Dear Judge Ruiz

My name is Michael Laude and I am writing this letter also on the behalf of my father Alan Laude. We both were investors of Ag Morgan and Vincent Camarda. As you probably already know, he pleaded guilty to securities fraud. He completely lost all of my family's life savings. My father is about at the age of retirement and now he cannot retire. I have two young daughters and I cannot believe that I'm bringing them into a life of financial stress because I trusted a monster. I am primarily writing this letter to you about the money we invested with him that he invested in PAR Funding. $4 million of my father's money and $630,000 of my money were invested in PAR Funding through Ag Morgan and Vincent Camarda. It was called the AGM Capital Fund I. I have reached out to Mr. Stumphauzer and Mr. Kolaya about the process and putting in a claim to recoup our money. They have been very honest and transparent about what has happened. The only problem is me, my father and the rest of the Ag Morgan clients that were involved in PAR Funding had no idea about the process or deadline to put in a claim. I honestly think the court did not do a fair job with distributing the funds they have collected. I was told they reached out to Vinny and Anthony Zingarelli to put in claims on behalf of their clients and they never did. The courts could have subpoenaed paperwork to get the investors information that were involved. The FBI took all of his paperwork, I am sure you guys could've as well. Now just by using common sense, why would I want my money manager who is a proven criminal and the person who got me involved in this horrific situation, making decisions for me and my financial future. I personally think the courts should've reached out to every single person individually that was invested in PAR Funding and let them decide for themselves on what they wanted to do with their money. If I was notified about any process or deadline about how to recoup my money that was placed in a Ponzi scheme, I would've done so. My main priority is to take care of my family, but if I'm being honest, I am a good person, and everyone that was involved and invested in PAR Funding should have an equal opportunity to recoup their money. I am not sure how it is fair and just to have some investors getting 93% whole and others getting zero. I am pretty sure the point of all of this being in the court system is to do the right thing by the victims. Getting people back their money that was robbed should be the main goal here. If I provide proof that my money was invested in PAR Funding shouldn't I have the right to be on the claims list as well? My family has lost everything due to Vincent Camarda's criminal action. I cannot just stand here and be told no, I cannot be involved because there was a deadline I missed. A deadline date that I knew nothing about, and a process I knew nothing about until January 2026. I have contacted a few lawyers and asked them what they think of this situation and all they want to do is charge me money that I don't have anymore and they tell me that it's most likely a losing proposition. I really can't believe I'm in the position to be begging for my own money back. The victims of AG Morgan have done nothing wrong and should be treated fairly just like the class 1, 2, and 3 claimants. I really hope you could find it in your heart to help us. We are innocent people that invested with a criminal and you could be the person to help us with this devastation. Whatever you need me to do I will do. I am going to also include the account summary from AG Morgan to show the amount that we invested in the AGM Capital Fund I account which is PAR Funding. Mr. Kolaya told me it's worth a shot to reach out to you and he couldn't advise me further. So this is me begging you to do the right thing by innocent victims in this horrible situation. I look forward to hearing from you and your response. It's basically all I think about every day. Please do not disregard us because of a deadline we did not know about. I appreciate your time. Thank you.

Michael Laude
