're excused.

14 Your next witness.

02:50 15 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we call Mark Reikes. May I
16 go out and get him?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 Thereupon,

19 MARK REIKES,

20 having been duly sworn by the court reporter, testified as
21 follows:

22 THE COURT: Grab a seat, speak right into the 23 microphone. Thank you.

24 You may proceed when ready.

02:51 25

1

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. Good afternoon.

4 A. Good afternoon.

02:51 5 Q. I wonder if you could just introduce yourself to the jury.

6 A. I'm Mark Reikes. And I don't know, I'm over 21, I guess,
7 or as they say I am.

8 Q. And, Mr. Reikes, could you just tell us a little bit about
9 your educational and work history?

02:52 10 A. I've got a bachelor's in business with an emphasis in 11 accounting. And I'm retired out of the Florida Department of 12 Corrections as a correctional probation officer.

13 Q. And how long ago did you retire?

14 A. Six, seven years ago.

02:52 15 Q. Have you ever heard of an investment opportunity called
16 Par Funding?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And approximately how long ago did you first hear about
19 that?

02:52 20 A. About four years, give or take.

21 Q. And I wonder if I could please show you what we have marked
22 as P 576.

23 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

24 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I wonder if I can approach
02:53 25 the witness because it might be easier for him to see things on

1 paper.

2 THE COURT: Sure. Whatever is easier.

3 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

02:53 5 Q. Mr. , have you seen this before, the document that's
6 labeled as P 576?

7 A. Yes, I have.

8 Q. All right. When did you see it? How do you know what it
9 is?

02:53 10 A. How do I know what it is? It's got my handwriting on it.

11 Q. Is that your handwriting, where it says Michael Furman?

12 A. Yes, that is my handwriting.

13 Q. And is P 576 your own document that you wrote on?

14 A. It looks like it is.

02:54 15 Q. And did you give this document P 576 to the SEC?

16 A. I'm assuming so, if you guys have it.

17 Q. Hold on a second.

18 Would it be helpful to see a declaration that you
19 executed under oath a couple of years ago about this P 576

02:54 20 document?

21 A. I can, yes.

22 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, may I approach?

23 THE COURT: You may.

24 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

02:54 25 BY MS. BERLIN:

1 Q. You can look at that and then turn it over. Just to
2 refresh.

3 A. Okay. That was me.

4 Q. Does that refresh your recollection?

02:55 5 A. Yes, that was mine.

6 Q. So is P 576 an advertisement that you provided the SEC?

7 A. Yes, it is.

8 Q. And it has your handwriting on it?

9 A. Yes, it does.

02:55 10 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to introduce P 576
11 as an exhibit.

12 THE COURT: Any objection?

13 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor. Hearsay. And his 14 recollection is refreshed. He can try to testify as to 02:55 15 substance without having it be introduced.

16 THE COURT: That will be overruled. We'll admit that.
17 And the number again for the record?

18 MS. BERLIN: 576.

19 MR. HYMAN: I apologize. I had that confused with the 02:55 20 declaration.

21 THE COURT: The declaration.

22 MR. HYMAN: No objection as to the 576.

23 THE COURT: 576 is what I'm looking at on the screen,
24 is it not?

02:56 25 MR. HYMAN: It is, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: It's just the advertising.

2 MS. BERLIN: It is an advertisement.

3 THE COURT: So that's - the objection has been
4 withdrawn. That will be admitted at this time.

02:56 5 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

6 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

7 BY MS. BERLIN:

8 Q. So looking at P 576, is this an advertisement that you saw?

9 A. Yes, it is.

02:56 10 Q. And did -- I see Michael Furman's name on it. Why did you
11 write his name on P 576?

12 A. I have a habit of when I -- if I call someplace or 13 something like that, I want to know who I'm speaking to, so
14 that I can call them by name. That's all.

02:56 15 Q. Okay. So after seeing this advertisement, this P 576, you
16 called. Did you call the number on there and get the name
17 Michael Furman?

18 A. I called the number on there to make an appointment,
19 whether -- yes.

02:57 20 Q. Okay. And did you end up -- if you look at P 576, do you
21 see where it says it's an advertisement for -- it's says:
22 Alternative investment lunch event. Wednesday, March 6th at 23 1:00 o'clock at The Regional. And it looks like it's The 24 Regional restaurant in West Palm Beach. Limited seating, open
02:57 25 discussion, meet the owner. I've just read some of the 1 language on there, but do you see that?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. Did you go to an event for Par Funding?

4 A. Yes, I did.

02:57 5 Q. You can set this exhibit aside. We're finished with it.

6 MS. BERLIN: And I'm going to mark -- Your Honor, it's 7 P 578. And I wonder if I can approach the witness with a hard
8 copy?

9 THE COURT: Sure.

02:58 10 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

12 BY MS. BERLIN:

13 Q. Mr. Reikes, would it be easier -- I have a color copy, the 14 original color copy of this as well if that's easier.

02:58 15 A. That's probably easier.

16 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, may I give him the --

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MS. BERLIN: It's the same, but just the original
19 brochure that we got. Is that okay, Your Honor?

02:58 20 THE COURT: Yes, that's fine.

21 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. Just a little easier to read.

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. Does this look familiar, P 578?

24 A. Yes, it does.

02:59 25 Q. And what is this?

1 A. This looks like it's the brochure and an overview of the
2 information about Par Funding.

3 Q. And is this the brochure that you gave to the Securities
4 and Exchange Commission?

02:59 5 A. Yes, it is.

6 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I would like to introduce P
7 578.

8 THE COURT: Any objection?

9 MR. HYMAN: Hearsay, but --

02:59 10 THE COURT: Overruled.

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

12 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Thank you.

13 If we can put that on the screen. Thank you, Kevin.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

02:59 15 Q. All right. So we're looking at -- do you see on the front
16 page it says, Par Corporate overview?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And the hard copy in front of you is the same as the black
19 and white version on the screen, so whichever is easiest for 03:00 20 you to look at.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. And where did you receive this brochure that we see as P
23 578? Did someone give it to you or did you find it?

24 A. I think -- I think I received -- I received it at the 03:00 25 luncheon that we had previously spoke about.

1 Q. Okay. So when you went to the event with --

2 A. When I went to the event that they were speaking.

3 Q. Okay. So if I understand correctly, you saw the 4 advertisement, P 576, we looked at the newspaper ad, you went 03:00 5 to an event, and when you were at the event you received this
6 brochure that we see as P 578, correct?

7 A. Correct. Yes, ma'am.

8 Q. Okay. And was Michael Furman at this event?

9 A. Yes, he was.

03:00 10 Q. And was he one of the hosts of this event?

11 A. Yes, he was.

12 Q. Okay. If we could just look on the first page, do you see 13 it says: Who we are?

14 A. Yes.

03:01 15 Q. And this is a brochure, it's about Par Funding is what it 16 says?

17 A. Yes, it is.

18 Q. And when you invested, did you -- or let me just stop.

19 Did you ultimately invest in Par Funding?

03:01 20 A. Yes, I did.

21 Q. And did you --

22 MR. HYMAN: Objection, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Overruled.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:01 25 Q. Did you invest in Par Funding through Mr. Furman?

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 MR. HYMAN: Objection, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Overruled.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:01 5 Q. Okay. I wonder if we could just turn to page 3, please, of 6 the brochure. Do you see where it says: Industry overview?

7 A. Yes, it is.

8 Q. And it's talking about the merchant cash advance industry,
9 generally?

03:01 10 A. Yes, I guess. Yes.

11 Q. So you understood at the time that you were investing in a
12 merchant cash advance business?

13 A. Yes. Yes.

14 Q. Okay.

03:02 15 And if you could turn to page 6. Thank you.

16 Do you see the number 4 on the right side of the page?
17 It has a circle around it.

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And do you see underneath it says: Our staff manages the 03:02 20 business relationship from underwriting through repayment to 21 reduce nonperformance to the lowest possible levels.

22 Do you see that?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. So did you understand from this brochure that 03:02 25 Par Funding was engaged in some sort of due diligence with

1 respect to the loans?

2 A. Yes. Yes.

3 Q. And did you read this brochure that you sent the SEC, the P
4 578, you read through this?

03:03 5 A. Yes, I did read through it.

6 Q. And when you were at the event, was any presentation given
7 or were -- did you just walk in and you were handed some
8 materials?

9 MR. HYMAN: Leading, Your Honor.

03:03 10 MS. BERLIN: I'm sorry, I can --

11 THE COURT: It's all right.

12 Overruled.

13 MS. BERLIN: Okay, thank you.

14 THE COURT: You may answer, sir.

03:03 15 A. There was a presentation. There was offered or given.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. Okay. And do you remember -- and I realize this is a while 18 ago, but do you remember approximately how many people were at 19 the event, like roughly? Was it just you? Was to a thousand
03:03 20 people? Like any idea?

21 A. Somewhere between myself and a thousand people.

22 MR. HYMAN: Objection.

23 THE COURT: Overruled.

24 Go ahead, sir.

03:03 25 A. Somewhere between myself and a thousand people. There were

1 several people there, but a small group, not hundreds, but I
2 don't know exactly how many.

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. Okay. But it wasn't just you?

03:04 5 A. No, it was not just me.

6 Q. Okay. And was Michael Furman one of the people who 7 presented during the event?

8 A. Yes, he was.

9 Q. And during the event was there any discussion about onsite
03:04 10 inspections, if you remember?

11 A. As far as Par Funding's business?

12 Q. Yes.

13 A. Yes, there was.

14 Q. And do you remember generally what you learned from the 03:04 15 presentation about onsite inspections?

16 A. That they had gone through, they did an onsite inspection
17 to make sure it was a real business going on there. It was,
18 let's say, like a construction business that they had equipment
19 and things like that, if the stuff was in working order. They 03:05 20 talked to the people about the owners of the companies and some 21 of the people that might be working there.

22 Q. Was there any discussion with Mr. Furman about the success
23 of Par Funding or the people who were running it and managing 24 it, that they were doing a good job?

03:05 25 MR. HYMAN: Objection, leading.

1 THE COURT: Overruled.

2 A. I do not remember if there was a specific about how they
3 were doing from that point.

4 Q. Okay. Did anyone -- or did Mr. Furman tell you that the 03:05 5 person who was running the merchant cash advance business was a
6 convicted felon?

7 A. I did not know that.

8 MR. HYMAN: Objection, leading.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

03:06 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. So Mr. Furman didn't tell you that, right?

12 MR. HYMAN: Objection, leading.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 A. No, he did not.

03:06 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. Did Mr. Furman tell you that -- now, let me just go back to 17 your advertisement, because this event was in March of 2000- --
18 looks like March 2019.

19 A. Correct.

03:06 20 Q. So when you went to this event in March of 2019, did
21 Mr. Furman tell you about any cases where state governments had
22 filed lawsuits or actions against Par Funding or people
23 involved with Par Funding for violating securities laws?

24 MR. HYMAN: Objection, leading, compound.

03:06 25 THE COURT: Overruled.

1 A. I did not know of any improprieties or any investigations
2 at that time, no.

3 Q. Okay. So Mr. Furman didn't mention that to you?

4 A. He did not.

03:07 5 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

6 MS. BERLIN: Okay.

7 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, may I just have a standing
8 objection as it relates to this to facilitate the process?

9 THE COURT: Yes, please do.

10 MR. HYMAN: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: For the record -- and for the record, most 12 of this is not hearsay. This is state of mind for an 13 individual and what he believed it to be, which is why these 14 objections are routinely overruled.

03:07 15 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, the objection was based on --

16 THE COURT: I didn't ask you to engage with me. I'm 17 just making a record. Your standing objections are overruled 18 as to this witness and the testimony as offered regarding these 19 materials.

03:07 20 Please continue.

21 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. Thank you, Mr. Reikes.

24 Mr. Reikes, I wonder if I can just come up and get 03:07 25 my -- one of those exhibits that I gave you?

1 A. Yes, ma'am.

2 Q. Thank you.

3 So you did -- or did you ultimately invest? I think
4 you said you did, right?

03:08 5 A. Yes, I did.

6 Q. And do you remember about how much you invested?

7 A. I think it was about a hundred thousand.

8 Q. And was any of that -- were those -- when you made your 9 investment, did you sign any contracts or agreements?

03:08 10 A. Yes, there was an agreement signed.

11 Q. And did you enter -- did you do that paperwork with 12 Mr. Furman or with someone else?

13 A. I think it was with Mr. Furman that it was done.

14 Q. Before you invested in Par Funding, had you ever invested
03:09 15 in, like, a merchant cash advance business or a business like 16 Par Funding in the past?

17 A. No, I had not.

18 MR. HYMAN: Compound.

19 THE COURT: Overruled. (Inaud.)

03:09 20 MS. BERLIN: Just one moment, I think I might be 21 finished.

22 THE COURT: Sure.

23 MS. BERLIN: One last question.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:10 25 Q. We didn't meet before today, right?

1 A. No. I have not.

2 Q. And did I tell you what questions I was going to ask you?

3 We did go to lunch together, right?

4 A. We did go to lunch together.

03:10 5 Q. Kind of lunch because --

6 A. At least I had a bottle of water.

7 Q. We're both picky.

8 But did I tell you what I was going to -- did I ask
9 you -- did we rehearse your questions or answers in any way?

03:10 10 A. No, we did not.

11 Q. And what did we mostly discuss?

12 A. We discussed kind of -- you gave me suggestions to review a 13 couple of sheets, but not anything specific. And then it was 14 general everyday conversation that I probably have with anybody
03:10 15 in here.

16 Q. And mostly cat jokes?

17 A. Some cat jokes and things like that, yes.

18 Q. Okay. And have you ever testified in a federal court
19 before?

03:10 20 A. No, I have not.

21 Q. This is your first time?

22 A. This is my first time.

23 Q. Thank you.

24 MS. BERLIN: I have no further questions, Your Honor.

03:11 25 THE COURT: Thank you. Cross-examination?

CROSS EXAMINATION

1

2 BY MR. JOHN:

3 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Reikes.

4 A. Good afternoon.

03:11

5 Q. I just want to clarify something. During your direct
6 examination you spoke about investing in Par and hearing about
7 Par Funding. Are you familiar with a company called Fidelis?

8 A. Yes, I am.

9 Q. How are you familiar with Fidelis?

03:11

10 A. They were part of -- or actually they were representing 11 Par Funding at the time I started investing.

12 Q. So is it possible that the company that you actually made
13 investments with was Fidelis?

03:12

14 A. It's possible, but most of the time when they act as a
15 broker they take the funds and move them to specific companies.
16 So in this case they would move it to Par Funding.

17 Q. Okay. Let me ask you a question. You said you went to an 18 event for Par. Is it possible the event was actually hosted by 19 Fidelis rather than Par?

03:12

20 A. It could have been. It was both Fidelis and Par Funding
21 were kind of mixed together at that point. So exactly who
22 put -- who did put it on specifically or not, I know the flyer
23 that we had looked at a few minutes ago listed it as Fidelis.
24 But exactly who put it to bills and everything, I do not know.

03:12

25 Q. You said you first heard about Par about four years ago.

1 Is it possible you actually first heard about the offering in
2 March of 2019?

3 A. I thought I had heard about it before that time, but I
4 don't remember specifically.

03:13 5 Q. Is it fair to say you're not certain?

6 A. I'm not certain specifically what I heard, yes.

7 Q. Let me ask you a question. At the time you went to the 8 event in March of 2019, were you an accredited investor?

9 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor. Outside of the
03:13 10 scope.

11 THE COURT: Overruled. Overruled.

12 MS. BERLIN: I'm not sure if it can at least be 13 defined.

14 THE COURT: I think if he believes he's one, he would 03:13 15 be able to explain it.

16 So go ahead, sir.

17 BY MR. JOHN:

18 Q. Let me just repeat the question for you, sir.

19 When you went to the event in 2019, were you an 03:13 20 accredited investor?

21 A. What do you mean by "accredited investor"?

22 Q. I would ask you, do you know what an accredited investor
23 is?

24 A. No, I do not.

03:13 25 Q. Had you invested prior to March of 2019?

1 A. I have invested in other things, yes.

2 Q. At the time that you invested, possibly with Fidelis, had
3 you done any research yourself on Par Funding?

4 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor, motion in limine.

03:14 5 THE COURT: Sustained.

6 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Move on. Sustained. Next question.

8 BY MR. JOHN:

9 Q. Mr. Reikes, before you invested with Fidelis, did you do
03:14 10 any research on the investment itself?

11 MS. BERLIN: Objection, same objection. You just 12 sustained it.

13 THE COURT: Sustained.

14 BY MR. JOHN:

03:14 15 Q. Mr. Reikes, on your direct examination, you mentioned that 16 you had invested about a hundred thousand dollars in this
17 particular investment; is that correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And did the investment itself generate any income for you?

03:14 20 A. For me, I got the interest and I got my funds back.

21 Q. I just want to go back to one thing. At the time you
22 invested in March of 2019, do you recall what your net worth
23 was at that time?

24 A. Not specifically.

03:15 25 Q. Would it be fair to say it was more than $2,000,000?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Would it be fair to say that your annual income was over
3 $200,000 a year at that time?

4 A. I'm not sure what my annual income was at that time.

03:16 5 Q. Okay. You advised that you went to an event in March of 6 2019 and you saw Mr. Furman speak; is that correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Are you familiar with someone named Perry Abbonizio?

9 A. Vaguely remember the name. But remember, it's been four 03:16 10 years. So...

11 Q. Or possibly two, right?

12 A. No. The event was four years ago, in '19 -- wait a minute.
13 '18, '19, yeah, two years, whatever it was.

14 Q. Do you recall whether or not Mr. Perry Abbonizio spoke at 03:17 15 the event that you went to?

16 A. I don't recall. If he was there, then he probably did
17 speak, but I don't remember.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. JOHN: Moment to confer?

03:17 20 BY MR. JOHN:

21 Q. When you were working with Mr. Furman, was he responsive to 22 your calls about your investment?

23 A. When I did call, I did get answers, yes.

24 Q. Did you feel he took care of you as an investor?

03:18 25 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor, motion in limine.

1 THE COURT: Overruled. I'll allow it.

2 MR. JOHN: I'll just repeat the question, sir.

3 BY MR. JOHN:

4 Q. Do you feel that Mr. Furman took care of you as an
03:18 5 investor?

6 A. When I called, I got the answers I needed or -- I got the 7 answers to the questions I had asked, yes.

8 Q. Did you ever reach out to Par Funding directly about your
9 investment?

03:18 10 A. No, I did not.

11 Q. You exclusively communicated with Mr. Furman?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. JOHN: I have no further questions for this 14 witness at this time.

03:18 15 THE COURT: Redirect?

16 MS. BERLIN: Very brief. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Sure.

18

19

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

03:18 20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. When you invested in Par Funding, you talked about your net
22 worth and the amounts you invested, about a hundred thousand?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Were you investing -- was that net worth in the amount that 03:19 25 you invested, was that from your retirement?

1 MR. HYMAN: Objection, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Overruled. Door was opened on that.

3 Go ahead.

4 A. Yeah. I would say so. It would be money that I would be 03:19 5 living off of, yes.

6 BY MS. BERLIN:

7 Q. Because your career was in the Bureau of Corrections?

8 A. I worked for the Department of Corrections, yes.

9 Q. And you were asked about whether or not you thought
03:19 10 Mr. Furman was responsive to your questions and provided
11 information.

12 Do you remember that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. So did Mr. Furman -- I mean, I guess because --

03:19 15 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I think the door was opened.
16 I think this was the subject of the motion in limine, but since
17 the door was opened --

18 THE COURT: What's the question? I'll let you know.

19 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

03:19 20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. So that you relied on -- did you rely on what Mr. Furman
22 told you about the investments?

23 A. Some on that and some on the meeting, what I found with the 24 brochures and things like that, not specifically from one
03:20 25 individual or --

1 Q. So a combination of what Mr. Furman said and the brochure,
2 like the written materials he gave you?

3 A. Whatever else I had found or got my hands on, yes.

4 Q. Okay. And did you trust what Mr. Furman was telling you
03:20 5 about Par Funding? Like, when he told you about Par Funding,
6 did you -- he never -- we covered he never told that you anyone
7 at Par Funding was a convicted felon, for example, right?

8 A. I did not know that.

9 MR. HYMAN: Asked and answered.

03:20 10 THE COURT: Overruled.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. And he didn't tell you about any of the government cases
13 either, correct?

14 A. No, I did not know of any of those.

03:21 15 Q. That wasn't in any of the brochures or written materials?

16 A. If it was, I do not remember it.

17 Q. Is that something that you would remember, Mr. Furman -- if 18 Mr. Furman had told you that the person you were giving your 19 money to was a convicted felon?

03:21 20 A. I probably would have remembered that, especially coming
21 out of a correctional business.

22 Q. Especially given your background?

23 A. Yes.

24 MS. BERLIN: Well, thank you so much. We don't have 03:21 25 any further questions, Mr. Reikes. I hope you have a safe

1 drive home.

2 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, before Mr. Reikes is excused,
3 may we have a quick sidebar? Mr. John has an argument he would 4 like to raise.

03:21 5 THE COURT: One moment, please.

6 Does anybody in my jury have any questions for the 7 witness? No.

8 Sidebar.

9 (Thereupon, there was a side-bar conference held outside the 03:22 10 presence and hearing of the jury.)

11 MR. JOHN: I need you to sustain two objections when I
12 asked about his independent exploration, research about 13 Par Funding. I believe the door was just opened when asked
14 what he relied on. He said --

03:22 15 THE COURT: He relied on a brochure and -- he said his 16 brochure and what was represented to him by Furman.

17 MR. JOHN: And what he found.

18 THE COURT: And what he found.

19 MS. BERLIN: All right. So let me be clear. Reliance
03:22 20 is not an element. If you have a trial where you're talking
21 about reliance, which is only relevant to appeal SRA case,
22 there will be an appeal. I objected when you brought it up.
23 It was the subject of a motion in limine for precisely this
24 reason. If we have a trial -- I checked --

03:22 25 THE COURT: You opened the door and allowed her to ask

1 that because you specifically got into that issue about what
2 he's relying on. His state of mind, if it's misleading or not,
3 he's allowed to testify about that, which is why I allowed that
4 question to be asked without objection, because we had opened
03:23 5 the door about what he's looking at and what he's relying on.
6 You guys asked him about anything else independent of that, to
7 try to essentially, I believe, show that he wasn't somehow
8 mislead or that he had enough independent information even 9 though we know from motions in limine, my recollection is that 03:23 10 what he may have done independently is of no moment.

11 Because at the end of the day, as long as it's 12 misleading and he's confused by it, it's not like we hold an 13 investor to a standard of investigation or their own diligence.
14 That's not a defense, almost like an uninformed investor
03:23 15 defense. I don't believe that's an issue. That's why in 16 limine we stayed away from this, because it's not going to make 17 a difference. We can't have a jury find that something is 18 misleading but it doesn't matter because he should have known
19 better. That's my concern.

03:23 20 MR. JOHN: That's actually not why I'm asking the 21 question. I believe, based on his answer, he can demonstrate 22 that the information that they claim Mr. Furman should have 23 known was not easily accessible to anyone. It wasn't available
24 by a cursory review. Mr. Sharp just testified he had to go
03:24 25 into records to find who to contact for litigation materials.

1 I believe this witness is going to say when he went looking,
2 whatever he found wasn't any of the information that's supposed
3 to be easily accessible to anyone like Mr. Furman.

4 THE COURT: I would believe that that would be a good
03:24 5 inquiry for Furman and maybe on Furman about his ability to 6 disclose what he knew.

7 But this guy, that doesn't matter to him. It might
8 matter to Furman to figure out if he has the scienter to do
9 this, because he says he could never find it, I'll let you do
03:24 10 that. But it's not going to come in through this guy because 11 it's going to impact his mental state, and it's not really a 12 defense. So that's why I can't let it in with this guy, but 13 that's fine. Bring it in with Furman.

14 MR. JOHN: I don't. It's just the idea that it's not 03:24 15 readily accessible information, that's the relevancy.

16 THE COURT: Yeah, but the relevancy is through Furman.
17 What he can and cannot find is of no moment. Even if it was,
18 let's say, plastered on a billboard somewhere, I still wouldn't 19 allow you to ask it. Because the whole point is, it doesn't 03:25 20 matter what he knows or not knows. It's whether what he was 21 fed was materially misleading.

22 And if Furman can find out, if Furman says, look, I
23 did what I did, there's no way I can be charged with this, I
24 had not idea this was out there, that's fine, but not on him.
03:25 25 I think it's inappropriate for the investor. So I'll let you

1 do it when Furman gets up. That makes more sense, not on him.

2 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 (Thereupon, the side-bar conference was concluded.)

4 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much, sir.

03:25 5 You're excused. Thank you.

6 JUROR: I need a break.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Take five minutes.

8 (Thereupon, a brief recess was taken.)

9 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

03:40 10 THE COURT: Okay. So I believe the SEC has got their 11 next witness ready to go.

12 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor. Perry Abbonizio.

13 THE COURT: Let's go ahead and get Mr. Abbonizio on,
14 please.

15 Thereupon,

16 PERRY ABBONIZIO,

17 having been duly sworn by the court reporter, testified as 18 follows:

19

20 DIRECT EXAMINATION

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Abbonizio.

23 A. How are you, Ms. Berlin?

24 Q. I'm fine. Thank you.

03:40 25 Have you ever heard of a company called Par Funding?

1 A. Yes, I have.

2 Q. And did you ever work there?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. During what years?

03:41 5 A. April of 2016 through July of 2020.

6 Q. What was your title at Par Funding?

7 A. Principal of investor relations.

8 Q. So safe to assume investor relations were part of your job?

9 A. Yes. That was my sole job.

03:41 10 Q. Have you ever heard of the phrase "agent fund"?

11 A. Yes, I have.

12 Q. And does your work at Par Funding involve working with 13 agent funds?

14 A. Yes, it did.

03:41 15 Q. And were agent funds the people who were raising money for
16 Par Funding?

17 MR. HYMAN: Leading, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Overruled.

19 A. Yes, they were.

03:41 20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. Was there an -- one of these agents was -- did Par Funding
22 have one of these agents here in South Florida in West Palm
23 Beach?

24 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

03:42 25 THE COURT: Overruled.

1 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, would it be faster and easier
2 just to have a standing objection again for all of the leading
3 questions?

4 THE COURT: Sure. You believe they're leading.
03:42 5 That's fine. They're overruled.

6 Go ahead.

7 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 A. I'm sorry. If you could repeat that, please.

9 THE COURT: Absolutely.

03:42 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. Absolutely. Did Par Funding have an agent in South
12 Florida, and specifically in West Palm Beach?

13 A. Yes, we did. When I say, did we have one? Yes, there was 14 an individual in West Palm that raised money with Par, yes.

03:42 15 Q. And what was the name of that individual?

16 A. Michael Furman.

17 Q. And how did you know that Michael Furman was one of these 18 agents for Par Funding?

19 A. Well, we received distributional monies from his private
03:42 20 placement. I would come down and visit and do marketing
21 related activities with Michael, and that's how I've known him
22 about three years.

23 Q. Did Mr. Furman provide updates to you about his efforts to 24 raise money from investors for Par Funding?

03:43 25 A. Yes, he did.

1 Q. Would you also speak with him and get updates that way?

2 A. I would speak frequently with Michael, yes.

3 Q. And about when was it that you first met Michael Furman?

4 A. I believe it was November of 2017, at an event held in King
03:43 5 of Prussia, Pennsylvania.

6 Q. Is that near Philadelphia?

7 A. Suburbs of, yes. About 30 minutes outside of Philadelphia.

8 Q. And during that trip, when you met Mr. Furman, did you all
9 also meet -- or did he also meet with Joseph LaForte?

03:44 10 A. He did briefly, yes, he did.

11 Q. At Par Funding?

12 THE COURT: I'm sorry, I can't hear.

13 MR. HYMAN: Leading and compound.

14 THE COURT: All right. Overruled.

03:44 15 Go ahead.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. And was that at Par Funding's office?

18 A. Yes, it was. We had an orientation there, and we met him
19 there.

03:44 20 Q. And Par Funding's office was in Philadelphia; is that
21 right?

22 A. Yes, it was.

23 Q. And you say you had an orientation there. What was an 24 orientation for?

03:44 25 A. The event was held in King of Prussia by A Better Financial

1 Plan, and on day one it was just a general overview of the 2 nature of what A Better Financial Plan did.

3 On day two, I believe it was, we transported people
4 down so they could walk through our physical offices and get a
03:44 5 tour.

6 Q. And when you say "transported people down," do you mean to 7 Par Funding's office?

8 A. To Par Funding's office in Philadelphia, yes.

9 Q. So was it an orientation that was for people who might 03:45 10 become, like, sales agents or agent fund managers for
11 Par Funding?

12 MR. HYMAN: Objection, leading.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 A. Yes. Again, the intent of the event that Dean Vagnozzi 03:45 15 hosted was to orientate various managers throughout the --
16 insurance agents on a myriad of products, one being merchant
17 cash advance, and that's how they came to Par.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. Okay. So one of the things that they were having 03:45 20 orientation about to be sales agents was Par Funding and then 21 there were other things also, right?

22 A. Yes, absolutely.

23 Q. Okay. So during what years, approximately, did Mr. Furman
24 raise money for Par Funding?

03:45 25 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

1 THE COURT: Overruled.

2 A. I believe formally started in the spring of 2018 through
3 2020, July, when we were put in a receivership. Par was put in 4 a receivership.

5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. And would Mr. Furman receive any compensation from 7 Par Funding in connection with raising money?

8 A. Yes, he would. Yes, he would.

9 Q. And would Mr. Furman receive compensation from Par Funding
03:46 10 if he did not send investor money to Par Funding?

11 A. No, he would not.

12 Q. So he would only get paid by Par Funding if he brought in 13 investor money?

14 A. Yes, that's correct.

03:46 15 Q. Did you personally invest 50 million dollars in
16 Par Funding?

17 A. No, I did not.

18 Q. Did you ever tell Mr. Furman that you did?

19 A. No, I don't believe I did that, no.

03:46 20 Q. Now, have you ever heard of a person Joseph LaForte?

21 A. Yes, I have.

22 Q. Okay. And did Joseph LaForte have any role in the 23 operations of Par Funding's merchant cash advance business?

24 A. He ran sales for RMR, Recruiting and Marketing Resources, 03:47 25 which was the sales end of the business, as well as he had some

1 supervisory duties being married to Lisa McElhone, the
2 president, of general underwriting and credit related
3 supervision. So yes.

03:47 4 Q. And was Par Funding sort of structured so that it was,
5 like, a triangle where it was Lisa McElhone, Joseph Cole as the 6 CFO, and then Joseph LaForte with the MCA business and
7 underwriting?

8 A. Yes, that's a pretty good parallel to make, yes. I would 9 agree with that.

03:47 10 Q. Do you remember testifying that it was a triangle in your 11 deposition?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. I didn't come up with that on my own.

14 MR. HYMAN: Objection.

03:48 15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. Did you and Mr. Furman ever discuss Joseph LaForte having a
18 criminal record?

19 A. Yes, we did. Yes, we did.

03:48 20 Q. And do you know approximately when that was?

21 A. Well, Michael and I spoke frequently. And I would say it
22 was probably at the latter part of 2018 or early in 2019 after 23 it was made widely known on Google, I believe.

24 Q. So Mr. Furman was aware of the criminal record by late 2018
03:48 25 or early 2019, based on your conversation with him?

1 MR. HYMAN: Objection.

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 A. I would say, yes.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:49 5 Q. Okay. Did you ever tell Michael Furman that New Jersey
6 regulators had found that Par Funding was doing things right or 7 had retracted or taken back any order entered against
8 Par Funding?

9 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound.

03:49 10 THE COURT: Overruled.

11 MR. HYMAN: And hearsay.

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 A. I don't believe I used the word "retracted." If I did use
14 that, I used it in error. That which I would have told Michael 03:49 15 as well as others was that was resolved in relatively short
16 order and through an additional filing to the state. There
17 were no fines and penalties and we were allowed to proceed in 18 operation. So if I used that word, I used it incorrectly.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:49 20 Q. Okay. But there was an order by the government -- by the 21 state Pennsylvania securities regulators against Par Funding.
22 Do you agree with me on that?

23 A. Pennsylvania or New Jersey?

24 Q. I'm sorry, New Jersey.

03:50 25 A. Yes, there was. There was a cease and desist issue. Yes.

1 Q. And did you ever tell Michael Furman that the New Jersey
2 regulators that issued the cease and desist order had come back
3 and decided that Par Funding was doing things right or that the 4 New Jersey regulators loved the Par Funding investment?

03:50 5 MR. HYMAN: Compound, hearsay.

6 THE COURT: Overruled.

7 A. I don't -- I don't know if I would have used that language.
8 I would have perhaps just stayed with, the issue has been 9 resolved through additional filings by Martin Hewitt, who was 03:50 10 hired to resolve the issue, and that there were no fines and we 11 were able to proceed doing business in the State of New Jersey.

12 BY MS. BERLIN:

13 Q. So you didn't tell him that the State of New Jersey loved
14 the investment or decided that the investment was being done
03:50 15 correctly. If I understand correctly, you told him that a
16 cease and desist order had been entered and that Par Funding
17 had resolved it and it was proceeding; is that correct?

18 MR. HYMAN: Objection, leading, asked and answered.

19 MS. BERLIN: I'll withdraw it. I'm withdrawing it.

03:51 20 THE COURT: I've given you plenty of leeway, but you
21 need to start asking questions in a direct examination.

22 MS. BERLIN: I'm withdrawing it.

23 THE COURT: Yeah, let's withdraw it.

24 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

03:51 25 THE COURT: But please, I've given you some leeway, we

1 need to ask these questions in a non-blatantly leading fashion.

2 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely.

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. Did you help Michael Furman create -- did you or 03:51 5 Par Funding help Michael Furman create his agent fund?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. How so?

8 A. I helped subsidize the initial payment with his attorney.
9 I don't recall the exact amount, but I did participate in 03:51 10 helping that get formed, yes.

11 Q. So you paid -- when you say subsidized, do you mean you
12 paid part of his --

13 A. I would have paid a portion of it. I don't know what the 14 exact was. $7,500, $8,000, something like that.

03:52 15 Q. And was that to an attorney named Erik Weingold?

16 A. Yes, it was. I believe that's correct.

17 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to show the witness
18 a document that we've premarked as P 5.

19 THE COURT: Sure, you may approach.

20 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

21 (Thereupon, the exhibit was marked for identification.)

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. Does the document P 5, that we've marked as P 5, does this 24 look familiar? Have you seen it before?

03:53 25 A. I don't believe I've seen it in this order, Ms. Berlin.

1 Q. Well, I think on the front page it has a certification from
2 a state government; do you see that?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, actually I'd like to just 03:53 5 admit this and display it as a government record.

6 THE COURT: Any objection?

7 MR. HYMAN: I mean --

8 THE COURT: What's the number again?

9 MS. BERLIN: It's P 5. There's a government
03:53 10 certification from the State of New Jersey on the top.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 Any objection?

13 MR. HYMAN: None at this time, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. That will be admitted at this 03:53 15 time. We'll admit P 5. It can be published.

16 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

17 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. So, Mr. Abbonizio, we're showing you Exhibit P 5. And do
03:54 20 you see, if you turn to page 2, it's a cease and a summary
21 cease and desist order issued by the State of New Jersey,
22 Bureau of Securities. Do you see that?

23 A. Yes, I do.

24 Q. And is this the order that you were referencing in your 03:54 25 testimony a bit ago?

1 A. Yes, I believe it is.

2 Q. And under findings of fact, it should be the second page of 3 your exhibit but the first page of the order, do you see
4 paragraph 1?

03:54 5 A. Uh-huh. (Nodding.)

6 Q. Where it reads that CBSG, which is also Par Funding, right?

7 A. Uh-huh. (Nodding.) That's correct, yes.

8 MR. HYMAN: And leading, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

03:55 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. I'm just going to read from the document Mr. Abbonizio. So
12 do you see at paragraph 1, where it states: CBSG, a purported
13 small business funding company, sold and continues to offer to 14 sell unregistered securities? Do you see that?

03:55 15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. And then if you could just turn to page 3 of the order,
17 which is page 4 of the exhibit labeled P 5.

18 Do you see where it says "Conclusions of Law"?

19 A. I'm sorry. What page are you on, Ms. Berlin? Please
03:55 20 forgive me.

21 Q. Of course. It's page 3. It has a 3 at the bottom of the 22 order. Because there's an extra page added to this exhibit on 23 top, it's like the fourth page of the exhibit. You can also 24 look on your screen if that's easier.

03:56 25 A. No, this is fine. I'm fine here. Page 3, Conclusions of

1 Law.

2 Q. Yes. And so do you see there that in the Conclusions of
3 Law, that this is an order concerning the unregistered
4 securities of Par Funding?

03:56 5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. And if you just continue onto the next page, do you see the 7 order was entered December 27th, 2018?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. And in paragraph 21, the CBSG is ordered to cease and 03:56 10 desist from offering for sale any security in New Jersey until 11 it's registered?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. And it continues from there?

14 MR. HYMAN: Leading, Your Honor, all of these
03:56 15 questions.

16 THE COURT: Overruled.

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. Do you see paragraph 21(b), where it says Par Funding is 19 ordered to cease and desist from acting as agents in New Jersey
03:56 20 until they're registered?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. And then you see paragraph 21(c). It says they're ordered
23 to cease and desist from violating any provisions of the 24 securities laws and any rules in this -- in the sale of 03:57 25 securities in New Jersey?

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. You can set it aside.

3 A. Okay.

4 Q. So I just wanted to make sure I understood correctly. So
03:57 5 when you testified earlier about the Par -- the New Jersey
6 order, P 5 is what you were referring to?

7 A. I believe that's correct.

8 Q. And am I understanding correctly that because this order
9 directed Par Funding to cease and desist from doing certain
03:57 10 things in New Jersey, that -- did you -- I mean, you tell me.
11 Did you tell Mr. Furman that -- or was it your understanding
12 that Par Funding had stopped doing this in New Jersey? Can you
13 explain --

14 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound, Your Honor.

03:57 15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 Let's go ahead. And yeah, that's fine.

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. Can you explain what you meant?

19 THE COURT: Go ahead. You may answer.

03:57 20 A. Based on the time of this filing, which I believe was at 21 the end of December, and things happened in a very succinct
22 manner, I believe, at the advice of counsel, first and foremost
23 at Par, I didn't day one tell anyone anything. We were working 24 through it. They engaged Martin Hewitt. Martin Hewitt was 03:58 25 going to attempt to resolve the issue, and it was my

1 understanding during short duration, the issue was resolved.

2 And that it was at that time, generally speaking, when I would
3 have shared with Michael Furman or any other agent exactly how 4 it was resolved.

03:58 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. Okay. And did you ever attend any of the sales events that 7 Mr. Furman held?

8 A. Yes, I did.

9 Q. And during those sales of events, what was your role? How 03:59 10 did you come about attending those?

11 A. Well, they were generally like others, oriented to a number
12 of topics. Merchant cash would have been one. And I'd rather 13 call them marketing-oriented as opposed to sales. It was 14 education-based. Michael was proficient with that. And he 03:59 15 would talk on a -- probably four or five different product were 16 disciplines of investing. Merchant cash would have been one.

17 Q. Okay. So at these events, Michael Furman would discuss,
18 among other things, the Par Funding investment; is that
19 correct?

03:59 20 A. Yes. Yes, he would.

21 Q. And he would invite -- who would invite the people to these 22 events that he would host? Were you the person inviting them
23 or was Mr. Furman?

24 A. No, it was all handled by Michael's firm. They were his 03:59 25 clients, prospects, and his firm made all the arrangements.

1 Q. And did you ever meet one on one with any of Mr. Furman's
2 clients? By "clients," I mean someone he had solicited about
3 someone who had invested in Par Funding. Did you ever also 4 meet with that person yourself?

04:00 5 A. Yes.

6 MR. HYMAN: Compound, Your Honor, leading.

7 THE COURT: Overruled. You may continue.

8 A. Yes, I would. Frequently I would come in a day-and-a-half
9 or so and afford some time pre or post the event to do exactly
04:00 10 that. And Michael was very diligent and always was able to 11 schedule a few appointments that he and I could -- I could have 12 an opportunity to expound on what I had said the night before
13 or what I was -- you know, give someone a prelude as to what I
14 was going to say later that evening, depending on when they 04:01 15 came in.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. And with agent fund managers, because in addition to 18 Mr. Furman, you worked with others around the country; is that
19 correct?

04:01 20 A. That's correct, yes.

21 Q. And with Mr. Furman, in particular, who was making -- were 22 you responsible or did you have any division with him of who 23 was responsible for telling his investors about the risk of the 24 investment or the issues with the investment? Whose 04:01 25 responsibility was that?

1 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 A. Generally the intent of these events were to -- if you
4 likened it to dining out, they were the appetizer. They were 04:01 5 there to pique one's interest and to entice them to order an
6 entree, at which time Michael and his team could spend more
7 time on the area of focus. And it would be at that time that
8 Michael -- not I -- I gave a very high level 15-minute overview
9 of the nature of merchant cash, an orientation to our company,
04:02 10 what we did, how we perhaps differentiated ourselves, but then 11 Michael, which he was very proficient at, would spend a 12 considerable one-on-one time with the individual should they 13 have desired a more in-depth overview.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:02 15 Q. Okay. Did you ever get an understanding -- and I'm almost 16 finished, by the way. Just a couple more questions.

17 Did you ever gain any understanding of how important,
18 if at all, underwriting these loans would be for the success of 19 the merchant cash advance loans and therefore, like, the 04:03 20 generation of profits for investors?

21 A. Well, yes. You obviously read through my deposition if you
22 remembered the triangle, and the foundational building block
23 for my representation with investors was that underwriting was 24 the foundational building block. And I stressed that if we as 04:03 25 a company didn't do a proficient job, Par Funding, of taking

1 investor capital and placing it in the hands of merchants that
2 would abide by the terms of the agreement they have with
3 Par Funding, if enough of them didn't honor those, the company
4 wouldn't be profitable. And it could get to the point where it
04:03 5 would impede the ability to pay back investors their capital.
6 Luckily, that never occurred. In eight years we had an
7 exemplary track record. So yes, underwriting was critical,
8 Ms. Berlin.

9 Q. And what about the onsite inspections, was that -- that was 04:04 10 something that --

11 A. It was one component of underwriting. And yes, it was a 12 very valuable component in that.

13 Q. And what would happen -- would investors be impacted if the 14 merchant cash advance loans had not been successful or if there
04:04 15 were issues with the underwriting? Like, would that impact 16 what the profits were of the company and therefore, what the 17 investment returns were?

18 MR. HYMAN: Object to form, speculation.

19 THE COURT: Overruled.

04:04 20 A. Again, it's very general, the nature of your question. And 21 again, if enough of them didn't honor their obligations, it
22 could be troublesome, Ms. Berlin, if enough of them. You're 23 asking a very general question. I'm trying to make it 24 specific.

04:05 25 We were in business to do it proper and thorough

1 underwrite to protect investor capital and grow our business.

2 I want to answer it that way. I don't want to be evasive with
3 you. It's just so general that --

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:05 5 Q. Yes. And do you remember -- would you tell them -- you
6 know, did you believe that it was important to -- let me ask
7 you a different way, Mr. Abbonizio.

8 Investor returns were supposed to be generated from 9 the loans. I think we have established that, right?

04:05 10 A. Well, the returns were fixed and they helped prosper the 11 company.

12 Q. And that was the only business of Par Funding, was the 13 merchant cash advance loans?

14 A. That's correct.

04:05 15 Q. So if the merchant cash loans are not successful, then
16 business is not successful. Fair to say?

17 A. Fair to say. Very fair to say.

18 Q. All right. And then finally, I just wanted to go back very 19 briefly to the New Jersey order.

04:06 20 A. Okay.

21 Q. So I was just trying to understand this a little better.

22 Was it your understanding that the order was still in 23 effect but that Par Funding had figured out a way to still 24 operate in New Jersey that complied with the cease and desist

04:06 25 order?

1 A. Keyword that you just mentioned, comply. It was my
2 understanding that through Martin Hewitt, the law firm's
3 efforts, in providing an additional registration or filing, we
4 had met the requirements of the State of New Jersey which 04:07 5 allowed us to continue in compliance operating within that 6 state.

7 Q. Okay. I think. So it sounds like yes?

8 A. Yes. Yes.

9 Q. Just wanted to make sure. Now I understand.

04:07 10 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much. I don't have any 11 further -- let me -- just one moment. Let me check with my 12 colleague.

13 I don't have any further questions. Thank you so
14 much.

04:07 15 THE WITNESS: Thank you. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

17

18 CROSS EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. HYMAN:

04:07 20 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Abbonizio.

21 A. Good afternoon to you.

22 Q. How was your flight down from Pennsylvania?

23 A. It's been a long couple of days. I've been dressed since
24 7 o'clock this morning, just waiting to talk with you.

04:07 25 Q. That's exciting, I guess. That makes one of us.

1 So earlier you testified about how Mr. Furman was paid
2 by Par Funding. Do you recall that testimony?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. Did Par Funding ever pay Mr. Furman a check?

04:08 5 A. No.

6 Q. Did it ever wire Mr. Furman any money?

7 A. No. It would have at that time gone through Mr. Vagnozzi's
8 firm, A Better Financial Plan, I believe, and better financial 9 plan would have paid Michael Furman.

04:08 10 Q. Do you know what A Better Financial Plan actually was 11 paying towards Mr. Furman? You don't, do you?

12 A. Are you asking me or telling me?

13 Q. Sorry. Let me rephrase.

14 A. That's okay.

04:08 15 Q. Isn't it true that you don't know what or whether A Better
16 Financial Plan was paying Mr. Furman, isn't it?

17 A. That's a good way to ask that because generally speaking, I
18 didn't get that granular. I know that we had limits on what we 19 paid the managers, if you will. But I couldn't get descriptive

04:08 20 invoice for invoice how much Mr. Furman was making no, I
21 couldn't.

22 Q. So you have no idea, sitting here today, as to whether or 23 not Par Funding was actually paying Mr. Furman for finding 24 investors; is that correct?

04:09 25 A. No. I would hasten to say that -- I don't have it in my

1 presence -- A Better Financial Plan had very good accounting
2 and I believe -- and I more than believe -- Mr. Furman was 3 working from 2018 in April to January or so of 2020, a year and
4 a half or longer, under that structure with A Better Financial 04:09 5 Plan.

6 And if for some reason he didn't get the compensation
7 he deserved, I most surely would have heard about it, sir. So
8 I'm not saying I did or I didn't, but I would err to think that
9 Mr. Furman was routinely getting paid through A Better
04:09 10 Financial Plan from Par Funding.

11 Q. Well, let's be a little more clear about the relationship.

12 Do you know what the relationship was between A Better
13 Financial Plan and Fidelis?

14 A. I had a general understanding. Again, within arm's reach,
04:10 15 yes, I do.

16 Q. And it's true that A Fetter Financial Plan was handling
17 kind of the back office mainly for Fidelis, correct?

18 A. Yes, that's correct.

19 Q. And so in terms of the payments, do you know what the 04:10 20 nature of these payments were? Was it just a return on 21 interest or --

22 A. Well, he got paid over -- I believe Mr. Vagnozzi's firm was 23 paid a small percentage and over a 12-month period, the agent
24 would get one-twelfth of their commission, if you will, paid
04:10 25 monthly, I believe.

1 Q. You call it a commission, but do you know why -- why do you
2 rephrase it as a commission, Mr. Abbonizio?

3 A. Well, it wasn't so much a commission, that's a good point.
4 The money was paid to Vagnozzi as a net, A Better Financial 04:11 5 Plan, and Vagnozzi's portion was designated and the remaining
6 portion didn't go to investors and we didn't dictate generally
7 what Mr. Furman or any other agent would give to investors,
8 that was their business. But whatever was left from that net,
9 I presume went to Mr. Furman.

04:11 10 Q. And that was part of also his management of Fidelis; is 11 that correct?

12 A. Yes, I believe so. Yes. It went to the Fidelis fund,
13 correct.

14 Q. You also testified -- are you familiar with the term
04:11 15 "retained earnings"?

16 A. Yes, I am.

17 Q. Did you tell investors that you had substantial retained
18 earnings in Par Funding?

19 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor, outside of the
04:11 20 scope.

21 THE COURT: Overruled. I'll allow it.

22 Go ahead.

23 A. I probably -- in my tenure, yes, I did speak of retained
24 earnings, yes.

04:12 25 BY MR. HYMAN:

1 Q. What are retained earnings, Mr. Abbonizio?

2 A. Again, I'm not an accountant, sir, but the way it explained
3 to me, it's looking at your accounts receivable, adding your 4 cash to that, taking that figure and subtracting your credit or 04:12 5 liabilities, which in our case were upwards of 4 hundred
6 million, 365 to 4 hundred million. And generally speaking,
7 those retained earnings were in a 50 to 100 million category.

8 Q. And those were your retained earnings, correct?

9 A. They were the company owner's. I was not an owner of the 04:12 10 company, sir.

11 Q. And you told investors that the owners had this retained
12 earnings in the company; is that correct?

13 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor. We're veering
14 outside of the scope.

04:12 15 THE COURT: Overruled. I'll give him a little bit of 16 bandwidth.

17 Go ahead.

18 A. Yes. Typically I would state that we did have retained
19 earnings. And the significance of those was that from an 04:12 20 investor's perspective I would stress that it was paramount
21 that we did a very good job underwriting and protecting their
22 money. Because in the event that we didn't, we -- Par Funding,
23 rather, the owners, would lose -- have to lose their retained
24 earnings before investors ever lost their money. And I
04:13 25 undoubtedly, sir, would have put it in the context that working

1 16 hours a day, they had no interest in relinquishing that
2 Delta, the retained earnings that they had or grown. So that's
3 how I would present it.

4 BY MR. HYMAN:

04:13 5 Q. And that could be construed as putting your own money into 6 the business, too, couldn't it?

7 A. Or keeping it there.

8 Q. Yeah.

9 A. Keep keeping it there, yes. Yes.

04:13 10 Q. Earlier you testified about flying down to Florida with 11 respect to a series of investor meetings. Do you recall that 12 testimony, sir?

13 A. Yes, I did.

04:14 14 Q. And with respect to your flights down to Florida, did you
15 bring materials with respect to Par Funding there?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. And would these materials comprise of PowerPoint
18 presentations or slide deck for a PowerPoint?

04:14 19 A. Anyone that knows me, sir, I'm not technologically
20 oriented, so typically Michael would have the slides and I
21 would bring the -- counselor, should I proceed or no?

22 Q. Please continue.

23 A. Not at all.

04:14 24 Typically I would bring marketing brochures, which was 25 my bandwidth, and anything technology oriented, Michael would

1 facilitate that on his own.

2 Q. And did your daughter send slides?

3 A. Yes, my daughter. Thank you for mentioning her, yes.

4 Q. So I'm handing you, I believe it was previously marked as

04:15 5 an exhibit --

6 I apologize, Your Honor, may I approach?

7 THE COURT: You may.

8 BY MR. HYMAN:

9 Q. And handing you what I believe was marked as an exhibit --

04:15 10 MS. BERLIN: For the record, it's 578.

11 THE COURT: 578.

12 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

13 BY MR. HYMAN:

14 Q. -- what's been marked as Exhibit 578.

04:15 15 A. Uh-huh. (Nodding).

16 Q. Did Mr. Furman have any involvement with the preparation of
17 that?

18 A. No, he did not.

19 Q. And was that prepared by your office at Par Funding?

04:15 20 A. The materials are Par Funding. Did his staff help collate 21 them, possibly, but he certainly didn't create the brochure, if
22 that's what you're asking.

23 Q. And who was involved in the creation of that brochure, sir?

24 A. It actually predated my tenure with the company. I joined 04:16 25 in 2016 and the foundation of it was already in place at that

1 time. And typically it would be updated on an annual,
2 semiannual basis to reflect more current data.

3 Q. And did Mr. Furman's office print that brochure?

4 A. No, they did not.

04:16 5 Q. Your office did?

6 A. No. My office did not either. A print shop near my 7 office.

8 Q. Print shop but it was at your office's direction, correct?

9 A. That's correct.

04:16 10 Q. And this is a sample of a brochure that you would have 11 brought down to Florida?

12 A. Yes, it is, sir.

13 Q. So there's a page in it that references insurance.

14 A. Yes, indeed.

04:16 15 Q. Were you authorized by Par Funding to put that in there?

16 A. Well, I didn't put it in there. So when you say was I
17 authorized --

18 Q. Did management at Par Funding know that that language was 19 placed in the brochure?

04:16 20 A. Well, it came -- the way these brochures would typically --
21 the short answer is, yes. It's a Par Funding brochure
22 reflective of the management. The longer answer is, department
23 by department edits the material and updates what is 24 appropriate. So it's tough for me to ascertain who exactly
04:17 25 authorized that to be included, but continue with your thought.

1 I don't see it as we're speaking what you're referencing, but
2 perhaps I will.

3 Q. Well --

4 A. Yes, I do. I see it. Go ahead, sir.

04:17 5 Q. Did you review that with anybody within the Par Funding
6 underwriting department?

7 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor. We're really
8 outside of the scope, and he's not a defendant in the case.

9 THE COURT: Understood, but I'll allow it. Overruled.

04:17 10 A. Admittedly, yes, I had some general discussion with some 11 and --

12 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, it's hearsay. I'm sorry.
13 Objection to hearsay.

14 THE COURT: We'll move on. That's going to be
04:18 15 sustained.

16 A. Your question again, sir? Did I review --

17 THE COURT: It's all right. Let him get another 18 question, Mr. Abbonizio. I'm going to sustain that.

19 Go ahead.

04:18 20 BY MR. HYMAN:

21 Q. Did you review that with management prior to its being
22 printed as part of the brochure?

23 A. I would say, no, I didn't. Not to the best of my 24 knowledge, no.

04:18 25 Q. And at the time did you know whether or not there was, in

1 fact, insurance?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 Q. And was there insurance?

4 A. It was real estate, yes.

04:18 5 Q. And the reference to insurance there, what does that mean?

6 A. That Par Funding had placed insurance on riskier advances.

7 We took out a policy 75 to 100 million to insure riskier from

8 an underwriting perspective advances. The merchants weren't

9 aware that they were being insured. It was simply to add

04:19 10 additional protection, much like utilizing collateral real

11 estate would in securing an advance.

12 Q. And going through that brochure, did you disclose anywhere

13 in there the New Jersey regulatory actions?

14 A. No, I did not.

04:19 15 Q. Why not?

16 A. Legal never authorized it and I just -- we never included

17 it.

18 Q. So by legal never authorized it, what do you mean by that,

19 Mr. Abbonizio?

04:19 20 A. Well, generally speaking, as this went to department heads,

21 they would update and provide the data that they thought was

22 respectful and appropriate, and wasn't there, and no one gave

23 it to me to put in.

24 Q. Did you ask for authorization to put it in?

04:20 25 A. I can't opine on that. I don't recall.

1 Q. And within there, there is also language touting the
2 expertise and -- so you added the insurance part to it into the
3 slide deck without authorization from management. Why didn't
4 you add the disclosure about New Jersey?

04:20 5 A. Don't have an appropriate answer for that.

6 Q. And did you disclose any information about Mr. LaForte's
7 criminal background?

8 A. No, I did not. Absolutely not. And I did that solely on 9 legal determination from internal legal. That I did check with 04:20 10 long before New Jersey and it wasn't deemed appropriate for me 11 to have to do that.

12 Q. Why is that?

13 A. Because Mr. LaForte is not an owner or an employee of
14 Par Funding.

04:20 15 Q. Okay. So he's not an owner or an employee of Par Funding.
16 And, in fact, he didn't have any control over the management of 17 Par Funding, did he?

18 A. He was not the president, and not an employee of 19 Par Funding. He ran sales for recruiting and marketing
04:21 20 resources.

21 Q. You testified earlier about the orientation, as you called
22 it --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- with Dean Vagnozzi. Was that, in fact, an orientation
04:21 25 or was it an educational seminar?

1 A. I guess it's semantics. Orientation, education, I'll take
2 either word.

3 Q. Okay. So with respect to the programming, do you know if
4 other investments were offered or advertised at that event?

04:21 5 A. Well, they were certainly offered, yes, as I said earlier.
6 Several of the products that he would have marketed were
7 offered and -- were, you know, he educated people. Good word.

8 Q. So it was an educational program, not a recruitment
9 training seminar, correct?

04:22 10 A. Well, yes. But let's be clear. People travel from far
11 distances, as evident by Mr. Furman. His hope, Mr. Vagnozzi,
12 would be that people would travel, like the turnkey model that 13 he was trying to put together, certain aspects of it, and would 14 utilize or want to utilize some of the products and services
04:22 15 that he was offering.

16 Q. And with respect to the turnkey model you just referenced,
17 did that involve using a particular lawyer, Mr. Pauciulo?

18 A. Yes, it did.

19 Q. Do you know whether or not Mr. Furman used Mr. Pauciulo?

04:22 20 A. I don't believe Mr. Furman did.

21 Q. In fact, he used Mr. Weingold, correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we're going way outside the 24 scope. He's not on their witness list.

04:23 25 THE COURT: That's all right. Let's move on.

1 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, actually we did list all
2 defendants in this action. He also testified that he paid --

3 THE COURT: We're not having argument right now. I
4 just said, let's move on from this arena, please.

04:23 5 MR. HYMAN: Okay.

6 BY MR. HYMAN:

7 Q. And did you have other discussions with Mr. Weingold?

8 A. Regarding, sir?

9 Q. You testified earlier that you paid for part of 04:23 10 Mr. Furman's attorneys' fees. Do you recall the testimony?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. And do you recall having discussions with that attorney
13 before?

14 A. Before?

04:23 15 Q. Or just about Mr. Furman?

16 A. Not about Mr. Furman. My discussions with Mr. Weingold
17 would be very concise and to the point generally. I met
18 Mr. Weingold in and around the time that Michael Furman
19 established his PPM in the spring of 2018. So I would haven't
04:23 20 talked about Michael Furman before Michael Furman and I talked 21 to him.

22 Q. And with respect to discussions, do you recall Mr. Furman
23 asking you in a -- via text message in May of 2020 to have a
24 call with Mr. Weingold because disclosures he felt were not 04:24 25 sufficient with respect to certain documents?

1 MS. BERLIN: Objection, hearsay.

2 THE COURT: Sustained.

3 BY MR. HYMAN:

4 Q. Do you recall offering to call Mr. Weingold on Mr. Furman's
04:24 5 behalf in 2020?

6 A. Forgive me. That was a tumultuous time, but certainly it's 7 not unreasonable to think that I wouldn't have helped Michael 8 in any way that I could have.

9 Q. Okay. And I'm just going to show you this document to 04:24 10 refresh your recollection.

11 MS. BERLIN: I'm sorry, that's not proper refreshing,
12 and we'd like to see whatever was just handed.

13 THE COURT: First, it needs to be shown to the 14 plaintiff anyway.

04:25 15 MS. BERLIN: I think you're supposed to ask.

16 BY MR. HYMAN:

17 Q. So do you recall having an offering in 2020 --

18 MS. BERLIN: Just a moment, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Let's go ahead. Why don't we first take 04:25 20 that back and ask a question before we --

21 MS. BERLIN: This is not. We would need a sidebar.

22 THE COURT: Oh, it's a text message?

23 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Yeah, let's first -- why don't we first 04:25 25 ask a question before we even approach with anything that the

1 Court is has not seen and it looks like it might not be --

2 MR. HYMAN: I apologize.

3 THE WITNESS: It's okay.

4 BY MR. HYMAN:

04:25 5 Q. Do you recall offering or agreeing to call Mr. Weingold on 6 Mr. Furman's behalf?

7 A. I believe I just answered that. I would have -- I surely
8 would have done anything I could have to help Michael or any 9 other agent in regards to the formation of especially amended
04:25 10 notes. That was a very volatile time for -- in this country
11 and within the company and for the investors.

12 Q. And going back again to -- and do you recall whether or not 13 there was a need or what Mr. -- strike that question. I'll 14 move on for a minute.

04:26 15 As it relates to Mr. LaForte, do you know when he was 16 convicted of a crime, what year?

17 A. I believe there were two periods, 2007 and 2009.

18 Q. And do you recall having a discussion with Mr. Furman about 19 that situation?

04:26 20 A. I recall at a certain period having that discussion with 21 Mr. Furman and many of his counterparts, yes.

22 Q. And do you recall what you said to them?

23 A. Various iterations, but yes, I do.

24 Q. And what was that?

04:26 25 A. That Mr. LaForte had an occurrence in 2007, 2009, he had

1 paid his debts to society, and he's moving on. And we're
2 moving on. And I'm here and obliging that I've looked at the
3 company, every segment of the company, and it's not a
4 one-person company. It's a 70-employee company that works 70
04:27 5 hours a week, week in, week out, and trust in the execution of 6 the company. That's what I did.

7 Q. So it was a great company, wasn't it, Par Funding that is?

8 A. Yes, it was.

9 Q. And with respect to the defaults or the default rate, do
04:27 10 you recall preparing or distributing the brochures that touted
11 the default rate?

12 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor. No questions were 13 asked about this.

14 THE COURT: No. Overruled. Overruled. I'll allow
04:28 15 it.

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 BY MR. HYMAN:

18 Q. And do you know what the default rate is defined as within 19 those presentations or the context of what is being referenced
04:28 20 by the term "default rate"?

21 A. Yes. I hope I do, sir, yes.

22 Q. And what is being referred to as the default rate within 23 the context of the brochure that you're looking at?

24 A. It's a cash-over-cash default rate, meaning it provides a
04:28 25 measure of the cash that we put into merchants' hands. Of

1 that, how much do we lose over a certain period. And through
2 an eight-year period, our metrics shows that we have a 1.2
3 percent default rate. Cash over cash.

04:29 4 Q. And was using the number of lawsuits filed an effective way
5 to calculate the "default rate"?

6 A. No, it is not.

7 Q. Why is that?

8 A. Because lawsuits --

04:29 9 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor. We didn't get 10 into accounting or any of this on direct.

11 THE COURT: Understood. But I'm going to allow a
12 little bit of leeway here. Overruled.

13 MS. BERLIN: Okay.

04:29 14 A. Lawsuits are relevant to what is known as a right to 15 return. They don't define "default rate." Truly, default rate
16 is taking your factoring losses into the amount that we -- that 17 Par Funding put in the hands of merchants. So just to do some 18 simple math, 1.2 billion in eight years was put into 17
19 thousand transactions, if you will, and 14 million of that was 04:29 20 unrecovered. That's 1.2. That's actual cash that was not 21 recovered. That's a 1.2 cash rate, default rate.

22 BY MR. HYMAN:

23 Q. And with respect to Mr. Furman and Fidelis, did Par Funding
24 have any ability to control what he was doing?

04:30 25 A. I'm not sure I understand your question. Did we control

1 Mr. Furman? No, not in any way, shape, or form.

2 Q. He was completely independent of Par Funding?

3 A. Yes, he was.

4 Q. And was his funds simply an investor in Par Funding?

04:30 5 A. Yes, it was.

6 Q. And do you recall a time when Mr. Furman split with

7 A Better Financial Plan?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. And do you recall whether or not there was any issue or

04:30 10 problem with him doing so on the account of Par Funding?

11 A. No. I supported Michael and Par supported whatever had --

12 Michael and Mr. Vagnozzi had worked out, we supported it.

13 Q. It's because you guys didn't really have any involvement
14 with what these subfunds were doing, isn't it?

04:31 15 A. Well, that's a very general question you're asking. Did we 16 have any control? No, nor did we want it. The whole intent of 17 having agents like Mr. Furman set up their own individual PPMs, 18 private placements, is that they could have autonomy from 19 Par Funding, so yes.

04:31 20 Q. And it wasn't all one in the same. It wasn't all part and 21 parcel, correct?

22 A. Absolutely not.

23 MR. HYMAN: Let me pause for one moment. No further
24 questions, Your Honor.

04:32 25 THE COURT: Redirect?

1 MS. BERLIN: Thanks.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:32 5 Q. On cross-examination you were asked about a BFP. Do you
6 remember that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Do you know a company ABFP Management?

9 A. I hope I do, yes.

04:32 10 Q. Okay.

11 A. I hope I won't disappoint.

12 Q. Can you speak a little bit louder into the microphone?
13 Because I'm having a hard time hearing you.

14 A. No, that's okay.

04:32 15 Q. Thank you so much.

16 And ABFP was Vagnozzi's company?

17 A. That's correct, A Better Financial Plan.

18 Q. Great. And did ABFP, was one of its roles within the 19 offering that it managed many of the agent funds and like the 04:33 20 movement of money between those funds and Par Funding?

21 A. So let me be fair to your question. Was it his role? No.
22 His role specifically to himself, not us, was to raise money
23 for his company. We were one instrument.

24 Q. I understand. So let me ask it a different way.

04:33 25 ABFP Management or ABFP, you testified about work that

1 they did with Mr. Furman's company. I'm just trying to ask,
2 was ABFP a company that had managed -- that had management
3 agreements --

4 A. Oh, yes.

04:33 5 Q. -- with many of these agent funds?

6 A. Yes, they did. Indeed they did, yes.

7 Q. And then you were asked also on cross-examination about the 8 money movement between Fidelis and ABFP. Do you recall that?

9 A. Yes, I do.

04:33 10 Q. And I wonder if I can show you what's already been admitted
11 as P 205.

12 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, may I approach the witness
13 with a hard copy? It's a little easier.

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

04:34 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. So I'm showing you what's already been admitted into 17 evidence as an ABFP document --

18 A. Uh-huh. (Nodding).

19 Q. -- showing the Fidelis notes that were purchased from 04:34 20 Par Funding. So if you look here, do you see that June 10th, 21 2018 note?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. Actually, let's look down a little further.

24 Do you see the October 25th, 2018 note near the bottom
04:34 25 of page 1?

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. And you see these three names: DeLucco, Khoury and
3 Pancoast?

4 A. Yes.

04:35 5 Q. So you were asked on cross-examination about Mr. Furman and 6 his company and buying things through Par Funding.

7 Does this chart reflect that -- is it your
8 understanding that the way the agent funds work is they raise 9 and gather investor money, bundle it, and then send it up to 04:35 10 Par Funding in exchange for a promissory note?

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. So when we look at this chart and we see where it says
13 October 25th, 2018 at the bottom, you see that?

14 A. Yes.

04:35 15 Q. And there are three investors above it, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And so it looks like DeLucco contributes 50 grand, Khoury
18 contributes $100,000, and Pancoast contributes $50,000.

19 Do you see that?

04:35 20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. And so Mr. Furman would raise that money, collect it,
22 bundle it, and then send it to Par Funding for a $200,000 note
23 on October 25th, 2018?

24 A. That is correct.

04:36 25 Q. And then when we look down across, just to understand how

1 ABFP functions in this, do you see where it says Monthly? It
2 might be easier with the hard copy. If you look at a little
3 more than halfway across the page, there's a title that says
4 Monthly?

04:36 5 A. Yes, I do. I see it.

6 Q. Okay.

7 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor --

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 MR. HYMAN: -- may we have a very brief sidebar?

04:36 10 THE COURT: No. Move on.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Do you see where it says CBSG payment, $3,333? It's in 13 light blue box under Monthly.

14 A. Yes, I do.

04:36 15 Q. And then do you see that in the three columns to the right,
16 it showing how that amount is broken down?

17 A. Revenue after investor payment, correct?

18 Q. Yes. Do you see he that?

19 A. Yes, I do.

04:37 20 Q. So we see that the $3,333 coming back from CBSG on the 21 October 25th note, that about $1,583 goes to the investor.

22 Do you see that?

23 A. Yes, I do.

04:37 24 Q. So that would go to those three investors we saw: DeLucco,
25 Khoury, and Pancoast?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. That's how it was supposed to be operating?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And the revenue after investor payment of a little more
04:37 5 than that, $1,750. Do you see he that?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. That would be the compensation for Mr. Furman and his 8 company, Fidelis?

9 A. I presume so, yes.

04:37 10 Q. But that's how this was supposed to be operating?

11 A. Again, I did not get granular or intimately involved with 12 bookkeeping at A Better Financial Plan, but I can see from the 13 form, as I said earlier to the gentlemen, that there had to be
14 some orchestration of it, because I know the accounting
04:37 15 department at ABFP was very formalized and I'm seeing that 16 here.

17 Q. Yeah. So what would happen is, Par Funding -- Mr. Furman
18 would send up a certain amount of money and Par Funding would 19 issue a promissory note to him in exchange for the investor
04:38 20 money of 20 percent; is that correct?

21 A. Seems -- yes, that's correct.

22 Q. And then Mr. Furman would use some of those proceeds to pay
23 the investors whose money he had sent up to Par Funding and he 24 would take the remainder for himself and ABFP, correct?

04:38 25 A. That sounds viable, yes, it does.

1 Q. Yes. And do you see under monthly where it says: Revenue
2 after investor payment, and we see the 1,750?

3 A. Yes, I do.

04:38 4 Q. And then to the right we see ABFP Management fee, do you
5 see that?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. And that's showing the $437.50 that was going to ABFP when 8 it sort of functioned in this management role to help your 9 agent funds with their administrative paperwork and other
04:39 10 things; is that right?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Okay. And so basically at Par Funding, Fidelis, ABFP,
13 they're all sort of working together in this offering,
14 everybody has a little bit of a different job in the overall
04:39 15 structure; would you agree with me?

16 A. With a few caveats. We're working together insofar as 17 there's a hierarchy of what you've just displayed. Key point
18 is, everybody is only doing what's in their best self interest.
19 I need to be responsible and clear on the part of Par Funding.
04:39 20 We're not orchestrating --

21 Q. Well, we're not asking -- let me show you, we're not asking
22 about Par Funding and we don't want to go into Par Funding.

23 My question was more general. It was, do you agree
24 with me that Par Funding works with Fidelis and Michael Furman
04:39 25 and ABFP --

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. -- and not getting into the granular detail of what these
3 entities do that are not parties to this case?

4 A. Yes, we had a relationship. Yes, we did.

04:40 5 Q. Okay. And you didn't have any involvement in preparing any 6 of the Par Funding promissory notes or the documents, correct?

7 A. No, I did not.

8 Q. Okay. And so when you were testifying earlier about, like,
9 brochures and marketing pieces and other things that existed
04:40 10 before you came on and testified at other times, you did not 11 draft those, right?

12 A. No, I did not.

13 Q. Okay. So were you -- like, to the extent you testified
14 about what was and wasn't in there, were you sort of 04:40 15 speculating about what the drafter of those documents was doing
16 when they wrote it?

17 A. Well, no. Specifically I was indicating that I didn't 18 write it.

19 Q. Oh, okay. I just wanted to make sure because I thought I
04:40 20 heard you explaining why certainly things --

21 A. Well, of course, I tried to explain, as I do on all the 22 pages, what someone else has provided me with. But I didn't 23 write it myself.

24 Q. You did not write it. Okay.

04:41 25 Now, you testified on cross-examination that you spoke

1 with Mr. Furman about some of these issues about the New Jersey
2 case and about Mr. LaForte's criminal record. Do you remember
3 testifying about that generally?

4 A. Yes.

04:41 5 Q. And in sort of discussing these things with him and letting 6 him know about them, did you understand that he might then be 7 telling his own investors, just as you were sharing it with
8 him?

9 A. Well, yes. That's ordinarily -- that was the whole point
04:41 10 of the agent funds. They were their clientele and it was for 11 them to educate, make them a customer if they were a prospect
12 and comply with telling them whatever they had to tell them.
13 Yes.

14 Q. And just a couple more things.

04:41 15 A. Sure.

16 Q. Sorry.

17 A. No, not at all.

18 Q. And that insurance, at a certain point in time do you
19 recall that you were advised at Par Funding to sort of not be 04:42 20 promoting the insurance as much because there was an issue with 21 respect to the insurance coverage?

22 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, we're going to object.
23 Hearsay.

24 THE COURT: Overruled.

04:42 25 Go ahead.

1 A. Your question, was I told not to --

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. I'll ask it another way.

4 Did you gain an understanding at some point -- you
04:42 5 testified that there was insurance.

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So my question is, at a certain point in time, were you
8 advised that there was any issue with the insurance, you
9 personally?

04:42 10 A. Yes. In the, I believe, fourth quarter of 2019, there were 11 some differences in philosophy between the carrier and what 12 our -- Par Funding's expectations were of the policy. And --
13 go ahead -- and they were working through those differences.

14 Q. Okay. Did you ever -- no, that's all. I was just curious.

04:43 15 So you understood there were some issues with the 16 insurance at a certain point in time?

17 A. Yes, philosophical issues. Yes.

18 Q. Well, did you ever -- are you aware of any issues with the 19 actual insurance coverage?

04:43 20 Or let me ask a question. Because the -- with respect
21 to Mr. Furman's clients, did you ever tell any of Mr. Furman's
22 clients or investors that there was insurance on any of these
23 notes?

24 A. No. Mr. Furman's PPM was not one of the three that were 04:43 25 insured by the coverage that we had. So it wasn't truly

1 germane to Mr. Furman. Over time it could have because had we
2 stayed with the insurance and stayed in business longer, our
3 goal would have been to expand it over the whole portfolio to 4 provide, you know, but we didn't get there. So to your point,
04:44 5 no, it wasn't germane to Mr. Furman, per se.

6 Q. Right. Because his agent fund never had any -- never had 7 the insurance; is that right?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Okay. And then on cross-examination you testified about
04:44 10 Mr. LaForte not being an owner of the company. Do you remember
11 that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. So you understood that Mr. LaForte was one of -- and 14 his wife, Lisa McElhone, were amongst the founders of
04:44 15 Par Funding?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And you understood -- and just to clarify this issue, one,
18 that the owner of Par Funding was a trust, correct?

19 A. The LME Trust, yes.

04:44 20 Q. Right. So it was called the 2017 LME Trust?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Sounds about right?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. It's a long name.

04:45 25 And did you -- you understood that the people who were

1 the trustees and grantors of that trust, that that was -- the
2 LME is Lisa McElhone and her husband, Joseph LaForte, they were
3 the grantors of that trust?

04:45 4 A. Certainly, Lisa. And yes -- yes. I'm not specific with 5 the legalese as to Joe being included but that could be.

6 Q. Okay. And you would -- you introduced -- I mean
7 Mr. LaForte was introduced by you to people as, like, a
8 president of the company or an owner of the company, correct?

04:46 9 A. I don't recall using "owner." I do on occasion because of 10 his supervisory and hard work, I had respect for what he did.
11 And if I referred to him as the president, it was probably a
12 respectful term. But in reality, he was not the president.
13 His wife was the president of the company.

14 Q. Okay. Oh, like her official title was president?

04:46 15 A. Yes.

16 Q. But then on a practical level, on a day-to-day basis, Lisa
17 was the -- she had the title of president, and Joseph Cole had 18 the title of chief financial officer, and Joseph LaForte, Lisa
19 McElhone's husband's role was doing the day-to-day operations,
04:46 20 sales related activities to fund deals, which was the business
21 that Par Funding was in, correct?

22 A. Yes, indeed. Right.

23 Q. And Joseph LaForte led the sales for Par Funding with 24 oversight into collections and underwriting, correct?

04:47 25 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

1 THE COURT: Overruled.

2 A. Again, I'll stress that he ran the sales arm of Par Funding
3 and other companies. He could raise capital to go to companies
4 other than Par Funding, if they didn't fit our underwriting
04:47 5 models. And based on logistics of where he sat, each of those 6 departments, underwriting and collections, had their own
7 management supervision. But again, he was married to the 8 president of the company, and the owner. And he got involved
9 and made sure from a supervisory position, if something needed
04:47 10 to be handled, he would step in and handle it, from cleaning
11 bathrooms to handling intricate issues, yes.

12 BY MS. BERLIN:

13 Q. Okay. And at some of these agent fund events you would 14 attend in Pennsylvania and elsewhere, with -- were educational
04:48 15 seminars with potential seminars, Joseph LaForte would present
16 to him and discuss his company, Par Funding, to them with you
17 present and introducing him, correct?

18 A. Yes, he had done that on occasion. Yes.

19 Q. And you would also have conference calls with the agent
04:48 20 fund managers and Mr. LaForte on the line where you would 21 introduce him as --

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. -- an executive and officer of the company and he would be 24 the one providing the updates to the agent fund managers; isn't 04:48 25 that right?

1 A. He and members of his staff, yes.

2 Q. Yes. Mr. Shlepin?

3 A. Alex Shlepin, yes.

04:48 4 Q. Shlepin. Alex Shlepin. So he and Alex Shlepin would have 5 conference calls from time to time with you and Mr. Furman and
6 other agent fund managers where Mr. LaForte and Mr. Shlepin
7 would provide them the updates about the merchant cash advance
8 business and Par Funding, correct?

9 A. That's correct, yes.

04:49 10 Q. Okay. And during those conference calls, Mr. LaForte was 11 the one primarily giving the updates with assistance from 12 Mr. Shlepin; would you agree with me?

13 A. I interjected on a few occasions too.

14 Q. Yes, you did.

04:49 15 A. Three of us, generally speak.

16 Q. Okay. So my final question is --

17 THE COURT: You're standing.

18 MR. HYMAN: Yes, we have an objection. We just --
19 there's no ties to Furman, at least from what I can tell, so
04:49 20 relevance is the issue.

21 THE COURT: We don't need a speaking objection.

22 Relevancy, overruled.

23 Continue.

24 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

04:49 25 BY MS. BERLIN:

1 Q. And finally, back to -- we talked about the New Jersey
2 order and the LaForte criminal record, and you were asked about
3 default rates and underwriting and all of these things at the 4 company. And was I correct in understanding you in your 04:50 5 cross-examination that you would discuss those updates and 6 those things with Mr. Furman?

7 A. Yes. Michael and I spoke frequently. We had a very good
8 working relationship. I had a lot of respect for the way he 9 conducted his practice. And yes, we spoke about a lot of 04:50 10 things.

11 Q. And he was, I think you said he was very good at raising
12 investor money for Par Funding?

13 A. He was very good with client contact in a world where you
14 invest 5 cents and they give you 4 back. Michael would spend
04:50 15 five and he'd give you 10 back. He was very giving of his time
16 and interest. So yes, I have respect for him, very much in 17 that regard.

18 Q. Well, not -- I mean, we -- not really, we just looked at 19 the amounts that he made. Did you mean literally or was that a
04:50 20 figure of speech?

21 A. From a time perspective, interest with people. Forgive me.
22 I talk in parables.

23 Q. I apologize. Thought you meant dollars. And I was like
24 actually that's not --

04:51 25 A. No, no, no, no, no. He afforded people -- he would take a

1 lot of time and interest working with people.

2 Q. I understand. Thank you.

3 A. Thank you.

04:51 4 Q. I'm sorry. So when you were sharing this information with 5 Mr. Furman, who is sort of, you know, one of those agent fund
6 managers around America that you're interacting with, and
7 discussing these aspects of the investment, was it because you
8 understood that those were important things to be talking about
9 with someone who was raising investor money? And did you
04:51 10 assume that he was sharing whatever needed to be shared with 11 his own clients?

12 MR. HYMAN: Compound, calls for speculation.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 A. Yes. Yes. Exactly. He was a professional. I gave him
04:51 15 the tools that he needed as a professional.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. So you assumed that he would use them and he would disclose
18 the things that he knew and conduct his due diligence about the 19 company that he was selling and collecting investor money for;
20 is that fair?

21 A. Yes, it is. He managed a fund, and everything germane to 22 managing that fund was his responsibility, right.

23 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. I have no further questions.

24 I hope you have a safe flight home?

04:52 25 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, may we have brief three or

1 four questions? They went beyond the cross there.

2 THE COURT: You're going to get a very limited
3 recross. Go ahead.

4 MS. BERLIN: And Your Honor, just a moment. Not on 04:52 5 his witness list.

6 THE COURT: If it opens up the issue, that's fine.
7 It's not on his witness list, but for the sake of my jurors'
8 time, I'm giving him the opportunity so we don't recall the 9 witness. So we don't have to bring Mr. Abbonizio back a second
04:52 10 time.

12

RECROSS EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. HYMAN:

14 Q. So you've been shown what has been marked as Exhibit 205
04:52 15 there. It lists these investors?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Prior to the SEC coming in, did Par Funding ever miss a
18 payment to any of its agent funds?

19 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, not relevant, motion in
04:52 20 limine.

21 THE COURT: That's going to be sustained.

22 BY MR. HYMAN:

23 Q. So with respect to this overall fund, you'll see how 24 Ms. Berlin asked you about payments that were being made to 04:53 25 Mr. Furman, correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And there were investors also making money as you can see
3 there?

04:53 4 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, again objection, motion in
5 limine.

6 THE COURT: Sustained.

7 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, they opened the door.

8 THE COURT: Not to this issue, not by what's already
9 been allowed by both sides. So that's sustained.

04:53 10 BY MR. HYMAN:

11 Q. If you turn to page 2, you'll notice a Russell Meyer?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Do you recall having any interactions with Mr. Meyer?

04:53 14 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor, outside of the 15 scope.

16 THE COURT: I'll allow that one. Go ahead if you
17 recall.

18 A. That name I do remember. Why? I'm sure you'll tell me
19 soon, but I do remember Russ Meyer, yes.

04:53 20 BY MR. HYMAN:

21 Q. Do you recall having conversations with him in 2017?

22 A. 2017? Give me more, Counselor.

23 MR. HYMAN: Would you mind putting up 104 on the 24 screen, please.

04:54 25 MS. JOHNSON: Is it Plaintiff's 104?

1 MR. HYMAN: Yeah, Plaintiff's 104.

2 BY MR. HYMAN:

3 Q. So I'm showing you on the screen an e-mail correspondence
4 between you and Mr. Furman.

04:54 5 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor. Not admitted into
6 evidence.

7 THE COURT: It's not in evidence. Okay. I thought
8 104 was admitted.

9 MR. HYMAN: It's to refresh his recollection,
04:54 10 Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Well, you're not going to put it up on the 12 screen.

13 BY MR. HYMAN:

14 Q. You see that document, sir?

04:55 15 A. Yes, I do.

16 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, you're 17 not seeing anything on your screens, correct?

18 THE JURY: (Shaking head).

19 THE COURT: That's fine.

04:55 20 A. Okay, I've read it, yes.

21 BY MR. HYMAN:

22 Q. Seeing that e-mail, does that refresh your recollection
23 about the Meyers?

24 A. Yes. I believe they were in a transitional period between 04:55 25 agent funds and finders that we had done away with. So

1 continue. Yes, I do recall.

2 Q. And what were your interactions with the Meyers?

3 A. I can't -- beyond recalling this and knowing that there was 4 an inordinate amount of time that they had entrusted money to 04:56 5 Michael, and it wasn't being paid interest because it was 6 dormant while things were getting formally set up, we were 7 trying to work a resolution. That's all -- I don't know how we
8 actually resolved it. Hopefully we resolved it appropriately,
9 but I do recall it.

04:56 10 Q. And do you recall whether or not --

11 A. Vagnozzi?

12 Q. Yeah, Vagnozzi was involved with any of this?

13 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, outside of the scope. I
14 don't even know if it's relevant.

04:56 15 THE COURT: Relevancy also comes into play, but that's 16 going to be sustained. Let's move on from that.

17 BY MR. HYMAN:

18 Q. And with respect, I guess the last question I have is: Was 19 Fidelis required to invest exclusively with Par Funding?

04:56 20 A. No, not at all.

21 Q. And it could invest in other MCA funds if it chose to?

22 A. Oh, yes. Absolutely.

23 MR. HYMAN: No further questions.

24 MS. BERLIN: One last question, Your Honor.

04:57 25 THE COURT: I'll permit it. Go ahead.

FURTHER REDIRECT EXAMINATION

1

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. Did Fidelis invest in any other cash advance other than
4 Par Funding?

04:57 5 A. I wouldn't have the answer to that, Ms. Berlin.

6 Q. Are you aware of anything other than Par Funding that 7 Fidelis has?

8 A. Not that I could state definitively, no.

9 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Thank you. No further questions.

04:57 10 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, do I
11 have any questions for Mr. Abbonizio before I excuse him? No?
12 Okay. Thank you, folks.

13 Thank you very much, sir. You're excused.

14 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

04:57 15 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I wonder if this is a good
16 breaking point for the day. It's 5 o'clock and we finished a
17 witness. It's perfect.

18 THE COURT: Yeah. Ladies and gentlemen of the jury,
19 at this time, given that it's 5 o'clock, we're in a natural
04:58 20 breaking point. So we're going to be done for the day. A bit
21 of instruction for tomorrow.

22 So tomorrow we will once again begin at 9:30. Please
23 remember of course that if for whatever reason you're running a
24 little bit behind, call my chambers, let me know. We will not 04:58 25 start until all of you are present and accounted for.

1 Obviously you've now heard from three witnesses today, you've
2 heard opening statements from lawyers. You've seen a bit of 3 evidence already.

04:58 4 I want to let you all know that anything that has been
5 admitted into evidence, such as the spreadsheets you see on the 6 screen and some of the other documents, they will go back with 7 you into the jury room for you guys to look over them more
8 carefully. I know that they're up for very short amounts of 9 time and it's hard to follow.

04:58 10 So I don't want anyone to stress if they haven't been 11 able to examine some of the exhibits you've seen on your 12 screen. You're all going to get a set of all admitted evidence
13 at the end. So you guys can pour over it, you can discuss it
14 amongst yourselves.

15 Please remember, of course, when you go home this 16 evening, you may have family or friends that are going to 17 naturally inquire about what's going on in the case and they're 18 want to know the subject matter of the case. You cannot 19 discuss it. Tell them the judge has prevented you from doing
04:59 20 so. You can only do it at the end the case once you have been 21 discharged and your services come to an end.

22 Now, of course you can tell them scheduling. My hope
23 is tomorrow will be something almost identical to today, a 9:30
24 start, or thereabouts, with a break around 12:30, and then
04:59 25 probably finishing somewhere between 5:00 and 5:30. So we'll

1 go for the same schedule tomorrow.

2 Remember also, of course, when you go home this
3 evening, you've heard some technical terms. You have got a lot
4 more context and information about certain issues in the case.

04:59 5 I need to make sure none of you go online and research any
6 people, places or things related to this case.

7 Do not do any sort of internet research regarding any 8 of the financial issues that you've heard about thus far. Of 9 course stay off social media, which you guys have all done.

05:00 10 Please continue to keep doing so throughout your service.

11 When you arrive tomorrow, should you see the lawyers
12 outside or coming in, please remember that you must ignore
13 them. Take no offense if they head in the other direction, as 14 they must in under ethical guidelines. So again, you'll be 05:00 15 able to come straight to the room back there. When you're all
16 here, I'll bring you guys out by 9:30. Make sure you leave
17 your notepads in the jury room. We will close it up for the 18 evening, and you'll be able to pick them up tomorrow morning.
19 With that being said, I hope everyone gets home safe. We'll

05:00 20 see you all tomorrow at 9:30. You're all excused.

21 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

22 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated, everyone.

23 Just by way of brief housekeeping, anything that needs
24 to be raised for the Court to address now before we break?

05:01 25 We'll be back tomorrow. Perhaps I can get a sense from the SEC

1 who we have lined up for tomorrow, and more so, if I have any
2 Zoom tomorrow because I just want to make sure that if I do, my
3 tech guys are ready to go on that.

4 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

05:01 5 MS. JOHNSON: We're going to start with Mr. Murray,
6 our FBI agent.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MS. BERLIN: And that's live.

9 THE COURT: That's live. Right. And I would assume 05:01 10 that Mr. Murray would be the conduit by which the tape is 11 played.

12 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor.

13 MR. HYMAN: We're willing to stipulate to at least the 14 admission of the recordings as to Mr. Furman just to streamline 05:01 15 the process instead of dealing with them having to lay the 16 predicate.

17 THE COURT: I mean, we could have done that when we 18 had the motions in limine and you argued it against it, an 19 entire motion, 48 hours ago.

05:01 20 MS. BERLIN: We have now flown in this agent and 21 prepped him.

22 THE COURT: Yeah, of course. So no. I mean, you guys
23 will bring in your agent and have your agent do it the 24 old-fashioned way. He won't get up and object, that's fine.
05:02 25 But I'm not going to go ahead and redo the entire order just so

1 we publish it and I agree to the stipulation. Let's just go
2 ahead and go as it is. I'm sure he's already scheduled to show
3 up tomorrow morning, so that's fine.

4 MR. HYMAN: Just to be clear, Your Honor, the basis of 05:02 5 our objection wasn't authenticity or hearsay. It was relevancy
6 because --

7 THE COURT: Correct. And when I ruled on relevancy,
8 you could have easily said to me, "Since now you have ruled on 9 relevancy, we'll stipulate to not needing a predicate, and 05:02 10 we'll bring it in and stipulate -- "

11 MS. BERLIN: Right in their opening said, "They're not 12 going to have an FBI agent here."

13 THE COURT: I mean, again, you made an objection. It
14 was overruled. You could have at that point said given the 05:02 15 Court's ruling, we'll stipulate. So we don't need the agent.
16 So you decided now. I'm not going to change up the SEC's
17 presentation. But I will say if you come up with any other 18 stipulations between now and the end of the trial, I'm sure the 19 lawyers would love to hear it, so would my jurors and I would 05:02 20 because it would save us all a lot of time.

21 So you guys should probably look at your trial
22 strategy to figure out if you're going to streamline the 23 presentation of other evidence, because if we don't have to 24 call up extra people to bring in evidence, that would be great.
05:03 25 We can stipulate as to authenticity and admissibility, and I'll

1 admit it before the jurors come in. So you should just check.
2 We just can't make changes at the eleventh hour. So I've got
3 the FBI agent, right?

4 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

05:03 5 THE COURT: Who else do I have?

6 MS. JOHNSON: We're going to have an investor in --
7 all of the witnesses are live unless we're super fast tomorrow.

8 THE COURT: That's the number one thing I wanted to 9 know, is if we needed to get the Zoom ready to go. And so how
05:03 10 many Zoom do we have lined up tomorrow, just in the best case
11 scenario we get rid of our live witnesses?

12 MS. JOHNSON: We have an investor, Mr. Renner, and 13 another investor.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

05:03 15 MS. BERLIN: How many total?

16 THE COURT: So the FBI agent on the recording.

17 MS. BERLIN: I think we have six.

18 MS. JOHNSON: Five.

19 MS. BERLIN: Five witnesses and --

05:03 20 THE COURT: Five witnesses total, a couple of 21 investors, an FBI agent, and I don't know who else is on there.

22 MS. BERLIN: Yes. And we are exactly on track. Our 23 plan was today to get through these three witnesses, and 24 because we started a little late, we expedited what we were
05:04 25 doing to cut to the chase so we could finish those three. So

1 we're very committed to staying on track.

2 THE COURT: Excellent.

3 MS. BERLIN: And I anticipate no problem. I mean,
4 hopefully we get through five witnesses tomorrow.

05:04 5 THE COURT: I bet that will be a very solid move. If 6 we can get through -- let's bank on that.

7 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

8 THE COURT: And quite honestly and similar to today,
9 if we end up at 4:45, we'll stop. I mean, that's it. If we 05:04 10 can get to 5:00 tomorrow, that would be ideal for the Court.
11 We don't have the delay of the one juror that we had this 12 morning, we don't have openings. So we can probably get
13 through the straight five tomorrow and then plan on Thursday
14 being a day where we introduce it. I'm fine with that.

05:04 15 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. And we're very nimble. I mean, if 16 it turns out we start late, we start early, we are nimble and 17 able to work around that. So --

18 THE COURT: I don't expect any delays tomorrow. I
19 think that was just a little bit of a glitch because of our one
05:04 20 juror, and I think everyone else was on time. So we should be 21 fine.

22 MS. BERLIN: But just in case. And we do that because 23 we have -- you know, all of our witnesses are kind of on a
24 schedule, most are traveling, and by Zoom, but we do --

05:05 25 THE COURT: Right. People are flying, so I want to

1 avoid, you know, unnecessary delays if you jeopardize their
2 attendance or travel plans. But if we can target the five
3 tomorrow, I think that would be extremely productive. It will
4 keep us on pace and keep the presentation moving. That sounds
05:05 5 very good to the Court. We can work for that. So we'll shoot
6 for that starting at 9:30.

7 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Anything else on the SEC side or is that 9 pretty much it?

05:05 10 MS. BERLIN: No, that's all. And can we leave our 11 things again tonight?

12 THE COURT: Same thing.

13 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Tomorrow, again, I do not believe I have 05:05 15 any sentencing or anyone coming in. And any hearings I have 16 similar today are being done telephonically in chambers. No
17 one will be in here except for you guys, so you can leave it as 18 it is.

19 MS. BERLIN: Thank you very much.

05:05 20 THE COURT: Housekeeping, anything I need to be 21 addressing?

22 MR. HYMAN: Nothing we need to address. I just want
23 to be clear, which was, shortly after the hearing on the motion
24 in limine, we did reach out to the SEC and offer to stipulate
05:05 25 to Mr. Murray, I did not want you to think that we're just

1 dropping this on them on the eve of trial, they declined the
2 stipulation at that time. We're just reiterating our position
3 to try to streamline things now.

05:06 4 THE COURT: All right. Anything else on the defense
5 side?

6 We're all set? We're good?

7 Okay. All right. I'll see everybody at 9:30
8 tomorrow. We're in recess. We'll get you the zip drive. I'm 9 going to disconnect it. Let me have my law clerk, who is 05:06 10 savvier than I, come out and pull that out, and then you can 11 just load up whatever is left and give it back to me tomorrow
12 morning, that would be perfect.

13 MS. JACQMEIN: I will do that.

14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Just give me one
05:06 15 second.

16 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor, are we free to 17 leave?

18 THE COURT: Yes, absolutely. We're in recess until 19 tomorrow.

05:06 20

(The following proceedings were held in open court.)

3 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Okay. We
4 just got our last juror in and accounted for, so we have all
09:58 5 seven in. She was running a little bit late. Fortunately, she 6 just arrived.

7 So before we resume with trial, any housekeeping
8 issues that the Court needs to address?

9 MS. JOHNSON: Yes, Your Honor.

09:58 10 THE COURT: Okay. Tell me what's going on.

11 MS. JOHNSON: A few things. First, we just learned
12 that Zoom has been broadcasting our conversations at the table.
13 We weren't aware of that. So we would ask that it not start
14 until court's in session.

09:58 15 THE COURT: Sure. Absolutely. We shouldn't be having
16 any sort of discussions or really arguments broadcast. It
17 should only be when trial testimony is ongoing. I'll see if I
18 can mute it. I thought we were convenient. I was trying to do
19 my best to mute it. Maybe there have been pieces where I
09:59 20 haven't muted. So I will do everything I can --

21 MS. JOHNSON: Not that we have any great secrets, 22 but --

23 THE COURT: No, but -- and I don't want people to get 24 piecemeal stuff and get confused. Just for the sake of the 09:59 25 proceedings, I'll see what I can do to mute it. I'll talk to

1 my IT folks, but thanks for letting me know. Okay.

2 MS. JOHNSON: And then we have Agent Murray ready to
3 go. And you'll be happy to hear that we have reached a
4 stipulation with defendants about the recordings, that we can
09:59 5 play them without having to go through the whole chain of 6 custody authentication, you know, did you send this MP3 to us
7 on such and such a date.

8 THE COURT: Seal it or pack it or whatever it is,
9 right. Okay.

09:59 10 MS. JOHNSON: Yeah, exactly. So we plan to do that.
11 We do plan to ask a few background questions about the date,
12 but that raises an issue that these were made with a undercover
13 agent. She's still undercover with the organized crime
14 division, and while we will have him say she's undercover and 10:00 15 her alias is this, when they hear the tape, they know who the 16 person is.

17 Our fear is that the defendants, as they said in their 18 opening, are going to say -- ask the Agent Murray more about 19 that, why isn't she here, who is she, and if asked, he would 10:00 20 say, "I cannot divulge her name. I cannot divulge why." And 21 then, in fact, you know, and in response the motion in limine,
22 we said we were not going to go there and cannot go into the 23 investigation. So we would just like an instruction on that 24 that the defendants --

10:00 25 MR. HYMAN: We weren't even going to go there,

1 Your Honor, so that's a nonissue.

2 THE COURT: Yeah, let's just make sure -- I think to
3 give some context so that we're not confusing the jury,
4 generalized statements about her not being present because 10:00 5 she's currently undercover and that she's here to testify as to 6 the tape is fine.

7 MS. JOHNSON: Okay.

8 THE COURT: So we won't get into any follow-up as to 9 why is she here or not here or the nature of undercover work
10:01 10 and in the abundance of caution, we don't need to burn an 11 undercover. So I think that's probably the best way to do it,
12 so we won't touch on that.

13 MS. JOHNSON: And then there was one exhibit that they 14 do object to. It's Exhibit 110. I don't know if you want to 10:01 15 talk about it now or wait until it comes up.

16 THE COURT: I can take a look. This is P 110?

17 MS. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Let me see. Because I know I have the new 19 updated drive here, so the USB. So I can take a look.

10:01 20 MS. JOHNSON: Here is a hard copy.

21 THE COURT: I've been looking at them online.

22 MS. JOHNSON: Need some late night reading to go to 23 bed?

24 THE COURT: Is it 110?

10:01 25 MS. JOHNSON: 110, yes, it's a promissory note that

1 was sent to the agent by Par Funding.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. I see it here. P 110. So
3 this was the -- just so I get some context, this is the note
4 that was sent to the agent at after the conversation he had
10:02 5 with Mr. Furman?

6 MS. JOHNSON: Well, there was a step in between. The
7 agent met -- I wasn't going to go into this. The agent met --
8 went to Par Funding's offices and met with Joe Cole and the 9 other defendants. And following that meeting, they e-mailed
10:02 10 her this note.

11 THE COURT: Got it. What's the concern on the note?

12 MR. HYMAN: Obviously, Your Honor, the note is hearsay
13 for which there's no exception that applies.

14 THE COURT: Is the note being offered for the truth of 10:02 15 the matter asserted?

16 MS. JOHNSON: No, it's not.

17 MR. HYMAN: Also, Your Honor --

18 THE COURT: Hold on. I'm asking you, is the note
19 being offered for the truth of the matter asserted? Because I
10:02 20 don't believe that anybody is trying to advance the truth of a
21 nonnegotiable terms of the promissory note. In fact, this 22 would just, I think, further the -- probably give us a little
23 bit of explanation on how these notes were offered, the notes
24 themselves were physically offered and transferred. But maybe
10:03 25 the SEC can just tell me a little bit more about what this note

1 is seeking to show as opposed to the contents of the note being
2 advanced for the truth of what these notes say.

3 MS. JOHNSON: Right. It's not for the truth of the 4 matter asserted. It's just to show that Mr. Furman connected
10:03 5 this investor with Par Funding, and in return, they sent her a
6 note in Par Funding.

7 THE COURT: That's important because again, we're not
8 going to consider it for its contents, but this is -- for one
9 way of putting it, it would be that Mr. Furman is a conduit to 10:03 10 Par Funding notes. So to the extent that it's been a theory of 11 defense and the SEC is alleging, not that it's part and parcel
12 of the operation, but that he was indeed offering these notes
13 in Par Funding. So that's what it would be shown for. So we 14 don't really have a hearsay problem with it. So I can take 10:04 15 that off the table. What are the other arguments against the 16 admissibility of --

17 MR. HYMAN: First of all, Your Honor, this is the 18 truth of the matter because the note is -- essentially they're 19 saying the note was offering her an opportunity to invest in 10:04 20 Par Funding. The note says there was investment in 21 Par Funding. That's the first basis. Second, Your Honor,
22 there's no --

23 THE COURT: I vehemently disagree with that, that it's 24 not -- that's not correct. It's not for the truth. We're not 10:04 25 actually trying to show anyone that these are accurate

1 statements in the note. For example, this note is not being
2 advanced to show default rate misrepresentations or contents of
3 the note. If it were, then you would be correct. If there was 4 substance in the note that was trying to be advanced to show a
10:04 5 misrepresentation, I would agree with you. But this is simply
6 shown or being admitted to show that Mr. Furman cannot distance
7 himself in the eyes of the SEC from Par Funding offerings
8 because he facilitated this offer. So it's the actual 9 transmission of the note is what matters. It's not what's in 10:05 10 the note. So that's incorrect. So it's not truth of the 11 matter asserted. So what is the other argument?

12 MR. HYMAN: There's none of the connecting e-mails or 13 documents. It's just the note. There's no testimony or 14 there's no party.

10:05 15 THE COURT: It sounds like wonderful fodder for 16 cross-examination that you should explore to show why a jury
17 should not believe that this note is connected to Mr. Furman.
18 That's not a reason to keep out the exhibit.

19 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, part of it is that obviously 10:05 20 the e-mail from whoever, which Mr. Furman wasn't copied on or 21 even a party to, is not being sought to be introduced.

22 THE COURT: You don't need it. But let me explain
23 something, Mr. Hyman. As far as I can tell the proffer, the 24 proffer is fairly straightforward. An FBI undercover had a
10:05 25 discussion with Mr. Furman. Mr. Furman made representations,

1 party admissions, so we don't get anymore problems with that,
2 on a tape that's being to be admitted. And he said: Here is
3 the offering that I can tell get you.

4 Then they go to the office, and at the office, the 10:05 5 offer that is being represented by Mr. Furman is ultimately
6 transmitted by Mr. Cole. I think one would venture a guess
7 that the undercover didn't show up at Par Funding unannounced
8 and just started giving a note. He was -- I'm presuming; I
9 don't know the tape -- maybe directed to go to the Par Funding
10:06 10 offices or something that to effect. But a connection he is 11 going to be shown, I would assume the SEC will get that from 12 the tape, that this note was ultimately offered to him because 13 he was directed -- or the undercover was directed to seek to 14 obtain the note by Mr. Furman. Right?

10:06 15 So to the extent that you're going to argue that,
16 that's fine for cross. You could say: Well, there's no
17 evidence to show that this statement that Mr. Furman made is 18 directly related to the offering of the note. It could be that 19 the undercover decided to go and investigate Par Funding
10:06 20 independent of Mr. Furman and got the note. And then the jury
21 can decide. I mean, that's what we should be letting them do.

22 MR. HYMAN: There's two issues we have. First,
23 they're introducing the notes that came from Par Funding.
24 That's for the truth of the matter asserted.

10:06 25 Second, Your Honor, there's no linking testimony or

1 proffer of testimony to link the undercover agent visiting the
2 Par Funding offices that is not otherwise hearsay or
3 inadmissible evidence. The proffer that was given was the 4 undercover agent, who's not here to testify, who otherwise
10:07 5 there's no record of her going to that office. It's not part 6 of the recordings. It's not part of what happened. And 7 Mr. Murray otherwise lacks personal knowledge to testify as to 8 the fact that she went there, met with these people and this 9 occurred, nor is there any document showing it -- that on the 10:07 10 exhibit list or of record.

11 MS. JOHNSON: There is an audio tape of the meeting
12 and the transcript of it, and we will play it if we need to. I
13 didn't want to go there, but if you think that would be --

14 THE COURT: There's an audio tape. And just to be 10:07 15 clear, which meeting? So Mr. Hyman understands what we're 16 talking about.

17 MS. JOHNSON: A July 9 meeting, 2020.

18 THE COURT: And it's where this note was offered or 19 it's handed over.

10:07 20 MS. JOHNSON: It's not handed over. They meet with 21 LaForte and Cole. This is July 9th. They get the note the 22 same day.

23 THE COURT: So why don't we address the question that 24 I'm being told that the SEC isn't able to put forth any
10:08 25 evidence that would show how this note got into the possession

1 of the undercover or explain how that happened. And we're
2 going to have someone here from the FBI that has no personal
3 knowledge, and no audio will indicate how this note would even
4 come into play. That's the argument being made by Mr. Hyman.

10:08 5 Can you address that so that we can try to move on from this?

6 MS. JOHNSON: I was simply going to ask the FBI agent
7 if they met. But we do have the e-mails where Cole sends these 8 notes to the undercover, and I can present that if there's an 9 issue with the chain of custody or how we got them.

10:08 10 THE COURT: So, Mr. Hyman, if we have an e-mail to the 11 undercover, that has these attached so we know how the 12 undercover got them, that seems to cure some of the chain of 13 custody concerns. And again, we could argue or you could argue
14 that there's a gap between Furman's representations and whether 10:09 15 or not he was actually -- the undercover was directed to go in 16 the e-mail or get an e-mail from Cole as to the note. I would 17 assume that the audio -- and I haven't heard the audio -- would 18 explain a little bit of this way away.

19 But, again, I'm -- the objection here is to P 110
10:09 20 coming in. And so I've already noted it's not coming in for 21 the truth of the matter asserted, and it's not coming in other
22 than to show a connection between Mr. Furman and Par Funding.
23 I mean, that's really what's being advanced for, right?

24 MR. HYMAN: I'm not seeing this e-mail from Mr. Cole
10:09 25 that they're referencing by exhibit number in the exhibit list.

1 I just --

2 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, if I may.

3 THE COURT: Yeah, Ms. Berlin. Why don't you step in 4 and you're familiar with the record.

10:10 5 MS. BERLIN: Sure. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Can we clean this up? Because I think we
7 need to walk Mr. Hyman through the way in which this is going
8 to come in so I can rule on this. Go ahead.

9 MS. BERLIN: Let's do it. Okay. So we have multiple 10:10 10 recordings. We were going to use two with Mr. Murray. We will 11 now add because of your concerns. So you have the two phone
12 calls with the undercover who goes by [REDACTED]. Then you
13 have the subsequent meeting with Perry Abbonizio and 14 [REDACTED]. That's -- and we'll be establishing throughout --
10:10 15 today we're authenticating. We'll be establishing through 16 Mr. Furman and his own e-mails how Mr. Abbonizio came about 17 having that meeting.

18 Then you have another meeting that we'll add because 19 of your concerns today showing Mr. Abbonizio, Mr. LaForte and 10:10 20 Mr. Cole all meeting with [REDACTED] after the meeting with 21 Mr. Abbonizio. So these are all TR0 exhibits. No surprise.
22 We have the transcript, the video, and they're on our exhibit
23 list as well.

24 Finally, concern about the promissory note, easily
10:11 25 resolved. That exhibit was currently in our exhibit binder. I

1 removed it from the e-mail because I didn't think the e-mail
2 was relevant. But we can add it right back to that note. It's
3 the original document. It's the e-mail with that note
4 attached. It goes from Cole to Furman -- I mean, to [REDACTED], and 10:11 5 it's a TR0 exhibit. So again, no surprises.

6 The TR0 motion, in fact, lays all of this out, how it
7 came about. Two calls with Furman, subsequent meeting with 8 Abbonizio. We'll establish through Mr. Furman and his own
9 e-mails how that came about, and then the subsequent meetings
10:11 10 to close the deal, which we'll authenticate today. And when we 11 examine Mr. Furman, we'll use his own documents to show how he 12 was the origin of this.

13 Today we're just trying to get these in authenticated.
14 We'll argue how they fit together in closing.

10:11 15 THE COURT: And my point is, I don't think that 16 there's any concern about authentication with the chain of 17 custody that's been proffered that these are the notes that we 18 claim they are, especially they're attached as e-mails,
19 et cetera. And we know that we're going to have the agent able 10:12 20 to lay a predicate and we've all but stipulated as to the 21 authenticity and admissibility of the recording -- the 22 recordings.

23 So I mean, looking at this and recognizing that this 24 is, again, a simply being shown to connect Mr. Furman to 10:12 25 Par Funding note offerings, which is one -- you know, the phase

1 one of the whole allegations, right? This is really part and
2 parcel of that phase one offering before we went in to the
3 Fidelis phase two. So this is -- that's what this is shown
4 for. There's nothing in this that's being advanced for any 10:12 5 representation in the notes themselves, correct?

6 MS. BERLIN: Correct. All we're doing here is showing
7 Mr. Furman, the way his -- what his role was in this offering
8 and the way he participated.

9 THE COURT: Right.

10:12 10 MS. BERLIN: So sometimes he is helping Par Funding
11 sell directly to an individual. And [REDACTED], the 12 undercover, is an example of that. She goes to him, he sets
13 the ball in motion, all of these appointments happen
14 thereafter, and we see it culminate. So it goes beginning,
10:13 15 phone calls with Furman. The end culmination, promissory note
16 sent to her.

17 THE COURT: Right.

18 MS. BERLIN: And then with Mr. Furman, I'll be showing 19 his involvement in that link, and we'll argue it in closing.
10:13 20 But today we're just trying to get in those videos so we can 21 make the arguments and address it with Mr. Furman when we call
22 him.

23 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So I guess, Mr. Hyman, 24 with that proffer that we're going to understand how they
10:13 25 intend on linking it, doesn't mean, of course, you can't expose

1 what you believe are breakdowns in chain of connecting Furman
2 to the note at issue. But I don't really see anything in P 110
3 that's going to raise cause for concern.

4 Again, if they proffer it, if they lay it the way
10:13 5 they've just explained it, I think we would clearly be able to 6 bring this in. If you're worried about gaps, they have the 7 audio on that and we could always play that to make it clear
8 for the jury.

9 But what else do you need to address on this before we 10:13 10 move on?

11 MR. HYMAN: The dates, Your Honor. The dates matter
12 here because the SEC was not being entirely accurate with the 13 representation as to the dates. The conversations with 14 ██████████ occurred in 2019, 2020. That was phase two, not 10:14 15 phase one.

16 During a time Fidelis had been created, Mr. Furman was 17 only involved in investments with respect to Fidelis. And 18 similarly, Your Honor, as well we think that even if the SEC,
19 as they've stated, they can get it in through other sources,
10:14 20 that Mr. Murray is not the proper witness to lay the predicate.

21 THE COURT: It's their case, Mr. Hyman. Listen, let's
22 be well aware of the rules of evidence. And it's their case.
23 They can bring it in, as long as it's appropriate, with anyone
24 they want. The dates are issues for cross. We're talking
10:14 25 about whether or not this can be brought in. And I'm hearing a

1 proffered chain of custody that would allow it.

2 Ms. Berlin, do you want to respond to the date issue?

3 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, sure. So I think some
4 clarification is helpful. Phase one/phase two, I've explained
10:14 5 this a few times. I'm going to say it again. Those are 6 phrases I used in the complaint to help provide a roadmap for 7 the Court and the defendants. No one ever calls it phase one
8 and phase two, other than Amie Riggle-Berlin in the complaint.

9 If you look at the complaint, you will see that it
10:15 10 says that they were selling notes directly to investors until 11 we stepped in. And I actually cite these meetings with the 12 undercover as the example of that direct offering.

13 I also allege in the complaint, or the SEC alleges in 14 the complaint that starting in 2018, agent fund managers are 10:15 15 also soliciting people to raise money for Par Funding by using 16 their own funds.

17 At the end of the day, our view is that it's all part
18 of the Par Funding offering and sale of notes. Mr. Furman is 19 either helping sell them, like he is with [REDACTED] and 10:15 20 others, or he's buying them using investor money. So that's 21 all laid out in the complaint, and we very clearly allege it
22 continuous and, in fact, these meetings are alleged in detail,
23 Your Honor, in the complaint.

24 THE COURT: No, no, they're in there.

10:16 25 MS. BERLIN: I allege the dates, what happened, who

1 they met with, how it comes about. We will examine Mr. Furman
2 and we will show through him, and if he -- you know, we might
3 have to -- we can also call people that we have on stand by to 4 impeach or rebut, because we have the e-mails showing what 10:16 5 happened and how this all came about.

6 Today, we're -- that's putting the cart before the 7 horse. We're just trying to authenticate so we can then use
8 these exhibits with the subsequent witnesses.

9 THE COURT: Correct. Look, I don't -- I think the 10:16 10 issue here was there's an objection, the Court has overruled it
11 on P 110 for the reasons that I've already stated on the 12 record. And based on the proffer, I don't see a problem with 13 this coming in, provided that we get the testimony laid here
14 from our agent and we have the appropriate audio and video and 10:16 15 transcripts and everything that's going to come in so that we 16 have these undercover calls, establish it, and we can get a
17 little bit of explanation via e-mail of how the note get 18 transmitted.

19 But from what I'm seeing, there's no concern with 10:17 20 P 110 running afoul of any evidentiary issues based on the 21 proffer. So the Court will overrule any objection to that.
22 We'll allow this to be presented as the SEC has indicated, and
23 then, of course, we will have any necessary cross-examination
24 that there's gaps in the SEC's version of events that could be 10:17 25 addressed at cross.

1 MR. HYMAN: Very well, Your Honor. There's three very
2 quick things. First, for the subsequent recording that were
3 just mentioned, we're not willing to stipulate to the chain of 4 custody as to those. The others one we are with Mr. Furman.
10:17 5 Separate issues we don't have time to really review or address
6 those issues.

7 Second, Your Honor, just to be clear for purposes of 8 the record, we are not consenting by any means to trial on the 9 integration issue, which the SEC has already stipulated there's 10:17 10 an issue that they --

11 THE COURT: Why am I litigating this right now?

12 MS. BERLIN: I don't know.

13 THE COURT: Why am I litigating this right now? Why
14 am I wasting jury time to talk about integration? It's not an
10:17 15 issue with this witness, it's not going to come up. The word
16 hasn't even been used by anyone at any point in this case.
17 It's just not been a feature.

18 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, I was just preserving a
19 record --

10:18 20 THE COURT: There's no record for you to preserve,
21 Mr. Hyman. There's not an even argument made on this point.
22 You're wasting the Court's time with these arguments that have 23 no bearing on the issues, which is -- we're going to call a
24 witness now. You stipulated to the admissibility and 10:18 25 authenticity of the audio. I've overruled P 110, but I cannot

1 engage any further in arguments on breaks like this with the
2 jury waiting that have no bearing on what is the immediate
3 issue before the Court.

4 When integration is raised -- we can argue
10:18 5 integration, if it's even raised. You heard Ms. Berlin say
6 multiple times, they're not even going to go with the 7 integration theory, so much so that the Court took great pains
8 in my order on summary judgment not to mention the integration
9 theory because I didn't want to inject an issue in the case
10:18 10 that was not in the record.

11 So that is something that you raised in your response
12 in opposition. And I note that, I mentioned at our last
13 hearing, but I don't know why on earth we're spending time
14 talking about waiver of stipulation or argument regarding 10:18 15 integration. It's not a feature. It's just not.

16 MR. HYMAN: I simply wanted to make the one-sentence
17 statement as to that, Your Honor. I apologize.

18 THE COURT: Yes, I think we need to read the room.
19 When you have an objection, I want to address it, but it's not 10:19 20 an open free-for-all to tell me all of the feelings about the 21 case until they're at issue for the Court.

22 So with all of that being said --

23 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, one more.

24 THE COURT: Yes. Go ahead.

10:19 25 MS. JOHNSON: Judge, Agent Murray has asked that when

1 we play the recordings that they not be broadcast on Zoom,
2 especially the new ones that were --

3 THE COURT: Okay. Absolutely. And what I will do is,
4 I'm going to unmute myself here at some point, because I don't
10:19 5 want anyone to think that the audio cut out. So I'm going to 6 be let them know there will be proceedings played today that,
7 for security reasons, cannot be broadcast over the air.

8 MS. JOHNSON: And he doesn't want anybody taping them
9 and --

10:19 10 THE COURT: I couldn't agree more. I think that's not 11 a bad point. And so I will make a statement on that.

12 So are we comfortable that I can let things play until 13 the tape is played? I want to make sure. Or do we want to not
14 have any part of his testimony broadcast? I do not want to run
10:20 15 afoul of any ongoing investigation. You tell me.

16 MS. JOHNSON: Well, let's ask him, because we're 17 dealing with things under seal right now. And they're under 18 seal for a reason.

19 THE COURT: Can you ask him out there before you bring 10:20 20 him in and then let me know?

21 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MS. BERLIN: I'm going to do that. And because what I
24 know is that any -- that's why we kept everything under seal.

25 THE COURT: Right.

1 MS. BERLIN: Her voice, her appearance would
2 jeopardize -- I asked, would it risk her life? He said, it
3 would put her life at risk and jeopardize a lot of 4 investigations.

10:20 5 THE COURT: Yeah.

6 MS. BERLIN: So let me go ask him about whether --

7 THE COURT: Can you ask him real quick? Because I'm
8 not interested in having any of this at risk. I'm going to say
9 something on the Zoom and then put the audio off. Okay?

10:20 10 MS. JOHNSON: It might just be simpler.

11 THE COURT: Yes, I think I'm just probably just going
12 to keep the audio off, but I'm going to say something before we 13 call him just so everybody knows. Because I think people are 14 wondering why the audio is off.

10:21 15 MR. KOLAYA: Good morning. Tim Kolaya on behalf of 16 the receiver. Your Honor, I just wanted to note that yesterday
17 we had concerns about audio from the Zoom. You were loud and 18 clear, but apparently counsel and the witness, in particular,
19 were very difficult to hear on the Zoom.

10:21 20 THE COURT: Okay. We should -- I mean, we have got to 21 get -- I think what I'm going to do is get people to speak
22 right into the microphone. It's the only thing we can do.

23 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: I set it up on the audio system
24 now. So it should be fine.

10:21 25 THE COURT: It should be better? Can you let us know,

1 Mr. Kolaya, if you keep getting the feedback? Because I've got
2 to keep tweaking it, but hopefully today is better.

3 MR. KOLAYA: Absolutely. We'll let you know, for 4 sure. Thank you.

10:22 5 THE COURT: And so we note for the court reporter, for 6 Gigi, she was indicating to me that sections of the trial that
7 need to be under seal, I want her to formally know. So is it
8 fair it say that this entire witness will be under seal, this
9 portion of the trial?

10:22 10 MS. JOHNSON: Let's do it. There's no reason for it
11 to be --

12 THE COURT: There's no reason. We can always move to 13 unseal it later.

14 So, Gigi, when we get this next witness, we're going
10:22 15 to be under seal until I indicate otherwise, okay?

16 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: You're going to let them
17 know --

18 THE COURT: I'm going to say something to them now as 19 to why they're going see people talking but hear nothing.

10:22 20 Okay?

21 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Because they're complaining
22 right now. Give me one second.

23 THE COURT: Let me know when it's unmuted.

24 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Yes.

10:22 25 THE COURT: Am I unmuted? Okay. Give me one second,

1 Ms. Berlin.

2 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Just so that we're clear, this is 4 Judge Ruiz, and I'm going to turn on my video so folks can see
10:22 5 me here in just a moment. All right. So this is for the 6 vesting public and those who may be watching the Zoom, as 7 everybody has indicated, you are correct, the proceedings have
8 been muted up until this point. There are concerns the Court
9 has regarding some witnesses and testimony that will be
10:23 10 presented this morning. And due to some of the security
11 concerns we have, we will not be permitted to be broadcasting
12 some of the testimony this morning as we've done yesterday.

13 Unfortunately, this is just an issue of security and 14 the Court is required to go ahead and prevent any recordings,
10:23 15 audio, visual or otherwise, that could be done via Zoom, and 16 therefore, although you will all be seeing us here as you have,
17 of course you will not be seeing the witnesses, you will not be 18 seeing the jury. You will see the lawyers. I have to inform 19 everyone that you are not having audio issues.

10:23 20 The Court will be muting this morning's testimony up
21 until a certain point. You are all free to continue to watch
22 the proceedings, even though there will be no audio, and I want
23 everyone to understand that we expect that the majority of 24 today will be with open audio. It is just this morning's
10:24 25 testimony that we cannot permit to be done in that fashion. So

1 I wanted everyone to understand that.

2 I also have received word from receiver's counsel that
3 some folks had some issues yesterday on the audio, not so much
4 from the court but from the witness and from defense counsel.

10:24 5 We have attempted to fix that today. My courtroom deputy and I
6 have changed up the audio.

7 I am certain that if it's still not working to the 8 public's satisfaction, that you will inform the receiver's
9 counsel. I'd ask that he let me know. But I just want to let 10:24 10 everyone know that hopefully today you will hear things better.
11 So with that, I'm going to be silencing the audio this morning
12 and I will unmute the audio when I can. And I appreciate
13 everyone's understanding. These are court security and 14 judicial administration issues, and I cannot have these things
10:24 15 broadcast due to the sensitive nature of the material this 16 morning.

17 So with that being said, Gracie, if we can mute,
18 please.

19 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Done.

10:25 20 THE COURT: And just to be clear, none of this is 21 being transmitting right now. The Zoom is not playing. Okay.
22 All right.

23 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we'll need a moment because 24 we have now had to add a couple of hours worth of audio based 10:25 25 on this. So it's going to be very long. And we're just having

1 to pull that e-mail. So I apologize. I just --

2 THE COURT: It's okay. It's okay. Let me ask you, on 3 the audio that we'd originally planned on playing which is was
4 stipulated to, that audio in particular, how long is that audio
10:25 5 that we expect to only play?

6 MS. BERLIN: So we were just going to -- that's 50
7 minute.

8 THE COURT: 50?

9 MS. BERLIN: 5-0. So maybe while Ms. Johnson is 10:25 10 playing that, I can be working on compiling this.

11 THE COURT: That's what I was thinking.

12 MS. BERLIN: And if we haven't finished, I might ask
13 if we can take a brief break to excuse the jury, but I'll be 14 working diligently on getting that done.

10:26 15 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go ahead and do that, and if
16 we could, I'll bring him in, and we'll bring in our witness,
17 our agent to lay the predicate so we can start playing that.
18 And then once that's playing, we can do what we need to do.
19 We'll let the jury listen to it.

10:26 20 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, and I'll just be busy back here to 21 get it done. I should be able to get it done in 50 minutes.

22 THE COURT: That works. And as we're doing that, you
23 know, I would urge, because we're just going to be playing the 24 audio, if the parties can maybe meet and confer and we can be 10:26 25 certain that we need to be playing the rest of this before we

1 do that exercise.

2 Yes, Counsel.

3 MS. JOHNSON: That's it.

4 THE COURT: We're ready to go?

10:26 5 MS. JOHNSON: Can I get my exhibit back?

6 THE COURT: Yes. Here you go.

7 Gracie, can you give that back to counsel?

8 Okay. Anything else before I bring in our agent and 9 we can start playing the audio?

10:26 10 MS. BERLIN: Not from us.

11 THE COURT: All right. Anything else on the defense?

12 Because I'm going to bring my agent and we're going to

13 essentially move -- as you stated, it's been stipulated. So

14 there will be no issues with me just getting him on, getting a

10:27 15 little bit of background and throwing on the audio because the 16 defense has agreed to this portion of the tape. So is there

17 anything else you guys need to raise before I bring in the 18 agent?

19 MR. HYMAN: No, Your Honor.

10:27 20 THE COURT: And are you guys still insisting, before I

21 have Ms. Berlin spend time and energy on additional hours of 22 testimony, that you had not had issue with or did not meet up

23 until moments ago, are you guys still insisting that now we go

24 through the academic exercise of laying ridiculous predicate

10:27 25 for two-and-a-half hours of audio? I just want to make sure.

1 Because what I don't want to happen is what happened yesterday,
2 which is I heard argument on one day and then stipulation the
3 next. We need to make sure you need this before I make them go
4 through the exercise.

10:27 5 MR. HYMAN: We'll withdraw the objection as it relates
6 to the chain of custody issue but not the audio themselves --
7 or recordings themselves and the need to play them.

8 THE COURT: Let me understand. So if you withdraw the 9 chain of custody concern, then I don't think we need the 10:28 10 additional audio.

11 MR. HYMAN: No. To be clear, the chain of custody was 12 with respect to them playing the audio. So we maintain our 13 objection as it relates to that based on the promissory note
14 and the other issues, which is why the audio, according to the 10:28 15 SEC needs to come in. However, when it comes to Mr. Murray
16 authenticating and testifying as to the chain of custody with 17 respect to the recordings themselves, we don't plan on making
18 the SEC go through that additional exercise.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So if I understand it correctly,
10:28 20 then I believe, Ms. Berlin, that they are going to raise this 21 issue. Again, they're not necessarily objecting to it. It's 22 really up to the SEC. If the SEC feels they can lay enough
23 predicate through questioning, perhaps some of this audio may 24 not even be needed until you do a redirect, if it's even 10:28 25 brought up. It might not even be an issue until redirect

1 really.

2 MS. BERLIN: I agree. And I have an idea that could
3 alleviate their concerns and address, I think, everything --

4 THE COURT: Okay.

10:28 5 MS. BERLIN: -- without us listening to hours of 6 additional testimony.

7 THE COURT: Yes. I'm just trying to avoid that.

8 MS. BERLIN: Me too. So we can just add Mr. Murray
9 and his testimony after he authenticates the videos. We can 10:29 10 just ask him because we have his -- were there subsequent 11 meetings and on what dates were those and who were they with 12 and where did those occur. And he can just state: This date,
13 here is who was present, those are recorded and --

14 THE COURT: And it would be coming in as business
10:29 15 records, right? He's reviewed them?

16 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

17 THE COURT: He's aware of them? He could testify as 18 to them?

19 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

10:29 20 THE COURT: And --

21 MS. BERLIN: We don't have to play them.

22 THE COURT: You don't have to necessarily play them
23 all.

24 MS. BERLIN: We don't have to play them all. He did
10:29 25 that on the TRO. And then we could say: Okay, so you had this

1 meeting, this meeting, this meeting. And then: What is this?
2 That's the e-mail that happened on July 6th. Thank you, no
3 further questions.

4 THE COURT: That may be easier. That way we don't
10:29 5 necessarily have to play a bunch of audio, which I don't think
6 benefits either side.

7 MS. BERLIN: It's not relevant to anything in this 8 case other than just showing -- like the only thing this is 9 relevant for is to show Mr. Furman's position in the overall
10:30 10 thing. And those -- and that the lies in the phone calls.

11 The hours and hours of other people, not defendants,
12 meeting with her is a waste of time. They don't even talk
13 about Par Funding the whole time. At one point they go out to 14 a nightclub. The one recording is eleven hours. I'm not 10:30 15 kidding. It's eleven hours. It's all of them in Florida,
16 going to dinner, then going to a nightclub. There's cross
17 chatter. I had to listen to the whole thing, so I know. Your 18 Honor, it would be a disaster.

19 THE COURT: No. I think you can get an explanation of 10:30 20 the linkage through this witness after playing the initial 21 audio of 50 minutes, which is the critical audio, given the 22 SEC's allegations, and we can go from there. And then we'll 23 allow cross-examination to explore any gaps. And then the SEC
24 can respond in kind. All right? That should be the easiest
10:30 25 way to do it, so we don't play unnecessary audio or video for

1 hours. Okay.

2 MR. HYMAN: So long as the SEC doesn't try to backdoor
3 what was said during those meetings and just who was there.

4 MS. JOHNSON: We have tried to avoid that.

10:31 5 THE COURT: All right. That's fine. Understood.
6 You'll object if something comes up. So that works. All
7 right. Let's go ahead, if we could, please, and bring our 8 jurors in.

9 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

10:32 10 THE COURT: Thank you, guys, for your patience. We're 11 getting everything set up for this morning. So don't worry;
12 we're still on schedule, as we have been from the moment we 13 started. We're going to now continue with the SEC's case and 14 have them call their next witness. So with that being said,
10:32 15 I'll turn it over to counsel.

16 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor. The SEC would 17 call Agent John Murray.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And we'll go ahead and get 19 Agent Murray, please.

20

21

22 THEREUPON, THE SEALED PORTION OF THE TRANSCRIPT WAS EXTRACTED

23

24

 FOR ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY **

25

1 THE COURT: Okay. In general, what I'm going to do is
2 because it just makes sense because we're so close to the lunch
3 hour, about 11:45, I'm going to ask everybody to come back into
4 the jury room if they could by 1:00 o'clock. Let's go ahead
11:43 5 and give you guys about an hour and 15 to take a lunch break.

6 We're still going to be moving through a number of 7 witnesses this afternoon. This was one that we needed to make 8 sure that we played for you all. It took a little longer. But 9 we're going to keep this train moving this afternoon and get 11:43 10 through a few other individuals.

11 So I want to go ahead and let you guys take a break
12 now so that we don't unnecessarily start. There's really is no
13 advantage to taking a witness for 45 minutes until the lunch
14 hour. So 1:00 o'clock in the jury room. Make sure you leave
11:43 15 your notes in there, please. You're all excused. Have a great 16 break.

17 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

18 THE COURT: Please be seated everyone. For the 19 record, we are now no longer under seal. The Court will go
11:44 20 ahead and make sure that the audio is turned back on for the 21 Zoom, and I'll let my CRD know now.

22 And I just -- just for the sake of my court reporter,
23 the agent's name has always been on all witness lists without 24 any sort of redaction. Correct? So there's no issue with his 11:44 25 name being identified as a witness.

1 MS. BERLIN: That's correct, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: So again, we will no longer be under seal
3 transcript-wise at this time, and we can go ahead and identify 4 him by name in the transcript, even though that portion is 11:44 5 under seal.

6 All right. So 1:00 o'clock is we're going to pick up
7 where we left off. Our plan today was five witnesses. We got
8 one down. I know Furman is in that lineup. I recall investors
9 being in the lineup. I suppose that investors may be fairly
10 straightforward, as one was yesterday. I don't think it's 11 going to take too long.

12 Am I expecting then at 1:00 o'clock one of those 13 investors? Who is the lineup for the afternoon?

14 MS. BERLIN: That's right. So at 1:00 o'clock we'll 11:45 15 have Robert Renner, an investor. He's already here.

16 THE COURT: Great.

17 MS. BERLIN: We thought we would be -- you know, we 18 thought we'd already be in our second witness. But we're going 19 to try to catch up. We're going to do it. And then we have 11:45 20 another investor, Henry Bart. Following that, it depends on 21 the timing because we have people kind of scheduled on Zoom and 22 breaks from work and life.

23 THE COURT: Sure.

24 MS. BERLIN: But we may have Wendy Lyman or Wendy
11:45 25 Furman would be next. And then Mr. Furman. We might change

1 the order in that because we want to get through as many. So
2 depending on what the time looks like, we might just call
3 Mr. Furman. We might put the Zoom witness in. Basically,
4 we're just going to try to use the time efficiently with 11:46 5 whoever is available.

6 THE COURT: Very good. That works for the Court.

7 Gracie, do I have audio back? Okay. All right.

8 Okay. So for those that are watching on our Zoom

9 feed, the Court has once again turned the audio back on and

11:46 10 expects this that this afternoon, all proceedings will continue 11 as they did yesterday with fully accessible audio, so everyone
12 is free to listen in.

13 And we will be resuming trial at 1:00 o'clock with

14 several investors that will be heard from and potentially

11:46 15 Mr. Furman. And we will see how things play out in the 16 afternoon.

17 So anything else on behalf of the SEC before we take
18 our break?

19 MS. BERLIN: No, thank you, Your Honor.

11:46 20 THE COURT: You're welcome.

21 Anything else on behalf of the defense before we take
22 our break?

23 MR. HYMAN: Just to the extent Your Honor has been 24 frustrated with our efforts to preserve the record, we

11:46 25 apologize.

1 THE COURT: Not a worry. I understand you guys are
2 fighting for your client and I appreciate that. And I know
3 Mr. Furman does as well.

4 So with that being said, we'll take our break at this
11:47 5 time. We'll see everybody at 1:00 o'clock. All right. We're 6 in recess. We can go off record at this time.

7

8 (Thereupon, a luncheon recess was taken.)

A F T E R N O O N S E S S I O N

14 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. All jurors
01:37 15 are now present and accounted for.

16 Rita, will you do me a favor and round them up for me,
17 please.

18 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: You got it.

19 THE COURT: Let's unmute. Are we unmuted now?

01:38 20 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Yes, Judge.

21 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

22 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. All right.
23 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, we will pick up where we left
24 off by turning to the SEC so they can call their next witness.

01:39 25 Counsel.

1 MS. JOHNSON: Hi. We will call Mr. Robert Renner.

2 THE COURT: Come on up, Mr. Renner. Take your time.

3 Thereupon,

4 ROBERT RENNER,

5 having been duly sworn by the court reporter, testified as

6 follows:

7

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MS. JOHNSON:

01:40 10 Q. Hi, Mr. Renner. Could you state your name for the record.

11 A. Robert Renner.

12 Q. And are you currently employed?

13 A. Retired.

14 Q. And what did you do before you retired?

01:40 15 A. I was a managing supervisor of a fuel company.

16 Q. And where do you live? What city do you live in?

17 A. I live in West Palm Beach now.

18 Q. And are you familiar with the defendant, Michael Furman?

19 A. Yes.

01:40 20 Q. And how are you familiar with him?

21 A. I invested money with his company.

22 Q. And how did you first hear about Mr. Furman?

23 A. On a radio commercial.

24 Q. What did the radio commercial say?

01:41 25 A. Basically he said, If you're interested in earning above

1 current interest rates and you have at least 50 thousand
2 dollars to invest for at least a year, and then the phone
3 number to call.

4 Q. And did you call that phone number?

01:41 5 A. Yes, I did.

6 Q. And did you ever meet with Mr. Furman?

7 A. Yes. I talked to him on the phone and then I met with him
8 after that phone call.

9 Q. And was that in the fall of 2019?

01:41 10 A. Approximately.

11 Q. And where did you meet him?

12 A. At his office in West Palm Beach.

13 Q. And what did you discuss with him in that meeting?

14 A. The investment.

01:41 15 Q. One investment or several investments?

16 A. Well, I was interested in one that he had talked about. He 17 had a couple of investments, but some involved real estate
18 investments or nursing home and it was a payout of partial 19 interest and principal during the life of that loan. But I was 01:42 20 only interested in a straight debt investment with a solid
21 monthly income distribution.

22 Q. So you were interested in a fixed income investment that 23 paid interest monthly; is that correct?

24 A. Exactly.

01:42 25 Q. Okay. Did he talk to you about an investment in a company

1 called Par Funding?

2 A. That was the company that I eventually invested in.

3 Q. Okay. What did he tell you about the company Par Funding?

01:42 4 A. They were in a factoring business debt. And it was a well
5 run established company he had done business with and hadn't
6 any default or problem with payment.

7 Q. Did he tell you how the company made money?

8 A. I believe he told me that it would fund debt from various 9 retail businesses.

01:43 10 Q. And you said he told you it was a well run company. What 11 did he say?

12 A. I'm sorry?

13 Q. You had said he told you it was a well run company. What 14 did he say about that?

01:43 15 A. It was a well run company that he had done business with in 16 the past and never had a problem.

17 Q. Did he tell you anything about the management of the 18 company?

19 A. No.

01:43 20 MR. JOHN: Objection, Your Honor, relevance.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 BY MS. JOHNSON:

23 Q. Did he tell you that anyone at Par Funding had a criminal
24 background, anyone running Par Funding?

01:44 25 A. Absolutely not.

1 Q. Did he tell -- explain to you the risk of investing in
2 that -- in Par Funding?

3 A. No. It was supposed to be a straight fixed income debt
4 obligation to be paid back within a year.

01:44 5 Q. Did you ask him any questions about the note, about
6 Par Funding or the investment?

7 A. No. Just if they were reliable and if he had done business
8 with them in the past. Which is --

9 Q. What did he tell you?

01:44 10 A. Yes, he had done business with them for some time and they 11 had always been reliable and on time with both principal and 12 interest payments.

13 Q. Did he tell you anything about Par Funding having any 14 issues any state regulators, any securities issues?

01:45 15 A. No.

16 Q. Did he tell you anything about Par Funding's underwriting
17 practices?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Did he tell you anything about Par Funding's default rates?

01:45 20 A. He said that he had no defaults with them.

21 Q. Anything else that you recall him talking about when
22 talking about the Par Funding notes?

23 A. No. That's about all we talked about.

24 Q. And did you end up investing in those notes after that 01:45 25 meeting?

1 A. Yes, I did. I invested $50,000.

2 Q. After that meeting?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. So in the fall of 2019?

01:45 5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Do you remember the interest -- did you end up signing any 7 documents memorializing that investment, any contracts?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And did the contracts set forth what interest rate you were 01:46 10 to receive?

11 A. 9 percent.

12 Q. And where did that $50,000 that you invested come from?

13 A. It was part of a family state inheritance distribution.

14 Q. And did you tell Mr. Furman where you were getting that 01:46 15 money from?

16 A. No. Subject never came up.

17 Q. And when you -- who did you write the check to when you
18 invested in that $50,000 note?

19 A. United Fidelis.

01:46 20 Q. And what was your understanding of what United Fidelis was 21 going to do with that check?

22 A. Well, my understanding was I paid United Fidelis,
23 United Fidelis then forwarded the funds to the debtor.

24 Q. To Par Funding?

01:46 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. So it was your understanding that you wrote a check to
2 United Fidelis, they sent the money to Par Funding. And then
3 what were they going to do with that money?

4 A. Handle it to run their business and then they would in turn
01:47 5 make the monthly interest payments back to Fidelis who
6 distributed it to me.

7 Q. So it was your understanding you were investing in
8 Par Funding?

9 A. That's what I understood, yes.

01:47 10 Q. Did you talk to Mr. Furman after that investment? After 11 that initial investment did you have any calls with him?

12 A. Yes. Later I received another distribution from my trust
13 and I called him to -- wondering about further investing since 14 I had been receiving prompt payments during the time of my
01:47 15 investment.

16 Q. So you were happy with the investment, you got another
17 distribution --

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. -- and you wanted to make another investments?

01:47 20 A. I had additional funds to invest, so I called him.

21 Q. Was that around January of 2020?

22 A. 2020, yes, January.

23 Q. Early 2020?

24 A. Yeah.

01:48 25 Q. Okay. And did you call him on the phone? How did you

1 contact him?

2 A. I contacted him at his office. By phone.

3 Q. And what did you discuss with him on that call?

01:48 4 A. Initial investment -- an additional investment to the one I
5 had already made.

6 Q. So you discussed making another investment in Par Funding;
7 is that correct?

8 A. Yes.

01:48 9 Q. Did you have any discussions with him about how Par Funding
10 was doing, how the company was operating, during that call?

11 A. No. I didn't discuss it. Only because I had been paid
12 every month on time.

13 Q. During that call, did Mr. Furman offer you any additional
14 information about Par Funding?

01:48 15 A. No.

16 Q. And after that call, did you decide to make another
17 investment in Par Funding?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. And what was that investment?

01:49 20 A. $100,000 at 10 percent.

21 Q. When you say "at 10 percent," you were to receive 10
22 percent monthly interest from the $100,000?

23 A. Well, 10 percent annual yearly -- annually, which would
24 breakdown to -- 10 percent of 10 thousand dollars divided by 9
01:49 25 would be the monthly payment.

1 Q. Right. And was that in March of 2020 when you made that
2 second investment?

3 A. March. Yes.

4 Q. And did you begin to receive investment payments --
01:49 5 interest payments on that?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. Did there come a time when those interest payments stopped?

8 A. I forget the date, but I received a -- I think three 9 payments each -- monthly interest payments, and then on the 01:50 10 fourth, the fifth payment was due, I never received anything.
11 So I called his office.

12 Q. Mr. Furman's office?

13 A. Mr. Furman's office, and he said they had a problem -- this 14 was right at the time that COVID was very active and a lot of 01:50 15 its customers were in the restaurant business and had to close
16 and they were unable to make their payments to Par Funding,
17 which then defaulted on its payments to me.

18 Q. Did you ask Mr. Furman what to do now that you weren't
19 getting your interest payments?

01:50 20 A. Yeah. I asked him what the default remedy would be to his 21 default and he said that contemplating suing them in court, but 22 they were first going to try to renegotiate the debt to a lower
23 interest rate for a longer period of time. Because if we sued, 24 we wouldn't be able to recover less than 20 percent of the
01:51 25 investment.

1 Q. So you asked him if you should sue them and he said --

2 A. I asked him if -- if he was going to sue them, and he said
3 they were first going to try to renegotiate the debt.

4 Q. Okay. And what did you understand that to mean, when he
01:51 5 said he was going to try to renegotiate? How did he explain
6 it?

7 A. He had to get all the investors to agree to a new
8 arrangement approved by Par and then they would start -- after 9 they sign new documentation, then they would start to pay
01:52 10 interest at the lower rate.

11 Q. Okay. He said he was going to try to renegotiate the debt
12 and so the investors, instead of getting the 9 or 10 percent,
13 would get a lower rate?

14 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

01:52 15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 A. Yes.

17 BY MS. JOHNSON:

18 Q. And what rate was he offering as part of the renegotiation?

19 A. I believe it was 4 percent.

01:52 20 Q. Did he suggest any other alternatives to entering into a
21 renegotiated instrument?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Did you enter into an agreement to renegotiate your 24 interest rate?

01:52 25 A. Yes, I did.

1 Q. And when was that? Do you remember the time period, the
2 month?

3 A. I believe it was a few months after that. It took a while
4 for it to get organized.

01:52 5 Q. And was that note given to you by Mr. Furman, the 6 renegotiated note?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did Mr. Furman ever offer to introduce you to any people
9 representing Par Funding?

01:53 10 A. No.

11 Q. Did Mr. Furman tell you he would invite you to any meetings
12 with Par Funding representatives?

13 A. Yes. After I made the second investment, he told me that 14 the management from Par Funding comes down to his area from 01:53 15 time to time, and the next time the meeting was set up, he 16 would have me invited to that meeting.

17 Q. Did Mr. Furman at any of these times that you talked to 18 him, either in his office or on the phone, either in your first
19 investment, your second, or your renegotiated one, ever tell
01:53 20 that you Pennsylvania had filed a regulatory case against
21 Par Funding?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Did he ever tell you that New Jersey regulators had ever
24 filed a case against Par Funding?

01:53 25 A. No.

1 Q. Did he ever tell you that the Texas regulators had ever
2 filed a case against Par Funding?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Did he ever tell you that Pennsylvania had filed a case
01:54 5 against an individual who worked at Par Funding named
6 Dean Vagnozzi?

7 MR. HYMAN: Leading, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Overruled.

9 A. No.

01:54 10 BY MS. JOHNSON:

11 Q. And did he ever tell you that Pennsylvania has filed a case
12 against a company called A Better Financial Plan?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Had you ever heard of A Better Financial Plan?

01:54 15 A. No, I haven't.

16 MS. JOHNSON: That's all I have, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

18

19 CROSS EXAMINATION

01:54 20 BY MR. JOHN:

21 Q. Good afternoon.

22 A. Good afternoon.

23 Q. Mr. Renner, during your direct examination, you mentioned
24 that you wrote a check to United Fidelis. Is it possible that 01:54 25 you actually wrote that check to Fidelis planning?

1 A. I didn't hear you say it again.

2 Q. During your direct examination the government you said that
3 you wrote a check to United Fidelis. Is it possible that you
4 actually wrote that check out to Fidelis Planning?

01:55 5 A. At this time I'm not positive. I thought I recognized it
6 was United Fidelis, but...

7 Q. Well, let me ask you this: You only dealt with Mr. Furman
8 regarding this investment, right, these two investments that 9 you just testified about?

01:55 10 A. I'm sorry. I didn't hear you.

11 Q. The investments that you just spoke about during your 12 direct examination, you only dealt with Mr. Furman; is that
13 correct?

14 A. That's correct.

01:55 15 Q. When you called Mr. Furman, he was pretty responsive to 16 you?

17 A. Did I what?

18 Q. Whenever you called -- did you ever call Mr. Furman on the 19 phone to discuss your investments?

01:55 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. When you called, was he responsive?

22 A. He was always responsive until they defaulted on the debt.

23 Q. And that was in 2020, you said?

24 A. Yes.

01:55 25 Q. You never called anyone from Par Funding, correct --

1 A. No.

2 Q. -- to discuss investments?

3 A. No.

4 Q. And you never met with anyone from Par Funding --

01:56 5 A. No.

6 Q. -- regarding investments; isn't that correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. When you met with Mr. Furman regarding your initial 9 investment with him, you were married at that time, right?

01:56 10 A. Let me see. What date was that? I was divorced in 2012.

11 So...

12 Q. So you were single when you met with him?

13 A. Yes, I was.

14 Q. And you had to disclose certain information about your 01:56 15 income to Mr. Furman, right?

16 A. Well, I was retired, but I did have to -- we did talk about 17 what my net worth was and so forth.

18 Q. He asked you -- well, strike that.

19 At the time you met with Mr. Furman, you had a gross
01:56 20 income of over $200,000; isn't that correct?

21 A. No.

22 Q. You did not have that?

23 A. Nope. I was retired.

24 Q. What was your net worth at the time that you met with
01:56 25 Mr. Furman?

1 A. You approximately $500,000.

2 Q. When you met with Mr. Furman -- strike that.

3 You called Mr. Furman regularly about your
4 investments, right?

01:57 5 A. No. I called him about the initial investment and only if 6 I had a problem receiving money, payment after that.

7 Q. You signed a promissory note for your investment with 8 Mr. Furman, right?

9 A. They signed a promissory note to me. I didn't promise.

01:57 10 Q. Right. With Fidelis, correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, can we have the screen to put 13 up an exhibit?

14 THE COURT: Has this been admitted?

01:58 15 Has this been admitted?

16 MR. JOHN: Just to him.

17 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

18 BY MR. JOHN:

19 Q. Mr. Renner, I just put a document up on the screen in front
01:58 20 of you. Do you see it?

21 A. Let me see.

22 Q. Is there a document on your screen right now?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Take a moment to look at it, and let me know if you
01:58 25 recognize this document.

1 A. No, I don't.

2 BY MR. JOHN:

3 Q. You did have a promissory note with Fidelis, correct?

4 Mr. Renner?

01:58 5 A. They had one with me. I was the investor.

6 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, we didn't get this exhibit.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Meaning it has not been -- this
8 exhibit has not been exchanged at all? He hasn't shown it to 9 the other side. Can you show it to him to make sure what it

01:59 10 is?

11 MS. JOHNSON: Can we go to sidebar?

12 (Thereupon, there was a side-bar conference outside
13 the presence and hearing of the jury.)

14 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, first of all, they were asking
01:59 15 Mr. Renner questions about this exhibit and part of it in this 16 document was actually in their exhibit list. We can show it as 17 well the accredited --

18 THE COURT: I'll take this in turn.

19 MS. BERLIN: Let's take turns.

01:59 20 THE COURT: He just said that this was your exhibit.

21 MR. HYMAN: I said that part of the document is in 22 their exhibit list, but we'll let them --

23 MS. BERLIN: So we recognize a lot of their exhibits
24 we never got. The FBI and the receiver got Mr. Furman's

02:00 25 laptop.

1 THE COURT: Right.

2 MS. BERLIN: He wouldn't turn over his password. Then
3 they gave him back his laptop. So apparently they're turning
4 up an exhibit, but we never had access because he didn't give.

02:00 5 It doesn't have a Bates stamp. It wasn't produced in 6 discovery. Mr. Furman made no production in discovery, refused
7 to give us his password, and the SEC could not hack it, could
8 not crack it open. So a lot of the exhibits we let them know
9 stuff Mr. Furman held until today.

02:00 10 THE COURT: So none of this has been produced.

11 MS. BERLIN: We don't have this. So --

12 THE COURT: Is it on an Exhibit list.

13 MS. BERLIN: It's on their exhibit list, 23 some 14 documents. We tried to get through as many as we could, but I
02:00 15 let them know for each I have to search because they don't have 16 Bates numbers. This is a document that we don't have in our 17 system. And we're going to have to do it. If you want to show
18 us in advance before each witness, I can let you know, but 19 otherwise we'd have to go one by one because.

02:01 20 THE COURT: Sure. Right.

21 MS. BERLIN: I try to do my best. I got through 11
22 hundred but --

23 MR. HYMAN: So, Your Honor, first of all, we were 24 making the same objections about the Bates stamp.

02:01 25 THE COURT: Let's move on from the Bates stamp because

1 my bigger concern is not Bates stamp, it's prejudice because
2 she haven't seen it.

3 MR. HYMAN: If you look at the Plaintiff's exhibit
4 list, they have part of that document already attached to it.
02:01 5 They only had basically not Appendix A, B and C.

6 Second, this was produced attached to Mr. Furman's
7 declaration.

8 Third, we e-mailed correspondence confirming for 9 Mr. Kolaya as well as Ms. Berlin that they had successfully
02:01 10 completed a complete forensic scan of Mr. Furman's computer.
11 It's a business record of Fidelis that has been produced by 12 these parties.

13 THE COURT: Well, the easier thing is he's not going
14 to be able to authenticate because he doesn't even know what --

02:02 15 MS. JOHNSON: He doesn't have (inaud.) --

16 MS. BERLIN: We have never seen this. We asked for 17 this in discovery. He didn't turn it over this. The receiver
18 might have gotten into his computer but --

19 THE COURT: This is very simple. For purposes of 02:02 20 going forward, we are going to have to exchange and show
21 them -- anything you guys plan on introducing is to be produced
22 to the SEC before so that I can hear arguments on this without 23 having it happen in the middle of witness testimony, number
24 one. Number two, this is not going to be admitted to this 02:02 25 witness. He doesn't even recognize the document.

1 MR. HYMAN: He will recognize the signature.

2 THE COURT: Let's ask them what the questions are. He
3 doesn't recognize -- he just said, "I don't even know what this
4 is."

02:02 5 MS. BERLIN: And we have not seen it. So it wasn't
6 produced during discovery. It can't be like, oh, you threw it
7 on an exhibit list. The rules still apply.

8 THE COURT: Whether it has a signature or not, if he
9 doesn't recognize it, you're not getting it in. So it doesn't 02:02 10 matter what you show him. If he doesn't recognize it, he 11 doesn't recognize his signature, it's not going to be admitted
12 anyway. So go ahead and ask him what you want to ask him and 13 move on. And for all future exhibits you plan on using for any 14 of these investors, you better turn it over before the next
02:02 15 one.

16 MS. BERLIN: If he does recognize his signature --

17 THE COURT: We'll deal with it then.

18 MS. BERLIN: -- we'll deal with it then.

19 THE COURT: I don't think he's going to. But maybe he 02:03 20 does. Let me see what he says. I don't know.

21 MS. BERLIN: Who knows.

22 THE COURT: I don't know. I don't know what he's 23 going to say. I don't know if he recognizes it.

24 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

02:03 25 (Thereupon, the side-bar conference was concluded.)

1 THE COURT: All right. You may resume when you're 2 ready.

3 BY MR. JOHN:

4 Q. Mr. Renner, I want to turn your attention back to the 02:03 5 document on your screen. Do you see a signature on that 6 document? Any signatures?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Do you recognize any of those signatures as your own?

9 A. Yes, I believe the third line from the top is my signature.

02:03 10 Q. Okay. So do you believe this is a document that you
11 signed?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Having looked at the document now, has your memory been
14 refreshed as to this document? Is this something that you
02:04 15 recognize?

16 A. Well, right now all I can see is the signing page. I can't 17 see the -- okay.

18 Q. Going to scroll back through the document for you, sir.

19 THE COURT: Is there a visible copy, a printout of 02:04 20 this document that you guys have --

21 MR. JOHN: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: -- to put it before the witness so that he
23 can actually look at it? It might be easier for him to see it
24 printed.

02:04 25 MR. JOHN: Actually, no, Your Honor, we don't have the

1 physical. We have only the electronic copy.

2 THE WITNESS: I can read this part now.

3 THE COURT: I guess the issue is -- if you can go
4 through it, sir. I'm trying to go through it with you. I

02:04 5 don't have the whole thing in front of me at one time. So it's 6 hard to see.

7 MR. JOHN: Mr. Renner, just take a moment. We'll
8 scroll through it, and when you're ready, let me know if you
9 recognize the document.

02:05 10 A. I recognize the top that describes the investment.

11 BY MR. JOHN:

12 Q. You said you do recognize it?

13 THE COURT: The top part he's asking.

14 A. The top part, where it (inaud.) --

02:05 15 BY MR. JOHN:

16 Q. We're going to scroll it some more for you.

17 Do you recognize the portion that's in front of you
18 now?

19 A. It's my handwriting, yes.

02:05 20 Q. So has your memory been refreshed as to this document? Do
21 you recognize it now, sir?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. What is the document that's in front of you on your screen
24 right now?

02:05 25 A. Fidelis Planning.

1 Q. I'm sorry, sir, can you speak up for me? What is --

2 A. It says Fidelis Planning, LLC.

3 Q. Do you recognize this document as a promissory note that
4 was issued to you by Fidelis?

02:06 5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And is the document that you're looking at right now, is it
7 pretty fairly and accurately represent the document that you
8 signed?

9 A. Yes.

02:06 10 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, at this time I would move the 11 Fidelis note into evidence as Defendant's 2215.

12 MS. JOHNSON: We'll object for the same reasons we 13 talked about at sidebar.

14 THE COURT: Yeah, that's going to be sustained. So
02:06 15 you may ask him questions about the note to refresh, but this 16 is not going to be admitted at this time.

17 MR. JOHN: Understood, Your Honor.

18 BY MR. JOHN:

19 Q. Mr. Renner, during your direct examination you mentioned
02:06 20 that you had been receiving regular monthly payments after 21 investigating with Fidelis; isn't that correct?

22 A. Yes. The initial investment, regular monthly payments.

23 Q. So it's fair to say that you did receive income on that 24 initial investment, right?

02:07 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You made a second investment with Fidelis, correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And you testified during your direct examination that you
4 also generated income from that investment; isn't that correct?

02:07 5 A. Correct.

6 Q. That was up until, I think you said until January of 2020;
7 is that correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. It's around the time COVID hit, right?

02:07 10 A. Excuse me?

11 Q. That's around the time that COVID hit; isn't that correct?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And when you spoke to Mr. Furman about the investments, had 14 he talked to you about why they had -- the payments had 02:07 15 stopped?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And did he mention it was in part due to COVID?

18 A. Yes, he did.

19 Q. I want you to take a look at the document one more time for 02:07 20 me, where it references accredited investor. Do you see that?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And it has the net worth on there?

23 MS. JOHNSON: I would renew the objection. It's not 24 in evidence.

02:08 25 THE COURT: I know. We've got to be careful about

1 back-dooring in any exhibit that's been kept out. He's
2 refreshed his recollection. You're permitted to ask him
3 questions about his net worth now that it's been refreshed,
4 anything about his accreditation or being sophisticated. So we 02:08 5 don't need to include this exhibit to ask him those questions.
6 I'm not going to have him read it. So ask him questions. All
7 right.

8 MR. JOHN: Sure, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. JOHN:

02:08 10 Q. Looking at the document in front of you, Mr. Renner, does
11 it --

12 MS. JOHNSON: Again, I'm going to object.

13 THE COURT: Understood. That's overruled. I'm going 14 to let him ask some questions and refresh the recollection with 02:08 15 the document without admitting it.

16 Go ahead.

17 BY MR. JOHN:

18 Q. Earlier when I began you told me that you had a net worth
19 of $500,000 when you met with Mr. Furman; is that correct?

02:08 20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Looking at the document -- looking at the document in front
22 of you, does it refresh your memory as to actually what your 23 net worth was at that time?

24 A. Based on what's printed on the page it said --

02:09 25 MS. JOHNSON: I object, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Again, it's your recollection, sir. Do
2 you recollect your net worth at the time having reviewed that
3 document now?

4 A. I recollect it as being 500 thousand.

02:09 5 BY MR. JOHN:

6 Q. Let me ask you this, Mr. Renner: Is it possible that you
7 told Mr. Furman that you had a different net worth than 8 $500,000 when you met him?

9 A. No.

02:09 10 Q. It's not possible that you told him you had a net worth of 11 over a million dollars?

12 MS. JOHNSON: Object.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 A. No.

02:09 15 BY MR. JOHN:

16 Q. So if you signed a document to that effect, Mr. Renner,
17 you're saying that would not be correct, that -- a document
18 stating that you had a net worth of over a million dollars?

19 MS. JOHNSON: Again, I'm going to object.

02:09 20 THE COURT: That's sustained. Move on.

21 BY MR. JOHN:

22 Q. During your direct examination you were asked about certain
23 regulatory actions in the states of New Jersey and 24 Pennsylvania. Do you remember that?

02:10 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You said that Mr. Furman did not disclose that to you
2 during your conversations with him, correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. When did you first learn about the regulatory actions in 02:10 5 New Jersey and Pennsylvania?

6 A. After the default occurred, an FBI agent called me to ask
7 me questions involving around this investment. And he's the 8 one that told me that Par Funding and its offices were under 9 FBI investigation for these problems.

02:10 10 Q. So it wasn't until really proceedings for this case began
11 that you learned about the regulatory actions in New Jersey and 12 Pennsylvania, right? Is that true?

13 A. It was after the default that I learned about it.

14 Q. Okay.

02:11 15 MR. JOHN: Moment to confer, Your Honor?

16 THE COURT: Yeah.

17 MR. JOHN: Just a couple more questions, Mr. Renner.

18 BY MR. JOHN:

19 Q. Do you recall sending Mr. Furman documents to confirm your 02:11 20 net worth?

21 A. No.

22 Q. You never sent him any documents confirming net worth?

23 A. No, I didn't.

24 MR. JOHN: Moment to confer, Your Honor?

02:11 25 MR. HYMAN: Would you mind, Your Honor, taking us off

1 the screen for a moment, please.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 THE COURT REPORTER: (Complies.)

4 MR. JOHN: One moment, Your Honor, we're having a bit
02:12 5 of technical difficulties.

6 Your Honor, can we have the screen again just for
7 Mr. Renner?

8 THE COURT: Sure.

9 THE COURT REPORTER: (Complies.)

02:13 10 BY MR. JOHN:

11 Q. Mr. Renner, I just put a --

12 MS. JOHNSON: We see what --

13 THE COURT: Impeachment material.

14 MR. JOHN: Just for Mr. Renner, Your Honor.

02:13 15 THE COURT: I know. I know. I'm just saying, I know
16 it's coming, but it's impeachment.

17 Go ahead.

18 BY MR. JOHN:

19 Q. Mr. Renner, I just put a document on your screen. Do you
02:13 20 see it?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Looking at that document, does it refresh your memory as to 23 what you -- as to whether or not you sent documents to 24 Mr. Furman regarding your net worth?

02:13 25 MS. JOHNSON: I'm going to object, Your Honor. He's

1 mischaracterizing --

2 A. I see a document, but I did not -- I did not represent an
3 IRA exceeding over a million dollars.

4 BY MR. JOHN:

02:14 5 Q. I'm sorry, say it one more time.

6 A. I see a document, but I did not specify that I had an IRA
7 that exceeded a million dollars.

8 Q. Okay.

9 MR. JOHN: No further questions for this witness at 02:14 10 this time. No further questions for this witness, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Redirect, please.

12 MS. JOHNSON: Sure.

13

14 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

02:14 15 BY MS. JOHNSON:

16 Q. Defense counsel asked you whether you wrote a check to 17 Fidelis or United Fidelis. Regardless of who you wrote the 18 check to, was it your understanding that that check was going
19 to Mr. Furman to send to Par Funding for an investment?

02:15 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you vested $150,000 in the Par Funding notes, correct?

22 A. Two separate payments, one of 50 and one of 100.

23 Q. Are you still owed that $150,000 in principal?

24 MR. JOHN: Objection, Your Honor, relevance.

02:15 25 THE COURT: Overruled.

1 MS. JOHNSON: You opened the door.

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 You may answer. Is that a yes, sir?

4 BY MS. JOHNSON:

02:15 5 Q. Are you still owed that money?

6 A. Yes, I'm still owed the principal of $150,000.

7 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Anything further? Was there anything
9 further from the SEC?

02:15 10 MS. JOHNSON: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Any members of the jury have any questions
12 for the witness? No. Okay.

13 MR. JOHN: May we approach briefly?

14 THE COURT: Sidebar.

02:16 15 (Thereupon, there was a side-bar conference outside
16 the presence and hearing of the jury.)

17 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, I think the door was just 18 opened to -- as to why he doesn't have the money. It was just 19 left hanging out there as to where the money is. It's still 02:16 20 tied up in the receiver litigation. I just want to ask him
21 about that.

22 THE COURT: No, because the money is frozen, but it's 23 not been returned. I mean, I can't -- I'm not going to open
24 the door and go tit-for-tat now. The money is in for return
02:16 25 because there are completely unfrozen under my orders. If we

1 start getting into that, there's no turning back. The key is,
2 he has not been made whole. He hasn't not been gotten his
3 return in investment.

4 MR. JOHN: But it's because of this litigation.

02:16 5 THE COURT: Well, you guys opened the door to him
6 making his investments. I have to make it clear that he
7 doesn't have his money back. I mean, I'm not going to open the 8 door now and talk about why doesn't he have it. He wouldn't 9 get it even if it was unfrozen.

02:16 10 It would still be sitting there until we get the 11 disclosure anyway, so that's misleading. It's not because of 12 the freeze. He still wouldn't get it until we started all of 13 the claims. It's been in litigation. I can't do that. That's 14 going to make it very messy. It's going to insinuate that it's 02:17 15 not because of Mr. Furman and his business that the money is 16 not there, but somehow because the Court has frozen it, and 17 that could generate all sorts of misinterpretations. I think 18 it's too slippery a slope under 403. I can't do it. All
19 right.

02:17 20 Can we help the witness, please?

21 Thank you so much. You're excused, sir.

22 And while we're excusing the witness, Rita, could you
23 assist me.

24 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, I need a moment to 02:17 25 speak to the lawyers for the next witness. Leave your notepads

1 in your chairs. This will not take more than ten minutes, but
2 let me go ahead and excuse you all for just a moment, please.

3 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

4 THE COURT: Okay. Let me just deal with a little
02:19 5 housekeeping here because I'm not a fan of surprises and I'm 6 not really sure what is going on with the exchange of these
7 exhibits. That last witness, that was a bit cumbersome and
8 although I allowed the defense to get into some of the theory
9 of the case without bringing in the exhibit, we have a couple
02:19 10 more investors and I strongly suspect we're going to get more
11 of the same for the next few.

12 So here is at least my understanding of what I think
13 has just transpired, and you can correct me if my summary is 14 inaccurate or if I made a mistake. One of the main defenses
02:19 15 that is being advanced by Mr. Furman is that he is excused or 16 exempt because he has offered these instruments to individuals
17 who are accredited investors and at least, as far as I can
18 tell, have a certain level of net worth that is part and parcel
19 of trying to at least gain that accreditation status so that 02:20 20 then he is in a position where he is able to avail himself of 21 the exemption.

22 That is at least the way I understand the defendant's
23 belief in the use of 506(c), if my memory is right. So what is 24 being advanced now are waivers, if you will, or forms that
02:20 25 Mr. Furman purportedly advanced to some of these investors

1 whereby he requested that they sign off on representations
2 regarding the net worth of a million dollars or more and that
3 they were essentially accredited or had the requisite baseline
4 knowledge to get into this type of investment obligation and 02:20 5 this kind of opportunity.

6 What was shown to the last witness was a form that he
7 didn't recall but did acknowledge signing that seemed to have a
8 check mark or an initial by his net worth, although it's a
9 little unclear if that net worth was pre or post divorce. It
02:21 10 was because it was a net worth of him and his spouse. But be 11 that as it may, he checked that. And then there was a separate 12 section on that that was referenced about providing financial 13 documentation. An e-mail was then shown to him. The e-mail
14 seemed to suggest that if he had backup information for an IRA
02:21 15 account next to the million, that he should provide that
16 information.

17 He declined to do so because he stated he did not have 18 an IRA account that had that kind of value. So he wouldn't 19 have -- at least in his view, I gleaned that he wouldn't have 02:21 20 responded to that e-mail because he didn't qualify for that 21 and, therefore, didn't provide any backup. I think that 22 summarizes what happened.

23 The objection at sidebar was that these documents that
24 are being used, I don't necessarily know. They weren't really
02:22 25 used for impeachment. The only reason why the e-mail I allowed

1 to go forward is -- and did not need to be disclosed, is it was
2 an exhibit used for impeachment.

3 But in the beginning, he refreshed his recollection,
4 the defense did, with this form. I'm told now that this is the 02:22 5 first time the SEC ever saw that form, which should be 6 obviously problematic for court administration purposes and 7 scheduling orders and exchanging exhibits.

8 The retort to that was the defense did provide it. It
9 is in their 2,000-some exhibits, and if they did not provide 02:22 10 it, it was actually part of an existing SEC exhibit, but 11 attachments to an exhibit that they already have.

12 I think I've summarized what has happened just now.
13 So there's a couple of issues at play going forward. Number
14 one, we need to know -- with the few investors we have left
02:22 15 coming forward, if I'm expecting that a similar form is going
16 to be presented to each of them in indicating their net worth.
17 I don't know if it is, but I'm going to assume that that's 18 something that we're going to get. So can the defense proffer,
19 are the next couple of investors going to be presented with a
02:23 20 document similar to the one that was just shown to the last
21 witness?

22 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor. For purposes of clarity,
23 the document that we showed him was the promissory note that he 24 signed. The accredited investor portion of it is an exhibit to 02:23 25 every single one of these appendix to these promissory notes

1 that these investors signed. That's --

2 THE COURT: That's what I've been told. So let me
3 hear from the SEC.

4 The SEC has not seen these attachments to the 02:23 5 promissory notes. I would assume that for purposes of avoiding
6 any prejudice, if they are on a disclosure list of exhibits,
7 this doesn't sound like it's a needle in a haystack one. It
8 sounds like it's one the SEC would be aware of.

9 MS. BERLIN: Well, there's a big difference. First of 02:23 10 all, for us, we don't know how many times we can say this. No
11 jury is going to be asked to find if the Fidelis offering was 12 unregistered, which is what he's claiming. He's claiming a
13 506(c) exemption on the Fidelis offering. We didn't charge
14 that. So for us, it's like having a trial about the accredited
02:24 15 issue on the Fidelis offering is irrelevant because the SEC
16 didn't charge it.

17 THE COURT: Well, let's talk about that.

18 MS. BERLIN: We understand they want to have a trial
19 about it.

02:24 20 THE COURT: No, no, but -- I don't care what they want
21 to have a trial about. It's what I'm going to permit there be
22 a trial about without confusing the issues. So it's important
23 that we address this now. Because before I get into a whole
24 sideshow over a nonexistent charge or claim, we should address
02:24 25 it. There has been thrown around the 506(c), and I want to be

1 very clear so that we don't mislead the jurors.

2 The initial Par Funding offering, meaning the notes
3 that Furman is alleged to have peddled, Par Funding ones, not
4 the Fidelis ones, this 506(c), I don't believe at any point is 02:24 5 attached to that work that he did on behalf of Par Funding,
6 right?

7 MS. BERLIN: He can argue anything he wants. Let me
8 be clear.

9 THE COURT: Well, they can't argue anything that's 02:24 10 irrelevant. That's going to confuse my jury.

11 MS. BERLIN: I think it's all irrelevant. If I can 12 just stand here.

13 THE COURT: Yeah. What I'm trying to figure out is 14 can you answer --

02:25 15 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

16 THE COURT: I need answers to my questions. I need to 17 understand. This entire argument which is the attachments to 18 the promissory notes are for the Fidelis notes, right? Can we 19 all agree on that? This is the Fidelis notes.

02:25 20 MS. BERLIN: It looked like that one would have been.

21 THE COURT: Let's take it step by step.

22 MS. BERLIN: The one we saw was a Fidelis note
23 offering.

24 THE COURT: So the SEC is not alleging -- or you tell
02:25 25 me -- that there's any concern with the offering of the Fidelis

1 notes when it comes to this exemption? Walk me through that 2 part.

3 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely. So for Mr. Furman, the 4 charge is that -- because a Section 5 claim is transaction by 02:25 5 transaction, meaning offer by offer, meaning every investor,
6 it's a charge. It's note an overall offering over years. It's 7 deal by deal.

8 So for Mr. Furman, the allegation is that he violated
9 Section 5 not by being the issuer but by being the necessary
02:26 10 participant, a substantial participant in the Par Funding
11 offering because -- and that's why we showed that big chart
12 that's color-coded -- he would gather people's money -- this 13 was, like, prearranged, like he was their agent. He gathers
14 people's money, he sends it to Par Funding, he buys the note.
02:26 15 If you hear the definitions of the securities laws of offer and 16 sale, he doesn't have to be the person who's issuing. That's 17 different.

18 You can participate directly or indirectly as a
19 substantial participant, which is a different test from the 02:26 20 test that applies to an issuer, where an issuer is obviously 21 directing. If they don't issue the note, there can be no
22 offers or sale. So there's always a but for.

23 So for Mr. Furman, the allegation is that he is 24 participating in the unregistered Par Funding offering which he 02:27 25 did two ways. One, in 2017 he solicits investors to buy

1 Par Funding notes directly, and he does that same thing again
2 at least with [REDACTED] in 2020.

3 The other way he participates in the Par Funding
4 offering -- so each of -- either of those would be a Section 5
02:27 5 if the jury finds he did either of those offers.

6 Then the other way he participates in the Par Funding
7 offering is by gathering investors' money and using it -- it's 8 like preplanned. You know, I'm going to gather your money and 9 I'm going to send it up to Perry in exchange for a note that 02:27 10 pays me for doing this.

11 So he's a substantial participant, and in every one of 12 those times that he buys a note from Par Funding using investor
13 money, that's a Section 5 violation. He's buying unregistered
14 Par Funding note, he's using other people's investor money.
02:28 15 He's basically like the catalyst, like the person who's 16 siphoning -- we call it funneling money up to the issuer.

17 Now, the other way that we charge a Section 5 is 18 because of ABFP, and we're going to get there, like with 19 Mr. Furman when we take his testimony. You haven't heard about 02:28 20 that much during the trial. A little bit.

21 In 2017, that first deal he did with Renee Meyers,
22 which we talked about, yesterday, he offers a note to her in a
23 November e-mail in Par Funding. Then he ends up -- when he 24 finds out you have to have a company to do this deal with 02:28 25 Par Funding, he uses his friend, Dean Vagnozzi's fund to siphon

1 the money through.

2 And instead of buying a Par Funding note that time, he
3 bundles the investor money to buy an ABFP note from 4 Dean Vagnozzi. The ABFP note is unregistered, has never been 02:29 5 registered. So basically, the same thing he does with 6 Par Funding, where he's just bundling investor money to buy an
7 unregistered note, he does it with ABFP.

8 There is no charge -- I mean, we're happy to because I
9 don't think they can show that all these guys were -- it would 02:29 10 be his burden to show that they're all accredited. He would 11 have to do that for every single person that he offered it to.
12 We know he offered it on the radio and events to the public.

13 But -- and that would be fine, but I'm limited by what
14 the SEC charged, obviously, what the commissioners at the SEC
02:29 15 decide what cases to bring, and I litigate them. And this case
16 is that Mr. Furman violated as a necessary or substantial
17 participant in the Par Funding offering -- either way I just 18 described -- through the ABFP offering.

19 Those offerings, you would have to show, for a 506(c),
02:30 20 that all of those investors -- and we know there were like
21 thousands of investors in Par Funding -- that they were all
22 accredited, and then -- which Par Funding never even claimed.
23 They didn't claim that exemption.

24 And they would have also have to show the same thing
02:30 25 for ABFP. They show that both of those are not registered but

1 entitled to a 506(c). That was his affirmative defense, was
2 506(c). That's not what either of those companies ever even
3 argued during this case.

4 We have never argued -- like, even on summary
02:30 5 judgment, we don't even talk about Fidelis. We're like
6 Par Funding is a security, ABFP is a security. Neither are 7 registered. That's the issue.

8 So even if we have a trial about Fidelis and whether 9 it was registered, unregistered, people are accredited, it was 02:30 10 a general offering, all the many, many ways that that could be 11 a Section 5, at the end of the day, the jury is not going to be 12 asked to find the Section 5 involving Fidelis.

13 THE COURT: Correct. But isn't it correct -- again,
14 this is at least the way I understand the theory, that they're 02:31 15 attempting to advance a theory that upon buying -- at least an 16 ABFP, maybe not the Par Funding, but that upon getting the 17 money they were pooling or the money they were funneling, that 18 they procured that money by seeking a sign-off as to 19 accreditation by those giving the money so that somehow they 02:31 20 could avail themselves of the exemption as they follow the 21 money up. Does that make sense? That's what I think they're 22 attempting to do, but I want to know legally what the SEC's
23 position is on that.

24 MS. BERLIN: So that's really interesting. An 02:31 25 exception from registration tacks to the issuer and the note

1 that's at issue. So here, what exemption applies, you don't
2 look at a person. Right? You have to look at the --

3 THE COURT: Instrument.

4 MS. BERLIN: -- the instrument. So here, the 02:31 5 instruments being charged are the Par Funding and the ABFP
6 note. So you have to look at what exemptions apply to them.
7 So for those, if they wanted to step into the shoes of those 8 two companies -- which those two companies filed with the 9 SEC -- like, we're going to get to that. They didn't claim a
02:32 10 506(c) because they can't.

11 You would have to show that all of those investors --
12 Dean Vagnozzi solicited, Par Funding solicited -- were 13 accredited. So showing one or two, you know, people are 14 accredited for Fidelis, that's -- that's not get to get you
02:32 15 there. You'd have to show that every -- you know, to get a 16 506(c) note, everybody is accredited and they shared financial 17 statements. There's a lot. You have to go through 502.
18 There's several, like, steps. We haven't gotten the jury
19 instructions on a 506(c), but when we do, we can address that.
02:32 20 There are multiple steps, but it talks to the instrument.

21 So going through with individual investors and then
22 offering that we did not charge as a Section 5, it's just not
23 relevant to any claim. Let's say every person -- we're going
24 to call four investors -- or five now that Mr. DeLucco is out
02:33 25 of the hospital. Let's say they're all like, yeah, I was

1 accredited at the time, if they know what that means. But if
2 they were accredited, that's five down, 2000 to go. Where are
3 those two thousand people? I can't be sure they're all
4 accredited. They don't have that witness list or even that 02:33 5 evidence to present.

6 THE COURT: I guess the point is there is relevancy to 7 attempting to show that there is accreditation or that there
8 are accredited investors on the few that are here. The legal 9 impact of that will be discussed in closing and in jury
02:33 10 instructions, but it's not something that is -- at least in 11 their view -- wholly relevant, because they, I believe,
12 continue to maintain that if they can show some sort of 13 accreditation by these investors, they're going to get up at 14 the end of the case and say that they're entitled to -- and 02:34 15 I'll go have to give an instruction on this -- under 506(c) to 16 seek an exemption because the investors were accredited, and 17 when they went ahead and did that accreditation through 18 Fidelis, that is -- at least in the view of the defense, I take 19 it -- tantamount to getting in on ABFP and Par Funding. Again,
02:34 20 I'm surmising that position, but that's the only thing that 21 would make sense.

22 MS. BERLIN: They're not investors. As the defendant
23 keeps pointing out -- and I love it -- that these investors,
24 they're giving their money to Mr. Fidelis -- or I'm sorry,
02:34 25 Mr. Furman, who has Fidelis. He's like the middleman, right?

1 So for Par Funding, they're not on a promissory note. So like
2 when you're doing a 506(c) analysis, you'd have to look at the
3 investors. The person who is buying that particular note --

4 THE COURT: Not the direct investors.

02:34 5 MS. BERLIN: Right.

6 THE COURT: Fidelis itself buying the note is it
7 not --

8 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, using --

9 THE COURT: Fidelis bought it using investors' money,
02:35 10 but Fidelis buys it.

11 MS. BERLIN: Right. They funnel it up. So it's 12 like -- a Section 5 is not like such a big complicated
13 (inaud.). it's like if you're participating in offering or 14 selling of any security, it has to be registered with the SEC,
02:35 15 period, unless there's one of these unique situations. And 16 because the instrument here that we charged is not Fidelis --
17 although we are happy to -- I think we could seek to amend our 18 pleadings to conform with the evidence.

19 We could do that trial. But that's -- we could. I'm 02:35 20 not saying it facetiously. I'm saying we would not be close to 21 that, but I'm just being fair. Like, that's not the case that 22 was charged. So the accreditation of these people isn't
23 relevant to what? Like --

24 THE COURT: That's why -- that's literally why I'm 02:35 25 having this discussion, because part of the challenge is before

1 I get into any sort of ruling on the exhibits that either were
2 not disclosed or are misleading or something to that effect,
3 I'm just trying to get to the bottom of the theory of the 4 defense to try to show that in the Fidelis documentation and
02:36 5 the promissory notes -- and again, they're Fidelis promissory
6 notes, right? That's what's happening here.

7 But the Fidelis notes themselves are not at the heart
8 of the SEC's case. The money procured from the Fidelis
9 promissory notes is funneled up to either by ABFP notes or 02:36 10 Par Funding notes, I believe, or maybe -- I think that -- maybe
11 not even the Par Funding part. It may be just ABFP.

12 MS. BERLIN: We're going to show tomorrow.
13 Mr. Abbonizio, he's an accountant and obviously it's not like I
14 get to prep him. It's not a lot of time, right? He's a former 15 defendant.

16 So we're going to have -- we're going to put those 17 notes on and we'll show that -- we have Mr. Klenk coming.
18 Par Funding -- and Mr. Furman will testify because he's the one
19 buying them, he buys them directly from Par Funding. Like, the 02:37 20 money comes from him to Par Funding.

21 He gets -- there is someone at ABFP who he puts on as 22 a signatory on his Fidelis account, but then he'll send the 25
23 percent cut to Vagnozzi afterwards. So he sends the money to 24 Fidelis. We've got the bank records. We have his own e-mails
02:37 25 too. I don't think that's an issue in dispute. I think maybe

1 there was --

2 THE COURT: Well, I think that -- so then let's turn
3 to the remaining investors that we have. And the fact that 4 these documents are going to be, as proffered, shown to all of 02:37 5 these investors in an attempt to show that they are accredited
6 in their view of the evidence or theory that that's going to 7 give them a safe harbor.

8 Your concerns on this disclosure, they're telling me
9 that these are part of the attachments to the Fidelis notes and 02:37 10 therefore, from a prejudice angle, it's nonexistent. This is 11 not as if these were slipped into an exhibit list and anybody
12 had no idea what they are. I'm asking the position -- and I'll 13 ask this: Unless I'm missing something, these instruments are 14 legitimately being introduced for -- specifically for the truth
02:38 15 of the matter asserted. They're attempting to introduce them
16 based upon an ability or an attempt to show valuation of the 17 individual investor to hit the million, and as well as any 18 sign-off on accreditation. So this isn't a records custodian.
19 I don't know how these individuals can be the conduit to get in 02:38 20 that hearsay because it won't get under 803(6), so they have an 21 inadmissibility called. Period. They'd have to get someone up
22 here, maybe it's for the record, maybe Furman himself could
23 come up and say --

24 MS. BERLIN: It would have to be the receiver
02:38 25 probably.

1 THE COURT: The receiver, right, in the regular course
2 of business. These are the documents. So they could ask the
3 question, but for purposes of any sort concern about being
4 sandbagged on an exhibit, these don't come into evidence
02:38 5 through any of these investors, many of which don't even
6 remember signing it. And so it's -- it may not be a big issue.

7 They can refresh the recollection all they want ask
8 these guys if they remember signing off on this, but they're 9 not going to get in a single one of these attachments through
02:39 10 an investors. So that is not as much a problem, but I guess I
11 just want to make sure I understand the SEC's concern as an 12 objection pro forma about the exhibit being shown to him at 13 all, right, because you guys have raised that. Maybe it's not 14 as big a deal. I don't know.

02:39 15 MS. BERLIN: I think the issue was, you know, you
16 can't show someone a document to refresh their recollection,
17 leave it on the screen --

18 THE COURT: Correct. (Cross-talk) -- you're 19 back-dooring it in.

02:39 20 MS. BERLIN: And then ask them questions about it.

21 THE COURT: I agree. I agree.

22 MS. BERLIN: That's not really proper.

23 But the other issue I have is -- and I raised it --
24 you know, I tried to kind of predict, you know, I can see sort
02:39 25 of where some of the issues will be, and, you know, you can --

1 I like to go fast. Our plan is 14 witnesses in four days and a
2 morning. Okay. So we're getting bogged down on stuff like
3 this --

4 THE COURT: Correct.

02:39 5 MS. BERLIN: -- and I had asked, can I please just 6 get -- you don't have to, but if you show it to me in advance,
7 I can let you know if there's an issue.

8 THE COURT: Well, that's why I'm doing this, because I
9 have three more investors I want to get through and I don't
02:40 10 want to have interruptions. So I guess I'm hearing a proffer
11 that the defense intends on showing a similar attachment for 12 each of the investors that they either purportedly signed or at 13 least acknowledged.

14 I don't think I'm hearing a problem other than your
02:40 15 point, which I agree about not letting backdoor admissibility
16 by letting them read it, but I don't think there's a problem if 17 each one of them is shown to refresh a recollection, anything
18 regarding a sign-off of their net worth or anything of that 19 nature, and then they can be refreshed and they can testify
02:40 20 about it as to whether they produced documents, for example.
21 They can testify about it if it's impeachment. That's a little
22 bit different, but I think that's fine.

23 I think the defense understands that they wouldn't be 24 able to admit them through the investors, but is the SEC at 02:40 25 least from an objection standpoint, other than back-dooring,

1 can the SEC live with that method of questioning without it
2 becoming a concern about this being something off the exhibit
3 list? Because that was the initial concern, that it was like
4 this came out of left field type of thing.

02:41 5 MS. BERLIN: Exactly. The way I view a document, I
6 think it's improper for us to have to permit any document that
7 wasn't produced during discovery.

8 THE COURT: Correct.

9 MS. BERLIN: So we have discovery -- like, this is not
02:41 10 a brand new case, we're not on a rocket docket. We're all 11 sharing things. Because we do that in administrative 12 proceedings, we're getting documents as we go along. It's not 13 for a trial in federal court.

14 THE COURT: What do you make of this argument that 02:41 15 these are either on the list or part of attachments on your 16 list?

17 MS. BERLIN: So one of the pieces of -- there is a
18 piece of that -- for example, the last document that was just 19 shown, a piece of it is attached to a document we have.

02:41 20 Is that right, Alise?

21 I think we have -- I'm trying to remember -- we have
22 documents --

23 THE COURT: I know it was a lot.

24 MS. JOHNSON: (Cross-talk) -- what he was showing
02:41 25 them, the accreditation form --

1 MS. BERLIN: We don't have that.

2 MS. JOHNSON: What we got was what they had shown
3 Mr. Renner, which was just the signed note.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So the attachments are not
02:41 5 documents, and we've already heard sidebar the explanation
6 about what was produced, not produced --

7 MS. BERLIN: He produced zero. He produced zero.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MS. BERLIN: So then -- that's right, he produced
02:42 10 zero. But as I said to them, like, you give me an exhibit list
11 of 2,300 documents, and they're not Bates -- most are 12 Bates-stamped or -- and we asked them, can you just take the 13 label off because if you have a Bates number, I can put it in 14 my system and let you know for sure if I got it --

15 THE COURT: Let me streamline this because I don't
16 want to belabor --

17 MS. BERLIN: -- but they can't -- just to help. I'm 18 just trying to help them.

19 THE COURT: Listen, I don't want to belabor this too
02:42 20 much because I want to get the investors on the stand.

21 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. Thanks, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: So the important thing for me is the 23 following: As far as I can tell, these are defense exhibit
24 list, understandably, along with thousands of other documents.
02:42 25 So in order to streamline the remaining investors with this

1 document, I want to make sure that the defense understands.

2 I'm not prohibiting you guys from using documents to
3 refresh recollection, provided you show it to Ms. Berlin or her
4 co-counsel before bringing it up, so that there's nothing that
02:42 5 they've never seen or that they just want to make sure that you
6 refresh it with something that's appropriate. And provided
7 that you refresh their recollection and not have them read the 8 document in evidence or attempt to show the document up on the 9 screen to walk them through testimony, there's not going to be 02:43 10 a problem with you talking about their accreditation and 11 whether or not they represented their net worth or provided
12 documents as to net worth. I'm letting you guys do what you're 13 attempting to do for each investor, but it's not appropriate.
14 Number one, it cannot be a foundation laid to get it in through
02:43 15 these investors, evidentiary-wise.

16 And number two, that will really moot any prejudice
17 that's being argued about this being a last minute filed
18 exhibit because you guys are getting what you need out of it
19 without necessarily putting it into evidence because you don't 02:43 20 have the proper predicate, you don't have anybody that could 21 bring them in at this point.

22 So I guess let me -- and I think my question is, can
23 the SEC live with the Court's ruling as to you guys see it
24 before it's brought to the investor, understanding that they 02:43 25 can't move it through these investors and they can only use it

1 to refresh recollection? Is that something that we can handle?

2 I think we can do that.

3 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely. They can refresh and --
4 those things can be done.

02:43 5 THE COURT: Okay. So I just want to -- and again, we 6 can talk about the relevancy later, but it's easier for us to 7 just get through this and then the SEC, at some point through
8 other testimony, can make the arguments or closing that what it
9 shown through these investors is insufficient to procure the 02:44 10 exemption. We can get to that later.

11 MS. BERLIN: Well, that's their burden.

12 THE COURT: I don't want to stall the testimony now.

13 So let me hear from the defense. You guys are going 14 to be permitted to show these forms to the -- excuse me, to the 02:44 15 investor, to the remaining investors, to try to elicit
16 testimony that they were accredited, they represented that they 17 were accredited and in many cases, maybe they willingly tell
18 you they were accredited.

19 If they do, you may not need to show anything. But if 02:44 20 they do not remember, you can show them, they can look at it,
21 they can review it and then you can ask followup on it without
22 admitting it, and that will let you explore the accreditation
23 part of it. It will let you talk about the fact that they may 24 have represented the net worth of a million or higher, and then
02:44 25 that should take care of this issue in a way that doesn't

1 backdoor in something in appropriately or try to admit
2 something that they can lay a predicate for. I think that
3 should take care of it.

4 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, part of the difficulty is that
02:45 5 the documents we're trying to introduce are the very instrument
6 that the SEC is using to charge Mr. Furman. Every single 7 investor that's come up here today did not invest in 8 Par Funding, they invested in Fidelis. Every single one of 9 them testified that they signed a promissory note to Fidelis.

02:45 10 The only thing we're trying to do is after these 11 people were questioned about the promissory notes, which by the 12 way, the SEC then kind of is trying to play a little bit of 13 a -- I don't know, games or something by eliciting through 14 testimony instead of the promissory notes themselves. Did you
02:45 15 sign a note with the Fidelis? Did you think it was actually
16 invested in Par Funding?

17 Every single investor here invested in Fidelis.
18 Mr. -- well, his wife invested in Fidelis, Mr. Renner invested
19 in Fidelis. And the instruments they signed is what we are 02:45 20 trying to show them to ask them questions about. So --

21 THE COURT: Am I correct that every investor so far
22 has testified, number one, as to a number of things they were 23 not aware of regarding the difficulties that Par Funding had?
24 So meaning that as part of the Fidelis offer -- Fidelis
02:46 25 offering and that money being pooled, even the last investor

1 said he knew it was going to Par Funding. What he did not know
2 was the number of issues Par Funding was having, whether we
3 want to talk about regulatory concerns or prior record of 4 principles of Par Funding or default rates.

02:46 5 All of these things are issues that each investor has
6 stated, as far as I know, they were not made aware of as part
7 of the Fidelis offerings. So even if that money was being 8 pooled to go up to Par Funding, at no point were some of the 9 underlying concerns with Par Funding that the SEC maintains
02:46 10 were material or the omissions related to Par Funding properly
11 disclosed to these investors. That's kind of the over-arching
12 problem.

13 And then you go a step further and that is that I
14 don't think any investor was aware that the way in which this
02:46 15 was being pooled was a little unique. It was being pooled in a
16 way that Fidelis and Furman got a higher rate of return
17 promissory note. When he exchanged, then they did, something
18 they probably would have wanted to know. I mean, that's the 19 problem.

02:47 20 So my point is, all of this accredited -- let me try
21 to make it very simple, at least how I think a jury will 22 probably see this. A jury is not going to worry so much about 23 whether they're accredited or not because no representation of 24 being accredited somehow negates an omission. An omission is 02:47 25 an omission is an omission. If it's material, it doesn't

1 matter what you get or don't get. They can't go into it eyes
2 wide open under disclosure regime. So a lot of this -- I mean,
3 this is a preview of what's going to happen when you guys get
4 to closing. They're going to get up there and go, who cares?
02:47 5 Every single one of you could have been accredited. They could
6 be billionaires. Not even a billionaire somehow means that you
7 don't have to get disclosures.

8 So the issue is, did he disclose or did he not 9 disclose, did he omit and was it material, would investors have 02:47 10 wanted to know these things before giving money that they knew 11 was making its way to Par Funding, an investment that was 12 problematic.

13 So I'm letting you guys bring in this, but I just want
14 everyone to kind of understand the legal ramification of this 02:48 15 is at closing, or when this all gets synthesized through the 16 witness, none of these exemptions mean that you do not have to 17 make material disclosures. They are not mutually exclusive. I
18 think that's -- I think that's very clear.

19 MS. BERLIN: That's completely different.

02:48 20 MR. HYMAN: It's two different issues, Your Honor.
21 They're currently charging Mr. Furman with the alleged sale of 22 unregistered security, as well as the 10b-5. The response to 23 the unregistered security is the offering. And as Ms. Furman
24 herself said, offering is on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

02:48 25 THE COURT: Ms. Berlin, yeah.

1 MR. HYMAN: And therefore, when you look at the
2 registration requirements, you look at what the instruments
3 were that were executed and whether or not a particular
4 exemption would or would not apply. Every investor that has 02:48 5 come up here today so far has --

6 THE COURT: Wait a minute, that's the instrument. Not 7 the investor. So what are you putting on to show that the 8 instrument, which I found to be a security, is exempt from 9 letting him or requiring them to make disclosures?

02:49 10 MR. HYMAN: It's not the disclosure issue, Your Honor,
11 that we're dealing with in terms of the accredited investor.
12 The accredited status deals with the unregistered securities
13 and the 506(c) exemption.

14 THE COURT: So you believe that an -- okay. For a
02:49 15 minute. You believe -- let's assume that you think that there 16 is a 506(c) exemption to allowing the securities to be sold in 17 an unregistered fashion.

18 MR. HYMAN: Correct.

19 THE COURT: And do you believe that in an unregistered
02:49 20 securities offering, you can still make material omissions or 21 misstatements? Because the last time I checked, they're 22 mutually exclusive.

23 MR. HYMAN: Correct, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: It doesn't matter -- let's assume they 02:49 25 don't need to be registered. Just because you're not

1 registered doesn't mean you can lie about an unregistered
2 offering either.

3 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely. You could be registered.
4 You can be offering a stock on the Stock Exchange. It is 02:49 5 registered, it is highly regulated, and if you lie, it's the 6 same fraud it is here.

7 THE COURT: But that's what I'm trying to understand.
8 So why would it matter?

9 MR. HYMAN: Because they're charging Mr. Furman with 02:50 10 the sale and solicitation of unregistered securities, and the 11 response is the exemption applies. If they drop their 12 unregistered securities claim and proceed on the fraud claim,
13 then the accredited status is no longer relevant, neither is 14 what Mr. Furman did to verify their accredited investor status.

02:50 15 THE COURT: Can you respond to this briefly? Again,
16 unless -- I am by no means an expert in securities regulation,
17 but I feel like I have familiarized myself with the last year
18 with enough issues that this argument doesn't make any sense.
19 I literally do not understand the argument that -- this is
02:50 20 apples and oranges.

21 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

22 THE COURT: You have charged the material
23 misrepresentations and omissions related to these ABFP and 24 Par Funding offers, these purchases, everything that was done
02:50 25 with these investors. The fact that an investor is somehow

1 accredited doesn't mean that you can sidestep or make omissions
2 regarding these two offerings.

3 MS. BERLIN: That's absolutely correct.

4 THE COURT: They're not the same.

02:51 5 MS. BERLIN: That's absolutely right. They're not the 6 same. They're completely different. We have tried -- we
7 haven't -- I guess I haven't done a great job of explaining it
8 to defense counsel. But there is no application, there is no
9 law, there is no connection. The 506(c) is part of something
02:51 10 called Reg D, and that's part of the securities laws that apply
11 to when you're exempt from a registration. It has nothing to 12 do -- you could be doing a registered or unregistered offering
13 and be lying or telling the truth. They're mutually exclusive.

14 THE COURT: That's what I'm saying. Even if you guys
02:51 15 show that it falls under Reg D 506(c), the allegations are in 16 the offering. Registered or unregistered, there were omissions
17 or material misstatements. That's the allegation.

18 MR. HYMAN: I don't disagree with that. The issue is 19 that there's different counts that have been charged to 02:51 20 Mr. Furman. They're -- in addition to -- they're charging him
21 with a 10b-5 violation, the fraud --

22 THE COURT: Hold on a second. Is it every single 23 thing that Mr. Furman is charged with dealing with either an 24 omission or a material misrepresentation, all of them --

02:52 25 MR. HYMAN: No.

1 THE COURT: No? Well, you better figure that out
2 because --

3 MR. HYMAN: They're also charging him with the sale of
4 unregistered securities.

02:52 5 THE COURT: Ms. Berlin, why don't we take into
6 account -- clearly I don't think that they -- the defense --
7 there's seven counts, as far as I can recall.

8 MS. BERLIN: There are seven counts. Let's walk
9 through them. There are seven counts. Six of these charges
02:52 10 are fraud counts.

11 THE COURT: Correct. Which have nothing do it with 12 this. Correct.

13 MS. BERLIN: They have nothing to do with registered
14 or unregistered, and hopefully the defense counsel agrees.
02:52 15 It's the law. But you never know.

16 THE COURT: There's six of those.

17 MS. BERLIN: Six of those. And then there is one
18 charge that Mr. Furman participated in the Par -- the 19 unregistered offering of Par Funding promissory notes.

02:52 20 THE COURT: Not Fidelis.

21 MS. BERLIN: Not Fidelis. And that he participated in 22 the unregistered offering of those ABFP notes. Again, not 23 Fidelis.

24 THE COURT: And, again, to put to a pause in that,
02:53 25 there is no theory of this case, nor has Par Funding tried in

1 their documents to establish that they are permitted to be
2 unregistered.

3 MS. BERLIN: That's absolute -- no one is. The law is 4 you must register unless you can prove an exception.

02:53 5 Par Funding and ABFP, they're -- on the registration issue,
6 they filed with the SEC. As we put in -- I think we put that
7 in yesterday with Mr. Sharp. They filed saying that they 8 thought they were entitled to a 506 -- did we put that in with 9 him -- with a 506(b) exemption. A 506(b) exemption is not (c),
02:53 10 obviously.

11 THE COURT: Correct.

12 MS. BERLIN: And it's totally different. You can't
13 have a general solicitation. Obviously this is a general
14 solicitation. Mr. Abbonizio testified that they used sales
02:53 15 agents around the country to raise money.

16 THE COURT: But they're not even arguing this.

17 MS. BERLIN: They're not arguing it.

18 THE COURT: They're using the defense under 506(c),
19 that it's exempt on registration requirements.

02:53 20 MS. BERLIN: They've never argued it, and they never 21 would because that would be -- a 506(c) is for a very small
22 group of people who are accredited, like friends and family,
23 you have a small batch of people.

24 THE COURT: But let's take a step back from that. The 02:54 25 count that you are maintaining on the unregistered offering is

1 the Par Funding note. It's not the Fidelis note.

2 MS. BERLIN: Right.

3 THE COURT: So even if you were to show that the 4 Fidelis offering is a 506(c), that's not being brought forth.

02:54 5 It's irrelevant because the 506(c) argument is not being
6 applied to Par Funding.

7 MS. BERLIN: Correct.

8 THE COURT: So that's what I'm trying to figure out,
9 that as much of an issue as you guys make on the Fidelis
02:54 10 offering, remember, the Fidelis, yes, it is pooled and 11 ultimately the Par Funding note is purchased down the line or 12 an ABFP note is purchased. But if the count is that he was 13 involved with Par Funding and you guys are not advancing, for 14 example, forms signed by these investors that would evidence
02:54 15 that Par Funding notes can go forward as unregistered
16 offerings, then it's of no moment.

17 MS. BERLIN: It's no moment at all.

18 THE COURT: You understand what I'm saying? Why does
19 that even make a dent in it, because Fidelis, when it's a
02:55 20 separate promissory note, not the Par Funding, which is what's 21 been alleged as Par Funding.

22 MR. HYMAN: If the SEC is limiting its essentially
23 unregistered securities to just what happened with the Meyers
24 as well as [REDACTED], then what --

02:55 25 THE COURT: Let me not put it by witness. They're

1 limiting it to Par Funding. The only allegation -- the only
2 count -- remember, you've got to feed six fraud counts. All
3 right. Listen, let's call it what it is, you guys. Come on.
4 Like everybody else that decided this wasn't a good idea and 02:55 5 cut a deal before they got here.

6 I respect Mr. Furman's opportunity to fight, but he's 7 got six fraud counts that he's got to favor in order to win or 8 not get hit on one of them. And he has one tag-along account
9 that you are spending all your time fighting, which truthfully
02:55 10 is not the thrust of the government's case, and that count has 11 nothing do with Fidelis. It only has to do with Par Funding.

12 And what is going to happen is we will not at the end
13 of the case give jurors an instruction that somehow says if you
14 find that Fidelis notes were permissible 506(c) unregistered
02:56 15 offerings, that somehow that imputes to Par Funding, that they 16 are separate instruments.

17 So don't worry about the investor, right? Worry about
18 what it is they've charged. They only focused on Par Funding
19 notes. So you have to show Par Funding, and no one has 02:56 20 maintained that at any point they're exempt. No one has,
21 including the guys that actually did Par Funding. Because 22 Furman sold those, but he didn't play a role in the 23 organization. He's not LaForte. He's not McElhone. I know
24 where he is downstream.

02:56 25 So I don't think you guys are putting the emphasis on

1 what the key issues are in the case with all of these
2 investors, and I need to understand what the charge is. So I
3 don't know if you guys appreciate the fact that the Fidelis
4 issues just don't reflect or really make an impact on
02:56 5 Par Funding.

6 I have no problem with you guys asking each one of 7 these witnesses if they're accredited. Again, I think that 8 there could be argument made that it is not relevant in the 9 slightest and misleading and confusing to a jury, I will be 02:57 10 allow that to be sorted out at closings or through the 11 testimony of other witnesses.

12 I'll let you guys keep asking this of these remaining
13 investors, but I just need everyone to understand what we're
14 dealing with here because I believe -- I'm noticing that I
02:57 15 don't think we have -- I believe we have a fundamental 16 misunderstanding with the underlying counts.

17 And I need Mr. Furman to hear it from me, and I need
18 his lawyers to hear it from me. I don't want to have anybody
19 feel like they're litigating against a moving target. We know
02:57 20 what the theory is. It's six counts of material misreps and 21 omissions as to things like the default rate, the underlying
22 regulatory actions and the criminal records. That's the bulk
23 of this case. That's what you heard them ask the investor.

24 The fact that they are accredited, which doesn't have
02:57 25 any relevance to the one remaining count, I don't want you guys

1 to put all your eggs in a basket that's not going to go
2 anywhere. That's just the point. He needs to hear it from a
3 Court, because quite honestly, out of fairness to the 4 defendant -- I know this isn't a criminal matter; it's a civil 02:58 5 matter -- but I don't need him to be misled into thinking that
6 somehow this 506(c) thing is a silver bullet. It doesn't
7 eliminate six of seven counts. It has nothing to do with him.
8 You're going to have to convince these jurors either that you
9 disclosed it or that these jurors don't believe it's material,
02:58 10 and you're going to have to do that six times.

11 MR. HYMAN: Well, Your Honor, there's also other
12 defenses. There's the reliance on counsel, there's good faith.

13 MS. BERLIN: No, no, no, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: But listen, lack of scienter relies -- at 02:58 15 least I can understand those even a little bit more than what 16 we're dealing with 506. But you have to remember, we're 17 spending a lot of time on accredited investors, and I don't
18 think necessarily that's going to be a key. He may have a
19 scienter argument, but he didn't know -- I know that's a big 02:58 20 theory here. Right? Mr. Furman is saying he at no point knew
21 about these details because they're not widely or publically
22 available.

23 He couldn't have known about the New Jersey
24 registration or regulatory actions. He couldn't have known
02:59 25 about the criminal records or he was misled. So the scienter

1 has been an issue. I agree 100 percent. There can be an
2 advice of counsel issue that we're dealing with. That's fine
3 too.

02:59 4 But what I'm trying to do is streamline at least this 5 part of the case, because this to me is kind of a side part of 6 the case. It's not really relevant to the core of the case.

7 Did you want to add just briefly on the issue that you
8 mentioned you wanted to add, so on the scienter or the other
9 issue about advice of counsel?

02:59 10 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much for noticing that,
11 Your Honor. Two things. Summary Judgement, my response, you
12 should read it. Okay? My reply is accredited, not accredited,
13 doesn't matter. That's not what we charged. I'm trying to 14 help defense counsel.

02:59 15 Number two, just so everybody is also on the same
16 page, reliance on counsel, good faith, those are not defenses
17 to a Section 5. It's not up for debate. It's in the Eleventh
18 Circuit pattern jury instruction. There is no scienter.
19 There's no scienter element.

02:59 20 THE COURT: It's not in there.

21 MS. BERLIN: And so there's no reliance. And actually
22 the notes, it specifically says, reliance on advice counsel,
23 it's not a defense. Good faith is not a defense.

24 THE COURT: So let's back it up just to stay on this,
03:00 25 because I want everyone to go in understanding what exactly is

1 at stake here. Of the six counts under Section 5, scienter and
2 advice of counsel legally are not valid defenses. The only
3 issue is are they material and were they omitted -- or were
4 they omissions that were material. Correct?

03:00 5 MS. BERLIN: No.

6 THE COURT: I want to make sure. I want him to hear
7 it from the SEC. I want Mr. Furman to hear it from the SEC
8 also.

9 MS. BERLIN: The reliance on advice of counsel defense
03:00 10 and good faith, those are not defenses on the Section 5 claim,
11 meaning the claim that they have spent most of their time on 12 with accredited investors and what they told Mr. Furman about 13 themselves, there is no scienter or negligence claim. It's 14 like running a traffic light.

03:00 15 THE COURT: Correct.

16 MS. BERLIN: And the Eleventh Circuit pattern is clear
17 on that.

18 Now, on reliance on advice of counsel on the fraud,
19 the six fraud charges --

03:01 20 THE COURT: Correct.

21 MS. BERLIN: -- Mr. Furman could -- I mean, there's 22 enough affirmative defenses, it is not a complete defense to a
23 securities charge. So it is something if he proves his 24 affirmative defense, the lawyer, and there are four elements he 03:01 25 would have to prove --

1 THE COURT: Correct.

2 MS. BERLIN: -- only then would the jury even be able
3 to consider it as one of the things that could factor in on
4 scienter. It was not a complete defense --

03:01 5 THE COURT: It's not a dispositive issue.

6 MS. BERLIN: It is not a dispositive -- so it's not an
7 affirmative defenses. It's a traditional --

8 THE COURT: Correct. It's a factor -- right. It's a
9 factor that they can consider. But I flipped it, just so we're 03:01 10 clear.

11 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

12 THE COURT: We have two -- I guess we have two 13 theories here. We have on the fraud counts, there's an advice
14 of counsel, scienter, tied defense on the other one remaining
03:01 15 count, which is unregistered count for Par Funding, which we've 16 gone over now ad nauseam about the confusion with Fidelis,
17 there they're attempting to do the 506(c). The important thing
18 is none of the scienter defenses for the fraud counts apply to 19 that unregistered offering count, correct?

03:02 20 MS. BERLIN: Right. They're really separate.

21 THE COURT: Right. The fraud -- the unregistered
22 count that we've been talking about under 506(c), that defense
23 that I just went through is just on that count, but none of the 24 scienter issues and the advice of counsel does not apply to the 03:02 25 unregistered security count, the one that remains. It applies

1 to the other six.

2 MS. BERLIN: So the reliance on advise, the good faith
3 applies only to the group of six if he can meet his burden and,
4 you know, we'll go down that road.

03:02 5 The Section 5, think of it as like a totally separate
6 little side little piece.

7 THE COURT: Correct. It's only one of the seven
8 counts.

9 MS. BERLIN: Just like a little -- like a little piece
03:02 10 that's over here that has to do with Par Funding and ABFP,
11 that's pretty simplified facts. Were those registered? If not 12 -- because we know he participated. We're going to see his --
13 the promissory notes he bought from them. Because you can be a
14 buyer or a seller for Section 5.

15 THE COURT: Right.

16 MS. BERLIN: So we know he participates. We know that 17 they're not registered. So he would have to show that those 18 were exempt.

19 THE COURT: Correct.

03:03 20 MS. BERLIN: Meaning Par Funding and Fidelis.

21 THE COURT: And that's where we got a little 22 disconnect there. That's why we're talking about 506 because 23 that relates to the Par Funding offering, not the Fidelis, and 24 that's why there's confusion.

03:03 25 MS. BERLIN: That's right. That's exactly right.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So, gentlemen, the issue is, going
2 back to why we had the sidebar, number one, which in any event
3 has been important because it eliminates unnecessary theories
4 here and makes sure everyone understands what the score is as 03:03 5 we continue to try this case about what's going to need to be 6 shown and what is the SEC's theories are so that there's no
7 confusion and everyone goes in eyes wide open. I don't want
8 anyone putting forth evidence they believe shows something it
9 does not.

03:03 10 And so now we have this clean discussion. For these 11 remaining investors I just -- I will repeat the prior ruling.
12 If -- we're not going to be admitting these documents through 13 them because cannot under evidence rules. We can refresh
14 recollection of investors, you can talk about them being 03:04 15 accredited or uncredited. But I just want everyone to 16 understand that there is a bit of difficulty in -- even if you
17 get that testimony having it mean anything, if indeed it's only
18 related to Fidelis as opposed to Par Funding, that 506(c)
19 theory may not fly when it comes down to closings and we 20 summarize the evidence.

21 But I'm willing to let you guys go through that 22 exercise with these investors provided, again that you don't
23 read through them, the notes and the attachments to the notes.
24 You've got to ask them, after you refresh their recollection,
03:04 25 as to their net worth, as to signing off on anything and then

1 you can move on. But I think you can streamline this without
2 having a problem about these exhibits and letting you guys use
3 them to refresh, but you can't admit them in any way under 4 these witnesses. So that's going to happen with the rest of 03:04 5 the investors. Okay?

6 MR. JOHN: Let me just briefly put one thing on the 7 record, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Yeah.

9 MR. JOHN: Paragraph 289 of the amended complaint
03:04 10 specifically alleges --

11 THE COURT: You need to share a mic. I'm sorry.
12 Paragraph what?

13 MR. JOHN: Paragraph 289 of the amended complaint
14 specifically alleges violations of both 506 A and C that's why
03:04 15 we're responded in that way.

16 I understand they're alleging that we need to respond
17 to Par Funding's notes. Our defense is that we don't. We 18 qualify under 506(c), that's why we're addressing it. It's in 19 their complain. That's why we have to respond to it.

03:05 20 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we charged them with 506(c)
21 at A and C. Okay? The issue is, you all seem to think that -- 22 and I'm not, like, being critical, I hope that --

23 THE COURT: No, that's fine.

24 MS. BERLIN: You all seem to believe or want this case
03:05 25 to be that the SEC is claiming that Mr. Furman's Fidelis

1 unregistered offering is this -- is the 506 A and C. That is
2 not the case. That is not the charge and that's no what the
3 jury is going to be asked to find. So as a courtesy I told --

4 THE COURT: Listen, that's why I'm doing this now
03:05 5 because I'm not going to have a situation where I get to
6 charging instructions and I have the defense team look at me
7 like they've been litigating a case that's not the case the SEC
8 is trying to prove.

9 That's why I'm doing this now. Because I've seen
03:06 10 enough that the theory of defense needs to be clear, and the 11 SEC's allegations to be clear, and I don't want anyone to shape
12 or craft their theory or put on testimony or forget to put on 13 testimony that might be material to them if you misunderstand
14 what they're pursuing. So I think we all know now that this is 03:06 15 more about Par Funding and that's where the violation lies as 16 to registration/unregistration, and therefore, any argument
17 that really focuses more on Fidelis offerings being made to 18 credit investors, in the SEC's view does not carry any water
19 because at the end of the day it's not about that Fidelis
03:06 20 offering, it's about the Par Funding offering. And at no point
21 has Par Funding, in its notes, ever has been subject to a
22 506(c) exemption. Am I correct?

23 MR. JOHN: It's our position --

24 THE COURT: Am I just correct in my statement there?
03:06 25 That's all I need to know.

1 MR. JOHN: I don't believe so, Your Honor. The count
2 does not clearly make that delineation. That's the problem.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'm doing it now. I'm doing
4 it now. So you have to conform the evidence to the pleadings,
03:07 5 I'm doing it now. I'm saying to you guys, in fact, what I'm 6 making clear is, I think you guys believe that maybe they were 7 trying to advance it on both Par Funding and Fidelis, they're 8 making it clear to me now it's only being brought as to the 9 Par Funding notes.

03:07 10 MS. BERLIN: And the ABFP notes.

11 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Correct.
12 (Voices overlap.)

13 THE COURT: But not Fidelis.

14 MS. BERLIN: Then we've never argued from the TR0
03:07 15 through today we have always argued this. We've explained it.
16 If you look at our summary judgment, we asked for summary
17 judgment against Mr. Furman. I went through -- the Par Funding
18 is unregistered. ABFP is unregistered. And here is how he 19 participates. I gave, like, five examples. This is very brief
03:07 20 because that's all we need. He did this, he did this, he did
21 this.

22 THE COURT: Correct.

23 MS. BERLIN: It was based on the Par Funding and 24 Fidelis. That's what we said -- or Par Funding and ABFP.

03:07 25 (Voices overlap.)

1 THE COURT: So what's -- so you guys understand now,
2 the Fidelis notes are not in play. So there's no allegation
3 the Fidelis notes have violated anything. So you can show
4 accreditation on the Fidelis notes, but that's not what the SEC
03:08 5 is going to bring up. The SEC is going to point out very 6 clearly, it's the ABFP and the Par Funding that is at issue.
7 That's what they're telling you. That's what we're taking it
8 to the bank. That's the theory.

9 MR. HYMAN: The other issue is that the advertisements
03:08 10 for Fidelis shouldn't be part of their case because obviously 11 he was only advertising Fidelis notes.

12 THE COURT: But the problem is, Counsel, that goes
13 also to the fraud.

14 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

03:08 15 THE COURT: That's the problem. The Fidelis offering
16 is because we know that the Fidelis monies were bundled and 17 funneled to Par Funding offering. So misrepresentations can be 18 gleaned from the Fidelis advertisements because that's not 19 being offered for the issue of the 506(c). It's relevant to 03:08 20 omissions as to where the money was going and how it was being 21 used. That's where they're offering the Fidelis ads for.
22 That's really where -- it's for the fraud count.

23 MR. HYMAN: Because it is part of where the confusion
24 comes is, in the opening the big advertisement, the newspaper
03:09 25 advertisement they showed, which they introduced through

1 Mr. Reikes as well, was just a general "come to a luncheon free
2 night at Fidelis."

3 And part of their argument is, is that Mr. Furman was 4 prohibited from issuing advertisements to public at large, to 03:09 5 being involved in this kind of general advertising effort with 6 all of the advertisings were for Fidelis.

7 THE COURT: But the point is, that's not a relevancy
8 issue. The Fidelis advertisements and the Fidelis lunches were 9 a way to facilitate, in the SEC's view, the driving of fund
03:09 10 raising for Par Funding, which would stand to reason that any 11 money that was being drummed up through a Fidelis luncheon or 12 advertisement that was being invested in Par Funding, the 13 argument is that that investment should have come with it a
14 necessary disclosure about the true nature of what was going on 03:09 15 at Par Funding. And that's what the theory has been.

16 So it is relevant because the whole point is, they 17 have to show that even though he marketed it as Fidelis, that 18 money didn't stay with just Fidelis. That money traveled up to 19 Par Funding and ABFP. That's why they have to start there.

03:10 20 But I don't think the ads have anything to do --
21 remember, Fidelis is the vehicle for the money to finance with 22 Par Funding, that's why these ads are relevant.

23 My issue is, I'm letting you bring in 506(c) arguments
24 on the Fidelis, but you have to remember, they only pertain to 03:10 25 really one count, and the relevance to that count is severely

1 limited, if not nonexistent, because as you've heard, they're
2 never saying that the Fidelis notes themselves were subject to
3 an exemption. They're saying that it is Par Funding and ABFP
4 notes that are in play. That's the reality.

03:10 5 And so look, we need to get this back on the road. So
6 we're going to go ahead and call our next investor in a moment
7 and we're going to get our jury and make the most of the 8 remaining hours so we don't fall behind schedule.

9 But I hope this is the last time that we have to kind
03:10 10 of breakdown what this case is all about that's been litigated
11 for quite some time already, because I can just tell the more I
12 hear throughout the last few days, the more I can see that
13 there is a fundamental disconnect, I think, between both sides
14 about what this case is all about at its core, and so I don't 03:11 15 want anyone in here to have some sort of a surprise when we 16 close and we summarize the evidence thinking that they have 17 been defending against something that wasn't there, or that 18 they didn't get a chance to defend against something that was 19 there.

03:11 20 And so now we all know where we stand. I don't expect
21 there to be any more confusion. As to this limited issue of 22 the exhibit, for using it to refresh recollection. You're not 23 going to bring it in any way because you can't bring it through 24 these investors. But I just don't want us to parrot it and I
03:11 25 think we need to make a fundamental -- really recognize --

1 fundamental differentiation between the Fidelis notes
2 themselves and the Par Funding and ABFP notes, which are the
3 ones that the SEC has maintaining in that one count. That's
4 the reality of it. Okay?

03:11 5 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

6 THE COURT: So anything else? I don't need much more.
7 I think we've covered it. But what did you want to add,
8 Ms. Berlin, the ads.

9 MS. BERLIN: On the ads, our point, and the evidence
03:12 10 we're putting in is, if he puts an ad, you call the number, you
11 get invited to a lunch and at the lunch you are given this 12 brochure, which is for Par Funding with his business card in 13 it. You -- they always --

14 THE COURT: The vehicle for Par Funding, that's why --
03:12 15 (Voices overlap.)

16 MS. BERLIN: That's what he's doing.

17 THE COURT: That was my understanding of the evidence.
18 That's why Fidelis' advertising materials are coming in because 19 they're all -- it goes back to the idea of it being funneled.

03:12 20 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

21 THE COURT: All of this is making its way to be 22 funneled ultimately to Par Funding. And that is where the 23 misrepresentation counts come into play. There is six. That's 24 where it lies.

03:12 25 MR. HYMAN: Got it. And, Your Honor, just to kind of,

1 at least give you a little bit of comfort in terms of the 2 defense issues and otherwise, obviously we can't beat up some
3 of these elderly investors who are coming in about what they do
4 and don't remember, which is part of why I kind of -- the 03:12 5 questioning for them is about their accredited status.
6 Obviously that goes into a degree of it all, but we haven't had
7 the opportunity to put on our case in chief.

8 And as it relates to some of these misrepresentations,
9 obviously we do have defenses to those parts of the claim that 03:13 10 we'll deal with as we go. However, just to the extent that 11 there was that issue. Obviously, as you can imagine, there's a 12 layer of confusion as the SEC is saying Mr. Furman's engaged in 13 sale of unregistered securities, at least to the extent it's 14 this -- through these investors, if it's clear that these 03:13 15 investors who invested in Fidelis aren't part of the 16 unregistered offering, we're good.

17 THE COURT: I'll leave it up to you. But I just want
18 everyone to understand what was going on here and what the 19 issues are so that we don't find ourselves litigating the wrong
03:13 20 matters. And I think that we made have a very clear record
21 that helps everyone in going forward.

22 So let's do this: I need to get back on track. I
23 want to get through the people we want to get through. And I
24 want to get these investors in and out. They've been waiting
03:13 25 patiently. This had to be done now or else we're going to end

1 up finding ourselves with more sidebars and argument about what
2 this case is really about. And it just makes for a muddy
3 record. So I think this has been valuable for all parties to 4 go in eyes wide open for the remainder of the trial.

03:14 5 Let me go ahead and get my --

6 MS. BERLIN: Can we take a five-minute --

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 MS. BERLIN: -- personal break real quick?

9 THE COURT: Yes. Very brief.

10 MS. BERLIN: Of course.

11 THE COURT: Very brief so that I can get my next
12 investor. Very brief.

13 And I can go ahead, Rita, and already start bringing 14 in my jurors. Let's go ahead and start getting them in,
03:14 15 please.

16 (Thereupon, a brief recess was taken.)

17 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

18 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Thank you
19 guys for your patience. We did a little bit of homework here
03:22 20 together to try to streamline issues in the long run, so we can 21 try to stay focused. So don't worry, we're going to get things
22 going. But it was important for us to do some legal work
23 outside of the presence of the jury. So we'll turn it back to 24 the SEC and get our next witness on the stand.

03:22 25 MS. BERLIN: Henry Barth, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Let's get him on up, please.
2 Come on up. And if you are fully vaccinated, you're
3 free to take off your mask.

4 Thereupon,

5 HENRY BARTH,
6 having been duly sworn by the court reporter, testified as
7 follows:

8

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION

03:23 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Barth.

12 A. Good afternoon.

13 Q. I wonder if you could begin by just telling our jury a
14 little bit about your background.

03:23 15 A. Sure. Let's see. I retired from NextEra Energy Florida
16 Power and Light in June of 2017. I'm not sure how much detail
17 you want to go into there. I was interested in some fixed
18 index annuities. And I had some information from JD Mellberg
19 company, and their local representative was Mr. Furman. I
03:24 20 contacted him and set up a meeting with him in early August of 21 2017 to discuss some fixed index annuities, which we entered
22 into in the following months.

23 He also had some private equity investments. Those 24 are -- I guess you can look at them like CDs, if you think
03:24 25 about it that way, but they paid much higher interest, 7, 8

1 percent. They were one-year notes. They would go from 1 to 5
2 years. Now they had no go from the backing, so they were at 3 risk.

4 So in the fall of 2017, once I had funds available
03:24 5 after I had retired, the money was available, we entered into 6 some of the annuities that I mentioned, and some of these
7 private equity notes.

8 So continue along, I met with Mr. Furman several times
9 in early 2018 as we withdrew some funds from the annuities, and 03:25 10 then I would say in the fourth quarter of 2018, I started to 11 see advertisements in the local paper for what you would call
12 is merchant cash, private equity notes with returns ranging 13 from -- I think it was 9 percent to 15 percent.

14 Q. And I'm sorry, Mr. Barth. Thank you so much. You're doing
03:25 15 my job for me. It's wonderful. Thank you.

16 So I think you just brought us all the way through the 17 chronology up through the fourth quarter of 2018?

18 A. The fall of 2018, yes.

19 Q. And you just -- I think I just heard you testify that 03:26 20 Mr. Furman brought up a merchant cash advance company. Did I
21 hear you correctly?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. And what was the name of the merchant cash advance company?

24 A. It's called Par Funding.

03:26 25 Q. And what did Mr. -- or did Mr. Furman tell you anything

1 about this company, Par Funding?

2 A. Sure. The advertisements in the paper just mentioned the
3 return, didn't mention any company. It actually mentioned
4 United Fidelis. When I met with Mr. Furman, we had brochures
03:26 5 that were basically Par Funding brochures that described
6 exactly what merchant cash was, how they structured it, you
7 know, all the particular ways that they went about it and why
8 it was advantageous, why the returns could be so attractive.

9 Basically, I guess it was easy to say I was sold on 03:26 10 the concept on the fall of '18. I didn't have any available
11 capital then. The note I had entered into a year or so before
12 wasn't going to mature until early 2019. So I was all set to 13 move the funds that I had into merchant cash.

14 Not Par Funding directly. It would have been with 03:27 15 United Fidelis. That's the way it was being structured. And 16 that's basically what I did in early April of 2019. From 17 there -- stop me at any time.

18 Q. Thank you so much. I wonder -- I heard you say something
19 about you got brochures, and I wonder if I can approach you. I
03:27 20 was going to show you --

21 A. Certainly.

22 Q. -- what we have already introduced into evidence as
23 Exhibit 578.

24 MS. BERLIN: And if we could pull that up on the
03:27 25 screen.

1 Your Honor, may I approach the witness with a hard
2 copy.

3 THE COURT: Yeah.

4 A. You said on the screen.

03:28 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. Oh, it will also be on your screen, but if it's easier --

7 A. Doesn't matter.

8 Q. If you have a preference?

9 A. Oh, they'll see it. Yes, this is it.

03:28 10 Q. We just like to make it as convenient as possible. If you
11 want the hard copy, it's there. So I see you're looking at the 12 hard copy. That's the same as what everybody is seeing on the 13 screen.

14 MS. BERLIN: It's not on the screen. We'll have it up
03:28 15 in just a second.

16 THE WITNESS: I don't need it.

17 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

18 IT TECHNICIAN: No worries.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:29 20 Q. All right. So now we have it on the screen as well,
21 Exhibit 578.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And so is -- what I handed you, the hard copy and what you
24 have on your screen, does that look familiar to you?

03:29 25 A. Yes, this is it. I have it at home.

1 Q. Okay. So is Exhibit 578 a copy of the materials that you
2 received?

3 A. Yes. Yes. It's a duplicate, the same, the folder,
4 business card and whatever you want to call, this spreadsheet.

03:29 5 Q. And whose business card is in there?

6 A. Mr. Furman's.

7 Q. Okay. And who gave you your copy that you have at home of
8 Exhibit 578?

9 A. When I was at his office.

03:30 10 Q. Mr. Furman gave it to you?

11 A. Yes, ma'am.

12 Q. And that was -- if you could just turn to -- looking at the 13 brochure that says "Corporate Overview"?

14 A. Okay. (Complies.) Yes.

03:30 15 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, can I approach the witness?

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. I'm going to give you this one so we're looking at the same
19 thing.

03:30 20 A. All right. Go ahead.

21 Q. So taking a look at the corporate overview in Exhibit 578,
22 if we look at page 2 --

23 A. All right. Yes.

24 Q. -- it's a little crooked on our version, but you see it
03:31 25 says "Who we are" at the top?

1 A. Yes.

2 MS. BERLIN: Hold on just one moment, Mr. Barth,
3 because we have a color copy of this. I'm going to see if we
4 can -- I have a hard time with the black and white.

03:31 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. And it says "Who we are. " And do you see where it says on 7 page 2: Par Funding is a direct provider of merchant cash
8 advances?

9 On page 2?

03:31 10 A. At the very top, yes, uh-huh. (Nodding.) Yes.

11 Q. And so you talked -- I think you were testifying about how 12 during the event, you learned about what a merchant cash
13 advance is and how it operated?

14 A. That's correct.

03:31 15 Q. Is the information that you learned reflected generally in 16 this brochure that we see as 578?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And did Mr. Furman -- other than Par Funding, did he tell
19 you about any other merchant cash advance company or --

03:32 20 A. No.

21 Q. So it's only Par Funding?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. And did he -- if we can just turn to page -- it's going to 24 be Pdf page 8. Thanks.

03:32 25 And if you could turn in your brochure, it says at the

1 top, Mr. Barth, "collateral and insurance"?

2 A. I see it.

3 Q. Oh, perfect.

4 And so do you see on this page of this Par Funding
03:32 5 brochure Mr. Furman gave you, it talks about Par Funding and 6 this being insured? Do you see that?

7 A. Yes, I do.

8 Q. Is that something that Mr. Furman discussed with you?

9 A. Yes, we did talk about the loans being insured.

03:33 10 Q. And if you turn the page to page 9.

11 A. Yes, I'm there.

12 Q. Do you see at the top, it says: How our model works, it
13 all starts with underwriting?

14 A. Correct.

03:33 15 Q. It's page 9.

16 A. Uh-huh. (Nodding.)

17 Q. Hold on just one second. We have a color version. I'm 18 just going to see if we can swap it out so we can see it a
19 little bit better.

03:33 20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Vicki. So Exhibit P 4115, if 22 we can bring that up on the screen.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. So Mr. Barth, what we're doing is we're just replacing that 03:34 25 black and white version that was hard to see on your screen

1 with the color version. That looks more like what you're 2 holding in your hand.

3 And so looking at Exhibit 415, which shouldn't be on
4 the screen available to jurors yet because I haven't admitted
03:34 5 it, is the document that you see at P 415 on your screen, is 6 that the brochure or does that look like the brochure that you
7 received that you have at home?

8 A. It's not on my screen.

9 MS. BERLIN: Can you put it on the witness's screen.
03:34 10 Or I can approach the witness, Your Honor? Is that
11 okay?

12 THE COURT: You may approach.

13 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:35 15 Q. So I'm just going to ask you, this photocopy is the same as
16 that.

17 A. Oh. Like it looks the same.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. So, Mr. Barth, I've handed you what we have premarked as 03:35 20 415, and my question is just whether --

21 A. It's 8 in here.

22 Q. I'm sorry?

23 A. Page 8 starts with How Our Model Works.

24 Q. Yes.

03:35 25 A. Page 8 here. Page 9 there. Sorry. Go ahead.

1 Q. So does P 415 look like the Par Funding brochure that you
2 have at home?

3 A. Sure. Yes.

4 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we want to introduce P 415.

03:35 5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 MR. HYMAN: None, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. We'll move in P 415.

8 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:35 10 Q. And you can go back to looking at the original if you want
11 that's on your table. And so in your hard copy, it's going to 12 say -- it's going to be page 9. And in the version that's on 13 the screen, so we can show it to the jury, I think it's page 8,
14 How Our Model Works.

03:36 15 Do you see it says: It all starts with underwriting?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Did Mr. Furman discuss the underwriting or onsite
18 inspections or efforts --

19 A. Sure.

03:36 20 Q. Can you tell us a little bit about what he said?

21 A. Basically, we went over, you know, what the Par people did 22 in terms of reviewing the people's business, looking up their 23 financials, checking on the credit, how, because of the models
24 that they had built, they were able to do it very quickly, much 03:36 25 faster than a bank would do it -- much faster than a bank would

1 do it, you know, how it didn't take them long. Banks would
2 take much longer. That's one of the benefits of dealing with
3 them. Onsite inspections. That's pretty much what's captured
4 on this page.

03:37 5 Q. Okay. So I was asking, did Mr. Furman -- so set aside the 6 brochure for a second. You and Mr. Furman also spoke. In 7 addition to him giving you brochures about Par Funding, did you
8 also speak with him?

9 A. Sure. In the fourth quarter, when we talked, it was 03:37 10 basically I had seen the advertisements in the paper, and I
11 had -- when I met with him in his office probably on other 12 matters, I had seen the brochures. We talked about this. He 13 provided the brochures to me. Probably had some extras in case
14 I ran across someone else I wanted to share it with. And so we 03:37 15 went through the details.

16 Q. And did Mr. Furman, when he was telling you the details,
17 was it the details about Par Funding?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And when you -- did you have an understanding whether, if 03:38 20 you invested in this, where your profits were going to come
21 from? Like, how your profits would be generated that would 22 result in you getting paid back on your investment?

23 A. Well, Par Funding wouldn't make the money they're making.
24 They would pay Mr. Furman and he would distribute it to his
03:38 25 investors.

1 Q. And could you look at -- in the brochure that -- the hard
2 copy --

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. -- it's going to be page 11.

03:38 5 And, Kevin, in the one that we have on the screen,
6 it's going to be Pdf page 10.

7 A. Using social media to expand?

8 Q. Exactly.

9 A. Yes. I'm there.

03:38 10 Q. So do you see at the top it says -- I was going to just ask
11 you: Using social media to expand underwriting intelligence.

12 And underneath do you see the green box that says --

13 I don't know, Kevin, if we can Zoom in on that green
14 box --

03:39 15 A. There's no substitute for personal onsite merchant
16 inspection.

17 Q. Yes.

18 A. I see it.

19 Q. And do you see that in this -- there's sort of this green
03:39 20 blowup box in the Par Funding brochure that talks about the 21 onsite inspections that Par Funding does of the merchants that 22 borrowing money. Do you see that?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So in addition to giving you a brochure about that process,
03:39 25 did you -- is that something that you and Mr. Furman also spoke

1 about?

2 A. Yes. And when we talked about it, you know, that's another
3 benefit, besides just having the people apply, going over their
4 financials. Actually visiting the facility to make sure it's 03:39 5 real and it's not just some old building that someone applied
6 based on and, you know, that's really have somebody there. I
7 just got the impression that they actually had people that 8 worked for them throughout the country and could go quickly and 9 visit the facility and see that it's real.

03:40 10 Q. Yeah. And did -- when you and Mr. Furman were speaking,
11 did Mr. Furman ever talk to you about whether Fidelis or him
12 were a reliable source of information or trustworthy source?
13 Did that subject generally ever come up?

14 A. No.

03:40 15 Q. Did you ever see any advertisements or information from 16 Mr. Furman about putting your trust in him so he would get you
17 information about things that he was going to invest your money
18 in?

19 A. We had developed a relationship over the previous year,
03:40 20 year-and-a-half, I guess, with the things we had done, that I
21 had established a trusted relationship with him.

22 Q. And were you relying on Mr. -- I'm sorry, I don't want to 23 ask you about your reliance.

24 Question: Did Mr. Furman ever tell you that in 03:41 25 reality Par Funding was making loans to merchants based on,

1 like, searching them on Google, like, just doing a Google
2 search?

3 A. No. No. Because you added the word "just," then I have to 4 say no. No, it was a much more in-depth search of the 03:41 5 particular business of their financial records, their banks.

6 Q. And it included this onsite inspection component?

7 A. Definitely.

8 Q. And did Mr. Furman tell you that one of the managers at 9 Par Funding in charge of this merchant cash advance business
03:41 10 was a convicted felon?

11 A. No.

12 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

13 MR. JOHN: Objection, mischaracterization.

14 THE COURT: Overruled.

03:41 15 Go ahead.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. But you -- I mean, you testified earlier today that you
18 understood that the profits from your investment were going to 19 come from the success of those merchant cash advance loans
03:42 20 being collected on?

21 A. That is correct.

22 Q. Did Mr. Furman ever tell you about any state governments
23 filing actions or cases against Par Funding for violating a
24 law?

03:42 25 A. No.

1 Q. Did Mr. Furman ever tell you that any state government had
2 issued a cease and desist order against Par Funding for
3 violating the laws that have to be followed when soliciting
4 investors?

03:42 5 A. No.

6 Q. And did Mr. Furman give you any sense -- and you can look
7 at the brochure. Your color copy. If you would turn back to
8 that.

9 Did Mr. Furman ever -- I'll take you to the page in a
03:43 10 minute, though, while I'm looking.

11 Did Mr. Furman ever talk to you at all about the 12 default rate or the number of merchants that were getting money
13 that just failed to pay back their loans to Par Funding?

14 A. It was a much lower rate than other merchant cash
03:43 15 businesses had, and you could see in some of the figures on the 16 spreadsheet how it was between, I think 1 and 2 percent.

17 Q. Okay. So Mr. Furman provided you a spreadsheet and he told 18 you that that rate was between 1 and 2 percent?

19 A. It was part of the package and you could see the data
03:43 20 yourself.

21 Q. But part of a physical, like a piece of paper that he gave
22 you?

23 A. Oh, yes. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. Did Mr. Furman ever give you any audited financial 03:44 25 statements for Par Funding?

1 A. No.

2 Q. And just to be clear, if -- at the time that you made this
3 investment, you were -- you know when an accredited investor
4 means?

03:44 5 A. I do.

6 Q. And you were an accredited investor when you invested?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Now, at a certain point in the fall of 2018, you
9 testified you invested in Par Funding by giving your money to

03:44 10 Mr. Furman?

11 A. No, not then. The funds were tied up at the time. It
12 wasn't until April of 2019.

13 Q. That's right. So -- thank you.

14 So in April of 2019, how much money did you give?

03:44 15 A. $230,000.

16 Q. Did any of that -- was that your retirement money or was 17 any of that money --

18 A. You could say -- it came out of my 401(k).

19 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, objection.

03:45 20 THE COURT: Overruled.

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. So you started investing in April of 2019. And was that a
23 one-year investment where you were supposed to get your 24 principal back at the end of the year with interest over the 03:45 25 course of the year?

1 A. Well, it was a one-year investment. It paid the interest
2 monthly. And then at the end of the year, I guess you could
3 get your principal back. But we just rolled it over.

4 Q. But then in the eleventh month, so in, I don't know, it was 03:45 5 about like March or so, or April of 2020 --

6 A. I invested in April of '19.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. Interest starts in May of '19. And I got eleven months of 9 interest, and the last one was early, mid-March of 2020.

03:45 10 Q. And so in --

11 A. So eleven months of interest. Sorry.

12 Q. Okay. And in mid-March of 2020, you were -- and just to be 13 clear, so we're all on the same page.

14 A. Yes.

03:46 15 Q. You received the interest, which was what, 12 percent?

16 A. Well, it's 12 percent an annual basis. So you can think of 17 1 percent a month. So I received that $2,300 that month.

18 Q. So you received 1 percent interest on your investment
19 amount every month?

03:46 20 A. Correct.

21 MR. HYMAN: Objection, leading.

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. And then at the end of 12 months, so that would have 03:46 25 been -- so in May of 2020, how much were you supposed to get

1 that month?

2 A. Oh, well, let's see, in April of 2020, I would have gotten
3 another $2,300. And then if I wasn't going to renew it, okay,
4 then I would have gotten the $230,000 back.

03:46 5 Q. Got it. So did something happen in March or April? Did
6 something happen before you got your $230,000 principle back?

7 A. COVID-19.

8 Q. Okay. And after COVID-19 happened, did Mr. Furman approach
9 you about changing your investment with Par Funding?

03:47 10 A. In, I guess it started late March of 2020, when it was 11 obviously -- the economy was closing down, businesses were 12 closing down, it might actually be late March, early April,
13 Mr. Furman was relaying to people, basically through e-mails, I
14 don't think there was much direct conversation, that indeed
03:47 15 Par Funding was in trouble. That the businesses they were 16 lending to were in trouble.

17 And I'll try to be brief. It looked like our 18 alternatives were -- or Par Funding's alternatives were either
19 to declare bankruptcy or they would attempt to restructure.

03:48 20 The thought was the economy was going to recover in the not too
21 distant future. And that what they would do is they would 22 restructure the notes and they would begin paying 4 percent
23 interest on an annual basis, starting hopefully in June of 24 2020.

03:48 25 Now, there's a scheme associated with that. It would

1 continue at that rate and possibly go up, I don't remember the
2 details, for a couple of years, for five years. And then in a
3 year or two they would start to pay back your principal. And 4 it was pretty much, we needed to agree to that or decide we 03:48 5 were going to litigate, and pretty much all the investors that 6 were involved in this had to agree. We did in late -- I'm
7 guessing late April, maybe it was early May.

8 And then in June and July, I received interest
9 payments at the 4 percent rate. And then they stopped after
03:49 10 that.

11 Q. Okay. And so when -- let me just make sure -- I'm just 12 going to go back because there was a lot, so I can make sure I
13 understood.

14 A. Sure.

03:49 15 Q. So in March or April of 2020 --

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. -- am I right in understanding you were asked to change the 18 terms of your investment?

19 A. That's correct.

03:49 20 Q. Okay. And it went from before you had 12 percent total, it
21 was going to be 4 percent?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. And instead of getting your principal of $230,000 back,
24 in -- which was due to you in April of 2020, you would instead
03:49 25 receive over time that amount, over the course of the next

1 seven years; is that correct?

2 A. Something like that. It might have been five or six, yeah.

3 And it would start a year or two later.

4 Q. So you wouldn't get your principal back -- you wouldn't 03:50 5 have your principal back for seven years, but at the time you
6 were supposed to get your principal back, like, the following
7 month?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Okay. And in connection with presenting that offering to 03:50 10 you, did you have to sign new paperwork?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And did Mr. Furman ask you to sign that paperwork?

13 A. He basically asked all the borrowers, you know, we all
14 needed to be on board or it wasn't going to work. And through 03:50 15 various e-mails I provided the information and the offerings of 16 what they would offer to do and I agreed. I assume the rest
17 agreed because it went through.

18 Q. And all of this, having to exchange and not get your money
19 back for seven more years instead of one month, that was all 03:51 20 because of -- Mr. Furman told you it was all because of 21 Par Funding and that their business was impacted by COVID?

22 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound.

23 THE COURT: Let's go ahead. I'm going to sustain
24 that.

03:51 25 BY MS. BERLIN:

1 Q. I believe you testified earlier, but if you could just
2 clarify. The reason for having to get your principal back
3 after seven more years at 4 percent interest instead of getting 4 it back in one month at 12 percent interest, what reason was 03:51 5 given to you for that change?

6 A. Because of what COVID did to the economy. And just an 7 expectation, it was going to take a while to get back on their 8 feet. They needed to restructure their business, get back in 9 business, wait for the economy to come back. They insist they 03:51 10 need to borrow again. And it wasn't going to be back a hundred 11 percent immediately, and it was going to take time.

12 Q. Now when you say -- in your answer you were just saying
13 "they" had to get their business back on track and --

14 A. Par Funding.

03:52 15 Q. Okay. Thank you.

16 A. Sorry.

17 Q. No, that's all I was trying to get.

18 So it was about Par Funding's business?

19 A. Correct.

03:52 20 Q. And the impact it had on Par Funding?

21 A. Absolutely.

22 Q. And at any time -- now, when you were investing with 23 Mr. Furman into Par Funding, did you receive any sort of 24 written disclosures?

03:52 25 A. What do you mean?

1 Q. Like PPM, it's called like a private placement memorandum?

2 A. I received a document with United Fidelis that showed the 3 $230,000 in total. It was actually, I think, 4.6 units at 4 $50,000 each.

03:53 5 Q. No. I understand. But when you were investing, did
6 Mr. Furman ever give you any sort of written document or 7 brochure about the risks of the investment or what you
8 were investing?

9 A. An initial prospectus?

03:53 10 Q. Yes, or a private placement memorandum, anything like that?

11 A. I don't believe so. Now I understand what you're asking
12 now. Yes, I've seen those before. I know what you mean. I
13 don't believe so.

14 Q. And what about at the time you did -- when you exchanged
03:53 15 your initial investment for this new one in spring -- we'll 16 call it spring of 2020 --

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- did you receive any sort of information from Mr. Furman,
19 like any financial support or research that showed the impact
03:54 20 on Par Funding of COVID?

21 A. No, not to my memory. All we got was here's how it would 22 play out in terms of the interest rate and the repayment
23 scheme. Let's say 5 percent to start, then 10, then 15. I
24 remember the scheme that added to 100.

03:54 25 Q. I wonder if I can show you a document we have premarked as

1 P 51.

2 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

3 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, may I approach?

4 THE COURT: You may.

03:54 5 MR. HYMAN: May we have a quick sidebar.

6 THE COURT: No. Let's proceed, please.

7 BY MS. BERLIN:

8 Q. Have you ever seen -- now this is a document we're not
9 publishing yet because it hasn't been admitted into evidence
03:55 10 yet.

11 Have you ever seen this document that's P 51 before?

12 A. Yeah, this is it. This is -- this is the original
13 agreement that I would have entered into for my initial 14 $230,000 investment, I believe. I have to be careful. I
03:55 15 believe that the percentages, that 9 percent to 15 percent are 16 correct, and the difference classes of offering reflect the 17 interest rates that you receive based on the amount of money
18 you invested. Yes. Offering price, $50,000 per unit, and at 19 $230,000, I would have been 4.6. I would have had a document
03:56 20 that was -- probably not too much further in, said 4.6.

21 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I wonder if we can --

22 THE COURT: No.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. P 51, is this a document that you have seen before, that 03:56 25 you have received?

1 A. Yes. I have it at home.

2 Q. So is this a document that you received from Mr. Furman?

3 A. Correct.

4 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, if -- I would like to 03:56 5 introduce it. And let me check with them. I don't know that 6 there's even a dispute about authenticity.

7 THE COURT: Go ahead and meet and confer.

8 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

9 MR. HYMAN: We obviously object for the same reasons
03:56 10 that were discussed at the earlier sidebar, Your Honor. What's 11 good for the goose is good for the gander.

12 THE COURT: Let move on.

13 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:56 15 Q. So you have to set that aside. I'm so sorry.

16 MR. HYMAN: I'm sorry. We'll withdraw the objection.
17 I'm sorry.

18 THE COURT: So are we still seeking to admit this?

19 MS. BERLIN: Yes, please.

03:56 20 THE COURT: That will be admitted without objection.

21 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

22 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. Can we show it on the screen?
23 It's P 51 Thank you, Your Honor.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:57 25 Q. The very first page, if you can look at the front page?

1 A. Sure.

2 Q. And so P 51, I think you just testified you have a copy of 3 this at home, right?

4 A. Correct.

03:57 5 Q. Who gave it to you?

6 A. Mr. Furman.

7 Q. And what is it called? Do you see at the top?

8 A. Confidential Offering Memorandum.

9 Q. Yes.

03:57 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And it's for -- it says it's for Fidelis?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Was that Mr. Furman's -- did you have an understanding of 14 who owned Fidelis based on your interactions?

03:57 15 A. Yes, that is correct.

16 Q. Who was it?

17 A. It's him, Mr. Furman.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. If you page further inside, you'll see that. Sorry.

03:57 20 Q. Thank you. We should switch places.

21 So when you're going through the document, I wonder if 22 we can look at this section in P 51 that's about the risks.
23 And so we're going to just turn to page 8, if we can turn to
24 that.

03:58 25 MS. BERLIN: And, Kevin, because it starts with Roman

1 numerals, it's not going to be Pdf page 8. You're going to
2 have to look at the bottom right-hand corner.

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. So that's 14?

03:58 5 A. You're on Roman VIII.

6 Q. It should be about --

7 A. Roman VIII. That's on the screen.

8 Q. Page 8 with a number. And at the top it says "the 9 company," and then under that it says "risk factors."

03:59 10 All right. Perfect. Thank you.

11 So do you see at the top, it's -- this is a document
12 about the -- it says it's about the company. Do you see that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And it's -- this section is about -- we just looked on the 03:59 15 title page. This is a packet about Fidelis Financial Planning?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Mr. Furman's company?

18 A. Yeah. Yes.

19 Q. And this document is a disclosure document in connection
03:59 20 with the investment and Par Funding or investing in Par Funding
21 by giving Mr. Furman money; is that right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. So if we look at the risk factors on page 8, and if we just 24 look here at the -- it lists -- do you see it lists several 04:00 25 risks on the first page -- on page 8 under "Risks"?

1 A. Yes. It's highlighted language.

2 Q. We can look through. It's page 8 and 9. I just wanted to
3 look with you really briefly or maybe you remember. Was there
4 anything disclosed to you in this risk section about -- it
04:00 5 looks like the risks go on all the way -- so we're not going to 6 go page by page. It goes all the way through -- oh, my 7 goodness -- from page 8 through page 20.

8 Do you see he that?

9 A. That is correct.

04:00 10 Q. Can you just scroll through? It lists risk, after risk,
11 after risk, after risk of investing in this MCA, merchant cash
12 advance company.

13 Do you see that in front of you?

14 A. I do.

04:00 15 Q. And are any of these risks that you see from page 8 to 20, 16 are any of them disclosing to you about the risk of the MCA
17 company, Par Funding?

18 A. It was never mentioned.

19 Q. And anything about the risk of the company -- investor
04:01 20 money being managed by a convicted felon?

21 MR. HYMAN: Objection, Your Honor, leading, calls for 22 speculation, facts not in evidence.

23 THE COURT: Overruled as to all of those grounds.

24 Go ahead.

04:01 25 A. I'd have -- it's been a long time since I read it. So I'd

1 have to reread it to answer that.

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. Okay. I don't want you to have to do that. We can look at
4 the document.

04:01 5 A. I'm going to say if I had -- when I read it, if I had 6 noticed that, it would have rang a bell.

7 Q. Okay. And same thing. We talked before about government
8 cases against Par Funding to cease and desist from offering
9 investments to people and breaking the securities laws.

04:02 10 Do you remember ever reading anything about that in 11 any of the materials Mr. Furman gave you, whether it was this 12 P 51 risk disclosure or anything else he gave you?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Is that something that would you remember, do you think?

04:02 15 A. Oh, if I had it, yes.

16 Q. And then when you invested -- when you did this exchange of 17 your investment for the new one with lower or less money in the 18 spring of 2020, did you receive any sort of revision to your 19 note?

04:03 20 A. A similar document that would have outlined the new terms.

21 MS. BERLIN: May I approach the witness with what we 22 have marked as P 526?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MS. BERLIN: It's not in evidence yet.

04:03 25 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. And I'm showing you -- have you seen anything like this
3 before that sort of -- another written disclosure about the MCA
4 investment that you -- through Fidelis that you received in 04:03 5 2020?

6 A. Yes. This is it. It outlines the payment terms I was 7 alluding to before.

8 Q. And so similarly, we get like a second batch of disclosures
9 about the risks of this investment about one year into your 04:04 10 investment, correct?

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. And Mr. Furman gives that to you?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And does he disclose to you at that time the second round
04:04 15 of disclosures?

16 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, she's having him read from a
17 document that has not yet been introduced into evidence.

18 MS. BERLIN: I'm not asking him to read.

19 THE COURT: He can use it to refresh his recollection,
04:04 20 but these are questions. That's overruled.

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. So excuse me, just so we can avoid objections, do you mind
23 putting the document down? You can just put it down. Sorry.

24 A. Go ahead.

04:04 25 Q. And during this second round, so the second round of risk

1 disclosures is made by Mr. Furman in the spring of 2020. At 2 that time, when he does the second round, does he disclose to
3 you then that Par Funding is managed by a convicted felon?

4 A. No.

04:04 5 Q. Does he disclose to you at that time that the default rate
6 is higher than the 1 to 2 percent?

7 A. No. Well, I mean, at that time COVID-19 had come and 8 default was tremendous.

9 Q. Does he disclose to you at that time that until COVID-19
04:05 10 and until that moment, that the default rate had been higher
11 than 1 to 2 percent?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Does he disclose to you during this second round of risk
14 disclosures that Par Funding wasn't really going and doing
04:05 15 onsite inspections of the merchant borrowers?

16 A. No.

17 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

18 THE COURT: Overruled.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:05 20 Q. Does Mr. Furman disclose to you during this second round of 21 disclosures, does he tell that you Par Funding is involved in 22 thousands of lawsuits against merchants for not paying?

23 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

24 THE COURT: Overruled.

04:05 25 A. Yes. That I had heard.

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. And did you --

3 A. They were involved in thousands of lawsuits against 4 merchants who weren't paying.

04:05 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. And did Mr. Furman tell you that during the COVID period?

7 A. No. Post COVID.

8 Q. Okay. So after COVID, Mr. Furman told you that?

9 A. Yes.

04:06 10 Q. So --

11 A. Due to COVID.

12 Q. I'm sorry?

13 A. Due to COVID.

14 Q. Due to COVID.

04:06 15 So am I correct in understanding that in the spring --
16 or you said it was around April May --

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- of 2020, Mr. Furman tells you at that time, there are 19 thousands of lawsuit, but they are due to COVID?

04:06 20 A. Yes.

21 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound.

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. Does Mr. Furman disclose to you that, in fact, for the 04:06 25 years prior Par Funding had always been involved in thousands

1 of lawsuits against merchants for defaulting?

2 A. No.

3 MR. HYMAN: Leading, foundation.

4 THE COURT: Overruled.

04:06 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. And that this was nothing new?

7 A. No.

8 Q. And he instead told you that it was a new development that 9 was caused by COVID?

04:06 10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And in the spring of 2020, when the second round of risk
12 disclosures is done, does Mr. Furman at that time tell you
13 about any of the government lawsuits against Par Funding for 14 violating the securities laws?

04:07 15 MR. HYMAN: Objection.

16 THE COURT: Overruled.

17 A. No.

18 MS. BERLIN: I have no further questions. Thank you
19 so much.

04:07 20 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

21

22 CROSS EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. HYMAN:

24 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Barth. How are you doing today?

04:07 25 A. Good afternoon.

1 Q. So approximately how many times have you had a conversation
2 with Mr. Furman?

3 A. Conversation versus e-mail exchanges?

4 Q. Conversations, sir.

04:07 5 A. During what time period?

6 Q. Throughout the entire course of your dealings -- or we'll
7 start from, when did you first meet Mr. Furman?

8 A. August of 2017.

9 Q. And at that time did you invest in Fidelis?

04:07 10 A. At that time? No.

11 Q. When is it that you first invested in Fidelis?

12 A. April 2019.

13 Q. So for the first two years beforehand, how often did you
14 speak to Mr. Furman?

04:08 15 A. That period? Every few months. Actually speak to? Every 16 few months.

17 Q. Are you sure it wasn't more frequently than that?

18 A. It's possible.

19 Q. And after -- during those conversations, did you ever
04:08 20 discuss the fact that Fidelis was involved in the MCA industry
21 or the other investments that Mr. Furman was involved in?

22 A. Mr. Fidelis was involved in merchant cash? Itself? No.

23 Well, we talked about, you know, when we get to the fall of 24 2018 we talked about the merchant cash industry and that this

04:08 25 Par Funding was involved in it. And there were some potential

1 attractive returns associated with it.

2 Q. And, in fact, you testified earlier that pre-COVID you were
3 paid $2300 a month; that's correct?

4 A. That is.

04:09 5 Q. And that's a 12 percent return on your investment, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And earlier today -- or how many times since everything has 8 started have you had discussions with the SEC?

9 A. Just the SEC? Just the SEC? Before today?

04:09 10 Q. Yes, sir.

11 A. We talked in the lobby several times. Two or three.

12 Q. You talked in the lobby with the SEC the day before you
13 came to testify?

14 A. Yes they came out to keep me apprised of the status of me
04:09 15 coming in.

16 Q. Talked about anything else with them?

17 A. What they were going to ask, which we had already discussed
18 on the phone.

19 Q. Gotcha. And how many times had you had those discussions
04:10 20 with the SEC about what they were going to ask you and what you
21 were going to say?

22 A. Four or five.

23 Q. In fact, you have a financial interest in seeing Mr. Furman
24 being held liable, don't you?

04:10 25 A. Of course.

1 Q. In fact, you have a liable by the SEC that is?

2 A. I honestly don't know the answer to that.

3 Q. Well, you're suing them, aren't you?

4 A. I am involved in a class action lawsuit.

04:10 5 Q. In fact, have you reviewed the complaint that you filed in 6 the class action lawsuit?

7 A. Not since it was filed a year ago.

8 Q. But do you recall the allegations that you included in the 9 complaint at that time, sir?

04:10 10 A. I haven't reviewed it recently.

11 Q. Isn't it true that you do not allege any omissions
12 concerning any alleged felons in that complaint, sir?

13 A. If that's what it said, it's correct.

14 Q. Isn't it true that you do not allege that Mr. Furman in 04:10 15 your class action complaint that he failed to tell you about 16 the New Jersey or Pennsylvania or cease and desist orders?

17 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor. If he could show
18 the document.

19 THE COURT: Overruled.

04:11 20 A. If that's what it said, that's correct.

21 BY MR. HYMAN:

22 Q. So you don't know what you put in the complaint September,
23 right?

24 A. It was over a year ago. I don't remember. I have -- in 04:11 25 preparation for today I did not review that.

1 Q. So then how do you expect the jury to believe you -- that
2 you know or have a good memory of what Mr. Furman did or didn't
3 tell you?

4 A. The things I'm telling you today are true.

04:11 5 MR. HYMAN: No further questions.

6 THE COURT: Redirect.

7 MS. BERLIN: Real quick.

8

9

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

04:11 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. I'm glad Mr. Hyman brought up your class action lawsuit
12 against Mr. Furman.

13 When the -- now, how many times have you and I spoken
14 before today when I go to the lobby to tell you the status?

04:11 15 A. Before today? I think we only spoke on the phone once.

16 Q. Yeah. And when you talk about, like, talking to the SEC
17 four or five times, are you talking about, like, state SEC --
18 are you talking about me or Alise or --

19 A. You're the SEC, right?

04:12 20 Q. Yes, I am the SEC. Well, not me personally.

21 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 A. I'd have to think of a second time. Yes, you and I had a
24 conference call. Did we have any other calls? I texted some 04:12 25 of your staff coordinating today's meeting. That was really a

1 timing issue. And I don't -- and I think outside of
2 coordinating the phone call we had in the last week or so, just
3 to hear my story, there were no other conversations. If we go
4 back more than two weeks there were none.

04:12 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. None. It was just the call that you and I had, and then
7 our office keeping you apprised of what time to be here
8 today --

9 A. Yes.

04:12 10 Q. -- fair to say?

11 Okay. So those were the conversations with the SEC?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And one last question. On the class action that you filed,
14 was that affected by the SEC filing this case at all? Like,
04:13 15 was that case stayed by this case?

16 A. Can you rephrase or elaborate?

17 Q. Sure. The private lawsuit that you filed against
18 Mr. Furman --

19 A. That I'm a part of, yes.

04:13 20 Q. Yeah.

21 -- is that case on hold right now?

22 A. I believe, yes, it is. That's what they've told me.

23 Q. And that's because the SEC filed this case, right?

24 A. Correct.

04:13 25 Q. And unfortunately this case -- the SEC filing this case

1 forces your case to be put on ice?

2 A. That's the way I understand it.

3 Q. Okay. So you're not really helped -- your lawsuit is not
4 helped by our case being filed. In fact, our case freezes
04:13 5 yours in its tracks; is that true?

6 MR. HYMAN: Leading, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Overruled.

8 A. Yes, that's what they told me.

9 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Thank you so much. I don't have 04:13 10 any further questions. I hope you have a safe trip home.

11 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, any questions for 12 our investor? No. Okay.

13 Thank you very much, sir. You are excused.

14 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we have of our first Zoom
04:14 15 witness --

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MS. BERLIN: -- Lori Boyogueno from the State of 18 Pennsylvania, Securities Bureau. And so --

19 Thank you so much.

04:14 20 THE COURT: Let me get my CRD to come on in and double
21 check. She's going to need one second to make sure the Zoom is 22 ready to go. So just give us a second.

23 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely. And if we could have a
24 second to contact the Pennsylvania Bureau and tell them to join
04:14 25 the Zoom for witnesses.

1 THE COURT: Yes. Go ahead and reach out to them.

2 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

3 MS. JACQMEIN: Two minutes?

4 THE COURT: Yes. We'll give you a couple of minutes.

04:14 5 Is everybody okay? Does anybody need a restroom break
6 or anything?

7 All right. Just hang in there for a second. I just 8 want get this tech working and then we'll get started, guys.

9 Go ahead and step out and make a phone call.

10 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. We'll do that.

11 THE COURT: We're going to set it up right now.

12 MS. BERLIN: Thank you very much.

13 MS. JOHNSON: While we're working on that, Your Honor,
14 I have one exhibit that they've agreed can be admitted.

04:17 15 THE COURT: What's the number?

16 MS. JOHNSON: Plaintiff's 4.

17 MR. HYMAN: We've stipulated to the admission of the 18 Pennsylvania ruling.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So at this time Plaintiff's Exhibit
04:18 20 4 will be admitted.

21 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

22 MR. HYMAN: Yes. And for the record, we offered to 23 stipulate to --

24 (Thereupon, counsel confer.)

04:21 25 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, while we're waiting for

1 the Zoom connection to happen, based on the time, I think we're
2 going to get through Lori Boyogueno and then be finished for
3 the -- it makes sense to pause there. I think that's going to 4 take us until 5:00, right, realistically.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MS. BERLIN: And then we were going to try to finish
7 by 5:00. We think we're going to be done by 5:00.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MS. BERLIN: And then we would start in the morning
04:21 10 with the new witness. And hopefully we'll finish -- we're 11 going to try to finish before 5:00. And that would be -- our 12 idea would be then to have that as our breaking point, if 13 that's okay. If not, we have other witnesses we can start.

14 THE COURT: You're saying for tomorrow?

04:21 15 MS. JOHNSON: We think this will be our last witness
16 of the day. I think we'll probably finish a little bit before
17 5:00.

18 THE COURT: That's fine. I mean, unless there was 19 some other witness that was extremely brief after this. But if 04:21 20 there's not and this goes past 5:00 then we're better off
21 starting tomorrow.

22 MS. JOHNSON: This is our shortest witness, so that's 23 why --

24 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

04:22 25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MS. BERLIN: We think she's 15 minutes.

2 THE COURT: All right. We'll take care of this
3 witness and we'll be done for the day.

4 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

04:22 5 THE COURT: You guys all see the screen over there?
6 You can all see, right? Okay.

7 I'm sure you're all enjoying the comments as much as I
8 am.

9 MR. HYMAN: I almost want to ask them if I should keep 04:23 10 the man bun or lose it.

11 THE COURT: Don't interact with them.

12 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: She should be able to speak.

13 THE COURT: She's connecting now.

14 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: She is.

04:23 15 MS. JOHNSON: Want to do a test run?

16 THE COURT: We're just going to give her the 17 opportunity because since it's Web-Ex, without interaction
18 live, we're trying to give her permission to be able to speak.
19 That's what we're doing now. So just one second here.

04:24 20 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, perhaps it would make sense
21 to -- never mind.

22 MS. JOHNSON: When I read, I read fast. I will try to 23 be slow.

24 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen who are participating
04:25 25 in the Zoom and watching the proceedings, we are going to have

1 our first witness appear over Zoom to testify. So I am
2 directing that any participants that are going to be watching
3 this next witness, everyone needs to cease engaging in the chat
4 function.

04:25 5 If the Court sees another chat appear which -- so
6 everyone understands, not only is it visible to the Court, but 7 it is visible to the jurors and could have an impact on the 8 evidence in this case. I'm doing this out of a courtesy to 9 investors so they can participate and watch.

04:25 10 If the chats come up while I'm getting testimony from 11 this next witness, you will be removed from the Zoom, you will 12 not be permitted to participate or watch any other court
13 proceedings, similar to an outburst that would happen if you
14 were live in my courtroom, and I will have a United States
04:25 15 Marshal remove you from the courtroom.

16 So I'm advising everyone that is currently on the chat
17 function to cease any engagement in conversation at a minimum
18 until we have this Zoom witness finished. This is not going to 19 be the first time that we have a witness appear on Zoom. So
04:26 20 I'm going to admonish everyone not to engage in the chat
21 function again whenever we have our next Zoom witness.

22 If the parties wish to speak on Zoom through the chat
23 function, you're free to do so when we do not have a witness
24 testifying. The problem is that all of these communications
04:26 25 are visible to jurors who share the screen when someone appears

1 by Zoom.

2 So again, I will remind everyone that if you are
3 chatting regardless of whatever the subject matter may be, the 4 Court will feel compelled to remove you. Okay?

04:26 5 I would ask if the witness can hear me. I need her
6 video to be turned on, please. She should be able to hear me,
7 ma'am, but I would like to see if you can turn on your video.

8 THE WITNESS: I can hear you, and my video is on.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Well, you are a black box for us.
04:26 10 So unless I'm missing something, please double check your 11 settings. I will look and see, but I'm not sure, it's not a
12 video that I am able to manipulate from my end, I don't
13 believe. We're working on it, but can you please double check
14 and make sure there's no video or stop video clicked?

04:27 15 THE WITNESS: I don't see that.

16 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, at least with this witness, I
17 don't think there's any credibility issues. So at least from 18 the defense end, we wouldn't object if due to technical 19 issues --

04:27 20 THE COURT: She can't turn on the camera?

21 MR. HYMAN: Correct, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Did we lose her? No. She disconnected.
23 This is her issue, not ours.

24 MS. BERLIN: We think --

04:28 25 THE COURT: Do you want to try to - tell her to

1 reconnect. She's going to have to testify over the phone or
2 over the Zoom without video. We'll go by it that way.
3 Obviously there's no defense objection, and it's a very
4 straightforward witness. Let's at least get that done if we 04:28 5 can. She's reconnecting now.

6 MS. BERLIN: I was just checking to see -- as the 7 Court knows, one features of Zoom -- there she is.

8 THE COURT: She's now present. She might have had to 9 restart to get the video to work.

04:28 10 Now you're muted, ma'am. So let me unmute you.

11 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Can you hear me?

13 THE WITNESS: I can hear you.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Very good. So sometimes it needs
04:28 15 to be connect, disconnect, and we'll reconnect and the video is 16 there. So we can see you.

17 So ladies and gentlemen of the jury, can you see the 18 next witness on there?

19 THE JURY: Yes.

04:28 20 THE COURT: All right. So what I'm going to ask you,
21 ma'am, sometimes it's a little weird with the audio. Just 22 speak as loud as you can into whatever your microphone is on 23 your computer so that all my jurors can hear you. They're 24 watching you live as well. Okay?

04:29 25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Very good. So with that being said, we'll
2 go ahead and administer an oath.

3 I don't know if you can -- Gracie, if you can hear me,
4 Gracie, please go ahead and come on with your video and 04:29 5 administer the oath to the witness.

6 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, the chat is still going.

7 THE COURT: Yes. I believe that someone isn't hearing
8 me. So this individual will unfortunately be removed from the 9 chat momentarily. So let go ahead and get started.

04:29 10 Gracie, can you please administer the oath?

11 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Yes, Your Honor.

12 Thereupon,

13 LORI BOYOGUENO,

14 having been duly sworn by the courtroom deputy, testified as
04:29 15 follows:

16 THE COURT: Thank you, Gracie.

17 And I think we should no longer have any feedback.

18 And let's go ahead and get started.

19

20 DIRECT EXAMINATION

21 BY MS. JOHNSON:

22 Q. Could you state your name for the record, please.

23 A. Lori Boyogueno.

24 Q. Thank you. And where are you currently employed?

04:30 25 A. Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities.

1 Q. And how long have you been with the department?

2 A. Twelve years.

3 Q. And what do you do at the department?

04:30 4 A. I'm the regional chief of the Bureau of Compliance and 5 Examinations.

6 Q. And what is the function of the Bureau or the department?

7 What is your mission there?

8 A. We regulate -- we enforce and regulate our securities
9 (inaud.) Securities Act and enforce the regulations and protect 04:30 10 the investors.

11 Q. And is that a government agency?

12 A. It is. It's a Pennsylvania state.

13 Q. Pennsylvania state government agency?

14 A. Yes.

04:31 15 Q. And I'm going to show you what's been introduced into 16 evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 4. It's the consent agreement
17 and order. Okay.

18 Give us a minute and we'll put it on the screen,
19 unless you have the copy in front of you?

04:31 20 A. I do have a copy in front of me.

21 Q. Okay. Great. We'll start with that, but we'll also put it
22 on the screen.

23 MS. JOHNSON: We're just waiting on permission to 24 screen share.

04:32 25 THE COURT: Let me make sure we grab that permission.

1 Has it been requested? You guys requested it now?

2 IT TECHNICIAN: I did.

3 THE COURT: Gracie is going to connect it. Give me
4 one second.

04:32 5 BY MS. JOHNSON:

6 Q. While we're waiting, can you describe what this is?

7 A. This is a consent order agreement.

8 Q. And who is it -- who filed this?

9 A. I'm sorry. I couldn't hear you.

04:32 10 Q. Who -- did your agency file this?

11 A. Yes, they did. It's from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
12 Department of Banking and Security.

13 Q. And who is it filed against?

14 A. Par Funding Complete Business Solutions.

04:32 15 Q. And what was the date that this was filed?

16 A. November 28th, 2018.

17 Q. And if you look at the first paragraph -- this is when 18 we'll need it.

19 THE COURT: Are you connected to the Zoom?

04:33 20 IT TECHNICIAN: I am.

21 THE COURT: What name are you under? For some reason
22 my courtroom deputy can't --

23 IT TECHNICIAN: (Inaudible.)

24 THE COURT: It's not showing up on there.

25 IT TECHNICIAN: Maybe I'm in the wrong Zoom?

1 THE COURT: We don't have you connected, because I
2 don't see you, so I can give you sharing privileges.

3 MS. BERLIN: I know there was two Zoom, one for 4 witnesses and one for the public. And I don't know if they're 04:33 5 in two different ones.

6 THE COURT: I don't know. If you can try to reconnect
7 here to it. We don't see anybody else on here. So you should
8 be able to connect. I'm trying to see if I spot you as a
9 participant on the right.

04:35 10 IT TECHNICIAN: Same thing. I'm in, but I'm not in.

11 MS. JOHNSON: Are you able to publish this to the 12 jury?

13 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, can we do that.

14 MS. JOHNSON: If we can just publish it to the jury,
04:35 15 she has a written copy that I can direct her.

16 THE COURT: Sure. I think the only problem is they're 17 looking at the screen. So I am not sure how you're going to 18 publish that and have a double feed in there. We're all
19 sharing this particular screen. So I don't know how we're 04:35 20 going to override -- we only have one screen.

21 So the only thing we can do is we can old-school
22 publish. There is a printed copy and they can pass it around.
23 They can start looking at it while she discusses it. That 24 might be the easiest thing to do. That doesn't seem to be 04:35 25 another way to --

1 MS. JOHNSON: You know what, I'll -- I don't need to
2 do that. I'll just ask her questions, and she can testify --

3 THE COURT: It can be moved in later, and then it can
4 be put in front of the jurors after she's testified. So that 04:36 5 may be the easiest way.

6 MS. JOHNSON: We already moved it in.

7 THE COURT: If it's already moved in, so let's ask
8 some questions and maybe we can show them later.

9 And if that's a copy, why don't we go ahead and 04:36 10 publish that to the jury. Why don't we hand that.

11 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, this is just old
12 school. You can hand it around to each other so we don't delay
13 any further, and you can look at it while she's talking. Let's
14 continue please, so we can finish up with this witness.

04:36 15 BY MS. JOHNSON:

16 Q. All right. If you look at the first paragraph -- if you
17 look at the first paragraph, it says that the Commonwealth of 18 Pennsylvania, acting through the Department of Banking and 19 Securities, Bureau of Securities Compliance and Examinations,
04:36 20 has conducted an investigation of certain securities-related
21 activities of complete business solutions doing business as Par
22 and based on the results of the investigation, that the Bureau
23 has concluded that CBSG has engaged in certain
24 securities-related activities in violation of the Pennsylvania
04:37 25 Securities Act.

1 Were you involved in that investigation?

2 A. Yes, I was.

3 Q. And did this consent agreement and order come out as a
4 result of that investigation?

04:37 5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And if you look at the first paragraph, or under
7 Background, it says: Number 1, the Department is -- the 8 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's administrative agency authorized
9 and empowered to administer and enforce the 1972 Security Act.

04:37 10 And then number two: The Bureau is primarily 11 responsible for administering and enforcing the 1972 act for 12 the department.

13 Is that basically what you told us, as part of your 14 mission, that the Bureau is charged with doing for the State of 04:38 15 Pennsylvania?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. Okay.

18 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, one moment. Is it okay if 19 we -- it's already happening. We were just going to put our 04:38 20 laptop up there with the document on it.

21 THE COURT: That's fine. Maybe put it in there
22 towards the middle. That's fine. Sure.

23 MS. BERLIN: I just wanted to make sure.

24 THE COURT: Yeah.

04:38 25 MS. JACQMEIN: They have three copies. They're

1 sharing it.

2 MS. BERLIN: And then the computer.

3 THE COURT: And then the computer. Everyone's sharing
4 and looking at one.

04:38 5 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor. I just wanted to 6 make sure we were okay.

7 BY MS. JOHNSON:

8 Q. All right. And if you turn to page 2 under Violations.
9 Under number 8, it says: By engaging in acts and conduct set
04:38 10 forth in paragraphs 1 through 5 above, CBSG employed at least 11 one unregistered agent in violation of Section 30(b) of the 12 1972 act.

13 Is that what -- can you explain what that violation
14 means, what they violated?

04:39 15 A. They were not registered to sell securities. So they were 16 in violation of doing so.

17 Q. And under number 9 on the following page, page 3, it states
18 what relief that they -- department was asking for. And it
19 says: Within 30 days of the effective date of this order as 04:39 20 defined by paragraph 19, CBSG shall pay the department an 21 administrative assessment in the amount of $499,000.

22 Was that the requested relief that you had installed
23 against Par Funding?

24 A. It is.

04:39 25 Q. Just going to walk you through a few more things here.

1 And on page 5 -- oops, I'm sorry, go back to page 4,
2 under number 16 it says: This is the entire agreement. The 3 order contains the entire agreement between the department and
4 CBSG. There are no other items, obligations, covenants,
04:40 5 representations of any kind whatsoever concerning this order.

6 Can you explain what that paragraph means?

7 A. There were no other actions taken against CBSG.

8 Q. Was this the entirety of the agreement between CBSG or 9 Par Funding and the Bureau?

04:41 10 A. I'm sorry, could you repeat that?

11 Q. I'll rephrase.

12 Were there any other agreements other than this one
13 between the Bureau and Par Funding?

14 A. No.

04:41 15 Q. Was this order ever retracted by the Bureau?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Was this order -- is this order still in effect?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Is this order publically available?

04:41 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. How would a member of the public find this order if they 22 wanted to find it, if they wanted to view it?

23 A. They would just have to go onto our website, Pennsylvania
24 Department of Banking and Securities under Enforcements, and it
04:41 25 would be right there.

1 Q. Did the Bureau ever have subsequent conversations with
2 Par Funding indicating that it approved of Par Funding's
3 business model?

4 A. No.

04:42 5 Q. Did they ever tell Par Funding that they loved them?

6 A. No.

7 Q. How about that they blessed the business, Par Funding's
8 business?

9 A. No. No.

04:42 10 Q. So no other subsequent agreements or conversations
11 concerning the Par Funding business other than what's contained
12 in this order?

13 A. No.

14 THE COURT: By the way, if we wish at this point, we 04:42 15 have given access to you on the Zoom, so you should be able to 16 share -- screen share. We fixed that. Okay. So going forward
17 for any other witnesses on Zoom, that should be taken care of.
18 You might just want to leave it as it is for now, but for the 19 future.

04:42 20 BY MS. JOHNSON:

21 Q. Now, we talked the order violation under the filing that 22 there was a registration violation of Par Funding. Why is that
23 important?

24 A. Because the consumers could not do their research and find 04:43 25 out about any investments that they're investing in if they're

1 not registered.

2 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you. That's all I have,
3 Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Cross-examination.

04:43 5 MR. HYMAN: Of course.

6

7

CROSS EXAMINATION

8 BY MR. HYMAN:

9 Q. Good afternoon. As I start, because I'm not the best at 04:43 10 pronouncing names, would you mind pronouncing your name for me?
11 Is it Ms. Boyogueno?

12 A. No. Boyogueno.

13 Q. Boyogueno.

14 How is the weather up in Pennsylvania, Ms. Boyogueno?

04:43 15 A. Cold.

16 Q. It's unfortunate you couldn't come down to Florida.

17 So prior to the entry of this consent order that was 18 entered, did the department conduct an investigation as to 19 Par Funding or CBSG's books and records?

04:44 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did the department find that there were any issues with 22 respect to Par Funding's books and records or --

23 MS. JOHNSON: Before you answer.

24 Objection, Your Honor.

04:44 25 THE COURT: Overruled.

1 You can answer.

2 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, objection.

3 A. Under confidentiality, I cannot.

4 BY MR. HYMAN:

5 Q. Okay.

6 THE COURT: There you go.

7 BY MR. HYMAN:

8 Q. If the department found that there was a problem or a risk
9 of investors losing money, would it have taken further action
04:44 10 beyond the consent order?

11 MS. JOHNSON: Again, same objection.

12 THE COURT: Let's move on from that, given the 13 constraints that she has testified about those pending matters.

14 Go ahead.

04:44 15 BY MR. HYMAN:

16 Q. So after this order was entered, was CBSG allowed to 17 operate in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania provided -- sorry,
18 that was it.

19 THE COURT: I think you'll have to restate that 20 question.

21 MR. HYMAN: Sorry.

22 BY MR. HYMAN:

23 Q. After entry of this order, was CBSG allowed to operate in 24 Pennsylvania?

04:45 25 A. They should not have been doing what they were doing, no.

1 Q. Okay. Isn't it true that no further action has been taken
2 after this order was entered?

3 MS. JOHNSON: I'll object, Your Honor.

4 MS. BERLIN: Object on the same grounds.

04:45 5 THE COURT: That's going to be sustained.

6 MR. HYMAN: No further questions.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Any redirect?

8 MS. JOHNSON: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Any questions from the jurors for 04:45 10 the witness on the Zoom? Okay.

11 Thank you so much, ma'am, for making yourself
12 available and connecting with us this afternoon. Have a great
13 rest of your day. You are excused.

14 THE WITNESS: Okay, thank you.

04:46 15 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, if you
16 would do me a favor, go ahead and leave your notepads on your 17 chairs. Just give me about ten minutes to discuss schedule
18 with the lawyers and when I bring you guys back out, I'll give 19 you a preview of tomorrow. Okay?

04:46 20 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

21 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Okay. I just 22 want to go ahead and do some housekeeping before tomorrow to 23 make sure that we have our game plan. We're ending a little 24 early and we lost quite a bit of time today, although I'd like
04:46 25 to think that it was necessary for the benefit of all parties

1 going forward to understand exactly what's at stake, what the
2 issues are, and truthfully, actually the Court was concerned
3 that we needed to make everything clear so that Mr. Furman and 4 his team knew exactly what the SEC's theory was and that the
04:47 5 SEC similarly clarified their theory and so there will be no
6 confusion for the record. And so I think that case management
7 was necessary and it was to the benefit of both sides.

8 So tomorrow, who am I going to hear from? I expect,
9 based upon my notes, we're still going to have to two investors
04:47 10 that are going to be testifying; is that correct? Two more?

11 MS. BERLIN: Yes. So we have Mr. Nash and we also --
12 Frank Nash. And then also, Your Honor, you know, we mentioned
13 that we have the -- an investor who just was in the hospital,
14 he's out.

04:47 15 THE COURT: Correct.

16 MS. BERLIN: But I'm not sure -- we also have an issue
17 with him because he's also, like, deaf or extremely hard of 18 hearing, so we're doing it -- we have someone going to his 19 house. We're not sure if we're going to have -- if it's going
04:48 20 to be tomorrow. He just got out of the hospital. Or if we're 21 going to have to do him Friday morning. We have mentioned
22 that. I just wanted to let you know. He's a moving -- we're 23 being flexible on him.

24 But we do have that investor. Then we have James
04:48 25 Klenk, he's the comptroller of Par Funding.

1 THE COURT: Correct.

2 MS. BERLIN: William Mitchell, he's the Texas
3 regulator.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Is that going to be similar, what 04:48 5 we just heard from New Jersey?

6 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

7 THE COURT: So over Zoom, probably be brief?

8 MS. BERLIN: 15 minutes.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

04:48 10 MS. BERLIN: We also have a Alexis Abbonizio.

11 THE COURT: Right. Which we know her testimony is 12 possibly limited to just explaining how she would go ahead and 13 take care of some of the movement that Mr. Perry Abbonizio
14 would do, just kind of work with him on e-mail and follow
04:48 15 directions and things like that.

16 MS. BERLIN: Sending notes, what Mr. Furman would send 17 to her, what she would send back. They never even met. It's 18 all -- yeah.

19 THE COURT: That's should be fairly brief too.

04:49 20 MS. BERLIN: It's going to be brief, 30 minutes.

21 THE COURT: And she's also on Zoom, right?

22 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MS. BERLIN: Then we have Wendy Furman.

04:49 25 THE COURT: Right. She's a Zoom witness. Okay.

1 MS. BERLIN: And Mr. --

2 THE COURT: Furman, of course.

3 MS. BERLIN: -- Furman, of course.

4 THE COURT: Right.

04:49 5 MS. BERLIN: And I think that will be the day. And I
6 mean, if we don't finish Mr. Furman -- hopefully we finish
7 Mr. Furman. If we don't, we'll start him Friday morning.

8 And then our last witness for Friday morning will be 9 Steven Bouchard from the New Jersey regulators. He's a little 04:49 10 bit longer than what you just heard. He's got a couple of 11 additional things.

12 THE COURT: Also Zoom; is that right? Or no?

13 MS. BERLIN: Yes, sir. He is Zoom.

14 THE COURT: All right. So let me summarize so that we
04:49 15 understand. What I'm trying to do here is see -- I want to land
16 the SEC's plane by the end of Friday. So that's the whole
17 point. So I've got 48 hours to get your case done.

18 So here's what I got, the line up. I have the short
19 witnesses appear to be Mitchell, Furman and Abbonizio -- Alexis
04:49 20 Abbonizio via Zoom. Those all seem pretty streamlined. And 21 possibly the one investor over Zoom as well, who has recently
22 been discharged.

23 I expect that Nash and the investor will be probably
24 within an hour, based upon what I've seen from other investors,
04:50 25 give or take. And then we're looking at the longest witnesses

1 that remain would be -- I don't think Bouchard from the New
2 Jersey regulator's office is going to be that long.

3 MS. BERLIN: 30 minutes.

4 THE COURT: 30, that's not bad at all. And so really,
04:50 5 other than Mr. Furman and Mr. Klenk, most witnesses here are 6 inside an hour it looks like. Is that fair?

7 MS. BERLIN: Oh, absolutely. I thought all of our 8 witnesses were going to be inside an hour, except for
9 Mr. Furman.

04:50 10 THE COURT: It may be. It may be. I don't know. I'm 11 just --

12 MS. BERLIN: That's our hope.

13 THE COURT: That's my hope. But my point is, I think
14 that we are without a problem, especially given what the Court
04:50 15 did today and that we streamlined a number of these issues
16 already, I expect that we should have no problem with this 17 lineup in the next two days. I really don't see an issue. In 18 fact, if things go smoothly without any sort of issues, we 19 might even be ending a littler earlier on Friday, if we can 04:51 20 keep it moving.

21 MS. BERLIN: Our plan was to be finished Friday
22 morning.

23 THE COURT: Right. Now, it's probably going to be 24 Friday afternoon because we lost --

04:51 25 MS. BERLIN: It might be.

1 THE COURT: You never know. That's true.

2 MS. BERLIN: We can make up time. We're good like
3 that. We're going to really try to finish Friday morning.
4 It's our goal.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MS. BERLIN: It depends on how things -- you can't
7 predict, right, but that's our plan.

8 THE COURT: Well, look, we've had issues with our 9 jurors. I mean, we had a juror that has been having some 04:51 10 issues at home. That ate up 30 minutes. An hour here or 11 there. So that's part of it, too, so I'm fine. But the 12 important thing is, I think this lineup, especially because 13 Zoom was successful today and now we have tech support ready to 14 go on that with privileges to share a screen, I know that these 04:51 15 witnesses should be very quick. I don't think there's much in 16 the way of cross-examining them, so we're not going to have a
17 problem. We should be able to finish this on the SEC's side.
18 Sets it up for very natural breaks, so that any defense issues
19 on their case can begin on Monday. So this is a good schedule.
04:52 20 I can work with this.

21 All right. I just want to let -- I want to let my 22 jurors know what the expectation is. I don't want them to be 23 nervous because I'm sure they've seen some delay. So I would 24 like to represent to them that we are still on schedule to have 04:52 25 the SEC conclude their case this week. And I think that's a

1 very fair assessment. And my plan is to allow the defense to
2 put on their case early next week and still closing by the
3 middle of next week.

4 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

04:52 5 THE COURT: I think that's the goal, and it seems like
6 we're going to be quite all right with that. Okay.

7 MS. BERLIN: I agree.

8 THE COURT: So again, tomorrow will be the same
9 routine, the 9:30 start. And we'll hopefully get everyone here
04:52 10 on time and that should help us out.

11 Okay. So anything else? I mean, I just want to let 12 the jury go. Anything else on scheduling that I need to be 13 aware of?

14 MS. BERLIN: No, not at all I think we're making great
04:52 15 time.

16 THE COURT: Even with some delays. I agree.

17 MS. BERLIN: We kind of built that in. We try to be 18 flexible, but I think we're definitely on track.

19 THE COURT: Great. Great.

04:53 20 How about on the defense side, any scheduling issues
21 just before I bring the jury back in and let them go?

22 MR. HYMAN: I don't believe there's any scheduling
23 issues. There's one separate side thing. But I prefer to let 24 the jury go.

04:53 25 THE COURT: Yes. We're not going to waste the jury's

1 time with that. This is just to see what their expectations
2 are. We'll address housekeeping issues amongst ourselves after
3 they're gone. Let's bring them in. Thank you.

4 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

04:54 5 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. So just to 6 give you guys a little preview, I've talked over some
7 scheduling with the lawyers. So we're done for the day. We're
8 going to do our usual routine. We'll start tomorrow at 9:30.

9 I want to let everyone know our plan. We're on pace
04:54 10 for the SEC to finish their case on Friday. So I just want
11 everyone to know we're not behind schedule in the slightest.
12 The goal that I had was to get the SEC's case done this week.
13 They're adhering to that goal. Tomorrow they expect to have 14 numerous witnesses, shorter witnesses on Zoom. So we'll be 04:54 15 doing that tomorrow.

16 We still have a couple of live witnesses, but we do
17 expect that sometime middle of Friday afternoon, we'll be done
18 with the SEC's case, which means they will rest. That puts us
19 at a very natural breaking point. So if you guys go into the 04:55 20 weekend and then when we return on Monday, we'll hear the 21 defense's case. They will be able to put on their witnesses.

22 It puts us on schedule to be closing with this case by 23 the middle of next week, which is what I wanted to do. As I
24 said, we need your availability through next week, but we're 04:55 25 going to beat that. We're going to stay inside two weeks for

1 sure. So I just want to let you guys know because we have had
2 some unforeseen delays, that it's not changing our schedule to
3 the slightest or your commitment to the trial.

4 As per usual, let me know if anything is going down
04:55 5 tomorrow when you guys are coming in, running behind a little
6 bit. Let me know. We won't start until you're all here. I
7 know that we've heard a lot of testimony over the last two days
8 and I haven't repeated again today, but it's incumbent that I
9 do so now before I let you go.

04:55 10 Remember to tell family and friends you can't discuss
11 the case, what you've seen and what you've heard until you are 12 done with your service. You can't talk to each other about 13 what you're seeing, what you're reading until you're 14 deliberating.

04:55 15 Stay off social media. No discussion about this case
16 or any form whatsoever: Facebook, Instagram, Twitter,
17 et cetera.

18 Make sure you do no research regarding any of the 19 things that you've heard in this case, any of the document
04:56 20 you've seen. Nothing should be looked up on any sort of search
21 engine or anything of that kind.

22 Remember, the lawyers will continue to avoid you as 23 they must when you come in tomorrow and any kind of a lunch
24 break. When you go to leave, leave your notepads in the jury
04:56 25 room. Don't take them with you. We'll secure the jury room as

1 per usual, and we'll get everybody in here tomorrow at 9:30 and
2 get started with our next witness. All right?

3 So with this being said, we'll get you out of here a
4 few minutes before 5 o'clock. Have a great evening, everyone.

04:56 5 Tomorrow, 9:30, we'll see you in the room. Thank you.

6 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

7 THE COURT: Okay. Please be seated, everyone. Let me
8 just -- because I wanted to make a record on it. We have been 9 moving pretty fast and furious on some of the issues that have 04:57 10 been flying around here. We continue to have a lot of 11 evidentiary objections or objections generally.

12 We obviously withdrew the objection to the Fidelis
13 disclosure or memorandum that -- and I'm going to forget the 14 number right now, but it was basically the same document that 04:57 15 was advanced by -- it's okay. They can listen. Basically the 16 same document that was advanced by the defense, except of 17 course the defense had filled out Appendix A, B and C. These 18 were without those appendices on them. It was obviously 19 withdrawn, but I just want to make sure that we're not 04:57 20 conflating any issues or having any concerns.

21 I would presume that that document -- although the 22 initial objection was obviously withdrawn, I'm not certain if 23 we're going to go under an 801 party admission given how it was 24 framed or if it's really shown less for the contents of the 04:58 25 actual document and the interest rates that were testified to

1 and more about the fact that there was actually -- I don't want
2 to call it a prospectus because it's not. It's an offer
3 memorandum, I think is the title.

4 MS. BERLIN: It's called a private placement
04:58 5 memorandum. So the difference between that and what we were 6 shown before is the other one had documents attached to it that 7 were supposedly signed by an investor. But we have issues. We 8 think that will come out as we develop the case or as we show
9 the case.

10 THE COURT: I just want to -- all I care --

11 MS. BERLIN: It's a different -- it didn't have the 12 appendixes, and that was our issue with those attachments to 13 it. But yes, the PPM is relevant because that is a written -- 14 it's just another place for scienter, where he's got 8 pages of 04:58 15 "here's all the risks" and he doesn't disclose any of the risks
16 that are known to him. That's what we will argue on cross.

17 THE COURT: I guess the important thing here is I'm 18 talking strictly from an evidentiary standard that the offering
19 of that -- I want to make it clear on the record so we don't 04:59 20 have issues down the road on any objections -- is the basis for 21 the admission of that that it is not offered for the truth of 22 the matter asserted in the memorandum but actually offered
23 simply to show a lack of disclosure, meaning that it's -- it
24 does not have a complete list of what the SEC believes were 04:59 25 known risks by Furman; is that right?

1 MS. BERLIN: That's right. And that document --
2 there's a second point too, which is that document also says
3 Fidelis is investing in an MCA, and it talks about -- like what
4 we're arguing that he's raising money for an MCA. And we'll 04:59 5 get out later that there's only one MCA and it's Par Funding.

6 So it's relevant to that, and the disclosures are the 7 critical piece that I use as a scienter basis. If you spent --
8 you draft 10 pages of all the risks and you don't include the 9 ones that exist, it goes to a scienter. So it's admissible for
05:00 10 that.

11 THE COURT: So -- but, I mean, admissibility in that
12 case, I think you would agree with me, there's two arguments
13 there. One would be the fact that you're omitting things.
14 It's less for the contents of the document and more about what
05:00 15 is not disclosed, and that I think has its own non-hearsay
16 issue. But the content, to the extent they show that Fidelis
17 is funneling money or investing in MCAs, that is being shown
18 for that representation and that truth. So I assume that that 19 would come in essentially as a party admission by Furman. I'm 05:00 20 trying to figure out what the hearsay exception is to that 21 content.

22 MS. BERLIN: Right. So today what we -- I admitted it
23 today with this witness. I only asked him about what was 24 disclosed. So basically, I think would be -- like, it's not 05:00 25 whether what's written there is true. Whether those risks are

1 true. That's what I showed him, only the section about the 2 risks.

3 THE COURT: And to show that there's some risks that
4 were not disclosed.

05:00 5 MS. BERLIN: Not disclosed. So it was only -- it
6 wasn't about whether these risks were true or whether what's
7 written is accurate. I didn't have him read those risks. It
8 was jus: This is what you were told. What did you get from 9 that? Did he disclose to you these things? Not whether the 05:01 10 document itself is true. So today we didn't use it for the 11 truth of the matter asserted. I will be using it with another
12 witness at that time. We can address it further if you --

13 THE COURT: I want to get ahead of it, because it may 14 not necessarily be -- it could be under 801, I believe, (d)(2),
05:01 15 but it could be a party admission issue, if it's Furman
16 representing it.

17 But I think for purposes of today, again, I don't want
18 to be overly academic. There's no objection. You don't have 19 an objection.

05:01 20 MS. BERLIN: Okay.

21 THE COURT: You don't have an objection. But 22 generally, I just want for my own sake to make sure we don't 23 have a tit-for-tat or a battle on some of these documents.

24 MS. BERLIN: Oh, no.

05:01 25 THE COURT: I just want to make sure that we all

1 understand there was an objection. It was withdrawn. I think
2 we know it why it was offered. For my own edification, I want
3 to be clear that it was simply for the absence of disclosure
4 more than anything else, not for the contents and therefore 05:02 5 there's no hearsay.

6 Trust me, look, you guys may want to make all sorts of 7 objections. My job is to protect the record should this matter
8 go beyond this district court proceeding. So I'm just 9 concerned because we've had pretty much every pro forma
05:02 10 objection raised on almost every question or every single piece
11 of evidence.

12 When that happens, whether or not we think we're 13 making a record or laying land mines, I don't like it. So what
14 I do is I diffuse them because I don't want my overruling
05:02 15 repeatedly of objections that I think are not well taken to not 16 give expansion in terms of logic on the record.

17 So I wanted that one to kind of just get out there
18 because we had just fought over that same document, but we need
19 to be clear why I sustained an objection to it and they
05:02 20 withdraw it on yours, but when you objected to theirs, we did
21 not have anything in that appendix in your draft.

22 MS. BERLIN: That's correct.

23 THE COURT: They had appendices. They had the 24 appendices were being used for the truth of the matter asserted
05:03 25 regarding representations as to their net worth and value.

1 That is why that was a problem and then the evidentiary
2 perspective. So I just need to be clear why the Court would
3 ever overrule one, let in another one, and I just want that to 4 be very clear.

05:03 5 The other thing that needs to be stated on the record
6 is we have had a number of e-mails and communications that were 7 flying around during the investors at different points. The 8 Court overruled routinely pro forma hearsay objections that
9 have been raised. My understanding for doing so, number one,
05:03 10 has been that a lot of the e-mail traffic behind the principals
11 and Par Funding, ABFP, and the like, is again, by the SEC to 12 show the nature of funneling and ongoing communication, not the 13 contents of the e-mail. It's about showing the relationships
14 between the parties, and that is why the Court has been
05:03 15 allowing these exhibits to come in over the defense objection,
16 because I don't feel they're being shown for the contents of 17 the matter asserted but for those relationships and for state
18 of mind, which is continuously an issue and a scienter issue
19 with a case like this.

05:04 20 So I wanted that to be clear because that has come
21 in -- there's been a lot of --I think it was a couple of 22 witnesses ago, there was a lot of e-mail traffic that was 23 shown, there was a lot of objections which I overruled. I did
24 not get an opportunity, nor did I want to kind of belabor that 05:04 25 in front of jury.

1 But did you want to add something to that, Ms. Berlin?
2 I wanted to make clear why these objections -- again, I'm only
3 saying this because it's been a constant objection to every 4 single question. He's entitled to make his record, but at some 05:04 5 point it becomes cumulative. And if I see that much, I'm not 6 going to leave a naked record without explaining why it's being
7 overruled all the time.

8 So did you want to add something to that? Anything
9 else on those? I don't know what else was there because we 05:04 10 have moved in a lot, but I remember distinctly the line of 11 e-mails being brought up, and I wanted to mention that.

12 MS. BERLIN: So it was a couple of things. One, it
13 was exactly what the Court just stated. And then also we 14 had -- we admitted them as business records. So for some of 05:05 15 those. So, for example, the e-mail traffic that was entered
16 through Agent Murray, those were -- those came in as business
17 records and they were authenticated as business records. So it
18 was that and --

19 THE COURT: That was easier. That was 803(6). I got
05:05 20 that.

21 MS. BERLIN: But other things, yes, because it was not
22 for the truth of the matter asserted. It's to show the state
23 of mind, the way things worked and what was happening, and I
24 thought that was clear. When we asked the witnesses about 05:05 25 these documents, we were clearly eliciting. That's what we

1 were asking about, not whether the things in those documents
2 actually occurred.

3 THE COURT: Well, it's important because I think we
4 have -- right. It has to be that way.

05:05 5 MS. BERLIN: It was.

6 THE COURT: The reason why there were objections, a
7 lot of those investors, they're not records custodians, there
8 will be some difficulty in terms of business record exceptions
9 on those. Not because of regularity or anything like that, but 05:06 10 their familiarity with the ongoing e-mails and documents. So
11 it wouldn't have been an 803(6) issue. Most of it was because 12 it was offered for non-hearsay purposes, and that is why it was 13 routinely overruled.

14 And then I also know that I haven't -- and I can't 05:06 15 offhand remember, but so the record is clear, there also -- 16 there also have been party admission issues that can come in in 17 many forms, in e-mails and documents, from Mr. Furman and so
18 some of that also comes into play in the Court's rulings. But 19 again, I just want to be clear on that because when we see a
05:06 20 lot of objections, I do not want to think we're running
21 roughshod over the evidence code. We're doing this because a
22 lot of these things are exempt and not applicable from a
23 hearsay perspective. So this --

24 MS. BERLIN: Agreed. I think it's -- yes, I agree.

05:06 25 THE COURT: Okay. Yes, you wanted to add something?

1 MR. HYMAN: First of all, with the initial business
2 records exception it was hearsay within hearsay. There was no
3 exception that applied. But --

4 THE COURT: 803(6) applies to all levels of hearsay --
05:07 5 (Voices overlap.)

6 MR. HYMAN: I'm at this point, though, your ruling was 7 your ruling. I'm not trying to contest it as it relates to an 8 e-mail through Par Funding that was introduced through an FBI
9 agent.

05:07 10 Right now, however, we were introducing the language
11 of these loan agreements because, number one, the FBI was 12 having -- or the SEC was having these witnesses testify about 13 the fact that executed these loans, which means that we would 14 be entitled to show it.

05:07 15 Number two is that we're not bringing them in to show
16 the truth of the matter asserted, but under 506(c), it showed 17 that Mr. Furman took reasonable steps to assure that these 18 investors were accredited, which is not to show that these 19 people were, in fact, accredited or not, because that's not the 05:07 20 what standard is.

21 THE COURT: Well, I guess the reason why I had a
22 concern is because it seems to me that you're using a document
23 from an evidentiary perspective to show the truth of their 24 accreditation, which means that by checking it and by checking
05:07 25 it, that would mean that they were accredited. That's at

1 least --

2 MS. BERLIN: You would have to check that, but there
3 was no question asked even of whether the witness checked that 4 on the document.

05:08 5 THE COURT: No, it just appeared checked. But my
6 point is, again, it goes to my other point --

7 MS. BERLIN: Truth of the matter asserted.

8 THE COURT: That was my view -- (cross-talk)
9 respectfully, the problem I'm having is, I don't see a state of 05:08 10 mind issue. If you're trying to say that he believed that they 11 were accredited, well then that's different. Then you could
12 show ostensibly those documents to Mr. Furman and try to show
13 his state of mind as to why he thought he was entitled to 14 something. But showing an investor to say, were you not 05:08 15 accredited? You checked there. That's the truth of the 16 document. That's why.

17 So I understand what you're saying, but perhaps that 18 question is better left to Mr. Furman because it is his 19 understanding of what's going on. Do you understand what I
05:08 20 mean?

21 MR. HYMAN: Yes. And it's also the reasonable steps
22 he took to assure the accredited status.

23 Similarly, Your Honor, based on the colloquy with the 24 Court earlier, I have a very serious concern as it relates to 05:08 25 the 506(c) and the unregistered securities claim, and I'd ask

1 Your Honor to provide the jury with at least a curative
2 instruction. Because throughout the course of this, there's
3 this unregistered securities claim, and Your Honor looked at us
4 and said, you know, we seem to be confused because the Fidelis
05:09 5 offering is not part and parcel of this.

6 However, during the course of their questioning, the 7 SEC asked every witness, did you believe that you were
8 investing in Par Funding, and they said yes.

9 According to Ms. Berlin when we were discussing the 05:09 10 issue, because obviously there's, you know -- you have to go
11 note by note, instrument by instrument, then we said the 12 concern we had was that, you know, for the unregistered
13 securities claims, we're showing basically the 506(c)
14 exemption, which according to Ms. Berlin is not what she's 05:09 15 dealing with in terms of books, so where these investors -- and 16 instead Ms. Berlin was saying, well, the statements that 17 Fidelis was investing in Par Funding go to the fraud claims to 18 show that the omissions or statements from -- or failure to 19 make statements, alleged failure, of course, about Par Funding
05:10 20 were material because Fidelis was investing in Par Funding.

21 The problem was -- is that based on those statements
22 and those arguments, there was a reasonable likelihood of 23 confusion in terms of the unregistered or sale of unregistered
24 securities in that it could be easily conflated that although 05:10 25 these investors were actually paying for Par Funding -- or

1 sorry, we're investing in Fidelis, that they were, in fact,
2 investing in Par Funding, when again, it's an
3 instrument-by-instrument basis with respect to the sale of
4 unregistered securities.

05:10 5 And so we just ask that the Court clarify that at 6 least the statements by these investors and Fidelis, because 7 there has not been a single investor put up who actually
8 invested in Par Funding. There hasn't. They invested in 9 Fidelis. Their money went to Fidelis. Whether the money went 05:10 10 from Fidelis to Par Funding only mattered, according to the 11 SEC, for its underlying fraud claims based on its failure to 12 disclose. So as a result, we would ask that Your Honor just 13 provide a simple curative instruction saying or explaining,
14 look, with the 506(c) issues, it's about whether or not these 05:11 15 people were investing kind of, with the investors, that their 16 statements that they believe they're investing in Par Funding
17 only related to the other fraud claims as opposed to the 18 unregistered securities claims.

19 THE COURT: A couple of things. One, curative
05:11 20 instruction would be an appropriate way to do it. Jury
21 instructions would be the way to fix it. I mean, when we
22 charge conference this case, we'll probably need to sit down
23 and work out a very clean way to describe what the claims are.
24 That's really the way to do it.

05:11 25 Right now there's nothing really to cure -- it's not

1 like anyone said something erroneous. The way to do it would
2 be to just really streamline it in the jury instructions and,
3 of course, I will read the instructions before closing. So it
4 will give you an opportunity to frame your closing argument
05:11 5 accordingly so that there's no confusion. That's step one.

6 The other step, not to belabor it, because we've heard
7 a lot of argument on this, is I continue to believe there's a
8 disconnect between what an investor knows or doesn't know about 9 this one claim regarding unregistered. Because that's not 05:12 10 really -- what they know or what they're doing is not so much
11 relevant as is what Furman is doing with the money that he's 12 drumming up through Fidelis and funneling to ABFP and 13 Par Funding notes. That's really the relationship that matters
14 for that one count of the seven.

05:12 15 I don't know why the investors, and what they think
16 about Fidelis, has any bearing on whether or not those two note
17 offerings, if you ultimately engage in, fall under the 18 unregistered concerns that the SEC has raised. I don't think
19 that there's a connection there. So --

05:12 20 MS. BERLIN: There's not.

21 THE COURT: -- that's why I -- I get what you're 22 saying, but I don't think it applies -- for example, you're 23 saying that something needs to be cured, which I've said we 24 would do at jury instruction. But questions about what an 05:12 25 investor knew or didn't know about where the money was going.

1 What they need to know is, they all said, I think, they knew
2 the money was going to Par Funding. They almost all uniformly
3 said that that's what they knew the money was going to do.
4 That's the MCA business it was going to.

05:13 5 They've all also said they were unaware of certain
6 things that the SEC believes that were material, that they may
7 have been very concerned about Fidelis investing in Par Funding
8 had they known, you know, some of the issues. That really goes
9 to the six claims of the fraud. Right?

05:13 10 The one claim on what is unregistered is nothing to do
11 with what an investor thinks or doesn't think. That's more
12 about what's happening with the nature of that note and is it
13 or not susceptible to 506(c). We've heard really that 14 Par Funding notes and ABFP notes have never represented
05:13 15 themselves to be excused from registration. That they're 16 not -- there's never been an argument as to that raised by 17 them.

18 MS. BERLIN: That's correct. So they've never raised
19 it and the only affirmative defense Mr. Furman made was 506(c),
05:13 20 and I've been trying to explain this for a year, so I don't 21 want it to be like, "Oh, they were confused and now we're 22 changing everything." We've been saying this for a year. The 23 affirmative defense is inapplicable to the charge. I've tried
24 to say it over and over again -- I've tried to say it, I
05:14 25 don't -- we're not responsible for explaining -- we've done it

1 over and over in our filings --

2 THE COURT: Listen, we don't need to belabor the
3 point. It is --

4 (Voices overlap.)

05:14 5 MS. BERLIN: I agree with what the Court said.

6 THE COURT: It is what it is. The Court has already
7 engaged, I think really to -- for the benefit of all parties
8 and particularly the defense, which has made a lot of issues
9 about purported due process since the beginning of the trial.
05:14 10 So if you want due process, find yourself a district judge and 11 spend an hour explaining all of the claims so that no one walks
12 in with their eyes shut. I mean, that's what I just did. And 13 I did it because I don't want anybody to walk in and be 14 surprised. That's why I don't want you guys to say, wait a
05:14 15 minute, the sand is shifting beneath our feet.

16 You've got to remember, this is one count of 506(c)
17 thing. I've let you guys bring in anything you wanted about 18 what the investors knew, didn't know, saw. I didn't let you
19 admit it because there was no predicate, there was no
05:15 20 foundation, there was no evidentiary basis to admit those 21 attachments for the reasons that you wanted to bring them in.
22 You might be able get some of that in through Mr. Furman's own
23 testimony. That's why I made the evidentiary ruling. But this 24 entire argument, really I just want to point out, again, 506(c)
05:15 25 and its applicability to Fidelis is not an issue. It's just

1 not. That's the --

2 MR. HYMAN: The problem that we have is Ms. Furman --

3 THE COURT: Ms. Berlin.

4 MR. HYMAN: Sorry.

05:15 5 Ms. Berlin has kept on trying to basically backdoor
6 this integration argument by saying because the money went to
7 Fidelis, then it went up to Par Funding you have to collapse
8 the transaction into one. We've consistently objected to that 9 argument because that is what she's essentially -- appears to 05:15 10 be arguing. If they're saying, look, we're not trying to 11 collapse it all into a single transaction, which is basically 12 an uncharged claim that we've consistently objected to having 13 heard, then at that point the only issue is where and how 14 Mr. Furman was involved in some of the investing with 05:16 15 Par Funding, which means there should be either a note or 16 whatever it is between Par Funding and the investor or ABFP and 17 the investor. And without that, then that's kind of where we 18 have this difficulty. Because I understand the distinction
19 between the fraud claims and the unregistered securities
05:16 20 claims, but the area where they get conflated is this
21 continuous argument that's made by the SEC that because it went 22 to Fidelis and because Fidelis funded money to Par Funding,
23 it's all one offer.

24 THE COURT: First of all, I know you really are 05:16 25 committed to this integration theory that's not raised in the

1 pleadings, but I think you would agree with me that if it was
2 so easy as to offer something like Fidelis and hide behind
3 Fidelis when the money is floated up to Par Funding and ABFP,
4 you would circumvent registration requirements that way. So it
05:16 5 doesn't work like that. That's the problem. You can't simply 6 say, well, I did it under the Fidelis name, so now I don't have
7 to worry about violating the regulatory restrictions. It's
8 kind of what you're saying. It's not integration. It's saying
9 everybody knew that Fidelis had one purpose, and it was to 05:17 10 funnel money to the notes that are the subject of that count.
11 So again, I know that you want to raise that --

12 MR. HYMAN: That is what the definition -- it's not an 13 integration theory we're trying to raise. That is integration,
14 Your Honor. That's the issue is that it's unpled integration
05:17 15 theory that we keep objecting to having --

16 THE COURT: Can you give me one case, one -- I want to 17 see -- give me one case, any case from any district that stands
18 for any of the proposition you're arguing that this is an 19 unpled integration offering that it should not be permitted.
05:17 20 You're not going to find one because I wrote the order and I
21 remember seeing a single thing.

22 Can you show me anything other than your bold
23 assertion this is somehow an unpermitted integration? They put 24 in there not anything about integration. They said he had a
05:17 25 role in putting forth those notes, Par Funding and ABFP. It's

1 simple. That's all they argued. That's all it said. How they
2 did it, they did it through this Fidelis instrument, but that's
3 what they have alleged since the beginning.

4 So your theory is he never had any skin in the game
05:18 5 with Par Funding and ABFP. That's going to be hard to show
6 because every investor said they knew that Fidelis was 7 literally a conduit to those two notes. So again, this whole
8 idea of well, we are sheltered behind Fidelis under some theory
9 of integration so cannot be held liable for offering notes or 05:18 10 putting money in notes that are unregistered, there's just 11 nothing to support that legally.

12 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, that's why the integration
13 statute exists, to prevent people from using -- playing the 14 shell games and using different entities to do it.

05:18 15 THE COURT: I understand your theory. Maybe tomorrow
16 morning you can bring me a single case that would stand for the 17 proposition that the SEC has somehow circumvented pleading
18 requirements or run afoul of an integration statute because 19 they have --

05:18 20 MR. HYMAN: (Cross-talk) -- well, essentially,
21 Your Honor the key is going to be it goes back to your basic 22 kind of corporate law. Each corporation is treated as a
23 separate entity unless there's a basis to collapse it into 24 another corporation or entity. Fidelis is one entity.
05:19 25 Par Funding is another entity. Fidelis did not issue --

1 Fidelis's investors only were investing in Fidelis, not in
2 Par Funding.

3 For them to collapse these two entities into one, you
4 have to essentially have the finding, as you said, that Fidelis
05:19 5 was an alter ego or a conduit of Par Funding. That is 6 essentially what integration ends up being as a definition.
7 That's my understanding of the statute. That's what all the 8 other defense attorneys have explained to me.

9 I may not say that, you know, I'm a security expert
05:19 10 because I'm not, and I will do the research into it. However,
11 what we're saying to you is that you can't just simply say
12 because they were sending money up, as at least the main
13 investment at the time, which was not, by the way, because 14 Fidelis was a conduit, it's because Par Funding was by far the 05:20 15 best investment in MCA fund and provided the best returns,
16 which you'll hear about when Mr. Furman testifies, that he 17 chose to continue to invest in Par Funding as opposed to 18 looking at the other litany of MCA funds that he was looking at 19 while running Fidelis.

05:20 20 And I understand Your Honor's inclination at least 21 here. But I just -- you can't collapse all of these 22 transactions into one without properly pleading that it should 23 be a collapsed or integrated transaction.

24 THE COURT: Okay. And you never moved to dismiss any 05:20 25 of these counts on any grounds, you never moved for any of this

1 at any point. You're raising this now as a pleading
2 deficiency.

3 MR. HYMAN: No. Well, Your Honor, we are raising it
4 as an evidentiary deficiency because the SEC --

05:20 5 THE COURT: Who is going to decide that? You? Me?
6 That's the jury's call.

7 MS. BERLIN: We didn't bring a charge under that 8 statute.

9 THE COURT: You can bring that up in front of the jury
05:20 10 that they have not shown that this is not sufficiently 11 connected to Par Funding or ABFP.

12 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, the issue is is that here the 13 SEC has the obligation to show whatever evidence they have. We 14 thought that the unregistered securities for the most part was 05:21 15 based on them to say, you know what, the 506(c) exemption
16 doesn't apply because, according to Ms. Berlin, Mr. Furman
17 checked the X box (inaud.) and had zero next to it.

18 That's what we thought was her whole basis to continue
19 with these claims against him based on her repeated
05:21 20 representations to the Court that she wasn't pursuing
21 integration. Plus, also, there was the one Ross and Dawn
22 Meyers that they allege invested in ABFP and also [REDACTED].

23 So the two bases that we thought -- or that it's my 24 understanding that they're still pursuing, which would
05:21 25 otherwise have to be dealt with. But according to Ms. Berlin,

1 all of the Fidelis investors, they're not claiming were engaged
2 in the sale of unregistered security.

3 THE COURT: May I ask real quick, Ms. Berlin? Am I
4 correct that some of the evidence in this case before
05:21 5 Fidelis -- let's just forget Fidelis.

6 MS. BERLIN: Forget it.

7 THE COURT: Let's forget Fidelis. Do we not have
8 evidence in this case that the SEC put forth about his direct
9 involvement offering Par Funding notes?

05:22 10 MS. BERLIN: That's right, we do.

11 THE COURT: Let me ask you this -- let's assume for 12 the sake of argument that you're right on any of this 13 integration stuff. What is that going to do, if anything, to 14 arguments at closing that before he decided that he couldn't do
05:22 15 it himself because of the organization, what was happening,
16 that he had to do it through his own fund --

17 MS. BERLIN: Exactly.

18 THE COURT: -- he has to do it through Fidelis in the 19 second phase, but before he got there, he was doing it himself.

05:22 20 MS. BERLIN: He was doing it himself.

21 THE COURT: Right. So directly him to Par Funding.
22 What do we make about -- that's evidence that they're putting 23 forth before the jury. What would you say as to that?

24 MR. HYMAN: What we would say is to that is first of 05:22 25 all, there's not actually going to be any evidence to show that

1 Mr. Furman was directly putting investors into Par Funding.
2 The only investors there's the allegation of is the Meyers
3 family. We'll see the evidence when that plays out.

4 THE COURT: But you understand -- whatever evidence
05:22 5 you think you have, you do understand that all of the argument
6 under integration has is no defense and has no bearing if the 7 jury believes the evidence that they are attempting to advance
8 that he played a role in directing people to invest in 9 Par Funding, even assuming he did -- forget Fidelis, not 05:23 10 through Fidelis, not through any sort of theory that you're 11 concerned about of collapsing corporate entities or the 12 corporate form, but that they have advanced evidence and a
13 theory that he has directly -- because my understanding is the 14 ABFP was also -- really done more through Fidelis later on.
05:23 15 But I think --

16 MS. BERLIN: Sort of.

17 THE COURT: But there -- let put it this way: There
18 is at least a bit of evidence that I -- my understanding will 19 be in the record that he engaged in the Par Funding offering,
05:23 20 that he was part and parcel of that to investors without
21 involving it being funneled through Fidelis; is that correct?

22 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, because -- well, at the beginning,
23 when he doesn't have Fidelis yet. Hold on just a minute. And 24 our entire case is -- our case is and has been that creating a
05:23 25 shell -- like Mr. Furman is a sales agent. He's out there

1 selling Par Funding notes. He's trying to solicit people.

2 To avoid detection from regulators, he's offering
3 pitching. To avoid detection by the regulators who had just 4 told them all to stop this practice, all of their sales agents
05:24 5 just sort of enshrined themselves in a company name so they can
6 continue operating the exact same way but using a company.

7 THE COURT: Right, to create distance from themselves.

8 MR. HYMAN: That's integration.

9 MS. BERLIN: That's part of the fraud. That's not
05:24 10 integration. Read the integration statute. So what Mr. Hyman
11 is basically saying is the SEC shouldn't have brought this as a
12 Section 5. The defendant thinks that we -- wishes, I guess,
13 that we had filed this under the provisions of the securities
14 laws that prohibit an integrated offering. We did not. That's 05:24 15 a completely different kind of case. I mean, there are dozens
16 and maybe dozens of securities law, and all they keep saying
17 is: Had the SEC filed this, under the provision of the 18 security laws dealing with integration, then if they had, maybe
19 we would have won.

05:24 20 And we have said over and over and again: Read the 21 integration statute. Look at the complaint. We did not allege 22 that. That is not a count. Integration is typically -- for 23 the record, Mr. Hyman, when you have an issuer and once they 24 get up to a certain number -- I'm just giving one example of 05:25 25 the way it works.

1 They get to a certain number of accredited investors.
2 So they don't want to register, and so they just create
3 something called -- we have it kind of here, ABFP 2. And then
4 they reach up to total number of accredited. Okay, now we're 05:25 5 going to be ABFP 3. So the issuer just continues operating
6 like opening a new offering and issuing a new PPM. It's all
7 the same. The issuer adds new ones.

8 Now, I don't -- I'm happy to give a lesson. I've done
9 this since 1999. If we want to talk about integrated
05:25 10 offerings, it's interesting. It's interesting. It's a law
11 review article. I haven't looked at it in a while, but it
12 wasn't charged here. We're not going to ask for that.

13 The SEC commissioners decide what cases to bring.
14 Integration, fraud -- integration charges under the
05:26 15 Securities Act is a separate cause of action not charged, won't 16 be argued, won't go to a jury, and despite their request that 17 we essentially amend our complaint to add it or they argue
18 against it as a straw man, it's improper, it's confusing. I'm 19 confused. I don't think they understand it's a completely
05:26 20 separate violation. It is not what we charged.

21 MR. HYMAN: And, Your Honor, that's the -- she just 22 described with integration what she's alleging our client did.

23 MS. BERLIN: The SEC did not charge that, Your Honor.
24 Period.

05:26 25 This is not a trial on integration.

1 MR. HYMAN: That is why we have consistently
2 maintained and questioned, at least as it relates to this, that
3 it goes to the pre-Fidelis stuff and the ABFP stuff, which 4 is -- still goes to the jury, still doesn't affect the 05:27 5 underlying alleged fraud claims, but all of the Fidelis
6 offerings, that's what she's saying, that they couldn't comply
7 with the registration, so they kept creating subfunds either
8 based on the number of accredited investors.

9 Whatever the reason is, that is the argument they're 05:27 10 making, and that's why we have consistently objected to that 11 argument because they're trying to backdoor it.

12 MS. BERLIN: I'm sorry, the undercover's name has just 13 been said twice during this time, and we just got a complaint
14 to sort of -- I don't know if everyone can be reminded not to 05:27 15 say the name. We went to great lengths to prevent that from 16 going on a record. If we could just not say her name, please.
17 And if it could be redacted from any transcript, Your Honor.

18 MR. HYMAN: My understanding is at least the 19 transcripts of the undercover were already --

05:27 20 MS. BERLIN: They're under seal and remained so for 21 that reason.

22 THE COURT: They will be remaining under seal at the 23 direction of the Court.

24 MR. HYMAN: I apologize, Your Honor.

05:27 25 THE COURT: Let's not make that mistake again. I

1 understand the argument here. Quite honestly, I don't really
2 see any concern with integration in terms of the pleadings.
3 You're more than welcome to bring the Court any sort of 4 examples that would justify any kind of either special
05:28 5 instruction at the conclusion of the evidence during jury
6 selection -- or excuse me -- during the charging conference, or 7 if we had any other issue that you believe is being misled or
8 pled in the alternative inappropriately, we can address it if I
9 have case law to support it.

05:28 10 But right now I don't see this to be an integration
11 theory. It's not advances in integration theory. It's not 12 being pled in name only. This is essentially funneling -- an 13 allegation of funneling money through Fidelis up through 14 Par Funding, and quite honestly, that was at one point done
05:28 15 pre-Fidelis anyway.

16 So again, and I just go back to my other point. We're 17 dealing -- I know that it is a count, that it is, again, one
18 count of seven counts. The bulk of this case is focused on 19 allegedly material misrepresentations, misstatements and
05:29 20 omissions, and I think we should not lose sight of that as we 21 continue on in the trial, because that's really the thrust of 22 the entire case, the majority of the case. It's not this one
23 ancillary final count. And I just don't want everybody to get
24 so caught up in this count that they lose sight of the forest
05:29 25 through the trees.

1 To my earlier point, it's simply that the Court,
2 again, makes clear that we feel -- at least I feel based upon
3 the proffers, what I've seen, that all of the evidence that was 4 allowed in through the investors in large part, if not
05:29 5 exclusively, came in for non-hearsay purposes, and that's why
6 hearsay objections in that regard had been routinely overruled.
7 And when it has not come in as a non-hearsay issue, it's come
8 in simply because it's qualifying under 803(6) as a business
9 record which we have already dealt with quite a bit with our 05:30 10 agent, and I expect we will deal with other witnesses going 11 forward.

12 And thirdly, if it's not one of those two grounds,
13 it's coming in as party admission under 801. So there have 14 been multiple evidentiary grounds under the code. To the 05:30 15 extent there's any hearsay that we have been able to circumvent
16 that, there is no argument here about double hearsay. Anything
17 that has been included in these documents is covered by the 18 business record exception at all levels.

19 And again, I think a lot of what we're dealing with 05:30 20 are the investors. And part of the problem I'm having is 21 absent the one document that is come in without objection --
22 and there may be others, so we don't have to belabor it --
23 these investors are not necessarily, at least in my view, tools
24 for bringing in documents.

05:30 25 These investors -- and I just want to get that out.

1 Because we only have a couple left and we got caught up on that
2 today. These investors are not in a position to talk about net
3 worth and accredited investors based upon documentation
4 attached that they claim is true, so truth of the matter,
05:30 5 that's not what they're here to do. They're not here to lay
6 business records because they have no knowledge of these
7 underlying records. They have no familiarity with them. They
8 can't even speak about anything other than they remember them
9 vaguely. And so I just want to make sure that when we go
05:31 10 forward with the final investors, we can ask some questions,
11 what were they told? What were they not told? Those are party
12 admissions. So those are out-of-court statements for the truth
13 of the matter asserted by Furman himself who either did or did
14 not disclose material issues in the view of the SEC. And that 05:31 15 is why I've also overruled any of those. Although I think 16 defense counsel has understood properly that's 801, and has not 17 at least objected, I think en masse to those types of 18 questions.

19 But I want everyone to just try to take a step ahead
05:31 20 because I don't think that we need to be objecting pro forma.
21 We want to make sure that we have a true basis for an objection
22 that is supported by case law and runs afoul of the evidence
23 code and the rules of evidence. So that is something I wanted
24 to put on the record because it was happening too much for my 05:31 25 taste, and I don't like my court of appeals thinking that we

1 are not thinking through every single time we overrule an
2 objection, in the abundance of caution.

3 Okay. So we'll put a pin in that.

4 The Court may independently, if I have time, just 05:32 5 maybe look up some of this integration case law because I would
6 love to be able to put a bullet in the head of this argument,
7 quite honestly, so that we don't seem to have this cloud,
8 anything, because we're going to deal with it again at charge
9 conference, so I will -- the parties have enough work to do to 05:32 10 prepare for the examinations. Let me go ahead and take care of 11 it. If I need anyone to bring it up later, I'll ask you all 12 for submissions. But for now I'm just going to do the 13 research. I am not persuaded this is even an issue in the 14 case. I think I've done the best I can to explain it to 05:32 15 everybody as I see, but I will look it up anyway just to make 16 sure that I'm not missing anything about this concern of the 17 defense team. And I'll look into it again independently of 18 what I've been briefed. But just no need to worry about this 19 anymore. I would rather us focus on getting the SEC's case in 05:33 20 chief across the finish line in the next 48 hours. That's the 21 priority. The rest of this can be dealt with when we approach
22 charge conference.

23 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Let's not belabor it. All right.

05:33 25 MR. HYMAN: The only side comment is that we at least

1 view it as kind of a piercing the corporate veil, integration,
2 however you want to frame it, that's the big issue. That it's
3 not dealt with that way.

4 MS. BERLIN: It's not charged that way. This is just 05:33 5 a Section 5 claim, Your Honor. We are not bringing a piercing
6 of a corporate veil. We're not bringing an integration claim.
7 We -- the SEC decides what segments --

8 THE COURT: You're the master of your own case.

9 MS. BERLIN: That's we charged.

05:33 10 THE COURT: And again, this is not -- I want to repeat
11 again, I know that all this energy is being spent on something
12 that has zero bearing on six counts. Zero bearing on six 13 counts dealing with material misrepresentations, which should 14 honestly be, in my humble view, the focus of the defense as 05:33 15 well as the prosecution.

16 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

17 THE COURT: So I just mention that again because I
18 think we're getting -- we're much to do about nothing. This
19 one count is not the thrust of the case, so I think the defense
05:34 20 team understands that and I hope that most of the strategy on 21 the defense case in cross is being spent trying to establish 22 that these were not omissions or, as you've heard in opening,
23 that these are things that somehow Mr. Furman was unaware of,
24 did not know, could not have found in the open source, as we 05:34 25 heard from our regularity in New Jersey, even though she

1 believes otherwise, that's the kind of stuff that I expect to
2 hear from the defense team, not getting ourselves too stuck
3 with 506(c). So with that being said, we'll be in recess until 4 tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. and we'll pick up with the first witness.

05:34 5 Whose the lead off tomorrow? Do you know, Ms. Berlin,
6 who's going to be? Is it going to be Nash maybe or is it going
7 to be --

8 MS. BERLIN: No.

9 THE COURT: No.

05:34 10 MS. BERLIN: We have Nash to come --

11 THE COURT: Is it a Zoom -- that's probably -- the 12 question is, is it Zoom or --

13 MS. BERLIN: I think it's going to be Klenk. He's 14 live. And then -- this is what we think it's going to be.

05:35 15 Then Mitchell, Zoom. Wendy Furman, Zoom. Then we think that 16 that will be lunchtime. This is, you know, anticipatory. Then 17 Nash, Zoom. Then Michael Furman -- oh, I'm sorry, Nash is 18 live, I apologize.

19 THE COURT: Nash is live, yeah.

20 MS. BERLIN: Nash is live.

21 Furman. And then Alexis Abbonizio, Zoom. That's our
22 plan.

23 THE COURT: That works. So really, the important
24 thing is more so my team knows to be Zoom ready after Klenk. I
05:35 25 just want to make sure my IT guys know that we've got to be

1 ready to go once Klenk is done, to get Mitchell on Zoom. And
2 then we'll go from there. If Wendy Furman is on, we can have a
3 remote on right her. That's fine.

4 MS. BERLIN: Yes. And we might have to -- once we let 05:35 5 Lori -- we might have an -- we might have -- we might have the 6 need for another witness tomorrow, but we're going to 7 brainstorm tonight and see if we can just find a way to get
8 this in. It's a public document. We're going to try to do it
9 without a witness --

10 THE COURT: Let me know in the morning --

11 MS. BERLIN: And we're happy to ask these ay investors
12 if they're accredited, like I did today, I asked the guy in the 13 hallway, hey, by the way, are you accredited? Just to put this 14 to bed and not have any objections. I did that with the last
05:36 15 witness when I saw the defendants cared about it so much. So
16 we're happy to even ask it in our direct case, if it will move
17 the case along and get us through and on the right path.

18 MR. HYMAN: The other thing we'll say for the record,
19 Your Honor, is, these directs aren't directs. Almost every 05:36 20 question is, in fact, leading. I know you don't agree with 21 me --

22 THE COURT: Well, I sustained several where I thought
23 it crossed the line. And I did it in the last examination and 24 I did in the prior examination where I did agree with you that
05:36 25 it did cross the line. It's crossed THE line a couple of times

1 and I sustained the objection.

2 MR. HYMAN: I don't know if -- it's not worth --
3 whatever.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

05:36 5 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, thank you.

6 THE COURT: Tomorrow there is only one -- there's one
7 sentencing tomorrow, just so everyone is aware. It will be at 8 1:30. So just so we can plan ahead, the Court will prefer to 9 try to get to 12:30 before we break. So you can plan ahead.
05:37 10 12:30, and then we will resume at 2:00. So that's kind of the 11 lunch break, because the sentencing should take me about 30
12 minutes, and it's at 1:30. So you can leave everything now
13 where it is, just be aware you probably want to clear counsel's
14 table before lunch, because we're going to have prosecutors and 05:37 15 public defendants in here. All right.

16 MR. JOHN: We're starting at 9:30.

17 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor. Thank you. Good
18 night.

19 THE COURT: We're in recess tonight.

20 (Thereupon, the above portion of the trial was concluded.)

(The following proceedings were held in open court.)

3 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Okay. All of 4 our jurors are now present and accounted for. We were waiting
10:04 5 for one juror who is running a little bit behind, again, due to
6 some child care issues, but everyone is here now. Before I
7 bring my jurors in, any housekeeping issues on behalf of either
8 side starting with the SEC?

9 MS. BERLIN: Yes. Two quick things. One, Mr. Hyman
10:04 10 just stepped out. He has state court. Just had to appear in 11 state court briefly.

12 THE COURT: Mr. John is here. So I'm okay.

13 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. He's going to be right back. I
14 just wanted to let you know. The other thing is we have a
10:04 15 modification. We think that will help, we hope, move things
16 faster. So as the Court might recall, we spoke last week about 17 the request for admission and the Fifth Amendment issue.

18 THE COURT: Right.

19 MS. BERLIN: And I believe it would be beneficial for 10:04 20 that to be squarely addressed before Mr. Furman is called. Not 21 only -- I mean, obviously we're not going to ask him about the 22 things that are sticking with the RFA, but also, you know,
23 because we have a jury, if we ask him something and he starts
24 talking, it could raise issues.

10:05 25 So we think -- our thought, Your Honor, just for your

1 consideration, is that we now have all of our witnesses
2 prepared to go today.

3 THE COURT: Right.

4 MS. BERLIN: Except remember Mr. DeLucco who just got 10:05 5 out of the hospital and has the hearing impairment, he might be 6 tomorrow morning.

7 THE COURT: Got it.

8 MS. BERLIN: Our hope, our thought is we finish as 9 quickly as we can, maybe 3:30, 4:00. We could then let the 10:05 10 jury go and use that time afterwards to address and to 11 determine once and for all the RFA issue. We gave -- defense
12 counsel, as the Court instructed us, we gave him a list of the 13 RFA with all of the items highlighted --

14 THE COURT: Okay.

10:05 15 MS. BERLIN: -- that we believe --

16 THE COURT: Are fair game to ask.

17 MS. BERLIN: They're absolutely still in effect.

18 THE COURT: Right.

19 MS. BERLIN: We haven't heard back.

10:06 20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MS. BERLIN: I think we should just solidify that list
22 before we call Mr. Furman. That was our thought. If the Court
23 doesn't want to, we could move forward with Mr. Furman today.
24 That was just an idea that I had to maybe help us, and we could 10:06 25 call Furman in the morning after we have addressed all of this

1 and be done.

2 THE COURT: Yes, I don't have a problem. Why don't we
3 take care of all the witnesses that are really nonissues today,
4 all right? We have a number of witness that are nonissues.

10:06 5 MS. BERLIN: We would call six.

6 THE COURT: Six. Yeah. Could we possibly get to a
7 situation where we call everybody but Furman and DeLuco?

8 MS. BERLIN: That's exactly what our plan is.

9 THE COURT: I think that's a great idea. If we do
10:06 10 that and we get everybody else done and then we let everyone go
11 and then it ends with Furman tomorrow and DeLuco -- or DeLuco
12 in the beginning and then Furman probably, then I can use
13 whatever time I have left today to do housekeeping so we don't 14 have any issues with his testimony tomorrow. I think that's 10:06 15 fine.

16 Let's go ahead and advance the ball the best we can 17 with everybody else, and then we'll meet and confer about what 18 we're going to do with Mr. Furman's testimony. That works for 19 me and it gives everybody a chance to kind of walk through now
10:07 20 that you've given him the document. That's fair.

21 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Great. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: That puts us ahead of schedule, honestly.

23 MS. BERLIN: It does. And we're going to try to get
24 through six. It depends on you.

10:07 25 THE COURT: I gotcha.

1 MS. BERLIN: We think we can do it.

2 THE COURT: We'll do the best we can. I had my IT guy
3 check out everything. It should be working pretty swiftly
4 today. If we don't have any unforeseen delays, we should be 10:07 5 good.

6 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, then the jury might be -- if we're 7 on track, the jury can leave early.

8 THE COURT: Correct. If we end up early today, I
9 think no matter what, if we can get through our lineup today
10:07 10 and all we have left is due to medical issues DeLucco and 11 Furman, that would be a solid day. We don't need to be more
12 than that today. We could do the afternoon just housekeeping
13 issues. And we should bank on that, being what we have 14 tomorrow.

10:07 15 And then I can also check in with the defense.
16 Perhaps there's some minor witness they want to knock out
17 tomorrow afternoon if we have some time that they could do, and 18 that way we're a little ahead of schedule.

19 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Good. Thank you.

10:08 20 THE COURT: That works. Any issues, Mr. John, on 21 behalf of the defense before I kind of bring my jurors in?

22 MR. JOHN: Just one briefly. I want to preface this
23 by saying this is not a request for relief and I know this 24 point has been somewhat belabored --

10:08 25 THE COURT: So you were saying that there was there

1 wasn't a request for relief. But go ahead. I'm sorry.

2 MR. JOHN: I do believe there needs to be a record.
3 This needs to be put on the record for the Court's awareness,
4 especially if we're going to do deal with the RFA issue this
5 afternoon, Your Honor.

6 As recently as yesterday, the SEC once again
7 represented to the Court that Mr. Furman had responded with 8 zero to his production request -- to their production request
9 and went a step further at sidebar. I believe it was stating 10:08 10 that although they had access his computer and his phone, he 11 had refused to provide passwords.

12 Your Honor, we have e-mails from Mr. Furman's attorney 13 providing the password directly to them, Your Honor. And we 14 confirmed Mr. Kolaya today that there had been discussions
10:09 15 afterward to make sure that they were able to gain access, and 16 if not, to provide additional information if needed.

17 A secondary to that, as recently as Mr. Abbonizio's
18 testimony, when we attempted to authenticate and get into 19 evidence text message conversations between him and Mr. Furman,
10:09 20 specifically, I believe that's plaintiff's -- the SEC objected 21 that they had never received that, they were prejudiced, and we 22 were limited to refreshing his memory with that particular
23 exhibit.

24 Turns out that item, along with multiple other
10:09 25 exhibits, could only have come from Mr. Furman's data files,

1 actually in their exhibit list, Your Honor. So I only put this
2 on the record to say that I believe a fairly critical decision
3 was made by the Court. It was impacted by representations made
4 by the SEC that they had been prejudiced because they hadn't
10:10 5 received documents as well as the proximity to trial, and it
6 appears that at least one major part of that argument is not
7 correct, Your Honor.

8 MS. BERLIN: We'd love to see that e-mail with the 9 password, the SEC. We also have the Office of Financial 10:10 10 Regulation for the State of Florida can also tell you not able 11 to get into the laptop. I wish they had brought this up with 12 me. If there's an e-mail that we missed, that's to me given me
13 the password, that would have been great. Maybe in the 14 millions of e-mails -- can we see it right now?

10:10 15 THE COURT: Let's do this: Why don't we go ahead and 16 when we get on a break or a recess later this morning or this
17 afternoon, let's go and have -- Mr. John, that e-mail exchange
18 that you believe indicates they had access, show it to the SEC
19 and you guys meet and confer on that and see what this it is.

10:10 20 I think it's important to recognize that to the extent
21 the Court's rule was based solely on nonproduction, that's 22 actually not true. The Court did not admit -- number one, the 23 text message issue was something I didn't even look at. All I
24 know is that there was a concern I had on hearsay on that, and 10:11 25 I don't know necessarily if that was going to constitute a

1 party admission. That was the first thing.

2 There was also going to be a problem, I think, on the
3 text messages, arguably. We didn't get that far. But there
4 was going to be a problem on authentication there without us
10:11 5 being able to get a better sense of the time and date and all
6 that stuff.

7 But that was the text messages issue. The other issue
8 about the sidebar with the documents really was the appendices
9 that were put onto the forms, the Fidelis forms. And there, as 10:11 10 I stated earlier, there would have been a problem laying the 11 predicate to admit those because I do believe it's the truth of 12 the matter asserted. They wouldn't have been business records.
13 And truthfully, I don't think the predicate could have been
14 laid with the investors themselves.

10:11 15 So I don't want to make it seem that the consideration
16 was that it was late production, but the Court's ruling really
17 was based on the absence of hearsay exceptions to those. I
18 mean, that just -- I just want that to be clear. You're not 19 wrong, though, to make a record to say that they never got it.
20 I agree there.

21 I don't want the impetus for not letting these in is
22 not because of a violation of the standing order of the Court.
23 That really wasn't my big concern. It was more about 24 evidentiary issues more than anything else, but so that we
10:12 25 don't spend too much time, I want to make sure that you meet

1 and confer. You can see whatever --

2 MS. BERLIN: We would love to see it. Can they give
3 it to us? If an e-mail was sent to me and a password and I
4 missed it, I mean, there are other agencies that have been 10:12 5 waiting on that password for a year and a half. Do you have 6 the e-mail?

7 THE COURT: Maybe we can just have it forwarded to you
8 while you guys -- and maybe co-counsel or your paralegal can
9 take a look at it while we get started with the next witness.

10:12 10 MR. JOHN: Just to clarify, Your Honor, I just wanted
11 to be clear. The decision I'm talking about specifically, I
12 understand that the decision regarding our request to amend
13 wasn't just about the lack of production. It was also because 14 of proximity to trial. But a feature of their argument was 10:13 15 that they received zero production in discovery. It was 16 repeated yesterday, and again, the idea that they were never 17 provided --

18 THE COURT: So, Mr. John, I think to be clear, the 19 reason that you're re-raising it is because you're addressing 10:13 20 some issue on production when they objected to the leave to 21 amend the request for admissions.

22 MR. JOHN: The main feature of their argument was that 23 Mr. Furman had provided zero in production.

24 THE COURT: Correct. Well, I will take a step back.
10:13 25 I think the main feature of the argument was the proximity to

1 trial to change course as to the request for admission.
2 Whether or not there was a production problem, I think I was
3 very concerned about an amendment to the request for admissions
4 on the eve of trial. That was really the prejudice that would 10:13 5 have been caused even if they had access might have been 6 somewhat alleviated but not really because the whole theory of 7 the case and the indication of the Fifth would be materially
8 disturbed by a change to the request for admissions right on 9 the beginning of trial.

10:14 10 So I don't know -- let me put it this way: I don't
11 know that any of this would have any impact on the Court's 12 ultimate ruling, but I do understand your point that these are 13 issues raised by the SEC to establish some prejudice and you're 14 pointing out that they have had access to some of these things,
10:14 15 and we'll get to the bottom of that.

16 MR. JOHN: And they are, Your Honor. And I understand
17 the Court's argument regarding other foundation exhibits, but 18 the objections that are coming up first from the SEC is that 19 they have not received the documents.

10:14 20 THE COURT: You're right. It's one of the grounds. I
21 agree with 100 percent.

22 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely.

23 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, the other issue just to 24 briefly reference, is during the SEC's case in chief, we 10:14 25 objected to the introduction of documents -- we objected to the

1 admission of documents because they weren't Bates-stamped and
2 asked for an opportunity to see if they had been produced in 3 the same way the SEC's placing that burden on us. And
4 Your Honor summarily overruled that objection.

10:15 5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MS. BERLIN: We would point out, Your Honor, just so
7 it's helpful for everyone, we have explained to the defense
8 counsel a couple of times. The first couple hundred or so of 9 our exhibits, no Bates stamp. Why? Simple. TRO exhibits.
10:15 10 They were filed on the docket.

11 So we explained to the defendants that if they have 12 any question about those, if they look at DE E 14, they will 13 see them on the docket. When we filed our TRO motion, we 14 weren't in discovery. So we weren't Bates-stamping. So there
10:15 15 are exhibits that don't have a Bates stamp. There are also 16 others, because they're produced in a native format, they don't 17 have a stamp.

18 So we have said it from the beginning and we'll 19 reiterate it, any document that they're concerned about,
10:15 20 whether it was produced or not, we're happy to answer any 21 question if they let us know.

22 THE COURT: And I will just point out that the Court
23 in no way, shape, or form has kept that an exhibit because 24 there was no Bates stamp. In fact, I did it to both sides
10:16 25 because objections have been raised to both sides about no

1 Bates stamp. The Court does not exclude exhibits based upon
2 the absence of a Bates stamp. It's summarily denied because it
3 was a baseless objection. Okay. So that's why.

4 So I'm not here to do the record keeping for anybody,
10:16 5 okay. I've done enough homework for both sides in this case.
6 You guys do your own job and you guys figure out if there's 7 some sort of access regarding this e-mail and what that's going
8 to do for the rest of the case. I do not know if it's accurate
9 or not that they had access, but at this point the Court does
10:16 10 not have any material change to its prior rulings if, indeed, 11 there has been some access to this.

12 I think that the bottom line is most of these 13 evidentiary objections were dealt with on those grounds alone
14 and it's less about prejudice because of late production or 10:16 15 lack of production that at least raised a concern for the 16 Court, but I'm sure if something changes and you're actually 17 able to access it, I would like an update later today from the 18 SEC once you get that e-mail to see if it's accurate that that 19 was lost, only because it would just be good to know that there
10:16 20 is access to some of these documents, even in advance of 21 Mr. Furman who could be testifying tomorrow, it might be very 22 material. So I just want to make sure that if there is access
23 and everyone's got it, that we know by the end of today.

24 MS. BERLIN: I agree. And mistakes happen, so if they
10:17 25 sent it to me and we missed it, you know, I would like to see

1 it. Because we do have e-mail access right now through Alise
2 Johnson's e-mail while we're in the courtroom, if defense
3 counsel could right now forward that, please, we're still
4 waiting on it. The e-mail to me --

10:17 5 THE COURT: Forward whatever you guys got. Anything
6 that shows access and that it was provided, so we can get to 7 the bottom of it.

8 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely.

9 MR. JOHN: We'll definitely show it to them,
10:17 10 Your Honor. As far as e-mail, I think we're having trouble
11 with the internet, so we'll try --

12 THE COURT: See what you can do --

13 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talk) Or if you have a
14 printout --

10:17 15 THE COURT: We do have a WiFi network. I don't know
16 how good works today, but hopefully you guys have signal and 17 you can jump on it. If you need any information, my CRD can 18 get it to you to get on the network, but there should be one
19 available.

10:17 20 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much. All right. I look 21 forward to seeing that.

22 MR. HYMAN: One other quick housekeeping issue. It's 23 my understanding that during argument, the Zoom microphones
24 have been turned off. We think it's part of the open access to 10:18 25 court that when there's legal argument, notwithstanding the

1 rule of sequestration, that the Zoom should not be muted to
2 that part. Obviously the rule of sequestration is intended to
3 prevent witnesses from hearing each other's testimony, and
4 obviously everybody on the Zoom has been instructed that if
10:18 5 they are witnesses, they can't be on, so to the extent
6 possible, we would request that argument also not be muted.

7 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, it's no requirement that
8 federal cases be broadcast by Zoom.

9 THE COURT: There is absolutely no requirement. In 10:18 10 fact, what the Court has done in this case is somewhat
11 unorthodox. A camera access or video access to the courtroom
12 is something that is left to the Court's discretion.

13 I want to point out yesterday that my court reporter
14 and I meeting and conferring this morning noted that both sides
10:18 15 mentioned the names of individuals that should not have been 16 named about nine items times in the presence of the Zoom feed.
17 So I think my concerns about ongoing investigations and the 18 reason why I mute it are very well taken. So we're not 19 operating Court TV here. I can do the best I can with the 10:19 20 witnesses, but I may, in my discretion, decide that some of the 21 argument, again, even if we are advising people of the rule of 22 sequestration, the Court's ability to govern that is severely
23 hampered because it's not like when I have people in my 24 courtroom and I can control them. I have to hope that 10:19 25 individuals here -- and you guys have seen that people are

1 coming on and off in droves. I can't really control that much
2 of a sequestration concerns I may have. And I just don't want
3 any testimony shaped by people having access to some of the 4 argument. Or more importantly, it could pose a risk for my 10:19 5 jurors. I have to be very cognizant of the fact that I want to 6 give everybody access, but I do want to make sure that my
7 jurors are in no way, shape, or form exposed to information
8 that could be seeping out when we have proceedings broadcast
9 and argument that they are not to consider as part of their 10:19 10 deliberations. So I will do my best to continue to keep an 11 open feed.

12 And, in fact, there were large portions of yesterday's 13 argument -- in fact, I think the majority of yesterday's 14 argument was permitted on Zoom. The part that I was most 10:20 15 concerned about was everything surrounding the morning's
16 argument because of the restrictions and things that were done
17 under seal. So I will continue to exercise my discretion in 18 that regard.

19 I can say that all witness testimony has been 10:20 20 broadcast, except for the few individuals that we couldn't, and 21 so everyone has been able to see what the actual evidence has 22 shown, openings were broadcast, closings will be broadcast, and 23 I predict that probably jury instructions as well. I can
24 imagine that perhaps charging conferences and other things, I
10:20 25 may ultimately take it off Zoom because it's of no moment for

1 the investing public. But the concern is duly noted. We will
2 deal with it as the day unfolds. Most of our witnesses today
3 are on Zoom, so people will be able to watch all of that. All
4 right.

10:20 5 Any other housekeeping issues before I bring in my
6 jury?

7 MS. BERLIN: No, thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Anything else on the defense
9 side?

10:21 10 MR. HYMAN: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. If you could, please bring our 12 folks in.

13 Our first witness is live, correct?

14 MS. BERLIN: Yes. And it's not the SEC -- (inaud.).

10:22 15 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

16 THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. Please be seated.

17 Good to see you all. I believe my court reporter was kind
18 enough to get you some doughnuts back there. She was kind
19 enough to bring me one. Those things were huge. I had to cut
10:22 20 it with a knife. But I hope you guys enjoyed that. So that we 21 can give you guys a little pick me up here. And we'll bring 22 you coffee this afternoon as per usual.

23 So today, you know, I don't know if anybody is a golf

24 fan, but, you know, they always say that Saturdays in PGA

10:22 25 tournaments are moving days. Meaning that if you're going to

1 make a move on the leader board, you've got to really -- you've
2 got to really put your pedal to the metal.

3 Today is kind of our moving today. We're targeting
4 about six witnesses today to cover. The majority, at least 10:23 5 half, I think, are going to be on Zoom. And they may not be 6 very long. But our goal today is to try to knock out these 7 witnesses, and no matter what time we're at when we get there,
8 we're going to be done for the day. My hope is maybe it's 9 before 5:00. If it gets to 5:00, we'll do so. But that puts 10:23 10 us on pace, really, to have, again, the SEC concluding their 11 case early tomorrow. And so that's going to be our goal today.
12 So I ask you guys, as you've done from the very beginning of 13 your service, to continue to give us your undivided attention,
14 make sure you take notes, if you feel that's necessary. I'll 10:23 15 keep prompting you guys. If anyone have has a question for a
16 witness, I'll let you know.

17 I do understand that the bathrooms in the jury room
18 are a little bit off right now. Something is going on with 19 them. We've already called our maintenance folks, but we need
10:23 20 to make sure that we don't interact with our lawyers and 21 witnesses. So we will be instructing our attorneys, if they're 22 going to use the restroom, to maybe go to another floor or at 23 least make sure that we don't have you guys bumping into them
24 unnecessarily. So we may need to give you guys another option
10:24 25 since we're having some issues in the jury room.

1 Again, please continue to abide by all the Court
2 protocol that we've been discussing, social media, staying off
3 of it, not talking to each other about the case as it unfolds
4 and making sure you keep an open mind. Making sure that, of 10:24 5 course, you guys do not do any independent research and go on 6 any websites or look up any people, places or things in the 7 case.

8 So with that being said, I will turn it back over to 9 the SEC so they can call their next witness. All right.

10:24 10 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor. We call James 11 Klenk.

12 Thereupon,

13 JAMES KLENK,

14 having been duly sworn by the court reporter, testified as
10:25 15 follows:

16 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Klenk. Grab a seat. And 17 if you're fully vaccinated, you're free to take off your mask.
18 And just make sure, and Rita will tell you, it's a little odd,
19 but the chair doesn't move much and the mic doesn't move, so
10:25 20 you're going to have lean in and try your very best at --

21 THE WITNESS: Gotcha.

22 THE COURT: -- speaking in the microphone and as much
23 as you can. All right?

24 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: You're very welcome.

1 You may proceed when ready.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:25 5 Q. Good morning, Mr. Klenk.

6 A. Good morning.

7 Q. What is your educational background?

8 A. I have a BBA from Temple University.

9 Q. Do you hold any professional licenses?

10:25 10 A. I'm a certified public accountant.

11 Q. And where do you work?

12 A. I work for Full Spectrum Processing.

13 Q. And in connection with Full Spectrum Processing, do you
14 work for Par Funding?

10:25 15 A. Yes. Par Funding is one of our affiliated companies. We 16 do all the back-end office support.

17 Q. And do you work in Philadelphia?

18 A. I do.

19 Q. And is your office in the same office as the Par Funding
10:26 20 office space?

21 A. There were two office spaces in Philadelphia. I was in the 22 Arch Street office and the 20 North Third Street office. I was 23 in the Arch Street office.

24 Q. Okay. And the Arch Street office is --

10:26 25 THE REPORTER: I'm not hearing you.

1 A. I can repeat it if you'd like.

2 THE COURT: Yes, go ahead and repeat it.

3 A. Par Funding had two offices in the City of Philadelphia,
4 one was on Arch Street and another one was on North Third
10:26 5 Street, 20 North Third Street. I worked out of the Arch Street
6 office.

7 BY MS. BERLIN:

8 Q. So am I correct in understanding that your employer -- so
9 the name on your paycheck would be Full Spectrum Processing,
10:27 10 but that you were doing work for Par Funding as a Full Spectrum
11 employee?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And did you have a title?

14 A. I'm a financial controller.

10:27 15 Q. And are you still working there?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. When did you begin?

18 A. February 2018.

19 Q. And then you continued working for Par Funding -- doing
10:27 20 work for Par Funding after the receiver was appointed last 21 year?

22 A. Yes, the receiver called me back to work at Par Funding.

23 Q. And you're still there today?

24 A. Correct.

10:27 25 Q. In connection with your work acting as a comptroller for

1 Par Funding, are you familiar with what Par Funding's business
2 was?

3 A. Yes, I am.

4 Q. You just tell us generally what it did?

10:28 5 A. Par Funding provided merchant cash advances to customers in 6 need of funding.

7 Q. And so Par Funding would give a merchant money and the 8 merchant would pay that money back to Par Funding with 9 additional monies on top of it. Is that right?

10:28 10 A. Correct.

11 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

12 THE COURT: Overruled, but let's keep that in mind

13 Ms. Berlin, moving forward.

14 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Yes, thank you.

10:28 15 A. Correct.

16 MR. HYMAN: Compound, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Overruled.

18 Go ahead.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:28 20 Q. Are you familiar with the merchant cash advance contracts
21 that Par Funding would enter into with merchants?

22 A. I have seen them, yes.

23 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, this has already been 24 introduced as an exhibit. It's P 572. I wonder if we could 10:28 25 pull that up on the screen. And may I approach the witness

1 with a hard copy?

2 THE COURT: You may.

3 THE WITNESS: Does the screen work or no? Is it --

4 THE COURT: It will pop up in a minute. Let us know
5 if you don't see it, okay?

6 THE WITNESS: No problem.

7 MR. HYMAN: We're going to object to this line of 8 testimony as cumulative, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. That's going to be overruled.

10:29 10 You may proceed.

11 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

12 THE WITNESS: There it goes.

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. So I'm showing you what's already been admitted as P 572,
10:29 15 which is a merchant cash advance agreement. And I wonder if we 16 can please turn to page 8 of 29.

17 A. Okay.

18 Q. Does the Par Funding -- do Par Funding merchant cash
19 advance agreements identify what a default is?

10:30 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And if you could look on the bottom of page 8 of 29, it
22 says: Number 10, events of default.

23 Do you see that?

24 A. I do.

10:30 25 Q. And if we could turn the page there's a list. If we could

1 turn the page to page 9.

2 And do you see item -- it has a list of the things
3 that are default and do you see item H?

4 A. Yes.

10:30 5 Q. It says: Merchant seller's failure to make payment
6 required under this purchase agreement?

7 A. I see it.

8 Q. And the merchant seller, that's the merchant whose getting
9 money from Par Funding?

10:30 10 A. Correct, the customer.

11 Q. So if that customer -- if that merchant getting money from 12 Par Funding doesn't make a required payment under the purchase
13 agreement, then that's a default; is that right?

14 A. Correct.

10:31 15 MR. HYMAN: Objection, legal conclusion.

16 THE COURT: Overruled.

17 A. Correct. In case you didn't hear me.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. Thank you.

10:31 20 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we are going to show P 483.
21 I'm just confirming whether it's been admitted.

22 MS. JACQMEIN: No.

23 MS. BERLIN: It hasn't been. May I approach the 24 witness with the hard copy?

10:31 25 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

1 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

2 THE WITNESS: Am I done with this?

3 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:31 5 Q. Yes. Thank you.

6 A. Thank you so much.

7 Q. Have you seen the item we have remarked as P 483 before?

8 A. I have never seen this document.

9 Q. Okay. All right. Let me get that back from you.

10:32 10 A. That's fine. I'm just glancing at it. I do see the 11 information on the inside. I know what it is.

12 Q. Let me get that back. I'm going to have you hold it for a 13 moment.

14 A. Yes.

10:32 15 Q. Do you see --

16 A. Just to clarify, I never saw the brochure.

17 Q. If I could ask you to look at P 483, and if you open that 18 document to the third page, you see a chart that says something
19 in the top left?

10:32 20 A. Yes. CBSG funding analysis.

21 Q. Have you seen this document before?

22 A. Yes, I have.

23 Q. You're familiar with it from your time at Par Funding?

24 A. Yes, I am.

10:33 25 Q. And this is a bit blurry, but does this look like a true

1 and correct copy of the Par Funding, CBSG funding analysis?

2 A. It's difficult to read, but it does look like it is a true
3 and accurate copy.

4 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, may I approach the witness
10:33 5 with the original?

6 THE COURT: You may.

7 BY MS. BERLIN:

8 Q. So I've handed you a clearer copy of the original. Can 9 you -- is this a --

10:33 10 A. It's much better.

11 Q. Is the chart a true and correct copy of the Par Funding
12 funding analysis chart?

13 A. Yes, yes.

14 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to introduce -- it's 10:33 15 a composite exhibit. I wonder if we can just take out this 16 page and introduce it separately.

17 THE COURT: Yeah, if you want to remove that what he's 18 identified.

19 What's the number on that again?

10:34 20 MS. BERLIN: Sure. It's P 483, and it's going to be 21 pages 2 and 3 of your pdf, Your Honor.

22 MR. HYMAN: We're going to object on hearsay grounds.

23 THE COURT: Okay. That's going to be admitted given
24 the predicate laid of 306.

10:34 25 MR. HYMAN: That's the business records exception,

1 Your Honor?

2 THE COURT: Yes, it is.

3 MS. BERLIN: We'll only show those two pages on the
4 screen.

10:34 5 THE COURT: Right, where he laid the predicate.

6 THE WITNESS: Now you know why I couldn't read it.

7 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. Mr. Robinson, could you go to the next page. Thank you.

10:35 10 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we're going to get a copy
11 that we can display electronically that's easy for everyone to 12 read. This looks like a bad scan. We apologize for that.

13 THE COURT: We can barely see that.

14 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. We're just going to get a nice
10:35 15 version.

16 Your Honor, may I use the ELMO?

17 THE COURT: Yes. That's fine.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. Mr. Klenk, do you see on the screen in front of you? If 10:37 20 could you look at the screen in front of you, do you see -- can 21 you see this clearly where it says CBSG funding analysis?

22 A. You lost it again.

23 Q. Can you see funding analysis?

24 A. It's off the screen again. You might want to stand back
10:37 25 and go through it.

1 THE COURT: There's some wires there. You guys have
2 been moving that down there, and it's obviously somewhat
3 sensitive. So probably it's getting somewhat disconnected
4 there.

10:38 5 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we're just going to go with a
6 different -- we have several copies. I apologize for that.

7 Can we pull up P 288, Mr. Robinson? And only show
8 to --

9 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

10:38 10 MR. HYMAN: We don't object to the KPI report being 11 published to the jury, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MS. BERLIN: Okay. So we can go ahead and we'd like
14 to admit P 288, Your Honor?

10:38 15 THE COURT: Yep, that will be admitted.

16 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

17 MR. HYMAN: We'll preserve the prior objections.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Those are overruled.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:39 20 Q. So we'll have to zoom in a bit so everyone can see the 21 numbers, but is P 288 a copy of -- the true and correct copy.
22 This a CBSG, a Par Funding document?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And it says funding analysis. Do you see that in the top 10:39 25 left?

1 A. I do.

2 Q. Now, we talked a minute ago about what the default -- what
3 a default is on the merchant cash advance, and we looked at the 4 agreement.

10:39 5 Do you recall that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Does this document P 288, does it show what the default
8 rate is or what the number of Par Funding MCAs that are in 9 default, does -- is information shown on P 288?

10:40 10 A. No. It's not.

11 Q. Okay. What is -- P 288, what is this chart commonly? Does 12 it have a phrase that's used to refer to this kind of chart?

13 A. This type of chart?

14 Q. Yeah, or this chart at Par Funding. Have you ever heard of 10:40 15 the phrase "KPI report"?

16 A. I knew it as defunding analysis, but later I came to find
17 out that Joe Cole was using it as a KPI report.

18 Q. So you have heard that some people refer to it as a KPI
19 report, but you don't?

10:41 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So we can take it down.

22 So that document doesn't show what number of loans or 23 merchant cash advances are in default?

24 A. No, it does not.

10:41 25 Q. Okay. And it doesn't claim to?

1 A. No.

2 Q. In fact, can we just put it back up.

3 If we look at the column headings here, none of them
4 say default, correct?

10:41 5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Those headings are really small on the screen but --

7 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Mr. Robinson.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. And where we see -- you see the column. It's the Fifth
10:41 10 from the right. It says "exposure percentage"?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And we see -- now what -- is exposure percentage, is that
13 the default rate?

14 MR. HYMAN: Objection, Your Honor.

10:42 15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 You may answer if you understand, Mr. Klenk, in your 17 experience.

18 A. I understand. The exposure percentage is not a default,
19 no.

10:42 20 BY MS. BERLIN:

21 Q. And generally, what is an exposure percentage?

22 A. What this is representing, exposure -- funding exposure is 23 cash in versus cash out, what you receive back. So if you
24 advance a customer a hundred thousand dollars and you only get 10:42 25 $90,000 back, you have an exposure of 10 thousand of your

1 original principal that you haven't returned.

2 Q. Now, Mr. Klenk, does the chart that we see as P 288, does
3 this actually reflect what the bank records would show as far
4 as how much is loaned out and how much comes back, or does it
10:43 5 reflect what management decided to report in their discretion?

6 A. Can you rephrase that a little bit?

7 Q. Sure. So do you see -- let's just look at the definition.
8 Do you see number 4, footnote 4?

9 A. Yes.

10:43 10 Q. Do you see it references the exposure is the transactions
11 written off.

12 Do you see that?

13 A. It says: Factoring losses realized in respect to equal to 14 AR balance for transactions written off against factoring the 10:43 15 loss reserve.

16 Q. So do you see the phrase "written off"?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So exposure percentage the amount that management in its 19 discretion decides to write-off?

10:43 20 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 A. The exposure percentage, yes, it's subjective to what
23 management wanted to write-off.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:43 25 Q. It's what management decided to write-off its books?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Hypothetically -- this is a hypothetical. You could have a
3 hundred percent of a loan never paid back, but if management in 4 its discretion decides it's not going to write any of that off,
10:44 5 it wouldn't even appear in the exposure percentage; is that
6 accurate?

7 MR. HYMAN: Objection, leading, calls for speculation.

8 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain it. Let's restate
9 that, please.

10:44 10 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. So exposure percentage is, I think you testified, is based 13 purely on management's discretion what they want to write
14 there?

10:44 15 A. Correct.

16 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

17 THE COURT: Overruled.

18 A. I'll slow down my answers, sorry.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:44 20 Q. And so -- and when we talk about write-off, I want to make
21 sure you and I are talking about the same thing. When I am
22 referencing writing off a number, I'm talking about writing it
23 off in the books or records. Like, whatever journal or 24 electronic or in paper format, that management at Par Funding
10:44 25 would keep. Do you understand what I'm referring to as

1 "written off"?

2 A. I do.

3 MR. HYMAN: Leading and compound, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Overruled.

10:45 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. And when you answered my questions about the exposure
7 percentage reflecting the number that management in its 8 discretion to write-off, was your answer consistent with the 9 definition I just gave?

10:45 10 MR. HYMAN: Objection, asked and answered, leading,
11 compound.

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 A. Yes.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:45 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. So at Par Funding --

17 MS. BERLIN: We can take down this exhibit.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. So if -- did Michael Furman ever ask you about this chart
10:45 20 that we just looked at together as P 288?

21 A. No.

22 Q. So if Michael Furman had ever asked you about P 288, would 23 you have explained it to him the way you explained it here
24 today?

10:46 25 MR. HYMAN: Objection, calls for speculation, leading.

1 THE COURT: Overruled.

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. But he never asked?

4 A. I never spoke with him.

10:46 5 Q. He never called you? He never asked questions?

6 A. No.

7 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

8 THE COURT: Overruled.

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

10:46 10 Q. When you're working at Par Funding, prior to a receiver
11 being appointed, who was the boss there?

12 A. Joe LaForte.

13 Q. He also goes by Joseph LaForte?

14 A. Yes.

10:46 15 Q. Are you generally familiar with Par Funding's use of agents
16 to raise investor money for Par Funding?

17 A. I'm aware of it, yes.

18 Q. You're familiar with, as a comptroller of Par Funding,
19 familiar with Par Funding's records that show the amounts that 10:47 20 are invested in Par Funding and promissory notes that are 21 issued?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Did Par Funding --

24 MS. BERLIN: Or actually, Your Honor, may I approach
10:47 25 the witness with an exhibit?

1 THE COURT: You may.

2 MS. BERLIN: We've marked -- defendants marked this as
3 D 0259.

4 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

10:47 5 THE COURT: You may. Go ahead.

6 BY MS. BERLIN:

7 Q. Are you familiar with this document that we've just shown
8 you? It says -- do you see at the top it says it's Par Funding
9 note?

10:48 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And this is the type -- you just testified, you're familiar
12 with the notes Par Funding would issue?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And does this appear to be a true and correct copy of a
10:48 15 Par Funding record?

16 A. From what I can see, yes.

17 Q. And if you flip to the last page you'll see a signature.

18 A. Yes.

19 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to introduce this 10:48 20 exhibit as an exhibit.

21 THE COURT: Any objection?

22 MR. HYMAN: Hearsay, lack of authentication.

23 THE COURT: Overruled. All predicates has been laid
24 under a business record. That will be admitted at this time.

10:48 25 What is the number again?

1 IT TECHNICIAN: 0259.

2 THE COURT: 0259 is hereby admitted.

3 You may proceed.

4 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

10:48 5 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

6 BY MS. BERLIN:

7 Q. And so is this a Par Funding promissory note?

8 A. Yes, it is.

9 Q. It's issued to Mr. Furman and his company Fidelis?

10:49 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. So did Par Funding promise to pay Mr. Furman or Fidelis
12 anything for the investor money that he raised and sent to
13 Par Funding?

14 MR. HYMAN: Objection, predicate.

10:49 15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 A. He was to receive interest payments.

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. And what percent interest was that?

19 A. Up until roughly March of 2020 it was 20 percent.

10:49 20 Q. And is that promise to pay Mr. Furman and his company
21 Fidelis in exchange for investor money, is that memorialized or 22 reflected in any written document?

23 MR. HYMAN: Leading, states facts not in evidence.

24 THE COURT: Overruled.

10:50 25 A. It states here that the principal managers would be paid.

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. And I just want to make sure you're talking about the D
3 0259 exhibit in front of you?

4 A. Yes, it's states in 2.02.

10:50 5 Q. So in Section 2.02 of D 0259 we see the memorialization
6 where it's written that he'll get 20 percent; is that correct?

7 A. Well, it says interest and the principal. I'm looking 8 here. I don't see where it says the 20 percent on this one.
9 I'm just glancing at it off the top of my head.

10:50 10 MS. BERLIN: May I approach the witness?

11 THE COURT: You may.

12 BY MS. BERLIN:

13 Q. May I see that?

14 A. Sure.

10:50 15 Q. I'm going to take it and show it on your screen.

16 A. Sure.

17 Q. So just for example, to give you a hypothetical, if 18 Mr. Furman had sent Par Funding a hundred thousand dollars, how 19 much did Par Funding promise to pay him?

10:51 20 MR. HYMAN: Objection, calls for speculation.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 MR. HYMAN: Improper expert witness testimony.

23 THE COURT: It's a hypothetical. It's overruled.

24 You may answer.

10:51 25 BY MS. BERLIN:

1 Q. Go ahead.

2 A. They would pay him back a total of $120,000 principal plus
3 interest.

4 Q. So that 20 percent interest?

10:51 5 A. Correct.

6 MR. HYMAN: I'll also object to relevancy, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Overruled.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. And you're familiar with Par Funding's bank records?

10:52 10 A. I am.

11 Q. And Par Funding's -- the promissory notes that were issued?

12 A. I am familiar with them.

13 Q. And typically the promissory note that we just looked at 14 would have a subscription agreement with it?

10:52 15 MR. HYMAN: Objection, leading.

16 MS. BERLIN: One moment, Your Honor, we'll just show
17 the document.

18 THE COURT: Go ahead and show the document. It is 19 sustained, though. You can restate that.

10:53 20 MS. BERLIN: Let me restate it.

21 BY MS. BERLIN:

22 Q. That's okay. We will -- we won't make you sit there and 23 wait while we hunt for the hard copy to show you.

24 But you're familiar with the bank records of

10:53 25 Par Funding. I showed you the promissory note Par Funding

1 issued to Fidelis; do you recall that?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And were those -- did Par Funding continue to issue those
4 to Mr. Furman for the investor money he set up until what month
10:53 5 was it?

6 A. He -- Par Funding did have additional notes up until, if I
7 remember correctly, up until about February or March of 2020,
8 and they did make payments on a regular basis.

9 Q. So they paid Mr. Furman?

10:53 10 A. Yes.

11 MS. BERLIN: Okay. I don't have any further
12 questions. Thank you, Your Honor.

13 Thank you, Mr. Klenk.

14 THE COURT: Cross-examination?

10:54 15 THE WITNESS: Do you want your exhibit back?

16 THE COURT: You may want to hold on to it until we're 17 done. Thank you, Mr. Klenk.

18

19

CROSS EXAMINATION

10:54 20 BY MR. HYMAN:

21 Q. Good morning, Mr. Klenk.

22 A. Good morning.

23 Q. Isn't it true that you don't currently work for
24 Par Funding?

10:54 25 A. I work for Full Spectrum Processing. I never worked for

1 Par Funding.

2 Q. But you're not currently answering to anybody associated
3 with Par Funding today, are you?

4 A. No, I'm not.

10:54 5 Q. You're, in fact, answering to the receiver. He's your boss
6 today, isn't he?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And he answers to the SEC?

9 A. Correct.

10:54 10 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor. It calls for a
11 hearsay and it's not relevant.

12 THE COURT: If he knows. Okay, if he knows. Again,
13 I'm going to overrule that.

14 You're free to answer, Mr. Klenk, to the extent that
10:55 15 you understand.

16 A. So just so you know the hierarchy right now, in the office
17 the receiver has hired DSI to help. I report to DSI who 18 reports to the receiver, but I also have communication with the 19 receiver.

10:55 20 BY MR. HYMAN:

21 Q. And how often do you communicate with the SEC?

22 A. I -- with the SEC directly?

23 Q. Yeah.

24 A. I've only -- never directly. I've answered questions for 10:55 25 them maybe on three occasions.

1 Q. So you weren't talking to Ms. Berlin right outside of the 2 courtroom today?

3 A. As I said, just about on three occasions.

4 Q. Do you know how often the receiver's counsel speaks with 10:55 5 the SEC?

6 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor, calls for hearsay
7 and relevance.

8 THE COURT: Yes. Well, that's fine as to the 9 relevance, but I'm going to overrule it.

10:55 10 I doubt you know, Mr. Klenk, but if you can answer it.

11 A. I have no idea how often.

12 BY MR. HYMAN:

13 Q. And who signs your pay checks, sir?

14 A. My paycheck is signed by the receiver.

10:55 15 Q. How often did you interact with Mr. Joe LaForte?

16 A. Very seldom. I reported to Joe Cole who was the CFO.

17 Q. And so why would you say that Mr. LaForte was your boss if 18 you rarely dealt with him?

19 A. Joe LaForte was the person who was in charge of everything.

10:56 20 Joe Cole reported to Joe LaForte, but they had a very strict 21 pecking order that Cole ran the accounting and finance area and 22 LaForte didn't interfere with anything he was doing.

23 Q. Do you recall seeing the exhibit that was marked as Exhibit
24 288?

10:56 25 A. Can you put it back up? Just -- is that the one we just

1 had?

2 Q. Yes, it was a KPI report.

3 A. Okay. I'm familiar with that, yes. I have it in front of 4 me then.

10:56 5 Q. Have you seen that report before?

6 A. I have.

7 Q. And did you review that report before it was given out to
8 investors?

9 A. No, I never reviewed it.

10:56 10 Q. Did you -- have you had any opportunity to test or verify
11 any of the contents of that report?

12 A. I tested about two or three times in 2018, but this report
13 was prepared for Joe Cole. He prepared it and he had help from 14 Aida Lau, who was the accounting manager. She submitted it to 10:57 15 him.

16 Q. And when you tested in 2018 was the information in it
17 accurate?

18 A. I tested -- I traced it back to the original documents and 19 it tied back, yes, at that time.

10:57 20 Q. And similarly, doesn't that document reflect that 21 Par Funding made approximately 179 million dollars in gross
22 profit in 2019?

23 A. On this document it doesn't show anything like that.

24 Q. Sorry about that.

10:57 25 So you never dealt with Mr. Furman?

1 A. I've never spoken with him, no.

2 Q. Have you ever spoken with any of the agent fund managers?

3 A. I'm trying to think. I spoke to Dean Vagnozzi probably 4 about four or five times.

10:57 5 Q. Speak to anybody else?

6 A. Not that I'm aware of.

7 Q. Isn't it true that the number of lawsuits that's filed
8 isn't an accurate way to determine default?

9 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor, outside of the 10:57 10 scope. We didn't even discuss that.

11 THE COURT: Relax. Overruled.

12 You may answer.

13 A. Can you repeat that, please?

14 BY MR. HYMAN:

10:58 15 Q. Isn't it true that the number of lawsuits filed is an 16 inaccurate way to determine the default rate?

17 A. That's out of my expertise. I don't know.

18 MR. HYMAN: No further questions.

19 MS. BERLIN: Just real briefly.

10:58 20 THE COURT: Yes.

21

22 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. You were asked about the receiver, Mr. Klenk. Are you
10:58 25 familiar -- or do you understand that the receiver was

1 appointed by the Court and not the SEC?

2 A. I do.

3 THE COURT: You opened it. Sit down. Overruled.

4 Preempted. Go ahead.

10:58 5 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 BY MS. BERLIN:

7 Q. And when we spoke, you were asked about our conversation

8 outside in the hallway. Did I give you -- did I tell you

9 anything about how you should testify today?

10:59 10 A. You told me to testify honestly.

11 Q. That's all. Anything else?

12 A. No. You just briefly went over some of the questions that 13 you were going answer just so I was prepared.

14 Q. And other than telling you to testify truthfully, anything
10:59 15 else?

16 A. Not that I remember. I got a short attention span.

17 MS. BERLIN: All right. Thank you. I don't have any 18 further questions. So have a safe trip back.

19 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

10:59 20 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, does
21 anybody have any questions for Mr. Klenk? Okay.

22 Thank you, Mr. Klenk. You're excused. You can hand
23 those materials back on your way out. Thank you.

24 THE WITNESS: Thank you very much.

10:59 25 THE COURT: SEC's next witness.

1 MS. JOHNSON: We are going to call William Mitchell
2 from the State of Texas. He's on Zoom.

3 THE COURT: He's standing by. Does he have the
4 information? Let's see if we can get him to connect here
10:59 5 without issue.

6 MS. JOHNSON: Can we get the same instruction on the 7 chat?

8 THE COURT: It's already been disabled. The Court
9 took care of that this morning. There's no more chat function
11:00 10 anymore in the Zoom. So we don't have to get any running
11 commentary.

12 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

13 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, we're going to introduce 14 Plaintiff's 36 into evidence. There's no objection. I have 11:00 15 hard copies today for the jury in case --

16 THE COURT: Regulatory documentation from Texas.

17 MS. JOHNSON: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Any objection for the record?

19 MR. HYMAN: No, Your Honor.

11:00 20 THE COURT: Let go ahead and that will be published
21 and distributed to the jury so they have something to look at.
22 If you have any problems having this witness connecting, let me
23 know. I assume he's trying to do so now.

24 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

11:02 25 THE COURT: Has he indicated he's on already? Because

1 I don't see him yet.

2 IT TECHNICIAN: No.

3 MS. BERLIN: I have him on e-mail saying he's in
4 there.

11:05 5 (Thereupon, there was a brief discussion off the record.)

6 THE COURT: Mr. Mitchell, if you can hear me, you can 7 go ahead and try to connect here and turn on your video. We 8 don't have video feed yet.

9 THE WITNESS: Can you hear me?

11:05 10 THE COURT: There you are. Can you see us,
11 Mr. Mitchell?

12 THE WITNESS: Yes, I can.

13 THE COURT: Excellent.

14 THE WITNESS: I apologize about that. I was hearing
11:05 15 everything that was going on, and it wouldn't allow me to put 16 my full name in, only my e-mail. So I understand. Sorry about
17 that.

18 THE COURT: I changed it for you. Is the spelling
19 correct underneath your window?

11:05 20 THE WITNESS: Yes, that is correct.

21 THE COURT: I've done that. We have investing public
22 that's watching. So I have controls over who can participate
23 so that we don't disrupt proceedings. So now I've given you
24 panelist permission. So you should be fine. I'm going to turn 11:06 25 it over to my courtroom deputy who is going to swear you in.

1 So if you want to raise your right hand, she's going to
2 administer an oath at this time.

3 Thereupon,

4 WILLIAM MITCHELL,

5 having been duly sworn by the courtroom deputy, testified as
6 follows:

7 THE COURT: All right. So we're going to proceed.

8 You can see the feed there with the counsel for the SEC. She's 9 at the podium. And I'll turn it over to you all to begin
10 questioning. Everybody in my jury can see. Correct? Very 11 good. You may proceed.

12

13

DIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MS. JOHNSON:

11:06 15 Q. Good morning, Mr. Mitchell.

16 A. Good morning.

17 Q. Where do you work?

18 A. I work with the Texas State Securities Board in Austin,
19 Texas.

11:06 20 Q. And how long have you worked there?

21 A. Now going on eleven years.

22 Q. And is the Texas Securities Board, is that a state agency?
23 What is it?

24 A. Correct. It's a state agency appointed underneath the 11:07 25 governor inside the state of Texas, yes. It's a state agency

1 that is (inaud.).

2 Q. Can you repeat that? We had a little interference.

3 A. It's a state agency appointed underneath the governor
4 within the state of Texas.

11:07 5 Q. Thank you. And what is the mission of the agency? What is 6 your function?

7 A. Our mission basically is to protect the investing public in
8 regards to the Texas Securities Act.

9 Q. I'm sorry. Can you repeat that last part? I caught "to 11:07 10 protect the investing public," but I didn't hear the last part 11 of your sentence.

12 A. Within the realms of the Texas Securities Act, protecting 13 investing public.

14 Q. So it has responsibility for enforcing Texas securities
11:08 15 laws?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And what do you do there?

18 A. I'm an investigator in the enforcement division of the 19 Texas State Security Board.

11:08 20 Q. And I'm going to show you on the screen, and I think you
21 have it at home, what's been marked as exhibit -- Plaintiff's
22 Exhibit 36. And it's been admitted into evidence.

23 Can you tell me what that is?

24 A. Yes. Let me -- bear with me one moment here. Exhibit 36,
11:08 25 I see here, is one of our orders issued by the Texas Securities

1 Board in the matter of Senior Asset Protection DBA Encore
2 Financial Solutions, Merchant Growth & Income Funding, LLC,
3 ABetterFinancialPlan.com LLC, a.k.a., A Better Financial Plan,
4 Complete Business Solutions Group, Incorporated, DBA
11:09 5 Par Funding, Gary Neal Beasley and Perry Abbonizio.

6 Q. You got it. You did it right.

7 And are -- those parties that you just read, are those
8 the individuals and companies that this Texas cease and desist
9 order were entered against?

11:09 10 A. That is correct, yes, ma'am.

11 Q. And if we go to page 3, we'll see the title where it says
12 Emergency Cease and Desist Order.

13 Can you tell us --

14 A. That is correct.

11:09 15 Q. What is a cease and desist order? What is the purpose of 16 that?

17 A. So if you read here, a cease and desist order is an 18 official notice of an issuance by the securities commissioner
19 of the state of Texas, and pursuant to 23.2 of the Securities
11:10 20 Act, the enforcement division of the Texas State Securities
21 Board has presented such evidence that it must declare a cease
22 and desist upon the respondent.

23 Q. And would respondents have received notice of this when it
24 was issued?

11:10 25 A. I'm sorry. Can you repeat that again?

1 Q. Of course.

2 Would the respondents have received notice of this
3 order when it was issued?

4 A. That is correct yes, ma'am.

11:10 5 Q. And what is the date that this was issued?

6 A. (Inaud.)

7 Q. It's on the last page of the order?

8 A. Yeah, I believe it is February 25th of 2020.

9 Q. That's correct. Would the cease and desist have been 11:11 10 publically available to others in the respondents at that time?

11 A. Once the order is issued and delivered to the respondents,
12 yes, our orders are made public.

13 Q. And how do you make them public?

14 A. We post them on our website as with the Texas State
11:11 15 Security Board. We also do our diligence in terms of 16 reaching -- giving it out to other securities regulators.
17 They're a nonprofit organizational group that helps us focus on 18 securities laws. They also get information related to the 19 order as well.

11:11 20 Q. Do you know whether it's still available on your website?

21 A. Did you ask if the order is still available?

22 Q. Yes. Is the order still available on the Texas website?

23 A. Yes. It should be. Yes.

24 Q. And if we go to -- I think it's page 12 of the order. In 11:12 25 the middle of the page, where it says "order" under number 1,

1 it says: It is therefore ordered that respondents immediately
2 cease and desist from offering for sale any security in Texas
3 until the security is registered with the securities commission
4 or is offered for sale pursuant to an exemption.

11:12 5 What is that? Can you explain that paragraph, what
6 it's ordering there?

7 A. Correct. So under the Texas Securities Act, any sale or 8 offer for sale of securities beforehand are required to be
9 registered under the Texas Securities Act with our securities
11:13 10 commissioner. So under Section 7 and under Section 12, that 11 refers to the dealer agent or investment advisor, and the 12 security itself must be registered in order for it to be 13 offered in Texas with the investing public.

14 Q. Why is it important for a company to be registered? Why do
11:13 15 Texas securities laws require that?

16 A. Well, for one, it's required under our Texas Securities Act
17 which goes back to again, you know, protecting investing
18 public, but also more in deeper terms in terms of why it's 19 required, it's also there for transparency.

11:13 20 Q. Transparency for whom?

21 A. Transparency for not only the company, but also 22 transparency for the investing public, much like purchasing a
23 publically traded stock. All the information must be 24 presented.

11:14 25 Q. Okay. I just want to touch on a few highlights of the

1 order. If you'd look at page 7, this is in the middle where it
2 talks about the Pennsylvania enforcement action, paragraph 36
3 of the order.

4 A. Hold on one second. You said page 7?

11:14 5 Q. Yes. Are you able to see what we're posting here on your
6 screen?

7 A. Yes. Yes, I can see it.

8 Q. We'll use that. That will be a little easier.

9 Paragraph 36, it's titled The Pennsylvania Enforcement
11:14 10 Action and it says: Respondents, Par Funding, A Better
11 Financial Plan, and has some others, Abbonizio, are not 12 disclosing the Department of Banking and Securities for the 13 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that they conducted an
14 investigation of respondent Par Funding.

11:15 15 And number 37, it: Says on November 28th, based on 16 the results of the investigation, the agency entered a consent
17 order. And it's styled Commonwealth of Pennsylvania versus 18 Securities Bureau -- Securities Compliance versus Complete
19 Business Solutions Group. Correct?

11:15 20 A. That is correct, yes. Paragraph 36 and 37.

21 Q. So this was a finding of your department that these
22 respondents were not disclosing the Pennsylvania enforcement
23 action. Did I characterize that correctly?

24 A. That is correct. Yes.

11:15 25 Q. And why was that an important -- why was that included in

1 your order?

2 A. Well, because, without going into too much detail, in the 3 scope of our investigation, during the time that the offer was 4 being presented in an undercover capacity, the information
11:16 5 regarding the Pennsylvania order was not disclosed. And again,
6 that kind of ties back to protecting the investing public. All
7 information, all disclosures must be acknowledged before
8 someone decides to invest, much like going back to purchasing a
9 publically traded stock, all the information must be presented
11:16 10 and disclosed. And it's mainly up to the investor whether or 11 not it's relevant.

12 Q. And then if we go down -- there's a similar title. If we 13 go down to right above paragraph 41, on that same page it says:
14 The New Jersey enforcement action.

11:16 15 And 41 and 42 talk about a New Jersey enforcement
16 action, and similar to the Pennsylvania it says: Respondents
17 are not disclosing the New Jersey Bureau of Securities
18 conducted an investigation of respondent, Par Funding, and that 19 on December 27th, 2018, based on the results of the 11:17 20 investigation, that the agency entered a cease and desist
21 order.

22 Is that there for the similar reasons that you just
23 talked about with the Pennsylvania enforcement action?

24 A. Yes, ma'am, it is.

11:17 25 Q. All right. And if we skip ahead to two more pages, it's

1 page 10 of the document. I know they're not numbered so it's
2 hard. But under the Fraud and Deceit Concealment of 3 Pennsylvania order under number 62 -- paragraph 62. I'll
4 direct your attention there, and 63.

11:17 5 It says: As described herein, the Department of 6 Banking and Securities for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
7 entered into a consent agreement and order that ordered the 8 respondents, Par Funding, to pay an administrative assessment
9 in the amount of $499,000.

11:18 10 And then under 63 it says: In connection with the 11 offer of the investments described herein, respondents,
12 Par Funding, and A Better Financial Plan and Abbonizio are 13 intentionally failing to disclose the consent agreement.

14 Is that similar to what we just talked about, why it's 11:18 15 included in the order, similar to the Pennsylvania action that 16 you've already described?

17 A. Yes, ma'am.

18 Q. Does this order remain in effect in Texas?

19 A. This order does remain in effect, yes, it does.

11:18 20 Q. Were there any subsequent orders to this between 21 Par Funding and A Better Financial Plan by the State of Texas?

22 A. I'm sorry, can you repeat that again.

23 Q. Have there been any orders after this entered by your 24 agency involving Par Funding or A Better Financial Plan or

11:19 25 Mr. Abbonizio?

1 A. There was a more recent -- there was a more recent order
2 that was issued. But essentially what it was was just an
3 affirming of the original order. There was -- within the State
4 of Texas there was a contesting done by one of the parties and 11:19 5 the ALJ --

6 Q. I would stop you there. I don't want to get you too far.
7 I understand that was by a party that wasn't -- it
8 wasn't Par Funding or A Better Financial Plan, correct?

9 A. No. No. It was not. That was the only thing that we had.

11:19 10 Q. But that order affirmed this cease and desist order
11 ultimately?

12 A. Correct. Yes, it does.

13 MS. JOHNSON: I think we're done, Your Honor.

14 Thank you, Mr. Mitchell. Now defendant's counsel is 11:20 15 going to ask you some questions.

16 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Mitchell, we'll turn it
17 over to defense counsel for cross-examination, okay?

18 THE WITNESS: Okay.

19

20 CROSS EXAMINATION

21 BY MR. JOHN:

22 Q. Good morning.

23 A. Good morning.

24 Q. During your direct examination, you testified that your 11:20 25 office did publish this order to your department website,

1 correct?

2 A. Yes. That is correct.

3 Q. You also said that oftentimes you will publish an order or 4 communicate an order to other regulatory agencies; is that

11:20 5 correct?

6 A. Yes. That is correct. We have a -- we have a division
7 that handles that.

8 Q. In 2020 what other regulatory agencies did you communicate
9 this particular order to?

11:21 10 A. I don't know -- I don't know that they --

11 Q. As you sit here today, can you say with any certainty that 12 this was order was communicated to any other regulatory 13 agencies?

14 A. I'm sorry, can you repeat that again?

11:21 15 Q. Sure. As you sit here today, or on Zoom rather, can you
16 say with any certainty that this order was communicated to any 17 other regulatory agencies?

18 A. Yes. Yes, I can.

19 Q. How is that?

11:21 20 A. Just with the number of organizational groups that I know
21 our agency is tied to, and I know that our division always does
22 a due diligence in terms of reaching out to other states, other
23 state regulators. One of those is known to be an 24 organizational group FINRA, which basically ties a lot of state
11:21 25 security regulators.

1 Q. So if I understand your testimony correctly, it is your
2 understanding that your agency communicates regularly and
3 you're assuming it was done this time as well, correct?

4 MS. JOHNSON: Objection, Your Honor.

11:22 5 THE COURT: Overruled.

6 You may answer.

7 BY MR. JOHN:

8 Q. Let me repeat that question, sir.

9 Am I understanding your testimony correctly that 11:22 10 you're saying to me your agency normally communicates these 11 orders and you're assuming it was done as well this time,
12 right?

13 A. Yes. That is correct.

14 Q. You said that your organization also communicates these 11:22 15 type of orders to nonprofit organizations, right?

16 A. Well, FINRA is a -- FINRA is a -- for example, is a
17 nonprofit organization, it's my understanding, but yes.

18 Q. I'm sorry. I thought during your direct examination you
19 said that your agency often communicates orders like these to 11:22 20 numerous nonprofit organizations. Did I misunderstand that?

21 A. Well, not numerous. Only a few in particular. But again,
22 I'm -- I don't know that specifics. I don't know exactly
23 the -- I don't exactly know the logistics and how all of that 24 is handled.

11:23 25 Q. But you're assuming it was done this time, right?

1 A. Yes. I would assume so.

2 Q. Okay. During the course of your investigation, before the
3 order was -- strike that.

4 You conducted an investigation before the cease and 11:23 5 desist order was published in this case, right?

6 A. That is correct. Our division conducted an investigation.

7 Q. And during that investigation you communicated with the 8 respondents, right?

9 A. That is correct.

11:23 10 Q. Did you -- other than the respondents and anyone internal 11 to your agency, did you communication with anyone else about 12 the investigation?

13 MS. JOHNSON: I'm going to object about going into the 14 investigative privilege.

11:23 15 THE COURT: Yeah, I'm going to go ahead and sustain
16 that.

17 BY MR. JOHN:

18 Q. Sir, you've never had contact with Mr. Furman, the 19 defendant in this case, correct?

11:24 20 MS. JOHNSON: Again, I think --

21 THE COURT: That I will permit.

22 BY MR. JOHN:

23 Q. You've never had communication directly with Mr. Michael 24 Furman in this case, correct?

11:24 25 A. I'm sorry. Hold on. Let me raise this volume.

1 Q. Sure. It may be me. You want me to repeat the question?

2 A. Repeat that again. Sorry.

3 THE COURT: Repeat it. Go ahead and repeat it.

4 BY MR. JOHN:

11:24 5 Q. You have never had communication with Mr. Michael Furman,
6 correct?

7 A. No.

8 Q. You never directly sent notice of this order to Mr. Michael 9 Furman, correct?

11:24 10 A. No.

11 MR. JOHN: One moment to confer, Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: Sure.

13 BY MR. JOHN:

14 Q. Mr. Mitchell, I just want to communicate to clarify your 15 last answer. You said, no.

16 That means you never sent notice to Mr. Michael Furman
17 of this order, correct?

18 A. That is correct. I never sent notice.

19 Q. Did anyone else from your office send notice to Mr. Furman
11:25 20 of this order?

21 A. I cannot answer that. I don't know.

22 MR. JOHN: No further questions for this witness,
23 Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. Any direct?

11:25 25

1
2 BY MS. JOHNSON:

3 Q. Hi, Mr. Mitchell. I just wanted to clarify two things.
4 When you were discussing -- when you testified that your agency
11:26 5 sends these orders on a regular basis to nonprofits, you were 6 including FINRA as a nonprofit when you made that statement,
7 correct?

8 A. Yes, that's correct.

9 Q. And you stated that this was made publically available. Is 11:26 10 it still publically available on the Texas website?

11 A. Yes, ma'am, it should be. Yes.

12 MS. JOHNSON: All right. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Any questions for Mr. Mitchell from the 14 jury? All right.

11:26 15 Thank you very much, Mr. Mitchell. You're excused.
16 You may disconnect at this time.

17 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

18 THE COURT: All right. Is the next witness also on 19 Zoom or is the next witness live?

11:26 20 MS. JOHNSON: I think we're going to have to do a
21 Zoom. It's going to be the New Jersey regulator.

22 THE COURT: That makes sense. We can go right to the 23 next regulator. If you want to go ahead and let me know when 24 that regulator connects, I'll give them the same privileges
11:27 25 here and we can let them have access.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. I stepped out to just make
2 that happen, so hopefully he will be on in just a moment.

3 THE COURT: Sure.

4 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

11:27 5 MS. JOHNSON: Your Honor, we would like to do the 6 same --

7 THE COURT: Moving in the regulatory documents for the 8 New Jersey proceedings?

9 MS. JOHNSON: Yes, Your Honor. We'd like to move in 11:27 10 P 5.

11 THE COURT: P 5. Any objection?

12 MR. HYMAN: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. P 5 will be admitted at this
14 time.

11:27 15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

16 THE COURT: You may publish to the jury copies of the 17 regulatory documents.

18 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, the witness will be on in 19 just a moment, and the phone number, if it appears that way,
11:28 20 will start 973.

21 (Thereupon, there was a brief discussion off the record.)

22 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, he's in and it should be area
23 code 973.

24 THE COURT: Okay. He's been giving privileges. He 11:32 25 should be coming on momentarily.

1 And if you can hear me, Mr. Bouchard, you can go ahead
2 turn on your audio and turn on your video.

3 THE WITNESS: I can hear you.

4 THE COURT: Excellent. All right. Very good. Okay.

11:32 5 So what we're going to do --

6 THE WITNESS: Excuse me. Can my counsel be admitted
7 as a panelist?

8 THE COURT: Yes, I can admit him as well. If he would 9 raise his hand again, I can go ahead and admit him. There we 11:32 10 are.

11 And, Counsel, you should be given access now in just a 12 moment and you'll also be coming in.

13 And, Counsel, I think you can just leave your -- if 14 you want to leave your video off, I don't know if you want to 11:33 15 have it on, it's up to you. Whatever is easier, okay.

16 MR. SHOWELL: I'll just leave it on, Judge. If
17 there's an objection made, (audio distortion) I'll make it.

18 THE COURT: Very good. Okay.

19 So what we're going to do, Mr. Bouchard, is we're 11:33 20 going to swear you in in just a moment. You're going to hear
21 the voice of my courtroom deputy. When you testify, just so
22 that we can really make it clear for the sake of my court
23 reporter and the jurors, just project as much as you can in 24 whatever microphone that's near your computer so that we can 11:33 25 hear you clearly.

1 So with that being said, Gracie, do you want to swear
2 in the witness, please.

3 THE WITNESS: Do you think I should use a headset?

4 THE COURT: I can hear you pretty well, so I think we
5 can try go with that as it stands right now. If there are any 6 problems, we'll let you know. Okay? But thank you for that.

7 THE WITNESS: Okay.

8 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead, Gracie.

9 Thereupon,

10 STEPHEN BOUCHARD,

11 having been duly sworn by the courtroom deputy, testified as
12 follows:

13 THE COURT: And for the record, before you state your 14 name, Mr. Bouchard, can I get counsel on behalf of Mr. Bouchard
11:34 15 to state his name for the record. I know that he is appearing 16 over Zoom, although, of course, not testifying but as counsel
17 for Mr. Bouchard.

18 Go ahead, sir.

19 MR. SHOWELL: Your Honor, Evan A. Showell, deputy 11:34 20 attorney general for the New Jersey division of law on behalf
21 of Mr. Bouchard.

22 THE COURT: All right. With that being said, we'll 23 turn it over.

24 And ladies and gentlemen of the jury, you see
11:34 25 everybody clearly, right? Okay. Very good.

1 All right. You may proceed.

2 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor. Good morning,
3 Mr. Bouchard.

4

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION

6 BY MS. JOHNSON:

7 Q. Can you tell us where you work?

8 A. I'm -- I work at the New Jersey Bureau of Securities.

9 Q. And if I refer to that as "the Bureau," is that the correct
10 lingo?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And how long have you worked at the Bureau?

13 A. Ten years next month.

14 Q. And is the Bureau a state agency?

11:35 15 A. Yes, it is.

16 Q. And what the is function of the Bureau?

17 A. The mission of the Bureau is to protect investors from 18 investment frauds and to regulate the securities industry in 19 the State of New Jersey.

11:35 20 Q. And what do you do for the Bureau?

21 A. I'm a supervising investigator and the director of the 22 examinations unit.

23 Q. And I'm going to show what's been admitted into evidence as 24 Plaintiff's Exhibit 5, which is the cease and desist order.

11:35 25 Are you familiar with this document?

1 A. Yes, I am.

2 Q. And what does this document -- what is it?

3 A. It was a summary cease and desist order entered by the
4 Bureau chief in --

11:36 5 Q. (Cross-talk)

6 A. -- December 2018.

7 Q. The date was late 2018?

8 A. December 27th, 2018.

9 Q. And who was it against?

11:36 10 A. It was against Complete Business Solutions Group doing
11 business as Par Funding.

12 Q. And at the time it was issued in December of 2018, would it
13 have been made available to the public?

14 A. Yes, it was.

11:36 15 Q. How would it have been made available to the public?

16 A. It would have been posted on a -- on the Bureau's website.
17 In addition, the New Jersey Office of Attorney General issued a
18 press release and the press release would have contained a link
19 to the order.

11:37 20 Q. I'll get back to the press release, but let's talk about 21 the order right now.

22 Would it have been made available to Par Funding?

23 A. Yes. I believe it was served by mail and also on the 24 registered agent for Complete Business Solutions Group, Inc.

11:37 25 Q. And that would have happened in the -- late 2018?

1 A. Yes, ma'am.

2 Q. Let's just walk through this a little bit. We'll start
3 with the findings of fact on the first page. Number one, CBSG
4 a purported small business funding company, sold and continues 11:38 5 to offer and sell unregistered securities.

6 What does that mean?

7 A. The entity was raising money by selling securities to the 8 public.

9 Q. And the securities --

11:38 10 A. And the securities were not registered with the Bureau.

11 Q. Why would that -- why would the Bureau care whether they 12 were registered or not?

13 A. Well, to protect the public from securities fraud or 14 noncompliance, securities sold within the State of New Jersey
11:38 15 need to be either registered or covered securities which would 16 include 34, you know, securities SEC reporting companies and 17 Stock Exchange listed companies or available for an exemption
18 registration.

19 Q. Thank you. And then we go onto number 2, the second
11:39 20 finding by the Bureau was that the CBSG securities were sold by 21 unregistered agents who received commissions which varied
22 between 5 and potentially as high as 25 percent, depending on 23 the amount of interest that would be paid to the investors, and 24 as a result, millions of dollars of commissions were paid to 11:39 25 unregistered agents, including agents in New Jersey.

1 Why would that finding -- why would that be important
2 to the Bureau to make it a finding in this order?

3 A. Well, one of the ways the Bureau regulates the securities
4 industry in New Jersey is by registering broker/dealers and 11:39 5 their agents, and through that registration process, we were
6 able to discern and assure that the people are both qualified
7 and not have any disciplinary or disqualifying criminal 8 background.

9 Q. And on number 3, you talk about -- the order says on 11:40 10 November 28th, 2018, that CBSG and the Pennsylvania Department
11 of Banking and Securities entered into a consent order
12 concluding that Pennsylvania -- the Pennsylvania securities
13 laws had been violated and that Pennsylvania had ordered CBSG
14 to pay a financial fine of close to $500,000.

11:40 15 Why is that included in a New Jersey order?

16 A. Fairly typical for the Bureau orders to include relevant
17 disciplinary or regulatory actions and enforcement actions
18 against the same subject or respondent. And it reinforced the 19 conclusions reached in our investigation that were the subject
11:41 20 of the order.

21 Q. All right. And then if we look at number 11 on page 3,
22 again you say in the findings that the CBSG securities are not
23 registered with the Bureau, not federally covered, and not
24 exempt from registration.

11:41 25 Can you explain what you mean -- what the Bureau meant

1 by that number 11?

2 A. Sure. So if -- there are three ways that securities can be
3 legally sold within the State of New Jersey. They can be
4 registered with the Bureau which involves a review process by 11:41 5 our regulatory unit for compliance with applicable disclosure
6 obligations. They can be federally covered, which includes
7 securities of companies that are registered and reporting
8 companies under the Securities and Exchange Commission's laws.

9 That generally includes Stock Exchange, New York Stock
11:42 10 Exchange (audio distortion) securities and NASDAQ national 11 market (audio distortion) securities, and the last is there are 12 various exemptions from registration that they can qualify for,
13 some of which require a notice filing with the Bureau.

14 Q. In fact, if you look at your conclusions of law, and number
11:42 15 15, you found that Par Funding is offering and selling
16 securities that aren't registered with the Bureau, not 17 federally covered and not exempt from registration, and then
18 number 17, that CBSG employed unregistered agents in violation
19 of the New Jersey Security Act; is that correct?

11:43 20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Just one more under the order on page 4, under number 21,
22 what is the Bureau ordering CBSG to do?

23 A. We're ordering them to cease and desist from offering for 24 sale in New Jersey any security unless and until the security
11:43 25 is either registered or offered and sold pursuant to a valid

1 exemption. And this would conclude continuing sales to current
2 investors, rollover of any outstanding securities or any
3 extension of the security date for those securities.

4 Q. Did the Bureau ever lift the cease and desist order?

11:43 5 A. No, I did not.

6 Q. Is the order still in effect today?

7 A. Yes, it is.

8 Q. Do you know if the order is still available on the Bureau's
9 website?

11:44 10 A. Yes, it is. I believe so.

11 Q. When was the last time you looked to see if it was 12 available?

13 A. I think I looked last week, when you and I spoke and just 14 printed it off.

11:44 15 Q. I'm going to show you -- I'm going to refer you to what's 16 been previously marked as P 567.

17 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

18 MS. JOHNSON: Don't publish it.

19 MR. HYMAN: We have not consented to 567 into evidence
11:44 20 yet, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: You want to show him 567. Again, we're --
22 we don't want to have it on screen. The jurors need to block
23 it out.

24 MS. JOHNSON: I had previously sent you 567. Do you
11:45 25 have a hard copy in front of you so we don't have to put it up

1 on the screen yet?

2 THE COURT: Yeah.

3 BY MS. JOHNSON:

4 Q. Mr. Bouchard, do you have 567 --

11:45 5 MS. JOHNSON: Can I tell him what it is?

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 BY MS. JOHNSON:

8 Q. It's the press release in front of you, so we don't have to 9 put it up on the screen and publish it.

11:45 10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. Can you explain what this is? Do you recognize this?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. And what is it?

14 A. It's a press release issued by the New Jersey Office of the 11:45 15 Attorney General's division of consumer affairs. The Bureau of 16 Security is part of the division of the consumer affairs in the 17 New Jersey Attorney General's Office.

18 Q. And how do you recognize that, to be that?

19 A. Because it's -- I mean, I recall when it was issued, but 11:45 20 also, it's on our website.

21 Q. And how do you know it's on the website?

22 A. The division's website or the attorney general's website.

23 Q. And how do you know that, that it's on the website?

24 A. I -- again, I checked last week.

11:46 25 MS. JOHNSON: I'd like to offer this into evidence.

1 THE COURT: Lay a better predicate. Is this regularly
2 issued? Come on guys.

3 MR. HYMAN: And also, Your Honor --

4 THE COURT: I don't need a speaking objection. Lay a
11:46 5 better predicate.

6 BY MS. JOHNSON:

7 Q. When was this press release issued originally?

8 A. It was issued on the day that the cease and desist order as 9 to Complete Business Solutions Group was entered by the Bureau
11:46 10 chief.

11 Q. And is this part of the Bureau's regular business records
12 that they would keep in their records and on their website?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 Q. Again, I --

11:46 15 A. One caveat is, you know, it's ultimately the decision of 16 the main office of the attorney general as to whether and when 17 to issue a press release.

18 THE COURT: Do you have another objection you want to 19 raise?

11:47 20 MR. HYMAN: The document has not been issued by the 21 New Jersey Bureau of Securities.

22 THE COURT: Correct. It's not been issued by the 23 Bureau of Securities. It's issued by the AG's office in 24 conjunction with the Bureau of Securities who provides the 11:47 25 information.

1 Am I correct in that, Mr. Bouchard?

2 THE WITNESS: Yes. The Bureau is part of the
3 New Jersey Attorney General's Office.

4 THE COURT: Correct. All right. What did you want to 11:47 5 ask? Go ahead.

6 BY MS. JOHNSON:

7 Q. I was going to say: Does the agency or the Bureau -- does
8 the AG's office regularly issue these press releases?

9 A. Yes, it does.

11:47 10 Q. Is that part of the routine work of the Bureau that keys up
11 into the AG's office?

12 A. Yes, it is, particularly when the purpose of the press
13 release is to alert the public as to the underlying conduct,
14 it's not properly in compliance with the New Jersey Uniform
11:48 15 Securities Law.

16 Q. And is the Bureau a division of the AG's office?

17 A. Yes, it is.

18 MS. JOHNSON: All right. Your Honor, with that I'd 19 take to offer P 567 into evidence.

11:48 20 THE COURT: P 567 will be admitted at this time.

21 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

22 BY MS. JOHNSON:

23 Q. Without reading the press release, what does this press
24 release say about the cease and desist order?

11:48 25 A. Well, it explains the reasons for the cease and desist

1 order and explains what would have to be done to comply with
2 this order.

3 Q. And is this -- I think you've testified to this, but I just
4 want to make it clear if you haven't. When was the last time
11:48 5 you saw this press release on the website?

6 A. In the last week or early this week, but in the last few
7 days.

8 Q. And does the press release have any links attached?

9 A. Yes, it has a link to the actual order.

11:49 10 Q. And a few more questions about the order.

11 Does the order state that Par Funding was doing things
12 right?

13 A. No, it does not.

14 Q. Is there any subsequent orders or communications with 11:49 15 Par Funding saying that the New Jersey Bureau thought that 16 Par Funding was doing things right?

17 A. Not to the best of my knowledge, nor would that be a
18 typical statement for the Bureau or its representatives to make 19 to a respondent.

11:49 20 Q. Does the order state that all of Par Funding's books and 21 records are good?

22 A. No, it does not.

23 Q. Does the Bureau subsequently enter any order or 24 communications with Par Funding stating that the books and 11:50 25 records were good?

1 A. No, it has not done so.

2 Q. Does the order state that the Bureau loves the Par Funding
3 offering?

4 A. Absolutely not.

11:50 5 Q. Did the Bureau ever enter into such an order or 6 communications with Par Funding saying they loved them or were 7 giving them their blessing?

8 A. Absolutely not.

9 Q. Did New Jersey fine CBSG for the conduct described in this
11:50 10 order?

11 A. No, it did not.

12 Q. Was this order ever retracted?

13 A. No. It is still a final order.

14 Q. Does this order state anywhere that Par Funding was paying 11:51 15 its agents improper referral fees?

16 A. Well, it explains that it was paying commissions that were 17 officially, I think, called finders' fees.

18 Q. Does the order state that Par Funding had resolved its 19 issues and could begin selling securities in New Jersey again?

11:51 20 A. No, it does not.

21 Q. I'd like to play for you what has been previously admitted
22 into evidence. It's P 124, just a part of that.

23 THE COURT: P 124 is which exhibit?

24 MR. HYMAN: Audio recording Mr. Furman. We're going 11:51 25 to object, lack of personal knowledge, predicate, and it's the

1 jury's province to assess basically the testimony of this
2 witness.

3 THE COURT: It's overruled.

4 What is it -- was is the clip again?

11:52 5 MS. JOHNSON: This is the clip of Mr. Furman with the 6 undercover when he talks about the New Jersey order. It's the 7 transcript page 125, line 17, through page 18, line 22.

8 THE COURT: All right. You can play that part.
9 You're going to show him the transcript or are you going to 11:52 10 play the audio of it?

11 IT TECHNICIAN: I'm going to do both.

12 MR. HYMAN: I'm going to object also to the best
13 evidence rule, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. It wouldn't be a best evidence rule
11:52 15 if you're asking the opinion of the regulator who's going to be 16 shown testimony, I presume, that is directly related to 17 regulatory actions he oversaw in New Jersey.

18 MS. JOHNSON: This is the part of the clip where he 19 talks about the New Jersey order.

11:52 20 THE COURT: Correct. It's fine. You're going to give 21 him the predicate for him to make a determination whether this 22 statement was a truthful statement or not as well, correct?

23 MS. JOHNSON: Exactly.

24 MR. HYMAN: Can we have a sidebar, please?

11:52 25 THE COURT: No. You're not going to have a sidebar.

1 There is absolutely no need. This is a very straightforward
2 evidentiary issue. We've ruled. Okay? We've ruled.

3 MR. HYMAN: Can I please state my objection for the
4 record?

11:52 5 THE COURT: You can state it when we're on recess.
6 I'll give access to the record. You made enough of a record
7 already. Okay?

8 Let's go ahead and play it, please.

9 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, there's a side issue with the 11:53 10 undercover's name.

11 THE COURT: Well, I would expect that anything
12 regarding that is going to be redacted or not appearing in that 13 section.

14 MR. HYMAN: The transcript, Your Honor, is still on 11:53 15 the screen.

16 MS. JOHNSON: The witness has this part of the 17 transcript, so I'm not going to publish it because it still has 18 the undercover's alias.

19 THE COURT: I don't see anything -- I don't see a
11:53 20 transcript on the screen anymore.

21 MS. JOHNSON: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Give us one second, Mr. Bouchard. We're
23 going to try to put this up so that you can see it. Okay?

24 THE WITNESS: Okay.

11:54 25 IT TECHNICIAN: I don't know why the sound isn't

1 coming through. Maybe it's because it's muted, possibly.

2 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, maybe we can unmute
3 Mr. Robinson's.

4 THE COURT: Let see if I can control that and see if 11:54 5 maybe that's what's happening.

6 MS. JOHNSON: One second, Mr. Bouchard.

7 THE COURT: I don't see him muted. Is there anything
8 preventing an exhibit that has already been admitted into 9 evidence from being read by counsel to the witness? I
11:55 10 understand you'd like the effect of playing the audio, but if 11 it has been admitted and you're reading it verbatim and 12 eliminating any information in there not for completeness
13 purposes but for undercover purposes, I don't know why we 14 couldn't just read a line and page and statement and see if he
11:55 15 confirms that that's accurate. I don't know. I understand 16 we'd like to play the audio, but we can figure this out without 17 the audio.

18 MS. JOHNSON: We'll do that.

19 THE COURT: Yeah. You have a copy of the transcript.
11:56 20 Mr. Bouchard, I'm expect the SEC's counsel will be 21 reading in some transcript lines and if you listen carefully,
22 this has been admitted into evidence as testimony earlier in 23 the trial. And then you can go ahead and confirm that. It
24 might be easier, since I don't believe you can put the 11:56 25 transcript on the screen without disclosing information at this

1 point. So I think this the easiest thing to do.

2 THE WITNESS: I understand.

3 THE COURT: Yeah. Okay.

4 MS. BERLIN: We have figured it out, Your Honor.

11:56 5 THE COURT: Okay. It looks like they're going to be 6 able to play it, Mr. Bouchard, so let's see if it works. Okay?

7 MS. BERLIN: We'll just use the transcript,
8 Your Honor.

9 MS. JOHNSON: Okay, thanks.

11:57 10 BY MS. JOHNSON:

11 Q. All right. I'm going to read to you from a transcript
12 that's been previously entered into evidence.

13 So Mr. Furman says: And so I like that the state
14 actually fined them, to be honest with you, because then 11:57 15 New Jersey came out -- well, New Jersey fined them because they 16 sat there watching them. And I'm like, well, I like that 17 people would be watched because that way, you know, a lot of 18 money.

19 And then the agent says: Because it's eating into 11:57 20 your money.

21 And Mr. Furman says: Exactly.

22 Agent. Yeah.

23 And Mr. Furman says: That's a lot of money, but I
24 want them to be watched in a good way. So, you know, make sure
11:57 25 everything is running smoothly.

1 The agent says: Right. Exactly.

2 And Mr. Furman says: So the state has their eye on
3 them. They actually backed off and said: Everything is --

4 And then the agent says: Especially if it's a product
11:58 5 that not everyone understands, you know.

6 Mr. Furman: Exactly.

7 Agent. Yeah.

8 Mr. Furman. Yeah. They see the fine from 9 Pennsylvania and go, We don't like that. I'm like, well, look,
11:58 10 New Jersey came in and fined them. And then they said: You're 11 doing it right. And all of your books are good and we love it.
12 We went through them, you know. They retracted it. And said
13 you're good. We're not, you know, you don't have any fines,
14 you don't have any penalties, nothing.

11:58 15 Was Mr. Furman's statements about what New Jersey did
16 that I just read to you correct?

17 A. Not at all.

18 Q. They're false?

19 MR. HYMAN: Objection, calls for a legal conclusion.

11:58 20 THE COURT: Does not call for a legal conclusion. It
21 calls for a common sense, human conclusion. That's overruled.

22 BY MS. JOHNSON:

23 Q. Do you want to then answer that, Mr. Bouchard?

24 THE COURT: You may answer, Mr. Bouchard. Were those 11:59 25 statements false was the question.

1 A. They were false.

2 MS. JOHNSON: That's all I have, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. All right, Mr. Bouchard, we're

4 going to do a cross-examination now, so hang in here with us.

11:59 5 We'll turn it over to counsel for Mr. Furman.

6 You may proceed when you're ready.

7

8

CROSS EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. HYMAN:

11:59 10 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Bouchard. How is the weather up in 11 New Jersey?

12 A. Cold.

13 Q. Always is.

14 So in the cease and desist order, could you please

11:59 15 look at paragraph 24. Do you mind reading that to the jury
16 whenever you see it?

17 A. Okay. Read it?

18 Q. Yes, please.

19 A. Nothing in its order shall preclude Complete Business

11:59 20 Solutions Group from paying interest and/or principal to the 21 owners of the CBSG securities pursuant to the terms of the CBSG
22 securities.

23 Q. So what does that paragraph mean?

24 A. It means that CBSG can continue to pay interest on and 12:00 25 principal on the notes pursuant to their existing terms.

1 Q. And isn't it true that so long as CBSG stayed in compliance
2 with that order it could continue to operate in the State of
3 New Jersey?

4 A. No. There are other matters -- other things that they
12:00 5 would have to do to be able to continue to sell. This only
6 allows for them to continue to service the existing obligations
7 that they sold.

8 Q. And what they had to do -- isn't it true that what they had 9 to do to be able to sell was set forth in the order?

12:00 10 A. Yes. Either register or properly comply with an exemption
11 from registration.

12 Q. So then earlier when you said if they complied with the 13 order, they could not break New Jersey, that wasn't accurate,
14 was it?

12:01 15 A. I don't understand the question.

16 Q. Earlier you testified that if CBSG complied with the order
17 it couldn't comply with the -- or it couldn't operate in 18 New Jersey.

19 Do you recall that testimony, sir?

12:01 20 A. I don't believe I ever used those exact words.

21 Q. But you're using those words because you're here to assist
22 the SEC, aren't you?

23 A. I'm here to give truthful testimony about the Bureau of 24 Securities' actions in this matter.

12:01 25 Q. And how many times before today did you meet with the SEC?

1 A. I think briefly one day last week. Other than to --
2 additional communications just to coordinate this appearance.

3 Q. And has the New Jersey Division of Consumer -- or taking 4 back to the cease and desist, does that have any impact of 12:02 5 CBSG's ability to operate in states outside of New Jersey?

6 A. No.

7 Q. And has the division had any communications with
8 Mr. Furman?

9 A. No.

12:02 10 Q. Has the division had any communications with Fidelis about 11 this cease and desist order?

12 A. I'm aware of that name. I believe it's the business
13 through which Mr. Furman operates, but we've never had 14 communications with him.

12:02 15 Q. And the only reason why you know about Mr. Furman's
16 existence is because of the SEC, right?

17 A. I think I first -- I'm not sure I can answer that question
18 without sharing confidential, investigative, or delivered it
19 (audio distortion) processed information, which is --

12:03 20 Q. But you can testify about --

21 A. The simple answer is, no, that's not the first time I've 22 heard of Fidelis.

23 Q. Okay. And in connection with the cease and desist order,
24 isn't it true that the State of New Jersey reviewed the books
12:03 25 and records of Par Funding, a/k/a CBSG?

1 THE COURT: We're not able to hear. I think, Counsel,
2 you're speaking but we cannot hear you very clearly. Let me go
3 ahead and attempt to -- I think you were going to go ahead and
4 weigh in on his ability to answer. Did you want to say
12:03 5 something?

6 Speak up a lot because you're very, very faint. I can
7 barely hear you.

8 MR. SHOWELL: That's correct. I would like to object
9 on the basis of the protection the legally of Bureau of
10 Securities --

11 THE COURT: You're super --

12 MS. JOHNSON: I think I know where he's going.

13 THE COURT: No, no. I know where he's going. I need
14 a record.

12:04 15 The objection -- I understand -- I can make out what 16 you're saying, Counsel, that there's an objection pursuant to 17 statute regarding the ongoing investigation. I just want to be 18 sure I can get it heard on the record. I don't know if the 19 audio is just too far away from where you are. Can you try to 12:04 20 maybe do your best to speak into whatever microphone as loud as 21 you can, just so I can preserve your objection?

22 MR. SHOWELL: Your Honor, I will do that.

23 MR. HYMAN: I think the SEC has also lodged the 24 objection for them and, Your Honor, the response is that the 12:04 25 SEC has opened the door by asking them questions about the

1 statements to Par Funding, and he answered questions about
2 that.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead, sir. You wanted to make
4 your objection as counsel. Go ahead.

12:04 5 MR. SHOWELL: Yes, Your Honor, by statute, the 6 investigations that are conducted by the New Jersey Bureau of 7 Securities are private and also confidential as a matter of 8 law. Accordingly, Mr. Bouchard is unable to answer questions
9 about specific investigative steps that may or may not have 12:05 10 been taken during the course of the Bureau's investigation of 11 Par Funding, and I'm going to direct this Mr. Bouchard not 12 answer the questions relating to investigative processes,
13 procedures, (inaud.) methods, et cetera.

14 THE COURT: Understood. The Court's going to go ahead
12:05 15 and sustain that objection that you have made and has been also 16 raised by the SEC. So we can move on to the next question.

17 MR. HYMAN: So you can answer questions about what you
18 said when the SEC asks them to you, but you can't answer them
19 when we do, correct?

12:05 20 THE COURT: I think, first of all, that's not a
21 question and an inappropriate one also. So I think we are 22 going to strike and disregard that. There's a big difference
23 between asking generalized questions as to the preliminary
24 basis for this investigation and getting into details that 12:05 25 would run afoul of the law and existing statutes for privilege.

1 Do you have any other questions of merit?

2 MR. HYMAN: Not at this time, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Yeah, grab a seat.

4 Let's go ahead and have you guys come on up, please,
12:06 5 and have you come in on redirect.

6 I would again ask the members of the jury to disregard
7 any statement regarding privilege on an ongoing investigation
8 being used as a sword and a shield by the SEC. The Court can 9 permit some questions for background, but we cannot jeopardize
12:06 10 an ongoing investigation. So you're going to disregard that 11 last statement by counsel.

12 Go ahead.

13

14 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

12:06 15 BY MS. JOHNSON:

16 Q. Mr. Bouchard, are you here under a subpoena that was sent 17 to your agency by the SEC?

18 A. Yes, I am. It was actually issued to me personally.

19 Q. I imagine there's places you would rather be than 12:06 20 testifying here today.

21 MS. JOHNSON: That's all I have, Your Honor.

22 THE WITNESS: Part of the job.

23 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, does
24 anybody have a question for Mr. Bouchard before I excuse him?

12:06 25 Okay. Mr. Bouchard and Counsel, you're both free to

1 disconnect at this time. Thank you very much for being with us
2 here this morning.

3 MR. SHOWELL: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: You're welcome. All right.

12:07 5 With that being said, it's about 12:10 and we're 6 through three witnesses of the six that we're still aiming for;
7 is that correct, Ms. Berlin?

8 MS. BERLIN: That's right. We're right on time.

9 THE COURT: So ladies and gentlemen of the jury, we're 12:07 10 going to go ahead and take a recess now for lunch. I'm going
11 to give you guys until 2 o'clock. You are going to have a
12 little more time, about an hour and 45 because I'm conducting a 13 completely unrelated criminal proceeding at 1:30 in the 14 courtroom. So I don't want to waste you guys -- your time, and 12:07 15 have you rush back from lunch because we will have until about 16 2 o'clock. I expect that I'll be done with my proceeding
17 within 20 minutes.

18 Now, when you guys go to lunch, of course I've already
19 double checked, by the way, the restroom should be fixed. So
12:07 20 everything should be working in the jury room. You can go
21 ahead and use them. And that way you guys don't run afoul of 22 bumping into any of the lawyers.

23 Make sure that you leave your notepads in your jury
24 room, and if you should see a lawyer at a lunch establishment
12:08 25 and they avoid you, take no offense from that. Let me again

1 remind you all not to speak with anyone about the case, whether
2 family, friends, social media or with one another. So with
3 being said, everyone have a good lunch break. We're about
4 halfway done with the testimony of the day. We'll see you
12:08 5 around 2 o'clock in the jury room. You're excused.

6 THE JURY: Jury out.

7 THE COURT: What is the line up again this afternoon
8 so that I know the last three witnesses? I just want to make
9 sure that I have my list right.

12:09 10 MS. BERLIN: Absolutely. So we are going to have 11 investor Frank Nash live.

12 THE COURT: Nash. Live, okay.

13 MS. BERLIN: Then by Zoom, we're going to do Victoria
14 Villarose. She can go at that time instead of Wendy Furman.
12:09 15 And then Alexis Abbonizio will be last.

16 THE COURT: So are we going to call Furman, Wendy
17 Furman?

18 MS. BERLIN: Of no relation, by the way.

19 THE COURT: Yeah, I know. It's a compound name.

12:09 20 MS. BERLIN: It's actually not. Lyday was like her
21 ex-husband's name. So she hasn't been Lyday in a very, very 22 long time. Her legal name is Furman. We're going to try to do
23 everything through Ms. Villarose. That's my plan. We're not 24 going to call her.

12:10 25 We're going to try to do it all through Ms. Villarose,

1 and that would be our -- that would be it. Those would be the
2 six witnesses. Then we would turn to that Fifth Amendment
3 issue on the request for admission and then take up Mr. Furman
4 in the morning. We haven't gotten -- we checked. We haven't 12:10 5 seen that e-mail where we were supposed to be given the 6 password.

7 THE COURT: So let me make sure my list is right. We
8 have Nash live and then Villarose and Abbonizio both on Zoom.

9 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor.

12:10 10 THE COURT: So that will take care of it. That sets
11 us up for having our one investor, who I know is recovering,
12 and Mr. Furman to be the last two witnesses for tomorrow,
13 right?

14 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

12:10 15 THE COURT: So the issues, then -- I think we'll
16 probably have enough time to address any Fifth Amendment
17 arguments and all that this afternoon with Mr. Furman when 18 we're done with Alexis Abbonizio. So I don't want to do that 19 now, but as you just stated, if I could have any e-mails or 12:11 20 communications that were referenced by Mr. John earlier
21 regarding production and discovery, have those been --

22 You just stated, Ms. Berlin, that those were sent to 23 you or they were not? I want to be sure.

24 MS. BERLIN: No. We have not received them unless 12:11 25 they're stuck --

1 MR. HYMAN: When we get internet access, we'll address
2 that issue. We also sent the e-mail from the receiver stating
3 that the SEC had a forensic copy of all of Mr. Furman's e-mails
4 over the weekend, but -- yes, we did.

12:11 5 MS. BERLIN: We see Mr. Kolaya.

6 THE COURT: I'm looking at my counsel for my receiver
7 who is -- does not appear to agree with that statement either.

8 MR. HYMAN: It was --

9 THE COURT: You know what you need to do, before you
12:11 10 throw stuff on the record, you need to take the next two hours
11 and have a very solid sit-down with your records, the SEC and 12 receiver's counsel because we don't want to get into a back and 13 forth over this. We have to make sure we have these things
14 because I'm going to ask for them and you're going to have to 12:12 15 show them to me. So make sure that all the things you think
16 were exchanged were. I don't want to have any mistakes here.

17 So I'm going to go ahead and let you guys have your 18 break. You have to meet and confer to figure this out. To the 19 extent that it has any relevancy on what could be admitted
12:12 20 later, we will discuss that, but first I'd like to see what it
21 is you guys purport to have that the SEC has not seen or the 22 receiver's counsel as an option.

23 MR. HYMAN: As it relates to the Fifth Amendment, I
24 understand the SEC's position. Our view is at least that when 12:12 25 they are going to be calling Mr. Furman to testify, which they

1 plan to do, to the extent that they wish to ask him any
2 questions, they can't use the Fifth Amendment as both a sword
3 and a shield.

4 THE COURT: Let me explain to you what the 12:12 5 Fifth Amendment issue is so I can streamline it. The issue is 6 they have provided -- as far as I can tell, they have given you
7 guys essentially areas of inquiry that they believe where the 8 door was opened in his deposition. That are fair game because 9 he didn't use the Fifth on those.

12:12 10 MS. BERLIN: I did the other way around.

11 THE COURT: That works to. That might be actually
12 easier.

13 MS. BERLIN: I thought it was.

14 THE COURT: So you've given him arenas where you have 12:12 15 essentially said: We understand they're off limits, we 16 understand they're protected by the Fifth. So the key now is I
17 need the defense team for Furman to look at the SEC's list, and 18 if there is an arena that is not listed on that list that you
19 believe or not included on the list that you believe is 12:13 20 protected by the Fifth Amendment, we have got to let Ms. Berlin 21 know so that tomorrow she doesn't wade into an area where we 22 have to see Mr. Furman stuck with the Fifth in front of the 23 jury. We're trying to avoid putting him in bad spot. I think 24 this is perfect, but you got to look at what she said that she 25 prepared.

1 I think you already transmitted it to them?

2 MS. BERLIN: I sent it last week. It's the list for
3 request for admissions. I highlighted in a yellow each of the 4 things that we did not touch upon in the deposition.

12:13 5 THE COURT: You mentioned that last week.

6 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

7 MR. HYMAN: (Cross-talk) -- specific line and page
8 cites to the deposition to show that they actually, in fact,
9 had touched upon those issues in the deposition. The other 12:13 10 issue as well, as it relates to an adverse inference is in our 11 view, where the SEC similarly refused to testify by testimony
12 about a particular area of inquiry as well, that it's not 13 reasonable to also kind of hold Mr. Furman or prevent him from 14 answering questions about it.

12:14 15 And for purposes of clarity, we're willing to allow 16 Mr. Furman to testify about any area of inquiry today at trial
17 that the SEC wishes to ask him about. It's just to the extent
18 that there may be alleged prejudice the SEC argues, but to us,
19 if they want to ask any questions, he's not going to plead the 12:14 20 Fifth in response to any questions asked by the SEC.

21 THE COURT: Hold on. Because we have dealt with this 22 argument, and I'm not supposed to be wasting time with this 23 now. This was supposed to be done after my next three 24 witnesses. But just so I fully understand, we're not going to 12:14 25 permit at this stage of the game, like we argued last week, for

1 there now to be a decision to weigh the Fifth Amendment as to
2 all arenas to avoid the repercussions of invoking it earlier in 3 the case so as to stall out or prevent certain things from 4 being discovered or revealed in advance of trial.

12:14 5 That is exactly what I've ruled on already. That is
6 prevented. Honestly, that be would the use of the Fifth as a
7 sword and a shield and now opening up the door to areas that he
8 was not willing to answer and that were avoided by him invoking
9 the Fifth through sequestered admissions which formed the basis
12:15 10 of designing the contours of the scope of the deposition.

11 So that's not going to happen. So what's going to 12 happen now is he's going to live by his invocation of the 13 Fifth, and we will debate the adverse inference issue after 14 everyone has put on their cases.

12:15 15 But for purposes of tomorrow, what's going to happen
16 now is their areas, that because he invoked the Fifth in the 17 RFA, the SEC didn't ask about it at depo and wants to make sure
18 does not touch on them on his examination so that he doesn't
19 look like he's dodging questions to his detriment on the stand.

12:15 20 So I need you guys to look at whatever it is that the 21 SEC has provided and confirm that these are arenas that you
22 guys have, previous to the trial, invoked the Fifth and that 23 were not covered in the depo. The easy thing to do is look at 24 it and see, did you talk about it in the depo. If you believe 12:16 25 that Ms. Berlin put something on there that was covered in the

1 depo, let her know, because then you're saying that was never
2 an area we sought the Fifth Amendment protection on. That's
3 all we need to do with that list. Because she's going to stay
4 away from those areas. That's all she's going to do.

12:16 5 MR. HYMAN: With the exception of one modification or 6 response, we have already responded to that with specific
7 deposition citations to the SEC.

8 MS. BERLIN: That's great to hear. We didn't get it.
9 So it sounds like we should have a discussion. Let's have a
12:16 10 talk. We'll talk.

11 THE COURT: There has been a response.

12 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talk) I didn't see it. So we'll 13 talk to them and --

14 THE COURT: Go ahead and take a look at that. Because 12:16 15 I guess what they've done is they have pointed out areas where 16 they do believe some of these thing -- the door was opened on 17 some of these. And that way you'll be able to modify your 18 areas of inquiry.

19 So I will endeavor to get through these witnesses
12:16 20 starting at 2:00 then I'll probably -- if you haven't met and 21 conferred by then, I'll take a little break at that point after 22 Abbonizio to let you guys meet and confer before I come out and 23 we make any final rulings that will shape Furman's testimony
24 for tomorrow.

12:17 25 MS. BERLIN: That sounds really good. Yeah, I think

1 it's going to be definitely some sort of hearing, because I
2 imagine, based on the discussions that we've had within the
3 last 24 hours in this courtroom, that there's going to be a
4 very big difference of opinion on whether a question in a
12:17 5 request for admission touches upon, is the phrase they use,
6 something in a deposition. It has to be more than "touching
7 upon." It has to be actually inquired about and testified
8 about. But we will confer with them so we come to this Court
9 having narrowed the issues, Your Honor.

12:17 10 THE COURT: And give me a copy, if you could, of 11 whatever it is you exchanged for areas of inquiry.

12 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Might want to also have -- make sure I
14 have -- and I probably already have one from your paralegal, a
12:17 15 copy of the deposition, so I can cross-reference it. I'm going 16 to need a copy of the request for admissions. You might as 17 well prepare this for me so I have it ready.

18 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

19 THE COURT: So it will be a copy of the depo, a copy
12:17 20 of a request for admissions, and a copy of whatever the defense
21 response has been with the line and page numbers to the areas
22 of inquiry you sent. If I have those things, I can make 23 rulings on --

24 MR. HYMAN: And just for purposes of preserving the 12:18 25 record, we'd also like to reiterate that the SEC, in our view,

1 did misrepresent the nature of the questioning of Mr. Furman to
2 the Court when it said they're tiptoeing around the Fifth, but
3 obviously I know Your Honor's view and you're not willing to 4 readdress that issue.

12:18 5 THE COURT: Well, I think I've heard it maybe four or
6 five times. The Court doesn't pay for the same real estate
7 that many times. Okay. So I think we've covered it.

8 We'll go ahead and see everybody back here at 9 2 o'clock. Make sure you clear the tables for my sentencing at 12:18 10 1:30.

11 MS. BERLIN: One quick question, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MS. BERLIN: It's been about three hours since they 14 brought up this e-mail where they sent me the password and 12:18 15 we're still waiting on that. Can we just get a deadline for 16 it?

17 MR. HYMAN: We don't have internet access.

18 THE COURT: You've got plenty. You've been checking
19 your phone the whole time. You can send an e-mail if you want
12:18 20 to send it. Go outside. Send it now before you go to lunch.
21 Send it now. If you're going to make a representation like
22 that, you have to send that e-mail so I can get to the bottom
23 of it. We're in recess.

24 (Thereupon, a luncheon recess was taken.)

THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Okay. So we are back on record in SEC versus Furman. We are planning on having Mr. Nash next, and then, as we discussed, Ms. Villarose and Mr. Abbonizio via Zoom after. Anything related to these witnesses I'm going to call now, so I can kind of get these witnesses on the stand and let my jury listen, and then ultimately we have other things I'm sure we'll have to deal with but we can do it after the witnesses.

Anything pressing for these witnesses?

MS. BERLIN: No, Your Honor. There's nothing pressing at all. We have -- Mr. Nash is live. As you know, the other two are by Zoom.

THE COURT: Right.

MS. BERLIN: We've asked everybody to let us know, like, the phone number and to do the hand raise.

THE COURT: Perfect.

MS. BERLIN: So we can find them, if that's okay.

THE COURT: Yeah, that's the best way to do it. Yeah. If not they're, like, buried in a crowd in Zoom.

MS. BERLIN: Yeah, it's a little unusual. So I think we're ready. Mr. Nash is here and ready to go.

THE COURT: Okay. Great. Defense ready to go? So you can get Mr. Nash on there.

MR. JOHN: Yes, Your Honor.

1 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

2 THE COURT: Please be seated, everyone. Were we able
3 to get you guys some coffee, if you needed it? Yes? Okay,
4 great. With that being said, we're going to turn it over to 02:33 5 the SEC so they can call their next witness.

6 MS. JOHNSON: Hi. The SEC calls Frank Nash.

7 THE COURT: All right. Let's get Mr. Nash.
8 We're going to swear you in. And if you are fully 9 vaccinated, when you take a seat on the stand you can take off
02:34 10 your mask.

11 Thereupon,

12 FRANK NASH,
13 having been duly sworn by the court reporter, testified as 14 follows:

02:35 15

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Nash.

19 A. Good afternoon.

02:35 20 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, too.

21 Q. I wonder if you could just briefly tell the jury your 22 educational and work experience.

23 A. Well, thank you. I'll give you the Reader's Digest
24 version. I grew up in Miami, born and raised here. Went to 02:35 25 school -- went to college during the Vietnam war, and I was

1 getting my degree in geology and got that. And then I started
2 with FIU in '72. And '72 was an important year because I had
3 jobs before that cutting grass, security guard, non-union
4 construction work, delivering pizzas on my (inaud.).

02:36 5 Actually, here in Fort Lauderdale I did Bell Electric
6 air conditioning.

7 In '72 my wife changed and got hired by Eastern
8 Airlines to be a cleaner from midnight to 8 on big L-1011s.
9 They were brand new, big jumbo jet. And I went in the cockpit
02:36 10 one night and I go, this looks more exciting than rocks. Then 11 I met a pilot one day. He came out and I asked him, how are we 12 doing? And he said, you've got to go in the military.

13 So I quit FIU and I went to the University of Miami
14 ROTC, because I was going to be in Vietnam. I'd rather be in 02:36 15 an F-4 than in a rice paddy. No disrespect to our ground
16 people.

17 At which point, I stayed at Eastern for 17 years,
18 sweeping floors and scrubbing toilets, went into the Air Force
19 Reserves, flying super sonic jets. Now, I got to fly for 02:37 20 Eastern, and that lasted 17 years.

21 And then they went out of business in '89, bankruptcy.
22 I got on with American Airlines, started all the way down as an
23 engineer co-pilot back to captain, and that lasted about 26
24 years.

02:37 25 After 9/11, I lost my captain job. I had to go back

1 and be a co-pilot. After 9/11, we also had to be trained in
2 hand-to-hand combat for a future hijacking. I was not very
3 good at hand-to-hand. In fact, my 12-year-old daughter knocked
4 me off my feet with my hand-to-hand that they taught me. So I
02:37 5 put in for being an air marshal. Took over a year of 6 background checks, security checks, because they were going to 7 give me a pistol to go in my cockpit to protect my airline, my
8 crew, and my passengers. And they wanted to make sure I was a
9 pretty stable person. And so I did that training.

02:37 10 And, you know, American came along and I did that.
11 And then I ended up getting some medical issues. I retired
12 early and I've been home ever since.

13 Q. So you were -- started out cleaning the airplanes and then 14 when you retired you were the person in the cockpit who was the 02:38 15 pilot and also the air marshal?

16 A. Exactly. I was an international captain for American. And 17 I carried my gun. My jurisdiction was only my airplane. If I
18 was going down 95 and I saw people shooting stuff, I was not 19 legally allowed to use my badge or my weapon. So I had the 02:38 20 smallest little jurisdiction, was basically the footprint of an 21 airplane. But I took pride in it and it was a nice chapter. I
22 had a lot of good chapters. Some short, some long. It's just 23 how life is.

24 Q. And in what year did you retire from American?

02:38 25 A. I officially retired -- I'm trying to do the math real

1 quick because -- it must have been '16. You could fly
2 originally for 60. I was born in '51, so that would be 2011,
3 65 they moved up to there, so yeah, 2016.

4 Q. And at a certain point, did you come to know Michael
5 Furman?

6 A. I did. I had seen an ad on TV and I called and they
7 referred me to Michael Furman. And I had a pretty nice
8 investment account, my IRA money and my 401(k) was a big sum of 9 x-amount of dollars. I don't know if you all need to know or 02:39 10 not. But it was large.

11 So I met Michael Furman. He saw the -- you want me to 12 keep going on with that a little bit?

13 Q. Go ahead. Yeah. Sure.

14 A. I met Michael Furman at a big, beautiful penthouse office.
02:39 15 Plaques, letters, certificates. It looked pretty nice and 16 format.

17 He looked at a spreadsheet that I had from another
18 financial planner for 20-plus years. And he said: Oh, no, I
19 can do better than this. I can do better here. So being a
02:40 20 pilot -- I will admit, being a military pilot you trust your 21 wing man, he trusts you or you die. In the airlines, you trust
22 your captain or you trust your co-pilot or you're going to be a
23 second behind when you hit a mountain.

24 So I've been in 44 years of trusting people with my 02:40 25 life and them trusting me with their lives. And I guess I put

1 that same trust in Michael Furman. I believe when he was
2 telling me about this paperwork I had that wasn't quite so
3 good, and that he could do better for me. I trusted him at a
4 chance to take my funds and invest them in his way of doing
02:40 5 investing.

6 Q. And at a certain point in time did you come to learn about
7 an investment in Par Funding?

8 A. I did. I was pretty much --

9 MR. HYMAN: Objection, misstates the testimony.

02:40 10 THE COURT: Overruled.

11 Go ahead.

12 A. Yeah. In the very beginning, he saw what I had. I had a
13 annuities, I had bonds, I had stocks. I was well diversified 14 from this other investor for 20 years.

02:41 15 He said: I've got better products for you that you
16 won't have to lose something in the market that goes up and 17 down.

18 It actually turned out to be annuities, and I had 19 heard about them. But we got started investing in that. And 02:41 20 then he had all these ads here how you could earn 14, 15
21 percent on your money.

22 And so he was pointing it out, and asked him, I said:
23 So what's that all about?

24 And he said: Oh, these are some really safe, secure
02:41 25 investments that I have. My friends and other relatives have

1 and it's a one-year, you put your money up, and after that you
2 get all your money back and you get nice interest, safe and 3 secure.

4 And I said: Maybe we'll do that.

02:41 5 So I figured he would not do something to my 6 retirement money that was risky or not, because when you're in 7 this age, 70-plus years old, you're supposed to be careful with 8 your retirement money, and I was trusting Michael to be careful
9 with my retirement money.

02:42 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. And did Mr. Furman tell you about the Par Funding
12 investment? Did he describe it to you?

13 A. He described it that it was a group of people up in 14 Philadelphia area. You know, it was a family run business for 02:42 15 a while. Now they're starting to let other investors from 16 outside their family come in and invest, and it was short-term
17 business loans.

18 One example was, say, for instance, a company has an 19 opportunity to put on some roads and they need some extra
02:42 20 equipment, and the traditional bank will take months to get the 21 loan approved, but he needs to start right away to get this 22 extra contract. So they would get the loan through this 23 Par Funding group and they could close the loan in as little as 24 one or two days, and that they could get their money and we got 02:42 25 extra money because they were paying more interest. But they

1 were going to have a bigger paycheck sooner, quicker than if
2 they had to wait for banks. And it seemed like a logical
3 investment.

4 Q. Did Mr. Furman -- in discussions with you about 02:43 5 Par Funding, did he ever discuss with you, like, whether he
6 personally had any sort of connection to Par Funding?

7 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

8 THE COURT: Overruled.

9 A. He acted -- or he portrayed to me -- I was even invited to 02:43 10 go to Philadelphia with him and meet the owners of Par Funding,
11 see their building, see their operation. They've gone and 12 fact-checked these people who would have borrowed money to make 13 sure they -- (inaud.) that someone with money in Texas, there's 14 a big trucking company. But when the fact checkers went out
02:43 15 there, it was an empty building and it was just a deserted
16 place.

17 So they said, we wouldn't invest our money there and 18 possibly lose your money, your investment.

19 And I said, oh, that sounds good.

02:43 20 And at that point also, he was good friends with these 21 people because he would fly up there. I was invited to go with 22 him on a couple of different occasions to actually meet -- and 23 my schedule -- I just -- after retiring from airplanes, I like
24 to stay home at this point in my life. But it seemed like 02:44 25 everything was very legitimate, up front, that he knew the

1 owner very well or the owners, and that I had no cares or
2 worries. And again, I, now in retrospect, kind of wish I went
3 up there. I don't know if that would help me or not. Now I'm 4 looking in the rear-view mirror.

02:44 5 Q. So did you understand from your conversations with 6 Mr. Furman that Par Funding had any sort of representative in 7 South Florida?

8 MR. HYMAN: Objection to form, leading.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

02:44 10 A. The South Florida -- because when I first called to 11 JD Mellberg, Michael Furman was supposed to be their top agent,
12 and when it came down to Par Funding, Michael says, I'm the 13 only one you can get this -- these offerings from. You can't 14 go back to your old guy, you can't go to Chase Bank, you can't 02:45 15 go to -- not JD Mellberg -- Raymond James or something. It was 16 a product that only he had to offer us, and that only select 17 people could actually get it. You had to have lots of money,
18 you know.

19 And I said: Well, you know, I've got my retirement
02:45 20 account. There's a lot of money there. It's nearly a million
21 dollars. So I mean, that was my life savings, you know, I was 22 hoping to live on. So I was feeling secure about what he was 23 telling me about Par Funding, that his mother has it, that 24 other people that I knew, my tax guy has it. So it didn't seem 02:45 25 like it was anything to worry about.

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. Did Mr. -- or did you have any understanding or did
3 Mr. Furman ever represent to you whether or not he worked with 4 or for Par Funding?

02:45 5 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound, relevance.

6 THE COURT: Overruled.

7 You may answer.

8 A. Actually, he did. He was saying that he was our, like,
9 main man, especially for South Florida. And that there were a
02:46 10 few other people, I guess scattered around the country, but he 11 had basically all of Florida. That was his domain or district.
12 Like when you're given a territory.

13 Let me think what it's called. I guess territory or 14 district. I mean, it's like, say, for instance, you know, you
02:46 15 can only buy -- I don't know. My expertise is flying jets and 16 stuff like that. So the financial stuff -- I guess territory
17 would be the best way, if that makes sense to you all.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. And you were giving -- you testified a few minutes ago
02:46 20 about this example of going out to a location for a merchant to 21 see if the Par Funding would go and physically visit a merchant
22 to see if the business was intact.

23 Who told you about that?

24 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound.

02:47 25 THE COURT: "Who told you about that" is not leading.

1 MR. HYMAN: It was the first part. She led up to it.
2 Do you recall talking about all of these things and --

3 THE COURT: The question is: Who told you about it?
4 So that's overruled.

02:47 5 A. Michael Furman told me about it. He told me that they had 6 a very low uncollectable rate, that their loans were like 1 or 7 2 percent that defaulted. And that sounded pretty good. He 8 said -- because he would go out and preexamine the area first.

9 Say for instance, I have a farming business and I need
02:47 10 some new equipment for my trees or something like that. So
11 that group, whoever they -- the Par Funding group, they had --
12 people that would go out and check these businesses or these 13 individuals or these -- there are customers to ensure that they 14 would be able to pay their debts and that the loans would not
02:48 15 go uncollected and that we as investors would have our money
16 and Par Funding as the lending company would have their money.

17 And yes, the rates might have been higher than what 18 some banks might have charged, although that's not my forte, is 19 it was going to give them their money a lot quicker than a bank
02:48 20 or lending institution, and they realized that (inaud.)
21 sometimes pay for quick loans. And I know when I got a
22 mortgage on my house, it took a long time. And I can only 23 imagine.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

02:48 25 Q. Did you ever attend any events that Mr. Furman hosted?

1 A. I went to one event. That event was in Palm Beach at 2 Ruth's Chris Steak House, and that evening it was raining a
3 lot. So we had to valet park. We couldn't park and walk
4 across.

02:49 5 And in there, there's a lot of different people,
6 investors like myself. I actually -- when I -- he had already
7 invested my money into my -- retirement money into a
8 Par Funding account, I had just recently sold my mother's 9 estate down in Kendall where I grew up. It was on an acre and 02:49 10 a quarter, two bed, one bath house from 1951, and I had some 11 extra money and I was thinking maybe I'll put that into 12 Par Funding since -- you know, my retirement money.

13 And while I was in there, I met a gentleman from 14 Par Funding. Actually, there was a couple that were from 02:49 15 Philadelphia. And Michael said, Here, this is Frank. And I
16 told him I had some bad luck because I went through not one but 17 two divorces in my career. He said, Your money is safe with 18 us. What we pay, you'll make the money back that you lost in 19 your divorce -- which was an interesting temptation, I have to 02:50 20 admit -- and that everything is fine.

21 And I went there basically to get the free dinner
22 because I already had my money the first time in Par Funding,
23 but now I got to meet actually the owners, the people that were 24 running it. And they all seemed legitimate. They seemed like 02:50 25 businessmen and they're helping us other people out.

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. So at this event, at Ruth's Chris Steak House that
3 Mr. Furman hosted, am I correct in understanding that there
4 were -- you said there were owners there.

02:50 5 Owners of what company did you understand them to be?

6 A. The owners of Par Funding from Philly. They said they flew
7 in from Philly. Actually, the guy that did my income tax and 8 Emmanuel was there too, because he's part of that group of 9 Fidelis. And he was saying how great it is. And everyone
02:51 10 obviously - I guess if it was a way to raise money, they're not 11 going to say we're no good. So in retrospect -- but I felt 12 comfortable because they would look me in the eye and they 13 said, We have been doing this for several years, actually 14 decades.

02:51 15 And then they're just now -- like about two or three 16 years before I got in, they started letting the public come in,
17 that it was all before just family money, family, and it grew
18 bigger and bigger over the years and at which point they were 19 letting us street people, so to speak, sort of commoners, not a
02:51 20 family -- we were just regular investors.

21 Q. Did Mr. Furman ever tell you why you couldn't invest -- or 22 let me ask you another way.

23 Did you understand that you could invest in 24 Par Funding directly in instead of investing in Par Funding
02:51 25 through Mr. Furman?

1 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 A. I had to go through Michael Furman. He said he was the 4 only representative - that's what I was saying, that he has the 02:52 5 territory. He was the only one from Florida down to the Keys.
6 This was his territory. I couldn't go to Smith and Barney and 7 say I want to go into Par Funding. He was the only
8 representative from my understanding. And as I mentioned
9 before, a couple scattered around the country, one up in
02:52 10 Philadelphia and maybe someone out West, but those names I
11 can't recall exactly.

12 BY MS. BERLIN:

13 Q. Did you understand -- did you have an understanding of why
14 couldn't you just write a check directly to Par Funding or wire
02:52 15 money directly to Par Funding if that's what you were 16 ultimately investing in? Why did you need to go through
17 Mr. Furman?

18 A. Okay.

19 MR. HYMAN: Compound, leading. The questioner is 02:52 20 testifying there.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 A. The reason I couldn't wire it to Par Funding, Michael 23 Furman said at that time I was getting in with $300,000 per 24 entry. There was different graduations of 50 thousand, a
02:53 25 hundred thousand. The top is 500. At each time I had around

1 300 that I could invest. And he said I couldn't directly
2 invest because he has to pull it together. He doesn't give it
3 all at 300 thousand. He waits until he get a couple million or 4 5 million and we all go in like a little pie as an investor
02:53 5 group, although we'll get a separate account. They'll put down
6 in paper I have about $300,000, and I'll get X amount of 7 interest and paychecks. But the others -- he had to put at 8 least somewhere around 2 million. I don't remember exactly,
9 but it was like there had to be a group fund, and then he was
02:53 10 in charge of it.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. So was that -- I mean, was there just -- I'm trying to 13 understand -- correct me if I'm wrong -- am I understanding
14 correctly that you personally weren't investing enough for 02:53 15 Par Funding to accept, that it had to go with other investors?

16 A. It was going to be tied together to get a certain amount.
17 The exact dollar amount, I don't know if he told me the exact
18 number. But it had to be larger than -- but this guy and that 19 guy had some.

02:54 20 Q. So Mr. Furman explained to you that the only way for you to 21 invest to in Par Funding was if you gave your money to 22 Mr. Furman, he added it together with some other investors and 23 he sent up that larger amount to Par Funding; is that right?

24 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound.

02:54 25 THE COURT: Overruled.

1 A. That's what I understood and I almost think that's kind of
2 what I said before too.

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. I'm sorry. I couldn't hear that.

02:54 5 A. I kind of thought I mentioned that, kind of, yes. You
6 summed it better than I sometimes.

7 Q. I just want to make sure I understood correctly.

8 MS. BERLIN: I wonder, Your Honor, if I may approach
9 the witness. It's with a document -- an exhibit that's been 02:54 10 marked not admitted, P 483.

11 THE COURT: 483, yeah, you may approach.

12 BY MS. BERLIN:

13 Q. Does the document you've marked at P 483, does this look
14 familiar to you?

02:55 15 A. Yeah. I have one at home. This is what he gave me.

16 Q. So this is a copy of the -- where did you get this -- your 17 copy that you have at home, where did you get it?

18 A. Michael Furman's office.

19 Q. And --

02:55 20 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I think that we can seek to 21 introduce it at this point.

22 THE COURT: Not for the context, I'm assuming, not for 23 representations in there, simply to advance that was provided
24 this material to begin with.

02:55 25 MS. BERLIN: He was provided this material to begin

1 with and what he understood from what was written in it.

2 THE COURT: I'll allow that in, 483. Any objection?
3 This is the overview of Par Funding. Is there an objection for 4 the record?

02:55 5 MR. HYMAN: Hearsay, and also that the questioner did
6 not lay the predicate.

7 THE COURT: Like I just said, we're not using it for 8 that purpose for the truth of the contents. We'll admit that.

9 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

02:56 10 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. And do you have a copy? I also gave you the original
13 there.

14 A. This is what mine looks like. Obviously it was a copy.

02:56 15 Usually they say I talk to loud.

16 THE COURT: No, no. Louder is better.

17 A. You poor things.

18 No. I have one that is at home exactly. So --

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

02:56 20 Q. And that's identical to -- this is just a photocopy?

21 A. Yeah, no, I see that. I realize that.

22 Q. Okay. So P 483 is a marketing folder that you got from
23 Mr. Furman?

24 A. Yes. Yes, ma'am.

02:56 25 Q. And if you open it up --

1 MS. BERLIN: Can we go ahead and show it on the
2 screen? It's now been admitted.

3 BY MS. BERLIN:

4 Q. Mr. Nash, just give us one moment. We're just putting it
02:57 5 on the screen. All right. Can we turn to page 2, or if you
6 you're looking at -- why don't you look at the hard copy. It's 7 easier to read.

8 A. Thank you very much.

9 Q. And we see -- if we turn to pages 2 and 3 and it goes onto 02:58 10 4, and the original in yours is just a really long document
11 that we had to cut into three pieces.

12 Do you see it in the left-hand pocket?

13 A. Yes, ma'am.

14 Q. Can you take that out?

02:58 15 A. (Complies.)

16 Q. And what does it say in the top left is the name of this 17 document, this chart?

18 A. The AR change?

19 Q. Yeah. Do you see at the top where it says "CBSG funding
02:58 20 analysis"?

21 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, may I approach the witness?

22 THE COURT: Yeah, directing him to where you're 23 pointing.

24 A. I didn't have it open all the way. I really did fly jets.

02:58 25 Okay? I'm sorry.

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. Do you see in the upper left -- yeah, you have to open it;
3 it's a very big piece of paper -- that it says "CBSG funding
4 analysis"?

02:58 5 A. Yes, ma'am.

6 Q. And did Mr. Furman give you a chart like this, a funding
7 analysis?

8 A. Oh, yes, ma'am.

9 Q. And what was the -- what did Mr. Furman tell you about the 02:59 10 chart generally, if you recall?

11 A. That they -- basically, this is what they have been making
12 money with for all of these years and how those little -- so
13 little when they don't pay forfeitures, I guess or --

14 Q. Default?

02:59 15 A. Default. Thank you. And that my money was very safe and 16 secure and look, it's all been going like this for so many 17 years, that why wouldn't you get into it.

18 Q. Did Mr. Furman tell you that this chart, this CBSG funding
19 analysis, that it reflected the default rate of the merchant
02:59 20 cash advance loans?

21 A. Oh, yeah. That's why they were so low. I think it was 1.6
22 percent or something. It was very low.

23 Q. And did he use -- if you look at the chart in front of you,
24 do you see a column heading at the top that says "Exposure
03:00 25 Percentage"? It should have parentheses and written around it?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you see that exposure percentage?

3 A. Yes, ma'am, I do.

03:00 4 Q. And what number does it show, if you look all the way down
5 to the bottom?

6 A. Oh.

7 Q. Circled?

8 A. 1.4 percent.

03:00 9 Q. Did Mr. Furman tell you that this column, this exposure
10 percent column reflected the default rate?

11 A. Yes, it did. Not trying to brag, but I think I said --
12 when I just said before looking at it, 1.6. So I guess my 13 memory still serves me.

03:00 14 Q. Well, did you get a different one of these charts like 15 every month over time and they changed or did you only get one?

16 A. Only got the one.

17 Q. Oh, okay. So you got one from Mr. Furman when he was 18 introducing you to Par Funding?

19 A. Yeah, in the very first time.

03:00 20 Q. Okay. And this particular one we're looking at, it's 21 probably for an exhibit, this chart is through December 31st,
22 2019. Do you see that in the top left corner under CBSG
23 Funding Analysis?

24 A. To beg to differ, this one says 01 -- 01/01/13 to 12/31/18.

03:01 25 Q. Oh, 2018?

1 A. No disrespect. I thought I heard '19.

2 Q. Thanks for correcting me. So this one goes through
3 December 31st, 2018. Do you see that?

03:01 4 A. Yes. And what is good with this is, when I first started
5 with Michael Furman in August of 2018, that's when we first met
6 and I was first introduced to this. So I guess after I got 7 into this, I didn't need any further ones.

8 Q. In your -- in the brochure or in your discussions or the 9 dinner at Ruth's Chris, any of those places, did Mr. Furman 03:02 10 ever tell you that the owner or one of the managers of 11 Par Funding was a convicted felon?

12 A. Absolutely, positively never.

13 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound, by the way.

14 THE COURT: Overruled.

03:02 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. In any of these discussions at Ruth's Chris that you
17 testified about, or the one-on-one meetings or any other
18 communication with Mr. Furman or any brochure, anything at all,
19 did Mr. Furman ever tell you that Pennsylvania state regulators
03:02 20 had brought a case against Par Funding to cease and desist from 21 violating the state securities laws?

22 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound.

23 THE COURT: Overruled.

24 A. No, they did not. And I'm going to interject just for a 03:03 25 minute. And it will probably keep your counsel for trying to 1 overrule you.

2 When I got in with this, it seemed so nice, clear in
3 context, until August 2020, when I was in my house and I got a
4 call from the FBI asking me questions: Did you know that this 03:03 5 was with these -- about the -- oh, geez. About being a felon,
6 about -- in the Security Exchange (inaud.), and it was like
7 someone just punched me so hard that I saw my whole life almost
8 fade in front me. From my inheritance for my children, the way
9 I live for the rest of my life.

03:03 10 So I don't mean to say that, but I didn't want you
11 getting overruled, but that's the first time I knew about that 12 this was not good stuff.

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. Thank you, Mr. Nash. So you never knew about any state
03:04 15 agency bringing any case against Par Funding; is that fair to 16 say?

17 A. Absolutely. And if they did, I would not be here now
18 because I would never put my money in that. I'm a very law
19 abiding citizen. I'm with a military field grade officer for 03:04 20 20 years, retired pilot from the Air Force. I live my life
21 with dignity and pride. I don't do anything that would ever
22 jeopardize, and this is just -- like I said, it's been over a
23 year-and-a-half, and this is why I gained 50 pounds, and my 24 blood pressure is through the roof. This has basically
03:04 25 destroyed me. I'm sorry.

1 MS. BERLIN: Mr. Nash, thank you so much for driving
2 in today. I'm going to turn it now to defense counsel to ask
3 you some questions. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. Cross-examination?

03:05

CROSS EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. HYMAN:

8 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Nash.

9 A. Good afternoon.

03:05

Q. So you testified earlier that you spoke with a gentleman by 11 the name of Frank with Par Funding.

12

Do you recall his last name?

13

A. I don't recall exactly the last name. If I go home -- I
14 keep a little ledger. And I wouldn't say a diary, but I have 03:05 15 day planner to know when I've got a doctor's appointment, when 16 I've got an appointment with Michael Furman at his office, and 17 I probably have it written down in there. So I didn't bring it
18 because I didn't realize I might be asked that question.

19

If you'd like, I can go home, look at my ledger and 03:05 20 see what that gentleman's name. He reported to me -- or he 21 portrayed to me that he was the owner of Par Funding, and 22 another man or two was also with him. But again, names is one
23 of my -- I wouldn't say weakness, but it doesn't stick like in 24 some people.

03:06

25

Q. Got it. And do you recall telling Mr. Furman that you

1 ended up getting divorced because you had an affair?

2 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor, irrelevant.

3 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor --

4 MS. BERLIN: Objection.

03:06 5 THE COURT: That's sustained. That's sustained.

6 BY MR. HYMAN:

7 Q. Isn't it true that you currently have annuities invested
8 with Mr. Furman today?

9 A. I do. And I've been trying to get them out because his 03:06 10 name is still on there. And JD Mellberg keeps sending 11 people -- if you listen to my phone calls, you will find 20
12 messages of, hey, investor, and this and that, and I cannot get 13 out -- his name is on there and I want out so bad.

14 Q. So you're sure you only attended --

03:06 15 MR. HYMAN: And, Your Honor, by the way, can we 16 sidebar for a moment?

17 THE COURT: No.

18 MR. HYMAN: Okay. Very well.

19 BY MR. HYMAN:

03:07 20 Q. So you're sure you only attended one dinner with
21 Mr. Furman?

22 A. To the best of my knowledge, that's the one that stuck out
23 is when I met these men from Philadelphia, the ones that were 24 supposed to be the owner. And because it was raining so hard
03:07 25 and I didn't have any money for the valet parking and this guy

1 brought out a handful of $20 bills and said, here, take some 2 tip money.

3 And I go, Wow, this guy has lots of money.

4 Q. You testified earlier about how you were a law abiding
5 citizen of good moral character.

6 Have you done anything that would otherwise be uncouth
7 or viewed as in that way?

8 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor, to the extent that 9 if he's done anything uncouth.

03:07 10 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain that as well.

11 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, he put his character at issue.

12 THE COURT: Come sidebar.

13 You know what? Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, go
14 ahead and take --

03:08 15 MS. BERLIN: Should we ask the witness to step out?

16 THE COURT: Would you step down?

17 Yeah, it's okay. Let him remain there until we get 18 our jurors out.

19 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

03:09 20 THE COURT: Can I get a proffer before I allow any 21 questions that would impugn our character that may not at all

22 be relevant? I'm not sure where we are, but we're getting

23 ourselves a little far afield here, but obviously I'm really

24 concerned. There was no reason to ask any questions about an

03:09 25 affair. That's very problematic nor is that relevant. And the

1 last time I checked, if you're going to attempt to tell me that
2 there's some sort of moral turpitude argument that would
3 support a question like that, and then I'd like you to show me,
4 please, a case that would ever permit such a line of 03:09 5 questioning, but I'm not even certain what was coming next. I
6 presume you wanted a sidebar to get clearance on these issues
7 if you're planning on somehow getting into his background. I
8 don't even know what a question that asks if he's ever done
9 anything uncouth would even be referencing. So can you perhaps 03:09 10 proffer to the Court where you're going with this line of 11 questioning? Because I really cannot allow this to continue
12 before the jury.

13 MR. HYMAN: Okay. Well, Your Honor, I think at this 14 point, part of the issue is that there are certain statements
03:10 15 that he made to, first of all, the jury in a way to almost get 16 sympathy or otherwise about how he's never done anything wrong
17 in his entire life, he's this great character of high moral 18 standing, almost as a way to garnish sympathy. And there's at 19 least a few instances where he told Mr. Furman about having 03:10 20 multiple girlfriends. Also about having one of them move out
21 at the same day as the other.

22 We're just asking if you recall making statements
23 based on the fact that he otherwise opened the door by dealing 24 with that. However, in light of Your Honor's view of it, we're 03:10 25 happy to move on.

1 THE COURT: I don't know if it's my view. I think
2 it's the Eleventh Circuit's view of it which is the problem. I
3 don't know if you understand the problem with that line of 4 questioning. This is not as if you're impeaching someone with 03:10 5 a prior criminal record or a misdemeanor or lying or something
6 that would be a baseline for credibility. He made a statement
7 generally that he feels uncomfortable because he believes he's 8 a law abiding citizen and he got a call from the FBI. I do not 9 believe that his statement in that regard is somehow furnishing 03:11 10 his character that elicits sympathy. He expressed concern.

11 And then, as far as I can tell, we're not going to be 12 able, through any case law I've ever seen, to allow that
13 comment in isolation with everything else to generate opening a
14 door to talk about whether he's had affairs or he's made
03:11 15 statements out of court that, quite honestly, would be under 16 403, so unnecessary and above and beyond prejudicial that it
17 would never be permitted anyway, even if that was supported by 18 case law. So it's not my view of it. It's my concern that 19 we're going to enter into an arena where these kinds of 03:11 20 questions are wholly inappropriate.

21 Do I have any response from the SEC?

22 MS. BERLIN: I would just asked that it be stricken
23 from the record. I mean, when we ask people to come here as 24 investors and talk about what happened to them, he did not 03:11 25 testify, Your Honor, about whether he's ever been loyal to his

1 wife or loyal to a woman. It is so out of left field, it has
2 nothing to do with anything that he discussed. The last thing
3 I know, his sexual --

4 THE COURT: (Cross-talk) -- I don't remember his 03:12 5 character -- his comment about this has kept me up at night and
6 I'm a law-abiding guy, I've never gotten involved in a
7 legalities case. If you want to go ahead and cross-examine him
8 and tell me, are you a convicted felon or, you know, if we had 9 -- that is a proper -- maybe there credibility is an issue and
03:12 10 we could -- that may even be a stretch, but in that situation
11 if you're going to argue that he put his character at issue, I
12 could understand that level of impeachment. That's not what 13 it's going to be --

14 MS. BERLIN: -- that's not what it is.

03:12 15 THE COURT: He didn't (inaud.) conversations about
16 possibly not being loyal to his spouse or having an affair --

17 MS. BERLIN: And broadcast on Zoom. The man brought 18 up nothing about his sexual history, whether he was loyal to an 19 ex-wife, the treatment -- with the proffer about the treatment
03:12 20 of ex-girlfriends and women is completely improper and 21 irrelevant --

22 THE COURT: It's not just what relevancy --

23 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talk) -- it's not proper
24 impeachment.

03:13 25 THE COURT: It's not proper impeachment.

1 MS. BERLIN: It's not proper impeachment.

2 THE COURT: And that's why I need to have a brief
3 break because I cannot allow you to get up here, the cat's out
4 the bag with questions like that, that are impugning his 03:13 5 character and they're in appropriate, and I can't unring that 6 bell if you do it again. So do I have any valid argument that
7 you can point to that will support any line of questions like
8 the one you just tried to engage on? Because I don't think he 9 has any prior record, anything of that nature, that we're going
03:13 10 to be bringing up here, right?

11 MR. HYMAN: The only issue, aside from certain
12 misstatements that we can deal with, is he also would call
13 Mr. Furman asking him not to provide information to -- or if 14 his girlfriends called. But we'll move on with the line of 03:13 15 questioning at this point, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: You do understand -- listen, I don't -- I
17 don't want to belabor it. I think you understand. But you do
18 understand just from a legal perspective that this is not an 19 appropriate line of questioning, right? Are you getting me on 03:14 20 that front? Like, you understand that you are not able -- this 21 is not impeaching with a prior conviction or dealing with 22 credibility or a crime of lying or misrepresentations where you
23 would have to lay a certain predicate and we'd have to 24 (inaud.). But going after a witness who's coming in as an 03:14 25 investor by trying to bring up any sort of sorted misleads or

1 sexual history or perhaps that he has an affair is not only
2 under 403 problematic, but it also just has no bearing for
3 proper impeachment.

03:14 4 You understand that? I want to be clear that this
5 isn't a difference of opinion. It's what the law requires. I
6 just want to make sure we're on the same page that you, as a
7 member of the bar, understand that that's just not how
8 impeachment works with this witness. You understand what I
9 mean, right? This is not proper impeachment.

03:14 10 Like, from a fundamental perspective, you understand
11 wherever you're getting your line of questioning and sources
12 from, there is no support for this line of questioning. This 13 isn't a difference of opinion. This is legal fact. This is 14 not something you can do with proper impeachment.

03:15 15 I just want to make sure you fully understand that 16 this is not a line you should ever engage, not in this trial,
17 not in your next trial, or not in a trial 20 years from now.
18 It's not proper impeachment. But I feel like you think this is 19 a ruling of discretion. This is pretty-well established that 03:15 20 you can't go into this line of questioning.

21 MR. HYMAN: Well, Your Honor, I understand what you're 22 saying. I would prefer at this point to just tread lightly and 23 not really deal with it. I will agree not to go into this line
24 of questioning here, and also not it to address it later. In 03:15 25 our view, at least, he opened the door as it relates to a lot

1 of those issues, but from there we'll move on --

2 THE COURT: I get -- you don't understand what I'm
3 talking about. So I think what I'll do is, I'll go ahead and 4 maybe I can find some case law that I can provide just so that 03:15 5 we use this as a learning experience going forward. But for 6 now, I think you understand, this would not be an appropriate
7 way, under any circumstances, to impeach this individual.

8 So stay up with questions that have to do with 9 Par Funding, that have to do with Fidelis, that have to do with 03:16 10 (inaud.) Furman and issues regarding his memory and perhaps he 11 doesn't remember certain things, that's fine. You're asking
12 those questions, that's fine. But anything beyond that, that 13 is intending to impugn his character without a foundation or 14 proper impeachment is wholly inappropriate. Okay? So when we 03:16 15 bring him in, I will give a quick curative, because I don't 16 want to draw too much attention to it, and then we'll go from
17 there.

18 Rita, can we go ahead and get our jurors back in here,
19 and can we go ahead and get Mr. Nash back on the stand, please.
03:16 20 Thank you.

21 (Thereupon, the jury entered the courtroom.)

22 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated, everyone.
23 We're going to pick up where we left off and then we'll
24 continue the cross-examination of Mr. Nash.

03:18 25 Counsel, you may proceed.

1 MR. HYMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. HYMAN:

3 Q. Mr. Nash, you testified earlier that there are two or three
4 people from Par Funding at the dinner you were at; is that
03:18 5 correct?

6 A. To the best of my understanding, they represent themselves
7 as being from Par Funding. If they did not really be from 8 Par Funding, I wouldn't be adjudged to that. But to me, they 9 portrayed themselves as being from Philadelphia and being part
03:18 10 of the company.

11 Q. Would you recall what their names were?

12 A. I think I already told you I couldn't recall name. It
13 would be in my book back in my house. If you'd like, when I
14 get home, I'll gladly call you.

03:18 15 Q. You weren't prepared to testify to that, were you?

16 A. I didn't know what I was supposed to do. I was called in 17 here, and no one talked to me about what to expect or what 18 questions I might be asked. They told me nothing. So I came 19 down here. If you want to bring me back next week or 03:19 20 something, I'll be glad to.

21 Q. And in addition to that, do you recall bringing Mr. Furman
22 gifts to his office?

23 A. Absolutely. Because of his mother. I have a farm in 24 Jupiter Farms. After Hurricane Andrew my house, my Air Force
03:19 25 base away almost 30 years ago, I got transferred up to Cocoa

1 Beach, which is near Patrick Air Force base. I was driving
2 back and forth to Packard three or four times a month, a
3 four-plus hour drive while still working at Miami International
4 Airport like I did for 44 years of my life.

03:19 5 And I stumbled upon a house at Jupiter Farms that I
6 bought, and I ended up planting lychee trees. I have a hundred
7 Lychee trees with little red fruits. I have star fruit, I have 8 chickens. And so I have bees. I have honey bees. And 9 Michael Furman's mom was at the office and brought to my 03:19 10 attention that she liked honey.

11 And so I said, I'm a generous person. I'll bring you
12 a jar of honey. So I would bring some honey or I would bring 13 some stuff. They never paid me for. It's a gift. I'm a 14 generous person. That's the way I live my life. Do unto 03:20 15 others as you'd like them to do unto you. So yes, I brought 16 him gifts. If that's what you're trying to imply, yes, I did.

17 Q. And how many times did you meet with Mr. Furman's mother?

18 A. Probably six times.

19 Q. And when you met with Mr. Furman's mother, was Mr. Furman 03:20 20 also there?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you were present when Mr. Furman was talking to you
23 about -- or was Ms. Furman present as well when you were 24 talking to Mr. Furman about your investment in Fidelis?

03:20 25 A. You mean his mom?

1 Q. Yes.

2 A. No. She stayed outside.

3 Q. Did you ever actually invest in Par Funding?

4 A. Did I actually ever invest?

03:20 5 Q. In Par Funding, correct.

6 A. I was led to believe that when I gave all that money.

7 Q. Did you invest in Mr. Furman's company or did you invest in
8 Par Funding?

9 A. I was led to believe that it was Par Funding. Maybe he had 03:21 10 an investment company, but no, I'm not really sure.

11 Q. Do you recall whether or not you signed a document with
12 Par Funding?

13 A. He had me sign different things. I can't recall.

14 Q. So you don't recall what documents you signed?

03:21 15 A. I'm sorry, say again?

16 Q. You don't recall what documents you did or didn't sign?

17 A. He just would shuffle papers very quickly, and he said we 18 need to sign this we need to sign that. It's just for 19 whatever. I was under the impression when I saw these license
03:21 20 sand these things all up on the wall that I was dealing with a
21 trained accountant certified by the State of Florida and
22 whatnot, and that whatever he was doing was legal and what I
23 had signed. Yes, maybe I didn't spend all that time because I
24 trusted him.

03:21 25 Q. Did Mr. Furman ever tell you he was an accountant?

1 A. He never said that. He said he was a class 7 securities
2 exchange registered agent.

3 Q. Did he tell you that he was also a financial planner?

4 A. He said he was everything. Financial planner. That -- he 03:22 5 didn't do my taxes. Like the other guy did taxes and 6 financial, that I had to go see Emanuel, Roland Emanuel, or 7 Emanuel Roland. He portrayed himself to be God's gift to 8 JD Mellberg and the whole financial world.

9 Q. And again, sitting here today, you don't know who or what 03:22 10 documents you signed, correct?

11 A. I'm sure I probably have some at the house. I mean, a lot
12 of times you went in there, his computer wasn't working, his 13 printer wasn't working. He was having a problem with this --
14 the machine. It was like all the bells and whistles and smoke,
03:22 15 and after a while, like I said, when the FBI called me and 16 brought it to my attention that oh, by the way, those investors
17 were with the Gambino family. And like I said, my whole world
18 came upside down.

19 The only saving grace ws I had to look for papers for 03:23 20 the FBI. And I went through a lot of my paperwork and files,
21 and about five years before that, I had to go in for open heart
22 surgery. And I signed some papers for a friend of mine that 23 was going to be like my power of attorney. And luckily we 24 found those papers.

03:23 25 That person changed my will and all my stuff so that

1 everything went to her and her kids. My children, my family,
2 my house everything went to her. And so that was a saving
3 grace of having this issue with Par Funding, that I didn't lose
4 that also. But I still have my house and I still have my 03:23 5 children, you know.

6 But yeah it was an unusual time, but I'm sure I have
7 some papers. Again, I was not prepped as to what to bring or 8 what questions or what have you. So I came. I made the drive
9 down today. I got here, thankfully, with no one running into 03:24 10 me and I'm here. If you want more papers or something, I'll be 11 glad to bring them to you because I have no reason to lie. I'm 12 a man of character, and I don't like that (inaud.) at all what 13 occurred to me different.

14 Q. You testified earlier you saw a sign in Mr. Furman's office
03:24 15 saying he's a CPA; is that correct?

16 A. There was certain signs, yes.

17 Q. And also, similarly, how is it that this woman was able 18 to -- or do you have any recollection as to how this woman was 19 able to make these transfers, the power of attorney?

03:24 20 MS. BERLIN: Objection, Your Honor, about this woman.

21 THE COURT: We're going a little far afield here.
22 That's going to be sustained.

23 BY MR. HYMAN:

24 Q. And how many -- again, how many events did you go to with 03:24 25 Par Funding or with --

1 A. I can remember the one very distinctly at Ruth's Chris
2 Steak House in Okeechobee, around Palm Beach Lakes Boulevard,
3 in that are near the -- where they had -- right across the 4 treat is some center where they have events. And I really 03:25 5 don't get out much from my farm anymore. There was events he 6 might have had that I couldn't participate in, and this was the 7 one to make up for the ones that I had missed. That's the one
8 that I can remember. If there was another one, I would have to 9 look at my records and see. This goes back to 2018. And today
03:25 10 is almost 2022. I'm lucky to remember what I had for dinner
11 last week.

12 Q. So it's true your memory is not too great nowadays?

13 A. It's great. If I had my book when I wrote things down, no,
14 I have a very good memory.

03:26 15 Q. But you didn't bring any of the paperwork today?

16 A. I was not instructed to. Maybe you didn't hear it the 17 three times I said so.

18 Q. And did you meet with the SEC before you came here today
19 before you testified?

03:26 20 A. I met them outside.

21 MR. HYMAN: No further questions.

22 THE COURT: Redirect.

23 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

24

25

1

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. Did you show up today because the SEC sent you a subpoena?

4 A. Exactly. I was subpoenaed to be here. I follow the law.

03:26

5 Q. And how much did you invest in Par Funding?

6 A. Par Funding, $640,000 total.

7 Q. And all of that through Mr. Furman?

8 A. All through Mr. Furman.

9 Q. And did you trust Mr. Furman with your financial

03:26

10 investment?

11 A. I did initially, until this case came about. And I had

12 these other annuities looked at by people I knew in the field

13 and trusted. And they were shocked to see that he invested

14 most of my money one annuity after another annuity, four

03:27

15 annuities in less than a month's time where he got $50,000

16 commission, and I can't get hardly more than 2 or 3 percent out

17 of those annuities for ten years.

18 Q. Did you trust Mr. Furman was doing due diligence on the 19 company that -- on Par Funding that he was recommending to you?

03:27

20 A. I had thought he had, and I obviously put my money and my 21 investments with him, but I can see that obviously I was wrong.

22 MS. BERLIN: I have no further questions. I hope you

23 have a safe trip back. Thank you for coming.

24 THE COURT: Does the jury have any questions for

03:27

25 Mr. Nash? No.

1 All right. Thank you, Mr. Nash. You are excused.

2 THE WITNESS: May I thank the jurors?

3 THE COURT: Sure. Absolutely.

4 THE WITNESS: I have been on many juries. I cannot 03:28 5 tell you how many people tell you say this to get out or tell
6 them this or that. I thank you as a fellow citizen of this
7 country, and I feel it's our duty and I really want to thank
8 you.

9 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Nash. We appreciate that.

03:28 10 THE WITNESS: The reason I'm so slow with my knee, my 11 daughter nicknamed me Grease Lightning.

12 THE COURT: Take your time. Take your time. Can you
13 help him out?

14 THE WITNESS: Grease Lightning is out of here.

03:28 15 THE COURT: We have of our next witness, I believe,
16 coming in on Zoom, right?

17 MS. BERLIN: Yes, Your Honor, Victoria Villarose.

18 THE COURT: Has she attempted to call in yet? I just 19 want to be ready and try to help give her access. I know she's 03:29 20 coming in. I don't see her name spelled out, but she may be 21 coming in by way of a phone number or something.

22 MS. BERLIN: She is coming in through the number that 23 looks like area code 484.

24 THE COURT: 484. Okay. 484, her name. Okay. Let me
03:29 25 know if she says she's on because I'm waiting to see her

1 connect.

2 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, we have two
3 witnesses left for the day and we're done. And they should be
4 both on Zoom. And they should be fairly straightforward.

03:30 5 Are we showing her exhibits by any chance?

6 MS. BERLIN: We are not.

7 THE COURT: I just needed to give him access.

8 MS. BERLIN: We're going to keep it simple. No
9 exhibits.

03:30 10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MS. BERLIN: We understand she's logging in right now,
12 Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Great. I'm just waiting for her to give 14 her access.

03:32 15 All right. So Ms. Villarose, I believe you can
16 probably hear me. If you want to go ahead and take the mute
17 off. There we are. I see you clearly. Can you hear me, 18 ma'am?

19 THE WITNESS: I can.

03:32 20 THE COURT: Okay. We're going to need you to project
21 as loud as you can, speak as loud as you can. We have a little 22 bit -- our connection is strong, but we sometimes get a little
23 bit of an echo. And we want to make sure that my court
24 reporter can hear you clearly. And I also want to see a voice
03:33 25 peaking out of the dark. So the next thing is I'm going to

1 have my courtroom deputy swear you in, and you see her there in
2 the witness box. So we're going to administer an oath and then
3 turn to the attorney. Okay?

4 THE WITNESS: Okay.

03:33 5 THE COURT: Go ahead, Gracie.

6 Thereupon,

7 VICTORIA VILLAROSE,

8 having been duly sworn by the courtroom deputy, testified as
9 follows: (Victoria Villarose)

03:33 10 THE COURT: All right. Very good. Thank you,
11 Ms. Villarose.

12 We're going to turn it over to the lawyer to begin
13 asking you questions.

14 Go ahead, Counsel.

03:33 15

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. Hi, Ms. Villarose. Good afternoon.

19 A. Hello.

03:33 20 Q. Hi. I wonder if you've ever heard of a company called
21 Par Funding?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And how so?

24 A. I've worked there for almost five years.

03:33 25 Q. And what was your title there?

1 A. The head of underwriting.

2 Q. And in what years did you work at Par Funding as the head
3 of underwriting?

4 A. I was the head of underwriting from 2018 to 2020. I was 03:34 5 with the company from 2015 to 2020.

6 Q. And when we talk about underwriting today, I'm going to use
7 that word -- like, I understand that what I'm talking about is 8 checking into or investigating a merchant to make sure that
9 they have the ability to pay.

03:34 10 Do you understand the definition I'm giving the word
11 "underwriting"?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And do you agree that -- I mean, do you agree that's a good
14 definition for the word "underwriting," if we use that word?

03:34 15 A. For further clarification, it's -- it's more about their 16 qualifications based off of their bank statement history and 17 credit history, if they qualified for an advance.

18 Q. Okay. But I mean, when I'm using the word "underwriting," 19 is part of what your underwriting group did would get
03:35 20 information about companies that were applying to Par Funding
21 to receive money through merchant cash advances?

22 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

23 THE COURT: Well, it's part of it, yeah, that's the 24 question. That's fine. Overruled.

03:35 25 A. Can you repeat that? I'm sorry.

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. Sure. I'm just trying to get underwriting. The general
3 concept of underwriting. As the head of underwriting, did your 4 department go out and try to collect information about
03:35 5 companies that were trying to get money from Par Funding
6 through merchant cash advances?

7 A. Yes. We received the information from the merchant and
8 then further investigated the report.

9 Q. Okay. I was just trying to establish what the word
03:36 10 "underwriting" means, because not everybody is familiar with 11 that word.

12 A. Right.

13 Q. So as a head of underwriting, at Par Funding, are you
14 familiar with the underwriting practices of Par Funding during 03:36 15 the time period of 2018 to 2020?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And from 2015 until you became the head of underwriting in 18 2018, were you working with the underwriting department for 19 Par Funding at that time as well?

03:36 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So are you familiar with the underwriting at Par Funding
22 for that period of 2015 until, I think it's about July of 2020?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. During that five-year period, did Par Funding -- did they 03:37 25 send someone out to visit every single merchant Par Funding

1 gave them a merchant cash advance (inaud.) --

2 MR. HYMAN: (Cross-talk) -- leading, compound.

3 THE COURT: Overruled.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:37 5 Q. So my question is: Did -- I'll ask it again. I know
6 sometimes --

7 THE COURT: Make the question short. Just for your
8 own benefit and for the witness. Okay?

9 MS. BERLIN: Sure. Yes.

03:37 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. Ms. Villarose, did Par Funding send someone out to visit
12 every single borrower who wanted a merchant cash advance?

13 A. No.

14 Q. And were there certain categories of borrowers or contracts
03:38 15 where there was not a physical inspection of a borrower's
16 business location?

17 A. So from 2015 to about 2018, we scheduled an onsite for 18 every file. After Alex Shlep in came in, there was an 19 adjustment to any deal that was smaller than $25,000, we would 03:38 20 not schedule an onsite, a physical onsite.

21 Q. And when you say "onsite," are you referring to the 22 practice of sending someone physically out to a location to 23 check out the business in person?

24 MR. HYMAN: Leading, compound.

03:38 25 THE COURT: Overruled.

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. Is that what you mean by an onsite?

3 A. That was the original practice, yes.

4 Q. So if the merchant cash advance was less than $25,000, then
03:39 5 starting in 2018 there was no onsite inspection; is that right?

6 A. Yes. We would request pictures in its place.

7 Q. And instead of an onsite inspection, would the underwriting
8 department do Google searches of the borrower, or Yahoo?

9 A. Yes. Every underwrite has pretty extensive internet
03:39 10 searches to try to validate the business.

11 Q. Okay. And the company that Par Funding used for onsite
12 inspections was called Metro Inspections; is that right?

13 A. That was one of them, yes.

14 Q. And Par Funding stopped working with these onsite
03:40 15 inspection companies in 2019; is that correct?

16 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

17 THE COURT: Overruled.

18 A. No. We never stopped working with Metro.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:40 20 Q. Did Metro Inspections do onsite inspections after 2019?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Hold on one second.

23 I realize this was a few years ago that this happened.
24 But -- with you at Par Funding. But do you remember me taking 03:41 25 your deposition in August of this year?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you remember testifying by Zoom on August 31st, 2021?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And do you remember during your deposition that I asked you
03:41 5 the question -- and on page 78, line 18: And Metro Inspections
6 was a company who did the inspections of some of the merchants?

7 And you answered: Up to January of 2020, yes.

8 And then I asked you the question: Okay. And why did
9 that stop in 2020 -- in January of 2020?

03:42 10 And you answered: Because we found a new product
11 called Tru epic.

12 Do you remember that?

13 A. Yeah.

14 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, improper impeachment.

03:42 15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 If you guys have a problem with the Court's rulings,
17 you can let me know outside the presence of the jury. But I do
18 not need either physical reactions every time your objections
19 are overruled or a mumbling after those objections are 03:42 20 overruled. So let's try to put an end to that, please.

21 Go ahead, your next question.

22 MS. BERLIN: Sure.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. So was it the case that Par Funding worked with Metro
03:43 25 Inspection until January of 2020?

1 A. Am I allowed to answer outside the scope of yes and no?

2 Q. Well, I'm asking you directly --

3 THE COURT: Ms. Villarose, you're allowed to explain
4 any answer you give. I'm happy with you answering yes or no
03:43 5 and then explain. You have all the ability to explain what you
6 need.

7 BY MS. BERLIN:

8 Q. Yes. Yes.

9 A. Okay, great.

03:43 10 Q. I was just asking, did -- but yes, of course. And I'm 11 going to ask you -- I'm actually going to then ask you if you
12 can explain, because I just want to make sure we get it right.

13 So Metro Inspection was a company that did the 14 inspections until January 2020; would you agree with me on
03:43 15 that?

16 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

17 THE COURT: Listen, you got to clean this up,
18 Ms. Berlin. I cannot continue on with you just scripting it.
19 So direct questions, leading questions, you can pick it up on 03:44 20 your direct. Okay. Come on.

21 MS. BERLIN: Oh, I'm sorry.

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. We just looked at your deposition testimony.

24 Was the testimony that you gave in August of 2021, was 03:44 25 that accurate that I just read to you?

1 A. Yes. But what you originally asked me here was 2019. So
2 we stopped using Metro Inspections for underwriting in January
3 of 2020. But we never severed our contract because we also use
4 them as -- in our collections department to verify businesses
03:44 5 still being opened.

6 Q. Thank you so much for the clarification.

7 So to make sure I understand. The onsite inspection
8 company, the Metro Inspection, was used for underwriting until 9 January of 2020. Is that right?

03:44 10 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

11 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I just want to clarify that I
12 understand her testimony.

13 THE COURT: Yeah, I've given you unbelievable amounts
14 of rope on this, and at some point you've got to ask direct
03:44 15 questions.

16 MS. BERLIN: I'll ask it direct.

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. I'll ask you directly. Ms. Villarose, we're going to 19 summarize, but I'm going to have you do it. You tell me, when 03:45 20 did Par Funding stop using Metro Inspections for its 21 underwriting? What month?

22 A. January of 2020.

23 Q. Thanks. And you said collections. It only used it for 24 collections after that time.

03:45 25 Does collections come before or after or during -- can

1 you tell me, when does collections happen with Par Funding and
2 the MCA loan process?

3 A. After a merchant either defaults, stops paying or starts
4 returning.

03:45 5 Q. So is it fair to say it's after Par Funding has already 6 made the advance?

7 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

8 A. Correct.

9 THE COURT: That will be overruled. That's fine.

03:46 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. And then you're familiar with a company called Tru epic?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And when did Par Funding start using Truepic?

14 A. January of 2020.

03:46 15 Q. And at some point did Par Funding -- instead of onsite
16 inspections, was there ever a time where merchants taking their 17 own photos was used as -- instead?

18 A. Yes. Yes. We have had FaceTime walk-throughs, we have had 19 photos of -- sent by the merchant of signage, the area -- even 03:46 20 home-based businesses would take a picture of their work area.
21 Which is essentially what Truepic was. It was to verify the 22 pictures were real.

23 Q. Okay. So my question was, did merchants sometimes just 24 send a picture of themselves to Par Funding? Was that part of 03:47 25 underwriting at some point, instead of the onsite inspection

1 where you would send a third party there?

2 A. (Cross-talk) -- picture.

3 Q. Pictures taken by whom?

4 A. The merchant.

03:47 5 Q. Okay. So the merchant would take their own picture and
6 send it to Par Funding; is that right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And Truepic -- was Truepic involved in that?

9 A. Yes.

03:47 10 Q. So Truepic is not -- Truepic is a company that's involved
11 not with the onsite inspections by third parties, but with the 12 practice of merchants taking selfies.

13 Am I understanding you correctly?

14 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

03:47 15 A. They're not selfies.

16 THE COURT: Overruled.

17 It's okay, Ms. Villarose, you can explain.

18 A. Because they're not selfies. They're a pictures of the 19 business facility that are verified through software by

03:48 20 Truepic. So instead of a person physically going out there and 21 having to meet the merchant, a link is sent to the merchant
22 where they can take and upload these pictures, and they're 23 verified for their authenticity.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:48 25 Q. Understood. So I used the word "selfies." I'm just not

1 technologically hip.

2 I guess what I mean by "selfies" is a picture of the 3 merchant took themselves of their business; is that right?

4 The Truepic process involved the merchant taking a
03:48 5 photo of their business by themselves, correct?

6 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

7 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'm just trying to clarify
8 because I think --

9 THE COURT: I understand. You've got to figure out a
03:48 10 way to do this without the amount of leading you're doing.

11 MS. BERLIN: I'm sorry.

12 THE COURT: I can only tolerate it up to a certain 13 point. But Mr. Hyman is absolutely right. I know you want to 14 move through this witness, but if takes a little longer to get 03:49 15 there, you're going to have to do that right way. That's 16 sustained.

17 MS. BERLIN: Sure. Absolutely.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. I'm going to ask you to tell me. Truepic --

03:49 20 THE COURT: What is it?

21 MS. BERLIN: She already testified about that,
22 Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: What, who, where, when and why would be 24 direct examination questions. Let's work with those words.

03:49 25 MS. BERLIN: She already testified about what Truepic

1 is.

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. Ms. Villarose, who would take the pictures that were sent
4 to Par Funding after January of 2020 for the underwriting
03:49 5 process?

6 A. The merchant.

7 Q. Okay. Now, prior to January 2020, which is when you -- the 8 time period you established they stopped using 9 Metro Inspections, prior to that time, did Par Funding have any 03:50 10 sort of process in place for instances where a merchant did not
11 want to permit an onsite inspection?

12 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

13 THE COURT: No. That's overruled. That's fine.

14 A. I'm sorry, can you repeat?

03:50 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. Sure.

17 Prior to January 2020, when Par Funding stopped using 18 the onsite inspection company, so prior to January 2020, was 19 there any sort of process in place at Par Funding for occasions
03:50 20 where a merchant did not want to allow a third-party inspector
21 to come onto the premises?

22 A. Yes. We had merchants that were uncomfortable with the 23 process, where they just weren't available there. So we would 24 accept pictures from the merchant.

03:51 25 Q. In addition to not doing the onsite inspection if the deal

1 was less than $25,000, or if the merchant wasn't comfortable
2 with them coming onto the property, were there any other
3 circumstances where Par Funding would use other methods to 4 verify a business than an onsite inspection?

03:51 5 A. I'm not sure if I understand what you're asking.

6 Q. Okay. So you testified that there wouldn't be an onsite
7 inspection if it was less than 25 thousand or if a merchant
8 wasn't comfortable on the property, having a third party come.
9 Do you remember that?

03:52 10 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

11 A. Yes.

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. Were there other occasions where Par Funding would use
03:52 15 methods other than an onsite inspection to verify the merchant?

16 A. Do you mean outside of the pictures that they take that I
17 mentioned?

18 Q. Yes.

19 A. We also did the Google searches and things like that to 03:52 20 verify pictures that we would receive.

21 Q. And now, were there any rules at Par Funding that -- about 22 whether or not an onsite inspection would occur based on 23 whether a merchant cash advance was short-term versus longer
24 term?

03:52 25 A. I don't know the answer to that question.

1 Q. Okay. So was there any waiver at Par Funding for onsite
2 inspections if a deal was short-term, meaning it was 50 to 75
3 days, instead of the standard 88 to 120 days?

4 A. I think so, yes. They were called fast-funding deals or 03:53 5 something like that. They were typically small sized deals
6 with short-term. So they were would not need an onsite.

7 MS. BERLIN: I think that's it. Hold on just one
8 moment, Ms. Villarose.

9 THE WITNESS: Okay.

03:54 10 MS. BERLIN: We don't have any more questions. Thank
11 you. I'll turn it over to defense counsel.

12 THE COURT: Cross-examination, please.

13

14 CROSS EXAMINATION

03:54 15 BY MR. JOHN:

16 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Villarose.

17 A. Hello.

18 Q. Ms. Villarose, do you know Mr. Michael Furman, the 19 defendant in this case?

03:54 20 A. I don't.

21 Q. Have you ever communicated --

22 A. I don't know if I actually know him. I've heard his name
23 before, but I can't actually confirm if I've ever met him.

24 Q. Gotcha. Had you ever communicated with Mr. Michael Furman
03:54 25 during your time at Par Funding?

1 A. I can't remember.

2 Q. Would it be normal for you or anyone in your office to
3 transmit underwriting information to the agent fund managers?

4 A. Not that I know of.

03:55 5 Q. Had you ever transmitted underwriting information to any 6 agent fund manager?

7 A. I don't think so.

8 Q. All right.

9 MR. JOHN: Moment to confer, Your Honor.

03:55 10 THE COURT: Yeah.

11 MR. JOHN: No further questions, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Redirect.

13 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, just one quick question.

14

15 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. I just have one question for you, Ms. Villarose. If 18 Mr. Furman had ever called you as the head of underwriting to 19 ask you whether Par Funding did an onsite inspection every 03:55 20 single time for every single merchant, would you have told him
21 no and explained to him what you explained to the jury today?

22 MR. HYMAN: Objection, calls for speculation.

23 THE COURT: Overruled.

24 You may answer if you know, ma'am.

03:56 25 A. If he called and asked if we did an onsite for every deal,

1 I would say the same thing as I did to you, which is there are
2 special situations in which we would accept other forms of
3 verification.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

03:56 5 Q. And that includes what you talked about today, which is if 6 the deal was one of those fast-funding deals, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Or if it was less than $25,000?

9 A. Yes.

03:56 10 Q. And if the merchant wasn't comfortable with having someone 11 come onto their property?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And if it was after January 2020?

14 A. You mean for the physical onsite, when somebody goes there?

03:56 15 Q. Yes.

16 A. Yes.

17 MS. BERLIN: I don't have any more questions. Thank 18 you so much.

19 THE COURT: Any questions for the witness from the
03:57 20 jury?

21 Thank you, Ms. Villarose. You're free to disconnect
22 at this point.

23 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, you guys
03:57 25 all good to hang in there for the next witness? It's the last

1 one for the day. I think it should be fairly brief.

2 The next witness that we're going to be calling?

3 MS. BERLIN: Alexis Abbonizio, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Is she dialing in right now?

5 MS. BERLIN: We're going to find out. We just told
6 the witness to log in. Because they are not supposed to see
7 the prior witness, we don't have them --

8 THE COURT: Yeah, I don't want them in until it's
9 time.

03:57 10 MS. BERLIN: It's someone on Zoom calling from 215 and 11 we are asking her to raise their hand.

12 THE COURT: There's someone -- Bill. Could it be that 13 she's identified coming in under Bill?

14 MS. BERLIN: We're going to find out.

03:58 15 THE COURT: Okay. Just don't want to give panel
16 access to a random investor for obvious reasons.

17 It wasn't this other individual whoever that was.

18 So we're going to swear you in. You can see in the 19 screen that says "witness box," my courtroom deputy is going to 03:59 20 swear you in, and she's going to be asked by an attorney at the 21 podium. And we're going to make sure that when you answer -- I
22 hear you very well, but just make sure that you project loud so
23 that we can make a clean record. We have a court reporter here
24 and we have to make sure that we can hear what you're saying.

03:59 25 Okay?

1 THE WITNESS: Of course. Thank you so much.

2 THE COURT: You're welcome.

3 Gracie, can we swear her in.

4 Thereupon,

5 ALEXIS ABBONIZIO,

6 having been duly sworn by the courtroom deputy, testified as

7 follows:

8 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Abbonizio. We're going to 9 turn it over to the lawyer. Okay?

03:59 10 You may proceed whenever you're ready.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

13 BY MS. BERLIN:

14 Q. Hi, Ms. Abbonizio. I'm Amie Riggle-Berlin with the SEC.

04:00 15 How are you?

16 A. Good. How are you, Amie?

17 Q. Thank you. I'm doing okay.

18 Are you here today pursuant to a subpoena?

19 A. Yes, I am.

04:00 20 Q. Are you familiar with the a company called Par Funding?

21 A. Yes, I am.

22 Q. Have you ever done any work in connection with Par Funding?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. During what years?

04:00 25 A. Starting in 2017 to 2020.

1 Q. And during that time, what were your responsibilities --
2 like generally, what were your responsibilities there?

3 A. Administration role for the investor relation team.

4 Q. And as part of that work, what types of things did you do?

04:01 5 A. I would prepare the security agreement, promissory note
6 agreement, the note purchase agreement, and forward executed
7 agreements and countersigned agreements between the PPM
8 managers and Joe Cole.

9 Q. And was one of those -- you referred to it as a PPM
04:01 10 manager. Was one of those people Michael Furman?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And so what types of communications would you have with
13 Mr. Furman?

14 A. The same. I would do his agreements as well as forward
04:01 15 marketing material at each stage.

16 Q. So would you forward Mr. Furman Par Funding marketing
17 materials?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And Par Funding brochures?

04:01 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Would Mr. Furman communicate with you?

22 A. Me and the A Better Financial Plan team.

23 Q. And what types of things would Mr. Furman communicate with 24 you about?

04:02 25 A. He would just send over his signed agreements.

1 Q. And when you say "signed agreements," were those promissory
2 notes?

3 A. Yes. The promissory notes and security agreement.

4 Q. And what would you do with those when you received them?

04:02 5 A. I would send them over to Joe Cole for execution and then
6 make sure that our financial plan and Michael Furman would get
7 the fully executed copy once they were signed.

8 Q. And so what was Joe Cole's job title at Par Funding?

9 A. CFO.

04:02 10 Q. We're going to show you some documents on the screen. And 11 just let us know if you want us to scroll up or down.

12 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, none of these have been 13 admitted yet. So can we take them off the jurors' screens?

14 THE COURT: Yeah.

04:03 15 So we need just only Ms. Abbonizio. She's going to be 16 shown documents by Mr. Robinson so the predicate can be laid.
17 So I need the jurors not to be able to see the screens until we 18 can lay that foundation. All right. I think we're all good at 19 this point.

04:04 20 You guys don't have your screens on, right?

21 You may proceed.

22 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

23 I wonder if we can please show Ms. Abbonizio the 24 document that we prelabeled P 410.

04:04 25 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. If we can go to the first page, please.

3 MS. BERLIN: Thanks, Mr. Robinson. There we go.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:05 5 Q. Ms. Abbonizio, do you see at the top?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Looking at this, do you -- is this -- do you know what this
8 document is?

9 A. That was the initial marketing material.

04:05 10 Q. Is this your e-mail that we're looking at, P 410?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And it's an e-mail that you sent?

13 A. Yes.

14 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to introduce P 410.

04:05 15 MR. HYMAN: Hearsay and relevance.

16 THE COURT: That's overruled.

17 That will be admitted.

18 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

19 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. So can we publish this to the 04:05 20 jury then?

21 THE COURT: P 410 is now admitted. You may now
22 publish that.

23 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:05 25 Q. Ms. Abbonizio, can you see the exhibit still on your

1 screen?

2 A. Yes, I can.

3 Q. Okay, great. And this is -- do you see at the top it says,
4 this is from May 19th, 2017?

04:06 5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. And it says it's CBSG marketing deliverables.

7 Do you see that?

8 A. Uh-huh. (Nodding.)

9 Q. And it's an e-mail to Joe Mack. Who is that?

04:06 10 A. That was personnel of Par Funding.

11 Q. Does he go by a different name?

12 A. Joe Mack and Joe LaForte.

13 Q. So if it says on -- so we're going to look at other
14 e-mails. For any that say "Joe Mack" on the to or from line, I

04:06 15 have the e-mail address, Joe@parfunding.com, is that Joe
16 LaForte?

17 A. Yes.

18 MS. BERLIN: Mr. Robinson just lost access to Zoom.

19 THE COURT: All right. I'll add him back.

04:07 20 MS. BERLIN: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: You're still on, Mr. Robinson, just raise
22 your hand. I don't see you on.

23 IT TECHNICIAN: It says it's loading. Or connecting.

24 MS. BERLIN: Just one moment, we're trying to get the 04:07 25 exhibit back on the screen, Ms. Abbonizio.

1 THE WITNESS: Okay. Take your time.

2 IT TECHNICIAN: It's not letting me.

3 MS. BERLIN: Let's see what we can do without the
4 exhibits, so that we don't wait. And if we need them,
04:10 5 Your Honor, we'll just circle back, if that's permissible.

6 THE COURT: You guys can't (inaud.). Let's go.

7 MS. BERLIN: Of course, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Go ahead.

9 MS. BERLIN: Just trying to keep us moving.
04:10 10 Mr. Robinson, can you let me know when you're in.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. All right. So the e-mail that we were just looking at that 13 you sent to Mr. LaForte with -- it was P 410, the marketing
14 materials. Let me ask you another way.

04:10 15 Would you e-mail marketing materials to any of the 16 agent fund managers as well?

17 A. Yes, I would.

18 Q. And would you e-mail them to Mr. Furman?

19 A. Yes, I did.

04:10 20 Q. Was part of your job responsibility handling paperwork
21 associated with CAMA?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And what is CAMA?

24 A. CAMA is an IRA company. However, I -- towards when we had 04:11 25 the funds started, I would relieved myself of that role and A

1 Better Financial Plan handled that paperwork.

2 Q. And how is CAMA related to Par Funding, if at all? Why
3 did -- why would you interact with CAMA at all?

4 A. The clients that had IRAs would use CAMA Plan as a third
04:11 5 parties to establish that account.

6 MR. HYMAN: Relevance, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Overruled.

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. So would Par Funding be -- ever receive funds from CAMA?

04:12 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And under what circumstances?

12 A. When there was individual investors, before the funds had 13 been established, the PPM manager's letter, single clients that 14 would invest via CAMA.

04:12 15 Q. And would you provide information, like CAMA account
16 applications, or other forms to Mr. Furman for use with his 17 investor -- with -- for use with raising investor money?

18 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

19 THE COURT: Overruled.

04:12 20 A. I believe in the past. I don't recall specifically.
21 However, he had used an IRA company, yes, in the past. But as 22 previously mentioned, A Better Financial Plan had taken over
23 that role towards the end.

24 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:12 25 Q. Okay. And so under circumstances where an account was

1 created at CAMA, could you just explain to us, like, how CAMA
2 fits into the process of getting money from Mr. Furman, or one
3 of his customers, up to Par Funding?

4 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

04:13 5 THE COURT: Overruled.

6 A. So in the past, if there was a client before they
7 established a PPM, (inaud.) finders, clients would have an IRA,
8 and they would wire funds over from the IRA to Par Funding.

9 However, when they established the PPM, I was not a part of 04:13 10 that process, so I don't know how funds were received.

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. And so in that process that you were just talking about 13 where they used an IRA, was there a connection between CAMA and 14 the IRA? Is CAMA a bank? Can you just explain that connection
04:13 15 a little bit more so it's clear for us.

16 A. As far as I know, I was limited to the information. It was 17 just the third party via (inaud.). I would establish a 18 connection for them to talk to them and walk them through that 19 process.

04:14 20 Q. And using CAMA is the entity through which Par Funding
21 could receive IRA money?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. While you were working at Par Funding, were there certain 24 days a month when you were more likely to hear from one of the 04:14 25 agents raising money for Par Funding?

1 A. Agents would wire funds on the 10th and 25th. So days that
2 are closer to those two dates, I would actually have more
3 interaction with fund managers.

4 Q. So on the 10th and 25th is when, like, the agents would 04:15 5 send any money up to Par Funding that they had collected?

6 A. Exactly.

7 Q. And is that something that Mr. Furman would do?

8 A. Yes.

9 MS. BERLIN: Let me see if we've had any luck getting 04:15 10 into Zoom. So I'd like to show you this exhibit. Just a 11 moment. We're in.

12 THE COURT: Hold on. Did you get disconnected?

13 (Thereupon, there was a brief discussion off the record.)

14 MS. BERLIN: Thanks, Kevin.

04:15 15 I'd like to just show to the witness, because it
16 hasn't been admitted yet, an exhibit we have preidentified as P
17 552.

18 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:16 20 Q. Ms. Abbonizio, can you see a document that has a P 552
21 sticker on it?

22 A. Yes.

23 MS. BERLIN: And it's the tinniest writing. I wonder
24 if we can just Zoom in a little bit so Ms. Abbonizio can see 04:16 25 the top of this page.

1 BY MS. BERLIN:

2 Q. Is the item we've marked as P 552, is that -- do you
3 recognize this document?

4 A. Yes.

04:17 5 Q. And what is it?

6 A. That must have been information I had needed with help for 7 funding for CAMA planner.

8 Q. And do you recognize P 552 as an e-mail from you?

9 A. Yes.

04:17 10 MS. BERLIN: And, Your Honor, we'd like to introduce P
11 552.

12 MR. HYMAN: Hearsay, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: That will be admitted.

14 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

04:17 15 MS. BERLIN: So if we can -- can we publish this to 16 the jury, please?

17 THE COURT: You may publish.

18 MS. BERLIN: So we'll zoom in a bit, maybe, because 19 it's really very small font. But if we could please turn to 04:18 20 the end of this document. We'll start at the end. Can we zoom
21 in a bit on that last e-mail, Mr. Robinson, from -- we're just 22 going to be zooming in and moving up it quickly.

23 BY MS. BERLIN:

24 Q. So, Ms. Abbonizio, if you can see at the bottom of this 04:18 25 exhibit it's -- do you see that in the same e-mail string it's

1 from Dean Vagnozzi? It says, cc Anita. And it's: Hey,
2 everyone. I have another round of agent training like the one
3 you attended already, set for Wednesday night, January 24th,
4 and Thursday, the 25th.

04:19 5 Do you see that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And who is Anita.

8 A. Anita was an associate of A Better Financial Plan.

9 Q. And if we just look up -- and that's Dean Vagnozzi's
04:19 10 company?

11 A. Yes.

12 MS. BERLIN: Can we just scroll up on the same exhibit
13 where it says: Hi, Alexis. Or I'm sorry, Dean. From 14 Michael Furman to Dean. It's right above it, and just zoom in.
04:19 15 Thanks.

16 BY MS. BERLIN:

17 Q. So do you see, it's from Michael Furman to Dean Vagnozzi
18 copying Anita? Do you see that message?

19 A. Yes.

04:20 20 Q. And it says: Dean, I have been out of this office and am
21 on the road today but have my phone with me. My clients and I
22 have funded the CAMA plan account with $201,000, so we need to 23 make sure that we get the direct note for the merchant set up
24 and wanted to make sure you knew and could help with the next
04:20 25 steps.

1 I'm calling Ryan at CAMA Plan now since my client
2 still doesn't see it on his account, but it was wired in, so
3 might take a day to show up. But I wanted to make sure you
4 know it's there and he's eager to get it set up. Please let me
04:20 5 know what would be the next step for this case.

6 Do you see that?

7 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

8 A. Yes.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

04:20 10 BY MS. BERLIN:

11 Q. And so in this message, we see a reference to CAMA Plan.
12 Is that the CAMA that you were testifying about earlier today?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And this is December 29th, 2017?

04:21 15 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

16 THE COURT: Overruled.

17 A. I can't see the date.

18 MS. BERLIN: Can we zoom in on that part? We're 19 trying to figure out a way to make this a little faster to make 04:21 20 it look bigger so we can scroll through it quickly.

21 That's super. Thank you.

22 BY MS. BERLIN:

23 Q. Can you see where it's -- that e-mail we just looked at was 24 dated Friday, December 29th, 2017. Do you see that?

04:21 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And right above that it looks like this is where it
2 goes to you. Do you see where Anita is forwarding it to you
3 and it says: Hi, Alexis, I'm ccing Michael Furman on this
4 e-mail. Michael has a client, Russell Meyer, investing in NCA.

04:22 5 Do you see that?

6 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

7 THE COURT: Overruled.

8 A. Yeah.

9 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:22 10 Q. And it's referencing that: The funds have been wired to 11 CAMA and will be available next week once all the paperwork is 12 received.

13 Do you see that?

14 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

04:22 15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 A. Yes.

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. So why would you be receiving this information about
19 Mr. Furman having a client whose money has been put into CAMA?

04:22 20 A. Because at that time I was preparing those agreements with 21 the client's information.

22 Q. And this is for -- is this part of the process for 23 ultimately obtaining a Par Funding promissory note?

24 A. Yes.

04:22 25 Q. If we can just go up to the next portion, do you see

1 Michael Furman's e-mail to you of Friday, December 29th, 2017,
2 at 1 o'clock p.m.?

3 A. You can zoom in just a bit.

4 Q. Yeah, we're trying do that.

04:23 5 A. Yes, I can.

6 Q. And do you see where Mr. Furman writes to you: Good day,
7 Alexis. Thank you for the introduction, Anita. Alexis, this 8 one will be the monthly income to my client. I'm in my car for 9 the next three to four hours. So if you would like to call me
04:23 10 today on my cell, that is fine. And then he goes on from 11 there.

12 Do you see that?

13 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

14 A. Yes, I do.

04:23 15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 By the way, she's reading (inaud.). They're not 17 questions. It's not leading.

18 But go ahead.

19 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:23 20 Q. So why -- at this part in December of 2017, did you have an 21 understanding of why Mr. Furman was providing you with this 22 information about the funds being monthly income for his 23 client?

24 A. Yes.

04:24 25 Q. And why is that?

1 A. So I would be -- know how to properly prepare these
2 agreements.

3 Q. So you would be -- I'm sorry. You would probably be able
4 to prepare the promissory note?

04:24 5 A. To prepare his clients' -- yes.

6 Q. And would that be -- a promissory note issued by who, by 7 what company?

8 A. Par Funding.

9 MS. BERLIN: We can set this exhibit aside. I wonder
04:24 10 if we could please show P 560.

11 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

12 MS. BERLIN: Can we Zoom in on the top so

13 Ms. Abbonizio can see it better? Thanks.

14 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:25 15 Q. Ms. Abbonizio, can you make out the top of this document?

16 There we go. Zoomed in.

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. And do you recognize this document?

19 A. Yes, I do.

04:25 20 Q. And generally, what is P 560? How do you recognize it?

21 A. This is just an e-mail I received from Anita letting us
22 know there's the next step ready to go -- or from Michael 23 Furman, rather. I apologize. I saw the CC first.

24 Q. And it's from Mr. Furman to you?

04:26 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And if you look beneath it, is this your e-mail string
2 between you and Mr. Furman?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, I'd like to introduce P 560.

04:26 5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 MR. HYMAN: To this portion, no, but the other chains
7 that are not authored by Mr. Furman, we object to as hearsay.

8 THE COURT: That will be admitted at this time.

9 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

04:26 10 MS. BERLIN: Can we publish it, please?

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Do you see at the top of the page Mr. Furman's message to 13 you?

14 A. Yes.

04:27 15 Q. And it's from December 29th, 2017?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And it says -- Mr. Furman writes to you: Thank you.

18 Please e-mail me the next steps as I need to update my client,

19 and I have several more next week that I will be bringing up

04:27 20 the next few weeks. So I want to get this one done ASAP and 21 move on to the next.

22 Do you see that?

23 MR. HYMAN: That's not a question.

24 A. Yeah.

04:27 25 MR. HYMAN: Just reading from the exhibit. Objection.

1 THE COURT: Overruled.

2 BY MS. BERLIN:

3 Q. And so what did you understand Mr. Furman was communicating
4 to you in that message?

04:27 5 A. That he just wanted to make sure his client was funded so
6 he could move on to work on the other others.

7 Q. And is that all -- like, did you understand this is all in 8 connection to what? Clients and what?

9 A. Clients and CBSG or Par Funding rather.

04:27 10 Q. And the promissory notes?

11 A. Yes.

12 MS. BERLIN: We can take this exhibit down. Thank 13 you. I wonder if we can show to the witness P 103, only to the 14 witness, though. It's not admitted yet.

15 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

16 MS. BERLIN: All right. Can we zoom in so
17 Ms. Abbonizio can see it? Thank you.

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. Do you recognize this document that we have as P 103?

04:29 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. Is this your e-mail from you?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And it appears that P 103 is your e-mail string. Does this 24 appear to a true and correct copy of your e-mail string with

04:29 25 Mr. Furman?

1 A. Yes.

2 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we'd like to introduce P 103
3 as an exhibit.

4 MR. HYMAN: Hearsay.

04:29 5 THE COURT: Overruled. That will be admitted at this
6 time.

7 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

8 BY MS. BERLIN:

9 Q. And so can we begin at the bottom of this Exhibit P 103 on 04:29 10 the Bates page BFP 061450.

11 Ms. Abbonizio, can you see that on the screen or do
12 you want us to zoom in on it?

13 A. No, that's perfect.

14 Q. Okay. Great. What is this e-mail? It's from -- it looks
04:30 15 like from you to KahunaFL@BellSouth, ccing Michael Furman,
16 dated January 3, 2018.

17 Can you explain to us what we're looking at?

18 A. This an e-mail I sent to Michael Furman's client, which 19 attached to paperwork and outlined what needed to be signed and 04:30 20 completed in order to have a note with Par Funding or CBSG.

21 Q. And so does this page which is Pdf page 2 of P 103, does 22 this e-mail kind of reflect what would typically happen in the 23 course of interactions with Mr. Furman?

24 A. Yes.

04:31 25 Q. You would send his client the paperwork for the Par Funding

1 investment and copy him?

2 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

3 THE COURT: Overruled.

4 A. Yeah.

04:31 5 BY MS. BERLIN:

6 Q. And how would you know to send an e-mail like this? Like
7 this one is to KahunaFL@BellSouth.net. How would you know to 8 send KahunaFL@BellSouth.net an e-mail sending him the 9 Par Funding promissory note and security agreement?

04:31 10 MR. HYMAN: Compound and leading.

11 THE COURT: Overruled.

12 You can answer. Go ahead.

13 A. Michael would provide the information about his client for 14 me to directly contact.

04:31 15 BY MS. BERLIN:

16 Q. Michael Furman would?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And would he provide that to -- what method of 19 communication would he use to provide that to you, meaning by 04:32 20 phone, e-mail?

21 A. E-mail.

22 Q. By e-mail.

23 And then you would e-mail out the notes?

24 A. Yes.

04:32 25 Q. And once you received the -- an executed agreement, what

1 would happen next in the process?

2 A. A fully executed agreement would be sent to the client with 3 Michael Furman cc'd as well as A Better Financial Plan would
4 get the executed agreement for the record.

04:32 5 Q. And how would you deliver that note that fully executed
6 promissory note once you received it?

7 A. Via e-mail.

8 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if we could show the witness
9 P 558. It's not yet in evidence.

04:33 10 (Thereupon, the exhibit was introduced into evidence.)

11 BY MS. BERLIN:

12 Q. Ms. Abbonizio, is this your e-mail? Does it appear to be a
13 true and correct copy?

14 A. Yes, it is. Yes.

04:33 15 MS. BERLIN: Your Honor, we'd like to introduce P 558
16 as an exhibit.

17 THE COURT: Any objection?

18 MR. HYMAN: Hearsay authentication predicate.

19 THE COURT: That will be overruled.

04:33 20 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, I just want to make 21 sure understand every single one of these e-mails is being 22 admitted into evidence over the defendant's objection because 23 these e-mails are not being advanced for the truth of the 24 matter asserted, and by that I mean when you're looking at 04:33 25 these e-mails in the jury room admitted into evidence, we are

1 not introducing them and they're not being put forth before you
2 so that you can scrutinize the contents and figure out, for
3 example, in this e-mail the phones are right or the clients are 4 right. These are all being admitted for purposes of 04:34 5 establishing or attempting to establish the relationship
6 between Par Funding, Fidelis, and Mr. Furman.

7 You should only be considering for that connection,
8 not for any of the contents of the e-mails. Do you all
9 understand why that's being admitted? Is that a yes? Okay.

04:34 10 I just want to make sure that you understand because I
11 don't want anyone being confused as to scrutinizing of the 12 contents. It is for the relationship only.

13 It is essentially for the chronology and how these 14 events played out and the relationship between the parties.

04:34 15 Okay.

16 Let's go forward, please.

17 (Thereupon, the exhibit was admitted into evidence.)

18 BY MS. BERLIN:

19 Q. Ms. Abbonizio, in the last e-mail we just looked at, you
04:34 20 saw the e-mail of yourself e-mailing Mr. Furman's client a copy
21 of the promissory note and security agreement.

22 Do you remember that?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And is that something that you actually did, like send out
04:34 25 promissory notes and agreements to Mr. Furman's client?

1 A. Yes, it is.

2 Q. Okay. And let's look at P 558. Tell us what we're looking
3 at here. This is your e-mail to Mr. Furman, correct?

4 A. This is an e-mail from Michael Furman to me.

04:35 5 Q. From Michael Furman to you. And in it, what's happening
6 here in P 558?

7 A. He was giving me the information I would need to proceed
8 with preparing agreements.

9 MS. BERLIN: Am I understanding that we're treating
04:35 10 all of these as hearsay, Your Honor?

11 THE COURT: On the contrary.

12 MS. BERLIN: I just want to make sure.

13 THE COURT: They're not hearsay.

14 So they understand, they should not be looking at the 04:35 15 contents of the e-mail. That's not what they're being 16 introduced.

17 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much.

18 THE COURT: That's why the objections are being 19 overruled. I want my jurors to understand that they're not to 04:36 20 be focusing on the truth of the contents of the e-mail.

21 They're meant to explain the relationship the SEC is trying to 22 put on.

23 Am I correct on that?

24 MS. BERLIN: Yes, absolutely.

04:36 25 THE COURT: That's why they're being offered, and

1 that's why the hearsay objections are being routinely
2 overruled. I want them to understand the limited purpose from 3 which the evidence is being offered, which is part of the 4 cautionary instruction I'm giving them.

04:36 5 MS. BERLIN: Thank you so much.

6 BY MS. BERLIN:

7 Q. So, Ms. Abbonizio, here we see in P 558 Mr. Furman sending
8 you -- it says: Legal name of client, Russell Jamison Meyer.
9 Date of agreement. Do you see that? ASAP?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Let us know if you need it zoomed in at any time.

12 A. No, this is good here.

13 Q. This says: Distribution: Annual or monthly? Paid out
14 monthly. Rate of return, 12.5 percent. Client's address,
04:36 15 client's phone number, client's e-mail.

16 Do you see that?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So is this the type of information Mr. Furman would send up
19 to you?

04:37 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And what's the purpose of Mr. Furman's sending you the name
22 of a client, the date of an agreement, when that agreement
23 should be paid and what the rate of return is?

24 A. So that I would have the appropriate information to 04:37 25 complete agreements.

1 Q. And when you say "agreements," do you mean a Par Funding a
2 promissory note?

3 A. A Par Funding promissory note and security agreement.

4 Q. And so what would you do -- when you received information
04:37 5 from Mr. Furman, like what we're seeing in this exhibit that 6 lists the interest rate, and the name of a client, what would 7 you do with that information once you received it for
8 Mr. Furman?

9 A. Prepare an agreement.

04:37 10 Q. So you would prepare an agreement and then would you get it
11 executed by anyone at Par Funding?

12 A. I would have it signed by the client first, and then that
13 client would send me the agreement, and then I would have it
14 fully executed by Par Funding.

04:38 15 Q. And would the client send it to you directly or would 16 Mr. Furman or the agent send it to you?

17 A. I believe the client would send it to me directly with 18 Michael Furman cc'd.

19 Q. So Mr. Furman -- I think we looked before. Mr. Furman
04:38 20 would provide you the contact information for the client, and 21 then that's -- you would use all that information to fill out
22 the agreement and to e-mail it out, copying Mr. Furman; is that
23 correct?

24 MR. HYMAN: Leading.

04:38 25 A. Yes.

1 THE COURT: Sustained.

2 If you can restate that.

3 MS. BERLIN: Sure.

4 BY MS. BERLIN:

04:38 5 Q. Why don't you tell us the process once Mr. Furman provided
6 you the information that we see on the screen right now telling
7 you the name, the address, et cetera, you just testified you
8 would put that into a promissory note. Did I understand you
9 correctly?

04:39 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And then tell us the next step? Where would it go next?

12 A. Once -- it would go to the client to be countersigned, and 13 then the client would then send me the agreement. Which then I
14 would forward to Joe Cole to fully execute the agreement. And 04:39 15 then once the agreement was fully executed, I would then give 16 the client, via e-mail, a copy of that fully executed agreement
17 for the record with Michael Furman and A Better Financial Plan
18 cc'd.

19 Q. And when you were -- all of the steps you were just 04:39 20 discussing that you were sending it, was that -- were you --
21 what means of delivery were you using for each of those steps?

22 A. E-mails.

23 Q. And the reason you were sending -- when you say "the 24 client," whose client was that? Like, what do you mean?

04:40 25 A. Michael Furman.

1 Q. So Michael Furman's client?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. And where were would you get the -- just to be clear in my 4 understanding, you would get the client's information and all
04:40 5 of the details for the note from who?

6 A. Michael Furman.

7 Q. And he would tell you that information using what means of 8 delivery?

9 A. E-mail.

04:40 10 Q. Thank you.

11 MS. BERLIN: I wonder if we could please take down
12 this exhibit.

13 I wonder if we could please show the witness P 415. I
14 believe it's already in evidence.

04:41 15 THE COURT: I believe this has been admitted already.

16 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

17 BY MS. BERLIN:

18 Q. Ms. Abbonizio, have you seen P 415 before?

19 A. Yes.

04:41 20 Q. And this is a Par Funding brochure?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And did you ever do anything with the Par Funding
23 brochures?

24 A. I would e-mail them to PPM managers.

04:41 25 Q. And what about Mr. Furman?

1 A. Yes. It would be e-mailed to him.

2 Q. And what was the purpose of e-mailing the brochure to
3 Mr. Furman?

4 A. So he can use it with his clients.

04:42 5 Q. Okay.

6 MS. BERLIN: We can take down this exhibit, please.

7 BY MS. BERLIN:

8 Q. Just one moment, Ms. Abbonizio.

9 Would you ever send marketing brochures through any 04:43 10 means other than e-mail?

11 A. Yes. At times I would send marketing brochures via mail
12 and other.

13 Q. Did you -- do you remember if you ever mailed any to
14 Mr. Furman?

04:43 15 A. I do not recall specifically, but I may have in the past.

16 MS. BERLIN: Just one moment, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Yep.

18 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. And thank you for your 19 patience, and Your Honor's with our technology issues. We 04:44 20 don't have anymore questions.

21 THE COURT: All right. Cross-examination?

22

23 CROSS EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. HYMAN:

04:44 25 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Abbonizio. How are you doing today?

1 A. Good. How are you?

2 Q. Fantastic. Thank you.

3 So you recall Exhibit 415, the Par Funding brochure
4 that you distributed?

04:44 5 A. Yes.

6 Q. As far as you know, was everything within that brochure
7 accurate?

8 A. I was just an administration role. My job was to e-mail
9 it.

04:44 10 Q. Earlier you also testified about receiving promissory notes
11 from investors.

12 Do you recall that testimony?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. So within the ordinary course of your duties, there should
04:45 15 be a promissory note executed for each of Mr. Furman's
16 investors between CBSG and that investor; is that correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 MR. HYMAN: No further questions.

19 THE COURT: Any redirect?

04:45 20 MS. BERLIN: We have no redirect. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Any questions for the witness from the 22 jurors?

23 All right, Ms. Abbonizio, let me go ahead so you can
24 see me. We will -- there we are. We will go ahead and let you
04:45 25 go. Thank you so much for your testimony. All right. You are

1 excused. You may disconnect.

2 THE WITNESS: Thank you so much, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: You're welcome.

4 Okay. I believe that that should conclude the SEC's
04:45 5 testimony for today?

6 MS. BERLIN: It does, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Do you have something
8 you wanted to add?

9 MR. HYMAN: No, no, I'm sorry. I thought the jury was 04:45 10 leaving.

11 THE COURT: Don't worry. We'll ask you to rise when 12 they leave.

13 All right. So ladies and gentlemen of the jury, that 14 concludes today, and that is the plan that we had. We got 04:45 15 through our six witnesses.

16 So tomorrow, here's what we're looking at: We expect
17 to have two witnesses that the SEC is going to call, and that 18 the SEC intends, tomorrow, assuming no unforeseen delays, to 19 rest their case in chief. Once the SEC rests, I will have a
04:46 20 little more instructions for you all about what to expect into 21 next week when we allow the defense to put on a case. So
22 that's where we're at.

23 Obviously we are well into the testimony in this case.
24 You've heard from a lot of witnesses over the last three days.
04:46 25 The SEC has a few left to go. You must continue to keep an

1 open mind through, not only the rest of their case, but until 2 the defense has had an opportunity to put on their witnesses as
3 well. So please remember that. And, of course, until you get 4 my instructions on the law and you get closing arguments from 04:46 5 the lawyers, it will be almost impossible to put all of this
6 evidence together. So you need to continue to keep your ears
7 and eyes open and listen carefully and attentive to all of the 8 evidence, which you all have done since you began your service.
9 And I know, on behalf of the lawyers, I thank you again for 04:47 10 your attention and all the scrutiny that you're paying to the 11 documents you're seeing and everything else that is going to go
12 back in evidence with you all.

13 So when you get home tonight remember, family may ask
14 you about how things are going. Other than discussing
04:47 15 scheduling, I have to make sure that you all are reminded not 16 to talk about this case with family or with friends. Do not 17 talk about the case with one another until the deliberations at 18 the end of the case.

19 Continue to please stay off any sort of social media
04:47 20 during your service. Do not post anything on any sort of 21 social media site, Instagram, Twitter, Facebook, about your 22 jury service. And very important, of course, that you do not 23 do any independent research on any of the people, places or 24 things that you've heard thus far in this case.

04:47 25 Again, we are nearing almost the end of pretty much

1 the first significant phase of the case and close to finishing
2 up the SEC's case in chief, so we're making very good progress
3 according to the trial schedule that we're on during your 4 service.

04:47 5 So tomorrow what I'd like to do is, I'm going to give 6 everybody a little bit of extra time, since it's Friday and we
7 only have two witnesses, we can all be here at 10:00, not 9:30,
8 so that gives you guys an extra 30 minutes here, so that leaves
9 a little more breathing room with traffic and everything else
04:48 10 coming in. I truthfully believe tomorrow will not be a full 11 day. I think we're going to get you guys out of here, at the 12 latest, by mid-afternoon, and we'll do our best to do that,
13 okay, so we can let you guys go on off and enjoy your weekend
14 and be with your family and friends.

04:48 15 So with that being said, of course, let me know if
16 anyone is running late. But you've got to make sure you leave
17 those notepads in the room before you leave, and we'll see
18 everybody in the jury room tomorrow morning at 10:00 a.m. You
19 are all excused.

04:48 20 (Thereupon, the jury exited the courtroom.)

21 THE COURT: Okay. Everyone, please be seated. Let's
22 just do some housekeeping here and see where we're at on a
23 number of issues before we break for the evening. Again, we 24 expect for Mr. Furman to be the first witness or we're going to 04:49 25 try to have our one investor who came out of the hospital

1 first? What do we think? I don't know how that investor is 2 doing.

3 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, the update that we got is he might
4 need a few more days. And so we're -- we were just asking if 04:49 5 maybe we can be flexible with him. If we need to, maybe we 6 even can just call him in rebuttal. So we don't know. We have 7 figured out, though, the issue with his hearing loss and how to 8 communicate. It's going to be interesting, I'll let the Court
9 know now. It will require us to type the questions and --
04:49 10 because he can speak, he'll then speak the answers. So that is 11 how it works.

12 THE COURT: So you type -- you type the questions to 13 him? This gentleman is appearing live or over Zoom?

14 MS. BERLIN: Zoom.

04:50 15 THE COURT: Okay. You guys need this witness? I
16 mean, I'm not saying that facetiously. You've got three 17 investors you've marched in that have been (inaud.). Do I need
18 a fourth one that has this many disability issues? I'm being 19 frank. This is not a witness that's going to advance your 04:50 20 cause, and it's going to be such a belabored process for one
21 more guy. I've got to ask you, you have three already,
22 arguably you can say it's somewhat cumulative. Why don't you
23 need him? I'm asking. I just can't figure out -- something
24 tells me that this gentleman is not going to be the valuable
04:50 25 witness you may think he is just by disability and limitation

1 only that's going to be hard.

2 MS. BERLIN: I know. No, I agree, Your Honor. And
3 so, you know, I do agree.

4 THE COURT: (Cross-talk) -- I mean, I'll give you a
04:50 5 chance to think about it. And I'm not saying I'm going to drag
6 him in tomorrow, but we can always call him out of turn next
7 week, but if you're telling me it's in the a medical issue,
8 it's just a hard of hearing issue --

9 MS. BERLIN: No, no, it's a medical. It's medical.

04:51 10 THE COURT: But I'm saying I don't know if it's going 11 away any time soon, it sounds like, not before the end of 12 trial. I'm just worried -- we have problems on Zoom with 13 witnesses who have no disabilities. I'm worried about typing
14 it and it really being choppy. I would just ask him -- you
04:51 15 don't have to make a decision now, but I would ask you guys to 16 seriously consider whether or not you need this witness --

17 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talk) We are. We agree. And we 18 are. We're considering that. And we're, you know, trying to 19 look at the options and if we really need him, and of course,
04:51 20 communicating with him. Because I mean, he wanted to testify
21 from his hospital bed, we had to say no. No. Of course, we 22 said no. As the Court knows, we discussed that last week. So
23 we're going to consider that, and we're probably not going to 24 do that.

04:51 25 THE COURT: But in either way -- either way let's

1 tomorrow we know you're calling Mr. Furman.

2 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

3 THE COURT: And so we can focus on that. We'll make 4 the most of our time. And I will not require the SEC to put 04:51 5 him on tomorrow, so he has more time for recovery, but I would
6 just urge that the SEC seriously consider whether putting him
7 on at all is necessary, and you guys can let me know on Monday
8 when you check in with him as to what his status is.

9 I just think -- there's also a bit of a concern -- I
04:52 10 mean, I don't really know how bad his situation is, but, you
11 know, we could get to the point where the sympathy starts to 12 outweigh any probative value for a gentleman like this coming
13 out of a hospital bed. And I already have a lot of investors
14 marching in here that are physically limited, they're older --

04:52 15 MS. BERLIN: We didn't choose the clients.

16 THE COURT: They're retirement age, so you've heard me
17 overrule any concerns on that. But this gentleman sounds even 18 more so --

19 MS. BERLIN: Mr. Furman chose these people as his 04:52 20 clients. We're just presenting the people that he solicited.

21 THE COURT: I understand. I just think at this point,
22 again --

23 MS. BERLIN: Cumulative.

24 THE COURT: -- cumulative nature, but that's the 04:52 25 part -- I've had three of them.

1 MS. BERLIN: We understand, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: So I haven't really decided yet if I'm
3 going to permit him, giving all of the limitations. I'd rather
4 give you guys the flexibility to decide yourselves if you
04:53 5 really want him or not and then you let me know on Monday,
6 okay?

7 MS. BERLIN: I appreciate that, Your Honor. We hear
8 you loud and clear.

9 THE COURT: We have a lot of witnesses.

04:53 10 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, very quickly. I'm sorry to 11 interrupt. It's something time-sensitive that developed during 12 lunch. I know we're approaching 5 o'clock. Mr. Furman had a 13 bridge issue, and he was able to get an appointment for 5:15.

14 THE COURT: He's absolutely -- as long as we have some 04:53 15 other things to do, but he doesn't have to stay. He is excused 16 if he can make his appointment.

17 MR. JOHN: He wanted to leave at 5 o'clock.

18 THE COURT: Whenever you want to leave. That's more
19 important. We're going to mostly do some housekeeping issues.
04:53 20 I mean, your lawyer is already on a position on some of these 21 Fifth Amendment things. I don't want to hold you back. So
22 that's fine.

23 All right. So we're going to have Mr. Furman testify
24 tomorrow, and that may very well be the end of the SEC's case
04:53 25 in chief. And if the SEC makes a decision as to that investor

1 tomorrow, then let me know because then I can at least explain
2 to the jury one way or the other that they may expect the SEC
3 to call that second witness out of turn so that they're not
4 wondering what's going on with that.

04:54 5 MS. BERLIN: I appreciate that. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: All right. So the issue then in
7 preparation for tomorrow is we have been talking a little bit
8 about the Fifth Amendment concerns for Mr. Furman. Just to 9 recap, the SEC had presented a list of areas that they believed 04:54 10 they were prevented from asking them questions about 11 specifically because those areas were in some way, shape or 12 form covered by the request for admissions within which 13 Mr. Furman invoked the Fifth Amendment, and there has been 14 argument that because of that, these questions were never asked
04:54 15 at deposition, those areas of inquiry were honored and Fifth 16 Amendment protected. So we don't want to have a situation
17 where Mr. Furman is on the stand tomorrow and is asked a line
18 of questions that has already been protected by the Fifth
19 Amendment.

04:55 20 So do we have an update from the parties on where we 21 are on this issue? Maybe the SEC can tell me and I'll hear
22 from defense.

23 MS. BERLIN: So we received from them their notes to 24 the things they believe were covered and not that he didn't 04:55 25 assert the Fifth to. I think these will be pretty quick and

1 easy without even looking at transcript.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MS. BERLIN: So the first one -- and I don't know if 4 defense counsel has a copy of that that they were going to 04:55 5 provide to the Court. They gave us --

6 THE COURT: (Cross-talk) -- if we have one, that's 7 great. If not --

8 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talk) -- easier.

9 THE COURT: -- I'll do it ore tenus, I guess.

04:55 10 MS. BERLIN: We can do it ore tenus.

11 So the first one is the SEC says admit that you,
12 Michael Furman, were a signatory on the Fidelis bank accounts
13 at all times prior to July 2020. They believe that testimony
14 regard -- that Mr. Furman testified that he let ABFP access the 04:55 15 bank accounts and other things about that. Somehow is 16 testimony about what we ask. I mean, I think for all of these,
17 Your Honor, we can short-circuit it.

18 Our view is if he took the Fifth on it and he wasn't
19 asked it, then that's it. The Fifth Amendment still sticks. I
04:56 20 think what they're trying to do is say, well, you asked about 21 whether other people had access and therefore, intuitively
22 that's not the Fifth or something. I don't know.

23 I think once we set a clear rule, if that's the same
24 thing obviously, it's his testimony because it is it. But if 04:56 25 he wasn't asked about it and he didn't testify to it, then the

1 Fifth Amendment stands. So it looks, to me, from looking at 2 the defendant's list, that their view is if he took the Fifth
3 on subject A and he later testified about subject B, but
4 intuitively, we should have known these two things were linked
04:57 5 or something, then the Fifth Amendment shouldn't apply.

6 I think if the Court just gives a clear explanation to 7 defense counsel about the ruling that was made last week, it
8 would address all of these issues, frankly.

9 THE COURT: Okay. I mean, I think that the easiest
04:57 10 way I can think of doing it - and I don't want to necessarily 11 split hairs, but anything that is part and parcel of the 12 request for admission, whether it's identified that you were 13 signatory or provide us with documents evidencing this fact,
14 right, because they have a request for production attached to a
04:57 15 request for documents, that is an arena that he has invoked the 16 Fifth, and therefore, we shouldn't be asking about that.

17 It's tough for me to try to divine if something is 18 just a little bit different than a request for admission but 19 was not asked at the deposition, so therefore it's arcane. I
04:58 20 think we're in that kind of space.

21 MS. BERLIN: I don't know how I would know. I want to 22 be clear. I think I know a lot about -- I only see what I see
23 in evidence. But I cannot divine how certain things are 24 connected. I mean, I'm only looking at the evidence in our 04:58 25 case and what's collected, and I don't I think that's the

1 responsibility either of us.

2 I mean, what I propose is that we take our list --
3 there's nothing that they identified that we said it's the 4 Fifth Amendment, he asserted the Fifth, and that they claim
04:58 5 that he actually testified about that same exact thing that I'm 6 seeing on their list.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Can you guys explain? Maybe you
8 guys can give me what your proposed solution is so I can 9 understand it.

04:58 10 MR. HYMAN: First of all, Your Honor, that's not
11 accurate. For example, the first question that Ms. Berlin
12 asked -- where Mr. Berlin said, hey, he testified that ABFP was 13 a signatory. There's at least three or four different 14 questions during Mr. Furman's deposition as to who was 04:59 15 signatories on his bank account.

16 Similarly, Mr. LaForte's criminal background,
17 Ms. Berlin spent a good 30, 45 minutes going through each
18 person and saying: Who did you discuss about this criminal
19 background with Mr. LaForte. Same thing with the New Jersey
04:59 20 regulatory issues. Who did you discuss the New Jersey
21 regulatory issues with? And started going into details about 22 those lines of questions.

23 Similarly, Your Honor, at one point during the 24 deposition which we have referenced, Ms. Berlin started saying,
04:59 25 as she was going through investor by investor: What did you

1 say to this investor? What did you say to that investor?

2 She said: You know what, I'm going to go get the list
3 of investors, and I'm going to go through that list in its
4 entirety. Which meant she was on notice, was prepared to go
04:59 5 through that list. Mr. Furman did not respond by asserting the 6 Fifth, did not take an issue with it.

7 There was a break. After the break Ms. Berlin said:
8 You know what, I'm not going to go through what you said to 9 each and every single investor because it's not worth the time,
05:00 10 we're not going to finish up today.

11 As it relates to kind of the underlying issue of 12 either prejudice or otherwise, Your Honor noted that there
13 would be latitude in terms of areas of inquiry in terms of the 14 request for admission in the deposition questions. Because 05:00 15 obviously what you're saying, admit that, for example, Dean
16 Vagnozzi prepared your advertising materials, she's saying that 17 unless I said did Dean Vagnozzi prepare your advertising
18 materials, that the Fifth Amendment stands. However, during 19 the deposition she said: Who prepared your advertising
05:00 20 materials? Did Par Funding send you the advertising materials?
21 How are these materials sent?

22 And when you're looking at whether or not to allow a
23 witness to testify when he sat for deposition for 8 plus hours,
24 then, Your Honor, it's about kind of fairness. And in our 05:00 25 view, more importantly too, is this is a point where we're not

1 trying to call Mr. Furman as our witness to put up evidence or
2 testimony on these issues.

3 And to the extent the SEC wants to ask him, did you
4 file these requests for admissions, did you plead the Fifth in 05:01 5 response to this request for admission, they're welcome to do
6 that, and from there he can testify about those issues that
7 they choose or not to open the door to those questions.

8 The real issue, as I understand the kind of Fifth
9 Amendment issue, is the sword and shield, which means that we 05:01 10 cannot say, hey, look, we're going to refuse to answer the 11 question on a request for admission but then afterwards have us
12 put him on the stand to answer the questions that he refused to 13 answer based on the Fifth.

14 To the extent the SEC chooses or not to ask him
05:01 15 questions and he chooses or not in response to each question to 16 answer or testify as to that, I think that's the SEC's
17 strategic decision to make as opposed to Mr. Furman's. And if 18 he chooses to invoke the Fifth when they're questioning him,
19 the jury will hear that and then get the adverse inference.

05:01 20 MS. BERLIN: I think the Court made a ruling on this
21 already. I think we have already been there, done that for a
22 long time last week. I think we have moved beyond this and 23 we're at phase 2.

24 Phase 2, Your Honor, is we discussed coming up with a
05:02 25 simple list so everyone's on the same page. Mr. Furman knows

1 what he can't testify about, defense counsel knows what they
2 can't ask about. And the SEC knows. We're all on the same
3 page.

4 As I said, we gave a list to Mr. Furman's counsel.
05:02 5 They came back with what they -- cites to the deposition. Each
6 of the cites they gave is like a cite with a long discussion of 7 how it could relate to what I asked, and what I'm saying is and
8 perhaps, Your Honor, I think it's going to be very clear when 9 Your Honor sees it that it's not the same thing. And they're 05:02 10 not even claiming it is.

11 Perhaps the SEC should file that list of what we plan
12 to do tomorrow with the Fifth Amendment. It takes me a while 13 to get home from here. I'll probably get home -- maybe do it 14 by 8:00 when I get home. Mr. Hyman could then provide his 05:03 15 written response and we can file -- and file the excerpts of 16 the deposition that he believes link up to each one. And we 17 could discuss it at 9:30.

18 Because I personally believe it's going to go in 19 circles. I'm going to give you an example. We asked the 05:03 20 question: Admit that you, Mr. Furman, were a signatory on a 21 Fidelis bank account at all times prior to July 27th, 2020. In 22 response, Mr. Furman has given us something, talking about how 23 he testified that ABFP was allowed to access his records. No.
24 ABFP is not what we asked about.

05:04 25 THE COURT: It's not responsive.

1 MS. BERLIN: Thank you. And I think they're all just
2 like that, Your Honor. And I believe that if -- just -- I'm
3 just trying to make it easier for the Court. I'm even happy to 4 take this and put it into a notice so I don't have to have my 05:04 5 defense counsel do work and file it for the Court with the 6 deposition transcript or just those excerpts so the Court could
7 look at it. I think it would help streamline things. Whatever
8 you want, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Let me ask this: If you have those areas
05:04 10 of inquiry that you believe are within the scope of your 11 deposition, right, and you go ahead and you conduct your direct
12 examination the way you believe is compliant with his Fifth
13 Amendment, right?

14 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

05:04 15 THE COURT: I don't think there's going to be a
16 problem, right? I don't think there will be an objection.
17 Probably not. Suddenly they want to weigh the Fifth across the 18 board anyway. But I think you can try to do your direct 19 examination the way you see fit based upon what you've asked at 05:05 20 the depo and based upon what was protected by the Fifth
21 Amendment invocation on requests for admission.

22 And then I think the only thing beyond that would then
23 be I'd have a copy of the request for admissions, and then if 24 on cross-examination a question is asked that touches on any 05:05 25 one of those, I will sustain an objection.

1 MS. BERLIN: Oh, that's great.

2 THE COURT: I don't know any other way. That seems a
3 lot easier to me than trying to figure out -- I don't know.
4 I'm trying to think of another way.

05:05 5 MS. BERLIN: I think it's a great idea.

6 THE COURT: Because if I have the areas -- quite
7 frankly, if I have the request for admissions in front of me
8 when you do your direct, I should be able to divine whether or 9 not anything you're touching on is any one of those areas or at 05:05 10 least distinct from it because there's not anything about this 11 depo that I'm worried about. It's about the RFAs. Right?
12 That's what matters. What matters is that I don't allow a
13 question to change under the RFA --

14 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talk) -- that's it.

05:06 15 THE COURT: Yeah. So if I have the request for 16 admissions in front of me with those questions, I should be 17 able to monitor the questioning. And if one of the questions
18 that's asked of him by either party runs, in my view, too close
19 to one of those issues then I'm going to sustain the objection.
05:06 20 That might be the best way to do it.

21 MS. BERLIN: I like it, Your Honor. Thank you so
22 much.

23 THE COURT: I just don't know an easier way to do it.
24 I'm sure you probably have an extra copy somewhere.

05:06 25 MS. BERLIN: We put one in your binder.

1 THE COURT: That seems so much easier then I can just
2 say -- because the whole point of my ruling was, we can't
3 invoke the Fifth and then later on disassociate ourselves from 4 it on the eve of trial. If I just look at the request for
05:06 5 admissions and I make sure that we don't deviate in testimony
6 or questioning from the invocation of the Fifth in those
7 areas -- and you're right, there may be some that I say, you
8 know what, close but doesn't touch that third rail, doesn't 9 touch that issue, you can answer it. But I think I've just got 05:06 10 to patrol based upon that and that's the only way to do it.

11 MR. HYMAN: The side issue, Your Honor, and this is 12 part of where, at least in my view, because I've been getting 13 smarter on the Fifth Amendment case law and the issue. The 14 issue of what happens and how the Court is supposed to treat
05:07 15 the invocation of the Fifth Amendment when someone asserts it
16 in response to their request for admissions or otherwise, is 17 essentially a balancing test where Your Honor's -- the courts
18 are supposed to balance a kind of right of a person to assert
19 the Fifth, and especially in a case like this where Mr. Furman
05:07 20 was subsequently deposed and responded to interrogatories as 21 well.

22 THE COURT: Let me (cross-talk) -- wait a minute.
23 You're arguing a motion again now because you've studied up on 24 some of the case law and that's great, but I'm not going to 05:07 25 change my ruling.

1 Now, on the adverse inference analysis, we will
2 discuss that at charge conference because that is a different
3 episode. Look at SEC vs. Monterosso and some of the cases that 4 talk about adverse inferences.

05:07 5 And Gig, that's 746 F.Supp. 2nd 1253.

6 But the adverse inference analysis I've got to get to 7 later. That is still up for discussion. We have to talk about 8 whether or not adverse inference structure might be 9 appropriate, how we're going do them, et cetera, based upon an 05:08 10 indication of the Fifth and request for admission. That's a --

11 MS. BERLIN: On a question-by-question basis and only 12 as to the ones that the SEC even requests. So that's for 13 later.

14 THE COURT: That's for later, and it depends on your
05:08 15 question and then I'm going to hear argument so that issue I
16 think is definitely still something we'll iron out later.

17 But for purposes of the Court's prior ruling, the 18 Court has held fairly clearly at this point, unequivocally,
19 that despite all the circumstances surrounding Mr. Furman's
05:08 20 representation, his lack thereof, his unwillingness to testify,
21 he unequivocally invoked the Fifth on request for admission.
22 On the eve of trial he decided he wanted to answer everything.
23 The prejudice caused by that on the eve of trial where the SEC
24 has been, at least under the impression, that these areas were 05:08 25 off limits for trial prep purposes for a long time, that to me

1 is already been exactly what you mentioned just now, Mr. Hyman,
2 the analysis has to be done.

3 I conducted that analysis last week, and I found that
4 the balances that need to be undertaken there was problematic
05:09 5 towards the SEC to allow him to change his position because it,
6 in my view, materially impacted the nature of the deposition
7 that was taken and the areas of inquiry that were touched on 8 based upon the SEC's concern that he was not unequivocal in his
9 dissociation or withdrawal of the Fifth Amendment in his RFAs,
05:09 10 partly because he was without counsel so they were even more
11 concerned about walking him into admission that he had invoked
12 the Fifth Amendment on before.

13 So to your point, yes, it's a balancing test, the 14 Court conducted it, and I think by any measure, one of the most 05:09 15 important things that has to be considered is the timing of the 16 withdrawal, and that's what matters here. Had, at some point,
17 you decided well in advance of trial that he was going to sit
18 down and take the remaining issues off the table, we might have 19 had time for a followup depo, we might have had time -- you
05:10 20 know, there were all sorts of things we could have done.

21 The problem is it happened literally on the eve of 22 trial with the motion to amend or request admissions filed, I
23 believe it was either the Sunday before or the Friday before.
24 So that -- that's why the prejudice is uncurable given the 05:10 25 trial prep angle, and that's why we have to do it this way.

1 That's been the Court's ruling now a couple of times, and I do
2 think the balancing test is a record that's been laid (inaud.)
3 I don't want to really re-litigate that.

4 MR. HYMAN: I'm not trying to, Your Honor. My 05:10 5 understanding of Your Honor's ruling is that to the extent that
6 he was questioned during his deposition, we can show the area
7 of inquiry was covered during the deposition, and it was 8 otherwise kind of like the investor example, which we can deal
9 with in the morning. But to the extent it was covered in his
05:10 10 deposition, then we can do the comparison and he can testify
11 to. That was my interrogatories. And so long as that's the 12 case, we're perfectly fine with Your Honor's ruling. I thought
13 you were saying earlier that whatever you put in the RFAs
14 stands, notwithstanding the deposition testimony, as opposed to 05:11 15 that he can testify to the scope of his depo.

16 THE COURT: So the SEC understands, this is a problem.
17 You're flipping it, and you have to be very careful. I'm not 18 agreeing with the way you want to do it. What you're doing is 19 almost impossible for the Court to manage. You want to say, if 05:11 20 I touched on it at any point in the depo, it's fair game now.

21 MS. BERLIN: I don't.

22 THE COURT: No, no, no, that's what Mr. Hyman is 23 asking. He wants it to be conducted by the depo not the RFA.
24 That is the opposite way to do it. The RFA is what attacks his 05:11 25 Fifth amendment that's the question and it's the area I have to

1 worry about not switching. I'm not going to sit there and say
2 this is close enough to what was asked in a deposition a
3 deposition by the way of 8 hours with tops of line and page
4 numbers is the court is not able to effective secure a
05:11 5 deposition transcript to find out if what you asked is close
6 enough.

7 The way to could it is look at categories of Fifth
8 Amendment protection where it's been invoked so go find RFAs
9 and if I see either side touch on a question that is too close
05:12 10 one of the requests then that won't be asked. It's the inverse
11 of that is just a lot easier to do. Your argument has been you
12 believe that he has been asked questions that were in the RFAs
13 and he has subsequently weighed that.

14 I understand that in the SEC's view, they took great 05:12 15 pains not to touch on those things. (Inaud.) It's very 16 difficult though but the Court it not sit here and manage the 17 Fifth Amendment privilege by looking at the depo transcript it
18 would be too difficult.

19 The best thing I can do is quite honestly, I think the 05:12 20 best scenario is work off the request for admissions, and if at 21 some point there becomes a situation where you have a line and 22 page -- and what I would recommend that be done tomorrow is 23 that I get tomorrow morning a copy of the RFA and a copy the 24 deposition in front of me and if at some point tomorrow there
05:13 25 is an RFA where I sustain an objection and you can point to me

1 a line and page that is so opening the door that that waiver
2 took place in the depo, then I can at least reconsider it. I
3 mean, that's the best I can do.

4 So I think that we should start with the presumption
05:13 5 that I'm going to patrol the RFAs, and then if something went 6 into that arena, show me the line and page. But I'm going to 7 start with the presumption that the RFA areas are off limits.
8 It's the only way I can do it effective because if not, I'm
9 going to be getting objections and it's going to be a mess. It
05:13 10 should be line and page issues constantly during the Furman
11 inquiry, and that's going to be problematic.

12 I will say this: I don't believe, and I don't see a
13 situation where the SEC is going to be facing a lot of 14 objections because you guys really are -- feel like Furman
05:13 15 should be allowed to answer everything. They're going to 16 self-police because they don't want to go ahead and open up the 17 door when you guys go forward.

18 That may be the bigger problem because I expect that
19 you gentlemen are going to attempt to ask questions that you
05:14 20 think he waived the Fifth Amendment privilege on in his depo,
21 and that's where I'm going have to have you guys point to me a
22 line and page and say, yeah, Judge, RFA number 3 has a Fifth
23 Amendment indication, but page 15 line 17 through 20, he 24 absolutely waived that by answering a question that was the 05:14 25 same as the RFA. That's the best I can script it. I won't

1 know until I see the questions play out. But it's got to work
2 off the RFA. If not, it's going to be too problematic.

3 Your concept of working off the depo isn't wrong, but
4 I'm just cautioning you that I'm not going to be scouring the 05:14 5 depo; I'm going to be watching the RFA. You know what I mean?
6 That's --

7 MR. HYMAN: (Cross-talk) Yes, Your Honor. And 8 perhaps what may make the most sense from a practical
9 perspective is we move forward. Obviously, if the SEC wants to 05:14 10 call our client as a witness, that's fine. And then whenever 11 it gets there, as it gets closer to the point where we would 12 call Mr. Furman to testify, we can have a much-more
13 comprehensive or easier digest of those issues for Your Honor,
14 so that way we don't have to waste or spend jury time dealing
05:14 15 with it.

16 THE COURT: What do you mean? You mean when you
17 recall Furman in your case in chief? Is that what you're 18 talking about?

19 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

05:15 20 THE COURT: So I mean, I think that the key will be
21 when you recall him and you're doing the direct examination, I
22 can't imagine that I wouldn't start doing the same exercise.
23 I'm still going to have RFAs on one hand and I'm going to have 24 depo transcripts on the other.

05:15 25 It doesn't matter who is asking the questions. What's

1 going to happen -- I don't need a crystal ball.

2 What's going to happen here -- and I'm sure the SEC is
3 -- you can just tune in with me here for a second. What's 4 going to happen and what I'm worried about is that either in 05:15 5 the cross-examination -- really, it's an adverse witness, so
6 I'm going to let you lead a little more than what you've 7 already been leading for that. But when you get into the 8 rehabilitation portion of it by the defense -- because it's 9 their client -- I expect that there may be a question asked by 05:15 10 the defense that you believe they can't answer because he's 11 invoked the Fifth.

12 Conversely, when they put on Furman, there's going to 13 be a direct -- they're going to ask and you're going to say
14 they can't ask because the problem is you've maintained it's 05:16 15 going to be a cat in the bag that no one knew until the day of 16 trial because he pled the Fifth.

17 MS. BERLIN: Yes, that's what's going to happen.

18 THE COURT: I know it's going to happen. I hate to 19 say it. I have faith in everyone, but I know it's going to 05:16 20 happen. So the challenge for me is going to be, I have to have 21 the depo at the ready so that if there's an objection when you
22 guys ask, you guys have to be ready, because you guys need to 23 have a line and page number ready to go.

24 So if you know that Ms. Berlin is going to say,
05:16 25 objection, that's off limits or however she wants to word it,

1 maybe she doesn't obviously say Fifth Amendment. She's going
2 to say something to the extent of motion in limine, objection.
3 You guys have to say, Your Honor, page 13, line 12 through 15,
4 so I can quickly look at it and say, wait a minute, no, no, no,
05:16 5 he opened the door to that in the depo. Keep asking.

6 That's the only way I can do it. And that's fine,
7 because you've got to be ready, though, to point me to it,
8 because if I don't see it, I can't overrule it unless I see
9 where -- (cross-talk)

05:16 10 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talk) -- and Your Honor?

11 MR. HYMAN: (Cross-talk) -- and we can brief it a
12 little more.

13 THE COURT: That's the only way to do it.

14 MS. BERLIN: There's one other issue. So if
05:17 15 Mr. Furman thinks that he testified about in the deposition, 16 that -- and it's -- I want to be clear on one thing, just to 17 give a primer.

18 In the deposition -- keep in mind we only ask him
19 about the Fidelis notes and his codefendants, right? The RFP
05:17 20 is broken down and maybe when the Court looks at it, the first 21 section is about the Par Funding note, which are not Fidelis
22 note.

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MS. BERLIN: The second section is about the ABFP
05:17 25 notes, and the third section of it is the Fidelis notes. And

1 so we're highlighting for you right now -- because we went
2 through the deposition -- things I asked him in the deposition,
3 the things that touched upon it, we're not highlighting. The 4 things we're highlighting are the things that we believe he 05:17 5 still asserted the Fifth to.

6 THE COURT: The things you are highlighting?

7 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

8 THE COURT: So anything in the depo transcript you
9 highlighted is off limits, right?

05:18 10 MS. BERLIN: Anything we highlight in the RFP is off
11 limits. We're going to give you a copy of that right now with 12 the deposition transcript so you have both.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MS. BERLIN: And then, you know, because Mr. Furman
05:18 15 took the Fifth in his RFAs, his request for admission, he 16 asserts the Fifth. He might later testify, but he never amends
17 his RFA. So in my view, that's fair game.

18 If he testified at his deposition, he never corrected
19 his RFA, we can ask him. Now, when you were first asked this 05:18 20 question you asserted the Fifth Amendment, because he did. And 21 he still hasn't even -- I mean, that was a year ago. I'm 22 sorry. I know they wanted to --

23 MR. HYMAN: (Cross-talk) -- we have no objection to 24 that, Your Honor.

05:18 25 MS. BERLIN: So we might do that. But otherwise --

1 THE COURT: (Cross-talk) -- I think that's fair.
2 When they put him on, and -- I mean, well, it could come up
3 also. Look, I'm sure there will be rehabilitation and explain
4 why at the time he invoked the Fifth, you guys are going to 5 explain why that happened, you know, without counsel, with 6 counsel. He wasn't sure. Since then he's now figured out that 7 he was either misadvised or he wasn't clear. In fact, he 8 thought at the depo that he planned on talking and talked about 9 all these things.

05:19 10 Because I could see a jury deciding that you know
11 what, why if someone was so concerned about the Fifth would 12 they go sit for a depo? So they may generally believe that 13 Furman fully intended to waive all of this when he went into a
14 deposition. So they're going to have to decide is he playing 05:19 15 around with the Fifth or is he actually trying to --

16 MS. BERLIN: No. But why would we do that,
17 Your Honor? I kind of disagree with that.

18 THE COURT: Well, you can impeach him on it.

19 MS. BERLIN: No, but we could have. We're trying to 05:19 20 compromise with the defendants. Because what I told them
21 initially was -- and what we would be perfectly within our 22 right to do, and as the rule states, the Federal Rules of 23 Evidence state that request for admission stands. Let's say he 24 went in and he waived his rights and he testifies, but he never 05:20 25 goes back --

1 THE COURT: And amend them.

2 MS. BERLIN: -- they would be admitted.

3 THE COURT: Correct.

4 MS. BERLIN: We're not -- so allowing it to be like
05:20 5 oh, well, that rule doesn't apply and now he gets to explain
6 his RFAs, no, no, no.

7 THE COURT: Listen, you know and I know, we all
8 understand what's going to happen here. If you -- let's just 9 play it out. If he says something and you confront him with 05:20 10 the fact that three months ago or four months ago he invoked
11 the Fifth Amendment, they're going to ask about that. And 12 they're going to say: Well, you invoked the Fifth Amendment
13 privilege back then. Why did you do that?

14 And a he's going to say: Well, I wasn't sure. You
05:20 15 know, I was nervous. I'm sure he's going to give an 16 explanation. It doesn't change the fact that that's his sworn 17 answer, but I'm telling you, I don't think I can stop him from 18 explaining why would he have changed and suddenly come and 19 speak with you and feel so comfortable if he invoked the Fifth
05:20 20 back then. But I agree with you. It doesn't change -- he 21 can't run away from that admission. He invoked it, and it will 22 be part of the record.

23 MS. BERLIN: And we're requesting a jury instruction
24 on it.

05:21 25 THE COURT: (Cross-talk.)

1 MS. BERLIN: On the adverse inference and the
2 admission, because for an instruction on the admissions are 3 admissions.

4 THE COURT: No, I don't disagree with you, but I just
05:21 5 think that we all need to understand that on rehabilitation, I
6 expect -- I mean, it makes common sense. They're going to want
7 to have try to explain why he would do that, and it doesn't
8 mean the jury doesn't say we don't believe you and ultimately 9 take an adverse inference, which they can do. We're going to 05:21 10 talk about that.

11 MS. BERLIN: But it won't come up if we -- we're not 12 going to ask anything that's on that list.

13 THE COURT: I don't think it's going to come up on 14 your direct.

05:21 15 MS. BERLIN: No.

16 THE COURT: I can only see it coming up on a cross
17 tomorrow --

18 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

19 THE COURT: -- which I think is before or in their
05:21 20 direct examination on Monday or whenever they call him. So I
21 just have to -- I have it now. I have this is the depo. So I
22 want to make sure I have everything. This is --

23 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talk) The long document --

24 THE COURT: (Cross-talk) Is the response to this
05:21 25 pretty short?

1 MS. BERLIN: That's the depo. It's short.

2 THE COURT: I think this is the depo of Villarose.

3 MS. BERLIN: Oh, no. Did we give you the wrong one?

4 THE COURT: Yeah. I want the Furman one.

05:22 5 MS. BERLIN: That was my mistake.

6 THE COURT: This is Villarose. What I do have -- what
7 I do have in front of me is his responses to the RFA which I
8 did need.

9 MS. BERLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

05:22 10 THE COURT: And let me make sure I got the right
11 thing. And here it is. And is this the one that you
12 highlighted then, the one I have here?

13 MS. BERLIN: The RFA is highlighted, yeah.

14 THE COURT: Let me just see. Okay.

05:22 15 MS. BERLIN: I think it starts with number 6.

16 THE COURT: Yeah.

17 MS. BERLIN: And there were some things that were 18 basic that I didn't highlight because, you know, he testified
19 about it or it was, you know, something that at this point I
05:22 20 think --

21 THE COURT: Got it.

22 MS. BERLIN: It wouldn't be really be fair. They 23 don't like the way we're doing things. He's the president of 24 Fidelis and things like that.

05:22 25 THE COURT: Are these documents that are with it?

1 MS. BERLIN: Yeah.

2 THE COURT: Are they the ones he produced or didn't
3 produce?

4 MS. BERLIN: Oh, we have an update on that too,
05:22 5 Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: I'm talking about this. Is this part of 7 the production?

8 MS. BERLIN: That's it. That is my request for 9 admissions to him asking him about those documents.

05:23 10 THE COURT: You produced this?

11 MS. BERLIN: I gave it to him, yes.

12 THE COURT: I wasn't sure.

13 MS. BERLIN: Asking for admissions about certain 14 Fidelis records from investors. I got them from a host of 05:23 15 sources.

16 THE COURT: Got it. So again, it's pretty straight
17 forward. I have the RFAs here right in front of me, and I can 18 just watch them, and these are things you referenced in your 19 RFAs. I just want to separate them as I glean through them.
05:23 20 Is this possible that I can mess with these documents? Is this 21 my copy?

22 MS. BERLIN: That's your set. Yes. And one thing
23 just to make it easier, because I've been living with that
24 document for a while and it's long because it has his answers
25 each time, I wonder if it would be helpful for the Court if we

1 took those RFAs out and put it on one sheet of paper.

2 THE COURT: I think I might be okay.

3 MS. BERLIN: You can let us know.

4 I have my own that's on one sheet because it's easier
5 for me to review.

6 THE COURT: So you're able to squeeze all of the 7 questions on the one sheet?

8 MS. BERLIN: Yeah. I just made two columns for me
9 when I'm examining him.

10 THE COURT: I can make a rule faster.

11 MS. BERLIN: I thought so. I'll bring you a copy of 12 what I made for myself.

13 THE COURT: All 95 questions?

14 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, it's not even 95. It's only the 15 ones that I highlighted. So I just put it into a couple of 16 columns. So I have my own roadmap and I'll share that.

17 THE COURT: So you will take the highlighted questions
18 that you believe are off limits and put them into one document.

19 MS. BERLIN: Yeah, yeah.

20 THE COURT: That's fine. I can work with that.

21 MS. BERLIN: Just so you have it in one place. That's 22 easier.

23 THE COURT: I can work with that. I have that.

24 MS. BERLIN: We have an update too, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Yes, so what is the update?

1 MS. BERLIN: Remember that e-mail which was supposedly
2 sent to me with a password? It doesn't exist. They have now
3 admitted that.

4 THE COURT: Remind me. Was that in response to an
5 argument made that they did produce documents? Is that where 6 it came from? I'm trying to remember.

7 MS. BERLIN: They came in this morning, and the first
8 thing that happened was they came to the Court and told the 9 Court over Zoom and for everyone to watch that I lied to you
10 and that, in fact, they gave me the password for Mr. Furman's
11 laptop.

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 MS. BERLIN: And the Court -- and I said I am not
14 aware of that. And they said they had an e-mail. The Court
15 directed them to provide it to me.

16 THE COURT: Right.

17 MS. BERLIN: They never did. We spoke with them
18 during the lunch break and -- correct me if I'm wrong, guys,
19 but I believe that they're going to tell you that they 20 misspoke.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. BERLIN: And that they never gave me a password to
23 Mr. Furman's laptop. And, in fact, we looked -- and Mr. Kolaya
24 is here. He had the laptop. So the FBI seized the laptop. We 25 sent it to our forensics lab at the SEC in Arlington, our

1 forensics lab. We couldn't get into it because we couldn't get
2 the password. We showed them the e-mails from Mr. Furman's
3 prior counsel telling the FBI and Mr. Kolaya that Mr. Furman
4 could not remember his password. Both agencies as well as the
5 OFR, which is present here today and will tell you the same
6 thing --

7 THE COURT: Right.

8 MS. BERLIN: -- tried to get Mr. Furman's password
9 over the course of -- what was it a year? -- a year with a
10 search warrant. He wouldn't give us his password, Your Honor.
11 We were never able to get into the laptop. The SEC, OFR, the 12 FBI and Mr. Kolaya is here to say the same. I don't know if 13 the defense wants to confirm that.

14 THE COURT: Tell me what happened. So we never had an 15 e-mail -- or we never had a password?

16 MR. HYMAN: To be clear is what Ms. Berlin was talking
17 about the laptop, we didn't realize it was the physical 18 computer itself. Mr. Furman provided the password for his 19 OneDrive, his iCloud, his iPhones which were turned over, and 20 all of the basically electronic versions his computer.

21 And as we understand it, based on what Mr. Furman told 22 us, we also had worked with Mr. Stumphauzer to provide him with 23 BitLocker. There was some sort of BitLocker code to the laptop
24 that somehow didn't work, but the reality is that the SEC
25 produced more than 2 million pages of documents --

1 MS. BERLIN: From other people.

2 MR. HYMAN: -- from Fidelis. These were all produced
3 as a result of them taking and having access to Mr. Furman's
4 iCloud and Fidelis's business records as part of this. I mean,
5 that's what happened.

6 MS. BERLIN: Can you explain -- Your Honor, that's not
7 true. I'm sorry. I was giving you an out.

8 THE COURT: Maybe I can get -- Mr. Kolaya, on behalf
9 of the receiver, did you want to tell me what the latest is so
10 I know exactly what's happening on behalf of my receiver?

11 MR. KOLAYA: I will do my best. Timothy Kolaya on 12 behalf of the receiver, Ryan Stumphauzer. Ms. Berlin is 13 correct that originally the FBI came in and seized the devices.
14 Those devices were ultimately turned over to the SEC for 15 imaging. The laptop computer has never been fully processed.
16 The reason is because there were two issues: A password and a
17 BitLocker encryption.

18 And we never had the information for that. There were 19 extensive communications with Jeff Cox, former counsel for 20 Mr. Furman. But we were never able to get access to that.

21 THE COURT: Do you have, by any chance -- Gigi, I am
22 having difficulty searching the realtime. Can you help me find 23 the realtime this morning so I can read back what was said to 24 me by defense counsel? I want to read it exactly what was said
25 to me about this password. Can you help me find that?

1 I want to make sure I understand. Because when I
2 heard it this morning, I thought it was representation that
3 full access to the laptop had been given and a password had
4 been turned over so that the SEC could not maintain an argument
5 that they were provided all documents in this case. That's
6 what I thought was said this morning.

7 MS. BERLIN: They brought it up out of the blue
8 talking about how I misrepresented to the Court and that I did,
9 in fact, get the password and that they had an e-mail that was 10 supposedly going to prove this to the Court. And if you
11 remember, I said: Oh, my gosh. If I had the password -- all
12 these people have been waiting on the password. Maybe I made a
13 mistake and maybe I got the e-mail. So I asked him over and 14 over: Can you show me this e-mail where I supposedly was given
15 the password? And they never could. And it doesn't exist
16 because it never happened.

17 MR. JOHN: Can I -- because I'm the one that said it.

18 MS. BERLIN: Look at the record to see what was said.

19 THE COURT: I'm going to pull up the record anyway
20 just to make sure. I want to make sure I got it corrected. If 21 I don't do it today, I'll do it tomorrow morning.

22 But, yeah, go ahead, Counsel.

23 MR. JOHN: Your Honor, what I said this morning was,
24 we have an e-mail demonstrating that we provided them with the 25 password for his -- for his -- access to his document

1 information. That's how they were able to get the information
2 to us.

3 THE COURT: Which information, though?

4 MR. JOHN: I'm about to explain. The e-mail we'll
5 admit, I interchangeably used the receiver with them because
6 it's my understanding they got the documents from the receiver.
7 So to the extent that's a misstatement, I acknowledge that.
8 But what I was sayings was, Ms. Berlin came in and said, when 9 we were making those original arguments regarding RFAs, that 10 she had received zero production from Mr. Furman. And I led 11 saying that it's -- that is a misstatement and it's misleading
12 for two reasons. One, he couldn't produce in the traditional 13 sense because they had his laptop, they had his phone and would 14 not release it to him until he was able to -- until they were 15 able to image the devices.

16 That e-mail shows they had access to his iCloud, which 17 Mr. Furman confirmed to us is the backup for his laptop.
18 That's why in their exhibit list there are documents that they 19 are objecting saying they didn't have.

20 THE COURT: Let me hear from my receiver. Something
21 about -- I mean, yeah.

22 Mr. Kolaya, they're telling me now that you may have 23 had access to the laptop, but somehow they turned over the 24 access to the iCloud account. Was there anything on the 25 laptop?

1 MR. KOLAYA: Your Honor --

2 MS. BERLIN: (Cross-talking) from the SEC, Your Honor,
3 which is not the receiver.

4 MR. KOLAYA: The receiver, when he took over
5 United Fidelis, obtained passwords for a OneDrive account.

6 Now, some of the files on the OneDrive account were a
7 mirror of some documents on a laptop. It's not the entire
8 laptop. And the issue, I think, today is that there are 9 potentially are other documents on that laptop that were not on 10 the OneDrive and not made available to the SEC or the receiver,
11 because we didn't have a password to access that laptop.

12 THE COURT: Yeah. Okay. All right. So that -- I
13 guess the bottom line is, one way or the other, any 14 representations by the defense that the universe of documents
15 has been produced in this case is blatantly false.

16 MR. JOHN: That wasn't the representation, Your Honor.
17 It was a representation they made that no documents -- they 18 came in and said no documents --

19 THE COURT: Guys, guys. Both of you guys need to 20 tread -- I've said it already. You've got to tread lightly.
21 You're in a Federal Court, you're making representations. This 22 is your reputation, both of you, 2017 grad, four years out,
23 eight years out, okay, you guys are young guys, you don't need
24 to start off your careers getting into hot water with 25 misrepresentations like this. I'm warning both of you.

1 I'm hearing from my receiver's counsel that not the
2 universe was produced. You came in this morning and accused
3 the SEC of misrepresenting something to me that they sat on 4 evidence. You cannot throw those statements around lightly.
5 And you guys are up and coming and you're working hard, and I
6 don't want you to guys to come out of a trial like this, taking
7 a hit on your reputation by making those kinds of statements.

8 The reality is, not all of it was produced. Your 9 client, whatever he's telling you, maybe take it with a grain
10 of salt, okay, so you guys understand, because all of that 11 wasn't provided to the receiver's counsel. And I'm worried
12 because you guys are coming in with these kind of definitive
13 statements and that's a universe of documents.

14 And remember, it's not even worth that argument
15 because at the end of the day, even if some was produced to the 16 OneDrive, it is not fully responsive to the SEC's outstanding
17 request. And that has been the reason why the Court can't sit 18 here and say, it doesn't matter you invoke the Fifth because 19 the SEC has the whole universe, and this is no prejudice.

20 It's false. You cannot invoke the Fifth, produce
21 nothing, give a partial production, hide behind that and then
22 say, no one is prejudiced. If it's not fulsome then you can't 23 come in here and say, we have turned it all over, they've had 24 it all from day one. That wasn't accurate. And I'm just 25 telling you guys, you know, we have evidence of this. This has

1 been longstanding. This is not like it's new. We've been
2 trying to get access, I'm told, to this laptop for a while, and
3 he hasn't been able to provide it. And whatever he did provide 4 is selective.

5 So the problem here is, if it's selective and he, in 6 the middle of his testimony, (inaud.) Fifth Amendment and drops
7 a bomb on something that no one has seen because he hasn't
8 turned it over in his laptop, that's prejudice. And if that 9 happens in trial, I can't put the genie back in the bottle. It
10 completely upends trial preparation. And that's why I can't,
11 again, go ahead and let you guys amend the RFAs or amend the 12 Request For Production at this stage of the game. But I'm just 13 telling you guys, it's not accurate.

14 And I, quite honestly, I understand everyone's
15 frustrated, but we've got to be very careful when we're talking
16 about forensic imaging and documents produced, because this is 17 not accurate. What's happening is not accurate, and this has 18 been a problem from the beginning of this case and throughout 19 this case. So be very careful with what's been produced and 20 what's been said. We don't need to argue about this anymore.
21 Okay?

22 If you guys misstated it and you misrepresented it,
23 I'll take it as it is, but going forward, dealing with 24 Mr. Furman tomorrow and his testimony, you guys have got to be 25 careful with these issues. Okay? That's all I'm going to say.

1 MR. HYMAN: I have one very, very brief statement,
2 Your Honor. I apologize to Ms. Berlin, to the Court and others
3 to the extent that there was perceived -- or that there's these
4 issues that have occurred.

5 THE COURT: All right, that's fine. Like I said, it's
6 not worth it, to get caught up on this. Look at the Court's
7 ruling. You guys already have a lot of latitude with the 8 questioning of Furman, both in cross and in your case in chief.
9 So I think a lot of this is somewhat overblown, you know.

10 You've got to work with the deck you're handed. And 11 you guys walked into this case late in the game, and it's not 12 an enviable position. But you've got to do the best of what 13 you've got and you have enough here to mount a defense and try
14 to explain Mr. Furman's role and position on some of these
15 things. So let's focus on that. Let's not focus on, you know,
16 rereading what was produced, you know, three months ago or 17 never produced. I just think it's not a good use of resources.

18 MR. HYMAN: I hold myself accountable for our errors,
19 and again, we apologize.

20 THE COURT: That's fine. It's accepted. I don't want
21 you guys to hurt yourself. That's all I'm saying. All right.

22 MR. HYMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 MS. BERLIN: I wanted to flag one thing about the --
24 some of the documents -- some of the exhibits, so it's on the 25 radar of everyone -- and we've explained this to defense

1 counsel. We have numerous e-mails -- Mr. Furman couldn't
2 recall his password. He wouldn't give his password. He
3 couldn't remember his password is what they wrote.

4 Then we returned the laptop to him having never gotten
5 into it. Exhibits have appeared in their exhibits. We believe
6 they came from that laptop. We will be objecting as those
7 are -- if they attempt to introduce -- and I just want it say
8 this: If any documents from that laptop that supposedly he did
9 not know a password for are introduced, we will object. I have 10 gone through all of their exhibits.

11 THE COURT: Why don't we do this so that we don't have 12 a concern. Tomorrow, guys, at some point, if we can go ahead
13 and have even a brief recess, or ideally, it's early, it's not 14 even 5:35, perhaps you guys could send over or identified by 15 label what you guys are going to be showing Mr. Furman so that 16 if there's argument, I hear it in the morning. I think that's 17 the safest thing. Because we could have a major situation that 18 you bust out a document that he's been sitting on in a laptop
19 for six months. I mean, I'm telling you, I mean, it also hurts
20 you because then I'm going to have more adverse inferences.

21 I don't want to have to sanction anybody. I want to 22 get ahead of it. So why don't you guys look at the universe of 23 exhibits you believe are fair game. And at least show them --
24 if you want to do it tomorrow morning early, I don't care. But 25 I just want to avoid a situation where something that you

1 believe has been produced was in that laptop and was never
2 shown. That's -- because there's a lot of exhibits, and I can
3 see something making its way out there that we weren't 4 expecting.

5 MS. BERLIN: Is it possible to get a list of the 6 exhibits they have that came from the laptop -- came from the 7 laptop? Because then we know it's at issue and we can take you
8 at your word for it.

9 THE COURT: I don't know if they know what's coming
10 from where.

11 MR. HYMAN: That's the biggest problem we have,
12 Your Honor, because the exhibit --

13 MS. BERLIN: I was talking.

14 THE COURT: One at a time. One at a time.
15 Just let me hear what he was going to say.

16 MS. BERLIN: Okay. Sure.

17 MR. HYMAN: The exhibit list was originally, as you
18 recall, 2500 documents, which approximately, I think like 30 to 19 50 were Furman documents. We can happily identify on the 20 exhibit list the Furman based documents that were added, the 21 ones that we kind of added ourselves to the list. And from 22 there we can try to narrow the universe. The rest of them were 23 just -- the other defendants put them in.

24 MS. BERLIN: Well, did the other defendants have 25 access to the laptop? If they didn't --

1 THE COURT: I don't know that they know and I don't
2 know.

3 MR. HYMAN: We all know --

4 MS. BERLIN: Mr. Hyman has been on this case for a
5 while. I mean --

6 THE COURT: Did you know?

7 MS. BERLIN: -- (cross-talking) he just came on the 8 case.

9 THE COURT: So there's nothing -- there should be
10 nothing in the exhibit list that came from the laptop no one
11 has seen. So you've got to double check that. I don't want
12 you to say -- if you don't know, it's okay.

13 MR. HYMAN: The answer is, I don't believe so.
14 However, it's easy to solve because there's only about 50
15 documents that came. On the 50, maybe, a hundred documents
16 that came from the laptop or from there Furman.

17 THE COURT: I think -- yeah. Be careful, because I
18 don't think if they came from a laptop. They came from 19 Mr. Furman. I don't know where they came from.

20 MR. HYMAN: Whether or not, we can check the drive of 21 SEC production.

22 MS. BERLIN: Just ask Mr. Furman, where did you get 23 this? Is it from your laptop? And if so, why don't we just 24 come into tomorrow morning having everybody know what's from 25 the laptop. Because what we've been going is through 2300

1 exhibits and trying to figure out what we don't have, which is
2 ridiculous when they can just ask Mr. Furman, Hey, what did you
3 give us as a trial exhibit that came from your laptop?

4 THE COURT: Well, it sounds like the exhibits that are
5 even relevant to Furman are about 40 to 50. I mean, that's 6 what I'm hearing. I don't know if that's accurate. So I think
7 it's not too bad that if you take the 30 to 50 out and we check
8 with him and you cross-reference it, then we can find out are 9 these documents that came from the OneDrive that everybody
10 knows about, or these came from the laptop, and that way if 11 there's maybe one or two documents in there that no one has 12 ever seen, we can make sure that the SEC sees it. And then I
13 can make a ruling so that there's no surprise. That's all.
14 It's just more to protect a clean record when he gets up there,
15 it's not chopped up with something and then I have to give an 16 instruction.

17 MS. BERLIN: I just want to be clear, the OneDrive
18 they produced to the receiver. We -- they got -- I don't even 19 know if we ever got it.

20 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I misspoke then. I thought
21 that the OneDrive was something that we had all seen. I'm 22 sorry.

23 MS. BERLIN: The receiver got to check. They are not
24 the same -- you know, the receiver --

25 THE COURT: Understood. But, Mr. Kolaya, I don't want

1 to misstate it. So the OneDrive I know you guys did get access
2 to, right? The receiver did.

3 MR. KOLAYA: We obtained access. When we took over
4 United Fidelis, we were able to gain access to the OneDrive.
5 And that is something -- we have a forensic copy as of July
6 27th, 2020. But just to be clear, that was not necessarily
7 produced to all parties. It wasn't requested from us.

8 THE COURT: From you guys. Okay.

9 MR. KOLAYA: Just one other clarification.
10 Mr. Furman, to the best of my knowledge, has not produced any 11 documents. To the extent that some documents were made
12 available, it was the receiver taking control over the computer
13 systems of United Fidelis.

14 MS. BERLIN: He's produced zero.

15 THE COURT: Right. So that's another thing that we 16 need to make sure we understand that Mr. Furman's own
17 production -- which has been stated, that's been stated since
18 the beginning of the case, that Mr. Furman himself has not 19 produced anything.

20 What has been made available is because there's been
21 the receiver's involvement in seizing things that had Furman
22 documents. And that's how these things have gotten out there.
23 Again, all the more reason why if there are documents Furman
24 gave you guys, they could very easily not be documents in the 25 control of the receiver or documents that anyone has ever seen.

1 So we need to be very careful tomorrow. I think the
2 best situation is to take whatever 30 or 50 documents you guys
3 have referenced and make sure that you go through them, check
4 with Furman about where they came from, and honestly confer
5 with the SEC beforehand so that the document that I've never 6 seen -- I just -- I really think we should be able to avoid the 7 scenario where you guys attempt to introduce a document that no
8 one has ever seen. That's all I'm trying to avoid.

9 If you show me something and we can argue about it
10 beforehand and I can make a ruling, that's much better than 11 having it come up in the middle of Furman's testimony, then I
12 have to take a recess, excuse the jury, and we have to argue
13 about it.

14 So the best thing we can do to have clean production
15 is do the 30 to 50 and then I can rule, overrule the use of 16 those documents, guys. You have to go through it and make sure 17 that you know exactly what's there, because if you relied on 18 Furman, I don't know where they could have come from. They 19 could come from other sources than Mr. Furman. So that's the 20 problem.

21 MS. BERLIN: His laptop.

22 THE COURT: Or his laptop. You have to check. I
23 don't know.

24 MR. HYMAN: The only caveat, Your Honor, is that 25 Mr. Furman is currently having dental surgery. So we will do

1 our best to assess and verify the source of the documents, but
2 obviously if -- and we understand that we don't have them ready
3 or discussed with the SEC beforehand, that we have got to live
4 and die by that situation. That's fine. I just wanted to --

5 THE COURT: No, listen, you've got to do your best to 6 try to communicate with him before tomorrow morning. We have a
7 little bit of extra time. We're not going to start until 8 10:00, but I urge everybody that what I don't want to have 9 happen is we find out that we have 25 documents that no one has 10 ever seen and they appear, and I can only tell you that I'm 11 going to have no choice but to prevent their admission.

12 And that's all I'm going to be able to do. So I don't 13 want you guys to be surprised if I say none of this stuff is 14 inadmissible because I've made rulings on it now, we have 15 rulings in the scheduling orders, we have exchange of exhibit
16 protocols. If these things come out of nowhere, I'm not 17 letting them in.

18 So it could really damage your ability to put on a
19 successful cross or direct next week. So your best bet is to 20 try to get as much confirmation from Mr. Furman about these 21 documents.

22 And I would quite honestly think that -- I know that 23 you guys may think you're avoiding the element of surprise or 24 rehabilitation, but I strongly believe that trying to meet and 25 confer with the SEC on these documents is the best course so

1 that we don't have anything blow up during the examination.

2 MR. HYMAN: I don't even think there's going to be
3 that many documents that aren't already on the SEC's list
4 anyway.

5 THE COURT: I can't think of that many things either
6 because we have a lot of the notes in there and we have talked
7 about the Fidelis offering. So hopefully it's pretty
8 streamlined, but you never know. I don't know exactly what's 9 on the list. Okay. So we have a fairly clean game plan. You
10 guys have some homework to do on the exhibits. The Court's got 11 both transcript -- I'm going to get an abridged little cheat
12 sheet here for the RFAs.

13 MS. BERLIN: Yes.

14 THE COURT: And I have of course the full set with the 15 documents here. I don't think I need anything else.

16 Can I get just for scheduling purposes, obviously, if 17 we finish with Furman tomorrow and we ultimately don't call the 18 individual, other than recalling Furman, does the defense have 19 a sense of how many witnesses you plan on calling next week in 20 your case? Just ballpark. I'll trying to think ahead more for 21 my trial schedule and for jurors' time for next week.

22 What do we think we have in terms of volume, even if 23 you give me a range?

24 MR. HYMAN: I think we'll probably maybe four to 25 seven.

1 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

2 MR. HYMAN: You know, I'd have to go back to see what
3 happened and see what's kind of in the case or not in the case
4 when we go, and then we'll deal with it from there.

5 THE COURT: But that gives me enough guidance. Four 6 to seven to me probably indicates that we're closing on 7 Wednesday. I think at the outside range, that sounds about 8 right. I think that we should target that. And quite 9 honestly, if you call less than that and we finish early, we're
10 still going to need -- at least I estimate, I don't know --
11 maybe an hour or two, probably at least two to get through 12 charging conference to get these instructions because they're 13 lengthy and we're going to have issues on adverse inference.
14 So we can use the time.

15 So let's say you call six and I'm done by noon on 16 Tuesday. I still expect to go through all the jury
17 instructions and let you guys close on Wednesday. But I wanted
18 to get ahead of it so we all kind of know what the schedule is.
19 I think Wednesday is a realistic target is what I'm hearing.

20 MS. BERLIN: I think so too. And I think with the 21 jury instructions, I believe that both sides were still working
22 on edits. So we'll get that to the work.

23 THE COURT: You don't have to worry about that now.
24 But if I could by Monday or Tuesday get a revised in Word, then
25 I can -- and I can see where the objections are -- because I

1 know that you guys are going to agree at least some of the 2 preliminary stuff, the statement of claims and all of that.

3 MS. BERLIN: Mostly they're patterned jury
4 instructions.

5 THE COURT: Most of them are pattern. Almost all of 6 them are pattern. So it shouldn't be that hard just making
7 sure that we get the right set, but I think for purposes of 8 scheduling, targeting a Wednesday closing is probably the best
9 case scenario. And it sounds like we're going to be able to 10 get there no problem.

11 MS. BERLIN: And is Mr. Furman calling -- I mean, I
12 imagine, because we're not going all day tomorrow. We'll 13 finish and then I assume they'll start with their first
14 witness.

15 THE COURT: Yes, that was the next important question
16 I had. Sorry. So settlement. So tomorrow afternoon, who do
17 we have that you can call in the afternoon to make the most of 18 our time? Because we'll probably -- I can almost guarantee I
19 won't have you call anybody until after lunch, because Furman
20 will probably take the morning.

21 So can I get -- at least of this four to seven, can we 22 knock out one or two maybe shorter witnesses in the afternoon?

23 MR. HYMAN: The only reason why we would prefer not
24 to --

25 THE COURT: I know what you would prefer. Listen, I

1 know what you would prefer. I need to hear -- do you have a
2 witness standing by or available that could be called tomorrow?

3 MR. HYMAN: We'll check. But also, you told the jury
4 you're letting them out early on Friday afternoon.

5 THE COURT: You really --

6 MS. BERLIN: Come on, Your Honor. We're going to be 7 finished by 11:00.

8 THE COURT: I don't think you get my sense of humor at 9 all, do you? Or maybe the lack of humor that I have when I
10 discuss scheduling around my courtroom. You need to really try
11 to listen to what I'm saying here. This isn't a game. I'm not
12 going to -- you're going to tell me that I'm going to leave
13 them to go early? Going early doesn't mean leaving at noon. I
14 could get a witness knocked out from one of your lists. Who do
15 you have? Do you have anybody on Zoom that I could call? You
16 don't have anybody on standby on Zoom?

17 MR. HYMAN: I can check, Your Honor. Let us confer, 18 see who we want to call as our first witness, then go from
19 there.

20 THE COURT: Let me put it this way: You better have 21 at least one witness available tomorrow. You better have one
22 or you may be closing tomorrow. Or you'll put on Furman again
23 in your case in chief. You'll have him testify in the morning,
24 and you'll call him again. You are going to call Furman,
25 right. So I can make it simple for you.

1 Here is your option for tomorrow: You have one of two
2 options. Either you get me a witness to call tomorrow
3 afternoon or you're going to call your own witness. He'll 4 testify for them in the morning. They'll rest. And then
5 you're going to call Furman, and Furman will testify all day.
6 And I'll knock out Furman tomorrow. He's here. I know he's
7 available. So you figure out how you want to do it.

8 And you know what, I bet the jury will be so thankful
9 that even if I don't leave them out early, that I've advanced
10 the ball a little bit. So I strongly recommend you get me at 11 least one witness available in the afternoon. It could be a 12 short one. But I'd like to knock out one on my list so that at 13 least if I let him go, I'm letting him go 4 o'clock, 3 o'clock,
14 but not wasting a whole half day.

15 Because I really think Furman will be done in the 16 morning. I think from 10:00 to 12:30 is more than enough time
17 to get Furman done. I can't imagine the direct is even that 18 long.

19 MS. BERLIN: We're brief. We hit -- I think we moved 20 through our witnesses very quickly. So there's no way he's an 21 all day witness. We don't want to lose a half a day. That's 22 absurd.

23 THE COURT: I'm not asking for them to put on six
24 guys. I'm saying get me a witness to make some use of that 25 empty time.

1 MS. BERLIN: Can they let us know by 9 o'clock tonight
2 who they are calling tomorrow so we can prepare? We did that
3 the day before too.

4 THE COURT: I think that's fair. So you guys have 5 until 9 o'clock tonight to decide who you're going to call in 6 the afternoon.

7 MR. HYMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Anything else housekeeping-wise before we
9 wrap up? I think we have a game plan for tomorrow.

10 MS. BERLIN: We do. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: See you all tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. We're 12 all in recess.
